Scandinavia And Hol- land Condemn Reds; All Europe Is Taking Sides

By The Associated Press
Opposition to Communism sounded through the Netherlands, Sweden,
Norway and Denmark today.

Government and opposition parties in Holland unanimously affirmed their determination to boycott Communist representatives. Premiers of the three Scandinavian countries spoke out condemning Communism.

Czechoslovakia, latest country to go Red, named a Communist as foreign minister to succeed Jan Masaryk, the non-party leader who fell to his death ten days ago. The American embassy said Czechoslovakia had barred from the mail the U. S. information service bulletin carrying the text of President Truman's address to Congress.

Fighting broke out on a leftist rally in Rome, where the second ranking Italian Communist was furthering his party's drive for control of Italy in the April 18 elections. Riot squads quelled the trouble.

Reports of Communist international brigades of 30,000 men in Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania brought a sharp response from Greece.

Finland's government last minute instructed its army to stand for talks opening a treaty of mutual assistance, requested by Prime Minister Stalin.

The Communists were accused at the same time of having a five-nation committee working on Italy, where an election is scheduled April 18, and in France. They also were charged with having an international brigade ready to attack Greece.

The Moscow radio said today President Truman's preparedness speech to Congress Wednesday and the five-power Brussels pact signed that day favor American imperialists and militarists.

Italian Premier Alcide De Gasperi said the nine-nation Communist international information bureau (Cominform) has a special five-nation committee to coordinate directives to synchronize the conduct of Communists in Italy and France.

Official dispatches to Washington from Athens, the U. S. State Department said yesterday, estimate that three divisions, or 30,000 men, are in an international brigade near the Greek border in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria.

The department said the men are believed to be mostly Albanians and Greeks with overall Russian military direction, though no Soviet tactical officers. It said an attack is thought most likely from Albania.

Sixteen Trains Out Of Service

Charlotte, N. C., March 19—(AP)—The coal strike will pull 16 Southern Railway passenger trains out of service Sunday.

Southern Railway officials here announced yesterday that the trains would be suspended from service temporarily because of the walkout of the coal miners, and the resulting order of the government for a reduction in rail operations.

Wallace Replies Tonight; Reaction Pleases Truman

By The Associated Press
Henry A. Wallace stuck to his peace-with-Russia guns today as he prepared to fire a fresh salvo in his word war with President Truman.

The third party presidential candidate lined up his second radio address in two days (8:15 p.m. EST-Mutual), this one to answer specifically the President's denunciation of "Wallace and his Communists."

"Why have we reached this crisis in world affairs?" the third party candidate demanded. "Is there a single reason why we cannot make a peace to end the cold war?"

"Is there any evidence that Russia has aggressive designs against our country or that our national security is threatened from any source?"

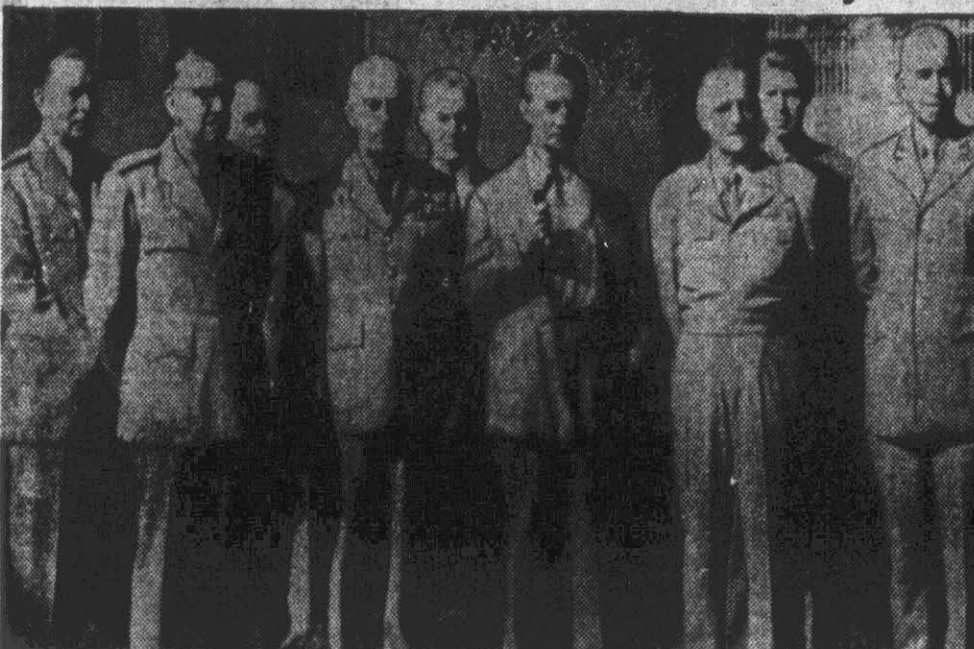

Another presidential aspirant took issue with Mr. Truman's latest foreign policy pronouncements, but for an entirely different reason.

Harold E. Stassen told a Cleveland audience yesterday that the Chief Executive had not gone far enough: that he should have asked for (a) outlawing the Communist party, (b) a halt to all "war machinery" shipments to Russia, (c) a stronger air force and (d) steps to strengthen the United Nations.

Mr. Truman, meanwhile, was described as "very, very happy" with the response to his two speeches Wednesday.

Mine Owners May Seek Court Action

Weigh Prospects Su- ing Union For Break- ing Contract; Rail- road Workers Idled By Coal Shutdown; Steel Industry May Be Hard Hit

Washington, March 19—(AP)—Soft coal operators weighed court action against John L. Lewis' miners today as a bid to halt the five-day-old shutdown.

At the same time the government prepared to add freight curbs to its railroad passenger train limitations if the fuel crisis mounts.

The mine owners planned a news conference to outline their strategy after two days of talks.

Whether the current walkout is a breach of contract is subject to legal interpretation. But the mine owners are known to have looked into every possibility of pinning their market losses of the past five days on the Lewis union.

Pittsburgh, March 19—(AP)—The five-day old pension shutdown in the soft coal fields today idled an estimated 15,000 railroad workers. Coal carrying lines were the hardest hit.

More furloughs were forecast for the weekend and next week when the government-ordered reduction in passenger train service is effective. The steel industry, already feeling the first effects of the shutdown, was expected to be hit hard next week if the work stoppage continues.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Baltimore announced it was laying off from 25 to 30 per cent of crews employed in coal handling. The Western Maryland Railway Co. also began furloughs.

Organized Labor In South Said Not Yet Mature

Providence, R. I., March 19—(AP)—A textile manufacturer who in ten years built a $5,000,000 initial investment to an industry doing a $16,000,000 yearly business said today his company chose New England instead of the South in part because organized labor here "is approaching maturity."

"Labor conditions in the partially organized South seem to us a definite detriment to maximum efficiency in operations," Joseph Axelrod, president of the Crown Manufacturing Company, Pawtucket, declared.

visit yesterday that "I could see the reaction in his face."

But while the President's foreign policy won the support of Virginia's William Tuck, the state executive was quick to declare that there will be no slackening in the Dixie battle against Mr. Truman's civil rights program.

Fireworks On Taxes

President's Talk Before Congress On Wednesday May Affect Whole Picture Of Income Tax Reduction; The National Debt; Tax Surplus; Tax-Cut Veto?

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, March 19—(AP)—Think you'll get an income tax cut this year?

President Truman's talk to Congress Wednesday may make a big difference in the answer.

But whether you do or not, you'll probably get some very dramatic fireworks. Take a look.

Our national debt is $253,000,000. Most of it is money the Government borrowed to fight the war. And the Government is trying to pay off some of it, plus the interest which runs around $5,000,000,000 a year.

It can do this only when it has left-over tax money. That is: When the cost of running the Government is less than the total tax money taken in. The difference goes to pay off some of the debt.

Earlier this year Mr. Truman and the Republican leaders in Congress both said income taxes can be cut in 1948 and still leave money to pay on the debt.

They differ on how to do it: Mr. Truman doesn't want the Government to lose money on the deal. He wants any cut in income taxes made up by boosting corporate taxes.

'Wait-And-See' Draft Proposals Gain In Senate

Plan To Register, But Delay Drafting, Ap- peals To Senate Re- publicans

Washington, March 19—(AP)—Senate Republicans leaders seemed near agreement today on a plan to register—but delay drafting—the nation's young men for military service.

The wait-and-see proposal under study by Senators Vandenberg (Mich.) and Taft (Ohio) would call for speedy passage of laws to re-verse selective service in the face of stepped up Communist pressure in Europe. Selectees would be chosen and put on notice.

But Congress would not push the button for inductions unless or until: (1) voluntary enlistments continued to lag or (2) the world situation grew so grave as to call for partial or full mobilization of a citizen army.

The prime object of such a law would be to spur immediate enlistments of those subject to call, thus filling vacant ranks in line with President Truman's plea for strengthened armed forces.

This Republican answer to Mr. Truman's request for Universal Military Training and a limited revival of selective service is known to have the enthusiastic backing of Vandenberg. He is the Senate's presiding officer and heads its Foreign Relations Committee.

Taft told a reporter he is inclined to support the plan but has not made up his mind finally.

Meanwhile, an informal poll of the House Armed Services Committee showed today that group probably would approve an outright draft revival at once. Fifteen out of 33 members said they favor such a step and only four listed themselves as definitely opposed.

However, House Republican leaders made it clear that full hearings will be held on the subject before any action is taken.

Set Time Limit For Meat Talks

Fact-Finders Allow Five Days For Pre- sents Evidence

Chicago, March 19—(AP)—President Truman's fact-finding board in the nationwide meat strike has set a time limit of five days for presentation of evidence by representatives of packers and the striking CIO Union.

The board arranged to hold daily joint meetings with the packers and Union leaders until next Wednesday noon. Each side was given 15 hours to present its case, including time allotted for a summation on Wednesday afternoon.

The board, investigating the work stoppage which started Tuesday and has slashed the nation's meat production in half, has until April 1 to submit its report to President Truman.

At yesterday's joint session Ralph Helstein, Union president, proposed that the board arbitrate the wage dispute but the packers did not join in the request.

As picketing of the country's packing plants continued, the prices of meat in the wholesale and retail markets advanced. Yesterday was the fourth straight day for price hikes in the wholesale market. Shipments of livestock were about normal compared to a pre-strike Thursday. However, receipts for the week were about one-half normal. Non-strikers at the plants included members of AFL or Independent Unions.

Marshall Asks Quick Action Halt Reds; Defines Policies

Is Candidate

George Marshall, Secretary of State, today declared quick action is needed to stop the spread of Communism—but added "the door is wide open for any general conciliatory moves" by Russia.

The Secretary of State compared the spread of Communist influence in Europe with Hitler's tactics.

"Never before in history has the world situation been more threatening to our ideals and interests than at the present time," he told a University of California charter day audience.

He called for prompt enactment of the European recovery program to check the advance of Communism.

At the same time, he left the door open for lasting friendship with Russia. He defined United States policy as: "to stand firm on basic principles but at the same time to keep the door wide open for any general conciliatory moves."

Marshall termed a "depressing aspect of the world situation" the duplication in Europe of the high handed and calculated procedure of the Nazi regime.

"It should now be perfectly clear that rule based on threats and force instead of on reason and justice must not be allowed to spread further unchecked," the Secretary said.

"We cannot evade the issue by the negative procedure of inaction," Marshall pointed a parallel between the present need for determining "just where and how we should exert our influence" and his wartime problems as chief of staff in deciding the priority of men and material for various war theaters.

"Unfortunately, critical situations are not confined to Europe," he said. "They exist in the middle east, in Indonesia, in China—and we cannot ignore Latin America, or our direct responsibilities in Japan and Korea."

"Such and powerful as we are, we cannot afford to disperse our efforts to a degree which would render all ineffective. Our means are not unlimited—we must not spend our efforts on a hopeless quest."

"You can't very well justify any objections against a tax cut at the moment, because we don't yet know what the extra cost (of the military program) will be."

Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) predicted more Democrats would vote to override a veto than when Mr. Truman successfully blocked a $4,000,000,000 tax cut bill last year. Ten Democrats lined up against the President's then.

Senator Gurney (R-SD), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, was asked by reporters whether he would vote against a tax cut because of the President's preparedness proposals.

The South Dakota lawmaker replied: "I have no doubt that a vote to sustain a veto will be larger than the vote against the bill on passage (by the Senate)."

GOP In Senate Hope Pass Tax Bill By Nightfall

Chances For Final Vote Late Today Said 'Good'; Demos Drop Opposition

Washington, March 19—(AP)—Senate Republicans tied the throttle down today in a drive to pass their $4,000,000,000 income tax-cutting bill by nightfall.

Senator Millikin (R-Colo.), floor manager of the measure, told reporters he believes the chances for a final vote late today were good.

He based his forecast mainly on a decision by the Democratic leadership to abandon plans for offering an amendment to hold any tax cut this year to $4,000,000,000. The House has already passed a measure calling for a $6,500,000,000 slash.

Senator Barkley (Ky.), the minority leader, said he intended to vote against any tax reduction. He predicted several other Democrats would follow suit.

Barkley said he believes it would be "dangerous" to cut taxes in the light of President Truman's appeal for greater American military power to protect Western Europe against the spread of Communism.

Barkley declined to speculate on Republican chances to corral enough Democratic votes to override an expected presidential veto. But he did say:

"I have no doubt that a vote to sustain a veto will be larger than the vote against the bill on passage (by the Senate)."

Says Door Is Open To Conciliatory Moves By Soviet; Compares Actions With Those Of Nazi Germany; Two Fronts To Watch; Time Ele- ment Said Vital

Chosen Chairman For May Day
Jone Bradsher, Greenville, a junior at Salem College, Winston-Salem, was chosen chairman for May Day in 1949 at campus elections held recently.

Miss Bradsher, an English major, is a member of the Pierette Players and also the Modern Dance Club, of which she is president this year. In addition, she is on the dance committee for this year's May Day. As May Day chairman, Miss Bradsher will begin preparations next fall for the spring May festival.

Mrs. Carr Entertains Book Club
Mrs. C. S. Carr was hostess to the Sans Souci Book Club Tuesday afternoon at her home, 433 Fourth Street.

A breath of spring was brought into the attractive house by arrangements of lovely flowers.

Mrs. W. I. Wooten, president of the club, presided over a lively business session after which books were passed and the program in order.

The program for the afternoon, "Learning How To Behave," a book by Schlesinger, was in the able hands of Mrs. P. M. Wooten, the gist of which told of the efforts of the early settlers of America, the majority of whom were women, to attain a more gracious way of living.

The writer proved that as man becomes more enlightened and better educated, he reaches out for a happier way of life and that good manners is a contributing factor to it. At the conclusion of this good and unusual program, Mrs. Carr served a most enjoyable frozen salad course.

Mrs. W. J. Bundy Honored
Beaufort.—Mrs. Harvey Smith entertained with a bridge luncheon at the Blue Ribbon Club on Wednesday afternoon, March 10, in honor of Mrs. William J. Bundy, of Greenville.

Mrs. Bundy was given a lovely corsage of hyacinths and snapdragons and a box of handkerchiefs by the hostess.

A delicious steak dinner cooked country style was served to the guests after which three progressions of bridge were played at 10 tables. At the conclusion of the bridge play one hand of bingo was played.

First prize, a flower bowl, was won by Mrs. Otis Jefferson; second prize, a flower vase went to Mrs. Charles Cheek, and third, candlesticks, was won by Mrs. Margaret Lewis. A nest of turtle ash trays, the slam prize, went to Mrs. Otis Jefferson and Miss Pauline Dickinson while Mrs. Mary Privette was consoled with similar ash trays. The bingo prize went to Mrs. Howard Jones and Miss Pauline Dickinson.

Mrs. Barrett Honored at Tea
In compliment to Mrs. Alton Barrett, a recent bride, Mrs. Marvin Blount and Mrs. Burke Stanell entertained with an informal tea at the home of Mrs. Blount on Rock Spring Drive. Receiving with Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Blount and Mrs. Stanell was Mrs. Tommy Dill, who is making her home in Greenville, where her husband is associated with Mr. Blount in the practice of law.

The house was decorated throughout with charming arrangements of early spring flowers. Mrs. Leighton Blount of Bethel served tea and dainty accompaniments to friends of Mrs. Barrett and of Mrs. Dill. Assisting Mrs. Blount in serving were Mrs. Moulton Massey and Mrs. Howard Hodges, Jr.

The hostesses presented Mrs. Barrett with a silver platter and Mrs. Dill was remembered with linen handkerchiefs.

Miss Nancy Lee Hannah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Huntington Hannah, whose engagement to Midshipman Sydney Worth Dunn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Worth Dunn, of Greenville, is announced by her parents. The wedding will take place in June.

Hostess to the Round Table

The ladies of the Round Table were delightfully entertained Tuesday, March 16, by Mrs. Royce Hunsucker. Her home was decorated with beautiful spring flowers. Mrs. Hunsucker introduced Mrs. H. R. Goodall and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Murray as guests for the afternoon.

The president, Mrs. D. H. Conley, announced that the club had made a contribution to the "Seeds of Peace" fund to send garden seeds to needy European families. Plans were discussed for Book Club Day to be held April 13. After a short business session, the books were exchanged.

Mrs. Conley, the retiring president, thanked the members for their cooperation during the past year, after which the meeting was turned over to the incoming president, Mrs. E. R. Browning.

Mrs. R. R. Taylor introduced the speaker, Dr. Paul Murray of the history department of ECU, who gave a very informative talk on "Cities and Towns of North Carolina." He included in his talk interesting facts of the early history of the state and the progress that has been made.

The news was given by Mrs. John Messick.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her small daughter Jane.

Christian Church Announcements

A program of special music entitled "Eastertide" arranged by Daniel Protheroe will be presented by the choir of 13 voices of the Eighth Street Christian Church at the morning service on this Palm Sunday. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Carter, with Mrs. R. R. Willmann as accompanist. The soloists for the service will be Mrs. J. D. Wilson, Jr., Miss Alma Whitley, James Ray Pittman, and Joseph Buckmaster.

Under the sponsorship of the Woman's Council the following prayer services will be kept this week at the church: Monday afternoon at 3:30, Mrs. Sprull Spain, leader; Wednesday at 3:30, Mrs. Plato Evans, leader; Friday at 3:30, Mrs. B. B. Sugg, leader.

On Thursday evening at 7:30 the congregation of the Christian Church will unite with other Christians of the community in a union communion service at the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

The church extends a most hearty welcome to a fine group of people taking membership with the church last Sunday and to those who have expressed a desire to become members at this happy Easter time.

Greenville Chapter O. E. S.

Greenville Chapter No. 149 met Tuesday night in the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Louise Tadlock presided. As this was the last stated meeting of the 1947-48 chapter year, all committees turned in yearly reports. A birthday fund balance was voted to be sent to the medicine fund for guests at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home in Greensboro. Twenty-four have been initiated during the year. Plans were made for a public installation of officers on March 30 in the Masonic Hall at 8 p. m. At the regular meeting on March 2, the following officers were elected for the year 1948-49:

W. M., Mrs. Beulah Brown; W. P., A. C. Tadlock; Asso. M., Mrs. Elinor Ratcliffe; Asso. P., H. J. Sawyer; secretary, Mrs. Henrietta Johnson; treasurer, A. R. House; Cond., Miss Alya Ray Taylor; Asso. Cond., Mrs. Emogene Duffin.

To serve with these the incoming matron, Mrs. Brown, has appointed:

Chap., Mrs. Lena Galloway; Mar., Mrs. Bertha Branch; Org., Mrs. Keith Cain; Adah, Mrs. Ernestine Garner; Ruth, Mrs. Sarah Proctor; Esther, Mrs. Thelma Maxwell; Martha, Mrs. Pearl Johnston; Electer, Mrs. Pauline D. Whitehurst; warder, Mrs. Mildred Kennedy; sentinel, A. F. Kennedy, Jr.

Mrs. Florence Lewis, D. D. G. M. of the Second District, will be the installing officer. Other installing officers will be—marshals, Mrs. Carrie Mumford; chaplain, Mrs. Mollie Brown; Cond., Mrs. Daisy Whitehurst; secretary, Mrs. Josephine Rawl and organist, Miss Marilyn Maxwell.

There will be special music and refreshments in the banquet hall during a social hour. Members and friends are invited to attend.

40 Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
March 19, 1908
Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Forbes left Wednesday evening for a visit to La Grange.

The rain Thursday night left a cold streak behind it.
It is certainly vexatious to people after expending a lot of labor and money in beautifying their front yards, to get up in the morning and find that their choicest flowers have been stolen during the night. Not only are flowers stolen from yards but they are also stolen from cemeteries.

fusions of jonquils and other spring flowers were arranged in the living room and dining room.

Mrs. Clara Shackell, the new president, called the meeting to order for a business session. She welcomed Mrs. Claude Blackwell of Washington, D.C., Mrs. J. J. Perkins and Miss Eunice McGee, guests for the afternoon. Mrs. Shackell appointed the committees for the ensuing year after which Mrs. Jesse Moye gave a report on Book Club Day.

The president turned the meeting over to Mrs. Hawes, who presented

Miss Eunice McGee of the college as guest speaker. Miss McGee, in her own inimitable fashion, reviewed the book, "From the Top of the Stairs," which was written by Mrs. Gretchen Ferlster, daughter of Walter Damrosch. The speaker entertained her audience with the rich and humorous experiences of the Damrosch family that took place in the lavish Damrosch home in New York in the early 1900s, as witnessed by a small Damrosch child, Gretchen, from the top of the stairs. Mr. Damrosch, born in Prussia in 1862, who composed and directed operas, who organized the New York Symphony, who was conductor at the Metropolitan, Opera House, is now Dean of American Music. Miss McGee stressed the fact he is a man of great personality as well as a great artist. His personality, his genius, his wealth, culture, and his devotion for his wife and four daughters are revealed in this most enjoyable book.

Following this delightful hour with the Damrosches, the hostess invited the club into the dining room. At one end of the table, Mrs. Jake Hadley served a delicious salad course. Mrs. Hawes and Mrs. W. L. Whedbee assisted Mrs. Hadley in serving party sandwiches, hors d'oeuvres and dainty cakes with coffee.

Books were exchanged and the club adjourned to meet again on March 30th.

Committeeman And Candidate Named By GOP

Durham, N.C., March 19—(AP)—State Republican leaders returned to their respective communities today aglow with a bright spark of enthusiasm kindled at the party's most optimistic convention in 20 years.

Highlighting the meeting, which ended last night, was the election of J. E. Broyhill, Lenoir furniture manufacturer, to the post of national committeeman.

It took three ballots for Broyhill to win the job over five other candidates. He overtook Hobart Morton of Albemarle, who during the first two rolls but lost, 602 1-2 to 594.

During the continuous seven-hour meeting, the convention nominated George M. Pritchard of Marshall, former congressman, as a gubernatorial candidate; set up a complete slate of candidates for state offices which are to be contested this fall; chose uninstructed delegates to the party's national convention in Philadelphia in June, and heard keynote Rep. Leonard W. Hall, New York, assert that Democrats "helped build up Communism here and everywhere."

Spirited balloting marked the contest for committeeman. After the first two ballots, Algernon Butler, Clinton, and John A. Wilkinson, Washington, withdrew. During the voting on the third ballot A. I. Feree, Asheville, and Lewis T. Hamilton, Brevard, stepped aside, leaving the fight to Broyhill and Morton.

The midget baseball teams are practicing every afternoon at West Greenville School. The backstop has been repaired and new baseball equipment has been purchased. Mr. Bill Kittrell of East Carolina Teachers College is coaching the teams. All boys between the ages of 9 and 14 are urged to join the teams. A new slide has been added to West Greenville school.

Chi Pi Players Name New Club Officers

Officers of the Chi Pi Players, student dramatic club at East Carolina Teachers College, were chosen in an election held this week. They will head the organization for the 1948-1949 term at the college.

Lola P. Stephenson of Willow Springs is the new president of the group. Others elected include Helen Winslow of Goldsboro, vice-president; Geraldine Weathers of Shelby, secretary; William H. Durham, Jr., of Rocky Mount, treasurer; and Susan Smith of Goldsboro and Geraldine Amundson of New York City, reporters.

'No Left Turn' Rule Speeds Up Traffic

Traffic has been speeded up and considerably facilitated by the installation of "No Left Turn" signs at the intersection of Evans and Fourth streets, police said today. The signs were placed there about a week ago.

Observers say almost constant left turning at that corner before the signs were placed slowed down traffic. A policeman is stationed at the corner to direct traffic until motorists become familiar with the no left turning rule.

Now, your own home—is your present fire insurance sufficient to give you full protection?

world picture is dark; we have to give Europe plenty of help; we have to build up our armed forces.

All that means more expense. How much? No one knows. Some Republicans have said such expenses wouldn't make a big difference.

Weeks ago the Republican-controlled House passed a tax-cut bill. And on Thursday the Senate started to debate it. The Republicans control the Senate, too, so it's almost sure to pass there.

Then it goes to Mr. Truman to be signed into law or be vetoed. Because of his Wednesday talk, he now has new ammunition for a veto.

He may send a veto message to Congress, pitched on a dramatic plane, maybe something like this:

"I told you before we can't afford a cut like this unless you make it up by boosting business taxes. You haven't done this. Now, as I told you Wednesday, we face new expenses. National defense comes first."

What effect would such a message have on Democrats who, before Wednesday, might have joined the Republicans in voting down a Truman veto?

You'll soon find out. Maybe in another 10 days or two weeks.

Communists control the Ministry of Interior and the secret police. Which is under it, just as they did in Czechoslovakia. The Minister of Interior is Yrjo Leino, son-in-law of the Finnish Communist, Otto Kuusinen, who was one of the leaders of the old Communist International and who was last heard of in the Soviet Union.

However, on the bright side for internal peace in Finland is the small size of Finland's Communist party: only something between 28,000 and 45,000 in a population of 3,775,000.

forts unwisely."

The need for prompt Congressional action on the European recovery program was pointed up by a comment that the plan was first broached June 5, 1947.

Citing "the initial advantage of dictators in dealing with democracies such as ours," Marshall emphasized "the importance of timely action on our part in the face of the dictatorial procedure with which we are confronted in Europe."

"In the long run, I am sure, the Democracies will invariably win out," he declared. "But the trouble is that the lapse of time may result in such a serious loss of position and strength that the task of the Democracies may involve a long, hard struggle to recover the ground thus lost."

The Secretary took note of the "the frank declaration of the Soviet government and Communist parties to oppose in every way possible the development of the European recovery program." However, he indicated willingness to reach an agreement with Russia "which will terminate once and for all the present dangerous situation."

"Our purpose, our policy is to stand firm on basic principles but at the same time to keep the door wide open for any general conciliatory moves," he explained.

Strength FOR THE DAY

PERSUASIVE POWER OF TROUBLE

The various groups of Christians living in Holland during the past century have found it very difficult to get together. There were customs, antipathies, and traditions which separated them and kept them apart. Every attempt at solid cooperation and fellowship failed.

Then came the war, and many of the leaders of all factions were cast into the concentration camps. Here they got to know one another better, had the opportunity to talk over their various problems, and came at last to have a high respect for one another. The concentration camp did more for Christian unity in Holland than anything that has been done in the past century. It took common suffering and a contact with one another under disagreeable circumstances to engender the mutual understanding which an improved situation required.

For some reason or other, people do not seem to learn well in an environment of pleasantness. We learn our best lessons when the problems of life start kicking us around. Illness, financial loss, and disappointment have been three teachers which have always had the respect of their pupils.

The Christians in Holland distrusted and disliked one another. Then came the concentration camp, and suddenly a lot of people began to see the light.

REMEMBER THE GOAL IS PEACE

This must be stressed and kept in mind by the general public; the administration's request for a temporary draft law and universal military training are steps towards peace, not "towards war."

Despite our every wish, the international situation has been in a process of deterioration since the end of World War II.

Since V-J day we have demonstrated America's desires for a peaceful world through our early demobilization, scrapping of military equipment, and even giving independence to the Philippines.

Most of the funds needed to keep the United Nations Organization going have been given by our country, the world bank is largely financed by the United States.

We have sent vast quantities of food and needed supplies abroad; not only to our friends, but to former enemies as well. Our efforts to secure a just and lasting peace have been devoted to the best interests of the world at large. We have no territorial ambitions, nor do we believe that reparations can be expected from our exhausted foes; our goals have been consistently unselfish and scrupulously honest.

If the rest of the world had demonstrated this sense of responsibility and justice, would there be this crisis today? Of course not.

We have tried what we considered the most obvious road to peace, and instead of coming nearer to our goal we have marched backwards. The only course left is to make our position unmistakably clear; it's risky, of course, but the risk of war is greater if we follow the path America has followed for the past two years.

Remember too, the course we are now considering was forced on us by another member of the world's family.

A bully pauses when he becomes aware that his soft-voiced target of abuse has drawn a line. That today, is what we are about to do.

If Congress and our people do not respond promptly and adequately to the administration's appeal for practical measures, more harm than good will be gained by the President's declaration that Communism must continue its aggression no longer.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

PANTRY PESTS DO LOTS OF EATING, U.S. OFFICIALS WARN
Washington, March 18.—More than $15,000,000 worth of grain foods are destroyed by pantry pests in American homes annually. The government urges housewives to war on them.

If housewives everywhere got after these bugs, their united effort would save enough food to help pull many starving people through a crisis.

And saving food would save them money. Pantry pests are the bugs that get into cereals, flour, meal, cornstarch, crackers, macaroni, spaghetti, and many other food items. They may also be found in spices, nut meats, chocolate, cocoa, dehydrated foods, dried fruits, dry soup mixes, dog biscuits and bird seed.

Five species are most commonly found in cupboard and pantry. Four of these are beetles. There's the drugstore beetle. It gets its name from the fact that it was first noted in spices and herbs in the days when these items were sold in drug stores.

Dr. L. B. Henderson of the Division of Insects Affecting Man and Animals, of the U.S. Department of Agriculture says the drugstore beetle is the most pesky pest of them all. Few people think of looking for bugs in spices, for example. But sometimes that's the way they're introduced into the pantry. Later they move into the flour and cereals.

In addition to the drugstore beetle, there's the flour beetle, the rice beetle, and the sawtoothed grain beetle. Most of these are very small, almost black in color are hard-shelled and have a cylindrical body. The other common grain-consuming pantry pest is the Indian meal moth. Its larva is larger than the body of the beetle, and it spins a webbing around itself of the flour or meal in which it is living. When you dip out the flour it is stringy and fuzzy.

Sometimes you find these moths flying around the kitchen and mistake them for the moths that get into your blankets, carpets and clothing. But the meal moth is darker in color and two or three times larger than the ordinary moth. And it doesn't eat anything but grain foods.

These insects are not poisonous. Dr. Henderson also emphasizes that food is not ruined just because a few beetles have crawled into it. He says that a few in flour, for instance, can be picked out, or the flour sifted through a fine sieve. Heavily infested products, however, may have to be fed to pets, chickens or livestock.

The government suggests five different ways to control pantry pests:

1. Clean your pantry shelves thoroughly.
2. Spray the cupboard with five per cent DDT.
3. Inspect all packages by heating at 140 degrees Fahrenheit for half an hour.

5. Store food in tight containers. Cleaning pantry shelves and spraying them with DDT also will prove effective in helping control other pests such as ants and cockroaches.

All packages of food should be removed before spraying with the DDT solution (on the interior surface of the cupboard). A deposit of DDT crystals will remain after the liquid has dried. These crystals will be effective for several months. Insects that crawl around the inside of sprayed cupboards will be killed before they have a chance to lay eggs and start new infestations. Don't put the packages back on the shelves until the spray has dried.

The dry DDT deposit will not harm food inside packages.

Double Parking On East Fourth Street Slows Up Traffic

By CHESTER WALSH

Vehicular traffic moves slowly at the intersection of Fourth and Cotanche Streets where the narrow traffic lanes between cars parked on both sides of the streets make the going dangerous, motorists are frequently heard to say. They point out that these streets are too narrow for parking on both sides. And this problem confronts motorists all the way on Fourth Street from Evans to below the high school. When a big truck happens to be passing along there, the cars and truck have to worm their way along with a hope of avoiding a sideswiping collision.

Two observing citizens, standing at Fourth and Cotanche Streets this morning and watching traffic move at a snail's pace, suggested that police only allow parking on one side of these streets and thus speed up traffic. One of them said it is more important to keep traffic moving regularly than to provide too much parking space.

A dangerous traffic jam at Cotanche and Third Streets has been eliminated by a new police rule allowing parking on only one side of Third Street. City officials and police are giving much consideration to traffic conditions and they are striving to work out the problems satisfactorily.

Tobacco Auctioneer School In Kinston Scheduled For Vets

Kinston, March 17.—A tobacco auctioneer school for veterans of World War II will open here March 29 and will last for six weeks. R. B. Edmundson, assistant State service officer here for the North Carolina veterans commission, announced today.

This will be the first tobacco auctioneer school to be held exclusively for veterans under the G. I. Bill of rights. B. E. Dale, Jr., a World War II veteran who received his training as a tobacco auctioneer under the late O. G. Rucker, of Kinston, in 1939, will teach the students.

As approved by the State Veterans Education commission and the Veterans Administration, the students will be limited to 15. Information concerning enrollment and other information may be secured from Dale at Kinston or at the State Veterans Commission service office in 209 Pearson Building, Kinston.

Buckle Down For End Of Quarter

Students at East Carolina Teachers College are hard at work this week completing their work for the winter quarter. Examinations are now in progress and will continue through Saturday.

Registration for the spring quarter will take place on Monday, March 22, and class work will be resumed on Tuesday.

Spring holidays will begin on the following Friday and will last until Wednesday, March 31. Practically all men and women attending the college are expected to leave the campus and to spend Easter vacation elsewhere.

The word restaurant in America was first applied to the dining rooms of the better class of hotels and to a few high class a la carte restaurants.

The temperature at the center of the sun is estimated to be 20,000,000 degrees Centigrade.

Tennessee Bride 12; Husband 20

Twelve-year-old Mrs. Cozette Morris Boyd and her husband, Elmer, 20, exchange fond glances at Ashland City, Tenn., after their elopement in her father's car to Franklin, Ky. Their wedding had the blessings of both families. (AP Wirephoto).

The principal of each school for the colored in the county under the direction of Professor H. B. S. J. S., Coordinator for schools for the colored, will direct Seal Sales in these schools. Professor W. H. Davenport is directing work in Greenville colored schools.

In ancient Egypt tax collectors had their noses cut off and were exiled for extorting from the poor.

The Mayflower was only 100 feet long and 20 to 25 feet wide.

Criminal Lawyer Shot By 2 Men

Charlotte, N. C., March 19—(AP)—Amon M. Butler, widely known Charlotte criminal lawyer, was shot down before dawn today in a running fight with two alleged hold-up men.

Butler was struck in the back of the neck by a small-caliber bullet. The bullet ranged downward and came out the right shoulder. The shooting occurred in the middle of the first block of west Sixth street about 3:30 a. m.

Officers found Butler crumpled in the street, still conscious, about 30 feet east of west sixth's intersection with Church street.

Mercy hospital attendants said later that his condition was not believed to be serious.

Detectives said they expected to make arrests later in the day. They said that residents of the street reported that two men ran just after the shot was fired and disappeared into darkness.

Oratory Contest Schedules Set

Raleigh, March 19—(AP)—The North Carolina American Legion Oratorical Committee announced today dates and places for five division finals contests in the state next week.

They are: Tuesday, Williamston, Legion Hall, for the first division; Thursday, Hugh Morson Auditorium, Raleigh, third division; Friday, Boyden High, Salisbury, fourth division; and Saturday, Asheville Court-house, fifth division.

Division winners will compete for the state title in the Asheville High School auditorium Wednesday night, March 31.

Alaska and Russia are separated by only 56 miles of open sea.

Kinston Needing Additional Coal

Kinston, March 19—(AP)—Unless additional coal supplies are received by April 1, some curtailment in local electric power service will be necessary, Mayor Guy Elliott said yesterday.

The mayor said that the city's municipal power plant has a 33-day coal supply on hand and an additional seven day supply in transit.

Heavy Docket For Next Week's Court

Judge Henry L. Stevens of Warsaw will preside over a one-week criminal term of Superior Court here next week. A docket including some important cases will confront the Duplin county jurist. W. J. (Dick) Bundy, who succeeded David M. Clark as fifth judicial district solicitor, will officiate as solicitor for the first time at the criminal term.

Milk Production In N. C. Climbing

College Station, Raleigh, March 17.—A recent report by the Bureau of the Census shows that the number of milk cows in North Carolina increased by 33,515 from 1939 to 1944. This is an 11 per cent increase. Gallons of milk produced increased from 143 to 161 million, or 12.6 per cent, indicating production per cow increased as well as cow numbers.

There were 3.8 million pounds less butter churned in 1944 than in 1939. C. Brice Ratchford, Extension Farm Management specialist at State College, said the decrease in butter production was due largely to extension of milk routes which have made a whole milk market available for more farmers.

A study of the census shows that the number of cows per farm has increased, Mr. Ratchford said. In 1944 there were fewer families with one cow than in 1939, but more families with two, three, and four cows. Almost twice as many families had five to nine cows in 1944.

In spite of a substantial increase in cow numbers, only 2,754 more families had cows in 1944, and 105,000 or 36 per cent of the 288,000 farm operators did not have a cow in 1944, the Extension specialist pointed out, adding that the increase in population and incomes and improvement in diets have increased the overall demand for milk in the state and opened the door for an increase in commercial herds.

Ratchford said production per cow is relatively low in North Carolina. The average production per cow in 1944 was 4,047 pounds while the national average was 4,807 pounds, and the New York state average 6,008 pounds during the same period. Production in North Carolina increased only 63 pounds per cow during the five-year period. The state needs an increase in production per cow, and this may be obtained through better feeding, better management, and better cows, Ratchford said.

Military Rites L. L. Whitehurst

The remains of the late Private First Class Lenon L. Whitehurst, who was killed on February 4, 1944, on Kwajalein Atoll in the Marshall Islands in the Pacific, will arrive in Greenville Saturday morning. Military rites will be held in Greenwood cemetery in Greenville Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Pitt County Post of the American Legion, the Ayden Post of the American Legion, and the Charles Gray Morgan Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in charge.

Private Whitehurst, son of Mrs. Rosa L. Whitehurst, of near Ayden and the late Luther James Whitehurst, was born and reared in the Stokes Community and attended Pictolus school. He entered the U. S. Army on September 15, 1942, and was stationed at Fort McClellan, Alabama, and Camp Butler, North Carolina, before going overseas on April 18, 1943. He was twenty-two years of age at the time of his death. He was awarded the Purple Heart posthumously.

Surviving are his mother, a brother, Jesse W. Whitehurst, of near Snow Hill, and two sisters: Mrs. H. L. Heath and Miss Vivian Whitehurst of near Ayden.

Cantata Relates Calvary Story

The music of "Olivet to Calvary", which will be given on Palm Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Jarvis Methodist Church by the choir, was written by J. H. Maunders and the words, most of which are taken from the scriptures were set to Maunders' music by Shapcott Wensley.

This sacred cantata opens with the chorus describing Jesus' journey toward Jerusalem preceded by the crowds with palms and singing hosannas. The view of Jerusalem from the steep of Olivet is told in a soprano solo which is followed by the baritone solo telling of Jesus' lament over the beautiful city. The scene in the Temple is described by tenor and soprano solos and concluded with the chorus "Bow down Thine ear, O Lord." The description of the Mount of Olives opens with a soprano solo and chorus, followed by the soprano solo "He was despised," and the baritone solo and chorus "Come unto Him." The first part of the cantata is brought to a close with a quartet singing a special arrangement of Charlotte Elliott's beautiful hymn, "Just as I Am."

The second part opens with the Supper of the Passover and Jesus' journey to His disciples the new commandment "That ye love one another even as I have loved you." This baritone solo is followed by the quartet "O Thou whose sweet compassion." The scene then passes to the Garden of Gethsemane. His movements being told by tenor solo and soprano-alto duet. The sudden appearance of the hostile crowd which took Him away, and the forsaking by His disciples are very vividly told by the chorus. His loneliness among His foes is depicted in the soprano recitative and air "Ye who sin, and ye who sorrow." The Saviour's trial before Pilate, the multitude crying for His crucifixion, and Pilate's decision are all told by very stirring work. Pilate's decision being expressed in a bass solo. The march to Calvary is described by the chorus "The Saviour King goes forth to die" followed by the baritone recitative telling of the Saviour's terrible hours spent on Calvary. Then comes the beautiful soprano solo and chorus "Drop Sacred Head," after which this cantata appropriate to Holy Week is brought to a close with R. Redhead's setting of "Rock of Ages."

The regular choir participating are: Mesdames J. H. Waldrop, John Karsnak, H. A. Hendrix, E. O. Parkinson, Jr., Misses Doris Brown, Norma Hooper, Allison Hearn, Alice Foley Jones, and Nina Abernathy; Messrs. E. B. McDowell, Billy Goodson, Rodney Roberts, Rufus Starke, and E. O. Parkinson, Jr. The choir will be assisted by Mrs. Moya Dail and Mr. Marshall Starkey of Greenville, and Mr. Harper Darden of Chapel Hill. Mrs. Paul Toll will be the organist.

Hold Frozen Food Conference State College In April

College Station, Raleigh, March 19 — A two-day frozen food conference sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service will be held at State College Thursday and Friday, April 1 and 2. It was announced today by Dr. Ivan D. Jones, research professor in horticulture, North Carolina Experiment Station.

Home economists, representing power companies, electrical appliance companies and distributors of home freezers and freezing storage units are invited to participate. Sales service representatives of these companies who are particularly concerned with problems arising in the field of the freezing preservation of food are also invited to attend.

Subjects to be discussed the first day include "Planning for the Family Food Supply" and "Freezing Preservation of Uncooked Foods." Topics the second day will be "Pre-cooked Foods and Frozen Fruit Desserts" and "The Freezing Storage Unit, Home Freezers, and the Locker Plant."

Up-to-date information on the subjects indicated will be presented by representatives of Extension and Research agencies. There will be no exhibits of freezing or freezing storage units.

All sessions will be held in the similar room at Polk Hall, State College. Conferences will begin at 10 a. m. and close at 5 p. m. each day, with an hour and a half for lunch.

Requests for information on the conference should be addressed to the Department of Horticulture, N. C. State College, Attention Dr. Jones.

Want Musicians For Army Band

Musicians are in great demand at the Fifth Infantry Division at Fort Jackson, according to an announcement made today by 1st Lt. George C. Blinbury, commanding officer of the Greenville N. C. sub-station of the United States Army and United States Air Force Recruiting Service.

1st Blinbury states that he has received authorization to enlist certain musicians for direct assignment to the Fifth Infantry Division band, and urges all qualified men to contact the local recruiting sub-station at once as these vacancies will probably be filled rapidly.

Kentucky Rated Over Holy Cross For NCAA Title

New York, March 19—(AP)—Measured by the statistical slide rule, Kentucky's heady young giants rate a stout favorite over Holy Cross in their encounter Saturday for the Eastern NCAA basketball title.

The Southerners own the better season's won-lost record, which when broken down also shows them superior to the New Englanders in making goals, preventing goals and connecting on free throws—very strong evidence on any court.

The main point in Holy Cross' favor appears to be that the Crusaders are riding high on a 19-game winning streak—just like a team of destiny—and may be hot enough to melt such frigid things as figures.

Both teams gave an impressive demonstration in eliminating semifinal opponents last night before 16,477 at Madison Square Garden. Kentucky, the Southeastern Conference champion, gave Columbia a very businesslike going over, 76 to 53. Holy Cross, seeking its second straight NCAA crown, brushed past Michigan's big nine champions, 63 to 45.

The games followed a similar pattern. Columbia held its own with Kentucky for the first eight minutes and then class told. The Wildcats pulled steadily away to lead 38-25

Bethel's Indians, State Class B Champions

Bethel's classy Indians, winner of seven Pitt titles, became the only team representing the East to win a title in the first annual State tournament when they captured Class B laurels by turning back Stanley, 43-39 at Chapel Hill. The players are: Front row—Frank Earl Keel, Walter Clayton Witte, W. Z. Worsley, William Earl House, and Bill Smith. Back row: Coach Walter C. Latham, Hilton Tetterton, William Keel, Mack Whitehurst, W. B. Bullock and Assistant Manager Thomas Whitehurst.

Ring Fatality

New York, March 19—(AP)—Authorities today sought to determine the cause of the death of an 11-year-old Brooklyn school boy who last night fell dead in a boxing ring at the end of a two-round bout.

Witnesses said the boy, Christopher Iacona, had taken about 20 to 25 blows to the body during the two, two-minute rounds of the bout held in the gymnasium of Brooklyn public school No. 25.

At the end of the last round, he walked to his corner, then paled abruptly, and collapsed into the arms of a 13-year-old student referee, Sol Pennino.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital.

of some major league slugging. Simmons was touched for eight runs and 10 hits in three and two-thirds innings yesterday against the Washington Senators. Simmons beat the New York Giants, 3-1, in the final game of the 1947 season, and a few days ago held the Detroit Tigers to one hit and no runs in three innings.

The Phils rallied, however, yesterday and won 12-10.

Judge Freed Him

Chicago — (AP) — Ed Albosta, a pitcher who will bid for a Chicago White Sox job this season after winning 11 for Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League last campaign, is one of the 90-odd Detroiters granted free agency in 1949 by the late Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

Ten Winners In 11 Golf Tournaments

Chicago, March 19—(AP)—Everybody is getting into the professional golf act.

In 11 major tournaments since Jan. 1, there have been 10 different winners—a far cry from the monopolistic heyday of now-retired Byron Nelson and ailing Ben Hogan.

The one double-winner to date this year is little Lloyd Mangrum, who heads the pack in winnings with $8,838, almost $1,200 ahead of runner-up Bobby Locke, who has collected $7,643.

Rounding out the 1948 big five, according to official Professional Golfers' Association statistics, are Jimmy Demaret with $6,298; Hogan with $7,227; and Johnny Palmer with $5,675.

Mangrum, Locke, Demaret and Hogan—all averaging under 70 strokes per 18-hole round—have made each stroke pay off around $3.00 or better, ranging from Demaret's $2.93 to Mangrum's $3.65.

Mangrum, who has the best average score of 69.17, copped the Bing Crosby meet and added another first by the skin of his teeth, defeating Demaret in a playoff of the Harlingen, Tex., Open.

Demaret, 1947 top money winner, has taken only the Texas Open, although runner-up in three other tournaments. Hogan, like Nelson did in 1948, has developed an ailing back. The little Hershey, Pa., sharpshooter's only 1948 triumph was in the Los Angeles Open.

Locke, who set American fairways on fire last summer, has cooled off to a solitary triumph in the Phoenix Open.

The other one-meet winners are Dutch Harrison (Richmond Open); Skip Alexander (Tucson Open); Bob Hamilton (New Orleans Open); Lawson Little (St. Petersburg Open); Jim Ferrier and Cary Middlecoff (Miami 4-ball); and Chick Harbert (Jacksonville Invitational).

Pirates "Sure" First Division

Hollywood, Calif., March 19—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates figure they're a sure thing to wind up in the first division this year. Why? Because of Johnny Hopp.

Johnny is starting his ninth season in the majors and has yet to finish out of the money. "I didn't come to the Pirates with the idea of finishing in the second division," he said. "I was never more pleased with a berth in my diamond career than now."

Another Chance For Lee Savold

New York, March 19 — (AP) — Lee Savold, who has been up and down the flimsy ladder oftener than a rookie fireman, gets still another chance tonight when he fights Gino Buonvino, rugged Italian heavyweight, in the feature 10 at Madison Square Garden.

The 32-year-old Minnesotaan fell into the spot when Joe Baksi, who was to have mixed with the Italian, sprained an ankle in training.

The United States has a yearly milk supply of 56 billion quarts which goes into butter, cheese, ice cream, and other dairy products.

Citrus Circuit Clubs Featuring Several Rookies

Tampa, Fla., March 19—(AP)—Time was when a first year player found it almost impossible to break into a regular major league lineup. Today, each of the 10 clubs training in Florida has at least one good-looking rookie slated to open the 1948 season as a full time performer. Some even have two.

The best of the freshman crew appear to be Curt Simmons of the Philadelphia Phillies; Alvin Dark, Boston Braves; Virgil Stallcup, Cincinnati Reds; Lou Brissie, Philadelphia Athletics; Clarence Beers, St. Louis Cardinals; and Gil Coan, Washington Senators.

Other freshmen who probably will make the grade include First Baseman Paul Campbell and George Vico of Detroit; Catcher Gus Niarhos, New York Yankees; Second Baseman Al Kozar, Senators; Outfielders Duke Snider and Dick Whitman, Brooklyn; Outfielder Hank Sauer and Pitcher Howard Fox, Reds; First Baseman Al Blair, Phillies and Pitchers Gerald Staley and Al Pappalardo, Cardinals.

Simmons, the 18-year-old "boy wonder," has been hailed by all who have seen him pitch, as a sure-fire big league star of tomorrow. Handed a bonus of $60,000 last June, the left-handed Simmons won 13 and lost 5 in Wilmington last season and defeated the New York Giants 3-1 in his only big league start. He has pitched brilliantly in the Grapefruit League.

Dark, former Louisiana State University all-around athlete, is another high priced bonus player. The Braves parted with $40,000 to obtain his services. The fleet-footed Southerner, who prepped at Milwaukee last year and was voted the outstanding rookie in the American association, has won the regular shortstop berth with Boston.

Brissie, who fanned 278 batsmen with Savannah in the South Atlantic League last year, and had an earned run average of 1.91 while winning 23 and losing only 5, is regarded by Manager Connie Mack of the Athletics as another Lefty Grove.

Coan, making his third stab at a regular job in the big time, appears finally to have found himself. Plagued by injuries last year and in 1946, the 24-year-old flycatcher has shown no signs of anything wrong with him thus far and is one of the three Senators sure of a job.

Kramer Marks Up Another Victory

Atlanta, Ga., March 19—(AP)—Big Jack Kramer marked up his 34th triumph of the professional tennis tour here last night by defeating Bobby Riggs, 6-4, 6-4.

The victory was Kramer's ninth straight. In a preliminary set Denny Pails, the Australian champion, defeated Pancho Segura, the South American 6-4.

Joins Homer Elite

Boston—(AP)—Vern Stephens, now of the Boston Red Sox, hit 15 home runs for the St. Louis Browns in 1947 to enable him to join the select group of active American Leaguers who have hit 100 or more homers during their major league careers. Incidentally, Stephens should do well at Boston's Fenway Park. In six seasons he compiled a .329 batting mark there as against a .291 overall major league stick average.

Top Track Stars Enter Season's Chicago Finale

Chicago, March 19—(AP)—The nation's top-ranking track stars will thump the indoor planks for the last time this season in the Chicago relays tomorrow night at the Chicago Stadium.

The 12th renewal of the carnival which claims 10 world records fashioned and 16 tied in its history has attracted a typically illustrious field.

Six national A.A.U. title-holders and five big nine champions are included in the slick array.

One of the meet's biggest stars, however, will be in a spectator role. Gil Dodds, king of America's millers, is recovering from mumps and will serve as a timer of the banker's mile which he won three times.

Reds' Manager Rating Gumbert With Hugh Casey

Tampa, Fla. — Harry Gumbert rates right with Hugh Casey of the Brooklyn Dodgers when it comes to saving ball games in relief, believes Manager Johnny Neun of the Cincinnati Reds.

"Gumbert is as valuable to the Reds as Casey is to Brooklyn," says Neun. "Only the Reds finished fifth and Casey was with a pennant winning team."

A check of the records shows that Gumbert, 37-year-old Cincinnati Red from Houston, Texas won 10 and lost 10 last season.

This is compared with Casey's 10 and 4 record.

Gumbert worked 90 innings and he achieved a 3.90 earned run mark.

Meanwhile Casey, who is 34, twirled 77 innings and had a 3.97 ERA.

Washington Has Circuit-Hitter

Bradenton, Fla., March 19—(AP)—Rookie Second Baseman Al Kozar's two long home runs in the Senators' losing slugfest against the Phillies kept Washington happy today as they squared away for a two-game series with the Boston Braves.

The Senators dropped the game yesterday, 12-10, but Kozar's brace of four-baggers and another by Outfielder Sherry Robertson pleased Manager Joe Kuhel.

Colorado has 51 mountain peaks rising above 14,000 feet.

Just One More Run

Philadelphia—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics flirted with a first place berth all last season and wound up fifth after their most successful campaign in years, but the A's might have finished even higher if they had been able to produce just one run occasionally. The Mackmen lost 29 games by a single run last season. They won 17 by that slim margin.

Sons Carry On

Philadelphia — (AP) — Famed Olympic Coach Lawson Robertson has retired as track mentor at Pennsylvania—but the Robertson name is not absent from the Penn track rolls.

Two of Robbie's sons are competing for the Quaker forces—Lawson junior in the shotput and 36-pound weight and George in the sprint.

THANKS TO RETONGA, HE NEVER LOSES TIME NOW

Only Grit Kept Him On The Job For About A Year, States Anderson Resident. Was Eating, Sleeping And Feeling Better Before First Bottle Of Retonga Was Gone.

From the Great Lakes to the Gulf well-known men and women continue to praise Retonga. For instance, Mr. J. E. Freeman, 149 Burr St., Anderson, S.C., happily declares:

"Retonga did everything people say it will. A year ago I began to suffer from sour stomach and attacks of indigestion. After nearly every meal I had to run for some old time remedy like baking soda. My appetite left me. I felt too uncomfortable and restless to sleep restfully, and I constantly had to resort to strong laxatives. I felt so run-down and miserable most of the time that only grit kept me on my job.

"Retonga gave me such prompt relief that before I finished the first bottle I was enjoying every meal without a bit of trouble. I now sleep fine, and I never miss any time from my work. It's a pleasure to tell people about Retonga."

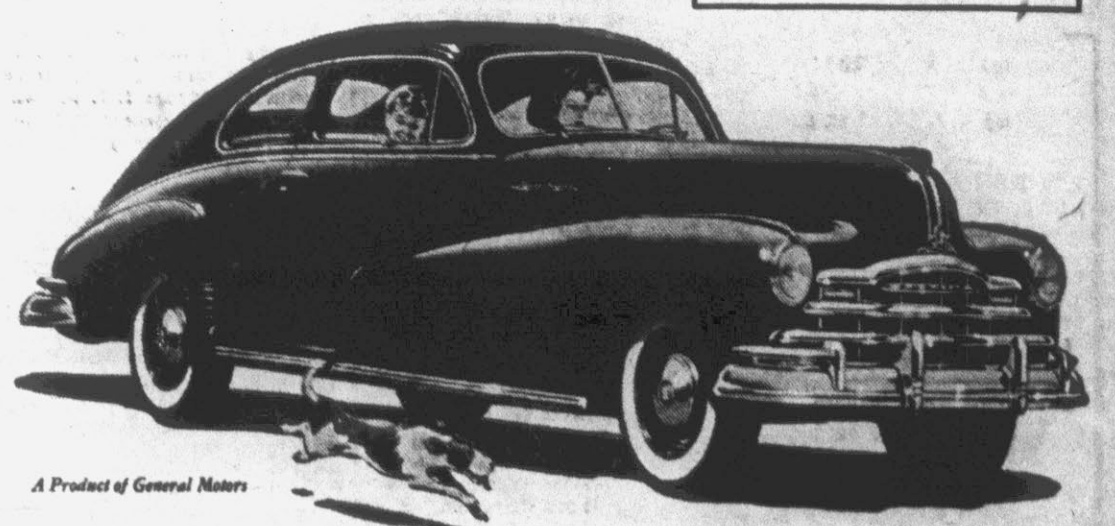

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Thousands praise it. Retonga may be obtained at Bisette's Drug Store—Adv.

A FINE CAR MADE EVEN FINER

GM Hydra-Matic Drive

optional* on all models

A greater car...and a greater value!

A year ago today, if you had asked the owner of a new Pontiac what could be done to improve it, he would very likely have told you—"Nothing at all, I like it just as it is."

That's why, for the thousands of people all over the country who have known Pontiac in the past, the 1948 Pontiac is the big news of the year. For here is a fine car made a great deal finer!

There is new beauty—beauty that starts with the re-styled "Silver Streak," and extends from the strikingly handsome grille to the refined exteriors and luxurious interiors of the smart Fisher bodies.

There is new dependability—for the sturdy Pontiac chassis has been improved wherever possible.

And there is unbelievably fine performance—for not only have the great Pontiac engines been refined and improved—but Pontiac now offers, as optional* equipment, the sensational General Motors Hydra-Matic Drive.

With this miraculous mechanism, you just sit back and relax! There is no clutch pedal, and the gears shift themselves. The new Pontiac is now on display in our showrooms. There are fifteen beautiful models—each a great car and a great value.

Trust Fund For Teen-Age Killer

Winston-Salem, March 19—(AP)—Efforts were under way today to establish a trust fund for Tommy Lee Phillips, who killed his parents on New Year's Eve. The proposed trust fund would be established from proceeds of the estate of the parents.

Roy Deal, lawyer for the 16-year-old killer who was convicted of second degree murder, filed a petition in a special proceeding yesterday asking for the appointment of a commissioner authorized to sell the Phillips home. A $25,000 valuation was placed on the home which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Everett Phillips had occupied 15 months. It was in that suburban home that the parents were shot to death by their only child, who then went to York, S. C., with his sweetheart in an effort to be married. Tommy Lee was sentenced to 30 to 90 years in prison.

Seventeen relatives, their husbands or wives, were listed in the proceeding, which is brought against Tommy Lee and the parents of Mrs. Phillips, and Phillips' mother. The petition asserted that the parents died simultaneously and that Tommy Lee had no right, because of wrongful acts, to their estate, but that half of it would go to the 10 brothers and sisters of Phillips, and the other half to seven brothers and sisters of Mrs. Phillips. Deal said that if the relatives would contribute their shares to the fund, the two-story store house on a 10-acre estate would be sold. Interest from securing funds, Deal asserted, would go to Tommy Lee during his imprisonment, and he would receive the principal upon release.

How To Do It?

Lake Success, March 19—(AP)—The big powers today recommended that the United Nations Security Council take immediate steps to restore peace in Palestine.

No mention was made as to how this should be done. Austin said the big powers hoped to continue their private talks in efforts to reach some agreement on how to carry out the recommendation.

Predict Tobacco Farmers' Ruin If Controls Ended

Washington, March 19—(AP)—Tobacco farmers face ruin if the acreage control program is abandoned at this time, in the opinion of the National Grange Tobacco committee.

Several members of the group met here yesterday to consider problems of tobacco growers. L. W. Allen of Creedmore, N. C., is chairman of the eight-man committee. Spokesmen said the acreage allotment system for control of leaf production has been generally successful.

PARTY MADE BIG CATCH SHAD, THEN HAVE FEAST

W. H. On a fishing trip with Raymond Arnold and Russell Elks as guides, the party caught 12 shad Wednesday and they were whoppers. The banker was host at a fish fry.

Detain Physicist At Ellis Island

Washington, March 19—(AP)—Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie, the French scientist, is being detained at Ellis Island because her entry into this country may be "prejudicial to the best interest of the United States," the Justice Department said today.

Mme. Joliot-Curie, the daughter of the discoverers of radium, arrived in New York from Paris late yesterday. On hand to meet her were officials of the joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, which Attorney General Tom Clark has listed as a "subversive" organization. She was taken into custody by immigration officials at LaGuardia Airport and removed to Ellis Island. The Justice Department, which indicated that Attorney General Clark will look into the matter, said she has been "temporarily excluded" from the country.

Noting that she had come for a speaking tour under sponsorship of the Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, the department said: "She is being held on a temporary detention order under the immigration regulations which require that any alien whose entry might be deemed prejudicial to the best interests of the United States be temporarily detained at the port of entry."

Answering a direct question, a department official said the detention is based on "presumption" that Mme. Joliot-Curie's entry may be prejudicial to this country's interests.

Arrest Man For Five States Hit Kidnapping Girl By High Winds

Concord, Vt., March 19—(AP)—Kenneth A. Ingalls, 34, wanted for kidnapping a farmer's daughter, was arrested early today, state police reported. The girl, Charlotte O'Brien, 16, was found apparently unharmed. Ingalls faces charges of assault with a dangerous weapon, in addition to the kidnapping charge.

The arrest was made by state police assisted by Sheriff John H. Wilson.

Police said Ingalls forced his way into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Brien Sunday night and, after threatening them with a rifle, made the girl accompany him.

The parents said Ingalls, a former convict, had become infatuated with the pretty brunette high school girl while he worked on their farm last summer. There was no romance apparent, however, between them. From the time the girl was kidnapped, the parents expressed belief Ingalls would not harm her. They said they believed his seizure of the young woman was motivated by his "insane infatuation" for her. In one of their latest public appeals to the kidnaper, the parents said: "Please bring her back or release her and let us know where we can go and get her."

With more than 350,000 of 400,000 soft coal diggers idle in support of pension demands, the biggest single lay-off in a related industry was noted by the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

President R. J. Bowman said 10,000 workers were laid off and another 5,000 would be idle unless the walk-out ends by tomorrow.

Says Greek Army Can Hold Border

Athens, March 19—(AP)—Constantine Rentsis, Minister of Public Order, said today the government had learned guerrilla attacks on Salonika between March 22 and March 30.

A Foreign said considerable military movements had been reported in Yugoslavia and Albania.

Salonika is a major port and military headquarters at the waist of Greek Macedonia. It lies about 180 miles north of Athens and 40 miles south of the Yugoslav frontier.

Rentsis said reports had been received of an international brigade in neighboring countries. Official dispatches from Athens to the U.S. State Department, made public in Washington yesterday, said three Soviet-backed international brigades were reported poised in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria for a threatened attack. The forces were estimated to total 30,000 men.
