Witness Refuses Answer Questions

Victor Perlo Silent On Leading Queries As To Communist Connections; 'Mystery Witness' To Take Stand In Afternoon

Washington, Aug. 9—(AP)—Victor Perlo refused today to say whether he knows the woman who accused him of heading a group of government employees which she said gave wartime secrets to a Red spy ring.

The sharp-featured witness appeared before the House Un-American Activities Committee and declined to answer question after question on the grounds it might tend to incriminate or degrade him.

But he testified readily to a long term of service in various government agencies and to being at present an economist at headquarters of the new Progressive party in New York City.

Miss Elizabeth T. Bentley, who calls herself a former Communist, has testified that Perlo directed one group of government workers who passed along wartime secrets which she handed Russian agents.

She said that Perlo supplied her figures on airplane production while he served on the War Production Board.

Whittaker Chambers, another witness in the committee's investigation of stories of Soviet spying, has described Perlo as having been a leader in a pre-war Communist underground in Washington.

Perlo took the stand as the committee reopened its hearing preparing to hear mystery witness Alexander Koral, who is scheduled to appear this afternoon.

The committee also awaits word whether a formal demand can be made for another much-wanted witness who presently is out of reach in the Soviet consulate in New York.

The committee witness who is "resting" in the Soviet consulate in New York City is Mrs. Okana Stepanova Kosenkina, a 52-year-old Russian teacher.

Acting Chairman Mundt (R-S.D.) said the committee is ready with a subpoena for her if the State Department rules that diplomatic immunity does not cover consulates.

Mrs. Kosenkina, who has been teaching at a school for Russian children in New York, is the key figure in a row among White and Red Russians. The Soviet consulate says it rescued her from the White Russians, who wanted to prevent her return to the U.S.S.R. The White Russians say the woman came to them for refuge and in fear of her life, only to be taken away to the consulate Saturday against her desires.

Mundt says he doesn't know the truth about the affair. But he said the committee would like to question Mrs. Kosenkina because he understands she is willing to talk about all phases of Soviet "intrigue" in this country.

Truman To Bring Tour Into South

Wakefield, R. I., Aug. 9—(AP)—Sen. J. Howard McGrath, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, says President Truman will "positively go into the South" during his reelection campaign beginning about Sept. 1.

Asked in an interview if the President would campaign in Mississippi and Alabama, McGrath replied yesterday:

"I can't say exactly where he will go, but he intends to carry his fight to the people. That means the people who gather on courthouse steps, in public squares and at railroad stations."

U. S. History Ignored

Only A Handful Of Colleges And Universities Require A Study Of American History; Intellectual Choice Impossible For Many Who Choose Communism

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Aug. 9—(AP)—Elizabeth T. Bentley says she became an American Communist and an agent for Russia without knowing anything about American history.

She is a graduate of Vassar and took her master's degree at Columbia University. In spite of her schooling, she told Rep. Hebert (D-La.) of the House Un-American Activities Committee, she never learned American history.

That doesn't mean the schools didn't teach it. They did. But she didn't have to take it and she didn't.

A few years ago the New York Times made a survey which showed only 18 percent of 690 American colleges and universities compelled their students to take American history.

"Ignorance of the struggle of her own country to make a richer, more democratic life here—Miss Bentley turned to Communism not only that. She says she became a Soviet agent, a messenger against the interests of this country whose values she renounced without learning them.

There's an important point here, not knowing American history, she couldn't have made an intellectual choice between the life being worked out here and the kind being worked out in Soviet Russia.

This is pretty plain evidence that she jumped into Communism through emotion, not through intellect. Her emotional tie to Communism is pretty well illustrated by this:

Her own admission that interest in it began to die with the death of a Russian agent with whom she was in love. It died so completely that she quit the Communist party and told the FBI her whole story.

An emotional Communist like Miss Bentley is one who could know they're doing and firmly believe the end they seek justifies any means they use, no matter how ruthless.

Report Red Army Rushing Work On Border Defenses

German Press Claims Feverish Activity On Trenches, Weapons In Zone

Berlin, Aug. 9—(AP)—The British-licensed newspaper Telegraph said today the Russians are digging trenches and mounting weapons, including rocket guns, on the border between the Soviet occupation zone and Western Germany.

The newspaper reported feverish activity in woods along the zone frontiers where, it said, Russian engineers and construction troops are "building a security border."

Telegraf said it obtained this information from German sources who were pressed into service to help dig trenches "and when released were warned not to mention anything."

This development came as the Russians hurled new threats at Berlin's anti-Communists, and the United States headed more Superfortresses and its ranking air chiefs toward Germany.

American military officials here said they could not confirm the telegram report. But they added that frequent reports have been received of the Russians strengthening their border installations. These activities were said to include construction of watch towers, fencing and formidable road barricades.

"We can't say precisely what it means," one official said, "because the Russians always like to put up such physical barriers. However, it is known that they several months ago sharply tightened their border controls to stop the flow of German goods from their zone into the American zone."

"This illegal traffic had ranged around 10,000 persons per month, people seeking better living conditions in the West or just trying to get out of the Russian zone. New Russian controls have sharply reduced that traffic."

The borders between the American zone and the British-American zone have been virtually sealed for two months. The Russians first stopped interzonal travel and transport, allegedly to protect their zone's economy. When the Russians imposed their blockade of Berlin, the Western powers retaliated by halting railway traffic from the West into the Soviet zone.

Only a trickle of German road and pedestrian travel now gets through the scattered control points.

He fell overboard from the U.S. freighter American Defender, which had just sailed from the harbor. Donaldson, 42, was from Newton Pa.

Turn The Lever On The Parking Meter

The police have orders not to turn the levers on parking meters. If a motorist inserts a nickel or a penny and does not turn the handle a policeman will not do it for them. His orders are to write a ticket if a meter shows all red on the dial ordering the motorist to appear at the police station and promptly.

The one-hour parking meters were recently changed to two-hour meters at the request of the Merchants Association.

Western Envoys Again Gather In Moscow Citadel

Third Conference At Kremlin Within A Week; 'Most' Important Meeting

Moscow, Aug. 9—(AP)—Envoys of the United States, Britain and France entered the Kremlin this afternoon for their third conference within a week.

U.S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith led the procession into the Russian seat of government at 4:50 p.m. (8:50 a.m. EST). He was followed by Frank Roberts, special British envoy and private secretary to Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and by French Ambassador Yves Chateaugue.

They were to see Foreign Minister Molotov, with whom they conferred Friday evening, presumably about the Berlin blockade, the German problem and perhaps other differences dividing the west and east. They talked last Monday night with Molotov and Premier Stalin.

Smith conferred with Roberts more than an hour before going to the Kremlin.

An informed source said the Kremlin session is expected to be one of the most important meetings so far and may well determine the course of the entire series of talks.

It was a bright, warm afternoon as Smith's long, black automobile, flying a big American flag, drove through the Kremlin gates. The ambassador joked with an aide as he left his embassy. Once more he went in the Kremlin alone, while Roberts and Chateaugue took translators.

News Briefs

Elberse, N. C., Aug. 9—(AP)—The tobacco market here closed after today's sales because it did not have company buyers, government grading service and government price support.

New York, Aug. 9—(AP)—A flight at more than 650 miles per hour was claimed for a jet fighter yesterday at the windup of a nine-day aerial pageant at New York International airport.

Two British crews from the Pacific coast—University of California's eight-oar shell and University of Washington's four-with-oarswain—rowed to Olympic championships today on the Thames.

Washington, Aug. 9—(AP)—The biggest fighting ship in the world—the navy's $125,000,000 giant carrier—will be the first capital ship built for the atomic age.

Washington, Aug. 9—(AP)—A five fold increase in the number of workers covered by health-pension insurance contracts with employers was reported today by the labor department.

At least 3,000,000 workers now have this protection, the department said. This compares with 600,000 in 1945.

An Oversight

San Francisco, Aug. 9—(AP)—An automobile designed by Edward T. Adkins, former NAVY chief petty officer, for handicapped veterans made a successful shakedown trip except for one thing.

The airplane-type stick for steering worked. The push button controls were OK. It ran by gasoline motor or electric power.

Among the added features: an electric torch and drill, movie camera, radio, magazine rack, automatic fire-fighting equipment, and an ice cream making machine.

But the Palo Alto man hit a snag when he tried to cross the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge yesterday.

Police said he had to have license plates.

"The one thing I forgot," said Adkins.

Storm Havoc In Britain, France

Twenty-Two Dead; Considerable Damage To Boats, Crops

London, Aug. 9—(AP)—Weekend storms in Britain and France left at least 22 persons dead and considerable damage.

British crops were flattened, and wide areas were flooded.

Damage to the French port of Brest alone was estimated at more than 100,000,000 francs ($39,000,000). Several small boats and a trawler sank, and cranes and port installations were damaged.

Eight persons on a holiday drowned at Perra-Quirec, in Brittany, when a fishing boat capsized. Another fishing boat was wrecked on rocks in South Brittany, drowning five crewmen. Two crewmen of a third fishing boat which ran ashore from Vannes were missing. A Swindoner drowned in high seas off England.

A doctor fell from a small boat at Carnarvon, Wales, and drowned. He was one of six British storm victims.

Severe storms struck in Kent and Sussex, and high waters battered the southeast and east coasts of England today, although in places seas began to clear.

The fate of a bumper grain harvest, the best in five years, hinges on weather this week.

Locate Wreckage Of Plane In Alps

Milan, Italy, Aug. 9—(AP)—A police patrol stop watch today over the snow-entombed plane high in the French-Italian Alps identified by the U. S. air force in Germany as a C-47 missing eight months with 20 persons aboard.

The police commander at nearby Borgo San Dalmazzo said by telephone that only one wing and two motors of the craft were visible. Two frozen bodies were found outside the wreckage.

Starve To Death In Besieged City

Peking, Aug. 9—(AP)—Five hundred persons a day are starving to death in Red-besieged Changchun and its environs, the newspaper Shih Chieh Jih Pao said today.

Dog meat, the paper added, is selling for 4,000,000 Chinese dollars a pound ($2.40 U.S.), horse meat 50,000,000 ($5) and koaling, a Chinese variety of sorghum, at 100,000,000 ($10) a pound.

President Still In Dark Over Cabinet Nomination

Washington, Aug. 9—(AP)—President Truman appears to be in the dark today over whether he actually has found a secretary of labor.

In a surprise move just before the special session adjourned Saturday night, Mr. Truman nominated former Gov. Maurice J. Tobin of Massachusetts.

But Tobin, who is seeking to regain the Governorship, has refused so far to say whether he will accept.

Congress cut without Senate action on any of the more than 100 nominations submitted by Mr. Truman, including that of Tobin as a successor to Lewis B. Schwellenbach, who died June 10.

Tobin said at Gilbertville, Mass., yesterday:

Wallace Assails Spy Hunt; Claims Hitler's Agents Never Uncovered

New York, Aug. 9—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace, assailing the current "spy" hearings, says the U. S. government has failed to uncover those who aided Nazi Germany during the war.

The Progressive Party presidential candidate said in a statement yesterday:

"The current unsupported allegations of giving information to an ally (Russia) during time of war should be examined in the light of the failure of the administration to seek the prosecution of those who aided Hitler Germany."

Wallace called the congressional investigation of alleged Russian agents part of a "pattern of terror and fear-making."

Forty-Four New Polio Sases For Year Reported

Total Now Stands 439 More Than For Worst Previous Year; Plan For Care

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 9—(AP)—Today's mail brought reports of 44 new cases of polio to the state board of health, and the state's total of cases for the year mounted to 1,316.

The reports covered a two-day period since the board of health was closed yesterday.

One of the cases was June onset. Forsyth county reported five of today's cases; Burke and Guilford reported three each; Mecklenburg reported three; Alamance, New Hanover, Randolph, Rutherford, Sampson and Watoga reported two each; and one case each was reported by Alexander, Avery, Bladen, Catawba, Cherokee, Cleveland, Columbus, Craven, Davidson, Gaston, Iredell, Lincoln, Orange, Richmond, Rowan and Union.

The state pushed ahead today with plans to care for victims of its record polio epidemic.

A meeting to discuss follow-up treatment of polio patients was scheduled today at Greensboro, representatives of the State Board of Health and the federal children's bureau to attend, according to Philip B. Randolph, state coordinator for the national foundation for infantile paralysis.

Randolph announced also that Dr. Hart Van Rider, medical director of the foundation, would come to the state this week to confer with state and local health officials and doctors. He will arrive in Raleigh tomorrow. He probably will visit Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Charlotte and the polio hospital at Camp Sutton.

Despite signs that the epidemic has ebbed somewhat, Randolph expressed belief it is still far from over.

"Even though the epidemic may be past its peak," he said, "we're still going to have lots of cases the rest of the year. He urged parents to continue to "exercise every possible precaution" against the disease.

Bernadotte Raps Palestine Rumor

Rhodes, Aug. 9—(AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte says "there are rumors of impending coups by irregular elements" in Palestine.

"These irregular elements," the United Nations mediator said yesterday, "are alleged to be uncontrolled, or to be used as spearheads of regular forces."

He urged the demilitarization of Jerusalem as the "best remedy for this tense situation."

Bernadotte did not identify these "irregular elements." His statement was interpreted here to mean the Jewish extremist organization Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Charge Plot To Invade Panama

Panama, Panama, Aug. 9—(AP)—High government sources said today former President Arnulfo Arias Macarri is organizing an armed invasion of Panama from Costa Rica.

Arias, who fled Panama last week after being declared the loser in the May Presidential elections, is working with the general staff of the Costa Rican army, these informants asserted.

States' Rights Party Is Pledged S. C. 8 Electors

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 9—(AP)—States' Rights Democrats' prospective electoral college vote stood at 28 today on the strength of a pledge of South Carolina's eight Democratic voters.

Previously Alabama and Mississippi party officials announced the two states' 20 Democratic voters were pledged to the new party ticket.

State Executive Committee Chairman William P. Baskin of Bishopville said a poll of the committee showed it "overwhelmingly" in favor of directing the electors to vote for the Thurmond-Wright ticket.

These electors will appear on the state's regular Democratic party ticket in November. The elector nominees have yet to be named.

Personal Income For Americans At Record High

Washington, Aug. 9—(AP)—The personal income of Americans climbed to an annual rate of $211,900,000,000 in June, a record high, the commerce department reported today.

The sharp increase centered in factory pay checks, which fattened because of "third-round" wage increases in some of the major durable goods industries.

The gain resulted also from higher prices received by farmers for live stock, and "from the absence of labor-management disputes," the department said.

It Takes Dough

Lancaster Pa., Aug. 9—(AP)—Cyrus Dietrich, a 14-year-old angler, came up with a prize catch.

Using dough as bait, young Dietrich was fishing yesterday with a friend, Willard Smith, and having pretty tough luck.

Two bites brought a sucker and a white fish, but both were too small to keep.

After getting no other bites, the young angler handed in his line, believing his bait was gone.

On the end of the hook was a wet $5 bill.

GOP Housing And Inflation Bills To Draw Truman's Ire

Hollywood Calls

Mt. Vernon, Ind., Aug. 9—(AP)—Pig-tailed Jeanne La Duke has headed home from Hollywood, but she'll be going back.

She scarcely had started driving home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd La Duke, when she was named to play a featured role in a movie on farm life, "The Green Promise."

Glenn McCarthy productions looked over photographs of 12,000 girls who wanted the part. Ten-year-old Jeanne was one of four 4-H Club girls selected as finalists for screen tests.

Before she left for Hollywood, she managed to get a cake baked for a Posy County exhibit last week. It won third place.

Jeanne has turned out 18 cakes in her first year of 4-H clubwork. This is 10 more than the project requires.

Her mother is 4-H club leader, and her sister, Nancy, 14, is a 4-H girl, too. Her father is chairman of Posy county extension program.

Jeanne sometimes drives a tractor on her father's farm five miles west of here. She skates and has a pony she rides.

One of the adult leads in the movie will be played by a former Indianapolis man, Robert Paige.

No Carnival

A carnival scheduled to show here at the fair ground this week will not appear. The County Board of Health, in line with the polio prevention program, forbids the sale of tickets to children under 16 years of age, to public events.

The local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was sponsoring the carnival. The Board of Aldermen at a meeting last Thursday night, gave a permit for the carnival to put on a benefit show without paying a license.

Over 15 Million Bales Predicted; Well Over 1947 Crop

Washington, Aug. 9—(AP)—The Agriculture department today forecast this year's cotton crop at 15,169,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This is the first official forecast of the year. It is 3,318,000 bales more than last year's crop of 11,851,000 bales. Production for the 1937-40 period averaged 12,014,000 bales.

In a companion report, the census bureau said 256,928 running bales of this year's cotton crop had been ginned prior to Aug. 1. This compares with 193,638 ginned to the same date last year and 171,641 to the same date two years ago.

The condition of the cotton crop on Aug. 1 was reported at 85 percent of normal. This compares with 78 percent a year ago and 76 percent for the ten-year average.

The indicated yield of lint cotton per acre was reported at 313.5 pounds compared with 267.2 last year and 264.2 for the ten year average.

Grain Market
Chicago, Aug. 9—(AP)—Soybeans and lard led a general retreat in all commodities on the board of trade today. Losses in soybeans extended to 10 cents, the newly established daily limit, at times.

The selling started after a government estimate of a much larger cotton crop than had been expected. More cotton will also mean more cottonseed oil, traders reasoned, helping to undermine prices of all

Poultry and Eggs
Raleigh, Aug. 9—(AP)—(NCDA)—Fryers and broilers steady at 35; eggs stronger, A large 55.

Hog Market
Raleigh, Aug. 9—(AP)—(NCDA)—Hog prices fifty cents weaker. Tops of $28 at Kinston, Rocky Mount, Greenville, Smithfield, Mt. Olive, Dunn, Wilson, Goldsboro, Washington, Jacksonville, Lumberton, Warsaw, Fayetteville, Florence, and Richmond.

N.Y. Cotton
New York, Aug. 9—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 15 to 35 cents a bale lower.

Strength FOR THE DAY

FACING ALL THE FACTS
Many years ago a symposium of world figures was held in London, and the question for discussion was, "Who will dominate the future?" Professor Huxley, then the outstanding scientist of his age, insisted that the future would be dominated by people who stuck most closely to facts. By this he meant scientific facts.

But a member of Parliament, who was also a member of the Royal Commission of Education, arose and said: "I agree with Professor Huxley; the people who will dominate the future are those who will stick most closely to facts. But I want to add one word—the word 'all.' All the facts! And the greatest fact in history is God."

One of the most incomprehensible situations in all the history of mankind is the impasse in modern life whereby we find ourselves, because of our scientific advances, confronting the stark reality of annihilation. It was believed, when scientific progress began to unfold, that the world would soon be turned into a paradise. The truth is that no age has confronted more problems, or problems of a more serious nature, than this generation. Speed and frustration keep the mental hospitals of our country full to overflowing. The discovery of atomic fission is now threatening to destroy the proud civilization we have built up.

Power, exercised apart from a belief and trust in God quickly becomes diabolical. General MacArthur has declared that all modern problems are basically theological.

Around Capitol Square

By LYNN NISBET
SPEAKERSHIP—It seems about as certain as anything political can be in advance of the fact that Kerr Craige Ramsay of Rowan will be speaker of the 1946 house of representatives. After making allowance for possible Democratic casualties in November, Ramsay reports that he has oral or written pledges from approximately two-thirds of the Democratic membership of the house. He said the other day it is his purpose to personally contact every nominee before the fall election. Meantime, it is known that he is working on committee assignments preliminary to organizing the house for business as soon as possible after it convenes on January 5. He plans to confer with Governor-nominate Kerr Scott before completing committees, and also with H. P. Taylor, upcoming lieutenant governor, in order to preclude putting major committee chairmanship of senate and house in the same county.

POLITICS—Highway patrolmen assigned to that territory may not be seen so much around Cogdill Motor Company at Sylva, and purchasers of automobile license plates may have to go somewhere else to buy them. Back of these changes is an interesting story involving partisan political enmity. Story is that Cogdill has one of the best service stations in Jackson county; that he has serviced state cars for a good many years and his place became a sort of central point for patrolmen, highway workers and other state employees traveling thereabouts. But—Cogdill is a Republican, and most folks in Jackson are Democrats. The vote in recent elections has been about two to one. When Democrats protested use of a Republican filling station, the state workers were asked not to be obvious in favoring Cogdill's place. Thereupon Cogdill decided that if his station wasn't good enough for state cars to spend money at, it probably wasn't good enough to serve as a branch office for the handling of automobile license plates. So he wrote the Carolina Motor Club, which handles distribution of license tags throughout the state, asking them to get another agent. COMMON—Complaints that one or two service stations are unduly favored by highway patrolmen have been registered from other communities. In most instances investigation has disclosed that the "favored" stations were those which stayed on the job day and night, answered wrecker calls at any hour, and otherwise cooperated with the law enforcement agencies; whereas most of the complainants sought business only during day time or convenient hours. Col. L. C. Rosser, director of the motor vehicles department, said every effort is made to have the owners of wrecked cars designate the service firm to handle them. In cases where owners were not available for recommendation, attempt is made to distribute the business equitably among all nearby stations. He confessed a natural disposition to deal with firms which showed cooperative spirit. SPOTTED—Incidence of State's Rights Democrats, commonly known as Dixiecrats, throughout North Carolina is much like the incidence of polio—there is some in every section, if not in every county, but there are areas where concentration is much heavier or lighter than the average. This fact was cited by one of the Dixiecrats, who had no thought of comparing poliomyelitis with advocacy of state's rights in any other respect. There is about as much difference of opinion among political observers as to prevalence of disaffection in the Democratic party as about incidence of polio. CONFLICT—Questions were asked during the past few days of two men from each of five counties. All the men are in position to know something of local conditions, and in each instance one man said there were very few Dixiecrats in his ballgame and the other said the woods were full of them.

Whedbee Has Story About Market In Tobacco Journal

W. L. (Bill) Whedbee, supervisor of the Greenville tobacco market, has an interesting story, illustrated, in the recent issue of "Tobacco," an international trade review magazine. Tobaccoists and businessmen who read it said the story is a credit to Whedbee and the market. Photographs of W. S. Bost, president of the Tobacco Board of Trade, and vice-president of the E. B. Ficklen Tobacco Company, Louis Stuart Ficklen, secretary-treasurer of that company, C. W. Howard, president of the Greenville Tobacco Market, and of Whedbee appear in the publication.

A MAN IN THE HOUSE

By Florence Stuart

Chapter 21
One thing Jane hadn't counted on, in her planning. That the excitement of a new flirtation, even a pretended one, after three quiet, settled years, would go to her head like wine. That a make believe love affair would sharpen her senses, stir her imagination, until she would be driven to ask herself half fearfully, half in wonder: Is this the real thing?

Had slipped into the habit of having his dinners with them. One day he complained about the food at the cafeteria, plus the exorbitant prices, and Jane said: "Have dinner with us this evening, Ted." She smiled. "After all, you've earned a few home-cooked meals. You're such a precious mother's little helper."

"It's fun," she said that evening at dinner, "to cook for a man who actually tastes what you fix for him." Her smile was for Ted, and the barb in the words was for Carl. Recently Carl had fallen into the habit of eating what was put before him automatically, paying little or no attention to dishes that Jane prepared specially to tempt his appetite. He was tired, she knew that. He was working too hard and his mind was harassed. He was worried about the appointment of Dr. Ross's successor.

Carl had every hope of getting the job. Still, you couldn't be sure. In a college, as everywhere else, politics was always at work.

Carl said: "You've spoiled me, dear. Everything you prepare is delicious, always. I suppose I take it for granted."

Ted grinned. "You should make him eat in the cafeteria for a week or so, Jane. That would teach him to stand up and do tricks for one of your meals. By the way, Professor, how would you like me at table as a permanent boarder?"

"That's up to Jane," Carl said pleasantly.

Later Jane talked it over with him. "It's as easy to cook for three as two. I haven't mentioned it to Ted but I know he'd adore having his dinners with us. What do you think?"

think, darling? Would it be a nuisance? Carl neither encouraged nor discouraged the idea. "It's up to you, honey. Do whatever you like."

"Well, if you have no objections, I think I'll mention it to Ted."

"I have no objections," Carl said. "You can work out your meals, Jane told Ted gaily, "by taking me to the movies occasionally."

Ted thought that was a wonderful idea. Still, he looked thoughtfully. "Won't your husband—"

"Mind?" Jane asked.

"I don't think so. Why should he? I adore movies, and Carl loathes them."

For once, however, Carl did object. "After all, Jane," he said, "you don't want to go out of your way to give people something to talk about. It isn't that I see any harm in your taking in an occasional show with Ted as your escort. Still—"

Illogically, Jane was annoyed. She thought: He's objecting because of what people will say, not because he cares on his own account. "I have to have a little pleasure," she said crossly. "And all you do, evening after evening, is shut yourself up in your study."

That evening Jane marched off to the movies alone. There had been, in recent weeks, a minor crime wave in Stantonville. Several houses had been burglarized, and a number of lone women held up. The authorities attributed it to a gang of youthful criminals. None of the jobs had been expert.

That night, as luck would have it, Jane was their victim. Or rather their intended and near victim. She was on her way home, around tenthirty, and the street was deserted. A car drove up alongside the curb and a man jumped out, brandishing a pistol. He snatched at her handbag and Jane screamed.

A man came dashing out of a house and the thing darted back into the car and vanished. The man, a Mr. Rice, took Jane into his house, where his wife gave her a hot drink, and later the two of them drove her home.

No harm had been done, except that Jane's nerves were shot, and once she was safe at home with Carl, she gave way to a mild fit of hysterics. "You would not go with me, and you didn't want Ted to go. So I have to go wandering around alone and be held up by gangsters. That man might have killed me. He had a gun."

Carl was white and shaken. He held Jane in his arms and tried to soothe and calm her. He, too, knew terrible fear. He was sick with it, as he thought of what might have happened to Jane. "Darling," he whispered over and over. "Oh, my darling."

The following evening at dinner he said: "Ted, would you care to shoulder a new responsibility?" and smiled. "My wife is under orders not to go out of the house alone in the evening. I'd appreciate it a lot if you'd drive her to the movies now and then. Or walk her uptown, if she has some errand and you're at leisure."

Ted grinned. "It will be a pleasure."

A New 'King'

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 8—(AP)—This little Orange County town, where the harness horse is king most of the year around, began welcoming the first of thousands of visitors today for the 23rd Hambletonian Stake. A new king will be crowned Wednesday.

The horses, a score or more of them, have been here for several weeks preparing for Wednesday's renewal of the milky derby. Drivers, trainers and owners say their standardbreds are ready for what may be the biggest Hambletonian of them all.

Around the Circuit—Buddy Rowland has been given his release by the local club at his own request. Bill Wood, Greenie shortstop, has been out of the lineup since Friday night when he suffered an injury to his ankle. Moe Carter who was switched to short has been doing a bang up job at his new post. Curt Curtis' win yesterday was his second of the season and incidentally he has won two games by the score of 2 to 1 and lost one by the same score. Larry Riggs has been sent back to the club on option from the Charleston Club of the South Atlantic League. Kinston has recently undergone some shaking up in their roster. They have released Pappy Williams, acquired the services of a former member of their club J. W. Deaton, have bought Charlie Timm from the Greensboro Club of the Carolina League. Timm, by the way is the Carolina League's biggest loser this season. During his stay with the Patriots he dropped 16 and won five. Rap Goodmon, league prey, recently underwent an operation but is now back on his feet again although he is a bit shaky. Umpire Belbeck has been released by Prexy Goodmon and the former CPL arbiter has gone to the Carolina League. Greensboro last season won a total of 58 games which means that the Greensies have got to win 17 out of the remaining 31 games to be up with their wins last season.

The following ad appeared in Saturday's issue of the Tarboro Southerner and in the opinion of this writer is one of the worst forms of attracting a crowd to a ball game ever witnessed by a local club. The following is the ad: "Free—Baby—Free—One Edgecombe County baby whose parents were recently killed, will be given away free during the ball game in Tarboro on Thursday, August 12, at 7:45 p.m. The winner will be questioned privately to determine if he, or she, can provide proper home conditions. Also, the winner will not be compelled to accept the baby, if he feels he cannot afford it. In this case, a second drawing will be made. Due to official requests we are unable to disclose whether the baby is male or female, or whether it is blonde, brunette or red-headed. However, the people who have been keeping it since the death of its parents claim it is exceedingly cute and well-behaved. In case of rain the baby will be given away at the next Tarboro home game." ... That really takes the cake so to speak.

Olympics Called Big Success; Now In Final Stages

London, Aug. 8—(AP)—Already acclaimed a rousing success, the Olympic games entered the home stretch today with nine "forgotten" sports taking the spotlight from the glamorous boys of track and field.

The athletes ran their last race Saturday in the Olympic Stadium. Now the chief interest centers on the 1,900 meter river highway at Henley-On-Thames, 40 miles west of London.

Twenty-one crews from nine nations are in the rowing finals of the Olympic regatta on the stretch made famous by the annual Henley Royal Regatta.

With four shells "sunk" in preliminaries, the United States still had three chances for triumph. The University of California eight speediest in the eliminating rounds, looked a cinch to extend the Yanks' 20-year monopoly on that title against Britain and Norway.

Likewise a favorite with veteran British rivermen was the University of Washington four with coxswain. The Eskies have bettered the times of their foes in the finals—Switzerland and Denmark—but will have no runaway race.

It looked like a close battle for Yale's four without coxswain against Denmark and Italy. The Danes and Italians had far faster runs in the semi-finals Saturday.

The U. S. team needs all three crowns to equal its best previous Olympic records in 1920 and 1932.

Half of southeast England supplied standings for the eight other sports in windup competitions which will reach a climax in a gala closing ceremony in the Olympic Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The skyscraping U. S. basketball team meets Uruguay tonight in one of four quarter-finals at Harringay Arena, London.

The boxers will scrap through preliminary rounds on a pair of bridges thrown across the Olympic at Wembley. There will be cycling at Herne Hill, Equestrian events at Albershot, fencing and gymnastics at Wembley, field hockey on miscellaneous fields and weightlifting at Wembley.

Spectators for track and swimming at Wembley since the games opened a week ago Friday numbered 870,000.

Top Attendance For Tribe Games

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pace-setting Cleveland Indians may not win the American League pennant, but they are virtually a shoo-in to cop the attendance prize this year.

In fact, only an unexpected slump at the gate in the final two months will prevent Bill Veeck's pennant-hungry club from breaking the season attendance record of 2,265,512 set by the New York Yankees in 1946.

Yesterday's turnout of 73,484, which watched the Indians sweep a doubleheader from the Yankees, 8-6 and 2-1, increased the Tribe's total to 1,718,387 fans for 50 home games. Conservative estimates for the remaining 27 home games are 700,000 for an overall total of nearly two and a half million.

Yesterday's crowd, the seventh 70,000-plus through this season at Cleveland, and the fourth in the Indians' last six playing dates, set a major league attendance record for three consecutive days. The total was 188,081. The old record of 186,151 was also set by the Indians and Yankees at New York, June 11, 12, and 13, this year.

In their 18 games against each other this season, the two clubs have drawn an amazing 762,802. With four more games, they are almost certain to pass the 900,000 mark.

Ferdinand Magellan, generally regarded as the first circumnavigator of the globe, actually was killed in the Philippines before his trip was completed.
