

MacArthur Says He Is 'Willing' To Accept Call

States He Will Not Actively Seek Office But Message Spurs Followers

Tokyo, March 9—(AP)—General MacArthur made himself available today for the presidency if "called by the American people," but said he would not "actively seek" any office.

Despite his avowed reluctance to campaign personally, his statement was regarded as a clear go-ahead signal to booms already started for him in Wisconsin and by Hearst newspapers across America.

The 68-year-old soldier's brief announcement made no mention of party, but last Feb. 29 he publicly praised the young Republican organization. Today's statement commented on petitions entering his name in the Wisconsin Republican primary. It said:

"I have been informed that petitions have been filed in Madison signed by many fellow citizens of Wisconsin (where the general retains a voting residence), presenting my name to the electorate for consideration at the primary on April 6.

"I am deeply grateful for this spontaneous display of friendly confidence. No man could fail to be profoundly stirred by such a public movement in this hour of momentous import, national and international, temporal and spiritual.

"While it seems unnecessary for me to repeat that I do not actively seek or covet any office and have no plans for leaving my post in Japan, I can say, and with due humility, that I would be recreant to all my concepts of good citizenship were I to shrink because of the hazards and responsibilities involved from accepting any public duty to which I might be called by the American people."

Until today, the MacArthur campaign had been carefully ignored by the general himself. He had said he must stay in Japan until his job is finished or until "extraordinary circumstances" necessitated his departure.

Observers here said the American stand against Communism may have been one factor behind MacArthur's statement. He would accept the presidency. Under his administration Communism has not prospered in Japan.

Union Protests Strike Report

Washington, March 9—(AP)—The CIO Food, Tobacco and Agricultural Workers Union has strongly protested a secret report made on a strike at Winston-Salem, N.C.

Donald Henderson, president of the union, wrote members of Congress that two congressional agents investigating the strike at the R. J. Reynolds Company had filed a "one-sided document slanted on the side of the employers and against the employees."

Henderson also termed it "an open attempt at union busting, thinly disguised as an impartial report."

Patrolmen Go On Trial In Winton

Winton, N.C., March 9—(AP)—Two highway patrolmen went on trial in Herford Recorder's Court here today on charges of beating a Negro.

The accused are J. W. Reavis and John S. Hackett, Jr., who were named in a warrant sworn out by Cleveland C. Pierce, gasoline station operator.

They are charged with beating Pierce following his arrest on a speeding charge last Jan. 29.

Presidential Primary

Today's New Hampshire Voting Will Be An Expression Of The People As To Whom They Would Like Nominated; A Party Affair; States Have Different Rules

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, March 9—(AP)—The Republican race for president started today in a presidential primary election in New Hampshire.

This story, but only in a general way, explains what such a primary means. Start this way:

In June Republican delegates from every state—at a national convention in Philadelphia—choose their candidate for president.

In each state the delegates to the convention have to be chosen, but not the same way in every state.

Some are selected by Republican conventions; others in state primary elections, like New Hampshire.

But even these primaries differ from state to state. For example:

In one state Republicans will vote for delegates who may, or may not, be pledged to support some one man for the nomination at Philadelphia.

In another state the Republicans cast a double vote at the primary:

1. They express a preference for some top Republican they'd like to see nominated.

2. At the same time they elect delegates who may be pledged to one man; or may not be; or may not even have to follow at Philadelphia the preferential vote of the

Truman Conceded Demo Nomination

Politicians Agree His Entry Into Race Kills Hope Of Compromise Candidate; Solon Views His Defeat As Certainty

Washington, March 9—(AP)—General MacArthur bid openly for top place on the Republican ticket today, even as President Truman foreclosed his mortgage on the Democratic nomination.

The two announcements—only hours apart in Tokyo and Washington—far overshadowed today's New Hampshire primary, the first actual voting for delegates to the National party conventions in Philadelphia.

Mr. Truman's decision to run drove a new wedge into the Democratic party split over his civil rights program.

His action killed any practical hope of Dixie party members for a compromise candidate.

Politicians generally agree that now the President has spoken the nomination cannot be denied him.

The President's availability was made known by Democratic chairman J. Howard McGrath, who told reporters:

"The President has authorized me to say that if he is nominated by the National Democratic Convention, he will accept and run."

But Mr. Truman's decision to go after his first full four-year term touched off even greater controversy within his own party.

Menaced by Henry Wallace's Independent bid for the Presidency, that party has shown signs of falling apart at the seams because of Southern anger over Mr. Truman's civil rights proposals.

With all of this in mind, Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) told a reporter "there isn't a chance in the world" for Mr. Truman to win in November.

This estimate was regarded as significant because Thomas has not joined in the outcry of his Dixie colleagues against the anti-lynching, anti-poll tax, anti-job discrimination and anti-Jim Crow measures the President has asked Congress to pass.

But there was nothing in the President's declaration to give the Southerners any comfort on the civil rights issue.

As he emerged from a 90-minute conference in Mr. Truman's office with Gael Sullivan, the Democratic Committee's executive director, McGrath said on this point:

"The President's position is unchanged since he delivered his message to Congress and I might say that in my view his position, as expressed in the message, is as old as the constitution itself and as new as the 1944 Democratic platform."

Shanghai, March 9—(AP)—A Chinese ammunition dump exploded at Tsingtao today, leveling a city block and causing 250 casualties. An estimated 100 were killed.

U. S. Navy sources here said the explosion occurred just before noon, within half a mile of docks where the USS Estes, flagship of the American Western Pacific fleet, and the navy hospital ship, Repose, are tied up.

Tsingtao is the Chinese base of the U. S. Navy's Far Western fleet. There were no immediate reports of casualties among American personnel at Tsingtao.

The explosion set off by an undetermined cause, swept an area east of the docks.

Resulting fires left a mass of blackened ruins in a wide sector. The Repose and all available U. S. Navy medical facilities afloat and ashore immediately gave assistance.

The fires raged for two hours. The Repose staff is especially trained for disaster work. It swiftly went about the job of rescuing Chinese from fallen buildings and giving first aid.

No United States buildings were damaged.

Install Gov't For East Indies

Batavia, Java, March 9—(AP)—A Netherlands East Indies interim government was installed today at the Governor-General's palace.

The Dutch-sponsored government will function until the establishment of a United States of Indonesia. The Dutch have set Jan. 1, 1949 as the tentative date for setting up a federation.

Washington, March 9—(AP)—Eight Supreme Court justices agree that religious tests may not use America's public schools to teach their beliefs.

But in voicing their decision yesterday they disagreed among themselves as to exactly how much ground their ruling will cover.

Justice Black, author of the majority opinion, upheld an atheist mother's complaint that religious education classes held in Champaign, Ill., schools violate the constitutional requirements for separation of church and state. Only Justice Reed dissented.

"The first amendment (to the Constitution)," Black said, "rests upon the premise that both religion and government can best work to achieve their lofty aims if each is left free from the other. x x x the first amendment has erected a wall between the church and the state which must be kept high and impregnable."

Mrs. Vashti McCollum, who brought the original suit against the Champaign school board, said the decision has "safeguarded our school system from sectarian domination."

A self-styled atheist, she had complained that her eldest son, James Terry, now 12, was "embarrassed" because he was the only one in his class who did not take religious instruction.

Under the Champaign plan a local council representing Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths presented religious education classes once a week in the public schools. Attendance was voluntary and only with parents' permission, the school board explained. It said there was no extra cost to taxpayers.

Bigamist Given Suspended Term

Gastonia, N.C., March 9—(AP)—Monroe P. Adams, 28-year-old cab driver who maintained two wives only six miles apart, was given a suspended sentence of five years in State Prison on a bigamy charge by Gaston Superior Court Judge George B. Patton here today.

Cripps Predicts British Collapse Without U. S. Aid

Tells Parliament That Substantial American Aid Must Come This Year

London, March 9—(AP)—Sir Stafford Cripps told Parliament today British economy will collapse unless substantial U. S. aid comes this year.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer said in a white paper that only the Marshall Plan can prevent wholesale unemployment, distress and dislocation of production. The summary predicted Britons would get less food and clothing. It said that, without the Marshall Plan, there is "no prospect of a decent standard of living for years."

In a 30,000-word picture of Britain's outlook for the year, issued by Sir Stafford, these somber facts were dominant:

The government has been forced to slash its vital 1948 export goal by 10 per cent because foreign markets are becoming "saturated."

The number of unemployed will rise from 300,000 at the end of 1947 to 450,000 this year.

Withdrawals of 222,000 pounds ($888,000,000) are expected to be made by June from Britain's "black ditch" fund of $80,000,000 pounds ($2,720,000,000) in gold and dollar reserves with which the nation began the year.

Food imports from the western hemisphere will be reduced to the barest minimum, forcing down the average daily intake of calories to 2,881 per person from the 1947 average of 3,000.

Further tightening of already stringent clothing rationing was forecast unless there is "a marked increase" in production of textile goods.

The white paper said even this program can not be maintained without help from the European recovery program now under debate in Congress.

Without the Marshall Plan, the white paper said, Britain would face wholesale unemployment, distress and dislocation of production.

Athens, March 9—(AP)—Greek, American and British generals predicted today a decisive victory over Greek guerrillas this summer.

Adm. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, head of the U. S. military mission; Lt. Gen. Dmitrios Yaddis, Greek army commander; and Brig. C. D. Steele, of the British military mission, told a news conference that U. S. material here and en route assures an early end of guerrilla activity.

"A tremendous amount of British material has been supplied to Greece," allowing the country to hold its own for two years, Van Fleet said. He continued that this had "not been quite enough for final victory but that American equipment will tip the balance to a decided advantage." Van Fleet and the two other generals have completed a five-day tour of army units in northern and eastern Greece.

The American said the Greek army is fighting a "civilized war." He said the "bandits are conducting the most inhuman campaign of terrorism which cannot be classified as war."

"My advice to bandits of good Greek origin is to surrender at once and for others to get out of Greece and stay out forever or be killed," Van Fleet said.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota are the only Republican candidates with full delegate slates in the field.

Only eight delegate seats are at stake—but both Dewey and Stassen have been waging aggressive campaigns to capture them.

With the Wisconsin primary only a month away, they see a possibility of giving their campaigns a psychological lift by making a good showing here.

WILL SELECT OFFICERS Philadelphia, March 9—(AP)—Officers of the Republican National Convention will be selected April 10. Chairman Walter S. Hallinan of the convention Arrangements Committee announced today.

Concord, N.H., March 9—(AP)—The Republican presidential primary in New Hampshire today found Dewey and Stassen matching strength at the polls—with prospective delegates from both sides indicating they would throw their support to Vandenberg as a second choice.

Clear, crisp weather assures a heavy vote in the nation's first test at the ballot box in the 1948 campaign. It was estimated up to 55,000 voters would turn out.

Patronage System Of Internal Revenue Bureau Faces Attack

Washington, March 9—(AP)—The Internal Revenue Bureau came under sharp fire of the House Appropriations committee today. The committee said the political patronage system of picking federal tax collectors should be abolished.

The recommendation was made in a bill providing funds for the Treasury and Postoffice Departments for the year starting July 1.

But the committee made only a 1.7 per cent cut in the $2,017,826,200 President Truman had asked for the two departments. It proposed a total of $1,961,722,350 in cash appropriations.

Of this, the Treasury would receive $290,453,100, or a 5.6 per cent cut, and the Post Office $1,671,269,250, or a 1.1 per cent reduction. The President had asked $306,981,700 for the treasury and $1,710,644,500 for the Postoffice department.

Left completely out of the bill was the customary appropriation for tax refunds. The committee decided to put off action on that until pending tax legislation is out of the way.

In addition to the new cash, the committee recommended $3,313,584,430 in trust fund appropriations and $5,877,868,083 in general and special fund appropriations. This boosted the gross total to $11,173,174,863. The trust, general and special funds include such items as interest on the national debt and the old-age insurance fund. Over these, congress has only nominal control.

The committee leveled most of its fire at the internal revenue bureau. It made public its own investigators' reports complaining of inefficiency and citing a case where no action was taken to prosecute an individual alleged to owe $804,000 in taxes and penalties.

"The most serious defect in the organization and operations of the bureau," the committee said, "is the fact that the men who are charged with the actual collection of the revenue, the collectors, are political appointees."

"The commissioner, who administers the entire bureau, does not have effective control over the collectors throughout the country."

The committee attributed to "a rise in the average rate of interest" its approval of $5,250,000,000 for interest on the national debt. This is $50,000,000 more than was appropriated for the present year.

Cabinet Member Opposes Tax Cut

Harriman Says Would Raise Demand And Prices On Goods

Washington, March 9—(AP)—Secretary of Commerce Harriman today opposed tax reduction at this time, saying its chief effect would be "to raise demand and thereby prices."

But the United States Chamber of Commerce contended that tax cutting is best insurance at hand against a business slump.

Harriman and Ellsworth C. Alvord, representing the chamber, gave their views to the Senate Finance Committee. It is nearing the close of hearings on the House-approved $5,500,000,000 tax cut bill.

The Senate committee is expected to propose a smaller cut—possibly around $4,500,000,000—in an effort to win Democratic support to override an anticipated veto by President Truman.

Joining other members of the Truman Administration talking against the bill, Harriman insisted that business is able to get investment funds now and does not need tax reductions to help it.

"Our economy is still in an inflationary straits and sound policy demands that the level of tax payments be kept high," Harriman said, adding:

"The major effect of any lowering of taxes would be to raise demand and thereby prices, rather than to bring forth increased supplies."

Eventually, he said the inflationary pressures "undoubtedly will disappear."

"Tax adjustments will then be necessary and desirable," he added.

Disabled Ship Taken Into Port

Norfolk, Va., March 9—(AP)—After emergency repairs to her propeller motor which has grounded out, the tanker J. W. Van Dyke came into Hampton Roads early today, escorted by the Coast Guard cutter Ingham.

The tanker, operated by the Atlantic Refining Company, radioed that her main propeller motor has grounded and that she had "no propulsion." She was then about 29 miles south of Diamond Shoals Lightship.

The Coast Guard also reported today that the chief mate of the S.S. Lewis Floss was removed from the ship in Lynn Haven Roads early today and transferred to the U. S. Marine hospital. He had an injured foot.

It was reported today that the Coast Guard has dispatched a patrol boat to aid the ship Rainbow around near the Cape Henry Lightship Station in Chesapeake Bay.

Meanwhile the ship of Mexico was nearing New York City with six crewmen from the sunken schooner Black Duck aboard. The men were removed 11 hours before the schooner sank about 100 miles east southeast of Cape Henry.

Extra Money

Washington, March 9—(AP)—The House today voted its unanimous approval of an additional $200,000,000 to spend during the rest of this year. The action is final and does not require Senate approval.

The House voted the additional money shortly after an un-American Activities subcommittee had held a closed-door hearing on the loyalty of Dr. Edward U. Condon.

Condon, March 9—(AP)—The five-nation conference in Brussels may ask the United States for a military guarantee of a western European defense pact, a French diplomatic source said today.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman denied that France had requested an American guarantee of aid. He declined to predict whether the five nations might make such a request.

Speedy Cures Effected By A New 'Wonder Drug'

Baltimore, March 9—(AP)—A nine-year-old boy lay critically ill in Sydenham hospital here. He suffered from a skin eruption with a secondary infection that ordinarily would lead to death.

Doctors administered huge doses of the wonder drug streptomycin and penicillin. They did not help.

Then they called John Hopkins hospital physicians who have been experimenting with a new, powerful germ-killer, polymyxin.

The Hopkins scientists injected the drug, in the form of a white powder, underneath his skin. Three days later, the eruption began to clear. The child was well after eight days.

The boy was the first human to be treated with polymyxin. In the last several months, similar speedy cures have been effected by the drug in cases of undulant fever, whooping cough, certain types of blood poisoning and meningitis.

The Hopkins doctors—Perrin H. Long, professor of preventive medicine, and Morton J. Bryer, Eleanor A. Bliss and Emanuel Schoenbach—told of the first cure last night in giving their preliminary conclusions as to the usefulness of polymyxin in a series of papers before the Hopkins Medical Society.

They reported the drug may lead to a final triumph over bubonic plague. It will be sent to India soon to find out how it works against that ancient curse on mankind.

Spring Brings Hope

Two Recent Developments May Go A Long Way Towards Rehabilitation Of Western Europe And Peace; Western European Union Conference; Ruhr Control

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

Maybe we are over-optimistic because spring is just around the corner, but the developments in Western Europe reflect a considerable burst of sunshine as we near the end of a tough and discouraging winter.

Two momentous international conferences have produced results which bid fair to go a long way toward achieving economic rehabilitation and peace for Western Europe. And such a happy development would, of course, be a step in the direction of world rehabilitation and peace. I hasten to add that I'm not for a moment suggesting our worries are nearing an end, or anything like it. But the more peace-mindedness we can cultivate, the better.

The conferences referred to are the Brussels treaty to consider ways and means of forming a union of Western European nations, and the American-British-French discussions in London regarding the future of western Germany and the Ruhr. Both these meetings have met with unexpected success in laying the foundations upon which important structures may be built.

The Brussels conference, which is continuing, is among Britain, France and the so-called Benelux countries

The bridesmaids were Miss Dixie Lewis, sister of the bride, and Miss Carolyn Stephens, of Dillon, S. C. Their dresses were of petal pink faille taffeta, similar in design to that of the maid of honor. Their mitts matched their dresses, and in their hair they wore bandeau and garden flowers. Their bouquets of pink gladioli were tied with blue ribbon. Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Melba Moore, Phyllis Ashley, Nancy Lewis, Mary Lee Bullock, Irene Barden, Nelda Atkinson, Christine Stone, and Mrs. Frances Griffin Cobb.

Jeannette Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stone of McDowell, was flower girl. Her dress was white, of miniature bridal cut, and she carried a small basket of pastel flowers.

Mrs. Wilton Barden, aunt of the bride was attired in black lace with an orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Garrett, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of powder blue with an orchid corsage.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's father. Later in the evening the couple left for a wedding trip, the bride's going away suit being a dusty-rose gabardine used with navy accessories, and at her shoulder she wore the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

Upon their return they will go to Greenville where they will reside temporarily in the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was extensively entertained prior to her marriage.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were:

College Debaters Broke Even At Lenoir-Rhyne

East Carolina Teachers College broke even, winning seven and losing seven, in a series of intercollegiate debates held at Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory on March 4-6. Twenty-two colleges from six states participated in the debating contests staged at the South Atlantic Forensic tournament.

An affirmative and a negative team, representing the Jarvis Forensic club at the college and made up of Frank Toothman of Ayden, Nicholas Fokakis of Wilmington, Milton Fields of Scotland Neck, and James Grey of Rocky Mount, took part in the debates. The affirmative team won three rounds and lost four, and the negative won four and lost three.

Ella Cashwell of Saxapaw, senior at East Carolina, entered contests in situation oratory, impromptu speaking, and poetry reading.

Dr. Meredith N. Posey, faculty advisor of the Jarvis Forensic club and debate coach at the college, accompanied the students to Hickory and acted as a judge in the series of contests staged there.

Amateur Program Is Well Received By Large Audience

The Amateur Hour staged on Monday evening in the Austin auditorium by the class in community recreation of the physical education department at East Carolina Teachers College brought together an enthusiastic audience of approximately 1,000 people and turned out to be one of the most popular entertainments of the winter quarter.

With Jack Hedgepeth, sophomore from Rocky Mount, acting as master of ceremonies, fifteen numbers were presented by amateur performers from the college and from various localities in Pitt County.

The first prize of $15.00 went to Kenneth Avery, 12-year-old singer from Winterville, who after his scheduled solo was called back for a series of encores. Other prize winners included three college students, Robert Mays of Hopewell, Va., baritone soloist, and Cecil Hill of Richlands and Richard Ricks of Conway, who sang a duet; and a vocal trio from the Greenville Preconditioning Center for the Blind, made up of Irma D. Phillips, Eugene Snyder and Earl Clay.

The evening's program was staged by a group of college students of physical education under the direction of Dr. Neph M. Jorgensen of the faculty.

Women IN THE CHURCH

by Mary Fowler

"Because the Girl Scout organization believes that spiritual values are basic in the development of character, it seeks to help every girl to become a better member of her own religious group and to inculcate in every girl respect for other religious groups," says Mrs. Dudley Mills, secretary of the Girl Scouts.

"The United Christian Youth Movement (of which the Girl Scout organization has been a cooperating member for three years) offers a challenge to young people to deepen their appreciation and understanding of the great religious principles they profess. Through awareness of the implications of their beliefs, they are stimulated to apply, in every area of their lives, the teachings of Christ."

Defending its right as a religious body to take "action" in the field of social welfare, the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church—"the largest woman's society in the world"—said: "Because of Christ, we are convinced that God cares for each human being. We who follow him must share his concern. Our proposal to Christianize the relations and institutions of men is as definitely religious as the proposal to purify the hearts and sanctify the wills of individuals. Both are halves of a single whole. Each must complement the other. Both stem from the convictions that God is Christ-like, that he is active in history, that the moral order is real and inviolable. We agree with General MacArthur that 'if we do not now devise some greater and more equitable system' than the past has witnessed both within our nation and among nations, 'Armageddon will be at our door.'" friends are trying to line up state delegations to support them at Philadelphia. Dewey and Stassen, for example.

So the state primaries sometimes show how the political wind blows. Take New Hampshire:

Stassen has gone in there and campaigned. Dewey hasn't, but his supporters have been working for him.

In that state—where would-be delegates can seek election as pledged or unpledged to any one man—this has happened:

There's a slate pledged to Dewey and another to Stassen. And two would-be delegates are pledged to General Eisenhower who says he doesn't want the nomination. New Hampshire elects only eight delegates.

If either Dewey or Stassen makes a good showing there, through the election of his pledged delegates, it may have a good effect for him in the other 13 primaries coming up.

The delegate-choosing methods outlined for the Republicans here runs pretty much the same for the Democrats. In their case there's no big race—yet.

No Democrat, except Governor Jim Folsom of Alabama, has said he'll run against President Truman. Mr. Truman said yesterday he'd accept the Democratic nomination if it's given him.

The Democrats hold their nominating convention in Philadelphia, too, but in July.

Squadron Marine Jet Planes To Attend Air Show

By CHESTER WALSH

The Marines are coming to Greenville Sunday, April 4, with the VMP 122 Squadron of jet planes, F-4-U Corps air and F-7-Tiger Cat planes to participate in maneuvers at the Greenville Junior Chamber of Commerce's air show, Tommy Sellers, chairman of the Jaycees' air show committee, announced today.

Sellers and Van C. Fleming, who went to Washington, D. C., to confer with Maj-Gen. W. J. Wallace, director of U. S. Marine Corps aviation, and his assistant, Brig. Gen. W. O. Brice, returned with the highest praise for Jack Spain, executive secretary to U. S. Senator Clyde R. Hoey, for his influence and assistance in making the successful contact with the Marine Corps.

The squadron of Marine planes scheduled to come to Greenville will be in command of Lieut. Col. Marion E. Carl, a Marine ace pilot in World War II and the holder of a world's speed record.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored air show will include, in addition to the Marine planes, scores of civilian planes from this state and Virginia, and air maneuvers of particular interest to pilots. The air show is expected to surpass that given by the Jaycees about a year ago when the largest crowd ever to assemble for a special event in Pitt county attended.

The Airport Commission and Chamber of Commerce are cooperating to make the air show a success and stimulate interest in aviation.

Charles F. Steinmeyer, of Barnes Aircraft Service Inc., in charge of the airport, and his associates are assisting in making plans for the show.

The Breakfast Club, composed of civilian pilots from all parts of the state, is expected to attend. Breakfast will be served the visiting military and civilian pilots at the Airport Inn.

A nominal fee will be charged for admission to the airport. The proceeds will be used by the Junior Chamber of Commerce for worthy causes.

Kiwanians Feast And Receive Good Reports Progress

By CHESTER WALSH

The Greenville Kiwanis Club's officers and directors at the March meeting last night heard reports from committee chairmen and the secretary which indicated that the 26-year-old community service club is experiencing one of the best years in its history.

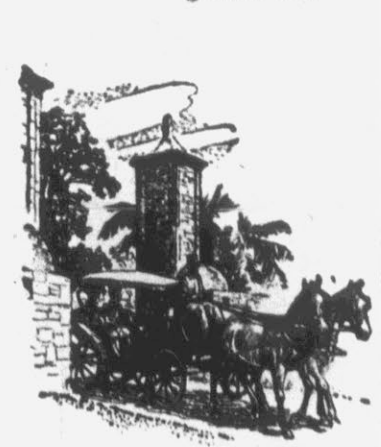

The club now has more than 80 members, the various committees are functioning effectively and a review of the past six years under the administration of Presidents Claude D. Ward, Joe M. Taft, W. J. (Dick) Bundy, Dr. J. M. Barrett, Edwin E. Rawl and Eli Bloom and now under President Nathan C. Brooks shows that the club has progressed in a gratifying manner, a 25-year Kiwanian said.

Director Tige Gardner and Mrs. Gardner were hosts to the Kiwanis officers and directors at the dinner at their home on East Third street. Assisting them were Mr. Gardner's daughter, Miss Barbara Gardner, Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, Mrs. Gardner's daughter, and Miss Doris Buck, dietitian at Pitt General Hospital.

President Brooks presided. Other officers and directors are Eli Bloom, past president; W. Arthur Tripp, vice-president; David C. Moore, secretary-treasurer; and J. Arthur Colline, Tige Gardner, Milo H. Smith.

Soviet Fighters In New Incident

Shanghai, March 9—(AP)—Two P-39 fighter planes marked with the Red Star of Russia made five passes at a commercial airliner yesterday, firing their machine guns but apparently not trying to hit it, airline officials said today.

If they had been trying to shoot down the slow transport they couldn't have missed, Pilot L. B. Buol reported.

The transport, one of the planes owned by Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault's commercial airline, was carrying 32 refugees from Mukden, Manchuria. It was crossing the Gulf of Chihli south of Russian-occupied Port Arthur and Dairen, the airline reported, but was giving those cities "a wide berth," as all Chennault planes do.

Whiting Willauer of the airline staff reported the incident and said the transport was not within 40 miles of the Port Arthur-Dairen peninsula. He said Pilot Buol, ex-marine flier from Stockton, Calif., took photographs at close range which confirmed the Red Star markings on the fighters.

The pictures were turned over to authorities in Tsingtao, North China, where U. S. marines are based. Willauer did not say what authorities he meant.

The United States gave many P-39s to Russia under wartime lend-lease.

"Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins"—sins of pride, self-confidence, encroachment.

What is the popular idea of sin? Sin is profane swearing, sin is adultery, sin is lying and stealing, sin is malicious gossip. And no one can deny that these things are sins. What we need to remember is that they do not exhaust the catalogue of sin. There are other sins, and singularly enough Jesus made more of these other sins than he did of the gross variety.

The writer of the 19th Psalm calls these presumptuous sins. They are inner sins, not obvious, and for that very reason extremely dangerous and quite devastating to character. Our Lord condemned pride as earnestly as he condemned adultery. He was particularly hard in the judgment he passed on the uncharitable. At the head of the list of sins he put a loveless heart, an unforgiving spirit, a love of money.

These are the presumptuous sins. Watch out for them. They are often mistaken for virtues, yet all the while, thus pretending, they are eating eternity out of men's hearts. The gross sins slay their thousands; the presumptuous sins, their tens of thousands.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY

Last Friday a subcommittee of the House Appropriations committee recommended withholding federal money for hospital building and vocational education from states that did not comply with federal standards on "civil rights."

The recommendation was defeated in the full committee, but its significance should not be ignored. The probability of such steps being brought up again in future appropriations is most evident.

Over a billion dollars was involved in the measure, and upwards of $170 millions of these funds would have been affected by the provision.

With this in mind, we return to an old topic with us, that of states' rights, and the gradual weakening of state governments by dependence on federal monetary assistance.

motion was an excellent example of the Washingtonian's chain of thought. All government resides on Capitol Hill. The rights and prerogatives of individual state governments are not considered.

Individual states need not be so reliant on federal funds in keeping their own houses in order. There are certain taxes which the national government imposes which to us seems more fittingly belonging to the states themselves. Take for example the federal amusement tax: Twenty per cent of the admission price to entertainment in almost any field goes to the national treasury. It strikes us, that if there is a moral right involved as to who is entitled to tax what, the states should have both hands in that particular pie.

WASHINGTON LETTER
By JANE EADS

Washington—To Americans the idea of March means income tax day. To many others it means the day Julius Caesar was killed in the Roman market place. To Hungarians it long has been a time for rejoicing. It marks the start of Hungary's declaration of independence in 1848. It is that nation's Number One holiday. It was that day that the ruling class set upon the Hungarians' oppressors, the Austrians. At the same moment the younger generation, composed chiefly of poets, artists and writers, started a revolution of its own in pursuit of civil liberties.

The bloodless, non-military revolt was unsuccessful, but it symbolizes for Hungarians the freedom from the Hapsburgs that was eventually to come to them.

There is feasting and singing, and the people bedeck themselves in their most colorful attire. This year, the celebrating will be on a bigger scale than usual. In New York Mayor O'Dwyer proclaimed April 14 as Louis Kossuth Day, honoring one of the great leaders in Hungary's fight for independence.

In Washington, for an elaborate to-do planned by the Hungarian Ambassador and Mme. Vambery some 600 invitations were sent.

Hungarian wines and a celebrated peach brandy was shipped for the affair. These included the famed Imperial Tokay, which the Hungarians call "The King of Wines and the Wine of Kings."

Mr. Vambery, who was appointed minister here in 1947, had lived on Long Island since 1939. He has been lecturing on Hungary and writing. One of his works is "Hungary—To Be or Not to Be."

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, beautiful brunet wife of the assistant secretary of the Air Force, recently made her debut as a coloratura soprano.

She soloed with the Air Forces Band in a concert before an audience of the town's diplomatic, official and social set.

The Whitneys live in an apartment hotel. Mrs. Whitney prepares her handsome husband's breakfast every week day before he takes off for the Pentagon.

As a very young girl back in Ohio, Mrs. Whitney wanted to be a surgeon like her father. But she got interested in music at the age of 15. She sang with the St. Louis Opera Co. and with New York companies before her marriage in 1941. She's a charter member of Washington's National Society of Arts and Letters, owner of a Music School in Lakeland, Fla., and a member of the Metropolitan Opera Guild Board.

Organized Unique Clubs Grimesland For Youths, Adults

By CHESTER WALSH
Two clubs organized last month by the people of Grimesland are unique in their objectives and rapidly growing in membership. L. L. Murray, principal of Grimesland High School, said today.

The clubs meet at 8:15 on Sundays, the adults at the Christian Church, the young people at the Methodist Church. Appropriate programs are presented.

L. V. Godwin, English teacher at the Grimesland High School, Miss Lucile Swindell and Miss Oma Bliss Lewis, also of the school faculty, and Mrs. C. H. Spiggle, civic leader, are directors.

Mrs. B. L. Tyson of the Red Oak community presented a program on church recreation at the first meeting of young people on February 22. L. V. Godwin presented a program of church music at the second meeting on February 22. Attendance increased from 45 persons at the first meeting to 67 at the second. All young people are invited to attend.

Leaders of the Adult Friendship Club are Mrs. Robert Wilson, chairman; Mrs. Lloyd Whichard, Mrs. Zella Galloway, Mrs. Ethel Tucker and Lloyd Whichard, all civic leaders of Grimesland.

Mrs. Agnes Settle gave an inspiring talk on "Scenes From Gethsemane" at the first meeting of the adult club on February 22.

Mrs. Elsie Egan of the Grimesland school faculty interestingly discussed "The American Way of Life" at the second meeting on February 29.

Robert Lee Humber of Greenville, distinguished scholar and world traveler, delivered a brilliant address at the meeting on March 7. Outstanding leaders in religion, education and civic life will be the speakers at stated times. The public is invited to attend all meetings.

Broke Her Leg For 15th Time

Cleveland, March 8—(AP)—Eight-year-old Sally Ann Mental has broken a leg for the 15th time.

The little girl first fractured a leg when only 30 months old as she was learning to walk. Last year she had two broken legs, one in July and one in September.

The family doctor said she might outgrow her complaint.

The Orinoco river flows 1,473 miles and drains nearly all of Venezuela and about one-third of Colombia, a basin of 368,000 square miles.

The Orinoco river, second largest in South America, is navigable in the rainy season, from May until November, 1,300 of its 1,473 miles.

Goldsboro Folks Help Each Other

For example, after fire burned out H. Well and Bros. main store, the fine Goldsboro Womens Club building was turned over to Well's women's wear and accessories departments. Kadis, Leder Bros., Nell Joseph, Sears and others loaned clothing racks, price tag holders, etc. Smith Hardware provided space for a main office. The office is close to the farm goods and grocery departments in unburned buildings on Well's back lot.

The daily Goldsboro News-Argo is proud of the neighborliness of Goldsboro folks.

Wallace At Work In Pennsylvania

York, Pa., March 8.—(P)—Pennsylvania's political fledgling, the Progressive party, set out today to place Henry Wallace's name on the State's Presidential ballot.

The new party was organized with Wallace present yesterday. North Carolina, Georgia, Maryland and Vermont had previously organized independent parties to back the former vice President.

To assure permanency for the movement, Wallace described as "fantastic" a report that he would return to the Democratic fold should President Truman step aside.

Truman is not the issue, he told 2,500 delegates.

"The doctrine which carries his name is an issue and it was in the plans of men who are running the government long before they told Harry Truman about it," Wallace added.

"The Truman doctrine calls for military advice and economic assistance to nations fighting Communism. Greece and Turkey are already receiving U. S. aid."

"Those men and their plans won't be changed by the simple substitution of another servant of the same interest," Wallace declared.

Home Demonstration Agents

"Fashions in Windows" is the program for Home Demonstration clubs for March. Club members have already learned that "Fashions in Windows" change like "Fashions in Dress." Miss Pauline Gordon, House Furnishings and Home Management Specialist, says, "The style in the modern home is large windows that flood the rooms with light and air. Therefore, you should plan your curtains so that they do not cut out either light or air. But you will want them to soften the light, to give you privacy and to frame a beautiful view. Curtains should be attractive from the outside as well as the inside of the home."

The Home Agents are including in demonstration materials for windows, right length and width for different windows and types of curtains, selection and making draperies, cornices and valances. Real interest has been displayed in this program.

The Pictorial Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, March 2 at 2:30 p. m.—at the home of Mrs. J. T. Gray with Mrs. A. B. Ward, Jr. assisting hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. J. Satterthwaite. Mrs. James R. Davenport led the group in singing "My Wild Irish Rose," followed by repeating the Club Collect. There were 17 members present. We were very glad to welcome the following ladies as new club members: Mrs. Linwood Stocks, Mrs. Edd Switzer, Mrs. R. P. Woodard and Mrs. J. H. Bratcher. Mrs. H. C. Simmons gave the 3rd in a series of reports on "The Niceties of Every Day Living" which was on Table Etiquette. Miss Sidney Davenport gave a very interesting book report on "The Lonely Carrot."

The meeting was turned over to the home agent present, Miss Verna Belle Lowery, who gave a demonstration on "Window Treatments." Miss Lowery also told of the importance of growing more food at home to cut the high cost of living. The hostess served delicious Sandwiches, cookies and a drink.

Red Banks Club Entertains

Husbands at Dinner
Red Banks Home Demonstration Club members entertained their husbands at a dinner at Airport Inn on Tuesday evening, March 2, at 7:00 o'clock. The long banquet table was beautifully decorated with flowers and greenery. Bowls of yellow jonquils and Easter eggs in nests made a colorful table. Mrs. J. D. Boyd, president, presented the toastmistress, Mrs. R. B. Starling who gave a cordial welcome to the husbands. Mr. Starling responded. After a three course dinner, S. C. Winchester, Farm Agent, and Mrs. Langford, Home Agent, gave the program. This was followed by games and stunts led by Mrs. Starling.

Red Oak Club Met Wednesday
Messdames R. R. Tyson, Tom Manning and Frank Manning were hostesses for the Red Oak meeting on Wednesday afternoon, March 3, at the Club Building. Mrs. Penner Allen, president, presided. After the singing of "My Wild Irish Rose" the Club Collect was repeated. The Club voted to sponsor a "chicken stew supper" within the next month to raise money for the club. Mrs. George Haddock, House Furnishings and Home Management Leader for the club, assisted Mrs. Langford in giving the program for the afternoon. The hostess served pineapple short cake and hot coffee.

The Red Oak Club house looked attractive with large arrangements of Japanese Quince and jonquils.
Ballards Club Holds March Meeting
The Ballards Home Demonstration Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. A. L. Hudson. Mrs. A. J. Garris, president, called the meeting to order. "My Wild Irish Rose" was sung and the Club Collect repeated by the Club women. Mrs. H. D. Moye gave a very interesting garden report after which Mrs. Letha Edwards gave a very instructive review on "Niceties of Everyday Living" using the subject for discussion "Table

Etiquette." Mrs. H. D. Moye held the interest of all the members with a delightful book report on "Farmer Takes a Wife" by John Gould. The club building was discussed. Miss Verna Belle Lowery announced the County Council meeting to be held in Greenville on Friday afternoon, March 12, at 2:00 o'clock in the Agriculture Building, and the Leaders' School on "Flower Arrangements" which will be given by Miss Pauline Gordon, Extension Specialist, Raleigh, on March 16 at 2:00 p. m. in the auditorium of the Agricultural Building. Mrs. L. E. Turner, Mrs. H. D. Moye and Mrs. L. R. Jones were appointed to attend the Flower Arrangement demonstration. Miss Lowery, Assistant Home Agent, gave the program which was on "Fashions in Windows" assisted by Mrs. L. R. Jones and Mrs. J. D. Jones who had a fine collection of the different types of curtains, etc. The hostess, Mrs. Hudson, served delicious potato chips, salted nuts, cookies, homemade candy, and hot coffee.

Miss Lowery concluded her demonstration by showing cornices and valances. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Perry Manning, served iced coca cola with salted nuts and cookies.

Making Trip Via Panama Canal

London, March 9.—(P)—Buckingham Palace disclosed today that the King and Queen and Princess Margaret Rose will go to Australia and New Zealand next year by way of the Panama Canal.

The voyage of almost 12,000 miles probably will be made in Britain's mightiest battleship, the Vanguard, which carried the royal family to South Africa last year.

Colored News

The Matron Social club met Wednesday night, March 3, at the home of Mrs. Julia Barnhill with the president, Mrs. Gertrude Latham, presiding.

Miss S. I. Sauter was a guest. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mary Peyton, Bonners Lane.

A Weak, Run-Down Feeling Is Often A Warning

That The Red-Blood
Is Getting Low

If you do not feel like your real self, do not have the urge to be up and doing, why not check-up on your blood strength? Look at the palms of your hands, your fingernails, your lips, the lobes of your ears—are they pale and of color?

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Many Expected At Resource-Use Meeting Mar. 13

A Resource-Use Conference to be held on Saturday, March 13, is expected to bring to the campus of East Carolina Teachers College a large group of men and women from sixteen counties in the eastern section of the state.

The response to invitations sent out several days ago indicates much interest in the meeting, says Dean Leo W. Jenkins of East Carolina. At the beginning of this well over a hundred acceptances had already been received from educators, editors, farmers, business men, ministers, and others who will attend.

Meetings will begin at 9:30 in the Classroom Building on the campus. The program arranged for the all-day session includes a panel discussion in the morning by representatives of state agencies, who will speak on the topics of welfare work, health, community planning and development, soil and forestry conservation, and resource-use education in schools and colleges. A series of talks in the afternoon will stress the work of the schools in the resource-use program.

Speakers will include John E. Ivey Jr., and Dr. Richard Weaver, both of Chapel Hill, members of the Resource-Use Education Commission in the state. East Carolina Teachers College will be represented by President John D. Messick, who will outline the program in teacher-training institutions for improving the use of natural and human resources of North Carolina; Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, dean and director of the summer school, who will describe the resource-use workshops in science, social studies, and health to be offered by the college in the summer sessions this year; and Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, director of field services.

WANTED:
Help to spread
a miracle

You heard a lot about it during the war—the miracle of blood.

Men snatched from certain death by battlefield transfusions. The saving surgery permitted, the "impossible" cures effected by blood in its many life-giving forms.

Now—in peace—we all know what a boon to humanity blood can be . . . in accidents and operations to prevent fatal shock . . . in treatment of severe burns . . . in fighting dread diseases . . . as a surgical aid in delicate brain and nerve operations . . . in preventing hemorrhages . . . as a wound dressing . . . and in childbirth.

Blood may be needed to save your life. Or your child's.

WILL IT BE AVAILABLE? When? How?
It will be available to all eventually—with your help.

For your Red Cross is starting one of its greatest projects—the new National Blood Program. Ultimately whole blood and its priceless derivatives will be made available . . . without cost for the products . . . to the nation's entire population, through physicians and hospitals everywhere in America.

It's on its way—for all!

Starting at selected places across the nation . . . expanding gradually over a period of years . . . including certain scattered local and state programs . . . it will grow until the estimated 3,700,000 pints of blood needed annually can be procured.

... But only through your contribution to its present Fund Campaign can your Red Cross accomplish its task. Won't you help this great plan to succeed?

... Remember, you're not giving just dollars. ... You're giving mercy . . . and health . . . and life itself!

IT'S YOUR RED CROSS... KEEP IT GOING

Ingram Has Plan Keep Franchise

Baltimore, March 9.—(AP)—Admiral Jonas H. Ingram, commissioner of the All-America Professional Football Conference, has a "proposition in writing" to present to a committee of Baltimore businessmen meeting today to discuss plans for raising enough money to keep a league franchise here.

The Baltimore Colts drew 200,000 customers here last year, their first in the conference, but wound up $106,000 in the red.

The conference took over the franchise held by Bob Rodenberg, Washington sportsman, and his associates when Rodenberg could not guarantee there would be enough money in the bank next year to ensure operation.

Punitive Action

Lansing, Mich., March 9.—(AP)—National Hockey League President Clarence S. Campbell today expelled Billy Taylor, New York Ranger hockey player, and suspended Don Gallinger of the Boston Braves on charges of being associated with gamblers.

Deny Tampering With Footballers

Brooklyn, N. Y., March 9.—(AP)—Charges that they tampered with three University of Oklahoma football players have brought a stout denial from the Brooklyn Dodgers of the All-America conference.

Last week coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma protested to AAC commissioner Jonas Ingram that a Dodger scout had visited the Norman campus and attempted to sign three players. Wilkinson did not name them.

Bethel's first Invitational Tournament for boys in Class "B" competition, opened up a capacity crowd of basketball followers in this section. Three Pitt County teams came out victorious in the quarter finals last night as Ayden, Bethel, and Farmville posted wins in out-of-county competition and Robersonville in Martin County took the fourth game from the Snow Hill quint.

Ayden came from behind to win a 35-34 decision over Bath. The Bath quint was leading 19-18, at the half and maintained the lead until the closing minutes of the third quarter when Jim McCormick got a free throw and Bullock sank a field goal to put Ayden ahead. Edwain Cox was the leading scorer for Ayden with 12 points. Ronald Byrd got 11 for Bath.

Bethel's strong quint trounced North Edgecombe, 54-37. Bruce Hemmingsway got 16 points to lead the winners. William Owens was high for the losers, with 13 points. The powerful Bethel team was setting the pace, 29-12, at the half.

Farmville's team led all the way and managed to edge Vanceboro, 23-20. At the half, Farmville was leading 13-9. Dewey Hathaway got 12 points for the winning club. Tom Laughinghouse was high for Vanceboro, with nine points.

The semifinals are scheduled for Tuesday.

In the final game of the night the second-seeded Robersonville quint took a 37-24 win over the Snow Hill boys. Show Hill grabbed the lead in the early minutes of the game but the Martin County boys tied it up at 9-9 in the early minutes of the first quarter and then a field goal by Keel put the Robersonville boys out front for keeps. At the half the score was 12-9 in favor of Robersonville. Charlie Wilson with 11 points led the winners, while Harper with a similar number led the Snow Hill boys.

Revive Move To Return Medals To Jim Thorpe

San Francisco, March 9.—(AP)—Glenn Scooby "Pop" Warner joins with others in the agitation to return to Jim Thorpe the medals and trophies won by the Indian athlete in the 1912 Olympic games and taken from him on charges of professionalism.

Warner is best known for his great contributions to football but he also speaks with authority in track and field matters. At Carlisle he coached both sports and Thorpe was his prized pupil.

It was Warner, in fact, who took Thorpe and a class mate, Louie Tewanima, to the 1912 Olympics in Stockholm. Thorpe won the Pentathlon and the grueling Decathlon to hear himself praised as the world's finest athlete. Tewanima took second to Hans Kolehmainen in the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs.

Warner said he had always felt that Thorpe "got a rough deal" when the Amateur Athletic Union demanded the medals and trophies be turned back.

"The Decathlon trophies were offered to the Swede (H. Wieslander) who finished second to Thorpe," Warner said. "He refused to accept, saying they had been won by Thorpe and rightfully belonged to him. As long as he refused to accept them, I think they should have been returned to Thorpe. Who had a better right to them?"

"Like a lot of other college boys, Thorpe had played summer baseball in North Carolina. It was semi-pro ball and the money received for it hardly amounted to expenses."

Both teams were surprise finalists. All four seeded teams which included the Hogans, Demarets, Sneads Lockes and others in a picked field of 32 players from the United States, South Africa and Argentina were knocked off in early rounds.

Navy Combed Branches Seeking Olympic Squad

Annapolis, Md., March 9.—(AP)—The Navy combed the fleet and marine corps for basketball players and came up with a quintet it hopes will represent the United States at the Olympics next summer.

The former midshipmen and enlisted men selected for the squad were brought to the Naval Academy, and, under the tutelage of academy mentor Ben Carnevale, were whipped into a team that has won all of its 24 games.

The Olympics climaxed a winter of campaigning against service and amateur teams in the South and Middle Atlantic areas last week by dribbling off with the South Atlantic District AAU crown.

They will take off for Denver and the National AAU tournament tomorrow, but two of the Olympics' star performers will not make the trip.

Ensign Kenny Shugart and Seaman I-C Bob Garrison will be grounded at home. Shugart is still limping from strained knee ligaments and Garrison, a tall youngster from Toledo, O., is in the academy sick bay with a throat infection.

The AAU hostilities begin Sunday and continue for a week, which may give Shugart a chance to fly out for the later rounds—if Navy survives the early going.

Cubs Leading In Home Runs For Training Games

The White Sox are next in this department with four. Dave Philley and rookies Gus Zernill, Gordon Goldsberry and Vincent Plumbo have contributed one apiece.

All told, 17 homers have been hit so far with rookies contributing 11 of the blows and veterans the remainder six. Only Maddern and York have collected as many as two.

Agree Detroiters Tops Infielders

Lakeland, Fla., March 9.—(AP)—In one breath experts tell you that the biggest 1948 headache of the Detroit Tigers will be their sub-par infield. In the next, they agree that in George Kell, the Bengals possess the best third baseman in the major leagues.

Tiger Chief Steve O'Neill goes even further on the capabilities of his 25-year-old hot corner guardian from Swifton, Ark.

"Kell has no equal in handling a bunt of going back. He has two of the surest hands in all baseball and I don't know of a smarter player. He is aggressive, a hustler, has a keen desire to win, is a great team player and helps others. In short, he is everything a manager would want in a player. He is well behaved on and off the field."

Chicago, March 9—(AP)—Temperatures plunged to 22 below zero in North Dakota today as cold weather lingered in sections of the mid-west.

The road belt covered parts of the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa. The mercury also was below seasonal levels in sections of Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas. Federal forecasters said there appeared no immediate relief from the cold snap.

Grand Forks, N.D., was the coldest spot on the early morning weather map—22 below. Other sub-zero readings in North Dakota included 15 at Dickinson and 16 at Bismarck. In Minnesota, Duluth reported a low of -8 and the Minneapolis minimum was -5. The mercury touched zero at Sioux Falls, S.D., 5 above at Sioux City, Ia., and 10 above at St. Joseph, Mo.
