

BIDAULT SEES LITTLE HOPE END CONFLICT

Says Further Efforts To Reconcile U. S. And Russia Seem Hopeless

New York, Sept. 20—(AP)—French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault declared today that the growing conflict between the United States and Russia has reached such a critical stage that further efforts to reconcile the two viewpoints seemed hopeless.

In France's opening policy speech before the United Nations Assembly Bidault frankly acknowledged that he saw no way out of the crisis sharpened by the speeches of Secretary of State George C. Marshall and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

"The French delegate deems it futile and dangerous to conceal the magnitude and seriousness of the crisis," Bidault told the 55 national delegations as the Assembly continued its fourth day of general debate.

In his pessimistic and straightforward speech, Bidault said France had devoted her efforts toward compromise and reconciliation between Russia and the United States since the beginning of the United Nations but such efforts now seemed futile.

"Today the means are meagre for finding a meeting ground for the two main statements the Assembly has heard," he declared, referring to the Marshall and Vishinsky declarations.

"It is but honest to say that one does not see how they can be reconciled," he said.

As a result, he said, France would take her stand on the "question laid before us." He then went on to outline France's position on specific issues—lining up with the U. S. on almost every question.

Ordered Back

New York, Sept. 20—(AP)—Five thousand striking AFL teamsters, whose sudden walk-out has idled all the railway express agency's 1,200 trucks here and caused an embargo on nearly all agency shipments in and out of New York, were ordered today by their international president to return to work.

The strike began Thursday night by local 808 of the teamsters union.

GRAIN MARKET CONTINUES TO SHOW DECLINE

Secretary Of Agriculture Expresses Hope Of General Price Drop

By The Associated Press
Corn and wheat prices continued their plunge on the Chicago Board of Trade today for the third consecutive day as the Labor Department reported that living costs for city dwellers hit an all time peak in July and probably have gone "a whole lot higher" since then.

Corn prices, which crashed the permissible limit under exchange rules of eight cents on Thursday and again on Friday, dropped as much as eight cents today, with September opening at $2.38 1/2 to $2.39.

Wheat dropped as much as 10 cents, the limit, for the second straight day. May wheat was $2.46 1/2, off 1/2 cent.

The downward market trend continued as the Bureau of Labor statistics reported in Washington that the cost of living essentials used by moderate income families in large cities stood at 158 per cent of the 1935-39 average in mid-July, a one per cent increase over mid-June.

A labor department official said mid-September figures were not yet available, but that living costs probably were "a whole lot higher now" because of "the steep wholesale price climb we've had in recent weeks."

Meanwhile, the country-wide verbal bombardment at the high cost of living grew in volume.

But the downward price trend in most of the major grain and livestock markets this week carried more relief for the consumer than some hope from the soaring prices for food and other items was in sight.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, who on Monday will meet with President Truman's food study committee, expressed hope that the price drops in the grain markets would "start a downward trend" in the general cost of living.

Vishinsky Cries 'War Mongering'

Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Russia's deputy foreign minister, stands before the United Nations Assembly at Flushing Meadows, N. Y., and delivers his bitter attack on the United States in which he accused prominent Americans of "war mongering." He virtually charged there is a conspiracy within the United States to make war on Russia. (AP Wirephoto.)

Death Ends Career Of LaGuardia Early Today

'Little Flower' Dies In Sleep; Life Of Service And Integrity Praised By New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer

New York, Sept. 20—(AP)—Fiorella H. LaGuardia, 64, three times mayor of New York and former director general of UNRRA, died today.

The fiery political leader had been in a coma since Tuesday night when he collapsed at his home. His health had been failing since last June when he underwent an operation which disclosed an incurable pancreatic condition.

The announcement of his death brought an immediate tribute from his successor as chief executive of New York, Mayor William O'Dwyer. "In his death the people of the city, the state and nation have lost a great, patriotic citizen," O'Dwyer said.

The diminutive LaGuardia—he was five feet, three inches—was a rough and ready exponent of the "get tough" school of politics. His caustic tongue was noted for its whiplash agility in exchanges with political enemies as well as for its fluency in foreign languages.

Hurricane Dying After Big Blow

$20 MILLIONS STORM LOSSES FOR FLORIDA

Citrus And Vegetable Farms Take Beating; Fail To Set New Record

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 20—(AP)—A gigantic West Indian hurricane that smashed across southern Florida left seven dead, hundreds injured and property and crop damage estimated at $23,000,000, a survey showed today.

It didn't set any record in dollar loss. By comparison, the winter freeze of 1945 damaged Florida's crops an estimated $50,000,000.

The worst toll appeared to be in the area between Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach, where the storm's center first struck. Preliminary estimates placed the Palm Beach damage at $10,000.

Citrus grove losses near Fort Lauderdale were placed at $5,000,000. The groves were still under water. Twenty-seven homes were destroyed and 400 damaged.

The Florida Citrus Commission figured that overall loss to grapefruit would not be more than 10 per cent. Based on last year's production this would be about $2,250,000. Latest estimates showed that about half of the maturing fruit south of Vero Beach was blown from trees. Along the east coast, some growers believed their citrus crops were harmed by salt water spray.

Early reports showed that several thousand acres of early vegetable plantings were destroyed or damaged, making certain a delay in volume of early fall shipments of fresh vegetables. Shipments may not reach normal volume until mid-November.

No more advisories will be issued on this storm, the bureau concluded, but a bulletin will be issued about mid-morning.

With seven already reported dead in southern Florida in the wake of the storm, a meager radio report received by a ham operator in Jacksonville.

Property Damage Left In Its Wake Still Unaccounted; Thirteen Known Killed; Storm Is Moving Northward But Diminishing; Gulf Coast Badly Battered

New Orleans, Sept. 20—(AP)—A vicious, 11-day old hurricane, born in the Caribbean Sea, was dying but early today in northern Louisiana after a rip-roaring career across southern Florida and the Gulf Coast where it left at least 13 dead and around 500 injured.

Property damage across the afflicted Florida area and from New Orleans eastward to Pascagoula, Miss., on the Gulf Coast was immense and, so far, immeasurable.

At 4 a. m. the Weather Bureau placed the center of the storm about 59 to 60 miles south, southeast of Shreveport in northwest Louisiana and still bearing on a northwesterly course at about 15 miles an hour.

The bureau said winds to 35 to 40 miles per hour with gusts up to 50 miles per hour are being reported within 100 miles of the center.

On its present course, said the bureau, the hurricane will travel with diminishing intensity into northeastern Texas and southern Oklahoma and added, "winds will continue strong and gusty. Accompanied by rain, across Arkansas, northeastern Texas and into Oklahoma during the day, but will diminish in Louisiana and Mississippi by this afternoon."

The bureau also said the big wind should have died down to 25 to 35 miles per hour around the storm center by later this afternoon.

No more advisories will be issued on this storm, the bureau concluded, but a bulletin will be issued about mid-morning.

With seven already reported dead in southern Florida in the wake of the storm, a meager radio report received by a ham operator in Jacksonville.

Soviet Pressure In Assembly Continues

Constant Attacks On United States May Divide UN; Gromyko Loses Fight To Prevent Discussion Of Veto Issue

New York, Sept. 20—(AP)—Persistent pressure by Russia to force the United Nations condemnation of the United States on the charge of "warmongering" seemed certain today to split the U. N. Assembly into two sharply antagonistic camps.

The Soviet attack launched by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky was expected to be pressed forward today by chief spokesmen for the Soviet Ukraine and for Yugoslavia who were scheduled to address the Assembly in its heaviest day of general debate.

New evidence of the determination behind the Soviet campaign came last night in a debate-filled meeting of the Assembly's Steering Committee when Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko, in a losing fight, identified support of proposals for restriction of the big-power veto in the Security Council with "hostility" to the Soviet Union itself.

He said that "certain influential circles and peoples are behind the campaign" to restrict the veto and that the campaign was "hostile" to the Soviet Union. He did not mention it, but Secretary of State Marshall had told the Assembly two days earlier that the United States favored drastic modification.

HITS SPENDING IN OCCUPATION

Sen. Bridges Insists On Increased Controls For Germany

Washington, Sept. 20—(AP)—Senator Bridges (R-NH) said today he will insist that United States controls be increased over the American and British occupied zones in Germany if we assume a larger share of these costs.

Bridges told reporters "what I want to make sure of is that we don't have to pay all the bills." The cost is now borne equally by the two countries but Britain recently asked the U. S. to pay a greater share.

Bridges, as chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, called a special session today to hear top-ranking armed service officials at a closed door session.

Bridges said that Army department officials are asking informal congressional approval of plans to spend a part of $600,000,000 voted by the last Congress for occupation costs throughout the world at a greater rate than intended.

If the United States assumes a part of the occupation costs now paid by England, this appropriation will not last until next July 1. Officials probably would seek a deficiency or supplemental appropriation when Congress meets.

BELIEVE SOME VICTIMS FOUND

Aerial Searchers Report Possible Survivors Of Crash

Manila, Sept. 20—(AP)—A mass aerial search brought reports today of the "possible sighting" in favorable terrain of some 28 passengers and crewmen who parachuted to midnight darkness from a lost U. S. Army transport plane over northern Luzon.

The U. S. 13th Air Force, to which the abandoned two-engine craft was attached, said its wreckage was definitely located "160 miles northwest of Manila, and that search pilots also radioed word of the "possible sighting" of personnel 60 miles farther north.

This would place survivors in the vicinity of Tuguezaoro, Cagayan Province, in the northeast corner of Luzon. The terrain there was described as "generally favorable" for parachute landings, which are hazardous at best.

A motorized ground party and four light spotter planes were ferried to the area. Two of the small liaison planes were to land within eight miles of the crash and the other two were to proceed 30 miles farther north to check reports that survivors might have landed in that vicinity.

Location of the wreckage indicated the plane, pushed from its course by foul weather, was about 30 miles west of its direct Okinawa-Manila course when the pilot ordered all aboard to jump.

My ship is considerably faster than Odom's converted A-26 bomber and although I expect to fly several hundred miles farther I am confident I'll be able to put her down on the Charlotte airport with a new world's record of several hours under Odom's," Doar said.

Charlotte Flier Sets Sights On Odom's Record

Charlotte, Sept. 20—(AP)—A 28-year-old army air force veteran from Charlotte today had set his sights on Bill Odom's 68-hour round-the-world record flight which he says he'll be able to better by "several hours."

Jean P. Doar said he'll attempt the globe-girdling feat in a twin-engine British DeHavilland Mosquito bomber and he hopes to have it ready by late October.

ITALIAN REDS CALL PROTEST

Strike At De Gasperi's Government Demonstrations

Rome, Sept. 20—(AP)—Communists joined with other leftist groups today in striking at Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Christian Democrat (Catholic) government with nationwide rallies against the skyrocketing cost of living in Italy.

No violence was reported in the mass demonstrations, which De Gasperi's minister of interior said were aimed at the overthrow of the government.

Workers in Rome were summoned to a mass meeting in the Piazza del Popolo to head addresses by orators of five leftist parties.

Buildings were plastered with anti-government slogans. A red-painted plane circled the city dumping thousands of leaflets.

Demonstrators were summoned by the communist, socialist and republican parties to march into the public squares of cities throughout Italy to protest price rises which have doubled the cost of some food since January.

The demonstration followed a week of strikes for higher pay and came on the weekend before expected constituent assembly action on a leftist demand for a vote of no-confidence in De Gasperi's government.

Washington, Sept. 19—If you are lucky enough to live in a city or town of modest size, give thanks for your great good fortune. For you to change to New York or some other crowded-jammed big city, might be a bad move because these economic dinosaurs may be doomed.

City life for the average mortal is a drab and sorry affair. With prices high and supplies low, most big cities offer only poor sleeping quarters and tiresome meals. Some day, you will understand that health is life's priceless asset, especially for women.

Those who have trekked cityward and lost out, remind me of another bitter truth. Life never can be so lonely as in a great city swarming with strangers. The abysmal loneliness of the newcomer and outsider often leads to taking up with bad companions. Broken churches are neglected. Spiritual relations are neglected. The abnormality of life in a big city too often undermines moral standards that originally were firm.

Small-Town Outlook Best
Due to these jam-packed cities, I would caution those of all ages, particularly young people with youthful families. Youth has the longest time to regret an error! Certainly, congested cities are not fit places to raise children, the one highest goal of a happy married life. Thoughtful parents will think twice before sentencing their loved ones to such physical unwholesomeness and spiritual squalor.

Having been brought up in a farming and seafaring area, I cherish no delusions that the small-town or rural hamlet is all sweetness and light. Yet I can promise readers that, for all its faults, it is free from much of the degradation and ills of the overgrown and underprivileged metropolis. Furthermore, the ever-faster advance of science is adding to the advantages of country life. Think how rural life is being constantly enriched by better

Truman Calls Staff For Policy Session

Schedules Meeting At Noon; Problems Of European Aid, International Friction And Living Costs To Be Talked

Washington, Sept. 20—(AP)—President Truman returned to Washington from his 20-day trip to Brazil today and immediately called the White House staff to meet at noon (Eastern Standard Time) to discuss the important business which accumulated in his absence.

The presidential yacht Williamsburg docked at the Washington Navy Yard and after a few minutes getting luggage ashore, the President, Mrs. Truman and daughter Margaret walked down the gangplank to waiting automobiles.

The yacht bore the presidential party up the Potomac River from Norfolk, Va., where the members disembarked yesterday from the battleship Missouri on their return from Rio de Janeiro.

The President remarked to those on the dock: "You don't know how to appreciate your own country till you are away."

Mute Testimony To Wind's Power

Shreveport, La., Sept. 20—(AP)—John Dees of Texarkana, Tex., can bear witness to the force of hurricane winds, if anyone doubts their force and wants to argue.

Dees drove into a service station 15 miles east of here last night to get gasoline.

A gust of wind tore the canopy from the station and drove a splinter of wood completely through his left rear tire.

Negro Is Victim Flim-Flam Game

By CHESTER WALSH

Frank Moore, middle-aged Negro bricklayer, victim of the old pocketbook flim-flam game who was fleeced out of $650 by two Negro women last Saturday, waited nearly a week for them to return and double his money, simply couldn't wait any longer, and yesterday notified police.

Moore told police the women accosted him on Dickinson avenue at Ninth street last Saturday, told him that they and another woman had found a pocketbook containing $2,100. They asked Moore for $650 to pay the third woman her share, then they would all go to a bank, get the money changed and split it with him.

He waited hopefully while the two women went to settle with the other woman. They vanished.

Moore is out $650. He described the currency he gave the flim-flammers to make change as: Three $100 bills, 10 twenties, and the other $150 in tens, fives and ones. Moore is a bricklayer.

The first shipment of cotton from the United States, seven bales of "cotton wool," was valued at $112.

It is estimated that about 30 percent of all heat loss from homes in winter is through the windows.

ACQUITTAL IN 'MERCY DEATH'

Jury Refutes Murder Charged In Invalid's Death

Reading, Pa., Sept. 20—(AP)—"Thank you—oh, thank you very much!" a wan-faced middle-aged splinter sobbed to a jury of seven men and five women in acquitting her of murder in the "mercy" slaying of her invalid 71-year-old mother.

Friends and neighbors who had stood with Ella M. Haug in the courtroom as she waited through the two and a half hours the jury deliberated last night, rushed to congratulate the weeping woman, and several invited her to their own home to rest.

"I'm so glad you could understand," Miss Haug told the jurors. "That means more to me than freedom."

"My freedom! Now, that I'm free. I don't know what I'm going to do with myself."

Entertain at Luncheon

Bethel—On Saturday, Mrs. J. L. Gurganus and Miss Sally Joe Gurganus were hostesses at a luncheon honoring Miss Frances Mae Rives and her fiancé, C. B. Rowlette, Jr.

The home was beautifully arranged with multicolored summer flowers. The lace covered table was centered with white flowers and white tapers in crystal candelabra. The bride's place was marked with a white corsage and a gift of silver.

A delicious turkey menu was served to about 60 guests.

Phantoms Beat Tarboro By 14-6; Fumbles Are Costly

Pirates Driven Hard In Week Of Scrimmaging

By J. HEDGEPETH
Coach Jim Johnson, ECTC head mentor, has sent his college gridriders through a prolonged scrimmage everyday this week as the Pirates continued preparations for their opening game against Lenoir-Rhyne on September 27.

Expressing disappointment at the freshman team's performance against Rocky Mount Friday night in a game which ended in a 6-6 tie, Coach Johnson said, "After losing twelve first and second string men due to a North State Conference ruling, our only hope for success this year lay on the shoulders of the incoming freshmen candidates. Their inability to perform up to my expectations has hurt us considerably. Several of the new boys have filled in nicely, but even with them I cannot see where we will be any serious threat in the conference this year. It will just take time for us to rebuild and then we will be ready to meet our conference foes on an equal basis."

Coach Johnson has not as yet designated a first or second team and is using two combinations that look about equal in scrimmaging. The starting eleven will be picked from these two aggregations.

One group included: Frank Winesette and Chuck Connor at ends; R. B. Lee and John Wyatt at tackles; Ray Long and Amos Sexton at guards; C. O. McMullin at center; and in the backfield are freshmen Roger Thrift at quarterback; Bill Darby at half-back; Allen Berry at fullback; and letterman Jack Davis at half-back.

The second group included: Ends Stanley Peele, John Young and Sam Stett; Tackles Don McKennie and Keith Kilpatrick; Guards Paul Walters and Henry Andrews; Centers Willard Pendleton, Buck Wilber and Joe Pollitt; and Backs Hubert Mueselwhite, Butsy Caprio, Milton Glover, Ben Hayes, Henry Borman, Abb Williams, Johnny Smith, Franz Holscher, and Bill Kittrell.

Most Eskimos live near the coast where they draw much of their subsistence from mammals of the sea.

Seven Tarheel Grid Teams To Begin Season

By the Associated Press
Seven North Carolina teams lift the lid tonight on their 1947 football season, while two others, with a game apiece under their belts, are also scheduled for action.

Davidson is the only one of the state's five Southern Conference schools to begin play this week, entertaining the fighting Christians of Elon from the North State Conference.

High Point, which played a scoreless tie with the Duke Junior Varsity last week, tangles with Western Carolina at Asheville in a North State Conference game.

Catawba, 44-0 winner over Fort Bragg, is at home to Wofford while Appalachian faces Guilford at Winston-Salem; Atlantic Christian and Erskine meet at Anderson, S. C., and the 82nd Airborne Division (Fort Bragg) visits Lenoir-Rhyne.

Kinston Leading Wilson In Final Playoff Series

By the Associated Press
Wilson, regular season pennant winner in the Coastal Plain League, will entertain Kinston tonight in the fourth game of a best-of-seven post-season final series. Kinston enjoys a two-to-one lead in games won.

Kinston probably will start either Tom Witz or Jim Taylor on the mound, with Wilson relying on Lefty Monk Webb for its pitching.

The Eagles took the measure of the Tobaccoists 3-2 last night with a two-run party in the sixth on singles by McLawhorn and Rollins, a wild pitch by Bissette, an error thrown in from the outfield, and an infield out.

The game was played before 3,391 paid admissions.

Take Conference Opener With Two Touchdowns And Safety After Spotting Rivals Six Points In First Quarter

By SPYRIDON SIDERIS
After spotting the Tarboro Serpents six points in the first quarter, Greenville's Green Phantoms came back in the remaining time to get a safety and to push over two touchdowns to take their conference opener 14-6 in Tarboro last night.

Numerous fumbles by the Phantoms, all of which Tarboro recovered, prevented the local team from tallying more than twice. They managed to get inside the Serpents' 10-yard line seven times, scoring twice, fumbling four times, and held by a goal line stand in the last minutes of the game.

Last night's game was as rough as expected, with Tarboro receiving the largest number of injuries. Big Jim Tanner, Greenie tackle, was forced out of the game with an injury, and Glynn Perkins, tailback, had to leave the game as a result of an injured hip.

Timely penalties against Tarboro aided the Greenville team, and one of these penalties set up Tarboro's safety.

Taking the opening kickoff, Tarboro proceeded to rack up its only touchdown. Tricky plays, a recovered fumble by the Serpents which gained them 20 yards, and pass, set up the score. A rush through the middle for the punt after touchdown met up with a stonewall comprised of Phantom players.

With Perkins running the following kickoff back to Greenville's 45-yard line, the Phantoms started moving. On like smash and end runs the Greensies marched to within the 10-yard stripe only to be denied because of a fumble.

A 15-yard penalty set up the Green wave's first points. This penalty put Tarboro deep in their own territory, with the kicker back of the goal line. A fumble on the next play which Tarboro recovered back of their own goal line moved the score to 6-2, favor of the Serpents.

Greenville went marching up the field a second time only to meet with the same results, a fumble, with paydirt a few yards away.

The Serpents moved the ball up the field a couple of yards and then kicked. The kick was partly blocked and the Phantoms saw the goal line in feet of a touchdown. Jimmy Cox, quarterback, mixed up the Tarboro front wall with a quarterback sneak that carried the pigskin over the last white line. George Minshev's kick for the extra point was blocked.

Greenville knocked on touchdowns door again in the remaining minutes of the first half, but didn't succeed in getting in. Tarboro threw desperate passes in an attempt to score, but time ran out in the first half, with the Greensies leading 8-6.

Despite the fact that the Phantoms dominated play during the last half, they were able to score only once. Pile driving Fred Joseph put this one over and that sort of took the fight out of Tarboro, except in the last minutes of the game. With first and goal to go they put up a beautiful goal line stand that would look good in any league.

The locals meet a strong New Bern team here for their second conference game on Friday.

Legislator Was Kiwanis Speaker

Thomas J. Pearsall of Rocky Mount, prominent businessman, speaker of the lower House of the North Carolina legislature, and a probable candidate for governor of the state at the next election, made an interesting talk at the Greenville Kiwanis Club's weekly supper meeting last night. He discussed reduction of the tobacco crop and advised that farmers should begin now to consider what crops they will substitute for it. Former Mayor Bruce Sugg, who had charge of the program, introduced the distinguished speaker.

Special guests included Judson H. Blount, J. E. Winslow, S. O. Worthington and F. M. Kilpatrick of Ayden, and others.

President Eli Bloom presided.
