Colombia Breaks Relations With Soviet; Hold Agents

Government Declares Communist Insurrection Brought About Brief Anarchy; Fifteen Foreign Agents Found; Pan-American Conference May Be Resumed

By The Associated Press Colombia has broken diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia, the government radio said today, following the arrest of two Russian agents in connection with the revolution which devastated downtown Bogota, killed more than 300 Colombians and forced a revision in the government.

The government declared a "Communist Insurrection" had brought about the mob fury which ruled Bogota and other large Colombian cities for two days and disrupted the inter-American conference.

In calling home their diplomatic representatives to Russia, the Colombians took the same action that had been ordered last October by Brazil and Chile.

The official Bogota radio said 15 foreign agents in all had been found some of them alive.

The broadcast announced that the inter-American conference will resume in Bogota "so that Communism could not triumph over Colombia and the rest of the nations of the Hemisphere." Possible joint action against Communism by the American nations is one of the problems slated for discussion in the sessions.

The government declared the revolution effort was ended and that it controlled the situation today. As in confirmation, a dispatch filed through the U. S. state department said that Bogotans at dawn today began coming out of their homes in numbers unequalled since Friday.

They saw a city wrecked as if in an air raid. Public buildings, Roman Catholic churches and stores had been burned and looted. Army officers firing at snipers, had blasted the spire of Santa Barbara church.

The whole country was under martial law and a state of siege imposed by the new coalition cabinet.

The revolt against President Mariano Ospina Peres mainly conservative government grew out of the fatal shooting Friday of Jorg Eliezer Gaitan, liberal leader.

A new Conservative-Liberal cabinet headed by Liberal Darrio Echanandia as minister of government was formed Saturday and took office yesterday. The government claimed last night to have control.

Barranquilla, Cartagena, Medellin and Cali were among cities outside Bogota reported to have suffered from rioting.

The capital itself was short of food its 325,000 or so inhabitants and for conference visitors from 21 American republics. It waited to see whether workers, after a relatively quiet Sunday, would stay out today in a general strike begun with the Rebellion.

Top Diplomatic And Defense Men Are Heard Today

Forrestal, Lovett, Royall, Sullivan And Symington Give Testimony

Washington, April 12—(AP)—Congress called top diplomatic and defense officials to testify today on plans to draft military manpower to back up American foreign policy.

Summoned before the House Armed Services Committee's opening hearing were Secretary of Defense Forrestal, Acting Secretary of State Lovett, Secretary of the Army Royall, Secretary of the Navy Sullivan and Secretary for Air Symington.

They were to give their views on a bill by Chairman Andrews (R-NY) which would make men 19 through 25 subject to induction—when President Truman decides voluntary enlistments will not fill out the armed forces' ranks.

Mr. Truman has called for the military expansion to give added force to the stop-Russia goal of the European Recovery Program.

The Andrews measure also would increase the Air Force from 85 to 70 air groups by July 1, 1950. Although Forrestal has opposed the aerial boost as too costly, Air Force supporters have gained mounting backing from Congress, which holds the military purse strings.

While congressional approval of the stand-by draft and a greater Air Force appeared likely, possibly within the next month, action on Universal Military Training seemed most remote.

The Senate Armed Services Committee scheduled a closed door session later in the day to hear Forrestal and Royall testify on UMT. Gen. Omar Bradley, Army Chief of Staff, also was to appear.

Forrestal submitted the Administration draft and UMT bill last week. It asked for registration of all men from 18 to 45, and induction of men from 18 through 25. It would aim at a 1,734,000-man total for the armed forces; 782,000 for the Army, 462,000 for the Navy, 90,000 for the Marines, and 400,000 for the Air Force.

Two L-15's and one C-47 were dispatched to Gainesville, Ga., to aid in the search for Mrs. R. D. Johnson, missing in her civilian converted PT-19 since leaving Athens, Ga., for Gainesville last Friday.

Dispatches to the paper said two persons were killed and 22 injured when a bomb was tossed into the midst of a Communist-dominated popular front rally at Lizzanello near Lecce yesterday.

Ciuseppe Calasso, front candidate for the Chamber of deputies in Sunday's national elections, was reported injured.

Only the stoppage of street cars and buses indicated to Rome residents that the general strike was on. The CGIL had announced that the city's telephone service would be suspended during the strike, but the phones kept working.

Many stores remained open, the employees apparently ignoring the strike call. Government offices said they were working normally. Factories, however, were idle.

The south Italy bombing, if true would emphasize the growing hostility to the Communists demonstrated throughout Italy in the closing week of the election campaign.

Raise Question

Lake Success, April 12—(AP)—Refusal of the Czechoslovak government to debate charges against it raised a new question today for the Security Council.

A formal council session was set for 2:30 p.m. (EST) to receive the Prague government's answer to an invitation extended last week to take part in the discussion.

The council is considering charges by Chile that Russia interfered in Czechoslovak affairs and helped Communists there seize the government in February. It must decide what to do next.

Push Drive For Palestine Truce

UN Security Council Delegates Called In For Conference

New York, April 12—(AP)—The United States stepped up today its determined drive for a truce in Palestine.

United Nations Security delegates were called to meet in the United States delegation office to talk things over.

The council members have just about given up hope of persuading the Arab higher committee of Palestine and the Jewish for Palestine to back down from the conditions which so far have prevented agreement on a cease fire arrangement.

Confronted by this continuing disagreement, the Council members were represented as feeling it is time for the security council to lay down the terms of a truce. Everyone was expected to attend the closed, informal meeting except Andrei A. Gromyko, of Russia.

With the United Nations assembly meeting at Flushing Meadows Friday to re-open the whole Palestine issue, Council members say something must be done to stop the fighting in the Holy Land immediately.

At this stage, the situation is this: The Arab higher committee, which speaks for the Arabs of Palestine before the U. N. refuses to recognize the Jewish agency or to consider a truce as long as the U. N. scheme to partition Palestine is in effect.

The Jewish agency, official representative of the Jews of Palestine before the U. N. will not consider a truce unless it is arranged in the general plan of partition. The agency representatives insist partition is the minimum they will accept in Palestine. They ask also who will enforce this truce.

Names Johnson New Ambassador

Tar Heel Deputy To UN Nominated For Post In Brazil

Washington, April 12—(AP)—President Truman today nominated Herschel V. Johnson to be ambassador to Brazil.

Johnson, a diplomatic career officer from North Carolina, has been serving as deputy U. S. representative to the United Nations Security Council. He succeeds William D. Pawley at Rio de Janeiro. Pawley recently resigned because of ill health.

Pawley has been in Bogota assisting Secretary of State Marshall at the Inter-American conference there.

Johnson's successor in the U. N. post has not been chosen, Presidential Secretary Charles Ross told reporters.

Show Caution In Forecasts For Nebraska Ballots

Close, Hard Fight Is Seen; Stassen Careful In Predicting The Outcome

Omaha, April 12—(AP)—A ding-dong battle that may bring victory to any one of three candidates was forecast today in Nebraska's Republican voting tomorrow on seven GOP Presidential possibilities.

From the worried camps of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota came cautious claims of success in the 1948 campaign's first free-for-all contest for the voters' favor.

Stassen, returning here for a wind-up speech tonight, was even more careful than his leading opponents in predicting the outcome.

In sharp contrast to the confident way in which he forecast before hand the victory which later came to win in Wisconsin, the former Minnesota Governor told his backers in a statement:

"If you follow through to the closing of the polls, I believe we will first place in a close race in this primary."

Senator Hugh Butler, speaking in behalf of Taft, told a reporter he is "very confident" the Ohioan is going to win.

"It will be a close, hard fight, but Taft has the stuff to win," he declared.

Part of this stuff was the support of Butler's Republican organization in Nebraska. Most politicians thought that the extent of Taft's measure would depend in great measure on how well this organization delivered in the State's 2,034 precincts.

Dewey, fighting to keep his campaign for the nomination from being switched off the main track, said he is confident the program he outlined in 13 Nebraska speeches will win the support of the state's GOP voters.

He described his proposals as those "which will win the peace and restore integrity and administrative competence to our national government."

Johnson, a diplomatic career officer from North Carolina, has been serving as deputy U. S. representative to the United Nations Security Council. He succeeds William D. Pawley at Rio de Janeiro. Pawley recently resigned because of ill health.

Pawley has been in Bogota assisting Secretary of State Marshall at the Inter-American conference there.

Johnson's successor in the U. N. post has not been chosen, Presidential Secretary Charles Ross told reporters.

Johnson, a veteran of nearly 28 years diplomatic service, has been a top-ranking member of the United States delegation to the United Nations since April 23, 1946. Ranking as an ambassador, he has headed the delegation on numerous occasions, as a deputy to Warren R. Austin. Illness removed him from active work for several weeks recently.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, Johnson is 53, and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and the Harvard law school.

He entered the diplomatic service in 1920 after teaching in the Chamberlayne School for Boys at Richmond, Virginia and serving overseas as an Army captain in World War I.

Lewis Gets UMW Pension; Signals End Of Walkouts

Agree On Necessity Merge Three Zones

U.S., Britain And France Decide On Uniting West Germany Economically; Hint Separate Political Regime

Washington, April 12—(AP)—Over angry Russian protests, the United States, Britain and France have decided to go ahead at once with their own plans for uniting western Germany economically.

They may decide to set up a separate political regime as well.

The decision to hold another three-power meeting in London to blue-print Germany's future was reported authoritatively today as the conflict between the Soviet Union and the west entered a critical week.

It is a week which may be climaxed by last minute moves on both sides to try to influence the outcome of the extremely important Italian election next Sunday.

Some European diplomats who have conferred recently with top American officials believe the issue of peace in Europe may be determined by the Italian voting.

That the week will bring new alarms and tensions seems certain. Whether it may also shed light on some of the dimmer areas of Soviet-western rivalry remains to be seen.

That the western nations are preparing now to follow a new and stronger course in Germany was indicated by information on the next London meeting.

The United States, Britain and France agreed these several weeks ago on basic principles for the economic unification of western Germany as part of the European recovery program.

Their session was ended when American Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas came to Washington to help get the program through Congress. Douglas returned to London recently and plans for the new three-power meeting—which Russia several times has denounced—have now been completed.

For reasons undisclosed here the exact date has not yet been announced, but it apparently will fall just before or just after the Italian voting.

The western powers are determined to show maximum strength in dealing with the Russians in Germany, partly with a view to reassuring the Italian voters.

Two Sides Claim Embattled Town

See-Saw Battle For Kastel Reaches Verbal Standoff

Jerusalem, April 12—(AP)—The see-saw battle for Kastel reached a verbal standoff today. Both Jews and Arabs claimed the hilltop fortress, which commands part of the vital Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway.

British army sources said last night that counter-attacking Arabs had captured the Jewish garrison there. The Arabs said today they were holding the town. A Haganah source said Kastel still is firmly in Jewish hands.

The mountain stronghold has changed hands almost daily for the past 10 days. Haganah, the Jewish militia, had reentered the town Saturday night.

Orders Trial

Washington, April 12—(AP)—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today ordered John L. Lewis to face trial Wednesday at 10 a. m. on contempt of court charges.

Despite settlement of the 29-day mine stoppage, Goldsborough held Lewis had not purged himself of contempt charges.

The government has accused Lewis of contempt for alleged failure to comply with a court order of April 3 to end the strike.

Goldsborough ruled that the pension agreement has "absolutely nothing to do with the contempt proceeding."

He said that was his "final conclusion" on this point and would permit "no argument."

E. L. Henderson Case Is Settled

Former ECTC Professor To Get $2,675 From The State

A compromise judgment whereby Dr. E. L. Henderson former professor at East Carolina Teachers College will receive $2,675 from the State of North Carolina was entered in Pitt County Superior court here this morning.

Stevens is presiding over the civil term of court which convened here today.

The Henderson case against the college board of trustees and the state grew out of his dismissal from the college in 1944. Henderson alleged that he was dismissed without being given proper notice under the terms of his contract and upon unfounded charges which were never definitely set forth by the board of trustees.

Under the compromise judgment Henderson is to receive the $2,675 to cover his salary for the period between the time he was dismissed and the time he became eligible for retirement pay. He has already qualified and is receiving the retirement pay. Under the terms of the judgment the state also pays all costs in the litigation.

Order Trial Of Union Leaders In Four-Year-Old Rackets Case

Washington, April 12—(AP)—With one defendant mysteriously missing, the government ordered a group of labor union figures to trial today in a four year old racketeering case.

Joseph V. Morechi, international president of the AFL HOD Carriers' Union; his son and two other national officers of the 400,000-member union are among those charged.

The ten defendants, including one woman, are accused of helping to loot the war-swollen treasuries of three union locals of more than $75,000. The locals involved are those here, at La Plata, Md., and at Quantico, Va.

An indictment returned against the group in 1944 after a full year's grand jury investigation said the money was used to: (a) finance an elaborate night club in downtown Washington, (b) buy large stocks of whiskey and champagne, (c) pay for lavish improvements to the union men's private homes, and (d) build workers' housing accommodations, the rents for which the defendants kept.

The indictment pictured Larry Kelly, colorful head of the union's District of Columbia area council, as the ringleader.

Kelly testified briefly at the start of the grand jury investigation. Then he disappeared. After the indictment the government pressed an extensive search for Kelly.

Soft Coal Miners Expected To Return To Pits Tomorrow; Telegram Sent Union Locals; Agreement Reached 20 Minutes Before Appearance In Court

Washington, April 12—(AP)—John Lewis today told the 400,000 striking coal miners their pensions had been granted—the signal expected to end their four-week old strike.

Lewis sent out the word after accepting a tentative pension plan submitted by Senator Bridges (R-NH).

Bridges on Saturday accepted a post as "neutral" trustee of the miners welfare fund. Other members are Lewis and Ezra Van Horn, who represents the mine operators.

Bridges proposed a pension of $100 a month for miners 62 years of age who have served 20 years in the industry and who retired after May 28, 1946.

Lewis had demanded a $100 pension for miners 60 years old with 20 years service. But also wanted all members of the United Mine Workers to be eligible.

The UMW has members at some mines which have not paid money into the welfare fund. The operators took the stand that only miners employed by paying-mines should be eligible.

Bridges proposed that $5,000,000 be set aside from the $32,000,000 collected thus far by a 10 cents a ton royalty, for payment of the pensions under his arrangement.

Lewis sent the miners this four word telegram: "Pensions granted. Agreement honored."

The strike began three days after Lewis told the miners their 1941 contract had been "dishonored."

Before the meeting, Lewis had told reporters it was "reasonable" to agree to a pension plan.

The Bridges arrangement was only a tentative settlement because, he said, "the decisions we as trustees make are not unchangeable."

"The opportunity to change them at any time is guaranteed," Bridges added.

The announcement of the agreement was made 20 minutes before the UMW chief and the union were to appear in court.

Whiteville, April 12—(AP)—O. D. Clewis still has his notoriety—and his finger.

The carpenter had announced he would chop off the index finger on his right hand Saturday afternoon while a crowd looked on.

He was about to go into his act when a policeman ran up with a notice from city officials that he would be liable to prosecution.

Communist-Led General Strike Falls Flat; Bombing Is Reported

Rome, April 12—(AP)—A nationwide, Communist-led, one-hour general strike went off as ordered in Italy this morning.

First reports, however, indicated the work stoppage fell far short of achieving the general paralysis predicted by its instigators, the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor (CGIL). The strike was called to protest the slayings of 35 Sicilian labor leaders over the past two years.

The pro-Communist newspaper II Phase reported, meantime, that new pre-election violence has been instigated by the "Fascist terror" in the south.

Dispatches to the paper said two persons were killed and 22 injured when a bomb was tossed into the midst of a Communist-dominated popular front rally at Lizzanello near Lecce yesterday.

Ciuseppe Calasso, front candidate for the Chamber of deputies in Sunday's national elections, was reported injured.

Only the stoppage of street cars and buses indicated to Rome residents that the general strike was on. The CGIL had announced that the city's telephone service would be suspended during the strike, but the phones kept working.

Many stores remained open, the employees apparently ignoring the strike call. Government offices said they were working normally. Factories, however, were idle.

Just Three Years Ago

Three Years Ago Today Harry S. Truman Became President; Early Administration Was Quiet; How The Egg Broke; Developments Since 1945; Conditions Today

Washington, April 12—(AP)—Harry S. Truman became president of the United States three years ago today.

Those three years have been rough since he became president April 12, 1945, the day President Roosevelt died.

Mr. Roosevelt had snapped a stinging whip over Congress which his Democrats had run for 12 years. Mr. Truman tried to be different.

He went into the White House like a lamb, anxious to get along with Congress, dashing up to the capitol for lunch with his old Senate chums.

And, in turn, everyone seemed friendly toward him, with a sort of "give him a chance" air—Democrats and Republicans alike.

Dispatches to the paper said two persons were killed and 22 injured when a bomb was tossed into the midst of a Communist-dominated popular front rally at Lizzanello near Lecce yesterday.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, April 11.
Golden Text: Isaiah 45:17, "Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation."
Among the citations comprising the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out; he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice; he will not afflict." (Job 37:23). And from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God pronounced good all that He had created, and the Scriptures declare that He created all. There is but one primal cause, therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reality in aught which does not proceed from this great and only cause." (Pages 526 and 207).

Lewis Wins . . .
to be hailed before Justice T. Alan Goldsborough for contempt of court for failing to call off the strike as ordered on April 9 by Federal Judge Matthew F. McGuire.
The Bridges plan was approved by a 2-1 vote of the welfare fund's trustees. Bridges and Lewis voted for it.
Van Horn told reporters he voted against the plan for two reasons:

1. He believes the age 62 for pensions is too low.
2. He believes the $100 monthly benefit cannot "be sustained by the pension fund" that there will not be enough money from a 10-cent-a-ton royalty.

Van Horn said the Bridges plan is practically the same as what Lewis had wanted all along, except that the retirement age was set at 62 instead of 60 years.
Bridges, present while Van Horn talked to the reporters, put in: "This is only a temporary basis of payments which can be reviewed later."
Lewis said testily: "I have nothing more to add, except that the mine workers understand that the coal operators are still against pensions."

Church Applies Biblical Story In Raising Funds
High Point, N. C., April 12—(AP)—A High Point minister said today his modern application of the Bible story of the talents has confirmed his faith in humanity.
The $2,200 in five-dollar bills that the Rev. Wilson O. Weldon borrowed and distributed to his congregation 90 days ago was returned more than two-fold at services Sunday.
Weldon gave out the money three months ago and told his flock to put it to work. The first report of how well they had done so was to be made yesterday. He counted $4,500. And he declared he expected more to be turned in next Sunday.
The money will be used in a trust or endowment fund for the church.

BPW Club Met Here Thursday

On Thursday evening a seven o'clock the Business and Professional Women's Club held a regular dinner meeting at the Masonic Temple dining hall.

The hall was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and a dinner was served by the Greenville White Shrine, Mrs. Emogene Duffin, Worthy High Priestess.

The meeting opened with the club singing "America." Invocation was given by Mrs. J. B. Spilman.

The president appointed the nominating committee, Mrs. Cora Powell, chairman, Mrs. Clara Gower, Miss Reba Proctor.

The annual bosses' night dinner will be held May 13 and the past president's were asked to serve on the planning committee, Mrs. Viola Baker, chairman.

Mrs. Walter Taylor, chairman of the health committee, was in charge of the program. She introduced the guest speaker, Mr. E. E. Rawl, of Carolina Sales Corporation.

Mr. Rawl gave a most valuable and interesting talk on "Know Your Profession." He stated that "Selling is the basis of everything we do." The following points were discussed: First, locate the prospect; second, thorough knowledge of your product; third, thorough knowledge of how to present the product; fourth, open minded attention on how to close a sale.

Mrs. E. E. Rawl was welcomed as

Church Building Opens; Hundreds At 'Open House'

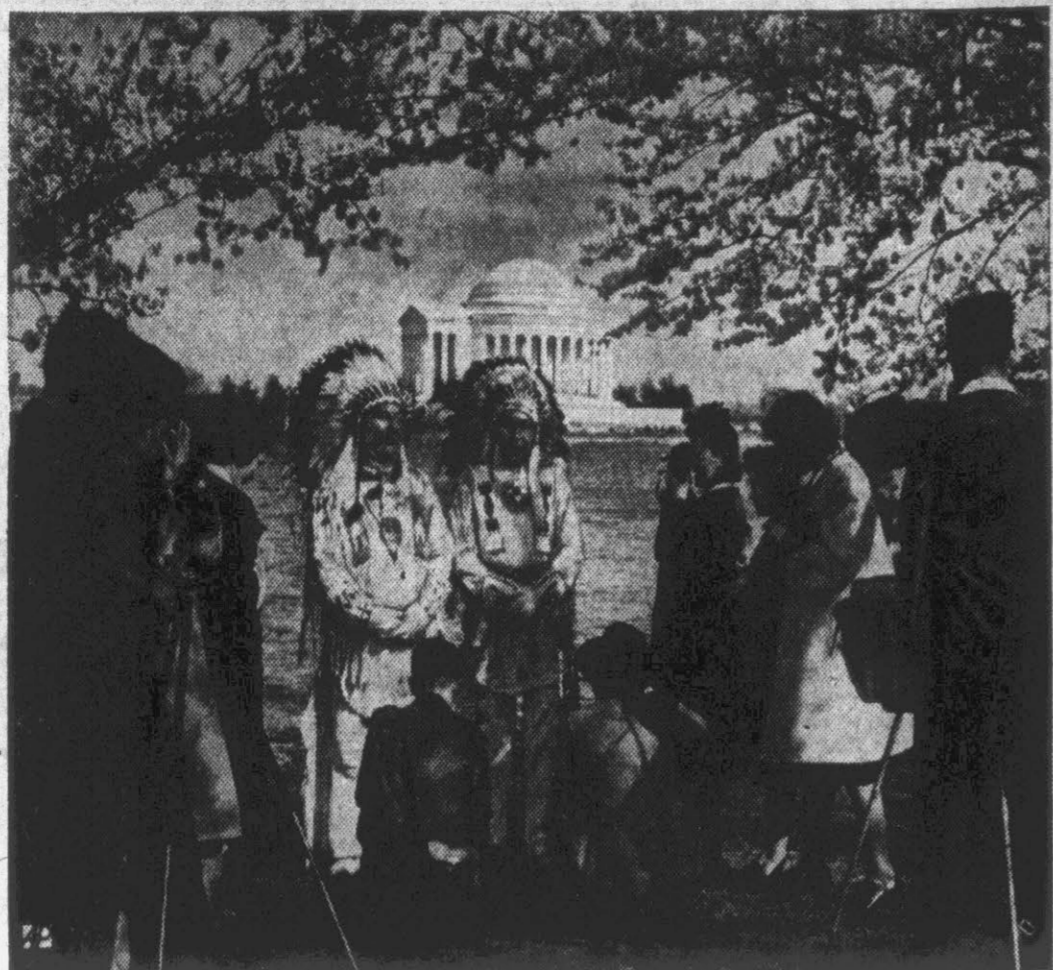

By CHESTER WALSH

Hundreds of persons, representing many denominations, attended the "open house" exercises at the dedication of the new $83,000 three-story brick educational building of Memorial Baptist Church Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Flowers were everywhere and light refreshments were served. Incidentally, a set of chimes attached to the organ and donated by a friend were used for the first time.

Many denominations—Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian, Christian, Free Will Baptist, Catholic and others—were represented by the many persons who called to congratulate the pastor and his wife, officials and members of the church and to inspect the new building. J. D. Aman, who did so much to provide the spacious lawn, received many compliments for his good work.

class room for the Sunday school, beginners and primary and young women's class rooms; rest rooms, closets, supply room and a spacious kitchen with an electric range, etc. The church office is on the second floor; also the pastor's study, choir room, a spacious reception room and kitchenette, conveniently arranged, and four adult class rooms. On the third floor is the young people's department room, assembly room and eight Sunday school class rooms; the intermediate and junior department's assembly room and eight class rooms. A modern educational building has been the dream of the congregation of Memorial Baptist Church ever since Pastor Hardaway came here three years ago. The membership has steadily increased; members of the church are taking a more personal interest in the welfare of the church, and the Board of Deacons, other church officials and the various men's and women's organizations are harmoniously cooperating for the expansion of the church's good work. The "house warming" Sunday will long be remembered and the fellowship of the two-hour period of reception and inspection contributed much to the "good neighbor" spirit which prevails among the churches in Greenville, a long-time member said.

The building is a highly departmentalized Sunday school building and can accommodate 700 persons, and has exceptional features for the social life of the congregation. Frank Benton of Wilson was the architect; J. L. Batton & Brother of Edenton was the contractor.

Members of the Building Committee are: N. C. Brooks, chairman; L. A. Stroud, treasurer; J. D. Aman, J. M. Boyd, Jr., E. R. Conway, Jr., Jesse Smith, Mrs. L. A. Stroud, Mrs. Edwin E. Rawl, and the pastor, Rev. Richard E. Hardaway.

Keeping Campaign In County Straight

In Saturday's story about the political campaign and the Democratic primary on May 29, it was erroneously stated that Otis Haddock of Chocod township was running for constable. He is a candidate for justice of the peace.

In the list of candidates for the Board of County Commissioners the name of Zeb V. Vance should have been Zebulon Vance Bunting, Bethel businessman and farmer, candidate for commissioner from District 2, Bethel, Belvoir, Pactolus and Carolina townships.

Motorcyclist Had Narrow Escape From Death On Highway

By CHESTER WALSH
A motorcycle driven by Percy Boyd, 32, of Washington, N. C., collided with the rear of a car driven by Gordon E. Lee of Route 2, Farmville, near the open air motion picture theater, two miles out on the Winterville highway Sunday afternoon, damaging both machines and painfully injuring the motorcyclist. Boyd was treated at Pitt General Hospital for lacerations of the body and head.

Highway Patrolman Dick Chadwick said Boyd lost control during the collision and that the motorcycle skidded 62 feet along the highway and then hurled Boyd 33 feet beyond. A. J. Cox took the injured man to the hospital, where he was treated and released. Lee's automobile was badly damaged.

The patrolman charged Boyd with careless and reckless driving. He will be tried in Police Court next Friday.

More Rain Ahead For Carolinas Says Weatherman

The rain-soaked Carolinas were threatened with more rain today. Showers and thundershowers were forecast today, tonight and tomorrow. Warm weather was expected to accompany the rain.

All spring, frequent downpours have proved a serious handicap to farmers in the preparation of soil for their crops. In the Charleston area of South Carolina rain has seriously reduced the early potato crop, and grain in low lying places in both states has suffered serious damage.

Charlotte so far this year has had an excess rainfall of almost five inches. The same situation generally has prevailed throughout the Carolinas.

government. Times without number I've not only seen agencies suppress legitimate news at government order, but submit news to officialdom to make sure that nothing the government didn't like was published.

Such censored "news" frequently is calculated to mislead foreign countries, but it generally misleads its own people at the same time. There is no greater threat to good understanding among peoples than subsidized "news." There is no better aid to peace than a free press which cultivates real acquaintance between nations.

There can be no freedom of information if there is any form of government control beyond that provided by laws dealing with libel

Subsidy is a dolled up term for a bribe. If an individual newspaperman were given money to publish propaganda, that would be a bribe (and I've heard of offers as high as $400,000 being rejected). If a national agency is given money by a government, it's a subsidy. But from where I sit they look as much alike as two peas in a pod.

Tinnie Short, colored, who lives at 406 Short street, reported to police Saturday that while she was away from home on a visit, some person entered her premises and took down a screen door and a wire fence and placed them behind the house and did other damage. Police quoted her as saying she suspected a person with whom she had some words one day last week. Police are investigating.

Only the KAISER and FRAZER have it! TRUE ECONOMY—with Your Kind of Driving

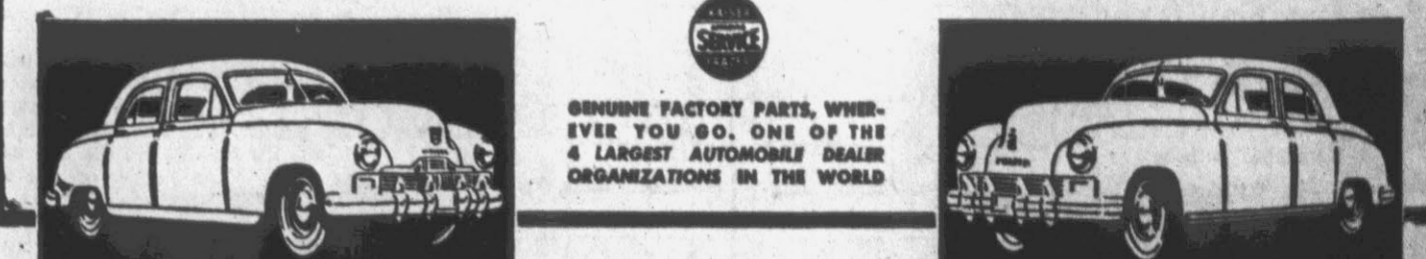

No matter what speeds they drive or roads they travel . . . Gasoline Bills are Lower in a KAISER or a FRAZER

How many more miles per gallon will you get from your 1948 Kaiser or Frazer? There is only one honest answer. Mileage varies with the speed you drive over the roads you travel. It may be anything up to 26 or more miles per gallon. Thousands of K-F owners verify this. Yet in each case they report many more miles per gallon from their Kaiser or Frazer, than from car they drove before.

Top Economy for '48!—others claim it—Kaiser-Frazer delivers it! Among 1948 full-sized American motor cars, only the Kaiser and the Frazer have highest compression engines as standard equipment. That alone means less waste and more wallop in every drop of gasoline you buy. You get new power and a combination of top performance with top economy that is brand new to motoring.

Four 1948 models now on display—at no increase in price! See them! You'll insist we let you drive one!

Strength FOR THE DAY

POWER BEYOND MEASURE
One of the most influential books ever written is "The Imitation of Christ" by Thomas a Kempis. It was written about 500 years ago by a godly monk, and in this day of modern sophistication is the world's best seller next to the Bible. The "Imitation" contains simple directions concerning the living of a Christian life. Strangely enough, a few years ago when Christian literature was being confiscated in Turkey, the book most vigorously sought out and destroyed was "The Imitation." And of course from the worldly point of view, the book-burners were right. This little book has dynamite in it. Or, to change the figure, it has in it the immeasurable might of the ideas. It leads people to live lives of unwavering fidelity; in other words, to become the type of persons that are the very hardest for dictators and persecutors to deal with.

"SIXTH COLUMN"

Ever hear of "The Sixth Column"? That's the term an advocate of building up American defenses used in describing the opponents of Peace by Strength. He said that the "sixth column" was an unwitting ally of the fifth column in America which would keep us weak and so further encourage Communist aggression. It's an old idea, but put in more effective words.

NO NEW IDEAS

Calling your attention to the North Carolina gubernatorial race, we note that not one of today's candidates have come up with a new idea for improving the general welfare of the state. Can it be that they all learned their political lessons at the knees of the same teacher?

MULTI-PARTY SYSTEM IS WEAKENING

Not only the eyes of the Western Democracies, but the eyes of the world will be turned on Italy when that unhappy nation holds its all-important election on April 18. There will be over a dozen parties backing candidates in the balloting; and that is a danger in itself to the lovers of freedom.

It may not be even necessary for the Communists to win thirty per cent of the votes in order to demand important positions in the new government. Just as in Czechoslovakia, the left-

New York—(AP)—When a gun-toting young youth on a rampage shoots a cop here, it costs the State about $125,000 to send him through the courts to the electric chair.

People who have designs against the liberties of their fellows, and those also who want to live a free life of indulgence without hindrance, need first of all—if they can do so—to stamp out all Christian influence in their vicinity. Far from being a philosophy of weakness, Christianity is the most dangerous factor that evil and heavy-handed men ever encounter. It has behind it power which makes the power of the atom bomb appear quite insignificant.

Observers say that Communism is losing ground in Italy, losing in the face of American letters and diplomacy. This is undoubtedly true; but they did hold a great following at one time, and they'll have to lose several millions of votes to render them important.

Let's not underestimate their wiles and propaganda; as of now they are far from beaten and it's still possible that they can coerce or inveigle sufficient support to embarrass attempts to form a democratic government.

Italy's situation is but another proof that our own two-party system is to the advantage of the American people. Third parties cannot subscribe to the desire of a true majority.

Pitt Countians Out Today On Humane Mission

By CHESTER WALSH

Many public-spirited men and women went out today in every town ship in Pitt County soliciting donations for the American Cancer Society's annual drive for funds for cancer research and control and to assist those afflicted with the disease in obtaining treatment.

When the solicitors call on you be generous for a worthy cause, and remember that some of the money you contribute may be used in finding a cure and that if you should have cancer, now or later, you may be cured.

One in every six persons in this country has cancer. More than 10,000 men, women and children are suffering from the disease in North Carolina now, and medical surveys show that approximately 2,600 new cases of cancer will develop in the next 12 months. Mrs. J. Vance Perkins, Pitt county chairman of the campaign for funds, said today, "No one is safe. That's why we want as many people as it is humanly possible for us to reach to have a personal part in financing the effort to bring cancer under control," she added.

"The money we raise for cancer control will be spent to arm people with facts that may enable them to help save themselves if the disease strikes; to provide more and better treatment facilities for cancer patients, and to finance the all-important research program to find the cause and cure for cancer." Mrs. B. McKay Johnson, chairman for the cancer fund drive in Greenville said.

Pitt county people are asked to contribute $5,000, and that's nine cents per person. Forty per cent of the money raised in this county will remain here.

Dr. J. L. Winstead is chairman of the Executive committee of the Pitt County unit of the N. C. Cancer Society; other members are Dr. Grady Dixon of Ayden, Dr. S. J. Phillips, W. H. Woolard and K. T. Futrell. Mr. Woolard is treasurer. Donations may be made to him by check at the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, in Greenville.

Took One Dollar, Returned Change

Indianapolis, April 12 (AP)—Phillip Hoyt, 15, didn't miss a dollar bill from his pocket when an eight-year-old boy slipped out of a theater seat next to him yesterday. But when the boy came back from the theater lobby with candy and slipped the change back into Hoyt's pocket, the coins made more noise. Hoyt called police. The boy admitted the theft.

Planning Board Is Studying Future; Surveys Situation

The Board of Aldermen at its last meeting, after thorough discussion of Greenville's recent growth and the problems involved in guiding future development of the city, enacted an ordinance creating a Planning Board for the city of Greenville. The introduction to the ordinance states that "the mayor and the Board of Aldermen need the active assistance and constant cooperation of the civic-minded, far-seeing citizens in their best interest to serve all the people and to direct the city's physical growth along good civic lines."

Those appointed to the Planning Board by Mayor Jack Boyd are J. S. Moye, Dr. Paul A. Toll, Mrs. D. M. Clark, Stuart Ficklen, and Tom W. Rivers. At the first meeting of the board, held April 2, Mr. Rivers was elected chairman to serve for one year. Meetings will be held monthly and they are open to the public. The Planning Board has obtained the assistance of Daniel S. Martin, graduate student in the Department of City and Regional Planning at the University of North Carolina, who will assist the board in making a preliminary study of Greenville and vicinity. It is the intention of the Planning Board to immediately undertake a preliminary study of the resources, possibilities and needs of the city of Greenville, with particular emphasis upon the conditions which may be injurious to the public welfare. It was stated by Chairman Rivers that the preparation of a master plan for the city is the eventual goal, however, the Planning Board is only taking the first step toward continuous planning in Greenville so that eventually a master plan can be drafted.

Freshmen In Essay Contest At School

It has been reported that the Freshman Class is the busiest group at the Greenville High School, and there are two reasons why.

J. C. Penney and Company is offering $10 in prizes for the three best essays nominating characters from American History to be added to Penney's Stores' pamphlet, "Forty-Eight Famous Americans." The other reason is Mrs. Bowen's interest, inspiration, and assistance in all of her ninth grade English classes, she is using eminent men and women from the story of the United States as topics for oral English classes.

Students who make these reports are converting them into essays to be submitted to R. B. Starling, American history teacher, who is serving as contest chairman. The winning paper will receive a $3 award, and there will be duplicate second prizes of $2.50 each.

Employment Hits Record In State

Raleigh, N. C., April 12—(AP)—Employment levels in North Carolina, reached a record in the last quarter of 1947.

Average employment for the period in establishments under the employment security law was 649,410, reported Chairman Henry E. Kendall of the State Employment Security Commission. The figure was 64,463 for December, he added, which was 30,000 more than the total non-agricultural labor force in the state in 1940. The average for the three months was 64,500 above the average for the year 1946.

HAUNTED HOLIDAY

By Cameron Dockery

Chapter 12

Hugh laughed. "I seldom miss," he boasted. "Now you try it!"

Vince's attempt fell far short of the target. "No good," he said ruefully.

"Oh it takes practice," Hugh said. "I've had lots of it."

Vince glanced at his watch. Almost half an hour since he'd left Julia. She'd begin to be curious or worse, come to look for him. "Look here Hugh," he said, "I'm afraid I've got to be going."

Hugh Manny's face fell into lines of childish disappointment. "You'll come again won't you? And you won't tell Sophie?"

"That's a promise," Vince smiled goodly and slipped through the bathroom and Sophie's room into the hall. As he turned toward the stairs he had the unreasonable sensation that someone had been standing there only a few minutes before.

Vince Bonny stared the length of the hall of which his own door opened and was startled to have a clear view of the trees and flower garden that lay between the garage and swimming pool. The door that he had thought opened on a hall closet apparently led to an outside stairway. He went toward it and had almost reached it when he heard the sobbing.

There was something desperate and piteous about it something terribly heart-rending, and it came from Sonia's room.

He hesitated. Simeon Manny was underserving of such grief and Sonia had seemed incapable of suffering it. Evidently he had misjudged her; the muffled cries were undeniably genuine. He knocked softly.

In a moment a choked "Who ees ee?" answered him.

"Vince Bonny," he said. "Is there anything I can do?"

The door was flung open; Sonia stood there in the same delicate airy negligee she had worn on the terrace at two the previous morning. Tears trembled in her lashes.

"Ah, Commandair," she gasped gently. "I am so sorry I disturb you."

"You shouldn't go on like this—you'll make yourself ill."

She pressed her handkerchief to her eyes. "Thees has been a shock."

"Yes," he said gruffly. "I can see where you'd be upset."

She peeped at him uncertainly over the lace edge of her handkerchief.

"Perhaps my grief ees a leetle selfish," she admitted. "Eet ees not all for Simeon—eet ees in part for me, Sonia."

"Such an admission was the last thing Vince expected. "What do you mean?"

"I am so lost . . . so alone. Sophie hates me, you haf seen that, non? Julia ees so jeune-fille, so . . . what shall I say—naive. She too resents me."

He felt himself wavering. She hadn't exaggerated; he had noticed that Sophie avoided her and he couldn't forget the note of contempt in Julia's voice when she had mentioned Sonia to him on the ride to Kalamiti. She was in a helpless predicament, that is if a pretty woman armed with melting liquid brown eyes could be considered entirely helpless. To Vince's horror those eyes suddenly filled with fresh tears and Sonia bowed her face into her cupped hands. "Vence, Vence, what weel I do?" she wailed.

It seemed quite natural for his arms to go around her trembling body—it was pleasant to find himself patting her chiffon-covered back reassuringly. "There, there, don't cry, Sonia."

But it was unpleasantly startling to look up and see Julia Manny standing in the hall watching him, her face a peculiar mixture of sheer amazement and suppressed fury.

With a faint groan Vince hoisted his long body out of bed and after lighting a cigarette balanced himself on the window ledge.

Since turning in he had lain awake, his mind a fertile field for the suspicions that flitted through it like aimless shadows.

Moreover it disgusted him that he was unable to forget the expression on Julia's face or the ironical scene that had followed her discovery.

After he had urged Sonia to dry her eyes and come down for a cocktail he had raced down the outside stairway after Julia. She was walking rather hurriedly toward the bluff but when he called she stopped and eyed him expectantly.

"Hey, wait a minute. You're not angry, are you?" he demanded.

"Angry? Why should I be angry?" "I don't know why but you had a funny look on your face." He felt relieved. "I was afraid you'd misjudged her; the muffled cries were undeniably genuine. He knocked softly.

"How could I, it was pretty obvious, wasn't it?"

He plunged ahead recklessly. "Sonia's so alone, she needs sympathy."

"Alone? That woman has never been alone in her life!"

A warning bell chimed in Vince's brain. "What do you mean, Julie?"

"Oh heavens, do you need a diagram! Sonia is a woman of the world; she apparently prefers to make her way in it by being a parasite—going from one man to another."

He felt impelled to turn her over his knees but instead his face flushed and he frowned with annoyance. "Aren't you being a bit childish?"

"Childish!" she exclaimed angrily. "Childish! It's you who are being childish! Uncle Sim is gone, likewise his money as far as Sonia is concerned, therefore, she's looking about for other game. It looks like you're it."

Vince burst out laughing. "Julie, you've lost your sense of proportion! A junior naval officer doesn't rate much of a salary—I'm sure as attractive a woman as Sonia can do much better."

She gave her head an airy toss. "Perhaps it's any port in a storm."

That had nettled him. Julia was being spiteful and naive he decided. To counteract her gibe he devoted himself to Sonia for the rest of the day and evening but Julia was well taken care of by Bisset and even the musical tinkle of Sonia's quickly suppressed laughter couldn't dispel the oppressive

Women IN THE CHURCH

Mary Fowler

According to Fraulein Zarnack, president of the Young Woman's Christian Association of Germany, that "YW" decided to use its own money and labor to rebuild its Berlin headquarters "since it had been destroyed by their people." It is now completed after two years of work, she reports. The windows of the building are made of old-x-ray plates. For months members looked out of doors through the grim outlines of human bones. Now however, much elbow grease plus caustic soda has removed the imprints and the window view is clear.

For daily use by women of all churches preparatory to the National Assembly in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, November 15 to 18, under the auspices of the United Council of Church Women, the following prayer has been written by Mrs. Harper Sibley, of Rochester, N. Y., Council president: "Almighty God, Father of all mankind, forgive us that we have forgotten so many things that thou hast told us that all men everywhere are brothers, that it is more blessed to give than to receive, that thy grace and power are sufficient to meet every need. May thy kingdom come within our hearts. May thy kingdom come within our homes. May thy Kingdom come in this our country and in every land. May thy church be born in the power and unity of the spirit at Amsterdam. May the church be purified and strengthened, beginning with each one of us. Bless our Assembly to thy glory, and dedicate us to thy service through him whom thou hast sent to show us the way, even Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen."

mission-supported Ginling College in Nanking, China, reveals that the majority of them are engaged in "services" professions. Two hundred and thirty-seven are helping train China's future leaders by teaching in middle schools and colleges; 89 are engaged in social work services; 66 are in government service; 33 are doctors or nurses; and 11 are in religious work. Eighty-nine of the alumnae hold M. A., M. S., or Ph. D. degrees, while 22 are doctors of medicine.

Leo Double-Decks Brooks To Prepare For Trouble

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
 Vero Beach, Fla.—Manager Leo Durocher is double-decking the Brooklyn Dodgers. Durocher will be prepared for any possible injuries by having two or more men ready to play any position. Behind Catcher Bruce Edwards the Dodgers have Gil Hodges, a strong-looking 24-year-old lad two inches over six feet and weighing 195, and Negro Roy Campanella, ex-Montreal backstop. "Hodges was like a baby behind the bat last year but this spring he is really taking charge. And he hits that long ball," says Leo.

"If anything should happen to Shortstop Pee Wee Reese, Bill Cox, who hit 15 home runs for the Pirates, can play short. And Johnny Jorgensen can play not only third but short and second." Durocher plans to go along with Cox at third base with Jorgensen in back of him. Of course, there's always Cookie Lavagetto and Arky Vaughan if necessary.

Jack Robinson probably will be back at first base although Durocher has been raving about Ray Sanders, wartime Cardinal who has not played in a league game since August, 1946, when he broke his arm. "Sanders looks like the Sanders of old," says Lippy, "and if he still is when the season opens he'll be my first baseman." Sanders, obtained in the Eddie Stanky deal, hit .243 for the Braves in 1946. Before that he had four seasons with the Cardinals and his best effort was 12 homers and a .295 batting mark in 1944.

Pete Reiser, the collapsible outfielder with the trick left knee and questionable throwing arm, worked out here at first base for two weeks under George Sisler. Pistol Pete also has been taking licks from the right side of the plate against southpaw pitchers. "Reiser used to be a right handed hitter," says Branch Rickey. "He was sad against left-handers last season and that's the reason we've asked him to go back to switch hitting."

If Sanders or Reiser opens at first base, Robinson will start at second. Much depends on the first base problem. If Robinson is back at the station, Ed Miksis will start at second base. Miksis filled in nicely when Stanky was filling. Rickey claims Durocher's biggest problem is the Dodger outfield. Two gardeners who have been getting a lot of praise are Dick Whitman, who hit .327 for Montreal, and Ed (Duke) Snider who batted .316 for St. Paul. "Whitman has improved 500 percent," says Durocher and Rickey claims Snider has only to learn to check his swing when he starts after bad pitches. When Dickie Walker was sold to the Pirates, Rickey left himself without a fulltime rightfielder. However, it is believed, Whitman, a hustling type of player, will fill Walker's shoes with Carl Furillo back in center and the veteran Vaughan in left. Vaughan was out three years during the war but at 36 he still can outrun all but four Dodgers. That's been proven in camp races.

Other outfielders slated to stick are Al Giarrardo, the guy who robbed Joe DiMaggio of a World's Series homer, Frenchy Bordagaray and possibly Gene Hermanski.

Brooklyn's pitching may be better this season Ralph Branca, 21-game winner, will be the ace. And Hugh Casey will be a problem in deciding who his other starters will be. They will come from among Joe Hatten, Rex Barney, Phil Haugstad, Clyde King, Ervin Patena, Jim Ramsdell, Elvitt (Preacher) Roe and Harry Taylor.

Cards In Series Against Chicago

Houston, Tex., April 12—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals open a four game series with the Chicago Cubs today, hoping to reach the 500 mark in spring exhibition games before arriving home for a two-game set with the St. Louis Browns next Saturday.

The cards bowed, 3-1, to their Houston Texas League farm yesterday, collecting only two hits off Cloyd Boyer and Jack Creel. Erv Dusak got both of the blows as the Cards failed to capitalize on 12 passes issued by the Buff hurlers.

The first child born in the White House was Elizabeth Frisella Tyler granddaughter of President John Tyler. She was born in 1842.

Baseball innings originally were called hands, and runs were called sees. The game ended when either side made 21 aces.

Manager Bill Phebus and the Greenville Greenies will arrive in Greenville some time Wednesday afternoon and will stage their first exhibition game here on Thursday night at 7:45 o'clock when they meet the Evansville Braves of the Three-I Class B League at Guy Smith Stadium in the first of their five exhibition games scheduled with teams in this section before the opening of the season on April 22nd. During their training period down at Bartow the Greenies played a total of six games and were victorious in all but one of them.

The roster of the Greenies who will come here Wednesday to fight it out for various positions on the team includes the following: pitchers—Manager Bill Phebus, Jerry Chitty, Louis Arroyo, John Kovalchick, Kermit Schmidt, Kenneth Brooks, August Medina; infielders—Jerry Tuttorow, Wiley Nash, Jack Thrush, Emil Carter, George Crouch, Tom Scobie, Danny Lastras, Donald Reo; catchers—Paul Simmons, Vernon Blas, and Bill Swell; outfielders—Bob Cohen, Charlie Chute, Ray Phillips, Mel Pasteris, Don Keefer and Al Taffet.

It was erroneously reported in this column Saturday that the News and Observer would carry pictures when Stanky was filling. Rickey claims Durocher's biggest problem is the Dodger outfield. Two gardeners who have been getting a lot of praise are Dick Whitman, who hit .327 for Montreal, and Ed (Duke) Snider who batted .316 for St. Paul. Dark-Horse Wins Golf Honors In Masters Event

Augusta, Ga., April 12—(AP)—The 12th annual Masters Golf Tournament is over, but not the memory of dark-horse Claude Harmon's win with a record tying 279.

For Harmon, a stocky club pro who winters at Seminole Club, Palm Beach, Fla., and summers at Winged Foot, Mamaroneck, N.Y. The victory yesterday was worth $2,500.

His 279 tied the masters' record set by Ralph Guldahl in 1939. The 31-year-old Harmon came in five strokes ahead of Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., who was second in the field of 87 of the world's best golfers.

Harmon's winning score was 36 strokes ahead of the most famous of them all, Bobby Jones, making his annual tournament appearance, registered another 79 Sunday for a 72-hole total of 315, his worst competitive showing.

In third place with 287 was Chick Harbert of Detroit who blew up on the first nine of the final round after starting the day as the chief threat to Harmon.

Tied for fourth and matching par of 288 were Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, the first day's leader, and Jerry Ferrer, also of Chicago. The remainder of the field was scattered like birdshot with pre-tournament favorites finding the 6,800-yard, par 72 course too much of a headache.

Defending Champion Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., was down in the 295 bracket with Vic Ghezzi of Kansas City, Fred Hass, Jr., of New Orleans, Ed Dudley of Augusta and Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind.

Sen Hogan of Hershey, Pa., was tied with Ed Furgol of Pontiac, Mich., at 289. Byron Nelson of Rossmore, Tex., and the leader at the halfway mark, Harry Todd of Dallas, Tex., shared the 290 spot.

Bobby Locke, the putting wizard from Johannesburg, South Africa, had to be satisfied with a 291.

At the moment it appears that Pete Reiser will be at first, Jackie Robinson at second, Pee Wee Reese at short and Bill Cox at third.

Whirling Fox
 THE MOST PROMISING MAIDEN TWO-YEAR-OLD OF THE YEAR TO DATE. A STRONG COLIC-KICKER IN THE KENTUCKY DERBY. A CLASSIC WHICH THE BELAIR STUD WON IN THE FIRST YEAR. GALLANT IN THE WEST WITH GALLANT JOCK, OMAHA AND JUNGSTOWN.

By way of helping to celebrate his twenty-fifth year as trainer for Belair Stud, Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons has definite designs on the Kentucky Derby and Whirling Fox is his hope. Fitz has three Kentucky Derby winners to his credit and is out to tie H. J. (Derby Dick) Thompson's record of saddling four Derby champions.

Whirling Fox wound up the 1947 season as the outstanding maiden of the year. The seedy son of Whirlaway-Merbury ran very impressively on occasions and collected $22,950 for finishing and third but did not quite make the winner's circle. It is quite possible that Whirling Fox might have won at least one of the longer stakes for two-year-olds which wound up the season but Mr. Fitz with an eye to the future, retired the colt for the winter after he had rapped himself in the Belmont Futurity.

Bigger, but more than slightly reminiscent of his sire, Whirling Fox is a Belair Stud homebred. The colt wintered well at the Belair Stud's Maryland farm and was shipped to Long Island at the start of the New York racing season. Whirling Fox has, on occasions, showed a mind of his own which was not always in accord with the wishes of his jockey. But one thing is certain, the colt has speed and can go the route.

New York—(AP)—The Communists, the Congress Party and the Socialists are battling for control of India's organized labor. The number of union members in this predominantly agricultural country is still small. Government officials put the total at approximately 1,500,000 out of a population of 325,000,000. But with several major organizations driving for new recruits, substantial growth is indicated.

The Communists, especially strong in Southern India, made their greatest gains during the war, taking control of the big All-India Trade Union Congress labor. The number of union members in this predominantly agricultural country is still small. Government officials put the total at approximately 1,500,000 out of a population of 325,000,000. Charlotte, N.C., April 12—(AP)—Ewell Blackwell of the Cincinnati Reds will be ready to open the National League season against Pittsburgh's Braves for eight innings yesterday before giving up three runs on two walks, a double and a single. The Reds won the game, 4-3, before 6,366 fans at Columbia, S.C. Babe Young sparked the victors by clouting a two-run homer and a single.

The Grimesland Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the high school auditorium Tuesday night April 13 at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. B. Tucker will speak on the subject "What the World Has Done to the Children of the World" and give a report on her travels in Europe. I. V. Godwin will speak on "Mental Hygiene and its Relations to the Grimesland Community." The fourth and fifth grades of Mrs. Jewel Phipps and Mrs. Mary Ann Eason will present a brief and entertaining spring musical festival. L. L. Murray is principal of the school.

May Turn Derby Into Real Race

New York, April 12—(AP)—This Kentucky Derby business is liable to wind up as a horse race after all, Citation or not.

While the Calumet Farm cyclone is displaying his three-year-old form for the first time in the east today in the Chesapeake trial at Havre De Grace, Md., a couple of other colts are quietly munching oats on Long Island—just waiting patiently. They are Ben F. Whitaker's My Request, winner of both the No. 1 and No. 2 experimental free handicaps, and King Ranch's Better Self, who showed up 12 of the best sprinters in the business when he captured the Paumonok Handicap. It looks as if they will duel at Jamaica April 24.

Last Saturday My Request put on a carbon copy repeat performance in the experimental No. 2 at Jamaica, proving he could carry weight and win at over a mile. He was top weighted with 122 pounds, and still flitted home an easy winner.

He had won just as easily the week previous in the No. 1 experimental, a six furlong job, and skepticism thought he would flitze at the longer route.

There never was any doubt in the mind of Trainer Jimmy Conroy, who called the turn in My Request's Belmont stable hours before the race.

British To Keep Replica Of U. S. Wright Airplane

London—(AP)—The British will place a replica of the historic Wright brothers biplane "Kittyhawk" in their science museum when the original goes home. The replica is being built by students at the De Havilland technical school.

Under the will of Orville Wright the "Kittyhawk" which made the first powered flight with a man aboard in 1903, soon will be returned to the United States.

He sent the craft to England after a long dispute with the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C. The Smithsonian had credited the Langley "aerodrome," which was wrecked in a launching a few days before the Wrights flew their plane, with being the first capable of powered flight with a pilot.

Don't forget the play "Saint Peter at the Golden Gates," under the direction of Mrs. C. H. Hunter, of Greenville, at Brown's Chapel Holiness Church on the Belvoir highway Sunday night, April 18, at 8 p. m. There will be seventy-five characters in this play.

We will practice for the last time Friday night, April 16. Anyone that would like to take part may come out. It's very simple and easy to catch on to.

There will be a short program of good singing also.

Please come, you'll enjoy it. Bring your friends and see the actions of the Devil and Saint Peter.

Just 3 Years . . .

 It's been different on foreign affairs. Just as in wartime, the Democrats and Republicans have more or less closed ranks to stop Communism.

But our foreign affairs haven't been too happy. Communism has continued to spread.

The President laid down his "Truman Doctrine" for stopping Communism by giving help to Greece and Turkey. Both parties backed him on that.

Both parties backed him too on the European Recovery Plan for helping 16 European, non-Communist nations.

And both parties seem willing to back him on building up this country's armed forces—just in case there's a World War III.

But some of his biggest bruises have come from within his own party. They may mean he won't get a chance to run for president in the November elections—or get beaten if he does.

When he proposed his civil rights program for bettering the treatment of Negroes in the South, the Southern Democrats turned against him. They don't want the Democrats to run him for president.

This Southern feeling has started other splits in his party, with some of the city bosses looking at him with a sour eye.

And when Mr. Truman fired his secretary of commerce, Henry Wallace, in 1946, he started something no one then thought would happen.

Wallace has set up a third party, is running himself for president, and is bound to bite into Democratic votes if he stays around till election time.

All this has given the Republicans their best hope of capturing the White House since Mr. Roosevelt moved in there back in 1933.

Dodgers Return To Homegrounds; Lineup Doubtful

Newport News, Va., April 12—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers return to their home grounds early this week but it's still anybody's guess as to who will be in the starting lineup when the season opens.

At the moment it appears that Pete Reiser will be at first, Jackie Robinson at second, Pee Wee Reese at short and Bill Cox at third.

Either Gil Hodges or Roy Campanella will be behind the plate with Arky Vaughan, Carl Furillo and either Dick Whitman or Duke Snider in the outfield.

Enters Steamer In Indianapolis 500-Mile Race

Indianapolis, April 12—(AP)—Don Suttle of Detroit today entered a steam-powered car in the 32nd annual 500-mile auto race May 31 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

The car has not been road tested. If the "Suttle Steamer Special" performs according to the builder's expectations, it will be the first steam-powered car ever to reach the qualification trials for the big race.

Suttle's entry blank stated that the car's power plant has only 16 moving parts and used less than a half-pint of lubricating oil during a 15-hour test. It burns fuel oil.

Mourn Death Of Football Great

Pittsburgh, April 12—(AP)—The nation's sportsmen — athlete and spectator alike — today mourned Dr. John B. (Jock) Sutherland, the "silence Scot" of American College and professional football.

Hundreds of messages of condolence poured into the steel city following the death yesterday of the 59-year-old coach of the National football League's Pittsburgh Steelers. He died after an operation for a malignant brain tumor.

Sutherland, who achieved his greatest fame at the University of Pittsburgh, was found wandering not far from his mired car last Wednesday near Banbana, N. Y. Physicians first believed he was suffering from nervous exhaustion.

After he was flown here Friday night a brain condition was discovered, but physicians were unable to remove the malignant tumor.

Sutherland left Pittsburgh about three weeks ago, traveling alone on a combined business and scouting trip. Although he had complained of headaches, his death shocked his friends.

It was in Pittsburgh, both in pro and college ranks, that Sutherland achieved his greatest success after 15 years as coach at Pitt. He entered the pro ranks in 1940 as coach of the Brooklyn Dodgers. Then in the NFL After serving in the navy as a lieutenant-commander in World War II he came "home" to coach the Steelers in 1946.

Sutherland never married. He came to this country as a youth from Cooper Angus, Scotland, where his mother and a sister, Louisa, still reside. Other survivors include a sister, Marion and a brother, William both of Pittsburgh.

Reports Bogota Situation Still Critical Today

By JOSEPH McEVY

Bogota, Colombia, April 12.—(By Telephone to New York)—(AP)—The situation in this capital is still critical today after revolutionary riots which killed 300 persons, smashed at least 1,000 stores, set ablaze 40 major buildings and damaged many fine churches.

The problem of getting food and other supplies is serious. The main bulk of food supplies must be brought in from outside this capital city, and transportation facilities are in a snarl. Some food and milk are coming in, but supplies now are very limited.

The situation has improved slightly, however, from the virtual anarchy which prevailed for a time. Army troops are on patrol, with orders to shoot looters on sight. Rescue squads are picking up corpses amid heaps of rubble up to 10 feet high. Often there is a stench of human flesh in the air.

The government says Communists were behind the rioting and has broken off relations with Russia. Probably never before in this hemisphere's history has there been a revolt which brought such fighting, looting and burning. The heart of Bogota was reduced to a smoking ruin. Hardly a public building escaped damage, and stores everywhere were sacked by mobsters wielding knives and machetes.

Today I was able to walk from the U. S. embassy, where I had been since Friday night, to the Hotel Granada. There are no taxis or buses. Every trolley car in sight is a wreck. This hotel has no lights.

But I have just eaten my first solid meal since Friday. Reports have been received of injury to United States citizens. Secretary of State Marshall and his staff, here for the disrupted conference of the western hemisphere nations, are safe. They are in the residential district known as El Nogal. The Colombian government wants the conference delegates to remain in session, to show that "Communism cannot triumph over the Americas," as a government spokesman expressed it.

Narrow Escape From Death In Highway Wreck

By CHESTER WALSH

A car driven by Burwell Dixon, 22, of Route 1, Greenville, turned over on the Grimesland highway, at the Port Terminal, near Greenville, early Sunday morning and was demolished. The driver and several occupants, slightly injured were able to emerge from the wrecked car and walk. The car was towed to the Flanagan Buggy Company's plant in Greenville.

Highway Patrolman S. G. Gibbs quoted Dixon as saying that his wheels slipped several inches from the pavement to the shoulder of the road, that when he tried to steer it back on the pavement he lost control, and the car turned over and landed in the middle of the highway. Dixon, the driver, and Clifton Whitehurst and Charles McLawhorn, passengers, were painfully but not seriously injured. Wilbur Hardee of the Port Terminal Inn took the injured men to a hospital.

The patrolman said shortly after the wreck a car driven by Lyman B. Roberts of Washington, collided with the wrecked car. Roberts was shaken up and his car suffered some damage. Another car passed there ahead of Roberts', saw the wreck and turned around and was blinking his lights on it when Roberts came along. He said he did not know why the lights were blinking. No arrest was made.

Cherry And Farm Leaders To Meet

Raleigh, April 12.—(AP)—A group of 30 farm leaders will meet with Governor Cherry Thursday to receive a report on how North Carolina farmers can increase their income.

The meeting follows one held with the governor last November after a 37.52 per cent reduction in tobacco acreage allotments had been announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Dixie Democrats Meet To Chart Future Campaign

Atlanta, April 12.—(AP)—Dixie Democratic chiefs met today to chart their fight against President Truman's chief rival.

They quickly denounced a resolution by the Midwest Democratic conference calling on them to jump aboard the "Truman for President" bandwagon.

South Carolina Democratic Chairman William P. Beekin, who called the party, wanted to know: "Where did they find that bandwagon?"

J. O. Emmerich of McComb, Miss., representing Mississippi party chairman Herbert Holmes, said: "We would be highly uncomfortable on that bandwagon even if it existed."

Others on hand at the outset of a two-day conference were State Party Chairman James S. Peters of Georgia, Gessner T. McCorvey of Alabama and Joe Hill Williams of Florida. Others are expected later, possibly from Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Tennessee and North Carolina.

N.C. Democrats To Get Orders At Convention

Raleigh, N.C., April 12.—(AP)—The question of instructing North Carolina delegates to the Democratic National Convention on how to vote on a presidential nominee will be up to the State Democratic convention so far as Governor Cherry is concerned.

The Governor said at his news conference today that he had no comment on a statement by State Democratic Chairman Wilkins P. Horton that he felt the Tar Heel delegation should be instructed.

"I haven't given the matter any consideration," the Governor said. "It's a matter for the convention to decide."

The state will have 40 National Convention delegates who will have a total of 32 votes. Some 24 of the delegates will be selected at congressional district conventions which will be held here on May 20.

Color Blindness Said Permanent; No Cures Found

New York.—(AP)—A Navy study warns persons who were born color blind not to waste their money on so-called cures.

After 75 years of experiments, "no type of treatment or training has proved to be of real value," says Lt. Cmdr. Dean Farnsworth in the Sight-Saving Review. The review is published by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

There are at least 6,000,000 males in the United States who are completely or partially color blind, Farnsworth said, and a smaller number of women.

The Navy, which uses many kinds of colored signals, had to reject any color-blind man. So the Navy was keenly interested in whether the color-blindness can be corrected. Numerous kinds of treatment or training have been advertised or attempted.

Farnsworth said a survey showed that the best authorities on color vision emphatically believe that persons born with color blindness cannot be cured "by the use of diet, medicine, training, or other treatment now known to science."

Less Big Game In South Africa

Pretoria, South Africa.—(AP)—Heavy slaughter of game and large drought losses are likely to bring cancellation of the 1948 open season in the Transvaal.

Dr. T. G. Nel, conservator of game, reports large numbers of animals are wandering from game preserves because of the drought. On unprotected areas they are slaughtered by hunters and the meat is sold commercially. In addition the drought has so weakened many of the animals that they are being pulled down by wild dogs, hyenas and other animals.

A survey of the situation indicates losses among young animals are particularly severe.

Poisoning Trees Is His Business

Pineville, La.—(AP)—Poisoning trees is Fred A. Peavy's business. He is ecologist for the Southern Forest Experiment Station branch here. And he reports that much of Louisiana's potential forest land is monopolized by "pest" trees like blackjack oak and bitter pecan.

These trees were left years ago when timber was cut from the land and their spread has prevented

Night Baseball For High School

Tomorrow night at 7:45 in Guy Smith Stadium the Green Phantoms of Greenville High School will play their first night baseball game.

Elizabeth City furnishing the opposition. The Athletic Council has initiated the practice of playing games at night to allow more townspeople to be able to attend. Thus far the Phantoms have been unsuccessful in four starts but after much experimentation Coach Farley hopes that he has found a winning combination.

On the other hand Elizabeth City's Yellow Jackets have been red hot all season. Their pitching ace, Bill Davenport, has already hurled a one-hitter and a three-blow game.

The Phantoms will probably start Hardee on first, Farley at the keystone, Henley at short, Alligood on third, Joyner, L. Bland and Joseph in the outer garden. Morgan behind the plate and either Flye or Perkins on the mound.
