Wants More Data On Ed Pauley Deal

Speculation Probers Seek Information On Talks With Cabinet Members

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich.) said today his Senate committee investigating commodity speculation wants to know more about conversations Edwin W. Pauley had with two cabinet members about the time he completed a profitable market deal last August.

The committee probably will call Secretary of Agriculture Anderson and Robert E. Hannegan, until recently postmaster general and head of the Democratic National Committee, to tell of their talks with Pauley at his Hawaiian estate, Ferguson told a reporter.

He said no date has been set for reopening the Pauley angle.

Harold E. Stassen, the former governor of Minnesota now campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination, told Ferguson's appropriations subcommittee yesterday that administration leaders—including Pauley—have been in the markets to the extent of about $20,000,000 and have profited by approximately $4,000,000 since the end of the war. He said Pauley alone made $1,000,000.

Stassen said he has information on about 11 big traders in the Administration or closely related to it. "I will not name them until I am ready to back it up with positive proof," he said.

Stassen said Congress should pass a law barring all government employees from buying stocks, bonds or commodities of a speculative nature.

There is nothing illegal about such activities under present law.

Stassen declined to name the government employees who, he said, gave him the first "crucial information" which led him to name Pauley, now a special assistant to Secretary of the Army, as a speculator.

Although Pauley was not in the government last August, Stassen said, he was not only an insider but was "in the very center of the inside." Pauley took the Army Department job Sept. 3.

Stassen declared Pauley's records show that he bought 100,000 bushels of wheat last Aug. 12 and sold it at a profit of $100,000 a few days later, when Roosevelt and Hannegan were guests at his Hawaiian estate, Coconut Island.

Guessing Game Follows W. Kerr Scott's Refusal

Raleigh, Jan. 10 (AP)—A simple eight-word announcement from North Carolina's Commissioner of Agriculture, W. Kerr Scott, that "I will not be a candidate for reelection" set off speculation today about who will seek the Democratic nomination for the post in the May primaries.

Scott said he will retire to his Alamance County farm after 11 years in the job. His announcement came at the end of a dinner speech here last night in which he reviewed state agriculture progress since he assumed the job in January of 1937. The dinner was given by employees of the Agriculture Department in honor of members of the North Carolina Board of Agriculture.

Two members of the 1947 General Assembly have been mentioned as possible candidates. They are Alonzo Edwards of Hookerton, who was chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, and J. V. Whitfield of Burgaw, last chairman of the committee on Conservation and Development.

Far-Reaching Moves

Turkey And Greece Being Strengthened Militarily In View Of Communist Endeavors Throughout Balkans; Big Effort To Hold Lines Of British-American Orbit

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The "cold war" in the eastern Mediterranean suddenly has grown more tense, and the United States has made several swift moves to bolster the position of the western powers in that strategic area which Soviet Russia seeks to dominate.

Turkey and Greece — both key positions — are being strengthened militarily and the American-British Allies are supporting the Turks in their refusal to give way to Moscow's demand for control of the Dardanelles Strait between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean — one of the world's most important "choke" thoroughfares.

America is transferring to Turkey four large, powerful modern submarines which are capable of long-range operations. The U.S. Navy also is turning over to Turkey 11 gun vessels. Six gunboats go to little Greece which is battling a guerrilla army that Athens charges is being supported by the neighboring Communist states of Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania.

Other material aid is being given to both Greece and Turkey. At some 1,000 Marines have sailed for duty on ships of the American fleet in the eastern Mediterranean. Their equipment includes tanks and flamethrowers, such as might be used in landing operations and camouflaging ashore.

Devastating Flood Strikes Pacific Northwest

Flood water spreads over a section of Eugene, Ore., in the Willamette river valley where 2,000 persons have been evacuated from lowland homes. Five persons were drowned in the upper valley. Will Draft Program For UN In Holy Land

UN Palestine Partition Body To Consult With British On Date Of Withdrawal; Hope Two Nations Independent By October 1

Lake Success, Jan. 10 (AP)—The United Nations Palestine Partition Commission today faced up to the pressing problems of when it should enter the turbulent Holy Land and what it should do about measures to enforce its decisions.

Plans to emphasize their opposition to partition, are boycotting the commission.

Meeting (11 a.m. EST) in the wake of new outbreaks of Arab-Jewish violence in Palestine, the five-nation group hoped to draft a tentative program for entry into the Holy Land subject to consultations with the British on their date of withdrawal.

Present indications are that the commission will leave here some time between the first week in February and mid-March. Plans included a stop in London for conferences with high British officials, the length of the stay depending on how far the U.N. progresses in talks with the British delegation here.

The General Assembly resolution providing for partition of Palestine into Jewish and Arab countries calls for the end of British rule by Aug. 1 and independence for the two nations by Oct. 1. The British since have said unofficially they would like to get out by May 15. A final agreement on these dates will be a major factor in selecting the date for the commission to go into Palestine.

The U.N., meanwhile, went ahead with plans for its staff to accompany the commission. Announcement still was being withheld on a man to head the secretariat party but it was reported that either Secretary-General Trygve Lie himself or Assistant Secretary-General Arkady Sobolev of Russia would accompany the group.

To get the full significance of this we must take into account some other developments during the past few days. A British government source said the cabinet was deeply worried over the Greek situation. It was believed that Greece's Communist neighbors — Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria — were preparing to accord official recognition to the Communist "government" recently established in northern Greece by the guerrilla leader "General" Markos Vafiades.

The belief was held in London that the Greek guerrilla objective is the capture of Athens itself. The government source said that to allow this to happen would be to permit the virtual isolation of Turkey, the endangering of oil resources in the Middle East, perhaps the introduction of Communist influence into the countries of the Arab League, and the possible entry of the Soviet air force and navy into the eastern Mediterranean.

That's pretty strong mustard. In recognition of the gravity of the situation, both Washington and London warned Bulgaria and Yugoslavia against "grave" consequences of recognizing the new Greek Communist "government." A British official source said:

Lancers Guard Northern Border Of Holy Land

Jerusalem, Jan. 10 (AP)—British lancers of the famed "Death or Glory" regiment stood armed guard on the northern frontier of Palestine today across the headwaters of the River Jordan in what appeared to be a move to seal off the Holy Land partition battle from outside Arab attacks.

If this was an indication of British policy, it was the strongest move yet in the mounting civil war that has threatened to become international through the participation of Arab volunteer forces from Egypt, Libya, Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Syria and Lebanon who now are training in southern Syria.

Credence was given this supposition through Britain's "strong representations" to the Syrian government over yesterday's border crossing by 600 Arabs who finally were driven back by the lancers and Spitfires.

The attack, which was carried to the village of Dan Mile, appeared to be the possible beginning of a general attack by troops of the veteran Arab revolt leader Fawzi al-Kaukji who is in command of Arab volunteers in Syria.

Arab sources here scoffed at any such possibility, declaring that the hour had not yet struck.

Will Test Plane For Global Trip

Charlotte, Jan. 10 (AP)—Maj. Jean Doar, former combat pilot who hopes to set a new "round-the-world" flight record next summer, said today he will make the first test flight in his reconditioned British Mosquito plane tomorrow.

The twin-engined, plywood, high speed craft has been overhauled since Doar bought it several months ago as war surplus.

Eight Injured In Train Accident

Boston, Jan. 10 (AP)—At least eight persons were taken to a hospital and more than 50 others shaken today when the locomotive of a Providence to Boston train overturned at the Back Bay station.

First reports from the New Haven Railroad indicated 63 persons had been hospitalized but a check showed only eight persons were taken to City Hospital.

Metz, France, Jan. 10 (AP)—Five miners were killed and 40 injured today in a five-day explosion at the Vuillemin coal mine at Petite Roselle near Forbach.

Starts Monday

Inspection of motor vehicles will start at the "safety lane," on Broad street, between Center and Long streets Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

May Reduce Relief Cost

Ambassador Says Loan Repayments Are In Prospect

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Ambassador Lewis Douglas told senators today that the United States may recover through loan repayments up to $2,800,000,000 of the $6,800,000,000 proposed for the first 15 months' operation of the European Recovery Program.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) brought this out in a series of questions as Douglas continued testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the proposed four-year program known as the Marshall Plan.

Vandenberg recalled earlier testimony of State Department officials and asked Douglas whether it is true that eventual cost to the United States might "ultimately be reduced" by $1,300,000,000 to $2,800,000,000 through recovery on loans expected to be repaid under the plan.

"That is correct," Douglas assured Vandenberg. State Department officials have estimated that from 20 to 40 percent of any recovery funds advanced will be in the form of loans that may be repaid. The balance of 80 to 60 percent would be in the form of grants that would not be repaid.

'Brains' Of New Orleans Bank Bandits At Large

New Orleans, Jan. 10 (AP)—Three of the bandits who staged the biggest bank robbery in years were captured before the sun had set on their crime yesterday, but two others — described as "the brains of the outfit" — remained at large today with almost half the $114,000 loot.

Police Superintendent A. A. Walters said $65,000 was recovered after arrest of the three, leaving $49,000 in the hands of the two "brains."

In view of the remarkably clever handling of the robbery and in light of the daring arrogance of the missing bandits, officers said the pair might have climbed aboard an interurban bus, lugging in a suitcase their share of the haul.

Babson Further Discusses 1948

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—In addition to my formal forecasts which were in this newspaper last week, I now want to add something for readers to think over.

General Outlook As heretofore stated, 1948 will be largely the year of the eye-wash variety and not fundamental cures. It is sound legislation to allocate materials to the more important industries. Doubtless certain allocations will be instituted during 1948. It also would help to reduce taxes so as to force people to leave the government employ and to produce. The only solution for inflation, however, is to discourage consumption and encourage production. Unfortunately, when the government attempts to decrease consumption, people get panicky and increase their purchases, while controls tend to reduce production.

All Government attempts to interfere with the basic laws of supply and demand fail in their purpose. The only cure for rising prices is to let them rise to a point where production will be so profitable that it will be in excess of demand. This causes an abrupt decline in prices and in employment also. This cure is unpopular politically, and we will not see it before November 2, 1948. Beyond allocating materials and reducing taxes, the only fundamental cures which the Government can provide are: (1) putting an embargo on exports, (2) suspending the agricultural price supports, (3) freezing wages and profits, (4) freezing interest rates.

What About Inflation? During 1948 there will be much talk in Washington about "checking

Agreement Reached In Oil Tie-Up

All-Night Negotiations Result In Terms; Much Outside Pressure Felt

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—The government's mediation service announced today an agreement has been reached in the 10-day Texas City, Tex., oil refinery strike to return 1,400 idle workers back to their jobs tomorrow.

The settlement terms, calling for a 12-cent per hour wage boost, must be ratified by the CIO Oil Workers' Union membership tonight.

However, a spokesman for the federal mediation and conciliation service directed by Cyrus S. Ching said:

"We feel sure the agreement will be ratified because the international officers of the union and its negotiating committee approved the terms and said they were confident it will be ratified."

The strike at the Pan-American Refinery and Pipeline Company plant had tied up millions of gallons of fuel oil destined for the nation's east coast, which was short of fuel even before the walkout began.

Protests and appeals for an end to the strike had rolled in to Washington officials from almost every state on the eastern seaboard.

"We have never had a strike case like this one in pressure upon by interested persons for something to be done," one veteran government conciliator said privately.

The settlement terms were worked out in Galveston, Tex., at 6 a.m. CST, today at a union-company meeting which began just after noon yesterday. They call for retention of a 22-cent cost of living allowance which had been granted the workers a year ago, with the 12-cent boost on top of that.

The CIO union had originally asked for a 28-cent wage increase in addition to the 22-cent allowance.

President Gives Budget Preview For Newsmen

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—President Truman called newsmen to a seminar today on the budget for the 1949 fiscal year beginning July 1 which he will send to Congress Monday.

The budget is expected to call for expenditures of around $40,000,000,000 compared with the President's request for $37,500,000,000 last year. Mr. Truman arranged to have Budget Director James Webb present to answer reporters' questions about the complicated document.

WILL ENFORCE LAW

Trieste, Free Territory, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Allied Military Government informed Communists today it would enforce rigidly the law forbidding unauthorized demonstrations and the wearing of uniforms in the British-American zone.

Further questions indicated he believed he had broken into an ammunition depot to get a case of shells, which was about the same size of the radio he was charged with stealing.

"Dr. Conn agreed that patients under hypnotic examination may sometimes falsify, exaggerate and withhold information, but he added that further tests convinced him the diagnosis in this case was correct.

Judge Joseph Sherbow and Assistant State's Attorney William J. O'Donnell agreed that the state could forget about the charge.

The judge made treatment at a veterans' facility a condition on dismissing the charge.

Demos Hunt New Manager For Election Races

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Congressional Democrats are sizing up half a dozen prospects for the job of managing the campaign to elect more party members to House seats next year.

The chairmanship of the congressional Democratic Campaign Committee, an important party post in an election year, is vacant because of the death of Rep. Patrick Drewry of Virginia.

Some Democrats are talking about choosing a successor from among four men who were mentioned when Drewry was thinking about giving it up.

They are: Reps. Albert Gore of Tennessee, Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Harry R. Sheppard of California, and Michael J. Kirwan of Ohio. All except Gore, a five-term member, have served six terms in the House.

Burned Money Is Replaced By New

Statesville, Jan. 10 (AP)—Proprietors of a Statesville grocery store were in a sense, richer by $3,250 today. At least they might have been out that much thanks to a pre-Christmas trash disposal.

Wade A. Drum, a partner in the store, reported yesterday he had received a U. S. Treasury check for that amount, covering in full the $3,250 in cash that fell into a waste basket and was burned with trash. The charred cash was replaced with new money by the Treasury's current redemption division.

Handling Of ERP Under Senate Fire

Preliminary Sum And State Department's Proposed Handling Criticized By High Ranking Senators Of Both Parties

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Both the $6,800,000,000 total for the first 15 months of the Marshall Plan and the way the State Department wants to run it came under powerful criticism in the Senate today.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Foreign Relations Committee complained that the administration has failed to suggest a business-like operating system "in which the American people have confidence."

Without that, he declared, "you are sunk without a trace." Senator George (D-Ga.), ranking Democrat on the committee and its former chairman, objected to any "all or nothing" stand by the State Department on the request for funds to get the program under way.

He said that if Congress should decide to cut the initial appropriation to an even $6,000,000,000 for instance, "I don't think it would matter."

The two senators made their feelings known late yesterday during testimony in favor of the administration plan by Lewis W. Douglas, ambassador to England. Douglas was recalled for further questioning today, with Secretary of Commerce Harriman scheduled as next witness.

Vandenberg's comment yesterday came while Douglas was explaining how the big problem would be entrusted to a new special agency operating under "direction and control" of the State Department.

Vandenberg remarked that many Americans "have a feeling that the administration of foreign grants in aid since the war has been pretty sterile of results."

He said the Marshall Plan needs a "new element of business operation" which is "lacking in the bill you submitted."

George then objected to the "technical" nature of the proposal which he said was being used in arguing for the bill.

Release Veteran After Report By Psychiatrist

Baltimore, Jan. 10 (AP)—A court psychiatrist's report that a veteran of South Pacific fighting believed he was getting ammunition for his buddies when he broke into a shop and stole a radio resulted in the release of the ex-GI.

Dr. Jacob H. Conn testified Wilbur Shattuck's "anxiety hysteria" was established through hypnosis and the use of the "truth serum."

Dr. Conn told the court the 32-year-old veteran of the Bougainville campaign under hypnosis writhed around, slapping at imaginary flies and mosquitoes, muttered "vines . . . vines" and talked about comrades blown to bits in the next foxhole.

When one of the examining psychiatrists mentioned a truck, Shattuck blurted, "They need ammo. I took a truck x x x got ammo," the psychiatrist said.

Further questions indicated he believed he had broken into an ammunition depot to get a case of shells, which was about the same size of the radio he was charged with stealing.

"Dr. Conn agreed that patients under hypnotic examination may sometimes falsify, exaggerate and withhold information, but he added that further tests convinced him the diagnosis in this case was correct.

Drives For Eisenhower Nomination

Senator Says New Hampshire Wants General For Republican Candidate

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Senator Tobey (R-NH) declared today "nobody" can stop a campaign to line up New Hampshire's eight votes for the Republican presidential nomination behind Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower — "not even the general himself."

Tobey said he thinks Eisenhower has a "good chance" to win out in a convention delegate battle with supporters of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Harold E. Stassen in New Hampshire's primary election March 9.

Eight of the first 17 to file for election as delegates yesterday were pledged for Eisenhower, two for Dewey and one for Stassen. The filing deadline is a month away.

Tobey told a reporter he may make some speeches in the state for an Eisenhower slate of delegates. Among those who filed yesterday was the senator's son Charles Tobey Jr.

The senator, at the same time, was elected as a member of the board of directors of the Draft Eisenhower League, with headquarters in New York.

Eisenhower, ill at home with a cold, made no comment on the developments, which projected him more forcefully than ever before into political discussions along with two other top ranking wartime military leaders.

Senator Chavez (D-NM) brought the name of Secretary of State Marshall — who preceded Eisenhower as chief of directors of the political arm with the declaration yesterday that he is supporting Marshall "and no one else" for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

There were indications that some of Marshall's friends were not pleased by Chavez's suggestion, since it comes at a time when the secretary is asking Congress for bipartisan approval of his plan for economic aid to Europe.

Republicans have speculated that nomination of Eisenhower might be answered by Democratic action to name Marshall on the opposite ticket with President Truman. Some Democrats have denounced saying the cabinet member has more political value as secretary of state than as a vice presidential candidate.

Some 5,200 combat knives originally made for the U.S. Navy and a quantity of first-aid kits also were found in the warehouse.

The freeze order was described by John R. Campbell, WAA regional director, as a "precautionary measure" against "any possible illegal handling of explosives, in cooperation with the normal police powers of local and federal governments.

No Request Yet For Marines To Guard Consulate

Jerusalem, Jan. 10 (AP)—The Marines have not landed yet in Palestine and no call has been sent for them, authoritative sources said today.

Sources close to the consular corps in Jerusalem said a delegation representing all consulates had asked the Palestine government for protection in the Arab-Jewish strife, adding:

"If you can't protect us, what is your attitude toward our providing our own guards?"

An Arab office statement in London yesterday, obviously stemming from Arab consulates here translated that into a call for the Marines.

So fervent were the feelings last night that Arabs along the coast practically rushed to the beaches to watch the Marines wade ashore. Diplomatic informants here, however, reiterated that no specific request was made by any consulate for permission to bring specific troops.

On Making Speeches

An Expert Claims It's Really Difficult To Make A Poor Speech; Lists Rules For Making A Mess Out Of A Talk Here's A Rough Outline Of The Expert's Idea

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Jan. 10 (AP)—Here's some help if you want to make a total mess of yourself when you get up to make a speech.

It seems that speaking well is pretty easy but speaking poorly requires plenty of work.

Dr. Harold P. Harding, an expert on good speaking, had just written a piece called "Principles of Poor Speaking."

It's carried this month in the Scientific Monthly magazine. In it, Dr. Harding says:

"Contrary to popular opinion, it is fairly easy to write or to speak well. But writing poorly and speaking poorly are really difficult."

Instead of outlining the things you should do to be a good speaker, Dr. Harding twists it the other way around.

Just to show poor speaking is really a tough job, Dr. Harding lists a whole gang of rules a speaker should follow if he wants to be terrible.

From here on it's all Dr. Harding: Don't prepare a speech until the night before. Better, don't prepare it at all. Just go in and try to talk off the cuff.

Right at the start hit the audience with three or four new words and mispronounce them. This will make you look pretty bright.

Strength FOR THE DAY

FACE THE FACTS OF A NEW DAY

Students of modern life are constantly reminding us that we are experiencing a social revolution. The world about us is changing at remarkable speed. The masses of the world are arising to demand their rights. To many people, this is a movement of such an alarming nature that they are liable to see in it nothing but destructive forces busily demolishing the framework of civilization.

The plain truth of the matter is that through all recorded history the dirty jobs of life have been ill paid and the pleasant employments have been well paid. The people who have never been given very many rewards in this life, while those who have done brain work or have inherited money have often had a disproportionate share of life's good things. What we are experiencing today is the demand, backed up at last with effective power, that the dollar be redivided with the view of giving the fellow who handles the dirty job a better chance of fair reward than he has had in the past.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

Washington—Scottish Dr. Peter Marshall, chaplain of the U.S. Senate, is a man of few words. His prayers at each day's opening sessions last not more than two or three minutes.

A recent example: "Forgive us all that we talk too much and think too little. Forgive us all that we worry so often and pray so seldom."

The tall good-looking clergyman, who is also pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, says that as far as he knows there is no "directive" for what his prayer before the Senate should be.

"The prayer," he says, "is an expression of the needs we all feel. He tries to key the words he offers as much as possible to the problems confronting the law-makers."

On the opening of the special session called by President Truman last November he prayed: "O God, our Father, we pray for Thy wisdom and Thy guidance for the members of this body as they meet in this troubled hour to consider what this nation should do about hunger that knows no politics and want that will not wait."

"We cannot escape history. That we have found out. May we also discover that we cannot evade responsibility. By Thy Holy Spirit awaken the conscience of America that our people may be willing to put humanity first."

The chaplain says he is not disappointed by the small number of senators present to bow their heads as he delivers the prayers before the Senate roll call.

"They know they are being prayed for, not only in the Senate, but by the whole people," he says.

He prayed recently that the faith of the senators in the efficacy of prayer be kept strong. There are times, he says, when guidance asked in difficult decisions "has not always come when we thought it should come."

"Forgive us for thinking, therefore, that Thou art unwilling to help us in our dilemma, or that Thou art nothing. Thou canst do," he asked.

"Remind us, Our Father, that when we plug in an electric iron and it fails to work, we do not conclude that electricity has lost its power, nor do we plead with the iron."

Dr. Marshall says he doesn't believe "God has any political affiliations."

Dr. Marshall was born in Cumberland, Scotland, speaks with a soft burr. His first two pastorates were in Atlanta, where he lived nine years before coming to Washington to be pastor of the Presbyterian church which Abraham Lincoln attended. The Republicans elected him chaplain a year ago.

It is estimated that the number of teachers in U. S. elementary and high schools dropped from 297,000 in 1941 to 255,000 in 1946-48.

Dr. Topping Guest Speaker At Kiwanis Supper Meeting

By CHESTER WALSH

Rev. Leonard Topping, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, guest speaker at the Kiwanis Club's weekly supper meeting last night, made a good impression on the 75 or 80 representative men with an interesting after-dinner speech on "Creative Living." "There are many pathways to creative living, and we have great opportunities to create good will and make a worthwhile contribution to our day, and thereby make our own lives stronger," he said.

Roy Coburn had charge of the program and introduced the speaker. President Nathan C. Brooks presided.

El Bloom led the singing of Kiwanis songs, with Mrs. Ray Tyson as accompanist. Claude Ward and Roy Coburn had birthdays and contributed a nickel for each year of their age to the Underprivileged Child Fund. The president recognized Kiwanian Bill Taft as the new president of the Merchants Association and the members gave him a good hand. W. H. Woolard and Hunter Heck, who were absent the night officers and directors were installed, were installed last night.

Arthur B. Corey was awarded an emblem for not missing a meeting last year.

President Brooks will be host at supper for the officers and directors at their first meeting of the year at the Airport Inn on Wednesday night, January 21, at 7 o'clock.

R. W. (Ship) Shipleit, manager of the Waldensian Bakery, will be program chairman next Friday.

want the Federal Government to shut off the exports of our goods, to suspend price support of our products, to freeze our wages or profits, to raise the rate of interest which we are paying, — or to discharge some relative of ours whom we must support, — even although these things would be for the good of the nation as a whole. Hence, I again say, — "only a spiritual awakening can prevent another severe bust."

Political Leaders Lack Courage
Members of Congress and the Administration know what to do. Chairman Eyles of the Federal Reserve Board has given Congress excellent advice, as reported in the morning papers of November 26. These recommendations, however, are unpopular. Even Congressmen are putting their own selfish desires ahead of the nation's good.

Congressmen are fearful of labor leaders. They are fearful of veterans, thus, unwilling to take a courageous stand on housing and rents. They are fearful of the bankers, in fact, of all pressure groups in Washington. Hence, 1948 will witness more or less of a do-nothing Congress. I visualize that economic conditions will continue about as at present during 1948; but as a fever is necessary to cure many diseases, so economic distress seems necessary to bring people to their senses and to their knees.

J. Con Lanier Speaker At BPW Meeting

The Business and Professional Woman's Club held its regular dinner meeting at the Woman's club Thursday night at seven o'clock.

The president, Mrs. J. B. Spillman, presided. The meeting was opened by singing "America" and the invocation was given by Mrs. W. R. Jones.

Mrs. Spillman welcomed the new members and guests and it was announced that the club has reached 100 paid members which was one of the goals of the president for the year.

The minutes were read by the club secretary, Mrs. Ruel Tyson and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Margaret Williams.

At this time the program was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. Verona B. Langford, who in turn recognized the chairman of the Legislative Committee, Miss Ada Jones, who introduced the speaker for the evening, The speaker was Mr. J. Con Lanier, executive secretary of the Leaf Tobacco Exporters, Inc. He declared: "The heart of America lies in the hands of the civic clubs of our nation. The need at the present time is great for intelligent direction as to where and how we are going as a nation. 1948 will be most crucial year Americans have ever known. The world is lining up with two ideologies—these are Democracy and Communism. The battle between these two are as active now as a shooting war."

He stated, "There is a plan to spend from six to ten billion dollars a year for the rehabilitation of the European countries. The plan is to run for four years. It will cost our nation forty billion dollars for these countries to have or be given a government of democracy." The six-teen countries to receive aid through the plan are namely—Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Ireland, France, Italy, Greece, Sweden, Luxembourg, Turkey, United Kingdom, Iceland, Switzerland, The Netherlands, Norway, Portugal. Some of these countries this money will be a loan for some will repay—to others it will be a gift.

Mr. Lanier closed by stating that every American citizen should keep in mind the preservation of the freedom of action, freedom from overhead influence of America and let our representative in Congress know what we want. They want to know what to do.

ting tight and saying little, but for some time there have been signs of anxiety in government circles over developments both in the Balkans to the north, and in the Middle East, to the south. Some observers in Turkey say one of that country's greatest fears in the Mid-East crisis is that it might provide an opportunity for Russia to send troops to Palestine to "preserve order." That would sanction the Turks between the Soviet troops of the north and of the south.

The British Foreign Office also is said to attach more importance to a recent speech by Turkish Foreign Minister Sadiak, who was quoted as saying that the constitution of political blocs didn't affect his country, which remained faithful to only one bloc—the United Nations. Many British observers interpreted this as meaning that Turkey believes Russia is determined to attain long-term security and that the only way of avoiding catastrophe is to come to terms with Moscow.

Whether that represents Turkey's real feeling remains to be seen. We know that her heart is with the Western Allies and that she will stick with them as long as possible. Certainly she is in a most difficult and dangerous position.

Green Phantoms Route Edenton, 53-36 Margin

By SAM NORTROP
Finding themselves after two losses, the Flying Phantoms of Greenville High School ran roughshod over the Edenton Aces 53-36 last night in the GHS gym.

A zone defense employed by the G-Men kept the Aces behind the foul line all night, forcing them to resort completely to set shots. Perkins and Minshew controlled the backboards throughout the game.

The Farleyens started off like a house-afire and were never in danger. Commanding a 30-14 half-time lead and a 50-30 lead at the end of the third period, Coach Farley sed his reserves throughout the final stanza.

Joe Alligood, a little set shot demon, and Gynn Perkins who connected several times on his famous hook shot led the Green Men to their victory. The line-up: Alligood, 15; Minshew, 11; Hardee; Proctor; Edwards; Ward; Centers; Perkins, 16; Smith, 2; Andrade; Guards: Cox, 6; Sawyer, 2; Poesy, 1; Jones; Farley; Flemings; Bland.

The G-Men travel to Wilson next Wednesday for a non-conference contest and then return home for games Friday and Tuesday with Tarboro and Roanoke Rapids respectively. The Yellow Jackets, undefeated in 3 games, average over six feet in height.

Midgets Triumph Over Edenton

By WAYNE SMILEY
Through the Midget Phantoms came through with a convincing victory over Edenton's Aces last night in the Greenville High gym, as they won by the score of 34 to 13.

The game started off as if it was going to be a one-sided affair and Greenville was ahead at the end of the first quarter 8-2. Big Sidney Briley made six of these points on beautiful hook shots.

Eddie Farley, small guard, came through with his best game of the season as he connected for six points and played a beautiful floor game.

Guy Smith, fast breaking guard, scored four points in his first game of the season. He is looking good and may prove to be the one Coach Kittrell has been looking for to fill in one of his guard spots.

Scoring honors go to Sidney Briley, the big fellow who is gaining himself a name for his hook shots. Boys seeing action for Greenville: Eddie Farley (6), Guy Smith Jr (4), Joe Rowland, Jimmy Cheat-ham, Tommy Cox, Sidney Briley (12), Sellers Crisp, Billy Wooten (2), Glenn Scott (2), Tom Smoot (2), Jake Higgs, Fletcher Murray, Donald Tucker (2), Connie Singleton (2) and Sam Hus (2). Edenton: Dobson, Harless, Boswell, Copeland, Hines, Eason (3), Gardner (8) and Griffin (2).

Speculate As To Successor For Harvard Coach

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 10—(AP)—Just as inevitably as high tide follows low tide, speculation rose today over a successor to the ailing Dick Harlow who yesterday resigned as Harvard football coach.

Banded about by those so conjecturing were four former Harlow assistants who now are head coaches themselves.

They are Howie Odell of Yale who also is reported interested in a University of Washington proposition, Wes Fesler of Ohio State, Skip Stahley of George Washington U., and Earl Brown of Calisius.

Tossed by others the names of Biff Glassford who has lost only three games, one post season Bowl affair, in two years at New Hampshire; Dr. Eddie Anderson, former Holy Cross mentor who recently offered to resign at Iowa, Lou Little of Columbia, and Herb Kopf, likable and able gridiron strategist whose last portfolio was over an under-manned Boston professional varsity squad.

New York Giants Sign Pitchers And Catchers

New York, Jan. 10—(AP)—The New York Giants today announced the signing of pitchers Ray Post, Bill Ayers and Joe Beggs, catchers Ben Warren and Sal Yvars and infielder Bobby Blattner to 1948 contracts. Seventeen Giants now have agreed to terms.

Post won four and lost three for the National League club after his purchase from Baltimore of the International League where he won 11 and lost seven. Ayers dropped three games for the Giants in early season before he was shipped to their Jersey City farm where he compiled a 7-4 record.

Beggs, acquired from Cincinnati in early season, was ineffective because of arm trouble, but reports indicate he will be ready for steady relief duty next summer.

Potential Tops In Conference Continue To Win

Richmond, Va., Jan. 10—(AP)—Picked as potential powers in the Southern Conference, three teams continued to play up to expectations last night as they turned back member foes.

North Carolina State, George Washington and North Carolina are the trio which extended sterling records against conference opposition.

Slated to repeat as champions of the southern loop the North Carolina State five easily defeated Davidson, 72-39, as they turned on scoring power in the second half to pull out of the Wildcats' reach; George Washington, playing on its home court, had little trouble turning back Clemson, 79-67, to continue a successful campaign.

The Tar Heels ran their string of consecutive victories to ten at the expense of Virginia Tech, making its debut in circuit play for the season. The victory, gained as Tech's shifting zone defense leaked was a 39-31 affair and the third win in conference play for North Carolina.

Plans are underway for a chemical plant at Carthage, Texas, which will convert natural gas, of which there is an almost unlimited supply, into gasoline, diesel oil, and dozens of chemical products.

Swedish Champ Is Outpointed By Joey Maxim

New York, Jan. 10—(AP)—The heavyweight picture wasn't brightened by the Ole Tandberg-Joey Maxim fight in Madison Square Garden last night.

Ole can't fight and Maxim can't punch.

A golden opportunity was offered to both and they both missed the cue even though the Cleveland war a split decision.

Joe Louis' regime is tottering and aging Jerry Walcott is the top contender. If ever a spot was open for a young, honest-to-goodness heavyweight it was last night.

But Tandberg, the tall, blond Swede who leaped to short-lived fame with his upset victory over Joe Baksi in Stockholm last summer, counted himself out of the picture in 30 brief fighting minutes.

He exhibited nothing but a willingness to try. He carried no guns and if he had them, he showed he wouldn't know how to use them. He was crude and slow.

As for Maxim, he was cute as ever, hooking away with both hands and scoring at close quarters. Out-weighted 29 pounds, 208 to 179, Maxim handled Tandberg like a big rubber doll. He hooked him and jabbed him and he spun him around. But few of his punches carried any steam. Tandberg was wide open and might have been belted out by a harder hitting heavy.

A crowd of 10,488 who contributed to a gross gate of $43,670 booed the bout at intervals. Much of the fight was fought at close quarters.

An ever bigger roar of disapproval went up when Judge Charley Snotwell's card was read. He favored Tandberg, 5-4-1. Referee Eddie Joseph and Judge George Lecron gave it to Maxim, 7-3 each. The Associated Press scorecard gave it to Maxim, 7-2-1.

Grimesland Man Victim Highway Robbers Friday

By CHESTER WALSH
A woman standing near a car parked on the shoulder of the highway one mile below Grimesland last night about 9 o'clock, flagged a signal of distress to a passing motorist and when he stopped his car two men with pistols held him up and robbed him of his wallet containing $21, State Highway Patrol Cpl John Laws reported today. The investigating officers have no clue.

Roy Stokes, a farmer who lives near Grimesland, told patrolmen that a woman standing by the car parked on the shoulder of the highway hailed him as though in distress; that when he stopped to render assistance, she asked him to fasten the hood of her car; that while he was latching it she got back into her car, and that two white men came from behind the car with pistols and robbed him, and that they then ordered him to get into his own car and "get going."

Patrolmen quoted Stokes as saying that he had no idea who the highway robbers were.
