New Flood Threat Rises In Oregon

New Flood Building Up In Headwaters As Crest Of Old One Gnows At Weakened Dikes; Communities Bracing For Onslaught

Portland, Ore., June 3—(AP)—The Columbia river system spawned a new flood in its headwaters today. Crest of the old one still threatens to punch out weakened dikes far down stream near the sea.

Warning of the new flood abiding came with residents of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia near exhaustion from their two weeks battle against what is already the river's most disastrous rampage.

All along the 1,000-mile course of the great river from the Canadian Rockies to the Pacific, water-logged cities and farm communities braced themselves for the new onslaught—if they weren't too busy fighting off flood waters already at hand.

The old crest was falling down the last 40 miles of its course of death and destruction to the sea. This still was a critical area.

Regular army troops, national guardsmen and civilian volunteers worked on soggy dikes only inches higher than the churning waters from Cascade on the Oregon shore to the still-supported fishing center of Astoria at river's mouth.

Again this morning—as yesterday—the danger of break-through was multiplied by a high tide coming up the river.

It was touch and go. Workers strained to build up the earthworks protecting the fertile lowlands. Their fight was against property damage only. The people were evacuated days ago.

Upriver, too, the struggle against soft dikes went on around Portland even as the gears of rehabilitation finally meshed after the Memorial Day disaster of Vanport.

Top Red Cross executives here said they believed "few, if any" of the housing projects for 10,000 residents were lost when a dike cracked and Columbia waters washed away the city that had been Oregon's second largest. Known as the "poor," it excluded Vanport, total 23.

Federal and state agencies have coordinated plans and their massive reconstruction weight has turned to the task of rehabilitation for some 50,000 persons and repairing damage running into untold millions—perhaps $100,000,000.

Shattered communications and disrupted transportation are slowly being restored. Refugees are being sheltered and fed. Contributions of clothing from the more fortunate are pouring in.

The time of greatest suffering is over in the Portland area—the hardest hit. Over for the moment—until the new crest mounting upriver plunges down through the rock walls of the mid-Columbia gorge.

How bad could the new one be? Even veteran U. S. river forecaster Elmer Fisher wouldn't make a prediction.

But if the new crest rises as high as the one now running out to sea, this was his grim warning.

and Vancouver, look out!

Expect House Approval Of Bill To Admit DP's

Washington, June 3—(AP)—The highly disputed bill to let 200,000 homeless Europeans enter the United States during the next two years went to the House today with the Senate's 63 to 13 endorsement.

One Republican, Senator Hawkes (N.J.), and 12 Southern Democrats (as the opposition votes last night after an 11-hour continuous session.

Early House approval of a similar bill is indicated since Republican leaders have placed a "must" tag on displaced persons legislation for this session.

The Senate bill would permit 100,000 carefully selected Europeans to come here in each of the next two years, starting in July. They would be in addition to the regular immigration quotas.

The measure survived an attempt by Senator Kem (R-Mo) to junk it for his substitute bill which would have limited the total to 140,000, with half of these charged against regular immigration quotas.

The Kem substitute was beaten 50 to 27 when Senator Taft said he "felt strongly" that 200,000 is the minimum number of displaced persons who should be permitted to enter this country.

Senator McGrath in withdrawing a "liberalized" substitute which he and Senator Hatch (D-NM) had prepared, expressed regret that the "mountain has labored but brought forth a mouse."

Umstead Reports Campaign Costs

Raleigh, N.C., June 3—(AP)—Senator W. B. Umstead spent a total of $11,101.85 in his unsuccessful effort to retain his Senate seat, he reported today.

In a report filed with Secretary of State Thad Eure, Umstead said during his campaign scrap with former Governor J. M. Broughton a total of $10,000 was contributed to his campaign fund.

Suggest Cuf In Tobacco Buying For Foreign Aid

House Appropriations Group Advises ECA To 'Take It Easy' On Tobacco

Washington, June 3—(AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration was told today to take it easy in buying tobacco for foreign aid.

The advice was in the form of a report from the House Appropriations committee. It was not written as a law to prevent tobacco purchases under the foreign aid program.

The committee recommended that Congress refuse to provide all the cash asked for foreign aid commitments.

In effect it cut President Truman's fund request by 25 per cent, to a total of $6,043,710,228 for global aid in the next 15 months.

The committee stated:

"The administration estimates contain an amount of $110,000,000 for the purchase of tobacco. While there are some reasons for the purchase of tobacco there is serious doubt as to how much tobacco should be purchased during this period of dire need for more substantive aid, and purchases in the luxury category should be very carefully scrutinized."

During hearings on the bill Rep. Kerr (D-NC), who is a member of the committee, insisted sending tobacco overseas will boost production and check inflation. He said some members of congress are determined to delete tobacco from the foreign aid bill.

Rep. Max Schwab (R-Mo) in a statement suggested "perhaps this free tobacco is an incentive from foreign politicians to remain in office." Or, he asked, "Could it be that there are politicians in this country who think ECA-approved orders might keep tobacco prices up and help them at the polls."

Kerr also commented to the committee that the European countries can make money on tobacco coming from this country through tobacco taxes and said "any curtailment of these revenues will result in increased cost to the United States."

Two Slot Machines Found In Bruce Smith's Possession

The two slot machines in the sheriff's possession that were reported to have been stolen from a place near Ormondville, in Greene County, some weeks ago were found in the possession of Bruce Smith, not Carlton Heath, as erroneously stated in the County Court story yesterday. The court fined Carlton Heath $200 Tuesday for possessing four other slot machines.

The sheriff's office has a warrant for Bruce Smith, believed to be out of the state, in connection with the two Greene county machines.

First Step On DP's

House Has Yet To Approve Senate Action On Admitting Limited Number Of Europe's Displaced Persons; Background; Some Of The Requirements And Conditions

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 3—(AP)—Congress has taken the first step toward letting some of Europe's displaced persons into this country.

This is the Senate:

1. There are about 1,300,000 displaced persons in Europe. Late last night the Senate voted to let 200,000 of them into this country over the next two years, at the rate of 100,000 a year.

2. This won't happen unless the House also approves. It is expected to do so shortly.

Even if both Houses okay this, not just any displaced person will be allowed in here. There will be restrictions and requirements to meet. Before examining them, here's what went before:

With the end of the war the allied armies—American, British and French—became guardians of about 8,000,000 displaced persons in their zones of Germany, Austria and Italy.

Time most of those people—nearly 7,000,000—were sent back to their homes or native lands. Only those who wanted to go. None was forced.

That left about 1,300,000. They were people who had no homes anywhere or who refused to return to their native lands because of changes there or because they were afraid.

For example: Poles who fled their homeland when the Communists moved into power there; people who fled from Lithuania, Estonia and Latvia when Russia gobbled up those three Baltic states.

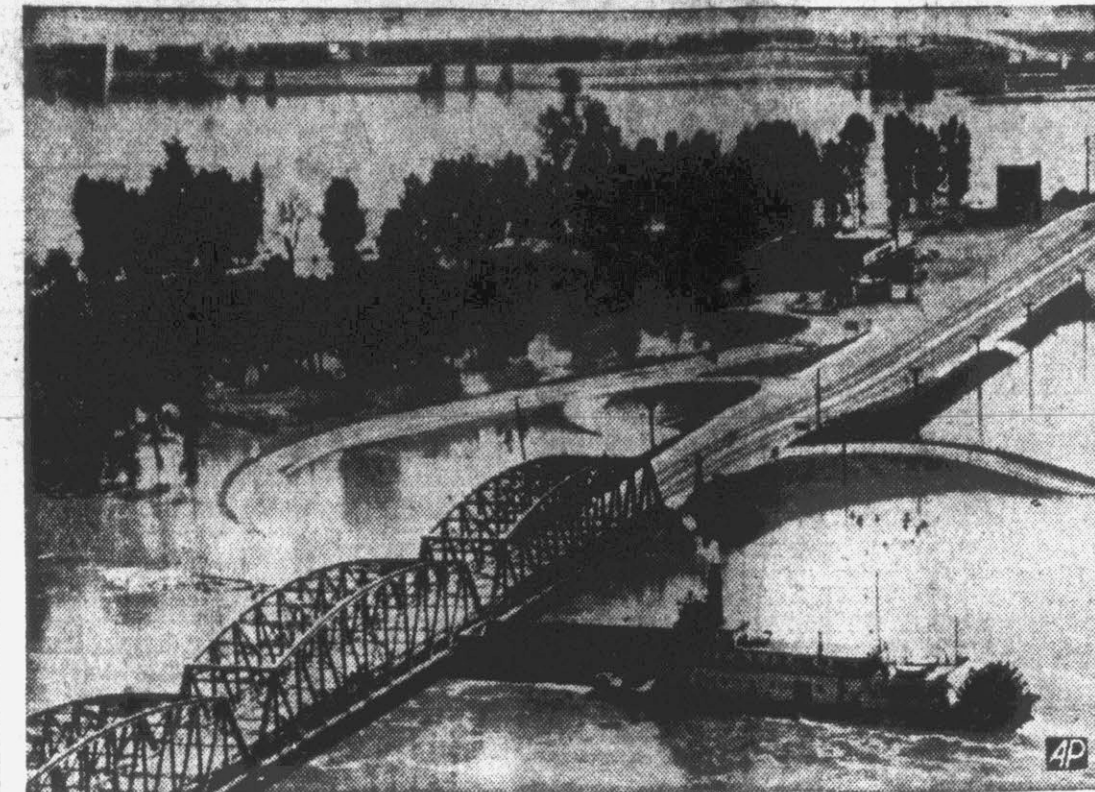

The House may change a bit the bill voted by the Senate. Maybe not. But, as the bill is now, here are some of the requirements and restrictions it places on the 200,000 displaced persons to be admitted here:

1. The 200,000 will be in addition to those coming here from the various European countries under the regular immigration quotas.

(Those quotas, which have been pretty much the same for years, allow only a certain number of immigrants to come here from any one European country in any one year.)

2. To be one of the displaced people allowed to come here, a person must have been generally: a forced laborer by the Nazis; someone who fled into the allied zones before the advancing Russian armies; someone, chiefly Jewish, who fled from Germany or Austria during the Nazis' time and now has

Invite Western Allies To Leave

Berlin Communist Paper Says Position 'Untenable'

Berlin, June 3—(AP)—The Neues Deutschland, official newspaper of the Communist controlled Socialist Unity party, said today the Western powers' position in Berlin has become untenable because of decisions of the London six-nation conference.

The newspaper's comment came the day after Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in Germany, said the conference's decisions for a Western German state "contradict the interests of the peace-loving nations of Europe as well as the interests of the German people."

Sokolovsky also said Russia has no intention of separating her occupation zone from the rest of Germany or of joining the zone to the Soviet Union. He said she "supports all German efforts which have the reunification of Germany as their aim."

Representatives of Britain, France, the United States, Belgium, Holland, the Netherlands and Luxembourg adjourned yesterday after reaching agreements on Western Germany's future status. The decisions have yet to be approved by the governments concerned.

Neues Deutschland and other Communist newspapers have been campaigning for months to get British, French and American occupation forces out of Berlin. The paper said:

"By the decisions of London, the erection of a western German state and the establishment of currency reform for western Germany with the exclusion of Berlin, they have given up their positions in Berlin themselves. How long do they want to stay yet?"

Food Price Index Again Increases

New York, June 3—(AP)—Dun & Bradstreet announced today its wholesale food price index gained another three cents in the week ended June 1, lifting the figure to $6.97.

This compared with $6.94 a week ago and $6.09 in the comparable period last year. The index represents the sum total of the price per pound of 31 foods in general use.

The year's high occurred the week of January 13 when the index stood at $7.28.

For Defense

Washington, June 3—(AP)—A $3,676,733,250 navy appropriation bill for the new fiscal year beginning July 1, was passed today by the House and sent to the Senate.

Passage was by voice vote. The measure boosts to $10,156,672,250 the money voted by the House for defense in a 24-hour period. Yesterday it sent the Senate a $6,509,939,000 money bill for the army and the air forces.

Congress previously had voted approximately $3,200,000,000 for aircraft procurement.

Truman To Start Travels Tonight

Strenuous Speaking Schedule Planned On Trip To Coast

Washington, June 3—(AP)—President Truman, in a mood to fight for a new term, called his own signals today as he made ready to take his case to the people in 18 states.

To the latest suggestion that he withdraw from the race, Mr. Truman replied with a sharp declaration he was "not brought up to run from a fight."

The President left Democratic party chieftains on the sidelines in ordering up his special train for a strenuous speaking tour which will hold the answer to his political future.

The White House labelled the cross-country swing "non-political" but disclosed plans for five major addresses and a score or more off-the-cuff rear platform talks expected to furnish ammunition for the 1948 campaign.

Mr. Truman sets out at 10:05 p. m. (EST) for a prepared address at 9 p. m. (EST) at Chicago tomorrow night after brief talks at Fort Wayne and Gary, Ind.

The presidential special will turn eastward again from Los Angeles the night of June 14.

Says Paraguayan Gov't Fallen To New Politico

Buenos Aires, June 3—(AP)—La Nacion's correspondent in Formosa reported today that President Higinio Morinigo's Paraguayan Government had fallen.

The dispatch said Morinigo, whose forces recently put down a revolt, had been succeeded by Manuel Frutos, Chief Justice of Paraguay's Supreme court.

Formosa is an Argentine city on the border of Paraguay.

A dispatch from Asuncion, capital of Paraguay, a week ago, quoted leaders of four political groups as saying they were planning a revolution to prevent Juan Natalicio Gonzalez, President-elect from taking office next August 15. Gonzalez was chosen in February in an election which permitted the voters to cast ballots only for him. He was the government's candidate to succeed Morinigo.

Portuguese Tried For Conspiracy

Lisbon, Portugal, June 3—(AP)—Thirteen high army and navy officers went on trial today before a military court, charged with conspiring against the regime of Premier Antonio Oliveira Salazar.

Adm. Jose Mendes Cabecadas is charged with being the ringleader of an unsuccessful military uprising in April, 1947. Cabecadas took part in the revolt which overthrew the monarchy in 1910 and in the revolution of May, 1926, which ended the dictatorship of the Democratic party and closed the Democratic Parliament.

Reich Currency Accord Planned

Sound, Uniform System Of Exchange Sought By Powers

London, June 3—(AP)—A responsible diplomatic official reported today the western powers plan to seek an accord with Russia soon on establishment of a sound, uniform currency throughout Germany for use in domestic and international trade.

No details were disclosed. Chances for success of the move were seen in the fact that both Russia and the western powers have argued the need for a uniform currency.

Agreement to make a new effort in this direction was reached in a conference of six countries which ended here yesterday.

The countries—the United States, France, Great Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—charted plans for western Germany's political and economic future.

The Russians recently blamed the western powers—the U. S. in particular—for the breakdown of four-power Berlin talks on German financial reform. Both the U. S. and Britain denied the charge.

In recent weeks, both British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Gen. Lullius D. Clay, U. S. military governor for Germany, have expressed hopes for a new country-wide currency system.

If Russia rejects the bid or shows signs of delaying a decision indefinitely, it was learned here, the western powers will go ahead with plans for adapting the reforms for western Germany alone.

Shipping Order Affects Only Top Grade Spuds

Washington, June 3—(AP)—An Agriculture Department order will permit only top grade potatoes to be shipped from the commercial growing areas of Virginia and North Carolina between June 4 and 15.

The Department yesterday approved a recommendation of a committee of growers and shippers that shipments be limited to U. S. grade No. 1 or better.

A federal marketing program controls interstate shipments of potatoes grown in these areas. The purpose is to keep low grade and cull potatoes off the consumer market.

Potatoes for export are not controlled by the order.

Suspend Judgment Of Two Youths For Torture 'Prank'

Gastonia, N. C., June 3—(AP)—Judgment was suspended today for two boys accused of torturing a playmate.

After hearing evidence, Judge L. B. Hollowell said the youngsters apparently had intended only a childish prank. Ed Robinson, Jr., and Gary Martin, both 16, testified they teased Casby Williams, 13, to a playground swing yesterday and set papers afire beneath him. They said they and three younger boys did it all in fun.

Young Phillips testified he was singled, scared and sickened by the prank.

Union Officials Quit In Protest

Chicago, June 3—(AP)—Four members of the international executive board of the CIO United Farm Equipment Workers resigned today when the board voted to comply with non-Communist phases of the Taft-Hartley act.

Grant Oakes, president of the union, said in a statement the board's compliance decision, in response to a rank and file referendum, was made "with reluctance and repugnance."

Global Assistance Measure Sent To House For Debate

Coal Operators Seek Curbs For Power of Unions

Lewis' Opponents Ask Congress To Outlaw Strikes Over Pensions

Washington, June 3—(AP)—Top coal industry opponents of John L. Lewis asked Congress today to curb labor union powers and to outlaw pension strikes.

L. Ebersole Gaines, president of the National Coal Association, told the Senate-House committee on management-labor relations that strikes which endanger public health, safety and economy should be limited.

"This limitation upon the unregulated power to strike should be provided by amendment of the anti-trust acts so as to leave unions subject to the consequences of those statutes where they undertake strikes which paralyze the public economy or otherwise impair the public health or safety of any substantial area," Gaines said in his prepared testimony.

He said strikes to enforce pension plans—like the six-week stoppage of the soft coal miners in March and April—should be made illegal.

"Even if the acceptance by management of such plans were not in fact coerced by the threat of a public welfare strike, they are and will continue to be contrary to the public interest and should be prohibited," Gaines said.

The joint committee headed by Senator Ball (R-Minn.) is considering possible changes in the Taft-Hartley Labor Act. These will go over until next year, however.

Lewis sent no reply to the committee's invitation to appear along with the industry representatives.

On another aspect of the tangled coal situation, Justice T. Alan Goldsborough took on the role of umpire between Lewis and the Southern Coal Producers Association.

Goldsborough has called Lewis' fight with the Southern coal group a "tempest in a teapot."

The judge said he will decide tomorrow morning whether to issue an injunction against Lewis to force him to bargain with the Southern Association. The injunction was asked by General Counsel Robert N. Denham of the National Labor Relations Board.

Russians Free AMG Official After Seizure

Berlin, June 3—(AP)—The Russians today released Dr. Harry L. Franklin, American Military Government official after holding him for about sixteen hours.

Franklin asserted the Russians seized him "entirely without justification" while he was on a business errand in the center of town. He was kept overnight in one of the Russians' local police headquarters and questioned.

He was arrested by a Soviet patrol as he left a photographer's shop. He is Deputy Chief of the Civil Administration and Political affairs branch for AMG in Berlin.

BACK TO NORMAL

Berlin, June 3—(AP)—Berlin's transport was back to normal today after a 24-hour protest strike on trolley, subway and bus lines. The transport workers' union said it hoped for quick approval by the four-power allied headquarters of demands for more pay and more food.

Washington, June 3—(AP)—A chorus of official denials today met a report that an Air Force plane had mistakenly bombed the U. S. submarine Carp off the California coast.

Rep. Hugh D. Scott, Jr. (R-Pa.) told the House yesterday he understood the incident occurred about two months ago and that 50 of the submarine's crew had been hospitalized as a result.

But the Navy quickly denied the story.

"This is absolutely not so, said Vice Admiral Arthur W. Radford, chief of naval operations.

Air Force officials joined in the denial. They said their planes do not even carry out anti-submarine patrols, because that task was assigned to the Navy after the armed forces unification.

Scott, told the Navy had denied the story, said "it didn't happen. I'll be delighted to know it."

The Pennsylvania told the House yesterday he got the information from a newspaper editor who said he had received a signed statement from a sailor claiming to have been one of the 50 hospitalized crewmen.

Navy officials they checked such an account some time ago and found it to be only a tall tale which a sailor aboard the Carp had written to his family.

Sen. Socarras Is President-Elect Cuban Republic

Havana, Cuba, June 3—(AP)—Senator Carlos Priu Socarras, 44, Government candidate and anti-Communist, is the officially declared president-elect of Cuba. He will take office Oct. 10.

Official declaration of his victory came last night from the Superior Electoral Tribunal. Priu's election was conceded by his leading rival, Dr. Ricardo Nunez Portuondo.

The tribunal's tabulation of returns from 8,768 of 7,730 precincts in Tuesday's election gave:

Priu (Authentic-Republican Alliance) 513,184; Nunez (Liberal-Democratic coalition) 544,184; Senator Eduardo Chibas (Peoples Party) 203,182; Senator Juan Marinello (Communist) 129,871.

British Hold Up Arms For Arabs

Action Taken In Accordance With UN Truce Conditions

London, June 3—(AP) Britain has stopped supplying arms and military equipment to Egypt, Iraq and Trans-Jordan in accordance with the U. N. truce conditions for Palestine, a Foreign office spokesman said today.

Britain also has barred all fit Jews of military age from moving to Palestine from Cyprus, where 24,000 Jews were interned at the time the British mandate over Palestine ended.

The suspension of arms in effect superseded Britain's treaties of alliance with the Arab countries. The spokesman said each country understands that Britain's obligations to the United Nations come ahead of her commitments to her allies. The size of commitments to the three countries has not been disclosed, but it is known this country has supplied them arms of all kinds, munitions, armor, transport, aircraft and ships.

Britain also supplies the other Arab league nations—Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Lebanon and Syria. However, supplies other than unfilled contracts were suspended when the United Nations earlier this year called for an embargo on shipments of military goods to the middle eastern danger zone.

Official Denials Meet Mistake-Bombing Tale

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that 888 Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this low when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the 888 Tonic formula which contains special and potent acting ingredients.

Also, 888 Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

from 10 a. m. to 12 m.
Mr. Bo Farley has organized baseball teams for each school, which will be announced each week. Supervisors for each play area will be on hand during opening hours to supervise children's activities. New games have been added to each playground.

Proctor of Greenville, and William Ward James of Winterville, graduates of the fall or winter quarter, will receive diplomas for their master's degrees at the exercises next week.

Twenty-two of the June graduates have taken work in teacher-training and are candidates for the bachelor of science degree. As part of their college work these students have completed courses in student teaching in the public schools and are qualified to teach. They are Elizabeth Carter, Leon B. They will receive their diplomas along with their classmates on Monday. These are: Edith Bowles, Mary Andrews, Whichard, Adrian Brown, Mimi Tripp Denton, James E. Bullock, Joseph C. Williams, and Della Adams Laureate, all of Greenville; James A. Little and Ruth Herriott of Winterville; and Emma Lee Garris of Ayden.

Airlines Safety Record Compiled

Chicago, June 3—(AP)—Two hundred and eighty thousand times around the globe without a fatal accident.

That, in effect, is the combined safety record compiled by 22 airlines through last year, figures released by the National Safety Council showed today. The lines completed more than seven billion passenger miles without a single fatality to a passenger or crew member.

A 24th airline—Pan American Airways, Inc.—was honored for completing 1,443,699,000 passenger miles between Aug. 3, 1945 and June 19, 1947, without a fatality.

Fifteen of the 24 winners of the council's 1947 aviation safety awards not only went through 1947 without an accidental death, but completed fatality-free records ranging from two to 18 years.

Other billion mile class winners besides Pan American were American Airlines, Inc., and Northwest Airlines, Inc.

Strike Threat In Oak Ridge Plant

Oak Ridge, Tenn., June 3—(AP)—A new strike threat faced an atomic plant today in the wake of overwhelming rejection by its workers of a final contract offer.

The employees, members of the AFL Atomic Trades and Labor Council, turned down by a vote of 771 to 26 a 10-cent an hour average wage increase offered by Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation.

The union has called a mass meeting for Sunday to decide on its next move. Carbide, in a statement issued by T. E. Lane, its industrial relations superintendent, termed the election outcome "unfortunate, but more or less expected." Lane said the company is hopeful negotiations with the union will be resumed.

The union seeks a 26-cent an hour increase above the current $1.38 average wage.

Scientists Meet For Dedication Of Big Telescope

Palomar Mountain, Calif., June 3—(AP)—Scientists came here from far and near today to dedicate the "Big Eye."

It's the 200-inch telescope atop Palomar Mountain through which they soon will peer into outer space twice as far as ever before.

The world's largest piece of glass will enable astronomers to see 1,000,000,000 light years into space. Translated into miles the distance is 6,000,000,000,000,000,000.

The giant telescope-mirror was cast 12 years ago at Corning Glass Works, Corning, N. Y.

After preliminary peeks through the "Big Eye" several months ago, California Institute of Technology astronomers proclaimed the giant ready to be put into operation.

So powerful is the telescope that the canals on Mars—if there are any—will for the first time be photographed.

Special tribute to the late Dr. George Ellery Hale, former director of Mount Wilson Observatory, has been arranged for this afternoon's dedication of the $6,500,000 project of which he was the guiding spirit.

Hale died in 1938, at the age of 70, after a lifetime devoted to building bigger and better telescopes. His masterpiece, the 200-inch on Palomar Mountain, which his organizing genius made possible, had only begun to take shape.

When she got off the plane a group of Irish girls were on hand to greet her and presented her with a shillalah. Margaret says: "I always thought everybody in Ireland carried a shillalah but it turned out I was the only one."

Aside from visiting Dublin relatives, of which she says she "has thousands" (all O'Briens in Ireland claim some relationship to Margaret), her other big moment was a visit to the Pope. Her mother says she was terribly embarrassed when in answer to the Pope's "what do you do, little girl?" Margaret answered in a loud, proud voice "I am an actress." The Pope answered "I know, but what do you study?" That, says Mrs. O'Brien, is when she would gladly have gone through the Vatican floor.

Margaret is now going back to Hollywood to learn to play the piano for her role of Beth in "Little Women," which she is "going to be mad about doing."

If she doesn't continue performing for the movies when she grows up, Margaret would like to be an artist. She proved her talents to me by drawing a pretty woman's head. She says she would rather draw than do anything else, except perhaps EAT.

Her other big hobby is copying people's signatures, at which she is very good indeed. She says it is only the simple looking signatures which are hard to copy, and she does much better with the intricate "scrawly kind."

It is easy to see why Margaret O'Brien is so popular in Hollywood. She can keep you fascinated as you try to analyze why she is such a grown up personality on the screen and a shy, unspooled youngster away from it.

Dear Judy,

Margaret O'Brien is only sixteen and really shouldn't be included in a Teen Talk column, but when she breaks right in on the Teen Talk editor and sits at her desk, there isn't much else to do but write at least something about the occasion.

First of all, Margaret would surprise you. It isn't just because she acts so precocious at times on the screen, and then bows when you meet her in person. It's because she's such a little girl, with the same antics and conversation as the neighborhood kids.

She is mad about comics, mystery and cowboy movies. But on this day (her second day back in the States after a European trip) she is "wild to see an old-fashioned movie." Why is she in the mood for an old-fashioned movie today? Margaret beams and her eyes widen as she explains:

"I love old-fashioned movies because they seem so real. I like the lovely costumes, the pretty hairdos and the way the people talk in the old movies."

Her "simply wonderful" trip abroad was disappointing in only one respect: She expected Ireland to be completely green, and she says, "It was the same color as any other country." However, after her plane landed and she got out into the country, everything was "much greener."

When she got off the plane a group of Irish girls were on hand to greet her and presented her with a shillalah. Margaret says: "I always thought everybody in Ireland carried a shillalah but it turned out I was the only one."

Aside from visiting Dublin relatives, of which she says she "has thousands" (all O'Briens in Ireland claim some relationship to Margaret), her other big moment was a visit to the Pope. Her mother says she was terribly embarrassed when in answer to the Pope's "what do you do, little girl?" Margaret answered in a loud, proud voice "I am an actress." The Pope answered "I know, but what do you study?" That, says Mrs. O'Brien, is when she would gladly have gone through the Vatican floor.

Margaret is now going back to Hollywood to learn to play the piano for her role of Beth in "Little Women," which she is "going to be mad about doing."

Strength FOR THE DAY

VICTORY OUT OF DEFEAT
No one can win all the time. Even the luckiest or most successful person must occasionally acknowledge defeat. Sometimes, in our darker moments, it seems as though life consisted mainly of defeats, with few or no victories.

If it is true that we must lose sometimes, and perhaps often, then it is important that we should find some way to make our defeats profitable to us. Can we use our losing experience to gain in our losing fight, to fight again and win? Can we turn the bitterness of defeat into the calmness of self-discipline, or into the quiet assurance of the man who, having faced the worst, has lost his fear of it?

The tradition of bringing victory out of defeat is old and honored in America. All of us remember the story of John Paul Jones, standing on the deck of his shattered and sinking ship, the Serapis, called out to ask if he had surrendered. Jones answered in one of the famous phrases of American history: "I have not yet begun to fight!" Rallying his men, he drove his ship against the Serapis, boarded it, and captured it, thus winning the most important naval battle of the Revolutionary War. This was indeed victory out of defeat.

GUARD—General John Hall
Manning, commander of the 30th division, National Guard, is not pessimistic about the situation but confesses the guard is experiencing some difficulty in keeping units up to stage strength. Requirement for activation of a unit is ten per cent of its full authorized membership, and this is supposed to be increased by ten per cent each six months until at least 80 per cent of authorized strength is reached.

MANPOWER—Throughout the 30th division area, and this is particularly true in North Carolina, emphasis has been placed upon manpower rather than paper-units. General John Metts, commander of the guard in this state, has discouraged activation of units with the bare minimum of ten per cent. As a result the number of accredited units has been fewer, while total number of men enrolled has been greater than in some other states. A logical consequence is that the North Carolina companies are experiencing more difficulty this year in recruiting new men, because a larger percentage of availability was utilized in the original organization.

ARMORIES—Perhaps most serious handicap in forming new companies is inadequacy of armory space. Very few communities have sufficient armory room for storage of required materials and indoor activities. National guard and reserve officers organizations, along with the American Legion and other veteran groups, are sponsoring a pending bill in congress to appropriate fifty million dollars a year for ten years for construction of armories.
Anticipating enactment of the bill, the North Carolina General Assembly last year set up a state armory commission and made available $100,000 with which to co-operate with the federal government in the project.

LOCAL AID—Neither state nor federal acts are expected to require, but both will permit, participation on part of local communities through public or private funds. One absolute requirement is that title to land upon armories are built out of public funds must vest in the state. To that end the N. C. Army Commission is empowered to accept title in the name of the State of North Carolina.

TYPICAL—The situation at Raleigh is typical of conditions in many other communities. There is an armory fairly adequate for immediate needs of the local units, but it is located on the edge of Pullen Park on land belonging to the City of Raleigh, and which, under terms of the Pullen bequest, cannot be deeded to the state. Consequently funds deriving from federal and state appropriations cannot be used to enlarge it—even if that were possible from an architectural angle.
Raleigh is typical also in that there is great need for additional auditorium space to take care of groups ranging from 500 to 2,000 and for basketball games, dances and similar recreational events. Because of this general need for auditorium space in most communities, as well as in the interest of domestic defense, sponsors of National Guard

Mass Formation Of Big Bombers In Test Flight

Andrews Field, Md., June 2—(AP)—The Strategic Air Command ordered the biggest mass formation of B-29s into the air today for a mock bombing raid on Selfridge Field, Mich.

The orders called for bomber groups at widely-scattered points to rendezvous over Kansas City, Kans., at about noon today and from there strike at the target 640 miles north in Michigan. They were to have fighter escort.

On the basis of the number of groups, the mock attack apparently involved about 225 B-29s and 525 fighters (P-51s and P-50s jets).

The operation, larger than the similar practice strike at New York City a year ago, was described as a routine training mission.

No Preference In Tobacco Imports

London, June 2—(AP)—The government turned down today a proposal to increase the margin of preference on empire tobacco.

Lowering the duty on empire leaf while maintaining high import levies on American grown tobacco would violate the Geneva trade agreement of last October, a Treasury spokesman told the Commons.

New York, (AP)—More gold diggers have struck it rich in Manhattan than all the mining prospectors in the fabulous west.

But there is also a quiet and unglamorous quest for gold that goes on here constantly—and nets above $500,000 a year.

Those prosaic treasure seekers are the men who have the job of recovering the fragmentary particles of gold lost by 500 New York City firms in the manufacture of precious metal jewelry.

There is an old saying that gold is where you find it. This is particularly true of these indoor prospectors. They have found it in the air, in wash water, and by putting a vacuum cleaner to the hair of women jewelry workers.

These minute specks of gold also lodge in the clothing of workmen, in shoes, tools, work benches, chairs and floor cracks. It's worth the cost of the treasure hunt to regain them. They add up to big money.

"We recover about $50,000 annually in gold from such sources," said W. Waters Schwab, president of J. R. Wood & Sons, the nation's largest wedding ring manufacturing firm.

In its 94-year history this firm has introduced many methods of gold recovery now typical in the precious metal jewelry industry.

encountered, says its doughty little director, Miss Matilda Young. Some years ago it had a big roomy home loaned for its use by the government. Officials of the museum had hoped to acquire it, but the Defense Homes Corp. sold the property in 1945 to a private individual.

When the museum efforts to find another home failed a national association of motor coach dealers presented the group with the coach that is theirs as long as they want to use it.

On its journeys last year the traveling museum was visited by thousands of eager children. In Dayton, Ohio some 3,000 people visited the exhibit in one day.

Pastor Is A Man Of Many Talents

Rutland, Ill., June 3—(AP)—Residents of this LaSalle County community call upon the Rev. Lyle F. Sheen for many things besides spiritual guidance.

Father Sheen, pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, also is an expert of carpentry, cabinet work, electrical wiring, plumbing, and masonry.

He also plays a violin which he made himself, paints in oil and pursues a minor hobby, photography. One of his greatest contributions is building of altars in his own church and in churches in several other cities.

Woodworking is his greatest hobby. He has constructed hundreds of lamps, crosses, candlesticks and will shrines for churches, chapels and homes. He has a completely equipped shop in the basement of the room.

"A man with patience and strong hands can learn a lot of things," Father Sheen comments.

Sentence Awaits Wife's Decision

Nashville, Tenn., June 2—(AP)—A Nashville housewife pondered today whether she should let her husband serve a workhouse sentence for beating their 3-year-old son or allow him to be released on parole. Judge Chester E. Hart left the decision to Mrs. Joseph Hendricks yesterday. A criminal court jury had convicted Hendricks, 42, of assault in beating of Joseph Hendricks, Jr., and sentence was fixed at 11 months and 29 days in the county workhouse.

Troubles Delay Pitcairn School

Auckland, New Zealand, (AP)—Pitcairn Island's first school teacher is having a headache getting his prefabricated school house to the island. Meanwhile descendants of the Bounty who waited 100 years for a school will just have to be patient. New Zealander A. W. Moverly, under contract to the British Colonial Service, left New Zealand in March for Pitcairn, via Suva, Fiji, to set up the first school for the islanders. With him went his wife and daughter.

They are still in Fiji. He wrote a friend in Auckland. "The overhauling of the ship is causing delay. The loading of the buildings, furniture and equipment will take time. Then we have 3000 miles of difficult navigation, followed by the headache of landing everything on a dangerous beach, lifting it up a 300 foot cliff, and finding a school site where the grade will not exceed one in six on this precipitous island."

Moverly has three Indian builders from Fiji with him and labour for building the school will be found on Pitcairn. The work is expected to occupy several months once the site is found.

Greenies Try To Down Goldsboro For Fans Here Tonight

Today Is Rally Day

Flags are flying today in Greenville, symbolizing the fighting spirit of the new Greenie ball club . . . a team which has climbed from the lowest rung in the ladder to win five out of the last six games.

Everyone loves to see an underdog strike back. It has not been many days since the Greenies were regarded as hopeless. After a miserable day, the fans trudged to the stadium . . . hoping against hope to see a spark of life . . . only to find the same air of listless confusion, and another losing game in the results column.

What was wrong? Everybody had an idea and nobody knew, until a week ago today when the air was cleared by a frank statement to the fans by Mr. Reynolds May, acting president, and the directors. The club was in debt and the team was demoralized.

With new officers, and ownership of the club back in local hands, the club on new life.

Four games in a row they won, and then five on Tuesday night.

Larry Riggs, new catcher, sparked the explosion and set the stands in an uproar when he cracked the first ball ever pitched to him in Greenville over the fence, and followed that one with two more hits and a walk for the evening.

The fans seem to feel that they are ready now to support the Greenies through fire and water. Mr. May reports that his committee has already had great success in disposing of the new capital stock. Tomorrow morning, teams led by Mr. W. L. Allen will canvass the town for new purchasers.

It is their belief that subscriptions will be received not only in fairly large blocks from many individuals, but that the majority of the fans want to have a share, whether large or small. They feel that most of the fans in Greenville will want to own at least one $10 share.

Mr. W. L. Allen stated that any fan who had not been approached, and would like to subscribe to one or more shares of the new capital stock, would receive prompt attention at the club headquarters, located on Dickinson Avenue across from Hollowell's Drug Store.

That's the story. The Greenies appear to be on their way up the standing of clubs toward the first division. Naturally they won't be expected to win every game. But all the evidence seems to point to a good brand of ball in every case.

The next several games will be important, for the other teams in the league have the jump on the Greenies, but once they get half way up the ladder, and on fairly even terms with the rest of the clubs, then Greenville should see some red hot baseball.

Goldbugs Snap Winning Streak Of Locals, 5-3

Chitty's Wildness Proves Costly As Herring Limits The Greenies To Scattered Hits; Riggs, Carter, Phillips Lead At Bat

By BERT MOYE

Manager Bill Herring's Goldbugs snapped the Greenies' winning streak at five straight games over in Goldsboro last night by turning back the Greenies, 5-3. It was the sixth win of the season for the Goldbugs over the Greenies as against one defeat.

The Greenies went out in front in the first frame by scoring a singleton on one hit and two errors. Lastres singled, Merle Blackwell threw the ball wild to first with Lastres taking second and Sposo was safe on Huser's error at first.

The Goldbugs scored two runs in the second to go out front on a walk, two hits and an error, after which they were never headed. Jones walked, Cochran singled, and Mills doubled with Cohen letting the ball get away from him with Jones and Cochran racing home.

The Goldbugs put across what proved their winning runs in the third when they chalked up two tallies on no hits, but five walks off the wildness of Jerry Chitty. Walks to Whitener, Huser, and M. Blackwell loaded the bases, then Jones was walked forcing in Whitener and Cochran was walked forcing in Huser.

The Greenies scored singletons in the seventh and eighth frames. In the seventh Phillips and Carter singled and Lastres hit into short right field with second baseman Mills dropping the ball allowing Phillips to score.

In the eighth frame Nash singled, Riggs singled with Salyer bobbling the ball and Phillips went to third and Nessing hit a fly to deep centerfield to bring home Nash.

The Goldbugs ended their scoring in the seventh frame when Whitener singled, V. Blackwell sacrificed him to second and M. Blackwell singled to bring home Whitener.

Jerry Chitty, who pitched the first two and one third frames, received credit for the loss. This was his seventh loss of the season and his fourth to the Goldbugs. Chitty allowed only three hits but stayed in hot water with his wildness when he walked six men, five of them in the third frame before he was yanked out by Manager Phebus. He struck out one man and allowed four of the Goldbugs' runs.

Johnny Kovalchick went into the game in the third frame with three men on base and one out and Mills hit into a double play to end the scoring for that frame. Kovalchick, who pitched five and two third frames allowed four hits, one run, while failing to strike out or walk a single man.

Manager Herring went the route for his Goldbugs and scattered his nine hits but was helped out considerably as 10 Greenies went out via the strikeout route. He did not walk a single Greenie.

Larry Riggs, Ray Phillips and Emil Carter with two singles each led nine-hit attack off Manager Bill Herring.

Clyde Whitener and Manager Herring got two hits apiece to lead the attack of the winners.

Criminal Charge Of Bribery For Baseball Figure

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 3—(AP)—

A former manager in the Carolina baseball league faced criminal charges of bribery today as police followed up allegations of "game fixing" in the league.

Police Chief John Gold last night reported the arrest on bribery charges of Bernard Deforge, former manager of the Reidsville Club in the class B circuit.

Deforge and Ed Weingarten, a club official in the Tri-State and Blue Ridge Leagues, were banned from organized baseball for life.

BULLETIN

Roanoke, Va., June 3—(AP)—Ed Weingarten, owner of the Leakesville, N. C. club in the Blue Ridge League and a stockholder in the Tri-State and Blue Ridge Leagues, was banned from organized baseball for life.

Det. Capt. W. R. Burke of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Roanoke detectives made the arrest. Weingarten waived extradition, Capt. Burke said.

Tuesday, this action was taken by George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of professional baseball leagues, after an investigation of gambling and bribery.

Trautman said Deforge admitted "throwing" a game between Winston-Salem and Reidsville here May 14 for $300.

Deforge, who appeared voluntarily before police, was released in $1,000 bond. He told news reporters that "baseball treated me real swell and I am going to try my best to do everything I can to help baseball."

Gold said the banned player arrested under a 1921 North Carolina law, x x x entitled "Protection of the game of baseball." The statute prohibits the acceptance of bribes by players, umpires and club officials. It makes the violation of the act a felony and calls for a prison sentence from one to five years.

Gold, saying that Deforge had promised to "cooperate," said that he would continue the investigation.

Other developments yesterday saw the forfeiture of the Leakesville franchise in the class D Blue Ridge Circuit. Speaking after a directors' meeting at Roanoke, Va., League President Stanley Radke said the action was taken because Weingarten had been banned.

Weingarten, appearing at the meeting, denied repeatedly that he had any part in "game-fixing." He said he would appeal Trautman's decision.

Gold, acting quickly after Trautman's announcement, said yesterday he had evidence which indicated that a gambling syndicate had operated in three North Carolina cities. He said the syndicate had a hand in the throwing of the Reidsville-Winston-Salem game May 14, but he declined to name the other two cities involved.

Trautman's expulsion of Weingarten, 44-year-old native New Yorker, also rocked the Tri-State League. Directors of that circuit will meet in Charlotte Sunday to discuss the status of the Florence Club, in which Weingarten was a majority stockholder. Club president Willis Gregory said Florence interests were prepared to take over the club.

Keller's Return Marred By Two Broken Bones

New York, June 3—(AP)—When

Charley Keller started his comeback this spring after a serious spinal operation, the big question was whether the New York Yankee outfielder could condition himself for the major league grind.

Could he run? Could he still hustle? Today Keller is on the sidelines because he answered "yes" to the questions.

He came barreling in yesterday for a line drive off the bat of Detroit's Vic Wertz. The ball dropped sharply. Keller tried a shoestring catch. He dove, missed and came up with two broken bones in his left hand.

The doctors say he'll be laid up for at least three, maybe four weeks.

33 Starters For English Derby In Record Field

Epsom, England, June 3—(AP)—Two outsiders, Roaring Forties and Overhead, were scratched today from the English Derby, leaving a probable record field of 33 starters for the 169th renewal of Saturday's race.

British, French and American-bred colts are entered in the mile and one half race which is acclaimed by England's horsey set as the world's greatest. All will carry 126 pounds.

The winner of the three-year-old classic will collect $49,736. This is the largest purse since 1930 when Blenheim won $50,180.

Upwards of half a million persons, including Britain's royal family, will spill over the tumbling Epsom Downs and for most it will be a free show. The greater part of the Epsom course is on common ground and no admission can be charged.

In the 18th Century "pop" was British slang for "paw" or "hook."

Dodgers Slowly Climbing Back Into Race For Flag

By RALPH RODEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Slowly but surely the Brooklyn Dodgers are climbing back into the National League pennant race.

The defending champions, after a disastrous start that found them in and out of last place, are in sixth place today, only five games behind the pace-setting New York Giants and two games out of the first division.

Manager Leo Durocher's pitching staff, which took plenty of beatings in the early going, has suddenly righted itself with big Ralph Branca, Preacher Roe and Joe Hatlen leading the way.

In the Dodgers' first 31 games the starting Brooklyn pitcher managed to finish only seven times. In the last seven starts Durocher's opening selection has gone the distance five times. During this streak the Dodgers have won five games, lost one and tied one.

Hatten went the route for the second time this season last night, pitching the Brooks to a 5-2 victory over the fading Cardinals in a night game at St. Louis. It was the Dodgers' first victory in five meetings with the Cards, who now have lost six straight.

By losing, the Cards dropped a game and a half behind the Giants who trampled the Reds, 7-4, in a day game at Cincinnati.

Larry Jansen, star Giant right-hander, scattered 11 Red hits in posting his sixth win of the year. Jansen helped his own cause, driving in three runs on two singles.

The third place Pittsburgh Pirates also lost ground, falling two Games behind the Giants as they bowed, 5-1, to the Boston Braves in a night game at Pittsburgh. Johnny Sain held the Pirates to three safeties, one of which was Ralph Kiner's 12th home run of the year in the ninth inning.

In the American League the Cleveland Indians retained their slim first place margin over the Philadelphia Athletics. The Indians dropped a 2-1 five hit decision to the Red Sox.

Bob Lemon, who entered the night game unscathed on in 25 straight innings, went the route for Cleveland. It was his third loss as against seven wins.

The last place White Sox raked Bill Dietrich and Nelson Potter for 11 hits in their after dark struggle in Philadelphia while Joe Haynes halted the A's on nine safeties in coasting to his fourth victory.

St. Louis' surprising Browns moved over the Detroit Tigers into fourth place as a result of their 3-1 night game triumph over the Red Sox in Boston.

Fred Sanford checked the Sox on seven blows while his mates collected nine off lefty Mel Parnell.

The Tigers, who now trail the

Bucky Pleased Over Trade That Didn't Come Off

New York, June 3—(AP)—Bucky Harris, manager of the New York Yankees, is tickled pink every time he thinks of a trade that didn't go through.

The trade that never came off involved several big names on the Yankees and Washington Senators. "Only one thing ruined the deal," Bucky confided today. "Washington insisted we throw Vic Raschi, a rookie right-handed pitcher into the deal."

"I said I wouldn't trade Raschi for anybody on their ball club. I wasn't so sure then, but I kind of mean it now."

Raschi is the latest pitching "remarkable" on the world champions. The 29-year-old righthander, now in his sophomore season in the big leagues, has just about clinched the No. 1 berth on the Yankees' pitching staff. After losing his season's inaugural, Vic has reeled off six victories in a row and has looked better each succeeding performance.

His latest victory, the 1-0 shut-out he twirled against the Detroit Tigers yesterday, was, by his own admission, the best game he has pitched in the majors.

"I relied mostly on fast balls today," he said while resting in the clubhouse after the game. "I threw some curve balls in the early innings, but when I noticed they hung in the air and didn't have any sort of break, I resorted strictly to fast balls and chance of pace pitches."

Harris believes Raschi's fast ball has picked up speed this year. "Vic added 15 pounds to his 175 pounds of last year," he said. "It must have been good weight for he is much stronger this season. He never threw such good fast balls last season as this. He's really got it this year. That is one pitcher I don't have to worry about."

The third molars are called wisdom teeth because normally they are not cut until a person is between 18 and 25 years old.

Connie Mack To Be Honored For Years In Baseball

Philadelphia, June 3—(AP)—Connie Mack, grand old man of baseball, will be honored tonight at Shibe Park.

The occasion is celebration of Mack's 65th year in organized baseball and his 48th consecutive year as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics.

More than 200 prominent Philadelphians from all walks of life will gather under the north end of the west stands at Shibe Park for a dinner. All guests will wear A's baseball caps.

Later the 85-year-old Mack will receive a plaque at home plate before the night game with the Chicago White Sox.

Approve Work On Woman's College

Greensboro, N. C., June 2.—(AP)—Recommendations for immediate development of the physical and academic facilities at Woman's College here stand approved today.

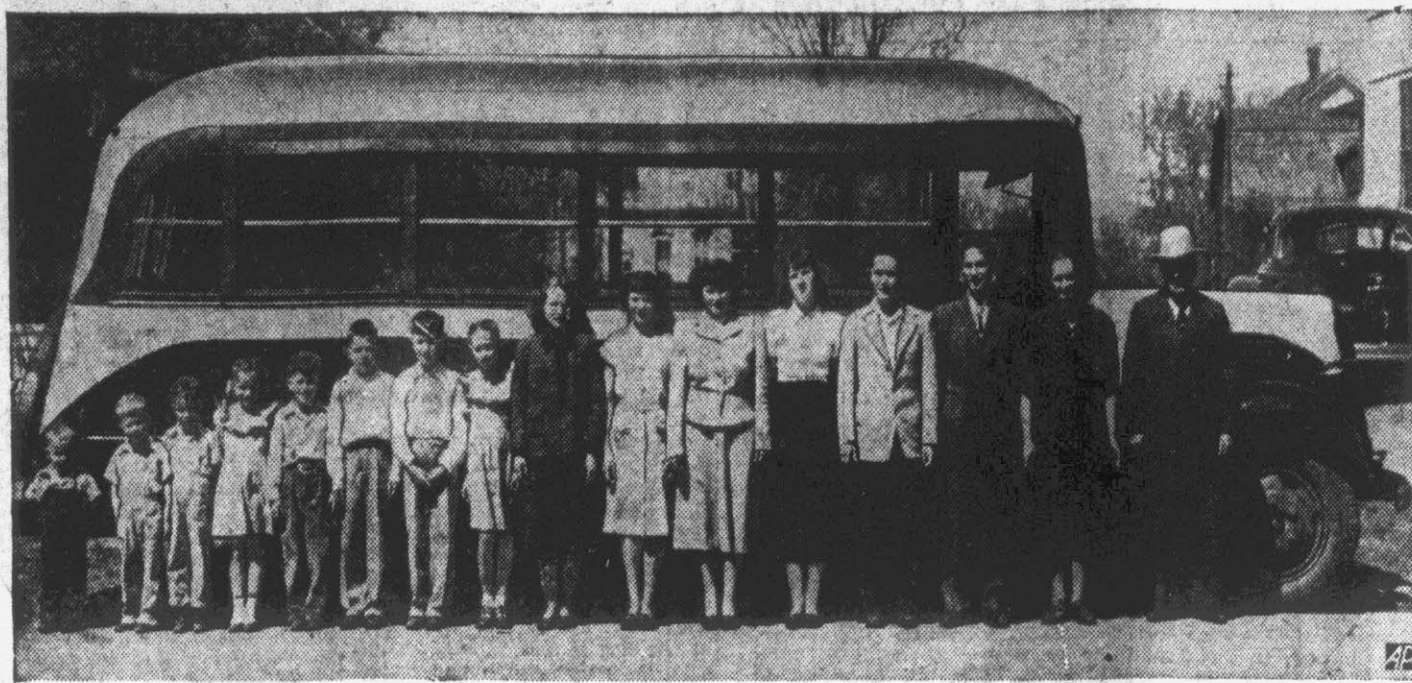

The board of trustees of the University of North Carolina yesterday approved recommendations made by a visiting committee of the board. The recommendations included provision for 3,000 students, an increase in the salary scale, the establishment of vocational guidance department, and the establishment of the quarter system as used by the other two branches of the greater University.

The trustees accepted with regret the retirement of Dr. W. C. Jackson as chancellor of the Woman's College effective at the end of the 1949 school year. He has been at the college almost 40 years as teacher and administrator. In 1937-8 he was president of the North Carolina Education Association.

Dr. Jackson is beyond the retirement age. President Frank P. Graham told the trustees Dr. Jackson had asked for retirement last year, but he considered his services indispensable then and urged him to remain.

Commencement At Bell Arthur; 13 Receive Diplomas

Thirteen seniors received diplomas at graduation exercises Thursday morning, May 27, at 11 o'clock in the Arthur High School auditorium.

The graduation program was different this year from the one usually followed. Instead of having a speaker to make an address the seniors gave the program themselves, following the theme "Challenges to the Youth of 1948."

Miss Betty Pearl Joyner gave the valedictory address and Miss Jean Crawford was salutatorian.

Two selections were rendered by the Glee Club, "Londonderry Air" and "Commencement Song," under direction of Mrs. Billie Bennett.

D. H. Conley, county superintendent of schools, awarded the diplomas after having made some timely remarks and repeating the poem "Abou Ben Adhem."

Special awards were presented by the principal, J. L. Cashwell. Linda Nichols received one in the elementary grades for being the best all-round citizen, and Louis Holoway received the one in high school.

Betty Joyner and Jean Crawford received the valedictory and salutatory awards. Louis Holoway received $5 for being the best truck driver and William Stocks $2.50 for next best.

Those receiving diplomas were Ann Crawford, Jean Crawford, Henry Flake, Jesse Forest, Betty Pearl Joyner, Lydia Laughinghouse, Herbert Lewis, Jr., Mark H. Smith, M. J. Loyd, Jr., William Stocks, Juanita Sugg, Karl Lee Sutton and Johnnie Young. Nancy Carolyn Stanley was the class mascot.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached Sunday afternoon, May 23, by Rev. J. A. Nelson, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church, Greenville. Class day exercises were given Tuesday evening, May 25.

Commencement marshals were Elizabeth Crawford, Durward Tyson, Roland Young and Vonciel Mazingo.

Girl Scout News

Dear Scouts:

Now that school has closed and the Court of Awards is over, you will have time to plan your summer's vacation. Get your Camp Hardee folder out (call at the Scout office for one if you can't find yours) and get your application in right away. From our calendar, we see that camp will open in twenty days.

Camp will be more fun this year than ever. We have one new boat, and Mr. C. B. Bissette is going to lend us a canoe. Our waterfront director, Miss Nancy Tucker from Danville, Va., knows a lot about swimming and waterfront activities. She will be loads of fun; you'll love her.

Minnie will be back to cook those good meals we all enjoy so much. We believe that with a lovely new range she just can't resist giving us a lot of her delicious hot biscuits. We shall have a big electric light in the kitchen and that will be a big help in making the dishwashing "lighter."

We shall have a campcraft counselor this year. She will help you with your cookouts and outdoor activities. You may want to hike up the river and cook bread twists for breakfast some morning or maybe cook some other meal out. Whatever you decide she will be there to see that you have well made plans and fun.

We shall see you at Camp Hardee this summer.

Sincerely,

JANE AND SUE,
P. S. A girl does not have to be a Scout to go to Camp Hardee.

Pilots Confident
'Saved' Air Base
From Big Attack

Detroit, June 3 (AP)—Young pilots who defended Selfridge Field against the nation's mightiest peacetime force of bombers were confident today they had saved their base from becoming a theoretical rubble.

But the Air Force waited for pictures to tell the story.

The mock bombing raid over the Michigan base came with scant warning. It was the biggest the Air Force had staged since V-J Day. Target for the 200 B-29 bombers and 150 escort planes was the strategic Selfridge air base, located about 30 miles from Detroit's industrial arsenal.

The Air Force announced that bombers and the P-51 escort craft had assembled from all over the nation for the test. It remained mum, however, on the results.

Meanwhile, members of Selfridge's 56th fighter group gave their own version of the assault and the defense they put up with their P-80 jet planes.

Their reports were enthusiastic. "We gave them a real working over," one pilot reported after returning from the flight. "We intercepted the bombers very successfully and made a lot of passes at them."

Lt. Col. David Schilling, group commander and a wartime fighter ace, termed the defense action "a successful mission."

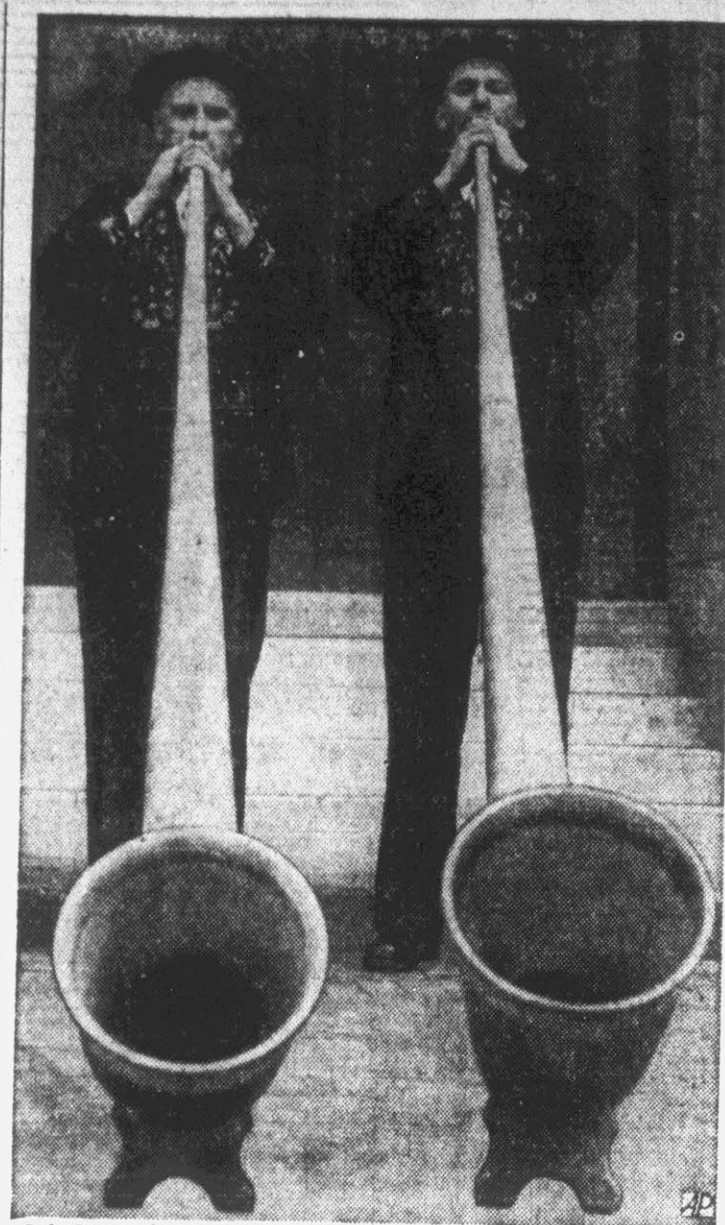

Reports from other quarters, however, were varied. Some ground observers said the B-29's, carrying an estimated bomb load of 1,125 tons could "have torn Detroit to bits."

National Federation Of Women's Clubs
Favors Humber Plan

By CHESTER WALSH

Robert Lee Humber of Greenville has received a telegram from Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck of Richmond, Va., president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, announcing that the federation in convention at Portland, Ore., last week, after hearing Humber's address on "World Federation," had passed an emergency resolution unanimously endorsing the World Federation Plan.

The resolution requested the government to introduce a resolution in the United Nations assembly calling for a general conference, according to Article 109 of the United Nations charter, to revise the UN charter, as an emergency of paramount importance, to provide for transforming that institution into a world law-making body, with power to prevent war and to enforce justice on individuals as well.

Humber was originally scheduled to address the National Federation of Women's Clubs convention in Portland on last Friday, following an address by General C. Marshall. The distinguished Greenville scholar requested that his date be put back to Tuesday of last week to permit him time in which to get home and vote in the North Carolina Democratic primary last Saturday.

Humber addressed the 3,000 delegates at the convention's banquet on the date requested and was here for the election.

The National Federation of Women's Clubs has 3,000,000 members.

There appears to be little doubt that the House will follow the recommendation of the committee and vote the fund cuts. As usual, in such instances, the administration will pin its hopes on the senate to restore at least a part of the original amount asked.

Railroad Unions
Told Senators
Will Probe Issue

Washington, June 3 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) promised railroad union chiefs today that Senate leaders will consider an investigation of their wage dispute.

The union men asked an inquiry, particularly into the Administration's actions and moves.

Taft told reporters he intends to talk to railroad presidents before he lays the union leaders' request before the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

"I want to see if there is any hope of the unions and the carriers getting together," he said. "It seems to me it might be possible for them to settle their difficulties without a Senate investigation."

No Intervention
In Executions

Raleigh, N.C., June 3 (AP)—Governor Cherry today declined to intervene in behalf of two Negroes due to be executed tomorrow for murder.

The governor said that George Hammond and Henderson Wilson are "bad actors" and "I can't intervene."

The two were convicted in Davidson County last January of charges growing out of the robbery-murder last Oct. 31 of Robert B. Hayes, Negro, who operated a store and filling station near Southmont.
