Republican Governor Says Immediate Aid Should Be Sent To Far East

Manchester, N.H., Nov. 20—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York today charged the Truman Administration with "seemingly abandoning the Chinese to Communist conquest," and asserted immediate aid should be sent to the Far East as even a two months delay "may be too late."

Making his first comment on President Truman's special message to Congress, the Republican governor told a news conference he was "deeply disappointed in it" in that "no mention at all was made of China, or the situation in the Far East."

"While European aid is urgent," he said, "there is an even more urgent situation in China. There the Communist armies are not only in the streets which is bad enough, as in Italy and France, but they are way ahead of the schedule in Europe."

"They are actually engaged at this moment in highly successful warfare against the Chinese Government."

"The tragedy is, having fought side by side with the Chinese Government for five years and having promised them still further assistance, our government seems to have abandoned them to Communist conquest."

"The seriousness of the situation is pretty clear when one realizes that while there are 275,000,000 people in Europe who are still free, there are 400,000,000 in China."

New Hampshire Republican leaders told Dewey that he appeared to be out of touch at the present time with Harold E. Stassen as the nearest contender in the race for the party's presidential nomination — but they all sidestepped pledging themselves to anybody.

Several said there was talk among some for General Dwight Eisenhower but nothing had crystallized as yet in this movement.

French Farmers Have Food Says House Witness

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—Asserting that President Truman is "misinformed" about a French food shortage, Rep. Buck (R-NY) said today this country is being asked to feed the French cities when the French farmers have plenty of food.

"The Lord help them that help themselves," Buck said, "and we are not called upon to outdo the Lord." The New Yorker repeated to reporters some of the testimony he gave in closed session today to the House Foreign Affairs Committee, based on information obtained in a 5,000-mile auto tour of France at his own expense. Buck said he got information by talking to farmers, laborers, store keepers, white collar workers and other folk.

Clay Is Target Of Red Attack

Berlin, Nov. 20—(AP)—The Soviet-licensed newspaper Berlin Am Mittag made a direct personal attack today on U.S. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, describing him as a "saber rattler."

It did not use the name of Clay, American military governor of Germany, but referred to him as "this general" and there was no possibility of mistaking the objective of the attack.

You Are In A Mess!

When Government Officials Talk Of Inflation, Rationing, Price Controls, Big Four Meetings, War And Peace, And Future Prospects, You Are Involved

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—The little guy, any little guy trying to figure out in his head how we can have a quiet world, said to himself, "How can a little guy like me get the answer when the big guys, and I mean the really big guys here and everywhere, can't agree themselves?"

It bothered him a lot. He went off in a corner and tried to think his way through to some light. And suddenly he thought:

"But this is me they're talking about all the time. When they talk about living costs, that's me in there, mixed up in the middle of them."

"When they talk about price control, that hits me one way or the other. And rationing. That's me, too. And war and peace. I'm in that."

Sitting still in his corner, feeling small and a little scared and timid, he tried to look back in his mind at things that have been happening.

He didn't have to go back far. This week was enough. It was enough to scare him. It was enough to confuse him more than ever.

Just Monday President Truman said something must be done to keep down the cost of living.

Newlyweds And The Royal Family

Princess Elizabeth, heir-presumptive to the British throne, her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh Philip Mountbatten, the Queen, the King and Princess Margaret Rose.

Forget Austerity In Royal Wedding

Event Is Greatest Occasion For Britons Since George VI Became King; Nearly Million Throng To Cheer Elizabeth And Philip

London, Nov. 20—(AP)—Princess Elizabeth and her beloved, the newly named Duke of Edinburgh, were married today in the solemnity of Westminster Abbey and rode back to Buckingham Palace to the cheers of a million Britons beneath a clearing sky.

The wedding day, greatest occasion for Britons since George VI became king, brought a bright splash of color to the fabric of a nation rent by bombs and economic crisis. Elizabeth, her face radiant above an ivory satin gown embroidered with thousands of pearls, wore a diamond tiara and a lipstick suited to television cameras.

Before the Archbishop of Canterbury and backed by a crowd of nearly 3,000 kings, peers and commoners, the 21-year-old bride promised to love, cherish and obey her 26-year-old betrothed. The bridegroom, Lt. Philip Mountbatten of the Royal Navy and a former prince of Greece, is now "His Royal Highness" and a duke, earl and baron. King George VI knighted him yesterday.

Queen Mother Mary saw her granddaughter married. Absent from the ceremony were the Duke of Windsor, whose abdication brought Elizabeth's father to the throne and made her heiress presumptive, and the American-born, twice-divorced duchess.

Brief patches of blue sky appeared as the wedding began, after an early morning drizzle. The Archbishop of Canterbury, primate of all England, intoned the words: "I now pronounce that they are man and wife" at 11:45 a.m. (6:45 a.m. EST) as the bride and groom knelt before the altar in Westminster Abbey.

As the two left the altar, church bells rang out, only to be drowned in the welcoming roar of the waiting thousands outside.

Currency Reform Spurs Spending

Vienna, Nov. 20—(AP)—Some Vienna stores barred their doors today as Austrians went on a last-minute spending spree to get rid of their shillings before the government's devaluation of the shilling goes into effect.

He asked Congress, among several other things, for power to slap on some price controls and rationing if he thinks they're needed, maybe months from now.

But Mr. Truman is a Democrat and the top Republicans in Congress jumped on him and said: "Nothing doing. Giving the President that kind of power in peacetime is totalitarian."

"But they're talking about me now and who's right?" the little guy thought.

There they were, the President on one side and the top Republicans on the other, the men who lead the country, and they had opposite ideas on keeping down living costs.

"If they can't agree on something like this," the little guy said to himself, "how can I figure the answer?"

And all of a sudden his mind went floating out to sea and across the ocean to Europe, and back here again; and he thought:

Secretary of State Marshall flies to London today for the big conference that opens next Tuesday. That's the conference of foreign ministers, Marshall for this country, Molotov for Russia, Bevin for Britain, Bidault for France.

ITALIAN REDS STRAIN POLICE

Leftist Campaign Of Violence Adds To De Gasperi's Woes

Rome, Nov. 20—(AP)—Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti wrote in the Communist newspaper today that today that Premier Alcide de Gasperi's speech Monday was "very similar in form to the speeches of Mussolini in the first year of his government."

De Gasperi had told his Christian Democrat party the nationwide violence stirred by leftists would not scare him from office.

"Everything that is conservative, backward, reactionary and rotten in Italian society," he said, "is the Communist publication asserted as the Italian leftists' war of nerves entered its second week and moved into the halls of Parliament."

Political disorders and Communist-led labor stoppages bubbled up the length and breadth of the Italian peninsula, placing a heavy strain on police forces at the disposal of Interior Minister Mario Scelba, the key man in De Gasperi's defense and the butt of the bitter leftist attacks.

Scelba, speaking before the Christian Democrats' National Congress in Naples last night, predicted "difficult days" ahead and added that he did not expect the leftist campaign of violence to cease.

Tots Tried To Kill On Impulse; Victim Survives

Farmingdale, N.Y., Nov. 20—(AP)—A husky 12-year-old boy and his sister, 8, were held by Nassau County authorities today after police said they savagely beat a little schoolmate because they had an impulse to "kill a boy." Authorities withheld the names.

Detective Capt. James Farrell said the victim, Lyman van Nostrand, 6, was lured into a thicket and knocked unconscious with a plank wielded by the girl. They left the youngster for dead, after the brother had choked and slashed him with a pocketknife, Farrell said.

He quoted the girl as saying "We decided to kill the little guy we had a chance to. We thought it was a good idea and it would be fun."

Farrell said the brother and sister were apprehended after their victim recalled that his attackers were carrying schoolbooks with covers similar to his own.

Cockatoo In Zoo Switches Cages

Philadelphia, Nov. 20—(AP)—Old Scratch Patch, a big white cockatoo at the Philadelphia zoo, got fed up with the attention he has been receiving from six lady cockatoos and decided he had a he could stand.

Last night he pulled and pecked until he snapped open the lock on his cage. Then he walked out, went down to another cage, picked the lock open and moved right in.

His new cage mates—six batchelor parrots.

FRANCE FILLS ARMY'S RANKS

Recalls Part Of 1947 Military Class In Face Of Stoppages

Paris, Nov. 20—(AP)—France recalled to the colors part of the 1947 military class to bring the army up to "normal strength" today as President Vincent Auriol looked to Leon Blum to form a strong, stable government.

The recall order, broadcast over the national radio chain, brought about 140,000 more troops into the army at a time when the government was trying to stem a spreading strike wave, half of the 1947 contingent of troops, not due to be demobilized until spring, was freed a few months ago to provide manpower for industry and agriculture.

Auriol was reported to have completed his consultations with party leaders who flocked to the Elysee Palace until late last night after the resignation of Premier Paul Ramadier and again throughout this morning.

Auriol invited socialist elder statesman Blum to lunch with him and usually well-informed sources said the President would commission him to try to form a widely-based government—probably with all but the Communists and De Gaulle's supporters.

Guy Mollet, secretary-general of the Socialist party, said yesterday that Blum had consented to succeed Ramadier, another socialist, whose regime was harassed by political, economic and labor troubles for the entire 10 months of its life.

Bashing Bends Barrel Of Gun

Salisbury, Md., Nov. 20—(AP)—Mrs. Roland Turner stood in Police Court and accused her husband of bashing her over the head with a shotgun.

Before sentencing Turner to a year in the house of correction, Judge Carl L. Walter asked to examine the weapon.

"You might as well throw it away," he told Turner, noting the barrel was bent.

Rep. Cooley Expresses Hope Leaf Quota Up

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—One tobacco-state congressman expressed hope today that flue-cured tobacco acreage allotments for 1948 may be upped at least 15 percent from the base allotment yesterday.

Rep. Cooley (D-NC) told a reporter "it is reasonable to expect the cut in allotments to be only about 12 percent by planting time if everything works out."

Yesterday the Department of Agriculture announced a cut of about 28 percent for 1948 acreage, as compared with 1947.

"The law," Cooley said, "allows the secretary of agriculture to increase allotments after the official announcement but does not allow him to decrease them. Therefore, it is necessary now to make this tremendous cut in the face of the foreign situation."

Tobacco men met today with government officials in search of a program to increase exports which agriculture experts say will be down 150,000,000 pounds this year from the 650,000,000 (in green weight) or as the farmer sells it) of last year.

Last year's flue-cured exports of 550,000,000 pounds exceeded anticipated total tobacco exports this year.

Cooley said the tobacco stores under government loans likely will be between 400,000,000 and 500,000,000 pounds by the end of this year.

"That, added to the British ban on buying American tobacco, makes it urgent to find foreign markets now and for the future," he said.

Baruch Proposes Health Insurance Be Compulsory

New York, Nov. 20—(AP)—Bernard M. Baruch proposed last night the adoption of a compulsory health insurance program for low-income groups to be financed through payroll deductions augmented by some federal aid.

Declaring that he had given the nation's health picture "much thought" as a result of the rejection of 4,000,000 "AF's" during the recent war, Baruch said at a dinner sponsored by the Medical Society of New York State that:

"A form of compulsory health insurance can be devised, adequately safeguarded, without involving what has been termed 'socialized medicine.' The needs can be met—as in other fields—without the government taking over medicine, something I would fiercely oppose."

Says Lobby Is Against Co-Ops

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) charged today that "one of the most sinister and vicious lobbies that has ever invaded Washington" is seeking to destroy co-operatives.

FOUR TRUMAN IDEAS OKAYED

Senate Banking Group To Act On Four Anti-Inflation Bills

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—The Senate Banking Committee decided today to go ahead immediately with a four-point anti-inflation program but delayed action on President Truman's request for standby price-wage and limited rationing control power.

Chairman Tobey (R-NH) said the committee will begin consideration next week of legislation to continue rent controls, restore installment buying curbs, tighten bank credit and possibly increase margins for buying on the commodity exchanges.

These four of the 10 points laid down by Mr. Truman in his program to combat high living costs already have been designated as the subject of hearings by the Senate-House Economic Committee.

Describing the price-wage and rationing recommendations of the President as "nebulous," Tobey told a news conference he expects to have more information about what the Administration is seeking after a conference tomorrow with Treasury Secretary Snyder.

Tobey said he sees no reason why the four subjects chosen by the banking committee for hearings which will begin Monday should not be approved in the special session of Congress.

He declined to say, however, whether bills may be introduced soon on the other six points of the President's program.

Symbol Of A Nation

Tradition Of Monarchy Strengthened By Marriage Of Elizabeth And Philip; What The Kingship Means To Average Briton; Royal Family Focal Point Of People

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

In these uncertain days, when thrones have been falling like the leaves of autumn, what knight is bold enough to enter the lists as champion of a royal princess who one day will be queen?

Well, for one I give you young Mountbatten, who today married his princess charming and thus will be the consort of another reigning Queen Elizabeth. Moreover your correspondent is able to assure you, from one who knows the princess, that this is in fact a love-match and not an "arranged" marriage in the generally accepted sense of that term.

The two young folk were more or less brought up together, and have been sweethearts since childhood. So let the old eunuchs begone with their unhappy tales of marriage for convenience. Give love its day.

But apart from this romance, what does the throne mean to an England which is ruled by a Socialist government of the people's choice? If you ask the average Briton he will tell you, as many have told me, something like this:

"The British are steeped in the tradition of centuries, and they live greatly in the past. Indeed their national strength has been due largely to an esprit de corps which

Secretary Of State Holds Conferences Prior To Departure For Big Four Meeting In London; Problems Of Past Three Sessions Unchanged

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall conferred with former Secretary James F. Byrnes and President Truman today shortly before Marshall's scheduled departure for the Big Four foreign ministers meeting in London. Marshall invited Byrnes to the State Department and talked with him for nearly an hour and a half. Presumably, they discussed the American policy to be followed toward Russia at the London conference on German and Austrian peace treaties.

Byrnes is a veteran of three similar Big Four meetings and has proposed the Western powers write a peace pact for Germany without Russian adherence, if necessary.

After the talk with Byrnes, Marshall went to the White House for a final review of conference plans with the President. Mr. Truman planned to accompany him to the airport for the takeoff in the President's original plane, the Sacred Cow.

The secretary's chief traveling companion is Charles E. Bohlen, State Department counselor and expert on Soviet affairs.

Marshall's announced goal is the same elusive objective of four previous sessions: (1) Agreement with Russian Foreign Minister Molotov on a peace treaty with Austria and (2) a decision on at least the main outlines of a German settlement.

But while those are the immediate problems, the underlying issue is the mounting tension between Russia on the one hand and the Western powers on the other. Pointing out that issue, the Brookings Institution, a private research and educational agency, declared in a report made public today that a continuation of the present "nightmare" of big power relations could result in war at any time.

The previous foreign ministers' sessions ended in complete stalemate on both the German and Austrian questions.

This time, if Russia again balks, France may join the United States and Great Britain in setting up a "frozen area" engaging their combined occupation zones in Western Germany.

Russia would be left in control of Eastern Germany, but this step would not necessarily mean making peace with Germany without the Soviets.

UN Trusteeship Council Boycott Still In Effect

Lake Success, Nov. 20—(AP)—Russia continued her boycott of the United Nations Trusteeship Council today as the council opened its second session as overseer of the world's dependent territories.

U.S. Delegate Francis B. Sayre, council chairman, opened the meeting without taking any official notice of Russia's vacant chair at the 12-nation table. The Soviet boycott was begun at the council's initial session last spring.

Sayre welcomed Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines as a new member and congratulated both the Philippines and Costa Rica on their election to the council.

Russia also agreed yesterday to place the city of Jerusalem under jurisdiction of the Trusteeship Council if the assembly approves the plan to partition Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab countries.

tradition has helped to build. And the sovereign is the unifier of everything they believe. He (or she) is both head of state and defender of the faith. That is, the ruler is the religious as well as the national symbol—a symbol which binds together not only the people of the British Isles but of the colonies and the world-wide commonwealth of sovereign nations.

The British believe in constitutional monarchy because the throne is above politics. Prime ministers may come and go, but the king (or queen) always is there, equally able to play his part with conservatives or socialists. He is the best informed person in the country, so far as concerns affairs of state, for the very good reason that he has devoted his entire life to the study of Britain, the dominions and the colonies.

That is the reason prime ministers go to the sovereign for advice—and very often take it. Your correspondent has seen the truth of this demonstrated during his long service as newspaper man in Britain. It would be a hardy prime minister who would go against the studied advice of the ruler in an emergency. Whether it be the subject wearing the "old school tie" or the chap with

End of the Century Club Meets
The parting message left with End of the Century club members Tuesday afternoon was a reminder by the president, Mrs. J. T. Little, that the year we meet again the Thanksgiving holiday would be passed and we as a people and as a nation should be most grateful.

"The blessings we are used to become so much the habit of our lives that we are apt to take them for granted. No Thanksgiving is complete without its generous thought of those who are not so favored as we are."

Mrs. C. A. White gave the program for the afternoon, "Plans in Medicine." Her discussion showed much research and study and the many familiar remedies mentioned fell on attentive hearers. It left us wondering if we should not take Dr. White's advice.

"Better to hunt in fields for health unbought Than for the doctor for a nauseous draught."

The wise for cure on exercise depend God never made his work for man to mend."

At the close of the program the hostess served a most delicious course. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. L. W. Topping and Mrs. Wesley Harvey.

A. A. U. W. Has Panel Discussion
The regular meeting of the American Association of University Women was held in Sheppard Memorial Library at 7:30 on Monday evening, November 17. Two new members, Mrs. J. K. Long and Mrs. Alan Hurlburt, were welcomed by the group.

Miss Emma Hooper, president of the local branch, presided at a brief business meeting, during which Mrs. D. S. Spain, Jr., gave a report on the State Workshop held in Greenville on October 25.

A panel discussion on the origin, history, responsibilities and privileges of the American Association of University Women was led by Mrs. Luther Herring. She related the organization of the two small units of college women, one in the north and one in the south, for the avowed purpose of encouraging higher education for women. These groups grew and expanded and were united in the present national organization. Two units became one thousand and four branches. A group of 17 women grew to an association of over 94,000 women.

Miss Nell Stallings, Miss Agnes Fennell, Miss Eva Keeter and Miss Lois Gribbs further explained the regulations, eligibility, privileges and the fellowship program of the A. A. U. W.

The fellowship program is threefold—first, aid to American scholars; second, international study grants to women of other countries and third, an achievement award of $2,500 to women who render some particularly distinguished service to mankind.

Mrs. Robert L. Humber, state president, told the group of its relationship to the International Federation of University Women, whose last two meetings were held in Stockholm, Sweden, in 1939 and in Toronto, Canada, in 1947, the eight year interlude being caused by the war, of course. The cooperation between A. A. U. W. and the I. F. U. W. is necessary to implement the work of reconstruction study grants, the exchange of students and college professors, which is helpful to promoting international understanding. She concluded by reminding the branch of the project undertaken by the State Workshop group. This project was the exchange of ideas and plans between each of the local branches and some association group in another country.

Miss Hooper concluded the discussion by enumerating the objectives of the local branch in its work along educational lines and community interest, as well as its cooperation with the aims of the national organization.

Mrs. Watson presented her daughter, Janet, and Sudie May Spain, who gave us a number of varied piano selections. They included a dance group by Bach, a rondo of Haydn's, effin dance by Grieg, variations on "Three Blind Mice" and "Three Little Kittens," and a modern rumba. They concluded their part of the program with a duet and as an encore played the "Venetian Love Song." These talented young musicians are pupils of Miss Eva

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

November 20, 1907

At one o'clock this afternoon at Cottendale, Miss Elba Cotten was given in marriage to Mr. Douglas Bertram Wesson, of Springfield, Mass.

The day was ideal and the arrangements for the marriage were beautifully planned. A chapel, erected on the lawn for the ceremony, was trimmed in white and decorated with cedar, evergreens and potted plants.

Among the bridesmaids were Misses Annie Gray Nash of Tabor and Margaret Skinner of Greenville.

The bride's gown was white chiffon, embroidered in white morning glories on satin panels trimmed in white applique lace that was an heirloom of her grandmother. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids were all dressed in white and carried pink roses and maidenhair ferns.

A dinner party was given Wednesday night by the parents of the bride. This was also the anniversary of the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Wiggins, Crocia's Italian band furnished music at the dinner party and marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesson came to Greenville this afternoon and leave on the six o'clock train for an extended southern tour, after which they will be at home in Longmeadow, Mass.

The Round Table
The Round Table Book Club met with Mrs. C. E. Oakley at her home on East 5th Street Extension Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Mrs. J. E.

Winslow presiding in the absence of the president. The members joined in repeating the "Collect of Club Women of America." At the conclusion of a short business session, Mrs. Royce Hunsucker presented the fourth paper in a series of programs on "North Carolina," her subject being "The History of North Carolina." She told in a most thorough, interesting and informative manner about our "Tar Heel State" from the time of discovery and organization until the present time, relating the admission of North Carolina to the Union, its periods of struggle and decline, the building of roads and railroads, the development of industry, agriculture, government, education, religion, etc., in the state. Mrs. J. W. Higgs through her news report gave some very timely, up to the minute information concerning the approaching wedding in London and also gave an interesting item concerning our relation to Russia. Tempting and delicious refreshments were served by our hostess. —Reported.

Club, the Book Clubs of Greenville and the Five County Home Demonstration Clubs are especially invited. To help defray the expenses of this meeting, however, the small admission charge of twenty-five cents will be asked of everyone who is not a member of the Garden Club. The hostesses for this occasion are Mesdames Arthur B. Corey, Walter Cherry, Hicks Corey, K. W. Cobb, S. M. Crisp, R. C. Deal, E. B. Ficklen and J. L. Fleming.

Mrs. Worthy Speaks Before Sans Souci Club
The Sans Souci Book Club met Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock with Mrs. Bruce Sugg at her home on West Fifth street. The home was warm and lovely with bowls of chrysanthemums and a most gracious and hospitable welcome for each member.

After the members and several delightful guests arrived the hostess served an elegant barbecue luncheon, coffee, chess pies. An enjoyable social hour lasted until the president, Mrs. W. I. Wooten called the meeting to order and dispensed with the business of the club.

Mrs. James, program chairman, then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Cheatham. As the speaker for the afternoon Mrs. Cheatham had chosen Mrs. Ford Worthy, of Washington, N. C. Many club members knew Mrs. Worthy personally and all knew her by reputation as one of North Carolina's most versatile and talented women. Mrs. Worthy gave as her subject, "The U. N. Council." She had just returned from New York and had a most beneficial visit at Lake Success where the U. N. Council is assembled. The speaker challenged the women of America to become better informed about the U. N. Council and to make it their business to try to stimulate peoples' thinking and encourage women to read and become better informed on this important subject. While in New York to attend the Herald Tribune Forum on current problems, presided over by Mrs. Ozden Reed, Mrs. Worthy heard Carl Sandburg, from Teton, N. C., read his poem "Man Will Yet Win." She used this masterpiece to close her brilliant discussion of the U. N. Council to the club.

Miss Myree Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Alex Dunn of Belvoir, whose engagement to Brandley Jolly, son of Mrs. W. O. Jolly and the late Mr. Jolly of Arden, is announced by her parents.

Guests were Mrs. Worthy, Mrs. Harvey of Burlington, W. Va., and Mrs. Jean Matheson of Greensboro.

Ray Anthony to Play For Dance
The local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has secured the services of Ray Anthony and his orchestra to play for their big Thanksgiving dance, Wednesday night, November 26, from ten till two. The dance will be held in Keel's warehouse and tickets may be obtained from any V. F. W. member.

Anthony has one of the most outstanding bands in the country and has drawn much favorable comment from music critics across the country. At the age of 17 Anthony was signed by Al Donahue to go on tour with his nationally famous orchestra. While playing with Donahue, Ray was heard by another band leader who was so impressed by the silver tones of his trumpet, that he snatched Ray from under the nose of Donahue to play first trumpet in his orchestra. This leader's name was Glenn Miller, and it was Ray Anthony's trumpet that was heard in many of Miller's best selling records. Still later, Ray switched to Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra, where he played until 1942 when he enlisted in the Navy.

The Navy was the first to recognize Ray's ability as a band leader. He was assigned to the submarine service and told to assemble a dance band. His band was organized at the Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Illinois and for a time was a regular feature on the "Meet Your Navy" program heard nationally.

This is the second in a series of annual Thanksgiving dances to be given by the V. F. W. It promises to be a very outstanding dance and will give the people of this vicinity a good chance to dance and listen to one of the nation's top bands.

Strength FOR THE DAY

WE CAN ALL MAKE OUR GIFTS
For the artist Raphael, life's greatest pleasure consisted in painting pictures depicting religious themes. Just before his last illness he finished his famous painting,
The Transfiguration. As he lay dying he requested that it be brought to and hung above his bed. His body lay in state with this magnificent piece keeping guard, as it were, above his bier.

His way of praising God was by painting pictures. Few people have this gift. Raphael used his natural endowments in a magnificent fashion, and we can believe that God rejoiced in the beautiful offering which the great artist was able to make. But He rejoices also in the self-effacing life of some humble, hard-working woman who pours forty years of love and toil into the lives of children and grandchildren.
That father whose ambition has been to establish and maintain a home in which his children will grow up to be sons and daughters of the living God has not made a nobler gift to God as did Raphael, but he had made just as good a gift.

Yesterday there died a very young child, and everyone said she had passed away before she had a chance even to get life started. But in the wide and overarching providence of God, we can well believe that she too made some gift, and that it was pleasing to God.

Only one gem diamond in a hundred can be described as colorless and flawless.

Wilson's Weekly Bulletin
By George Rector
Food Consultant to Wilson & Co.
Thanksgiving Tradition
We've added a few new tricks to the ways of serving the traditional foods but, on the whole, the Thanksgiving spirit has remained unchanged. It's still a day brimful of warm, friendly feeling when families and friends gather to feast and give thanks.

a Rector Recipe
Roast Turkey
Sprinkle the inside of a Wilson's Certified Turkey with salt (2 tsp. for a 16-lb. bird). After stuffing, rub skin thoroughly with Advance Shortening. Place breast down on a rack in shallow roasting pan; cover with clean, white cloth moistened with melted Advance Shortening. Roast, uncovered, in slow oven and as cloth dries, moisten with fat drippings. If breast isn't sufficiently browned when bird is three-fourths done, turn breast side up. For that good butter-flavored skin, remove cloth about half an hour before turkey is done and brush skin with softened Clear Brook Butter.

Weight when stuffed	Oven Temp.	Roasting Time
8 to 10 lbs.	325° F.	3 to 3½ hrs.
10 to 14 lbs.	325° F.	3½ to 4 hrs.
15 to 18 lbs.	325° F.	4 to 4½ hrs.
18 lbs.	300° F.	4½ to 5 hrs.
20 lbs.	300° F.	5 to 6 hrs.

Time-Honored Turkey
Thanksgiving isn't complete without the time-honored turkey. Buy a Wilson's Certified Turkey if you want to be sure of having the best. Roast it to perfection, garnish with timely chese pumpkins and parsley, and serve it proudly.

All the Trimmings
Awaken appetites with apple shrub cocktail; then bring on Mr. Gobbler and all the trimmings—stuffing, giblet gravy, candied sweet potatoes, creamed onions, cranberry sherbet (instead of salad), relishes, and hot rolls. For dessert—pumpkin pie of course!

Turkey Quiz
How large a turkey do you need? One pound per person, New York dressed (head and feet on, pickled but not drawn) or 1½ lb. frozen eviscerated turkey will allow for generous second servings.
How much stuffing? Allow about 1 cup of dressing per pound of turkey, N. Y. dressed. One pound of bread makes 5 to 5½ cups dressing. Be sure to add B-V (about 2 tsp. per pound of bread) for an extra-delicious flavor.
Thursday will be a busy day in the kitchen so stuff the turkey on Wednesday and keep it in the refrigerator. Be sure to cool both the stuffing and turkey thoroughly before stuffing.
Thankfully yours,
George Rector

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

"They're the talk of the coffee stops!"

"That's the new cab that 'breathes'! It 'inhales' fresh air—'exhales' used air—draws in fresh air that's heated in cold weather, and forces out used air."

"Try that seat, Jack. It's fully adjustable. They tell me it's got 12 inches more foot room, and eight inches more seating space, too. Man, what comfort!"

"Take a look at that cab, all one piece. Not a rivet or bolt. There's 22% greater visibility—and even more with these new rear-corner windows!"

"You ought to get a look at that new frame. It's big, and it's REALLY built!"

"This beats any truck I've ever seen! Why, it's built to do ANY job!"

"Have you seen that new Chevrolet truck, Mac? Here's something DIFFERENT! It's the truck with Advance Design!"

"The cab's specially mounted . . . on rubber! It practically eliminates road-shock, torsion and vibration!"

"I took a look under the hood and, boy, it's still got that valve-in-head engine! It does more work on less gas than any other engine of its size!"
