

Foreign Ministers Dissolve Deadlock On Agenda Fight

Austrian Treaty Sent To Deputies; German Pact Gets Attention Tomorrow; Molotov Speech On "Evil Forces" Answered By Marshall's "Let's Get Down To Work"

London, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall demanded in sharp tones today that the council of foreign ministers "get down to work and drop this business of alleging evil motives which are the figments of propaganda—not of the mind."

He was replying to a lengthy talk by Russian foreign minister Molotov, who said aggressive and imperialist policies were developing in Europe and that Russia was opposing them.

The council dissolved in a brisk meeting a 3 to 1 split of yesterday by placing the Austrian treaty nominally at the top of its agenda and promptly referring it to deputies who are to report back to their superiors Dec. 2. Then, in accord with Russian insistence, the council placed the preparation of the German treaty, including frontiers and procedure, second of the agenda. The ministers will begin consideration of this tomorrow.

The council approved the suggestion made yesterday by French foreign minister Bidault to take up the question of the Austrian treaty and then send it to their deputies, who are considering an accord in the light of French proposals on the German assets issue.

At the same time, the council placed the preparation of a German treaty, including frontiers and procedure, second on the agenda. The meeting today was brisk, occupying but two of the three scheduled hours.

If future meetings become what Marshall regards as a propaganda battle, however, he may seek to call the whole thing off early. He definitely does not plan to remain many weeks in London unless there is evidence that real progress may be made on peace for central Europe.

Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands, neighbors of western Germany, announced today they had asked to be heard by the foreign ministers on German problems, particularly on control of the Ruhr.

American delegates said Marshall and his advisers were studying the request. They added that the views of the three countries already had been presented to the deputy foreign ministers and are well known, but that another hearing possibly should be arranged by the ministers themselves.

This Is Your Problem

Government Controls Of Prices, Wages And Rationing Involves Each American; Taft's Position In The Debate; What Is At Stake? Background Of Argument

By JAMES MASHLOW

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The dispute over government controls of prices, wages and rationing runs deep, right into your backbone.

President Truman a week ago asked Congress for power to put back some rationing, price and wage controls when, and if, he thinks they're needed.

The OPA law, which gave government such controls, was killed a year ago. Senator Taft, Ohio Republican, was a prime force in wanting OPA controls killed.

Now Senator Taft—meanwhile he's become a presidential candidate and a Republican leader of the Senate—says to Mr. Truman "no, why?"

He says giving the government such power in peacetime means a "planned economy." The phrase is a key in the dispute.

For most of its history this country had a fairly free economy, called free enterprise, with pretty light government controls on business.

(Nevertheless, back in the last century Congress voted controls, through anti-trust laws, over the growth of big corporations.)

But in the early days the American pioneers were pretty self-sufficient. They grew or shot their own food and made their own clothes.

America couldn't remain that way, that simple. It became more complex. The population grew and cities increased in size.

The city people grew increasingly dependent upon the country people for food. The country depended upon city folks for things they needed.

In short, no one was self-sufficient any more and everyone began to depend more and more upon everyone else. All America interlocked.

If farmers charged higher prices for the food they grew, the cost of living in cities grew. City people then demanded and got higher wages.

This in turn increased the price of the things which the city people made and the farm people had to buy. It was a circle, and vicious.

Through the years government controls over this interlocking economy, such as on railroads, increased. But there were no government controls over the basic things like prices and wages.

The whole theory was: competition. Or, the more things you made, and the cheaper you made them, the more you'd sell.

This in turn would force your competitors to make better and cheaper things. And everyone was competing for buyers.

This free economy system took a frightful nose-dive in 1929 and the nation plunged into its worst depression. The free economy system failed.

Opposition Gains On Palestine Partition

Chances For Approval Get Setback As Two UN Members Swing Votes To Support Opponents Of Partition

New York, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Chances for approval of the proposed partition of Palestine received a setback today when two more countries in the United Nations Assembly joined the opposition to the plan. The proposal was shown one short of the necessary two-thirds majority on the basis of a committee "straw-vote" test yesterday.

The two new announced opponents of partition were Greece and the Philippines. Greece abstained in yesterday's vote in the assembly's 57-nation Palestine Committee. The Philippines was absent yesterday.

The declarations by these two countries on the assembly floor brought to 15 the number of opposition votes and meant the supporters of the partition plan might have to pick up five votes to gain the necessary 2-to-1 ratio for adoption of partition.

On the basis of 15 opposition votes, thirty affirmative ballots would be needed for approval of the partition plan.

The partition plan was approved yesterday at Lake Success by a vote of 25 to 13 in the assembly's 57-nation Palestine Committee, where only a simple majority was needed on the semi-final text.

There was no indication of when the issue would come to a vote. The assembly scheduled meetings for 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. on the assumption that the debate might extend throughout the day.

The Holy Land issue is the last one before the 1947 assembly, and the 57-nation body will adjourn immediately after the final ballot.

War Theater Is No-Man's Land In Bitter Cold

Nanking, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Winter, with sub-zero temperatures and piercing winds, has turned Manchuria into a frozen no-man's land where the struggle for existence takes precedence over fighting a civil war, say reports from Government-held Changchun, the capital.

National forces there are literally dug in for the winter, these reports say, depending as much on the weather as on firepower to repel Chinese Communist armies which have isolated Changchun and Kirin. Chungchun temperatures have already hit 20 below zero, and coal and other fuels are at a premium.

In the capital's bitter cold, the poor dig through snow-covered clinders and ashes—dumped from locomotive fireboxes—seeking a few jumps that might still burn.

At best, the garrison may expect at least four months of cold, ice and snow, with air routes the only means of obtaining food and munitions.

Subsidy Plan

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Government subsidies for landlords in lieu of further rent boosts were proposed today by Senators Taylor (D-Idaho) and Buck (R-Dei.).

"If we want reasonable rents and extension of rent controls," Taylor told a reporter, "we shouldn't force landlords to foot the bill as we are doing now in many cases."

"We should subsidize them. And why not? Everyone else is up to his armpits in the profiteering gravy bowl."

Taylor said he has been thinking about a subsidy program for a long time and has just about decided to introduce legislation designed to set one up.

Washington, Nov. 26.—A move to whittle down the $597,000,000 European aid program developed in the Senate today and threatened plans of Senate for speedy passage.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb.) said some younger senators are considering offering an amendment to cut back the Senate bill by $100,000,000, the same amount tentatively stricken out by the House foreign affairs committee.

When told reporters he anticipates this attempt will fail and the Senate will pass this overwhelming bill.

On the House side of the capital, fresh protests cropped up of delay in final action on the program.

Chairman Taft (R-N.Y.) said it probably will be Dec. 4 at the earliest before the House appropriations committee can even consider appropriating emergency aid for France, Italy and Austria.

After cutting $108,000,000 from the $597,000,000 the administration asked for France, Italy and Austria, the House foreign affairs committee added $60,000,000 for China.

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—College enrollment for the 1947-48 school year reached the record total of 2,338,226, almost a million more than the pre-war peak of 1940 and 280,131 more than a year ago, the Federal Security Agency announced today.

Included are 1,122,837 veterans of World War II, of whom 24,091 are women. The veterans comprise 48 per cent of total enrollment and their number increased 3.92 per cent over the year before.

The 1947-48 freshman crop of 592,846 is made up of 399,972 men and 192,874 women. It represents a sharp decrease from last year's record of 696,419 beginning students, but still is far above the pre-war high of 328,590.

Frankfurt, Germany, Nov. 26.—(AP)—A Bavarian denazification court will shortly try Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun in absentia to determine disposition of their own and other Nazi fortunes and properties. Stars and Stripes reported from Munich today.

Nineteen Russians Are Expelled From France

Accused Of "Interference" In French Labor Crisis; New Violence Erupts As Police And Strikers Clash In Lyons

Paris, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The Ministry of the Interior announced today the expulsion from France of 19 Russians for "interference in French affairs" during the current labor crisis, which erupted in new violence as police and strikers battled in the streets of Lyons.

The announcement identified the Russians as members of the "Soviet Patriotic Union" and said they included the president, the treasurer and two secretaries-general of the organization.

The 19 were taken by bus to an unstaffed frontier and put across the border, the ministry said.

In Lyons police used tear gas to break up a strikers' march on the prefecture after a mass labor rally called by the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGT).

Several persons were reported injured in fighting which broke out between police and the demonstrators. Eye-witnesses estimated the number of strikers participating in the demonstration at approximately 20,000.

The trouble began when strikers attending the labor rally decided to march to the prefecture and present their grievances. They found police barricades and attempted to charge police with Communist banners flying in the van, Lyon dispatches said.

Pres. Truman Commutes Curley's Prison Sentence

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—President Truman today commuted the federal mail fraud sentence of Mayor James M. Curley of Boston, providing for his release today from the federal correctional institution at Danbury, Conn.

The commutation provides that Curley's sentence has been completed with the five months he has served of a six to 18 months sentence on a mail fraud conviction.

Mr. Truman also commuted the sentence of Donald Wakefield Smith, a former member of the National Labor Relations Board, who was convicted on the same charge.

Smith has been sentenced to a term of from four months to one year and a day.

The commutations mean that both Curley and Smith will be released in time to spend Thanksgiving with their families.

Charles G. Rosa, presidential secretary, said Smith would be released from the District of Columbia jail. Curley and Smith began their sentences last June 26. Curley would have been eligible for parole Dec. 26. Smith became eligible last Oct. 26.

Rosa said the chief medical officer of the Danbury institution had informed the Department of Justice that the 73-year-old Curley is suffering from an acute heart condition and has diabetes.

ARABS BITTER OVER ACTION

Denounce UN Committee's Palestine Vote; Blame U.S.

Jerusalem, Nov. 26.—(AP)—While Jews demonstrated jubilantly today over the U.N. Palestine Committee's favorable vote on partitioning the Holy Land, Arab leaders denounced the action in words which made no secret of their bitter feelings.

Dr. Hussein El Khalidi, secretary of the Arab Higher Executive, characterized the vote as "a victory for America's ability to blackmail the world" and added:

"The fact that there were 17 abstentions and 13 negative votes in the committee and only 25 favorable ballots shows that the majority of members opposed partition. Only America's attitude and pressure work during the last 48 hours before the vote saved the partition proposal from defeat."

He declined to discuss the course Arab leaders would take should the partition plan be approved by the U.N. General Assembly today, saying merely:

"We will not retreat from our position of opposing the dismemberment of our land and the denial of self-determination to our people."

In the streets of Jerusalem other less diplomatic Arabs openly took the attitude of "now we will fight."

Get Witnesses For Grand Jury Meyers' Inquiry

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The Justice Department began rounding up witnesses today for a grand jury investigating the affairs of retired Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

The 23 jurors took a recess until Monday after receiving the bulky record of a Senate War Investigating Subcommittee which heard testimony that Meyers ran an aircraft parts factory while he was deputy chief of Air Force purchasing.

George Morris Fay, federal district attorney, and T. Vincent Quinn, head of the Justice Department's Criminal Investigation Division, were in charge of the grand jury presentation.

They gave no inkling of the charges on which indictments would be sought, but the Senate committee has suggested perjury, income tax evasion and war fraud, among others.

Coast Guardsmen Get Aboard Portion Of Shattered Ship; Search Of Island Fails To Find Trace Of Crew Members

Ketchikan, Alaska, Nov. 26.—(AP)—The Coast Guard reported today it had found four men alive and three dead on the bow of the Army transport Clarksdale Victory, which was smashed on the rocky beach of Hippa Island.

Capt. Niels Haagen, commandant, said the searching party did not report finding any trace of the other 44 crew members of the ship and prospects of their survival "don't look very good."

He said combing of the beach and the wooden section of the rugged little island had failed to disclose any trace of survivors ashore, despite aerial observers' reports that they sighted three men on the beach yesterday.

Capt. Haagen said the four known survivors were reported to be the second mate and third mate and two able-bodied seamen. He said their names were not reported. (The crew list released by the Army identified Henry H. Wolfe of Oakland and William M. Rasmussen of Modesto, Calif., as the "second officer" and "third officer," but there was no confirmation that they are the survivors.)

The commandant said the searchers, the first of whom reached the island late yesterday, were able to get onto the bow of the shattered ship for the first time this morning as the heavy seas subsided.

Two Coast Guard planes, one flown by Lt. Comdr. Oscar Weed, the base's air detachment commanding officer, sighted what appeared to be three survivors from the battered ship early in the day yesterday, and dropped medical and other supplies. Only the two survivors of the battered 10,000-ton ship which went aground Monday night remained on the beach.

Red Menace Is Taught Soldiers

Frankfurt, Germany, Nov. 26.—(AP)—U.S. soldiers will be taught in official Army classes next week that the aim of the Communist party in the United States is "to seize control of the existing government by penetration and infiltration, or force if necessary, to set up a dictatorship."

The Communist Menace is the subject of the lesson sheet used by Army teachers in troop information and education classes, at which attendance is compulsory.

Moderating Policy

Bevin's Hope Is To Put Britain In A Position Of "Shock Absorber" Preventing Any Sharp Clash Between Russia And U.S. In London; No Appeasement Indicated

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The opening of the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Conference in London finds Britain pursuing what appears to be a governmental policy of acting as a moderating influence between the world's most powerful politico-economic antagonists—Russia and the United States.

On the eve of this momentous parley to try to iron out the fiercely debated Austrian and German peace treaties, Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov and British Foreign Secretary Bevin had what was described by a British official source as a very friendly conversation. They agreed that unanimity among the Big Four (America, Britain, France and Russia) in the meeting was of "the very highest importance" to the world.

Well, that's a general statement with which certainly both saint and sinner can agree. However, this same official source gave further point to his statement by adding that Bevin's line in the conference "can be expected to be more moderate" than U.S. Secretary of State Marshall's. Previously Bevin had told the British cabinet of the course he proposed to pursue, and is said to have received the blessings of his colleagues.

That raises the question of just what is meant by a "more moderate" line. I think the British official source could have given us the an-

Harriman And Anderson Testify In Behalf Of Truman Economic Program; Call For Allocation Powers In Steel And Grain; Far Reaching Proposals In Making

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Two cabinet officers told Congress today that in view of the proposed foreign aid program the government should have power to say what use is made of the nation's steel output and grain crops.

Secretary of Commerce Harriman and Secretary of Agriculture Anderson testified before separate legislative committees in support of President Truman's economic program.

Both backed his request for authority to restore price controls and rationing, if he decides they are needed.

On allocations, Harriman told the Senate-House Economic Committee there should be "limited powers" to direct steel for the "most essential programs." And he added that "more far reaching proposals" are being prepared.

Broadly, allocation would permit the government to say how much of any particular commodity is used for a certain purpose, how much steel, for instance, the automobile industry would be allowed to use.

Anderson was before the House Banking Committee. As to needed allocation in the farm and crop field, he told it:

"In order that we may be prepared for any serious emergency that might arise, such as failure of grain crops, it would be necessary to have authority not only for controlling exports but for limiting inventories and directing use of grain domestically through the most essential channels."

"Authority for allocating the use of storage and transportation facilities and distribution of farm machinery and fertilizer would also be necessary."

As for export controls, Anderson said these are needed (1) to protect our domestic economy (2) aid in supplying imports not only for those countries in greatest need (3) fulfill our obligations under food allocations procedures, and (4) to secure the cooperation of other nations in meeting America's import needs.

Cabinet officers are now engaged in giving Congress detailed views in support of the controls program which Mr. Truman presented in general terms on the convening of the special session of Congress last week.

Would Legislate Lower Costs In Home Building

Washington, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Chairman Gurnea (R-N.Y.) of the House Labor Subcommittee investigating the building trades said today the group soon will suggest legislation which members expect will cut the cost of private home building by as much as one-third.

"Undoubtedly a large part of the present high cost of home construction is attributable to 'featherbedding' and slowdowns by organized labor," Gurnea said in an interview.

"It is these practices that must be stopped if the little man, the man with the low or medium income, ever is to be in a position to build a home for himself and his family."

Bethel P. T. A.

On Thursday evening, November 13, the Bethel Parent-Teacher Association met in the high school auditorium. The eighth grade, under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Latham, presented a most interesting and timely program on North Carolina. After the audience sang "The Old North State," different members of the class gave facts and figures pertaining to the state's history, articles on the state flag, its motto, the state flower, state seal, etc. Following this a number of students from the class gave a portrayal of famous North Carolinians, both past and present, and asked the audience to identify each. A member of the class then conducted a quiz on North Carolina, and a prize was awarded the winner.

The business session was brief but interesting. The secretary gave figures on the amount of money realized from the Halloween carnival. Mr. Latham made some announcements about the school schedule and playground equipment.

Attendance prizes were to be awarded the first and eighth grades.

The cream and cake were enjoyed by everyone and the host received a number of gifts. Those attending were Billy Edwards, Carolyn and Billy Peck, Tommy and Edward Bryant, Barbara Jean Penner, Judy Fringle, Patsy Anderson, Butch and Jimmie Black, Roger and Al Averette, Russell Averette, Jr., Judy Adams, Robert Paul, Betty Ann Hardy and David Bryan Boyd.

Miss White Honored at Bridge

Miss Jo Barnes White, bride-elect of December, was guest of honor on Monday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Jesse Moye and Mrs. Moye Hadley entertained at bridge at their home on West Fifth Street.

The lovely residence was enhanced with charming arrangements of pastel flowers, pale yellow chrysanthemums being placed in the reception hall, chrysanthemums in shades of pink and cerise California pepper berries in the library. White roses and white chrysanthemums created a bridal motif in the drawing room and in the adjoining dining room.

The bride's place was marked with a corsage of white baby pompon chrysanthemums. Tiny golden wedding bells marked the other players' places.

Miss Mary Eakes was awarded an etched crystal perfume bottle for high score.

Miss White was presented a gift of silver.

At the refreshment hour the tables were centered with burning white tapers in silver sconces festooned with green and white flowers. A dainty frozen salad course with Russian tea was served.

Guests were a small group of the bride's intimate friends.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly slays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Strength FOR THE DAY

THANKSGIVING
There is always something to be thankful about. You remember Pollyanna, daughter of a home missionary, who when the box sent by a supporting church was opened revealing among other things a pair of crutches, was momentarily stunned. Then she remembered about the gift and thankful about the gift have to use them. Probably the things we need most to be thankful about are the unnoticed providences which bless our lives every day. We take health and protection for granted. We worry a great deal about not holding our jobs, or about losing face, or about being scratched off somebody's calling list. Yet these things are relatively unimportant. The big things are the things over which we have almost no control whatsoever. So much of our life is arranged for us by a Power above ourselves and our planning. When we come to know that, it makes us humble; and when we understand it deeply, it makes us religious.

It's a grand national custom, this matter of having a day on which we recall God's blessings and providences. There is much to be thankful for—and there always has been.

Midgets To Play Orphanage Team

By BOBBY BRADSHAW

The Greenville Midgets entertain the Methodist Orphanage Midgets of Raleigh here Friday night at 7:30. The Raleigh team defeated the locals in their first game of the season, 13-6. However, the "Mighty Mites" have come a long way since their opener and hope to defeat the capital city club in their engagement.

In their last game, against New Bern, Bill Kittrell's charges romped to a 37-7 win. And although this is a non-conference tilt the Greensies have lost none of their spirit and will be seeking revenge against the Methodists.

Colored News

You are welcome to visit Diddy's Chapel Church at Fountain on Thanksgiving at 3 o'clock. Rev. Tyson will preach at four-thirty and a basket dinner of barbecue will be served at 5 o'clock. The Silver March choir will take charge of the program.

On West Third Street the Tar River Primitive Baptist Union will convene at Shiloh Church on November 29 and 30. Welcome. Elder H. K. Hemby, rector.

Smart

VIEWPOINT!

SMART is a word which applies not only to Oldsmobile cars, but to Oldsmobile owners as well. They're people who appreciate fine things, who have an eye for smooth lines and smart styling, who realize the importance of simplicity and good taste in motor car design. And more than 400,000 of these smart Oldsmobile owners are Hydra-Matic drivers as well. What free and easy driving they enjoy! With no clutch pedal in the car... with gears that shift automatically through four forward speeds... they just step on the gas and g-l-i-d-e away with a smooth, uninterrupted surge of acceleration. The billions of miles these Oldsmobile owners have driven serve as impressive proof of the dependability of GM Hydra-Matic Drive*. They know... "It's SMART to Own an Olds!"

Legion Women Honor Gold Star Mothers Monday

The American Legion Auxiliary honoring the Gold Star Mothers held its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Sam Worthington. Members and guests were greeted by Mrs. Worthington and each Gold Star Mother was presented a corsage.

There were five Gold Star Mothers present: Mesdames Walter L. Cherry, J. B. Spilman, H. R. Rogers, J. L. Ross and Wiley Brown.

Mrs. Spilman called the meeting to order and presided over the business session. The salute to the flag was recited. "America" was sung by the members, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. H. R. Rogers. The invocation was given by the chaplain, Mrs. Wiley Brown. Following the recitation to the preamble, the secretary's and treasurer's reports were heard and approved.

Mrs. W. J. Bundy, chairman of the Membership Committee, reported fifteen new members: Mesdames Jimmie Dail, Ruth Clark, Gus Forbes, Alex Viola, P. B. Haar, W. B. Stafford, M. Jack Moe, Sr., T. I. Wagner, R. A. Tyson, Oscar Hardee, Augusta Williams, Knott Proctor, T. K. Fountain, R. B. Moore and Miss Mary Barden Taylor.

Mrs. Spilman announced that a check for $25 had been given by the American Legion to buy gifts for the "Yanks."

She also announced that the gifts for the veterans' gift shop had been mailed.

A letter from Mrs. Floyd Chadwick was read by Mrs. H. R. Rogers, thanking the Auxiliary for the wonderful reception given her during her visit to Greenville.

It was moved and passed to send a donation of $50 to the Pinetops Chapter of the American Legion Auxiliary for a veteran's child that is taking treatments in a hospital. Mrs. Jimmie Jenkins was unanimously elected as the new Auxiliary president. Mrs. W. R. Jones installed her into office.

After the business session Mrs. Arthur Corey introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Leonard Topping, new pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

His talk to the Gold Star Mothers and the Auxiliary was very inspiring and comforting. He spoke of the home as the stronghold of the nation. He said strong homes, faith in God and great words of courage are three great factors in our lives.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served. Mesdames A. D. Frank, A. E. Hobgood, F. J. Diener, Bill Barbre, Stuart Page, Hoover Taft, V. C. Fleming, Sr., and S. L. Bridges.

Slander Case Tried Tuesday In County Court

By CHESTER WALSH
Judge Dink James in County Court yesterday tried the first case of criminal slander in his court in many years when he disposed of the case in which Mrs. Bettie Dennis of Ayden charged J. B. Dennis of Ayden with criminal slander and another case in which she charged him with disorderly conduct and trespassing on the airport near Ayden. The court's verdict was "not guilty" in both cases. Testimony was that Dennis and his brother had dissolved partnership in a lease on the airport there and that J. B. Dennis had been forbidden to use the airport; that he did use it, and that he insulted and slandered Mrs. Dennis.

Dr. Olga Helseth Is Guest Speaker

On Friday, November 21, Dr. Olga Helseth, professor of education at William and Mary College, was the guest speaker at a luncheon for the Association of Childhood Education.

Miss Jane Hadley, president of the Greenville branch, presided over the meeting which opened with the singing of "Come Ye Thankful People Come." Miss Agnes Fullilove, principal of West Greenville School, led the singing and was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Jack Gates.

Miss Eva Keeter gave the invocation and the guests were welcomed by Miss Elizabeth Hyman.

Miss Hadley recognized the following guests: Dr. John D. Messick, president of ECTC, and Mrs. Messick; Dr. Carl Adams, Miss Lucille Charlton and Miss Annie C. Newell of the college faculty; Miss Dora Coates and members from the college branch of ACE from ECTC; Mr. J. H. Rose, superintendent of Greenville City Schools, and Mrs. Rose; Miss Rosina Pittman, representative of Johnson Publishing Co.; Mrs. W. J. Stelf and Mrs. Edwin Parkinson, PTA president of the West Greenville and Training Schools; Mrs. B. H. Stancill, vice-president of the Third St. School PTA; and members from the Wilson, Rocky Mount and Greenville branches of the ACE.

Mrs. Edwina Wells, principal of the Woodward School in Wilson, introduced Dr. Helseth whose topic was "Know the Truth and Ye Shall Be Free."

With much feeling and in inspired words, Dr. Helseth stressed the need of knowing that all children do not learn at the same age. "There are three to five years' differences in children's readiness for learning," she said. "If we take the child where he is and teach him on his own level and not at standard set for others. With parents and teachers working together to give the child a feeling of security and of belonging, he will grow into a happier and more useful citizen," Dr. Helseth concluded.
