

Start Work On Compromise Bill For Foreign Aid

Senate-House Foreign Experts Team Up To Get Measure Through This Week

Washington, April 1—(AP)—A team of Senate-House foreign experts went swiftly to work today on a final, compromise bill for a global American aid program.

The goal is to get a bill to President Truman before the week runs out. Both Senate and House will have to vote first on the compromise.

What the experts agree to will be the final terms of a program to use America's billions and military knowledge to help Europe and China hold the line against Communism.

On that broad purpose there is no disagreement between the Senate

What the house approved by a 329 to 74 ballot was a wrap-up bill to provide assistance for Europe, Greece, Turkey and China. Leaders had set April 1 as a deadline and barely squeezed the measure under

The Senate previously had passed three separate bills, one for Europe, one for China and a third for Greece and Turkey.

The basic parts of the House and Senate bills are pretty much alike. Both provide for a $5,000,000,000 one-year European recovery pro-

Both have voted for economic help for China, the House for $420,000,000 for 15 months, the Senate

In addition, the House included $150,000,000 marked definitely for military aid for China. And the Senate approved an extra $100,000,000 that could be used for any purposes, including military.

'Follies' Rehearsal In Final Stages For Appearance April 6, 7

The "Follies of 1948" presented by the Veterans Club of East Carolina Teachers College is now entering the final stages of rehearsal. Those who saw the veterans' show last year, "The Dixieland Minstrel," will remember the enjoyment it provided. This year's presentation is headed for even greater success, according to those in charge of the production.

Featuring songs, beautiful girls and hilarious endmen, the "Follies" has everything one can ask for, says Frank Hogg of New Rochelle, N.Y., who is publicity manager.

Among the many treats in store for the audience will be a scene of a fellow endeavoring to win the hand of his lady love. This routine is set to the music of "I'm A-Coming A-Courtin' On a Reel," and features Keith Kilpatrick and Daphne Jilcott, students at the college. Comedy and good music are a combination hard to beat. The comedy is provided by the entrance of Kilpatrick on his "horse" Sylvester; but, once the booming baritone of Kilpatrick goes out to the audience, the music will be the main interest of the audience.

The "Follies" will be presented on April 6 and 7 in the Austin auditorium at 8:00 o'clock.

Strength FOR THE DAY

Beware of Pessimism

A man said recently, "The trouble with our present civilization is size." Perhaps because my mind was dwelling on the disadvantages of pessimism I assumed that what he really said was, "The trouble with our present civilization is size"—that is, too many people sighing, predicting the early triumph of evil, and saying that none of our present arrangements for human improvement will work. It is true that trouble in modern life. The government realizes this and has laws against industrial combinations in restraint of trade. But it is also true that many of our best enterprises fail today because people have no real faith in them. They sigh and say that these well-intentioned plans can never be made to work successfully.

Let us adjourn this stultifying attitude. We cannot have world peace if we want it. We can turn back the evil designs of communism if we bestir ourselves and stick resolutely and courageously to our position. We can have better social conditions if Christian men and women will stand up and say that certain things have to be changed, and changed for the better.

Size is a handicap to our economy, but so are size.

STEPS TO PEACE OR THE ROAD TO WAR?

These are troubled days and their end is not in sight. The dread of war and all its entails is in the forefront of public thinking. Seldom in the pages of history will you find the people of so powerful a nation as our own, fearful of conflict.

We are so desirous of peace that we are willing to spend billions of dollars, do without comforts and some necessities in order to find that which is not only our right, but greatest need: Peace. Some among us would have "peace at any price"; but they are in a small minority. The prospects of what it would cost in human liberties is too great for the majority to stomach.

As we see it, the Administration's call for temporary conscription and military training was the obvious effort to demonstrate that even peace-loving people will no longer tolerate aggression, whether political or military. This move has been repeatedly explained as a step towards peace; perhaps the only step possible which would cause a power-conscious tyranny to halt its plans for further expansion, and bolster Democracy in embattled Europe.

There are odd twists in today's thinking. It sounds drastic to say that those who are condemning mobilization are the only method left to halt Communistic aggression, and guarantee "peace in our time," then it apparently follows that those who oppose it are the ones who would not only commit us to combat, but criminally unprepared as well.

We have tried disarmament and done our best to be "good neighbors"; it hasn't worked.

On Tuesday a witness appearing before the Senate Armed Services committee in opposition to universal military training and the draft, said he spoke for 8,500,000 adults in condemning the program.

Rest assured that The Daily Worker, Pravda and Tass will pass the word to fellow-travellers all over the world that America is ridden with disunity and the plans of its government are being rebuffed by the "friends of Russia." It could even result in the erroneous assumption that we are disinclined to oppose Communism's aggressions, and thereby lead to the spark that can touch off the conflagration.

We do not believe that this witness spoke for eight million people, but only for a small fraction thereof. We believe that his rash statement only encouraged the foes of Democracy as we know it.

We have heard, and perhaps so have you, that congressmen have been getting comparatively little mail from their constituents as to how they feel about the issue at hand. As citizens it is our duty to inform our representatives in congress so that they may act in accordance with the wishes of their districts.

The stakes are certainly of sufficient importance to us to take the trouble of voicing our own opinions; and your congressman needs all of the support he can get in these days of uncertainty. Representing you and your community is his business. Think it over.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

Washington — Mrs. Fred Vinson, wife of the chief justice of the United States, has a jam-packed date book and is always on the go.

Two or three nights weekly she and her husband must attend one of the formal dinner parties which custom prescribes that all heads of foreign missions give in their honor.

There are 68 ambassadors and ministers here. That means 68 dinners a season for the Chief Justice and his lady.

Of course they don't have to accept every invitation. But the Vinsons not only have a strong sense of duty to their government, they honestly like to go to parties.

The only trouble is, the Chief Justice must abide by protocol and leave early. No one can leave before him because he is the ranking guest. He might be keeping some early-to-bedder up.

Besides the diplomatic dinners, there are many evening affairs given by other individuals. Many private hostesses have entertained for the Vinsons this season. The other night they were ranking guests of the Congressional Club.

In addition Mrs. Vinson represents her husband at scores of afternoon functions which his duties at the Court prohibit him from attending.

And Mrs. Vinson is the only cabinet wife this year to follow tradition and have an "at home" one day a week through January, February and March.

In the old days no cabinet wife failed to have an "at home" one day a week through the social season. Many embassy and congressional wives also followed the custom. Anyone in town who wished to drop in for a cup of tea could, and usually did.

During the war the custom was dropped. It has not been resumed except by Mrs. Vinson, who says she feels it her duty as the wife of the Chief Justice.

"My 'at homes' are not big affairs as those held by cabinet wives in former years," says Mrs. Vinson. "I only serve cakes and little sandwiches and tea."

"Sometimes as many as 50 women call on me, sometimes as few as eight. It's a good way for folks to get to know each other, and it's very helpful to the newcomers."

Mrs. Vinson, in addition to these activities, helped organize and is the first president of the new Senior Congress Club, composed of the wives of senators and representatives of the 86th and prior congresses.

The club plans to have two big parties every year and has just elected a number of honorary members, including Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mrs. Harlan Fiske Stone and Mrs. Truman.

The idea of the club was that of Mrs. Walter George, wife of the Democratic senator from Georgia. The choice of Mrs. Vinson as president no doubt revolted from the fact that her husband first came to Congress with the 68th.

Mrs. Vinson says she never gets bogged down with all these goings-on. "But I guess I couldn't take it if I didn't enjoy it so thoroughly."

When I talked with Mrs. Vinson the other day she was bursting with pride. Her son, Fred, Jr., 22, who graduates this June from Washington and Lee University, had just been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, top scholastic honorary fraternity.

Not only is Fred, Jr., a star student in law but he's captain of the university's baseball team and guard on its basketball team. He won a game for his basketball team here the other night when they played George Washington U. He tossed the ball into the basket in the last four seconds.

James Vinson, 18, who also graduates this June—from St. Albans, in Washington—plays guard on his school's basketball team.

"Their graduations had better not be on the same date," says Mrs. Vinson. "We've got to be at both."

Dollar-A-Year Woman Works On Juvenile Board

By JANE KADS

Washington—Probably the youngest and best-looking dollar-a-year woman ever to work for the government is Eunice Kennedy, daughter of Joseph P. Kennedy, former U. S. Ambassador to Great Britain. She is also one of the hardest working. She's a member of Attorney General Tom Clark's staff in the Justice Department. Her main job is as executive secretary of the continuing committee of the National Conference on Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency.

The committee is made up of private citizens. It was set up to publicize the recommendations made by the National Conference after its meeting in Washington in November 1946 and to encourage communities to do something about juvenile delinquency.

The committee has distributed 40,000 copies of the handbook, which details first steps in organizing such conferences. Several states have held conferences on the prevention and control of juvenile delinquency. Among these are New Jersey, California and Georgia. In the planning stage are conferences for Arizona, Ohio, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Kentucky. City conferences have been held in Philadelphia, Kansas City and Atlanta. Many other cities are preparing similar conferences.

"The cost of handling the hundreds and thousands of children whom society calls 'juvenile delinquents,' and those who are tending toward delinquency for want of proper care and opportunity, is a bill which we pay," says the Committee.

"The bill increases hourly . . . More vital than money, the broken lives of these children rob us . . . the families and friends . . . of love and fellowship . . . the Nation of its best hope."

The committee feels that the problem is too big for any one person, or one organization. Conferences, it holds, are the most effective way of achieving concrete results. They are action conferences, not discussion conferences.

Miss Kennedy, a tall, athletic girl with coppery-colored hair distinguished by a streak of gold across the top, with keen eyes and an easy, natural manner, was born in 1922 in Boston. She attended school in Brookline, Mass., Brooklyn N. Y., and later the Convent of the Sacred Heart at Stanford, Conn. She continued her education in England while her father served as ambassador and was graduated from Stanford University in 1945.

Debating Teams Earned Honors

Debaters from East Carolina Teachers College won six contests and lost six at the Grand National Forensic Tournament held under the auspices of the Strawberry Leaf Society on March 25-27 at Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Two teams from East Carolina took part in the contests. On the affirmative team were Frank Toothman of Ayden and Nicholas Fokakis of Wilmington, on the negative were Milton Fields of Scotland Neck and James Gray of Rocky Mount.

Approximately 140 debate teams representing 62 colleges and universities participated in the debates. They came from many states in the nation, from New Hampshire to Florida to California.

In twelve debates, the East Carolina teams met as opponents George Washington University, University of Virginia, University of Pittsburgh, University of Pennsylvania, Central Michigan College, Patterson State Teachers College, two teams from the University of South Carolina, Kent State University, Anderson College, Washington and Jefferson, and Elon College. The Grand National Champion debate team was from the United States Naval Academy.

East Carolina was also represented at the tournament by Charles Williams of Erwin in poetry reading, declamation, and address reading. Dr. M. N. Posey of the faculty accompanied the students to Virginia and acted as coach-judge at the contests.

Will Chop Off Finger In Public

Whiteville, N. C., April 1—(AP)—O. D. Clewis says that next week he will place his forefinger on a block and chop it off with an axe as spectators look on.

The Chadbourne man says he'll do that on the railroad plaza in Whiteville Saturday afternoon, April 10. Clewis adds the finger on his right hand has been bothering him any way since it was bitten in an argument.

He's gained a measure of publicity in Eastern North Carolina by publicly threatening razor blades.

Tarheel Students Outnumber Others At State College

Raleigh, April 1—Eighty-three per cent of the students attending N. C. State College during the winter term were North Carolinians, a compilation of the college's enrollment figures indicated today.

The figures, compiled by the College News Bureau, showed that 4,253 Tar Heel students and 896 out-of-state scholars—including 62 from foreign countries—registered at State College last term. The total enrollment was 5,151.

Wake County, with 544 registered students, took the lead among the counties of the State in the number of students enrolled at the institution. Mecklenburg was second, with 315, and Guilford held third place, with 256. Other counties having over 100 students included Forsyth, which had 180, Gaston with 109, and Edgecombe, 101. Pitt county has 56 students enrolled.

All North Carolina counties, with the exception of Perquimans, were represented in the student body.

Forty-two states, in addition to North Carolina and the District of Columbia, were represented in the enrollment.

Order Unions To Obey Injunction

Indianapolis, April 1—(AP)—The International Typographical Union today ordered its striking locals to start new negotiations for contracts. In a bulletin labeled "Instructions and Advice," ITU headquarters warned that strikers' benefits would be withdrawn from locals failing to comply.

The bulletin announced ITU will "fully comply" with an injunction granted the government in federal district court here last Saturday.

In that decree, Judge Luther M. Swygert forbade ITU officers to carry out the union's "conditions of employment" bargaining policy. Specifically, it prohibited discrimination against non-union printers.

The injunction, however, is temporary, hanging on the outcome of a current hearing before a National Labor Relations Board examiner. The ITU bulletin orders its striking locals to "notify their employers that they withdraw all previous offers and demands." These locals are instructed to "negotiate new agreements consistent with terms of the decree."

Go-Ahead Signal On Program For N.C. Hospitals

Raleigh, April 1—(AP)—The first signal for starting construction of a hospital in North Carolina under the federal-state-local program has been given.

The notice went out this week to Beilhaven officials. The project is the 20-bed Pungo district hospital. Estimated cost is $125,000. Of that, $41,154.04 will come from the federal government, $43,257.18 from the state and $40,588.78 from local sources.

The final step before the go-ahead came this week when bids were approved by the U. S. Public Health Service, after approval last week by the State Medical Care Commission.

A study conducted in England and Wales showed that bartenders had the highest rates of heart deaths, with barbers second and physicians third. Farmers were lowest.

New Circus Has Gone Modern In Sarasota Camp

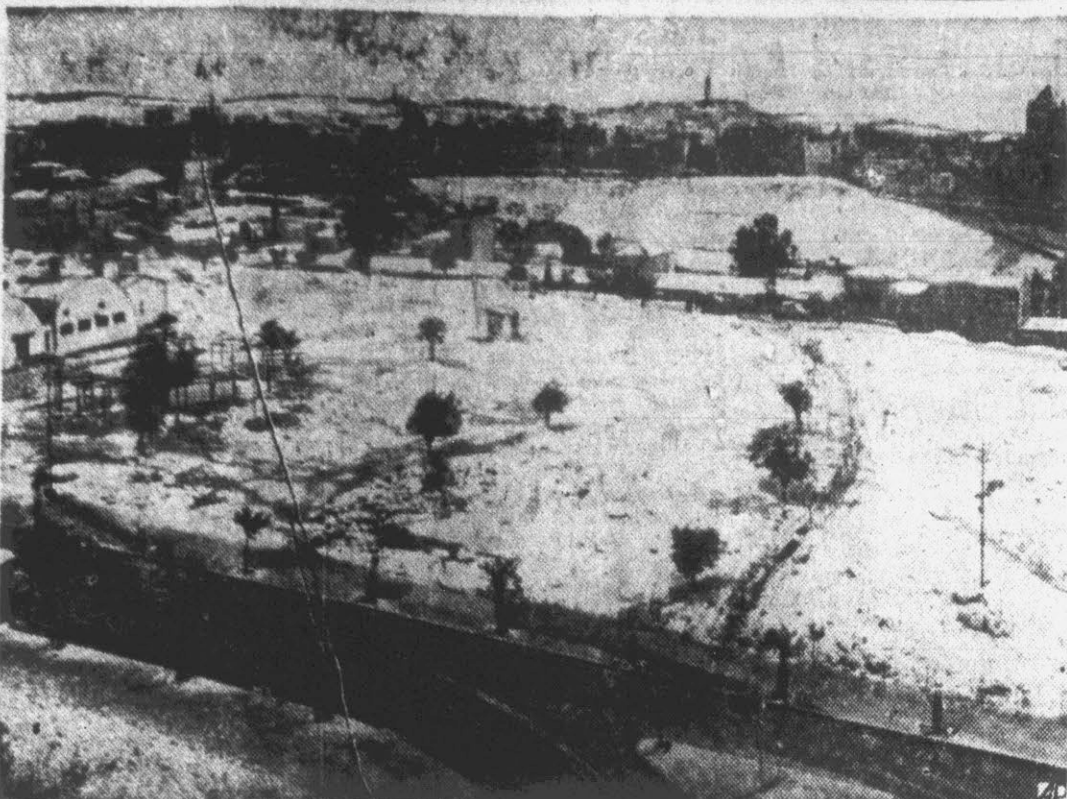

Sarasota, Fla., April 1—(AP)—The circus, more streamlined every year, now has a pre-fabricated seating arrangement. This is expected to make the whole show more mobile, more efficient, easier to set up and, incidentally, impossible to sneak into.

Each of the new seating units developed by Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey Circus will unfold to seat as many as 325 spectators. They will be used when the "Greatest show on earth" gets under canvas in May after its opening in New York April 7.

The new seats are bolted to segmented steel platforms which are folded around a large wagon. There will be 20 wagons this year to carry the circus stands with the show.

A small power motor unfolds the seat sections and raises the platform. A small crew of men places the supports in position, unfolds the seats and presto!—you have a grandstand. Meanwhile the canvas is going up and within an hour the big tent is ready for business—a process which used to require from three and a half to four hours.

The bad news for the kids without the price of admission lies in the confident claim of circus officials that the new system blocks out the possibility of sneaking under the tent. The platform makes a complete barrier around the show.

Rain Cuts Into Picket Parade

New York, April 1—(AP)—A driving rain reduced the strength of picket lines and police details today as the Stock and Curb Exchange strike went into its fourth day.

There was no evidence at the start that the walkout would spread throughout the financial district. "We'll be here after the rain is gone," chanted striking members of the AFL Financial Workers Union and their AFL seamen sympathizers.

Picket and police details were as heavy as usual at the main entrance to the Stock Exchange but there were no strikers in front of the Pine and Broadway buildings where union workers late yesterday threatened "a general strike in Wall Street."

The seamen paraded in slickers, sou'westers and sea boots. Umbrellas were passed out to members of the Financial Workers Union.

The threat of a general strike of financial workers brought a new issue in the walkout of 1,100 Stock and Curb Exchange employees.

Set To Take Off Seeking Airmen

Charlotte, N.C., April 1—(AP)—Air Force rescue planes were set to take off here today, weather permitting, to search a Western North Carolina area for two missing airmen.

The Pope Field rescue craft based here were to be joined by Civil Air Patrol and private volunteer planes. Other search planes were poised to take off from Sylva Airport.

VA Will Require More Doctors In Next 2 Months

Washington, April 1—(AP)—The Veterans Administration is looking for 1,250 new doctors, but doesn't know where to find them.

That many are expected to quit the service in May and June.

Dr. Paul Magnuson, VA medical chief, has said 5,000 beds in veterans hospitals are empty, chiefly for lack of medical personnel.

The doctors leaving the service are Navy V-12 and Army special training program physicians completing their tours of duty.

The Veterans Administration has estimated it will have to hire 2,350 new doctors, 1,500 dentists and 10,000 more nurses within the next five years.

Obliging Deputy Makes Arrest

Dobson, N.C., April 1—(AP)—Two Winston-Salem Negroes went to a rural dwelling for help when their truck broke down. It was the home of Deputy Sheriff Tom Scott.

Deputy Scott was ready to oblige. He went to the truck, found 63 gallons of corn liquor, and charged the two men with transporting.

those countries, broke out and crippled those countries some more.

At last Congress began its new session in January and started to work on the plan as it was drawn up by the experts here and abroad.

There were long hearings, long arguments, many people talking for and against the plan before congressional committees.

Now, at last, both houses after long debate have finally approved the plan although differing on some points.

Straightening out those differences will take more time, maybe a week or so. Then ERP will start pumping help into Europe.

But the communists haven't been quiet for, in the meantime—

They took over Czechoslovakia a month ago, shocking this country and 16 western European countries taking part in ERP.

Something even more stunning may be in the making right now. That's in Italy. The Italians hold their deadly important national elections April 18.

If the communists get control there—through the elections or later by force—the psychological effect on the rest of Europe will be profound.

This country has told the people of Italy they'll be shut off from ERP help if the communists come to power there.

This may persuade a number of Italians to vote against the communists April 18. Maybe. The elections will give an answer.

If Italy goes communist, the communists in France will feel their backbone strengthened and may grab for power.

If France should go communist—even while ERP is helping in the rest of Europe would tremble.

So there's no guarantee the Marshall Plan will be able to do what it sets out to do.

Demonstrators Picket Wallace In Campaign Talk

New York, April 1—(AP)—An estimated 500 demonstrators, shouting "Down with Russia! Down with Communism!" booted Henry A. Wallace last night as the third party presidential candidate carried his campaign into Brooklyn.

Bearing U.S. flags and the banners of several veterans organizations, the demonstrators marched in an endless column around a school in Brooklyn's Red Hook section where the former vice-president spoke. They continued their shouts and boos during Wallace's speech, the first of two he made before Italian-American rallies in different sections of Brooklyn.

The third party leader, outwardly unruffled by the demonstration, said in his address that U.S. foreign policy is "breeding civil war for Italy."

Wallace contended that President Truman's Administration was aligned on the side of "huge monopolies" in Italy. He charged that the United States policy was blocking Italian "reform" and asserted that if this country continues to "cater to the interests of American and Italian monopolies Italy will choose Communism or go fascist under the pressure of unresolved problems."

There was no demonstration during Wallace's second speech.

Wallace entered and left the Red Hook school house through a side door. A heavy police guard escorted him through the lines of the marchers who chanted:

"You can have him—we don't want him—he's too Red for us."

The demonstrators could be heard inside the building during Wallace's talk.

Buyers Warned War Surplus May Be Taken Back

Washington, April 1—(AP)—All future advertisements of war surplus goods will carry this warning to prospective buyers:

"Subject to withdrawal by the armed forces."

A spokesman reported this decision on the War Assets Administration today. It reflects the growing tendency of the armed services to pull leftover military property off the surplus market, for possible use in the preparedness program.

About $1,800,000,000 worth of surplus items have been withdrawn from WAA's stocks in the last 21 months for military or occupation use. Currently the Army and Air Forces are withdrawing some planes and munitions plants from the surplus lists.

Unprecedented

London, April 1—(AP)—The judge said it was "absolutely unprecedented."

Miriam Honour, who rents a furnished bed-sitting room from Mrs. V. Irving, went to court to ask that her rent be increased from $4.50 to $5.50 a week. She said it was because "of kindness shown me in difficult times in terms of cash."

A. Morris, the tribunal chairman, gulped and raised the rent.

other Western European countries have trade agreements with Madrid. Spain has many resources which are highly important to European recovery, and her sister nations obviously feel that it is better to do business with her and hope that political reform will come in due course.

However, even if you wash out the economic value of Spain to the Marshall Plan, there still remains the fact that militarily she is a vital base for the defense of Western Europe. She lies up against the narrow Strait of Gibraltar, which is the entrance to the Mediterranean. The military authorities of the Western democracies certainly don't want to lose such a strategic prize.

There is no believer in democracy who doesn't want to see a democratic government in Madrid. However, we must recognize that the most active pressure for a new government is coming not from democracies but from Communism.

Establishment of a Red regime in Madrid would give Russia the base she needs for continuation of her drive to communize all Europe.

The names of some of the mines in Idaho tell a story, such as Slim Show, Whynot, Dirty Deuce, Humdinger, Ready Cash, Second Chance and Miser's Dream.

"Buccaneers" was a term first applied to early-day French cowboys in Haiti who turned pirate when cattle raising proved unprofitable and lent their designation to all pirates.

Cancer Drive Is Ready To Start

The North Carolina Division, Inc., of the American Cancer Society, at a reorganization meeting in Raleigh yesterday, elected Dr. George W.
Mauze, Presbyterian minister of Winston-Salem, president.

Former state Senator John D.
Larkins of Trenton, was elected state campaign chairman, and Mrs.
George E. Marshall of Mount Airy, co-chairman.

Yesterday's meeting in Raleigh served to start the ball rolling in the state-wide Cancer Control Drive to raise funds with which to combat the killing disease which causes more deaths than any other ailment except heart disease. One person dies of cancer every three minutes, Mrs.
J. Vance Perkins of Greenville, commander of the cancer fund drive here the week of April 11-17 said.
Thirty persons died of cancer in Pitt county last year. In addition to raising funds for cancer research, some of the money is used to hospitalize those afflicted with cancer and who do not have the means of obtaining treatment. State Chairman John D. Larkins of Trenton said at a meeting in Greenville Tuesday night.

Other officers elected yesterday at the Raleigh meeting are J. T.
Martin of Greensboro, vice-president
Mrs. George E. Marshall of Mt. Airy executive vice-president and State commander of the field army; Myrtle Ellen LaBarr of Greensboro, secretary; and D. C. Rector of Mt.

The executive committee is composed of the officers and the following medical representatives elected yesterday: Dr. J. F. Robertson of Wilmington, president of the State Medical Society; Dr. Carl Rey-

Time-Saving Swiss Steak

You haven't time to cook a Swiss steak of regular thickness? Then order your steak cut thinner. You'll get the same delicious, browned flavor, yet it will cook tender in an hour's time.

Individual Swiss Steaks
Order	1 lb. round steak, 3/4 inch thick. Cut into 4 pieces.
Brown in	1 tsp. WILSON'S BAKE-RITE or ADVANCE SHORTENING
Season with	1 tsp. salt
	1/2 tsp. pepper
Top with	8 slices onion
	8 slices green pepper
Add	2 tbsp. water; cover tightly, and cook over very low heat about 1 hour or until very tender. Add more water if needed.
	Serves 4.

Dinner Data

Perfect accompaniments for individual Swiss steaks include mashed potatoes, brown gravy, new carrots rolled in melted Wilson's Certified Margarine or Clear Brook Butter, lettuce and tomato salad, cloverleaf rolls, and spicy apple dumplings.

It's the slow cooking with moist heat that develops that rich, full flavor of Swiss steaks... that also makes these steaks fork-tender.

Perfect Ending

Spicy apple dumplings make a perfect ending for family or company dinner. They're quickly made if you keep a jar of pastry mix in your refrigerator. Combine 6 cups flour, 2 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. baking powder (optional), and 2 cups Bake-Rite or as in making pie crust. Store in a covered jar in the refrigerator. To make 6 dumplings, just add 4 to 5 tbsp. water to 2 cups of pastry mix and finish in the regular manner.

Luncheon Logic

Here's the logical answer to your lunch problems—a smart but simple all-in-one meal. It's a tasty Mor vegetable salad. Combine 1 can Mor, cut in cubes, 2 cups shredded cabbage, 2 cups diced celery, 1/4 cup chopped green pepper, 2 tsp. grated onion, 1/4 cup chopped sweet pickle, and 1 cup Wilson's Mayonnaise. Add 4 chopped hard-cooked Clear Brook Eggs and mix carefully. Serve with cheese toast triangles and raspberry Bavarian cream for dessert.

Purchases Town In Pennsylvania

Langeloth, Pa., March 31—(AP)—Gus Barbusch, owns this community today and its 3,000 residents have every hope of avoiding the fate of a "ghost town."

Gus, an immigrant from Greece who got his start in the United States as a dish washer 36 years ago, bought the town yesterday for several hundred dollars.

A resident of nearby Burgettstown, Gus said he learned that things were looking pretty dark for Langeloth after the American Zinc and Chemical Co. decided to close its plant there.

The chemical plant, Langeloth's principal industry, had provided 800 jobs and a $9,000-a-day payroll. The company said the process in use had become obsolete and the plant wasn't worth rebuilding.

Gus—who through the years gradually acquired a store, restaurant and hotel building—went to the Burgettstown National Bank and obtained a $200,000 loan, the largest it ever advanced to an individual.

Gus then bought the Zinc Company property, including 261 homes, community hall, church, school sportsmen's clubhouse and park.

Now Gus has plans for finding a new industry to move into the empty plant. He also wants to build a baseball diamond for Langeloth and fix up that park.

"It could only happen in this country," Gus said with a smile. "My plan is to run a good town."

View Wallace As No 'Vote-Getter'

Washington, March 31—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace got a poor vote-getter rating today from both ends of the Democratic party and from the Republicans as well.

Politicians agreed that the third party Presidential candidate had an ideal sounding board during the hours he spent yesterday lambasting American military and Foreign Policies before the Senate armed services committee.

But all Senators who heard him told a reporter afterward that Wallace had swung hard and struck out.

"Undoubtedly Wallace designed his testimony as a political springboard," Senator Morse (R-ORE) said.

"But I'm certain he's going to find out that it did not spring any votes."

Southern Democrats, who are feuding with President Truman over the civil rights issue, agreed.

"I doubt that Wallace did himself any good," said Senator Russell (D-Ga.). "The only support he can hope for is from the peace-at-any price people."

Soil Conservation Speaking Contest Will Be Held Here

The Pitt county elimination of the "Soil Conservation Speaking Contest" will be held in the Agricultural Building auditorium in Greenville Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Contestants representing each high school in Pitt County will compete for county winner honors. Pitt County Farm Agent Sam C. Winchester announced today.

The contest is co-sponsored by the N. C. State Bankers' Association, Soil Conservation district and the N. C. Extension Service, and it is designed to promote better soil conservation practices among growers and to get high school students soil conservation minded.

The winner in Pitt County will meet winners from eight surrounding counties in the new Class Room Building at East Carolina Teachers College, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, April 9, to compete for district honors. The public is invited to attend these contests. The Guaranty Bank and Trust Company is giving prizes for winners and near-winners in both contests.

Fourteen Cagers Named For U. S. Olympic Squad

New York, April 1—(AP)—Fourteen cagers, probably the greatest collection of amateur players in the world, were named today to the squad which will represent the United States in the coming Olympic games.

The Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., who defeated the University of Kentucky, 53-49, in the finals of the Olympic tryouts last night, landed five men on the squad, as did the defeated college.

Phillips players selected by the 13-man Olympic Basketball Committee are:

Bob Kurland and Jesse Renick, both of whom played their college basketball at Oklahoma A&M; Gordon Carpenter and R. C. Pitts, both from the University of Arkansas, and Lew Beck, from Oregon State.

The Kentucky players selected: Alex Gross of Martin, Ky.; Cliff Barker of Yorktown, Ind.; Ken Rollins of Wickliffe, Ky., and Ralph Beard of Louisville.

Other places went to Don Barkdale of the Oakland Bitters, Vince Boryla of the Denver Nuggets, Jackie Robinson of Baylor and Ray Lump of New York University.

Alternates include Gerald Tucker, Martin Nash and Ed Beiser of the Oilers; Joe Holland, Jim Lane and Dale Barnstable of Kentucky; Ray Lipscomb and Jim Darden of the Denver Nuggets; Les O'Garra and Warren Taubee of the Bitters; Jim Owens and Bill Johnson of Baylor and Adolph Schayes of NYU.

The Phillips cagers now reign as undisputed rulers of amateur basketball, having mounted the throne with unquestioned authority by their triumph over Kentucky.

(AP) Newsfeatures Sports Editor Orlando, Fla.—The Washington Senators have a magician for a manager but it's going to take more than Joe Kuhel's clever manipulations with rabbits and cards to pull the Nats out of the second division hole.

Kuhel, former Senator and White Sox first baseman, is a member of the American Society of Magicians but even that won't help him during his first season as a big league pilot.

He may be able to put the whammy on opposing pitchers but it's hitting the Nats lack, to say nothing of what appears to be a minor league infield says for first base where Mickey Vernon has a strangle hold on the bag. Kuhel managed Hot Springs, Ark., to fifth place in the Class C Cotton States League for the Chicago White Sox last season.

The current Washington roster shows the team's top hitter to be Tom McBride, who hit an average .369. Even Vernon, who belted the ball at a .353 clip atop the American League in 1942, fell off to .265 last season. Besides, Stan Spence was traded to the Boston Red Sox during the winter and Buddy Lewis Cecil Travis and George Case have retired from the game. The team finished seventh last year, 33 games out of the pace.

Kuhel will have the same pitchers who started games for Ossie Bluege last season. Bluege now is farm director for the Senators. Back on the firing line is Earl Wynn, a first class pitcher who won 17 games, Mickey Haefner, Walt Masterson, Sid Hudson and Ray Scarborough. Behind them are Milo Candini, Marino Pieretti, Scott Cary, Bill Doster, relief artist Tom Ferrick and a dozen and a half tossers up from the minors.

"I'm going with Gil Coan in left field," says Kuhel. "Coan has been up twice before. He's only 24 and this may be the year for him to make the grade. He hit .340 for Chattanooga in the Southern Association."

"Sherry Robertson looks like my right fielder but in center the job is wide open between Leon Culbertson, Tom McBride and Earl Wynn. Larry Drake, who hits a long ball, looks good and we may find a spot for him. In the infield, Vernon is the only one set." Kuhel plans to go with John Sullivan at short. He hit .256 in 49 games last year. Second base appears a battle between Al Kozar, who hit .339 at the Orleans, and Ed Lyons, .295 hitter from Chattanooga. Veteran Mark Christman will be retained in a utility role for he has played every infield position but first base. Kuhel is going along at third base with Eddie Yost, 31-year-old Long Island lad. How long he holds the job depends on his hitting for he batted only .238 in 115 games last year.

Bashful Dodgers Still Hide Out; Same Old Club

Vero Beach, Fla., April 1—(AP)—There was a suspicion that the Brooklyn Dodgers, hiding away in the Dominican Republic, were cooking up a surprise for the other National League clubs, and would present something new and radical in the way of baseball players. Perhaps a two-headed pitcher or web-fingered infielders.

The real surprise is that Brooklyn is much the same club that won the pennant last year. A new face here and there, and with the familiar maps, belonging to Eddie Stanky and Dixie Walker, respectively, missing. But basically the same guys, switched around a little in the lineup.

In one breath manager Leo Durocher says only two players, shortstop Peevy Reese and catcher Bruce Edwards, are certain of their positions, and in the next he declares he knows who will play but asks, "why should I give it out now? We got 30 days yet."

"There's no confusion in my mind about first base," the uninhibited pilot says. "If Ray Sanders is the Sanders of old, he'll be our first baseman."

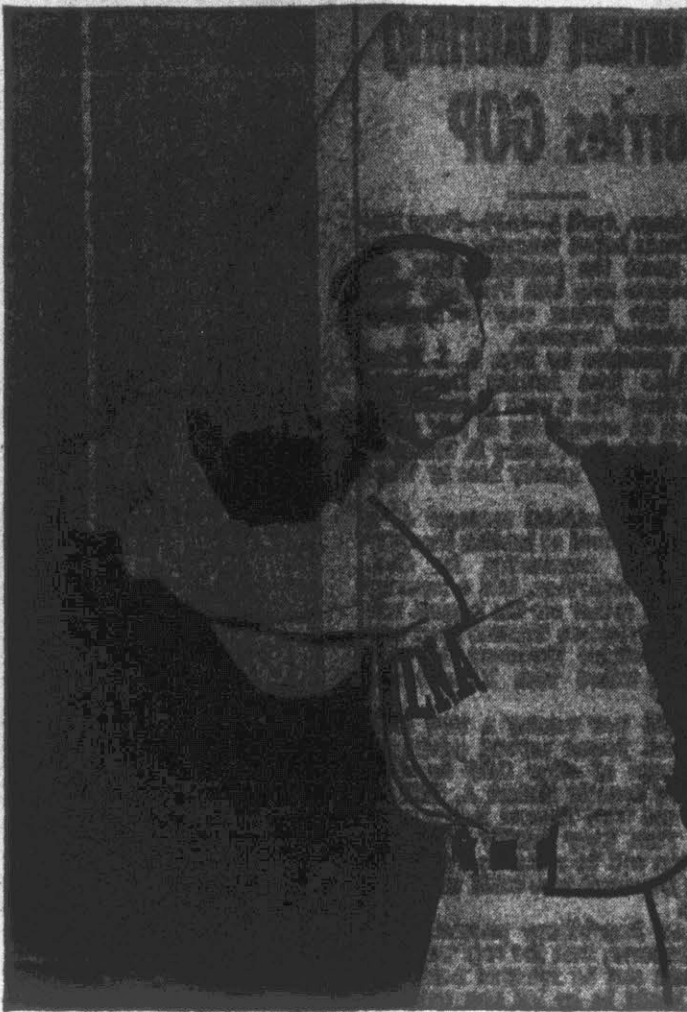

Whether Sanders is the Sanders of old remains to be seen. If he isn't, first base, and the centerfield position, present complications.

There is always Jackie Robinson to fall back on at first base, of course, and Pete Reiser has been practicing at the position. It is no secret, though, that the Dodgers would like Robinson at second, and probably Reiser back in the outfield.

Vaughan, a 36-year-old Dodger, still can outrun most of his teammates, and he is needed for the cleanup spot in the batting order.

Third-Sacker For E.C.T.C. Pirates

Jesse Boyd, hard-hitting Pirate third-baseman will start at the hot spot tomorrow when the E. C. T. C. Pirates meet the Elton nine in a North State Conference tilt. The game is to be played on the college diamond and will start at 3 o'clock. It is the curtain-raiser for the Pirates, while Elton is boasting three straight wins.

Pirates Fielding Good Team After Steady Practice

By JACK HEDGECOCK

With three weeks of steady practice behind them, the East Carolina Teachers College Pirates are readying themselves for their opening tilt against Elton College here Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Pitching, the big problem in the early days of practice, has been partially solved with the addition of Pete Reynolds, of Clinton, and Roger Thrift, of Chapel Hill, Reynolds, a newcomer to the campus of ECTC, seems to have plenty of "stuff" on the ball, and knows his way around on the hill, having played with the Castle Heights prep nine last year where his record was four wins against no defeats, including a no-hit effort.

Thrift, an outstanding freshman football and basketball athlete, shows promise of being a winner on the mound. Both men are right-handers.

Heading the mound corps is Bob "Lefty" McCotter, the most tested man on the staff. McCotter, No. 2 pitcher last year, boasted a 5-0 record for '42 and seems to be a sure repeater. A quiet, easy-going lad, McCotter has excellent control for a left-hander, and has an assortment of pitches that makes him the most valuable hurler in camp.

McCotter will probably get the starting nod from Coach Johnson in Friday's game.

Completing the lineup will be Tom Benton, first base; Ben Hayes, second base; Jack Wallace or Frank Ceruzzi at shortstop and Jessie Boyd at third base. Hayes and Boyd were two of last year's leading hitters; whereas Benton, Wallace and Ceruzzi are all freshmen.

Coach Johnson will probably have an entirely veteran outfield. Richard Ricks or Larry James will start in left, while two hefty left-handed hitters, Sam Stell and Vernon Jones, will field in center and right respectively.

George Wynne, who led the Pirates at bat last year, will start in the backstop position, backed up by the capable George Wood.

The Pirates are facing a 23-game schedule, including 12 North State Conference tilts.

City Alerted

New York, March 31—(AP)—Police Commissioner Arthur W. Wallender has alerted key officials of the city's wartime civilian defense organization "to prepare for any eventuality."

Wallender announced the alert orders yesterday, one day after Fire Commissioner Frank J. Quayle disclosed that he had ordered partial revival of the war-born fire auxiliary corps.

"This does not mean that an emergency is imminent," Wallender said. "We are merely taking a realistic point of view, in view of reports of world conditions that are being printed in the newspapers."

Orders Halt On Strikes In Japan

Tokyo, March 31—(AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters told Japan's labor today to halt regional strikes now plaguing the country.

The Communist-Influenced Communications Workers Union began short strikes by regions after MacArthur forbade a nation-wide walk-out.

Maj. Gen. W. F. Marquand, chief of MacArthur's Economic Section, in a memorandum to the Japanese government, ruled that the above layoffs were a subterfuge. Added to, he said, they amount to an industry wide strike in violation of Occupation orders.

Feller Plans On Going Distance

Tucson, Ariz., April 1—(AP)—Bob Feller unplans to pitch a full nine-inning game until the Cleveland Indians' opening game in Cleveland April 20 against the St. Louis Browns.

He may twirl seven innings, his longest route of the spring, today when the Tribe meets the Chicago White Sox. Feller claims the weather has not been hot enough for him to loosen up.

Skating Champs Begin Defense Of Titles Today

Colorado Springs, Colo., April 1—(AP)—Gretchen Merrill and Dick Button begin the defense of their national figure skating titles today.

Six women sought to dethrone the pretty Boston girl as the senior women's school figures started this morning. Yvonne Sherman of New York was given the best chance of preventing Miss Merrill from taking her sixth title.

Others after the title were Helen Uhl and Joan Swanson of Berkeley, Calif.; Dorothy Glazier of Boston; Carroll Gregory of Los Angeles, and Andra McLaughlin of New York.

Button, winner of the Olympic and world titles, starts his compulsory figures this afternoon with only three men opposing the Philadelphia. They are Jimmy Grogan and O. Austin Holt, both of Berkeley, and John A. Lettingar of St. Paul, Minn.

Improves Lot Of Blind Fishermen

Pittsburgh, April 1—(AP)—J. Melior Phillips, who'd "rather fish than eat," reported progress today in his campaign to improve the lot of blind fishermen.

Sightless for 19 years, Phillips makes little of a blind sportsman's problems in getting out to a lake, putting bait on the hook, and throwing out the line to tempt the fish.

For Phillips has aroused enough interest among sighted sportsmen to make three or four of them available for every blind sportsman in this area.

The idea is to have one sighted fisherman assist every blind one. The former goes along as a companion, lending a hand with bait or anything else needed.

With sportsmen's clubs anxious to cooperate, Phillips now is concentrating on locating blind persons interested in the sport. When enough devotees are organized, they'll ask Governor James H. Duff to set aside a well-stocked fishing spot exclusively for the blind and other handicapped persons.

"That'll be paradise!" Phillips exclaimed. "Just think of throwing in your line and feeling sure you'll get a strike!"

He said a blind man can enjoy fishing almost as much as a sighted one because "it's the pull on the line that's the big thrill—and you don't need eyes for that."

Greenies Slated To Play Tarboro

Greenville High plays their second game of the season Friday afternoon at Guy Smith Stadium at 3:30 P.M. The Serpents of Tarboro High School will offer the opposition. The Phantoms dropped their first game of the season to the strong Kingston nine and have been idle for the last ten days due to one rained out game and an open date.

The locals are in much better shape than they were in for their opener. Coach Boley Farley has used the last week to good advantage in getting the team ready. Lack of experience is the biggest handicap facing the Phantoms, only one player on the squad has ever had playing experience in high school.

Bobby Fye, a young but talented youngster will probably start on the mound with Charley Kittrell or Vann Morgan doing the receiving. The infield will be composed of Hugh Hardee, the only veteran, at first, Johnny Farley at second, Henley at short and Joe Alligood at third. The starting outfield will probably be picked from the following: Little Bland, Richard Joyner, Fred Joseph, Dave Jones, Walter Goor and Jim Tanner.

Little is known about the strength of Tarboro. They will have the advantage over the locals in that they did play baseball last spring and the Greenies did not.

Rookie Pitcher Has Good Chance

Vero Beach, Fla., April 1—(AP)—Jack Banta, hard-throwing rookie righthander of the Brooklyn Dodgers, has an excellent chance of sticking with the Brooks.

Banta, who led the International League in shutouts and strikeouts last year, blanked his former Montreal teammates without a hit for seven innings yesterday.

The lanky hurler handed over a 5-0 lead to Erv Palica and the Royals topped Palica for four runs in the eighth but wound up on the short end of a 5-4 count.

Pesky 'Adequate' As Third Sacker

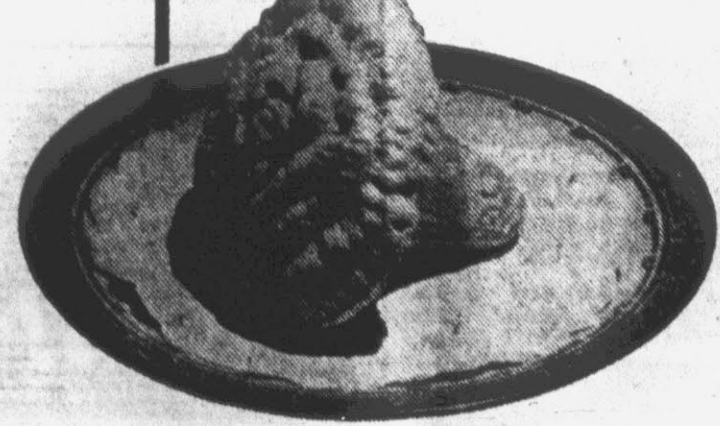

Sarasota, Fla., April 1—(AP)—Boston Red Sox players and officials are highly confident that erstwhile shortstop Johnny Pesky will be more than adequate at third base where Manager Joe McCarthy has assigned him for the season.

Pesky made a great play against the Boston Braves yesterday. Pesky felled an attempted squeeze play by grabbing Ernie White's bunt and tossing Phil Masi out at the plate.

'Albright Alley' Opens In Raleigh For Party Race

Raleigh, April 1—(AP)—Amid busing in political circles over two new blasts in the race for governor, "Albright Alley" today opened for business.

The "Alley" is state headquarters for R. Mayne Albright, who has joined two other Democratic aspirants for governor, Charles M. Johnson and Kerr Scott, in crossing the capital city and the Sir Walter Hotel as the site for the campaign.

The name of Albright's headquarters is the candidate's own. He calls his place "Albright Alley," he said, because it will be "a very unusual place on a very unusual street." One of the two campaign blasts was set off by Albright himself in a speech at Chapel Hill last night. It concerns campaign spending.

The other is in the form of a handbill which throws the ancient east-west tradition into the gubernatorial race as an issue.

Offering the platform with a rival, Oscar Barker of Durham, Albright, taking the Carolina Political Union "The real question before the people is machine control and whether elections are to be won by votes or by dollars."

"As the state treasurer and the ex-commissioner of agriculture openly violate the state election laws covering expenditures, the voters should make no mistake," he asserted. "Both Scott and Johnson are big money and machine candidates, struggling for control of the state machine."

The only difference, as Mr. Scott himself has said, is that the handbills started a little early and he thinks there is still time for him to get on—apparently with the help of Governor Cherry, the Department of Agriculture and other parts of the disintegrating machine, "Albright added."

Albright also suggested that all candidates for governor appear in at least three open meetings during the last week of the primary—once each in the east, piedmont and west. The east-west handbill brought into the open mutterings which started when Scott announced for governor. Under the tradition, Democrats usually alternate from east to west in selecting candidates for U. S. Senator, governor, lieutenant governor and House speaker.

The handbills were distributed at a rally for Johnson at Burgaw Tuesday night. They say that Alamance County, Scott's home, "has always been considered west."

Possibility Of Truman Quitting Worries GOP

Chicago, April 1—(AP)—Some Republicans began worrying openly today about the possibility that the Democrats may talk President Truman into giving way to another presidential nominee.

An assertion by Rep. A. I. Miller (R-Neb.) that balking Democrats are acting "like a pack of marauding jackals in attempting to tear down the candidacy of Harry S. Truman" was picked up quickly here by Warren Wright.

Wright, unofficial manager of a campaign aimed at landing the GOP presidential nomination for Gen. Douglas MacArthur, told a reporter he would rather see the general run against President Truman than any other available Democrat. He said he had talked with Miller about this.

Wright was voicing a view that has been passed around quietly in the camps of other GOP hopefuls such as Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. They frankly think Mr. Truman will be easier to beat than some Democrat who could unify his party.

These Republicans privately figure, however, that the only way Mr. Truman can be removed from the race would be by his own consent. But they admit that if the president okayed a switch just before his party's convention—and after the Republicans had nominated their candidate—there would have to be some fast-breaking GOP strategy changes.

As a matter of note, these Republicans talk of Secretary of State Marshall as about the only Democrat who could step so quickly into the nominee's shoes—this despite Marshall's vigorous rejection of previous political ploys.

Minus any reliable crystal ball, Republican candidates kept on directing their fire at Mr. Truman. Dewey, changing trains here today on an invasion of Wisconsin, was ready to let go with a roundhouse swing at the President's foreign policies in a Milwaukee speech tonight.

Chamber Commerce Committee Makes Recommendations

The Chamber of Commerce Transportation and Communications committee at a recent meeting considered at length six projects in the trade body's program of activities for 1948 which had been submitted to it for investigation and recommendations. Executive Secretary Willard T. Kyzer said today. Members of the committee are L. M. Buchanan, chairman; M. O. Blount II, Frank Harrington, Walter Harrington, H. K. Holder, J. B. Kittrell, H. L. Ormond, J. Knott Proctor and N. O. VanNortwick.

Following is a list of the committee's recommendations:

That application be made to the Civil Aeronautics Board as early as possible for the establishment of regular scheduled air transportation service through the Pitt-Greenville airport by airlines operating in this section of North Carolina. Such action will require the filing of a comprehensive brief showing the facilities available, need for air service, and the ability of the area to support its operation. A hearing on the application will probably be held in Washington, D. C., before the CAB.

Completion of the paving of the Stokes-Bear Grass road, Greenville-Farmville road via old Stantonburg route, and the county's program of needed farm-to-market roads.

To relieve traffic congestion on the city's streets, the committee recommended that a survey be made of the volume of motor freight handled in Greenville, to determine the feasibility of the construction and operation of a motor freight terminal, and the widening of West Fifth Street through the negro section and Dickinson Avenue west, from the A. C. L. railroad to Paris Avenue.

Piano Duo Play At ECTC Friday

Arthur Whittemore and Jack Lowe, popular duo-piano team, will appear at East Carolina Teachers College on Friday evening, April 2, in the course of a phenomenal sold-out tour of 75 engagements. To put it mildly, such bookings are unusual for a duo-piano team.

Native-born composers whose works have been played by this native-born American piano team include Morton, Gould, Aaron Copland, George Gershwin, and the comparatively unknown Kent Kennan.
