Emergency Order Cuts Rail Service

ODT Orders 25 Per Cent Reduction In Coal-Burning Passenger Trains; Railroad Coal Stocks Are Dangerously Low; Conciliator Sees Van Horn And Lewis

Washington, March 18—(AP)—The government today ordered a 25 per cent reduction in coal burning passenger train service because of the coal mine shutdown.

The Office of Defense Transportation order is effective at midnight next Sunday, March 21.

It was issued under the wartime powers which the ODT still retains. The agency said the step was necessary because "railroad coal stocks today are considerably lower than they have been on previous occasions when stoppages in coal production have interfered with railroad operations."

The Bureau of Mines reported two days ago that coal stocks generally were at a dangerously low level.

At the time the ODT acted, the government was making other moves to end the war "happage" which already has forced industry to cut operations.

Federal Conciliation Chief Cyrus B. Ching met with Eira Van Horn, spokesman for the mine operators, and arranged to talk later with John L. Lewis, chief of the United Mine Workers.

The ODT order requires railroads to reduce coal-burning passenger train service 25 percent under the operations as of March 1, 1948.

It prohibits the carriers from substituting Diesel-electric or other equipment for coal burning locomotives, which will be laid up as a result of the order.

All special passenger train service requiring coal will be prohibited, and circus and carnival trains using coal will be authorized for the duration of the order.

Reaction Abroad Shows Approval Truman Message

Nations Behind Iron Curtain Maintain Almost A Complete Silence

By the Associated Press London, March 18—(AP)—President Truman's preparedness speech met with general approval from Western Europe today, but the Communist east maintained almost complete silence.

The general view in the west was that the President had taken a step in the right direction in asking Congress for Universal Military Training and the draft and urging support for "free nations" against Communism.

Some quarters concluded he had laid down a historic United States policy. Others commented the payoff was up to Congress.

In Russia, the Soviet Union told its people about the speech over the Moscow radio but did not comment.

In Czechoslovakia, where the Communists took control last month, produced the first Communist criticism. The Prague government radio said last night, "There are other ways to preserve peace than to introduce universal military service."

In Italy, where the Communists are campaigning for an election April 18, finds the speech very interesting, a spokesman for Christian Democratic Premier Alcide De Gasperi said. He said the message held good news for Europe's democratic countries.

The New Union Approving comment came from spokesmen of some of the five countries which signed a 50-year mutual-defense treaty in Brussels yesterday. The signers were Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. Mr. Truman noted the development in his address.

A French official said, "We know that we cannot stand up against a major-scale aggression unless assisted by the United States." High French officials for the most part agreed that congressional adoption of UMT and a temporary draft would leave no doubt of U.S. determination to stop Communism cold in Europe.

In Holland, a Dutch Foreign Office spokesman called the address a big encouragement to Western Europe and "the best blessing of the Western pact."

Meat Strike Empties Cattle Pens

Not Men Alone

By HAL BOYLE Washington—(AP)—Manpower wouldn't be the biggest initial problem of the small American Army if a showdown with Soviet Russia flames into a third world war soon.

"Our biggest shortage isn't in men—it's in equipment," said one veteran officer.

Less than three years ago the United States had the best-equipped armies in history in the field in both Europe and the Pacific. Her combat troops were numbered in millions.

Today the Army still has some 550,000 men. But less than one fifth of these are in anything approaching real combat condition. The rest are engaged in occupation duties, port work, warehouse guard duty—all the tasks it takes to keep the framework of a peacetime army intact.

As an emergency striking force the Army could be called into immediate ground battle only about 200,000 men, and three to four in Asia.

But if war came tomorrow couldn't millions of trained ex-servicemen leap to arms and restore almost overnight America's lost combat strength?

That is the belief of the average civilian, ignorance of the time and immense work needed to build modern ground armies. It is a source of great worry to professional soldiers upon whom the organization of the nation's defenses rests.

"Millions of men might leap up," one officer said wryly, "but they wouldn't leap to arms."

The reason? The arms aren't there any more. The tremendous military surpluses of three years ago are gone. The great stockpiles of weapons, supplies and equipment have been sold, broken up or donated to

Russia To Fight UN Inquiry Into Communist Grab

Gromyko's Name-Calling Fails As Council Lines Up Solidly Against Him

Lake Success, March 18—(AP)—Russia seemed grimly determined today to fight on against a United Nations inquiry into the Communist grab of Czechoslovakia.

A decisive East-West clash over Soviet expansion in Europe is in prospect.

The U.N. Security Council voted yesterday, over strenuous Soviet objections, to hear all that can be turned up on the Czechoslovak crisis.

The decision was taken against a backdrop of bitter name-calling by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. Applause for speakers answering Gromyko's thrusts echoed three times in the packed, usually staid council chamber.

The council set next Monday for the start of debate on the case, filed last Friday by the government of Chile against Russia.

Gromyko called the Chilean complaint a dirty and slanderous document; he said Chile was a lackey of influential foreign circles; and he called Dr. Jan Papanek, U.N. delegate fired by the new Prague Communist regime, a traitor.

Twice Gromyko emphasized that he was acting on direct instructions from the Kremlin. But he did not walk out—as he did two years ago in the Iranian case.

The council voted twice—to put the case on its official agenda and to give a non-voting seat to Hernan Santa Cruz, delegate of Chile. Both times Gromyko got only the support of the Soviet Union and the other nine members, voted solidly against him.

Goal Not Met

Steel Output Hit By Coal Strike

Production Cuts Already Starting; 344,000 Miners Idle

Pittsburgh, March 18—(AP)—The four-day-old soft coal walkout began biting into steel production today.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. shut down one of the blast furnaces at its Brier Hill plant at Youngstown, O. A company spokesman said it was done to save fuel.

Two other companies would soon follow suit. Sharon Steel Corp. announced it would bank one blast furnace and five open hearths at Farrell, Pa. Bethlehem Steel Co. said it will cut back production soon if the coal walkout continues.

None of the announcements indicated the number of workers affected or the probable production loss.

These cutbacks were only fore-runners of the effect a coal shortage would have on industry. Dwindling fuel supplies from a long walkout would hit everywhere.

Reports from union leaders and mine operators indicated at least 344,000 miners were idle in 19 of the 28 coal-producing states. This left, at the most, only 14 percent of the nation's coal diggers on the job.

But there the agreement stopped.

Cleveland, March 18—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen today called President Truman's new proposed foreign program "entirely inadequate for the menace he describes."

Meat Supply Is Dwindling; Price Increases In Offing

Meat supplies dwindled and price boosts in the retail markets appeared in prospect today as President Truman's new board of inquiry pushed its investigation of the nationwide meat strike.

The government's fact-finding board, after a preliminary meeting yesterday, called a joint session of major packer and CIO Union representatives today.

Nathan P. Feinsinger, one of the three college professors named to the board and appointed chairman, said they will attempt to expedite the report on the wage dispute to Mr. Truman. The report on the strike by 100,000 CIO meat packing workers is due April 1.

Meanwhile, as the strike against about 140 packing plants across the country entered its third day, shipments of animals to markets were about one-third as many as a week ago.

Prices in the wholesale markets continued to rise as the work stoppage cut in half the nation's meat production.

In Chicago, the center of the packing industry and where more than 20,000 workers are on strike, retail meat prices have increased from one to five cents a pound since last weekend.

A packing industry spokesman in Boston said meat prices would rise 15 cents a pound if the strike in four New England plants is not settled immediately.

The National Association of retail grocers said meat sales had increased from 20 to 60 per cent over a week ago in markets in many parts of the country.

Truman Rejects Support Of Wallace 'And His Communists' At Any Price

One Fatality At Dance Hall Mishap

Marshall Leaves For California

Washington, March 18—(AP)—President Truman says he would not accept the support of "Henry Wallace and his Communists"—even if his refusal meant defeat in the November election.

"If joining them or permitting them to join me is the price of victory, I recommend defeat," declared the President, who dropped Wallace from his cabinet in 1946.

Mr. Truman made the statement last night to 2,500 persons at the annual dinner of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

His challenge to "Wallace and his Communists" came near the end of a foreign policy speech in which he reiterated his plea to Congress for a temporary revival of the draft, universal military training and speedy congressional approval of the European recovery program. He said the fundamental purpose of his proposals is "to prevent war."

Departing from his prepared text, Mr. Truman said: "I do not want and I will not accept the political support of Henry Wallace and his Communists. x x x these are days of high prices for everything, but the price for Henry Wallace and his Communists is too much for me to pay. I do not want to buy."

The President's remarks concerning Wallace brought cheers from the St. Patrick's Day gathering, which had just heard Francis Cardinal Spellman endorse the President's recommendation for universal military training.

A spokesman for Wallace said last night the Third Party candidate had sent telegrams to the four major radio networks requesting "equal facilities to those given Harry Truman for his personal and political attack on me and the millions of Americans who support our program for peace."

Resisting Aggression

Truman Proposals To Be Widely Debated; No Cheap Way To Halt Reds; Some Drastic Means Of Protection Against Internal and External Aggression

President Truman, in his speech to Congress, obviously was trying to find a decisive way of locking the door against the Communists in Italy, France and the rest of free Europe. His proposals certainly will be debated widely, for he can offer no cheap key. But how could he?

In moving the hammer and sickle through capital after capital in their swing to the west, the Communists have played a shrewd game. That is the nub of the problem.

It is well known, of course, that they star at dressing themselves in democratic clothes. When they get enough power, they end the play-acting and roll down the iron curtain. The democracies have not been able to stop them in this role.

But it is evident that the West now must find some way of preventing encroaches in Italy, France and elsewhere.

Against this background, one part of the President's speech may be worth studying. He said: "While economic recovery in Europe is essential, measures for economic rehabilitation alone are not enough. The free nations of Europe realize that economic recovery, if it is to succeed, must be afforded some measure of protection against internal and external aggression."

Bombs, planes and guns are the tested weapons in resisting "external aggression," and the President urges military aid to nations in the anti-Communist bloc. This is a way of telling Stalin that if he sends troops into a now-free country there may be war. But like everyone else Stalin may not want to start paying for things he has been accustomed to getting for nothing—in this case, without bloodshed.

The bigger question seems to be: What form is "protection" against internal aggression going to take? Since the Communists have proved so adept at using democracy for their own ends, can it be that that weapon will be taken from them? Outwitting the Communists would mean they would be unable to take power in the ways they have perfected. Is this the form the "protection" is to take?

Both Italy and France already have moved in that direction by keeping Communists out of the cabinet. The returning strength of De Gaulle has been interpreted as reflecting the belief of many Frenchmen that a "strong man" is needed to step on the Marxists.

The Truman statement recognizes the hope of the Marshall Plan that average Europeans will shut their eyes to the far left when their economic lot improves. But it should be noted again that the President says this is not enough.

Question Marks Are Evident On UMT And Draft

Washington, March 18—(AP)—Enough votes to send a universal military training bill to the Senate lined up today in the chamber's Armed Services Committee.

But prospects for a UMT bill looked darker in the House. And in both House and Senate an even bigger question mark hung over President Truman's surprise request for temporary revival of the wartime draft.

Before attempting to act on either issue, Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate group summoned top civilian heads of the armed forces to expand on Secretary of State Marshall's plea yesterday for both UMT and a renewal of selective service.

Racing Time On Global Aid Plan

Washington, March 18—(AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee raced against time today to complete a global aid program to "stop Communism."

In a quick follow-up to President Truman's plea for prompt action, the committee yesterday approved a $5,300,000,000 outlay for European recovery.

And by tomorrow it aims to finish work on (1) a $275,000,000 military aid program for Greece and Turkey, and (2) a $570,000,000 economic assistance fund for China.

"We are well over the hump; we are out of the woods now," Acting Chairman Vorys (R-Ohio) told reporters after the committee's third consecutive night session.

The group is working on a timetable calling for House passage by April 1 and final congressional approval well ahead of the Italian elections April 18.

Yesterday's speed-up session brought almost final agreement on the European provisions of the committee's "omnibus" bill.

End of Century Club Meets
Mrs. L. R. Meadows and Mrs. A. D. Frank were hostesses to the End of the Century Club Tuesday March 16 for a luncheon meeting.

At one o'clock the hostesses welcomed members and guests, seated them at their respective places and served a delicious luncheon. We could partially agree with Clarendon, "it was both the cheerfulness of the guests and the quantity of the meat that made the feast."

Following the luncheon the president, Mrs. J. T. Little, called the club to order for a business session. Two new members were welcomed in the club, Miss Mary Harding and Mrs. J. H. Thomas.

The president presented Miss Gertrude Carraway of New Bern, writer and prominent club woman, who gave the program.

Miss Carraway's subject was "Woman and Democracy." This was a very timely subject and her hearers were most attentive since each felt that the American system must be kept secure and strong, and in order to accomplish this it must be kept progressive and liberal for only in that way can our country remain secure and strong.

Guests of the club were Mrs. J. Key Brown and Mrs. H. L. Rivers. Books were exchanged and the club adjourned to meet March 30, 1948.

The Winterville Future Homemakers held their regular meeting in the school library March 12, 1948. The president, Gladys Hines, called the meeting to order and we sang the club prayer. The secretary read the minutes and called the roll, each person answering by giving the number of boxes of cards she sold. Following this, the treasurer gave her report. Two girls who are not members of our club have helped us sell cards and we are proud of their interest in our club. We hope they will become members next year. They are Emma Lou Mills and Betsy Hardee. Old and new business was then discussed, the election of officers being the main topic. The executive board met and selected candidates and at the meeting the floor was opened for further nominations. After this the president announced that four delegates are to go to the State Rally in Raleigh in April. They have not been elected. The Literary Club is meeting in the school library next Thursday night, and we decided to try to sell napkins to them. The president appointed Leah McGlohon and Barbara Worthington to take charge of selling them. The program consisted of a report on the F.H.A. County Council which was held in Greenville at the college March 9 by Marjorie Little. It was very interesting. Amy Cayton gave a talk on "The Twelve Emergencies and How to Manage Them." The meeting adjourned until March 26. Virginia Worthington reporter.

Carolinian Seen Ready To Fulfill Senators' Hopes

Orlando, Fla., March 18—(AP)—Among the many posers confronting freshman manager Joe Kuhel of Washington is whether Gilbert Coan will finally make good on his early promise which promoted owner Clark Griffith to label him a $100,000 ball player.

performance in the last 10 days of the 1947 season is any indication of what can be expected of him this year, then Kuhel can forget about one of his outfield problems.

The 24-year-old flycatcher banged away at a 500 clip in those 11 games with the Senators. He hit safely in 10, getting 16 singles, three doubles and two triples in 42 times at bat. In a game against Boston he socked a triple, double and three singles in five times at bat.

Coan, however, has been up twice before sporting one of those "can't miss" tags, and flunked both times. The youngster had a legitimate excuse each time. The first time he came up with a skin ailment and developed athlete's foot. It seems he is allergic to the Florida sand. Last year, in addition to the same ailment, he underwent an appendix operation just before spring training. Each time he was sent back to Chattanooga in the Southern Association.

This year Coan has the left field job all to himself. He is one of the three players who have been named by Kuhel as regulars. The others are first baseman Mickey Vernon and catcher Al Evans.

Draft Boards In N. C. Said Ready

Raleigh N.C., March 18—(AP)—North Carolina draft boards, should they be required by a national emergency, could be galvanized into action almost overnight, according to officials in a position to know.

Adj. Gen. J. Van B. Metts, who headed the state's selective service during World War II, said the state has the records of the 866,425 Tar Heels between 18 and 45 who registered during the conflict.

He added yesterday that he believes the members of the last war's 155 draft boards could be induced to serve at least until new boards could be formed.

Of the 362,000 Tar Heels in service during the recent war, about 8,500 lost their lives.

Other officials have pointed out that if any new draft should be needed, a new registration probably would be necessary.

Such a registration could be completed in one day if it were urgent, they declared.

Marriage Licenses

The register of deeds issued marriage licenses to the following couples during the past week:

White: Terry E. Padrick and Clarice Mae Joyner of Kinston; James Briley of Tarboro and Hazel Davenport of Bethel.

Negro: John E. Blount and Mattie Grimes of Greenville; Johnny Mercer and Carrie Lee Davis of Belvoir and Jesse James and Mabel Boyd of near Greenville.

There are about 2,500 species of liard.

Pray For Peace

Valley Stream, N. Y., March 18 (AP)—This Long Island village of almost 20,000 will pray for world peace Easter Sunday night.

"More than just working" is needed, and the people seek divine help to "reduce war hysteria," is the way William Hammond, president of the Central school kids' club explains it. Representatives of the United Nations, clergymen of various faiths and local officials will be invited to attend the mass prayer.

N. C. Republicans Voice Optimism

Durham, N. C., March 18—(AP)—Frankly optimistic Republicans open their biennial state convention here today in the belief their election chances are "better than they were at this same stage in 1928."

Tar Heel Republicans rode high that year. Herbert Hoover carried the state against Al Smith for President and sent George Pritchard of Marshall and Charles A. ones of Lincoln to Congress.

This year they plan to offer a full slate of candidates for all offices at stake.

But last night it was predicted generally that the four delegates to the national convention to be selected here would not be instructed as to a Presidential choice. The party's 22 other delegates going to Philadelphia in June are being selected at district conventions.

Hot after those votes is Senator Robert A. Taft. He had two of his representatives here.

There are seven candidates for national committeemen to succeed Charles A. Jones, who is retiring because of ill health. They are John Wilkerson of Washington, N. C., vice president of the national young Republicans; A. I. Perree of Asheville, a former member of the General Assembly; Algernon Butler of Clinton, vice chairman of the state executive committee; R. N. McNeill of Albemarle; Hobart Morton of Lenoir and Louis Hamlin of Brevard.

Charlie Phillips Faces Execution

Raleigh N.C., March 18—(AP)—Charlie Phillips, 32-year-old Angier tenant farmer twice convicted of slaying his wife, lost his second appeal to the Supreme Court yesterday and now faces death in the state's gas chamber April 2.

Phillips has steadfastly maintained that his wife, Etta Mae, committed suicide with a pistol while they were alone in their Harnett County home during the Sunday meal Aug. 18, 1946.

Phillips lost his first trial in Harnett Superior Court, then appealed to the Supreme Court, which upheld his conviction.

The Superior Court later granted a new trial on the basis of newly discovered evidence: a suicide note allegedly written by Etta Mae and found in her personal effects by a sister of Phillips.

Again he was convicted, and again he appealed to the Supreme Court. The high court's decision yesterday was one of 18 opinions handed down. The Phillips opinion, written by Chief Justice Walter P. Stacy, made much of the fact that no powder burns were on Etta Mae.

Three Premiers Meet For Talks

Stockholm, March 18—(AP)—The premiers of Sweden, Norway and Denmark met today for confidential discussion of world conditions.

They are Ragn Erlander of Sweden, Hans Hedtoft of Denmark and Einar Germandsen of Norway. They decided last month to hold the meeting.

Well informed sources said the talks "certainly will touch upon all vital topics including the momentous declaration made by President Truman, the Brussels pact, the Marshall Plan, defense policy and neutrality."

Draft Laws . . .

(Continued from Page One) could not be used in the armed forces, here or abroad, except in a national emergency, like war. Then it could be done only by special act of Congress.

But through such military training a big pool of young men would be trained and held in reserve in case of emergency. About 900,000 would be trained a year. But—

Why did Mr. Truman call for a "temporary" draft and a compulsory military training law, too?

He said he wanted the "temporary" draft until the compulsory training could get started. Then he said the armed forces could keep up their strength through volunteers.

Strength FOR THE DAY

KEEP THE SPIRITUAL LIFE AGLOW

The parable of the ten virgins deals with the necessity of vigilance and resourcefulness in spiritual matters.

Five of the young women had made prudent provision for the occasion by taking with them a reserve supply of oil. The other five, upon the approach of the bridegroom, that their lamps were going out. They had brought no oil with them. Since oil in the Bible always symbolizes the divine influences from heaven which are bestowed by the Spirit of the Lord, and a lamp always symbolizes the spiritual life, the parable means that we are to keep our spiritual life aglow and to do this by being

If He Could Speak

I WONDER WHAT THEY'RE DOING WITH THE PEACE I DIED TO GIVE THEM?

diligent to see that spiritual influences direct from God Himself are flowing into our hearts day by day. We are not to try to make our spiritual lives glow only on some occasion when we find ourselves in a tight place, or when loved ones are sick, or when misfortune overtakes us, or when we confront death. We are to build up a great reserve of spiritual influences in our lives by giving serious attention to the things of God. When under such circumstances a crisis comes upon us, we can then trim our lamps, confident that our reserve oil will cause our lamps to glow in the hour of crisis with a new splendor.

THE SUMMATION

President Truman's message to Congress yesterday was a summation of facts known both by the Administration and by the public at large for many weeks.

However, the bluntness of his language was new; and while the steps by which he proposed to meet the situation appear drastic, precisely what alternatives are there? The solemn words, "We must be prepared to pay the price of peace or assuredly we shall pay the price of war," were aimed directly at the American home and the elected representatives of 150 million people.

Responsibility for the future of the world has been tossed into our laps, and the manner in which we meet this responsibility will be closely watched by friends and Communists as a gauge for policies yet undetermined.

Secretary Marshall hit the nail on the head when he later told Congress that diplomatic action without the backing of military strength in the present world can lead only to appeasement.

Moral strength is always desirable for a nation. But morality has no effect on a government which ignores it and respects only armed might.

Some degree of realization as to the truly critical situation was displayed on the day before the President spoke when Republican House leaders agreed that this nation's armed services must be vastly strengthened.

Speaker Martin said, "The constant advance of the Iron Curtain across Europe has created a grave crisis in our international relations. We must have the strongest navy on the seas. We must make ourselves absolutely supreme in the air and under the seas."

Just how the Republican House leaders propose to man the planes and ships they knew were necessary, was not indicated. But voluntary enlistments have failed to keep up with the needs of even our shrunken armed forces, and there is no reason to believe the situation will change overnight.

So that's the picture; and unpleasant as it may be, we must face it calmly and without hiding behind the skirts of hysteria and emotionalism. We must find the answers now, or we shall answer for it later.

The first night alarm flight was made in 1921.

Grimesland PTA Meeting Was Important Event

By CHESTER WALSH

The Grimesland Parent-Teacher Association, at its meeting last night had a gratifying attendance, keen interest in the welfare of the school was manifested by the parents, and there was ample evidence that the school officials, PTA officers, teachers and students are cooperating to keep the school in the front rank of consolidated schools in North Carolina.

Principal L. L. Murray opened the meeting with a brief devotional period and told the "Easter Story" in an impressive way.

Mrs. B. L. Tyson, recreational director, of Greenville, presented one of the best programs of the present school year. It included recitations, accordion solos, monologues, etc. The High School Glee Club, in its annual concert, presented several very entertaining selections and gave special arrangements of "Old Uncle Ned" and "Capetown Races," and concluded with the audience song "The Old North State." Miss Oma Bliss and Albert Gaiety directed the singing.

Prizes for good attendance were won by grades taught by Miss Oma Bliss, Miss Wanda Lamm and Mrs. Bettie Forrest.

L. V. Godwin was praised for his fine service as public relations chairman for the school.

Frank Brown's New Place Is Credit To City

By CHESTER WALSH

Frank M. Brown, owner of the City Plumbing Company, and one of Greenville's and Pitt County's most useful citizens, received congratulations and expressions of good-will from those who visited his new and up-to-date plumbing plant at 1310 Evans street yesterday afternoon and last night. The building is a credit to the community. It is conveniently located. The old slogan "Frank Has Another One," is true every day in the year. Frank Brown in addition to being a prosperous business man, community leader, friend to education and religion, is generally liked. During the war he took care of the business in his line in a fine way, Greenville house-holders say. He ranks among the progressive men of the city. Aside from his business, he took time out during several years to organize, under the sponsorship of the Greenville Lions' Club, the Pitt County Association for the Blind, the first organization of its kind in this country.

Frank Brown and his facilities have always been available to the public here. He deserves the praise and encouragement given him since he moved into his new building on Evans street, businessmen and others said. He has lived up to his motto, "If you're in trouble, call Frank."

Incidentally, Brown was directly responsible for the North Carolina State Commission for the Blind establishing the Pre-Conditioning Center for the Blind in Greenville. Governor Cherry, when the blind center was dedicated, paid special compliment to him for his public-spiritedness, and others on the program agreed.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Miss Pattie Frase Resigns At Blind Training Center

By CHESTER WALSH

Miss Pattie Frase, psychologist at the Pre-Conditioning Center for the Blind in Greenville since August, 1945, has tendered her resignation to the State Commission for the Blind, to become effective April 1. Recently Miss Frase successfully passed a United States Civil Service Commission examination with a P-3 rating (and that's good) as a clinical psychologist for service in a Veterans Administration mental hygiene clinic. She will leave here shortly to visit her home near Akron, Ohio, pending her assignment to duty.

Miss Frase received her B.A. degree at Ohio Northern University, her M.A. at the University of Denver, and has one year's study at Duke University on her Ph.D. degree. She has made an excellent record at the Pre-Conditioning Center for the Blind here. Since coming to Greenville she has taken an active part in community affairs and is popular. She has won the commendation of the State Commission for the Blind for outstanding service here.

Good Planning Saves Time and Money

A tasty meal that can be served without hustle in 15 minutes is a great help at times. When such a meal is also easy on the pocket-book, it's truly a find.

Corned Beef Hash and Cabbage

Cut 1 can CERTIFIED CORNED BEEF HASH into 6 slices. Brown well on both sides in a skillet using 2 tbs. WILSON'S BAKE-RITE or ADVANCE SHORTENING

Cut 1/2 head cabbage (medium-sized) into three wedges leaving core intact. Drop into boiling, salted water and cook 7 minutes or until just tender. Arrange corned beef hash and cabbage around a dish of tartar sauce and garnish with parsley. Serves 3.

Tasty Twosome

Wilson's Certified Corned Beef Hash and cabbage make a happy twosome. Enhance the cabbage flavor by serving it with Wilson's Certified Margarine or Clear Brook Butter and complete the main course with pineapple and cottage cheese salad. A bit of chopped chives or grated onion in the cottage cheese will do wonders for it. Lemon fluff, tucked in the refrigerator in the early morning, will give the perfect finishing touch to this 15 minute quickie.

Ready for Easter?

Easter is so early this year that Spring clothes may not have their usual appeal. All the more reason for having a truly traditional Easter dinner. For greatest enjoyment, plan on serving a Wilson's Tender Made Ham (ready-to-eat) or a Wilson's Certified Ham. These two delicious hams have been dressed up in new wrappers to help you identify them more easily. See them in color in this week's Saturday Evening Post.

Tempting Time-Savers

When soft-cooking eggs for breakfast, leave some in long enough to hard-cook. Serve them deviled for lunch on days you don't have eggs for breakfast. Of course, you'll use Wilson's Clear Brook Eggs to be sure you get high quality.

Are hot lunches a problem on busy mornings? Make sandwiches at night, wrap well in waxed paper or aluminum foil, and store in refrigerator.

Want a quick soup? Then cook 1/2 cup noodles in 3 cups boiling water to which 1 1/2 tbs. Wilson's Certified Margarine or Clear Brook Butter has been added. When tender, add 2 tsp. Wilson's B-V which has been dissolved in a small amount of cooking water. Add salt if needed. Serves 3.

St. Louis Trims NYU In Finals By Score 65-52

New York, March 18—(AP)—There wasn't any doubt today about the class of the St. Louis University basketball team, and its stringbean center, All-America Ed Macauley. The Billkens from the banks of the Mississippi put on a collective show last night to overwhelm New York University, 65-52, in the finale of the National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden. All the Bills displayed superb teamwork but Macauley was outstanding. Six-foot-eight Ed, who looks as if he might snap in half at any moment, came up with a brilliant individual performance as the Bills gained a berth in the Olympic games trials. Macauley poured in 24 points before he got tired shooting at the net and was content to feed his mates for the buckets that all but ran the NYU Violets purple-faced. He was unanimously voted the tournament's most valuable player. The preliminary consolation game won by Western Kentucky, 61-59, after a rough overtime with DePaul, provided most of the evening's thrills.

Great Year

Santa Monica, Calif., March 18 (AP)—Organized baseball will have another great year and the talent will be the best since the war says Commissioner A. B. Chandler. He prepared to leave tonight for the major league camps in Florida. Chandler, in another "report to the baseball fans," as he put it, predicted that last year's 60,000,000 (M) fan attendance will be matched this year in organized baseball. He said the calibre of players will be the best since the war and within a few years will regain the pre-war level.

Study Proposed Ban On Boxing

Chicago, March 18—(AP)—The Illinois Athletic Commission today was to consider a 29-day suspension of professional boxing in the state. Although the Attorney General said the commission had "no power" to invoke such a ban. Governor Dwight Green recommended on Tuesday that boxing be suspended in Illinois until April 7, to allow time for adoption of "certain remedial and precautionary measures." The proposed ban against professional boxing in Illinois climaxed ring criticism after the death on Feb. 21 of Sam Baroudi, 20-year old Akron, O., boxer.

Baseball Beefers Honor Cornelius

Miami Beach, Fla., Mar. 18—(AP)—The first annual baseball beefers dinner here last night honored Connie Mack, 85-year-old manager of the Philadelphia Athletics. Carl Garner, president of the Miami Beach Flamingoes, presented Mack with a miniature silver baseball and a plaque inscribed to "the outstanding figure in sports." Tommy Richardson, president of the Eastern League, was toastmaster.

Silver Gloves Fistic Tourney

Gastonia, N. C., March 18—(AP)—Fighting will begin here tonight in the annual silver gloves boxing tournament which will last through Saturday.

Nine teams will battle for individual and team titles. Two teams are entered from the boys club of Gastonia. Others are from Newton, Lincilnton, Mount Holly, Cremerston Kings Mountain, Shelby and Belmont Ebbey.

MUHLBERG WINS
Philadelphia, March 18—(AP)—Muhlenberg captured its second middle Atlantic baseball conference championship last night by defeating Moravia, 63 to 52, in finals of the third annual tournament.

Bolivia was once known as upper Peru.

Webb's 73 Leads Way For Victory

Recell Webb with a brilliant 73 one over par, led the Greenville Golf team to a 72 to 26 victory over New Bern in a regularly scheduled Coastal Golf Association match played in Greenville yesterday. Bruce Baker, playing Webb's partner, was a close second for medal honors with a 75.

Players representing Greenville were: Simon Moye, Jr., W. L. Allent, J. M. Barrett, Jimmy Phelps, Dave Mosier, M. B. Massey, Tyson Bilbro, Dee Larkin, Bill Delbridge, Luke Herring, Joe Exum, Tom Smoot, Don Conley, W. M. B. Brown, Hunter Keck, Herbert Waldrop, Cecil Bilbro, Curtis Perkins, Jr., Bits Ruffin, and Joe Taft. Greenville will meet Smithfield here next Wednesday.

129 Grapplers In NCAA Mat Event

Bethlehem, Pa., March 18—(AP)—A record entry of 129 grapplers, including 22 intercollegiate champions, will come to grips tomorrow and Saturday in the 18th annual N.C.A.A. mat tournament at Lehigh University.

The Middle West dominates the field seeking to succeed the non-defending champions, Cornell College of Mt. Vernon, Ia.

This year's tournament should provide an interesting prospectus for the April 29-30 and May 1 Olympic trouts scheduled for Iowa State College at Ames. Olympic rules will prevail in the N.C.A.A. tourney.

PGA Official At Greensboro

Greensboro, March 18—(AP)—Tom Crane, executive secretary of the Professional Golfers Association, will be on hand for the annual spring meeting of the Carolinas PGA here tonight. The session comes on the eve of the start of the $10,000 Greensboro Open Tournament. The meeting will be a closed affair, according to George Corcoran, Greensboro pro who is president of the Carolinas section of the PGA and vice-president of the national body. Crane, a lawyer and main office executive of the PGA headquarters in Chicago, is expected to explain in detail activities of the association. And he is expected to hear a reiteration of the Carolinas section's recent resolution proposing a commissioner of golf.

The Carolinas proposal was made public several weeks ago during a tournament at Aiken, S. C., as a possible solution to the bickering that has beset the winter tour. From Greensboro Crane heads for Birmingham for a meeting this week end of the Southeastern Association. The touring pros get in their final practice links here today in preparation for tomorrow's first 18-hole round of the Greensboro stand.

NOTICE OF RESALE OF REAL ESTATE

Whereas under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in that certain deed of trust of George Mitchell to John F. Burton, Trustee, dated November 1st, 1946, and of record in Book P-24, page 122 of Pitt County Registry, the undersigned Trustee did on Friday, March 5th, 1948, at about 12:00 noon, at the courthouse door in Greenville, Pitt County, N. C., offer for sale the hereinafter described property to the highest bidder for cash, when and where the said property was bid in at the price of $7500.00, and a report of said sale was duly made in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of Pitt County, as appears in Record of Sales by Trustees, Book 8, page 157, as by law provided; And whereas, the bid has been duly raised and the Clerk of Superior Court has ordered the said Trustee to make a resale of said property as by law provided, now therefore, the undersigned Trustee will again offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, on Friday, April 2nd, 1948, at about 12:00 noon at the courthouse door in Greenville, Pitt County, N. C., the following described tracts or parcels of land:

First Tract: Bounded on the southwest by Louis Tlighman, on the northwest by the Allen Johnson lands, on the north and east by the Powell and Fleming lands, on the east by the lands of Elias Cox and known as the home place of the said J. W. Wooten and Virginia Wooten, and being the lands conveyed by Shade Wooten to J. W. Wooten, containing one hundred forty acres more or less; being the same lands described in Book G-3, pages 145, 146, and 147, Register of Deeds office of Pitt County, N. C., and more particularly described as follows: "A certain tract or parcel of land in the County of Pitt and State of North Carolina on the north side of Neuse River, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake by the fence running N 31 1-8 E 156 4-5 poles to a stake, then S 55 5-8 W 124 poles to a stake, then S 52 1-2 W 146 3-5 poles to a stake, then S 49 3-4 E 180 poles to the beginning, containing 140 acres more or less.

Second Tract: Beginning at a poplar in White's Branch, a corner of Allen Johnson's land in Elias Hazelton's line, thence with Allen Johnson's line N 67 degrees 16' E 495 feet to a stake, a corner of said Allen Johnson's land, thence with said Allen Johnson's line S 58 degrees 10' E 756 feet to stone corner between Allen Johnson's and J. Rainy Weather is Duck Soup to the UNIVERSAL Jeep

"LET IT RAIN IF IT MUST!" That is what you will say if a Universal "Jeep" is at work on your farm. Just put on the top and get on the job. With the steady traction of its 4-wheel drive the "Jeep" just keeps on pulling, in spite of soft ground or slippery footing. You don't have to worry about 'impassable' roads. Four-wheel drive takes the "Jeep" through, helps you with spring towing and hauling jobs that must be done.

GET A "JEEP" AND GET GOING

There are plenty of jobs the "Jeep" can do on your farm right now. When field tasks are completed or road work is done, your "Jeep" need not stand idle. Its power take-off delivers up to 30 h.p., operates many kinds of implements and farm machinery, helps make the "Jeep" America's most versatile farm tool.

Pin Worms Kill Small Negro Boy

By CHESTER WALSH
Eddie Lee Hardy, four-year-old son of Elva Hardy, 34, who lives on the Thomas W. Elks farm, four or five miles east of Greenville, who died at his home yesterday afternoon, was literally devoured by worms, Pitt County Coroner Griffin H. Rouse said today.

The child's mother said he had been ill a short time, and had not had the services of a physician. Shortly after the boy died, great masses of wiggle worms, sharp like a pin at both ends, began to emerge from his mouth and nose. Coroner Rouse and County Health Officer, who was called in, agreed that they had never seen anything like it.

The coroner quoted the boy's mother as saying the youngster became ill yesterday and that she used ordinary home remedies, but that she did not know about the worms until after he died. It was then the wiggle reptiles began to emerge from his mouth and nose in such numbers as to be alarming. The opinion of the coroner and health officer was that the worms had literally destroyed the child's vitals.

State League Municipalities To Meet Here

By CHESTER WALSH
The Greenville Board of Aldermen will be host to the North Carolina League of Municipalities at its regional meeting at the City Hall on Tuesday, April 13, Mayor Jack Boyd announced today. The meeting will be held in the courtroom at 3 p. m. Supper will be served at 6 p. m. at a place to be announced later.

In addition to the annual meeting, the league holds regional meetings at stated times and places. Cities and towns to participate in the meeting here are in Beaufort, Edgecombe, Greene, Lenoir, Martin, Wayne, and Wilson counties.

Mayor Earl L. Tate of Lenoir is president of the league. Mrs. Savetta L. Steed is executive secretary.

Mayor Jack Boyd of Greenville is a member of the Public Relations committee. Mayor Henry T. Powell of Henderson is chairman.

Auditorium Is Filled In Revival Meeting

A large congregation filled the auditorium of the Memorial Baptist Church last night and heard the Rev. Frank E. Morris preach on the subject, "Where Is Your Name Written?" Taking his text from Rev. 20:12: "And I saw the dead small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works." Mr. Morris declared that God has a method of keeping the records of men far better than man has.

Eighty-one young people and juniors were present in the Church of Tomorrow, and took part in the singing of special numbers under the direction of Mr. A. E. Lynch, the evangelistic singer. It is hoped that a hundred juniors and young people will be present tonight, and that all of the Sunday School officers and teachers will be present.

The services are being held each night at 7:30 o'clock and will continue through Sunday night.

Final Rehearsal For Palm Sunday Cantata

Final rehearsal of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church choir for the Palm Sunday evening presentation of Maunders' "Olivet to Calvary" will be held at the church tonight promptly at 7:30 p. m.

"Olivet to Calvary" recalls simply and reverently the scenes which mark the last few days of our Saviour's life on earth. It begins with His triumphant entry into Jerusalem and the rejoicing of the multitude with hosannas and palms. This, with the view of Jerusalem from the steep of Olivet, the lament over the beautiful city, the scene in the Temple and the lonely walk back over the Mount at night form the chief features of the first part.

Part II opens with the Supper of the Passover at which Jesus washes His disciples feet, and gives to His friends the new commandment of love for one another as the sign of true discipleship. From this the scene passes to the infinite paths of the Garden of Gethsemane, the sudden appearance of the hostile crowd, Jesus forsaken by His disciples, His utter loneliness before ruthless foes, the tumult before Pontius Pilate in the Judgment Hall, the Passage of the Cross, and ending with the tragedy and triumph of Calvary.

This presentation will enable those who hear it to more readily worship Him during this most sacred season.

Final Agreement Is Still Lacking

Lake Success, March 18—(AP)—The big powers sought final agreement today on a compromise report of their findings on the Palestine situation.

A press officer said they are determined to end the fighting in the Holy Land.

Red Oak News

Some important dates to remember:

Thursday night, March 18, at 7:30 o'clock choir practice at Red Oak. All members please attend music for church services next Sunday and for the Easter Sunrise service will be practiced.

Friday night, March 19, from 6:30 to 8 o'clock an old-fashioned chicken stew supper will be served at the Red Oak club building. The proceeds will be used for the Home Demonstration Club.

Sunday will be the third Sunday in this month. Plan now to attend Sunday school and church on that date, March 21, at Red Oak.

Monday night, March 22, the two circles of Red Oak will meet. Circle No. 1 will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hazard May at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday night, March 24, at 8 o'clock, the Youthful Workers club of Red Oak and Piney Grove communities will present a play called "The Ghost Farm." The boys and girls have worked hard on this play and we believe it is going to be one of the best ever presented in the community. Plan now to come and stand behind your young people.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

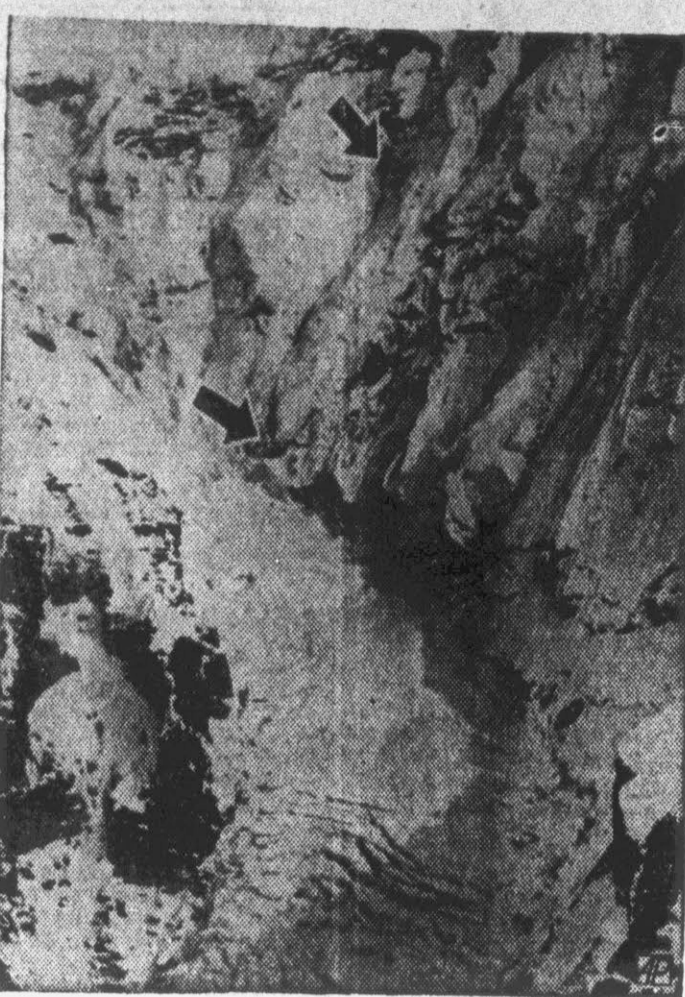

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do its job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice—must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis which counteract the acid stimulating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

This is a general air view of the scene after a Northwest Airlines DC-4 transport plane crashed into 16,208-foot Mt. Sanford 190 miles northeast of Anchorage, Alaska, with 30 persons aboard. The upper arrow points to blackened spot on side of icy cliff where the plane struck and exploded. The faint dark trail shows where the wreckage made a sheer 2,500-foot drop and came to rest (lower arrow) in an active glacier. Officials at Anchorage say it is improbable that bodies of the 30 victims will be recovered. (AP Wirephoto.)

Vicious Dog

Police served a warrant on Daniel Langley, colored, 506 Ford street, charging him with allowing his dog to run at large on the streets. The police acted on complaint of George Johnson, U. S. mail carrier, that the canine viciously attacked him on the street yesterday and bit his leg. Johnson is taking treatment from Dr. K. B. Pace.

Police ordered Langley to keep his dog confined for two weeks for observation for hydrophobia.

Stokes Teacher Back From Trip To Europe

Mrs. Herman Wellenmann of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting relatives in Stokes. Before marriage she was Miss Beatrice Cherry of Stokes. She taught in the Pitt County schools many years. Her husband, a native of Switzerland, is a representative of an American construction firm which contracts for projects all over the world. After their marriage last summer, Mr. and Mrs. Wellenmann spent their honeymoon in Europe. They visited his family in Switzerland and England, France and Italy. She will return to Brooklyn next Saturday.
