Food Prices Top Peak; Still Rising

Eggs At $1 A Dozen, Butter And Meat At $1 A Pound Predicted; Consumers Advised To Adjust To Substitutes; Chairman Of Meat Institute Terms It "Major" Catastrophe

Chicago, Sept. 5—(AP)—The nation's principal commodity markets cast lengthening shadows over family household budgets today in a dizzy whirl of rising prices.

With most staple foods at high peak for the year and certain to go still higher, the consumer was advised to adjust to substitutes, such as spaghetti, and to shop around for cheaper cuts of meat. Only fresh fruits and vegetables were holding at steady prices.

Some observers predicted that unless "consumer resistance" shows up in the market places eggs in New York will soar to $1 a dozen, butter and meat $1 a pound. Such grains and corn and oats sold in futures trading yesterday at new record high prices in the 99-year history of the Chicago Board of Trade.

John Kraey, chairman of the American Meat Institute, said a "major catastrophe" is striking this country and a hungry world because of the drastic reduction in this year's corn production.

In anticipation of further advancing prices of grain, one Chicago broker reported that what producers were withholding some of their 1947 crop from market channels.

The midwestern drought which sharply curtailed corn crop prospects was an important factor in meat prices but in virtually all other commodity exchanges the trend was sharply upward, including cocoa, sugar, hides, cotton, cotseed oil and coffee. Some of these already were at record high quotations.

Butter was selling at 87 cents a pound retail in New York where Eugene Schultz, City Market, Commissioner, predicted it would climb further because of short supplies. He said "only slight consumer resistance" against the high prices had appeared there.

Eggs for delivery in October and butter for delivery in November and January were at record quotations for these particular deliveries in Chicago. October eggs brought 54.65 cents a dozen yesterday, while butter for November delivery was quoted at 73.95 cents a pound and the January delivery at 76.00 cents. One grade of butter and eggs were up around 20 cents wholesale over prices of last April.

Hog prices advanced as much as 75 cents a hundredweight to $28.50 at Chicago yesterday. There were no strictly choice cattle offerings but a record September price of $33 a hundredweight had been paid for cattle within the past week.

Heat Wave In August

Past Month One Of Hottest On Record; September Still Glows; An Unusual Summer; Crops Affected By Weather; People And Animals Took A Beating

By MAX HALL

Washington, Sept. 5—(AP)—Most of this country had an awful August, one of the hottest on record. People and animals took a beating. So did corn and cotton. Many factories shut down. Thus the weather once more influenced economic life.

The Weather Bureau has not yet collected the full temperature picture for August. But some reports are arriving. Illinois reported the hottest August on record. So did Columbus, Ohio.

Other states and cities throughout the vast middle of America may soon report they had a record-breaking August. The East and South had it bad, too. The West Coast didn't suffer as much.

This whole summer was unusual in most of the country, including the corn and wheat regions. It started out wet and cold, and ended up dry and scorching.

There had been a cold, rainy spring, and the cold and rain continued into June. Midwestern rivers overflowed—the Mississippi, the Missouri, the Des Moines, Raccoon, Platte, Grand, Blue. They tore millions of dollars worth of soil out of the farmlands and washed it to the sea.

In July the rains slackened. The weather got warmer but it was still cooler than normal in the Midwest. Then came August. It was like walking into a furnace room. Huge areas forgot how rain fell.

In Kansas City, Missouri, there were 27 days in August when the mercury went over 90. There were 31 days when it was 100 or over.

CIO LEADERS DELAY ACTION ON AFFIDAVITS

Ignore September 25 Deadline; Issue Will Be Taken Up In Convention

Pittsburgh, Sept. 5—(AP)—Ranking CIO leaders will wait until their Oct. 13 convention at Boston before taking any action to comply with the Taft-Hartley Labor Law requirement that union officials file non-communist affidavits prior to Sept. 25.

That flat announcement was contained in a bitterly-worded statement issued by the CIO executive board here yesterday after a conference with CIO-President Philip Murray.

Immediate effect of the union leader's decision was not determined but Robert H. Denham, General Counsel of the NLRB, has indicated that unless affidavits are filed by all the nation's labor leaders before the deadline nearly 15,000,000 workers will be denied use of the NLRB.

Murray did not give any elaboration of the board's decision but at a news conference after the meeting said that the CIO's steelworkers union has held 10 elections independent of the NLRB in the last two weeks.

Until this announcement both the CIO and the AFL had kept the NLRB in the dark as to whether the government agency could expect to do a rushing business under terms of the Taft-Hartley law or none at all.

The CIO statement sharply attacked the new labor law.

"The brief period that the Taft-Hartley act has been in operation has revealed the incalculable harm which this vicious law has and will continue to develop.

"Many of the CIO International Unions have already determined their policy to be one of endeavoring to settle their problems through collective bargaining without becoming enmeshed in the unworkable machinery of the act."

Sanford Plant Razed By Fire

Sanford, N.C., Sept. 5—(AP)—The Sanford Milling Company was razed by fire yesterday and damage was estimated at around $300,000.

The plant consisted of the flour mill, feed mill, storage warehouses for feed and grain elevators. All the buildings and machinery were destroyed except three grain elevators.

Cause of the fire had not been definitely determined today.

Forrestal Warns Of Totalitarian Goals

Smaller Nations Feeling "Iron Fist" Says Secretary Of Defense; Point Out U. S. Policy To "Recreate" Nomal World

Cleveland, Sept. 5—(AP)—James Forrestal, newly named secretary of defense, warned last night of totalitarian governments which he said were trying to "put the iron fist" on smaller nations.

Without naming any country, he told the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their 48th annual encampment: "Totalitarian governments, reflecting not the will of the peoples that they govern but of groups of ruthless and ambitious men within and without the country, are endeavoring to put the same iron fist on others."

Deploping what he called "excessive use of the veto," he said it had hampered the United Nations and limited U. S. attempts "to resolve the menace and dissolve the fear that lies in the atomic bomb."

Forrestal assured the veterans that U. S. foreign policy was designed to "recreate a normal world" and outlined these moves which he felt proved this:

1. Fifteen billion dollars of American money sent abroad in the last two years to prevent famine and "to provide hope for desperate millions throughout the world.

2. The Marshall Plan, inviting countries of Europe to consider their own needs on a common basis. "The actions," he said, "are not the actions of a nation that desires war. They do not indicate a ruthless and cynical quest for power.

"On the contrary, they reflect a deep and sincere desire to do the American utmost to re-create a normal world in which men may again go about their way of making a living, in peace x x x."

French Assembly Backs Ramadier In Test Vote

Paris, Sept. 5—(AP)—Premier Paul Ramadier won a vote of confidence today in the National Assembly, which also approved the government's program of subsidies for the coal industry by a margin of 50 votes.

The vote was 292 for the motion of confidence, 243 against. It was the fifth vote of confidence Ramadier has received since becoming premier in January.

The Communists and a sprinkling of rightist and centrist deputies formed the opposition to the measure, which authorized the government to grant 4,550,000,000 francs ($33,500,000) in subsidies to hold down prices in the coal industry.

Although the threat of a government crisis was thus eased, labor still was agitating politically against the soaring cost of living.

Expect Board To Cancel Contract

Lenoir, Sept. 5—(AP)—Caldwell County Board of Education at a meeting here tonight is expected to cancel a contract with Hudson School Principal R. L. Fritz, Jr., whose teaching certificate was revoked last month by the State Board of Education following a probe of payroll irregularities.

Action by the board will follow a refusal late yesterday by the State board in Raleigh to rescind its revocation of Fritz's certificate.

FINE SPIRIT OF NEW TEACHERS PRAISED HERE

ECTC And Students Take Forward Step; Observe Opening Of City Schools

On the campus of East Carolina Teachers College this week there, have been nine earnest young women, prospective students teaching in Greenville schools, who returned for the opening of the city schools. These practice teachers sacrificed part of their vacation to receive first hand the experience of the indoctrination period for students and teachers which is a part of opening schools each fall.

A college faculty member described as a "forward step" on the part of the college and the students this new program by which the prospective teachers have an opportunity to experience the opening of a school grade before they become fully credited teachers in the schools of the state.

In the past years student teachers at the college have been working during the latter part of September after the city schools have been in session for almost a month. Today ended a week of intensive work for the student teachers, studying school records, daily activities, observing children at work, and getting first hand the "brekking in" of children at the beginning of school.

Student teachers who have been doing this work in the city schools are Misses Marian Early of Aulander, Margery L. Thomas of Warsaw, Mary Lou Daniel of Stem, Jocelyn Moore of Delco, Nancy Dilday of Abie, Ann C. Cates of Durham, Ruth Langdon of Coates, Francis Gardner of R. P. D. 1 Pikeville, and Annie Thompson Cates of Hurdle Mills.

Washburn, Sept. 5—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) said today he sees no need for a special session of Congress on the European economic crisis. He added that the decision however, is up to President Truman.

Vandenberg, who is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and handles legislation dealing with foreign affairs, held his first news conference since returning from the Inter-American Security Conference at Petropolis, Brazil.

Questioned on the outlook, Vandenberg said: "I have no information on the subject. There is no word from the State Department or the White House about a special session since the day President Truman said none would be necessary."

Vandenberg said the reporters asking about a special session were "putting the cart before the horse."

Kathleen Nash Durant Conviction Is Voided

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 5—(AP)—Former WAC Captain Kathleen Nash Durant, 43, was one step nearer freedom today with a court decision voiding her court-martial conviction in the Hesse crown jewel theft.

U. S. District Judge Ben Moore ruled yesterday that Mrs. Durant was a civilian at the time of her arrest and that an Army court-martial lacked jurisdiction in sentencing her to five years in prison. There was no final order directing Mrs. Durant's release from the Federal Penitentiary for Women in Alderson, W. Va. This will be prepared by opposing counsel and submitted to Judge Moore for his approval.

U. S. District Attorney Leslie E. Given said that should the government file objections to the final order, the court might or might not order Mrs. Durant's release.

She was convicted by an Army tribunal in Germany of participating in the theft of $1,500.00 worth of the Hesse crown jewels from Kronberg Castle, Germany. Her husband, ex-Colonel Jack W. Durant, was sentenced to 15 years.

Judge Moore emphasized he was not ruling on Mrs. Durant's guilt or innocence, but said the court-martial "lacked jurisdiction" because Mrs. Durant was "an officer on inactive duty."

Testimony at her habeas corpus hearing July 14 said Mrs. Durant went on terminal leave March 9, 1946; received a War Department telegram, recalling her to active duty, on May 29, one day before her terminal leave expired May 30, and was arrested by military police June 3, 1946.

Judge Moore said "petitioner's terminal leave orders were never effectively revoked and that by their self-executing provisions she was finally and formally separated from the service on May 30, 1946."

Water Shortage May Halt Industry In Winston-Salem Predict Officials

Winston-Salem, N.C., Sept. 5—(AP)—Unnamed officials predicted today that the wheels of Winston-Salem's industry might be brought to a stop within a month unless the desperate water shortage is alleviated.

As these officials, who asked that they not be quoted by name, were making predictions, Winston-Salem's water supply grew smaller and smaller despite emergency laws enacted last week and the inauguration of an emergency pipeline from a creek.

"We're using about 7,000,000 gallons of water a day more than we're getting in, and unless conservation measures show more savings—the city has continued to fall until the surface today is almost 116 inches below the crest of the dam,

President Truman Speaks Before Brazilian Congress

Inter-American Treaty Called Example For UN

Marshall And Vandenberg Hail Successful Conference As Pattern For United Nations; Indirect Slaps At Soviet

Washington, Sept. 5—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall today held forth the new inter-American security pact as the outstanding post-war example of how nations can join together to promote world peace.

Marshall who will present the treaty to the United Nations Assembly two weeks hence, and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) hailed it in a radio broadcast last night as a pattern for the U. N. to follow in its quest for worldwide security.

Throughout the talks of both men an implied criticism of Russia and the Soviet attitude toward international cooperation.

Marshall declared that the results of the conference at Petropolis, Brazil, in which the treaty was drafted and signed "demonstrated, I think beyond doubt, that where nations are sincerely desirous of promoting the peace and well-being of the world it can be done."

He added that "it can be done without frustrating delays and without much of the confusing and disturbing propaganda that has at-

Pledges Anew Full Backing Of United States To U. N.; Terms Hemispheric Defense Agreement A "Splendid" Achievement And A Good Example To Rest Of World

Rio De Janeiro, Sept. 5—(AP)—President Truman today pledged anew the full backing of the United States to the United Nations and expressed confidence the problems of peace can be solved with mutual good will and forbearance.

Speaking before a joint session of the Brazilian Congress in Tiradentes Palace, Mr. Truman also hailed as "splendid" the achievement of the recent inter-American conference in reaching agreement on defense of the Western Hemisphere.

Brazil and the United States, he said, must continue to cooperate with other countries of the hemisphere "in the development of a strong and concerted force for the good of mankind."

Mr. Truman noted that the two nations have been "spared the wanton destruction and dislocation" of war. He said he is certain they will be faithful to a great trust on which depend the lives and liberty of so many millions of disillusioned and discouraged people."

The address was Mr. Truman's second on Brazilian soil this week. In his first, he told the inter-American conference Tuesday that the U. S. is determined to remain ever strong and fulfill its obligations to the United Nations. He also expressed belief that postwar disputes can be settled without armed conflict.

Continuing on that theme in his address to the Brazilian Congress, Mr. Truman termed the defense agreement as an illustration "to the world that men can put aside their individual prejudices for the benefit of the world. Asserting the problems of peace still lie ahead of us, and are more difficult than we could have anticipated. Mr. Truman proclaimed anew the U. S. determination that the U. N. must be made to succeed despite the difficulties that have so far beset its development.

"The United Nations is not a temporary expedient," Mr. Truman said. "It is a permanent partnership—a partners-hip among the peoples of the world for their common peace and common well being.

"The difficulties that we have encountered in this early phase in the life of the United Nations have not discouraged us."

"On the contrary they have increased our determination that it shall succeed.

"The United States is resolved to support the United Nations with all the resources at our command."

Bevin Lost Prestige

American Admirers Of Britain's Foreign Minister Turn Deaf Ear To Plan Of Gold Redistribution; Meanwhile, Outcome Of Nationalization Program In Doubt

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Britain's dynamic foreign minister and labor leader, Ernest Bevin, has many American admirers but he doesn't appear to have added to their admiration by his astonishing recommendation that, in the interests of world economic rehabilitation, the U. S. redistribute abroad the huge gold reserve now buried at Fort Knox, Ky.

Mr. Bevin made his proposal in a speech before the British Trades Union Congress, and he prefaced it with the remark that he knew America would be "upset" by what he was about to say. He was right in anticipating strong reaction but wrong in his estimate of the nature of the reaction. It takes more than that to "upset" the United States. However, it isn't overstating the case to say that America was flabbergasted at the proposal. Washington Treasury officials said it was "cockeyed." One said: "If other countries want our gold, they can have it—the same way we got it from them—by laying the money on the line at our price of $35 an ounce."

However, that may not be the end of the exchange of words. An authoritative American source in London tells us that Bevin's idea is that redistribution of the Fort Knox gold should be an integral part of the Marshall Plan. So we may hear more about the matter. Meantime the proposal has served to center American attention on the difficulties which England's new Socialist government is encountering in dealing with its own grave economic crisis. How much is Britain depending on Fort Knox gold to pull it through? Just how is the Atlee government's own program working out? Can socialist nationalization cope with the crisis? Those are logical questions which the British public itself is anxiously studying.

Nationalization of the country's most important industry—coal mining—hasn't brought Utopia to the mines. Some half a hundred York's shire pits are closed as the result of wildcat strikes which have thrown about 60,000 men out of work and have greatly aggravated the critical fuel shortage. The walk-out has caused a loss of 300,000 tons of coal and the loss is continuing at the rate of 60,000 tons daily.

The result is that production in other industries has been curtailed, and the effect of the coal shortage is being felt throughout the country. The dispute may soon force 2,400 Yorkshire industrial plants, employing over 100,000 workers, to shut down for lack of fuel.

The strike started among 2,800 miners in one pit. The National Coal Board ordered them to dig two feet more of coal each day in the interests of recovery. The miners claimed that this would create an occupational hazard without increasing production. They struck, and other pits walked out in sympathy. They had their Socialist government; they had nationalization; they had a five day week; but they wanted their Utopia now.

Continuation of this stoppage of vitally needed coal production can come close to wrecking Britain's (Continued on Page Four)

Highway Patrolman Ordered Stand Trial

Bound Over To October Term Of Cleveland County Superior Court On Murder Charges Growing Out Of Fatal Shooting

Shelby, N.C., Sept. 5—(AP)—State Highway Patrolman Haroldis Dayton was ordered bound over to the October term of Cleveland County Superior Court today on murder charges growing out of the fatal shooting of Cherryville Police Chief Carl Short near Kings Mountain Aug. 19.

The patrolman was released under $25,000 bond.

County recorder W. L. Angel ordered Dayton held after two witnesses, one of them the dead chief's daughter, testified that Short was shot as he stood in the middle of the highway with his hands at his side.

The charge was brought against Dayton, 25, by Short's daughter, Mrs. Verta Short Lubianezki, after a coroner's jury, which heard testimony that the patrolman fired in self-defense, termed the shooting "justifiable homicide.

The defense, as is customary, offered no testimony at the hearing today.

Mrs. Lubianezki testified that she had been with her father for four hours preceding his shooting and that he was sober. She said her father was stopped near Kings Mountain by the patrolman who asked for his driver's license and it was given to him. When the patrolman asked for his registration papers, she testified, the police chief asked: "Do you think that the chief of (Continued on Page Four)

Hospital Supporters In Grifton Hear Speaker

A representative gathering of people of the Grifton community last night exhibited an enthusiastic interest in the proposed $900,000 hospital for Pitt County at a talk made by County Hospital Chairman John G. Clark.

With the registering period for the hospital bond election ending Saturday, Clark emphasized the importance of the people of the county voting to the polls to register, and then to vote on election day, September 16. The hospital chairman in his talk pointed out several facts which clarify many questions which have been asked throughout the county during the last few weeks.

(1) Pitt County will have to pay only $351,000 for the $900,000 project. The remaining $549,000 will be given to the county as a free grant from the state and federal governments. (2) There will be no connection between the management of the new hospital and that of the present Pitt General Hospital. (3) Any licensed doctor in the county will be allowed to practice in the new hospital. (4) The new hospital will include a nursing school, Pitt County's first since 1931. (5) A board of trustees to be appointed by the county commissioners will determine and enforce the policies and rules for the hospital.

In the Grifton community, which forms the outer rim between Pitt and Lenoir Counties, the hospital project has received more wholehearted support than in any other section of the county. Clark said last night. During a discussion period in the meeting in Grifton W. I. Bissette, Dr. Tucker, Cecil Cobb, W. C. Chauncey, Vance Wall, Thurman Williams, Harry Oglesby and other prominent citizens of the community spoke favorably for the new hospital and pledged their community's support to the project.

Bissette stated that 140 citizens have registered in Grifton for the special election, and some 75 more are expected to register before the registration books are closed Saturday night.

Saturday ends a four week registration period for the hospital bond election.

Provost, member of the firm, Craven Wholesale Grocery Company, New Bern, and driver of his own truck, testified that he had previously passed under the trestle and cleared it with a heavy load, and that on the return trip to New Bern, with the empty truck sitting high on the springs, he approached the trestle cautiously; that the top of his van collided with it; that he backed up and stopped, examined the trestle and reasonably believed it had not been damaged. He said the top of his van was damaged several dollars' worth.

Inquest Tonight Into Shotgun Death Of Negro

By CHESTER WALSH
Coroner Griffin H. Rouse will hold an inquest at the City Hall at 7:30 tonight into the shotgun slaying of James Ward, 30-year-old Negro, last Saturday afternoon by Joseph Frank Hopkins, 28-year-old Negro truck driver, while Ward was attacking him with a pistol in his own home.

Police quoted Hopkins as saying he shot Ward in self-defense. Witnesses told police that Hopkins urged Ward, who was drunk and disorderly, to go on home and not get into trouble. Ward resented it and chased Hopkins to the porch of a Negro dwelling near First and Cotanche Streets and attacked him with a knife. When Hopkins dodged the blade, it entered the side of the house and the point broke off. Hopkins used his fist to knock Ward off the porch. Ward left with a warning that he was "coming back and kill you."

Hopkins went to his home nearby. Neighbors warned him that Ward was coming with a pistol. Police said Ward fired several shots into the house, one bullet grazing Hopkins.

Hopkins then shot him with a shotgun. Ward fell to the porch mortally wounded and fired two more shots after he fell. He died several hours later at a hospital.

Hopkins reported to "Bluejay" Edwards, warehouseman, what had happened and then surrendered to police. Edwards furnished nominal bond and Hopkins was released.

Strength FOR THE DAY

TRUTH DAWNS SLOWLY

There is a very beautiful story taught in the gospel narrative of how our Lord on one occasion laid his hands on the eyes of a blind man and healed him. The healing seems to have been progressive.
After the first touch, Jesus asked the man if he could see, and the reply was, "I see men as trees walking." After Jesus had laid his hands a second time on the man's eyes, he was able to see everybody and everything clearly.

This narrative is among other things, a parable of how our spiritual sight is often restored. Perhaps we have felt ourselves blind to all those moral values for which the Christian gospel stands. Then one day something happens through the ministry of this gospel which causes us to see things in a way which constitutes a considerable change of outlook. We begin to comprehend spiritual truth but not clearly. We see men as trees walking.
We are not entirely blind to spiritual truth but it is hazy, indistinct, far from satisfying. Then a further touch from the hand of Christ causes us to see the principles of the gospel and our duty with reference to them quite clearly.
We should not get discouraged if we have religious doubt or if the desires of the flesh appear to us emancipated and convincing. Revelation and divine truth often comes gradually—first we see men as trees walking; then all things clearly.

Reporter Takes To Air In Navy Plane Short Hop

By CHESTER WALSH
It was a thrilling experience yesterday afternoon for a reporter to fly in a two-place SNJ-4 Navy trainer plane to Kinston and look that town and the countryside over with Gene West of Greenville as pilot, and then get back in time to accompany him to a Junior Chamber of Commerce supper meeting.

There is such a "feeling of security" in a plane up in the air, automobiles and trucks hurtle along passing in an out on the highways below. Incidentally, it's a lot cooler up about 2,000 feet on a hot September afternoon than on the ground. Cloud-hopping in that former Navy plane was more comfortable than riding in a Pullman. The inter-communications phone system is a great trick. The back-seat driver can do all the talking he wants to, and all the pilot has to do is "listen." Cruising speed is 150 miles an hour, and there were no highway cops up there. West is an ardent aviator and a veteran pilot. He owns the Navy SNJ-4 plane and a smaller ship, an Aescapa Champion. West is manager of the P. S. West Construction Company of Statesville and Greenville. The company has the contract for the new A. and P. supermarket building being erected on Dickinson avenue. He uses the plane to make business trips to other cities and to commute between here and the main office in Statesville. His wife is the former Vivian Smith, who was a school teacher at Pitt county. The West company built the Cannon-McGowan tobacco warehouse, with 139,000 feet of floor space, considered to be one of the best warehouses in Eastern Carolina.

Nervous indigestion had him afraid to eat hardly anything, States Asheville Citizen
"I found Retonga to be the best medicine I ever used and I never miss an opportunity to tell others about it," gratefully declares Mr. F. W. Branson, well-known resident of 32 Cumberland Ave., Asheville, N. C.
"I began to suffer from indigestion about two years ago and it got worse until I was afraid to eat hardly anything at all," continued Mr. Branson. "My appetite got poor and my stomach and gas pains set in after practically every meal. I began to lose sleep and I felt as tired every morning as I did when I went to bed. I had to use strong laxatives and this seemed to weaken me still further. I lost several pounds and didn't seem to have half my normal strength left."
"I did not expect Retonga to relieve me like it did. My appetite has returned, I have regained ten pounds, and I sleep fine. Retonga relieved the constipation and I feel so much stronger that I never seem to tire out. It would be hard to praise Retonga enough."
Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Bissette's Drug Store—Adv.

Green Phantoms Line Up For Season On Gridiron

By SAM NORTROP
The 1947 edition of the Green Phantoms football squad wound up its third week of practice with a light workout this afternoon at the Third Street School field.
After two weeks of limbering-up exercises and signal drills, the G-Men donned full regalia last Friday and got down to work despite the blistering attacks of "ole Sol."
Ten letters from last year's squad were on hand for the opening scrimmage. The returning linemen are: Paul Stokes, end; Jim Tanner and Ben Roberson, tackles; Bobby Fleming and Al Smith, guards; and Shelley Beard, center. The returning backs are: William McLawhorn, quarterback; Fred Joseph, Billy Goodson and Glynn Perkins, half-backs.

Besides these veterans, Jack and Vann Morgan, new students at GHS, are bolstering the Phantom squad. Jack played first string wingback for the top-flight Elizabeth City Yellow Jackets last year and is playing at the same position for the Farleyemen this season. His brother, Vann, left end for the Greenies this year also played for the Jackets.
To date, there have been no injuries sustained by the squad; but hard-hitting end, Paul Stokes, has been favoring a knee hurt last year. Stokes has been taking it easy late-

Garland Little Hurls Win Against Goldsboro

By BERT MOYE
Lefty Garland Little notched his second win of the season over the Goldsboro Bugs here last night as the Greenies took a 9-3 victory over the fifth place Bues.
The Greenies took the lead in the opening frame by scoring one run, added one more in the third and then struck for seven runs in the fourth frame to turn back Bill Herring's boys.
In the first inning Lee singled, Timm singled, advancing Lee to third and Art Jacobs flew out to deep centerfield with Lee scoring on the out. In the third frame Lee doubled, went to third on Timm's infield out and scored on Jacobs' fly to deep centerfield.
The Greenies really went to town in the fourth when they put across seven runs on three hits, two errors, two walks and a sacrifice fielder's choice. Bomar led off with a double, Lynch reached first on a sacrifice fielder's choice, Ranweiler walked, loading the bases, Marvin Mauney went out second to first with Bomar scoring from third, Lee walked to reload the bases, Timm reached first when Husey dropped the ball at first with Lynch scoring, Jacobs reached first on an error by the pitcher, with Ranweiler scoring. Willie Mauney doubled to bring in Lee and Timm and Bomar singled, his second in the inning, to bring in Jagobs and Willie Mauney.

The Bugs were blanked until the fourth stanza when Jack Husey poled a homer over the centerfield wall—a distance of about 380 feet. Their final two runs came in the seventh when Pepio walked, Lowry singled, Lingle singled scoring Pepio and Bland singled scoring Lowry. Garland Little went the entire route for the Greenies and issued only three free passes to first and struck out eight men. Dave Lingle with a double and a single was the only Bug to get more than one safety off the offerings of Little. Stanley Milankovich receiving credit for the loss.
Tommy Lee, Manager Timm and Jack Bomar with two hits apiece led the nine hit attack off the four Bugs hurlers.

DIAMOND DUST

A total of 464 was given by fans at last night's game as a token of appreciation to the ball players. However, you fans who were not out there last night will have the opportunity to contribute on Saturday night when another collection will be made. Thanks to Chester Walsh for his part in announcing the event, and also thanks to Bryce Sigmon, Jr. and David Pringle, who passed the hat among the spectators. If any business firms would like to make a donation call me at 2958 and I will come by and get same prior to the game tomorrow night.

Speaking of Appreciation Night, it was suggested to the writer of this column last night that the officials of the club give to the ball players the gate receipts taken in on Saturday night after expenses were taken out. It is a fine suggestion and should the officials do this they would have one of the largest crowds of the season on hand for the final game with Wilson.
Eddie Neville, Tarboro's ace left-hander, equalled the Coastal Plain League record for victories in one season as he marked up his 28th triumph with a 3-0 shutout over Wilson last night. New Bern was assured of at least a tie for fourth place when the curtain falls on the Coastal Plain season Sunday as they defeated Rocky Mount 9-4 last night. Through Tuesday night's game, the attendance at Wilson had soared to a total of 133,322, a new record for the Coastal Plain Tobs. Incidentally, the attendance record at the local park, has passed the 60,000 mark.

You Greenville fans will get a last look at the locals here tomorrow night as they play the Wilson Tobs.
