Declare Partition Must Be Enforced

U.N. Palestine Commission Predicts Plan Will Fail Unless Adequate Armed Force Is Provided To Back It Up; Security Council Gets Issue

Lake Success, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The Palestine Commission predicted today that the United Nations plan to partition the Holy Land will fail unless adequate armed force is provided to back it up.

The commission, made up of representatives from five of the smaller members of the United Nations, asked the Security Council to provide such a force, presumably on an international basis, before May 15.

"The commission," its members said in a strongly worded report issued last night, "has decided to refer to the Security Council the problem of providing that armed assistance which alone would enable the commission to discharge its responsibilities."

It is charged with ending the British mandate over Palestine and with building the foundations for separate Jewish and Arab states there by Oct. 1.

There was no immediate reaction from members of the council, the only U.N. body which has the power to send an army into Palestine. The members called the report to their home governments at once for study.

Indications were that the council would open debate on Palestine a week from today. Should the commission request be heeded, it would mark the first time the U.N. ever attempted to enforce a decision by weight of arms.

The five delegates on the commission, self-styled the five lonely pilgrims, topped their report with these statements:

"The commission will be unable to establish security and maintain law and order, without which it cannot implement the (Nov. 29) resolution of the General Assembly unless military forces in adequate strength are made available to the commission when the responsibility for the administration of Palestine is transferred to it. (The British have said they will and their mandate and trusteeship authorities agree before May 15.)

"It is the considered view of the commission that the Security Council on the mandatory power must be replaced by an adequate non-Palestinian force."

Reports on diplomatic language felt the commission went as far as it could without making a specific demand that the council set up an international army.

Where the council would get an international force was another question. The U.N. charter provides for permanent U.N. army, navy and air contingents but disagreements mainly between the United States and Russia have stalled this program.

AMBASSADOR RETURNING

Tehran, Iran, Feb. 17.—(AP)—U.S. Ambassador George V. Allen left by plane today for Cairo and the United States. He soon will take charge of the State Department's Information Program, including the Voice of America Radio Broadcasts.

Astronomers May Soon Know If Life Exists On Mars

McDonald Observatory, Fort Davis, Tex., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Astronomers at McDonald Observatory hope to settle within the next 24 hours two key questions about the possibility of life on Mars.

As the planet swings closer to earth tonight than it will be at any other time in two years, they may determine:

1. Whether or not water, in the form of ice or water vapor, is present.

2. Are the green areas obvious on Mars truly green or grass or weeds, like our own, or are they some other vegetable form?

Dr. Gerard P. Kuiper, director, has been using a newly-developed infra-red spectrometer attached to McDonald telescope's 82-inch reflector in recent studies bearing on the possibility of life on Mars. He hopes during the next few hours, when the planet comes within 63,000,000 miles of the earth, to make further studies of both its polar cap

500 Arabs Said Involved In Raid On Settlement

Jerusalem, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The Palestine government said today that a force of 500 Arabs carried out yesterday's attacks against the Jewish settlement of Tira. The announcement said 31 Arabs and one Jew were killed in the two sorties.

Jewish sources said 57 Arabs were killed and scores injured in the engagement. They said one Jew lost his life and one was injured.

British troops finally dispersed the Arab attackers.

The unofficial death toll since the United Nations voted on November 29 to partition Palestine now stands at 1,246. This total includes 524 Jews, 643 Arabs, 56 British three Americans and 20 others.

Trespassing

Warsaw, Feb. 17.—(P)—Poles held today the five American fliers who returned U. S. Ambassador Stanton Griffiths from London. The fliers are charged with trespassing.

Authorities said the crewmen entered Poland without clearance and that all lacked visas. The crew was arrested yesterday and held four hours at Okecie airport. They have been detained since 11 p. m. last night in a Warsaw hotel under guard. Embassy officials were allowed to talk to them, but other persons were barred.

A government spokesman said the Warsaw airport gave the plane weather information and that the crew apparently assumed this was permission to land. The crew said the airport captain sanctioned the landing.

Boat Swamped, Sailors Drown

Fifteen Are Reported Dead, More Missing As Launch Sinks

Nantes, France, Feb. 17.—(AP)—A liberty launch carrying a party of U.S. sailors from the Riviera to the carrier Midway was swamped today, and French sources said up to 15 men were reported drowned.

(The French press agency said 15 bodies had been recovered.

In London, the U.S. Navy said eight men were "unaccounted for" in figures still subject to revision. This report was sent by Vice-Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, commander of U.S. naval forces in the Mediterranean, to Adm. Richard E. Connelley, commander in chief of U.S. naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean. Connelley's headquarters are in London.)

The accident occurred as the sailors were returning from a Riviera party to their ship, anchored near one of the rivers islands off the southern coast of France, midway between Marseilles and Cannes. The French news agency earlier said 40 men were missing after the launch went down.

The launch was carrying about 160 of the 45,000-ton carrier's sailors from a French party in their honor.

Officers conducted a roll call aboard the Midway, which has a complement of 3,500 men, to determine how many were missing.

Accounts of how the accident occurred were not immediately clear.

CONDEMNED TO DEATH

Warsaw, Feb. 17.—(P)—Two followers of self-styled Stanislaw Mikolajczyk were condemned to death by a military court at Opatow today. They were accused of spying for an unnamed Foreign Embassy. Six other district leaders of Mikolajczyk's Poland peasant party were sentenced to prison for three to 15 years.

Korean Annexation

Your Columnist Says 'I Told You So'; Taking Over Of North Korea In Soviet Sphere As Yet Informal, But Fact Remains; Country's Geographical Position

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

A week ago your columnist expressed the view that Russia already had to all intents annexed the northern half of Korea—and we now can say "I told you so."

A high American official of the southern zone, which is occupied by U. S. forces, says a Russian puppet government has been established in the north. The nature of this regime is made clear in a radio broadcast from Soviet occupation headquarters. This announces creation of a "North Korean Peoples Army," and a constitution which would establish "the Democratic Peoples Republic of Korea."

Last there be any doubt about the complexion of this government, its flag is said to have a red star in the center, with crossed hammers above and crossed sickles below. That's Bolshevism with all the red trimmings.

Now of course there hasn't been any formal annexation. However, the fact remains that Moscow has brought Northern Korea under its absolute domination just as has happened to the small countries of eastern Europe.

The establishment of this Communist government is purely a unilateral action by Russia. It has been done in defiance of the Moscow agreement among the Allies for a unified Korea. It has been in defiance of the United Nations, which recently sent a commission to Korea to hold elections in both zones and establish a government for the whole country. The Russians wouldn't even permit the commission to visit the north, which long has been sealed off by the Reds.

The American source in Southern Korea says there is ample information that an army estimated at 300,000 North Koreans has been equipped with Russian materials, including tanks and light planes. He adds that creation of the puppet government has revived speculation among American army officers that the Russians may suddenly withdraw their occupation troops. The idea of such a move, he asserts, would be to force the withdrawal of U.S. troops from the southern zone. And what would be the idea of forcing the Americans out of the Committees Of House, Senate Favor Controls

Members Predict Two Houses Will Get Together On Rent Bill By Feb. 29

Washington, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The Senate Banking Committee unanimously favors extending rent controls 14 months with some changes.

The House Banking Committee has voted 18 to 5 to continue the existing law "as is" for one month. It would decide later about a longer extension and any changes.

But members of both committees predicted today the House and the Senate will get together on one of the two proposals—or a compromise—by February 29. The present law expires then.

The Senate Committee voted 13 to 6 late yesterday for continuing controls through April 30, 1949. Its bill would permit rent increases up to 15 per cent where tenants and landlords agree on a lease running through 1949. The present law, up to the start of this year, allowed increases of the same amount in return for a lease good through 1949.

Tenants who already have agreed to a 15 per cent rent boost could not be charged another one, said Senator Cain (R-Wash.), chairman of a banking subcommittee on rents. Here is Cain's explanation of how the new law would work on those points:

In the case of tenants who accepted rent increases for leases running through 1949, their present rents would be "frozen" when those leases expire December 31. This "freeze" would remain in effect through April 30, 1949—the expiration date of the proposed new law. Rent control then would end for all tenants who signed leases under the expiring law.

For those who signed leases under the new law, that is, after Feb. 29, 1949, there could be no further increase until Jan. 1, 1950.

What of tenants who have not already signed a "voluntary" increase lease—and would not under the proposed extension? Cain says their rents would remain unchanged until April 30, 1949. They would have no protection after that.

The Senate committee bill would require the Federal Rent Administrator to permit higher rents where a landlord could prove he was operating at a loss. The administrator would decide how much of an increase.

Would Suspend His Parliament

Athens, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Constantin Tsalikis said today he would welcome the suspension of the Greek Parliament.

Tsalikis' Popular (Royalist) party has been opposing the move in recent weeks against strong liberal party agitation. Minor party leaders oppose suspension, calling the proposal a "steamroller."

The liberal newspaper NEA said a group of Parliament deputies have a measure ready for the suspension and that there is no question but that it will pass.

Greece Reports 25 Executions

Athens, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Press reports told today of the executions of 25 leftists.

Seven Communists of a leftist band were executed in Athens by order of the Kestor military tribunal. Dispatches listed 11 put to death at Kephallenia, five at Salonika and two at Tripoli. Military tribunals had condemned all for participation in leftist bands and criminal activity.

Southerners To Air Differences

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Southern governors' complaints against the National Democratic party will be aired in Washington Feb. 23 at 2 p. m. when a five-governor committee will meet with Senator Edward McCarth of Rhode Island, national party chairman.

Governor Thurmond, chairman of the committee appointed at the recent Wakulla Springs, Fla., conference of southern governors, announced that a preliminary committee meeting would be held at Washington Feb. 22 to decide what questions they will discuss with McCarth.

Recovering From Rare Accident

New Rochelle, N. Y., Feb. 17.—(P)—A 47-year-old man was reported recovering today from internal injuries suffered in an explosion of anesthesia being administered to him on an operation table.

The patient, Carlo Di Iorio, was about to undergo a leg operation in New Rochelle hospital.

Two doctors, two internes and two nurses present in the room were uninjured. Superintendent Alex E. Norton said the cause of the explosion—extremely rare in administration of anesthesia—was undetermined.

Markets Hold Gains

New York, Feb. 17.—(P)—Prices were irregular on the Commodity and Security markets today but the general tendency was slightly higher.

The price of soybeans was up the 8 cent limit at the start. Corn showed the most strength among grains at the opening of the Chicago pits. May delivery of corn was up as much as 3 3-8 cents a bushel. Most wheat contracts were slightly higher than yesterday, but the May delivery ranged from 1-4 of a cent up to 1-8 of a cent down. Oats prices were mixed.

There were no early sales of hogs and the bidding was about 50 cents a hundred pounds lower than yesterday's averages.

Fresh arrivals of both hogs and cattle were below expectations. Selected hogs moved ahead slightly but trading was light.

Cotton prices ranged unchanged from yesterday to $1.15 a bale lower at New York as the market countered scattered profit taking.

Wholesale butter prices advanced 3 to 4 cents a pound at New York, wiping out the unusually sharp decline of last Friday.

A reduction of 12 cents a pound was announced in lard oil prices. The irregularity followed yesterday's rally, one of the strongest since the price break began almost two weeks ago.

Flooded Rivers To Recede Soon

No Great Damage In Eastern N. C. Expected By Bureau

By the Associated Press

Flooded eastern North Carolina rivers, which have inundated farms and caused families to evacuate, today were expected to recede.

The Charlotte Weather Bureau predicted clear skies and mild temperatures for the state through Friday. The Raleigh bureau, which keeps a wary eye on river readings, said no great damage would result from the swollen streams.

However, the flooded Neuse had already caused families to flee their homes in the Kinston vicinity, washed over farmland in the Goldsboro area, and forced closure of rural highways near its course. The Lenoir County Red Cross chapter was caring for the Kinston area river victims.

The Cape Fear River, in flood at Fayetteville and areas near there, has closed some highways.

Most rural schools in the state were back on normal schedule today. Many had been closed the last few days as thaws muddled roads for school buses.

The State Highway Commission said that flood waters were receding today from eastern North Carolina roads. Conditions are improving rapidly, although several county roads still are closed, Chief Highway Engineer Vance Baise declared.

Will Not Bring Strike Threat To Steel Talks

Pittsburgh, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The CIO-United Steelworkers of America do not intend to introduce the threat of a strike in steel industry wage negotiations next April.

That promise was voiced yesterday by Philip Murray, head of both the CIO and the Steelworkers, after a closed meeting of the union's 41-man executive board.

The meeting had been called by the Steelworkers to establish the amount of the wage boost the union will ask from steel companies this spring.

Current contracts run another year but include clauses that permit the reopening of wage negotiations in April.

Murray refused to reveal the amount of the wage demand set during the meeting.

Bridge Collapses, 12 Persons In Hospital

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Twelve persons were hospitalized after a pedestrian bridge collapsed last night and dumped 30 persons into flood-swollen First creek.

A 30-foot section of the bridge gave way under the combined weight of some 60 persons who had gathered to stare at an automobile which had plunged from a parallel traffic bridge.

Bladen Election Is Held Despite Move

Elizabethtown, N. C., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Bladen County voted today on whether to continue selling beer. The sale of wine, now banned, also was decided by about 5,000 voters.

Although war forces tried to postpone the beer-vote, Superior Court Clerk Carl C. Campbell said yesterday the polls would open in the 15 precincts at 8:30 a. m. and close 12 hours later.

U. S. Army Says Officers Held In North Korea

Two Manhandled While Watching Parade; Taken In Custody Then Released

Seoul, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The U. S. Army reported today two of its liaison officers were manhandled and placed under temporary arrest at Pyongyang in Soviet occupied North Korea.

They were trying to watch a parade of the newly disclosed North Korean People's Army.

They are Major Daniel G. Costello, Imogene, Iowa, and Major Richard C. Biggs, Berkeley, Calif.

A spokesman for U.S. occupation headquarters said the incident occurred Sunday. The same day a radio broadcast from Pyongyang announced establishment, with Russian approval, of a North Korean government with an army.

The spokesman said the Americans were taken in custody of the Korean constabulary while Russian officers looked on. The two were released unharmed and without explanation about 30 minutes later. Costello said a civilian pointed a pistol at him. His camera was taken. He protested to Soviet authorities.

The incident was reported to both the Army and State Department.

Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, U. S. occupation commander, commented only that Soviet liaison officers in Seoul "have complete freedom of movement," and can take pictures, including those of military parades.

This account was given by the spokesman.

Costello and Biggs were trying to find a place near the reviewing stand to see a parade "marking the second anniversary of the founding of the North Korean Peoples Republic."

(Yesterday's U.S. Army announcement indicated that establishment of the government in the Russian zone was a new development. It further said a constitution was not to be ratified by the Peoples Council there until mid-March. This would be in violation of international agreements on Korea.)

British Reject Plan To Outlaw Communist Party

London, Feb. 17.—(P)—The British government turned down today a suggestion for outlawing Communists and seizing their funds.

The proposal came from Sir Wladimir Smithers, Conservative M. P. he wrote Prime Minister Attlee:

"Communists who work in other countries do so under orders from the Kremlin. They are enemies within our midst and should be so treated."

Arthur Moyle, parliamentary secretary to Attlee, replied that the government saw "no particular reason to depart in this particular instance from our tradition of allowing all political parties to advocate their doctrines, so long as they keep within the law."

China Inflation Spirals Higher

Shanghai, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Inflation spiraled to a new and dizzy height today.

The gold bar black market was the most spectacular rise. It went from $500 per 10 ounce bar to $700.

The dollar rose from 180,000 yuan to 215,000 yuan to $1.

Commodities jumped more than 40 percent.

Urges in gold prices was attributed to speculation—coupled with the government's relaxation of regulations permitting sales of ex-mineral gold.

Budget Surplus Tops $4 Billion

Washington, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The government's budget surplus has risen to $4,073,951,189 for the current fiscal year.

Treasury records today showed that is well over half of the $7,482,610,000 surplus President Truman has predicted will be on hand June 30.

The government never has had a $4,000,000,000 surplus before, even temporarily. The biggest full year surplus, about $1,150,000,000, came during the Coolidge administration more than 20 years ago.

Soviet Says Allies Tried Nazi Peace

Thomas Charges Probers Raided Friend's Office

Senator Says Investigators Were Looking For His Speculation Records

Washington, Feb. 17.—(P)—Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) said today Senate investigators "raided" the office of one of his business associates "hoping to find something on me."

The Senator insisted anew that he regards the inquiry into his commodity trading as "a closed incident."

Thomas told a reporter he has waited long enough for Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) either to call upon him for further information or to close the investigation by the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee which Ferguson heads.

"He has done me all the harm he can," Thomas said.

Thomas and Dyke Cullum, his financial adviser, said six Senate employees armed with "a handful of subpoenas" visited Cullum's office here last Jan. 10 and carried off an armful of records. Some were lost, they added.

Thomas said investigators for the subcommittee called on another of his friends "and tried to take him out without a hat, a coat or even a necktie for questioning about Thomas' commodity transactions."

These were the incidents he had in mind, the Oklahoma said, when he wrote Ferguson a letter of protest. In that letter Thomas contended that Ferguson had used public funds "to employ detectives and to raid the private offices of citizens in an effort to find a skeleton in my private household closet."

Ferguson had no comment on the letter.

He previously had announced plans to hold public hearings on Thomas' trading, but he left that question open today.

Ferguson said a public session will be held "if the evidence merits it." But the committee has not yet passed upon the evidence, he added.

Will Ask Truce In Italian Strife

Rome, Feb. 17.—(P)—Communists and government parties agreed today to appeal jointly for a truce in Italy's political warfare until after the April elections.

Constitutional Assembly deputies representing the major political parties met under the chairmanship of Communist Umberto Terracini, Assembly president. They announced they will draw up the formal appeal to the public tomorrow.

The Communists, meanwhile, claimed to have won control of 31 of 40 council seats in Sunday's local election in the Adriatic city of Pescara.

FBI Checking Complaints Over Veterans Housing

Washington, Feb. 17.—(AP)—FBI agents are working on complaints from thousands of ex-GIs that they were cheated on veterans housing.

A Justice Department official who disclosed this today said reports of chicanery by builders have come in from nearly every part of the country.

The largest number, he said, are from Los Angeles, Baltimore, New York, New Orleans, Miami, Dallas and Chicago.

Morris Verner, compliance officer for the housing expediter said 26,000 former soldiers have appealed to his division alone.

Verner said some contractors left a full room out of the houses they built. One man, he said, cut the width of each house in a row by one foot so he could get more houses in a block.

The compliance division is supposed to see that home builders and sellers live up to regulations in the housing law. Verner said his staff has been swamped.

Major complaints, he told a reporter, fall into two classes:

1. That the charge for the home exceeded the limit set by the Federal Housing Authority when it granted a veterans' priority for the job. About one-third of the disaffected ex-soldiers made this charge.

2. That the houses did not follow the agreed specifications.

Verner said his office tries to obtain price adjustments or refunds for the veterans. When these are refused, and evidence of violation is strong, the case will be turned over to the Justice Department.

Actor To Take 'Rap' For Cat

Los Angeles, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Allen C. Jenkins, the bug-eyed film comedian who told police his cat was driving his auto when they arrested him on charges of drunk driving, had an appointment in court today in New detail to Municipal Judge Lewis Drucker.

To newsmen, Jenkins said: "I'm going to take the rap for Friday." He grinned when he said it. Smiling is the Jenkins cat.

Fourth Installment Of Russian Propaganda Counter-Blast Accuses U.S. And Britain Of Secret Mid-War Talks With Nazis And 'Double Cross'

Moscow, Feb. 17.—(P)—Russia has accused the United States and Britain of conducting secret talks for a separate peace with Germany in the middle of World War II.

The Soviet Union made the charge last night in the fourth installment of its reply to U. S. State Department disclosures of documents regarding Russian-German relations.

A statement said Allen W. Dulles, a brother of John Foster Dulles, a German spokesman in 1943 which touched on the question of concluding a separate peace with Germany.

It also charged that the son of Lord Beaverbrook, British publisher, represented Britain in similar peace talks with a German representative in September, 1941.

The statement further accused Britain and France of seeking to start war with the Soviet Union in 1940 instead of fighting Germany.

Officials said this was the final round of statements before publication of captured German documents Russia claims to possess.

"From these documents," the statement said, "it can be seen that in the autumn of 1941 and also in 1942 and 1943 in Lisbon and in Switzerland, negotiations were carried on behind the back of the U. S. S. R. between representatives of Britain and Germany, and later between representatives of the United States and Germany on the subject of peace with Germany."

The Russian statement declared that Dulles, with authority from the White House, conferred with the Germans under the pseudonym of "Bill."

It said the German representative was Prince Max Horenlohe, who acted as Hitler's representative under the assumed name of "Pauls."

Russia said Germany's Security Service possessed documents giving a summary of these negotiations.

They showed, the statement said, that among the subjects discussed was the "question of conclusion of peace with Germany."

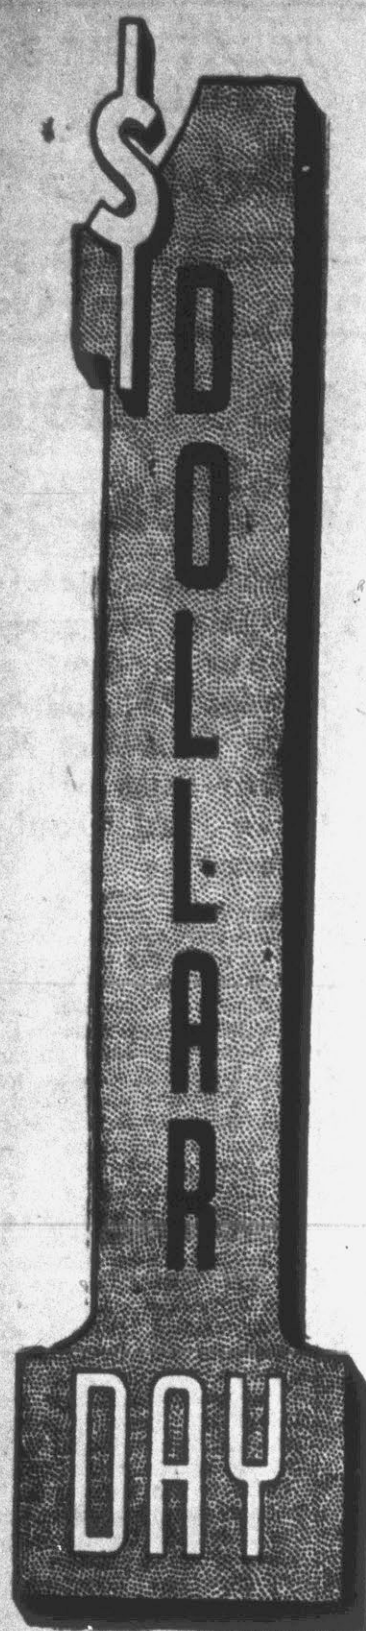

The statement said "Dulles more or less agreed to the political and industrial organization of Europe on the basis of large territories on the assumption that a federated greater Germany (similar to the U. S.) with an adjoining Danubian confederation, will constitute the best guarantee of order and rehabilitation in Central and Eastern Europe."

(Allen Welsh Dulles, former chief of the U. S. office of strategic services in Europe worked with underground forces seeking to overthrow Hitler from 1943 on.)

(Dulles also arranged for the surrender of the German army in Italy. Later he helped prepare the case against the Nazis at Nuremberg.)

FIDDLIN' BILL ON TRIAL

Asheville, N. C., Feb. 17.—(AP)—"Fiddlin' Bill" Hensley, 75-year-old champion fiddler of the Great Smokies, went on trial in Buncombe Superior Court today, accused of the shot-gun slaying of Clarence J. Harwood.

In Memory of My Son

It was just a year ago today that my darling son passed away. Yes, I know, Dear Lord, I know it was meant to be. So you called him. Now since Dear Son, you are no more with me, I hope you are in heaven waiting for me. God knows you left a lonely heart, but I hope we can meet some day, where we never will have to part. You were so good and we miss you so, but God knew best, so he took you to rest. On that bright Sabbath morning when the sun shall rise no more, I hope to meet you on that bright and golden shore.

through the cooperation of one of the large seed companies.

"Seeds of Peace" will be distributed to the needy in Great Britain, France, Holland, Italy, Greece, Luxembourg, Austria, Germany and other countries of Western Europe who have signified their desire to aid themselves through the Marshall Plan.

Church World Service, Inc., an affiliate of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America has been chosen as the distributing and supervising agency for this project, because of their representatives in 35 countries overseas and because their distributions are made on the basis of need, regardless of race, creed or color.

The Greenville Garden Club is solidly behind this program of "Seeds of Peace" and are asking that the people of Greenville cooperate in this movement.

Mrs. H. L. Andrews, East Fifth Street Extension, is the chairman and anyone wishing to make a contribution can send it to Mrs. Andrews. All contributions will have to be in to Mrs. Andrews by March 15th, as the planting time is drawing near.

You are invited to give an unlimited amount, for the need is greater than we can possibly supply and the facilities are adequate to take care of all donations. A tiny seed takes small space in shipping, but a cargo carrying "Seeds of Peace," packages of vegetable seed, has within it the miracle of life and the gift of hope and friendship.

Jean Lane To Give Gallery Talk
On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Jean Lane of the Art Department of E. C. T. C. will give a gallery talk in the Art Gallery and on Friday night at 7:30 she will give a second gallery talk.

The current exhibition in the gallery is one of 34 paintings done by Miss Lane and these gallery talks will add to the understanding of an interest in the paintings.

The public is cordially invited.

Seeds of Peace.

The National Council of State Garden Clubs is sponsoring a movement which they are calling "Seeds of Peace." Many families in Europe and Great Britain have been relying upon vegetables from their own gardens to supplement the scanty official rations. Vacant land is available and the people generally are skilled gardeners.

Seeds of thirteen kinds of vegetables in garden units will be contributed by members of the garden clubs and State Federations of National Council of State Garden Clubs. The units will cost only 50c

Strength FOR THE DAY

CRAFTSMAN IN THE GENIUS
CLASS

Two hundred and eleven years ago the great Stradivarius died. He reached the ripe old age of ninety-three and passed away in 1737, the greatest maker of violins the human race has yet produced. His output was said to have been over 1100 instruments, of which 540 violins, 12 violas, and 50 cellos are actually known today. He was believed to be very rich. Tall, stout, and of few words, he lived humbly and generally went about in a workman's apron. To this day no one has been able to discover what made his instruments the best that ever came from human hands. Some believe that the varnish he used had much to do with the tone; but the formula is lost. Tradition has it that he wrote this formula on the margin of the family Bible, but that his son memorized the formula, then tore it off and destroyed it. His violins continue a noble example of a job well done. Modern man with all his science cannot make violins like Antonio. He put something of skill and care into his work which no one could copy. He found his career not in playing violins but in making them.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

Washington—Every week senators and congressmen record more than 700 speeches, right in their own studios for the folks back home. The speeches are for broadcast over radio stations in the lawmakers' own districts. They must be objective under studio rules, and cannot be used for office-seeking. Often they are downright cozy. For 15 years the recording studio was operated as a private enterprise by Robert J. Coar and his attractive wife, Helen. Last June Congress voted to set it up as part of the legislative branch of the government.

The studios—three in the old House office building, two in the Senate office building—are considered self-sustaining. Nowhere since the members pay $3 apiece for each 15-minute record. Most records, however, run from about 4 1/2 to 1 1/2 minutes. About 175 senators and congressmen make weekly recordings. Senator Carl Albert (R-Wash.) comes in to the Senate office building studio every WHEE! The People!

Monday morning at 9 o'clock to make records, broadcast over 28 stations in his district. Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) makes records for broadcast over 20 stations. Senator Capper (R-Kas.) started having his speeches recorded for local consumption 14 years ago and has never missed a week. Seven years ago he underwent an appendectomy, but the Coars fixed it up so he could make his talk from his hospital bed.

One lawmaker got so interested in the broadcasting he bought a radio station back home. Among the easiest to listen to, according to Mrs. Coar, are Rep. Dirksen (R-Ill.), Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) and Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.).

Some Congressmen make it a practice to get visiting constituents in on their recordings. Rep. E. C. "Took" Guthrie (D-Ark.) once got 15 visiting daughters of the American Revolution on a 15-minute recording, a feat that was talked about for weeks.

Rep. Dawson (R-Utah) once wanted to brighten his speech by playing the novachord, but was prohibited from so doing because of musicians' union regulations.

Big networks have complained that the capitol studios were operating in competition to them, but the congressmen contend that the speeches they make for local stations can't be of interest to the whole country.

Mrs. Coar first came to Washington to make installations for the Federal Communications Commission. His wife is the daughter of Gerald Badgley, chief motion picture designing engineer for the Navy.

SOUVENIR

Butte, Mont.—(AP)—This is the land of the silver dollar. A Butte woman mailed a $1 bill to the county tuberculosis fund and explained the only reason she had a bill that small was because a Kentucky friend had sent it to her.

RADIO IN POLAND

Warsaw—(AP)—The government-controlled Radio Polskie announces it installed more than 26,000 loudspeakers in Poland villages last December and is asking parliament to approve the erection of 100,000 more.

Korean . . .

(Continued from Page One) south? Well, the American official doesn't tell us that but maybe he figures it is self-evident. The answer most certainly is that the moment the U.S. troops were withdrawn the new Red Korean army would sweep down from the north and try to compel the southerners to unite with the Soviet government of the north.

However, we have a denial in advance for that assertion. Chairman Kim Il Sung of the North Korean Peoples Committee, who made the broadcast previously referred to, asserted gratuitously that the army wasn't for purposes of "staging internecine civil war as certain reactionaries maliciously publicize."

Maybe the gentleman is correct but "methinks he doth protest too much."

Soviet methods run in a groove, and we have had plenty of demonstrations in Europe. Russia clearly intends to rule all Korea if she can. The reason is quite clear.

Korea's geographical position makes it one of the most valuable military bases in the Orient, both for defense and offense. It is a "dagger pointed at the heart of Japan"; it lies up against Manchuria, which many observers believe Moscow intends to add to Russia's zone of domination, and it even touches Russian Siberia not far from the big Soviet naval port of Vladivostok.

So there are plenty of reasons why Russia wants Korea—and intends to get it if the trick can be done.

Alaskan . . .

(Continued from Page One) from Russia in 1867 for $7,200,000. But this government didn't do much to bring law and order there until 1894.

Then it sent in a Federal Judge and some other officials. The Klondike gold rush of 1898 drummed up interest in the place. Settlers followed the miners.

In 1912 Congress made Alaska a territory. Which meant the president appointed a governor and the people could elect their own legislature, House and Senate.

And the territory has a delegate to Congress. He can't vote, but he represents the people of Alaska.

Output of industry runs over $70,000,000 a year. It's concentrated mainly in three businesses: Fur, fishing, mostly salmon, and mining—gold, coal, platinum.

The people pay federal income taxes but Alaska has no income taxes of its own, for persons or corporations, and no general property tax.

The territory has one railroad, owned by the U. S. government. It was opened in 1923.

Some of the arguments against statehood for Alaska—a number of Alaskans have protested to Congress—go like this:

The population is too small now for statehood. The majority of the 60,000 white people live in the towns and cities. Alaska, which gets a lot of money help from this government while it's a territory, couldn't afford to run itself as a state. Alaska is too far from the United States to have the same interests and problems.

The House subcommittee listened to all those arguments against statehood and brushed them aside. Some arguments for statehood go this way:

The small size of the population is no argument against statehood. Twelve states had smaller populations when they were admitted to statehood. Alaska now is a strategic part of the United States.

As a territory, Alaska is subject to the whims of Congress which can pass any law it wishes about Alaska. As a state, Alaska would have to be treated by Congress as any other state.

The subcommittee says other territories were able to raise money to pay their way when they became states so there's no reason way Alaska couldn't.

Asks Housewives To Fight Costs

President Advises Women To Use Power Of Consumer

Washington, Feb. 17.—(AP)—President Truman advised today that women use their power over the household purse to fight "the high cost of living."

Mr. Truman addressed a conference of women leaders at the Labor Department. It was arranged by the department to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the movement for women's rights.

"Women's organizations have at hand a ready weapon which they have not yet used to its full capacity—the power of the consumer," the President said.

"There has been talk over and over again that women should be the main channel of the nation's wealth, they certainly should be for food, for clothing, for education, for all the things that make for better living. This is a weapon which you can use together to combat one of the enemies that now threaten us—the high cost of living."

The President told the women

'Never Again'

London, Feb. 17.—(AP)—A 12-year-old girl in the lower Bridge juvenile court on a charge of waywardness suddenly recognized one of the court's visitors today.

The child clung to her mother, pointed to the visitor, and wailed: "Whatever will she think of me? I'll never be naughty again."

The visitor was Princess Elizabeth.

they have "many unfinished tasks" in their battle for civil and political rights.

He mentioned "equal pay for equal work" and the ending of such discriminations against women as limitations on their right to serve on federal juries.

Draper-Adler Show Delights Audience In Wright Building

Paul Draper, tap dancer, and Larry Adler, harmonicaist, delighted an audience of approximately 1500 people when they appeared last night in the Wright auditorium of East Carolina Teachers College in a joint recital sponsored by the Entertainment Committee of the college.

Each of the two young Americans has a unique talent and gave last night a show that seemed entirely satisfactory to an enthusiastically applauding audience.

Draper's dancing is tap with a difference, for he dances to the classics and bases his unusual style on ballet technique. His intricately rhythmic "Dance Without Music" was one of the high spots of the program.

Adler coaxed beautiful music from the harmonica, an instrument which few who heard him will again consider "lowly." The tones of various instruments—the violin, the flute, the muted trumpet—all came alive out of the small instrument.

The show will not be open during church service hours, it was announced today.

Negroes Thank Supt. Rose For Use Two Schools

The Welfare Committee of the Colored Olive League passed a resolution of thanks and appreciation to June H. Rose, superintendent of Greenville city schools, for his sympathetic interest and good neighbor spirit in opening to the public the C. M. Epps High School and the Fleming Street School during and after the severe snow storm last week. The resolution praised the superintendent for his interest in the welfare of the colored people during the fuel shortage and severely cold weather and opening the two schools to provide shelter and warmth. Many colored persons were snowbound here and others were entirely without fuel.

Historians Probe Into Legend Of Ancient Tower

Newport, R. I.—Historians are arming themselves to storm a tower that has never surrendered its secret in hundreds of years.

The old stone mill—whose ancient silence on a hill in Touro park has challenged generations of New England questioners—is soon to face a full battle line of science, archeologists and historians who seek what lost hands braced its arches and set its stones.

A familiar picture in American schoolbooks, the strange tower—which may be the oldest structure in the land—has for years never given the answer to these two questions of its origin:

1. Was it built by Vikings as their church or stronghold against savages of the 12th century new world?
2. Was it built on order of Gov. Arnold, first colonial governor of Rhode Island, between 1663 and 1668?

In New England historians and householders have chosen sides on those two explanations for generations and now for the first time a direct study will dig for the answer.

The newly formed Newport Preservation Society, headed by Mrs. George Henry Warren, Jr., and sparked in this project by railroad magnate Robert R. Young, has at last been authorized by the Newport Park Commission to make excavation.

In its present state the tower stands like a hollow alo, its roof gone, and its grey fieldstone bulk supported by arches with eight columns.

Schoolboys know of it, too, from Longfellow's poem "Skeleton in Armor" in which the poet writes of the tower as the refuge of a Norse warrior.

Chief spokesman of the Norse theory was the late archeologist, Philip Ainsworth Means of Pomfret, Conn., whose book, published in 1942, declared flatly that the tower "is the nave of a round Norse church erected in the 12th century by men sent out by Bishop Eric Gnipsson, bishop of Greenland and Vinland."

The opposing school scoffs at the Vikings and quotes Gov. Arnold's reference in his will to his "stone built windmill." They argue, too, that Arnold's mention of such a structure was the only reference to it from the time of Newport's founding in 1639.

Once, historians claim, the tower had two floors and there were traces of a fireplace in it.

Pilgrim records show that the old mill was used as a powder house in the Indian wars. Up the years it served as a corn mill, a lookout tower and a hay mow.

Means called the tower "this most enigmatic and puzzling single building in the United States."

PRIORITIES IN MANILA
Manila—(AP)—Scores of schools and hospitals in Manila burned out during the war will be rebuilt in 1948, the Philippine war damage commission says. Such institutions have first priority in the multi-million dollar rebuilding program, which should get into full swing this year.

QUICK CHEW
Chicago—(AP)—John Chew, at 20, was the "graybeard" of the recent graduating class at Fenger High School but his record showed that he was a fast man with a book. He didn't start to grade school until he was 12. Then he whizzed through the eight grades in double time and finished in four years.

SENATOR—John Stennis (above) has succeeded the late Theodore G. Bilbo, as U. S. senator from Mississippi.

OUTING—June Haver of the films wears a beach shirt with a hood and carries a wicker lunch basket.

Education Costs GI's More Than VA Aid; Vets And Wives At Work

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE

New York—Since the end of the war more than one and one-quarter million veterans have swelled the ranks of students in colleges and universities in this country to the bursting point.

How these ex-servicemen subsist, what they think of their instruction, vocational choices and extra-curricular activities has been made the subject of a nationwide study planned by a national committee appointed by the American Council on Education, financed by the Disabled American Veterans.

The committee found that the average total monthly expenses of single veterans in college is $106.13, or $43.13 more than the $65 allotted to him by the Veterans Administration. Married students spent $175.38 but received only $90, a difference of $85.38.

To make ends meet, the committee reports, many veterans work during school terms and summer vacations. Of the more than one-third employed, 92 per cent earned from $10 or less to $30 in a term. Earnings of the remaining 8 per cent ranged from $31 to $105. Wives of 56 per cent of the married student veterans work to supplement their husbands' incomes.

The answers to what the veterans think of their instruction, the committee reports, range from "average" to "very good" with approximately 8 per cent considering their teaching "inferior" or "very poor."

A majority of the veteran students, the committee says, feel that educational standards in their institutions actually had been raised as a result of the tremendous growth in enrollment. Increased competition among students, their greater maturity and present day higher college entrance requirements, "more and better professors" and a "larger selection of new course" were some of the reasons advanced.

Veterans are more serious than non-veteran students, the committee finds. They are more mature in their approach to college studies, have more practical and definite goals and realize more fully the value of the educational program which they are now undertaking.

The report shows that only 35 per cent of the veterans now enrolled in colleges and universities have changed vocational plans they made before entering the armed services. The greatest change was found among the disabled veteran students, with 46 per cent of married students in this group and 43 per cent of single students enrolled in programs leading to occupational goals different than those they had prior to the war. All but a few veteran students in college are satisfied with the progress they are making toward their chosen vocations.

The study shows that more than one-half the former GIs take little part in student organizations and activities outside the classroom. In most cases they do not have sufficient time or are not interested in such activities.

Dean E. G. Williamson of the University of Minnesota acted as chairman of the committee. Ralph J. Strom, formerly of the Veterans Administration, was director of the project and conducted the study.

Merchants Body Directors Meet

In the absence of President Taft, who is out of Greenville, Vice-President Charles Blissette presided at the monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Merchants Association held on Monday night, Feb. 16.

A treasurer's report from L. S. Garris showed the association's finances in good condition.

W. L. Allen and D. J. Whichard reported on a conference with Mayor Jack Boyd relative to tagging automobiles on regular holidays. The mayor states that the city will be glad to cooperate and declare a holiday on the parking meters on all holidays observed by the business firms and for the Wednesday afternoon holidays for the summer months.

J. H. Blount, president of the North Carolina Merchants Association, had appointed Mrs. Cora S. Powell as a delegate to represent the state association at the annual meeting of Tobacco Associates, Inc. in Raleigh on March 1, 1948, and the board instructed Mrs. Powell to attend.

The committee on tallying the Wednesday half-holiday card vote, W. L. Harrington and L. S. Garris reported that the majority vote was for April 14. The board voted to go with the majority vote and announce the official date set for starting the half-holiday as April 14.

Membership Chairman W. L. Harrington reported a new member, the Claude Gaskins Company.

San Juan, Puerto Rico, Feb. 17.—(AP)—El Imparcial said today President Truman will have to pass through a Puerto Rican youth Congress picket line when he visits President Jesus T. Pinerio Saturday.

The newspaper said the youth Congress plans to picket Mr. Truman when he arrives on a Caribbean visit. The reason for the planned picketing was not announced.

Polish Press Grows In Spite Of Censors

Warsaw.—(AP)—The press of Poland is growing despite stiff censorship.

From a handful of publications in early 1945 after the liberation of Warsaw, the nation now has 35 daily newspapers. There are 81 weeklies, 51 bi-weeklies, 226 monthlies, 23 quarterlies and 29 magazines published at irregular intervals.

Most numerous are 49 magazines devoted to economic and religious issues. Among the religious publications, 44 are Catholic.

One Polish daily has reached 400,000 circulation. The majority of others average 100,000.

Hollanders Planning Big Music Festival

Amsterdam.—(AP)—A musical competition festival will take place in Scheveningen, Holland, from May 19 to 29 organized by the Dutch Radio Philips. There are three divisions: singing, violin, piano.

Musicians from 15 to 30 years old may compete.

The judging committee comprises musicians of 14 nations and includes Yehudi Menuhin, Nathan Milstein, Georges Enesco, Sara Scuderi, Leonard Bernstein, Marguerite Long, Sem Dresden, Berthe Seroen and Jo Vincent.

Best-Selling Books In Russian Sphere

London.—(AP)—Moscow Radio reports a current best-selling novel in Russia is Ira Wolfert's "Tucker's People," which it said "exposes the social origin of gangsterism and the gangster nature of American monopoly capital."

Upon Sinclair's "World's End" depicting American life during World War I, and the Sinclair Lewis novel "Gideon Planish" which the radio said was "aimed against fascism and its manifestations in America," will soon come off Russian presses.

450-Pound Fat Man Defies His Doctors

Belgrade.—(AP)—The weekly newspaper Republika says a 450-pound peasant, Zdravko Mihailovich from Vojvodina, whose stomach drapes over his knees when he sits down, is still very much alive although Serbian doctors predicted he would die last year.

Yugoslavia's contender for the fat man championship of the world, according to Republika, is so fat he can't lie down when he sleeps but must remain sitting. His first name, Zdravko, means healthy.

Falkland Island Dispute Growing

London, Feb. 17.—(AP)—There were reports in London today that uranium deposits might be the prize sparking the current dispute over possession of the bleak Falkland Islands, far down in the South Atlantic.

The London News Chronicle, without disclosing its source of information, said in a front page story: "Uranium in the Falkland Islands is believed to be one of the reasons for Argentine and Chilean challenges to British sovereignty."

Uranium is basic mineral used in the production of atomic energy.

Britain announced yesterday that her South Atlantic flagships, Nigeria, is steaming toward the Falklands to "show the flag" in what the government considers British territory.

The 8,000-ton cruiser left Simonstown, South Africa, yesterday under emergency orders.

Britain has promised full support to Governor Miles Clifford against Chilean and Argentine claims to the strategic islands, which lie northeast of Cape Horn, about 300 miles east of Argentina.

Culture pearls were produced in China as far back as the 14th Century.

TO SPEAK BEFORE CLUB

Elmer Oettinger of Wilson, radio news analyst over the Tobacco Network, will speak at a meeting of the International Relation Club of East Carolina Teachers College on Tuesday evening, February 24, at 8:45 o'clock, according to an announcement by Jack Kimbrell of Waxhaw, president of the organization.

The Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, who is asking Episcopal Church members to give a million dollars in 1948 for the relief of needy peoples in war-devastated countries of Europe and Asia. The Church raised a million dollars for this purpose in 1947, and will attempt to give a similar amount in 1948 and a third million in 1949. Relief is given through Church World Service in Europe and the National Christian Councils in the Oriental countries.

Fraternity Tea Is Held For Honor Students

A group of students outstanding in scholarship in the department of business education at East Carolina Teachers College were entertained at a tea on Thursday afternoon in the Classroom Building by members of the Beta Kappa chapter of Pi Omega Pi, national honorary business education fraternity, on the campus.

The occasion was a celebration of the founding of the local branch of the organization at East Carolina in 1944. Annually on Founders' Day the Beta Kappa chapter honors at a formal tea those students of the business education department whose grades on courses taken at the college deserve recognition for excellence.

The drawing room and the dining room of the Classroom Building were attractively decorated to suggest the idea of St. Valentine's Day. The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and had as a centerpiece an arrangement of red carnations and lighted candles.

Approximately 75 guests called during the afternoon. Among those who welcomed them were the faculty advisers of the chapter, Misses Audrey V. Dempsey and Lena Ellis; other faculty members of the department of business education; and the officers of the organization, who are Dorothy Bennett of Edward, president; Ruth Johnson of New Holland, vice president; Froelich Thompson of Cerro Gordo, secretary; Alton Finch of Roanoke Rapids, treasurer; and Isaac Reynolds of Columbia, historian.

Students from Pitt County who were honor guests were Edmund B. Boyd, Jessie Braxton, and Ashley H. Corbin, Greenville; Edwin Ayrette, Joseph B. Edwards, Patsy and Peggy McGlohon, Winterville; Van Dyke Hatch, Ayden; George R. Smith, of Farmville; Elia Frances Viola, of Greenville; and J. Eric Whitehead, of Stokes.

Cases Tried In Police Court

Driving drunk: Roy Little, colored and William T. Dixon, each fined $100 and costs, and their licenses were ordered revoked for a year.

Assault with a deadly weapon: Helen R. Roberson, colored, $25 and placed on probation for two years. Speeding: Lionel E. Martin, $20. Possession non-tax paid liquor: Redden T. Jones, $10.

Forcible trespass and larceny: William Richardson, colored, 90 days on the roads.

Drunk: William N. Cherry, $15; Adelle Heath, 30 days in jail, or $15; capias not to issue outside city limits; Louise Porter, $15; James F. Robinson, $15; Redden T. Jones, $15.

N.C. Roads Said Improving Fast

Raleigh, N.C., Feb. 17.—(AP)—Chief Highway Engineer Vance Baise said today that road conditions were improving rapidly in eastern North Carolina after being damaged by high water.

Waters are subsiding on the roads, he said, although several county roads still are closed. Eastern rivers also are expected to crest before they cause much property damage or evacuation of families.

Find Ballads Of The REAL Old Wild West

By MERRILL ENGLAND

Missoula, Mont.—So you think the frontiers of the west were shov- ed back by people singing "Oh, Susanna"?

Well, you're wrong partner. At least the melody wranglers of the Montana University Music School Foundation say you are.

An early day Montanan was much more apt to be singing "Seven Beers With the Wrong Woman," "Hicky Jim," "Yellowstone Flat" or "You Made a Hole in My Heart You Could Ready-Roll a Turnip In."

To preserve the music in the history of the west, the foundation— directed by Music School Dean John Crowder—sent a threeman party into the field last summer. They staked out musical claims in the Fort Benton and Miles City areas.

With a trailer recording set, and a free hand, they rounded up old timers to sing for them. By the end of the summer the three had heard 21 performers, ranging from young cowboys to grey-beards who turned up with 13 songs known to have originated in Montana.

Several of the singers told of hav- ing heard even more fascinating songs than those they remembered.

During the first summer's work the field party cut 33 discs—96 dif- ferent tunes, and 20 additional va- riations.

Charles R. Cutts of Billings, Mont. directed the field party. Working with him were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Wylder of Missoula.

GLACIER PARK LAKE — Lake Ellen Wilson, named for the wife of the late President Woodrow Wilson, is on the south circle trail in Glacier National Park.

Public Ownership Means 'My Train' To A Night Owl

London—At least one traveler has taken a literal view of the recent change of British railways to public ownership.

Police said a man who boarded a 2:34 a.m. train at London's King's Cross Station refused to leave when told it was exclusively for hauling newspapers to provincial cities and that no passengers were allowed.

"This is by blinking railway now," he retorted, "and I am not going to get out."

Railway police struggled unsuccessfully to remove him as he clung to a baggage rack.

Finally, the car was detached from the train and shunted into the darkness of a tunnel. Two hours later the man emerged.

Police, who did not bring charges, escorted him aboard a regular train.

Wallpapers His Bedroom With Postage Stamps

Memphis, Tenn.—It might sound wacky, but to E. F. Miller wallpapering a bedroom with postage stamps is just another way of collecting them—and he doesn't have to turn album pages.

An air-conditioning expert by day, Miller while away his evening hours glueing stamps of all sizes, colors and denominations to his 14 by 14 room.

Starting the tedious project a year ago, Miller estimates he has stuck some 35,000 stamps on the ceiling and one wall, alone.

No definite design to his "album," Miller says. He just "grabs 'em and sticks 'em." But the big armchairs do make a mighty pretty border, he adds.

The final touch is a coat of shellac.

AGREE TO TREATY

London, Feb. 7 —(AP)— Britain and Trans-Jordan have agreed tentatively on a new treaty of mutual aid setting up a joint defense board, diplomatic sources said today.

The agreement was reached after two weeks of negotiation.

Get Around To 'Forgotten Man'

Nanking—(AP)—The government worker long the "forgotten man" in China's run-away inflation, is going to be remembered now.

His salary has been static while prices soared out of sight, and how he kept clothes on his back and food on his table has been a Chinese puzzle.

Now, the state council rules, his salary will be readjusted every three months. It will be reckoned on a cost of living index, similar to a system much used in private indus- try.

MOTORIZED TROOPS PATROL HOLY LAND — Bren gun carriers manned by British troops and Palestine police withdraw after scattering a band of 500 Arabs which attacked a Jewish settlement at Yehiam, Palestine.

War Plant Converted Into City Of Factories

By HILLIARD A. SCHENDORF
Instead of becoming a post-war white elephant for want of a single firm big enough to occupy all of it, the plant, which was one of the sprawling industrial "city," with 10 city blocks of floor space and 14 factories.

The city of factories—which decided that "two (or more) can live as cheaply as one"—is setting the pace for others. A plant three times as big already is being converted the same way.

The converted plant was operated by the Wright Aeronautical Corporation during the war. But by 1945, the airplane engine firm had withdrawn to a single factory in Paterson.

Five firms got together and bought 86 per cent of the plant. They formed Fair Lawn Industries, Inc., which bought the rest and now maintains all facilities. Then they leased the unoccupied parts of the plant to nine other firms, with three others yet to move in.

The joint occupancy is proving a blessing to all, says General Manager George R. Jaqua.

"Should one firm have a bad year," he explains, "another is likely to have a profitable time. That makes the plant solid and helps provide work all the time for the labor force."

Joint maintenance of buildings and joint operation of the power plant is proving cheaper and more efficient than individual operation. More than 85 per cent of the entire plant is on the ground floor, eliminating elevators and extensive conveyor systems. There are large areas of unbroken floor space, now at a premium in industry.

The former Wright Aircraft Plants 1 and 2 in Paterson, three times as large as Plant 3, have been sold to Webb and Knapp, Inc., New York real estate firm, which is converting them into another factory city.

The occupants of Plant 3 turn out such diverse products as automotive parts, printed ribbon and metal foil. So diverse are the industries that a weaving firm might buy its machinery from a neighbor. A third firm might print the ribbon it made, and a fourth might dye and print the cloth. A furniture upholstery firm might use cloth, and a lithographer might advertise the products of all.

The sprawling plant, with 680,000 square feet (18 acres) of floor space and 44 acres of ground, was built in 1928 for the Textile Printing and

Grain Trading Is Explained By Former Teacher

Chicago—Visitors to the Chicago Board of Trade henceforth will have explained to them the meaning of the shouting and waving of traders on the floor of the big grain market.

Directors have equipped a lecture room. Miss Eunice Dustin, formerly a school teacher in Moline, Ill., presents an illustrated talk on the markets functions. Slides are used with the lecture.

She encourages questions. The most frequently asked question, she said, is:

"How can anyone sell what he doesn't own?"

This is a query directed at the seller. The reply is that many commercial goods are sold before they are manufactured, and that the short seller must deliver the main grain eventually unless he cancels out his obligation by buying futures.

"Will prices go up or down?"

To this attempt to get an inside tip on the market, she answers: "Some think they will go up and some think they will go down, which is why there is a buyer and a seller for every transaction."

In recent weeks, Miss Dustin's most tremulous lecture came when a group of economic professors, here for the annual convention of the American Economics Association, strode into the lecture room. She gave her lecture, then braced herself for questions.

"Where can we get hold of some of those slides to use in our classes?" the professors asked.

Dyeing Company of America. It went to war turning out aircraft engines in 1940, and it was sold to the present owners for $1,138,186.

Conversion to peacetime was pushed so fast that riggers waited with new equipment while heavy concrete floors were ripped up to receive it, and other crews moved out heavy equipment that had turned out the plane engines.

BULLY BEEF
Sioux Falls, S. D. —(AP)— Six years ago J. J. Tyne of Corona, S. D., bought a 10-year-old Shorthorn bull for $175. He sold the animal in the Sioux Falls stockyards the other day—at the mature age of 16—for 20 cents a pound, or $337. About 100,000 of the 100,000 people in Jerusalem are Jews.

SLAKING A SNAKE THROUGH CUSTOMS
Singapore (AP)—Customs officers got the shock of their lives here when they discovered, hidden in a cart-load of vegetables, a crate containing a 26-foot python who was sleepily digesting a pig he'd swallowed whole. It was admitted free of duty after the Chinese cartman had been cautioned against attempting to smuggle pythons. The python was sold to Chinese merchants for sale to Chinese, who believe python flesh has medicinal powers.
