REP. KNUTSON ATTACKS NEW TRADE ACCORD

Indicates Bitter Fight Ahead Over Tariff Cuts Next Spring In Congress

Washington, Nov. 19—(AP)—Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) said today the State Department in its "free trade" tariff cuts has sought to tie the hands of Congress against protecting American agriculture and industry from foreign imports.

The statement by Knutson, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, indicated a bitter battle in Congress when the reciprocal trade law comes up for renewal next spring.

In his attack upon the new trade accord Knutson said in a formal statement: "The President and the State Department have announced the most sweeping tariff cuts in the history of the country. Over 70 per cent of our dutiable imports will be affected and almost 2,000 rates of duty covering upward of 4,000 items have been either reduced or bound.

"When the full meaning of these tariff cuts becomes apparent to the American public, the reaction is likely to prove interesting, if not disconcerting to the do-gooders who have traded us off for very dubious and nebulous trade concessions that may never be realized."

Under terms of the Geneva trade and tariff agreement made public by the United States will make more than 3,500 cuts in import duties as part of a 23-nation pact affecting half the world's commerce.

A State Department official told a reporter then the effects on prices and on volume of imports will be slow to come but "the general effect should be to ease the burden on the consumer."

The reductions made by the U.S. and seven other countries are scheduled to go into effect Jan. 1, 1948. Other countries are to adhere to the agreement as soon as they ratify it.

Books For Children

American Novelist Says Children Have Individual Tastes In Reading Material Just As Do Grown-ups; Don't "Eackjack" A Child Into Reading Disliked Books

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 19—(AP)—Do you blackjack your child into reading what you liked when you were a kid or what you think he ought to like?

Or do you treat him as an individual with likes and dislikes different from yours and with interests in reading that are different, too?

You liked Sir Walter Scott and his long-winded, padded-out, phony "varnish"? Maybe your kid will like it. If he doesn't, don't force it down his throat.

Maybe you liked stories of Indians. Okay, for you. But maybe your kid would rather read a book on chemistry. Let him read it.

That's the point Mrs. Dorothy Canfield Fisher, American novelist and grandmother, tried to make this week.

Secretary Anderson Sets 1948 Leaf Quota Program

Washington, Nov. 19—(AP)—A 25 per cent cut in flue-cured tobacco acreage for most individual farmers was called for today by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson in announcing the 1948 production program.

The reduction was ordered because of a decline in foreign markets. Great Britain, major overseas buyer, recently withdrew from U.S. tobacco markets for an indefinite period because of a shortage of dollars.

Flue-cured tobacco is produced under an agricultural adjustment administration program calling for planting allotments and marketing quotas for individual farmers. Anderson set the 1948 national marketing quota at 955,000,000 pounds. This compares with 1,352,000,000 estimated for 1947.

Converting the quota percentage figures to acreages, on the basis of the 1942-46 yields, the 1948 acreage allotments would total about 909,000 acres as compared with 1,257,000 in 1946 and 1,247,000 in 1947.

Anderson said the national marketing quota was set on the basis of the "supply and demand situation."

The loss of exports and the large 1946 and 1947 crops have increased supply to a point where quota reductions are mandatory under the law.

The secretary indicated that the reduction might have been larger except for the fact that domestic consumption of flue-cured tobacco—principally in cigarettes—remains high.

Under the AAA control program, farmers are permitted, generally speaking, to market tobacco grown on the acreage allotted them. Tobacco grown in excess acres is subject to a penalty tax if marketed. That tax is 49 percent of the previous year's average market price of flue-cured tobacco.

LEON BLUM TO TRY TO FORM NEW CABINET

New Socialist Gov't Slated To Take Over; Leftist Strife In Background

Paris, Nov. 19—(AP)—A spokesman for the Socialist Party announced today that former Premier Leon Blum had agreed to try to form a new government.

A rising wave of Communist-led strikes provided the background.

The announcement was made by Guy Mollet, secretary general of the Socialist party, at a luncheon of the Anglo-American Correspondents Association.

Mollet considered a member of the left wing of the Socialists, said he believed a new cabinet would be formed within a few days to succeed that of Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier.

Mollet said France had permitted herself to be divided into two groups and that if civil war should result, it would be "as bad as it was in Spain."

Military trucks rushed flour into Paris to assure the French capital of its daily bread.

Paul Reynaud, independent who was France's last premier before formation of the Vichy regime, had formed a government with Socialist support. The left wing shied away and the rightists insisted that he should not permit the left to dominate any cabinet he might form.

The efforts of Premier Ramadier himself to strengthen his coalition cabinet also have met with little success.

Mollet said a force was necessary to oppose both the Communists and Gen. Charles de Gaulle's rightist French People's Party (RPF). He said a Eum government represented France's last chance to keep herself a country in which would be found liberal, pacifist and democratic to whom the Americans could talk.

The jury, however, was unable to determine the cause or time of death. The mother, Mrs. Miriam Gussinger, yesterday identified strands of hair, a belt and a ring as those of her daughter.

C.M. Johnson Reviews State's Finances Here

By WYATT BROWN

No increase in taxes, a pay-as-you-go plan in building highways, and a prolongation of the teachers' increased salary two years after the recession comes were discussed Monday night by gubernatorial candidate Charles M. Johnson in picturing the larger, more complex and more costly state finances to the Greenville Rotarians. He told of the healthy condition of North Carolina finances.

At the outset he made perfectly clear the separateness of the Highway Fund and the General Fund, as was different from the General Fund as his personal bank account was different from any other individual's bank account. Then he accounted for the twenty-five million dollars in the Highway Fund above the needs of retiring all highway indebtedness—the hold up of equipment and shortage of supplies during and since the war. "The Highway Funds are being spent as rapidly as is reasonably possible," he explained. "Rural roads have had more spent on them in the last ten years than in any previous ten year period."

At this point Mr. Johnson explained the existence of long term bonds in the state's financing. Back when the debt was contracted funds were needed and time of repayment was remote, the greater demand for term bonds resulted in surer market and lower interest rates. With

"I do not think North Carolina will ever have to issue bonds again—certainly not for the next 25 years," he declared.

It was here he expounded the policy of building roads in the future with funds as they accumulate.

Next he took up the thirty-million dollar reserve set aside by the state legislature as a post-war fund. The fund, he explained, is for the purpose of assuring the teachers of a continuance of their raise which came two years later than in private industry for a period of two years following a recession of wages in private circles.

Senate Foreign Relations Body Votes Emergency Aid

Testimony Piles Up In Probe Of General

Another Witness Says $15,000 Of His "Salary" Went To Meyers; General's Father-In-Law Installed On Firm's Payroll

Washington, Nov. 19—(AP)—T. E. Readnow said today $15,000 a year of his "salary" from Aviation Electric Company went to Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers during the war years and until the firm was dissolved in 1945.

Readnow, 55, of Dayton, O., told the Senate war investigating committee the company, which otherwise owned, paid him $100 monthly while he served in the army.

In addition, he said, $315,000 salary was charged on the books to him but the money, other than that needed to pay income taxes, went to Meyers.

He told the senators that on one occasion he delivered more than $7,000 cash to Meyers in an envelope, representing the residue of his ostensible 1941 $1,000 salary after payment of taxes.

Readnow said that Meyers retained deputy chief of air forces personnel (purchasing), gave him $1,000.

With this $1,000, Readnow said, his actual pay from the company was $15,000.

Readnow was on the firm's payroll as vice-president and secretary. He is a brother-in-law of S. H. Lamarre, the company's president.

Lamarre, recalled to the witness chair immediately after Readnow's testimony, testified that Meyer's father-in-law, a former bus driver, was installed as production manager of Aviation Electric at $12,000 a year despite a "total lack of experience."

Lamarre said Meyers had "Mr. Curran," the father-in-law, put on the payroll Nov. 2, 1942.

I. O. Harris, a wartime military public relations officer, the committee received testimony that rumors rife in the air force in 1942 of high ranking officers holding large books of Aircraft stock were regarded as possible enemy agents.

That was why the army was debating ways to scrub the rumors, he said. Weeks was a colonel during the war but now is a civilian.

Italy And France Undergoing Intensified Communist Assault; Part Of A Plan; Directed By One Headquarters; Secretary Marshall's Address In Chicago

By DEWITT BLACKENZIE

The powerful Communist parties of France and Italy are intensifying their efforts to cripple the economically stricken countries and thereby serve the double purpose (1) of paving the way for the establishment of Soviet regimes and (2) of defeating the Marshall Plan for rehabilitation of Western Europe, thus rendering that great area vulnerable to Russian exploitation.

Much of France's industry is paralyzed because of strikes called by Communist dominated unions. The complete stoppage of all the country's vital coal mining is a terrible blow to the country, for the shortage of coal is the crux of much of France's difficulty, just as it is in England and in other neighboring states.

Meantime in Italy widespread strikes continued and political disorders spread in the face of Premier Alcide de Gasperi's declaration that he would not be intimidated by rioting and "forecasts of revolution."

Approve Legislation Providing Interim Relief For France, Italy And Austria; Will Add Amendments To Bill; Truman Domestic Plans Sidetracked

Washington, Nov. 19—(AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved legislation to provide emergency aid for France, Italy and Austria, Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) said the vote was 13-0.

Vandenberg told a news conference that the committee also voted unanimously to place a number of amendments in the bill, which had been submitted by the State Department.

One of these specified that the act "shall not imply any obligation to give assistance or nor shall it imply or guarantee the availability of any specific commodities."

Vandenberg said the amendment is intended to answer criticism that our own economy is in short supply with respect to many of the commodities outlined in the bill.

The Administration has $375,000,000 to furnish food, fertilizers, petroleum, and other supplies to the three nations.

Shortly before the foreign committee voted, the Senate House Economic Committee sidetracked immediate action on President Truman's rationing and price control proposals. However, Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) said the group decided to go ahead Friday with hearing on other phases of the President's cost-of-living program.

"I think that if we are going to get anything out of this special session of Congress we will have to leave those points until the regular session," Taft said.

Taft earlier had told a reporters credit and export controls are the two recommendations by Mr. Truman most likely to win approval of Congress in a program to combat inflation. He also said modifications of control extension law might be passed by the Republican-controlled Congress.

The Ohioan, an avowed candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, has denounced the price-wage controls and consumer rationing proposals as "a step toward a completely totalitarian nation."

In a broadcast last night AFL President William Green said organized labor also is opposed to price and wage controls except as a last resort in case of "national crisis."

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson will be the first Administration witness before the committee at 2 p.m. EST. Friday.

Used Shotgun To Settle Argument

Shirley's deputies arrested Alfred Edwards, colored, yesterday and charged him with assaulting with a deadly weapon Reuben Anderson, colored in the Renston section, several miles from Winterville, during an argument last Friday night.

Edwards and Anderson live across the road from each other. The assault occurred while Edwards was in the road in front of Anderson's house. The load of shot wounded Anderson in the leg. He was treated by a Winterville physician.

Deputy Sheriff Loyd E. Manning said Edwards gave himself up in Aydy police, who turned him over to Manning.

Legion Post Threatens Suit Over Fair Grounds

Overwhelming Majority Approve Action To Dissolve Fair Organization; Would Ask Accounting And Division Of Assets

By CHESTER WALSH

Pitt County Post No. 39, American Legion Post No. 39, at a regular meeting at the Airport Inn last night, passed by a vote of 57 to 4 a resolution authorizing James S. Jenkins, post commander, to appoint a committee with full power and authority to prosecute an action in superior court, and any appeals thereof in the State Supreme Court, in the name of Pitt County Post No. 39, against Pitt County Fair, Inc., and the American Legion Pitt County Fair, Inc., and the Pitt County Agricultural Fair, Inc., for the purpose of dissolving said organization and having its assets divided equitably between the American Legion Post No. 39 and the Farmville Post of the American Legion, and compelling an accounting by its officers and directors for operations over the period of its existence.

The resolution also authorizes the committee, in event of adverse final judgment in the court action, to prosecute another and separate action to restrain the said fair organization from using the name of Pitt County Post No. 39 in promoting its affairs. The resolution further authorizes the committee, in its discretion, to enter into a full settlement of either or both proposed court actions.

The American Legion resolution further authorizes the committee to employ legal counsel to prosecute either or both court actions, and authorizes the full committee, out of the general fund of Post No. 39, to pay counsel fees and court costs.

The resolution states that the American Legion Post, by an overwhelming majority, passed a resolution at a meeting last July, requesting the officers of Pitt County Fair, Inc., and/or the American Legion Pitt County Fair, Inc., to sell the old fair grounds property and distribute the proceeds of such sale pro rata between the Farmville Post and Post No. 39. It further proposed to amend its charter so that officers would be elected by Post No. 39 would be ipso facto membership in the fair organization, and that all of its profits, after operating expenses, should go into the treasury of Post No. 39, to be frozen until the proposed building is paid for in full.

Last night's resolution states that the officers of the fair organization have ignored the request and made no effort to comply.

There seems to be a scarcity of small change but Christmas will find it.

One thing is sure—Greenville must have more houses before the town can do much more growing. There are no vacant houses here at present while there is almost daily demand for them.

Williamson entertained a number of guests at a bridge and bingo shower at the home of Miss Williamson on Chestnut street, honoring Miss Evelyn Tucker, bride-elect. The home was tastefully decorated with fall flowers.

Miss Tucker was remembered with a silver well and tree ceter. Miss Mattie Ecks, another bride elect, was also presented a gift in silver.

After several progressions high score was won by Mrs. Stuart Paige and second high by Mrs. Charles Tuden, floating prize by Mrs. Ralph Bowen.

Coca colas were served during the game. At the conclusion an ice course was served.

RELIGION AND HAPPINESS Does religion make people happy? Generally, but not necessarily. Religion transforms a man's character.

But while religion transforms character, it does not transform temperament. We are born with a certain temperament and this we keep throughout life even though there may be some modification of its extreme.

The point to bear in mind is that happiness is not the greatest thing in the world and God is not morally bound to make men happy.

Pitt 4-H Clubs Show Progress In 'Achievement Day' Program

By CHESTER WALSH

The Pitt County 4-H Clubs Achievement Day exercises at the Greenville Armory last Friday night was an outstanding event of the year and it was largely attended. The hybrid corn growing contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce was a feature of Achievement Day. The trade body donated $75 for prizes and a friend contributed $10.

Incidentally, out of 27 hybrid corn growing projects this year the average production was 85.6 bushels to the acre, a considerable increase over 1946, when the average corn project yield was 64.5 bushels to the acre.

In contrast, the average corn yield of all types in this county, was only 24.5 bushels to the acre.

Two 4-H Club boys were awarded certificates of achievement for completing six years work; three for five years, and 20 for completing one year's work.

The following 4-H clubs received prizes for Pitt County fair exhibits: First prize, $50, Grimsland; second, $40, Farmville; third $30, Lang's; and fourth prize, $20, Belvoir.

The following honors were awarded girls on Achievement Day: County health senior queen, Pauline Robinson, junior health queen, Marcelene Deal; senior dress revue winner, Hazel Garris; junior dress revue winner, Ruth Carol Vandorf; room improvement, Gail Barnhill; food preparation, Doris Whichard; clothing achievement, Jean Moore; food preservation, Shirley Rose Buck; dairy foods winner, Ruth Moore; leadership, Ruth Moore; poultry, Shirley Gay; frozen foods, Hazel Garris; garden, Rosa Mae Moore.

Forty-five 4-H girls were given certificates for completing one year of club work; four for two years; four for three years; four for four years; one for five years, and two for completing six years work.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson announce the birth of a daughter, Jane Blanche, on Wednesday, November 19, in Pitt General hospital.

Auxiliary of Pitt County Medical Society

The auxiliary of Pitt County Medical Society will have a luncheon at the Woman's club on Thursday at 1 o'clock.

Garden Club

The Garden Club will meet in the club house at 8 o'clock Friday evening, November 21. At this time, Mrs. Clara Pugh Mathis, of Durham, will address the club and its guests on the subject, "Ideas for Christmas Decoration," and will also give demonstrations of these ideas. Mrs. Mathis is regarded as an authority on this type of thing and will bring to Greenville many helpful suggestions for the celebration of the approaching Christmas season.

The meeting will be open to the general public and members of the Woman's Club, the Junior Woman's Club, the Book Clubs of Greenville and the Pitt County Home Demonstration Clubs are especially invited. To help defray the expenses of this meeting, however, the small admission charge of 25c will be asked of everyone who is not a member of the Garden Club.

program over to her nephew, Joe Trotman, who gave a brief account of the lives of the composer, Bach, and the violinist, Janss Heifitz, at the conclusion of which he played a recording of a Bach concerto with Heifitz as soloist.

Mrs. Aubrey Shackell presided over a brief business session. The hostess served a delicious salad plate with coffee.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. S. Norman and Miss Sue Barrett. On Tuesday afternoon, November 17, Mrs. F. B. Haar was hostess to the Clio Club. A delicious sweet course with mints, nuts and coffee was served upon arrival of the guests. After the conclusion of the business Mrs. Haar, program chairman for the afternoon, presented

Mrs. Sidney Crane who shared with the group her year of experiences in Korea. She discussed the geographical situation, the peculiar but interesting customs, the classes, professional and social, the family life centering around its ancestors, the mode of dress and the educational set up. The four hundred groups who are seeking political power show the state of utter confusion which exists among the Korean people. Economically speaking there is a difference in the northern section under Russian control where the people are literally starving and the southern section where the United Nations are maintaining control, and where living conditions are better. This section is where Chaplain and Mrs. Crane have been stationed.

The club members' questions and Mrs. Crane's interesting comments made this meeting a most enjoyable, inspiring and informative one. Mrs. Crane was insistent upon the fact that nobody's opinion on Korea is valid as changes here take place so rapidly.

What does R mean?

This little symbol was first used by the Greek physician Hippocrates and means "I Prescribe". Meaningless in itself, it becomes, when backed by all the knowledge and resources of the medical profession, one of the most significant symbols in the world. It is indeed comforting to know after your doctor has completed his examination and diagnosed your case, that the key to restored health and the relief of untold suffering, lies in the prescription which he writes for you, and for you alone.

See Your Doctor Regularly.

Robinson High School

The slogan for Children's Book Week this year is "Books for the World of Tomorrow," reminding us that books have a part to play in encouraging understanding and sympathy among the nations that politics divide. The books now in the Robinson high school library at Winterville, have been chosen with thought and considered judgment, not a haphazard selection.

As wise parents and friends, as we approach the Christmas season, let's have in mind the collecting of books that may last through the years. A child needs in his library, books which will grow from year to year; some of the stories which his father and mother knew in their youth; for this strengthens the understanding between generations; folktales and legends that for hundreds of years have been the delight of mankind; stories of everyday life that have humor and integrity as well as adventure stories. Many of these very excellent books are now in our library.

Book Week got under way in our library November 17 with two book quizzes - one elementary and one high school. The two students who answer the most questions correctly will be given a cash prize during the chapel exercises Friday, November 21, at 12 noon at which time the second grade with its teacher, Miss C. E. Johnson, will present a play-let on books and libraries.

Attractive displays, with new books purchased this term, will be available in the school library. Books are only the beginning in our library for there are magazines; the Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature; newspapers, records, photographs and clippings. We work out reading programs for individuals and a reference department. Teachers, students, patrons and friends, won't you make your school library your private concern. Mrs. B. C. Maye, Librarian.

Man Bites Woman

Leroy Allen, colored, arrested by Greenville police yesterday afternoon for assaulting Sarah Watson, colored, and nearly biting off one of her fingers, may be charged with assault with a deadly weapon—his teeth.

During the altercation on Railroad Street, Allen, apparently getting the worst of the affray, got a bulldog grip on the woman's finger and used his molars to make hamburger of it, police said. She was treated at Dr. Joseph Smith's clinic. Her finger may have to be amputated, it is understood.

Private Rollins was born and reared in Winterville, the son of the cashier of the Bank of Winterville. He was graduated from the Winterville high school in 1940 and attended East Carolina Teachers College and Kings Business College in Raleigh before being inducted in the United States Army October 9, 1942. He trained at Camp Walters, Texas, Camp Blanding, Fla., Camp Robinson, Arkansas and Camp Maxey, Texas, before going overseas on October 31, 1944.

Surviving are his parents, three sisters, Mrs. D. Woodrow Worthington and Mrs. Bythal Bostic of Winterville, and Sara Jane Rollins of the home; and a brother, Elliott Bryan Rollins of the home.

YWCA & YMCA Plan Fund Drive

The World Student Service Fund drive conducted annually on the campus of East Carolina Teachers College by the YWCA and the YMCA is now being planned by the two organizations and will be conducted on January 13-15, under the direction of the presidents of the two groups, Alma Arrington of Hollister and Paul Craver of Lexington. Funds collected will be used to help needy students and teachers in countries devastated by the war by providing school supplies, clothing, and food for them.

The closing event of the drive will be a play night in the Wright auditorium in which college organizations will participate.

Dr. E. R. Browning Listed In Publication

third edition of the work is soon to be published with Dr. Hollis L. Caswell, associated dean of Teachers College, Columbia University, as editor. The new edition will include biographical material about outstanding school people in this country who are primarily engaged in the field of education.

Lions Meet In Weekly Session Monday Evening

After the pledge to the flag by Lion President Tyson Bilbro and grace by Lion Reverend Roscoe Hauser, the weekly supper meeting of the Lion's Club was held on Monday evening. The business session started with a letter of appreciation from the blind center, read by President Bilbro. The Lions Club had students of the blind center as its guests at the recent county fair and also entertained them at a recent showing of "The Johnson Story."

Jack Wallace, Equitable Life Insurance Company representative was inducted as a new member. Lion Frank Brown announced that the eye doctors of Greenville gave the club one appointment a day and also that plans for an operation on a young girl, with the doctor offering his services free and the Lions Club paying hospital bills. George Wilkerson introduced Mrs. J. Brooks Tucker, who gave an account of her trip to attend the International Conference of Country Women in Amsterdam, Holland. She is a home demonstration worker and one of three women chosen from this state to attend the conference.

Mrs. Tucker said she was shocked by the lack of food in European countries, particularly France. The rationing in England is extremely close, she pointed out because they had the worst drought in a century and a plague of caterpillars. She said "Europe is facing its worst winter—the people dread it more than the blitz—worse than the buzz bombs. It's up to us to feed Europe. We must feed Europe now for our own sake."

Heaviest Bombs To Be Dropped In Air Force Tests

Washington, Nov. 19—(AP)—The Air Force will begin test drops of the world's heaviest bomb—a 42,000 pounder—in about two weeks at Muroc Air Base in the California desert, it was learned today.

Twelve of the huge missiles have been delivered by the Army ordnance department for the experiments.

The modified B-29 Superfortress which will carry the record bomb load aloft is at Eglin Field, Fla. Its crew has completed a course of special training.

The mammoth bomb will be suspended from newly-devised shackles half in and half out of the lengthened bomb bay and will clear the ground by bare inches when the airplane makes its takeoff run.

Stranded Seamen Rescued After Five-Day Ordeal

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 19—(AP)—The British freighter Empire MacCallum reported today she had begun taking aboard survivors of the shipwrecked freighter Langecrag after their five-day ordeal of being marooned on bleak Sacred Island, off the northern tip of Newfoundland. The Empire MacCallum, one of four ships which plunged through heavy seas toward the island on rescue missions, reported she arrived at 1 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, and stood by until daylight to take aboard the crewmen. The Langecrag also was a British ship.

C. M. Johnson . . .

Taxes cannot be raised further in North Carolina in Mr. Johnson's opinion without discrimination against property owners. Income taxes and franchise taxes are known to be higher than neighboring states—but the State of North Carolina has no property tax as such.

The need for bringing industry to North Carolina especially in the eastern section was emphasized. Without such increase in industry to increase income, tax rates might have to be adjusted. In the opinion of the speaker income will not go back to the 1941 level—if it does he said he would mean the national debt could not be paid.

Briefly to picture the good financial situation in public finances in general in North Carolina Mr. Johnson cited the fact that in 1932 62 out of 100 counties of the state were in default on their bonded indebtedness and 142 of the 232 municipalities. With state assistance and refinancing the local units have got into a very favorable condition.

For the prospect of a tobacco market with no British purchases, Mr. Johnson said he did not think it would be "so bad." "It will teach us that we will have to have more diversification of crops," he declared in conclusion.

Rotarian Flanagan of Farmville was the only visiting Rotarian Monday night. Guests of the club were: J. H. Boyd, W. H. Woodard, J. C. Lanier, Dr. L. W. Jenkins, Sammy White, J. G. Clark, D. T. House, Dr. S. Gilbert Plant, John P. Biggers of Winterville and Eugene Grimes of Washington. L. M. Buchanan presented the guest speaker of the evening, Bob Bradshaw, club president, presided.
