

INVESTIGATOR EXONERATED GENERAL LEE

Army High Command Admits "Errors" But Say Charges Exaggerated

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—The Army high command today acknowledged "errors" in the Italian theater command, but labeled as a "wholly erroneous picture" a Scripps-Howard columnist's charges of mistreatment of enlisted men and high-living by officers under Lt. Gen. John C. H. Lee.

Making public the results of an investigation touched off by writer Robert C. Ruark's charges, the army released...

(1) A 12,000-word report from Maj. Gen. Ira T. Wyche, army inspector general, who said he found only "minor discrepancies and irregularities"; (2) a memorandum from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, chief of staff, and (3) a memorandum from Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall approving Wyche's report.

Ruark, whose original articles were published last summer, issued the following statement in New York: "I have seen the army's report of its investigation of my charges against Lt. Gen. J. C. H. Lee, and I intend to study the report thoroughly before replying. In my own good time I will have the necessary answer to the army's findings in the case."

In brief, Wyche's report was that the matters Ruark complained about were, when true, isolated instances. He said Ruark "took a few facts, half facts, and untruths which he accepted as facts, and molded them into articles that carry implications of gross maladministration of the theater by General Lee and his staff."

Eisenhower said the errors were the exception rather than the rule and in no case could be traced to wrong intent on the part of the theater commander (Lee).

UAW Officials Will Try Unseat Walter Reuther

Detroit, Oct. 3—(AP)—Three of the top-ranking officers of the CIO United Auto Workers today carried a campaign to unseat UAW President Walter P. Reuther at the union's November international convention.

The trio—Vice Presidents R. J. Thomas and Richard T. Leonard and Secretary-Treasurer George P. Addes—announced they would run candidates against the Reuther faction at the Atlantic City convention and select a slate "before the end of the month."

Thomas, who lost out to Reuther last year in a fight for the union presidency, told a news conference that he did not know whether he would run against Reuther again, but informed Reuther said it was almost a certainty that Thomas would try to regain the No. 1 UAW position.

Buses Attacked By Gun, Stones

Hattiesburg, Miss., Oct. 3—(AP)—Two buses of the Southern Bus Co., Inc. were attacked, one with gun fire, less than 24 hours after Gov. Fielding L. Wright threatened to place National Guardsmen aboard the buses with orders to "shoot to kill" unless violence ceased in the 136-day-old strike of company employees.

The governor made an on-the-spot investigation of the incidents yesterday, but told newsmen he had not decided what action to take.

Statue Of Victoria Bitterly Disliked Statue To Be Removed From Position In Front Of Ireland's Parliament Building; Bitter Memories; Barriers With England Falling

From Dublin comes news that Eire finally has decided to remove the bitterly disliked statue of Queen Victoria which through many decades of hostile relationship between southern Ireland and England has stood in front of Leinster House—now the Dail, or Parliament, of an independent Eire.

The announced reason for the removal is that the room it occupies is needed for parking space—poor Victoria! But everybody knows that there are few reminders of Britain that stir the "Fightin' Irishman" to greater wrath than sight of the Queen who ruled in days which southern Ireland would like to forget.

Yankees: Stirrweiss lined into left field for a single. Henrich singled into centerfield. Stirrweiss stopping at second. Berra grounded to Robinson who threw to Reese covering second in an attempted force play but Reese dropped the ball and all hands were safe.

Dodgers: Stanky drew a walk. On a hit and run play, Reese rapped through the box but Stirrweiss made a stop behind second base and got the hitter at first as Stanky slid safely into second. Johnson fielded Robinson's bounding ball and threw him out at first as Stanky held second. Bevens walked. Walker, Hermanski fouled to Johnson near the third base field bases.

SECOND INNING Yankees: Reese backed up for Lindell's hopper and threw him out at first. Rizzuto singled into left field, and stole second on the third pitch to Bevens. Bevens lined out to Fugillo in right-center. Rizzuto holding second. Stirrweiss went down swinging.

LITTLE HOPE OF AVERTING UN SHOWDOWN

Diplomats Doubtful Partition Of Holy Land Will Please Anyone

Lake Success, Oct. 3—(AP)—Diplomatic authorities said today that the United Nations appeared to have but slight chance of working out a settlement for the Jewish-Arab conflict over Palestine which would be acceptable to both sides and avert all danger of a shooting showdown in the Holy Land.

The outcome most generally expected here is that some solution will be proposed which will be more agreeable to one side than the other and that the United Nations will have to take responsibility for enforcing it with some sort of international policing arrangement. That presumably would mean contributions of armed forces by member nations for that specific purpose.

The Jewish agency for Palestine told a United Nations special committee yesterday that it was prepared to accept "in sadness and most reluctantly" partition of the Holy Land if that was the only way to obtain establishment of a Jewish national home.

Partition, meaning creation of separate Jewish and Arab states, previously had been recommended by a majority of a U.N. investigation commission. But earlier this week, before the Jewish Agency's position was made known officially, Arab spokesmen had informed the U.N. that such a settlement was unacceptable and that the Arabs would fight against it.

Consider Buying Grain Directly From Farmer

Clinton Anderson Discloses Possible Action To By-Pass Grain Exchanges, Curbing Speculation On Relief Program

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson today disclosed that the Agriculture Department is considering purchases of grain direct from farmers.

This by-passing of the grain exchanges would be aimed to curb the inflationary upswing of wheat and corn prices and minimize speculation resulting from the European aid program.

Anderson told of this possible step after a cabinet meeting at the White House which was reported to have been concerned largely with possible effects of the European aid program on prices.

He told reporters the government would "prefer to continue buying through the normal channels of grain trade."

FIVE YOUTHS ARE EXECUTED

One Jammed Lock To Death Cell, Changing Schedule

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 3—(AP)—Two White and three Negro youths died today in the Central Prison gas chamber in the first quintuple execution in the state's history.

Jethro Lampkin and Richard McCain, Negroes, who killed a Charlotte coal dealer, were the first to die. They were followed by Robert Messer and Earl O'Dear, who were convicted in Jackson County of killing a taxidriver and his wife in a robbery. The final gas victim was Willie Cherry, Rich Square Negro who broke into a home there and attacked a white woman.

Prison officials had planned to execute Messer and O'Dear first but O'Dear had jammed the lock to his death row cell with a wooden ice cream spoon. It was opened quickly but officials by then had altered their schedule. O'Dear said he was sorry he did it.

All appeared resigned as they entered the death chamber. Each had feasted a short time before on ham, eggs, cherry pie and ice cream. Relatives claimed all the bodies but Cherry's. His probably will go to a medical school.

BUSY SESSION FOR ALDERMEN ON THURSDAY

Extend Zoning Regulation To Hillsdale; Support Gov't Hospital Plan

The Board of Aldermen in regular monthly session last night extended the city zoning regulations to the Hillsdale area, agreed to aid the Merchants Association in decorating the city streets for the Christmas season, promised support to efforts to procure the proposed government hospital for this area, heard committee reports and transacted other routine business.

At the request of a group of Hillsdale citizens the area from the Tucker land south along the Winterville highway to the end of the subdivision was designated as a residential section. The action was taken under authority of the city zoning law passed by the last legislature.

An appeal from the Merchants Association for aid in the street decorating for the Christmas holiday season was met with an agreement by the city to purchase $1,150 worth of electric light streamers for use on the streets. The Merchants Association is to provide approximately twice that amount for laurel and other decorations and the cost of installing and dismantling the decorations. While the local utilities have been aiding in the Christmas decoration program by installing the lights and furnishing the current for same, this is the first year that the city governing board has been asked to aid in the program.

A committee from the Jaycees appeared before the board with a request that the city underwrite extension of the sewer and electric lines to the new government hospital should it be located in this vicinity. The Greenville Utilities had already made such an agreement, but it needed city approval to be considered by the government in its decision as to whether or not to (Continued on page seven)

Landsberg, Germany, Oct. 3—(AP)—Erhard Wolf, Nazi executioner who received five cigarettes for each of the 200 inmates he killed, was hanged today with seven other men of the Flossenburg concentration camp's staff.

The other seven, convicted by a U.S. war crimes court, Jan. 22 after a seven-month trial, were: Joseph Hauser, who once gave a Frenchman 25 lashes for carrying a rosary; Willi Olschewski, a Dutchman accused of shooting seven inmates unable to walk; Albert Roller and Ludwig Schwarz, accused of conducting evacuation marches in which those who lagged were slain; Joseph Wurst, who ordered 100 inmates into a woods to be massacred by machineguns; Konrad Blumberg, who recommended execution of hundreds of inmates; and Christian Busch, whose specialty was beating inmates to death.

Hearings On Aviation

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—For months there'll be a lot in the news about hearings on aviation by a presidential board and congressmen. Because the hearings are important, here's a roundup explanation of what they mean, how they started, and why.

The United States Air Force became huge during the war. So did the American aviation industry which expanded to build planes. With war's end the Air Force was cut to pint-size. So was the aviation industry which then had no more war orders.

True, there still are orders for military planes and many commercial planes. But they're tiny compared with wartime orders. So, with the end of the war, some important questions moved up front: 1. What do we do about developing better planes in case of future war? Other countries are doing that. How do we keep in front? 2. If another war comes, will we need an industry able to turn out many planes fast. But it can't expand again overnight. What about that?

3. What do we do about keeping our commercial aviation—passenger and freight travel—out front? We, as a nation, have no answer for those questions. Yet, an answer is necessary for this country's military and civilian air future. To try to find the answer—in short, to work out a plan for our air future—two steps have been taken: 1. The President set up a special board to go into all the questions and recommend a plan. 2. Congress set up a special committee of its own to do the same thing. Here are those two steps in more detail: On July 17 President Truman appointed a five-man board called the President's Air Policy Commission—to study the questions listed above. The members of the board, none of them connected with aviation, are: Chairman Thomas K. Finletter, New York attorney; George P. Baker, professor of transportation at (Continued on page seven)

Laughinghouse-Swindell

Miss Margaret Swindell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Swindell of Pantego, became the bride of Mr. Fernie Caswell Laughinghouse, son of Mrs. Annie Laughinghouse and the late Rev. Laughinghouse of Greenville, N. C., in a formal ceremony solemnized Sunday afternoon, September 21, at 1:30 o'clock in the Pantego Christian Church. The Rev. J. W. Swindell, uncle of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony, being assisted by the Rev. J. W. Lollis, resident pastor of the church.

Palms and southern smilax banked the altar, forming a background for tall standards of white gladioli and the five seven-banded candelabras. Single candle stands tied with clusters of white gladioli and bridal tulle marked the pews at intervals down the aisles.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by the pianist, Miss Rosa Gray Hamilton, who wore a gown of white taffeta trimmed with designs of white sequins. Her corsage was fashioned of pink roses and blue fever few tied with pink satin ribbon.

Miss Betty J. Owen of Greensboro, soloist, wore a gown of ivory satin with pink rose corsage. She sang, "Thank God for a Garden" by Teresa Del Reigo, and "I Love Thee" by Gries. As a benediction for the ceremony Miss Owen sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. During the ceremony "Liebestraum" was played softly and the traditional Wedding Marches were used for the processional and the recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, A. D. Swindell, wore a gown of ivory satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and marquisette and yoke, edged with a scalloped milliners fold embroidered in seed pearls. The bodice, which closed in the back with tiny covered buttons, was joined to a bouffant skirt, ending in a cathedral train. Her finger tip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of satin, embroidered in seed pearls, matching her gown. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of white roses centered with a white orchid showered with staphanotis and satin ribbon. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The matron of honor, the bride's sister, Mrs. J. J. Benson, wore a gown of white taffeta round neckline and drop shoulders with full skirt, featuring a bustle. Her head dress was of white shirred illusion. She carried a powder puff nosegay of red roses tied with matching ribbon.

The bridesmaids—Miss Alma Hicks of Winston-Salem, Miss Maxine Mason of Raleigh, Miss "Mem" Bowers of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. E. T. Linn, of Asheville, wore white taffeta gowns identical to that of the matron of honor with matching head dress of white. Their bouquets were of red roses fashioned on the same lines as the matron of honor's.

The groom had as his best man, Mr. Tommy Cox of Alexandria, Va. Groomsmen were: Jesse Laughinghouse of Greenville, Willie Laughinghouse of Dunn, Quinn Bostic of Greenville and I. G. Hicks of Winston-Salem. All wore dark suits with white boutonnières.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Swindell, wore a dress of navy crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

The groom's mother wore a black dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage like that of the bride's mother.

Mrs. Laughinghouse, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swindell, was graduated from the Pantego high school and W. C. U. N. C., Greensboro, N. C. She taught commerce in the Pantego school last year and at the time of her marriage was stenographer and book-keeper for her father.

Mr. Laughinghouse, youngest son of the late Rev. Laughinghouse of Greenville, attended the Greenville schools and served in the U. S. Army during World War II. He is now associated with the Bostic-Sugg Furniture Company in Greenville where they will make their home.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home near Pantego.

Receiving at the front entrance of the home were Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Lupton of Belhaven, who introduced the guests to the receiving line. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Martin of Jamesville invited the guests into the dining room where Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Hicks of Winston-Salem received. The lovely lace covered table was decorated with an arrangement of white asters, glads and lace fern with the three tiered wedding cake placed on one end. Sprays of southern smilax completed the decorations. All white tapers flanked the white flower arrangements throughout the home.

Charles E. Ricks was in charge of the refreshments which consisted of bridal teas, individual wedding cakes, mints and nuts. Mr. and Mrs. Walton Johnson presided at the bride's book where guests registered.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnson received in the gift room where the many lovely gifts were on display.

Line frappe was served on the sun porch by Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Aman of Jacksonville, N. C. Mrs. Aman is a niece of Mrs. Swindell. Assisting in serving were Misses Julia Rae Shavender, Frances Ann Radcliffe, Lucille Windley and Virginia Canady. All wore white dinner gowns.

The wedding cake was cut later by the bride and groom and for the members of the wedding party.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Laughinghouse of Greenville said goodbyes. Guests registering numbered over two hundred.

Following the reception the couple left on a wedding trip to unnamed points. For travel the bride wore an all-wool grey suit with green pin stripe. Her hat, gloves, shoes and bag were of matching green. Her corsage was the orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday night, Miss Margaret Swindell and Mr. Fernie Laughinghouse entertained their wedding attendants and out-of-town guests at a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Ricks in Pantego.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout with arrangements of white flowers and lace fern and tall limited white tapers, carrying out the nuptial colors, green and white.

At the close of the evening the bride and groom-elect presented their attendants with appropriate individual gifts.

Those in attendance numbered approximately thirty.

Department Of Music At ECTC Gets Revision

The department of music at East Carolina Teachers College, under the direction of Dr. Rudolph Willman, who joined the faculty this fall, has introduced several new types of instruction, acquired new equipment, and begun plans for a revision of the curriculum for music majors at the college. Graded courses in voice, piano, and the stringed, brass and woodwind instruments have been established for students working in applied music. A new testing program for music majors to measure achievement more accurately at the end of the term has been introduced.

Five new pianos to be used by students for practice have been bought, and a number of new instruments for orchestra and band have been acquired. This fall an additional room in the Wright building is being used by the department.

The four major music organizations on the campus are now being reorganized for the year's work. The college band, the women's chorus, the college chorus of mixed voices, and the college singers have begun practice and are planning programs to be presented during the year. On the average there are two total eclipses of the sun, over some part of the world, every three years.

Strength FOR THE DAY

REMEMBERING WITH TEARS
In Queen Elizabeth's tomb in Westminster Abbey one sees in a small case the famous ring of Lord Essex. He and the queen were in love with each other and she had given him this ring with the pledge that if he were ever in trouble and sent the ring to her, she would do everything in her power to help him. When he was condemned to death he sent the ring, but enemies intercepted it, and Essex went to his death.

So when they buried Elizabeth, they buried Essex' ring with her. About it clung the fondest memories of her life, and the most poignant sorrow. As a poet wrote centuries later:

"Of all sad words of tongue or pen,
The saddest are these, It might have been."

Fond memories of what we want and miss are always buried deep down in our hearts, as the ring of Essex was buried with his queen; and we have to wait for the sighting of it until that day when, in a new heaven and a new earth, we shall learn the full meaning of disappointment and trial.

In the meantime, both experience and the testimony of the Word of God assure us that character grows by pain and contradiction, as well as by joy and achievement. Storm is needed to toughen the oak just as sunshine is needed to make it grow.

As a substitute for lime in the manufacture of glass, magnesia is most frequently used.

PIN-WORM MYSTERY ENDED

Science has at last solved the problem! It is now also known that Pin-worm infection spreads rapidly and can cause real distress if neglected. So beware of that scrawling rectal itch, and act fast. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W at the first sign of Pin-worms. P-W is a medical-grade treatment based on an officially approved drug principle. # Notice of Emergency Operating Schedule To All Electric Consumers:

Through trial and error, inquiry and consultation with customers, and taking into consideration every known factor in connection with the use of electric service, we have finally arrived at a tentative operating schedule which we feel will cause as little inconvenience as possible to everyone.

We are now operating on the emergency schedule, which will be followed just as close as possible. The various circuits will be pulled at the same time each day, and will be closed at the same time, thereby assuring you of having your service on at definite times, which will enable you to set up your individual schedule for home and business. Accordingly no service will be off more than one hour at a time.

If it is not necessary to pull a circuit at the scheduled time or if it is pulled during the scheduled time it will, nevertheless, be closed according to schedule; therefore, if there is a strict conservation of current the need of pulling circuits will gradually diminish.

Your fine cooperation thus far is greatly appreciated, and you are urged to continue a strict conservation of current. Use just as little as possible during the emergency period, and please be assured that every effort is being made to give you the best service possible under the circumstances and to hasten the restoration of complete electric service.

Tortures Of Nervous Indigestion And Weakened, Highstrung Feeling Relieved Promptly And She Feels Fine Again, States Mrs. Lafflen

"I was down to ninety-eight pounds and felt so run down I could hardly look after my household, but thanks to Retonga I now weigh one hundred ten and feel so good I am on the go all the time," happily declares Mrs. Elmer Lafflen, well-known resident of Route 1, Arden, N. C.

"About four years ago," continued Mrs. Lafflen, "I began to feel weakened and highstrung and my weight dropped from one hundred twenty-nine pounds to ninety-eight. My appetite was very poor and I frequently suffered torture from sour stomach and gas pains. Even after a light meal I slept very poorly. I had to resort to laxatives frequently, and I tried so many medicines and treatments without adequate relief that I felt almost desperate.

"Retonga gave me such grand relief that I enjoy hearty meals every day. I sleep fine and that weakened high-strung feeling is relieved. I never think of taking harsh laxatives now. I feel splendid all the time. Retonga deserves all the praise I can give it."

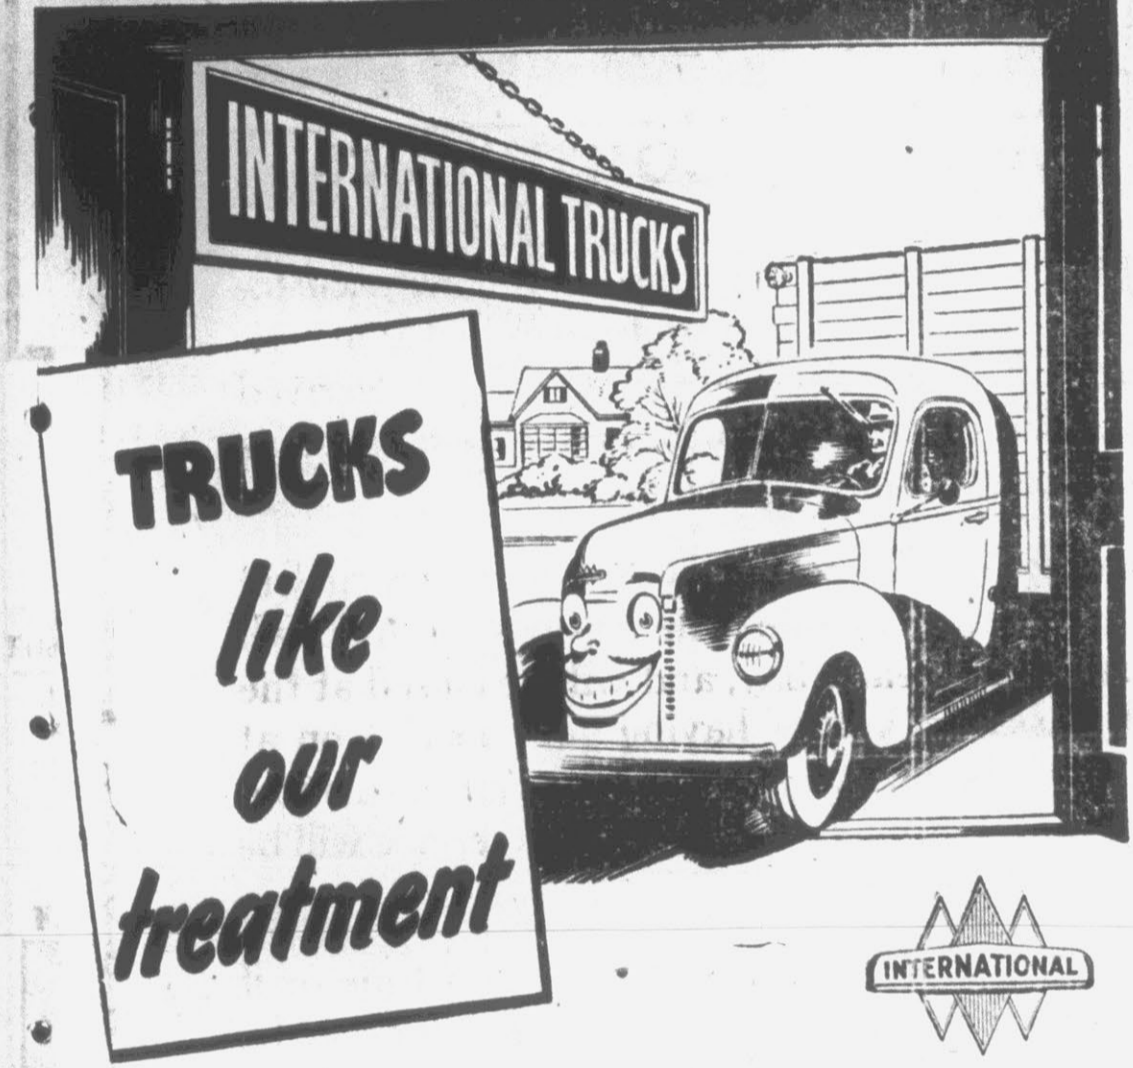

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of gastric juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Bissette's Drug Store.—Adv.

Baby Pam Pack Ekes Win In Washington In First Half

By SAM NORTROP
 An off-tackle buck by Asby which carried over into paydirt for the extra point was the margin of victory as the Washington Juniors eked out a 7-6 win over the Baby Phantoms of Greenville yesterday in Washington.
 After an uneventful first quarter, Bland blocked Robbin's attempted punt and recovered on the Pack's 23. Farley and Sideris collected 3 and Allgood heaved two passes which were incomplete. Washington took over on their 19 and proceeded to march. After one first-down, Asby swept right end for 50 yards and after one play took to the flanks again and was dropped on the Phantoms' eleven. A penalty for delaying the game put the ball on the sixteen, but four plays later Asby took the pickin' over. Asby again crashed over for the extra point. The half in which the Greenville set only one first-down, ended with the kickoff.

 A rejuvenated Jayvee team came out after the half. Bland kicked off and after two fruitless tries Robbin's booted to Allgood who fought his way to the Washington 37. Sideris picked up eleven and a first down. Denton, Allgood and Sideris picked up ten more on three plays and the same trio got another first with Sideris carrying the brunt of the attack. Farley picked up five on a quarterback sneak and after a fruitless punch at the line Allgood carried around end and into paydirt for the score.
 The all-important extra-point try failed as the whole left side of the Washington line stonewalled Sideris. In the final quarter the ball stayed within the two 40-yard stripes as neither team could gain. Washington led 6-4 in first downs.

rejection of Eire as a member of the United Nations? Here is a reputable and stable government whose relations with members of this organization are good and cordial. She is, above all, a peaceful nation, seeking by legitimate means to improve at all times her relationship with powers similarly stable and legal. There is not one argument that can be offered against her admission.
 That's what you call reciprocity. Russia vetoed the Irish application, but Britain did her best for Eire. Maybe we are seeing the dawn of a new era between Eire and England.

 Then, by March 1, this congressional committee will recommend to Congress what it thinks should be our policy or plan for American aviation.
 Then it will be up to Congress, with all this information on hand, to debate and decide whether we are to have a plan at all, and what kind.
 (The hearings—by the President's commission and the congressional committee—are not dealing with such things as safety in passenger planes.
 That's being handled by government agencies. The commission and the committee are dealing with the broader field of working out a policy for the future of aviation.)

 The roof of the grandstand at Guy Smith stadium was ordered resurfaced to preserve the property. Alderman Heber Tripp reported that the material for the rat control campaign had been received and that the campaign would get underway within the near future.

 First was the trip by Prime Minister de Valera to London to consult with Prime Minister Attlee on the economic situation as relating to the two countries. That was a highly important gesture for the proud and stern de Valera to make—he who a generation ago was condemned to death by the British as one of the leaders of the Easter Week Rebellion. I am acquainted with Mr. de Valera and take this to be a friendly move on his part.
 Then the other day when Eire's name came up for membership in the United Nations, British Minister of State Hector McNeill went out of his way to make a striking defense of Eire who was being opposed by Russia for the second time. Said McNeill:

 By Jan. 1 it will recommend to Mr. Truman a plan or policy that covers our military and civilian aviation future.
