Tobacco Market Sales Suspended

Royster Announces Suspension After October 28 For Indefinite Period; Farmers Advised Not To Place Leaf On Floors Monday Or Tuesday

Henderson, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Sales on all flue-cured tobacco markets will be suspended after Tuesday, October 28, for an indefinite period as a result of the British ban on tobacco imports, Chairman Fred Royster of the Flue-Cured Marketing Committee announced today.

Royster made the announcement after a telephone poll of the marketing committee, composed of five representatives of growers, five of warehousemen and five of buyers.

The committee urged farmers whose tobacco will keep for a while not to place it on the floors Monday or Tuesday.

The action came in the wake of a British announcement that tobacco imports would be banned and a subsequent decline in prices on flue-cured floors.

Royster sent this wire to the markets:

"Action marketing committee, sales will be suspended on all flue-cured tobacco markets after sales Tuesday, October 28, for an indefinite period. This action taken in order every effort may be made to remed ysituation by withdrawal British companies. Your cooperation appreciated."

Greensboro, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Acting to meet the crisis presented by withdrawal of British buying as result of a ban on imports announced yesterday, North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation addressed an appeal today to Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson tht tobacco quotas for 1948 be announced immediately.

A telegram sent to Secretary Anderson by Carl T. Hicks of Creedmore, chairman of the State Farm Bureau's Tobacco Committee, also asked that tobacco markets be closed until a solution of the problem presented by reduced buying and sagging leaf prices can be worked out. The telegram was sent before announcement was made later in the day that the Flue-Cured Tobacco Marketing Vommitte ehad ordered all sales temporarily stopped after Tuesday.

The message was sent from the Bureau's state office here where Hicks was present this morning to plan the organization's course of action with Executive Vice-President R. Flake Shaw. Both Shaw and Hicks were present at an emergency meeting held late last night in Winston-Salem by tobacco leaders of the bureau from the old belt. At that session a resolution was drawn up and copies were sent this morning to the leading tobacco companies of this country, asking that they "step into the breach by buying every pound o tobacco they can grade out o this crop and maintain the level of prices that prevailed prior to this crisis.

Atom Blueprints Found On Lawn

Beverly Hills, Calif., Oct. 24—(AP) Atomic secrets apparently were not at stake, but police were mildly surprised yesterday to receive from UCLA Student Seymour Thomas two building blueprints stamped "confidential, property of Atomic Energy Commission.

Thomas said he found them on a lawn. The commission is building a research laboratory at UCLA. The Federal Bureau of Investigation had the plans today.

"WARMONGER" CHARGE USED ON RUSSIANS

Turkey Accuses Soviet Of Propaganda Aggression; Ukraine Accuses U.S.

Lake Success, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Turkey formally accused Russia today of "psychological aggression," "nefarious propaganda," "warmongering" and "interfering in Turkish internal affairs."

Turkey charged also that Russia was trying to turn the Turkish people against the United States by spreading reports that American forces were taking over military bases in Turkey under the Truman aid program.

The Turk charges were made by Chief Delegate Selim Sarpar in U. N. debate on Russia's anti-"warmonger" measures.

The Soviet Ukraine, accused the United States of carrying on an "economic a npdiloti "economic and political war for capitalistic domination."

The Ukraine asserted tha t the United States was "trying to impoverish the world" but that "the eastern European democracies are fighting against this expansion."

Sarpar charged that Russia, through propaganda, was trying to turn the Turkish people against the U. S. by spreading reports that the United States was taking over Turkish military bases under the Truman aid program.

Turkey and Greece are receiving aid under the Truman program for halting the spread of communism.

Sarper spoke before the 57-member political committee of the United Nations Assembly. The committee was in its third day of debate on a Soviet proposal to condemn "warmongering" and calling on member nations to make "warmongering" a crmie.

TRAINS CRASH KILLING MANY

Twenty-Eight Known Dead And Over Hundred Injured

London, Oct. 24—(AP)—Two commuter-packed suburban electric trains collided in a dense fog this morning, killing at least 28 persons and injuring more than 100 others.

Croydon Mayday Hospital, nearest to the scene of the crash in South Croydon, said it had received 26 dead by 10:15 a.m. (GMT).

Croydon General Hospital received two dead.

Chief Ambulance Officer A. L. Hill said all the more than 100 casualties had been carried away in 28 ambulances by 9:15, two hours after the crash.

Railway officials said one of the trains was probing its way slowly through the fog toward South Croydon when there suddenly was a blinding flash and a grinding explosion as a following train rammed into the rear of the first.

The last two coaches of the first train were thrown off the rails and the two leading cars of the following train were splintered, smashed and telescoped. There is no locomotive on these commuter trains.

TAFT ENTERS NAME IN RACE

Ohio Senator Announces Candidacy For GOP Nomination

Washington, Oct. 24—(AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio formally announced his candidacy today for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination, describing the race as "wide open."

Taft's long-expected formal entry was contained in a letter to Fred H. Johnson, chairman of the Ohio Republican State Committee. The committee and other Ohio GOP groups had urged him to make the race last July 31.

The letter was written before President Truman's announcement to Taft and other congressional leaders that he was calling a special session of Congress November 17.

Taft wrote Johnson that he would keep speaking engagements already lined up but that after the Senate met in 1948 he would be too busy here to make a personal campaign for the nomination.

The senator hurried from yesterday's White House conference to catch a plane for Cincinnati where he delivered an off-the-record talk at the Commonwealth Club last night. It was not learned immediately whether the special session call might cause any change in his speaking plans.

These have yet to be announced. But Taft has been considering a trip through Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and possibly Texas.

Cardinal Dies In Rome After Lengthy Illness

Rome, Oct. 24—(AP)—Carlo Cardinal Salotti, 77, prefect of the Congregation of Rites, died today.

He had been gravely ill for some time and received the Last Sacraments and a special blessing from Pope Pius XII last Saturday. He had been a prince of the church since 1935.

Cardinal Salotti, regarded as one of the most brilliant princes of the Catholic Church, bore at one time one of its strangest titles — the Devil's Advocate.

The curious designation was his by virtue of the office of promoter of the faith, which he once occupied. As such he had the duty of presenting before the Congregation of Rites every conceivable argument against a contemplated canonization to assure that no unworthy candidate be enrolled in the calendar of the saints.

Moore's plane was reported forced down last week in territory now in the hands of Communists.

Special Sessions

Washington, Oct. 24—(AP)—The last special session of Congress was convened by President Roosevelt on Sept. 21, 1939, to change this country's neutrality act.

Since 1900, 13 special sessions have been called.

RUINOUS DRAIN TOLD BRITONS

Resources Dwindling 70 Millions A Week Says Financier

London, Oct. 24—(AP)—Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton told the House of Commons today that the current drain on Britain's gold and dollar resources averages $70,000,000 a week—"a ruinous rate which cannot be continued."

"It can only be checked by exporting more and importing less in respect of the dollar area," he declared. "There is no other way round at all."

Given an accounting of the nation's financial position, Dalton forecast that Britain's dollar trade deficit could be reduced to a billion dollars a year by 1949.

"If we succeed in achieving all that Sir Stafford Cripps (minister for economic affairs) has laid down, we shall still be facing at the beginning of 1949 a dollar deficit at the rate of one thousand million dollars, or $20,000,000 a week."

Sir Stafford yesterday announced a stiff new dollar-saving program, which included shorter rations, few-

LUCKMAN PLAN WILL CONTINUE

Poultryless And Eggless Day Decision Still Stands

Washington, Oct. 24 — (AP) — Poultryless and eggless Thursday will continue to be a part of the voluntary campaign to save grain for Western Europe.

Announcing this decision last night, Food Committee Chairman Charles Luckman said the no-poultry day is more effective than an alternate program advanced by the National Poultry Producers Federation.

Luckman said the offer by the producers was not an adequate substitute because:

"The federation does not offer to reduce the production of new chicks and broilers and fryers below the present level x x x and it does not promise to reduce or cull flocks on the farms beyond what will be accomplished in normal operations."

The decision came after a week of conferences brought to a climax Tuesday when the federation made what it called a "final offer" to reduce flocks if poultryless Thursday was called off.

The federation argued that if the use of fowls for food is discouraged, more of them will be left on farms to eat more grain.

Last Laugh For Kids; Teachers 'Flunk' Quiz

Denver, Oct. 24—(AP)—Colorado school kids had the last laugh today—their teachers averaged a failing 67 on a test in American history.

The quiz wasn't particularly rough. There were little matters such as which side did the Tories favor in the American Revolution? Who assassinated Lincoln? And what do we call the first 10 amendments to the U.S. constitution?

Approximately 100 teachers were picked for the quiz at random from some 6,000 in town for the Colorado Education Association convention, and assured their identities would be kept a deep, dark secret.

The 25 questions were listed from a standard text used by Denver public schools, and tossed every day at pupils.

But grades ranged as low as 20 out of a possible 100, or only five correct answers. And boners were pulled that would make a lad sitting under a dunce cap burst with pride at his own knowledge.

George Washington was given credit for drafting the Declaration of Independence, single-handed. One teacher guessed Robert E. Lee was president of the Confederate States, although the majority frankly didn't know who held that Civil War office.

And about half of those tested by Rocky Mountain news reporters replied that "free education for all" was guaranteed in the Bill of Rights, which didn't even mention education.

Reflector Subscriptions Frozen Because Of Newsprint Shortage

It is with great regret that we have to announce the freezing of our subscriptions as of today because of a critical shortage of newsprint over which we have no control. No new subscriptions to The Reflector are being accepted and all subscribers on our present list who are not paid in advance will be dropped immediately. Such subscribers will not be able to return to our list until we can overcome the present emergency.

There are two factors that make it necesary for us to take this action at this time and every effort will be made to work out of the situation as quickly as possible. For a long time newsprint has been extremely short and most of the newspapers, especially the smaller ones, have had to operate on almost a day-to-day basis so far as newsprint was concerned, and there has been little chance to accumulate a large reserve for emergencies. Anticipating that our new press would be in operation by November 1 we found it necessary to change our mill specifications to sizes for the new equipment which automatically cut off our supply for our present equipment. There has been a delay in the installation of our new equipment and this delay means that until such time as the change-over is effected we are dependent upon our small reserve and the cooperation of nearby publishers who are aiding us through the emergency. Even with this help we find that we still do not have enough newsprint to meet our daily needs and therefore it is necessary for us to conserve every single pound possible to assure no interruption in our service.

We could, of course, take care of the situation if we were willing to go into the black market and pay $250 a ton for paper (more than double the legitimate price) but if we took this means of procuring our supply we would be helping to keep the profiteers in business and in turn would have to pass the increased cost on to our subscribers and advertisers. We have decided, rather than do this, to curtail our production in every way possible for the next thirty or sixty days and try to work out of the emergency.

President Prepares Radio Explanation Of Emergency

Drafts "Report To The Nation' On Reasons For Ordering Special Session Of Congress; Message Slated For 10 Tonight; Will Furnish Background For Program

Washington, Oct. 24—(AP)—President Truman drafted a report to the nation today on his "compelling reasons" for ordering a special session of Congress November 17 to meet a billion-dollar economic emergency in Europe and to check "alarming" inflation at home.

The Chief Executive is scheduled to broadcast the report over all national radio networks at 10 o'clock EST tonight.

Officials predicted that it will be a sweeping analysis of the critical economic conditions Mr. Truman sees this nation confronted with both here and ab...

It will set forth in detail what the President himself called the "compelling reasons" for summoning the lawmakers back to Washington seven weeks ahead of their regular January convening date. And it will furnish the background against which, upon the actual convening, he will recommend a three-point program of action to the Republican Congress.

Mr. Truman made that much clear yesterday when, toward the close of a tensely active day, he read newsmen an announcement that he had just signed a special session proclamation.

His designation of November 17 as the date for Congress to meet came as a surprise to the capital, which had thought in terms of a special session in December if there was to be one at all.

But Mr. Truman said the need was urgent for legislation on (1) high prices, (2) foreign aid and (3) consideration of the Marshall program for Europe to help help themselves toward recovery.

Western European diplomats here hailed the President's action as indicating a way out for their hard-pressed countries and a shot-in-the arm for people discouraged by the slow progress of the Marshall Plan to date.

Information from both congressional and Administration sources indicated the President's three-point program for the special session will follow these broad lines:

1. Appropriations probably totaling around $1,050,000,000 for aid to Europe and for relief in the American-occupied areas of Germany, Japan and Korea.

2. Legislation to check what the President called "inflation, high prices and the high cost of living." On this score Mr. Truman may ask authority to reinstate time payment controls expiring November 1, to ration among industrial users such scarce commodities as grain and steel, to buy export food supplies direct from farmers and to take other measures he considers anti-inflationary. He is reported not to be considering any return to OPA-type rationing and price controls.

3. A speed-up in congressional consideration of the Marshall Plan proposals for long-range European recovery.

Seven Communities In Maine Swept By Fires

Strong Winds Fan Flaming Woodlands Into Fresh Fury; All-Night Evacuation Leaves Swank Bar Harbor Deserted

Bar Harbor, Me., Oct. 24.—(AP)—The swank summer colony of this playground of the rich and six other communities, were virtually wiped out today as strong winds fanned woodland fires ravaging New England into fresh fury with the death toll already at least twelve and property damage mounting above $26,000,000.

A spectacular all-night evacuation by land and sea—a peacetime Dunkerque—left Bar Harbor a deserted town as 3,500 townsfolk fled in fright before flames that leveled from 200 to 300 homes, including summer show places of the international society set.

Damage to the ruined mansions in this town alone was officially set at $8,000,000—not counting the loss of valuable art treasures and furnishings they contained.

While most of the swank summer colony of Bar Harbor was left in shambles, the business center of the town was still intact.

Six other villages left virtually "ghost towns" were York county dairying village of Lyman, Brownfend and East Brownfield in northern York county, Goose Rocks near Kennebunkport, Fortune's Rock and East Waterboro—their populations averaging close to 500 each.

The Bar Harbor fire, sweeping toward the southeast shore of Mount Desert Island, was on the edge of Otter Creek, a community of 150 families."

Sheriff Norman Dyer expressed belief that unless the wind shifted "we can hold it at Seal Harbor, Otter Creek and Northeast Harbor."

The fire front was two miles from Seal and Northeast Harbors, from which many residents already had been evacuated.

As north winds blew up to a force of 25 miles an hour throughout the region this morning—gaining momentum all the time—the outlook was grim with still no appreciable amount of rain in sight.

Light sprinkles are the best that can be expected before at least Saturday, and probably longer—in the view of meteorologists—to wet down baked woodlands as the dry spell went into its 24th day.

While the raging flames were checked in Bar Harbor, fears were expressed that perhaps it was only temporary.

"All we've done is stop the fire in the town," said Selectman Seth Libby. "A little more wind would raise a lot of hell."

ABANDON SHIP ON COLLISION

Tanker And Motorship Collide In Fog Off West Coast

San Francisco, Oct. 24—(AP)—The Richfield oil tanker Sparrow's Point and the Canadian motorship Manx Fisher collided in a heavy fog off Point Sur on the California coast at midnight, the Coast Guard reported early today, and the crew of the Sparrow's Point has abandoned ship.

The Coast Guard dispatched a cutter to the scene immediately.

The crash occurred about 15 miles off the coast, approximately 90 airline miles south of San Francisco.

The Sparrow's Point was en route from Los Angeles to Seattle; the Manx Fisher from Los Angeles to San Francisco.

Globe Wireless intercepted a message from the master of the Manx Fisher saying his vessel was standing by to receive boats from the Sparrow's Point. Extent of damage to the Manx Fisher, owned by the Silver Java Lines, had not been determined, the ship's master said.

Another vessel, the Army transport Elden Johnson, reported itself in the vicinity and ready to assist if needed.

German Veterans Would Buy Town

Las Vegas, Nev., Oct. 24—(AP)—The neighboring ghost mining town of Rhyolite, which is for sale, has found bidders in 50 German ex-soldiers who want to "start all over."

Mayor E. W. Cragin of Las Vegas said he received a letter from Erich Baerwindt of Hamburg offering to pay $10,000 on terms for the 50 war veterans whom he described as jobless and homeless.

The mayor declared that "welcoming such German pioneers would benefit the community and signify a human and Christian act toward the poorest of the poor."

Special Session Call

Domestic And Foreign Conditions Prompted Truman To Summon Congress; High Cost Of Living at Home And Winter Facing Europe; Tale Of Rising Prices

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Oct. 24—(AP)—President Truman has told Congress it must come into special session Nov. 17 because:

1. He wants something done to control the runaway rise in prices.

2. He wants something done to help Europe get through the winter months with American relief.

What it all amounts to is this: The special session will save about six weeks in getting things done.

There are two problems facing Congress on European relief:

1. Help, with food and fuel to carry France and Italy over these critical winter months when they're broke.

2. Help—through the so-called Marshall Plan—to help them help themselves over the next four or five years. This will take billions of dollars.

The special session will concentrate on the No. 1 problem, or temporary, help to Europe, plus the matter of high prices at home.

Therefore, the special session will only be a means of speeding up the stop-gap, temporary aid to Europe.

What kind of controls will President Truman propose when he gets down to the point of suggesting ways to put a halt to rising prices? That remains to be seen.

But the following figures tell some of the story of rising prices:

Between August, 1939, just before the outbreak of the European war and December, 1942, when we entered the war, living costs in this country rose 12.1 per cent.

By August, 1945, when Japan and Germany had quit, living costs had risen 31.1 per cent over August, 1939.

Then by June, 1946, living costs had risen 35.2 per cent. OPA still was in the saddle then.

In July, 1946, Congress passed a law to continue OPA in a way which President Truman didn't like—and OPA lapsed temporarily. It was revived but died in the succeeding months as one control after another was lifted.

According to the last official government figures living costs since August, 1939, rose 60.6 per cent.

Solution To Mystery

Intensive Soviet Campaign To Repatriate All Russians In Foreign Countries Due To Great Need Of Manpower; Industrial Needs Behind Tremendous Endeavor

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

This column has encountered—and solved, we hope, an intriguing Communist mystery which first gave a glimpse of itself several months ago since then has kept popping up piecemeal in unrelated parts of the world, like a colony of prairie dogs.

Not to make too much mystery out of this development for our readers, it has to do with an intensive Soviet campaign to repatriate all Russians in foreign countries. Moscow never announced it as a campaign and it was only after these repatriations had been noted in numerous widely separated areas that observers decided something unusual was afoot.

Thu far parties of Russians have returned to the homeland from Canada, the United States, South America, France, Ethiopia, the Middle East and quite likely from other countries. The total repatirated runs into many thousands. Some 11,000 are said to have returned to Russia, or to be returning, from France alone.

Whole families are being taken, with all their moveable belongings. In fact these people are being urged to carry back all they can, especially tools and surgical instruments. The Soviet government foots the bill for everything, and promises homes and jobs in Russia. Of course it is required that those repatriated renounce citizenship in their adopted countries. Yugoslavia also has been carrying out a similar program of repatriation.

Some of those being repatriated haven't set foot on Russian soil since czarist days. Some of them were born abroad and so are making a voyage into the unknown. Indeed, it must be a daring adventure for all of them.

And why this attempt at wholesale repatriation? Well, your correspondent went to a good quarter which makes a business of solving mysteries, and the chief answer is that Russia is in great need of manpower and is anxious to get any and all of its people back home. The shortage of workers is understood to be very serious, owing to the terrific losses sustained in the war.

The Youthful Workers' Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Red Oak community building Thursday night, October 23. The meeting was called to order by our acting president, and we were then asked to stand and sing, "Awake," following which the secretary called the roll and the minutes were approved as read. At this time the meeting was turned over to the president and plans were discussed on how to raise some funds for the treasury. It was suggested that we have a penny fair, a variety show or a three act comedy play. After a vote had been taken it was found that we would get up a play and have some variety stunts between acts. Mrs. B. L. Tyson was asked to see about getting some plays, and just as soon as they are received there will be a call meeting of the club.

We then talked about what we are going to do at Christmas, and a party was suggested. Mrs. Frances Cassick was appointed to work this out and to report it at the next meeting.

So as to alternate the names for the committees it was moved and seconded that we have two boxes and switch the names around, so the workers will get to serve on different committees. The motion was also made and carried that we only draw three names for each of the committees.

The names were then drawn for the committees as follows: Program committee, William Harold Crawford, Geraldine Coward and Douglas Allen. Refreshment, Jarvis Tripp, Jr., Wilma James and B. L. Tyson.

Louise Tyson and Edna Tyson thanked the club for the flowers sent while they were sick.

After a short program, we sung our benediction and adjourned to meet again Thursday night, November 20. — Reported.

Clio Book Club

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Agnes Fullilove entertained the Clio Club at the home of Mrs. F. B. Haar. The home was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. After a short business meeting Miss Fullilove introduced Dr. Lucile Charles of East Carolina Teachers College, who gave a review of the performance she had seen on the stage in New York City, "John Loves Mary," by Norman Krasma. Dr. Charles shared with us the pleasure she had received in seeing this amusing comedy with sparkling dialogue, clever situations, and well chosen characters.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Dink James and Mrs. F. B. Haar, served a delicious sweet course with coffee.

Mrs. Fullilove, mother of the hostess, was guest for the afternoon. —Reported.

Bullock-Byrum and Williams-Flynn

The Greenville Free Will Baptist Church was the scene of a double wedding on October 8, when Miss Lois Jeanette Byrum took her vows with Sherwood Thornton Bullock, and Miss Angella Flynn was united in marriage with Robert Leighton Williams.

Pines and ferns banked the altar, forming a background for tall baskets of white gladioli and white pom pom chrysanthemums along with seven seven-branched candelabra entwined with ivy. Gladioli and chrysanthemums with white satin ribbon marked the pews.

Nuptial music was rendered by the pianist, Miss Gladys Hines of Winterville, N. C., who wore a gown of light blue chiffon. Her corsage was of red roses and matching ribbon.

Mr. Herman Nobles was soloist and sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Both brides were escorted and given in marriage by their brothers, Mr. Ernest Raymond Byrum and Mr. Tommy Flynn. Miss Byrum was attended by her sister, Mrs. Hicks Hardee as matron of honor and had as her bridesmaid Miss Evelyn Bullock.

Attending Miss Flynn as maid of honor was Miss Katie Lou Vincent and Mrs. James E. Bullock.

Mr. Bullock had as his best man his brother, Mr. James E. Bullock; and Mr. Williams had as his best man Mr. Herbert Armstrong of Newport News, Virginia.

Acting as ushers were Mr. Bobby Gaylor and Mr. Jennis Allen.

The brides wore identical gowns of white bridal satin, fashioned with high neck and fitted bodice with circular ruffles forming a yoke and peplum. The bodice which closed in the back with tiny covered buttons were joined to a full skirt extending into a circular train. Their double finger-tip veils of illusion fell from coronets of seed pearls. The brides carried white prayer books topped with a purple orchid and showered with satin ribbon and lilies-of-the-valley.

The matron of honor wore a gown of blue taffeta and net with drop shoulders. Her head-dress was a halo bandeau of pink briarcliff roses and fern with matching ribbon tied in the back with bows and streamers of wider satin ribbon. She carried an arm bouquet of pink briarcliff roses tied with blue and pink satin ribbon.

The maid of honor wore a gown of pink taffeta and net with drop shoulders. Her headdress was identical to that of the matron, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink briarcliff roses tied with green and pink satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of pink satin and net with drop shoulders, with halo bandeaus identical to the matron and maid of honor and they carried arm bouquets of pink briarcliff roses tied with pink satin ribbon.

Mrs. E. R. Byrum, mother of one bride wore a dress of chartreuse crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. C. S. Flynn, mother of the other bride, wore a black crepe dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. J. J. Bullock, mother of one of the grooms wore a dress of grey crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. R. I. Williams, mother of the other groom wore a dress of navy blue crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Bullock, youngest daughter of Mrs. E. R. Byrum and the late Mr. Byrum attended Greenville City schools.

Mr. Bullock, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bullock, attended school in Winterville and Greenville where he graduated in the year 1943 before serving three years in the United States Navy. At present he is associated with the Southern Life Insurance Company in Greenville where they will make their home.

Mrs. Williams attended school in Elizabeth City before moving to Norfolk, Virginia, and later to Greenville. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Flynn.

Mr. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Williams, attended school in Robersonville before serving three years in the United States Army. They plan to make their future home in Richmond, Virginia.

Receiving at the front door of the home was Miss Beatrice Player who introduced the guests to the receiving line. Miss Carla Baker invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. John Bunch, Jr., received. The table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and was decorated with an epergne of pink and white frosted crystal in which was an arrangement of pink carnations, flanked by pink tapers in crystal candelabra. Miss Dorothy Fields served punch, bridal ices, nuts and mints, assisted by Mrs. Ivy Coward and Mrs. Blanche Hill.

Mrs. J. A. Lewis received the guests in the gift room where many lovely gifts were on display. Miss Louise Tripp presided at the bride's book and bade the many guests goodbye.

Strength FOR THE DAY

ALL PROSPER OR PERISH

A modern novelist has pictured a certain farmer who developed a blight-resisting corn, and then in pure selfishness refused to give any seed to his neighbors. Was not the secret his? Had not his ingenuity made the discovery possible? He would monopolize the market and let the lesser breeds howl.

But finally the pollen from his neighbors' infected corn began coming over on his fields in such quantities that even the new variety of seed he had developed could not resist the onslaught. Then was the selfish fellow seen going from one neighbor's door to another's, leaving sacks of blight-resisting seed. When asked why he was doing this, his reply was: "Nobody can have good corn in this world unless everybody has good corn."

These are words to think about, when starving nations are crying for help and multitudes of displaced persons are growing bitter over the enormous injustice to which they have been subjected. These are words to ponder as we think of the welfare of our community. There can be no good for any of us unless everyone has the same opportunity to gain this good.

YOUR property insurance agent is an integral part of the life of your community. His taxes support local municipal services and the local schools. His purchases of goods and services and his other expenditures contribute to the economic welfare of the community. He is an employer of local labor. The very nature of his work, with its many outside contacts, permits him to be an active supporter of civic enterprises.

By selling and servicing Workmen's Compensation Insurance, in most states, he helps to provide indemnity to the injured laborer. By safeguarding the accumulated savings of people through Property and Casualty Insurance, he is a tremendous factor in the peace of mind of millions of property owners. By selling Accident and Health Insurance and, occasionally, Group Life Insurance, Hospitalization Insurance and Pension plans, he helps to provide security against loss of income. Through the special service he performs, the individual agent and his thousands of colleagues throughout the nation help to make available a distinctive American type of social security by voluntary, independent action.

His contributions to the community are a part of the magic of insurance protection. He helps gutted factories to rise again to provide jobs for many workers. The promise of protection which he has sold helps to restore the home or store which went up in smoke and which, without insurance, might have meant the destruction of a lifetime's savings. His counsel is the influence of those whose ownership of property entails the possibility of damage by law suits.

The trusted and professional counselor, he is your friend and neighbor.

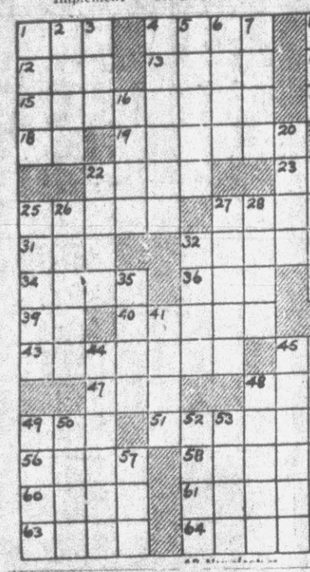

He is your property insurance agent, serving the public almost twenty-four hours a day.

Memorial Church Building To Be Fine Edifice

By CHESTER WALSH

Members of Memorial Baptist Church at a supper meeting at the Woman's Club last night heard reports of the progress of the church's new and modern education building adjoining the church edifice and contributed about $8,000 more to the building fund after hearing inspiring talks by the pastor, Rev. Richard E. Hardaway, and leading men and women of the church.

Church officials and members of the congregation are working under a plan which they hope will enable them to have the building all paid for when it is completed. The estimated cost is about $85,000.

The building is a three-story brick structure, modern in every respect, and it is designed for church and Bible school and community meetings. It will contain an office and study for the pastor, reception room for women, modern kitchen and spacious dining room and other conveniences and facilities. Classes for younger children will be on the bottom floor; for adults on the second floor and for young people and intermediates on the third floor. Heating and plumbing facilities will be the best available.

J. B. Batton and Brother of Edenton is the contractor. J. B. Rumley is supervising the work.

The building, located at Fourth and Greene streets, is expected to be completed early in January.

Nelson Reunion Next Sunday At Old Homeplace

By CHESTER WALSH

Children and other descendants of the late Bery D. Nelson and Mrs. Piney Ann Rebecca Nelson will hold a family reunion at the old Nelson homeplace near Stokes next Sunday. A picnic dinner will be served at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were of pioneer colonial stock whose parents came from Scotland and England and settled in this part of North Carolina in the early 1700's.

The Nelson family has an interesting history. There are nine children, four girls and five boys, whose ages ranged from 50 to 70 years, and all of them are living. Thirty-nine of the couple's grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren are living.

Eleven of their grandsons served in the American armed forces during World War II and one was killed in battle.

Special Session . . .

up to July, 1947.

But the government's Bureau of Labor Statistics has preliminary figures which show that by August, 1947, living costs had risen 62 per cent over August, 1939.

But what does that 62 per cent rise in living costs mean in the life of an average factory worker? Only this:

The average increase in the gross weekly earnings of a factory worker, from August, 1939, to August, 1947, rose from $23.77 to $49.21. This means his earnings, without deductions for taxes or increased living costs, rose 107 per cent while living costs were rising 62 per cent.

But—making deductions for the increase in income taxes, for Social Security taxes and for the rise in living costs—the weekly average wage of a single factory worker rose from $23.69 in August, 1939, to $26.17 in August, 1947.

That meant a rise of 10 per cent in actual pay for the average factory worker since August, 1939, over and above the increase in living costs.

But these figures are for factory workers only.

It is a different story with the people on fixed incomes—like city employes, such as policemen and school teachers, and people on pensions.

The income of these people has fallen far below the wage gains won by factory workers to keep pace with rising living costs.

Solution . . .

Apart from this main issue, Moscow is said to want to get back the Russians who were displaced from their native soil during the ebb and flow of war. Many of these people are White Russians, and the government doesn't want them abroad, because there's a danger that they will talk about things which the Soviet wishes to keep dark.

The desire for manpower to rehabilitate Russian industry would be understandable under any circumstance. That calls for no explanation. However, we certainly should be slow witted indeed if we didn't recognize that one reason the Bolshevists want to acquire industrial strength as quickly as possible is because of the requirements of their world revolution for the spread of communism.

You will recall that General Zhdanov, one of the top Bolshevists, recently told the Soviet bloc conference in Poland that "the U.S.S.R. will put all effort in seeing that the Marshall Plan is not realized." The Marshall project is based on the economic rehabilitation of Western Europe, and the weapons for this battle between the democracies and the Bolshevists will be economic resources. Russia hasn't those resources now, and so is going after them.

Then, taking the long range view, it clearly is the intention of all the powers to keep a loaded rifle hanging on the wall—just in case.

How much success the repatriation program has achieved thus far isn't clear. Close observers say it started off well but later slumped. One interesting sidelight is that Moscow is particularly anxious to get Armenians to return home because many of them are skilled craftsmen.

WORN OUT FROM GETTING UP NIGHTS?

● If you get up nights—have frequent desire to pass your water—yes, and have backache, due to excess acidity in the urine, be glad you're reading this:

Three generations ago Dr. Kilmer, a famous doctor, found hundreds of his patients with this trouble. So he made a medicine of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, balsams. He called it "Swamp-Root." Millions of men and women have taken it—often with amazing results.

President Of General Federation Of Women's Clubs To Visit Here

Mrs. J. Blair Buck of Richmond, Va., and Washington, D. C., president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs will be the guest of the Greenville Woman's Club on October 31.

There are 16,500 clubs located in more than three-fourths of the countries of the United States, 61 clubs in 30 foreign countries and United States' territories, 50 state federations, and 20 affiliated organizations, comprising a total membership of over 3,000,000 women. There are over 38,000 Junior Club women.

Mrs. Buck has just returned from the First International Fellowship in Paris, France. She represented the Federation of Women's Clubs. The Women's World Fellowship is a peace movement founded in 1945 by French women of the working and peasant classes who realized how millions of women in every nation had made tremendous contributions in many ways to the winning of the war. She posed the question, "Peace is a woman's business; how can the women be mobilized for peace?"

While in Europe Mrs. Buck visited a number of clubs of the General Federation in Europe. When she was elected to the presidency of the Federation, she said, "The task of the General Federation of Women's Clubs during the administration for which you have elected me as your leader will be to strengthen the forces of religion and democracy at home and abroad, and to dedicate the power of our great organization toward building a world society based on concept of the importance of the individual in the sight of God."

During her administration Mrs. Buck will continue to stress American Home, Youth Conservation and International Relations.

This year marks the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Greenville Woman's Club, and it is the first time in its history that a Federation president has been its honored guest. On October 31 the officers of the 15th district and five officers from each club in the 15th district, State Federation officials, will be privileged to hear Mrs. Buck at a luncheon at the Woman's Club.

At 2:30 p. m. at the Memorial Baptist Church Mrs. Buck will address club women of North Carolina. Following the meeting the Greenville Woman's Club will honor Mrs. Buck, state officials of the North Carolina Federation and visitors at a tea at the club house.

Girl Scout News

Sunday, October 26, will mark the opening of Girl Scout Week, when the Girl Scouts of Greenville will join a million and a quarter members of their organization throughout the nation to honor the memory of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Gordon Low.

Girl Scout week this year will be celebrated as the climax of the Girl Scout 35th anniversary being observed throughout 1947. Instead of the usual big party for all the troops of Greenville, each troop will have its own party, and make all the plans and decide on their own guest list. All plans have not been completed, since the plans cannot be completed until the troops meet this week.

Troops 12 and 3 are working towards ranks, so they are combining this activity with the party plans. Troop 3, Brownies that have just flown-up, will have a tea on Tuesday afternoon at which time their mothers will be their guests. They will assist in preparing the refreshments and serving them to secure credit on their second class badges. Troop 12 is planning their tea with the hostess badge in mind. Their tea will be on Wednesday afternoon with their monthers as guests.

Sunday is Church Day and will be observed by all Brownies and Scouts attending church at the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church. All members of the Scout organization are requested to meet at the Methodist Church in time for the 11 o'clock services. Scouts should be on time.

The colored Scouts will attend church in a body at the Sycamore Baptist Church at the regular Sunday morning service.

Thursday, October 30 a Scout program will be broadcast over the local station at 7:30. If the weather permits, there will be a number of Scouts going to Camp Hardee this week-end as well as next week-end.

Legion Plans Armistice Day Program Here

Pitt County Post No. 39, American Legion, had a large turnout for its October barbecue dinner meeting at the armory Wednesday night. Army combat films of action in all theaters of World War II were provided by N. C. District office of the U. S. Army Reserve Command. Capt. William Little, U. S. Army Reserve officer of Grimesland, provided a projector with sound to show the films.

A tentative Armistice Day program for November 11, including a free dinner for all members paid up for 1948, was agreed upon. An Armistice Day Committee composed of Teddy Fountain, chairman, James Worsley and Larry Averette, was appointed by Commander Jimmie Jenkins to arrange the dinner and other features for the occasion.

Vernon Tyson was named chairman of the Burial Honors Committee, which will be available for service in connection with the burial of the deceased heroes of World War II who are now being returned to this country. This committee is also to serve at funerals of veterans of World War I. The members of this committee are all volunteers and their names will be published as soon as the roster is complete. The U. S. Army is providing the rifles and ammunition for the burial firing squad.

A reply from Dr. J. L. Winstead, president of the Board of Directors of the Pitt County Fair, to the resolution passed by Post 39 several months ago, which requested the liquidation of the present fair corporation, was read by the commander. Dr. Winstead advised Post 39 that his directors planned to have take such action as appeared to a meeting at the conclusion of this them to be for the best interest of year's fair, at which time they would all concerned.

RETONGA BRINGS RELIEF SHE SOUGHT FOR 7 YEARS

"I Often Felt So High-Strung And Miserable I Didn't Want To Be Around Anybody, Not Even Myself," States Mrs. Redding. Feels Like Different Person Now

"A few bottles of Retonga gave me the relief I had been trying to find for nearly seven years, and I have gained ten pounds of needed weight, too," happily declares Mrs. D. F. Redding, well-known resident of 9 Park St., Anderson, S.C.

"Many days I felt so high strung and shaky it seemed to me I just couldn't make it through the day. Nervous indigestion tortured me until I never ate more than two small meals a day. My weight went down twenty pounds and my elimination was so sluggish that I lived in dread of having to depend on laxatives the rest of my life. Often I felt so miserable I did not want to be around anyone, not even myself!

"I tried Retonga as a last resort and was happily surprised at the wonderful relief it gave me. Now I have a real appetite, eat anything, and that high strung feeling is relieved. I sleep fine, the sluggish elimination is relieved and I feel better and stronger than in six or eight years. Retonga did more for me than everything else I tried combined."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of gastric juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Bissette's Drug Store.—Adv.

Experts and amateurs alike acclaim LOWE BROTHERS PLAX, the universal beauty gloss for all enameling. And no wonder! PLAX makes it easy to obtain expert results. Adaptable to any surface PLAX hides effectively, covers solidly and flows freely. What's more, PLAX resists wear and weather and many stains and acids—as dramatic "abuse tests" prove. And PLAX, the universal beauty finish, is economical, too, because ordinarily only one coat is needed for refinishing.

Guilford College President Is AAUW Speaker

Dr. Clyde A. Milner, president of Guilford College, will address the North Carolina Workshop meeting of the American Association of University Women on Saturday October 25th, following the one o'clock luncheon at the Woman's Club.

Dr. Milner is a very stimulating speaker, and many people will recall with pleasure his talk on the occasion of a visit to Greenville several years ago. A native of Tennessee, Dr. Milner has been on the roster of North Carolina college presidents for well over a decade. He went to Haverford College, Hartford Theological Seminary, thence to Woodbrooke College in England.

In the years following, he studied at the University of Marburg in Germany and at the University of Geneva in Switzerland. He did rehabilitation work in France following the first World War. After several years as a college professor, he was made president of Guilford College in 1934.

The Greenville branch of A.A.U.W. which is acting as hostess to the Workshop, is eagerly anticipating the appearance of this distinguished author, traveler, philosopher, who is one of North Carolina's sons by adoption, if not by birth.

The luncheon will be preceded by registration and a welcoming coffee hour at 10 a.m., followed by a business meeting and conferences at 10:30. A large out-of-town delegation is expected for all the meetings, and members of the local branch have been urged to attend in full force.

Dog Parade Here Yesterday Was Great Success

By CHESTER WALSH

The dog parade sponsored by Drum's Hatchery and Feed Store, held in Greenville yesterday, was a great success and attracted a large crowd. Grownups seemed to enjoy the procession of pets as much as the youngsters.

The parade formed at the high school, and led by Greenville police, the high school band, proceeded down Cotanche Street to Third, and thence to Evans and to Five Points, down Dickinson Avenue to Washington Street and then to Fifth and Washington, where the dogs were judged and the prizes were awarded.

Judges were Mayor Jack Boyd, Dr. Joseph Bateman, Chief of Police Tanner and Jonathan Overton.

The dog parade is an annual national event and is usually held during National Dog Week, but it was postponed here because of rainy weather. The weather was ideal yesterday and the turnout was gratifying, Drum said.

The contest was open to all children under 16 years of age.

Time flies and Christmas will soon be here . . . especially for those who want to make the holiday a memorable one for the outdoor sportsman. Whether it's husband, father, son, brother, uncle, or sweetheart, he'll look on this Christmas as the biggest one of his life if you give him a MARTIN OUTBOARD MOTOR. Right now is the time to arrange guaranteed Christmas delivery of this fine motor . . . the new standard of performance in outboard motors. Now, too, is the time to arrange for easy payments so that this most-wanted gift can be entirely paid for when the big day for giving rolls around.

These features and many others make a Martin MOTOR the most-wanted gift for any sportsman

- Mechanically-controlled poppet valves, an exclusive MARTIN patent in two-cycle motors insuring uniform fuel distribution. This means instant starting, unbelievably slow cruising, instant and uninterrupted acceleration, surprising quietness in operation, and exhilarating top speed.
- New Martin Vertical Stern Adjustment (Patent pending)—Enables operator to attain correct vertical adjustment while underway.
- Power-head swivel, 360° (Patented)—Lower unit can swing into boat, permitting easy inspection.
- New Streamlined, Leak-proof Filler Cap—Combines vent and spare shear pin clip. Replaces old style screw-on type.

- Alternate firing
- Propeller clutch
- Steering stabilizer
- Full reverse steering
- Easy grip stern bracket handles
- Dependa-pull starter
- Long-life sintered bronze rust-proof bearings
- Positive rotor water pump
- Synchronized and centralized controls
- Resiliently mounted handles and power head
- Quiet underwater exhaust
- Positive oil and grease seals

An addition to the MARTIN line is the new MARTIN '40' which weighs only 35 pounds, and which develops 3.8 brake H. P. at 4000 R. P. M. Another great alternate firing twin!
