Radio Blast Proves Powerful Help For Administration In Pre-Session Drive For Congressional Approval Of European Recovery Program

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Marshall Plan storm signals flew over Capitol Hill today, but Administration leaders credited Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov with unwitting but powerful help in their pre-session drive for congressional approval of a European recovery program.

Molotov's Moscow radio blast at the United States, in which he said that Russia's struggle for power "is just beginning," pinpointed for many lawmakers the anti-Communist color of proposed stop-gap and long-range economic aid.

Senator McGrath (D-R.I.), chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said grudgingly that Molotov had defeated his own purpose if it was his aim to discourage American action to help the Western European nations outside the Soviet orbit stay on their feet.

"Statements of this kind only serve to solidify the American people," the Rhode Island senator told a reporter.

On the Republican side, Senator Capper of Kansas, a Foreign Relations Committee member, said he expects Congress' answer will be to approve the assistance program which Secretary of State Marshall will sketch for Senate and House committees Monday.

Lawmakers generally dismissed as a bluff and a sop to home front morale Molotov's assertion that the atomic bomb secret "has long ceased to exist." The industrial know-how for making the bombs is still believed to be beyond the Russians.

But while the latest verbal shots in the Moscow-Washington "cold war" obviously helped cement a growing Capitol Hill determination to do something for faltering European democracies, there was plenty of evidence that methods, procedures—and possibly the amount of money to be spent—will be argued long and loudly.

The biggest question marks were being raised on the House side of the Capitol.

There, the special committee on foreign aid took official note of a possibility that Congress might not be able to complete work on an assistance program during the special session opening a week from Monday.

Drunken Driving Charged 'Dry'; Will Fight Case

Toledo, O., Nov. 7.—(AP)—The Rev. Howard B. Pritchard, 65-year-old anti-saloon league field representative charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, plans to fight this charge to the end.

Attorney Thomas A. Farrell issued a flat denial last night that Mr. Pritchard had taken so much as one drink before he was arrested Wednesday night. Patrolmen Sidney O'Dell and Kenneth Pleiss said his automobile struck a parked car.

"There has been a horrible mistake. I am sure," Farrell said.

Of a $200 bond posted by a bartender, August Hoff, a former tavern owner, Farrell said:

"Mr. Hoff is a personal friend of Mr. Pritchard. He asked me to defend Mr. Pritchard and rushed to a bank to get $200."

The First Amendment

Our Constitution Protects You, And Communists In America; Permits Freedom Of Speech, Freedom Of Worship And Political Freedom; Reds Have Rights

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Here is an ABC on the No. 1 stopper to the present talk of outlawing the Communist party.

That stopper is the right of you, or any individual, to say what you think, worship any god you choose, or join any political party you wish.

That right is guaranteed by the first amendment to the U.S. Constitution. It's the cornerstone of living in this country.

Under the protection of that first amendment, the Communist party has existed in this country for years.

The number of people in the party—party members are accepted pretty carefully—has never been large.

Total membership in the party—including now—probably has never numbered more than 100,000.

That figure doesn't show the full strength of the party. Thousands of people, not party members, are sympathizers or fellow-travelers.

For years, operating under protection of the first amendment, Communists here have criticized the government and the American capitalist system.

For years, in turn, the Communists have been attacked and denounced. But the attacks on them never have been so strong as now.

Anti-Communist feeling is so strong now that there's talk of outlawing the party altogether, in spite of the constitution.

Critics of the Communists say the Communists are a special problem and don't deserve the protection of the constitution.

But why, after all these years, talk of outlawing them now?

Here's why: Right now there's tension between this country and Communist Russia. Talk of war floats around.

Critics of the Communists—they include people who really fear communism and those who for their own reasons hate it—argue:

1. Communists want to overthrow this government by force. Once they did they'd wipe out the constitution and all the freedom it guarantees.

So why permit them to get the protection of the constitution to when they get there?

(The Communist party constitution doesn't say anything about taking over by force. But, then, it hardly would say that.)

2. In case of war with Russia, American Communists would be loyal to Russia and work inside the U.S. as a Russian fifth column.

So why permit any organization to exist here if it might be a big

Knutson Gives Up Early Tax Action

GOP High Command Apparently Decides Tax Reduction Legislation Must Await Regular Session Opening In January

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The Republican high command apparently abandoned today all plans for tax reduction legislation at the special session of Congress convening Nov. 17.

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the House Ways and Means Committee said after a conference with Speaker Martin, "I rather expect the $4,000,000,000 tax reduction measure to go over until January."

Knutson's committee handles tax legislation and the Minnesota has been the leading advocate of tax legislation at the special session.

However, he emphasized to reporters that taxes will be the first matter of business when Congress meets in January for the regular session.

Knutson said the measure, if it becomes law, would make the tax cuts effective as of January 1, 1948.

Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) said yesterday it was his inclination to put the tax measure off until January, in view of the limited time to deal with foreign aid and economic legislation at the special session.

It was because of Martin's statement that Knutson arranged the conference with the speaker today.

After it broke up with Knutson's announcement that he thought there would be no special session action on taxes, Rep. Halleck (Ind.) of the House Republican floor leader told reporters:

"As far as I have contacted various people there appears to be no slackening in the Republican determination to bring about tax relief. However, there appears to be no demand that it come up in the special session. I think it is highly questionable that it will come up."

Opposed To Signing Airplane Contracts

Procurement Officer Says Patterson Directed Him To Sign Hughes Contract After He Had Delayed Action

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—A former wartime procurement officer testified today that top level officials directed him to sign a $70,474,666 contract with Howard Hughes to build 100 photo reconnaissance planes.

Albert J. Browning, a former brigadier general and now a vice president of the Ford Motor Company, said the then undersecretary of war, Robert P. Patterson, directed him to sign after he had delayed action from April 28, 1946, to August 1 of that year.

Browning told a senate investigating subcommittee that Patterson ordered him to sign the Hughes contract "approved by Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, deputy assistant chief of air staff." Meyers, now retired, is scheduled to testify concerning his connection with the matter.

Hughes himself was reported sleeping in a downtown hotel preparatory to possible appearance later in the day to answer new evidence about his wartime contracts which the committee is investigating.

The lanky Hollywood aircraft designer and film producer arrived at drydock after an all night cross-country hop in his private plane, a converted army bomber.

Unhappily and cheaply, Hughes told newsmen he would wait until he is asked to testify before replying to an assertion of Senator Williams (R-Del.) that Hughes and his companies owe the government $59,921 in taxes for the war years.

Dallas Lion Hunt Ends; One Killed And One Caught

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 7.—(AP)—West Dallas was still talking about its lion hunt today, though the remaining survivor of a pair of the beasts that wandered about five hours was safely caged.

The male and female full-grown African lions, yesterday escaped from the cage of their private owner in Possum Hollow, a wooded section in the Trinity River lowlands. Before a posse of 50 armed men and women ended a five-hour hunt, one man had been bitten and the female lion killed.

George Pointer, one of the hunters, was bitten on the right arm when he tried to drive the lioness back to her cage, Frank Carroll, 38, wounded the animal with a 12-gauge shotgun. Carroll's 16-year-old son, Alvie, killed it with a .22 caliber rifle bullet through the head after trailing it to a cave.

The crowd surrounded the male lion, roped and hauled him back to its cage on a truck.

ACCEPT TRACT AS SITE FOR NEW HOSPITAL

Moye Family Gives Seventeen Acres On Falkland Highway For Building

By CHESTER WALSH

The Pitt County Board of Commissioners has accepted the tract of 17 1/2 acres of land on the Falkland Highway just beyond the old Fair Grounds, part of the Jesse R. Moye farm, as the site for the proposed 140-room modern hospital for Pitt County.

Mrs. Novella Moye Williams, Miss Jessie Rountree Moye, Mrs. Emily Moye Hadley and Joseph S. Moye gave the land for the hospital site. The Site Committee had approved and recommended it, John G. Clark, chairman of the Hospital Committee of 100 representative Pitt County men and women, said today.

It is proposed to build a modern $1,000,000, 140-bed hospital on the site. The federal government will provide $300,000, the N.C. Medical Care Commission $300,000, and the Pitt County Commissioners authorized a bond issue of $352,000 for the county's share of the expense. The bond issue was carried.

The Moye tract has been described as ideal for such a hospital. The land is said to be one of the highest elevations in Pitt County. Its location will make it easy of access for utilities, including water, electricity, drainage, an engineer said. The buildings could be built far enough from the highway to give it seclusion.

Tobacco Buying Program Stands Despite Rebuff

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The Agriculture Department said today its flue-cured tobacco purchasing program announced Oct. 28 still stands.

The department's Commodity Credit Corporation has been authorized to buy upwards of $25,000,000 worth of the leaf which Great Britain had been expected to buy but which she has announced she will not purchase because of a shortage of dollars.

This purchase program is designed to support prices which sagged after the British dropped out of the market.

Education Week Program At Greenville High School

American Education Week is being observed in the public schools November 9-15 throughout the entire United States. Greenville High School is cooperating with this observance of American Education Week and has made plans for the proper observance.

The faculty of Greenville High School has planned a program for the patrons and students of the school for Tuesday evening, November 11, from 8:00 to 9:00 o'clock in observance with American Education Week. The band, orchestra and glee club will render a thirty-minute program of music in the high school auditorium promptly at 8:00. After the musical program open house is being held and parents are being urged to visit with the teachers who will be in their respective rooms. "Every parent owes the responsibility of a visit to our high school during this American Education Week," said Principal O. E. Dowd, "and the faculty at the high school urges you who have students in the school to attend the open house program on Tuesday November 11."

"Parents and teachers are partners in the most important enterprise the world has ever known—the public schools," continued Mr. Dowd. "A bridge between the home and schools has been built solidly and well. Every parent is urged during American Education Week to visit all schools to see the kind of attitudes, ideas and plans that make up our entire school program. It is the duty of every citizen to use his influence and talents to make our schools in Greenville as good as those anywhere, so that our boys and girls may be properly trained to take their rightful place in helping create a better world of tomorrow."

The faculty extends to you a most cordial invitation to attend the school's open house program on Tuesday November 11 at 8:00 p.m.

The President of the United States has issued a proclamation to this effect.

To the patrons, students and teachers of American schools:

Poultrymen Send Birds In Washington Protest

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Lines of the Citizens Food Committee held fast today against an invading force of "hens for Harry" and "Leghorns for Luckman."

The chicken, in crates of six to 20 birds, rolled into Washington to deliver a literal "squawk" from their grovers against the poultryless-eggless Thursday part of the President's food conservation program.

Food Chairman Charles Luckman refused to budge.

While aides here shunted the stream of fowl to the Salvation Army for feeding the needy, Luckman declared in Los Angeles:

"Any time the Poultrymen's Association or any one else can show us a better way to save grain than by having poultryless Thursdays, we will be glad to adopt it."

At the White House, where three crates arrived addressed to President Truman, the only comment was that the free poultry would wind up on the dinner table at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital.

One large poultry farm on Maryland's Eastern Shore entered a dissent from the demonstration in a telegram to Luckman last night.

If anybody in the country has poultry he cannot sell, said the Delmarva Poultry Corp. of Salisbury, "please have them call us collect and we'll arrange to have it picked up within 24 hours."

Two Greene County, N.Y., farmers—Thomas Albright of Athens and Henry J. Kreiter of East Amherst—said they sent chickens to point up the fact that hens which stay on the farm for lack of buyers "will continue to eat precious grain needed in Europe."

'Two Worlds' Emphasized By Fourth Soviet Boycott

Soviet Ready For 'Imperialist War'

Military Might On Parade; Minister Of Soviet Armed Forces Tells Of Warmongers; Contempt For America Prominent

Moscow, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, minister for the Soviet armed forces, asserted before a wet and cold parade of Russian military might today that "warmongers" are "making plans for a new imperialist war."

U.S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith remained away, as did the U.S. representatives of the Army, Navy and Air Force who were not invited. Smith received a bid, but said it was "too cold and wet." Minister Counsellor Elbridge Burbow represented the United States.

The whole spirit of the holiday was characterized by contempt for the United States government, politicians and foreign policy.

In a special broadcast beamed directly at the United States and Great Britain, the Moscow radio quoted Marshal Bulganin as saying just before the parade began to the accompaniment of martial music by massed bands, that:

"After the second World War essential changes have taken place in the international situation. As a result of the war the system of capitalism has suffered a serious loss. The forces of democracy (communism) and socialism have strengthened, but the forces of capitalism have weakened.

"The successes of the democratic camp (Communists) give the warmongers no rest. Forgetting the lessons of the recent war, they are calling for a campaign against democracy (communism), against the Soviet Union, and making plans for a new imperialist war."

His speech echoed an order of the day he issued last night, in which he called for Russian armed forces to "be in constant militant preparedness" against "instigators of a new war."

Just before the parade started moving through the sleet and driving rain, he boasted of the strength of Russia and her armed forces:

"The entire world sees now that the Soviet Union has become a powerful industrial and agricultural state where economic crises and unemployment have disappeared forever. The accomplished victory over the fascists of Germany and Japan revealed Soviet armed forces as an advanced army with the most advanced fighting equipment."

Delegates View Russian Announcement On Little Assembly As Wiping Out Any Illusion Of One World; Protests Are Made; Meet Today To Discuss New Members

Lake Success, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Russia's announced intention to boycott the United Nations "Little Assembly" today was emphasizing the "real existence" of two worlds.

Sir Hartley Shawcross of Britain said that if there was any doubt separate east and west worlds existed this was wiped out when the Soviet bloc announced yesterday it would boycott Secretary of State Marshall's plan for a year-around session of the assembly.

Russia and five members of the Soviet bloc announced the boycott after the assembly's 57-nation Political Committee approved the Marshall Plan by a vote of 47 to six.

Meanwhile, the Political Committee prepared to meet today to begin discussion of the admission of new members of the United Nations. A fight on this issue is expected to develop between Russia and the Western powers over the use of the veto by the Soviet Union in the Security Council to prevent admission of half a dozen countries, including Italy.

Russia's announced boycott of the "Little Assembly" drew an emphatic protest from several delegates. Britain challenged Russia to take the issue to the International Court of Justice.

This was the fourth announced Soviet boycott of a majority-approved body.

Previously the Russians had boycotted:

1. A Balkan "watchdog" commission.
2. A U.N. election supervisory commission for Korea.
3. A "Little Assembly" sub-committee.

In addition, Russia has refused to sit on the U.N. Trusteeship Council or participate in six U.N. specialized agencies.

Shawcross and other delegates agreed that, as the British delegate said, "It is just as well that we realize there are two worlds and go ahead and work accordingly."

FOOD TRAIN IS LOADING FAST

Leaves Tonight To Cross Country; Big Response Seen

Hollywood, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The Friendship Train, bearing gifts from the heart of America to the empty stomachs of Europe, leaves tonight on a cross-country mission expected to provide a Christmas present of countless boxcars of the stuff that cheers most—food.

The train—an important phase of this nation's emergency program which Charles Luckman says will either succeed or fail by the end of this year—is scheduled to leave at 11 p.m. (PST) with between 15 and 20 loaded boxcars.

Before it arrives in New York Nov. 18, the load may number over 200 boxcars, early response indicates. The National Friendship Train Committee headed by the movies' Harry M. Warner hopes the consignments will reach Europe by late December—when the need will probably be greatest.

Stars of Hollywood will give the good-will choo-choo a typical movieland sendoff, with two locomotives and eight of the original boxcars leading a parade down Hollywood Boulevard en route to the station.

Grain and assorted wheat products—crates and sacks of them—make up the backbone of the friendship cargo, also including sugar, evaporated milk, dried beans, peas and similar staples sorely needed in the undernourished areas.

At the same time it was learned that the State Department is planning to ask Congress, possibly during the approaching special session, for an additional $1,500,000,000 for its "Voice of America" and other foreign information programs.

These disclosures came on the heels of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's declaration that the secret of the atom bomb "has long ceased to exist."

But it was other passages in Molotov's Red Revolution anniversary speech which stirred the greatest resentment among officials here.

The caustic-tongued diplomat contended anew, for instance, that the United States is trying to ring Russia with air and naval bases. Molotov mentioned in this connection the American interest in Greenland, which all the American nations have declared to be a vital link in the Western Hemisphere chain.

In general the attacks of Molotov, Deputy Foreign Minister Vishinsky and the Soviet press and

Ex-Secretary Are Wed Today Governor And

Columbia, S.C., Nov. 7.—(AP)—South Carolina's 44-year-old Governor James Strom Thurmond and his former secretary, pretty 21-year-old Jean Crouch of Elko, were married at the executive mansion at noon today.

It was the second wedding at the home of the state's governors but the first there of a governor in the mansion's 79 years. Only 26 members of the couple's immediate families and one selected press representative were guests.

A wedding breakfast was served immediately after the Rev. G. M. Rogers of Orangeburg, Baptist pastor of the bride, performed a simple ring ceremony. The governor and the state's new first lady talked then with reporters and posed for pictures.

The couple declined to disclose the itinerary of a two-weeks' wedding trip.

Molotov's 'Pep Talk'

A-Bomb's Secrets Known, But Technical Details Remain Unknown To Russians; Ism's Can Live Side By Side, But Not In Same Country; Speech Highlights

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

There is no need for you and me to lie awake nights worrying over Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's disclosures that the secret of the atom bomb "has long ceased to exist," and that "we live in a period when all roads lead to communism."

These striking declarations—and others—which were made in a Moscow address yesterday, on the eve of the Russian Revolution's thirtieth anniversary, appear to have been intended more as a pep talk to Communists and fellow travelers, both at home and abroad, than as an effort to bedevil the democracies.

That's not to try to belittle Mr. Molotov's effort, since he is an accomplished speaker and did a workmanlike job of propaganda making for those at whom it was aimed.

The foreign minister's announcement about the atomic bomb was the high-point of his pronouncement. He made it calmly and with studied language, such as would befit a revelation about the most momentous development of our age. It was a clever move.

Of course Molotov is right. The broad information about the structure of the bomb long ago ceased to be a secret, the experts tell us. The information is available to Russia, or even to you and me. However, it's equally true that there are a thousand and one technical details which still are secret, and without them the bomb cannot be made.

There's no great secret about making an ordinary automobile, so far as your correspondent knows. But let the average citizen try to build one, starting with the making of the steel and other metals employed. His blue-print of an automobile wouldn't be worth a row of beans to him. See what I mean?

Another interesting point in Mr. Molotov's address was his reiteration of what recently has become a Red theme—song—that capitalism and communism can exist side by side in peace. This is a complete about-face for the Bolsheviks, that there was no place in the world for capitalism and it must be destroyed.

The Soviet foreign minister, while declaring that capitalism is "on its last legs," recalled Prime Minister Stalin's interview last May with Harold E. Stassen, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in the U.S.A. Molotov pointed out that Stalin had said the difference between economic systems was not an obstacle to peace.

"If collaboration was possible in wartime, why not in peace time?" asked Molotov.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

We, the members of the Board of Stewards of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, wish to pay tribute to our recently deceased fellow member, Louis B. Garris.

The life of some men are of such merit that the memory of them remains enshrined in the hearts of their fellow men. Such a one was Louis Garris. His attitude toward his fellowman capped logically with untiring, faithful, continuous service to his church and her obligations, have indelibly impressed his fellowman leaving a record which transcends words of praise.

Liberality with his means was a dependable trait where human need or obligation of the church were involved. The orphanage will miss this stalwart friend, but compatible liberality of his personal time and interest has been manifested in his faithful and ready attention to his duties as a member of the Board of Stewards and of the House Committee, where he served so many years combining ability with a service of love.

Attention to attendance on church services, Board of Stewards meetings and Board of Trustee meetings was an inspiration to his co-workers. Always quietly, efficiently, smoothly and faithfully doing his full part. His church had an important place in his life.

Therefore, we the members of the Board of Stewards of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church of Greenville, North Carolina, do herewith present the following resolutions:

First, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family and commend them to our Heavenly Father, who alone can give them comfort in their great sorrow, for we too feel the loss.

Second, That we thank our God for the example his life and service has afforded us, and affirm our intention to close our ranks and carry on with even greater determination.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, to the Daily Reflector, and a copy be placed in the official minutes of the Board of Stewards and the quarterly conference.

November 4, 1947
Signed:
THE BOARD OF STEWARDS
Resolutions Committee

J. H. BLOUNT,
K. W. COBB,
K. E. PACE.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Bessie Jarvis Williams.
On the morning of October 7th the soul of our beloved friend, Bessie Jarvis Williams, passed from The Church Triumphant to The Church Saviour say, "Well done good and faithful servant."

St. Paul's Auxiliary has lost a faithful worker and we, the members, a dear and devoted friend whose loyalty, tireless efforts, and years of joyful service will ever be treasured by all whose privilege it was to know her through the years. Her life was a beautiful and touching example of Christian piety and was marked by faithful devotion to her beloved Church and its holy teachings.

Though her going has filled our hearts with sadness and her sweet presence will be greatly missed we are sure her patient and uncomplaining spirit has found a beautiful and peaceful reward. It can be truthfully said of her, "She fought a good fight, she kept the faith and she finished her course as a worthy servant of her King.

We extend to her loved ones our love and sympathy, and request that a copy of this tribute be sent to them, a copy to the Mission Herald and a copy recorded in our minutes.

IN CASE OF FIRE

You Insurance Agent
HELPS PREVENT LOSSES

INSURANCE provides indemnity. It cannot replace property lost by fire or lives lost through accidents. That is why your property insurance agent, who too frequently sees the disastrous effect of losses which could have been prevented, has for many years been active in community accident and fire prevention campaigns. He works to improve the fire prevention ordinances in his town, for example, and he supports measures designed to improve the efficiency of local fire departments.

A part of each premium dollar he collects is used by the companies he represents to maintain high fire and accident prevention standards through national engineering and educational organizations which wage unending war on the causes of accidents and fire waste.

In the individual home, store or factory for which he provides insurance protection, the agent's experience and knowledge frequently help reduce or eliminate major hazards. When these safety recommendations are followed, the property often becomes eligible for corresponding reductions in insurance rates.

It's good business to consult your agent about your safety problems.

Strength FOR THE DAY

LOSS TO THE PATRIMONY
Two men were talking together about the distressing condition of a certain great business. "It would be a shame," said one of the men, "if the stockholders should lose their investment and the workers an opportunity to be employed." "Yes," replied the other man, "and what a loss to the patrimony."

By this he meant, What a loss to the wealth of the country. The man was a European, and in Europe they are more accustomed to think of the patrimony than we are. When a business fails, it is not only a loss to stockholders and workers, but a loss to England, Switzerland, France, or Holland—a loss to the nation's assets, to the patrimony. This is both patriotism and sound economic thinking. Nothing is ever a loss to anyone which is not a loss to the nation. In human values this is even more true. No young man ever loses to the nation without inflicting irreparable damage not only to his family, but to the moral patrimony of the nation. A lost crop is deplorable, but another crop can be grown. A ruined building is a loss indeed, but it can also be built, although it will probably cost more to reproduce it than it will to reproduce a lost crop. But a man or woman lost to social usefulness is an incalculable loss. Such can never be replaced in this world or in the next. It is a loss to every patrimony, including God's patrimony.

Robert Humber Armistice Day Speaker Tuesday

By CHESTER WALSH

The Armistice Day exercises next Tuesday at noon at Respass place, across the river, will be highlighted by a memorial address by Robert Lee Humber, distinguished orator and world traveler and Legionnaire. The veterans, many of whom served in both World Wars, will celebrate the victorious conclusion of two wars and pay tribute to comrades who made the supreme sacrifice in these wars. Humber's address will be broadcast over the Greenville radio station at 12:45.

Chairman Jasper Smith and the county commissioners, and Mayor Jack Bess and the Greenville aldermen will be special guests at the dinner meeting. The dinner will be free to all members of Post No. 39 who have already paid their 1947 membership dues or who pay them at the meeting, a Legion official said. World War veterans who are not members and who desire to join the Legion at the meeting will be dinner guests.

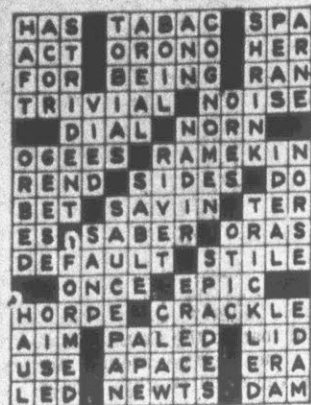

T. K. Fountain of Falkland, chairman, and Larry Averette and James S. Worsley compose the Armistice Day Committee.

Molotov's . . .

A similar note was sounded a few days ago by the Moscow periodical "New Times," an authoritative publication.

At first blush it looks as though Moscow might feel that it has just about reached the limit of its expansion in Europe and is figuring on a live-and-let-live attitude between the Russian bloc and the democracies. Be that as it may, we shouldn't let ourselves become confused over the issue of whether communism and any other ism can mingle in the same state.

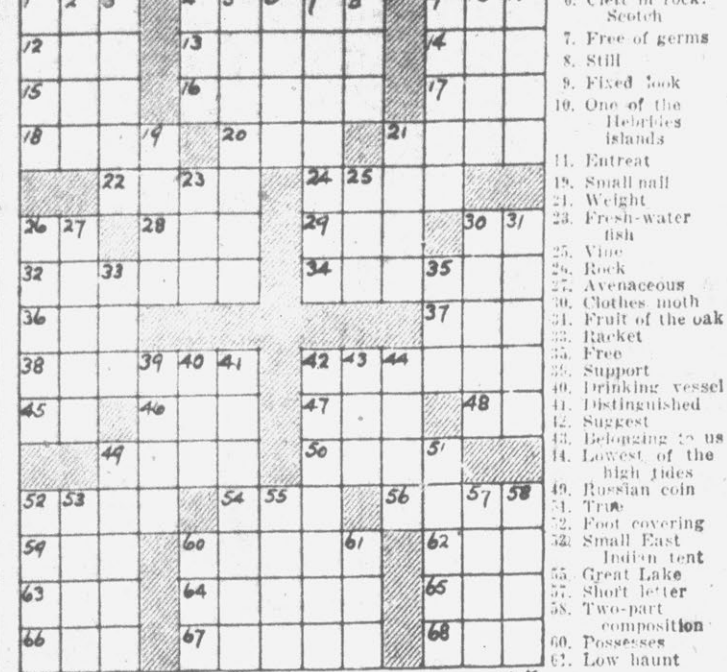

As this column has remarked more than once, it might be possible for two neighboring countries—one capitalist and the other communist dian government secrets for the Russians.

But all this gets around to the No. 1 point mentioned in the first paragraph of this story:
The right of an individual or a group, guaranteed by the constitution, to say what they think or join any political party.
Is that a right that can be taken away at any time? Or is it an unchanging thing?
Do we let a group enjoy the constitutional guarantees only so long as that group remains small and there's no danger from it?
And then, if that group grows stronger or there's danger of war, take away those guarantees for that group?
If so is freedom under the constitution only a name or a luxury which we give to the weak but withhold from the strong?
And if the Communist party can be denied those constitutional guarantees today, may not some religious group lose them tomorrow?
But—and this is a point on which many sincere and honest people break their teeth—should we let this happen?
Should we give full protection of the constitution to a group if, through that protection, it could come to power and then destroy the constitution?

A considerable sum of money has been contributed annually by Masons and others here for support of the orphanage.

While Oxford Orphanage is wholly owned and operated by the N.C. Grand Lodge of Masons, no child is debarred from its benefits because of non-Masonic parentage. Scarcely 20 per cent of the boys and girls in the orphanage have Masonic lineage. The question is never, "Who was the father or mother?" but, "What is the need of the child?" This is the deciding factor, always.

Oxford Orphanage has been in the business of caring for, educating and training orphaned children for 75 years. During this three-quarters of a century some 6,000 North Carolina boys and girls have been molded into good and useful citizenship, becoming important assets in the life of the state. These graduates have entered into the various business trades and professions. The records are impressive. Your donation to Oxford Orphanage this Thanksgiving will be for a worthy cause.

November Eighth Poppy Day

Proclaiming November 8 as "Poppy Day," Mayor J. H. Boyd, Jr. urged all citizens to join in the purchase of Buddy Poppies in the city-wide sale which will be sponsored tomorrow by Post 7032, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Explaining that proceeds from the poppies will be used to help maintain the VFW National Home for orphans of service men, and to aid in veterans' rehabilitation, His Honor the Mayor declared that Poppy Day offers each citizen an opportunity to translate into action his desire to Honor the Dead by Helping the Living.

The Buddy Poppy sale has become almost an American tradition since its inception in 1922 by the VFW, and has been conducted annually by that organization ever since.

Aldermen Hold Routine Session

The Board of Aldermen, at the regular monthly meeting at the City Hall last night, transacted routine business. An outstanding policy of the city administration is to keep up with business matters. When an important matter requires attention Mayor Jack Boyd and the Board of Aldermen dispose of it.

At recent called meetings the aldermen accepted Police Chief Jim Tanner's resignation and appointed Thomas J. Davis, now chief of police at Roanoke Rapids, to succeed him. The board also appointed W. H. Woolard a member of the Greenville Utilities Commission to succeed the late L. B. Garris and J. B. Kittrell to serve the unexpired term of K. W. Cobb, who resigned.

The aldermen are now working on a proposition which will bring 15 families to Greenville.

MITES CRUSH KINSTON TEAM

Locals Take 35-0 Decision Over Visitors; Second Win

By BOBBY BRADSHAW

The Greenville Midgets capped their second win of the season as they crushed the Kinston Midgets 35-0 yesterday afternoon at Guy Smith Stadium.

The Greenies, sparked by Eddie Farley, fleet-footed tailback, and Billy Wooten, hard-running fullback, scored twice in the first quarter and once in every other period as they completely outclassed the visitors.

Greenville opened the game by kicking off and the Kinstonians, unable to gain, went into punt formation on fourth down. Sellers Crisp, Greenville tackle, broke through and blocked the kick and Hux recovered for Greenville. Farley, on the next play, ran wide to his right for a first down. Then, on an identical play to the left, Farley scored Greenville's first and winning TD. Wooten smashed over for the extra point.

Later in the first quarter the "Mighty Mites" recovered a Kinston fumble and Farley on another left sweep raced to the visitors' two where he was pushed out of bounds. On the next play Wooten crashed over and Farley added the extra point.

Midway in the second period Wooten bucked over to end a sustained Greenville drive. Farley scored the extra point.

In the dying minutes of the first half Kinston, aided by two first downs on penalties and a long pass against the Greenville reserves, pushed to the Greenville two. There, however, the "Mighty Mites" held and the half ended with Greenville out in front 21-0.

Early in the third quarter Greenville scored again with Farley driving over from the four. Wooten added the extra point.

Greenville's final score came in the last quarter with Farley going over from the two. Wooten's line buck accounted for the extra point.

The game ended with the G-Men once again marching toward pay-dirt.

Wooten scored 15 points and Farley 20 to give the Greenies their 35-0 margin.

The "Mighty Mite" line played excellent ball and did not allow a single Kinston first down through the line.

All the Greenville backs looked good with Smith and Scott, as well
