Wallace Denies Wooing Reds And Charges Fascism

Says "Pseudo Two-Party System" Moving In Direction Of Police State

New York, April 20.—(AP)—America's "pseudo two-party system," Henry A. Wallace says, is moving toward "that preliminary type of police state which smiles on unofficial violence from the right."

The third party presidential aspirant spoke at a $100-a-plate fund raising campaign dinner last night attended by an estimated 1,200 persons. The former vice-president received an ovation when he was introduced by Rexford Guy Tugwell, former governor of Puerto Rico.

Wallace disclaimed any sympathy for Communism but declared that "while the propagandists set us to looking under our beds for Communists we are being plunged on the road to Fascism."

Communism, he said, is spreading because "the policies of Truman, Martin and Dewey are policies which run counter to the needs of people everywhere," Wallace added.

"We of the new party deplore the tendency to divide the thought of the world into just two camps, Fascism and Communism. We seek enough planning, control of big business and government ownership to enable this nation to survive as a democracy and not as a plutocratic refuge of Nazi-Fascism."

As for the Soviet government, Wallace declared, many "just accusations" are leveled against it "but there is no action of that government which we can't correct through our arms and intimidation."

Our present leadership has made our own country guilty of nearly every charge we level against the Russians.

He said advocates of American bopartisan foreign policy are "willingly or unwittingly x x x out of the world."

Wallace shared the speaking of platform for the first time in New York with his running mate, Sen. Glen H. Taylor, (D-Iowa).

Expressing the hope that the third party would receive 20,000,000 votes next November, Wallace said:

"But we don't want the vote of any Fascist, nor the vote of anyone who believes in the overthrow of the United States government by force, nor the vote of anyone who preaches racial discrimination."

The dinner netted an estimated $100,000 for the National Wallace for President campaign committee.

Negroes Vote In S. C. Election

Columbia, S. C., April 20.—(AP)—Negroes voted freely today in a meaningful South Carolina election for the first time since 1876.

Those with registration certificates for a city general election May 11 were invited by State Democratic party chairman W. P. Baskin to vote in today's city Democratic primary to nominate two council candidates.

Baskin's invitation came after the Supreme court of the United States yesterday refused to review a district court ruling that Negroes could vote in the state's heretofore all-white primaries.

Average Auto Is Lasting Longer

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—The average American car lasts 12 years now and does 100,000 miles before it winds up in the junk yard.

Dr. Atkinson, a Commerce Department economist, said so in reporting on a special study.

Before the war, he said, the average auto lasted only 10 years.

LUMBER YARD FIRE

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—Fire caused approximately $100,000 damage yesterday to the J. Herbert Bates Lumber Company yard.

Background Of ECA

The Story Of How To Set Up A Big New Government Agency In A Hurry; Economic Cooperation Administration; Starting From Scratch; Problems In Personnel

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington April 20.—(AP)—This is the story of how to set up a big new government agency in a hurry.

It is the story of ECA—the Economic Cooperation Administration. It was set up to run the European recovery program.

To carry it out ECA will need a staff of about 1,000 people in this country and perhaps 1,000 abroad.

It will be all kinds, from top businessmen and economic experts to stenographers and messengers.

To fill those 2,000 jobs ECA so far has received 15,000 applications. But almost no one has been hired.

ECA now has a staff of about 100 people borrowed from other government agencies. The hiring for the 2,000 jobs will begin later.

The European recovery program was approved by Congress April 2, after 10 months of argument. On April 3 President Truman signed it into law.

On April 6 Mr. Truman picked Paul G. Hoffman, president of the Studebaker Corporation, to run ECA. On April 7 the Senate OK'd Hoffman.

Hoffman, with a brand new agency on his hands, had to start from scratch to build ECA.

He needed plenty of help from the White House and government agencies.

His offices—five floors in a building so new it's still under construction—were chosen for him by the Public Buildings Administration.

The five floors had no walls, offices or partitions. The PBA had to send in crews to build them, paint them, install telephones.

Hoffman borrowed from the army, navy and budget bureau men who specialize in office management, supplies, transportation.

From government surpluses they got swarms of desks, typewriters, and chairs, some of them very beat up.

They got the Agriculture Department to provide office supplies, like letter paper and carbon, with men to handle them.

The government printing office will be ECA's mimeographing and printing. The navy will supply drivers for ECA's cars and keep the cars oiled, gassed and repaired.

Communists Still Lag In Italian Vote

Returns From Majority Of Italy's Senatorial Districts Indicate Crushing Defeat For Followers Of Kremlin Line

Rome, April 20.—(AP)—Returns from three-fourths of Italy's senatorial districts today gave the American-backed Christian Democratic party almost half the total vote in the crucial election battle between Russia and the West.

Early returns on the Chamber of Deputies indicated a similar crushing defeat for the Communists. The returns raised the possibility that the anti-Communists had seized undisputed control of both houses of the new Parliament.

The Interior Ministry's tabulations on the Senate vote, counted first, gave the Christian Democrats 8,171,569, or 44.4 percent of the vote. The popular front coalition of Communist and left-wing Socialists got 5,382,976 votes, or 31.3 percent.

Returns from 4,478 of 41,525 sections in the vote for the chamber gave the Christian Democrats 2,131,608; the Front, 936,307; and the anti-Communist Socialists, 269,393.

The votes for minor parties swelled the anti-Communist total.

Aldice de Gasperi, Italy's Christian Democratic premier, said the returns were beyond his fondest dreams.

Confessing that he had been too pessimistic about Italy's elections, he told Italians today the chief reason for his party's victory was the nation's "firm intention not to be Bolshevized."

The premier's statement, broadcast over the Italian radio network, said he had anticipated his party would have a plurality in the vote Sunday for selection of members of the republic's first Parliament.

"But I never dreamed of affirming..."

Twins Provided 'Double Trouble'

VA Records Confusing Over Louisiana Ex-Servicemen

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—Among 24,000 names card-indexed in the Veterans Administration master file are 217,000 Smiths (12,500 of them named John), 100,000 Browns (6,700 named John) and 130,000 Jones (2,200 named John).

Nevertheless, a VA official said today, few records have provided as many headaches as those of the Master Twins—named not John but Laughlin W. and Vaughn W.—from Choudrant, La.

Both men applied for disability compensation. They both entered the army April 20, 1944, and drew these serial numbers 38654606 for Laughlin, 38654608 for Vaughn.

They served in the same training camps, went to Europe on the same ship, served in the same combat engineers unit in France.

Each was assigned to drive a 2 1/2-ton truck. Both were promoted to private first class, and later to corporal, on the same days.

Both were wounded by one shell burst. They went to the same field hospital, and were discharged from service on the same day. After discharge, both went to work for the Springfield paper company at Shreveport, La.

The twins started work in the testing room, later transferred simultaneously in the laboratory. They enrolled in a Monroe, La., business school and took identical courses.

"Records on these two claims are so confusingly alike that we had to call the twins in personally to a regional office to straighten out the details of their identity," the VA spokesman said.

New York Police In Drive Against Pinball Machines

New York, April 20.—(AP)—More than 1,800 pinball machines and 1,285 summonses were the official tallies today in a citywide drive by police against the pinball game business.

Police Commissioner Arthur Wallender said the drive was keyed "to rid the city of pinball machines once and for all." Earlier, he said it was started when officials learned that organized gamblers were trying "to zone up the city."

Wallender added that there had been attempts recently "to invade this city with pinball machines," which he said might lead to gang warfare among organized gamblers.

"Twenty-five per cent of those connected with the manufacture and distribution of pinball machines have police records," Wallender said.

Senate Passage Of Housing Bill Expected Today

Taft Forecasts Action By Nightfall; Settle Differences Over Program

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—Senate passage of the Taft-Eisenhower-Wagner long range housing bill by nightfall was predicted today by Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

Taft made this forecast in telling reporters that differences between him and Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) over the bill appear to be headed toward settlement.

"I think we will be able to work out a compromise," Taft said.

The Ohio senator is a co-sponsor of the T-E-W measure. Its backers hope it will encourage construction of 15,000,000 new homes by 1955.

The bill would extend through next March the government's authority to insure home loans. It would permit insurance of an additional $2,000,000,000 worth of such loans, including $400,000,000 authorized in a stopgap law.

The measure also provides for more liberal home loan terms on low cost housing, for guaranteeing investors in rental housing a profit, and for slum clearance.

Taft and McCarthy have been sharply at odds over amendments to the bill. McCarthy got 14 changes approved last week. Taft has a motion pending which would strike all of them and substitute a batch of Senate Banking Committee amendments he is backing.

Taft said he is willing to accept two of four amendments which McCarthy says are the most important of his series. The Ohio senator added that he would go along on a third if it were altered somewhat. Under the proposed compromise McCarthy would yield on his fourth major amendment and the rest of his series.

These are the McCarthy amendments which Taft said he would take.

1. A section under which the government would pay half the cost of homes for seriously paralyzed veterans—those who are paraplegic, wheel chair cases.

2. A provision allowing the government to out from public housing tenants who are earning more than the top salary specified as a condition of occupancy. This amount varies among housing projects.

Key Figures For GOP Convention Are Selected

Philadelphia, April 20.—(AP)—Governor Dwight H. Green of Illinois will deliver the keynote address at the Republican National convention this summer.

A 32-member GOP arrangements committee yesterday selected Green as temporary chairman of the convention.

Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, the Speaker of the House of Representatives was nominated for permanent chairman of the convention which opens in Philadelphia June 21.

Martin's selection must be approved by the convention delegates before it becomes official but this is merely a formality, a committee spokesman said.

Sign Agreement To End Costa Rican Revolution

Cartago, Costa Rica, April 20.—(AP)—Rebel leader Jose Figueres rushed couriers to his armies today to halt further bloodshed after ratifying an agreement with the government aimed at settling Costa Rica's civil war. The insurgents appeared to be the victors.

The agreement was signed last night in San Jose by President Teodoro Picado Michalski and a representative of Figueres.

Rebel leaders said Figueres' forces reported last night were nearing San Jose and would continue advancing on the capital, avoiding firing as much as possible. Figueres said he expects the capital to fall in several days.

(In Mexico Costa Rican war Minister Rene Picado Michalski predicted yesterday there would be a Central American war within two weeks.)

In San Jose, it was reported that Brenes has been empowered to form a new cabinet.

Commenting on the agreement, Figueres said:

"Straightening up the mess is up to them. We will keep out of it."

The rebel chief said when he occupies the capital, the provisional government will be replaced by a Junta and an election called.

Farm Land Boom Reaches Dangerous Level; 1920 Collapse Remembered

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—The war-borne land boom has reached the dizzy heights at which the last one exploded to bring tragedy to thousands of farmers.

The Agriculture Department reported today that farm land values on March 1 had climbed to the record of March, 1920—a level that collapsed shortly thereafter.

Sparking the current boom, the department said, is the continued high farm product prices and record farm income.

America Offers Trusteeship Plan For Holy Land

Document Embodies Most Of Previous U. S. Suggestions; Forty-Seven Points

Lake Success, April 20.—(AP)—The United States today offered for United Nations consideration a 47-point trusteeship plan for Palestine.

There was no commitment of American troops. The document, labeled by American spokesmen as a group of suggestions and not a formal proposal, dodged a stand on who should maintain peace in the Holy Land.

Embodiment most of the previous informal United States suggestions, the plan said merely that a group of nations to be selected later should defend Palestine and keep order.

Delegate Warren R. Austin presented the draft plan to the assembly's 58-nation political committee, which began consideration of the whole Palestine problem. The fate of the assembly's 1947 decision to partition the Holy Land will be decided during the debate.

The American document was a combination of 15 general principles Austin and the draft statute for the city of Jerusalem prepared by the UN trusteeship council. The plan was circulated privately to council members last week but Austin received clearance from Washington only yesterday for public presentation.

Sources familiar with the American plan said it included these points for the future of the Holy Land:

1—A governor-general appointed by the UN to be the top man, with virtual dictator powers.

2—An upper and lower house will be elected. The upper body will have 30 members, half Jews and half Arabs. The lower house will be selected on the basis of population, which means a heavy Arab majority.

3—The trusteeship plan will make provisions for some immigration, the principal yardstick being ability of the country to absorb more people.

Indicted Union Bosses Freed On Conspiracy Case

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—Three top officers of the AFL International HOD Carriers Union were acquitted yesterday of charges of conspiring to loot the treasuries of three union locals.

Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff directed the verdict after ruling that the government had failed to link the three with any conspiracy agreement. Six other defendants remain on trial.

Charges against the group were filed four years ago. The indictment said that more than $75,000 had been looted from the treasuries of locals at La Plata, Md., Washington, D. C., and Quantico, Va.

The government charged that part of the money was put into the operation of night clubs.

Arabs Again Try To Cut Lifeline

Jerusalem, April 20.—(AP)—Arab raiders tried again today to cut the communications lifeline of Jerusalem's 100,000 Jews with the Palestine coastal belt.

The Arabs attacked a Tel Aviv to Jerusalem convoy in which David Ben Gurion, chairman of the Jewish Agency Executive, and other agency leaders were traveling.

Jewish sources reported that most of the convoy—including Ben Gurion and the other leaders—got through to Jerusalem with more than 100 food trucks.

Police said yesterday that Jews withdrew after an attack on the village of Suba, which overlooks the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv convoy route.

Further down the same road, Hagannah sappers blasted an Arab filling station and four shops.

Hagannah announced last night it had imposed martial law in Tiberias, after Arabs evacuated the historic city on the shores of Galilee.

The Jewish militia said martial law was declared "to protect properties evacuated by Arabs and to guarantee the sanctity of Holy places, whether Christian, Moslem, or Jewish."

Guards Subdued Berserk Convict

Columbus, O., April 20.—(AP)—One guard was stabbed fatally and two others wounded seriously last night by a negro convict who ran berserk inside Ohio penitentiary for 20 minutes.

The convict, John Thomas, 34, serving a 1-to-15 year term for a Montgomery county burglary, surrendered without resistance when rifle-carrying guards surrounded him in a dining room. He had escaped from the prison hospital's "strong ward." No shots were fired.

Young Murderer Sentenced Today

Chicago, April 20.—(AP)—Howard Lang, 13, youngest murder defendant in Chicago history, was sentenced to 22 years imprisonment today for killing his seven year old playmate.

Lang confessed he killed Lonnie Fellick last Oct. 18 in a forest preserve. He stabbed him and crushed his head with a heavy rock, after forcing a third boy to hold the victim's legs.

Newsman Gather For Convention

New York, April 20.—(AP)—More than 1,000 editors, publishers and other newspaper executives gathered here today for the opening session of the 62nd annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Today's sessions were earmarked for the discussion of problems of newspapers with less than 50,000 circulation.

David Ullman, 4, of Lebanon, Ohio, broke his right arm last Sunday and his collarbone three days later in falls from his bike. Now doctor says he has chicken pox. David can climb up on his bike, all right, but his parents wonder how he's going to scratch the chicken pox when they start itching in a few days. The lad is still cheerful as he gives the bike a workout Saturday. (AP Wirephoto.)

Reaction Among Miners Is Still Anybody's Guess

Pittsburgh, April 20.—(AP)—Frank Hughes, president of the United Mine Workers District Three, today declared fighting of the union and John L. Lewis would not settle the issue.

"We'll just have to wait and see," he said, adding he thought the final answer would be given by the United States Supreme Court.

He made the comment after learning that a federal court in Washington had fined Lewis $20,000 and the union $24,000 on criminal contempt of court charges.

First reaction of soft coal miners in the field to the fine imposed upon their union and its leader was that "we got a dirty deal."

"This is the comment of Baldwin Demarco, 35, of Morgan, Pa., recording secretary of UMW Local 2563.

He echoed the sentiments of several miners grouped around a radio in a community restaurant.

Demarco added that he "didn't know" what effect the fine would have on miners' return to work.

"It looks like Wallace for President," said one miner bitterly. "That's how I'm going to vote and I'm going to get lots more to vote with me."

"If the case had been thrown out of court when the pensions were granted I'd have been back 100 per cent right now," said Demarco.

"That's all we wanted, Lewis never called a strike. I'm recording secretary and the word strike is not mentioned in any correspondence to our local."

More than a fourth of the 400,000 soft coal miners were idle today in fresh walkouts stemming from the Lewis contempt conviction.

A representative of United Mine Worker District 5 in Pittsburgh expressed relief at the fine. "That wasn't so bad," he said, "not so bad."

He added, "A jail sentence would have been bad. All the miners would have gone out and that's for sure."

William Hynes, president of UMW District Four in the Uniontown, Pa., field, said miner reaction to the fine was "anybody's guess."

Raiders Attempt To Sever Communications Of Jewish Area

Munich, Germany, April 20.—(AP)—Fritz Kuhn, missing former leader of the German-American Bund, was convicted today by a Bavarian denazification court as a major Nazi offender.

The 51-year-old German was sentenced to serve 10 years in a labor camp if he is ever found.

He escaped from an internment camp at Dachau last Feb. 4.

Revising Veto In UN

Today There Are 31 Bills Before The U. S. Congress Which Are Aimed At Abuse Of Veto Power By Russia; Revision Of Charter Favored; A Ticklish Proposition

By DEWITT MacKENNIE

There are before the U.S. Congress 31 bills which, in one way or another, are calculated to deal with the abuse of the veto power whereby Russia has been hamstringing the United Nations.

All these proposals provide for a revision of the U.N. charter. However, at least a couple of them are so framed that the present U.N. could be allowed to rumble along while the anti-Russ democracies formed a new organization free of Soviet interference.

These bills are concrete evidence of a strong sentiment for some action against promiscuous use of the veto. Moreover, in the U.N. membership itself we find Australia—a big opponent of the veto—and Argentina leading a group of small nations seeking to revise the charter in this respect.

The veto rights is accorded the Big Five—America, Russia, Britain, France and China—in the Security Council, which alone can impose sanctions. Thus far the Muscovites have used this all-powerful weapon 23 times, whereas France is the only other power to resort to it. She has used it twice.

Revision of the veto provision would, of course, be a ticklish undertaking. The United States insisted on establishment of the veto as a protection against impingement on sovereignty, and there has been no sign that the Washington government would agree to elimination. However, America has indicated that it would like to disregard the veto except for fundamental, self-protecting sovereignty. Russia, naturally, wants to retain it in toto, and in fact undoubtedly would employ it against charter revision.

Being the case, where do we turn for relief? Well, it strikes me that perhaps the situation is rapidly being taken care of by the recent creation of international organizations within the democratic bloc. The organizations to which I refer are these:

Last September 18 American republicans met in Rio de Janeiro and signed a mutual defense treaty for the Western Hemisphere. A month ago Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg entered into a similar pact.

Federal Judge Fines Lewis $20,000 And Union $14,000,000 For Criminal Con- tempt; Will Consider Penalty For Civil Contempt Against Lewis And Union On Friday

Washington, April 20.—(AP)—John L. Lewis today was fined $20,000 and the United Mine Workers $14,000,000 for contempt of a court's stop-strike order.

Judge T. Alan Goldsborough accepted a government recommendation for those fines, but said it had been his own inclination to send Lewis to jail.

The fines are just double what the bushy-browed UMW chief and his miners had to pay after the similarly were found guilty in 1946 of contempt for ignoring a court's stop-strike order.

Then Goldsborough fined Lewis $10,000 and the union $3,500,000, but the Supreme Court cut the union's fine to $700,000.

The fines Goldsborough imposed today were only for criminal contempt. The judge granted a government motion to consider a penalty for civil contempt against Lewis and the union on Friday.

Lewis and the union each were held guilty by the judge yesterday of both civil and criminal contempt. In civil contempt, penalties are usually based on damages done. So penalties are often fixed to increase if damages continue.

This might result in Goldsborough's imposing a daily penalty to event the miners do not work in protest against the criminal contempt fines.

Many were out of the mines today, waiting to see the outcome of the case.

Lewis' attorney, Welly K. Hopkins, filed notices of intention to appeal the contempt conviction.

While Lewis sat stony-faced, Goldsborough told him in passing sentence:

"If this court was to use its individual judgment it would impose a prison sentence."

But the judge added that he was only one man and was accepting the advice of the government.

Assistant Attorney General H. Graham Morrison had recommended only the fines and said nothing about prison.

Morrison proposed them, Morrison reminded the judge that Lewis and the UMW were "second offenders."

Morrison said the court should "discipline these defendants sufficiently to impress upon them permanently, that they must obey the courts."

He recommended that consideration of a possible additional penalty for civil contempt be reserved until next Friday.

Presumably, Morrison, when making this suggestion, had in mind a warning of what happens in the coal fields. Many miners walked out yesterday after the contempt finding.

There were threats of a full-fledged walkout if Lewis should be sent to jail.

Under civil contempt, it would be possible to impose a fine that increased with each day the mines were idle; a fine of $5,000 a day, for instance, for each day the mines stayed out.

Morrison reminded Goldsborough (Continued on Page Three)

Revising Veto In UN

Today There Are 31 Bills Before The U. S. Congress Which Are Aimed At Abuse Of Veto Power By Russia; Revision Of Charter Favored; A Ticklish Proposition

By DEWITT MacKENNIE

There are before the U.S. Congress 31 bills which, in one way or another, are calculated to deal with the abuse of the veto power whereby Russia has been hamstringing the United Nations.

All these proposals provide for a revision of the U.N. charter. However, at least a couple of them are so framed that the present U.N. could be allowed to rumble along while the anti-Russ democracies formed a new organization free of Soviet interference.

These bills are concrete evidence of a strong sentiment for some action against promiscuous use of the veto. Moreover, in the U.N. membership itself we find Australia—a big opponent of the veto—and Argentina leading a group of small nations seeking to revise the charter in this respect.

The veto rights is accorded the Big Five—America, Russia, Britain, France and China—in the Security Council, which alone can impose sanctions. Thus far the Muscovites have used this all-powerful weapon 23 times, whereas France is the only other power to resort to it. She has used it twice.

Revision of the veto provision would, of course, be a ticklish undertaking. The United States insisted on establishment of the veto as a protection against impingement on sovereignty, and there has been no sign that the Washington government would agree to elimination. However, America has indicated that it would like to disregard the veto except for fundamental, self-protecting sovereignty. Russia, naturally, wants to retain it in toto, and in fact undoubtedly would employ it against charter revision.

Being the case, where do we turn for relief? Well, it strikes me that perhaps the situation is rapidly being taken care of by the recent creation of international organizations within the democratic bloc. The organizations to which I refer are these:

Last September 18 American republicans met in Rio de Janeiro and signed a mutual defense treaty for the Western Hemisphere. A month ago Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg entered into a similar pact.

Background Of ECA

The Story Of How To Set Up A Big New Government Agency In A Hurry; Economic Cooperation Administration; Starting From Scratch; Problems In Personnel

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington April 20.—(AP)—This is the story of how to set up a big new government agency in a hurry.

It is the story of ECA—the Economic Cooperation Administration. It was set up to run the European recovery program.

To carry it out ECA will need a staff of about 1,000 people in this country and perhaps 1,000 abroad.

It will be all kinds, from top businessmen and economic experts to stenographers and messengers.

To fill those 2,000 jobs ECA so far has received 15,000 applications. But almost no one has been hired.

ECA now has a staff of about 100 people borrowed from other government agencies. The hiring for the 2,000 jobs will begin later.

The European recovery program was approved by Congress April 2, after 10 months of argument. On April 3 President Truman signed it into law.

On April 6 Mr. Truman picked Paul G. Hoffman, president of the Studebaker Corporation, to run ECA. On April 7 the Senate OK'd Hoffman.

New York Police In Drive Against Pinball Machines

New York, April 20.—(AP)—More than 1,800 pinball machines and 1,285 summonses were the official tallies today in a citywide drive by police against the pinball game business.

Police Commissioner Arthur Wallender said the drive was keyed "to rid the city of pinball machines once and for all." Earlier, he said it was started when officials learned that organized gamblers were trying "to zone up the city."

Wallender added that there had been attempts recently "to invade this city with pinball machines," which he said might lead to gang warfare among organized gamblers.

"Twenty-five per cent of those connected with the manufacture and distribution of pinball machines have police records," Wallender said.

AAUW Will Have Birthday At Convention

The American Association of University Women of the North Carolina Division will celebrate its 21st birthday at the State Convention to be held in Greensboro on April 23 and 24.

The event will be marked by the release of the History of the North Carolina Division of the American Association of University Women, written by Miss Carrie B. Wilson, AAUW State Historian.

Miss Lura Beam, Associate in Arts from the AAUW of the nation organization, Washington, D. C., will speak at the luncheon to be held on Saturday at Greensboro Woman's College; Dr. Hubert M. Poteat of Wake Forest College will address the convention at its banquet at the 'Henry Hotel Friday evening and Robert Lee Humber of Greenville will be the speaker at the board luncheon on Friday at the O'Henry Hotel.

This year, the North Carolina division of the AAUW has launched two state wide projects. One sponsors the writing of North Carolina County Histories, with an award to be conferred upon the author of the best history. This proposal has the active endorsement of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association. The second project is international in its scope. Each of the fifteen branches of the State Division is sending clothing, food and school supplies to a branch or to branch members of the International Federation of University Women in Europe and Asia. As a means of promoting international understanding they are also exchanging plans and ideas with foreign branches.

The North Carolina division of the American Association of University Women has fifteen branches with more than a thousand members.

The State Officers are: Mrs. Robert Lee Humber, of Greenville, president; Mrs. J. W. Moore, of Asheville, vice president; Mrs. D. S. Spain, Jr., of Greenville, secretary, and Miss Sarah Noe, of Charlotte, treasurer.

Better Tobacco Prices Predicted By Rep. Cooley

Washington, April 20 — (AP) — Fifty-cent tobacco this year was predicted today by Rep. Cooley (D-NC).

"The average tobacco price in 1948 at least will approach the 50-cent level because of the European Recovery Program in which tobacco is included and because of the approximately 28 per cent cut in fluenced acreage," he told a reporter.

The situation, he said, is as encouraging now as it was discouraging when exports were cut off and the British trimmed their tobacco imports.

"Everything," he said, "would indicate the crop will sell above that of last year." In North Carolina, for example, the average price fell from $47.73 per hundred pounds to $42.43. This time Cooley said he did not expect the average to go below 48 cents a pound.

Today the House Appropriations Committee announced that tentative allotments for the first year of ERP will include $110,200,000 for tobacco. This would buy about 200,000,000 pounds, tobacco men said.

Senator Hoyer (D-NC) later told a reporter he hoped this would be "upped."

"Since this is only a tentative figure, I would like to see it increased if at all possible," he said. "Tobacco is the best morale builder in that respect it's on a par with food."

DID YOUR BREAKFAST BRAN TASTE REALLY GOOD?

"So-on" you say—"I eat it to help relieve constipation due to lack of bulk food in my diet." But wait—you'll eat Nabisco 100% Bran because it tastes good, too! And Nabisco's "finer-milling" process insures you milder, easier action! Remember to ask for Nabisco...it's the bran that's tempting-good—finer-flavored! (See a doctor if constipation continues.)

UMW Chief ...

(Continued from Page One) that Lewis and the UMW were before him today as second offenders. He recalled the conviction of both Lewis and the UMW in 1946 for contempt under similar circumstances. At that time Goldsborough levied a fine of $3510,000 on the union and one of $10,000 on Lewis. The union's fine was later reduced by the Supreme Court to $710,000.

Morison said that the defendants (Lewis and the UMW) "have chosen to set themselves above the procedures of law and to disregard entirely a law of the United States and the mandate of this court issued pursuant to that law."

He said that Lewis and the union had "willfully failed" to obey the April 3 court order.

Respect for this order must be enforced, Morison added, by "punishment sufficient to discipline the defendants and meet the standards of orderly judicial process."

The Communists had very little to say.

Pietro Ingaro, director of the Communist party newspaper, L'Unita, declared in a formal statement that the Communist-dominated Popular Front "without any doubt will represent a decisive element in the future Parliament and in the country."

Strength FOR THE DAY
FACE THE REALITY OF CONFLICT

Someone has declared that the battle for the emancipation of China will finally be won not on the battlefield but on the rice fields —not where men fight, but where they work; not over ideologies, but over food; not amid spectacular conflict, but amid the daily tasks of men providing a living for themselves and food for others.

Isn't this where all the battles are fought? Perhaps not. The greatest battles are won on the field of a man's soul. But certainly it is true that marshaled soldiers have seldom settled anything with their battles. Soldiers are necessary, and the world being as it is, battles still have to be fought with arms, and this may continue to be required for centuries to come. But such battles at best do little more than turn back overwhelming dangers. They settle nothing.

The statement about the rice fields might be expanded. For all mankind, the chief benefits are won not on the battlefield but in the home, on the market place, in the school and the church. Life is a conflict, and we do not need the bloodstained battlefield to prove this. Life's most stupendous powers are at work as people establish homes, make a living, learn new truth, and shed old prejudices.

We are all soldiers on a field of battle, and happy the man who understands this and acts accordingly.

WASHINGTON LETTER
By JANE EAPES

Washington—A living "library" of trees is in the growing on more than 400 acres on the outskirts of the District of Columbia. Though established by act of Congress in 1927, several more years will be required before the National Arboretum reaches its full proportions. Some parts, however, will be opened to the public in 1950.

The Arboretum, started for purposes of research and education concerning tree and plant life is under the direction of the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Department of Agriculture.

The original appropriation for land was for 300,000. Three additional Congressional appropriations have been granted since. When completed the Arboretum will boast between 4,000 and 5,000 varieties of "woody things" that can be kept out of doors the year around in this part of the country.

In the beginning, clearing, road and fence building were largely carried on by the Civilian Conservation Corps. At the same time nurseries were erected into which were brought the first small stock of trees. Later the young trees were transplanted to permanent spots throughout the acreage, by botanical families and groups. For instance, the various species of oak, pine, maple, elm, and miscellaneous families each have its allotment. There is the legume family, too, the locusts, redbud and acacia trees.

In addition, there were already a good many native trees growing on the property. These have been utilized in the general landscaping of the area. Individual specimen planting also figures in the general planning of the Arboretum. These will show for instance, the Norway maple as it grows here, a certain type of hemlock and other varieties of plants. These will give students opportunity for more detailed research.

Only the woody flowering trees and shrubs will be grown in the Arboretum. These include eight acres of hybrid azaleas and a large planting of crab apple trees, just completed. Sixteen miles of roads and trails are planned through the wooded land, but there will be only one building. This will house administrative offices and an herbarium to contain dried specimens of plants—leaf stems, flower—also like a library, for study purposes, especially in winter.

It is expected that botanists and plant life students from all over the world will visit the Arboretum after its completion.

BLACK MARKET BOOM

Emden—(P)—Police here said they had confiscated enough black market food from travellers in the past few weeks to fill 75 railway wagons. Fire personal belongings to barter with the farmers.

shorter, weighs up to 120 pounds, and has a 24 waist, 34 bosom and 34 1-2 hips."

His agency stocks beautiful girls on a mass production basis. He has a current inventory of more than 200 photographic and fashion models, and adds about ten new faces a week as old ones drop out of the game.

Huckstering beauty is a finely developed art as well as a profitable business. One of Conover's contributions has been the invention of catchy names for his products—Melody Johnson, Choo Choo Johnson, Jinx Falkenberg, Candy Jones.
Some time ago he changed Miss Jones' name again to Conover.

They have a son now. They named the little fellow Jones Conover.
Conover, an ex-model who at 37 is getting somewhat rounder himself, believes television will create a new boom field for models and save movie talent scrounging a lot of trouble.

"They'll be able to look over the crop by just switching on their television sets," he said. "I'll even save them the cost of making screen tests."

Teen age models are having a "terrific vogue" now and account for 50 percent of his agency's business.
"But our teen agers all want to get that sophisticated grownup look," complained Conover pleasantly,
"whereas they can make more money by staying young and fresh-looking. Nothing kills off a model faster quicker than getting a professional look."

"A girl is old and decrepit in this business at 24 or 25. It eats them up. But if a model is the bored, high fashion type she can go on indefinitely—to 35 or more."

These are the semi-emaciated ladies with a face as expressionless as a catcher's mask who grace the pages of the four-bit fashion magazines.

Conover stresses to his girls that modeling is a short-term career and should be used only as a calling card or stepping stone to some other field—such as movies, the radio or fashion promotion.

"It takes us a year and a half to get a girl out of her cocoon," he said.
"Pushing a new girl is like pushing a truck. It's hard to get up momentum."
"And after she begins hitting the covers she is usually good for only three or four years at top prices. Her face gets too well known."

Of the 750 or more professional models in New York City Conover estimates only about 75 get the top rate—now $25 an hour, although it climbed to $50 during the war. A girl in this bracket may make from $500 to $750 a week but is lucky to average $350—while it lasts.

About 300 other girls average $125 to $150 a week. The rest make less.
Minimum hourly rate for a Conover model—$7.50.

"It's bad when a girl lets modeling become a religion—when she thinks the whole world is waiting to see her face on next month's cover," said Conover. "Because that just isn't true. When a model gets the idea she is the only one—there's nothing you can do with her."

Conover wanders around among his long-stemmed beauties like an absent-minded zoology professor wading in a frog pond. He has learned to be impersonal with them because he has learned that temperament goes with beauty.

"If I were a plumber," he said philosophically, "I suppose I'd get just as tired of looking at brass pipes, too."

Piney Grove News

We have at last completed our Sunday schools rooms and we are certainly proud of them. It certainly is nice to be able to go to your class and your class alone instead of having to meet in a body. I think I can say for myself and the whole Sunday school as well that we certainly do thank everyone who had a hand in making them possible.
Everyone has worked real hard and I think seeing the rooms are thanks enough. Our goal now is to paint the church and get new pews and we hope to do this in the near future.

The Junior Ladies Auxiliary met last Monday night at the home of Miss Hagar Hart. This group of young ladies is really doing fine work. Although it has only been organized a year, they donated $25 to the building committee last Sunday, while the Senior Auxiliary donated $50.

The Senior Ladies Auxiliary met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. S. Tyson.

Our choir, which now practices first and third Sunday nights, met this past Sunday and we had a large crowd and a fine practice. We hope everyone of you are planning to attend the next community hymn festival which will be held the fifth Sunday in May at Bell Arthur in the high school auditorium.

The Youthful Workers' Club will present their play, "Ghost Farm," Tuesday night, April 20, in the Belvoir high school at 8 o'clock. If you like murder mysteries be sure and see this play. The club will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday night in the Red Oak community building at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to attend since it will be time to elect new officers.

We are very sorry to learn that Mrs. Thurman Crawford is confined to her home. Our wish is that she'll soon be well.

Mrs. J. H. Tucker is getting along just fine but we certainly do miss her at Sunday school. We do hope it won't be so long before she can get out.

Miss Janice Tyson was the weekend guest of Miss Hazel Garris of Farmville.

Congratulations are due to Miss Jane Tyson who graduated from King's Business College in Raleigh some time ago. She is now employed by the Carolina Sales Corporation.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Worthington was home for the week-end and the had as her guests Misses Paudine Whitley and Elizabeth Hinson.
They are all attending school in Raleigh.

Mr. Roy Avery was home for the week-end also.

Report On Speed Trap Draws Fire

Raleigh N. C., April 20—(P)—A State Highway Patrol report on an alleged speed trap investigation in Craven county today drew fire from a constable in the county.

Constable W. A. Meekins, who was mentioned in the report, wrote motor Vehicle Commissioner Landon C. Rosser that he was not interviewed before the report was released.

Rosser said Patrol Sgt. T. B. Brown had stated in the investigation report that he talked to Meekins about a speeding case in which the report mentioned Meekins as the arresting officer.

The report, issued last week, said that Constables in Craven are "very active," particularly on the highways. The Constables, the report said, have high-powered automobiles, apparently used to patrol the highways.

Meekins wrote Rosser: "I have worked entirely in the public interest and wrongful and unfair aspersions in your interview released from your office are certainly unfair to officers in this county who are trying to carry out their duty faithfully and honestly."

The only building in Greenville having more than one story is an American Red Cross club for servicemen.

Mine Disaster

Lille, France, April 20—(P)—At least 11 miners died in a dust explosion at a coal mine at Sallau mines last night, officials announced today.

They said the fate of six other persons remains unknown. Two girl workers, who were at the pithead when the blast occurred, are missing, as are four German prisoners of war, who were at work deep in the pit. Eyewitnesses said they saw the girls enveloped in flames.

Science Improves Powdered Eggs

Chicago, April 20—(AP)—That powdered egg now is just about as good as fresh eggs, two chemists said today.

Even after a year, the new egg powder tastes so much like fresh eggs that many untrained observers cannot tell the difference, Ralph M. Conrad, director, and John W. Greene of the University of Colorado's Bureau of Industrial Research told the American Chemical Society.

Five Students In Peace Oratorical Contest Thursday

Five Greenville High students have entered the Peace Oratorical Contest scheduled by the Greenville Woman's Club for Thursday evening. Each oration is to be original and must answer the question: "How can the United Nations be strengthened?"

Each contestant will be allotted five minutes speaking time. The high school orators include one freshman, Augusta Overton, and four juniors, Roy Hardee, Louise Batson, Frederick Brooks and Barbara Clement.

This contest to be held at the Woman's Club is the second annual North Carolina High School World Peace Contest. It is administered by the Extension Division of the University of North Carolina and is sponsored by local civic organizations in all high schools interested. It was sponsored last year, and again this year, by the Woman's Club in Greenville. The past year, more than 200 high schools registered and 1000 students delivered speeches to an audience that approximated 53,000 persons.

Alfred Saleed, who won the peace medal last spring, used his oration in the recent NFL District Oratorical Contest and was ranked ahead of all other North Carolina orators. This qualifies him to represent North Carolina in the National NFL Tournament in Canton, Ohio, in May.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again. Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have positive proof shown that 888 Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the 888 Tonic formula, which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, 888 Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better. Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkaline to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is 888 Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people 888 Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of 888 Tonic from your drug store today. 888 Tonic helps build sturdy health.

Lions Club Hears Willard T. Kyzer

The Greenville Lions Club in their regular weekly meeting heard Willard T. Kyzer, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, explain the working of the various committees of the Chamber of Commerce, and the plans and hopes of these committees for the future of our community.

Kyzer explained that 26 major projects were under consideration by the various committees for this year, with some of them having already been accomplished in cooperation with other civic bodies in the city and the county.

The Agriculture Committee shared the sponsorship of the District Speaking Contest on Soil Conservation in which nine counties were represented in Greenville recently. This committee has also reported progress in the effort to increase the number of telephones in rural areas, and plans for next fall include the Pure Bred Hog Show to be held in Greenville.

The Civic Affairs Committee sponsored the Boy Scout Camporee, which has been pronounced a huge success, and assisted in the recent survey which will lead to the re-marking of city streets and renumbering homes. This committee has also extended Fire Prevention Week into a year around program.

Several other committees were mentioned by name and their projects for the year, listed by the speaker, with most of his talk being spent on the efforts of the Industrial Committee, whose main function is to attract industry into this area.

The speaker pointed out the major factors involved in influencing industry into this area. Some of the strong points in this area's favor were mentioned and some of the weaknesses were also pointed out. Kyzer repeated some of the "rumors" that have come to his attention about the lack of industrial development in Greenville and suggested that some of these were untrue, and others did not take into consideration all of the factors involved.

The speaker complimented the Lions Club on their recent offer to the Chamber of Commerce volunteering the assistance of the club in this matter of attracting industry into this area.

Lion President Tyson Bluro gave an enthusiastic report on the recent community meeting called by the Recreation Committee of the city for the purpose of laying plans for a Community Center for Greenville. He recommended this project to the Lions Club.

Guests of the meeting included Dick Evans of this city and visiting Lion Robert L. Crut of Longmont, Colorado.

Buckshot Hurts

Springfield, O., April 20—(AP)—An excited resident called police headquarters last night saying he had fired a shotgun at a crowler.

Capt. Harry Schuman ordered a radio cruiser to the scene, some eight blocks from the station. He barely had the microphone down when a Negro boy burst through the station doors.

"Are you the—?" Schuman began. "Yassah, I'm him," the boy replied. "I just couldn't wait for those slow policemen. This buckshot hurts something awful."

Schuman sent him to a hospital to have the buckshot removed, then turned him over to juvenile authorities.

ed into a fifty-year partnership to defend their democratic way of life against any aggressor.

Then last week representatives of 16 western European nations and the American-British-French occupied zones of Germany met in Paris and adopted a convention bonding themselves into a permanent organization for economic cooperation. These are the countries participating in the Marshall Plan, and they include Greece and Turkey.

Now then, coordinate these various organizations, all of which aim at economic rehabilitation and defense against aggression, and you have a new peace organization free of Soviet influence. And the way it looks from here, that's exactly what is happening.

Background . . .

ECA will pay these other government agencies monthly for these goods and services.

Meanwhile, the White House ordered James H. Hard, director of personnel for the treasury, to help out at ECA.

He had to borrow about 100 people from other agencies, including messengers, stenographers and men who can interview people looking for jobs.

Job-seekers stand in lines outside Hard's offices. They're interviewed and their applications are kept on file.

And Hard's crew has to sort, analyze and file the applications of those 15,000 people who have written in for jobs.

But why has almost no one yet been hired for ECA, since Hoffman hopes to fill his staff within 90 days? For one thing, he still hasn't hired his two key men, a deputy administrator and a roving ambassador to check on the recovery program in Europe.

So far Hoffman has chosen only one top official, Dennis A. Fitzgerald, an outstanding food authority, to head ECA's food division.

But 24 other top men like Fitzgerald must be picked to head other ECA divisions, such as machinery and textiles, since machinery and textiles will be part of the help to Europe.

All these top officials must decide what kind of staffs they'll need. So, until some of these top men are chosen and start to work, hiring at ECA will have to wait.

HAUNTED HOLIDAY

Chapter 19

The occupants of Ekanili were gathered before the living room fire much as they had been the morning before when Simeon's death had been announced. They all wore the same stunned look as though Sophie's death were more of a shock than a loss. Duke buttonholed Johanson as soon as the criminal investigator entered the room.

"Man, you've got to take more stringent measures to protect us!" Johanson's eyes were frosty. "Just what would you suggest?"

He stared at each other angrily until Julia stepped forward and put a restraining hand on Duke's arm. "Please Duke, I'm sure the police are doing their best." She turned to Johanson. "You found Hugh at Oland's, didn't you?"

"No," Johanson refused to meet her eyes. "He left there at eleven this morning alone. I'm getting bloodhounds out from town to find him."

Julia tried to stifle her horrified gasp. "Oh how terrible!"

"Look, Julie," Vince explained. "Bloodhounds are amiable creatures; for his own sake it's best to find him. Johanson tells me the woods around here are full of cougars — he's in real danger from them."

The mute fear in her eyes made him wish he'd kept quiet.

Johanson moved toward the fire and stood with his back to it; the flames silhouetted his slim legs, the dangling fringes of his jacket and his white-gold thatch of hair. He looked curiously young and primitive like a modern edition of Daniel Boone. His expression was relentlessly stern.

"How many of you knew about Hugh Mannley?" he demanded. "Or rather is there anyone who didn't know about his presence in this house?"

Bud Donovan cleared his throat with embarrassing audibility. "Iris and me," he volunteered, "we've never seen or heard of him either."

Johanson looked interested. "I see. What about you, Madam Deveraux?" She nodded quickly. "Out, Hugh est un pauvre enfant perdue—like "You don't think that I—?" Vince left the words suspended.

"You've just returned from the Pacific where it's easily obtainable." "Don't be a fool," Vince almost shouted. "Do you think I'd be so senseless as to hide it in my own suitcase, where the police would look?"

Their eyes met and held angrily then Johanson shrugged and reached for his briar. "I'll admit you don't look like the type, Bonny."

"It seems pretty obvious to me what happened," Vince snapped.

"You mean it was planned?" "Yes, but not meant to be discovered. After Sophie's body was found today, you ordered everyone into the living room, remember? This person put the stuff in my suitcase because he thought my belongings were exempt from search. He probably guessed you'd be snooping around."

Johanson struggled patiently with his sixth match. "Sounds logical—Well, we don't have to worry about it much, if this is the entire supply the owner will identify himself soon enough. That's one thing about dope."

"Unless he's selling it," Vince suggested.

They exchanged glances then Johanson walked out the front door. When he returned they heard the solid tires of the police ambulance slewing over the gravel drive. Sophie Mannley had embarked upon her last journey. Warner glanced down at his wristwatch and snickered. . . .

"Six o'clock. The old girl might as well have stayed in town and saved herself a trip!"

Johanson shot him a disgusted look and poked his head through the curtains beside the living room entrance.

"You people are free to go about your business," Johanson announced. "As I told Mr. Duke, we are doing everything we can to protect you, but there is still a criminal at large—a very dangerous criminal. I think I need hardly advise you to take precautions such as locking doors, etc."

His only response was an ugly silence as fear became an almost visible thing in that house of death. (To be continued)

Strawberry Festival Wallace This Week

College Station, Raleigh, April 20 —Plans are about complete for the Strawberry Jamboree to be held at Wallace Thursday and Friday, April 29 and 30. L. F. Weeks, Duplin county agent for the State College Extension Service, announced today.

One feature of the event will be a large strawberry exhibit to be put on by the Federal and State Departments of Agriculture, N. C. State College, and the Agricultural Extension Service. The display will include information on breeding and varieties of strawberries, recommended cultural practices, insect and disease control, and marketing.

Approximately 30 commercial exhibits will be a display showing various types of farm machinery and other merchandise related to farming. Strawberry short-cake will be sold by Wallace High School girls at one booth, and another booth will retail fresh strawberries.

Prize-winning strawberries will be sold at auction between 1:30 and 2 p. m. Friday. A Wallace pilot will deliver the winning crate by air, provided the purchaser lives within 300 miles.

Greenies' Sluggers Go To Town In 18-4 Victory

Locals Swamp Dunn-Erwin; Chitty On Mound All Nine Innings; Simmons Belts Two-Run Homer Over Left Field Fence

By REET MOYE
Manager Bill Phebus' Greenies really went to town last night as they swamped the Dunn-Erwin Twins of the Tobacco State League, 18-4 to even the two game exhibition series between the two clubs. Jerry Chitty on the mound for the Greenies, went the entire route, struck out seven and walked four. The Greenies scored in every inning but the fourth and their big inning was the lucky seventh when they put across seven runs on three hits, one of the hits being a two-run homer by Paul Simmons over the left centerfield wall, one error, five walks, one passed ball and one stolen base.

The Twins used three hurlers in last night's game and the Greenies got a total of 15 hits—much to the delight of the fans present who have been waiting for sometime to see the Greenies really put on the ball. In addition to Simmons' home run included doubles by Chitty and Charlie Chute.

Every man on the Greenville club made a run in last night's game and every man got a hit—that means the starting lineup, Charlie Chute with a double and a single, Danny Lastris with two singles, Jerry Chitty with a double and a single, and Ray Phillips with two singles led the 15-hit attack of the Greenies.

Score by innings: R H E
Dunn-Erwin 120 000 010—4 8 8
Greenville 123 011 733—18 15 3
Winners, Jenny (2), Moore (7) and Walker, Cuddimo (6), Lowdermilk (7); Chitty and Simmons.

Case To Remain

Raleigh, April 20—(AP)—Everett Case today held a new four-year contract as coach of basketball at N.C. State College. The contract, which is subject to okay by the college administration, was voted the highly successful basketball coach by the N.C. State Athletic Council at a meeting late yesterday.

The council also voted to recommend to the college administration that the entire athletic setup at the college be coordinated under a director of athletics.

Case in recent weeks has let it be known that if the athletic administration at State were not revised he would leave the school.

Net Team Plays Conference Foe

The tennis squad of East Carolina Teachers College will go after its first foe within the North State Conference Wednesday. At that time the college players will take on Atlantic Christian College on the local courts. To date, the squad has played only two matches, both being with the University of Richmond of the Southern Conference. Wednesday, Richmond was pushed in every set before finally taking the match, which was settled in the number-one doubles match.

It is as yet undecided whether Bob Williams, number-four player for East Carolina, will play Wednesday. He will probably be out of the game because of an injury to his arm.

The matches will take place at 1:00 o'clock.

More than 400,000 youngsters and adults were trained in swimming and water safety courses by Red Cross instructors in 1945.

Brissie Downed; Returns To Hurl 'Greatest Game'

Boston, April 20—(AP)—A harshly battered ball cracked off his left leg like a shot from a gun and the big boy fell writhing and grimacing in pain. The blow was enough to force a normally well conditioned athlete out of action.

But left handed pitcher Lou Brissie—just as he fought off a board of doctors who wanted to amputate the same limb after it was shattered by German shrapnel—got up at the dusty mound at Fenway Park yesterday and pitched the Philadelphia Athletics to a four hit 4-2 triumph over the powerful Boston Red Sox.

Then he went to Faulkner Hospital where his leg was X-rayed and packed in ice overnight as a precaution against possible infection.

"I'm afraid I might lose my turn, I've got to get back on the field," the 26-year-old told doctors.

Said one physician, "That kid is utterly unimpaired, or seems to be over the whole thing. He's got lots of courage."

And from Ted Williams, Red Sox slugging outfielder whose jet like hit knocked down the South Carolinian yesterday came this tribute: "The kid's got it, no question about that. I'm glad he's okay."

The fact that Williams' liner had knocked him down like a bowling pin bothered the boy not a whit.

In the ninth, with the fans cheering for the Sox to pull out the game Brissie again faced Williams. The hard hitting Boston outfielder was the inning's first batter. Brissie struck him out.

In fact, the Sox didn't get another hit off the wounded war hero after Williams' hit knocked him down. Brissie's story has been told before but briefly it goes like this: A shell burst in the Apennines killing 11 of his companions and wounding him. Doctors wanted to amputate. He pleaded he was a ball player.

After 23 operations and 40 blood transfusions he was discharged wearing an aluminum brace. That was in 1945.

In 1947 after reporting to the Athletics in spring training he spent last summer in the Sally League where he won 23 and lost only six while pitching for Savannah. He compiled the excellent earned run average of 1.91, fanned 278.

His first start in the big time was at the age of 22 last season where he was charged with a 5-3 loss to the Yankees.

Yesterday he won his first victory and, after receiving a hearty handshake from Mister Mack, A's manager, he limped off the field to the plaudits of the fans.

Sport Slants

The Greenies will wind up their exhibition series here tonight when they meet Coach Jim Johnson's SCFC Pirates at Guy Smith Stadium at 7:45 o'clock. Garland Little and Augustin Medina are slated to do the hurling for the Greenies, while Mayo will probably do the hurling for the Pirates.

The Roanoke Rapids Jays were hit by a streak of hard luck last night when Manager Stu Martin was hit on the head with a pitched ball in an exhibition tilt with the Norfolk Tars. He is in the hospital with a slight concussion and is reported as resting comfortably. Ray Skelton is in charge of the Jays.

Predicts British Olympic 'Fiasco'

London, April 20—(AP)—A leading medical authority in London predicts the English will make a poor showing in the summer Olympics, adding: "Our athletes will turn out in July the worst fed by far of any competing nation."

Dr. C. R. Woodward, medical officer to the British Olympic cycling team and head of a London athletes' clinic, wrote in The Star that the Olympics will be a "fiasco" for Britain.

"Our athletes are too underfed for competition with those of other nations," he said.

Woodward said the British ration of 2,700 calories daily is enough for ordinary people but not for athletes, who require a minimum of 4,000.

"A sprinter running 100 yards uses an enormous amount of energy," the doctor said, "more, say, than a miner uses in a week."

Swimmers, cyclists and other athletes use nearly as much, he added, and "to ask them to train and race on present day rations is to ask the impossible."

Chicod Pitchers Hurl 13-3 Win

Chicod, April 19—J. Fornes and Edwards combined to hurl a 13-3 win for Chicod over Pactus.

Mills, Brown and Lewis each with two for three led the 13-hit attack for Chicod. Pactus' score came on one hit by Brannon, three bases on balls, and three Chicod errors.

Wynn pitched for the losers.

Winterville plays at Chicod on Wednesday.

Red Cross chapters arranged for housekeepers for servicemen's wives returning home with new babies.

Mexico Feeling Lure Of Baseball

Guaymas, Sonora, Mexico—(AP)—Baseball has shunted the national sport of bull fighting into the background as far as the west coast and border cities of Mexico are concerned. "El Torro" is being forgotten and the entire population seems to be turning up with a high fever of interest in "besbol."

Hoofs and mouth disease may well be administering the coup de grace to lagging interest in performances of romanticized matadors. Shipping of fighting bulls into the disease-free northern section is forbidden. But even before this ruling baseball had taken over the choice Sunday afternoon hours. Bull fight fans, many of them curious visitors from the U. S., had to wait in half-filled arenas until the last out on the baseball diamond.

Guaymas, generally known as a port on the Gulf of California used by game fishermen, is typical of the baseball-smitten cities. About 50 businessmen subsidize the club with an average of 1,000 pesos each—then buy their tickets to the games.

Men, women and youngsters jam every corner of the stadiums that seat up to 4,000. Young knot-hole peepers have a tough time in this country. The fields are surrounded with foot-thick adobe walls.

The homes of the peons are bare of most furniture, but many have some form of radio by means of which they follow play-by-play reports of the games. Players are regarded as minor heroes, far more so than in the United States. The fans can't get too much baseball. The winter season schedule runs from Nov. 15 to Feb. 15. The big summer schedule gets underway April 15 and winds up Aug. 15.

Joe McCarthy Is Toppled Twice By Irreverent A's

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Joe McCarthy is back in baseball today—but please, mister, don't remind him.

The former manager of the New York Yankees still doesn't know what hit him in yesterday's American League opener—his first day back since he went into his self-imposed exile a year and a half ago.

Old Connie Mack brought his upstart Philadelphia Athletics to Boston for a Patriots Day morning-afternoon double-header, welcomed McCarthy back with a "How are you, Joe?" then proceeded to rip McCarthy's Red Sox apart with a double-barreled 5-4 and 4-2 triumph.

Mack used two World War II vets—Pitchers Phil Marchildon and Lou Brissie—to lead the charge.

Marchildon, shot down by the Germans while he was flying for the Canadian Air Force, and held a prisoner for nearly a year, spaced seven hits over 11 innings to win the first game. Brissie, for whom doctors once gave up hope after his left leg was nearly torn off by German shrapnel, limited Red Sox sluggers to four hits to win the afternoon tilt.

There were two other openers yesterday—one in each league—and they ran true to form. The World Champion New York Yankees spoiled Washington's annual inaugural by knocking the stuffing out of the Senators, 12-4, behind a 16-hit attack. President Harry Truman—part of a 31,728 turnout—was on hand to throw out the first ball. The way things went for the Nats, he might as well have thrown the others too.

Even an eighth-inning free-for-all scuffle failed to ruffle the calm of lanky Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati's splendid righthander who fashioned a near 7-hitter in pitching the Reds to a 4-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates in Cincinnati. A crowd of 32,147 witnessed the contest.

Named After Pacer

New York—(AP)—The Little Brown Jug, famed harness racing classic for three-year-old pacers held at Delaware, O., considered the pacing Kentucky Derby—is named after a famous pacer named Little Brown Jug which raced in the 1880's—not the football series played between Michigan and Minnesota.

One of the pyramids, Cheops, covers nearly 13 acres and is estimated to weigh about 7,000,000 tons.

To Hold Meeting On Resource-Use

In order to plan a resource-use program to be carried out through the schools of the eastern section of the state, a committee representing many phases of activity in this area will meet at East Carolina Teachers College on Friday afternoon, April 3, at 1:00 o'clock. Dr. Richard Weaver of Chapel Hill, program director of the Resource-Use Education Commission of North Carolina, will be present for the meeting and will act as consultant to those attending.

The 22-member committee was appointed on March 13, when a resource-use conference, attended by approximately 100 men and women in the eastern section of the state, was held at the college here.

Among the plans to be discussed at Saturday's meeting will be those for a resource-use workshop to be held at East Carolina Teachers College on June 9-16. Science, the social studies, and health and physical education will be included in the program, and faculty members of the college will conduct classes and field trips.

Seven schools in this section have volunteered to participate in the program of resource-use education through the public schools, and the work to be done through them will be discussed at the conference on Saturday. These are located in Rich Square, Williamston, Winterville, Jamestown, Kinston, Beaufort, and Snow Hill.

Directors Have Busy Meeting; Observe July 5

By CHESTER WALSH

The Greenville Merchants Association board of directors at a meeting at the city hall last night accepted the resignation of C. A. Plyler as a director and elected R. F. (Bob) Thompson to succeed him. Plyler recently moved to an upstate city. President William H. Taft presided.

The North Carolina Merchant Association convention will be held in Asheville May 18-20. Executive Secretary Cora S. Powell will attend, it was announced. Judson H. Blount of Greenville is president of the state association and will preside. Others from here are expected to attend the convention.

It was announced that since July Fourth comes on a Sunday this year, Monday, July 5, will be observed as a holiday. This day also will be observed as a state and banking holiday.

The salesmanship class being conducted under the direction of G. C. Frye, coordinator at the Greenville High School, started Monday. Attendance was gratifying and the interest is excellent.

President Taft appointed C. R. McBrayer, Larry Averett, Charles E. Blair and Charles B. Blissette to the Christmas Decorations committee with instructions to make a report at the May meeting, which will be held on May 24 to avoid conflicting with the North Carolina Merchants Association convention in Asheville.

Wayland Hunsucker First To Announce

Wayland Hunsucker, mayor of Winterville for 12 years and for a time the youngest mayor in the United States, was the first candidate to announce for county commissioner Primary, May 29. Inadvertently Hunsucker's name was omitted from the story about the election campaign yesterday.

He is a candidate from District 4, which includes Winterville, Chocoma and Grimesland.

Pullman Berth Is On Its Last Legs

Jacksonville, Fla., April 20—(AP)—Today's Pullman berth is on its way out.

Tomorrow—the women will have all the hip and arm room they need for wriggling into girdles; and the men will be able to make with the pants without doing a neck-stand.

This because the country's railroads now have on order more new passenger equipment, $500,000,000 worth, than was installed in the 15 years prior to World War II, and all the sleeping cars will be rooms or roomettes.

The information was given today by J. M. Fitzgerald of New York City, vice chairman of the Eastern Railroads Presidents conference. He also is chairman of the Board of the Associated Traffic Clubs of America in spring meeting here.

"During the war, all equipment took a terrible beating and replacements were impossible," he said in an interview. "Now railroads in order new passenger rolling stock are looking to more luxury equipment."

She had been living near Ham's Crossroads until the death of her husband in 1922. For the past year she had been living with her son in Shermidine. Ayden Rambler Rose Bush In Bloom Now

Mrs. B. G. Taylor of Ayden has a wonderful rambling rose bush in bloom. It is the Rambler Sweetheart Rose, tiny pink buds encased in luxuriant emerald-green leaves, and the leaves stand out pleasingly to the eyes of the flower-lover. The rambling rose is trained to drape over a trellis and it shows to excellent advantage. Mrs. Taylor's Rambler Sweetheart Rosebush is the only one of its kind in this part of the state, it is understood.

Over 150,000 American military and civilian personnel have visited the Sphinx and Pyramids on American Red Cross tours.
