Roaring Hurricane Crashes Into Florida's East Coast

Miami, Fla., Sept. 17.—(AP)—A giant hurricane moved inland across Florida's coast today, headed across the rich truck-farming sectors of the state toward the Gulf of Mexico.

The center of the storm moved over Fort Lauderdale shortly after noon.

In Miami and Palm Beach, winds reached 110 to 120 miles per hour in punishing gusts, and torrents of rain lashed the area in swirling sheets. The Highway Patrol reported one death by electrocution.

Miami Beach virtually was isolated when two causeways to the mainland were closed. Electric power and water were cut off. Several persons were missing in the churning sea.

At West Palm Beach two houses went up in flames as result of broken power lines. Ironically, one house belonged to a fireman. The Red Cross reported between 15,000 and 20,000 huddled in emergency shelters at West Palm Beach, alone.

Hundreds of thousands up and down the coast sought refuge in schools and other public buildings.

Two trains carrying hurricane refugees from the Lake Okechobee region reached Marjory, Fla., safely after difficulties at West Palm Beach. They were consolidated for movement to Sebring.

A dozen commercial planes were smashed like fruit baskets at Miami. Swank Miami Beach was deserted and both causeways across Biscayne Bay were closed. Street travel was dangerous and almost impossible.

Apprehensive citrus growers did all they could to safeguard their crop, but were fearful of disastrous damage in the path of the hurricane.

The wind velocity was less than the record 130 mph recorded in 1915. There was no basis for comparison with the great storm of 1928, when winds were estimated at 150 to 200 miles per hour but were not recorded.

Winds "considerably" above 100 miles per hour beat down trees, broke communications lines and flattened light buildings as the storm mounted in force. Miami had gusts up to 108 miles per hour, and the Coast Guard at West Palm Beach said 120-mile gusts were coming in its installations.

Hoey Supports Further Relief As A Safeguard

Statesville, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Sen. Clyde R. Hoey of North Carolina says the United States must help feed and rehabilitate a war-torn world as "our only safeguard against a world depression which would wreck our own prosperous economy" and perhaps lead to another war.

He struck at what he called "isolationist sentiment being revived in America and expressing itself in opposition to continued aid to suffering and starving people in war-ravaged countries."

The senator spoke yesterday at a regional Lions Club meeting here. "Having spent more than $500,000,000 to win the war," he asserted, "we should not now falter and refuse to invest a few more billion to make secure our peace and make possible a peaceful world."

War Of Political Isms Divided Into Two Parts, The "Strong Arm" Measures In Asia And The Battle Of Words Before UN; Methods Of Combatting Reds

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The war of the political isms now has two "eyes," or focal points of extreme activity, after the early manner of the great hurricane which has been moving dangerously up the Eastern Seaboard of the United States—one eye representing the strong-arm methods being employed in Europe and Asia, and the other the battle of words waging in the assembly of the United Nations.

The conflict in the assembly arises from a concerted offensive by the Western bloc of America against the Eastern bloc, led by Russia. The purpose of the drive is to try to center world attention on Soviet methods of conducting the world revolution for the spread of communism. Those methods comprise not only Red aggression but studied obstruction in the U.N.

Thus far the U.N. has been hamstrung by the persistent use of the veto by the Russians who have been playing hand-ball with this all-powerful measure which originally was intended only for great emergencies. So finally in near desperation the Western democracies have resorted to the tactics of putting Russia and her satellites on the spot for global inspection.

Some observers will question the efficacy of such methods against hard-boiled opponents. Still there have been many indications over the years that the Soviet Union was anxious to be favorably regarded by the outside world.

And why not, since she was trying to sell communism? We had evidence of that desire when Mos-

Three persons aboard a private yacht radioed an SOS, but the Coast Guard said high seas and hurricane winds made rescue impossible.

Prospect of the storm sweeping into the Gulf of Mexico caused hurried evacuation of army air fields, and MacDill Field sent its B-29's to Chanute and Scott Fields.

Smaller planes at Pensacola, Mobile and other exposed points were ordered inland. Hundreds of thousands of persons in the hurricane danger zone fled to public shelters, and huddled in schools, courthouses, federal buildings and hotels while the terrific storm lashed the coast.

An estimated 10,000 persons streamed in a dismal procession through Sebring, Fla., in heading flight from Lake Okechobee lowlands, where 1,500 persons drowned in 1928. The beating winds backed up the waters of the huge, dike-bound lake, and Sheriff John Kirk exclaimed: "I hope to God the dikes hold."

There was no way to estimate probable damage to the rich, populous lower east coast, which annually is the playground of countless tourists. Nor was it evident how badly Florida's $100,000,000 citrus crop would be hit.

Denham Considering Extension Of Affidavit Deadline

Washington, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Robert N. Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, disclosed today that he is considering union appeals for a five-week extension of time to file non-Communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley Act.

Unless Denham grants this leave, thousands of cases pending before the NLRB may be thrown out without further hearing, starting next week.

Denham gave no hint what action he will take, but indicated to a reporter that he will make a decision within a day or two.

Denham has ruled that all top national officers of the AFL or the CIO must sign the non-Communist affidavits specified under the Taft-Hartley law before affiliated unions are eligible to take cases before the NLRB.

He backed up this ruling with a decree that, beginning Sept. 23, (Continued on Page Three)

RICH SQUARE MEN FREED BY JURY'S ACTION

Refuse To Indict Pain In Connection With Attempted Lynching

Warrenton, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—For the second time within the last six weeks, a North Carolina grand jury today refused to return indictments against white defendants in connection with the attempted lynching of a young Negro.

Announcement of one grand jury's action today—which freed two white men—came immediately after Warrenton County Superior Court was convened at 9:35 a.m. The 18-man grand jury had reached its decision last night after court had been recessed until today.

After the announcement, the defendants—Joe Cunningham, assistant theater manager at Rich Square in Northampton County, and Northampton Jailer A. W. Edwards—were called before the bar and Judge W. C. Harris ordered them released.

Solicitor E. R. Tyler said that "I have no other charges against them—not at this time." He did not elaborate.

Cunningham was alleged to have been one of seven masked men who took Godwin (Buddy) Bush from the jail at gunpoint.

Edwards was arrested by direction of Judge J. Paul Frizzelle after the latter had held a hearing in the role of committing magistrate.

Judge Frizzelle dismissed charges against the six men named with Cunningham.

A purported confession by the theater manager was the basis of the conspiracy charge against him.

Russians Told America Seeking Control Of UN

Moscow, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Moscow's newspapers published a Tass dispatch from New York today asserting that United States policy in the United Nations sought to subject the world peace organization to the White House, or failing that, to wreck the U.N.

The dispatch, from a special correspondent, said: "Everything bears witness to the fact that American policy with regard to the U.N. more and more is pointing to two alternatives—either unconditional subjugation of the U.N. to the line of the White House or direct liquidation of the organization."

This was the plainest speaking on the United Nations yet to appear in the Russian press.

Stassen Advocates U.S. Food Conservation Plan

New York, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen today declared America "should begin at once a nationwide, coordinated, voluntary food conservation program" and at the same time he called for a special session of Congress to enact the Marshall plan.

The former Minnesota governor, only avowed 1948 Republican presidential candidate, said in an address prepared for a state Chamber of Commerce luncheon "the shortage of food around the world for this next winter requires immediate action."

Unless we conserve food, he added, "the pressure of demand on a dwindling food supply next winter will drive our high prices even higher and increase the danger of boom and bust in the American economy."

Stassen asserted that only the president and the government could provide effective national leadership for the conservation program.

As to the Marshall plan, the leader of the socialist party, publicly denied that there would be a revolution.

In a statement, Di Vittorio said "present strikes and those that will follow" were "brought about by x x misery and economic want" among the people and were backed "only by Italian laborers of all parties."

The cabinet of Christian Democracy, led by Alcide De Gasperi, which shut out Communists and Socialists last May, kept in touch with the situation. De Gasperi conferred at length yesterday with Minister of the Interior Mario Scelba.

Death Behind "Iron Curtain"

Washington, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Senator Wiley R. Wis today made public a state department compilation showing that 10 Americans have met death "under questionable circumstances" in Russian-dominated areas since war's end.

In addition, Assistant Secretary Norman Armour wrote Wiley, "four American citizens suffered physical violence, not resulting in death."

Returns From Four Smaller Precincts Not Yet In, But Incomplete Reports Show Hospital Voted By 6-1 Margin

Pitt County voters went to the polls yesterday and voted overwhelmingly for the issuance of a 140 bed hospital for the county. With four small precincts missing from the reports, returns reveal that out of a special registration of 3,163 voters 2,705 voted favorably on the issue.

Under the proposed plan the hospital will cost $900,000 with the county paying approximately one-third and the state and federal governments paying the balance. The hospital will be a non-profit organization and will be operated by a board of directors to be appointed by the county commissioners.

The voting by precincts was as follows:

Greenville (four precincts) registration, 1,704 with 1,569 voting for the hospital;

Farmville, 295 registration, 205 voting for hospital;

Winterville, 182 registration, 163 voting for;

Ayden, 288 registration, 175 voting for;

Grifton, 275 registration, 262 voting for;

Falkland, 79 registration, 67 voting for;

Fountain, 61 registration, 54 voting for;

Beaver Dam, 35 registration, 32 voting for;

Chilco (Black Jack), 23 registration, 13 voting for;

Bethel, 103 registration, 65 voting for;

Parrotus, 54, registration, 48 voting for;

Chilco (Grimesland) 34 registration, 30 voting for;

Belvoir, 30 registration, 21 voting for;

Carolina, Swift Creek and the Venter Store and Cox Mill precincts in Chilco have not reported.

ITALIANS PLAN MASS PROTEST

Schedule Demonstrations Against High Cost Of Living

Rome, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Italian workers, some 2,000,000 of them already on strike, prepared today for a nationwide demonstration next Saturday against the high cost of living.

Leaders said hundreds of thousands of union members would move into city public squares throughout Italy. Rome newspapers variously dubbed the demonstration a "march of hunger" and a "prelude to revolution."

Giuseppe di Vittorio, Communist head of the 5,755,000-member Italian Confederation of Labor, and Pietro Nenni, pro-Communist leader of the socialist party, publicly denied that there would be a revolution.

In a statement, Di Vittorio said "present strikes and those that will follow" were "brought about by x x misery and economic want" among the people and were backed "only by Italian laborers of all parties."

U. S. Policy Revised On Use Of Veto; Soviet Satellites Accused Of Aggressive Acts Against Greece Before UN Assembly; World Body Challenged To Make "Supreme Effort"; Seven-Point Action Program Proposed

New York, Sept. 17.—(AP)—In a speech bristling with censure of Russia, Secretary of State George C. Marshall challenged the United Nations today to make a "supreme effort" to break the world's "deepening political and economic crisis" and save Greece from the "attacks" of its Balkan Communist neighbors.

With undiplomatic bluntness, Marshall accused Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria of "hostile and aggressive" acts against Greece, and how three Russian vetoes had blocked Security Council action to protect the country, then flung this sharp warning to the 55-nation U. N. Assembly.

"This assembly cannot stand by as a mere spectator while a member of the United Nations is endangered by attacks from abroad. If the United Nations should fail to protect the integrity of one small state, the security of all small states would be placed in jeopardy."

Marshall said before the assembly a seven-point action program, dramatically reversing American policy on the veto issue and demanding that the assembly set up its own full-time security committee to backstop the veto-ridden Security Council.

He announced that the United States now favors drastic "liberalization" of the veto by eliminating it entirely from all security decisions on pacific settlements of international disputes. The veto could then be used only on issues involving forcible action against aggressors.

He also called for immediate creation by the assembly of a Greek border commission—which Russia had vetoed in the Security Council; urged the Russian-American deadlock on Korea into the assembly; asked an assembly solution for Palestine; demanded that Russia come to terms on atomic energy control and called for vigorous planning of arms regulations.

Marshall's address evidently marked the opening of an American diplomatic offensive against Russia in the United Nations and stressed the new American policy that when Russia hampers the Security Council with veto votes the General Assembly must take over.

For that purpose he would have the assembly's proposed security committee in constant session, and would give it a membership of 55 members like the assembly itself.

Then with a plea to the great nations to use their power and privilege with restraint, Marshall warned grimly: "The United Nations will never ensure if there is insistence on privilege to the point of frustration of the collective will."

new in a nutshell is the seven-point program Marshall laid down in perhaps the bluntest policy speech ever made to the United Nations by an American leader:

1. Greece—The United States will submit to the assembly a resolution squarely blaming Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria for Greece's border troubles, calling on them to stop supporting Greek Communist guerrillas and creating a special commission to watch over the explosive Balkan situation.

2. Palestine—The United States will continue on Page Three.

Delays Address

New York, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei V. Vishinsky today withdrew his request to speak before the UN assembly this afternoon following the major U. S. policy speech of Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

The Soviet chief delegate's move was not explained, but it appeared that Russia wanted time to study Marshall's speech and perhaps get new instructions from Moscow.

There was no indication as to when Vishinsky would make Russia's opening policy declaration.

Vishinsky asked the U. N. yesterday to put his name on today's list of speakers. Since then, however, word had leaked out that Marshall's speech would contain a slashing attack on Russia.

May Reduce Acreage In Flue-Cured Leaf Belt

Danville, Va., Sept. 17.—(AP)—E. Y. Floyd, head of the Farm Food Administration for North Carolina and Virginia, says acreage allotments throughout the flue-cured tobacco belt may be cut 20 to 30 per cent in 1948.

He told a mass meeting of tobacco interests here yesterday the law which makes federal parity support prices available may force a decline in acreage next year. The final figure, which he estimated at not less than 20 nor more than 30 per cent, will not be known until the present crop has been harvested, Floyd said.

He added that some North Carolina groups were advocating a cut of up to 35 percent in next year's acreage.

The meeting advocated two steps to prevent drastic price declines: decreased poundage next year and support of Tobacco Associates, Inc., which has been set up to find new export outlets.

Former Gov. J. Melville Broughton of North Carolina, general counsel for Tobacco Associates, suggested that the next session of the Virginia assembly will support a law giving tobacco growers a chance to vote on membership in the Associates.

Twin City Will Vote November 4 On Water Bonds

Winston-Salem, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The Board of Aldermen has set Nov. 4 as the date for an election on issuance of $4,000,000 in bonds for a long-range water system improvements project, but Winston-Salem's immediate situation continued critical.

Ministers planned special prayer services today. Mayor George Lantz said "if we can get consumption to go no higher than 8,000,000 gallons a day, I believe we can get by." An additional 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 gallons daily has been secured through two new pipe lines from Salem Creek, the city's reservoir, to the water plant. The second connection went into operation today.

UNC Authorizes New Off-Campus Study Centers

Chapel Hill, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The University of North Carolina has authorized establishment of off campus centers in any town where 30 or more students are accepted for admission.

C. E. McIntosh, assistant director of the program, said the move is designed to aid students unable to obtain admission to colleges and universities this fall because of lack of housing. The new centers may be organized as late as Oct. 15 he pointed out.

Weather Here

By CHESTER WALSH

Overcast skies and a 22-to-25-mile-an-hour wind from the northeast here today gave impetus to speculations as to what direction the tropical hurricane lashing at the South Florida East coast may take by nightfall.

Mrs. C. E. Maiden, weather observer for the Department of Commerce, reported the temperature in Greenville at 7 a. m. today as being 65 degrees. A cooling relief from excessively hot weather here recently. This, however, is not the lowest temperature here this summer. During a cool period in July the mercury dropped to 54 degrees one night.

Information from the Weather Bureau in Raleigh to the local station at noon today stated that if the wind changes from the northeast to the north during the night this area will get more effect of high winds.

Tar river was meandering its way toward the sea today at slightly above normal level.

A telephone message from Morehead City this morning indicated that a torrential rain there last night did considerable damage. The message stated that the downpour was heavier than the deluge here two weeks ago.

Tarboro Police Arrest Soldier; Charge Assault

Tarboro, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Police Chief W. Robert Worsley said today a 27-year-old soldier who said he lived in Macon, Ga., has been arrested on charges of assault on a nine-year-old Tarboro girl and attempted rape.

The soldier identified himself as Bart Parkinson and said he was on leave from Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas.

The chief said the alleged incident occurred yesterday afternoon in a wooded spot near the Tarboro ball park.

restal would await Mr. Truman's return from Rio de Janeiro before taking the new oath of office.

A Navy official told a reporter that it had been decided before Mr. Truman left that the ceremonies would be held around the middle of this month. He said all preliminary arrangements were completed and it was decided to go ahead with the change-over, thus putting provisions of the new national security act into effect at the earliest possible time.

cases of unions which do not qualify will be dismissed. The NLRB has a backlog of 5,000 cases, many of them important in particular local union situations.

gives "serious weight" to the proposals of a United Nations commission for partitioning the Holy Land between Jews and Arabs. The United States will do its utmost to help the assembly find a solution for Palestine but does not expect to get one "ideally satisfactory" to both Jews and Arabs.

3. Korea—After two years of futile negotiations with Russia on Korean independence the United States has given up hope of finding a solution that way. It will submit suggestions for restoring Korean independence but looks to the "impartial judgment" of the assembly for a solution.

Atomic energy—Two members of the Atomic Energy Commission—Marshall did not specifically name Russia and Poland—have blocked agreement in the commission on control machinery. Unless "the minority" agrees soon, Marshall said the commission may be confronted with complete failure.

5. Arms regulation—A "workable system" of arms control is impossible until "conditions of international confidence prevail" in the world, but America wants the U. N. arms commission to "proceed vigorously" with its task of planning armament regulations under the Security Council.

6. Veto—The "abuse" of the veto right—again Marshall did not specifically name Russia—"has prevented the Security Council from fulfilling its true function." The United States intends to propose that the assembly create a special committee to study ways of liberalizing the veto and report next year.

7. Security committee—The assembly now has so much work to do, Marshall said, that it needs an agency to remain in session all the time, keep an eye on the world's troubles, clear up routine matters as they arise and recommend a special session of the full assembly when necessary.

deaths in hurricanes are due to drowning.

The wind piles the water up ahead of it and smashes it over the land in appalling waves. Walls are beaten down. Buildings are undermined. People are drowned.

Strength FOR THE DAY

RELIANCE ON UNSEEN POWERS

We read in the Book of Genesis how the patriarch Jacob, after one of the perilous crises of his life, started his upward march and was met by the angels of God. He called the place of meeting "Mahanaim," which meant "two hosts" or "two companies." Jacob realized that as he and his company of retainers strode the highway of life, there was another company, invisible and heaven sent, with which God would support them.

The prophet Elisha and one of his young pupils found themselves in the city of Dothan, surrounded by the Syrian army. The young man was terrified, but Elisha prayed, "Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see." And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

The assurance of religion is that we are supported at all times by powers vastly greater than anything known to the world. There is always a second host marching along beside us to strengthen us and support us in the hour of crisis. Because these powers are not visible to our physical sense of sight, many people disbelieve in their existence, but the people who have known the support and deliverance of these powers need not be assured of their reality.

It puts a 1947 thrill under your hood

See what this brand-new Fireball engine can do for Buicks built in the past ten years

YOU see here a hood-filling straight-eight power plant exactly like those which put an eager rush of Fireball energy at the command of folks who own 1947 Buicks.

But you don't have to be the owner of a 1947 Buick to boss this husky package of concentrated power around!

You don't have to wonder, "How about delivery?"

If you hanker for the thrill of having, beneath your toe, the surging power of a new Fireball engine, we're in a position to talk business right now.

How come? The answer is simple:

Out in the Buick factories, engine production is forging ahead — engines are coming off the line faster than bodies or other parts needed to build complete automobiles.

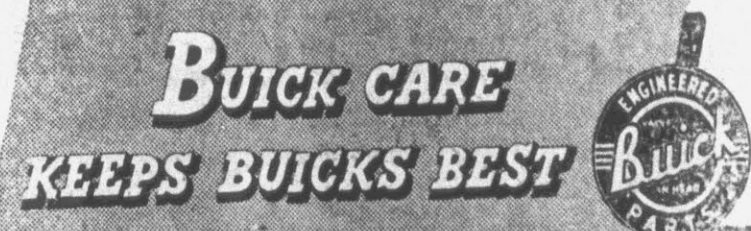

All of which means we can give you prompt delivery on 1947 power plants — brand-new, straight-from-the-factory Buick engines, ready to repower any Buick built in the past ten years.

If you own a Buick built between 1937 and 1942, the whole thing boils down to this:

We lift out the old engine — put in a new one — and send you on your happy way in less time than it would take for an overhaul.

That's why we say, buying one of these engines is the next best thing to getting a new Buick — and when you do get a new one, you'll have a better car to turn in.

Come in and let us show you how simple the whole thing is.

Grimesland PTA Meeting Was Great Success

The Grimesland Parent-Teacher Association at its first meeting of the 1947-48 school year last night presented the best program given in the auditorium in years. Tige (Sweetpea) Gardner and other stars of the Kiwanis minstrel show had the audience tapping their feet and almost joining in some of the choruses. The quartet, Gardner, James Ray Pittman, Aubrey Tilley and Ed Conway; Margaret James and Ed Conway in solos and duets, and Tige Gardner in comedy songs, accompanied by Christine Smith at the piano and Bill (Tommy Dorsey) Evans, with his trombone, provided a show which would make a hit on Broadway in New York.

The first PTA meeting of the session was a success in every way, Principal Leslie Murray said. It was "open house" at the Grimesland school and several hundred persons enjoyed the affair. The principal and teachers welcomed the guests. Rev. W. E. Felton, Methodist minister, made an inspiring short talk. Principal Murray, who went to Grimesland this year, made a fine impression in his talk about the Grimesland school and future plans.

County Superintendent of Schools Don H. Conley and Miss Reba Proctor, school supervisor, paid tribute to the good work at Grimesland. Chester Walsh talked about public city, incidentally, and Robert Wilcox, chairman of the School Committee, and Mrs. J. B. Smith, PTA president, pledged full support to the principal and teachers. The PTA's goal is 300 members this year.

The Grimesland School has 18 excellent teachers, six in the high school and 12 in the elementary and grammar grades. The interior of the building was recently repainted. The school has all modern facilities, but had to use candles for illumination during part of last night's entertainment when the electric current, supplied by Washington, was off for some time.

The school rooms were open for inspection by the visitors. Refreshments were served.

Tighten Credits Farmers Home Administration

Frank M. Page, of the Farmers Home Administration office at Greenville, which serves Pitt County, returned this week from a state-wide conference at Raleigh to review program operations and activities for the ensuing year.

Mr. Page stated that emphasis was placed on the fact that farmers who can obtain credit from regular sources on reasonable terms and conditions are not eligible for assistance through the Farmers Home Administration. He also stated that the loan funds available this year for some types of loans are very limited in comparison with funds available for such purposes in previous years.

Direct government loans for the purchase, enlargement and development of family-type farms will be made to the extent that funds are available. Veterans have preference.

Insured mortgage loans are also available through Farmers Home Administration for the purchase, enlargement and development of family-type farms by tenants, sharecroppers and farm laborers who are eligible for the services of the agency. Veterans also have preference in applications for these loans. This is the first time that such loans have been available to farmers. Mr. Page explained that all loans will be made on the basis of appraised normal values. The borrower pays down 10 percent of the normal value, and a lending institution, such as a bank or insurance company, lends the remaining 90 percent. The government insures the loans and Farmers Home Administration personnel make collections and otherwise service them.

Beginning at the Wood McGlohon old store site at a point immediately south of Hancock Church, including Wood McGlohon lands and Josephus Cox Farm; thence with the Ayden School District line to Fork Swamp; thence up Fork Swamp in a northerly direction to the road leading to Haddock's Crossroads, said road being the Ayden School and Winterville School District line; thence in a northerly direction along the Ayden School District line to a point where Ayden and Chisolm School Districts meet; thence in a northerly direction along the Chisolm School District line to and including the lands of Charlie McCoy, the eastern boundary of said lands being the Winterville School District line; thence in a northeasterly direction to the J. H. McGlohon farm and including said farm; thence in a northeasterly direction to the lands of Louis Branch on Highway 43; thence along the eastern boundary of Herman Garlick and R. H. McGowan lands, both lands being included in the Winterville District; thence to Hardee's Run and up said Run to the road leading from Highway 264 to Bell's Fork; thence up said road to the Norfolk Southern Railroad at a point where Greenville District line crosses said railroad; thence west with the southern right of way of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad to a point where the Twin Elm Farm, owned by Leon Hardee, joins the southern right-of-way of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad; thence around the eastern and southern boundary of the Twin Elm Farm owned by Leon Hardee west to Highway 43; thence along the northern boundary of said road to Highway 43; thence up the northern side of Highway 43 to Lloyd Tucker's Filling Station; thence across Highway 43 and excluding Filling Station owned by Lloyd Tucker; thence in a northeasterly direction to Green's Mill Run at the point where Evans Street Extension crosses said Run; thence up Green's Mill Run and Patrick's Mill Run in a southwesterly direction and a westerly direction; thence to the Harvey property now owned by C. H. Edwards; thence around the Cliff Edwards property, the property owned by Judge Albion Dunn, Ralph Garrett, James T. Joyner, and the Charlie Smith Farm; thence in a westerly direction to the corner of May Bet Crawford farm, which is not included; thence to corner of Elias Crawford farm, but not including said farm; thence in a westerly direction to a big ditch in the northwest corner of Henry Forlines land, which is included; thence with the Forlines and Dr. B. T. Cox line and including all the lands of the late Dr. B. T. If said bonds shall be issued, a tax will be levied on all taxable property within the Winterville School District of Pitt County sufficient for the payment of the principal of and the interest on said bonds.

A new registration has been ordered and no one will be permitted to vote unless registered anew. The books for such new registration will remain open from 9:00 a.m. until sunset on each day, except Sundays and holidays, beginning Saturday, September 27, 1947, and closing Saturday night, October 11, 1947. John Cobb Drives Racing Car Over Four Hundred Miles Per Hour Mark

Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, Sept. 17—(AP)—A determined Englishman—John Cobb—gave the world proof today that man can travel more than 400 miles an hour in an automobile.

The pleasant London fur broker, bedeviled for a month by bad weather or mechanical bugs, streaked through a measured mile at 403.135 mph in setting new world records for that distance and the kilometer.

On what he called "the roughest ride I have yet had on the salt flats," he erased the old marks he set here in 1939 and posted these new ones as dusk gathered last evening.

Measured mile—394.196 (old record, 368.9)
Kilometer — 393.825 (previous mark, 368.7)

To claim records, Cobb was required to drive both south and north on the 14-mile straightaway on this old lake bed. It was on the return northward trip that he exceeded 400 mph, the fastest man ever traveled on land.

Happy as he was over his feats, the Briton decided against making any attempts to shatter the records he holds for the five kilometers, five miles, 10 kilometers and 10 miles. During the tests and record runs begun in mid-August the Railton Mobil special speedster underwent "terrible punishment," he explained, and "it has been decided not to risk possible serious damage to the automobile."

The huge, turtle-shaped vehicle, costing $100,000, will be crated and shipped to Great Britain.

On his southward run he encountered light headwind.

Frank Sinkwich May Quit Game

New York, Sept. 17—(AP)—Frankie Sinkwich will play no more football this season and the former All-America back at Georgia may be through with the game forever.

Hobbled by an old injury to his left knee, fireball Frankie has asked the New York Yankees of the All-American Conference to play home on the voluntary retired list, Dan Topping, president of the club, announced.

Delaware Facing Stronger Teams

Newark, Del., Sept. 17—(AP)—The University of Delaware will lug a 31-game unbeaten streak—longest in the nation—onto the 1947 gridiron with Coach Bill Murray fearing a back-breaking schedule may lower the Blue Hens' colors for the first time since 1940.

Murray, not looking for set-ups, dropped the three teams which Delaware beat by more than 50 points last season—Randolph-Macon, Drexel and Washington College. In their places he added Maryland, seeking to return to football heights under Jim Tatum, and Washington and Lee to make up an eight-game schedule opening Sept. 27 against Pennsylvania Military College.

Kinston, Wilson Meet In Finals

By the Associated Press
Kinston and Wilson, winners in the semifinals, will meet tonight in the opening game of the finals series for the Coastal League play-off.

Wilson won its way to the finals by defeating New Bern 7-6 last night in an 11-innings game which was featured by five double plays—three by Wilson and two by New Bern.

The victory gave Wilson a 4-1 lead over New Bern in the series. Kinston went to the finals Monday night by winning over Tarboro.

Charge Attempt To Bribe Jockey

Charles Town, W. Va., Sept. 17—(AP)—Warrants for the arrests of Peter Del Pozzo, of Baltimore and New York, and Jockey Patrick Connolly, on charges of attempting to fix a horse race at the Charles Town track Dec. 18, 1945 were issued yesterday by Jefferson County authorities.

Indictments returned charged the two horsemen with offering Jockeys Elmer Wright and Webster Snyder $100 to pull their horses in the seventh race.

Assistant Prosecutor James F. Mason III, said the offer was refused and Snyder's mount won the race.

Train Collides With Passenger Bus Here Today

One Negro was injured and several others escaped injury and possible death early this morning when the bus in which they were riding was struck and partially demolished by an eastbound Norfolk-Southern freight train in the southern section of the city.

The bus was the property of Ed Flemming, Negro, who carries workers to and from Cherry Point. As the partially loaded bus started across the tracks at Railroad Street, just east of the junction near the Blount Fertilizer plant, it was struck by the train and the entire front of the bus was destroyed.

In 1908 an automobile tire cost about $35 and would run about 2,000 miles, while in 1936 a tire cost about $8 and would run about 20,000 miles.
