Pactolus Votes For School Bonds

By CHESTER WALSH
 At a special election in Pactolus township Saturday the citizens voted overwhelmingly for the issue of $75,000 of bonds to provide funds for erecting a new school building to replace the structure destroyed by fire last October.

A conference was held today with the County Commissioners in regard to plans for awarding the contract as soon as possible, J. P. Davenport, Sr., chairman of the Board of School Trustees, said. The new building will be one story, thoroughly modern and semi-fireproof.

the bond issue; 29 voted against it, and 17 did not register. Those who registered and did not vote were counted as voting against the issue. As it stands, 282 persons voted for the bonds and 46 against them.

Since the fire last fall, Pactolus school classes are being taught at the teachers and lunch room and at the old NYA center in Greenville. O. H. Forrest is principal of the school.

Strength FOR THE DAY

WHAT DO WE REALLY WANT?
"It is he that shall save his people from their sins."

Our first impression would be that this constituted good news to the world. As a matter of fact, it was the keen disappointment men felt over that circumstance which caused them first to reject Jesus and finally to crucify him. They wanted a Messiah who would save them from their enemies. They wanted a strong military leader like David or Joshua, who would drive the dog of a Roman from Palestine and who would set up a material kingdom which would make men everywhere tremble. When Judas discovered that that was not the kind of kingdom Jesus intended to establish, his disappointment was so keen that he went out and bargained with the high priest to deliver Jesus to them for thirty pieces of silver.

But long before this the multitude had deserted Jesus. He was not their kind. He wanted to save them from their sins, but they wanted to be saved from the abominable sinners that a Roman emperor had sent into their country to rule, to tax, and to abuse them.

And to this day we look for the coming of a kingdom which will produce some sort of an external change, not realizing that what needs to be changed before God's kingdom comes are these sinful hearts of ours.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EAPS

Washington—Bosses, soon you may be able to get the super-secretary.

The girls are trying to set up for themselves a degree, or rating, similar to that earned by the Certified Public Accountant and the Certified Life Underwriter. CPS would stand for Certified Professional Secretary. The idea was started by the National Secretaries Association, which boasts 9,000 members in 250 chapters over the United States. In cooperation with the association, the universities of Kansas and Tulsa, Okla. are conducting research with a view to setting up some sort of examination that may be set up by state boards.

Miss Louise Helfrich, top secretary with the National Savings and Loan League here, is chairman of the CPS Committee of the National Secretaries Association.

Tentative requirements for CPS candidates have been suggested by the association's chapters: 1. There probably will be a $15 fee; 2. Examination would be given twice a year. If at first you don't succeed, you can try again; 3. To pass the exams one must make a percentage of 85 and have a knowledge of office machines. Though the super-secretary may not be required to use a computer, an adding machine or what have you, she must be able to see that others operate them properly; 4. The applicant must have two to three years' experience in a bona fide secretarial capacity. She must be at least 21 years of age and have at least a high school education.

Tests no doubt will be given in commercial law, English, grammar, spelling, punctuation, synonyms, definitions, shorthand and transcription, mathematics, accounting, banking, interviews and personality. There will also probably be several elective phases such as foreign languages, legal terminology and so forth. "Sentiment among secretaries," says Miss Helfrich, "is to make the examination's requirements high enough so that we will be proud of the rating we achieve."

The whole idea is to elevate the secretarial profession. We have no intention of organizing a union, or anything like that."

The National Secretaries Association was organized five years ago and has its national headquarters in Kansas City. It will hold its annual convention in Los Angeles the latter part of June.

"Better Letters—Better Living," is the organization's motto. The initials "B" and "L" figure prominently on the members pins, which are shaped like spread wings. Miss Helfrich, who is treasurer of the association's "Presidential Chapter," here has been a secretary in Washington 13 years. She came here from Bruin, Pa., and started working with the Veterans' Administration. She has subsequently worked for the Labor and Justice departments, Smaller War plant, Corp., and OPA.

Women IN THE CHURCH

By MARY FOWLER

Representatives of Jewish, Catholic and Protestant faiths together with representatives of many interfaith and interdenominational agencies, are promoting the observance across America of "National Family Week," May 2 to 9. There will be special services and sermons in churches and synagogues and in mass meetings, challenging "our American people to create homes which will be a blessing to the men, women and children in them." Says Dr. L. Foster Wood, chairman of one of the Protestant agencies promoting the observance: "Wreckage of homes is now accumulating too fast. When our homes are wrecked, we are part of the wreckage. Our happiness, our emotional security, and the well-being and guidance of our children depend on the home."

Miss Thelma Stevens, secretary of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Society of Christian Service (Methodist), is urging the more than a million members of the Society to write congressmen during National Family Week (May 2 to 9) in favor of legislation permitting the entrance of 400,000 "displaced persons" from Europe into the United States, and their settlement in American communities. She points out that more than one-half the DP's now in Germany, Austria, and Italy are women and children, and that 80 per cent are Christians.

British-born Miss Jean Fraser, secretary of the youth department of the World Council of Churches, has just completed a visit to American churches, and is now enroute to Switzerland. She is disturbed over the failure of American churches generally to reach the "working masses." "The churches seem to have abandoned the religious for the social ministry in the great cities," she says, "leaving the Christian message to be interpreted by 'shop front' churches and sects and by other institutions. This suggests that church membership, as we understand it, is not a necessary part of the gospel message, or that the industrial worker—typical product of modern society—is not capable of Christian faith—for the sake of the spiritual health of any church it cannot retreat behind an income or occupational bracket. It needs the contribution of faith, fellowship and experience which the industrial worker can bring. This is a pioneer mission field of primary importance throughout the world."

Oppose Warlick District Judge

Charlotte, April 5—(AP)—Mecklenburg county Republicans were on record today as opposing confirmation of Judge Wilson Warlick as federal district judge for the western district of North Carolina.

President Truman submitted the nomination of the Newton jurist to the Senate last Friday.

The Mecklenburg G. O. P. executive committee adopted a resolution here Saturday that it opposed confirmation "until his controversial decisions and severe fines in the 1946 Catawba elections have been thoroughly investigated."

Judge Warlick was nominated to succeed Judge E. Yates Webb of Shelby who is retiring on pension.

The Mecklenburg Republicans voted to send this telegram to the Senate Judiciary committee:

"The Republican Executive Committee of Mecklenburg County unanimously opposes the confirmation of State (Superior Court) Judge Wilson Warlick of Newton as judge for the western district of North Carolina until his controversial decisions and severe fines in the 1946 Catawba county elections have been thoroughly investigated. We further believe that this appointment should go to a Republican as Judge Webb's retirement is obviously an attempt to get a Democratic judge appointed before the Republican victories this fall."

In the course of a 70-year life it is estimated that the human heart contracts at least two and a half billion times.

Exchange Strike In Second Week; Seek Paralysis

New York, April 5—(AP)—The strike of 1,100 unionized employees of the New York Stock and Curb Exchanges entered its second week today.

Picketing of the Exchanges and several brokerage houses in the financial district was resumed early in the day. Officials of the United Financial Employees Union (AFL) said they hoped to bring about "paralysis of the Wall Street community" in their demands for a Union shop and wage increases of $9 to $15 a week.

The county-wide 4-H Dairy Demonstration Contest was held Friday night, April 2 in the auditorium of the Agriculture Building in Greenville. The contestants were Eunice Little, Langs 4-H Club, Salls Morgan, Farmville 4-H Club; Hazel Garris, Langs 4-H Club; and Doris Whichard, Sweet Gum Grove 4-H club. Hazel Garris with her demonstration "Drink Your Way to Health" took first place and Doris Whichard with her demonstration on "Cheese Salads" was the runner-up. Hazel as first place winner, will enter in the district contest sometime in July. The judges for the event were senior students in home economics from E. C. T. C. including: Louise Caviness, Della Evans, Juanita Herrin, and Frances Bass.

During the business meeting of the 4-H county council, W. H. Pruden, Assistant Farm Agent, awarded prizes given to the 5 top winners in the sweet potato contest by the Colonial Stores. They were as follows: Dalton Rollins, $25.00 as first place winner, Sweet Gum Grove Club; Hilton Brannon, $15.00 as second place winner, Pactolus Club; Mark Smith $10.00 as third place winner, Bell Arthur Sr. Club; Bobby Edwards, $5.00 as fourth place winner, Pactolus Club; and William Owens, $5.00 as fifth place winner, Farmville 4-H Club.

Guests for the evening included: Dr. Rut Wallentin, United Nations Fellowship Student from Sweden; Mrs. Fred Langford, Home Demonstration Agent; Miss Verna Belle Lowery, Assistant Home Agent; Mrs. Ruel W. Tyson, Secretary to Home Agent; Mrs. W. F. Whichard, Mrs. A. A. Garris and Miss Tabitha M. DeVisconti from Farmville.

lacks a majority. Then he fills his cabinet with members of his own party and other parties, hoping in that way to get enough support for a majority vote in Parliament. If he doesn't get it, he and his cabinet resign. Then the president must pick another premier. He in turn chooses a cabinet and tries to get a vote of confidence.

If the Communists and their allies win a majority of seats—they're not expected to—the president will have to choose a Communist as premier.

Then, backed by his group's majority in Parliament, the Communist premier can pack his cabinet with his own people and run the country.

Suppose, though, the Communists get a big vote but not enough for a majority in Parliament. These four things can happen:

1. The president can select a premier from one of the non-Communist parties. If they stick together they'll have a majority and can out-vote the Communists.
2. If they don't vote together—if some of them join forces with the Communists because they don't like the premier or his cabinet choices—the Communists can block any vote of confidence.

3. The outnumbered Communists probably would support—at least for a while—a non-Communist who chose Communists for a few important jobs in his cabinet. Once in there, the Communists might try to run the whole show.
4. If the Communists, although lacking a majority, get a big vote and the majority non-Communist try to keep them out of the cabinet, it may mean civil war.

Right now Italy has a temporary president and non-Communist premier whose cabinet is non-Communist.

But that's because the Communists and their left-wing Socialist allies have only about 170 of the 556 seats in the temporary assembly.

Greenville, S.C., April 5—(AP)—Planes from the Fifth Rescue Squadron at Pope Field, N. C., combed western North Carolina and northern Georgia today in a continuing search for two missing Durham, N. C. pilots.

them have needed not only the material aid but the fillip in morale which comes from getting that aid and knowing that America stands with them.

The Marshall plan of course forges another link between the United States and the Eastern hemisphere—both Europe and Asia. Like it or not, America is committed to participation in global affairs.

More than that, America has emerged from the war as the greatest power on earth. Thus it is a hopeful sign to see her devoting her vast influence and great resources to the task of world rehabilitation and the defenses of weak nations against aggression.

The Marshall plan calls for the expenditure of a vast amount of money. It is partly altruistic but not wholly so, for it involves self-defense and security. Should western Europe and China fall under the domination of totalitarian Communism, it would greatly multiply the Red threat against the United States.

In any event, the cost of the Marshall program is infinitesimal as compared with the expenditure of life and money in another world war. If it brings peace and safety, it will be cheap indeed.

Parliament, chooses the premier from one of the parties in Parliament.

Then the premier picks a cabinet. It's called the government. The top jobs are in the cabinet, like foreign minister, minister of the interior, and so on.

Then the premier and his cabinet have to get a vote of confidence—meaning at least a majority vote—from Parliament.

When a premier's party has a majority in Parliament, getting a vote of confidence is easy. He can even make up his cabinet entirely of his own party members.

It's not so easy when his party

...and still more is on the way!

1. Last year, this country used more oil than the whole world did in 1939 — before World War II.
2. There are 3,000,000 more cars on the road than there were before the war. And the average motorist is using 50 more gallons of gasoline per year in his car.
3. 25% more buses — 30% more trucks — serve you now than before the war.
4. Farmers have doubled their use of time-saving, work-saving tractors, trucks, and other equipment since pre-war!
5. 1,500,000 more home owners heat their homes with oil than in 1939.
6. Today, production of petroleum products has reached an all-time record high — 61% greater than before the war and 12% greater than the peak year of war-time production!
7. But you still need lots more oil. And that means new, expanded facilities for finding, producing, transporting, refining, and delivering more oil. And that's the job America's oil industry is working on right now — around the clock and with sleeves rolled up!

THE JOB AHEAD is a big job, calling for big plans and big performance.

ONE BILLION DOLLARS . . . that's one thousand million dollars . . . is what this one company and its affiliates are spending in 1947 and 1948 to modernize and expand production and facilities at the greatest rate in our history.

And that's only part of the story. During the next few years, reports indicate, the oil industry—as a whole—is planning to spend 13 BILLION DOLLARS to do this job.

HAUNTED HOLIDAY

By Cameron Dockery

Chapter 6
"Well that's all I can tell you," Simeon Mannley said. "The money is still here at Kalanah; no one has been away in a week."
Vince frowned. There were still a dozen questions he wanted answered before he even ventured a guess, but Mannley seemed disinclined to discuss it further; he fingered his gold cigar-cutter impatiently.
"Look here, my boy, as Sonia said, I'm not being a very good host. Let's postpone this discussion, — now I want to show you my game room."
The game room of which Mannley was obviously proud was a strange combination of Alaskan and tropical trends. Running the length of the long wall behind the bar was a realistic cyclorama of Diamond Head and Waikiki. Hand-carved totem-poles from Kodiak supported the huge fireplace and polar and cinnamon bear skins were scattered over the floor.
But a display of hunting knives along one wall drew the naval officer's interest. Mannley following his eyes lifted one of the exhibits from its leather support.
"My favorite—it was given me by the chief pearl diver at Apia; it's a shark knife. Said he killed at least thirty with it."
His eyes creased the weapon. It was a beautiful bit of workmanship. The stiletto-type blade came to a needle point and the black wooden handle was inlaid with Mother-of-pearl. Vince's fingers gripped and released it.
At Sonia's insistence Mannley organized a roulette game but it was a failure. The Donovans evidently didn't care to risk any money and wouldn't participate even at Mannley's offer to stake them, and Vince was too tired to concentrate, finally even Mannley succumbed to their lack of interest.
"It's twelve o'clock. I move we adjourn until tomorrow," he said. It took several minutes for Vince to realize that Dr. Palmer was too embarrassed to undress casually before his new roommate. It astonished and amused him and finally

A project which was started two years ago has finally become a reality. Children at Fleming Street school are now swinging, sliding, climbing and enjoying their playground equipment. There are now six swings, two sliding boards, a castle-tower, a giant stride and a basketball court to encourage the healthy play development of the six hundred eighty children. We are grateful to patrons who contributed so that this equipment could be realized for our community.

Once Near Battle Victim Is Big Hope For Athletics

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
West Palm Beach, Fla.—Don't be surprised if someday they make a movie on the career of Leland (Lou) Victor Brisse, Jr.

He's the handsome 34-year-old southpaw pitcher they left for dead on the battlefield but who has come to life in a big way in the camp of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Connie Mack believes Brisse someday will become greater than Lefty Grove. And Mack always ranks Grove as baseball's top southpaw.

A modest youth, Brisse sets the opposition down like an oldtimer despite the fact that he has only one good leg and very little of the other.

A German shell almost ended Lou's career. In Northern Italy his infantry outfit was called to help an advance echelon in trouble. A shell exploded in the midst of the American soldiers. Eleven were killed outright. Brisse was hit by 21 shell fragments. Stretcher bearer after stretcher bearer passed him by. He lay in a creek bed for hours. When the medical corpsmen finally picked Lou up the doctors decided to amputate his left leg. It was badly infected and crushed. His right leg, too, was broken. "You can't amputate," protested Brisse. "Then I'd never be able to play ball again. I'm a pitcher." He was told he'd never walk again. "I'll take that chance," he said. It took 40 blood transfusions and 23 leg operations over a two-year period to save his life.

Brisse now wears a specially made aluminum brace under his pants or baseball stocking. He'll always need the brace because his left leg is practically all bone and a half-inch shorter than his right. "It's what they call a split skin graft," says Lou. "The muscles have grown to the graft. The shinguard buckles in the back like a catcher's."

Discharged from the Army late in 1945, Brisse pitched batting practice for the A's in 1946. Last season he played his first professional baseball, pitching for Savannah, Ga., in the Class A South Atlantic (Sally) League. He won 25 games, losing only six. His 1.91 earned run average led the league. He fanned 278 and allowed only 167 hits in 264 innings.

He fields like a fifth infielder. You've got to see his speed off the mound to believe it. "It's doubtful if Brisse has enough experience," says Connie Mack. "But he has everything. He has the height and weight and is bound to become a truly great pitcher."

"Brisse covers first base like a veteran major leaguer and can handle a bunt as well as anybody. He's very alive in the box. We finished one game out of the first division last season and I think Brisse will help us even though I'm not positive about using him as a regular starter."

Manager Ben Chapman of the Phillies says Brisse is faster than his $60,000 rookie, Curt Simmons, but that Simmons has a better curve.

"But remember," says Chappy. "Brisse is about 215 pounds and about six-foot-five and when he throws that ball he's throwing down hill."

Brisse was married in April 1944, just before he went overseas. He resides at Ware Shoals, S.C. with his wife and year-old daughter, Vic.

Evansville Club Loses To Chiefs

Four errors enabled Hartford of the Eastern League (Class A) to score four unearned runs and defeated Evansville of the Three-I League (Class B), 6 to 4, in an exhibition game at Guy Smith Stadium Sunday afternoon before 675 cash customers.

It was the third victory in four games for Manager Earl Browne's Chiefs and the first pre-season tilt for Manager Bob Coleman's Braves, who are training here.

Second sacker John Hennerich, St. Louis boy who played with Hartford last year, was the outstanding performer. He slammed a home run over the left field wall in the second inning to give Evansville its first run and his single to center in the ninth with two out and two on base produced the Braves' final two runs.

In the fifth, Hennerich drove a long one into left center that Outfielder Verrier snatched with his back against the wall.

Hartford got 10 hits off Glenn Thompson, San Senquefield and John Walsh while the Braves garnered seven off Allen, Fasulo and Fox.

Evansville will play Pawtucket of the New England League (class B) in an exhibition game Wednesday night at Smith Stadium and will tangle with Eastern N. C. State teachers Thursday afternoon. The line score: Hartford 012 000 012-6 10 2 Evansville 010 001 002 4 7 4 Allen, Fasulo (5), Fox (7) and Sullivan; Thompson, Sanquefield (6) Walsh (9) and Baldwin, Mullin (6).

DIAMOND DUST

By BERT MOYE

The following letter, dated April 2, from Robert W. Doby, president and business manager of the Greensies, at their training camp at Barlow, Florida, was received Sunday and is the news to date on the training activities of the Greensies:

"I have just returned from a three day trip to Thomasville, Ga., where the Detroit Tigers minor league team are training. From Detroit I bought Outfielder Ray Phillips, a 22-year-old boy who hit 314 for Thomasville last year and who was scheduled to go to Durham this year. Included in his last year were 34 doubles. He had 16 stolen bases.

"From Tampa, Florida, I bought first baseman Wiley Nash. Nash is a veteran who played third base all last year for Tampa and hit .306 in the Class C Florida-International League. In 1946 he was with Deland in the Florida State League as a first baseman and hit .342 and had 99 RBIs. Also from Tampa I bought limited service player Danny Laszlas who is a good fielder although not much of a hitter.

"We played our first game last night (Thursday April 1) and shut out the Orange Belt League, 12-0. Barlow were league champions last year and have a roster composed of many men who are former minor league players and who play winter ball in the Cuban league. Arroyo and Schmidt did the pitching for us and allowed only one hit. Arroyo struck out 12 of the first 15 men he faced in the five innings he worked and Schmidt added six more SO's in his four innings. Shortstop Tom Scoble had three hits, including a home run and a double. Altogether we had 17 hits and played errorless ball. Friday night the Greensies played Ft. Meade and Sunday they played Frostproof, then a three game series with Tallahassee starting Monday.

"Don't promise too much for us. Just say that Bill and I are satisfied with the way the team is coming along and that we expect to be in the thick of the battle this year. The boys are hustling and seem to want to play ball. Charlie Chute and Paul Simmons, our two holdovers from last year who are down here, are both elated and feel that the group here is far ahead of the team last year. We have had good weather and the boys are in great shape."

A 17-inch trophy dedicated to the memory of Ed W. Davis, Wilson sports editor and enthusiast, who died last November, will be presented annually to the most valuable baseball player of the Charles L. Coon High School in Wilson. Mrs. Davis and Miss Pauline Ruffin are giving the awards.

Have you any sports magazines lying around the house that you have read and want to give to a good cause? During the past week a request was asked of me by one of the men connected with the prison camp across the river if I could get together some magazines along sport lines to give to the boys over there to read during their spare time. He told me that the boys over there were great lovers of all sports and were particularly interested in the Greensies baseball team. So if you have any of these magazines lying around the house that you would like to donate to a good cause, either bring them to the Daily Reflector office or call me at 3608 and I will be glad to see that they are given to the boys out there at the prison camp.

College Boxers Bid For Olympics

Madison, Wis., April 5—(AP)—The eight best Collegiate boxers in the country hope to represent the U. S. in the Olympics.

The top ringmen from colleges won their championships in the NCAA meet here Saturday night and qualified automatically for the U. S. Olympic tryouts, scheduled June 28-29 at Boston.

University of Wisconsin boxers again monopolized the NSAA awards winning the team title for the fourth straight year and taking half of the championships.

Light Charley Davey of Michigan State and middleweight Herb Carlson of Idaho were the only champions to repeat from last year. Davey won his third title when he whipped Wisconsin's Bob Apperson, and Carlson took a split decision from Gerry Auclair of Syracuse—were eliminated in semi-final bouts.

Other champions named Saturday are: Ernie Charbonneau of Michigan State, Flyweight; Doug Ellwood of Louisiana State, featherweight; and four badgers—Bantamweight Steve Gremban, welterweight Don Dickinson, lightweight Cal Vernon and heavyweight Vito Paris.

Two defending champions—middleweight John Lendenski of Wisconsin and bantamweight Gerry Auclair of Syracuse—were eliminated in semi-final bouts.

Pirates vs. Elon

The BCTC Pirates meet Elon's baseball nine this afternoon at 2:30 on the college diamond. The game was originally scheduled for last Friday but was postponed due to wet grounds.

Bob "Lefty" McCotter, No. 1 Pirate hurler, is slated to toil for Johnson's aggregation, who will be attempting to open their season with a win.

Tomorrow afternoon the Pirates play host to Doc Newton's Guilford Quakers with game time set at 2:30 also.

On the mound for the Pirates will be Pete Reynolds, a young righthander who has plenty of speed with a good curve. Bill Pulp, probably the most effective pitcher the Pirates have when the going gets tough, may throw for a couple of innings if needed.

One Dollar Goes To R. Graziano

Washington, April 5—(AP)—Wim, lose or draw, Middleweight Champion Rocky Graziano will receive exactly $1 for his 10-round, non-title bout with Sonny Horne tonight.

Graziano is turning over his entire purse, expected to be around $15,000 to charity. He's even paying all his training expenses while here.

There is a reason for Rocky's generosity.

The boy from New York's East Side has been barred from the ring in his home state for failing to report an attempted bribe. Illinois and 13 other states have ruled him out because he once went AWOL from the Army.

Naturally Graziano is eager to improve that report card and get back in grace.

This is especially true since he has been offered a reported $120,000 to defend his title against the former champ, Tony Zale, on June 9.

There's just one gimmick in all these fancy plans. That gimmick is Sonny Horne, of Valley Stream, Long Island, N.Y.

Horne is a cute boxer, a fellow who never has been knocked out. He fought Graziano once before, two years ago, and lost a split, highly controversial decision.

If Horne can stay away from Graziano's terrific punches, he could sneak through to an upset.

Before the thermometer was invented, physicians measured body heat with their hands.

Twin Victories Against Kinston

Guy Smith, Jr., the little southpaw for the Greenville Midgents pitched two-hit ball as the Mites defeated Kinston Red Devils 3-2 Saturday afternoon.

Smith, a little shaky at the start, settled down and pitched good ball the rest of the game. Greenville's scoring came in the second, third and seventh innings as they scored 1, 4 and 2 runs respectively.

Harrison, who got two for four, led Greenville at bat.

Glenn Scott, Jr., who is a classy infielder, showed up well on defense as did Sidney Britney and Eddie Farley. Joe Rowland was outstanding as a catcher; only one man stole a base on him.

Vainwright and Clark shared mound duties as the Intermediates won in extra innings over Kinston, 8-5.

It was the big bat of Walter Perry, who batted four runs in, with a triple and two singles for five times at bat who led the batting assault.

Vainwright and Clark each gave up three hits; Vainwright was relieved in the fourth by Clark.

The starting lineup: Odom, catcher; Lupton, 1b; Sawyer, 2b; Perry 3b; Flys, ss; Billy Brady, lf; Bobby Bradshaw, cf; Joe Clark, rf; Julian Vainwright, p.

Jones, for Kinston, struck out 16 men but was very wild at times.

"Don't promise too much for us. Just say that Bill and I are satisfied with the way the team is coming along and that we expect to be in the thick of the battle this year. The boys are hustling and seem to want to play ball. Charlie Chute and Paul Simmons, our two holdovers from last year who are down here, are both elated and feel that the group here is far ahead of the team last year. A 17-inch trophy dedicated to the memory of Ed W. Davis, Wilson sports editor and enthusiast, who died last November, will be presented annually to the most valuable baseball player of the Charles L. Coon High School in Wilson. Mrs. Davis and Miss Pauline Ruffin are giving the awards.

Pittsburgh Bats Show New Power

Phoenix, Ariz., April 5—(AP)—Pittsburgh Pirate Manager Billy Meyer was highly pleased today over the Bucs' second straight win over Cleveland whom the Bucs defeated Sunday, 5-2. But more than that he was pleased with suddenly revived hitting power. The Bucs blasted 12 hits. Frank Gustine led with three, including a double.

SHEDS DIRT...STAYS WHITE...

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT CLEANS ITSELF!

Outside surfaces stay fresh and clean-looking when finished with DuPont House Paint. Dirt and grime can't get a grip—rains just wash them away!

SELF-CLEANING DuPont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it, and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because "self-cleaning" is gradual wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected.

SELF-CLEANING DuPont House Paint is as durable as it is beautiful . . . protects against rust, rot, and decay . . . gives lasting beauty and protection. Costs no more than ordinary paints—saves repainting bills! Call or a reliable painter for your painting job, and ask him to use DuPont House Paint!

The trial started Dec. 8.

Miners Choose To Fight It Out

Pittsburgh, April 5—(AP)—Soft coal mining remained at a standstill across the nation today as the United Mine Workers tacitly answered a government anti-strike injunction thus: "No pension, no work."

Only a fistfight at a West Virginia strip mine disturbed the walk-out calm.

Reports rolling in from state after state were the same. The coal diggers — 400,000 UMW members across the nation—chose not to work.

Wes Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky, Indiana, Alabama, Tennessee, Maryland, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, and Virginia were among the states reporting miners still idle.

Fists swung in West Virginia at a clash between 100 roving pickets and employees of a non-union mine of the Grafton Coal Company. A truck driver was reported hurt. C. E. Compton, president of the company, said the pickets ripped out electric controls at his firm's Tipple, putting it out of commission.

Officials reported pickets set up two road blocks in the Clarksburg, W. Va., region to stop non-union strip mining.

U. S. steel was among the latest steel firms to tighten its belt. It shut off the equivalent of two Pittsburgh area blast furnaces. It had banked one here previously.

Suicide Is Heard Over Telephone

Atlanta, April 5—(AP)—A traveling salesman, who invited newspapermen to watch him jump from a hotel window Saturday but found no takers, shot himself to death yesterday while telephoning his wife.

Police identified him as J. D. Byrd, 49, of Camden, S. C.

Detectives W. M. Holland and J. F. Helms said Byrd called his wife at her home at 2 p. m. The hotel telephone operator told them she had connected the parties a few moments before hearing the shot, the detectives said.

DICK STOKES IMPROVING
Richard C. Stokes, Jr., prominent American tobacco official, who was taken ill at his camp, Summer Haven, on Pamlico river, Sunday morning, was very much improved at Tayloe hospital in Washington this afternoon. He was cheerful and wants to come home, Mrs. Stokes said.

Note Vocational Training Needs

Raleigh, N. C., April 5—(AP)—The present program of vocational education in North Carolina public schools is in "adequate" a committee of the state education commission reported today.

The education commission, which is conducting an intensive study of the state's public schools, began a two-day session today to receive reports from 15 committees which have been studying various school problems.

The committee on vocational education, headed by Harry B. Caldwell of Greensboro, reported that "only a small percentage of our students have access to any vocational at all and only a favored few in the large urban centers have any choice in vocational subjects."

Among other things the committee recommended: "that the state set some minimum standards for high school size and then provide state funds for construction and equipment;" that "vocational instruction must be provided for all areas regardless of local ability to supplement salaries and travel expense;" that "enabling legislation should be adopted which will permit two or more school administrative units to join together in providing specialized training on an area basis;" and "that provision should be included for pre-vocational and 13th and 14th year training."

County Board In Session Today

The Pitt County Board of County Commissioners, in regular monthly session at the courthouse today, transacted routine business, conferred with members of the County Board of Education and the Pictolus School Board of Trustees concerning awarding of the contract for the building of the new Pictolus school, for which $75,000 of bonds was voted last Saturday, and evidenced a spirit of full cooperation; heard a report from the county superintendent of welfare, and made some recommendations.

Brown Hodges of Grifton presided for Jasper Smith of Bethel, who was unable to attend.

The commissioners today approved a $15,000 appropriation for preliminary plans for the hospital.

The board received a deed to the Mays property on the Falkland highway, opposite the radio station, for the proposed 120-bed modern hospital to be built jointly by the federal and state governments and Pitt County, and passed a resolution of thanks.

The commissioners last Wednesday conferred with the Pitt County Hospital Committee concerning the proposed new hospital. Thurman Williams of Grifton, co-chairman, represented the Hospital Committee for Chairman Stewart Carr, who is in Europe at this time.

Four Marines In Hands Of Reds

Shanghai, April 5—(AP)—Four U. S. Marines presumably fell into the hands of Chinese Communists today after surviving an emergency plane landing in Communist territory.

The crew of an observation plane saw the four crewmen leave the downed craft and were taken into custody by troops which appeared to be Communist.

The crash landing occurred near Hungamiyal, 18 miles west of Tsingtao.

It was entitled: "Dried eggs in sight."

Spring Weather Prevails In U. S.

Chicago, April 5—(AP)—Pleasant spring weather prevailed over virtually the entire nation today.

Temperatures generally were mild throughout most of the Midwest and eastward to the Atlantic. Cooler weather was reported in the northern plains area and most of the Pacific coast states but it was only slightly below normal.

The only rainfall during the past 24 hours was in lower Michigan, southern Iowa, northwestern Illinois and along the west coast northward from northern California. All the showers were light and scattered.

Continued warm, dry weather was noted in some sections of the Midwest where farm operations have been delayed because of muddy fields.

Saturday's dust storm in western Kansas, at first believed to have caused widespread damage to the winter wheat crop, was minimized somewhat yesterday. Three Fort Fy's agronomists said that in a 600-mile tour of the area they found only minor damage in scattered fields.

Recruitment Of Teachers, Theme Of ECTC Meeting

Recruitment of teachers for the public schools of the state will be the theme of a conference at East Carolina Teachers College on Friday and Saturday, April 24. Principals, superintendents, and chairmen of boards of education throughout eastern North Carolina have been invited to attend and to take part in discussions of the problems of securing candidates for teacher training and holding good teachers in the profession.

Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, director of field services at the college, is in charge of planning the conference and has announced the program for the two-day session.

Dr. Ralph McDonald of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the division of higher education of the National Education Association, will make the principal address Saturday morning on "What Has the Teaching Profession to Offer Prospective Teachers?" A panel discussion on recruitment will be held also on Saturday morning and present as speakers Mrs. Phebe Emmons, teacher in the Washington, N. C. schools; Principal O. H. Boettcher of Snow Hill; Superintendent Ray Armstrong of Goldsboro; Mrs. Paul Davenport, Sr. of Pictolus, representing Parent-Teacher organizations; and President John D. Messick of East Carolina Teachers college.

More Germans To Give Testimony

Boston, April 5—(AP)—More German witnesses were scheduled to take the stand today as the treason trial of former American Newsman Robert H. Best entered its second week in federal court.

Best, formerly of Sumter, S. C., is charged with broadcasting propaganda over Radio Berlin and making recordings beamed by short-wave to the United States during the war.

Prosecutor Tom de Wolfe introduced some of the alleged Best recordings over objections of the defense shortly before the court recessed for the weekend.

At least 4,000,000 Americans have some form of heart trouble, according to the American Heart Association, Inc.

Concerned Over Lower Demand For U.S. Cotton

Manchester, England, April 5—(AP)—Fuller E. Callaway, Jr., of La Grange, Ga., chairman of the board of the American Cotton Manufacturers Association, expressed serious concern today at the decrease in world consumption of American cotton.

speaking at the first general session of the Anglo-American cotton textile industry conference, Callaway urged the Lancashire cotton textile leaders to consider the quality and abundant quantity of natural fibres produced by America growers.

"It is disturbing to note the great decrease in consumption of American cotton in the United Kingdom, a decrease which is apparently far greater in ratio than the decrease in cotton goods production," he said.
