Yankees: Stirnweiss lined Lombard's first pitch to right field for a single. Henrich singled over Stanky's head, sending Stirnweiss to third. Jorgensen picked up Lindell's bounce, started a double play with a flip to Stanky at second who relayed to Robinson ahead of Lindell. Stirnweiss scored on the play. DiMaggio singled off Reese's glove, the shortest slowing the smash which rolled into short left. McQuinn struck out.

SECOND INNING
Dodgers: Walker lined out to DiMaggio in straight center. Johnson raced under Hermanski's high foul fly. Edwards fanned out.

Yankees: Walker hauled in Johnson's long fly to right field. Jorgensen threw out Rizzuto on his bunt. Berra hit the first pitch to Stanky who tossed him out.

THIRD INNING
Dodgers: Reese walked after working count to three and two. Jorgensen lined out to Henrich. DiMaggio pulled down Lombard's high fly. Stanky swung, missed, and Reese stole second. Yankees: Reynolds hit a low pitch near third base and was an easy out. Jorgensen to Robinson. Stirnweiss fouled, then with a count of three and two lined over Stanky's head into the hole between Reiser and Walker, stretching it into a three-bagger. Jorgensen caught Henrich's foul fly, holding Stirnweiss on third. Reiser missed a driving catch of Lindell's smash to right centerfield for a triple on which Stirnweiss scored. DiMaggio was given a base on balls and McQuinn struck out.

FOURTH INNING
Dodgers: Walker hammered the first pitch deep into the right field stands for a home run. Hermanski rebounded to McQuinn who threw to Reynolds at first for the out. Edwards popped to McQuinn. Reese singled into short right. On the second pitch to Jorgensen, Reese attempted to steal second and was cut down on a throw from Berra to Rizzuto.

Yankees: Reiser raced back and got his hands on Johnson's drive but failed to hold it and it went for a triple. Rizzuto raised a high fly in short left-center which fell for a double as Reese, Reiser and Hermanski gathered around and watched it fall among them to the ground. Johnson scored. Berra fled to Reiser in center and Rizzuto raced to third after the catch. Reynolds bounced to Jorgensen and Rizzuto was caught in a run-up between third and home and was declared out when he ran out of the baseline trying to evade the Dodger third baseman. Reynolds sneaked to second. Stirnweiss went down swinging.

FIFTH INNING
Dodgers: Jorgensen went down swinging. Lombard grounded out, Rizzuto to McQuinn. Rizzuto also whipped out Stanky.

Yankees: Henrich homered into the right centerfield bleachers. Lindell bounded into the left field stands for an automatic ground rule double. When Lombard's first pitch to DiMaggio was very low, Hall Gregg relieved Lombard. DiMaggio hit a graauctator to Jorgensen who

DISPUTES ON LABOR FRONT

Tension In Transportation Unions; Living Costs Blamed

Tension appeared mounting on the nation's labor front today with disputes in transportation in the vanguard. Labor troubles disrupted travel by air, and halted handling of cargo in two west coast harbors, while the nation's railroads were served with a formal demand for a 30 per cent wage increase to more than $50,000 members of five operating

Five-Hour Sales Begin Tomorrow On Leaf Marts

Henderson, Oct. 1—(AP)—Sales time on six leaf cured tobacco markets operating in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia has been increased, with the North Carolina middle belt going on a five-hour sales day for each set of buyers beginning tomorrow. Chairman Fred S. Royster of Henderson announced these increases today after a telephone call of the 15 members of the five-cured marketing sales committee. Beginning Monday, October 6, eastern and old belt markets will sell five hours daily, and markets still operating on the North Carolina and South Carolina border belt will increase selling time to three hours a set of buyers.

Rail Brotherhoods Ask For New Wage Increase

Chicago, Oct. 1—(AP)—A formal demand for a 30 per cent wage increase for more than 350,000 members of five operating railroad brotherhoods has been made by the unions on the nation's carriers. The notices for the hike in wages, with a minimum boost of $3 a day, set in motion the machinery of the National Railway Labor Act under which disputes in the industry are handled. Ex-Cabinet Member Says Attitude Will Lead To World War Three

New York, Oct. 1—(AP)—Robert Patterson, former secretary of war, says that "world war three lies dead ahead" unless the American people drop their "business as usual attitude."

Describing American military strength as "hopelessly inadequate," Patterson wrote in a Cosmopolitan Magazine article: "Foreign governments need a minimum of four, a maximum of ten years to produce an atomic bomb. But these estimates hold true only if they make the bomb the same way we make it—a highly complex operation.

"If some nation finds a simpler way, it is altogether possible scientists might produce another atomic bomb tomorrow."

The former cabinet officer said the government must prepare a defense plan that will answer such questions as:

"Who will run the government if an atomic bomb explodes in Washington x x x?"

"Who will handle the work of placing children in rural areas far from vulnerable industrial centers?"

"Who will decide upon and handle dispersment of vital industries x x x?"

"Will the Army have its own equipment available for troop movements while other rolling stock is being used for evacuation of civilian populations?"

"Will mobile radio units be available all over the country, in case the lines of communications are smashed and rendered useless?"

"We have begun once more," Patterson said, "to think that because we don't want war, nobody on earth wants war."

TRUMAN PICKS CAMPAIGNERS

McGrath And Sullivan To 'Carry The Ball' For Demos

Washington, Oct. 1—(AP)—Senator J. Howard McGrath and Gael Sullivan, a couple of old schoolmates from Rhode Island, emerged today as President Truman's idea of a "great team" to run the 1948 Democratic presidential campaign. Party headquarters said the team play will go like this: McGrath, who will succeed Robert E. Hannegan as national chairman Oct. 29, will maintain a close liaison with Democrats in Congress who have shown signs of feeling neglected in the past. He will retain his Senate seat.

Sullivan, who agreed to stay as executive director at the President's personal request, will make use of his big city political training under former Mayor Edward J.

UN In Deadlock On India-Ukraine Ballot

Nine Secret Ballots Fail To Decide Race For Security Council Seat; No Major Shifts Developing In Vote Line-Up

New York, Oct. 1—(AP)—The United Nations Assembly failed in its first effort today to break the deadlock in the race between the Soviet Ukraine and India for the Security Council seat to be vacated by Poland Dec. 31.

The first secret vote of the 57 nations today, after seven indecisive ballots yesterday, showed: Ukraine 31; India 23. A two-thirds majority of those present and voting—36 votes—was required for election.

The eighth ballot—the first for the day—indicated no major shift in the voting line-up. The last ballot yesterday gave the Ukraine 29 and India 23.

The ninth ballot showed: Ukraine 32, India 24. Dr. Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, Assembly president, then ruled that the Assembly should drop the Security Council seat contest temporarily and move on to the election of six replacement members to the Economic and Social Council.

However, at this point Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Pandit, chief of the Indian delegation and ambassador to Moscow, took the floor for a brief statement of refusal to withdraw India from the contest.

Russia was backing the Soviet Ukraine, one of the constituent republics of the Soviet Union, and the United States and Britain were backing India in the hard-fought

Soviet Refusal Of Visas For Senators Denounced

Washington, Oct. 1—(AP)—A curt refusal by Russia to let 12 senators, seven Democrats and five Republicans, visit Moscow brought demands today for tougher policy on admitting Soviet citizens to this country.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry declined to issue visas either for members of the Senate Appropriations Committee or John Peurifoy, assistant secretary of state, to make an inspection of the U.S. embassy. The explanation to Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith was:

"Inasmuch as the USSR is not considered a country that could be made the subject of an investigation on the part of the visiting senators, we do not consider their trip to be suitable."

Senator Bridges (R-NH), chairman of the committee, declared the incident raises the question of how much longer the United States will permit "indiscriminate admission of Washington, Oct. 1—(AP)—President Truman today named Dr. Frank P. Graham, University of North Carolina president, to represent the United States in the United Nations effort to solve the dispute between the Netherlands and Indonesia.

Four Wrongly Jailed Men To Be Given Checks In Compensation

Raleigh, N.C., Oct. 1—(AP)—Four men who were subjected to many long months of imprisonment for crimes they did not commit will receive checks from the state soon as partial recompense for their ordeal.

The council of state yesterday approved the first four payments under a law enacted by the 1947 General Assembly authorizing restitution of $500 a year for each year of imprisonment up to a maximum of $5,000 to persons pardoned after proof of innocence has been submitted.

The checks to the four men probably will be issued today by State Auditor Henry Bridges.

One of the four men, Gus Colon Langley, spent many months of his prison life on death row and received several reprieves from death in the electric chair while the truth of his alibi was being investigated.

Langley was convicted in 1932 of first degree murder in the slaying of a Buncombe County filling station attendant.

Senator Eduardo Chibas, an aspirant for the presidency in the June, 1948, elections, declared in a statement published in the newspaper Prensa Libre that the Cuban President "betrayed the cause of Dominican liberty after having offered hospitality and refuge to the political exiles of this sister republic."

"Gru, upon the pretext of liberating the Dominican Republic from the dictator (President Rafael) Trujillo, was conspiring to suspend the forthcoming elections and convert himself into the dictator of Cuba," Chibas' statement said.

Chibas previously had been considered one of the President's staunchest Senate defenders.

Senator Aurelio Alvarez, leader of the opposition, accused President Grau of having "armed gangs which sought to invade the Dominican Republic, in order to create an atmosphere of violence in Cuba and thus perpetuate himself in power."

Entire Village Sold At Auction

London, Oct. 1—(AP)—The picturesque 600-year-old village of Castle Combe in Wiltshire was sold at auction yesterday, police station, inns, cottages and all and hardly a tear was shed.

The village and its accompanying million-windowed manor house were offered in two lots. But no one would bid more than 48,000 pounds ($192,000) and the auctioneer then sold the community piecemeal.

Most of the lovely old Cotswold cottages were bought by people whose families had lived in them for generations.

Americans Asked To Eat Less Bread

HIGH SCHOOL IN PACTOLUS IS DESTROYED

President Calls On People To Conserve Grain; Emphasizes Avoiding Waste; Reducing Prices And Helping Europe Put Up To Individuals

Building And Contents Demolished By Fire; Plan To Resume Classes

Washington, Oct. 1—(AP)—President Truman asked the American people today to serve "fewer slices of bread" and help save 100,000,000 bushels of grain for European aid. He also called for reduced feeding of grain to cattle and made it clear most of the saving must come there.

"There will be more than enough food in the United States to go around, provided it is fairly distributed," Mr. Truman said.

White House aides said that in the president's plea to serve fewer slices of bread the emphasis was on avoiding waste.

Addressing the first meeting of his citizens' food committee at the White House, Mr. Truman exhorted: "We must get the prices down and help hungry people in other countries at the same time."

Mr. Truman said the savings asked of each individual is actually very small.

"One bushel of grain saved by every American in the next few months will do the job," he said.

The savings of food here at home is only one phase of the administration's program to help Europe. Before the food can be sent there, Congress must approve funds, either as loans or gifts, with which European nations can buy it.

Mr. Truman has proposed $500,000,000 as stop-gap aid and asked that key congressional committees meet as soon as possible to consider it.

The committees are the Senate Foreign relations, house foreign affairs and Senate and House appropriation bodies.

The committees are making arrangements to convene in November in response to the president's plea that such aid must be forthcoming if France and Italy are to survive as "free and independent nations. The letter underscored this point as follows:

"Political groups that hope to profit by unrest and distress are attempting to capitalize on the grave fears of the French and Italian people that they will not have enough food and fuel to survive the 2c 30 Ital—UN IN DEADLOCK C

Industry Fails To Meet Freight Car Requirements

New York, Oct. 1—(AP)—The 10,000 car a month freight car program which was to have been a fact by October is "shot to pieces," The Iron Age, trade publication, said today.

Transportation, the survey added, is rapidly reaching a national crisis. The magazine predicted that in the last 3 months this year, freight car output will fall short of the goal of 2,900 to 3,000 cars a month.

"While both railroad car builders and the steel industry present figures to indicate a blameless record for the freight car program failure," said the weekly. "The situation is going from bad to worse.

Cholera Deaths Total 37 In Day

Cairo, Oct. 1—(AP)—Thirty-seven deaths in the last 24 hours brought to 103 today the officially announced toll of fatalities resulting from Egypt's week-old cholera epidemic.

The health ministry said that 76 new confirmed cases of cholera and 49 new suspected cases were reported yesterday. Altogether 599 confirmed cases have been reported.

Food Problem Outline

ing Less, Wasting Less; No Decision Yet Food Committee's Report To Truman; Three Possible Means Of Bridging Gap; Obstacles To Rationing, Eating

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Oct. 1—(AP)—This will bring you up to date on the help-Europe-with-food program. Some time ago President Truman set up a special committee to study world food problems. This is what it recently reported to him: Last year Europe was short of food and needed help from us but this year, because of crop failures there, it will be even shorter and need more help. But, to make matters worse, crop failures in this country this year mean we'll have less food to ship overseas. How can we bridge that gap and try to spare more food for Europe? Three things could be done in this country: 1. Rationing. 2. Eating less. 3. Wasting less. All three have been talked about before, so far, nothing has been done except to ask Americans to waste less food. Take them one at a time.

Cripps' Appointment

New Economic Czar Is Step Towards Regimentation For England; Vast Responsibility; Personality Of The Man; "Lone Wolf"; Young James Harold Wilson

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Appointment of Sir Stafford Cripps as economic czar of Britain, coupled with a new measure under which the government can compel jobs workers to take essential employment, places the country under a considerable degree of that stern regimentation which one associates with wartime controls.

This drastic step, unprecedented in modern England, gives us a fair measure of the gravity of the nation's crisis. It is a move which no democratic country would tolerate except from necessity in these parlous days of totalitarianism, for fear that the experiment might get out of hand and lead to more regimentation than was bargained for.

Cripps' assignment to the vast responsibility of leading the country out of the economic wilderness is a striking commentary on our changing times. He is a member of the Labor (Socialist) Party, but it isn't so many years ago that this reputedly wealthy lawyer was put out of the party on the grounds that he was too extreme—too much of a leftist.

Since those days he has served in many important government positions, both under the conservative prime ministership of Churchill and in the Socialist regime. And now he has been made economic czar by the party which once thought he was too radical. He hasn't changed his views, but labor has.

Actually this individual on whom England is pinning so much faith is a good deal of enigma even to his friends. They know him as a brilliant man of many attainments—such an outstanding personality that five years ago his name was sweeping the country and the general opinion was that he was headed for the prime ministership. However, the workings of his mind are hard to fathom, and the public doesn't really know him well.

Service League Fall Meeting Held Monday

The Service League of Greenville held its first meeting of the fall Monday morning, September 29, at the Sheppard Memorial Library. Mrs. Lyman Omond, president, welcomed the members and asked for their full cooperation and enthusiasm in the new projects to be undertaken.

Prior to the business meeting Mrs. Mary McCrary from the Employment Security Commission spoke on the work the commission is doing in rehabilitating and finding suitable employment for handicapped applicants. Because of the great need for this service president Truman has designated October 5-11 as "The National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week." She urged the League members to aid in making the business public aware of the possibility through proper medical services and vocational training of finding placements for the physically disabled. She also stressed the desire of the commission to make its employment service division a helpful one to the community. This can be done only if employers and employees alike recognize and make use of the service they offer.

This first meeting of the fall is the only one during the year when names of new members previously recommended are presented. The list was read by Mrs. W. S. Bost, acting membership chairman and voted on.

In calling for reports from chairmen of the various committees it was evident that although the activities of the Service League are discontinued during the summer, many had continued. Various members helped in the recent election for the hospital band issue. The Thrift Shop was moved to its new location in the State Bank building and will be ready to reopen Tuesday, October 7, at its regular hours from 10 to 12 a. m.

The Lending Chest stockroom supplies remained available and the wheel chair was in constant use. Both a boy and a girl scout enjoyed the benefits of camp life as the result of two camperships given by the League. Mrs. Walter Harrington, serving on the city recreational committee, reported that under the able leadership of Mrs. Vance Perkins the committee had operated four supervised playgrounds and organized an enthusiastic boy's baseball league. The chairman of the Greenville Emergency Charity Fund committee said that several minor emergencies had been taken care of and at present they were working on a major case with the cooperation of the Red Cross.

Mrs. David Evans, new layette chairman, stated that during the summer many calls for layettes had come in and with the approach of cold weather more could be expected. She asked for volunteers to sew and urged anyone who has old baby clothes, particularly baby blankets, she wishes to donate to please contact her.

A report from Mrs. R. C. Stokes on the League's main project, the Lighthouse hospital bed, revealed that the bed is at present occupied, and that three generous donations had been added to the hospital fund.

Mrs. J. T. Little, finance chairman, announced that many members had been hard at work getting the Service League cook book ready to go to press by October 2. These will be put on sale around Thanksgiving and the money realized will be used for the hospital bed and other charitable purposes.

In addition to volunteer work done at the Blind Center and the local hospital this year the Service League will sponsor the Pitt County T. B. Seal Sale with Mrs. M. T. Simpson, chairman, and Mrs. W. L. Whedbee, co-chairman.

year was 23 per cent below the figure for 1933.

For years the Children's Bureau has held it "absurd" to take a child away from a poor but competent mother and then pay his "keep" in a crowded institution.

Back in 1912, when the idea was first introduced, it was considered "revolutionary." Critics contended it would increase "pauperism."

Illinois had partially broken the ground by establishing mother's pensions the year before. Then other states followed suit. The Children's Bureau began a study of these laws in 1914. The findings provided much of the impetus for general adoption of this form of public assistance by practically all of the states.

With passage of the Social Security Act in 1935, the principle was written into federal law. In the 12 years during which this law has made funds available to the states for the development of child-welfare services many state governments have set up special divisions for this purpose.

Under another social security program $3,500,000 is now being authorized annually for grants to state departments of welfare to help them carry out services to children in all kinds of trouble.

Each year help is brought to almost a quarter million boys and girls. Some of these socially-handicapped children come from the nation's nearly 4,000,000 orphans or half-orphans, 60,000 of whom are children of servicemen who died in the war.

Some are from among the 100,000 babies born out of wedlock each year, whose mothers as often as not are children themselves. Still others who need special attention are among the quarter million brought into juvenile courts each year and several times that number who come to police attention.

One of the largest groups are those whose mothers are working away from home.

However, the Children's Bureau points out, only a small number of the children in need of skilled help are receiving it. The bureau reports that wide variations exist in the number of children who are reached by its services.

For 42 states the average rate was one of every 200 in the state. In states at the top of the list, the number is nearer one out of 50, but at the bottom are those that reach only one or less out of 1,000.

threw him out at first, Lindell holding second. McQuinn singled off Reese's glove and Lindell scored. Johnson rapped back to the mound, and Gregg, attempting a double play, threw to Stanky at second but Ed dropped the ball and both runners were safe. Rizzuto fled to Reiser and Berra struck out.

SIXTH INNING
 Dodgers: Robinson fled to DiMaggio in short center. Reiser singled over Johnson's head into left field. Starnweis raced behind the mound to pick up Walker's chopped bit and started a double play flipping to Rizzuto at second which forced Reiser. Rizzuto relayed to McQuinn in time to double up Walker.

Yankess: Reynolds hit a ground single between third and short. Starnweis walked, moving Reynolds to second. Henrich laid down a sacrifice bunt, Greg fielding the tap to the mound and throwing to Stanky who covered first for the out. Both runners advanced. Lindell hit to Hermanski in deep left. Reynolds scoring after the catch. DiMaggio looked at a third called strike.

SEVENTH INNING
 Dodgers: Hermanski watched a third strike breeze by. Edwards singled to right field. Henrich caught Reese's fly. Jorgensen chopped the ball six feet in front of the plate, bat Berra's throw for a single. The throw was wild and Edwards went to third on the error. Arky Vaughan, batting for Greg, fled out to DiMaggio.

Yankess: McQuinn singled off Behrman who opened the inning and advanced to second on a wild pitch. Johnson singled over second, scoring McQuinn, and raced all the way to third when Reiser allowed the ball to roll through his legs. Rizzuto popped to Stanky near second. Berra walked. Reynolds laid down a squeeze bunt toward first and when Robinson allowed the ball to seep by him Johnson scored and Berra raced to third. Rex Barney replaced Behrman. Starnweis bounced to Robinson who wheeled to throw to second but with nobody covering the bag he held the ball and all runners were safe. Berra scored. Reynolds reached second. Henrich fled deep to Reiser. Reynolds racing to third after the catch with Starnweis staying on first. Reynolds scored on Barney's wild pitch and Starnweis scampered to second. Lindell walked. Jorgensen grabbed DiMaggio's grounder and stepped on third forcing Starnweis.

EIGHTH INNING

NINTH INNING
 Dodgers: Hermanski walked. Edwards flew out to Lindell. Reese singled past Rizzuto sending Hermanski to third. Jorgensen bounced to Starnweis who threw to Rizzuto at second, forcing Reese. Rizzuto's throw to McQuinn was top late to catch the runner and Al Hermanski crossed the plate. Al Giofricido pinch-hit for Barney and Johnston who followed failed to connect with the score ending Yankess 10, Brooklyn 3. (Wire trouble did not permit play-by-play account of the last two batters in the Dodger lineup for the ninth inning.)

The wage demand by the rail unions, spokesmen said, was "compulsory" due to the skyrocketing living costs.

The strike of 173 pilots and co-pilots against the American Overseas Airlines kept the company's planes on both sides of the Atlantic grounded and indirectly affected 323 other flight crew members.

Wages were not involved in the dispute, the AFL air line pilots association calling the strike after it said the company had failed to bargain in good faith.

Handling of cargo was halted in Los Angeles and Long Beach harbors after the waterfront employees association, representing 12 stevedoring firms, ruled no crews of the CIO international longshoremen's and warehousemen's union would be called for loading or unloading of freighters.

Seventeen freighters were caught in the shutdown and an estimated 3,000 longshoremen and 350 foremen were involved in the dispute in which the union had demanded it

Notice of Emergency Operating Schedule To All Electric Consumers:

Through trial and error, inquiry and consultation with customers, and taking into consideration every known factor in connection with the use of electric service, we have finally arrived at a tentative operating schedule which we feel will cause as little inconvenience as possible to everyone.

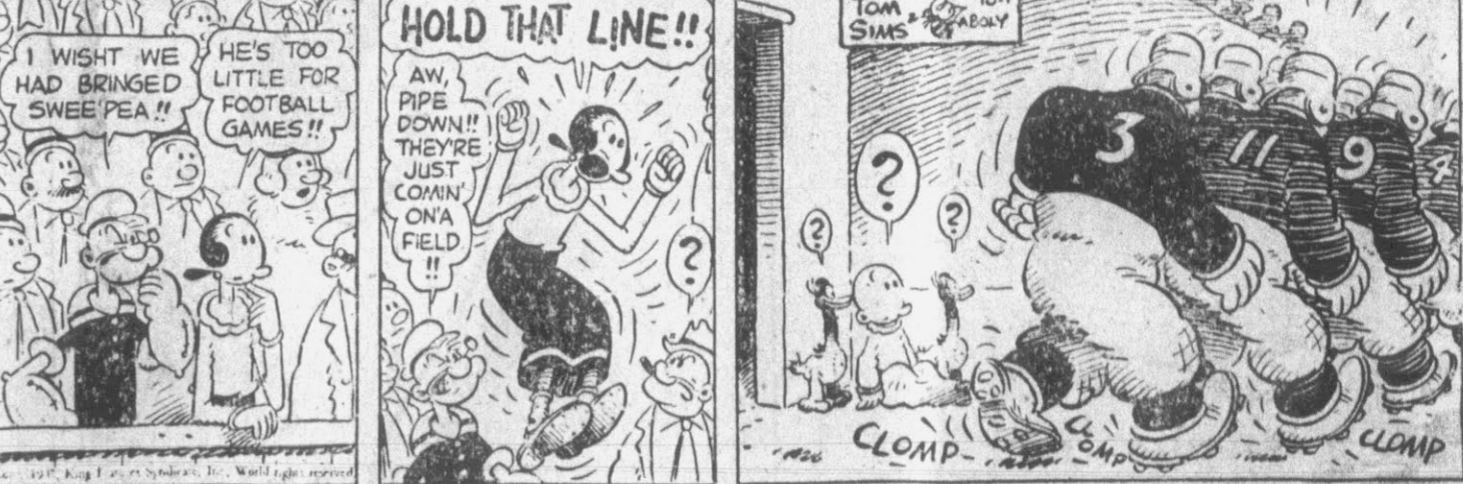

We are now operating on the emergency schedule, which will be followed just as close as possible. The various circuits will be pulled at the same time each day, and will be closed at the same time, thereby assuring you of having your service on at definite times, which will enable you to set up your individual schedule for home and business. Accordingly no service will be off more than one hour at a time.

If it is not necessary to pull a circuit at the scheduled time or if it is pulled during the scheduled time it will, nevertheless, be closed according to schedule; therefore, if there is a strict conservation of current the need of pulling circuits will gradually diminish.

Your fine cooperation thus far is greatly appreciated, and you are urged to continue a strict conservation of current. Use just as little as possible during the emergency period, and please be assured that every effort is being made to give you the best service possible under the circumstances and to hasten the restoration of complete electric service.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

Washington—A wave of a million children, many of whom otherwise might have been placed in institutions, are being maintained in their own homes by federal funds under a social-security program.

These children are in 400,000 families and are cared for under the aid to dependent children provisions of the Social Security Act, which on Oct. 14 observed its 12th birthday. Deny Allegations By W. Kerr Scott 'Good Health' Association Leaders

Raleigh, N.C., Oct. 1—(AP)—Leaders of the N.C. Good Health Association and the state grange today denied charges hurled here yesterday by Commissioner of Agriculture W. Kerr Scott.

Scott, speaking at a joint meeting yesterday of the N.C. Cotton Cooperative Association and the Farmers Cooperative Exchange, asserted in his opinion the state's good health program was undertaken for the purpose of building a medical school at Chapel Hill to keep up with the Jones and the rest of us were sucked in to serve this end."

Scott also said that a farm organization, which he said later was the state grange "I feel sure, was used by the Good Health Association as a propaganda machine during a good health campaign last year.

Dr. I. G. Greer, president of the N.C. Good Health Association, said that the association never urged location of the medical school at Chapel Hill "or anywhere else" and that decision on location of the medical school was "left up to the Medical Care Commission, the official State Hospital Agency, which relied on the judgment of state, national and international hospital experts."

Dr. Greer said that the association "was and remains in favor of a four-year medical school" because "we think x x x it is needed to put more doctors in rural North Carolina where they are so badly need-

ACC GIRDING FOR PIRATES

Both Teams Seeking Initial Win At The Homecoming Tilt

Wilson, Oct. 1.—Jack Allbrook will be the lad to watch when the Atlantic Christian Bulldogs meet the East Carolina Teachers College Pirates in Wilson's Municipal Stadium Saturday night in A.C.C.'s homecoming game.

Allbrook, the Rocky Mount lad who ran 97 yards for the only Bulldog score in the loss to Elon last Friday night here, will start at tailback in Coach Bob Spangler's single wing type attack.

The Bulldogs will be trying for their initial win of the season Saturday night and Coach Jim Johnston's boys of Greenville will be trying for a comeback after dropping their season's opener to Lenoir-Rhyne last Saturday night in Greenville.

Coach "Red" Bird pulled a rabbit out of his hat when he scheduled the game with East Carolina for Saturday night. Duke, Carolina, State and Wake Forest will be playing away from home and nothing will stand in the way of the Atlantic Christian ticket sales as a record crowd is expected to see the traditional rivals battle toe to toe.

Veteran Duke Pivotman

FLETCHER WALL, Duke

Duke's Blue Devils will depend strongly on Fletcher Wall, veteran center, when they meet Tennessee this week-end. Wall was the starting center in the Duke line last year after two years of active duty in the Navy. He has played as a regular for Coach Eddie Cameron's 1943 team. A senior from Lexington, N. C., he was also a leading member of Duke's undefeated golf team last spring.

Texans Tricky "T" Has Great Player In Layne

Chapel Hill, N.C., Oct. 1.—Blair Cherry's Texas T formation plays, which North Carolina's Tar Heels must face Saturday at Austin, are garnished with flankers and a variety of tricky maneuvers, making it an even more complicated attack than that used by Georgia last week.

Blond Bobby Layne, the 197-pound, six-foot-one Texas quarterback, is every bit as good as his reputation, throws spectacularly and runs dazingly. He is backed up by a covey of other pony backs, and the line up front is big and powerful.

These are points the Carolina coaches are trying to get over to their squad this week. Much of the time they are spending on setting up a defense which they hope can muffle the mighty Layne and his cohorts. The rest of the time they are working on correcting their own flaws.

Pictures of the Georgia game, already viewed by both coaches and players, revealed that the Tar Heels made many mistakes against the Bulldogs. "Some of them were excusable," says Coach Carl Staley. "Others were not. We can't afford to make that many against Texas, if what we hear about that time is true."

There is concern here over the long plane trip, which starts at 8:30 a.m. Friday from the Raleigh-Durham airport, and also the hot weather expected in Texas. These factors alone make it imperative for the Tar Heels to be "up" if they expect to beat or hold their own with the favored Longhorns. It will be the first time Carolina and Texas have ever met on the gridiron.

To Get Try-Out

Fayetteville, N.C., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Forrest "Smokie" Burgess is the latest North Carolinian who'll get a try-out for major league service next season.

The young Forest City native who led the Tri-State League in hitting with a .387 average for the season just closed has been purchased by the Chicago Cubs and will report to their spring training camp, officials of the Fayetteville club announced yesterday.

Wildlife Club Hears Message By Ross Stevens

By CHESTER WALSH

The Pitt County Wildlife Club had one of the best meetings of the year at the Patochs Community Building last night. A turkey and country ham supper, with all of the "trimmings" was served by the women of the Community Club. Nearly 90 members were present. Jesse R. Moye II presided.

Ross O. Stevens of Raleigh, executive secretary of the North Carolina Wildlife Federation, made an interesting talk in which he outlined the plans of the federation to arouse the interest of farmers and sportsmen to conserve wildlife and fish. He said that 98 of the state's 100 counties have wildlife clubs. Jones and Dare are the only counties without a club. Stevens rejoiced that the General Assembly had separated the Wildlife Federation from the Department of Conservation, effective last July 1.

The federation has nine commissioners on its board and they are enumerated some of the problems confronting the federation and pointed out that it is such groups as the Pitt County Wildlife Club and others which are doing much to educate the public to conserve wildlife and fish. The Wildlife Commission is doing the best it can and it is making steady progress as the machinery of its operation gets to working, Stevens said.

President Moye thanked State Senator A. B. Corey, who was present, for his good work in the Legislature, and the Daily Reflector for helpful publicity, and announced the reception of several new members.

The meeting pledged full support to the district game wardens, and enumerated some of the problems confronting the federation and pointed out that it is such groups as the Pitt County Wildlife Club and others which are doing much to educate the public to conserve wildlife and fish. The Wildlife Commission is doing the best it can and it is making steady progress as the machinery of its operation gets to working, Stevens said.

Presiding over the meeting was State Senator A. B. Corey, who was present, for his good work in the Legislature, and the Daily Reflector for helpful publicity, and announced the reception of several new members.

Society Awards Scholarship To Algiers Teacher

Mlle Genevieve Faucher of La Redoute, Algiers, is the recipient of the $1,050 Emergency Scholarship awarded to a teacher from a war-torn country by the North Carolina organization of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary society for women teachers, according to an announcement by Dr. Lucile Turner of East Carolina Teachers College, state president of Delta Kappa Gamma. Mlle. Faucher will study at the University of North Carolina. Funds for the scholarship were raised last year by Delta Kappa Gamma members in North Carolina under the leadership of Edith Gilbert of Raleigh and Mrs. Edgar Johnston of Salisbury. Selection of a foreign student to study at a North Carolina institution and all arrangements for her work during the coming year were made by a committee headed by Grace Van Dyke Moore of Greensboro.

Mlle. Faucher is expected to arrive in this country during the fall and will do work as a graduate student at the University of North Carolina. Her passage to this country is being paid by the French government; other expenses will be met by the scholarship funds.

Mlle. Faucher, a Frenchwoman 23 years of age, was born and reared in Algiers. She is a school teacher with three years' experience in secondary schools. In addition to her work as a teacher, she has been a graduate student at the University of Algiers and has completed her "license" in English, the equivalent of a master of arts degree.

He weighs 205 and is a sophomore.

Fire Prevention Week To Begin Here Oct. 5th

Fire Prevention Week, which the city of Greenville will observe October 5 to 11, is one of the nation's oldest "weeks." Strictly an American institution, it is also the most widely observed, with almost every village, town and city in the nation taking part.

Fire Prevention Week originated in the Middle West where several communities began devoting a day in the fall or spring to clean up their cities. They found these days were effective in reducing fires, and they began setting aside October 9, the anniversary of the great Chicago fire of 1871, as a Fire Prevention and clean-up day.

In 1911, the Fire Marshal's Association of North America, meeting in Chicago, suggested that the 40th anniversary of the great fire be set aside nationally to alert the American people to the increasing dangers from fire. Oct. 9, 1911, subsequently was proclaimed by 22 governors as the first Fire Prevention Day in the United States.

During World War I, President Wilson urged the people to prevent destruction of war materials, munitions and food by fire, and in 1920 he signed the first presidential proclamation for a national Fire Prevention Day on Oct. 9.

In 1922, President Harding made the observance a national Fire Prevention Week. Since then, every president has issued a Fire Prevention Week Proclamation, annually, as have the governors-general of Canada, and the week has been observed with growing effectiveness both in the United States and Canada.

Peanut Vote Is Scheduled For December Ninth

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced that a referendum on peanut marketing quotas for the 1948, 1949 and 1950 crops will be held Tuesday, December 9, 1947.

All persons engaged in the production of more than one acre of peanuts in 1947 are eligible to vote. This includes tenants, sharecroppers and owners who share in the proceeds of the 1947 crop.

Acres allotments for each of the 14 peanut-producing states (announced September 24) will be subdivided into county and individual farm allotments. Questionnaires have been distributed to producers by county Agricultural Conservation Association Committees for the purpose of obtaining data to be used in connection with determining farm acreage allotments. These questionnaires are to be filled out and returned to county ACA offices by October 1. It is expected that each farm operator will be advised of his farm's allotment before the referendum.

Supt. Conley said there had not been any fire in the school building this session and that no activities were scheduled there last night.

In the community house, nearby, the Pitt County Wildlife Club was holding a supper meeting, when the fire broke out. Someone there discovered it.

tion of further hardships on an already overburdened public. It's not only Titanic, it's heroic.

One of the sensations of this economic set-up is the appointment of James Harold Wilson, 31-year-old "boy wonder" of the Socialist Government, to succeed the great Cripps in presidency of the Board of Trade as the latter takes over his position as minister of economic affairs. Wilson is the youngest man to achieve cabinet rank since Pitt became chancellor in 1782. As secretary for overseas trade he has been one of Cripps' right hand aides, and is expected to be an invaluable assistant to Sir Stafford in the historic drive for recovery. England is making much of young Wilson.

Food Problem . . .

About six months, according to Paul M. O'Leary, former deputy administrator of OPA. In a special story in the Washington Post he said:

To get a rationing program started in six months would require a series of "almost perfect breaks." For example: The government would have to be able to get back the key people—the only ones with experience to do the job—who ran rationing in wartime.

Anyway, talk of rationing right now is just talk. There's no sign of its happening any time soon, if at all.

Eating less— Suggestions along this line have had a cool response.

Wasting less food— Of all the ideas suggested for saving food for Europe, this is the easiest to ask Americans to do. It means no sacrifice at all.

President Truman suggested wasting less. He set up a special committee of 26 citizens to work out a waste-less-food program. You'll hear from this committee later.

And, at this moment, that's all that's been done.

By wasting less food, Americans won't have to buy as much. That should leave some extra food for Europe.

Couldn't the government step in and hold back from the American market big chunks of food for Europe?

It could be done but officials say they're afraid that, with food here made a little more scarce on the market, prices would go even higher than now.

It will take some time to find out whether the waste-less-food idea will work.

Some color is added to a rather cold personality when it is recorded that he is very religious, is deeply devoted to his family,

Sir Stafford has one other characteristic which is worth nothing as he embarks on the task of making or breaking England. He always has been a good deal of lone wolf and has found it hard to run with the pack. Quite likely it is this trait which helps qualify him for the job of economic czar, since that is pretty much a one-man show.

The new post is described as created especially to centralize in one man the broad powers for a much closer integration of internal and external economic policy. The goal is to cancel an adverse annual trade balance of $2,400,000,000—a truly titanic task which not only calls for supreme skill but for the impos-
