ECTC Inaugural Program Gets Under Way Tuesday

East Carolina Teachers College will begin on Tuesday of this week a program of gala events, which will be climaxed on Saturday by inaugural exercises inducting Dr. John D. Messick into office as president of the college.

The inaugural program will bring to the campus a large group of representatives of colleges and universities, educational associations, and learned societies from many states in the nation. Approximately twenty college and university presidents have accepted invitations to be present. A number of state officers, editors of newspapers, members of the college Board of Trustees and of the Alumni Association, and other guests are expected to attend. Acting as chairman of the committee arranging events of the week is Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, director of field services at the college.

The initial event on the week's program will be a formal reception in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Messick, to which staff members living in Ragdale Hall on the campus have invited approximately 400 guests.

The college Entertainment Committee will present on Wednesday evening in the Wright Auditorium "A Night in Old Vienna," a program of songs by a quintet of young American artists, and at this concert those attending the inaugural exercises will be guests.

The Chi Pi Players of the college will give on Thursday evening in the Austin Auditorium a program of children's plays. The Players' annual production of a drama for young people was set this year for inauguration week because of its interest to educators and its appropriateness as an illustration of the teacher-training program offered at the college here.

A Founders' Day program, which will celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the establishment of East Carolina, will be given by the Alumni Association on Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Friday afternoon at Greenville and Dr. Messick, speakers of the occasion, will outline the history and the plans for the future of the college.

A public recital in which talented students of music will participate will be presented by the college department of music in the Austin Auditorium on Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

The events of Saturday will begin with a concert by the college band on the portico of the Wright Building at 10:00 o'clock. Following it, a colorful academic procession of faculty members of East Carolina and of official delegates of the organizations represented at the inauguration will move from the Classroom Building to the Wright Auditorium.

At the inaugural exercises, Dr. Howard J. McGinnis of the college will preside; and Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, state superintendent of public instruction and chairman of the college Board of Trustees, will induct Dr. Messick into office. Speakers for the occasion will be Governor R. Gregg Cherry of North Carolina; Dr. George Frederick Zook, president of the National Council on Education and chairman of President Truman's Commission on Higher Education; and Dr. Messick. President Leon Edgar Smith of Elon will give the invocation.

A luncheon in the South Dining Hall of the college for approximately 275 guests will follow the inaugural exercises. Dr. H. A. Sprague, president of the State Teachers College, Montclair, New Jersey, will be principal speaker.

A public reception honoring Dr. Messick and guests on the campus will be given in the Classroom Building at 3:00 o'clock.

Speaks In Wilson

C. B. METHENY

A joint meeting of the Life Underwriters Association from Wilson, Rocky Mount, Greenville, Kinston, and Smithfield will be held in Wilson on Thursday evening, March 4.

The Cherry hotel will serve as headquarters for the meeting, and according to Roy Webb, secretary, more than 100 life insurance underwriters are expected for the affair. Also many outstanding state officers and officials are expected, among them being William P. Hodges, State Insurance Commissioner.

The highlight of the evening will be an address by C. Brainerd Metheny, general agent of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, from Pittsburgh. Mr. Metheny is considered an outstanding leader in the field of insurance. The subject of his address will be "The magic of life insurance."

Pitt County 4-H Clubs Observe National Event

By CHESTER WALSH

Seven hundred and fifteen 4-H Club boys and girls representing 14 clubs in Pitt county lined up today with 106,131 4-H Club boys and girls of North Carolina's 2,029 4-H Clubs to celebrate "National 4-H Club week with appropriate daily programs during the week, Bill Pruden, assistant county farm agent and director of 4-H Club work here, said today.

There are 74,000 4-H Clubs in the United States with 1,700,000 members. The theme for the week is "Creating Better Homes Today for a More Responsible Citizenship Tomorrow."

Four-H Club members are those boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 21 who have agreed to "learn to do by doing" some phase of farming, homemaking or community activity, under the guidance of cooperative extension workers (county agricultural agents, home demonstration agents, club agents) and the local leaders trained by them. Four-H Club work is the youth part of the whole family approach educational program in agriculture and homemaking of the Cooperative Extension Service. In this extension service, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, state agriculture college and the counties pool their funds and efforts in one program to take to farm people the latest results of scientific agricultural and homemaking experience.

Special events in Pitt county during "National 4-H Club Week" will include special chapel programs at all of the county schools; six regular meetings with special programs at Bell Arthur, Chocod, Falkland and Fountain and a 4-H Club radio program over WGTC next Friday afternoon at 1:45, giving the highlights of the year's work.

The Pitt County Council of 4-H Clubs, with 59 members who are officers of the various clubs, is the planning body for the organization. Miss Hazel Garris of Farmville is chairman. L. R. Harrill of State College, Raleigh, is 4-H Club leader in North Carolina.

Have Leading Roles In Play

When the Chi Pi Players of East Carolina Teachers College present on March 4 through 9 a series of four children's plays for pupils in the schools of the city and of Pitt County. Jerome Worsley of Route 4, Greenville, and Lola Stephenson of Willow Springs (shown above) will have the leading roles in the delightful play "Darby and Joan." The story deals with an enchanted man and his wife who have to live in a little weather-house and tell the weather by going in and out. They never see each other unless a fairy "unspells" them.

Performances of the series of plays are scheduled for the Austin Auditorium on the campus as follows: Thursday, March 4, at 2:00 in the afternoon, for children in the lower grades, and at 8:30 that evening, gala performance for high school and college students, guests attending the inauguration of Dr. John D. Messick, and other adults; Monday afternoon, March 8, at 2:00 o'clock for County school children. A special performance for Negro school children will take place at the Epes School on Tuesday, March 9, at 2:00 o'clock.

Appoint Receiver For Supermarket

Proceedings were instituted in Superior Court Saturday to have a receiver appointed for Plyler's Supermarket, on Evans Street, opposite the armory, by Hooker and Buchanan, Inc., insurance agents. J. Vance Perkins was appointed receiver and was authorized to continue the store until further notice to dispose of perishable stocks and liquidate the corporation.

The action was filed against Claude A. Plyler, Claude A. Plyler, Jr., and Lex Plyler, a partnership doing business as "L. and C. Supermarket," or as "Plyler's Supermarket, Inc." and "Plyler's Supermarket, Inc."

Another Victim of "FREE PHOTOGRAPHS"
You or your neighbor may be the next victim of an offer to make "your photograph free." You accept in good faith the promise of free photographs from some one you do not know, sometimes operating under a sponsor you do know. You will be getting an invitation to be high-pressed into buying additional prints at high prices for poor quality. Inferior coloring and frames, all highly priced, may be forced on you if anything is not satisfactory, do you think you can ever find any one to make things right?

You Can Do This
When any photographer or firm offers you something "free" or "special" or "introductory," investigate before you become involved. Don't release any of your treasured photographs for copies. Don't obligate yourself for anything before you inquire of your local police, your Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau. Hungarian government. When World War I started Masaryk went to Switzerland to carry on the work which was to make him father of his country. Benes remained in Prague and built an undercover organization. Just as the Austrian police were about to arrest him, he escaped to Switzerland and joined Masaryk.

There the two conducted their historic campaign for the establishment of a Czechoslovakia republic. This was created out of former Austro-Hungarian provinces in 1918, when it was recognized by the Allies, with President Woodrow Wilson sponsoring it.

Masaryk became first president of Czechoslovakia and Benes was his foreign minister for seventeen years until 1935, when Masaryk resigned because of ill health. Benes followed in the presidency, which he has held ever since, barring the German occupation, and even then he was head of the Czechoslovakia government in exile. With all his other duties Benes found time to serve seven terms as president of the League of Nations Council.

Strength FOR THE DAY

ONE OF THE GREAT DESTROYERS

The Bible puts at the head of all lists of human frailty the loveless heart; right next comes greed. There is nothing wrong about honest acquisition becomes an end in itself. When it does, it eats the heart out of men and nations more surely than does any other vice.

Greed is an evil often mistaken for the virtue of prudence. They resemble each other as strikingly as do toadstools and mushrooms, and they are as dangerously different. Prudence is acquisition with some quite legitimate end in view; greed is acquisition for its own sake. It is the desire to have merely for the satisfaction of having.

The story of the man on a sinking ship who jumped overboard with his money bags and sank because of them is well known. Those who read the Bible remember Achan who hid his gold and got for himself death; Gehazi, who was eaten up by the spirit of greed, and later bore the curse of leprosy as a result; Judas, who sold his friend and neighbor for pieces of silver. But in every circle today walk men and women out of whom all life has been eaten, not because they are dishonest but only because they are greedy. Their lives are spent in getting, and so spent because they love to acquire.

But the best man who ever lived said: "I am in the midst of you as one who serves."

A GRATIFYING EXAMPLE

The withdrawal of two well-known Pitt County attorneys from the list of possible nominees to fill the vacancy of Solicitor for the Fifth Judicial District was a most refreshing example of desire for unity in the county's political front.

J. H. Harrell and T. K. Fountain, both of Greenville, placed prestige of the county before personal prestige; and in so doing, earned much good-will from the community at large.

There are 15,000 potential voters in Pitt; a treasure if there ever was one for aspirants to state and federal office. But in each election the margin of "profitable" votes for the winning candidate has been counted only by the hundreds. No wonder then, that political favors are bestowed on counties where the voters are fewer but show greater majorities for the candidate.

Of course, we have the personal satisfaction of demonstrating that voters in this county have minds of their own, and vote accordingly; but in so doing, our political strength is wasted in our own front yard and not applicable to the state as a whole.

STATES' RIGHTS

Throughout the history of our country there has been a constant tug-of-war between States' Rights and the powers of the federal government. This struggle lies dormant for a few years, then is revived and becomes a new topic of argument on a national scale. It's nothing new, the whole procedure has recurred several times in the memory of living men, and the history books record the same old story all the way back to the time of the thirteen original states.

The same quarrel has been raised again; this time under the general headings of two issues: the Tideland dispute and President Truman's "Civil Rights" program.

Our limited space in this column does not permit going into the merits or failings of either issue, it is the general and more basic outlook that we call to the reader's attention; namely, that more and more the national government is absorbing jurisdictional powers which are properly the affairs of individual states.

This has been made easier because benevolent grants in the form of financial aid is sought by states from Washington — the assistance brings about more federal government in the internal affairs of a state.

We look to Washington for aid; we get it, but at a price.

The growth of federal power is largely due to our own willingness to look to the national government to solve problems which are our own.

There is no argument that we have not benefited in this policy, but rightly or wrongly, states are losing their voice in the management of their own affairs.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

Washington—He has probably the "greenest thumb" in the country. A double pink lilac is named after him. He developed 15 varieties of flowering crab apple and created a new cedar tree.

He is Edmund E. H. Sauerbrey, assistant director of the nation's No. 1 greenhouse, the Botanic Gardens. His main job is the growing and exhibition of all types of plants which folks come from all over the world to see.

The son of a famed florist at Thuringen, Germany, Mr. Sauerbrey came to this country in 1908 after learning his profession in night school.

At present, Mr. Sauerbrey is supervising the Botanic Gardens' annual exhibit of amaryllis, a lot of them hybrids crossed by himself. The first amaryllis was red. Mr. Sauerbrey shows them in all colors except yellow, and he's working hard to develop that color. He even grew one with 10 petals as compared to the original six. Someone stole that specimen, so he has to begin over.

After the Amaryllis show the Botanic Gardens stages its popular exhibit of azaleas and acacias. Along in the early spring comes the Easter showing of tulips, hyacinths, narcissi and lilies. The exhibit of chrysanthemums in the fall and poinsettias has 10,000 visitors a day.

The permanent exhibit consists of about 2,000 plants. The "show" flowers are cultivated in the Botanic Gardens' eight greenhouses in near-by Anacostia.

Each member of Congress is entitled to three plants from the Botanic Gardens. Mr. Sauerbrey says the popular choice is philodendron, sensaveria and dracaena. You see them in every lawmakers' office.

Cut flowers are available for special occasions, and flowers are sent to the veterans hospital and supplied for wreaths for monuments and such.

In the Botanic Gardens you will observe a night blooming cereus which last July produced 22 flowers, rubber plants, a tree that produces sea grapes about the size of a plum, the gycosmis tree that comes from India and has a pearly pink berry like a current.

There are exotic pimenta or allspice trees, lichi nut, sago, paploca, papaya, and callandra trees. There are only six of the last in the United States. It comes from Brazil and has a lovely, bright pink bloom that looks like a feather powder puff.

The Johnny-bread tree has sweet beans. The bread-fruit tree, from South America, has fruit that tastes like half-baked bread and is very good roasted.

The candle tree has white blooms about two and a half inches tall that look like candles with wax dripping over the sides, and a rose apple tree has fruit that tastes like peaches.

There's a sausage tree and a calabash tree from which pipes are made of ebony trees and rattan palms.

Mr. Sauerbrey chuckles when he shows you the long-leaved "mother-in-law" plant.

"You chew on it and your tongue swells up so's you can't talk for 24 hours," he says.

U. S. Ship Afire In Indian Ocean

Sydney, Australia, March 1—(AP)—The U.S. Liberty ship Cecil G. Sellers caught fire today in the Indian Ocean and radio silence tonight indicated her 38-man American crew had taken to lifeboats.

Sydney agents for the Sellers said 16 hours had elapsed since the 7,216-ton vessel reported she was ablaze and her crew ready to abandon ship 200 miles off the Cocos Islands. She left Fremantle, Australia, Feb. 21, her agents said.

Three ships were racing to the aid of the stricken vessel, loaded with grain for France. It was expected the British liner Atlantis, bound from New Zealand to the United Kingdom, would be the first to reach her last reported position.

The Sellers is commanded by Capt. A. E. Yates. She is owned by the U.S. Maritime Commission, and is under charter to the Sword Line of New York.

Charge Three With Slaying Farmer's Cow

By CHESTER WALSH
Linwood Hoots, Grover Smith and Heber Sutton, white men of the Shelmerdine section, were arrested Saturday on a charge of cutting a cow's throat on the L. W. Gaskins farm last Friday night. They each provided $750 bond Saturday night and were released from jail.

Gaskins reported to the sheriff's office that Hoots, Smith and Sutton drove a car onto one of his lots recently vacated by a tenant and killed the cow; that their car got stuck and they were unable to get it out before daylight and were detected; that they left the dead cow and that they did not harm her calf.

Deputies Loyd Manning and Jasper Lee Mills and Capt. Lester D. Page, Greenville police identification specialist, arrested the three men on a road in the Black Jack section.

Timely Article On Control Blue Mold

College Station, Raleigh, Feb. 27—A timely article on the control of blue mold, the disease which takes a heavy toll in North Carolina tobacco beds each year, appears in the current issue of "Research and Farming," quarterly publication of the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station. Copies of the bulletin are mailed free of charge to anyone who requests them.

Dr. James H. Jensen, head of the plant pathology department at the Station and author of the article, warns that blue mold has been especially damaging on farms where growers fail to follow the recommended practices. Occasionally the disease overwinters in old plant beds or on holdover plants, he points out. But generally it is first caused by windblown spores (seed of the fungus) coming up from the south as the season develops.

'Civilization'

New York, March 1—(AP)—Continual playing of the tune "Civilization" on the juke box in a Manhattan bar early today led to the shooting of three persons.

The victims, police said, were red-haired Josephine Ostoloco, 20, who had fed nickels for the same song for an hour, a sea-tender, Nemesis Calasen, 47, and a bartender, Nemesis Calasen, 47.

Bullets flew when the woman changed a $1 bill at the bar and walked toward the juke box after she had played "Civilization" over and over again.

Charles Connor, New President Student Body

Charles Connor, ex-GI student from New Bern, was chosen as president of the student government association of East Carolina Teachers College in an election held on the campus last Friday. Connor, a junior at the college, won over his opponent, Thomas E. Casey of Goldsboro.

An enthusiastic campaign to elect all student government officers for 1948-1949 kept the campus here in a state of excitement during last week. Posters, handbills, cars with loud speakers, and numerous campaign managers busily at work created interest in those running for office and made the contest a lively one. A special assembly program was held at noon on Thursday, when candidates were presented to the students and discussed their platforms.

Floyd Collins of Cerro Gordo defeated Robert Chinnis of Wilmington for the position of first vice-president of the student government association. Other major officers of the association who were elected were John Pournaras of Ambridge, Pennsylvania, second vice president; Ann Bedgard, of Snow Hill, secretary; Joe Tew of Thomasville, treasurer; Willie Warner of Thomasville and Gerald Frazelle of Richlands, assistant treasurers; and Charles Williams of Erwin, historian.

Officers chosen for the Men's Judiciary are Alan Stoddard of Greenville, chairman; Oliver P. Hedgepeth of Rocky Mount, vice-chairman; George High of Parkersburg, Virginia, secretary-treasurer; and Robert E. Midyette of Fairfield and Thomas Booth of Rose Hill, members at large.

Heading the Women's Judiciary for next year will be Elsie Carver of Beaufort, chairman; Rachel Futrell of Rich Square, vice chairman; Marjorie Selby of Dudley, secretary; Florence Boecker of Baltimore, Maryland, treasurer; and Annie Morion of Wilmington, member at large.

Shotgun Used In Argument About Negro Woman

By CHESTER WALSH
Robert Taft, 35-year-old Negro farm laborer, is being held in the county jail without bail on a charge of assaulting with a deadly weapon with intent to kill Heber Chapman, 30-year-old Negro Sunday morning Chapman is in a serious condition at Pitt General Hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Loyd Manning who is investigating the case, said the best information he could obtain was that Taft and Chapman had had trouble about a woman. Taft and his wife are separated. He quoted witnesses as saying that the shooting took place at the home of Alex Bridges, Negro, on Mrs. Will Vandford's farm in the Red Oak section. They said Taft and Chapman had had an argument; that Chapman threatened Taft; that Taft went home and got a gun, a single-barrel shotgun, with the stock and barrel removed, returned to Alex Bridges' home and allegedly shot Chapman, the charge entering his head.

Deputy Sheriff Manning apprehended Taft at Guy Sutton's store in the same neighborhood shortly after the shooting. Manning had the sawed-off gun in his pocket.

Taft is being held without privilege of bail pending the outcome of Chapman's condition.

Harden To Back Umstead Group

Raleigh, N.C., March 1—(AP)—John Harden, secretary to Governor Cherry since the governor took office in January 1945, announced today that he is resigning his post to join the campaign organization of Senator William B. Umstead.

The move is expected to take place in the next few days. Governor Cherry said that he has not yet selected Harden's successor.

Harden will handle Senator Umstead's public relations program during the current election campaign in which the senator is seeking the Democratic nomination to succeed himself. Umstead, who is opposed for the nomination by former Governor J. M. Broughton, was appointed to the Senate by Governor Cherry, succeeding the late Senator Josiah W. Bailey.

Governor Cherry expressed regret at losing Harden and said that he was glad to see "Harden getting a better job."

"I told Mr. Harden not to stand back on my account if he had a good position offered him," the governor said, "but I am sorry to see him go. He has a fine personality and gets along well with both press and public."

Play In Pitt Basketball Tournament Resumes Tonight

Wednesday Sees Start Southern Conference Play

Durham, N. C., March 1—(AP)—The Wake Forest-William and Mary battle will raise the curtain Wednesday night on the 1948 Southern Conference basketball tournament.

Duke's Blue Devils and South Carolina's Gamecocks will tangle in the nightcap at the Duke Gym.

Top-seeded N. C. State, second-seeded George Washington, North Carolina, Maryland, Davidson and Virginia Tech will swing into action Thursday.

In a meeting here yesterday, the five-man conference basketball committee named those 10 teams, instead of the usual eight, to battle for the loop crown. To take care of the extra action, the committee tacked another day onto the tournament schedule.

The decision resulted from a three-way tie among Wake Forest, William and Mary, and South Carolina, for eighth place at the end of the regular season.

It is the second time since 1939 that more than eight teams will be competing for the title. Eleven teams played in the 1939 event.

Here is the tournament time table set by the committee:

- 7:30 p. m.—Wake Forest-William and Mary.
- 9:00—South Carolina-Duke.
- Thursday:
- 2:15 p. m.—North Carolina-Virginia Tech.
- 4:00—Davidson-Maryland.
- 7:30—N. C. State-winner of the Wake Forest-William and Mary game.
- 9:00—George Washington-winner of the Duke-South Carolina game.
- Friday night—Semifinals.
- Saturday night—Finals.

State Dominated All-Star Cagers

Davidson, N. C., March 1—(AP)—N. C. State dominated the coaches' all-star Southern conference basketball team, just as it spreaded th field during the regular season.

The Wolfpack, which opens defense of its conference tournament laurels Thursday at Durham, placed two men on the first team and two more on the second.

The conference Coaches Association, former last year, selected eight North Carolina representatives in all for its two teams. Fifteen of the 16 ballots mailed out by Secretary Norman Shepard, Davidson Athletic director, were returned.

Chosen on all 15 for the first team was State's forward Dick Dicker, named all-star captain as a result. North Carolina's Rob Paxton, the other forward, received 14 firsts and one second.

State's Ed Bartels was chosen as center and the guard slots went to Davidson's Buddy Cheek and George Washington's Bill Cantwell.

Second team selections were also headed by State, forward Jack McComas and guard Leo Katkaveck being honored. Duke's Ben Collins was placed at forward, Norm Koller of North Carolina at guard and Chet Giarman, William and Mary, center.

Spring Training Program Starts

New York, March 1—(AP)—Major league baseball clubs knuckled down to the serious business of getting into shape for the 1948 spring training by beginning their spring training programs.

Banned by a Major league rule from starting spring training before March 1, the players will be forced to round into playing form quicker than usual.

All clubs were scheduled to hold workouts today and the Athletes will have few breathing spells between now and the start of the championship season.

Beginning Saturday when the Chicago Cubs and the Chicago White Sox meet at Los Angeles and the Cleveland Indians and New York Giants battle at Tucson, Ariz., the clubs will play a total of 378 " Grapefruit League" games.

With the exception of the Brooklyn Dodgers, all of the nines are doing their training in the states. The Dodgers are getting ready for the National League championship at Ciudad Trujillo in the Dominican Republic.

Five American and four National League teams are going through the paces in Florida while two from each circuit are conditioning in California and one from each loop in Arizona.

Chosen on all 15 for the first team was State's forward Dick Dicker, named all-star captain as a result. North Carolina's Rob Paxton, the other forward, received 14 firsts and one second.

Ayden Girls Meet Farmville Sextet And Ayden Boys Play Top-Seeded Bethel

By BERT MOYE
Play in the annual Pitt County Basketball tournament will be resumed tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Wright gymnasium at East Carolina Teacher's College as both girls' and boys' teams fight it out in the semi-finals play.

The opening game, scheduled to start at 7:30, will see the Ayden girls playing the Farmville sextet in the first of a twin bill. Ayden advanced to the semi-finals with a 27-20 win over Bethel Tuesday night and by virtue of a by in the second round on Wednesday night. The Farmville girls took a one-sided score against Stokes Monday afternoon, 27-3 and then came back on Wednesday night to take a 25-20 win against the Grifton sextet. The winner of this game will meet the Arthur sextet, champion of Pitt County in the girls' division last year.

Arthur defeated Chocod, 28-15 Tuesday afternoon and then came back Wednesday night to take a 22-13 win against Grimesland to draw by in the semi-finals play and thus earn the right to play in the finals on Tuesday night.

In the boys' division, the Bethel Indians, top-seeded team in the boys' division, who on last Tuesday night took a 46-31 win over the Stokes lads, and who drew a by in the second round of play to advance to the semi-finals, will meet the Ayden boys in the second game of the evening starting at 9 o'clock. Ayden advanced to the semi-finals with a 39-24 win over Arthur on Monday night and came back Wednesday night to edge out a 39-37 win over the Winterville quintet.

The winner of this game will meet the Farmville boys in the finals on Tuesday night. The Farmville lads, winner of the tourney last season in the boys' division, defeated Belvoir 56-13 Tuesday afternoon and then came back on Wednesday night to take a thriller from Grifton, runners-up in the finals last year, by the score of 19-15. They drew a by in the semi-finals play tonight.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 1—(AP)—Joe DiMaggio has served notice on Ted Williams that he is out to wrest the American League's batting championship from the slugger outfielder of the Boston Red Sox.

The star centerfielder of the New York Yankees, who nosed out Williams for the league's most valuable player award last year, says he thinks a 350 percentage can do the trick. At least that is the figure he has set his sights on for 1948. Williams won the batting title last year with a mark of 343.

Greenies Get New Outfielder

By SAM NORTHPROP
The Greenville Greenies, in a trade with Kinston, have acquired hard hitting outfielder, Bob Cohen, business manager Robert Doty announced last week. The Eagles got Tommy Lee and an un-announced sum of cash for the Springfield, Massachusetts product.

Cohen, a 5'11", 170 pound slugger batted in the 340 bracket last season and was right fielder on the All-Star nine. A courageous man in the clutches and a long ball hitter, he will add plenty of punch at the plate to the G-Men.

After captaining his college (American International in Springfield, Mass.) basketball and baseball teams, Bob broke into the national pastime in the Canada Provincial league in 1937. Until 1940 he played with Norfolk and Winston-Salem of the Piedmont League and Akron Ohio of the Middle Atlantic loop.

Since 1940 he has been in the Coastal Plain League. In the 1941 and '45 when he performed well in an Army uniform.

Snow Hill was his home in 1946 and Kinston benefited from his bat in 1946 and 1947.

Bob, who bats and throws from the portside, is a capable first sacker as well as an outfielder but is expected to spend most of his time for the Greenies in the outer garden.

Cohen has been living in Greenville since January 1 when he opened the Greenville Auto Finance Company at 921 Dickinson Avenue. The new Greenie is single and residing at present at the "Wardmore" on Eighth Street.

Pam Pack Tops Kinston To Take N.E.A.C. Title

By SA. HROP
Upsetting the Kinston Red Devils 37-31, Washington's Pam Pack took the Northeastern Conference tournament championship in an exciting contest last Saturday night in the Wright gymnasium.

Bower opened the contest with a quick layup, Hodges tied it up with a push shot for Kinston and Collins set to put the Devils ahead. However, Bower came back with a free toss and a follow shot to put the Pack into a lead which they never relinquished.

The Pack led 9-7 at the quarter, 19-13 at the half and 28-18 by the end of three periods. A last half rally by the Devils cut the lead down to six points but it came too late to stop Washington's winning 37-31.

The win was sweet revenge to the Pack who last year won the regular season title only to have Kinston take the tourney crown away from them.

Adrian Bower led the victorious Pack with 15 tallies, while Grist added 12. High scoring honors for the evening went, however, to Bobby Hodges, Kinston pivot man, who cut the cords with 18 points.

In the consolation game Roanoke Rapids overcame a six point deficit in the last period to squeeze out New Bern 37-36. Clemmer's push shot wrinkled the nets with 46 seconds left on the clock to give the Jackets a well-earned win.

Coach Cagle's Rapidsmen were forced to put three men on New Bern's scoring ace, Sunny Russell, and were successful in holding him to 11 points.

Stern Gang Says Responsible For Blast Killing 28

Jerusalem, March 1—(AP)—The Stern gang said today it set the triple blast which wrecked three railroad sleepers yesterday, killing 28 British troops and injuring 33.

"This is our answer for last Sunday's Ben Yehuda Street crime," the Jewish underground group declared. It referred to the Jerusalem bombing which killed 54 Jews on Feb. 22.

Haganah Jewish militia said it had "unconfirmed reports" that British troops had arrested 24 Jews at Mikve Israel near Tel Aviv, last night and had "turned them over to an Arab mob as retaliation" for the train attack.

A police source in Jerusalem said it had reports the 24 Jews were taken by soldiers from a spirits factory at Mikve Israel and released in all Arab Jaffa.

Le Gen. G. H. A. MacMillan, commander of British forces in Palestine, said three mines shattered the wooden troop cars near Rehoboth, 15 miles southeast of Tel Aviv. They were jammed with soldiers returning from leave in Cairo.

MacMillan said a fourth mine failed to go off. Had it exploded, he said, the toll might have been 60 or more.

Sappers who dismantled the dud said it contained 100 pounds of explosive and was connected by a 40-yard wire to an electric plunger.

The three sleepers, part of a northbound Cairo express, were passing through a Jewish citrus belt 15 miles southeast of Tel Aviv when they were blown up.

Colleges In Six States To Carry Atomic Studies

Washington, March 1—(AP)—Colleges in six states will have facilities for atomic energy training during the next school year, the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission said today.

Training for holders of atomic energy fellowships in geology and medicine will be provided at universities in North Carolina, New York, Texas, Colorado, California and Oregon.

Institutions listed by the commission included: North Carolina—Duke University, Durham; University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; North Carolina State College, Raleigh; and Wake Forest, Wake Forest.

Frank Harrington Succeeds Aycock Telephone Manager

William W. (Bill) Aycock, group manager for the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company in Greenville many years, went to Rocky Mount today to officially take over his duties as group manager there, a well deserved promotion. He will commute between Rocky Mount and here for a few days until he obtains suitable temporary quarters. His family will remain in Greenville until he finds a home in Rocky Mount.

Frank Harrington, who has been group manager at Louisville for some time, who succeeds Aycock has taken over as Greenville group manager.

Retain Combined Military Staff

Washington, March 1—(AP)—The United States and Britain are retaining in these days of uncertain peace the combined military high command that operated during most of the war.

Quartered in one of the most heavily guarded sections of the Pentagon—with all but specially approved visitors barred—is the headquarters of the "combined chiefs of staff."

The only official description of the day to day work is terse and not particularly illuminating: "The combined chiefs of staff consider and decide questions deriving from the wartime cooperation of Great Britain and the United States."

However, it is known that the agency provides a clearing house for a direct exchange of ideas on equipment, weapons and tactics of all military branches of the two nations.

The combined chiefs are Pentagon neighbors of another highly secret group of officers. Along an adjacent corridor are the offices of the "armed forces special weapons project" dealing with guided missiles, atomic weapons and other less well known instruments of destruction.

Officer Dies In Army Post Fire

Fort Dix, N. J., March 1—(AP)—A fire in a frame two-story rachelor officers' barracks cost the life of a 26-year-old Lieutenant and injured two others yesterday at this sprawling military reservation.

The body of Lt. Wallace I. Adams of Etowah, Tenn., was found beneath his bunk after the fire was extinguished. Authorities said he had suffocated.

Cause of the fire is yet undetermined, but army authorities said a formal investigating board would be set up to handle the probe.

Saga Of Buster Comes To An End

Clearwater, Fla., March 1—(AP)—The saga of Buster was ended by a snake in the grass.

The eight-year-old German Shepherd long had endeared himself to postmen by following them on their rounds and defending them against attacks by other dogs.

Finally, Buster looked for another world to conquer. He came from the grass in a woods mortally wounded by a snake.

Today the mailmen are taking up a collection for Buster's funeral. They want to bury him on the lawn back of the postoffice. Over his grave they want to put a stone saying he was the postmen's friend.

Two Infants Died Pneumonia Saturday

George W. Godley, five-month-old son of George and Evelyn Mae Godley, Negroes of the Grimesland community, was found dead in bed Saturday morning. Coroner Griffin H. Rouse and Dr. S. J. Phillips, county health officer, who investigated, said the child died of pneumonia.

Charles Lee Boyd, six-weeks-old son of Beulah Godley, unmarried Negro of the same community, was taken seriously ill Saturday morning and died en route to a Washington hospital. The coroner and health officer said he also died of pneumonia.

Invite Testimony By Two Generals

Washington, March 1—(AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee today invited Generals Douglas MacArthur and Claire Chennault to testify on aid to China.

The two Generals were asked to testify either in person or by correspondence. The invitations were telegraphed by Chairman Eaton (R-N.J.) after a closed committee session. MacArthur previously had indicated that he probably could not appear in person.

Says Steel Move A Good Argument

Key West, Fla., March 1—(AP)—President Truman said today the steel price increase was a good argument in favor of his anti-inflation proposals to Congress.

Mr. Truman told a news conference he had no new report on the inquiry he ordered the justice department, the council of economic advisors and the Commerce Department to conduct.

However, he said he still felt the necessity for drastic anti-inflation action and that the steel increases were a good argument for it.

Glass Companies In Trust Trial

Toledo, O., March 1—(AP)—Eight flat glass companies and 14 of their executives went on trial today for alleged federal Anti-Trust Act violations.

The government charges a conspiracy was launched about 1928 to eliminate competition in the manufacture of plate glass, window glass and safety glass.

ON HUNGER STRIKE

Washington, March 1—(AP)—Four men held on Ellis Island for deportation hearings as alien Communists are refusing meals and threatening a hunger strike unless they are released, the Justice Department said today.

Light Tanks Are Sent To Turkey

Washington, March 1—(AP)—Approximately 100 light tanks are being sent to Turkey as part of the Turkish aid program, the Army reported today.

The shipments are being made from the Brooklyn Port of Embarkation in New York.

The Army declined to elaborate except to deny a report that the tanks were being loaded on a Spanish ship, presumably for Spain.

Committee OK's 'DP' Legislation

Washington, March 1—(AP)—Legislation to admit 100,000 "displaced persons" to the United States got the senate judiciary committee's approval today.

The committee approved the bill after beating down proposals to increase the number to as high as 200,000.

Of 11 members present, only Senator Langer (R-ND) voted against the bill.

Claims Was Told 'Not To Worry'

Washington, March 1—(AP)—Blieriot H. LaMarre testified today that Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Myers once told him not to worry about lying to senate investigators because the general was going to get the investigation called off.

"He said he had enough influence and enough friends to have it stopped," LaMarre told a jury in U. S. district court.
