GOP Senators Line Up Behind Tax Cut Measure

Hope For Enough Democratic Votes To Push Through $4 Billion Slash

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Senate Republicans lined up today behind a $4,700,000,000 income tax cut bill—And hoped for strong Democratic support.

The Senate Finance Committee voted 10 to 1 last night for a tax slash of that size. In doing so, it whittled $1,800,000,000 from the $6,500,000,000 tax bill passed overwhelmingly by the House February 2.

Washington, March 12 (AP)—President Truman yesterday branded as "a lie out of the whole cloth" columnist Drew Pearson's report that the Chief Executive once had told New York Jews disloyal.

The Hopes That Died

A Statesman Told Three American Schoolboys Of The Bright New World That Lay Ahead, That Was In 1945; His Optimism Then; Masaryk's Unsmiling End

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Three schoolboys in sweatshirts in San Francisco... serious... spring 1945... I never knew their names... they were three boys and we talked a minute... they asked a question... I didn't know the answer then... Maybe they have their answer now... It was May 18... The war in Europe was over 11 days... Allied statesmen from everywhere were in San Francisco... The statesmen were setting up the United Nations... A thrilling time... Hopeful... People and statesmen talked of the new world coming... On that warm and sunny afternoon of May 18, 1945, about 10,000 high school students from in and around San Francisco sat down in a huge auditorium... They were going to get a little taste of foreign affairs first hand... They had gathered to hear a diplomat talk of U.N. and the new world... He talked easily, with good cheer, and the boys and girls listened. He talked of the U.N. and democracy and his hopes of the bright future. He had reason to be cheerful. Early in the war his country, a

Crisis Is Incentive For Speedy Action

Crucial Vote On ERP Outlay In Senate Today; Final Bill Slated For Approval Either Late Tonight Or Tomorrow

Washington, March 12 (AP)—The "great crisis" Secretary of State Marshall says is gripping the world sped the senate toward a crucial vote today on his European recovery program.

The issue was whether the Marshall plan bill should carry the $3,300,000,000 (A) first year figure now planned or be cut to $4,600,000,000 (B) as proposed by Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

Friends and foes alike agreed that today's vote would be the major test.

The bill itself is due to be approved—with one amount or the other—late tonight or tomorrow.

It then will go to the House, which yesterday was asked by President Truman to give Western Europe an additional $55,000,000 (M) in stopgap aid by April 1.

The President said the money is needed to keep the supply lines to non-Communist countries filled until Marshall plan help is available. And he termed it a matter of "extreme urgency" that the plan itself be approved quickly.

Congressional leaders now estimate this will be about April 10—just eight days before the Italian elections which may bring the crisis to its first climax.

Marshall further underscored the gravity with which American leaders view the world's turmoil when he told a federal council of churches meeting last night:

"The world is in the midst of a great crisis, inflamed by propaganda, misunderstanding, anger and fear."

Mr. Truman was in the audience at the Washington Cathedral where Marshall spoke.

Marshall took the occasion to renew his plea for speedy passage of his European self-help plan.

The Senate debate on that program took an unexpected turn yesterday when Taft, a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, single-handedly offered an amendment to slash the program by $1,300,000,000 (B).

Sensors Wherry (Neb) and Ball (Minn) had indicated earlier that such an amendment would be offered by the 20-member Republican revisionist group they head.

Wherry pledged that the revisionists would back Taft in his chip-down battle with Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Foreign Relations Committee.

The amendment provided the first head-on clash between the two party leaders on the foreign relief issue.

Within a few hours of each other, both the President and his secretary of state spoke out with extraordinary frankness of the state of affairs in the world.

At the same time a five-point Administration plan began to emerge; a plan for coming to grips with what Secretary of State Marshall considers a "great crisis" in the world.

Chief Executive admitted that his faith in the attainment of a real world peace has been somewhat shaken. He said so at a White House news conference late yesterday.

Marshall, appearing last night before a meeting of the Federal Council of Churches, declared flatly that "the world is in the midst of a great crisis, inflamed by propaganda, misunderstanding, anger and fear."

The President was in the audience and heard Marshall couple with his pronouncement of crisis and appeal for moderation, calm thinking and cool judgment on the part of the American people.

Mr. Truman himself had said earlier that Americans should be careful not to let their passions get the better of them before they know all the facts.

Out of the President's news conference comments and Marshall's brief speech came the pattern of Administration policy for meeting the crisis.

Officials expect that crisis to reach a climax first and most directly in the Italian political campaigns leading up to elections there April 18.

Authorities conduct an election, and then return to re-examine the situation. France also proposed that the commission express its confidence in the American command by recommending such an election.

They were going to get a little taste of foreign affairs first hand... They had gathered to hear a diplomat talk of U.N. and the new world... He talked easily, with good cheer, and the boys and girls listened. He talked of the U.N. and democracy and his hopes of the bright future. He had reason to be cheerful. Early in the war his country, a democracy, had been overrun by the Nazis and now was free again. And as I watched the students walk out later I wondered: Are they thinking seriously about this and the future?

At the door I stopped for a minute to talk to three boys in sweatshirts. I asked them how much thinking they and their friends were doing about U.N.

And yesterday I went back and looked up the story I wrote then on what they had said:

"The tallest boy said: 'We're taking it a lot more seriously than older people think we are. Not all of us, sure. But a lot of us. But sometimes we think we're getting propaganda about how good the new world will be. What we want to know is the truth.'"

A lot of things have happened since then... Fighting in China, in Indonesia, in India, in Palestine... Poland, Bulgaria, Romania, Yugoslavia, Hungary have all gone Communist... We've poured help into Greece to help fight Communists... And a week ago the Communists, without fighting, took over in Czechoslovakia... Feeling in this country grew bitter and hard... And two days ago Secretary of State

Second Prague? Berlin, March 12 (AP)—Berlin Socialist leaders demanded today that the Western Allies help clean up Berlin's Communist-controlled police department.

They said a cleanup was necessary, "lest we become a second Prague."

The demands were made at a meeting of the city assembly, where the Socialists are trying to remove Paul Markgraf, Berlin's police president. Markgraf was installed by the Russians.

Socialists accuse him of permitting arbitrary arrests and kidnapping of civilians without warrant or trial.

Russo-American Relations May Upset Partition

Washington, March 12 (AP)—A Russian sentry sent an outlawed "dum dum" bullet smashing into the arm of a fallen and clubbed American soldier in Vienna Sunday, the U.S. commander there reported last night.

The American, Pfc. Jack Grunden, was attacked and hurled to the ground by another Russian, Lt. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes said, and then was beaten and shot with "a rifle bullet of the explosive dum dum type."

Such ammunition—which expands when it strikes—was outlawed in an 1899 agreement signed by Russia and virtually all other major nations.

The Soviet version of the Vienna shooting, Keyes added in his report to the army, was "a complete distortion of the facts." He said a Russian protest, submitted to him by a Colonel Ivanov, gave this account:

"Three drunk American soldiers" tried to disarm the guard at the Grand Hotel—Soviet headquarters in Vienna—and one of them struck the Russian with a bottle in the fight that followed. The Soviet sentry then shot the American in the arm, Ivanov said.

"First aid was rendered to the wounded on the spot," continued the Russian report, "and he was turned over to the American element."

But Keyes said in his report that Grunden and two other GIs were walking past the hotel with three Austrian girls.

A Russian soldier intercepted the Americans and the girls in the street, said Keyes, and made a "filthy remark." The Russian then grabbed one of the three men. When Grunden intervened, he was thrown to the ground.

During the scuffle, the Russian soldier fired his pistol into the air, the report said. A Soviet sentry ran across the street, ran up, flailed at the fallen American with his bayoneted rifle, then clubbed Grunden with the rifle butt and shot him as he lay on the ground.

First aid was given by an unidentified American doctor and an Austrian doctor. But, Keyes declared, the Russians gave the Portland, Ore., soldier no help during the 45 minutes he lay in front of their headquarters.

The American general said a preliminary protest has been made to the Soviet commander in the area.

Russia yesterday dimmed American hopes of a peaceful future for partition. Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko threatened to walk out of the big power parleys if Arabs and Jews were brought in for further conciliation efforts.

So far the Arabs have spurned mediation unless partition is scrapped first. The Jews want partition.

The United States stakes its hopes for a peaceful settlement on getting the Arabs to the conference table. American sources still expect support from France and China in the conciliation move but admittedly no acceptable ceiling could be reached without Russian support. Beyond conciliation, American officials are reluctant to discuss their next move.

Statesboro, Ga., March 12 (AP)—Church folks in this east-central farming section of Georgia have turned to prayer to end the worst wet spell in 40 years.

While a windy rain poured down yesterday on the roof of the little white Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church here, and thunder rolled over the pine woods, Elder P. H. Byrd intoned this exhortation:

"Dear God, cause the clouds to vanish and the sunshine to break forth and the warm breezes to blow over and dry off the earth, and spring to come."

Rain has fallen on this section of the state almost daily since November. Farm work is at a standstill, plowing is far behind, and livestock is dying of pneumonia.

U.S. Commander Reports Version Vienna Incident

Outlawed 'Dum-Dum' Bullet Used By Red Army Soldier; Shooting Protested

Five Powers Adopt Fifty-Year Accord

Treaty For Political, Economic And Military Union Of Western Europe Slated For Signature In Brussels March 17

Brussels, Belgium, March 12 (AP)—Britain, France and the Benelux nations adopted today a 50-year treaty for a political, economic and military union of Western Europe intended to check the march of Communism.

Conference officials said the accord and allied documents will be signed here next Wednesday by the Foreign Ministers of Belgium, Britain, France, Luxembourg and the Netherlands.

The text of the agreement will not be released until the signature ceremony, to give the five governments of the negotiators opportunity to examine it closely, the officials said.

Delegates from the five countries, including four of the world's greatest colonial powers, completed their efforts on the Western union suggested in January by British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin—at 11:30 a. m. (5:30 a. m. EST), after more than a week around the conference table. Sir George Bendel, chief of the British delegation and Britain's Ambassador here, said the delegates had agreed among themselves not to communicate any of the substance of the treaty before their governments approve it.

The pact was known to bind the five countries to mutual assistance in the face of aggression, mutual aid in the economic field, cooperation in improving their living standards and a measure of coordination of colonial resources.

The treaty, reportedly containing a preamble and 10 clauses, was believed to bind the five countries to mutual assistance in the face of aggression, mutual aid in the economic field, cooperating in improving their living standards and a measure of coordination of colonial resources.

One of the final points before the conference, it was learned, was whether the treaty should name Germany as a possible aggressor. There was no definite indication as to the decision reached.

A short communique issued after the final session said the delegates, meeting here since March 4, have "drawn up a draft treaty, which they will be recommending to their respective governments and which will include clauses dealing with economic, social and cultural defense matters within the scope of the charter of the United Nations."

"It is hoped the treaty will be signed in Brussels next week by the Foreign Ministers of each country. It will be for the governments concerned, after finally approving the text, to publish its substance in such a manner as they decide in common."

Conference officials said the text would be released simultaneously in the capitals of all five countries on the day of signature.

The Southern governors, beginning to arrive for a conference tomorrow, seemed likely to hoist a secessionist banner and map a fresh attack on the anti-poll tax, anti-lynching, and anti-Jim Crow measures asked by the President.

They will get a report from four of their number on an "unsatisfactory" meeting with Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath on the civil rights program.

Despite this attitude, Hill took the lead in urging Southerners to try for a compromise within the Democratic ranks.

"The Democratic party in the past has resolved its differences in the Democratic National Convention," Hill told an Alabama radio audience last night. "I believe that we can do so again."

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said today he will remain in the cabinet at least until the end of the present session of Congress and "may not get out at all."

Anderson has considered running for the Senate seat now held by Senator Hatch (D-N. Mex.), who has said he will not seek another term.

The secretary told reporters, after a cabinet meeting, that President Truman had repeated his desire that Anderson stay in the Administration.

Washington, March 12 (AP)—An anonymous bomb threat today emptied the United States consulate building, 300 yards from the blasted Jewish agency headquarters where 13 were killed and nearly 100 were injured.

The building also is used as a residence by Consul General Robert E. McAtee, Consul William Porter and Vice Consul Walter Stabler.

The death in a hospital of another victim raised the death toll to 13 in yesterday's bombing of the Jewish agency building. The agency says an Arab, driving a car stolen from the American consulate, entered the Jewish compound and ignited a bomb. Three of the dead were women.

In Tel Aviv, the Jewish agency announced its ratification of a merger of two Jewish fighting forces, Haganah and Irgun Zvai Leumi. Approval depends on a referendum of agency members in London and New York.

David Ben-Gurion, chairman of the agency executive, opposed the merger, but conservative Jewish leaders backed it to strengthen the Jewish fight against the Arabs over partition. Haganah previously has assailed Irgun for terrorist acts which it charged were hurting the Jewish cause. Jewish sources say Irgun has agreed to cease its attacks upon British forces now withdrawing from the Holy Land.

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Veterans Administration offices at Andrews, Acheson, High Point, Morganton, Rocky Mount and North Wilkesboro will be closed April 1. D. Deramus, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office here, announced today.

The move is being made because of a nationwide reduction of VA personnel, Mr. Deramus explained.

Washington, March 12 (AP)—A federal jury began considering evidence today in the case of a man accused of witness tampering.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff turned the case over to the jury upon completion of his charge, which required an hour and 38 minutes. The jury to decide Meyers' guilt or innocence is made up of 10 men and two women. The trial has required three weeks.

Des Moines, March 12 (AP)—America's farmers apparently have been boning up on the Marshall plan. Successful Farming Magazine said today a National cross-section poll of 6,000 (M) farmers just completed shows 72 per cent of them have heard of the European recovery program.

A January poll by the magazine showed only 48 per cent of American farmers had heard of the plan.

Washington, March 12 (AP)—A university president denouncing ghost-writing of speeches of men in public life as "dishonest" declared today the speakers should be compelled by law to tell who wrote their addresses.

President Daniel L. Marsh of Boston University assailed the man in public life who because he "is too lazy or dumb to write his own speeches and messages, is likely to plagiarize or to hire some ghost writer to write them for him."

Political Peace Gestures Fail To Unite Demos

Harmony Pleas Of Alabama Senators Fall On Deaf Ears As Governors Gather

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Two Dixie senators pleaded today on the eve of a showdown meeting of Southern governors for party rebels to fight out the civil rights battle without quitting the Democratic fold.

But the harmony pleas of Alabama's Democratic Senators Hill and Sparkman—as well as a mild gesture by President Truman himself—seemed to fall mostly on deaf ears.

Mr. Truman told his news conference he won't send any bills to Capitol Hill to carry out his 10-point civil rights program which caused the Southern revolt.

It is up to Congress to write its own ticket, the President said. He would be glad to help, if asked. But he didn't talk as though he expected to be asked.

His it's-up-to-you attitude was looked upon as a reminder to Dixie Democrats that if any race equality laws are enacted, Mr. Truman alone shouldn't be blamed.

But most of the Southern Democrats continued to direct the blame his way anyhow.

They have made it plain they are after the President's political scalp—a situation that gave the party's executive committee something to think about as it got ready for a White House luncheon with the President.

The Southern governors, beginning to arrive for a conference tomorrow, seemed likely to hoist a secessionist banner and map a fresh attack on the anti-poll tax, anti-lynching, and anti-Jim Crow measures asked by the President.

The Rev. C. L. Patrick officiated, using the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Margaret James, soloist, and Mr. Curtis Paul, pianist.

The bride entered with Mr. Hughes Peede, a close friend of the family, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a suit of winter white wool, with orchid accessories and carried a white Bible topped with a purple orchid. Miss Marjorie Harris was her sister's only attendant and wore a suit of pink botany wool with gray accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Harper will be at home in Snow Hill.

Mrs. Harper attended the Greenville schools and has been employed with the A&P Company for the past four years. Mr. Harper attended schools in Snow Hill and served with the U.S. Navy two years. Miss Marjorie Harris entertained the wedding party and close friends at a cake cutting following the rehearsal Saturday evening.

Miss Redwine announced that the next meeting of the child study group would be March 17 at 2:30 p. m. in her classroom.

Several members volunteered to help with the pre-school clinic. Miss Wahl told the group that the Kiwanis club helped provide medical care for one student.

Mrs. Sam Northrop, Mrs. Howard Moye and Miss Christine Johnston were named as the nominating committee to secure officers for next year.

Mrs. Vance Perkins announced that a city midget baseball league for boys between the ages of 9 and 14 would be organized March 11 at Third Street school.

Miss Maxwell accompanied Miss Oppelt and played a very entertaining solo "Perpetual Movement" by Poulenc.

The members of the Lector Club voted to ask Mrs. Hugh Winslow and Mrs. Louis Gaylord, Jr., to join the club.

Limit Broadcasting To 'Facts' For MacArthur

Tokyo, March 12—(AP)—General MacArthur's key staff officers complained today about a news broadcast that "anti-MacArthur" veterans clubs are being organized in the United States. Then they announced a policy of limiting broadcasts by the armed forces radio here to "factual events" in their chief's Presidential campaign.

Organization of U. S. clubs opposing MacArthur's candidacy was reported in a news summary broadcast by the armed forces radio in Japan, Station WVTR, last night. The summary also included news of activities by MacArthur supporters.

The officers said the new policy will not apply to a regular 10 p. m. (Tokyo time) shortwave broadcast from Los Angeles, which is heard throughout Japan through WVTR. They acknowledged the policy might drive criticism that military and civilian absentee voters in Japan—of whom there are tens of thousands—are being deprived of a chance to weigh all issues. Roundups of opinion on both sides might be used later, they said.

Allied headquarters censorship over the Japanese press has permitted several reaction stories. These included criticism of MacArthur as a military man, for his long absence from the United States (since 1937) and that he has not announced a platform. Several other stories are being held up, although it is understood that none has been killed.

It was understood also that Allied headquarters censorship received no new instructions regarding the United States Presidential campaign. The general policy has been to delete criticism of MacArthur as Supreme Commander of the occupation, or as an individual under the overall policy that criticism of the occupation is not permitted.

Sheriff Moves His Prisoners

Albany, Ga., March 12—(AP)—A Georgia sheriff has transferred a Negro mother and her two teen age sons from his jail to an undisclosed one "because folks are calling me night and day from everywhere about them."

Rosa Lee Ingram, 40, and her sons, Sammie, 14, and Wallace, 17, were lodged in Sheriff D. C. Campbell's jail in January after their conviction in the slaying of John E. Stratford, 66-year-old white sharecropper.

They were given a death sentence in Schley County.

"I thought they brought them down here for me to take care of them—not to advertise them to all the world," Sheriff Campbell said.

"With all the night and day telephone calls from northern newspapers and magazines and visits by attorneys, the duties of my office couldn't be carried out," he added.

So Sheriff Campbell asked Sheriff Edgar Devane of Schley County to come and get them.

Sheriff Devane wouldn't say where they were taken because "we don't want to bother another sheriff."

Death sentences given the Ingrams were stayed pending a new trial hearing set March 30 in Americus, Ga.

Coin Boxes On City Buses Accumulate Lot No Good Money

By CHESTER WALSH
The coin boxes on the Greenville Transit Company passenger buses have accumulated enough defective coins and metal slugs to fill a small treasure chest, Manager David W. Hardee, Jr., said today, while displaying a pile of conglomerate dimes which would not pass over anybody's counter. Hardee is willing to pass some of the small change over to coin collectors. One dime had so many holes in it that the date was not legible, others bore amateur engravings, some were counterfeit and others had been attached to ornamental jewelry.

Incidentally the Greenville Transit Company's passenger business is increasing steadily as a result of regular and convenient schedules, it was stated today. An insurance company with which the transit company does business gave the Greenville buses credit for maintaining the best schedules in the section during and after the snowstorm in February. The company's new garage and service shop across the river on the Bethel highway, is nearly completed. The buses will be serviced at the shop as an economy measure, Hardee said.

Conservatives Win By-Election

London, March 12—(AP)—The Conservative party kept its House of Commons seat in yesterday's North Croydon by-election.

It was the 39th by-election since the 1945 General elections. The Conservatives have not lost any seats in that time and have gained one from the ruling Labor party.

Labor now has 396 seats in the House of Commons and the Conservatives 199, of the total of 640.

Auto Strikes Power Line Pole; Three Injured

By CHESTER WALSH
An automobile driven by F. L. Mills crashed into an electric power line in Falkland about 1:30 a. m. today and snapped off the pole after the car had skidded and traveled 476 feet badly damaging the car and injuring the driver and two occupants.

Electric current in the Falkland area was disrupted for a time. A Greenville Utilities Commission emergency crew had to cut off the current to make repairs.

State Highway Patrolman S. G. Giggis who, with Patrolman Dick Chadwick, are investigating the wreck, quoted F. L. Mills, the driver, as saying that his car skidded off the highway at the intersection of highways 222 and 43, and then swerved left across the pavement to crash into the pole. Mills' family live on Route 3, Greenville. He is a sailor and attached to the USS Missouri, he told the Patrolmen.

He is at Pitt General Hospital with painful and probably serious injuries. Eugene Adams of Route 3, Greenville, riding on the front seat with the driver, received treatment at the hospital for minor injuries and was to be released today. William Mills, of Route 3 Greenville, who was on the back seat, was treated for minor injuries and released from the hospital.

Broughton Issues Call For Unity

Shelby, March 12—(AP)—This is no time for political expediency or national disunity, former North Carolina Governor J. M. Broughton, a candidate for the U. S. Senate, said here last night.

Broughton told members of the Kiwanis clubs of Kings Mountain and Shelby that this country's assuming of world leadership makes such conditions improper at the current time.

He told his audience that, without American leadership, hope for world peace will be frustrated.

Music Contests Ended Yesterday

The annual high school music contest in which 22 counties of the northeastern district participated at East Carolina Teachers College Wednesday and Thursday came to a close yesterday afternoon following the band contest. None of the participating bands were awarded any better than two and three, and therefore, will not participate in the state music contest at Greensboro. A new and higher system of judging inaugurated last year makes it more difficult in the contests to win a No. 1 rating, Chairman June H. Rose said.

Strength FOR THE DAY

WERE YOU THERE?
A Negro quartet is singing a spiritual, and these are the words which touch the hearts of all. "Were you there when they crucified my Lord? ... Were you there when they put Him in the grave?" A teacher who went about the country with that quartet told me that he had never failed to note the emotional effect which these words of the Negro spiritual always produced on audiences. Men and women, apparently half-shamed lest some one would see them, would wipe the tears from their cheeks as these plaintive questions rang out in the rich tones of the singers.

The words of the spiritual really ask us the question whether or not we have entered into the rich experience of our faith. No one living today, of course, was present when our Lord was crucified. But we can all stand at the foot of the cross and appreciate the love which his pain disclosed, if we will turn from the evil of our hearts and let God speak to us. Faith makes it possible for us all to say that we were there when they crucified our Lord, we were there when they put Him in the grave.

Every time we say no to the evil promptings of our hearts, every time we suffer with a loved one, every time we get under the heavy load of some one's burden and help carry it, we are standing, a friend and believer, at the foot of the cross and being counted among those who know what affliction means.

OLEO VS. BUTTER
Maybe the tax on oleo-margarine affects your pocketbook, and maybe it doesn't. But there are a lot of families who find the difference in butter and oleo prices a very good reason to prefer oleo, and would find it more easily obtainable if the taxes on oleo were dropped.

The burden of these taxes on consumers increases the cost of the product, interferes with the customer's freedom of choice in satisfying personal wants, and increases his living costs by interfering with the consumption of less expensive foods.

Undersecretary of the Treasury A. Lee Wiggins says these taxes are unimportant from the standpoint of federal revenue, and that collections for this and the next fiscal year are estimated at only around seven million dollars.

Only dairy interests are served by the tax on oleo-margarine. To say that the tax is discriminatory, is putting it mildly. The tax was deliberately designed to favor the dairy people and partially stifle the margarine industry.

In our point of view, the people who prefer butter will keep right on buying butter "until the cows come home"; and those who prefer, or are by necessity buying margarine, will similarly continue buying that product.

Meanwhile, the families whose pocketbooks say "oleo" are taking a beating from the taxes involved. The time for ending this unfair discrimination is now.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—Petite, bird-bright Tani, 3 1/2-year-old daughter of the new minister from Nepal, has taken the capital's celebrity know-towers with a smile.

"She is the real ambassador and I am the minister," her father remarked at the huge reception he and his wife, Rani Kaiser, gave the other day. Tani, in her odd, long red knit dress, red slippers and pink felt bonnet, lived up to her name, which in Nepalese means "something that pulls at the heart."

Tani was gaily happy to meet everybody as she waved from the arms of one of her father's aides. She gave soft little pats to the faces of Mme. Bonnet, wife of the French ambassador, and Mrs. Fred Vinson, the wife of the chief justice. She smiled coyly at the British ambassador and posed for a picture with Raymond Muir, assistant chief of protocol of the State Department.

The minister from the far-away kingdom high in the Himalayas was quite at home with his American friends. He visited this country several years ago and became thoroughly acquainted then with its customs.

Beautiful Rani Kaiser, the very first woman out of Nepal to discard the veil, is an ethereal, gently shy person. She stood with her soft, dark eyes downcast as diplomats and officialdom passed by.

She kept her tiny hands, encased in black lace gloves, held in a Hindu gesture which is also a Christian attitude of prayer. She said very little to her guests.

Nevertheless she was as much a sensation in her own way as was Tani. She wore fabulous jewels—a six-inch diamond and ruby brooch, a diamond brooch on her shoulder, earrings of huge square rubies framed in diamonds. Her priceless sari (flowing garment) was of pure gold tissue, delicately woven with multi-colored flowers.

Rani Kaiser, who is not quite 24, also wears a sapphire ring which she explains is to avert the evil eye of Saturn. According to superstition everyone is under the evil eye of Saturn for 7 1/2 years every 29 years.

The minister, Commanding General Kaiser Shumshers Jung Bahadur Rana, has traveled extensively. He is humorous and friendly. It was his suggestion that the pardah or veil worn for centuries by Nepalese women be lifted.

Nepal is an independent kingdom, bounded on the north by Tibet, on the east by Sikkim and on the south and west by India and Pakistan. The government is a modified aristocracy based on birth and is military in organization. It covers 54,000 square miles and has a population of 7,000,000.

Reds Strengthen Czech Controls; Another Suicide

Prague, Czechoslovakia, March 12 (AP)—The Communists strengthened their control of Czechoslovakia today with a program of reorganization and legislation in a dominated parliament.

They also claimed new evidence of opposition plotting against the government in a report of the confession and suicide of a non-Communist political leader, Josef Herot.

That suicide was the second such to be reported officially this week. The government said Jan Masaryk, non-party foreign minister, took his life by jumping out an apartment window Wednesday.

Parliament was slated in today's session to go ahead with committee organization giving Communists powerful posts and to legalize the work of action committees which prepared the way for the new government, sworn in just two weeks ago.

Communists already had been made chairman of the important budget and foreign affairs committees. Rudolf Slansky, a Czech organizer of the Communist International Information Bureau (Cominform), was emerging as floor leader.

Premier Klement Gottwald had a unanimous vote of confidence—meaning, in effect, approval of his program to make the state all-powerful in industry and trade and give every farmer more than 100 acres. Sixty-seven—more than a fifth—of parliament's 300 members were absent when the vote was taken yesterday by a show of hands.

Rev. F. E. Morris To Preach For Revival

Rev. Frank E. Morris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gaffney, S. C., will arrive Monday to preach in revival services at the Memorial Baptist Church in Greenville and Pitt County, having been pastor some years ago at Winterville and Ayden. Leaving Winterville he was for some years pastor of the Leigh Street Baptist Church of Richmond, Virginia, going to the Gaffney, S. C., church in January of this year.

Assisting in the revival services will be Mr. A. E. Lynch, who will lead the singing during the revival. Mr. Lynch is director of music of Campbell College and is also well known in Eastern Carolina for his work as director of the Campbell College Glee club and as an evangelistic singer.

The revival will begin Sunday March 14th, and continue through Sunday, March 21st, with services being held each night at 7:30 o'clock. The people of Greenville are cordially invited to attend these services.

Fire Inquiry To Be Started Soon

Asheville, N. C., March 12—(AP)—An official investigation of a fire that took nine lives in a mental hospital here probably will be started within a few days, Coroner Dr. P. R. Terry said today.

Dr. Terry said he would work closely with district Solicitor W. K. McLean in the probe.

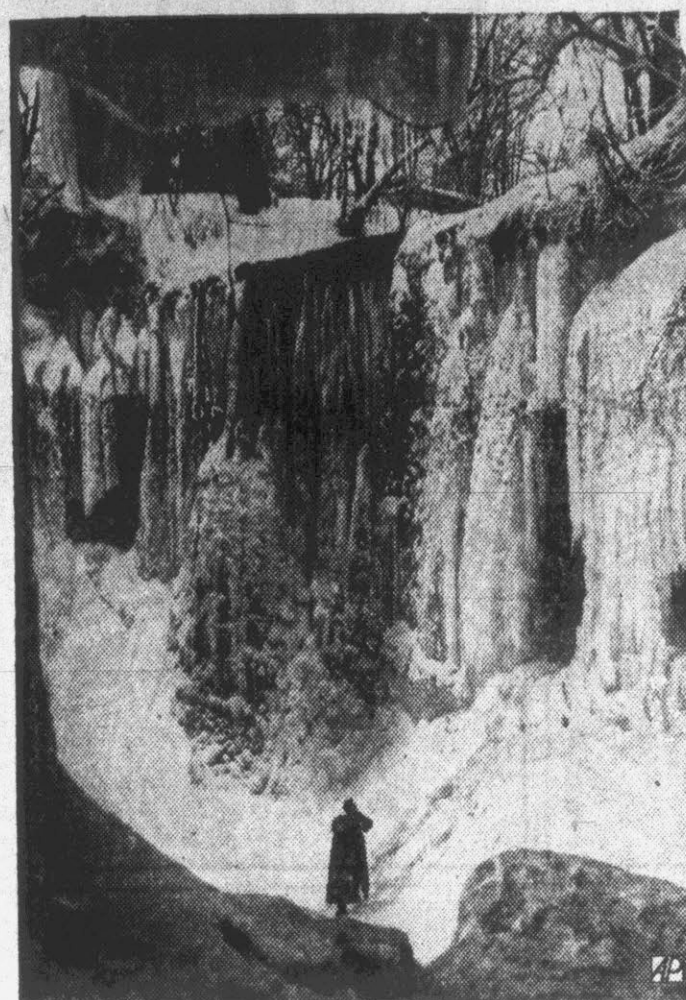

The announcement came as workers searched the ruins of the hospital for the remaining bodies of the nine women victims.

A roaring fire in yesterday's pre-dawn claimed nine patients as 20 others, some hysterical, were led to safety.

The holocaust destroyed the four-story central building of Highland Hospital. Search for the charred bodies was halted late yesterday by city officials who feared a collapse of two walls. It was believed five bodies remained in the wreckage.

Dr. P. R. Terry, Buncombe county Coroner, said arrangements for an investigation had not been completed. Cause of the disaster was not officially determined. Fire Chief J. C. Fitzgerald said he believed it started in the kitchen and added it was the third fire at the hospital in a year. Two blazes were yesterday last April, Fitzgerald said. The first ignited a mattress and the other started from oil-soaked rags under a stairway.

Dr. B. T. Bennett, hospital medical director, estimated damage at $300,000.

Cannibalism Is Charged To Jap Medical Officer

Yokohama, March 12—(AP)—A Japanese medical officer was accused today of boiling the liver of an American flier in Soya Sauce before it was served with Sake (liquor) at a cannibalistic wartime lunch.

"Lt. Tatsu Kishi slashed and dissected the bodies" of eight U. S. airmen, said prosecutor Paul K. Van Bergen. "He mutilated them so the organs were of no use in further experiments."

Then he was inspired—inspired to serve the human liver of one man at the hospital mess for officers and their dependents. It was cooked in soya sauce and served with sake." A Japanese army nurse and 29 men are accused in the medical experiment deaths of the eight at Kyushu Imperial University.

Shizuko Isutsu, first Japanese woman to face war crimes charges, is charged with assisting in the experiments.

Greek Army Gets Heavy Criticism By U.S. Mission

Athens, March 12—(AP)—The American mission to aid Greece said today the Greek army's failure to continue an offensive through last summer and fall enabled the guerrillas to increase their strength.

A 30-page report covered the mission's program during its eight months operations.

The statement said it was untrue that the army had been inadequately equipped and "incapable of taking offensive action against a few thousand bandits."

"Bandits" is the mission's word for guerrillas. The summary said the army's inactivity had "strengthened the morale of the bandits and probably helped increase their numbers."

The Hopes . . .

State Marshall solemnly told a news conference that the world situation is "very, very serious" and there's a "reign of terror" in Czechoslovakia.

Marshall spoke a few hours after word was received here that Jan Masaryk had died in Prague, the Czechoslovak capital.

The official announcement in Prague - where the Communists are in control - said he had jumped to his death from a window.

Masaryk, tall, bald and a merry kind of man, was the foreign minister of Czechoslovakia. Reports from Prague said he recently had looked worried.

But he didn't look worried or worn that May day in 1945 when he talked to the 10,000 boys and girls in San Francisco about democracy and the new world coming.

Retonga A Blessing Says Tenn. Legislator

Hon. W. J. Matthews, Father of Good Roads and School Laws Thanks Noted Medicine For Regained Strength and Tells About His Own Case.

"Then I began to have lots of gas pains and acid indigestion. It got so I scarcely wanted to eat anything at all. I felt miserably weakened and run-down. I could not get a good night's sleep, and I had to rely largely on strong laxatives for elimination. My weight dropped from 160 pounds to 135 pounds and I became alarmed.

"Being a druggist I knew the ingredients of Retonga are good, and the relief it brought me was a godsend. I enjoy my meals now with no more worry about what to eat to avoid indigestion. I sleep restfully. I do not have to depend on harsh laxatives, and my weight is back to normal 158 pounds. I feel good all the time and enjoy looking after my three-farms and other interests. I shall be glad to tell anyone what Retonga did for me."

"Probably no man in Tennessee enjoys a wider friendship or greater respect than Mr. Matthews. Retonga may be obtained at Bissett's Drug Store.—Adv.

Bethel Wins Way To Semi-Finals Of A-B Tourney

Chapel Hill, N.C., March 12—(AP)—Semi-finals in the state's Class A and B high school basketball tournaments get underway at 2:30 p.m. this afternoon, and before the night is over a total of eight second-round teams will be pushing down to the four finalists.

Bigger Bat Was Walker's Secret

Clearwater, Fla., March 12—(AP)—A longer and heavier bat helped him lead the National League in batting last year, Harry Walker disclosed today.

Asked to account for his sudden rise from a mediocre hitter to the best in both leagues, the Philadelphia Phillies' tall, slender outfielder explained:

"I had always used a 34-inch bat that weighed about 32 or 33 ounces. Last year I decided to use a longer and heavier bat. I figured it might give me more power. I used a 37-inch bat that weighed 36 ounces and got immediate results.

"The longer bat enabled me to choke up two or three inches. This way, I actually was swinging the same 34-inch bat, but I had more hitting space. I didn't have to swing so hard either. With a heavier bat, I could hit the ball with as much power and with a lighter, smoother swing."

Last year was Walker's best by far. Prior to that, he had been able to better 300 only once in five seasons, all with the St. Louis Cardinals. That was in 1942 when he hit 314 in 74 games. He was traded by the Cards to the Phils last May for outfielder Ron Northey. It turned out to be Manager Ben Chapman's best deal.

Radio Broadcast Of State-DePaul Game Saturday 9:45 p.m.

The North Carolina State College-DePaul University basketball game in the invitational basketball tournament at Madison Square Garden Saturday night, March 13, will be played at 9:45. Ray Reeves of Raleigh will give a play by play account of the game from Madison Square Garden. The broadcast will be distributed from WRAL in Raleigh to the following stations: WGTC, Greenville; WJNC, Jacksonville; WSKY, Asheville; WHOC, Waynesville; WCEC, Rocky Mount; WB, Durham; WMNC, Morriston; WHPE, High Point; WGNC, Gastonia, and two FM stations, WIST Charlotte, and WGBR, Goldsboro.

New York, March 12—(AP)—Underdog Lavern Roach of Plainview, Tex., shoots for the moon tonight in his bout with Marcel Cerdan, the dazzling European middleweight champ. It's better than 2 to 1 that the handsome ex-marine will be short.

For Roach it's a long shot chance to parlay "rookie of 1947" into leading contender of 1948. This corner gives him a solid chance to do it.

So does George Abrams, the Baldish vet, who ought to know. He barely lost to Cerdan when the Frenchman made his American debut. Abrams, managed by Chris Dundee who is associated with Roach's manager Johnny Abood, has sparred with 22-year-old Lavern.

The Roach camp has figured out its plan of attack most carefully. Against Tony Janiro, whom he upset in January, the Texan coolly picked off his faded foe's best and best him to the punch.

This time he's going in there to rush Cerdan. Of course, this could be suicide if Marcel tags him coming in. But, if he gets inside, that stiff right hand under the Frenchman's heart figures to slow him up.

The 32-year-old Cerdan is taking this as just another fight. He has to win to retain a world title possibility, but he's not overly worried about a boy they say can't hit too hard.

Cerdan has won his only four fights in this country, although a crude puncher from Estonia, Anton Raadik, dropped him three times before Bowling in Chicago.

'Card' Cheering At Chapel Hill For Grid Games

Chapel Hill, N. C., March 12—When North Carolina's Tar Heels open with 1948 football season with the University of Texas here next September 25, the thousands of fans in attendance will be treated to something new in this area in student cheering.

The "Card" system, used by many large institutions in other sections of the country, and especially popular in California, will be installed. In this plan, students sit in a reserved section and flash different colored cards to spell out names and figures in effective and colorful displays.

The Carolina Monogram club is sponsoring the project, with the cooperation of the Athletic Association, and a "Rally Committee" has been formed to have general charge of the planning for each game. Already the cards have been ordered and tentative designs plotted for the opening game.

Apps To Defend Wrestling Title

Boone, N. C.—(AP)—Appalachian State's Mountaineers will start defense of their Carolina AAU wrestling title tonight.

The Mountaineers, headed by former National AAU 155-pound champion Emil Tomick, will be hosts for the two-day tournament here.

Grapplers from Western Carolina Teachers College, High Point YMCA of the University of North Carolina, and Jamestown and Appalachian High Schools will compete for honors.

Braves At Full Strength Again

Bradenton, Fla., Mar. 12—(AP)—With the signing of Pitcher Johnny Sain for a reported $30,000 to $40,000, the Boston Braves are at full strength for the first time since spring training began.

The big righthander who had a 21-12 slate in 1947, came to terms with General Manager John Quinn soon after arriving yesterday.

Baltimore Draws Track Hopefuls

Baltimore, March 12—(AP)—Many of the East's Olympic track hopefuls will move into Baltimore tomorrow night for the second annual 175th Regiment-South Atlantic Association indoor meet.

The 21 events have drawn more than 300 college, club, high school and unattached athletes. Their assault on records is expected to be slowed down, however, by absence of shoe spikes.

Fifteen Signed With Greenies In Florida Camp

By BERT MOYE

With spring training for the Greenies scheduled to get under way at Bartow, Florida, within the next two weeks, a total of fifteen men have signed contracts with the Greenies to try out in spring training.

The latest additions to the Greenie roster include two limited service men, an outfielder and a shortstop. The outfielder is Al Taffet of Wilmington, Delaware, who last season hit .322, including 14 home runs, in Class B ball last year; and a shortstop, Danny Lastras, of Tampa, Florida, who was termed a "smooth-fielding shortstop" by business manager Doty. These two men were obtained from the Pittsburgh Pirates and in addition two more men, both limited service, have inked their names to Greenie contracts for the current season, both of whom are pitchers. Their names were not divulged.

"I also hope to get a left-handed first baseman from Memphis who hit at a .343 clip last season with the Class C Greenwood, Miss., team," stated Doty in his letter recently received.

The list of the fifteen men who have signed Greenie contracts up to the present time are as follows: pitchers, Jerry Chitty, Manager Bill Phebus, Augustin Medina, Luis Arroyo, Kermit Schmidt; catchers, Vernon Biasi and Paul Simmons; infielders, Tom Scoble, Danny Lastras, George Crouch, Donald Reo and Victor Haddock; outfielders, Bob Cohen, Donald Keefe and Al Taffet.

President Doty also stated that Charlie Chute was on his way in and that he expected to sign Jack Bomar at an early date. He also stated that he expected to have Joe Alamo back with the club this year.

Legend Denied

New York, March 12—(AP)—Metropolitan Life Insurance Company statisticians have given the brush-off to the romantic legend of leap year.

They predict the 1948 marriage rate will decline from the high levels of the past two years. The all-time peak—1946—was 16.3 for each 1,000 population. The 1947 rate was about an eighth less.

Hollywood Signs British Treaty

London, March 12—(AP)—J. Harold Wilson, president of the British Board of Trade, signed a new movie agreement today with Elic Johnston, President of the Motion Picture Association of America, to start Hollywood pictures flowing back into Britain again.

Wilson announced the signing at a news conference.

A major portion of the pounds sterling earned by American movies in Britain will remain in Britain, he said. He added part could be used for building new studios and increasing United States-sponsored productions here.

During the first two years of the agreement, Wilson said, a maximum amount of 2,500,000 (million) pounds (about $10,000,000) of the sterling earnings can be invested in British business outside the film industry.

He suggested that such funds could be invested in real estate, possibly in the hotel industry, to help the dollar-earning tourist industry.

Changes Needed Asserts Golfer

Richmond, Va., March 12—(AP)—Golfer Johnny Farrell said today that "some changes are needed" in big time golf's tournament play and its direction.

Farrell, national open champion in 1928 and former American Ryder Cup team star, labeled the professional Golfers Association of America a "fine organization" but quickly added it needs to devise a program that will reduce the difference between the tournament professionals and the club professionals.

"There is too great a gap," Farrell said, "with too little interest being shown toward the club professionals. We have a strong need for better unity."

"There are too many tournament players who would have golfers believe club professionals know nothing at all about the game—that the swings possessed by the old timers are cockeyed by comparison with those of the big names of the circuit."

Regarding George Snetter, of Ogden, Utah, chairman of the PGA tournament committee, Farrell had this to say:

"As long as anyone is competing in tournaments he is directing, he can't possibly run them as they should be operated. He can't possibly have the respect he should have from the other players. His decisions can't be too firm, and there have been instances recently when a firm hand was necessary."

"That is why I favor employing someone in a firm hand as they should be."

Cold Weather

Yesterday was a summer day and the local Weather Bureau thermometer registered 75 degrees during the afternoon. The cold wave and snowstorm pushing down from the middle west last night into Pennsylvania and Ohio sent the mercury here down to 37 degrees at 5 o'clock this morning. The sky was cloudy during the forenoon today.

Tournament golf has become a big business. It needs proper supervision on the spot.

Local Chamber Is Planning Future

By CHESTER WALSH

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors at a recent meeting adopted an extensive program of development activities for community development and recommendation of the Program and Public Relations committee, the trade body's monthly bulletin, edited by Executive Secretary Willard T. Kyzer, states in the March issue.

The program includes agricultural, civic affairs, commerce and trade, industrial legislation and national affairs, public relations, transportation and communication and miscellaneous projects, President Chas. B. Bissette said today.

The chamber is seeking motor bus service for Bell Arthur, which has no passenger service now. It went on record as opposing the lifting of restrictions on the export of tobacco plants and seed and so informed the state's representatives in Congress. The chamber, the Bulletin states, protested to the publishers of Coronet Magazine for a story in the March issue which states that Willie Earle, Negro, who was lynched at Greenville, South Carolina, following the murder of a taxi driver there, was lynched in Greenville, North Carolina. The magazine has agreed to correct the error.

Raid Propaganda Nests In Germany

Berlin, March 12—(AP)—U. S. authorities announced today they raided two district headquarters of the Russian-sponsored German Socialist unity (Sed) party.

Officials said they confiscated leaflets which "flagrantly libel" the American Military government.

The raids were conducted yesterday by the AMG's public safety branch with the aid of German police. They entered Sed party houses in Neukoelln and other districts.

The Soviet-controlled press declared the raids were "anti-democratic and terrorist measures" designed to restrict the activities of the Sed.

Dr. Harry L. Franklin, official in the AMG's civil administration branch, said the sole purpose of the raids was to seize the pamphlets, which he described as "worse than Nazi literature."

The confiscated leaflets were entitled "gangsters at work." They compared the American Military government in Germany with the regime of Al Capone, late Chicago Mob chief.

Cold-Stricken States Promised Relief In Sight

Chicago, March 12—(AP)—Relief appeared on the way today from the bitter cold which has overspread wide sections of the country from the Rockies to the North Atlantic coast and into the Texas Rio Grande Valley.

But below seasonal temperatures and snow storms which swept over the area at the end of a bitter winter season caused widespread hardship and threatened to cause heavy damage to crops.

Huge drifts of snow blocked highways in many sections of the Midwest and Southwest. Thousands of cars and trucks were stalled in Ohio, Oklahoma and other parts of the snow belt. Schools in some areas were closed.

The falling temperatures caused gas shortages in some states.

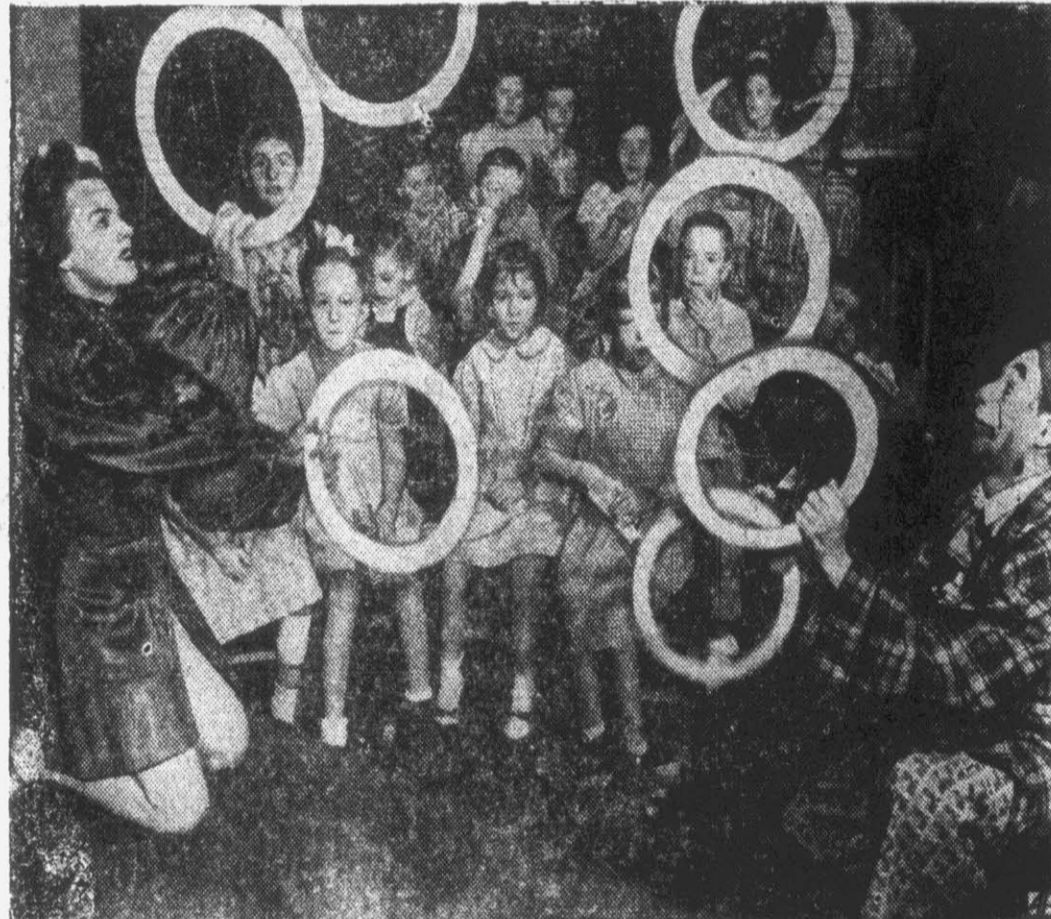

Police Inquiring Into Possibility Of Incendiarism

Asheville, N.C., March 12—(AP)—Police Chief Eric Hall said today an investigation was under way to determine whether a hospital fire that took nine lives had been set.

Hall said that at present there was no indication of incendiarism.

He disclosed that hospital records were being searched to determine whether there was any connection between the Highland Hospital fire here Wednesday night and with previous hospital fires. Two fires which Fire Chief J. C. Fitzgerald said "were of undetermined origin" were investigated last April.

Meanwhile, Police Chief H. E. King of Durham said he had turned over to Chief Hall facts pertaining to several fires that were set at Duke Hospital at Durham last spring.

Arnall Believes Time Has Come To Warn Russia

Charlotte, N.C., March 12—(AP)—Ellis Arnall, former Georgia governor, thinks this country should tell Russia it is determined to fight for the cause of democracy.

Speaking before the Charlotte Executive Club last night, Arnall declared:

"The United States must put its foot down upon another Munich and tell Russia firmly and emphatically that this nation is determined to fight, if need be, to protect democracy."

"It is high time Congress . . . took positive action to stop this world war that seems to be in progress. . . . I think Russia will understand plain language backed up by positive action."
