Says Pauley Had 'Inside' Knowledge

Stassen Charges Huge Profits Due To Statement By Sec. Anderson

Washington, Jan. 23—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen declared today that Edwin W. Pauley made $40,175 profit on two grain transactions following a speech by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson which depressed the market.

Stassen told a Senate appropriations subcommittee inquiring into Pauley's trading that Pauley took advantage of an "off the cuff" talk by Anderson on Sept. 19 in which Anderson said that grain prices were not realistic.

"These statements, which of course were not correct, caused a temporary drop in grain prices," Stassen said.

The bulk of the Pauley profits which Stassen traced to the Anderson talk came from the purchase of 100,000 bushels of wheat. Stassen said he held it for nine days and reaped a profit of $33,475.

He also bought 100,000 bushels of oats futures on the same day, Sept. 22, and sold it Nov. 12 at a profit of $6,700, Stassen asserted.

He said the purchases followed closely an informal talk by Anderson at Chicago in which he said that "if the public finally becomes aware of the facts about this year's wheat crop, the bottom would drop out of the market."

Stassen quoted Anderson as saying "we've plenty of wheat."

Three days later after prices had dropped as a result of Anderson's remarks, Stassen continued, Pauley made his purchases.

"In the following week," he continued, "the United States Department of Agriculture purchased an extraordinary amount of wheat in the amount of $2,963,000 bushels, which compared to an average purchase of only $500,000 bushels for the preceding six weeks."

"That same week the United States Department of Agriculture purchased 37,000,000 pounds of flour compared with an average purchase of 13,000,000 pounds of flour the preceding six weeks."

"The next week, following the United States Department of Agriculture purchase of 1,295,000 bushels of oats which was the first oats purchased for 18 weeks."

"As a result the price of grains climbed sharply."

Forsyth Tobacco Growers Endorse 28 Per Cent Cut

Winston-Salem, N.C., Jan. 23—(AP)—Message to North Carolina congressmen and U.S. Department of Agriculture officials had been sent today by 80 Forsyth County farmers who are opposed to changing the 28 percent cut for the 1948 tobacco acreage allotment.

Meeting at the courthouse here, the farmers voted unanimously for the 28 percent cut. They messaged their representatives that "we see no substantial change in the tobacco picture since quotas were announced. Overwhelming sentiment of this section is that a drastic cut is necessary to maintain a fair price in 1948 and future years."

Directors of the Forsyth County Farm Bureau also have voted to oppose efforts that are being made to reduce the cut to a "less drastic cut" in the year's acreage.

A third of those new homes you see are heated by oil and those shining new trains streaking across the country are powered by oil.

The petroleum industry says this huge demand wasn't expected. Cuts with unprecedented gasoline demands, it overtaxed inadequate pipelines, tanker fleets and other distribution facilities. Industry spokesmen point out that:

(1) While distillate fuel oil production reached a record 7,496,000 barrels last week, 42 percent of the 5,271,000 barrels in the corresponding week last year;

(2) And while kerosene output rose to 2,489,000 barrels, compared with 2,326,000 a year ago;

(3) At the same time, there were 745,269 more homes with oil burners this year than last;

(4) And more Diesel locomotives: 90 percent of the orders by railroads are for this type of locomotive.

Crude oil output is at the record high of 5,326,137 barrels daily, and refineries are working near capacity—at times in excess of rated capacity.

But record production hasn't met the unexpectedly high demand. The New York State fuel coordinator estimates his state's fuel oil supply still shows "an apparent deficit of approximately 30 per cent."

The Army admits to Story Of 'Shanghai'd' GI

Washington, Jan. 23—(AP)—A youthful Scot mistaken for an American GI was shipped "home" from England in 1946 and discharged with a pocketful of cash, the Army acknowledged today.

An official statement said the records show that "Fred Phillip Bast," who says he is better known in Glasgow as Alistair Nicholson, never was "legally inducted or enlisted" into the Army.

Eisenhower Flatly Asserts He Will Not Be Candidate

Washington, Jan. 23—(AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower said flatly today: "I am not available for and could not accept nomination to high political office."

The army chief of staff's statement referred to entry of his name in the New Hampshire presidential primary March 9.

"I," wrote Leonard V. Finder, publisher of the Manchester Union-Leader, that for two reasons he had heretofore "refrained from making the bald statement that I would not accept nomination."

The first, Eisenhower said, was that such an expression would "smack of effrontery."

A second and deeper reason, the general added, was a "persistent doubt that I could phrase a flat refusal without appearing to violate that concept of duty to country which calls upon every good citizen to place no limitations upon his readiness to serve in any designated capacity."

In this connection, Eisenhower said it is his conviction that "unless an individual feels some inner compulsion and special qualifications to enter the political arena—which I do not—a refusal to do so involves no violation of the highest standards of devotion to duty," he continued.

"It was only the possible misinterpretation of my attitude that caused me concern and so long as I could believe that mere denial of political ambition would prevent serious misunderstanding and misdirected effort, I was reluctant to say more."

Only yesterday some of his supporters announced they would make an effort to put him in the California primary, also scheduled for May.

Eisenhower has been regarded as a leading "dark horse" for the 1948 Republican nomination for many months.

Washington, Jan. 23—(AP)—The CIO split wide open, but only politically, today over Henry Wallace's third party bid for the presidency.

The executive board of the labor organization which gave solid support to Roosevelt to a fourth term in 1944 voted 33 to 11 to reject Wallace's entry into the 1948 campaign as "politically unwise."

And the dissenting group—representing about 1,250,000 of the organization's claimed 4,000,000 membership—gave every indication of plugging for Wallace anyway.

Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's Union and leader of the so-called left-wing element which opposed the anti-Wallace resolution, told reporters the Democrats won't stand "the chance of a snowball in hell" of electing President Truman in November.

The three top runners in the campaign—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, and former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota—apparently have given a great deal of thought to the possibility that they might knock each other out to the advantage of an outsider.

But strategists for each of the three denied in separate interviews that there is any combination in prospect.

Taft and Dewey supporters say frankly that there is no common ground on which they can compromise. Both men want to be president.

Relief Campaign Plans Completed

All is in readiness for the collecting of overseas relief materials here on Sunday, Jan. 25th, Chairman Charles White said today as he made last-minute announcements relative to plans for the general drive.

All persons making donations are asked to leave them on the front door steps of their homes or leave them at their church and they will be picked up Sunday afternoon Jan. 25th beginning 1:30 o'clock.

Gifts of clothing from Greenville will help ease the bitter struggle which millions of Europeans and Asiatics face day by day to keep alive. "Ships Full of Friendship," such as that planned by North Carolina, can be the anchoring points for world peace.

Residents who have not made preparation for their giving on Sunday, Jan. 25th are urged to go through their closets and linen closets and pick out the items which they do not actually need. Kitchen utensils, household and carpenter tools, sewing materials and the children's toys might also be culled, for the items that are seldom used here, are daily necessities in the lands shattered by war.

An official statement said the records show that "Fred Phillip Bast," who says he is better known in Glasgow as Alistair Nicholson, never was "legally inducted or enlisted" into the Army.

He received a discharge, however, a year ago last Dec. 9 at Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

The Army said it is still trying to find out exactly what happened.

The Army statement last night said the discharge was based on a temporary service record filled out in the European theater from statements "East" made under oath.

Pledge Full Support To Foreign Aid

Washington, Jan. 23—(AP)—Spokesmen for labor and industry groups pledged full support to the Marshall Plan for European recovery today but asked congress to insert some restrictions on its operation.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, urged "early and favorable action upon legislation authorizing the European recovery program."

Curtis E. Calder said the National Association of Manufacturers is in "complete accord" with purposes of ERP.

Both appeared before the senate foreign relations committee which is considering the $6,800,000,000 request for the first 16 months operation of the four year program along with the State Department's plan for its operation.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) said it was "very significant that spokesmen for organized industry and organized labor should find common ground this morning in behalf of the fundamental objective of ERP."

"It is a coincidence that ought to be underscored," Vandenberg said. He added that there are "legitimate grounds" for disagreement about details of operation and other aspects of the program.

Calder drew some critical comments from Senator Connally (D-Tex) when he said the NAM wants a "separate government agency or board" created along the lines of a big business corporation to administer the program.

Green made two proposals: 1. He suggested that labor representatives be sent to each of the 16 European nations to help foster "free trade unions" and oppose the Communist fifth column.

2. He also asked that "American ships manned by American seamen be given the preference in transporting relief supplies from the United States."

Communications and industrial plants in 26 cities and scores of towns were idle. The strike call had excluded workers for the military government and military establishments, switchboard operators, police employers and workers in hospitals.

Chamber Elects New Directors To The Board

Eight new directors were elected to the board of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce as a result of the voting of the membership which closed January 20. They are Van C. Fleming, Jr., Lee A. Folger, Jr., E. W. Harvey, Jr., E. S. Hodges, Jr., H. Lyman Ormond, John C. Proctor, Joe M. Taft and John B. Webb, Jr. They will serve for a three-year term beginning with the chamber's fiscal year, February 1, 1948.

These directors, together with Alton R. Barrett, Charles B. Bisette, L. M. Buchanan, R. W. Davernport, David A. Evans, L. Stuart Ficklen, John G. Fleming, Walter L. Harrington, H. L. Hodges, Jr., J. B. Kittrell, R. V. Keel, C. R. McBrayer, Joe S. Moyer, Ed E. Rawl, Robert F. Thompson and Thomas E. Wilson compose the chamber's 24-man board.

Retiring President John B. Webb, Jr., plans to call a meeting of the board prior to February 1, at which time officers for the new year will be elected. Retiring officers are President Webb, Vice-Presidents E. E. Rawl and John G. Fleming and Treasurer David A. Evans.

A report of the activities of the chamber for the past 12 months is now in preparation and it is expected to be delivered to the membership within the next two weeks. All members of the chamber have been asked to make suggestions of projects which should be included in its program for the new fiscal year as well as to designate their choice of committee service. New committees will be appointed by the new officers, and the 1948 program will be prepared by the organization's Program and Public Relations Committee.

Russia Refuses UN Visitors In North Korea

Seoul, Jan. 23—(AP)—An official source said today Russia rejected a request by the United Nations Commission on Korea for permission to pay a courtesy call on the Soviet commander in Russian occupied northern Korea.

This source, who demanded anonymity, said the commission might pick up and leave without asking permission to enter North Korea to prepare for a national election.

The specific purpose for which it was named by the UN Assembly March 1 by the UN, was to have paved the way for restoring total Korean independence and the withdrawal of American occupation troops from the south and Russian soldiers from the north.

The informant said Andrei Groznyko, the Soviet's chief UN delegate, had given Russia's rejection to the United Nations at Lake Success.

Churchill Wants Showdown With USSR Within One Year

Washington, Jan. 23—(AP)—The United States today officially welcomed British Foreign Minister Bevin's proposal for uniting the countries of western Europe against the spread of Communism.

The State Department issued this statement on Bevin's plans announced to Parliament yesterday:

"Mr. Bevin has proposed measures which will enable the free countries of western Europe further to concert with one another for their common safety and good."

"As in the case of the recovery program the United States heartily welcomes European initiative in this respect and any proposal looking to a closer material and spiritual link between the western European nations will serve to reinforce the efforts which our two countries have been making to lay the foundation for a firm peace."

Nearly Million Workers Called Out In Hunger Protest; Demand Liberty

Munich, Germany, Jan. 23—(AP)—Most of Bavaria was paralyzed today by a general strike of up to 1,000,000 workers. They were called out by union leaders to protest food shortages.

The strike started at midnight and was to last 24 hours. Indications in many areas were that it would continue through Saturday and Sunday. It was the largest mass labor walkout in Germany since the war.

Miss Spilman Honored at Luncheon
Mrs. J. Key Brown and Mrs. M. L. Wright were hostesses at a delightful luncheon on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Brown, honoring Miss Frances Spilman, who is to be married in Washington, D. C., on January 31.

In contrast to the cold dreary weather outside, the Brown home was cheery and most inviting with its soft glowing lights and arrangements of flowers in bright gay colors.

The living room mantel was especially pretty with a miniature arrangement of the bride and her attendants in their colorful dresses.

A delicious luncheon was served to twenty-five of the bride's friends.

Miss Spilman was presented lovely gifts by the hostesses as a reminder of the delightful occasion.

Christian Church Announcements
At the service Sunday morning the volunteer choir under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Carter will sing the anthem "As Torrents in Summer" by Elgar and the pastor Dr. H. G. Haney will speak on the theme "Education and Religion."

Is it necessary for education and religion to draw apart? In many minds the two do not work together harmoniously. Advances in education seem to be out of harmony with religious concepts, and religion seems to move too slowly for education. Must these draw apart? These are the questions raised in the message at 11 o'clock.

The C. Y. F. begins its observance of youth week by a special program at the meeting at 6:30 Sunday evening. It will climax in a youth banquet at the church on Sunday evening, February 1, at which time Mr. Thomas P. Inabnett, youth director of the state for the Christian Church, will be the principal speaker. Members of the C. Y. F. are privileged to bring guests for this banquet but all tickets must be secured before January 29.

The Eighth Street Church is in cooperation with the annual training school of the Greenville Council of Churches to be held this coming week. The school will be held at the Immanuel Baptist Church beginning Sunday at 3 p. m. At that time Dr. Robert Lee Humber will speak to the total school assembly. Classes will be held immediately afterwards. Classes will be in session each evening through Thursday at 7:30. Film strips and sound movies will be presented each evening on themes relative to the main purpose of the school. There will be five classes taught by well trained teachers, one for each age level in the Sunday school.

Sans Souci Club
Mrs. L. W. Gaylord was hostess to the members of the Sans Souci Book Club Tuesday, January 20, at 1 o'clock at her home on the Ayden highway.

The guests were greeted and given a very cordial welcome by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. R. W. King.

Arrangements of pink gladioli were used as decorations. Place cards were found at individual tables, centered with narcissus and daisies. After a three course luncheon was served by Mrs. L. W. Gaylord, Jr., and Miss Virginia Gaylord, tables were removed and the club went into a business session.

Mrs. W. I. Wooten, president, always gracious, presided over the meeting. The roll was called with 17 members responding. The books were passed by the librarian.

One of the highlights of the Sans Souci Club is the program given each year by one of its most brilliant and gifted members, Mrs. B. B. Sugg.

At the conclusion of a business session, Mrs. Sugg discussed the literature of the two world wars. She developed the thought that what was termed "The Lost Generation," created a literature of revolt and disillusionment—naming Hemingway, Fitzgerald, Dos Passos, Sherwood Anderson and James Joyce as leading writers. From World War II with the disappointment in the peace fought for, the appearance of the atomic bomb with its possible catastrophic consequences, had come a sense of anxiety seemed to be suffering from creative hardening of the arteries. The leader closed the program with the statement of Struthers Burt that the world was disillusioned with disillusionment, and that with a new faith and hope, a sense of adventure would return and new artists, in literature would turn to creative writing, in lieu of Hollywood romances.

Guests for the meeting were Mrs. H. L. Hodges and Mrs. A. J. Moore.—Reported.

Paintings Attract Wide Interest
Twenty paintings by Grandma Moses on display at the State Art Gallery in Raleigh this month are attracting wide interest and discussion. One of the best-loved artists in America today, Anna Mary Robertson Moses, now 88 years old, had spent a long and busy life as a farm woman, before she began, at 78, to paint. Yet in ten years she has found herself acclaimed as the most noted contemporary painter of "American Primitives" with her work in the permanent collections of many major galleries.

Born in Greenwich, N. Y. in 1860, she has lived in Pennsylvania and Virginia, but for some time now has lived on a farm near her childhood home in Greenville. Her first "exhibition" was in a drug store in Hooisick Falls, N. Y., where her paintings were seen by a traveler who recognized their value as authentic "primitives" and brought her to the attention of the Galerie St. Etienne, in New York. Her first New York exhibition at this gallery, in 1940, won for her instant recognition. She now spends her days happily painting, four pictures at the time, "to save paint," she says. Painted from memory and imagination, her landscapes, farm scenes, hills, and valleys are completely free from conventional art training. She has never had art lessons. Yet there is about them a lasting beauty and appeal and the direct, free expression of thought and feeling found in all authentic primitive art.

The Grandma Moses exhibition will be shown at the State Gallery through February 1. Gallery hours are 9 to 5 on week-days; 9 to 1 on Saturdays; and 2 to 5 p. m. on Sundays. Admission is free.

Greenville Garden Club
The Greenville Garden Club held its regular meeting at the club house on Friday afternoon at 3:30 with Mrs. W. J. Stell, Jr., chairman, presiding.

The report on the Christmas Show, presented by the treasurer, showed that it was one of the most successful ever held. The chairman thanked all those who helped put it over. Mrs. J. Key Brown very generously gave the money which she received as a prize for having the best decorated home at Christmas to the Garden club.

After hearing a report from Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, chairman of the committee on horticulture, the club voted to label the different varieties of camellias growing on the college campus. There is probably more of these beautiful shrubs planted on the E. C. T. C. campus than in any other spot in Eastern North Carolina.

The motion was made and carried to have a Garden Club radio program each Wednesday at 1:45 until the end of the club year in May. Members were urged to contribute their time and talent to these programs.

It was announced that the services of the Erwin tree experts could be secured by calling Mrs. E. W. Harvey, Sr., before February 5.

Mrs. Stell said that January 25-31 was dogwood week. This is an excellent time to beautify the yard by planting one or more of the trees which have been named as our state flower. The Garden Club voted to spend $25 for dogwood trees to be planted on city park ways by the city planning committee.

Mrs. W. C. Hollowell from the Junior Woman's Club, urged all present to support the March of Dimes, either by their presence at the dance on January 30 at the college, or by their contributions.

The guest speaker for the afternoon was Dr. Harold C. Jones, instructor of zoology at E. C. T. C. He delighted his audience with an instructive lecture on birds which are common in our locality. For illustration of the habits of the birds he used color slides which were taken at the Berry school in Georgia.

Dr. Jones gave the bird calls of many and urged the planting of more shrubbery and berries to provide food and shelter for our feathered friends.

A pleasant social hour followed. The tea table was beautiful with its cover of Italian cut work. The centerpiece was a large arrangement of pink gladioli, white snapdragon and narcissus in a silver bowl. Mrs. R. M. Garrett poured spiced tea and tempting sandwiches and salted nuts were served by Mesdames R. E. Hardaway, L. B. Garris, T. T. Holingsworth, E. C. Hollar, W. C. Harris, J. N. Hart and Van Fleming.

YOUNG MOTHER THANKS RETONGA FOR STRENGTH

Suffered So Much From Nervous Indigestion She Lived on Liquids And Couldn't Do Her Housework. Can Eat Plently Now; Regains Strength.

"Retonga has meant so much to me that I wish everyone suffering as I did could know about this grand medicine," gratefully declares Mrs. Edna Farrow, well-known resident of Route 6, Anderson, S. C.

"A family of five young children keeps a mother on the go," continued Mrs. Farrow. "I reckon I just got rundown. Nervous indigestion set in, and so much gas formed in my stomach that I often felt like I would smother me. I got to where I lived almost entirely on liquids, and I often felt so weakened and shaky that I would tremble all over. The muscles in my arms and shoulders ached until it was simply torture. I was unable to carry on my housework, and my husband had to do most of it.

"Retonga gave me wonderful relief. I have a splendid appetite, eat what I want, and sleep soundly. The pains in my arms and shoulders are also relieved, and so is sluggish elimination. I feel stronger and better than in a long time, and Retonga deserves all the credit."

"Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. Retonga may be obtained at Bissette's Drug Store.—Adv.

'Football for Fun' Gets Some Favorable Replies

By BEM PRICE

Atlanta, Jan. 23 (AP)—Reactions, mostly favorable, were registered today to the theory advanced by Florida State University that inter-collegiate games, including football, might be played for fun. By coincidence, most likely, the Florida school's proposal came just as the coaches and athletic directors of the Southeastern Conference were wrestling with a problem: how to meet the purity regulation of the new National Collegiate Athletic Association code? This code wants to keep football's rewards relatively uniform throughout the country.

Record Olympic

St. Moritz, Switzerland, Jan. 23—(AP)—The fifth winter Olympiad will set a record earlier than skiers and skaters start shooting at marks in this picturesque resort Jan. 30. Twenty-nine nations of 31 original entries have confirmed they will compete and most of them already have teams on the scene going through rehearsals. The entry list exceeds by one the number of nations represented in the 1936 games at Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany. The last doubtful competitor—Spain—confirmed by cable last night its ski team would be on hand after overcoming difficulties in obtaining Swiss visas to make the trip.

Chandler Aide In Mexico for Baseball Talks

New York, Jan. 23—(AP)—Walter W. Mulbry, assistant to baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler, is combining a Mexican vacation with business and on the outcome of the latter venture hinges the possible return to organized baseball of such former major league stars as Max Lanier, Mickey Owen and Luis Olmo. Mulbry, acting as the official representative of George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs (the minors) stopped off in Mexico City and conferred with Alejandro Aguilar Reyes, commissioner of the outlawed Mexican league earlier this week.

Game To Invade South America

Columbus, O., Jan. 23—(AP)—The United States' sphere of influence in baseball is about to extend into South America. That was indicated today when George M. Trautman, boss of the stateside minor leagues, said he would send an official observer next month to Panama, Venezuela, Puerto Rico and Colombia to study the situation.

"The Guardian and Escrower That Never Dies"

Says Number Of Ball Clubs At Saturation Point

Columbus, O., Jan. 23—(AP)—America, for the present, has just about reached the saturation point in baseball clubs and leagues.

So says Bob Finch, publicity chief of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, who addressed some 300 delegates from 57 minor leagues at yesterday's session of the five-day rules discussion conference called by President George M. Trautman.

"Back in 1944 we had 12 minor leagues," Finch said. "That jumped to 42 in 1945, to 52 in 1946, and to 57 in 1947. Several others are in the process of formation, but if they don't get in before Feb. 1, we just can't accept 'em."

"Practically all the new leagues, in some cases all the clubs, are seeking working agreements with big league teams. But the big league clubs are saying 'not now, we have enough.'"

Boxing Promoter Mike Jacobs To 'Retire Forever'

New York, Jan. 23—(AP)—News that Promoter Mike Jacobs plans to "retire from boxing forever," coming on the heels of the verbal eruptions at the New York boxing writers dinner, kept boxing circles in a dither today.

Uncle Mike, who has been in semi-retirement since he suffered a stroke in the fall of 1946, announced at Miami Beach, Fla. yesterday that he planned to retire for good after the return of Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott heavyweight title bout in June.

"Joe and I are going to bow out together," Jacobs asserted, referring to Louis' previous statement that

Strength FOR THE DAY

TRUST
Throughout the whole of his reign King David left a breach in the walls of Jerusalem. He did it to show his faith in God. Through it an invading army might have come at any time, but that breach stood as an eternal symbol that David trusted God for protection.

There is no such thing in this world as perfect security. In every man's soul there is a breach—a weakness or a circumstance through which the assaulting armies of temptation, financial reverses, sickness, or sorrow may at any time pour in. Nothing we can do will so effectively close that breach that we can be sure of perfect security within.

The Bible teaches us to recognize the breach; not to try frantically to close it up, but to trust that the power of God will be sufficient for our protection in spite of the breach. David did not put his trust in stones and mortar, but in the power of the living God. And the simple teaching of his example is that if we put our trust in God and not spend our time frantically trying to protect ourselves and trying to prevent every possibility of harm, the power of the Eternal will be our wall and our protection.

Mr. Editor—
We have in our city a testing lane designed to check the mechanisms of motor vehicles and from all I can learn, the men in charge are doing a very good job. When all is said and done, it is the purpose of it all to remove wobbling vehicles from the highway. So far so good; but in my humble judgment there should be added two more divisions.

The first I would suggest, is one with equipment and experts who can determine when the driver has spells of head-wobbling (drunk) and remove him or her until evidence of complete cure is present.

The second division I would suggest, would have equipment and ex-

Greenville Airport On 'Skvway 1'

First Official Airway Route Blueprinted; Local Airport On Select List

The January issue of "Airport," the trade magazine of the airport industry, has blueprinted Skyway I—the first transcontinental air highway for the use of private and business pilots.

Skyway I is a forty-mile wide strip over the best flying terrain connecting Los Angeles with Washington, D.C. and is the first of a network of air highways which is expected soon to crisscross the U.S. with a number of safe, well-marked routes for private flying. There are 644 airports along the 4,600 miles over which the route goes. These are located in or near 447 cities and towns.

Of the 644 airports, 154 are lighted fields, 44 have control towers and 82 offer weather information facilities. The development of Skyway I as the first transcontinental air highway is believed to have much the same significance as the development of the first transcontinental

The writer was suspended after he and nine other Hollywood celebrities were cited for contempt of Congress for their refusal to answer questions at a House sub-committee hearing concerning affiliation with the Communist party.

Trumbo also asked $51,000 he claims due him for the screen play "Angel's Flight." He asserted his contract terminates Feb. 17, 1950.

Compare any car against the KAISER or the FRAZER!

— You'll find the Greatest Values still come from Willow Run!

Make a list of the things you want most in your new car! Then look first at the Kaiser or the Frazer! After that, look at any car on the market—and we'll welcome you back!

We speak so confidently because all our thousands of owners were shoppers before they became buyers. Every one of them started out with a strong prejudice in favor of some other make of car—usually one they had driven previously.

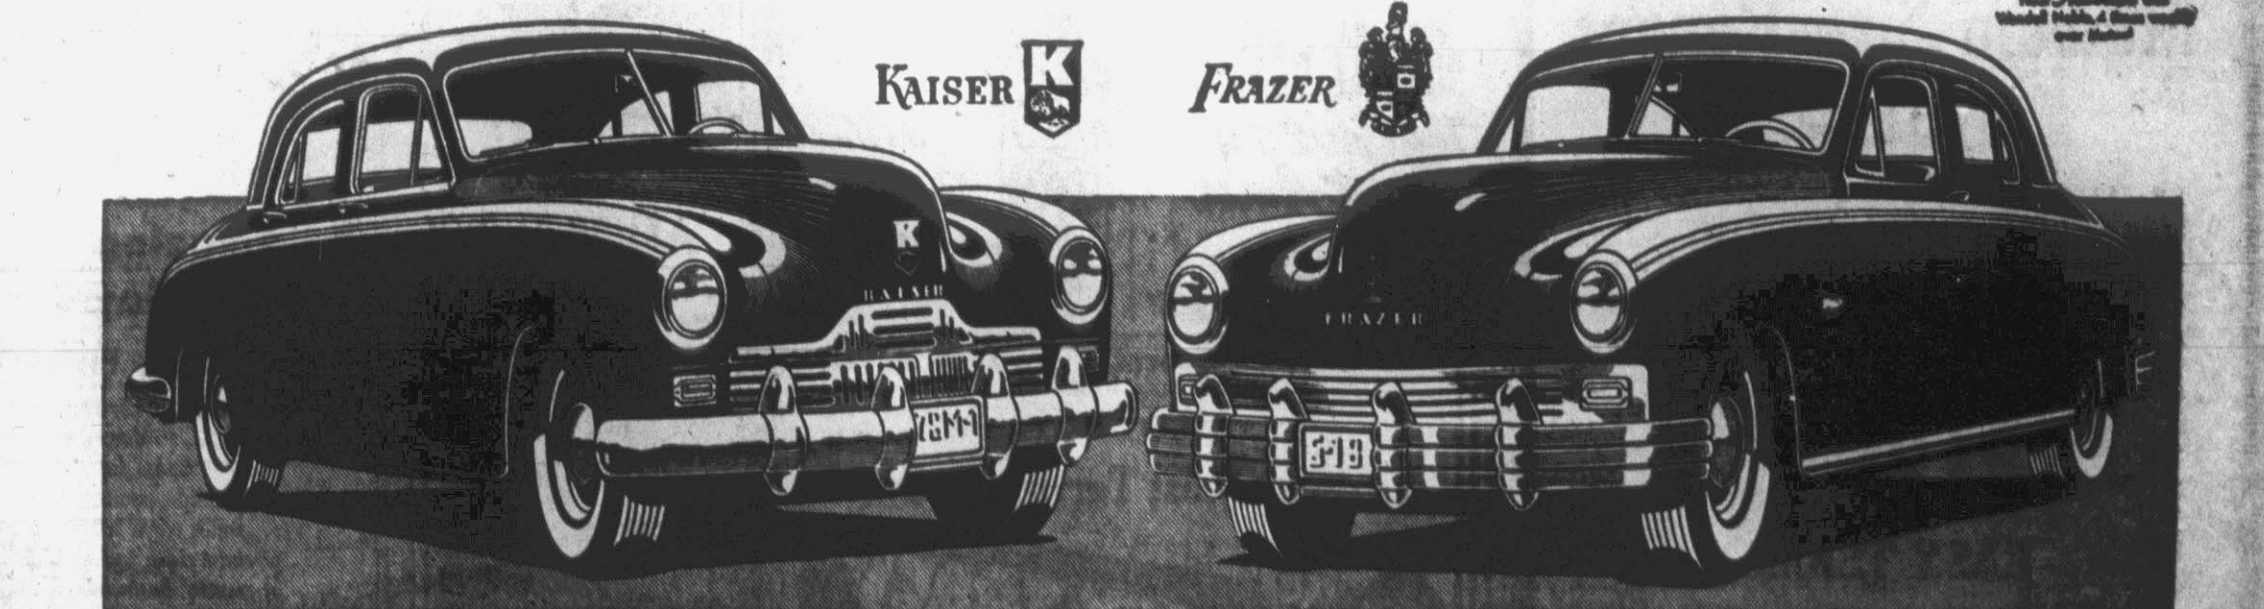

Why don't you discover right now what these value-conscious Kaiser and Frazer owners found? All it takes is a good look and then a revealing five-mile drive! At the right are a few of the reasons why a Kaiser or a Frazer is likely to be your final choice—regardless of how many other cars you include in your look and drive comparisons!

UNDISPUTED STYLE LEADERSHIP!
You can't help but recognize the Kaiser and the Frazer as the pioneers of the new style trend. Stream-Thru fenders keynote the ultra-modern, functional design other cars attempt to follow.

THE RIDE YOU NEVER FORGET!
K-F engineers created the Gliding Ride by redistributing mass and load—and by cradling both seats between front and rear wheels. You will thrill to a wonderful new ride sensation!

EXCEPTIONAL PERFORMANCE!
"Step on it" and the speedometer needle snaps to attention like an exclamation point! A new horsepower-to-weight ratio means uncommon sprightliness and thrills! Remarkable economy!

MOST FOR YOUR MONEY!
K-F power design protects your investment. Styling that stays ahead means low-cost depreciation. Advanced chassis construction means trouble-free long life. Why buy anything less?

A Longer . . .

Green, of course, could only speak for the AFL. He couldn't speak for the CIO union workers nor for any other unions not connected with the AFL.

Would the Baruch and Wilson idea—a 44-hour week—Green's idea—a 45-hour week—actually get more goods produced?

Maybe in some businesses not in all. Take the steel industry where the workers belong to the CIO and not to the AFL. CIO people say: The steel industry is working at almost full capacity. At least it's working 24 hours a day. The workers there work eight-hour shifts 40 hours a week.

So how would the steel industry be able to turn out any more steel by overlapping its eight-hour shifts and letting the men work nine hours a day?

Or take the automobile industry, where Charles E. Wilson of General Motors is a big figure. In this industry, too, the CIO, not the AFL, has the big unions. CIO men say: The manufacture of autos is slowed down by a lack of steel for auto bodies, not by a lack of manpower or man-hours worked.

The men there work an eight-hour day. Would putting them on nine hours a day turn out more cars if the steel for making them is still lacking? Or would that just add to the cost of a new car and so help boost prices?

Bevin's . . .

Gallacher and Philip Piratin. Bevin set them to shouting in protest when he said: "One of the first objects of Soviet and Communist policy is to prevent the European recovery program from succeeding. But I do not see why I should be a party to keeping Europe in chaos and distress."

It wasn't made clear just why the two Reds should have protested this in view of the fact that the Bolsheviks have publicly proclaimed that they are out to defeat the Marshall plan.

Bevin also announced plans for a union of the nations of western Europe to face the Russian drive for control of the whole continent. He declared that the time is ripe for the consolidation of western Europe, and disclosed that Britain already has initiated talks with Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Furthermore Britain's alliance with France will be tightened and Italy and other countries will be brought into "this great conception."
