U. S., Yugoslavia Near Agreement In Finance Deal

Would Net Tito's Gov't $30 Millions If Negotiations Are Successful

Washington, June 30—(AP)—The United States and Yugoslavia were reported near final agreement today on a financial deal which would net Marshal Tito's government about $30,000,000.

The extended negotiations over this money accord may have been one of the issues that set off the Cominform blast Monday against the Belgrade chief.

Washington officials, watching Tito's defiance of the Communist high command with obvious surprise and delight, kept mum on any possible connection between the financial deal and the Yugoslav-Cominform scrap.

For several months the United States government has been seeking payment of about $20,000,000 in claims for American property nationalized in Yugoslavia. Tito, on the other hand, has been laying claim to some $50,000,000 in Yugoslav claims which the United States from 1914 to keep it out of Axis hands.

The quarter claims have been under negotiation for several months, diplomatic informants said, with Yugoslavia at times using the talks as a basis for bitter denunciation of the United States.

About a month ago, however, the Yugoslavs appeared anxious to reach a reasonable settlement on the nationalized property. They reportedly proposed a figure somewhere near the $20,000,000 asked by the United States.

The American government, in turn, appeared ready to untie the $50,000,000 in Yugoslav funds as its part of the two-way arrangement.

The reported financial deal evidently has not been directly influenced by Tito's sensational split with Communist leaders.

But it does lie in with growing speculation here that it is he who is in an impossible position with his $50,000,000 claim, may turn against the western powers for help.

Dock Workers Are Back On Job

London, June 30—(AP)—Britain's $1,000 striking dock workers went back to work today. Their 16-day-long wildcat strike was broken yesterday by the Labor government's threat to invoke emergency powers to save the nation's food supplies and export drive.

Authorities at London, Liverpool and Birkenhead, the three major ports affected, reported: "A complete resumption of work; it is a 100 per cent response."

Dewey Delves In Foreign Affairs

Pawling, N. Y., June 30—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey conferred today with John Foster Dulles, his foreign affairs adviser, and from the meeting may come a statement redefining the Republican Presidential nominee's general position of the international situation.

Greek Troops Attacking Force Which Cut Road

Athens, June 30—(AP)—Government troops were reported today to be savagely attacking guerrillas who cut the army's main supply line 11 miles south of Ioannina in northwestern Greece.

Two rebel brigades occupied both sides of the Preveza road in a surprise maneuver yesterday morning and chopped off the supply route for three army divisions.

The general staff communique did not mention fighting along the Ioannina-Preveza road but reported clashes continuing in the Sarandopos valley and in the Smolikas range on the southern front of the Grammos mountains.

A dispatch flown to the newspaper Embros from the fighting zone last night said two guerrilla brigades had severed all communications between Ioannina and Athens, except by way of the island of Corfu. The dispatch said the supply road was cut between Ioannina and Preveza and that American construction men working on the road were forced to flee.

Ioannina is on the southwest corner of the Grammos mountain pocket where the Greek army has been trying for more than a week to stamp out, once and for all, the Communist rebellion led by Markos Vafiliades.

The severed road was the main supply link for the Ninth Division, fighting around Konitsa; for the Eighth Division, protecting Ioannina to the north and east; and for the 10th Division, situated east of Ioannina. The Embros dispatch said heavy fighting was under way south of Ioannina.

Where Devastating Earthquake Struck Japan

Cities underlined on this map of western Honshu, Japan, were hardest hit by the ravaging earthquake which struck Monday. Homes of most of the 85,000 people living in Fukuoka were destroyed and heavy loss of life was reported. The cities of Kanazawa, Daishoji, Toyama and Miyazu also reported much destruction and many casualties. The quake was felt on Tokyo, Nagoya, Kobe, Osaka, and Kyoto. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Yugoslav Communists Defy Cominform Blast

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, June 30—(AP)—Yugoslavia's Communist leaders firmly proclaimed their independence today and called for formation of a Balkan bloc "uniting Albanian, Bulgarian and Yugoslav people on the principle of national equality."

They also recommended several steps for "general strengthening" of the Yugoslav army, by tightening up discipline and supplying the forces with "modern war technique."

"The Yugoslav army," they said, "protects the freedom and independence of the people of Yugoslavia."

The program was advanced by the Yugoslav Communists' central committee, headed by Premier Marshal Tito, for presentation to the country's fifth Communist Council meeting here July 21.

It was published in Borba, the party organ, only a few hours after the committee had denounced as "lies" and "slander" the sharp condemnation by the Cominform of policies pursued by Tito and his government.

The National Independence of the people of Yugoslavia is the condition for their road to socialism and their progress in general. The committee said in presenting the following program:

One: "Further strengthening of moral and political unity for the people of Yugoslavia."

Two: "Strengthening and further developing of tight cooperation with the Soviet Union."

Dewey Housecleaning

Republican Presidential Candidate Has Promised To Use "Broom" Effectively In Government; But Comparatively Few Government Workers Would Be Affected

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 30—(AP)—If he's elected president, Thomas E. Dewey says, there'll be the "finest housecleaning Washington ever saw."

This may give the impression that the present swarm of people working for the government would be fired. That hardly seems likely.

You can see why from this: He could use the broom only in the executive branch of the government.

The people working in the other two branches—judicial and legislative—are practically untouchable by any president.

That leaves only the people in the executive branch of the government—various departments and agencies—for Dewey to work on.

They number 2,048,000 everywhere in Washington, the rest of the country and overseas.

Of that total 92 per cent, or 1,884,160, are Civil Service employees. The rest, 163,840, are non-Civil Service and have been appointed to jobs.

It's on that second group—the non-Civil Service people—that Dewey could do most of his broomwork. But take the Civil Service workers first.

They are people who have taken competitive examinations for their jobs and are making a career of working for the government.

Jap Quake Death Toll Over 3,000

Fukuoka, Japan, June 30—(AP)—Relief supplies poured today into a 55-mile long strip of western Japan laid waste by a great earthquake that crumpled this city of 80,000 and left in ruins a score or more other towns.

Military government, granting that many bodies may never be found, stuck to an estimate of 3,158 dead and 7,250 seriously injured throughout the area.

(Occupation headquarters in Tokyo, however, on the basis of American medical workers' reports from the scene, put the recovered dead at 56, seriously injured at 1,800 and slightly injured at 4,000. It obviously did not include the 300 children reported by military government officers to have been crushed to death in a theater.)

(Kyodo news agency reports from Fukuoka that police estimated total casualties would exceed 13,000. 4,070 dead and 8,848 injured in Fukuoka prefecture and 39 dead and 190 injured in Ishikawa prefecture to the north.)

(The agency said 48,000 buildings and dwellings were destroyed in the two prefectures.)

(At noon Japanese time the U.S. Eighth Army at Yokohama announced reports from the Japanese Welfare Ministry gave the casualty toll as 9,098—2,573 dead and 6,525 injured.)

No Decision On First Age-Group To Be Drafted

Washington, June 30—(AP)—Selective service officials said today there has been no final decision on what age group will be called up first in the draft.

Age will decide the order of induction, instead of the goldfish bowl lottery of previous drafts.

Twenty-one has been the age most frequently mentioned as the starting point. Selective service officials said, however, that "no final determination" had been made. In theory at least this will be decided by President Truman.

When the age group is finally decided, birthdays will decide the order of induction. Say 21 is the age. Men born on Jan. 1 would be first in line, Jan. 2 next and so on thru Dec. 31.

Aluminum Firm's Offer Accepted

Messena, N.Y., June 30—(AP)—An AFL aluminum workers union approved today an hourly wage boost ranging from 10 to 16 cents offered by the Aluminum Company of America.

Members of Local 12256 voted to accept the increase at special meetings last night and today.

AFL unions at Lafayette, Ind., and East St. Louis, Ill., also have approved the offer, union officials here said.

Intend To Stay

Washington, June 30—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall said today "we intend to stay" in Berlin regardless of the Russian blockade.

Marshall said in a brief formal statement that the Russian blockade of the "German civilian population of Berlin raises basic questions of serious import with which we expect to deal promptly."

He said that in the meanwhile maximum use will be made of air transport to supply civilian needs. He added that this can supply a greater tonnage "than had at first been assumed."

Sales Dates For Flue-Cured Leaf Set Yesterday

Five-Hour Sales Day; Rate Set At 400 Piles Per Hour; Tolerance On Piles

Raleigh, June 30—(AP)—Auction sales of the 1948 flue-cured tobacco crop will begin July 22, when markets of the Georgia-Florida Belt open.

Members of a 15-man flue-cured marketing committee yesterday set opening dates for the five belts and adopted sales regulations.

Opening dates for the other belts are: South Carolina and North Carolina Border Belt, Aug. 3; Eastern North Carolina Belt, Aug. 19; North Carolina Middle Belt, Sept. 2; and Virginia and North Carolina Old Belt, Sept. 13.

The committee set the sales day at five hours for the flue-cured area and the rate of sales at 400 piles per hour. A maximum weight of 250 pounds per pile was retained but it was voted to permit a tolerance of 50 pounds per pile on growers' sales, which makes it possible for piles to weigh up to 300 pounds.

This tolerance was allowed, the committee said, so as not to penalize growers who have piles weighing more than 250 but less than 300 pounds. The tolerance "will save growers weighing, handling and auction charges on the overflow from grades weighing more than 250 and less than 300 pounds," it was said.

The committee, made up of representatives of growers, warehousemen and buying interests, re-elected Fred S. Royster of Henderson as chairman and J. B. Roundtree of Lumberton as secretary.

The committee announced that warehousemen would hold meetings prior to the opening of sales to hear explanations of marketing regulations and operations of the Tobacco Stabilization Corporation. The first meeting will be held July 16 at Blackshear, Ga.

Life Term Given To Robert Best

Convicted Traitor Sentenced Today By Federal Judge

Boston, June 30—(AP)—Robert Best, the American newspaperman and radio propagandist for the German Nazis for $200 a month, was sentenced today to life imprisonment for treason.

The sentence was imposed by Federal Judge Francis J. W. Ford, who also ordered Best to pay a fine of $10,000.

Judge Ford imposed the sentence after hearing T. Vincent Quinn, assistant attorney general of the United States, appeal for imposition of the death penalty.

Best's counsel, Charles W. Bartlett, asked the court for leniency on the ground that Best was "a fanatic, a crusader—doing what he thought best for his country."

Best, himself, read a four-page prepared statement and in addition in an extemporaneous talk told the court that:

"If the people of the United States had followed my advice and impeached the administration in Washington, tens of thousands of Americans would now be alive instead of dead in Europe."

Judge Ford declared that Best had been in Europe for many years, "he had lost all contact with the United States, the spark of patriotism was gone."

"But he knew what he was doing. When a man intends to betray his country his motive is immaterial."

The judge then instructed Clerk Joseph A. Duwan to read the sentence.

Western Powers Ready Plan For German Gov't

Frankfurt, Germany, June 30—(AP)—Top American, British and French occupation authorities worked out a plan here today for creating a new central government for western Germany.

Allied commanders said they would meet with German ministers present tomorrow morning to set the plan into motion.

The meeting will be open to both allied and German newspapermen. This was an indication that the action plan had been reached on all controversial questions.

The plan for a central government was drawn up recently at the six-nation meeting in London. The Russians rejected it and met in Poland last week with foreign ministers of other Eastern European nations to set up a counter plan.

$12 Million Merger Is Announced Today

Burlington, June 30—(AP)—A $12,000,000 merger of the May McEwan Kaiser Hosiery Company with Burlington Mills was announced today.

J. C. Cowan, Jr., president of Burlington Mills and Herbert M. Kaiser, president of the Kaiser Company, announced jointly that meetings of the Burlington directors and Kaiser stockholders today ratified a revised plan for the merger.

False Scare Over Barrage Balloon

Momentary Fears Of Air Obstacle To Berlin Eased; Soviet Newspaper And Zonal Commander Hint Limit Air Traffic

Berlin, June 30—(AP)—One tired old barrage balloon raised a false scare today that the Russians were putting a new obstacle to the aerial-ferret ferry route into Soviet-blockaded Berlin.

Excited U. S. air force officials, suspecting a threat to the air lifeline to Berlin, found a supposed mass of obstacles was just an old balloon that has flown a long time in the corridor between Berlin and the British zone.

The false report, presumably based on information from pilots, first came from Frankfurt and was quickly questioned by American air authorities here.

Pilots, already had been warned to fly above the 5,000 foot level of the supposed obstacles.

The official Soviet newspaper in Germany took a dig at the western allies' emergency air freight service into Berlin today. Some westerners feared it might portend a Russian attempt to restrict use of the air corridor food lifeline.

"Claims that this service is designed to cloak the plundering of the city by shipping out machinery and products on the return flight," said Tageslichte Rundschau.

Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, the Russian commander in Germany, cautioned last night that he hoped flying regulations would be "faithfully followed." Some thought that also might have been a hint of forthcoming efforts to shut off the last food lifeline to the more than 2,000,000 Germans in the western sectors of Berlin.

In last night's statement, however, Marshal Sokolovsky said he hoped that train service from the west into Berlin could be resumed before the city's food stocks run out.

Commenting on that statement this morning, Col. Frank L. Howley, the U. S. commandant of Berlin, had this to say:

"If the Russians want to lift the blockade, that will be fine. But we will wait for deeds rather than words."

Sokolovsky, replying to a British demand that he lift the land blockade or shoulder the blame for starving some 2,000,000 Berliners in the American, British and French sectors, said last night he had learned the city had enough food to last for "several weeks."

"I hope that in this time we can have the trains running as usual," he said in a letter to the British commander, Gen. Brian Robertson. The letter was made public by the Soviet-licensed news agency, ADN, only a few hours after the Berlin city council appealed to the United Nations to intervene in the city's crisis to forestall "urgent danger to world peace."

In his letter, Sokolovsky intimated that the Russians are watching for any violations of the air corridors by British and American air crews.

Predicts Higher Prices For Meat

Gov't Agency Says Cattle Numbers Becoming Smaller

Washington, June 30—(AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted today that prices for meat-on-the-hoof, now at record levels, will go even higher this summer and early fall. That means a further boost in retail figures can be expected.

Prices of hogs, cattle and sheep jumped 8 per cent between mid-May and mid-June as shipments to market dropped off and consumer demand for meat held strong.

A further drop in supplies is expected in the months immediately ahead, the department said, adding that strong consumer buying could be expected to push retail meat prices still higher.

The department offered little hope for a material increase in meat supplies before 1950. It said cattle numbers are becoming smaller and smaller, with small prospect for a boost in hog shipments before late 1949.

The department said the downward trend can be reversed only when stockmen feel enough confidence in the future to start holding more breeding stock and marketing fewer animals than the number of calves raised.

Hog production is far below the high wartime levels. This largely reflects a shortage of corn. Last year's crop was a near failure.

Approve Outlay For Lost Colony

Raleigh, N. C., June 30—(AP)—The Council of State approved today allocation of $10,000 from the contingency and emergency fund to the Lost Colony.

The council had a report from state auditor Henry L. Bridges that a loss of $22,013.87 was incurred last season.

Entitled To Optimism

Tito's Falling From Grace With Powerful Comintern Is Big Break In Bolshevik Western Front; Yugoslavs Defy Storm Of Disapproval; First Serious Setback

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

The alleged defection of Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito and his captains from the Red laws of the Moscow Kremlin still is surrounded with mystery, but this much is clear: There is a break at a strategic point in the Bolshevik western front.

This is the first serious setback of the kind which Russia has encountered among its slave states. The Stalin London Times, in an editorial headed "Tito Called to Heel," says: "Nothing so apparently unlikely has happened for a long time, and nothing so destructive of communist unity since the expulsion of Trotsky by the Bolsheviks."

We, of course, shouldn't jump to the conclusion that communism is on the verge of collapse. However, we are entitled to join in a hopeful smile along with the burners of midnight oil in the harassed chancelleries of the western democracies. "We have had a demonstration that the Bolsheviks' Maginot Line is vulnerable. That's the big news of the development. We may some day see 'one world,' but it never will be the communist conception of a global federation of nations which have been shorn of all sovereignty and are ruled with an iron hand from Moscow."

Grumbling Heard Within Walls Of UN Assembly

Discrimination Alleged Over Personnel To Attend Meeting In Paris

Lake Success, June 30—(AP)—The United Nations—a turbulent sounding board for the world's problems—today is having internal troubles.

There is open grumbling in the corridors about discrimination against Americans on Secretary General Trygve Lie's 2,800-man staff.

Dissension and bitterness have broken out over a virtual ban on United States nationals being sent to Paris to work at the September meeting of the U. N. general assembly. About 650 employees are scheduled to make the jaunt. The U. N. refuses to say how many of them are Americans, but the best unofficial guess is about 50.

Adding fuel to the fire is a current move to slash the 650 by about 100. This would wipe out many from the small American list now slated to go.

Of the approximate 2,800 on the U. N. payroll one half are Americans. Of the 1,800 in the top brackets about 25 per cent are from the United States. The attitude of the Americans is that they carry the main load in day-to-day operations and should get a chance to make the trip.

One official said: "The situation is now so bad that some of the persons have stopped speaking to those who are."

The official U. N. answer to all the fuss is economy. The administration contends that it is sending Europeans so U. N.-paid home leave and vacations can be taken at the same time and thus save money. However, an official admitted that only about 45 per cent of those going are traveling under the home-leave arrangement, which means Americans are getting very few of the some 300 jobs left open.

It takes about 1,200 persons to staff a general assembly. To avoid sending 600 more employees from Lake Success for the 10-week session opening September 21 life plans to hire the 600 in Europe on a temporary basis. About half the number will be recruited in Paris and the others from Britain and nearby countries.

It has been estimated that it will cost the U. N. an extra $2,000,000 to hold the assembly in Paris rather than here.

Auto Production Prospects Good If Record Holds

Detroit, June 30—(AP)—The car industry reached mid-1948 today with a good production mark and just as good prospects for the six months ahead.

Unofficial estimates put production so far this year at only a few units under 2,500,000. Most car makers say that "if something else doesn't happen," the factories will turn out at least as many vehicles during the latter half of the year.

If the prediction is realized, 1948 will go into the record books as the industry's second biggest production year. Largest single year's output was 3,538,430 cars and trucks built in 1929.

Last Of British Troops Leave Palestine Today

Haifa, Israel, June 30—(AP)—The last British troops left the soil of troubled Palestine today, thus ending 31 years of British military occupation of the Holy Land.

In strict military order, the few remaining soldiers withdrew behind barbed wire barricades to troop ships and landing craft. British planes from an aircraft carrier task force buzzed overhead.

Lt. Gen. Gordon H. A. MacMillan, Britain's last military commander in Palestine, was the last British soldier to leave Palestine, in the evacuation which began on May 15.

He stepped aboard the ship's boat at 1:41 p. m. local time, just a few moments after the Union Jack was pulled down from the harbor office.

Col. Joseph Hoffman of Baltimore, Md., headed the group of United Nations troops observers who will supervise the big port during the U. N. truce period.

Trim guardsmen and green beretted marine commandos filed quietly aboard the ships, some moored to the same jetty where waiting Jewish refugees have been brought ashore in recent months for detention as illegal immigrants while British held the Palestine mandate.

The end of Britain's military rule came quietly, in strange contrast to the years of shootings and bombings.

"It's a great day for us—we've looked forward to for a long time," said Capt. Sucher Spiegel, who served in the British army's Jewish Brigade during world war II and now is chief of Haifa port police.

Bulgaria Silent On Balkan Bloc

Sofia, Bulgaria, June 30—(AP)—The Bulgarian government said today "the sound foundations of our relations with Yugoslavia are unshaken" by the Cominform blast against Marshal Tito.

There was no direct comment on the proposal today by the Yugoslav Communist party for forming a Balkan bloc to unite the Albanian, Bulgarian and Yugoslav peoples "on the principles of national equality."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Ford McGowan, of Greenville, wore a gown of gardenia ivory satin made with fitted bodice and full skirt with court train. The sleeves were fitted from the elbow and tapered to a point over the hand. Her full length veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid and showered with baby breath and valley lilies.

Some of the general aspects of music in its human, cultural, and community relationships special problems of music in education will be presented by leaders in education, guidance, and music. Discussions of these problems and of the methods of their application will follow each topic.

Dr. Rudolph E. Williamson of the department of music at East Carolina, is in charge of arranging the program for the all-day session.

Hospitals Expand Polio Facilities

Raleigh, N.C., June 30—(AP)—The state's mounting outbreak of infantile paralysis has brought action for more hospitals to make room for patients afflicted with the disease.

A new wing with 20 beds has been thrown open by Rex Hospital here. The hospital now has 16 polio patients. Watts Hospital in Durham also has made more space available. Officials of the James Walker Memorial Hospital in Wilmington have reserved additional rooms, made staff additions, and installed more equipment to take care of a possible polio emergency. The hospital has 10 patients, eight of them from outside New Hanover County. The outbreak yesterday reached 283 cases for the year, according to reports received by the State Board of Health. Says Propaganda Must Tell Truth

South Hadley, Mass., June 30—(AP)—The State Department director the "Voice of America" says the United States' information program must be "based on truth" even though it discloses unpleasant facts about America.

Assistant Secretary George V. Allen, discussing the State Department's official radio at the Mount Holyoke College Institute on the United Nations yesterday, said recent congressional investigation of broadcasts to Latin America served a useful purpose.

He added, however, that "we must present our civilization in its true color if we are to be effective."

"That color is gray—not lily-white," he said. "We have the enormous advantage in our information program that we are willing to admit our imperfections and to tell the truth as nearly as we can."

He said that if those in charge of the program should ever become subject to daily fear of losing their jobs for saying something objectionable, the broadcasts "would become merely the counterparts of that of the totalitarian propaganda."

Three-Way Deal In Governorship

Sacramento, Calif., June 30—(AP)—California's governorship has completed a triple play—Warren to Knight to Powers.

Gov. Earl Warren moved out temporarily when he went to the Republican convention in Philadelphia. Lt. Gov. Goodwin J. Knight became acting governor.

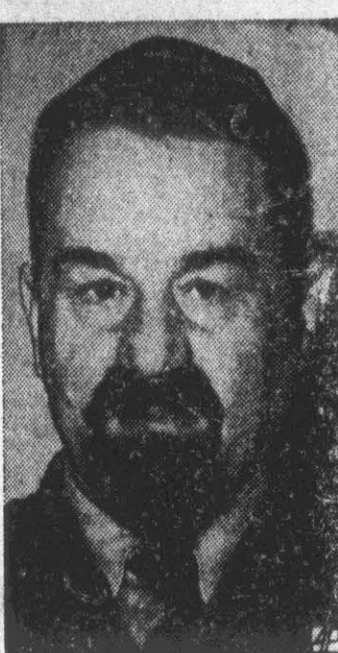

But Knight underwent an operation in Los Angeles yesterday. The call went out to Harold Powers of Eaglesville, state senate president pro tem, to take over as provided by law.

All three are Republicans. Warren is due home next week.

Airport Company Has Changed Firm Name

Wings, Inc., lessees and operators of the Greenville Airport, formerly operated by Barnes Aircraft Service, Inc., has changed its name from Wings, Inc. to Greenville Aviation, Inc., President Tommy Sellers announced today.

The change was made in compliance with an order of the State Utilities Commission. The company owns and operates planes for local and long distance flights daily, including Sunday. It also conducts a GI aviation training school under auspices of the Veterans Administration and the State Board of Education and the Civil Aeronautics Administration. The school at this time has about 20 students.

Anthracite Coal Talks Progress

New York, June 30—(AP)—Contract talks between union miners and operators producing 85 percent of the nation's hard coal are reported to have reached "a real negotiating stage."

The report came after a session yesterday—the first attended by John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers chieftain, since the talks began slightly more than a month ago.

UMW Vice President Thomas Kennedy said the discussions were "down to a real negotiating stage, especially on the important problems."

The talks continue today. The present agreement covering the Pennsylvania anthracite mines expires July 10.

Major demands of the 80,000 miners involved are a $1 a day wage increase and improved welfare and pension fund provisions. Present wages were not given.

Burglar Makes 'Clean Getaway'

Chicago, June 30—(AP)—The youthful burglar who broke into Paul Dory's home and stole about $390 worth of articles made a clean getaway.

Dory saw the burglar flee when he arrived home about noon. He noticed he was wearing his green jacket and plaid trousers.

The burglar's gray shirt and trousers were found in Dory's bathroom. There was evidence the youth had taken a bath.

ABC Officers Raid Two Stills And Destroy Equipment

Pitt County ABC Officers J. M. Ward and Claude Manning yesterday seized one of the smallest and crudest stills found in Pitt County in many years.

It was a 10-gallon cold drink can, with a five-gallon nail keg used for a cooler barrel; a very small copper condenser about two feet long. The officers did not find any mash. The still was located in woods on the north side of Tar River, between Red Banks and Port Terminal.

The same officers, together with Joe Roebuck, Martin County ABC officer, seized a 50-gallon copper liquor still, complete with 100 gallons of sugar and cornmeal mash in Carolina township. Neither still was in operation. Both outfits were destroyed. There was no arrest.

Residents were urged not to use water for lawns and garage owners were asked to cease washing cars.

Between 1890 and 1940, American college enrollments increased almost 10 fold.

Americans are using about 582 gallons of oil products a year per capita on the average.

INDIFFERENCE AS BAD AS WICKEDNESS

When Dwight Moody was visiting England, he was asked whether he thought enough was being done to bring the gospel to the unevangel-ized masses, and Moody's answer was,
"I am told that there are 150,000 people in this very city of Sheffield who never go near a place of worship, and for whom there is actually no church accommodation provided, even if they were willing to take advantage of it. It seems to me, if there be upon God's earth one blackier sight than this, it is the thousands of dead and slumbering Christians living in their very midst, rubbing shoulders every day with them upon the streets, and never so much as lifting up a little finger to warn them of death and eternity and the judgment to come."

"Talk of being sickened at the sight of the world's degradation! Let those of us who are Christian hate our vices because of our own degradation, and pray God to deliver us from the calamity of the world's blood. I believe that if there is one thing that pierces the Master's heart with unutterable grief, it is not just the world's iniquity but the Church's indifference."

This declaration needs hardly more than just to be stated to be understood. We need the full grace of God, however, to take it to our hearts and do something about it.

NEW YEAR—Thursday will be new year's day for state government departments and for most of the counties and municipalities in the state. For some reason which many laymen have not been able to understand, government operations on a fiscal year basis different from the calendar year. The current fiscal year will end at midnight Wednesday. For state departments this year is not so significant as last or next, because it is the middle of a fiscal biennium. Parts of total legislative appropriations, made on biennial basis but allocated by the year, which have not been spent can be carried over into the next year. At the end of an appropriation biennium all unexpended moneys revert to the general fund and can be used only under another legislative act.

AUDITING—Henry Bridges, state auditor, said his staff was well up with its work of auditing departments, institutions and agencies.
Reports on one or two of the big units, such as the revenue department and the retirement system, have not been completed although detail work has been finished.
Bridges said his office is still understaffed and as result some of the audits have not been as thorough as he wished. They have been sufficiently thorough to indicate that all units of state government are in good financial position, with respect to accounting for funds allocated to them.

"SURPLUS"—It will be several days before the revenue department's regular report on receipts for the month of June and the entire fiscal year will be released.
Predictions are the much talked-about "surplus" in the general fund will be substantially increased. Most observers suggest that receipts for the year will exceed legislative estimates by some twenty million dollars.

ASSISTANT—Advent of a new state administration occasions revival of suggestion several times made during the past few years for an executive or administrative assistant to the governor. Personnel in the governor's office has increased, but the added clerical help has only taken care of the growing detail and correspondence, without relieving the governor and his secretary of responsibility. Many students of the situation have long been of opinion the office should have another man—or woman—to serve as an assistant governor. Several state departments have such responsible assistants, but the chief state office does not.

BURDEN—The present set-up imposes an almost impossible burden on the governor's private secretary, and requires the governor to give attention to a mass of detail which someone else might handle.
The private secretary not only has the duties inherent in that position, but must also serve as a reception and entertainment committee for callers, a research scholar and a writer of speeches, as well as in some instances a sort of glorified valet for the governor. Result is

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—A brave little train with a whistle and lights and smoke puffing out its locomotive stack, has begun a journey of mercy from Union Station to aid the hungry and sick children of Europe. This is the toy "Friendship Train." Before it ends its run it will have visited nearly every big city in the country.
It is sponsored by the Crusade for Children.

Remember the day when every large railroad station in the country had a miniature locomotive on exhibition? It was in a glass case, the wheels raised slightly above the railroad. When a nickel was dropped in a slot the wheels of the locomotive would go round and round and a music box in the contraption would play the Blue Danube Waltz.
The little "Friendship Train" has gone out of the glass case and into the world. Just as folks out in the country always stand still and watch a rail train pass. Spectators watching the Friendship Train drop a coin in the slot. As the train passes a certain spot the coins are automatically dumped into receptacles representing the lands of the hungry children. Once you see the gadget and the way the cars dump the coins you simply can't resist putting a nickel or a dime aboard.

Secretary of State George Marshall tried putting a silver dollar in a gondola the other day when the exhibit was presented to the Crusade for Children by the Lionel Electric Company. He told friends it was his lucky pocket piece and he watched it eagerly as it journeyed on its way. It held its own in the gondola, however, and—sure enough—popped from the car into the

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

New York.—(AP)—A pauper in the big city can be defined as a man who doesn't have "a place in the country."

If that's the only hallmark of poverty, I'm the happiest pauper alive. For nothing makes me feel richer than to talk with a metropolitan cave dweller who has tried to get away from it all by buying a small plot of land away from it all.

I never shared the delusion of these would-be farmers in the deli-that a city man can thumb his nose at mother nature for nine months of the year and expect her to clasp him to her bosom the other three. She isn't going to forgive him; she's going to give him the works.

But this yen to currycomb one of God's acres far from the madding throng hits the city's pent-up millions like an epidemic each summer.

A man who has spent the rest of the year trying to hurdle the high cost of living will plow to the bank with tears in his eyes to borrow a money bin at the appointed moment.
Later he put a $10 bill in one of the cars.

Attorney General Tom Clark and Paul Hoffman, ECA Administrator, then tried folding money. The bills, however, all went the way of the silver dollar, and so did the pennies, dimes and quarters of other people.
J. Lionel Cowan, of New York, chairman of the board of the Lionel Company, explained that it was quite a job to make the exhibit. For one thing the cars and the locomotive had to have special construction to withstand the thousands of miles of travel expected. During the 12 hours the exhibit is open at each railroad station it is estimated it covers 10 miles. You press a button and the whistle blows, another button and smoke puffs from the stack.
It is expected the train will travel six months or more.

Greenies' Hitting Attack Backs Up Kee In 12-2 Win

Bucky Harris Is Predicting Yanks Will Capture Flag

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Manager Bucky Harris of the New York Yankees put his neck in a noose today by predicting that his world champions would win the American League flag again.

This sudden burst of frankness on the part of the Yankee skipper might have been prompted by last night's 7-0 victory over the formidable Boston Red Sox.

It wasn't the result of the victory as the fact the triumph came on the anniversary of the start of their special 19-game winning streak of last year.

It was exactly a year ago yesterday that the Yankees defeated Washington 3-1, and went on to capture their next 18 games in a row to make a shambles of the American League pennant race.

The Yankees are riding on the wings of another winning streak today, but it is still of incubator stage. A season record Yankee Stadium crowd of 70,491 saw Ed Lopat make it three straight for the New Yorkers last night with his best performance since the Yankees acquired him from the Chicago White Sox.

The red-haired southpaw hand-outfitted the Sox with three singles and did not walk a man until the ninth inning. No Sox runner reached second. Ted Williams got the edge of the singles to extend his consecutive hitting streak to 15 straight games, but his average dropped three points to .412.

The victory enabled the Yankees to move into second place, six percentage points ahead of the Philadelphia Athletics and only one game behind the front-running Cleveland Indians.

The Yankees raked three Boston hurlers for 14 hits including a home run by Tommy Henrich. Singles by George Stinewiss, Lopat and Rizzuto off starter Mel Parnell accounted for their first tally in the third. That was all they needed. Stinewiss added two more hits and drew a base on balls.

Kelly Kee, who pitched last night's game for the Greenville Greenies, has seen much action in Coastal League play, being a member of the Greenie Club in the 1941 season and with the Wilson Tobs during the 1946 season. When a member of the Greenies in 1941 he saw action in a total of 30 innings, allowed 216 hits, struck out 89 batters, allowed 61 base on balls.

During his 1946 season with the Wilson Tobs he participated in 25 games with a record of 16 wins and 5 losses. He pitched 184 innings, struck out 100 men, allowed 191 hits and walked 53 men.

Kee, up until a short time ago, was manager of the Plymouth Club of the Albemarle semi-pro league. During the 1947 season he was golf pro at the Country Club in Farmville.

Ray Phillips has been placed on the suspended list for a period of ten days due to an injury he received in a recent game to his knee.

The game which was rained out in Rocky Mount Monday night will be played as a double-header over in Rocky Mount on next Thursday night, July 8th, which is the next time the two clubs meet in Rocky Mount.

Ted Williams was charged with his first error of the season, June 20, when the Red Sox leftfielder permitted John Ligon's single to roll between his legs in the third inning of the game with the Detroit Tigers.

Joe Garagiola's homer in the first inning against the Giants, June 18 was his first blow in 31 trips to the plate. The Cardinal catcher's last safety was a grand-slam homer against the Reds at Cincinnati, April 30.

One of the toughest pitchers for Ralph Kiner of the Pirates is Dutch Leonard of the Phillies. In his last 28 trips against the veteran Philadelphia muckball ace, the Pirate slugger has failed to get a hit.

Kelly Kee Returns To Local Club, Turns In Neat Five-Hitter In First Game As His Teammates Shell Rocky Mount Outfield With Hits And Homers

By BERT MOYE

Veteran Kelly Kee, donning a Greenville uniform for the first time since 1941 last night, turned in a neat five-hitter in his first start and with a powerful 17-hit attack supporting him, the Greenies trounced the Rocky Mount Leafs, 12-2. The win over the Leafs was their third of the season for the Greenies and snapped a five-game losing streak of the Greenies.

The Greenies went out in front for keeps in the first frame when they scored three runs. Billy Wood started things rolling when he hit a 3-2 pitch over the right field wall for his first homer of the season. Carter walked, Cohen doubled to bring in Carter, Nash singled bringing in Cohen.

The Greenies came back in the third frame to score five runs on six hits and an error, to give them an 8-0 advantage at this point. Carl McQuillen led the inning off with a homer over the score board in left field. Sposas singled, Riggs singled, Wood doubled scoring Sposas and Riggs and Carter singled into center field with Wood scoring and the ball got away from centerfielder McQuinn with Carter going to third, then Cohen doubled to bring in Carter.

The Leafs did all their scoring in the fourth frame when they garnered two of their five hits aided by a walk to score their two runs.

The Greenies scored again in the fourth when McQuillen walked, stole second and came home when Riggs singled.

Three more runs were added in the sixth when McQuillen walked, went to second on a wild pitch and advanced to third on an infield out. Sposas walked, Riggs forced Sposas at second with McQuillen scoring on the out and then Kelly Kee hit a homer over the left field wall to bring in Sposas ahead of him.

Kelly Kee held the Leafs hitless for five of the nine frames last night and only in the fourth when they scored their two runs were they able to bunch their hits. He walked three men and struck out four. The five hits were scattered among as many Leaf players with Martin and Denson getting a double for extra base knocks.

The Leafs used three hurlers in their effort to halt the attack of the Greenies with Norman Kramer the starting hurler being credited with the loss.

Manager Bob Cohen with two doubles and three singles had a perfect night at the bat to lead the 17-hit attack off the three Leaf hurlers. Larry Riggs got three singles in five trips to the plate to help out the cause.

East-West Duel In Rowing Trials

Princeton, N. J., June 30 (AP)—An East-West duel already is shaping up in the Olympic rowing trials although the races won't actually get under way until almost dusk today.

Backed by the knowledge that American college crews have won the Olympic eight-oared rowing title ever since navy made the first effort in 1920 and that the last three Olympic champions have been Poughkeepsie regatta winners from the West Coast, most of the experts are picking the University of Washington.

The huskies swept the river at Poughkeepsie last week and came here as the nation's only unbeaten varsity crew.

In the past few days, however, strong support has developed for Harvard, the Eastern spring champion. The crimson crew, which turned in a great performance to beat Yale in their annual four mile duel, followed it up Monday evening with a remarkable time trial over the 2,000 meters Olympic distance on Lake Carnegie.

Although the time was not announced, it is a more or less open secret that Harvard was under six minutes for the distance of about a mile and a quarter and beat the course record by more than five seconds. That record of 6:04.8 was set by a great Washington crew of 1936, stroked by Don Hume, in winning the Olympic trials here.

Phillies Stress Accent On Youth

Philadelphia, June 30 (AP)—The accent still is on youth with the Philadelphia Phillies.

The National league club yesterday announced it had signed Richard (Red) Mathews, 22-year old Yale University third baseman. He has been assigned to the club's Terre Haute, Ind., farm in the three-eye league.

Best Bets

London, June 30 (AP)—Gardner Mulloy of Miami, Fla., and Australia's John Browning are favored to win finals berths in the Wimbledon tennis championships today but their slight favoritism is built on the frail structure of reputation.

For nine days the tournament has ruthlessly defied form. There are no set-ups in this Wimbledon of upsets. Top-seeded Frankie Parker and fourth-ranked Tom Brown lost their places in the semifinals quartet and more surprises may be in the offing.

Over Two Million Ballots Cast In All-Star Voting

Chicago, June 30 (AP)—The National All-Star baseball poll has spilled past the two million mark in balloting by the fans to decide the starting lineups for the 15th annual interleague game in St. Louis July 13.

The total vote reached 2,016,699 today, surpassing the 1947 record of 1,973,493 returns from 193 voting centers. The voting this season—which ends at midnight Monday—is being conducted by 452 newspapers, radio stations and magazines in cooperation with the Chicago Tribune.

Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox continues to pile up ballots to be the biggest individual vote getter with 69,417. Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees is second with 66,133 followed by Lou Boudreau of Cleveland and Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Olympic Boxing Team Heads For Final Polishing

Boston, June 30 (AP)—The eight members of the 1948 U.S. Olympic boxing team—the cream of many thousands of fistic-minded youngsters screened all over the world—and their alternates headed for the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., today for two weeks of final polishing before sailing for England.

The octet to survive through all of the final Olympic tryouts, which ended last night at the Boston Garden, was dominated by mid-westerners.

Half of the regulars who won berths on the glove team came from that section, two from Pennsylvania and one each from Florida and Utah.

Two were members of the U.S. Navy team, which was selected from 17,500 candidates, and the Army which selected eight out of worldwide tryouts that involved 50,000 troops, also gained two berths.

Last night's successful finalists picked for the team were: Flyweight Frank Sodona, 17-year-old Philadelphia National A.A.U. titlist; Bantamweight Bill Bossio, 20, of Pittsburgh and the U.S. Navy; Featherweight Edward Johnson, 20, of Kansas City and the U.S. Army; Lightweight Wallace Smith, 19, of Cincinnati; Welterweight Horace Herring, 24, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and the U.S. Navy; Middleweight Washington Jones, 22, of Lovejoy, Ill., and the U.S. Army; Light Heavyweight Charles Speizer, 18, of Detroit; Heavyweight Jay Lambert, 22, of West Jordan, Utah.

Those names as alternates after being defeated in the final round included Flyweight Henry Gault, 19 of Spartansburg, S.C.

Boast Of Bonus Paid To Sign Young Southpaw

Boston, June 30 (AP)—The Boston Braves reported last night they had gone "unbelievable high with bonus money in outbidding eight other major league clubs" to sign John Antonelli, 17-year-old left handed pitcher of Rochester, N. Y.

Antonelli pitched five no-hitters in three years at Rochester's Jefferson high school.

The youngster was signed at his home by Tribal president Lou Perini, who is flying the boy and his father and brother here in the private Perini plane.

Braves general manager John Quinn said the tribe had outbid the Boston Red Sox, New York Yankees, New York Giants, Cleveland Indians, Detroit Tigers, St. Louis Cardinals, Pittsburgh Pirates, and Cincinnati Reds.

County Court

Judge Dink James disposed of the following cases in Pitt county court Tuesday:

Burney Tripp was not guilty of larceny.

Prayer for judgment was continued in the case against James Pitt, colored, charged with driving without an operator's license. In another case on a similar charge he was fined $25, costs deducted.

The case against Randolph Parker, charged with destroying personal property, was not prosessed.

Non-support: Gooker T. Hall, colored, ordered to pay $12 by July 1 and $15 a week thereafter. The case against Sonnie B. Teel was dismissed. Webster Hardee, colored, six months on the roads, sentence suspended on condition that he not drink alcoholic liquor, stay with his family and provide for them and report back to the court on July 6 and again July 17 and show that he has obeyed the court's order. He was placed on probation.

Expedition Will Hunt For Petrified Remains Of Ark

Greensboro, N. C., June 30—(AP)—Noah's ark came to rest on Mt. Ararat and a number of persons believe the biblical ship's petrified remains are there today. They plan an expedition to eastern Turkey to find out.

Dr. A. J. Smith, dean of People's Bible school near here, is one of the group.

Dr. Smith was out of the city today but his daughter, Bethel Smith, declared: "They definitely are planning an expedition to locate Noah's ark."

She added that her father and Gail Mitchell, now a missionary in India, published a book in 1945 called "The Amazing discovery of Noah's ark," which included the theory of the ark's location from accounts in old periodicals and from reports of fliers who claim to have seen the biblical vessel's remains on the mountain top.

The Bible leaves no doubt about the place where the vessel landed. The book of Genesis 8:9 "and the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat."

The world Almanac says Mt. Ararat's highest peak is 16,916 feet above sea level.

Miss Smith said the peak is frozen over 10 months of the year and "perhaps could have preserved the ark."

She added a definite date for the beginning of the expedition had not been set but said she thought they "already had permission from the Turkish government."

RECEIVE ROAD BIDS
Raleigh, June 30—(AP)—Low bids totalling $2,623,919.95 on 20 road projects were received yesterday by the State Highway Commission. The proposed work covers 129.69 miles in 31 counties.

Receipts of U. S. motion picture theaters more than doubled from 1923 to 1929.

Policeman's Job No Bed Of Roses Coming Or Going

By CHESTER WALSH

It's a great life being a policeman, some people think, but the job's no bed of roses. To properly qualify for the job, one must be patient and courageous; able to restrain his emotions and impulses, and to studiously wonder why people do not consider other people's feelings and rights.

And policemen think a newspaper reporter's job is a great life—not having anything to do but write. But reporting is a great life, and it requires something more than writing. One day he gets some compliments and believes he is an angel (his wife to the contrary notwithstanding); next day criticism, and wonders why he was ever born.

Getting back to the police. It's interesting to visit the police station in the mornings and look over unnumberable complaints from citizens—not warrants for arrest. Here's one—a woman complains that a neighbor is playing his radio too loud for neighborhood comfort; a man telephones in that there are two dogs under his house keeping the family awake; a city poultry raiser phones that a neighbor's dog is killing his biddies; a light sleeper reports that a party is going on next door and they "are tearing the house down"; another call to the police tells of a husband and wife are scrapping in the neighborhood—please send an officer.

And, on and on, through the night, the uniformed protectors of the community's peace receive and investigate these reports. Policing is a hard job, but, incidentally, it is agreed that the Greenville police force is doing an excellent job. If they arrested every person about whom they have had a neighborhood complaint, the Police court would be in session every day in the week, and do some overtime. Advice from police officers is doing a lot of good to keep peace in Greenville. They don't like to make arrests unless they have to.

Dogs happen to be the chief worry of the police department at this time of year, when the canine population is quadrupling or sextupling as a result of the early springtime gambols of packs of dogs selecting private flower gardens for their trysting places.

Violates Parole, Road Sentence For Wilbur Gay

Wilbur Junior Gay, (colored), of Greenville, violated his parole and now faces a two-year-sentence on the roads.

Gay was convicted in August, 1945 of second degree burglary and was given five to seven years in Pitt county jail. After serving almost three years he was paroled on December 15, 1947.

On June 24, Mrs. J. B. White 209 Greene street unexpectedly, found Gay on her back porch in his stocking feet, "looking for something." The young man was alleged to have stolen two ten-dollar bills a few days before from Mrs. White.

Taken before Judge J. W. H. Roberts, Gay was found guilty of forcible trespass and sentenced to two years on the road.

Air Force Plane Crashes; 4 Die

Frankfurt, Germany, June 30—(AP)—The air force announced that a U. S. Air Force C-45 transport plane crashed near Munich today and killed four American crew members. The light, twin-engine transport, capable of carrying five passengers and two crewmen, crashed on a training flight 30 miles north of Munich, the air force said.

Names of the four victims—two officers and two enlisted men—were withheld pending notification of their families.

U.S. Communists Condemn Tito

New York, June 30—(AP)—National headquarters of the American Communist party says the Cominform blast at Yugoslavia's Premier Tito is a "timely action."

The party said in a statement yesterday that Yugoslav Communist leaders have "been following a course hostile to the Soviet Union" and have "attempted to curry favor with Anglo-American imperialism."

Traffic Deaths Over The Nation Increase In May

Chicago, June 30—(AP)—The nation's traffic deaths increased in May for the first time in seven months.

A total of 2,650 highway fatalities were recorded in May compared with 2,570 in May, 1947. October, 1947, was the last previous month to show an increase over the corresponding month of the year earlier.

The May toll brought the year's total to 11,270—five per cent less than the 11,830 killed in the first five months of 1947.

The National Safety Council, which released the figures, said the mountain states—with a 25 per cent jump in fatalities—were chiefly responsible for the May gain. Fatalities also rose in the Atlantic states. The Pacific states were the only region to register improvement with the central states holding even.

New York—(AP)—From 1940 to 1947 the population of New York increased by about 13,999 people. Night vision can be improved 100 per cent for most people by a brief course of scientific training.

Find My Killer

By MANLY WELLMAN

Chapter 19

"Are you really all right, Jack?" was the first thing J. D. asked me next morning.

"I could be worse," I reassured her. "But I'm not wasting time in bed, being sorry for myself. You said the truth last night—we've got a very dangerous murderer to find, without being murdered ourselves."

"Let's think about those false clues used in the frame-up," she said, all business at once. "You know about them, not me. List them."

I did so and she wrote down a list. It read like this:

Button from coat dropped in gun room; Threatening letter in book at S. home; Phone call by Oporto; Sickle trap to hurt Pettigrew.

"That first item's the simplest," said J. D. "The button came from a suit Dr. Stokes didn't wear the day of Ealing's murder, but he did wear it two days later. Remember the inquest?"

"Very well indeed," I nodded. "Several people were near him. Diane Ealing, her boy friend Kuhl, the Pettigrews—they were all at the inquest, too."

"One of them got the button," she elaborated. "And chucked it into the gun room, to be found and used against Dr. Stokes. What's next? The letter, yes."

"That's a plain piece of fake evidence," I said, "because the only finger prints on it were mine. Earlier prints must have been rubbed off, carefully and completely, with an eraser. It can also be detected—the erasing job—if you're looking for it."

"We'll try to get it back from the police and make sure," said J. D.

I produced the wadded envelope with the nail in it. "This was what the stickles hung on in Pettigrew's tool shed. We probably know what there is to know."

"The phone call to tip you off was false evidence, too," J. D. took up the list again.

"It was somebody steering us— you—to a clue against Dr. Stokes," said J. D. "The planted letter, of course."

"I think the accent was faked," "Then it was Kuhl or Pettigrew. They're the only male voices among our suspects. As for the letter itself—"

"You and I agree that it wasn't a letter to Dr. Stokes, but to someone else. And who would get that kind of letter from Richard Ealing? Not his yardman Pettigrew, surely."

"But Kuhl would," I said. "Ealing would have every reason to tell him to lay off, hey! That piece of note paper wasn't whole. Part of it—maybe half—was cut away. Because that part would have called Kuhl by name."

"Now, where else could the evidence point?"

"Diane Ealing acts as if she's in. I may coax something out of her."

blouse and it came out holding the number of that pair of derringers.
She pointed it at me and drew back the hammer with her thumb.
"Stand up," she ordered me.

I sat still on the divan and gaped.
She put her left hand up and tugged at her hair and it came tumbling down. Then she ripped the collar of her blouse away from her shoulder. She hooked a finger under the exposed strap of her brassiere and broke it.

"You aren't going to do this thing to Jim Kuhl. I'll kill you, and when Pettigrew hears the shot and runs in I'll say that you tried to attack me."

Sets Records In Service Career

Raleigh, June 30—(AP)—Master Sergeant Horace C. Thomas left the Army today after 32 years—with what he believes are a couple of records.

For 28 of his 32 years, Thomas served with the ROTC at N.C. State College, perhaps a record length of time for a soldier to remain at one station. Also, he has never done post duty—maybe another record.

A native of Mitchell County, Thomas entered the Army in 1916, and almost at once was sent on Mexican border duty. During World War I he served overseas with the 30th Division.

After the war, he returned here and settled down to his assignment at State College. He had charge of the ROTC armory and supplies.

The sergeant and Mrs. Thomas raised an Army family. Their daughter, Mrs. George S. Dawkins of Baltimore, is married to a sergeant stationed at Camp Holabird. Their son, Sergeant Horace C. Thomas, is a paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg.

The Thomases will continue to live in Raleigh.

HANDICRAFT WORKER—Mrs. Minnie Buchanan, one of the "Norton, N.C., Weavers" along the handicraft trail in the Southern Appalachians, makes for the tourist trade one of the towels for which the community is noted.

Stuffed Whale Is Victim Of Rain

Charlotte, June 30—(AP)—The heavy rain in the Carolinas last night was too much even for a whale—a stuffed one.

A Bible tent show for children in Charlotte had scheduled a performance of "Jonah and the Whale." But the gusty downpour flooded the grounds, toppled half the tent, left the whale a bedraggled specimen. The whale episode has been rescheduled for tonight.

Negro Home Demonstration News

New Club Organized
Monday afternoon June 21 at 2 p.m. a group of ladies in the Broad Branch neighborhood met at the home of Mrs. G. B. Williams for a demonstration on quick and sure methods of making a dress, given by the home agent, Mrs. Amelia S. Capehart.

The demonstration was well presented and we feel sure that by such a lesson more of our dress making problems will be solved.

After the demonstration the fifteen women present organized ourselves into a home demonstration club as we feel we can do a better job in an organized group.

Officers and leaders are as follows:
President, Mrs. Susie Gay; vice-president, Mrs. Mittle Joyner; secretary, Mrs. Jennie Phillips; assistant secretary, Mrs. Louise Shackelford; treasurer, Mrs. Jane DuPre; song leader, Mrs. Viola Edwards; garden leader, Mrs. Martha Hines; food leader, Mrs. Queenie McKenzie; canning leader, Mrs. Lucy Turnage; clothing, Mrs. Eula Baker; poultry, Mrs. Peggy Hines; house furnishing leader, Mrs. Georgia Williams.

Helen Home Demonstration Club
"Get More Color Into Your Meal" was the demonstration for month. In order that the whole family could see what we are doing under the supervision of Mrs. Capehart, home agent. The Helen Home Demonstration Club held its first dinner meeting for the family June 18th at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nettie Tyson.

The table was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and filled to capacity with home grown and cooked food, namely: fried chicken, boiled sliced ham, green cabbage, collards, string beans, potato salad, boiled eggs, raw vegetable salad, pickles, corn bread, biscuits and lemonade. Home made peach ice cream and cake were served for dessert.

After dinner the young folks participated in games and club members held a short business meeting. Pictures were made and everyone went home happy over such a pleasant afternoon.

Calico Home Demonstration Club
Members of Calico Home Demonstration Club and their families met at the home of Mrs. Lucy J. Chapman Tuesday afternoon June 15 at 4 o'clock for their annual family picnic supper.

The purpose of the get-together was given by Mrs. Capehart, Negro Home Agent. In her talk she brought out how important it was for neighbors to hold such recreational meetings which brought about more of a cooperative spirit with in the community and it is just as necessary to play together as well as work together.

Welcome remarks were given by Mrs. Lucy J. Chapman, president of the club. Group singing and games were led by Miss Margaret Hunter, Negro Asst. Home Agent. A delicious picnic dinner was served out in the yard on a long table prepared for the occasion. Miss Delone Braswell, former teacher in the community, was a visitor. Sixty-seven persons were in attendance.

'Super-Giant Red Star' Scientists Discovered

Pasadena, Calif., June 30—(AP)—Scientists at Case Tech's observatory in Cleveland have discovered a "super-giant red star" estimated to be 10,000 times brighter than the sun, a Case observer reported today.

Dr. J. J. Nassau, director of the Cleveland observatory, said in a paper which he read to a meeting here of the American Astronomical Society that he believed infra-red photography had enabled Case to penetrate deeper into space than ever before in the history of astronomy.

Infra-red rays were used in the current discovery made by Dr. Nassau and C. B. Van Albada of Amsterdam, Holland, visiting Case professor.

Dr. Nassau said the new star either was at the limit of the sun's galaxy, or outside the galaxy's rim, and was the first discovery of its type. Its distance from the earth was estimated at 20,000 light years.

Only about 3,000 red stars were known 18 months ago, he said, but Case astronomers now can count more than that number on one photographic plate under the new method.

Such methods may enable astronomers to discover stars 240 trillion miles from the earth, or twice the distance which separates this planet from the new discovery, he reported.

More Workers In N.C. Industries

Raleigh, N. C., June 30—(AP)—North Carolina manufacturing industries employed more workers in May than they did in the same month last year but the number working last month was fewer than in April.

The state department of labor reported today that 381,400 were employed in May, a drop of 1,200 from April but a gain of 15,000 over May of 1947.

Award Contract Pactolus School

By CHESTER WALSH

The Pitt County Board of Education has awarded the contract for construction of the new Pactolus school to the P. S. West Construction Co. of Greenville and Statesville, low bidder for the general contract. The successful bidder's bid was $95,700.

Due to lack of funds, the auditorium unit had to be eliminated from the construction plans at this time.

Low bidder for heating equipment was Deans & Baker of Wilson, $5,817.

The plumbing contract was awarded to C. L. Russ of Greenville, for $6,944.

The Hub Electric Company of Greenville was low bidder on electric wiring, $3,154.

An official of the construction company informed the Board of Education that it will immediately begin assembling materials for the Pactolus school building and that construction will get under way in the near future. The contract provides for completion of the work in 200 calendar days.

Don H. Conley, superintendent of county schools, said the new school building will be semi-fireproof and of thoroughly modern design. It will be a one-story structure.

The old school building was destroyed by fire of unknown origin early last October. Since then classes are being taught in the community building in Pactolus and at the NYA center in Greenville.

Six: "Activeness and cooperation of the federated peoples' republic of Yugoslavia in the struggle of the Democratic anti-imperialistic forces of the world, headed by the Soviet Union, against the anti-Democratic Imperialistic forces and war mongers."

Seven: "The federated peoples' republic of Yugoslavia will keep backing all countries and all movements fighting for peace, who are against interfering in the internal affairs of other countries and for respecting their independence, and those who are for peaceful cooperation based on the principles of the organization of the United Nations."

Eight: "Moral and political help for the working people of Yugoslavia in workers' movement, Democratic movements and national liberation movements, and to the people who are struggling for liberty, Democracy and Socialism."

Out of 14 million American men examined for the draft in World War II about 3.5 million were found physically, mentally or morally unfit for full military services either before or after they entered the armed forces.

Hear Gunfire

Athens, June 30—(AP)—A spokesman for the Foreign Ministry said heavy machine-gun and mortar fire were heard again today in Yugoslavia just across the border from Florina.

He said the firing also was heard yesterday. He denied reports that a Yugoslav battalion had crossed into Greece, but said it had intended to.

Bear Gnaws Off Youngster's Arm

Peoria, Ill., June 30—(AP)—Twelve year old Johnny Dickerson climbed a three-foot fence to get closer to the cage of two bears in the city's zoo at Glen Oaks park yesterday.

He stood near the cage and fed grapes to "Tuffy," a 250-pound male Himalayan bear, through the bars. Its mate, "Babe," also was in the cage.

Suddenly, "Tuffy" seized Johnny and pulled him against the bars of the cage and clawed at his left arm. As he screamed, A. B. Eades, a concessionaire in the park, grabbed a cane from an elderly man. He jumped the fence and thrust the cane into the bear's mouth, forcing it to release its hold on Dickerson.

Dickerson's left arm was chewed off above the elbow. The remainder of the arm was amputated at the shoulder after the boy was taken to a hospital.

The two bears, zookeeper Dick Houlihan said, had been considered tame.

Dewey . . .

President Truman or President Roosevelt and did not come up through Civil Service.

Such agencies include the Maritime Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, and so on. Then there'd be the special assistants to the department or agency heads who are not Civil Service people.

There are other non-Civil Service employees—like the chauffeur to the cabinet member or special secretaries to department heads—who'd be likely to go. The new department heads would pick their own people. But even so the government has to be run. Good people willing to work for government salaries are not easy to find.

And Dewey, who has the reputation of being a good administrator, probably would be careful about firing good people doing a good job.
