Lewis Gets Green Light On Pensions

Goldsborough Dismisses Plea For Order To Block Payment Of $100 Monthly Pension For Miners; First Court Victory In Three Tries For UMW

Washington, June 22—(AP)—Justice T. Alan Goldsborough today gave John L. Lewis a legal go-ahead for his $100 monthly pension plan for miners.

Goldsborough dismissed a plea of Ezra Van Horn, trustee for operators on the United Mine Workers' Welfare Fund, for a court order to block payment of pensions for retired miners.

The judge said he found the proposal for payments "reasonable and proper."

For Lewis, it marked his first triumph on three trips into Judge Goldsborough's court. Twice before he had been there only to be fined for contempt of court for failure to end walkouts in obedience to Goldsborough orders.

It was a dispute over pensions that brought about the costly six-week strike last spring.

The proposed system of payments was evolved by Lewis and Senator H. Styles Bridges (R-NH). Bridges became neutral member of the Welfare Board and sided with Lewis in setting up the plan.

Van Horn refused to approve the payments and went into court to ask that it be declared illegal.

Goldsborough said the plan, which was only tentative and may be changed as experience dictates, does not violate either the 1947 coal work contract, made last July, or the Taft-Hartley Labor Act.

The plan provides $100 a month for UMW members who are 65 years of age or older and who have worked in the pits for at least 30 years.

Lewis and Bridges agreed to set aside $3,000,000 of the $45,000,000 fund to start the pension payments.

The question of pension payments is blocking negotiation of a new agreement to go into effect June 30, when the current pact expires.

That same question touched off a six-week strike this spring, when miners returned after Bridges, then trustee for the fund, and Lewis, then trustee for the fund, agreed to a plan under which workers 62 and older with 30 years' service in the pits would receive payments.

But before that walkout ended, Goldsborough had fined the fiery United Mine Workers chief $10,000 and his union $700,000 for ignoring a court back-to-work order.

Meanwhile, Van Horn, the operators' trustee, started legal proceedings to block the Bridges-Lewis plan. He said it violated the Taft-Hartley Act because it included miners whose employers had not contributed the 10-cent a ton pension fund royalty.

A decision by Goldsborough on Van Horn's injunction request could go a long way toward settling the present contract stalemate.

Foreign Policy Plank Pleases Sen. Vandenberg

Philadelphia, June 22—(AP)—Senator Arthur Vandenberg said today he approves the Republican platform plank that calls for America's continued support of peace loving nations and establishment of a world police force.

The Senator, issued a statement saying:

"It is a magnificent Republican platform plank that calls for America's continued support of peace loving nations and establishment of a world police force."

"With particular reference to foreign policy, I am happy beyond words to express my satisfaction with our sturdy pledge of peace with security through collective security and progressive international cooperation."

Broad Platform Will Be Offered By Republicans

Policy Makers Include Main Features Of Truman Civil Rights Program

Philadelphia, June 22—(AP)—Republican policy makers today completed a 1948 platform pledging internationalism, a potent military machine and civil rights for all.

The platform framers finally laid the text before the country after nearly a week of writing, wrangling, and revising.

Chairman Henry Cabot Lodge of the GOP Resolutions committee will offer the 2,400-word document—shortest in the party's history—to the National convention tomorrow for approval.

The platform, was described by Lodge as broad enough for any of the main Republican Presidential hopefuls to stand upon.

The Foreign Policy plank—dedicated to "the preservation of a free America in a free world of free men"—and plumping hard for "collective security against aggression"—bears the unmistakable marks of Michigan's Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, a possible darkhorse contender for the Presidential nomination.

It pledges aid to other peace-loving countries on a basis of self-help (as in the present European recovery plan). But the platform writers inserted these words: "within the prudent limits of our own economic welfare."

It promises full recognition and economic aid to the new nation of Israel, "subject to the letter and spirit of the United Nations charter x x x with its boundaries as sanctioned by the United Nations."

Lodge called reporters' attention to the national defense plank and said it is a strong and clear commitment for building up this country's forces.

On civil rights, the platform is not as different from President Truman's program which caused such an outcry from Southern Democrats.

The Republicans called for prompt legislation to outlaw lynching and to abolish the poll tax. They opposed the idea of racial segregation in the armed forces.

Robber Kept His Victim Guessing

Chicago, June 22—(AP)—Joseph Veltri, 32, a cab driver, reported to police today that a robber kept him guessing. After the gunman hired Veltri's cab, he:

1. Told Veltri "I'm going to kill you."

2. Took him to a restaurant for breakfast.

3. Offered to pay for Veltri's breakfast, and

4. Held up the restaurant cashier.

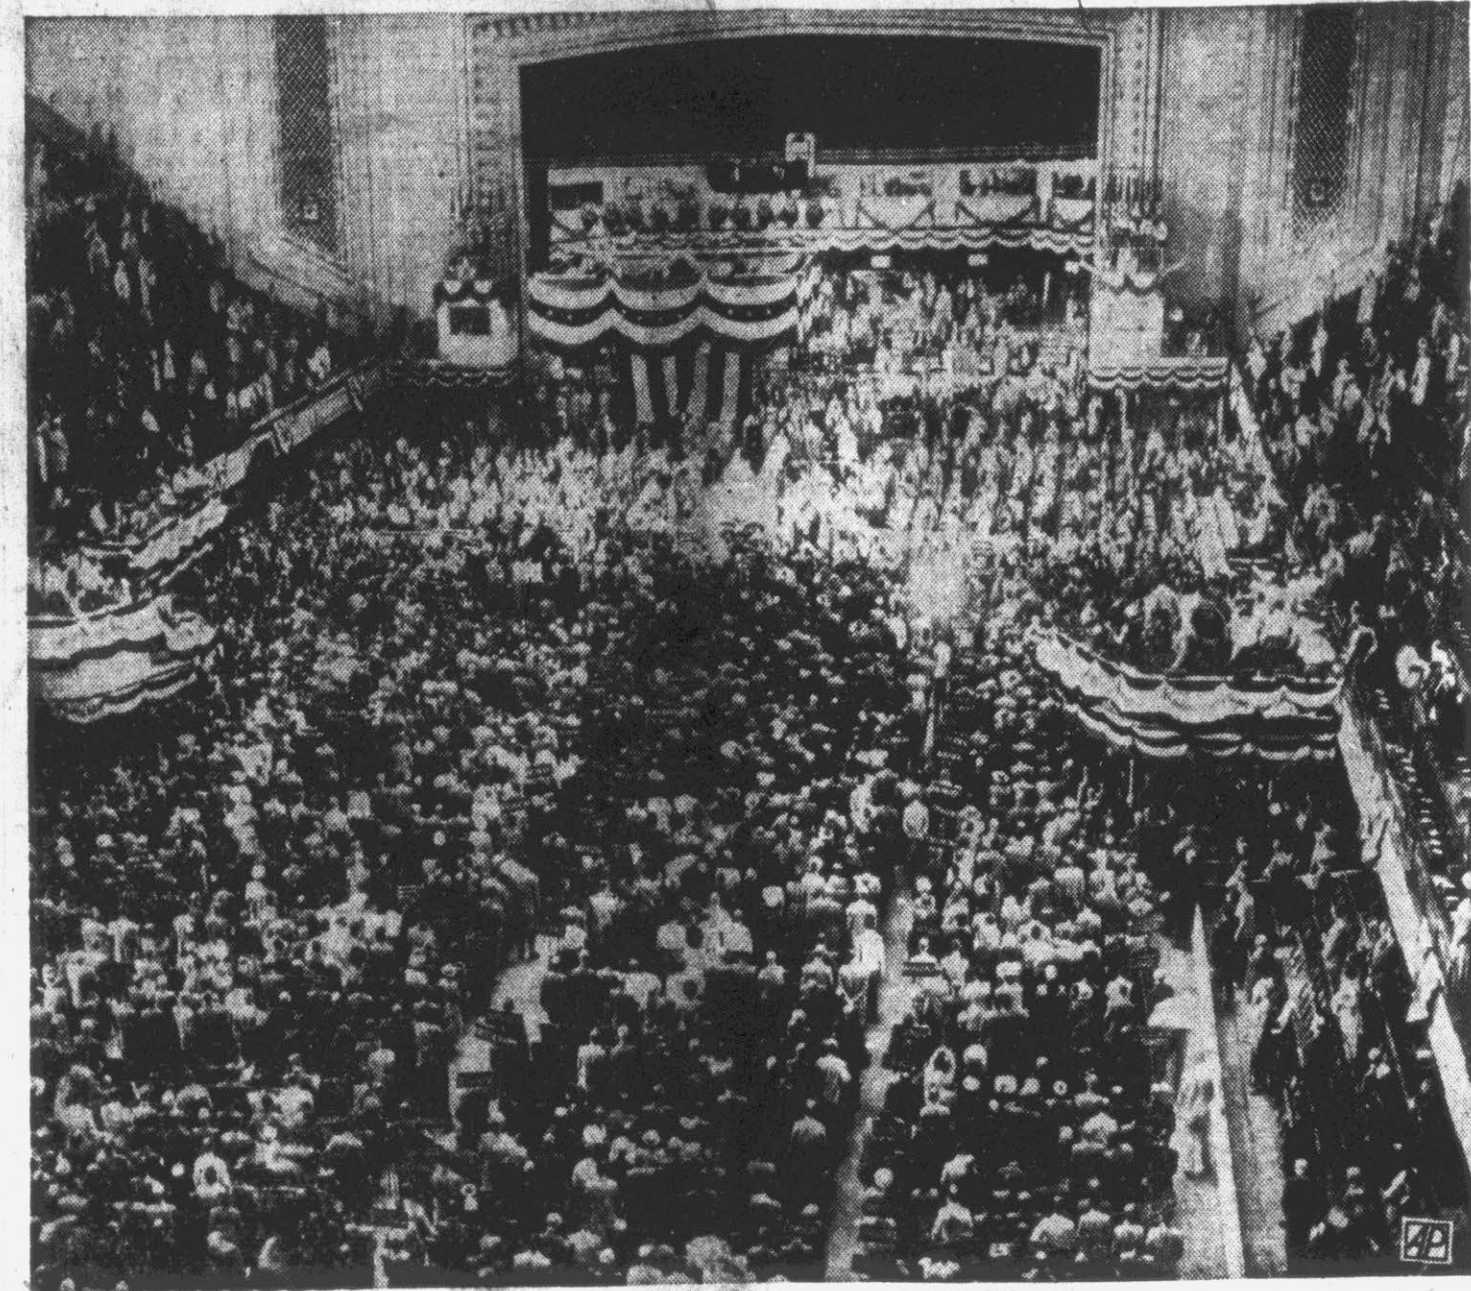

At that point, Veltri ran away. "That guy was unpredictable," he said.

Seven New Polio Cases Reported

Raleigh, June 22—(AP)—The State Board of Health announced today that reports of seven new cases of infantile paralysis were received today.

Two of the new cases were reported by Guilford County, two by Cumberland County, and one each by Caldwell, Catawba and Robeson counties.

Woman Endorsed For Senate Seat

Maine Voters Elect Congresswoman For Nomination

Portland, Me., June 22—(AP)—U. S. Rep. Margaret C. Smith won a thumping victory over three men for the Republican U. S. Senate nomination yesterday.

GOV. endorser in the Maine primaries is almost equal to election. If tradition prevails this September, Mrs. Smith will step into the seat of retiring majority floor leader White.

Only one woman—Mrs. Hattie Caraway, Arkansas Democrat—ever was elected to the Senate. She first was appointed to succeed her late husband.

Mrs. Smith, 49 and attractive, polled more votes than all three of her opponents—Gov. Horace Hilbreth, former Gov. Sumner Sewall and Albin P. Bevan.

Practically complete returns, unofficially tabulated, gave Mrs. Smith 63,429 votes. Hildreth 31,003, Sewall 21,788 and Bevan 6,557.

Beverage, a political freshman, opposed the draft, Universal military training, the Marshall plan and progressive tariff reduction—all of which Mrs. Smith voted for or favored.

Now in her fifth term, Mrs. Smith is a member of the Armed Forces committee.

Prefer Guard To Drafted Service

Washington, June 22—(AP)—The ranks of the National Guard were reported swelling today with young men trying to get away from the shadow of the draft.

National Guard headquarters reported a rush of new recruits. Officials said they expect it to continue until President Truman signs the draft bill into law. Those who are members of the guard or other active reserve groups at that time will be exempt.

Torrential Rain Endangers Grain

Parsons, Kas., June 22—(AP)—Torrential overnight rains, measuring more than seven inches at some points, sent rivers and streams in a rampage in southeast Kansas today and threatened thousands of acres of ready-to-harvest wheat.

The official government gauge at Parsons recorded 7.30 inches of rain overnight and the city was cut off from both the east and south by high waters.

Plan Continuance Of School Bible Study In Face Of Decision

Raleigh, N. C., June 22—(AP)—Despite an adverse ruling by the U. S. Supreme court, many North Carolina communities apparently plan to continue Bible classes in their schools.

A. B. Combs of the State Department of Public Instruction said that according to reports he had received most communities which have been providing Bible instruction apparently "are going to continue Bible teaching until some action is taken locally or they receive an order ruling from the Attorney General."

GOP Orators Lash 'New Deal' Policies

Charge Broken Promises At Home And Fulfilled Deals With Russia; Foreign And Domestic Programs Are Assailed

Philadelphia, June 22—(AP)—Republicans trained new oratorical guns on the "New Deal Party" today in the wake of a broadside charging broken promises at home but fulfilled deals with Russia.

Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois and Clare Boothe Luce, former congresswoman from Connecticut, leveled the charges at the Roosevelt-Truman administrations in addresses last night to the GOP National convention.

Both spoke their certainty of a Republican victory in November.

And both lashed out furiously at administration foreign and domestic policy.

Green, the convention keynote, said the "cold war" is the "justified child of the New Deal's rendezvous with Communism."

The New Deal, he said, promised economy, jobs and efficiency and delivered "unproductive spending, unbalanced budgets, oppressive taxes, massive debt and bureaucracy."

"Apparently, the only promises that were really kept were those it gave to Joe Stalin," Green shouted.

Mrs. Luce charged that "millions were 'condemned' to death, exile or slavery by secret Roosevelt-Truman agreements with the Russians at Tehran, Yalta and Potsdam."

Quoting the late President Roosevelt's statement that "I got along fine with Stalin" and President Truman's recent remark that "I like

Says U.S. Tobacco Will Help With Reconstruction

Virginia Beach, Va., June 22—(AP)—Inclusion of tobacco in the European aid program will benefit foreign governments as well as American growers, a tobacco industry spokesman said today.

"As an incentive product and as a source of internal revenue, it should be a real aid in reconstruction for foreign governments," said Clyde B. Austin, of Greenville, Tenn., president of the Tobacco Association of the United States.

In addition, it gives our farmers and industry an outlet for tobacco for which there is no demand in this country," he told the annual convention of the TAUS at the Cavalier Hotel.

Austin urged cooperation among tobacco growers, warehousemen, dealers and exporters and said "we will need careful guidance in the days ahead to keep our industry on a free enterprise and competitive basis."

He added:

"We have supported government aid to create purchasing power for exports . . . in the belief that these will aid European recovery and our own agriculture and industry."

"We must remember, however, that the effects of any program of price supports and export grants or subsidies must also be considered from the consumer's standpoint, whether that consumer be domestic or foreign. If we subsidize American products or types of products which have become obsolete, or that have lost consumer demand, we are striking a blow at the competitive system that have given our country the highest standard of living in the world."

One of nine accused in murder of Gandhi to testify against friends

Delhi, India, June 22—(AP)—One of nine men accused in the assassination of Mohandas K. Gandhi turned state's evidence today.

Judge Atma Charan said Dabbar Ramchandra Badge, the owner of a small arms shop in Poona, agreed to give a full confession in court and has been removed from the list of defendants who went to trial this morning before a special court in Delhi's old red fort.

The judge, who is hearing the case without a jury, said Badge had agreed to become a prosecution witness and "tell the truth" and therefore would not be tried.

Union Press Can Back Candidates

Tribunal Gives Interpretation Of Taft-Hartley Law

Washington, June 22—(AP)—Labor union editors dipped their pens in political ink today without worrying about the Taft-Hartley law.

The Supreme Court gave its approval yesterday by ruling unanimously that the act does not keep publications financed by unions or corporation funds from taking sides in a political campaign.

The nine justices agreed that if the law had ban such publication of union or management views, there would be grave doubt as to its constitutionality.

But the court said that there was no need to decide the constitutional issue now since the CIO did not violate the act by endorsing a congressional candidate in the CIO News.

The government and the CIO had pressed the case as a direct test of the Taft-Hartley Act's general ban against political expenditures from union treasuries.

With the political campaign gathering momentum, the court ruling in the publication left unanswered the question of just how far unions can go in backing candidates without violating the act.

No further guidance before the November elections may be expected from the highest tribunal.

The court will not meet again until October 4.

So union leaders and corporation officials who want to step up their political blows must make their own decisions on how much they can do legally.

The major labor organizations already have separate agencies to handle political war chests, which are not covered by the ban. Almost $15,000,000 in contributions is expected from union members.

Among other things these funds would be used to finance a fight against the Taft-Hartley Act and those Congress members who supported it.

The CIO issued a statement after the court decision saying:

"This case represents the successful beginning of our legal campaign against the Taft-Hartley law. We regret that a majority of the court did not deem it appropriate at this time to rule on the constitutionality of the entire political expenditures clause of the act. We are confident that this clause and many other provisions of this law violate basic constitutional rights."

Church Council Votes Merger

Oberlin, O., June 22—(AP)—The General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches today approved a Basis of Union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church to form a United Church of Christ with a combined membership of nearly 2,000,000.

With only 10 or 12 opposing votes, the 1,000 voting delegates to the council endorsed the merger enthusiastically, after debating for two hours a compromise report prepared last night by the Interchurch Relations and Christian Unity Commission.

Chief prosecutor C. K. DeFari said Gandhi was slain because he preached non-violence and communal peace and stood in the path of the communal hatred preached by Godse, a Poona editor, and the others, all of whom are Hindus.

No Sign Of Break In GOP Line-Up

Jewish Fighting Groups Clash On Truce Violation

Possibility Of Civil War In State Of Israel Raised By Armed Encounter

Tel Aviv, June 22—(AP)—The possibility of civil war—with Jew fighting Jew—cast its grim shadow across the new state of Israel today.

An Israeli government communiqué last night disclosed that Hagana, the regular Jewish army, and members of the extremist Irgun Zvai Leumi fighting organization have clashed over the landing of a boat carrying Irgun arms.

An Irgun broadcast said: "Some of our people have been killed and wounded." It threatened a "blood battle between Jews" if Hagana did not stop its attacks on Irgunists defending the arms ship, beached on the coast near Natanya, 18 miles north of here.

The Israeli government imposed censorship for 24 hours on news about the ship and its landing. United Nations officials said, true observers were sent at once to the scene of the beaching, since a violation of the U.N.'s four-week armistice, now in its second week, may be involved.

The government's statement and the Irgun broadcast were the only facts permitted by censorship to be sent abroad on the clash.

The government version, read to correspondents by an information officer:

"It came to the knowledge of commanders of the army of Israel that a boat carrying arms for Irgun Zvai Leumi was to arrive in this country. The matter was brought before the provisional government of Israel and it was determined to firm all measures to prevent unloading of these arms by Irgun Zvai Leumi."

The statement said Irgun's leaders were asked to recognize the authority of the new state and called the landing of arms "especially at the time of the truce, a very serious breach of the laws of Israel and a violation of international obligations."

"When it was learned that the boat approached the coast of Israel," the statement continued, "an order was issued to the army to prevent the unloading of arms and, if necessary, to use arms to enforce the order."

Handling Over 600 Visitors Is Church Problem

By WYATT BROWN

It was announced yesterday afternoon by Reverend Robert W. Bradshaw, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, that entertainment had been arranged for 350 of the delegates expected for the annual conference of the Methodist Church to hold its sessions in Greenville November 3rd through the 7th. Over 600 delegates are expected. Those placed resulted from a canvass of the Jarvis Memorial membership.

Yesterday afternoon representatives of each of the other churches of Greenville were invited to help in entertaining delegates. Each accepted the obligation for a liberal quota. Mr. Bradshaw urges that all Methodists who have not been approached about entertaining conference delegates should get in touch with Co-Chairman S. B. Underwood and Mrs. William H. Taft right away. No doubt the canvass that has just been completed failed to reach some who were out when telephoned or absent from the city.

William E. Taft, chairman of the Jarvis Memorial Board of Stewards and chairman of the Steering Committee of the Conference Committee took occasion to highly commend the members of the Housing Committee for their efficient, prompt handling of their canvass for entertainment. Those who have agreed to entertain guests are requested to sleep the guests four nights, give them four breakfasts and Sunday dinner. Mr. Bradshaw said some had indicated their inability to give meals, others have indicated their inability to provide sleeping facilities—the two will apparently balance each other.

Representatives of other churches present yesterday afternoon at a brief meeting at Jarvis Memorial were: Rev. H. G. Haney, Rev. Roscoe Hauser, Mrs. J. B. Brown, and Dr. R. E. Hardaway. A fine spirit of cooperation was manifested inspiring the Methodists to see their friends ready for help. Mr. Bradshaw explained that the early appeal for assistance was due to the fact that due to the coming of July and August that the Methodist's wanted to get their friends helping for so little time would be left when September came following the summer hiatus.

Mrs. Taft Receives At Tea
Mrs. Hoover Taft received at tea on Tuesday afternoon of last week from 4:30 until 6 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. V. C. Fleming, as a courtesy to Miss Nancy Hannah, bride-elect.

Callers were welcomed by Mrs. W. H. Taft and presented to the hostess, her honor guest and Miss Mary Ann Duncan, whose marriage to Mr. James Hunter Grooms took place on Saturday evening.

A profusion of rose colored dahlias with queen anne's lace decorated the living room and sun room. Blue hydrangeas were used in the music room.

Mrs. Walter Harrington invited the guests to the dining room where Mrs. Van Fleming served lime sherbet punch. Mrs. Reynolds May, Mrs. Hunter Irving, Mrs. V. C. Fleming Jr. and Miss Jane Massey assisted in serving bridal cakes, cheese biscuits and crescents, mints and nuts.

Table appointments were in a bridal motif of green and white. The dining table was covered with a white lace cloth over green satin and centered with a beautiful arrangement of baby's breath, shasta daisies, smapdragons and fever few flanked on either side by white candles in silver candelabra. From the chandelier wedding bells were suspended. Tulle festooned to the four corners of the table and was attached with small bows of maline. The buffet held a floral arrangement of white flowers and candles in crystal candlesticks tied with green maline bows.

As callers left the dining room they were greeted by Mrs. Reid Perkins.

The hostess presented Miss Hannah an honor gift of silver and Miss Duncan a gift of crystal.

F.W.B. Church Conference

There will be a called conference of the Greenville Free Will Baptist Church Wednesday evening June 23 at 8:00 p.m. The Reverend Robert B. Crawford of Nashville, Tenn. will be there and wishes to meet as many of the local members as possible. All members are urged to be present.

BATTED BALL INJURES WOMAN IN HER GARDEN

Mrs. Bertha Parker, 311 Summit street, whose chief pastime is her flower garden, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon when a batted baseball struck her on a knee while in her garden, planting flowers. She was treated at Pitt General Hospital and taken back to her home. A member of the family said the ball was batted during a game of well-grown teen-age boys in the vacant lot at Fourth and Jarvis streets.

Women IN THE CHURCH

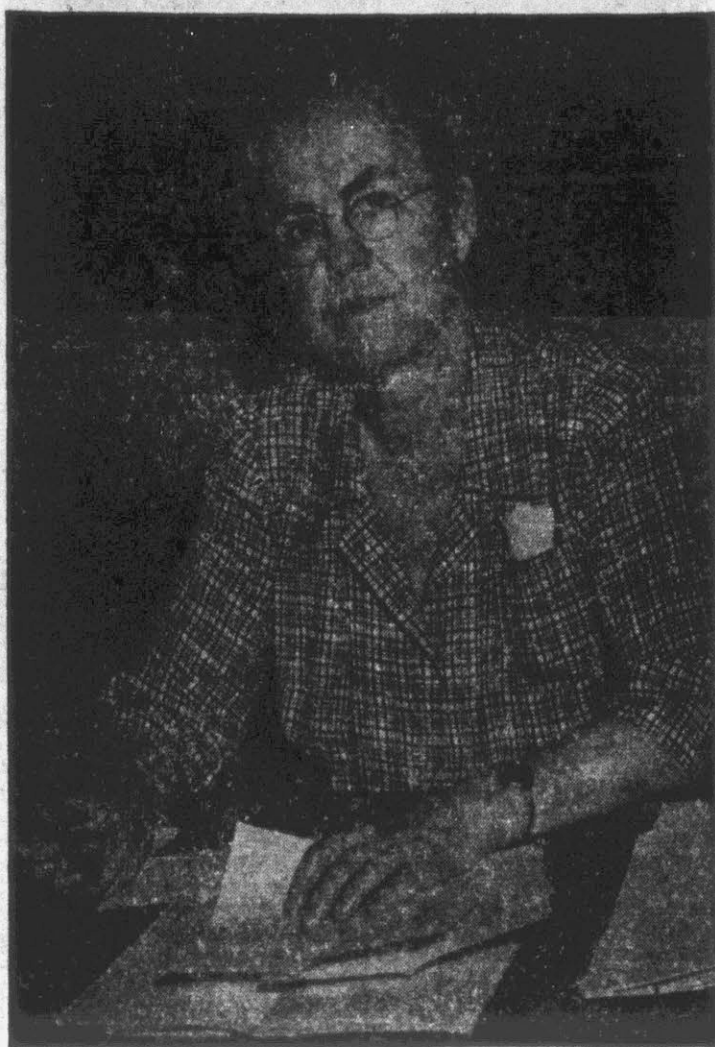

by Mary Fowler

Miss Talitha Gerlach, of the foreign staff of the Young Woman's Christian Association, is now on a speaking tour of the United States in the interests of the China Welfare Fund with which she has been assigned for some years in China. She says that the Fund is growing in the volume and value of the service to the underprivileged children left homeless and often parentless by the war and its aftermath, and that the need for assistance from American friends continues. She has great praise for Madame Sun Yat-sen's program of relief for Chinese orphans and for similar projects which have actually saved millions of lives.

Protestant Church women of the United States believe taxes should be used to provide adequate health services for children; they would like to see church members take a public stand on issues affecting equality of opportunity for children and they believe local housing codes are unfair to children. These views were expressed recently in a national-wide poll by the interdenominational United Council of Church Women. The poll was made in connection with the organization's Fellowship observance featuring the theme, "Every Child is My Child—in the Fabric of Fellowship." Approximately 37,000 women in 43 states participated. Results showed that more than three-quarters favored use of public funds for health service. An overwhelming majority urged church members to take an active part in championing equal opportunities for children. No significant regional or state difference of opinion was noted on these issues. The poll also revealed that two-thirds of the church women believe their community school systems provide fair treatment for children re-

Retires After 22 Years Of Service

Laura T. Rose, faculty member of East Carolina Teachers College, has retired after twenty-two years of service at the college.

As a member of the social studies department, Miss Rose joined the teaching staff of East Carolina in 1926; and she has taught courses, mainly in American history, during her period of service here.

A native of Minnesota, Miss Rose received her college training at Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minnesota, where she was awarded the bachelor of arts degree in 1914. Later she attended Columbia University and completed work there for the master's degree. Before coming to East Carolina she taught in high schools in Idaho, Montana and Minnesota.

She was for a number of years a member of the American Association of University Women in Greenville. As chairman of the international relations committee, she was active in the work of the organization and contributed to its program of study.

During the past school year she spoke before the Faculty Lecture Club on her Swedish ancestors and gave an account of the contributions to American life and culture made by her pioneer forefathers.

Miss Rose will make her home in the future at Marine-on-St.-Croix, Minnesota. Recently residents of Ragsdale Hall, teachers' dormitory at the college, entertained in honor of Miss Rose and presented her with a silver pitcher as a token of esteem and of appreciation for her long service at East Carolina.

ardless of race, creed, or color.

A recent survey of the membership of Protestant churches in Indianapolis, Ind., and vicinity showed that there are seven women for every three men enrolled in the churches; while of the entire Protestant membership only one in three attends church regularly on Sunday mornings; and that Sunday school enrollment has dropped 15 per cent in as many years despite great population total gains. A further startling discovery was that while 26 per cent of the city's gainfully employed persons are laborers, only one in twelve are enrolled in non-Roman churches.

Martin Swartz Explains Needs Of Utilities Plant

By WYATT BROWN

The Rotarians were told about the how and why of the proposed program of improvements at the Utilities Commission water and light plant and the extension of fire protection and sewers to the newly included sections of the city when Martin Swartz spoke at the Rotary Club last night. Utilities Superintendent Swartz did not do any pleading but presented a series of charts for the Rotarians to see and emphasized various points by indicating particular figures. It was a factual and chart presentation seeking the cooperation of the Rotarians when the voters decide whether to approve a new bond issue for the Utilities.

In answer to questions Mr. Swartz said that any person whose name is already listed on the city registration books or who registers before Saturday of this week would be qualified to vote in the bond election. He further explained that the decision would depend upon the vote cast for and against.

In answer to the question of why no profits Mr. Swartz said that the Commission charged the same rates as private utilities but gave better service, had well aged equipment, suffered the break-down last year when the city had periods of darkness, increased expense going along with inadequate equipment and yet giving some service in fact the costs "went out of sight," he said, $140,000 for city services which private utilities would have charged for, and the good bookkeeping practice of treating depreciation as an expense when other utilities do not, etc.

Following Rotarians volunteered to assist in the special gifts committee of the Woman's Club sponsored World Community Chest Drive for the children of Europe in dire need: Erskine Duff, Phil Goodson, Lindsay Wilkerson, Elmer Brown, Howard McGinnis and John G. Fleming.

Coming Home After Service With WACs In Yokohama, Japan

With the Eighth Army in Yokohama, June 8 (delayed)—Staff Sergeant Marjorie Allen, daughter of Mrs. Titus Allen, Rt. No. 1 Greenville, has recently received her orders to return to the United States for separation from the service. She is tentatively scheduled to depart from this headquarters on the tenth of June.

Entering the army in December 1943 at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., she served with various units in the states prior to her departure for overseas in November 1946. Upon arrival in Yokohama she was assigned to the 8000th WAC detachment, a part of headquarters eighth army. She had the duty of supply sergeant for dependent housing supplies.

Prior to her entrance into the army she attended the Belvoir-Falkland high school.

New Draft Law Sends Recruits To Nat'l Guard

By CHESTER WALSH

The new draft law for the armed forces, recently passed by Congress, and now awaiting President Truman's signature, appears to be at this time a potent influence in recruiting members of the National Guard, according to reports from various parts of the state, Sherman Parks, first sergeant of the Greenville National Guard, said today.

It is understood that the President is temporarily delaying signing the bill to permit young men to enlist for service. A part of the draft law states that those who enlist before the draft measure becomes law will be exempt from the draft, and that those in the National Guard will be exempt from the draft as long as they are National Guardsmen, Sgt. Parks said.

Capt. Clay Burnette, commanding officer of the Greenville battery, said that the army here will be open all day for enlistments, and that there will be officers at the army camp night this week from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

The Greenville battery, organized last October, now has four officers and 45 enlisted men, and several recruits were accepted yesterday. Officers of the local battery today quoted Gen. J. Van B. Metts, at state headquarters in Raleigh, as saying that he expects the National Guard in this state to reach its full authorized strength before President Truman signs the bill. They quoted Maj. Gen. John Hall Manning, head of the 30th Division, as expressing the same opinion.

A communication from state headquarters said: "Enlistments in the National Guard will permit young men to continue their education and their regular employment and at the same time render valuable service to their country."

Incidentally, the state's draft machinery is in readiness to carry out the provisions of the draft law as soon as the President signs the bill, Gen. Metts said.

Oil Shortage In Germany Brings Hunt For Wells

Munich (AP)—The acute fuel oil shortage in Germany has caused geologists to resume their search for oil in the Bavarian mountains.

Years of researches which were halted during the war convinced geologists that oil can be found in the deeper soil in the mountain area. Tests drillings are under way in several parts of this American-occupied state, newspapers report, but results are said to be meager.

The only active oil wells in Germany, in the British-occupied region around Hanover, have very small yields.

One sixth of all the life insurance now in force in the United States is group life insurance.

One-Sided

Moscow, June 22—(AP)—A Tass New Agency dispatch informed Russian readers today that secret deals by political bosses will decide the winner of the Republican presidential nomination.

The Soviet news agency, in a brief story on the opening of the GOP convention in Philadelphia, said there will be tough trading during which agreements will be concluded on "the distribution of government, diplomatic and other high official posts."

The dispatch made no reference to convention statements on Communism.

THUNDER IN THE CHOR LOFT

Shilley, Neb.—(P)—The weather provided sound effects for services at the Methodist church here. A thunderstorm reached its height while the choir sang "Master, the tempest is raging."

School Teachers Will Meet Queen

London, June 22—(P)—More than 100 American school teachers gaily practiced the curtsy here today in preparation for a meeting with Queen Elizabeth later in the day.

The teachers have been in Britain for a school term, in exchange for British teachers engaged for a term in United States schools.

The group, giggling and presenting at times the appearance of a big awkward squad, held its practice in a large room overlooking Berkeley Square.

The meeting with the Queen is the climax of social aspects of the teachers' stay in Britain.

The reception was arranged at Hatfield House, north of London, the ancient seat of the Salisbury family. The group included: Miss Mary Cannon, Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Mary Boykin, Columbia, S. C.; Miss Varoline Skelton, Anderson, S. C.; Miss Sara Sowell, Tarboro, N. C.; Miss Octavia Yates, Sumter, S. C.; and Miss Rachel E. Lee, Greenville, S. C.

"CHRIST THE REDEEMER"
The prisoners in the concentration camp at Los Banos were doomed to die on the morrow. The men—so it was said—would be murdered in the morning. The women would meet their fate later. Over in the American camp, word of this desperate situation was brought to the American commander by two young Filipino garillas. No knew the danger and therefore only asked for volunteers.
But more men offered to go than he could possibly take.

In the concentration camp, the prisoners slept through the night unaware either of danger or of impending rescue. Suddenly, at seven in the morning, the sky was filled with opening parachutes. At the same moment the ground shook began. Every prisoner was rescued alive. But two of their rescuers were instantly killed and many of our soldiers lost their blood.

Now if you had been a prisoner at Los Banos, would you be ashamed of the men who gave their blood for your salvation? Would you ever dream of going back into the slavery from which you had been redeemed at so great a price?

So we, who have been in the slavery of sin, were redeemed "with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot." Let us therefore walk worthy of so great a sacrifice.

Around Capitol Square

QUESTIONS—Newspaper reporters, making the rounds of capitol square Monday were greeted almost everywhere by the same double question: "What do you think will happen at Philadelphia this weekend?" In North Carolina next Saturday? It is accepted as beyond doubt that the Democratic primary will select the next governor, although actual election will not be consummated until November. It is rather generally, though by no means unanimously, conceded that the nominee of the Republican convention will be the next president of the United States.

VOTES—Most of the speculation about the primary has to do with probable number of votes cast.
Opinion as to who will win the primary depends entirely upon the personal preference of the person voicing the opinion. Johnson supporters are sure he will win, and Scottsfolks are just as certain their man will come out on top. But there is wide variance in estimates of total number of votes likely to be cast. The guesses range from 300,000 to 400,000, with majority opinion running between 275,000 and 300,000.

PERCENTAGE—The low estimate boys have precedent of the first primary to support them. Only a very few predictions for the first primary vote were as low as 425,000, while many ranged around 475,000 and a few went as high as 550,000.
The actual vote for governor was 423,125. Two-thirds of that would be 282,082 and three-fourths of it would be 317,344. Many election estimators, like other professional gamblers, play percentage. Three-fourths of the first primary vote would be the lowest percentage for a second primary in many years, if not for all time, but generally appears to indicate that in many conditions there may hold the 1948 run-off vote to be less. There is nothing in evidence to justify prediction of repetition of the 1929 primary when the run-off vote exceeded the first.

LOCAL—It becomes daily more evident that six of Saturday's vote will be influenced by local conditions. There has been little apparent change in the situation on state level during the past week. Reports reaching capitol square, however, indicate that in many communities folks are getting mad at their neighbors and will vote not for or against Johnson or Scott, but for or against local political leaders.
Observers admit this condition may bring out a larger vote than statewide conditions would indicate.

HIDDEN—Another factor adding to difficulty for the estimators is the fact that most of the activity since the first primary has been undercover. Both candidates have made some speeches and there have been some newspaper advertisements, but main part of the work by both camps has been in tightening organizations and arranging for field workers to get voters to the polls. Money plays a big part in this kind of operation. Both camps have some money, neither has enough for a comfortable feeling.
Here again the "local mad" element

Most Popular Man At The Convention

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

Philadelphia—(P)—The big mystery today in this metropolis of fraternal affection isn't who's going to be the Republican candidate for President.

To heck with secrecy. I can tell you in two words who it will be—a Republican. His name? His name right now is legion. Or almost legion.

The real mystery here to one seeing a National convention for the first time is:

"How can one small subdivision of a continent with only 145,000,000 people produce so many rugged men with the stamina to face openly the ordal of being a candidate for the Presidency?"

For the perils of Pauline are nothing to the trials and tribulations of a man who aspires to become the number one public servant of the American people.

If he wins one race and gets the nomination, what lies ahead? Another energy-sapping, spirited race with an equally eager beaver who won the other party's nomination.

But the first race looks to me like the hardest—the race to head the party's ticket. For in it a man is trying to do the hardest thing in the world—get applause from his own family. In this case his political family. Family fights are the bitterest. Civil wars are the bloodiest.

What does a man have to do to convince his political family that he should lead them? Ordinarily—plenty!

Leaving out the nerve-wearing months of preliminary travel and negotiation, there is the week-long ordal of the convention itself.

In one evening here Gov. Thomas E. Dewey shook hands with some enters, for if local workers get mad enough they will use their automobiles to haul voters without prospect of pay in cash.

6,000 people at his official reception.
Senator Robert A. Taft, too, has a grip worn out from greeting well-wishers. He also shook the trunk of the only honest-to-leather pachyderm gathered here for the quadrennial meeting of the American Society for the advancement of the Elephant.

There is no such thing as real sleep for a candidate once the convention starts. He faces long hours of conferences with his advisers, and dozens of interviews with potential supporters in the bottomholing, wheeling and dealing sessions to win delegates.

There isn't just one smoke-filled room at any close political convention. There are hundreds of them as democracy works its way to a decision by the Democratic method of negotiation. Sometimes one smoke-filled room yields the wildfire of victory. Usually it doesn't.

A candidate in a hotly contested race may give his time, his heart, and wear two or three years off his normal life expectancy in a fight to gain the nomination and still be asked to give one more thing—promises. Promises to appoint this man to that post in exchange for delegate votes.

And does it cost money to try to win a nomination? It does. To give one example it cost Senator Taft and his supporters $174,000 alone to fight Harold Stassen's bid for delegate support in the Ohio primary.

One man who has escaped most of the preliminary travel and expense is Senator Arthur Vandenberg. He has said he wouldn't seek the nomination, but like Baruk in "David Copperfield," "He's willin'" to take it if drafted.

But suppose a man goes through the customary long weary grind to nomination, and then goes on to win the Presidency. What is his reward?

Southern Progress

By The Associated Press

Ten years ago the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt called the South the Nation's No. 1 economic problem.

The region has made substantial progress in the last decade, figures show. Industrial wages, for example, average $1,798 a year, or $32.65 a week, in the South in 1948. They averaged $865 a year in 1938. That's a boost of 100 per cent.

Here are some other comparative statistics for the South.

	1938	1948
Population	36 Million	39 Million
Income	20% of National	22 Per Cent
Average Per Capita Income	$215 ($604 National)	$797 (1,150 National)
Taxable Property	16 Per Cent of Nation	26 Per Cent
Farm Tenancy	53 Per Cent of Farmers	48 Per Cent

Martin Swartz Explains Needs Of Utilities Plant

By WYATT BROWN

The Rotarians were told about the how and why of the proposed program of improvements at the Utilities Commission water and light plant and the extension of fire protection and sewers to the newly included sections of the city when Martin Swartz spoke at the Rotary Club last night. Utilities Superintendent Swartz did not do any pleading but presented a series of charts for the Rotarians to see and emphasized various points by indicating particular figures. It was a factual and chart presentation seeking the cooperation of the Rotarians when the voters decide whether to approve a new bond issue for the Utilities.

In answer to questions Mr. Swartz said that any person whose name is already listed on the city registration books or who registers before Saturday of this week would be qualified to vote in the bond election. He further explained that the decision would depend upon the vote cast for and against.

In answer to the question of why no profits Mr. Swartz said that the Commission charged the same rates as private utilities but gave better service, had well aged equipment, suffered the break-down last year when the city had periods of darkness, increased expense going along with inadequate equipment and yet giving some service in fact the costs "went out of sight," he said, $140,000 for city services which private utilities would have charged for, and the good bookkeeping practice of treating depreciation as an expense when other utilities do not, etc.

Coming Home After Service With WACs In Yokohama, Japan

With the Eighth Army in Yokohama, June 8 (delayed)—Staff Sergeant Marjorie Allen, daughter of Mrs. Titus Allen, Rt. No. 1 Greenville, has recently received her orders to return to the United States for separation from the service. She is tentatively scheduled to depart from this headquarters on the tenth of June.

Entering the army in December 1943 at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., she served with various units in the states prior to her departure for overseas in November 1946. Upon arrival in Yokohama she was assigned to the 8000th WAC detachment, a part of headquarters eighth army. She had the duty of supply sergeant for dependent housing supplies.

Prior to her entrance into the army she attended the Belvoir-Parkland high school.

New Draft Law Sends Recruits To Nat'l Guard

By CHESTER WALSH

The new draft law for the armed forces, recently passed by Congress, and now awaiting President Truman's signature, appears to be at this time a potent influence in recruiting members of the National Guard, according to reports from various parts of the state, Sherman Parks, first sergeant of the Greenville battery of the North Carolina National Guard, said today.

It is understood that the President is temporarily delaying signing the bill to permit young men to enlist for service. A part of the draft law states that those who enlist before the draft measure becomes law will be exempt from the draft, and that those in the National Guard will be exempt from the draft as long as they are National Guardsmen, Sgt. Parks said.

Capt. Clay Burnette, commanding officer of the Greenville battery, said that the army here will be open all day for enlistments, and that there will be officers at the army each night this week from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

The Greenville battery, organized last October, now has four officers and 45 enlisted men, and several recruits were accepted yesterday.

Officers of the local battery today quoted Gen. J. Van B. Metts, at state headquarters in Raleigh as saying that he expects the National Guard in this state to reach its full authorized strength before President Truman signs the bill. They quoted Maj.-Gen. John Hall Manning, head of the 30th Division, as expressing the same opinion.

A communication from state headquarters said: "Enlistments in the National Guard will permit young men to continue their education and their regular employment and at the same time render valuable service to their country."

Incidentally, the state's draft machinery is in readiness to carry out the provisions of the draft law as soon as the President signs the bill, Gen. Metts said.

Oil Shortage In Germany Brings Hunt For Wells

Munich—(AP)—The acute fuel oil shortage in Germany has caused geologists to resume their search for oil in the Bavarian mountains.

Years of researches which were halted during the war convinced geologists that oil can be found in the deeper soil in the mountain area. Tests drillings are under way in several parts of this American-occupied state, newspapers report, but results are said to be meager.

The only active oil wells in Germany, in the British-occupied region around Hanover, have very small yields.

School Teachers Will Meet Queen

London, June 22—(AP)—More than 100 American school teachers gaily practiced the curtsy here today in preparation for a meeting with Queen Elizabeth later in the day.

The teachers have been in Britain for a school term, in exchange for British teachers engaged for a term in United States schools.

The group, giggling and presenting at times the appearance of a big awkward squad, held its practice in a large room overlooking Berkeley Square.

The meeting with the Queen is the climax of social aspects of the teachers' stay in Britain.

The reception was arranged at Hatfield House, north of London, the ancient seat of the Salisbury family.

The group included: Miss Mary Cannon, Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Mary Boykin, Columbia, S. C.; Miss Varoline Skelton, Anderson, S. C.; Miss Sara Howell, Tarboro, N. C.; Miss Octavia Yates, Sumter, S. C.; and Miss Rachel E. Lee, Greenville, S. C.

Greenville Topples Wilson By 8-2 Margin Last Night

Yohn Pitches Third Win Against Tobs; Phillips Hits Four-For-Four; First Frame Lead Was Sufficient

By BEET MOYE

Lefty Junior Yohn held the Wilson Tobs to eight scattered hits last night to win his third victory of the season over the Tobs, 8-2, as his teammates, led by Ray Phillips, Greenies centerfielder, who got four for four, battered two Wilson hurriers for 14 hits, five of which were for extra bases.

The Greenies scored four runs in the first frame which proved enough to win the game. Danny Lastres and Ray Phillips singled, Bob Cohen reached first on Dicken's error at second to load the bases, Wiley Nash hit to deep centerfield with Lastres coming home from third, and Joe Nossing doubled into centerfield to bring in Phillips and Cohen. After Larry Riggs had lined out to Dickson at second for the second out, Joe Sposa singled into right field to bring home Nossing.

The Greenies added one run in the fifth frame when Nossing walked, Riggs went down to second with Nossing taking second and Sposa again singled to bring home Nossing.

Two runs were added again in the sixth frame when Junior Yohn doubled, Ray Phillips singled to bring him home, advancing to second on the throw at home and Manager Bob Cohen singled to bring home Phillips.

The Greenies made their final run of the game in the eighth when Mike Carter collected his second double of the night, was sacrificed to third by Yohn and came home when Wiley Nash threw the ball wild to third in an effort to hold Sposa at third on the long fly to deep centerfield by Danny Lastres.

The Tobs did all their scoring in the seventh frame when they collected three of their eight hits for the night. Wolfe led off with a double, Sanner singled to bring him home, Rehm walked, Carpenter got a hit to lead the bases and then Sanner hit into a double play with Sanner racing home from third while the double play was being made.

Junior Yohn struck out four men and walked only two during the game. Sanner and Carpenter got two singles each to lead the Tobs' attack.

Manager Lefty Wilson started on the mound for the Tobs and pulled himself out after pitching two innings in which he allowed seven hits and four Greenie runs. Charlie Nordmeyer went in at the start of the third frame and pitched seven and a half innings and held the Greenies to four runs.

In addition to Ray Phillips' perfect night at the bat, Danny Lastres got three singles in five trips to the plate. Mike Carter got two doubles in his four trips to the plate, and Joe Sposa collected two singles in four trips to the plate.

Musial Leading At Bat With National League

New York, June 22 — (AP) — Founding out a dozen hits in 23 times at bat, Stan (The Man) Musial, opened up a 26-point lead in the National League batting derby with 15th stop mark of 392.

Tommy Holmes of the Boston Braves, who lost the lead to Musial week ago by three percentage points, dropped nine more to fall to second place 364.

Third place was held by Richie Ashburn, rookie Philadelphia outfielder, who fell two points from 344 to 342. The biggest gain of the week was made by Andy Pafko of the Chicago Cubs, whose seven straight hits against Brooklyn helped him boost his season's average to a fourth place 341.

Braves Sign Up Young Pitcher

Boston, June 22 — (AP) — Stanton Brownell, 19 year old Newport, R. I. right hander who struck out 97 upping schoolboy batters in 67 2-3 innings last season, today was signed by the Boston Braves to a Standard contract.

Both the Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees were after the husky youngster who fanned 38 batters in his last two games while pitching for Boston High School.

BOY'S LEAGUE BASEBALL

The East End Greenies went back into a tie with the Tigers of Third Street Monday afternoon when they defeated them in a hotly contested game by the score of 8 to 5. The Greenies played an uphill game, scoring six runs in the last four innings to overcome an early lead of the Tigers. The Tigers did all of their scoring in the second and third innings, after which Joe Clark, pitching for the Greenies tightened up and shut the losers out for the remainder of the game.

Lewis with a homer and single, and Sydney Briley and Gus Faulkner with a triple and double were the leaders for the Tigers. John Farley with three singles and Eugene Ayers with two singles led the attack of the Greenies.

The Giants strengthened their lead in the Intermediate League by winning over the second place Orioles Monday morning at the Training School by the score of 12 to 4. The Tigers have strengthened their team and are going to be hard to stop from making a runaway of the first half.

Jody Taylor, the leagues leading hitter, kept slugging hard with a double and single. Kent Lee and Wiley Gardner with three hits each were the leaders for the Giants. Bobby Watson got two singles and Virgilus Haynes a homer also for the winners.

The Lions won their second in a row Monday morning at the expense of the Dodgers of Third Street. The game was very close with the Lions holding a one run lead until the final inning. In the last inning the Lions scored three runs to guarantee their victory. Guy Smith got two singles to get half of his teams four hits off of the effective hurling of Jerry Phillips. Gene Hudson and Phillips got two hits each to lead the winners. Bob Howell hit a triple with the bases loaded to put the Lions in the game in the second inning when they were trailing 3 to 0.

Schedule for Wednesday. Orioles vs Giants, Training school 9:30 a. m. Red Sox vs Dodgers, Training school 9:30 a. m.

Crews Fear Rain In Regatta Today

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 22 — (AP) — The weather was the chief concern of crews and coaches today as rain threatened for the 44th renewal of the Poughkeepsie Regatta.

With the arduous miles of preparation behind them, the 11 varsity crews were hoping for ideal conditions for the grueling three-mile test on the Hudson River late this afternoon.

Most crews took final workouts yesterday on a river as calm as a summer lake. Not only the participants but the expected thousands of spectators were anxious for more of the same.

Pre-race talk still favored Navy and Cornell from the East, and Washington and California from the West. But there was a growing groundswell for Princeton as a varsity dorkhorse.

"If we're right, we could take it all," declared Delos "Dutch" Scholch, Princeton member. "We had a little tough luck in a couple of spots this spring. But I think man for man my kids can stand up with Cornell, Navy or Harvard, which are considered the East's three best."

Wilson signed Marchese on January 25, 1947, and gave him his outright release on April 4, 1947, but the violation did not come to the Commissioner's attention until after he had rendered the Danville decision.

Marchese, a righthander, is 18 years old, standing five feet ten inches, and weighs 155 pounds. After signing with Wilson in January 1947, he went to spring training camp with that club, then returned to Chicago, where he was signed by Scout George Sisler this spring for Danville.

Luis Olmo, who played rightfield with the Wilson Tobs in 1939 and 1940 and former Brooklyn Dodger who is on the ineligible list of Organized Ball because of his participation in the Mexican League, has entered the Diamond picture in this country. Olmo was signed by Pastors of the Meracabo League and sports writers are clamoring for him to be engaged by the Caracas Winter League. Both circuits, heretofore, have steered clear of ineligible players. Olmo is the current hitting and fielding sensation in the Meracabo League, his playing helping Pastors to lead the standings with ten wins and seven defeats. Incidentally, Olmo in 1939 hit 328 and was voted on the all-star team of the Coastal Plain League. In 1940 he hit at a .348 clip with the Wilson Tobs.

Forest Hill, N. Y., June 21 — (AP) — Jack Kramer was undisputed king today of the world's professional tennis courts.

The young man from Los Angeles, less than a year in money ranks, captured the National Professional championship by defeating defender Bobby Riggs of Altadena, Calif., in yesterday's final, 14-12, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3.

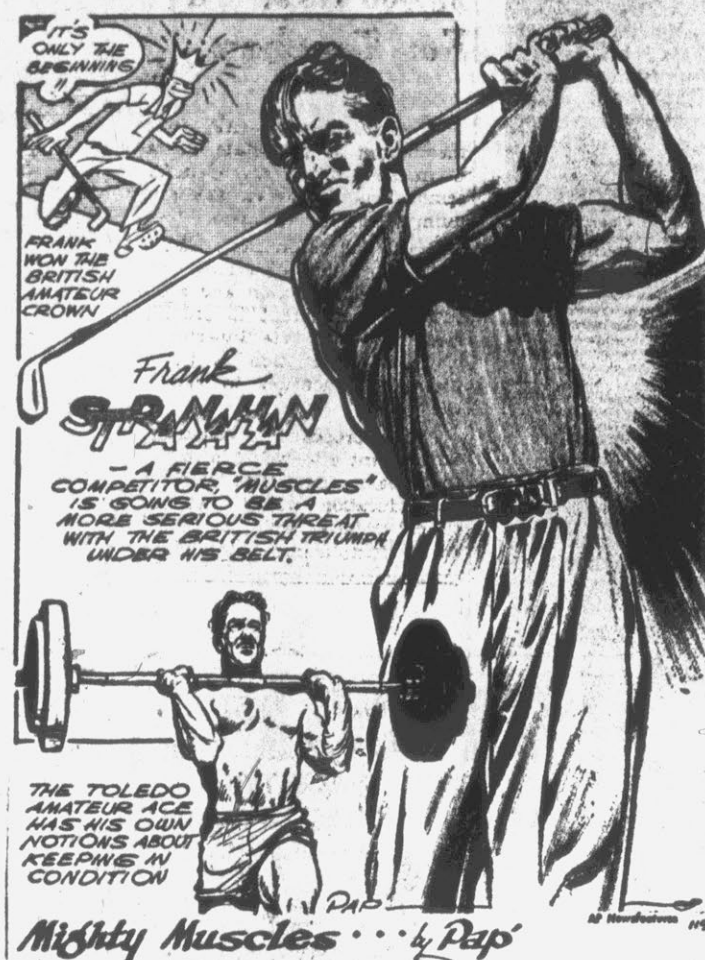

Last year Kramer won all major amateur honors, including the U.S. and Wimbledon crowns, and led the United States Davis Cup team to triumph.

After turning pro, he proceeded to continue his winning ways against Riggs, the pro champion, in their cross-country indoor rivalry. Kramer won 69 of 89 matches.

There are few more determined competitors in any branch of sport than Frank (Muscles) Stranahan, the Toledo golfer ace who recently won the British amateur golf championship. And few athletes work as hard to achieve winning form as does Stranahan. Only one with a body as powerful as the musclemangler could endure the hours and hours of practice he piles upon round after round of competitive golf.

Stranahan is a hard loser. In the 1946 national amateur championship tournament at Baltusrol, Stranahan was defeated in the second round by Marvin Ward, one of the favorites. Hours later, after all the other contestants had departed, Frank was still in the locker-room. He hadn't so much as removed his sneaker shoes. It was impossible for him to believe that he had been knocked out of the tournament—this tournament for which he had worked so hard and felt certain that he could win.

The "poor little rich boy" has made more than one golfer's share of mistakes, here and abroad, but he's learning. It was pleasant to note that he was full of praise for golfers Vic Ghezzi and Willie Turnesa for the help they gave him on the eve of his British triumph. A haphazard swinger in the past, Stranahan has developed some semblance of a good golf swing and is working to improve the pattern.

With his amazing strength and bubbling enthusiasm, he's going to be awfully hard to beat—by pro or amateur.

Hamilton, Bermuda, June 22 — (AP) — Leaders in the 635-mile ocean yacht race from Newport were bearing down on Bermuda today, reportedly led by the yawl Baruna from New York.

The steel industry's coke is produced in 16 states.

Appearing at a rally of his Mecklenburg supporters, Scott expressed confidence in the outcome of Saturday's Democratic runoff.

He charged that the banks of the state are "putting the squeeze on" certain individuals in behalf of Johnson. "They (the banks) consider him a good business man, but whose business man is he — the bankers or the people of North Carolina?"

Scott displayed a pro-Johnson letter which he said was being distributed by the Union National Bank here. He declared that his opponent had increased the deposits of state funds in the bank from $2,303,000 in January, 1947, to $4,503,000 in March of this year.

The former commissioner of agriculture said he hopes "to hoist the windows of state government just a little bit and let in some fresh air at the top where policies are made regarding roads" and other public services.

He said that if elected he would attempt to see that no state employee "down the line" is afraid to vote for candidates of his choosing. He promised that he would strive for more equitable pay for the state's "road scrapers and other essential workers."

No Threats For U. S. Monopoly

London, June 22 — (AP) — America's Margaret Osborne, who changed her name to Mrs. Dupont since she won the women's singles title at the Wimbledon Tennis championships last year, begins defense of the crown today against Miss O. V. Cooper of Britain.

A Dupont triumph in this one is rated as sure-fire as an ultimate American victory in women's singles. Dorothy Round of England was the last non-American winner in 1937 and there is nothing on the horizon to threaten the U. S. monopoly this time.

Margaret, playing in her third Wimbledon, heads the U. S. challenge that includes five seeded players. Louise Brough, Doris Hart and Mrs. Pat Todd are well-known names, but there is a newcomer to the fold.

Welcome she is, too, for those who cherish a new star. She is Shirley Fry, 20-year-old Rollins College student, who played so well in two previous tournaments in Europe that Wimbledon experts seeded her eighth.

The London Star named her "Wimbledon's best outside bet" in women's singles. Shirley gets her first test against Miss M. Slaney of England.

The banjo, as we know it today, was evolved and developed by the Negroes of the south.

Re-Scheduled

Chicago, June 22 — (AP) — Champion Ray (Sugar) Robinson began another weight-reducing session today after his welterweight title bout with Bernard Docusen of New Orleans was postponed for a second time.

The fight, scheduled for Comiskey Park last night, was reset for next Monday. Threatening rain and Robinson's failure to make the regulation 147 pound limit forced the delay. The match, originally was scheduled for last Thursday but rain forced postponement.

Plenty Of Confidence In Two Heavyweight Camps

New York, June 22 — (AP) — Confidence radiated from both camps today as Champion Joe Louis and Challenger Jersey Joe Walcott enjoyed a brief lul before their 15-round heavyweight title bout tomorrow night at Yankee Stadium.

"I'll get him quick," was the cold prediction of the Brown Bomber, who announced this 25th defense of his crown will be his last ring outing.

"He's ready," was the tag handlers put on Walcott, the amazing comebacker who almost snatched the title last December.

Odds favoring the champion remained firm at 5 to 13 although there was talk of a late flow of Walcott money that might reduce them slightly by ring time.

This is the shortest-priced choice Louis has been since the second bout with Max Baer ten years ago when he was held at 5-9.

The weatherman, meanwhile, gave the outdoor attraction a temporary blessing, promising a cloudy, humid day but no rain.

Ticket sales continued brisk but Promoter Mike Jacobs' hopes of a million dollar gate appeared certain to fall short. The Twentieth Century Sporting club is counting on a turnout of around $5,000, a gate of approximately $60,000. Television and radio receipts are extra.

Louis put in his final training licks at Pompton Lakes, N. J., yesterday, turned up with a black eye and announced afterwards, "I think I'm 50 or 75 per cent better than I was for the last fight."

The discolored optic, not serious, was a parting gift of one of the champ's sparring mates. The champion scaled 213 after his last drill but expects to hit between 214 and 215 when he weighs in Wednesday noon.

The banjo is believed to have been patterned after a crude African musical instrument.

Johnson Assails Scott's Tactics

Raleigh, N. C., June 22—(AP)—State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson took his campaign for governor into Richmond county today after charging his opponent with "distortion of facts."

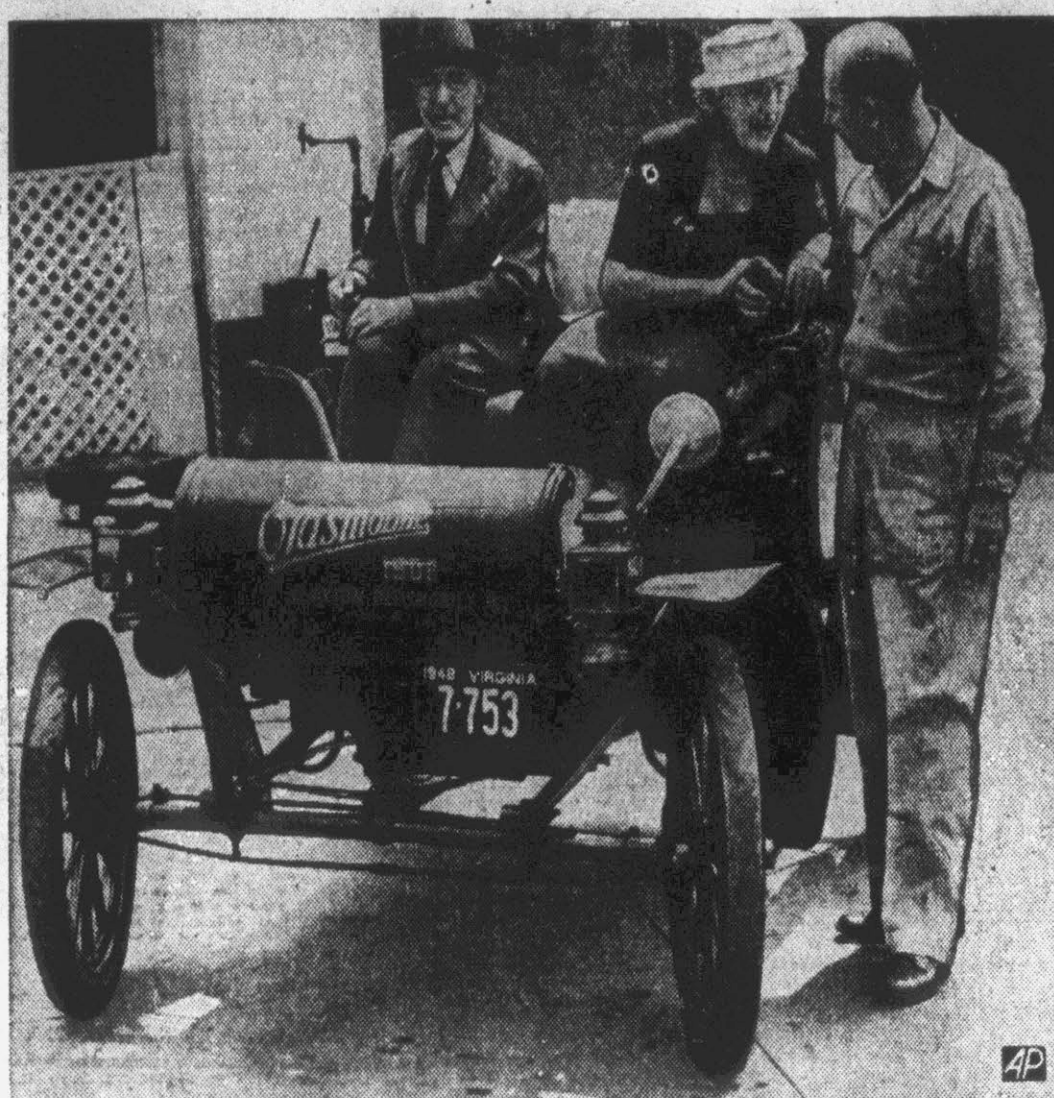

In a speech at Beulahville last night, Johnson asserted that Kerr Scott is deliberately attempting to "deceive the people of North Carolina by distortion of facts." Scott also is using "sly and subtle insinuation" in his campaign, Johnson said.

At a conference in Richmond county with supporters and managers in the morning, Johnson planned to push on into Stanly and Rowan counties during the day for further conferences.

In his speech last night, Johnson said it was "deceit" for Scott to have "labeled as a 'secret' covenant a plain, and simple letter, already published and now in the hands of more than 300 mayors of the state, that had been written in my behalf by the mayor of Charlotte."

He asserted also that Scott has tried "to deceive and fool the people" about the state's bank deposits.

"In the beginning of the campaign," Johnson said, "he said I should have invested some of the state's money and intimated that none of it was invested. He knew when he made that statement that we had one hundred and fifty and three-quarter millions invested—all that the treasurer was authorized to invest."

Soviets Hope To Up Production Of Automobiles

Moscow—(AP)—"Moscow News" says that by the end of the current five years plan in 1950 the USSR will be producing 500,000 automobiles annually. This is three times the pre-war rate.

During this five year period the number of automobiles in the Soviet Union will be doubled.

There are now ten large automobile plants in operation or under construction instead of the three plants that existed before the war. In addition to them four automobile assembly factories are being constructed.

The principle types of present day Soviet cars are: the Zis 110—biggest shiniest of the machines, a long 8-cylinder automobile; the Pobeda—a medium sized four cylinder car; the Moskvich—a low powered four cylinder machine.

(Automotive production in the United States now is approximately 5,000,000 a year.)

Will Recommend $2,400 Base Pay For Teachers

Raleigh, June 22—(AP)—Recommendations of the State Education Commission to the 1948 General Assembly will include a $2,400 minimum salary for teachers.

It also will recommend that there be a salary range for adding counties in school construction and a constitutional amendment to provide for election of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction by the State Board of Education, instead of by the voters.

The proposed constitutional amendment also would provide that there be no ex-officio members of the Education Board. At present the 18-member board is headed by an ex-officio member, the lieutenant governor, the State Treasurer and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Fire Started By Welding Torch

Charlotte, N. C., June 22—(AP)—Fire started by a welding torch destroyed the Purser Trucking company building in Northwest Charlotte last night. One employee was hurt slightly.

G. E. Yates of Route 1, Concord, said his welding torch exploded a tar drum, he was treated at a hospital for arm and hand cuts from flying drum fragments.

The flames spread to the nearby building of the Bush Transfer company, but were contained by men before much additional damage.

Cites Needs Of Schools in N. C.

Greensboro, N. C., June 22—(AP)—Almost 100,000 of North Carolina's school children will be taught by substandard teachers this fall.

That prediction was made last night by William H. Flemmons of Chapel Hill, executive secretary of the North Carolina Education Commission. The commission is conducting a one-year study of the state's schools.

Flemmons spoke to the 21st annual state congress of parents and teachers at Woman's college.

He said that North Carolina has the human and physical resources to build a much greater educational state. He pictured these existing conditions in the state's schools:

Approximately 17,500 classrooms are needed. . . . A teacher shortage of 3,000. . . . Only 73 of the state's 971 high schools have 12 teachers or more, some have only two.

Deploing the public attitude toward teachers who he declared are underpaid, Flemmons declared: "We give teachers so little respect, I wonder if we shouldn't refer to them as 'it' rather than 'he' and 'she'. We allow them few of the pleasures of civilized society."

Find My Killer

By MANLY WELLMAN

Chapter 12

It was nearly noon and I went to meet Holmgren.

He'd picked the kind of a bar that would be a swell rendezvous for international spies or secret lovers. It had dim lights and a row of booths. We took a corner booth and Holmgren ordered ravioli and red wine from the waiter.

"All right, Yates, let's stop the shadow boxing," he said. "You made a point of talking to me on my time off. You've got a proposition about me helping you."

"Right so far," I said. "Go on with what else you figure on me."

"I'll save you thinking up any oath of silence. I promise to do what I can for obvious reasons. I'm a good lab man, just as good as I'll ever be, and that's where the department will probably want me to stick for the next fifty years. There ought to be better things for me in the plainclothes division, straight investigations I could build into a career and promotions."

"I'm a partial man," I said. "And in it for the reward in Ealing's will. How much of that will you want?"

He shook his head. "The department doesn't allow us to accept rewards."

I liked the guy. "What I might need," I told him, "is a real policeman along. I picked you because you act regular and smart, and because you're a laboratory expert. There are one or two laboratory deals that need a better hand than me. So how about helping me make sure of the evidence, and then if there's a pinch to make, you make it?"

"I'm in," he said at once. "I'd rather do it with you than with the other bird who asked me. Al Bensingner."

"He's been after you?"

Holmgren ate some ravioli and nodded. "He was in earlier with a letter that said he'd been retained by Ealing's closest personal friend."

"Dr. Stokes," I interrupted. "Right. Bensingner wanted to know all the ballistics and prints angles of the case, and he got them. Nothing out of line about that. Bensingner's known here and up at the state capital. He has connections."

"So I've heard," I said. "But I take it you don't like him much."

"Not very much," people do. Just now he's trailing around with Lieutenant Raniel, the homicide man. We ate a while and between bites I told him what we knew.

"How about going out and looking in that shed?"

"Let's kill a little time. The funeral's this afternoon. Everybody will go—Mrs. Ealing and the servants too. Meanwhile, we can visit somebody else who'll clear up a point. The character who runs the berry stand in the country. I have the address."

"My car's outside," said Holmgren.

He drove fast, but not headlong fast. Even at his speed, we had a long haul to the place where the Pettigrews claimed they went looking for berries to can.

We drove up to a tough-bodied old gaffer in a hickory shirt and linen pants, with glasses slid halfway down his nose and a pair of narrow, tight jaws like a pair of pliers.

"Pettigrews?" he said when we opened up our questions. "What about 'em?" He squinted at me above his glasses. "Why should I tell you anything about 'em? Who court action against the State Board of Elections rulings despite board plans to ease one restriction.

Mary Price of Greensboro praised a statement by Board Chairman Hubert E. Olive of Lexington that he would recommend that one ruling concerning organization of new parties be rescinded, but added:

"We shall carry through our court case to test all the points which our lawyers say — and common sense confirms — are illegal and discriminatory."

Olive announced yesterday he would recommend that if the Progressive party obtains legal recognition, the board permit it to select nominees for state and congressional offices in convention and have their names placed on the general election ballot.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" sold 2,500,000 copies in 1852, the year it was published.

KERR SCOTT

MEETS THE PEOPLE'S SPECIFICATIONS FOR GOVERNOR

Sound - Progressive - Experienced

"I CANNOT AND WILL NOT TRAVEL BACKWARD — I APPEAL TO YOU TO JOIN WITH ME IN THE SOLEMN RESOLUTION TO KEEP THE GOVERNMENT OF NORTH CAROLINA MARCHING FORWARD, AND TO KEEP THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE AS THE OFFICE OF THE PEOPLE'S SERVANT" — Kerr Scott in Radio Address, June 9th.

The People Speak

1. "I am not a politician, but I have known Kerr Scott for years and I have always found him to be a gentleman, a Christian, a friend. He is fearless in fighting for causes of right for the people . . ." Mrs. Lillie M. Braxton Dean, former Home Demonstration Agent, Louisburg.
2. "I shall support Honorable Kerr Scott for nomination for Governor because, after calm and careful consideration, I believe him to be the best qualified of gubernatorial candidates to give the State an aggressive, progressive, constructive, independent, liberal administration." — Dr. J. Y. Joyner, former State Superintendent of Public Instruction, LaGrange.
3. One of the best things that can happen to the working people of North Carolina this year would be the election of a strong, dependable friend to be Governor. Kerr Scott has never failed to speak up for the little man when the little man needed help. I want to see him Governor of this State and I am going to vote for him." — Robert Dennis of Rocky Mount, a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks and an employee of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway for 30 years.
4. "Kerr Scott as Commissioner of Agriculture took the sand out of fertilizer, sawdust out of chicken feed and weeds out of the vegetable seed packages. I am for Kerr Scott for Governor." — Bob Barbour, merchant-tobacco warehouseman, Fuquay Springs.
5. "We need a farmer Governor. I am for Kerr Scott because he is a successful farmer, a successful business man, and is trained in the science of government. He will be the Governor of ALL THE PEOPLE." — Tom Allen, farmer and Representative-nominate from Granville County, Creedmoor.
6. "His record proves he is just the man we need for Governor." — Joe S. Phipps, merchant, Greensboro.
7. "As a country doctor I recognize the need for roads and the development of hospitals for the people who live in the country. Kerr Scott knows the needs of all the people." — Dr. A. W. Deans, physician, Battleboro.
8. "Kerr Scott is a man of vision and the highest integrity. He is a Christian gentleman." — R. O. Browning, banker and business man, Burlington.
9. "W. Kerr Scott joined Hawfields when he was a boy, 40 years ago. He has been a Deacon, church treasurer, Sunday School teacher, trustee, ruling elder, and repeatedly represented our Church at Presbytery. I would personally thank you for any support you can give Mr. Scott, and I believe you will be doing the State a service when you elect him Governor." — The Rev. N. N. Fleming, Pastor of Hawfields Presbyterian Church.
10. "I was in college three years with Kerr Scott. He will make a great governor." — Parker 'Bus' Rand, State College Class of 1916, Garner.

SOUND, SENSIBLE, PROGRESSIVE PROGRAM

TAXES—Repeal sales tax on ALL food. Remove discriminatory taxes on farm machinery.

BOND ISSUES—None, unless absolutely necessary after huge surplus now in banks without interest is used.

ROADS—Repeal 'mud tax' on farm-to-market, home-to-school and home-to-church roads. Stop political abuse of road building authority. Amend motor vehicle inspection law.

SCHOOLS—Save them by paying teachers living salaries, reducing pupil load, and aiding construction of new school buildings.

HEALTH—Carry out State Good Health Program.

WELFARE—Better provisions for aged and dependent.

PAROLES—Assure fair consideration of rights of ALL imprisoned people.

BUSINESS—Fair taxes and equal opportunity.

LABOR—A square deal.

VETERANS—State service program second to none.

MUNICIPALITIES—Financial relief by releasing State revenue from license taxes, helping maintain streets and rebating gas tax on city operated vehicles.

AGRICULTURE—Improve marketing and diversification. Improve rural roads. Increase rural electrification and telephones. Extend farm research and education.

DEMOCRACY—Repeal Gag Rule. Insure majority rule on liquor and all other issues.

NATURAL RESOURCES—Develop for benefit of ALL the people. Insure proper wildlife administration.

Elect President Of Tobacco Men

Virginia Beach, Va., June 22—(AP)—The Tobacco Association of the United States today elected N. M. Schumann of Wilson, N. C., its president and named a committee to help select opening dates and regulations for the new market.

Schumann succeeds Clyde B. Austin of Greenville, Tenn.

The association elected three vice presidents, they are: H. W. Jackson, Jr., Richmond, Va.; J. E. Bowman, Bowling Green, Ky., and P. T. Watson, Wilson, N. C.

The five-man committee will meet June 29 at Raleigh, N. C., with similar committees representing warehousemen and growers' organizations to select opening dates and adopt market regulations.

Named to the association's committee were Penn Watson of Wilson, N. C.; O. W. Dudley, Richmond, Va.; J. E. Rountree, Lumberton, N. C.; J. E. Covington, Richmond, Va.; and J. W. Dunnington, Farmville, Va.

The association adopted a resolution expressing belief that "the best interests of all" would be served by continuing last season's selling schedule of "two hours a day, 400 piles per hour per set of buyers and that no pile exceed 250 pounds weight."

Only about 17 per cent of the working Jews now in Israel live on the land. The rest are in commerce and industry in the towns.

Three Cases Of Non-Support In County Court

By CHESTER WALSH

Judge Dink James disposed of the following cases in Pitt County Recorder's Court during today's forenoon session:

Willie Moye, colored, found guilty and fined $100 and costs and his driver's license was ordered revoked for a year, a mandatory sentence under state law. Moye gave notice of appeal to Superior Court.

Alfred Williams, colored, charged in two warrants, with issuing worthless checks, requested transfer of the cases to Superior Court, and it was granted.

David Braxton, found guilty of abandonment and non-support, was given four months, sentence suspended on payment of $10 a week for his wife and child, beginning now, and to repay the Kiwanis Club the money it spent for medicine. Judge James further ordered that Braxton not leave Pitt County without consent of the Welfare Department.

There were three cases of non-support. That against Johnnie Bruce Vincent was continued. James Theodore Gay, colored, was given six months on the roads, sentence suspended on condition that he pay $5 a week to the Welfare Department, and more if he is able. The case against Sam Moore, colored, was continued under a former court order.

The hiss of big snakes like pythons and boa constrictors can be heard a considerable distance.

Republican . . .

Unlike Dewey, and Taft, and Stassen, he has not actively sought the nomination.

But he has let his friends build up a campaign for him, so effectively, that he is considered a possible alternative if Dewey, Stassen and Taft knock each other out.

Gov. Earl Warren: He's 57, lives in Los Angeles. He was born of Norwegian and Swedish parents. Six feet tall, he weighs 215 pounds and is a pink-cheeked, blue-eyed Westerner.

He is a lawyer by profession. Likes fishing.

He has few intimates. In politics he is a self-described Progressive. He says Congress must take progressive steps or be succeeded by a Radical Congress.

Joseph W. Martin: He is one of the dark horses—in the sense that he is not a red hot candidate. He is speaker of the House and representative from Massachusetts.

He is 63, a bachelor, shy around women, an easy mixer among men. He neither smokes nor drinks. His whole life is politics.

His real life, besides running the House, is that of an insurance broker and newspaper publisher.

In 1940 he ran Wendell Willkie's campaign but he did not enjoy it. His political career has been a history of compromises.

No Sign . . .

Senator William F. Knowland, Warren's convention manager, announced the stand to reporters.

A spokesman told him there were published reports he would attempt to swing California's 53 votes to backing a Vandenberg-Stassen ticket.

"There is not one word of truth or foundation to that rumor," Knowland said.

New Foreign . . .

(Continued from page one) open for an East-West understanding in the future if and when conditions develop which would make that possible.

The result of this new policy already is seen in the solidification of western Europe against further communist aggression. The most striking development has been the Western European Union of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—an alliance which Washington hopes will grow into a United States of Europe.

The U. S. Senate, in adopting the Vandenberg resolution, went on record as being in favor of support of regional defense alliances where they are in the interest of American security. Presumably as a result of this, conversations soon are to be held between Washington defense heads and representatives of western European nations.

On the whole the democracies are gaining ground in their battle against Bolshevism. They possess the greater material strength, and are organizing it.

J. E. Green Ends His Life Today

Mr. James E. Green, 72, prominent citizen of Winterville, took his life by jumping into a well at about ten o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. Alex Evans, where he lived. Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending the arrival of relatives.

Mr. Green came to Winterville as the first agent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad in 1895, and served as agent until three or four years ago when he retired. He was president of the Bank of Winterville for about twenty-five years, and served on the board of directors. He was a large landowner and a stock holder in the Bank of Winterville.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews, among whom are Cortez and John W. Green of Williamson.

The phrase "crossing the Rubicon" means to commit oneself to a dangerous course from which there is no retreat.

Negro Stabbed In Lung During Nocturnal Row

Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson arrested Jesse Barrett, colored, on a charge of stabbing Eddie Turnage, colored, in a lung Saturday night, during a drinking party in the Ballard's Cross Roads community. The wounded man was taken to Pitt General Hospital.

Barrett will be given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate H. L. Jenkins as soon as Turnage is able to appear, the sheriff said.

New York, June 22—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 5 cents a bale higher to 15 cents lower.

Noon prices were 45 cents a bale higher to 15 cents lower than the previous close. July 36.47, Oct. 33.27 and Dec. 32.67.

Cotton futures rallied sharply in more active late dealings today as short covering and trade buying met only limited offerings. Part of the buying was associated with sales of cotton to the C.C.C.

Futures closed 75 cents to $1.10 a bale higher than the previous close.
