SEC. MARSHALL RETURNS FROM LONDON TALKS

President And Cabinet Welcome Him; Marshall Regrets Lack Of Results

Washington, Dec. 19—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall returned at 9 a. m. EST today to report to the president on the failure of the London peace conference and head up a drive for a long-range European recovery program.

President Truman, who says he's still hopeful of world peace despite the breaking of the Big Four foreign ministers' meeting, was on hand to greet Marshall at the National Airport.

Also present was the entire cabinet. Mr. Truman, shaking hands with the secretary as he stepped down from the Sacred Cow, was overheard to say to Marshall "I think you did a good job."

Marshall told reporters: "The sorry I could not bring back profitable results. We had a very strong delegation at the conference and they did a great deal of hard work. I felt fully confident in their judgment and wealth of information to protect the interests of the United States."

Mr. Truman advised the secretary that he ought to take a good rest, and Marshall smilingly told news men that "you heard me agree with him."

It was just one month and one day ago that Mr. Truman bade Marshall goodspeed to London and heard the secretary pledge to "do my best" to hammer out an agreement with Russia on a European peace settlement.

Tonight at 10 p. m. (EST) Marshall will deliver a 20-minute broadcast over all major networks explaining why he and his British and French counterparts met with complete failure.

Bitter End To Dreams Of New World For Bride

New York, Dec. 19—(AP)—Twenty-one-year-old Maria Formicola's dreams of a new world and life with her American GI fiance crumbled before tragedy soon after she arrived yesterday aboard the liner Vulcanica from her native Italy.

Dressed in her prettiest clothes and wearing a new hat, she eagerly scanned the waiting pier crowds for a glimpse of James McIntosh, 19, of Guerrant, Ky., an Army veteran whom she met in Italy during the war and whom she had come to America to marry.

Then, the ship's chaplain gently took Maria's arm and guided her to a cabin. There she was told young McIntosh had been killed in an automobile accident Dec. 6.

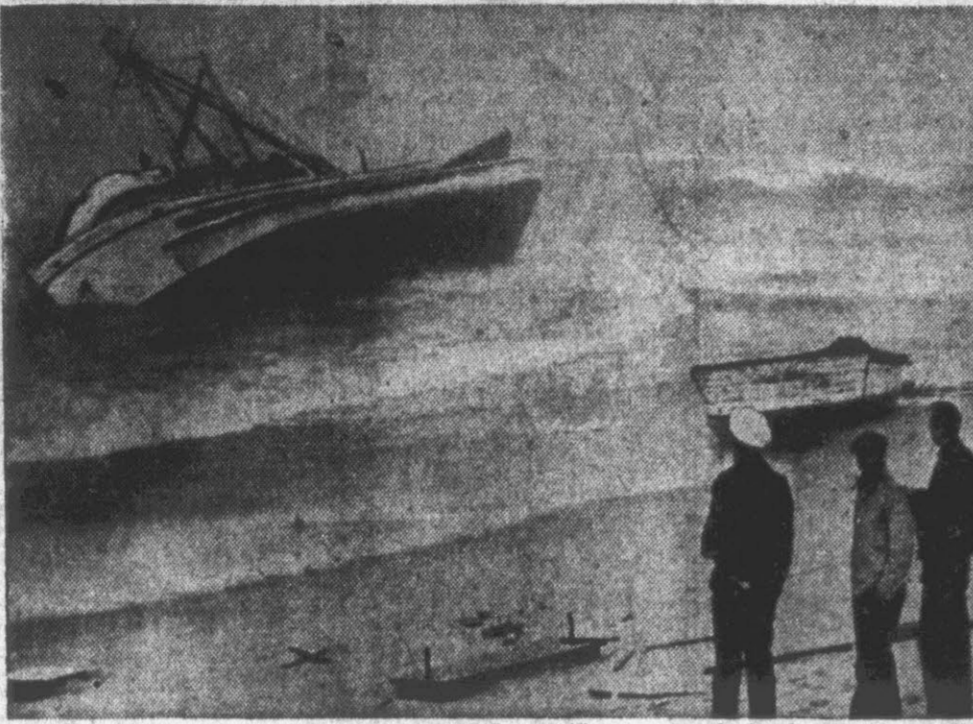

The ship line said McIntosh's family had wired that it would be unable to post the bond necessary to keep the girl in this country and that she would be sent to Ellis Island for probable return to Italy.

May Ask New Confidence Vote

Rome, Dec. 19—(AP)—Galled by a continuous barrage of criticism from the far left, Premier Alcide de Gasperi was expected today to ask the Constituent Assembly for a new vote of confidence as a swelling wave of labor strife convulsed Italy.

Violence flared up both on the assembly floor and on the labor front last night, and the country faced its second nationwide strike in a month—that of 300,000 food-handlers whose walkout was scheduled to begin tomorrow.

GOP Backed Anti-Inflation Bill Passed By Lower House

Washington, Dec. 19—(AP)—The House today passed a bill for voluntary pricing agreements to hold down living costs.

Democrats made a futile attempt to alter the measure and give the President authority to order allocation of scarce commodities if necessary, but they were overwhelmed by an almost solid Republican front.

The bill was passed after only two hours of debate under procedure that prevented free offering of amendments and curtailed debate. Democrats condemned the procedure as "super gag," but Republicans replied that with Congress adjourning tonight it was the Senate bill or nothing at all.

Before final passage, the House defeated on a 156 to 73 standing vote a motion to send the measure back to the banking committee for inclusion of authority for the President to divide up scarce commodities when voluntary agreements fail.

The House then headed for a final vote which would send the bill, passed yesterday by the Senate, to President Truman before nightfall.

The measure was brought up in the House under procedure restricting amendments and limiting debate.

Speedy action was required to get the measure through Congress which is scheduled to adjourn tonight until January 6.

Democrats and Republicans alike devoted preliminary discussion to politics until Rep. Smith (D-Va.) reminded them that the country expects Congress to do something effective about the cost of living.

"We should declare a moratorium on politics for a week or ten days," the Virginian said, "and sit down here just as good Americans."

Whether the opposing political parties could agree on the same objective in the House remained to be determined.

Speaker Martin (Mass.) promised to try to rush through ahead of tonight's adjournment goal a Senate-approved resolution clearing Anderson of the legal obligations he said prevented his barring the list of speculators to the Senate Appropriations Committee yesterday.

But because this is the last scheduled day of the special session, parliamentary maneuvering might prevent final action on the resolution, which President Truman promised in advance to sign as soon as it reaches his desk.

Ships Buffeted By Storms In Pacific

Honolulu, Dec. 19—(AP)—At least three of five ships reported in distress yesterday were safe or headed for a haven today as fresh storms brewed in the Pacific.

Uncertainty centered about the Army tanker El Caney and the steamship Middlesex Victory, the latter the latest to radio news of trouble.

Subjects are grist for his mill. For example, he once expressed regret for the return of long skirts. He advocated shorts and open-neck shirts for choir boys and young acolytes. He decreed that no girl should be excluded from religious services in the cathedral because she was wearing beach pajamas. He defended "pew lovers" who held hands in church.

All these things irked the Orthodox no end but he long has encountered his greatest opposition from religious folk because he is ever standing up in the bleachers and cheering for Russia which they hook up with atheistic Communism. After a trip to the Soviet Union in '38 he said there was nothing essentially anti-religious in Russian Communism and that Russia was a good field for Christianity. A little later five canons of Canterbury Cathedral disowned their dean's politics and accused him of condoning "Russia's offenses against humanity and religion," charges which he denied.

In 1945 he predicted a Socialized Europe in 10 years, or much less and said Socialism wasn't impossible in the United States. A year later

It is indeed a lost day when Dr. Johnson isn't in the news, and all

Siamese Twins Pose Problem

Indianapolis, Dec. 19—(AP)—Medical authorities today tackled the problem of what to do with the Siamese twins from Bedford when they are released from Riley Hospital.

Dr. Donald Casely, medical director of the Indiana University Medical Center, said he has sent a letter to Edward R. Speer, father of the twin boys, asking Speer to come here to discuss the problem. Dr. Casely said the babies, joined at the top of their heads, probably will be released from the hospital in "two weeks or so, if they continue to get along well."

Nanking, Dec. 19—(AP)—A major battle for Mukden was predicted by a government spokesman today as reports from that southern Manchurian metropolis described the development of heavy fighting near Faku to the north.

Gen. Chen Tung-kuo, deputy director of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's northeast headquarters, told a news conference the main force of Communist attackers had crossed the Liao River and was moving southward in Liaoning Province.

CLOSED SHOP LAW IS UPHELD BY TRIBUNAL

N.C. Supreme Court Rules 1947 Act Constitutional In Test Case

Raleigh, Dec. 19—(AP)—The North Carolina Supreme Court today upheld the constitutionality of a 1947 legislative act barring the closed shop in this state.

The court affirmed the convictions in Buncombe County of two defendants who wished to test the law's constitutionality.

The cases were known as: State vs. George Whitaker, and the State vs. Thomas Pinkney Bishop.

Associate Justice A. A. F. Sewell wrote both opinions.

In one, he said "The power of the State, by general legislative act in the exercise of its police power to condemn private contracts found to be injurious to the public welfare, to declare them contrary to public policy and to prevent their consummation, can not be denied."

"Exercised within constitutional limitations it is both a necessary and salutary function of government, the exercise of which is not infrequently an exigent duty. Within those limitations the occasion justifying the exercise of the power is within the legislative discretion provided only that its action is not arbitrary or capricious and has a reasonable relation to the end to be accomplished."

"The rights of property guaranteed by our constitution are necessarily relative to those held by others under the same constitutional protection. The right of contract, whether considered as natural or merely civil, is a property right; certainly of no greater dignity than the right to work, ordinarily regarded as inalienable; and it cannot be unrestrictedly used to the injury of another."

"Under such circumstances the exercise of the State's police power of due process required by the fourteenth amendment. We cannot find that the Legislature exceeded its powers."

Vandenberg said he agrees with the objective of the bill's provision but does not favor such "shot-gun" methods of accomplishing it.

Vandenberg promised a full inquiry into the matter by his Foreign Relations Committee as the Senate passed a measure appropriating $568,000,000 in emergency foreign aid, including $18,000,000 for China.

Of the amount voted by the Senate, $550,000,000 will go to France, Italy and Austria.

Frank W. Kraemer, federal internal revenue collector for Connecticut, and two subordinates were indicted today by a federal grand jury in connection with solicitation and receiving campaign political funds.

At that time Juvenile Court Judge Herbert Cochran will hear charges by the girls' mother that the girls are incorrigible delinquents and that their husbands contributed to their delinquency by marrying them Dec. 5 at Moyock, N.C.

Ask Voluntary Program 'Stretch Out' Fuel Oil

Washington, Dec. 19—(AP)—The public, the government and the petroleum industry today were asked to join forces in a voluntary program to "stretch out" the critically short supplies of fuel oil in many parts of the nation.

Senator Tobey (R-NH) declared the "only alternative to a voluntary plan is manifestly compulsory controls." He said neither the public, the industry nor the government wanted this.

Tobey is chairman of a Senate commerce subcommittee which yesterday received a report from a special industry committee recommending that householders cut their fuel consumption by 15 per cent.

A separate report released by a Senate small business subcommittee, also called for public conservation measures, but it sounded a different note in saying that:

"The small business group, headed by Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.), suggested avoidance of fuel waste and curtailment of "unnecessary driving" and recommended that:

Needed steel products be made available quantities to the domestic oil industry; all ocean-going tankers be placed in service "with the least possible delay"; tanker sales to foreign countries be held up until the needs of the domestic economy have been satisfied; better distribution and transportation methods."

Australian Proposes All Allies Write German Peace; Hits 'Power Politics'

Sydney, Dec. 19—(AP)—Herbert V. Evatt, Australian Minister of Foreign Affairs, proposed today that a meeting of all the allied nations be called to write a peace for Germany.

Declaring that "power politics" had blocked agreement on the German problem at the recent Big Four parley in London, Evatt said he would like to see the treaty-making turned over to a conference of "all the countries that participated in the victory at such great sacrifices."

He urged that such a meeting should be held "without voting restrictions"—obviously a reference to the Big Four veto power in the United Nations Security Council, which he has frequently criticized.

Asks Congress For 'Bold Defense' Against 'Totalitarian Pressures'; Proposes Sum Be Spread Out For Four And A Quarter Years In Attempt To Buy A 'Just And Lasting Peace'

By the Associated Press Purpose: to help 16 Western European countries help themselves back to peace and prosperity by June 30, 1952.

Estimated cost: between $15,100,000,000 and $17,800,000,000, depending on what happens to prices here at home.

Who would run it: a $20,000 a year economic cooperation administrator, a $17,500 deputy and a $25,000 roving ambassador.

Congress is asked: to authorize total spending of $17,000,000,000 and provide $6,800,000,000 in actual money for first 15 months.

Outlook: long hearings and hot debate over both amount of money and plans for running program.

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL Washington, Dec. 19—(AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to commit America to a 17 billion dollar European recovery program and a "bold" defense of free men against "totalitarian pressures."

Mr. Truman proposed that this vast sum be invested over four and a quarter years in a made-in-America attempt to buy a "just and lasting peace."

As the first installment, he asked for authority to spend $6,800,000,000 in the first 15 months.

His message outlining the largest spending plan in the nation's peacetime history went to Congress in the closing hours of its special session. Mr. Truman urged swift action when the regular session starts in January, so the recovery program can begin April 1.

He predicted that the "determined opposition" already announced by European Communists will result in further incitements to strike "for the purpose of bringing chaos in the hope that it will pave the way for totalitarian control."

Even American security and the American way of life are at stake, the Chief Executive declared.

He asked Congress to tip its "grave and significant decision" in favor of the "Marshall Plan" to finish a job on which he said $15,000,000,000 already has been spent since the war ended. The decision, he said, will:

"Determine in large part whether the free nations of the world can look forward with hope to a peaceful and prosperous future as independent states, or whether they must live in poverty and in fear of selfish totalitarian aggression."

Along with his message, the President forwarded to Congress a bill to authorize the $17,000,000,000 expenditure and set up the machinery for carrying out the long-range recovery program. He sent along too, a 241-page analysis prepared by experts from dozens of federal agencies.

To manage the program, Mr. Truman wants to appoint a $30,000 a year administrator with broad powers. There would be a deputy drawing $17,500. And to run the European end of the show, there would be a roving ambassador making $25,000 a year.

In addition, the administrator would have as his top assistants 10 men making up to $15,000 and 80 more making as much as $10,000.

However, instead of one-man control of the program, a special House committee on foreign aid already has proposed an eight-man board, so the Truman proposal may be in for trouble on that score.

Congressional shuddering was in prospect, too, over the size of the bill.

But the President said that big as the cost will be, it is only five per cent of the cost of the war and less than 3 per cent of our national income during the life of the program.

"As an investment toward the peace and security of the world and toward the realization of hope and confidence in a better way of life for the future," he declared, "this cost is small indeed."

Mr. Truman said he was recommending the program to Congress "in full confidence of its wisdom and necessity as a major step in our nation's quest for a just and lasting peace."

As a joint undertaking of the United States and a group of European countries, he said, the program "is proof that free men can effectively join together to defend their free institutions against totalitarian pressures, and to promote better standards of life for all their peoples."

As outlined in the documents sent to Congress, "much" of the aid would be in the form of gifts, some would be in loans.

There was no breakdown on how the $17,000,000,000 would be split among the various countries. There was no estimate, either, of how much the United States might get back.

Deals are supposed to be worked out for getting from the receiving countries supplies of scarce strategic materials to store up in the United States. But for these, this country would pay cash.

On Adult Education

A Better Knowledge Of Life And World Open To Grown People Who Can Study After Working Hours; Education Commission's Report; 'Community Colleges' Idea

By JAMES MARLOW (Editor's note: This is the second of two stories on adult education, a field with which the President's Commission on Higher Education finds great fault.)

Washington, Dec. 19—(AP)—Adult education means only that grown people, most of them after working hours, try to get more schooling or learning.

This would include those who have finished their regular schooling and those who haven't.

And the things they study range from a correspondence course in engineering to class work in grammar or group discussion in English literature.

The special commission which President Truman set up to study the whole problem of higher education has a good deal to say about adult education.

The commission is very critical of what the colleges and universities are doing, or failing to do, about it. Why?

On these grounds: that the best citizens are educated, thinking citizens and all citizens ought to get a better chance for learning than they're getting now.

In a report which it issued this week the commission said in brief:

1. There's not enough adult education.

2. Colleges and universities don't seem to realize how important a part of their work adult education should be.

3. It's time they started doing more about it.

Roughly, there are four kinds of adult education:

1. Evening courses in colleges and universities, on the school grounds.

2. Resident extension courses. This means teachers go out to instruct groups in homes or some meeting place off the college campus.

3. Correspondence courses, which means education by mail.

4. Informal instruction, such as a university can do over its own radio station.

But who does the teaching? Teachers who take on extra education at night to make extra money after teaching in colleges or universities by day.

How well do they do it? The commission says that "candidly"

KNUTSON BILL FIGHT AHEAD

Truman Still Opposed To Any Tax Cuts At Present Time

Washington, Dec. 19—(AP)—Another White House road block went into sight today for the GOP attempt to slash taxes $5,800,000,000 a year.

Assertions by Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) that his bill is "veto proof" were in sharp contrast to a renewal of President Truman's stand against any tax reduction now.

The implication was obvious that the tax measure might meet the same fate as two others passed at the last regular session of Congress. Mr. Truman vetoed both of them.

He said then debt reduction must come first and anyway the bills gave too much of the tax relief to the wealthy.

Knutson apparently based his "veto proof" label for the new version on the contention that it would give 77 per cent of the total tax reduction to persons with taxable incomes under $4,000 and only 23 per cent to those making more.

But at the President's news conference yesterday a reporter asked whether reports that the government will have a $7,000,000,000 surplus for the current fiscal year ending June 30 would justify a tax cut.

Mr. Truman said no. The Chief Executive declined, however, to say definitely whether he would oppose any tax cut next year.

Tito Signs Pact With Romania

Bucharest, Dec. 19—(AP)—Marshal Tito announced today the signing of a mutual assistance pact between Romania and Yugoslavia.

Last week, Tito signed a mutual aid pact with Hungary and earlier a similar agreement with Bulgaria. A similar pact was also signed by Bulgaria and Albania.

In his announcement Tito said: "We signed this alliance in order to check the warmongers. This treaty is of international importance and will help democratic developments and peaceful reconstruction of our peoples."

'Common Front' Against Petrillo

New York, Dec. 19—(AP)—A joint committee representing the radio, television and recording industries meets here today to draft plans for a common front in dealings with James C. Petrillo and his American Federation of Musicians.

The session will be closed as have been previous preliminary meetings by sub-groups, and it has not been decided whether any agreement reached will be disclosed.

Honored At Dinner

Miss Josie Barnes White and Ed Lawl, Jr., were honored on Monday evening when Miss Jane Smith and J. B. Smith, Jr., entertained at dinner at the Olde Towne Inn.

Upon arrival Miss White was presented a beautiful corsage of baby carnations and Mr. Lawl a boutonniere.

Drinks were served in the cocktail-lounge before the guests were invited to the private dining room, where a delectable turkey dinner was served to 15 couples.

A beautiful center-piece of white pom poms, fern and white tapers, in waxed lace dollies, was used on the bride's table. The long table held a lovely arrangement of white chrysanthemums and candles. Miss White was given china as an honor gift. Following dinner the evening was spent in dancing.

Nurses On Job; Will Not Resign

Wilmington, N.C., Dec. 19—(AP)—Staff nurses of James Walker Memorial Hospital in Wilmington were on the job today following the withdrawal of resignations that were due to go into effect yesterday. A majority of the nurses voted in favor of withdrawal of the resignations in a meeting yesterday attended by Mrs. Marie B. Noell, executive secretary of the North Carolina State Nurses Association; William C. Lassiter, attorney for the group, and Gall Barker, conciliator of the State Department of Labor. The resignations were submitted to the hospital early this month following demands by the nurses for higher pay and better working conditions.

Mrs. Noel and Mrs. Althea Snipes, chairman of the hospital nurses group, said in a statement mailed to Dan Penton, chairman of the hospital board of managers: "While we admit that some of our proposals have not been achieved, including a written agreement on a group basis; a majority of the group voted to accept the salary gains and improved working conditions offered by the hospital on Dec. 8, following the resignations."

Barnhill, Arthur L. Norcutt and Mrs. Mildred Thompson, with Mrs. Susette Jones as pianist. An offering will be taken at the door at the conclusion of the program. Following is the program:

Organ prelude, (with audience in silent meditation); Mrs. Catherine Smith narrator, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" (Bach), by Vox Angles Mixed Quartet; "Angel's Serenade" (Braga), organ and organ; "Silent Night," Mixed Quartet.

"The Glory of Christmas" (pantomime) "O Holy Night (Adam) by Jean Johnson; "The Westminster Carol" (traditional), by Barbara Lou Morris and the Youth Council Mixed Chorus, with Johnny Taylor at the organ.

The pageant, "And So They Came to Bethlehem," cast of characters: Frederick Johnson, prophet; William German, innkeeper; Jean Johnson, Mary; Joseph B. Taft, Joseph; Nathaniel Corbett and Herman Spell, shepherds; Linwood Darden, shepherd boy; Ralph Dages, Mitchell Hines, and Carlton McGlone, Three Wise Men; Elwood Streeter, Herod; James Wilkes, Johnnie Taylor and Hubert Walters, three kings. There are five scenes: The prophet Isaiah in the temple; Mary and Joseph before the door of the inn at Bethlehem; the shepherds in the fields; the Wise Men at the court of Herod; and the adoration of the child at the manger. Rev. J. A. Nimmo will pronounce the benediction. The public is invited.

No Description For Suffering

Somewhere in Europe or Asia there is a human being almost in despair for the want of something to eat. No picture of his wasted body, no wordy description of the long hours of suffering, could possibly make us understand what it means to be driven nearly insane because of the lack of food. It's not only the gnawing pangs of hunger that follows, but it's the psychological reaction of helplessness, of hopelessness, and dejection that robs the soul of the happiness of being alive. That person is looking to me to give him one can of food, to make him forget his plight, and to give him hope of a better day ahead.

Aero Club To Hold Air Show In April

The Greenville Aero Club, organized here recently by a group of nearly a score of pilots to stimulate interest in aviation, at a meeting at the airport last night, awarded a $5 prize and a free airplane ride to E. K. Willis of Greenville for naming the new club. The members agreed that the Aero Club is the most suitable name. President Tommy Sellers announced that all of the contestants will be given free airplane rides.

The club unanimously voted to stage an amateur air show at the Greenville airport on Sunday April 4.

Two new members, Otis Forlines and Charles Wells, were inducted as new members of the Aero Club.

National Guard Had Christmas Party

The Greenville battery of the North Carolina National Guard had a Christmas party at Clark's, across the river, last night, and it was "ladies' night," with the members' wives and sweethearts as guests. Capt. J. W. Tyndall, battery commander, was toastmaster and welcomed the guests. Barbecued chicken and all of the "trimmings" were served.

Christmas Tableaux Presbyterian Church Was Inspiring

The Christmas tableaux of the Nativity presented on the portico of the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights by an exceptionally capable cast, among impressive scenes, and with inspiring music, was wonderful. Hundreds of people from here and elsewhere witnessed the pageant. Rev. Leonard Topping, new pastor of the church, was very much impressed by its presentation in such natural scenes and said it carried a wonderful message, especially at the approach of the Christmas season.

Scenes shown Tuesday night were the angels and shepherds in the hills; Wednesday night, the Nativity scene at Bethlehem was shown, and Thursday night, the scene at the manger in Bethlehem, with the Three Wise Men from the East bearing gifts of frankincense, can render during peace times, and complimented the officers for their good work in organizing the battery. The mayor pledged the city's best support to the battery and said he had never seen a finer group than the soldiers and their wives and sweethearts.

First Sgt. Sherman Parks had charge of the program. He presented Mrs. Ariene Davis and Ed Conway, who entertained the group with Christmas and other songs, with Mrs. Davis playing the accompaniment. Amos Hudson said the invocation.

Only four Presidents have been pictured on United States coins of general circulation—Lincoln on the cent, Washington on the quarter, Jefferson on the nickel and Franklin D. Roosevelt on the new dime.

Mayor Jack Boyd, guest speaker, complimented the local unit of the National Guard, enumerated many of the fine services the organization

Strength FOR THE DAY

MEN OF GOOD WILL.

On the last night spent with his disciples, Jesus declared, "My peace I leave with you." Seldom in reading this declaration do we emphasize the word "you." But we miss the meaning of our Lord's statement unless we do emphasize this word.

To the little group of chosen disciples who were gathered about him Jesus said, "My peace I leave with you." On the night of Jesus' birth the angels said, "Peace on earth among men of good will." Only those who are attuned to the Spirit of God have peace in their hearts, and only such people can bring peace on the earth. The beatitude, "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God," means that only the sons, or children, of God, are peacemakers.

In other words, we are trying to make the world safe for peace, by economic and political means; but peace depends primarily not upon economic or political advantage but upon the spiritual soundness of man's heart. Jesus left his peace with his disciples. I leave it, he said, with YOU. He did not leave it with the soldiers or the politicians or the money men. He left it with men of good will. Neither the United Nations nor any other organization will establish peace unless and until the hearts of men are made peaceful. Religious faith must play an essential part in the establishment of world peace.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—Ten students of government are getting their schooling at first hand. Their university has taken them off the campus and put them in Washington.

The men are honor students at Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y., as members of the college's Washington study project, they are spending the entire first semester of this year in the capital observing the wheels of government go round.

The project was started in 1935 by Dr. Paul S. Jacobsen, chairman of the political science department and professor at Colgate who felt that by using the national government as a laboratory more reality could be brought to the study of government.

"There was a feeling among Colgate's political scientists that the average college was not getting across to many the essential story of how our government is organized and how it works," says Dr. Jacobsen.

The project utilizes the usual academic techniques—books, manuals, lectures and various papers with a study of various federal agencies and bureaus, of congress, political parties and pressure groups.

Dr. Jacobsen says Colgate aims at giving the undergraduates a thorough good training for citizenship rather than providing technical training for entry into public service. He points out, however, that about 10 percent of the 82 men who have come to Washington under the university's sponsorship up to now are in public service and many others are in law or fields closely allied to public service.

This year's group of students is the first sent to the capital since the war. Eight of the 10 are ex-servicemen. The men live at the YMCA, where a room is also provided for a daily two-hour seminar. A study room is also available at the library of congress.

On most major projects the men work in pairs. For instance, Richard Bates, 21, Albany, N. Y., senior, and Frank Godson, 19, Snyder, N. Y., senior, concentrated on the Food and Drug Administration as one of their first subjects.

Bates who was with the 42nd Division for 1-1/2 years, also took in the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Veterans Administration, and Godson went in for a study of the civil service. All of the young men had believed, they say, that there was a "lot of fumbling around" in the government, that most government officials were "bureaucrats."

Consensus of the students is that the men in government are "of the highest caliber, hardworking and sincerely interested in doing the best job possible."

MOTORMAN'S ESTATE

Cincinnati, Dec. 18—(AP)—Harold F. Weisman, the streetcar motorman who left an estate of $155,264, "wasn't exactly a recluse," his attorney said today, "but he liked to save his money and mostly stayed to himself."

Weisman, a widower, drove a streetcar for nearly 50 years, and was 86 when he died Nov. 22.

Legionnaires Plan Settlement Of County Fair Issues In January

By CHESTER WALSH
The Greenville Post No. 39 members of the Pitt County American Legion Fair board of directors met last night at the City Hall with the members of the County Fair Committee of Post No. 39, with authority to make any necessary agreement toward the end of securing compliance with resolutions adopted in July and November, requesting the County Fair directors don't DO that!

... Go out in the rain or snow in open-toed shoes, sheer stockings and a light dress.

HOW TO HAVE A SHORT LIFE.
... Go out in the rain or snow in open-toed shoes, sheer stockings and a light dress.

could meet with the County Fair directors and take up the post's resolutions and secure some official action.

At the outset of last night's discussion, T. K. Fountain, chairman of the post committee to secure action, advised the fair directors present that his committee, in the interest of an amicable settlement, and confident that the other minor provisions of the resolution, would be settled satisfactorily to all concerned in the future, is prepared to limit its request of the fair directors at this time to the one big main issue with the membership of Post No. 39:

"That of amending the by-laws and, or, constitution in such a manner that the members of Post No. 39 will be allowed to elect annually its own directors on the County Fair board of directors, on a staggered basis on one, two and three-year terms."

Chairman Fountain pointed out that the staggered method would insure retention at all times of experienced men on the board, but at the same time also provide that the annual election of some members would keep the control of the operation and policies of the County Fair in line with the wishes of the post membership. Post No. 39's vote on the fair resolution was 54 for it and 4 against it.

County Fair directors at last night's conference were Dr. John D. Winstead, president; Arthur B. Corey, Paul A. Scott, Walter Cherry, J. Hicks Corey, Ficklen Arthur, Frank Taylor, Heber Whitchard and Harry Burke, manager of the Fair. The committee from Post 39, American Legion, were T. K. Fountain, chairman; Jack Edwards, James R. Worsley, S. O. Worthington, Harry Brown and James S. Jenkins.

Strenuous Work, Collecting Dogs

Gig Harbor, Wash., Dec. 18—(AP) Joe Chandler, 88-year-old Gig Harbor retired fisherman, had for many years gathered up and cared for the town's stray dogs.

Last week he left 12 canines behind when he was brought to a Tacoma hospital after being taken ill. The dogs broke loose and spread all over this harbor town.

City Marshall Robert Mitchell went out after the yelping, howling, food-foraging pack. Today he's in the hospital, too—from overwork in chasing the dogs. Attending physicians say he'll be there several weeks.

The dogs finally were rounded up by Humane Society officers.

On Adult . . .

many of them try to make it as easy on themselves as possible.

The commission says: "This state of affairs cannot be permitted to continue. The colleges and universities should elevate adult education to a position of equal importance with any other of their functions. x x x

"Adult education, along with undergraduate and graduate education, should become the responsibility of every department or college of the university.

"It should be the duty of the English faculty or the physics faculty, for instance, to teach English or physics not just to those who come to the campus but to everyone in the community or state who wants to learn or can be persuaded to learn English or physics.

"To this degree every college and university should become a 'community college.' Then extension teaching would be accounted a part of the regular teaching load and would receive its due share of faculty energy and interest."

This would mean a college or university would have to increase, many times over, the job of education it is doing now.

It would mean more teachers and more money. What's blocking all this? Says the commission:

The main block is higher education's failure to realize the role it should be playing in a democratic society, a fuller role than now.

This would mean—and it's what that the universities would take the commission is shooting at—education to the people wherever they are to be found.

In this way colleges and universities would be reaching more people and therefore would be a lot more useful in their community, whether it's a city or a state.

To sum up, the commission says: Colleges and universities are thinking far too much in terms of the boys and girls of school age who are going to colleges and universities and not enough about adult people who want, or need, more education.

Capt. John Smith, whose adventures in colonial Virginia won his niche in history, also wrote a number of travel books.

Coroner's Inquest Into Negro's Death City Hall Tonight
Pitt County Coroner Griffin H. Rouse will hold an inquest at the City Hall tonight at 7:30 concerning the death of Matthew Dixon 40-year-old Negro farmer of the Grimesland section last Friday night. Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson is holding David Tetterton, 30-year-old Negro of the same community, on a charge of murder pending the inquest. Authorities charge Tetterton with shooting Dixon with a pistol at a cafe on the edge of Grimesland, operated by A. J. McClure and his wife, Mabel McClure. The bullet entered Dixon's head, killing him instantly.

State's Victory String Broken By Mountaineers

By the Associated Press

The North Carolina State Wolfpack reflected today on a string of seven straight basketball victories that might have been eight but for a determined West Virginia University quint. The Mountaineers staved off a closing rally to defeat the visiting Wolfpack last night, 68 to 64.

Leading 30 to 26 at the half, West Virginia held on to a scant 87-56 advantage with six months left to play and was never headed as it ran its home court winning streak to 35 games.

Other hardwood action involving North Carolina colleges last night saw all of them come through with victories over independent squads. An improving Elon College quint turned back the visiting McCrary Eagles of Asheboro, 38 to 34, while at Elkin Appalachian College snared two points in the final 20 seconds to defeat the Chatham Blanketeers, 55 to 54.

In a game played at Valdese, Lenoir Rhyne took the measure of the Asheville Bombers, 66 to 53. Tonight's action will have the Duke Blue Devils at Lynchburg,

Most Improved Football Teams Chosen In Poll

New York, Dec. 19—(AP)—California, Purdue and Southern Methodist are rated the most improved football teams of 1947 in the annual Associated Press season-end poll of writers, coaches and athletic directors. The same group tabbed Ohio State and Iowa as the greatest disappointments.

Rated on the basis of recovery after a shaky start, the honors would have gone to North Carolina, Oregon and Alabama which finished strong. But the poll was conducted with the idea of comparing final results with pre-season expectations.

Lynn Waldorf, coaching the California Bears for the first time, walked into a tough job. The team lost seven of nine starts in 1946. In a complete reversal of form by many of the same players, California won nine of 10, losing only to Southern Cal., the Pacific Coast Conference champions, 39-14.

Pro Football Moguls Meet For Player Draft

Pittsburgh Dec. 19—(AP)—The Steel City became the professional football center of the country today as National Football League moguls poured in for their annual player draft scramble.

There's an outside chance some other matter will come up at the meeting, slated to begin at 6 p.m. (EST) but Commissioner Bert Bell says he isn't looking for too much action except in the player mart here the 10 clubs will each select 30 draftees.

"Everything we conceivably could take action on requires unanimous consent and we're going to be busy for hours drafting these college boys," Bell declared. "Of course you never know what will happen."

All of the owners are expected except big George Marshall who's had little success this year with his hapless Washington Redskins. Bell said Marshall would name a proxy to act for him in all matters.

The Redskins through a rule which permits the 10 clubs to participate in a lottery to choose a "special" player in the draft, came through with a winner. They promptly tabbed Halfback HARRY Gilmer of Alabama as their "special."

Pittsburgh's Steelers, who meet Philadelphia here Sunday in a play-off for the eastern title, are in a nice spot as far as the draft is concerned. In a deal which sent Bill Dudley to the Detroit Lions the Steelers got the right to the first choice made by the Detroit team while the Michigan outfit has the No. 2 selection in the first round. The Dudley deal also gave the Steelers the right to Bob Chappuis, flashy Michigan halfback who was drafted last year by the Lions when he was a junior.

Welterweights Clash Tonight

fresh memories of Joe Louis' recent near-upset stirred Detroit's fight populace to high pitch today for the Ray Robinson-Chuck Taylor welterweight title scrap here tonight.

Louis, Sugar Ray's hero, will be at the ringside. He will be pulling for the 147-pound king to defend his crown with more aplomb than the heavyweight ruler had against Jersey Joe Walcott earlier this month.

Clear Weather For Rose Bowl

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 19—(AP)—Clear weather for the University of Southern California-Michigan football game in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1 is forecast by Dr. Irving P. Krick, meteorologist for the California Institute of Technology.

Dr. Krick, head of a world-wide long range weather forecasting service, said that rain is probable between Dec. 28 and Dec. 30, but that the field should be dried out before New Year's Day.

Lose Halfback For Bowl Game

College Park, Md., Dec. 19—(AP)—Maryland's chances against Georgia in the Gator Bowl game at Jacksonville New Year's Day received a fresh setback when Hubie Werner, a potent Terp halfback, was declared "out" of the bowl contest because of a leg injury.

The old injury has plagued Werner during most of the season. He banged it up again last week, and doctors say it won't be healed in time for the big game.

Arrest Negroes Charged With Highway Robbery
Macon Waller, 40, and Alex Waller, 24, his brother, Negroes and former convicts, who are charged with highway robbery of James Dall, white taxicab driver of Farmville on the night of December 12, were apprehended at Morehead City today by State Highway Patrolman Ernest Guthrie and Police Chief L. T. Lucas and returned to Farmville.

State Highway Patrol Cpl. John Lantry said the Waller brothers held up Dall in his taxicab in Farmville with a pistol, compelled him to drive them to Ayden, robbed him of $45, and then got out of the taxi near Ayden, and at the point of the pistol forced Dall to drive away. The Wallers will be given preliminary hearing in Farmville Police Court.

FARM BUREAU RESOLUTIONS
Price Supports And Aid For Farmers Urged By Federation
Chicago, Dec. 19—(AP)—Retention of price supports and other government aids for the nation's farmers is urged by the American Farm Bureau Federation in resolutions approved at the organization's annual meeting. An effective national farm program, the federation said at the final session of its four-day convention yesterday, "is essential in order to maintain agriculture on a basis of economic equality with industry, labor and other segments of our industry."

In a statement on "farm program," the federation said "we do not believe that an entirely new and revolutionary farm program should be written, but rather that we should continue our efforts to refining and improving the present program."
"We must not allow the existing national prosperity to lull us into a false sense of security, nor confuse our thinking, nor delay our work on a long-range agricultural program. We cannot tolerate again a collapse of our agricultural economy such as occurred after World War I, when for 20 years thereafter farm prices were at a disparity with prices paid by farmers."
In the federation's statement of policy on "national and international issues," the big farm group went on record favoring the retention of the present parity formula with adjustments among the various agricultural products according to the price relationships which existed between the various products on the basis of a 10-year moving average.

Religion
alter a trip to the Soviet Union he delivered a lecture in highly religious Dublin on "What I Saw in Russia" and the speech produced a riot in which several people were injured. It took fifty cops to quell the disturbance.

And the moral of this story? Well, I don't think this is a spot for a layman to get categorical. However it's permissible for him to express puzzlement over how one is going to make religion and Communism mix when a cardinal tenet of the Redism is that religion is the dope of the masses and must be eradicated. That's one of the points upon which Bolshevism is most insistent. The position was well summed up recently by the Baltic review of Stockholm which quoted the Soviet minister for education in Estonia as saying:
"It is to be regretfully acknowledged that some Soviet Estonian educational establishments have neglected education in the Marxian-Leninist spirit. The result is that many pupils go to church attend confirmation classes, etc." Referring to educational systems in capitalist countries the minister said:
"This class character mainly expresses itself therein that the pupils and students are imbued with idealism religion, the spirit of reconcilia-

Ten Arabs Die In Hagana Attack

Jerusalem, Dec. 19—(AP)—Ten Arabs, including five children, were reported killed and five others were injured by bombs and gunfire today in a Jewish attack on the village of Khissas, in Upper Galilee. Jewish sources said Hagana, the Jewish underground militia, made the attack because the village was being used as a hideout for infiltrating volunteers of Fawzi Karaj's Arab "Save Palestine" army. Arab sources have said this army was moving 2,000 guerrilla fighters to join Palestine Arab forces near Nabulus.
