STASSEN HAS OWN TAX PLAN IN NEW BOOK

Thinks He Has Fighting Chance For The Presidency; Will Tour In South

Washington, Nov. 10—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen said today he is "optimistic" about world peace, and also thinks he has a "fighting chance" to become the next president of the United States.

The former Minnesota governor and announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination held a news conference timed to publication of his book "Where I Stand."

In the book he urged a sharp cut in upper bracket individual income taxes and a special levy on large fortunes. He also suggested new programs for housing and health, three amendments to the Taft-Hartley Labor Act and a dozen steps for combating communism in this country.

Stassen told the news conference a new constitutional amendment may be needed to put his tax ideas into effect. He said they would have practically no effect, however, on the amount of revenue to the government.

A reported asked Stassen about his plans to invade "Taft territory" on a quest for delegates in the South.

Stassen replied that Southern delegates are "going to be important" at the Republican nominating convention and "we are going down there to make a start." He is starting a speech-making tour which will include some states in the traditionally Democratic South.

On the foreign side, Stassen said that European aid efforts cannot be a success if it is wasted on governments "going down" the socialist or communistic paths.

Britain, he said, is not largely socialized and "the big question" is what direction Britain and other countries are going to take from here on out.

Young Democrats To Reorganize

The Pitt County Young Democrats Club will meet in the courtroom at the Courthouse Wednesday night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of reorganizing. President Sam B. Underwood will preside.

The Young Democrats Club here was very active before the war and had 500 or 600 members, but it became inactive during the war while so many of the young men and women of the county were in the armed forces or engaged in other war work.

Young men and women of the county are invited to attend the meeting Wednesday night and join. Present plans are for the Young Democrats here to hold periodic meetings and "get in harness" for next year—election year.

Slight Drop In Cotton Estimate

Washington, Nov. 10—(AP)—The Agriculture Department today estimated this year's cotton crop at 11,955,000 bales of 500 gross weight.

This estimate is a decrease of 3,000 bales from the 11,508,000 forecast a month ago.

Production last year was 8,640,000 bales and 12,390,000 for the 10-year (1936-45) average.

The department said the yield of lint cotton per acre was indicated at 261.2 pounds, compared with 253.3 last year and 250.6 for the 10-year average.

European Aid Review

This Will Bring You Up To Date On The Big Program Facing Congress As It Heads For A Special Session; What Has Happened Since Birth Of "Marshall Plan"

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 10—(AP)—This will bring you up to date on aid for Europe, the biggest problem facing Congress.

By last spring it was clear this country had been pouring out billions to help Europe without getting Europe on its feet.

Congress would not let that go on. But it was easy to see that if we did not help Europe it might turn Communist through despair.

That would leave us pretty much alone in the world. In the end it might ruin us.

So on June 5, George Marshall, secretary of state, told Europe something like this:

"We'll help you but you'll have to help yourselves, too."

Work out a plan for helping yourselves, such as exchanging things you need, like coal.

"When you find out what you can do for yourselves, and agree to do it, come and tell us what else you need."

Russia and the countries dominated by Russia said they wanted no part of this tie-up with America.

But 16 of the Western European countries took Marshall at his word and met in Paris.

They agreed on a program of self-help over the next four years. And they figured out what aid

Compromise Over Holy Land Issue

U. S. And Russia "Agree In Principle" On Soviet Compromise Plan For Enforcing Palestine Partition

Lake Success, Nov. 10—(AP)—U. S. Representative John H. Hilling said today the United States and Russia had agreed in principle on a Soviet compromise plan for enforcement of Palestine partition.

Hilling made the announcement following a three-hour closed session of a four-member United Nations Assembly working group trying to reconcile U. S.-Soviet differences on the proposed partition.

There was no indication meanwhile that Britain, the mandatory power ruling Palestine, would accept the plan.

Two main points submitted by Russia upon which there was announced agreement were:

1. That the British mandate over Palestine be terminated May 1, 1948.

2. That the assembly elect a U. N. commission of three or five members, excluding the five big powers, to supervise administration of Palestine until proposed Arab and Jewish countries become independent.

Soviet delegate Semen Tsarapkin had said before entering the closed meeting that Russia was prepared to make concessions in an effort to reach an agreement with the United States on enforcement of partition.

An American spokesman emerging from the session after an hour said "This looks like a very fruitful meeting."

He added that "everything is going smoothly."

BACK TO WORK

Baltimore, Nov. 10—(AP)—Employees at two of Bethlehem Steel Company's struck Baltimore shipyards returned to work today, ending a 137-day old walkout which at its peak involved more than 6,000 workers.

Over the next four years they need, most of it from us, in money and goods.

Since Congress would have to approve any help from this country, it would need to know how much help we could give.

So President Truman set out to get the information.

1. He set up a special committee under J. A. Krug, secretary of the interior, to find out how much of our goods, like coal, we could afford to let Europe have.

2. He asked his Council of Economic Advisers to tell him what giving this help would do to this country. For example: Would giving away some scarce things boost prices here?

3. He set up a special committee of 19 citizens under W. Averell Harriman, secretary of commerce, to tell him how this help should be given.

Krug's committee reported October 18 that we could give a lot of help.

NEXT MOVE UP TO ALDERMEN

Choice For Filling Chief Tanner's Shoes Rejects Offer

Mayor Jack Boyd and Greenville's Board of Aldermen were silent today as to any new steps for procuring a chief of police to replace Jim Tanner on his announced date of resignation, November 15, after Mayor Boyd disclosed that Chief T. J. Davis of Roanoke Rapids had declined to keep his position there.

Earlier, Chief Davis had announced his resignation with the Roanoke Rapids police force and accepted an offer to come to Greenville. But his resignation was refused by the Board of Aldermen at Roanoke Rapids and after much persuasion Davis agreed to stay.

A testimonial dinner honoring Chief Tanner and welcoming the new chief had been scheduled for November 14, but it has not been ascertained as to how the new developments would affect the dinner plans.

Mayor Boyd said that Chief Davis had been "highly recommended" to the City of Greenville and "I'm shocked to know that he has changed his mind." The mayor said that he had received a letter of acceptance by Chief Davis before the Roanoke Rapids Board of Aldermen met to consider his resignation.

With Chief Tanner's date of resignation rapidly drawing nearer, the City Fathers were today studying further steps to obtain a chief of police for Greenville by November 15.

HOLDING OPEN HOUSE AT GHS

Special Program Prepared For Students, Parents Tuesday

With American Education Week being observed throughout the nation this week, Greenville High School is participating in this observance and is holding an open house for parents and students Tuesday, November 11, from 8 till 9 o'clock.

Entertainment will include selections by the string ensemble followed by an introduction of the student body's president by Principal O. E. Dowd and a welcoming speech by Bobby Brady, followed by a devotional.

The program will include selections by the glee club and the high school band.

"Every parent should make an effort to visit the schools during American Education Week," said Mr. Dowd, "because the schools are supported entirely by public money, and the public should be in order to ascertain that the funds are being spent wisely and the students are being properly trained. The superintendent of schools, the principal and faculty of the high school cordially invite you to meet with us Tuesday evening."

Greenville Man Burns To Death In Trailer Home

Joseph D. Hoell, 34, was burned to death yesterday morning at 1:30 when flames engulfed his small trailer home in a secluded area at Fleming's Crossroads in the northern section of the city across Tar River.

Coroner Griffin Rouse said that Hoell's body was burned beyond recognition.

The structure was in flames when discovered by neighbors and it was not known that Hoell was inside until after the flames had subsided.

He was alone at the time of the fire, cause of which has not been determined.

Funeral services were conducted at the S. G. Wilkerson and Sons Funeral Home Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Ralph Johnson, Pentecostal Holiness minister of Greenville.

Burial was in the Manning family cemetery near Ayden.

He was born at Erul and had been living in the Greenville community since he was five years old. He had recently been employed by a local lumber company.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Annie Hoell; three daughters, Lillian, Olive and Elizabeth Ann Hoell; two sons, Roy Lee and Bernice Hoell; and two sisters, Mrs. Bertha White and Mrs. near Stokes and Mrs. Carl Laughlinhouse of near Parmole.

New Siamese Premier And Council Take Over

Bangkok, Nov. 10—(AP)—Luang Aphaiwong was appointed premier of Siam today and a five-member council was named to head the government following a bloodless coup yesterday directed by war-time dictator Pibul Songram.

The new privy council replaces the regency for King Phumiphon who attains his majority next month. The monarch, who is now in Switzerland, is expected to return to Siam next month.

The privy council immediately promulgated a new constitutional reviving some of the monarchical powers relinquished in 1932. Under the new constitution Siam's legislature will continue as a two chamber body, but the members of the Senate will be henceforth appointed by the king instead of being elected. Aphaiwong served as premier on two previous occasions. He headed the government briefly in 1944 when Songram was ousted because of public opposition to an ultra-nationalist program.

He was again made premier early in 1946, but his regime was defeated after a brief stay in office. Last reports from Bangkok were that the country was outwardly quiet following the coup, which was accomplished without a shot being fired. However, troops employing tanks, machineguns and anti-aircraft weapons, patrolled the vicinity of the royal palace and governmental headquarters.

Plans approved by the board of trustees last August provided that a health and physical education building should be the first of the new buildings on the campus. Dr. Messick said that the basement of the Wright building has been renovated this fall so as to care for the needs of the physical education department temporarily.

FRANCO AGAIN EXPECTED TO BE CONDEMNED

Spanish Issue Comes Before UN This Week; Little Action Anticipated

Lake Success, Nov. 10—(AP)—The United Nations merely will repeat its moral condemnation of Generalissimo Franco's regime when the General Assembly considers the Spanish case, a spokesman for one of the major delegations predicted today.

"The assembly probably will end up doing as little as it can," he said. The Spanish issue comes before the assembly's 57-nation Political Committee early this week. Delegations will weigh results of the 1946 assembly resolution which denounced the government of Hitler's wartime friend and recommended that all U. N. members withdraw their ambassadors and ministers from Madrid. Argentina has failed to comply and delegates expected the Soviet bloc of nations to level a series of speeches at the Peron government.

Poland was reported considering introduction of a resolution calling on all U. N. members to institute economic sanctions against Spain. Such a move failed last year and this spokesman said that sentiment in the assembly now appeared to be against taking any major action against the Falangist regime at this time.

This source said that it appeared that resolutions directed against Franco (his regime was previously condemned at San Francisco, Potsdam and London) seemed to have the effect of helping the generalissimo rather than hurting him.

TRUMAN CITES GREEK NEEDS

Economic And Military Plight Unimproved Says President

Washington, Nov. 10—(AP)—President Truman told Congress today that "Greece is still free because of American aid but her economic plight 'has not basically improved' and the military picture is worse.

That is the way Mr. Truman sized things up as of Sept. 30, four months after Congress set up a $400,000,000 fund to help Greece and Turkey combat communistic pressure from inside and outside of their borders.

The president expressed "grave concern" that "underlying causes of economic and political unrest" still exist in Greece.

But in his first report to Congress on how the aid money is being used, the nearest thing to a hint that more might be asked was a statement that:

Police Hope Questioning Will Clear Up Series Robberies

Greenville police believe that the arrest of three Negro teenage boys during the weekend will clear up a dozen or more robberies of stores, service stations and other places here during the past 10 days.

Policeman Jesse Mills arrested Willie L. Dupree, 11-year-old Negro boy, while in the act of robbing Goor's Shoe Shop, on Dickinson Avenue, late Saturday night. He entered the place through a window. The youngster is charged with breaking, entering and larceny.

After questioning by police, Dupree implicated two other boys, Shelton B. Dupree, 10, and Linwood E. Boyd, 13. Police said they have admissions from the boys that they robbed the B & N Motor Company, on East Fifth Street, of minor articles; Greenville Motor Paris Company, Cotanche Street, near Fifth, $23 in money; Scott Motor Company, East Fifth Street, small change and keys; broke into J. B. Kittrell's office, on Railroad Street, and got nothing; Atlantic Service Station, near the telephone building, four times, loot, miscellaneous articles; Dunn's coal yard office, Railroad Street, no loot; Sutton's Service Center No. 2, Dickinson Avenue, Company, Dickinson Avenue Extension, V. A. Merritt's Electric Store and Salter's Service Station.

Police investigating the robberies said they believe they have broken up the string of nocturnal robberies.

Marshall Urges Congress To Act Quickly On Relief Funds

Hughes Claims General Wanted $200,000 Loan

Refusal Brought "Breach Of Friendship" Says Planemaker; Testifies John Meyer Given Free Hand In Entertaining

Washington, Nov. 10—(AP)—Howard Hughes testified today that Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers tried to borrow $200,000 from him during the war when Meyers was negotiating a multi-million dollar plane contract with Hughes.

Hughes told the Senate War Investigating Committee that he had turned Meyers down.

"This resulted in a complete breach of friendship between me and Benny Meyers, and so far as I know, he didn't speak to me again for two years," the lanky plane builder added.

Meyers testifying to the committee last week, denied an earlier assertion by a Hughes attorney that he (Meyers) once tried to borrow $50,000 from Hughes.

"When I finally and definitely turned down the loan proposition," Hughes said, "I thought General Meyers was going to find some way to throw a monkey wrench into that F-11 (photo reconnaissance) plane contract if it was the last thing he ever did."

But Hughes added that Meyers apparently went ahead and approved the contract anyway.

Meyers, now retired, was deputy chief air force procurement officer during the war.

Hughes' relations with Meyers came up after the plane manufacturer had testified earlier that he declined to give publicity man John W. Meyer a free hand to spend on wartime entertaining of army officers because he could not get plane contracts by "doing business in a straight-laced manner."

The secretary made the Administration's first official representation of the recovery program to a combined meeting of Senate and House Foreign Committees a week before the special congressional session on European aid.

He spoke for a half hour and then agreed to appear before the Senate committee tomorrow for questioning. He will go before the House committee on Wednesday.

Marshall said any effort to restore the economy of friendly nations cannot be certain of success, because, as he put it bluntly, "the Soviet Union does not for its own reasons share this aim."

He estimated that it eventually will require from $16,000,000,000 to $20,000,000,000 of American funds to bolster governments in the area west of the line in Europe where the Anglo-American armies met the Russian forces to end the war.

"Developments in the European countries east of that line bear the unmistakable imprint of an alien hand," he declared.

Marshall's proposals received praise from Republicans and Democrats alike. Senator Connally of Texas, ranking Democrat on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, termed it "a splendid statement" and Connally's opposite number on the House group, Rep. Bloom (D-NY), said it ought "to satisfy all doubters."

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), chairman of the Senate group, said Marshall has "posed the major issue—now the problem is to get the total facts in respect to it." Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) of the House committee observed that Marshall's statement was "very comprehensive" and he wanted to study it further before making an additional appraisal.

Specifies Amounts Needed For Stop-Gap Aid Before Senate And House Foreign Committees; Cites Urgent Requirements For Coming Months

Washington, Nov. 10—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall urged Congress today to provide $597,000,000 as emergency aid to Europe through next March and estimated $7,500,000,000 more will be needed for long-range help in the 15 months thereafter.

Aside from the stopgap fund to meet "urgent" requirements of Italy, France and Austria, Marshall said that the Army will need about $500,000,000 additional to carry on in occupied areas until next June 30.

The secretary made the Administration's first official representation of the recovery program to a combined meeting of Senate and House Foreign Committees a week before the special congressional session on European aid.

UNION SEEKS NEW PAY HIKE

Textile Workers In North Ask 15 Cents An Hour Raise

Boston, Nov. 10—(AP)—A general wage increase of 15 cents an hour for 100,000 workers in northern cotton and rayon mills has been asked by the CIO Textile Workers Union.

The increase was asked yesterday, 24 hours after the union voted to seek a 20-cent an hour boost for 80,000 woolen-worsted employees.

Emile Rieve, general president of the union, said the cotton-rayon proposal would include members employed in 125 mills in New England and the Middle Atlantic states. It would establish a $1.03 an hour minimum compared with the present 88 cents. Average hourly earnings would be increased from $1.07 to $1.22, Rieve said.

The new wage increase proposals coincided with a union announcement in New York that a nine per cent wage boost, amounting to $19,000,000 a year, for 125,000 Southern cotton textile workers—approximately one-fifth of all cotton mill workers in the South—has been negotiated. The Southern minimum thus rose to 87 cents an hour.

Four wage increases in the northern cotton-rayon industry have been negotiated by TWU since V-J Day. A five-cent an hour boost was received Aug. 1, 1947, 10 cents an hour Jan. 1, 1947, eight cents in August, 1946, and eight cents in November, 1945.

'Cold War' Discussed

Operations Are Far From "Cold" In Certain Areas; Correspondents Add Up Score; Divided Germany May Contribute To Strife; Place Of The Marshall Plan

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

This graphic expression "cold war"—to describe the present status of the conflict between Russia and the democracies as compared with the "hot war" of actual military combat—bids fair to take its place among history's colorful figures of speech.

However, like most phrases which represent a play on words, it could lead us into a faulty estimate of the situation if we didn't watch out. We might get the impression that things are cooler than they actually are. As a matter of fact, Soviet operations are far from "cold" in numerous areas.

As the bride and groom entered little Miss Henrietta Taylor, lovely as a miniature bride, descended the stairway, which was decorated with southern smilax, singing "Here Comes the Bride."

The sun parlor and living rooms were lovely with unusual arrangements of chrysanthemums, roses, and smilax. The coffee table held a miniature bride and groom and a musical array of tiny angel figurines. Electric logs and burning tapers gave a soft glow throughout the lower floor. A unique arrangement of colored lights was used in the hall.

The guests were invited into the dining room by Mrs. B. G. Taylor and Mrs. W. W. Salisbury. The buffet was centered with a silver bowl holding white chrysanthemums flanked with silver cranes and silver candle sticks. The dining room table which was covered with a lace imported cloth, was centered with a huge three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and surrounded with tube roses and greenery. Crystal candelabras were used on either side.

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, November 9.

The Golden Text Ephesians 5:8. "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now ye are light in the Lord, walk as children of light."

Among the citations comprising the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible: "The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light" Romans 13:12. And from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Whatever indicates the fall of man or the opposite of God or God's absence, is the Adam-dream, which is neither Mind nor man, for it is not begotten of the Father." (Page 282).

Successful Art Week
Committees from the Woman's Club and the Community Art Center who planned activities and exhibits for National Art Week are very pleased with the response they received from the public and wish to thank everyone who helped make the programs of the week such a success.

Plans for the week were completed with a studio tea at the studio of Georgia Pearsall Hearne, local artist, on Saturday afternoon.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. J. Vance Perkins, president of the Woman's Club and Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale, chairman of the directors of the Community Art Center. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Humber directed them to the studio where they were received by Mrs. Hearne and shown many of her portraits and other paintings.

Misses Jean Lane and Jessie More presided in the living room where miniatures and other interesting paintings were on exhibit. In the dining room from a prettily appointed table Mesdames T. E. Hooker and J. L. Fleming poured tea and were assisted in serving by Mrs. J. H. B. Moore and Miss Leticia Higgs. Special guests were Mrs. Junius Goodwin of Lumberton and Miss Eunice Pearsall of Red Springs, N. C.

Wedding Party Honored
Ayden.—On Wednesday, November 5, following the rehearsal Miss Lois Anne Kilpatrick, of Peace college, entertained the Hollana-Forrest wedding party with a cake-cutting at her home. As the bride and groom entered little Miss Henrietta Taylor, lovely as a miniature bride, descended the stairway, which was decorated with southern smilax, singing "Here Comes the Bride."

The sun parlor and living rooms were lovely with unusual arrangements of chrysanthemums, roses, and smilax. The coffee table held a miniature bride and groom and a musical array of tiny angel figurines. Electric logs and burning tapers gave a soft glow throughout the lower floor. A unique arrangement of colored lights was used in the hall.

Strength FOR THE DAY

WE MUST BE IN TUNE

We go to the music hall to hear a great orchestral performance, but before the symphony begins the members of the orchestra spend five or ten minutes tuning their instruments. They must all get their instruments to a common standard of pitch. Usually the concert master gives them the initial tone, and from this all instruments are tuned. The whole orchestra has to be in tune on the basis of that common note or else the symphony turns out to be a dreadful discord.

So much of the symphony of life is played in discord, and this because our lives are out of tune. The Great Musician has sounded a tone for us all to follow. Some people insist on having their instruments just the way they want them, whether this means being in tune with the Great Musician or not. Others are contentedly trying to get in tune. When the United Nations tries to play the symphony of peace, there is a discord because the nations are not in tune with certain standards of justice and peace.

Plan Building . . .

(Continued from Page One) Athletics is imperative, said Dr. Messick, since the college now has nothing but a practice field. The plans now being drawn for a football stadium provide 10,000 concrete seats and allow for expansion in the future. Facilities for track events are included. An adequate baseball field near the stadium is also being planned. Dr. Messick stressed the value to the eastern section of the state of such an athletic center. When an estimate of the cost of these projects has been given by the architect, Dr. Messick said, an appeal for funds will be made to alumni and friends of the college.

European Aid . . .

(Continued from Page One) help without hurting ourselves. The economic advisers reported a week ago that we could give the help without damaging ourselves, if we tried to keep prices from running away. And Saturday night the Harriman committee made its report. This committee studied the other two reports and outlined a plan for giving help. But it said we could not give all the help the 16 nations asked. President Truman had intended using these three reports in making recommendations to Congress when it met in regular session in January to consider the Marshall Plan.

Mrs. Carrie Bell, Mrs. Willie Vanders and Mrs. A. B. Taft attended the ministers state convention at Goldsboro October 28-30. They report an enjoyable session.

Since farmers are trying to do away weeding plant beds, they will have to step up in their treatment since best results are obtained when treatments are started about 90 days before sowing plant beds. Quite a number of farmers have already treated their beds and it is time for others to finish the job.

Also the 4-H achievement day will be celebrated at Clemons school Nov. 18. Because of so much rain a number of farmers were not able to save their needed amount of hay, it will be a wise plan to sow as much small grain for pastures as you can. There is still time in the eastern section for sowing grain.

viet dominated area and an area controlled by the Western powers. Pollock makes this statement in a report prepared for the Foreign Policy Association, a private research organization. He says that at the forthcoming Foreign Ministers' Conference in London, to try to write a German peace treaty, the choice is quite clearly for peace or a continuation of the present cold war.

"It is entirely possible," he says, "to solve the German problem in such a way as to contribute to the progress of peaceful international life. But if there is continued drift, or if a disintegration of the present embryo peace will inevitably occur." Appropos of the grim contingency of a clash at arms between the world's two giant powers—Russia and America—the London periodical "New Statesman" advances the interesting thesis that this can be prevented if England and her neighbors "exploit the balance of power between the East and West."

PIRATES LOSE TO VISITING AMPHIB SQUAD

Teams Evenly Matched Except For Stellar Running By "Rags" Ragone

The Little Creek, Va., Amphibs, behind the elusive and speedy "Rags" Ragone, defeated the East Carolina Teachers College Pirates 31 to 7 here Saturday night.

Ragone was the difference, as the two teams were otherwise evenly matched throughout the tilt. Ragone racked up three touchdowns on runs of 70, 20, and 54 yards. It was the greatest individual performance of the year against the Pirates. Ragone formerly played for the University of Texas and plans to re-enter next year. His performance was against the Pirates at their best.

The Pirates, after holding the Amphibs scoreless in nearly two quarters by magnificent defensive play, struck pay dirt first. With two minutes to go before half-time, Elsie Fearing fired a 10-yard pass to Micky Weatherington, who took it on the 25 and sped across the last chalk line for six points. Pete Everett's kick was good and the Pirates led 7-0. Then Ragone started his show. With less than a minute to go in the half, he took the ball on his own 46 and, doing a bit of fancy running, went all the way. Kicky was good, and the game ended at half-time tied up at 7-7.

In the third quarter, Ragone went for 20 yards and a score. Bickel passed to End Gerhard for eight and another six pointer, and then again for a 30-yard completion and a touchdown. It looked as if that was going to be all for the Amphibs as the Pirates pushed them back to their 30-yard line in the early minutes of the fourth period.

They had forgotten that little 170-pound seat-back called Ragone. From the 30, he started to his right, left his interference, and cut back to his left, outrunning the Pirates into pay dirt on a gallop covering 70 yards.

To end the scoring, Trowell passed two yards to Bickel, who took it on the 26 and went on into the end zone.

The Pirates racked up 13 first downs to the Amphibs' 5 and completed 9 out of 16 passes for 137 yards. They were outrushed 213 to 154 yards.

BABY PIRATES PLAY TUESDAY

Potential Varsity Material Get Chance Against Campbell

ECTC's Jayvee team has its opportunity to display their wares against a Campbell College "B" squad in Guy Smith Stadium tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in an Armistice Day feature which will be an important game to at least five of the Baby Pirates.

Freshman Frank Mannelle, a left halfback, is described by Coach Jim Johnson as having a good throwing arm that requires only more experience to rate him as a first stringer. Mannelle will get a lot of experience tomorrow, Johnson promised, as will four 200-pound freshman tackles.

Two of the four will accompany the varsity when they play West Carolina Teachers College next Saturday. The pair to be chosen will be determined by their performances here tomorrow. Those competing for the trip are: Zack Manning, from Winston-Salem; Allen Dupree, from Plymouth; Mac Eure, from Portsmouth, Va.; and Don McKenzie, from Roanoke Rapids.

Johnny Smith, of Portsmouth, Va., will be playing fullback and quarterback for the Baby Pirates. Johnny was an outstanding player while in high school, and Coach Johnson is anticipating his development into varsity material when the element of experience is added.

Earl Smith, who coaches the Campbell team, is a former ECTC graduate and will accompany his squad in their invasion here tomorrow.

Classes at East Carolina Teachers College will be "adjourned" to permit students to attend the game.

Titus and others. He has gone, but his spirit will ever be present at "The Little Church In the Woods."

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Red Oak News

One of my dearest friends is dead. It seems like a dream, for only last Sunday he was in his usual place at Sunday school and on the lapel of his coat he wore a pin signifying that he had not been absent from that place in six years, and ten months, although during that period he was never entirely well.

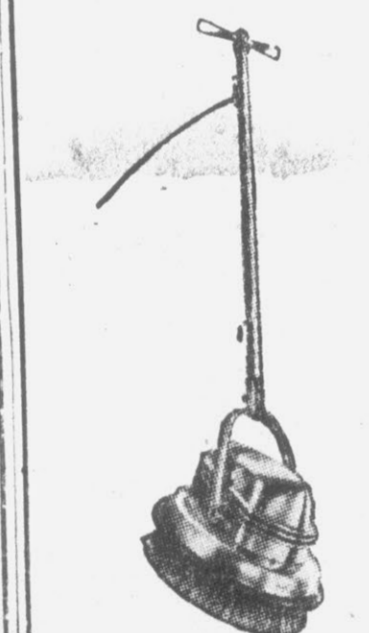

We all shall miss him. He was kind, patient and true. He was ever a most faithful member of our church and Sunday school. He was an ardent supporter of our circles and our club. He was always generous.

He was always encouraging. If I have ever meant anything to my church and my community, it was greatly because of his kind words of approbation, his encouragement and his appreciation.

He loved every inch of ground at Red Oak, every plank, every nail. He loved the young boys and young girls who attended and he always wanted to do the things that would interest them and encourage them to be better boys and girls.

He was a most generous giver, supporting wholeheartedly any program planned by his church.

Yes, we shall miss "Cousin Billy." He has gone like some other good workers in our church, Roy, Will, Cousin Ben, Cousin Wyatt, Cousin
