Hiss said at least once "and I would think on three occasions," and that Hiss was a "devoted Communist" who "observed party discipline in every respect."

4. When they last saw each other—

Hiss said "I would think some time in 1935." On questioning he said it was "conceivable and possible" that he saw Chambers after that, though he doesn't remember it.

Chambers said it was in 1936, and that all through 1936 and 1937 they met once a week—"once a fortnight, to be on the conservative side"—in the Hiss home.

5. The arrangement under which Hiss allowed Chambers to stay in his house and his apartment—

Hiss said he took the Chambers family into his house out of "humaneness" and "kindness," and that he released the apartment to Chambers orally but never got paid more than $15 or $20 a rug.

Chambers said there was never any talk of payment or of a sublease. He said Hiss entertained him and his family "because Mr. Hiss and I were Communists and that was the comradely way of doing things." He also said, "Mr. Hiss considered it a privilege to have a superior in the Communist party in his home."

6. The affair of Hiss' old Ford Roadster—

Hiss said that to the best of his recollection he "threw it in" with the sublease in 1935. He couldn't re-

Newspapers Feel Climbing Costs

New York, Aug. 26—(AP)—The rising cost spiral is causing the two- and three-cent daily newspaper and ten-cent Sunday edition to disappear from the newstands in many American cities.

Newspaper officials say they need only two words to explain the price increases—"higher costs."

An Associated Press survey covering 120 daily newspapers in 44 cities discloses that more than 42 percent have increased prices to readers in one form or another in the past year.

Thirty-four percent raised rates for mail subscriptions or home delivery by carrier, and 18 percent increased the newstand price of single week-day editions.

Of those with Sunday editions, 24 percent have raised the single copy newstand price to 15 cents within the past year.

Chambers said Hiss never turned the roadster over to him, but ultimately gave it to the Communist party for the use of "some poor Communist organizer in the west."

7. Why they parted company—

Hiss said he "got rid" of Chambers after Chambers repeatedly asked him for favors. Chambers said that when he broke with the Communist party in 1936 he went to the Hiss home, tried unsuccessfully to persuade Hiss to do the same, and finally left Hiss "crying."

8. Who is lying?—Hiss said Chambers is "a self-confessed liar, spy, and traitor." Chambers said, "Mr. Hiss is lying. Eighty percent at least is fabrication."

Declare Stalin Has Recognized Rights In Berlin

London, Aug. 26—(AP)—Authoritative diplomatic sources said today Prime Minister Stalin has agreed in principle to western demands for a share in supervision of Russian currency in Berlin.

This, the informants said, indicates Stalin has recognized the right of the United States, Britain and France to remain in Berlin as occupying powers.

Diplomatic sources have reported that financial experts of the four powers are expected to meet in Berlin on the money question, a major stumbling block to settlement of east-west differences. This was said to have developed from the latest meeting of western envoys in Moscow with Stalin.

An American military government spokesman in Berlin said the AMG has no information of any agreement for a meeting of the four military governors themselves on the issue.

Berlin now has two currencies—Russian sponsored marks and the Deutsche mark of the western sectors. There have been reports that the Soviet-sponsored mark might be acceptable to the western powers in Berlin under certain conditions—such as western participation in supervision over its distribution.

The London diplomatic sources say the western envoys will meet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov—and possibly Stalin himself—again in the Kremlin soon to lay down terms for a new currency arrangement to be worked out later by the military governors.

Reservists Must Also Register Under Draft Act

According to information received from M-Sgt. Boswell, commanding officer of the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting station here in Greenville, members of all the reserve components who are within the registration age, must register in accordance with the Selective Service Act of 1948. The sergeant stated the reserve components include the National Guard, Enlisted Reserve Corps, and Organized Reserve Corps.

Neither the act nor the President's proclamation make any provisions for exemptions from registration for members of reserve components who are otherwise eligible unless such reservists are now on active duty.

Those men who are now members of the reserve components and who served in the Armed Forces during World War II, and are within registration age, must also register according to the sergeant's statement.

Those who were members of the National Guard, or organized units of the reserve components on effective date of the Act are exempt from service so long as they remain members, and satisfactorily participate in scheduled drills and training as prescribed by the Secretary of Defense.

Negro Insurance Agent Victim Armed Robbers

By CHESTER WALSH
Willie Jones, 35-year-old Negro insurance collector, reported to Greenville police yesterday afternoon that two white men drove a '41 black Ford up to the curb in front of the armory, on Evans street, asked him what was in an envelope he had in his hand, then pointed a pistol at him and ordered him to hand it over. The envelope contained $158. They ordered him to move on, and then drove around the corner on Second street and disappeared, he said. Jones told police he went toward the courthouse, hoping to quickly get an officer. Police are investigating.

Authorities quoted Jones as saying he works for the Winston Mutual Insurance Company of Farmville; that he was on the way to the postoffice to get a money order to send the money to Farmville when he was robbed.

New Lamp Said More Powerful

Bloomfield, N. J., Aug. 26—(AP)—A new fluorescent 25-watt lamp, equipped with the rare gas krypton, has been developed by Westinghouse Electric Corp. engineers who hail it as a boon to the housewife.

The new lamp, Westinghouse says, produces more than five times as much light as an incandescent light bulb of equal wattage.

Strength FOR THE DAY

TRANSPLANT IN TIME
Some weeks ago we took the tomato plants out of flats and transplanted them to small pots and tin cans in which they grew for some time. But again they had to be transplanted, for some of the leaves became yellow, which is the first evidence of starvation. The little vessels in which they were now planted were not large enough to supply their needs. They had to be put out as quickly as possible into the garden where the whole power of the earth would give them nourishment.
Picture the lives today suffering from starvation, or at least malnutrition, because of the close quarters to which they are confined. Some people long for cultural advantages—more books, stimulating fellowship, lectures, concerts. Others need friendship. Probably the people suffering the most dangerous form of malnutrition are the ones whose souls are being starved. In the case of our tomato plants, they continued to grow tall in spite of their restricted rootage, but the plants were not healthy. Many a person today has grown tall in learning, social standing, position, and wealth, but all over his life are the telltale evidences of soul starvation. His roots do not go down into the vast universe of things and draw up the truth upon which God intends the soul to live. The solution lies in transplanting.

EXAGGERATED
While the shutting down of Russian consulates in the United States, and the closure of American counterparts in Russia is not a matter of great seriousness, it does provide food for thought.
The exaggerated Soviet reaction to the expulsion of Consul-General Lomakin is, and was, out of all proportion to the issue itself.
A psychiatrist watching an exaggerated reaction, by an individual, to a given stimulus would regard it as possible evidence of nervous disorder or even mental imbalance.

You can take it from there.

NO PICNIC, BUT IT COULD BE WORSE
Selective Service registrations start Monday, August 30.

Young men, from 18 through 25 will be required to get their names on the list of potential manpower for work in their country's service.
The older heads advise 'get registered first, and then ask the questions'; conditions and regulations for deferment are liberal, and there is no cause yet for 'fearing the worst.'

Those who are ultimately taken into the armed forces are going to find the procedure less trying than did their older brothers a few years ago. For one thing, it's a peacetime draft, and more time can be taken to do it right. The new selectees are going to wonder what it was that seemed tough to their predecessors.

A lot of the recruits will go in as boys and return home suddenly mature and better fitted to either carry on their education or enter a career determined upon. Of course, there will always be some who will remain the

BUDGETING—First call of the advisory budget commission on its tour of institutions in the western part of the state was at Agricultural and Technical College for Negroes at Greensboro. The wind-up part of the statewide inspection trip began auspiciously. Not only was every member of the six-man commission on the job, but the latest to arrive was five minutes ahead of time set for the meeting. During the eastern visits several of the members could not make the full trip, and at no point were all six present. For the record, the advisory budget commission is composed of Senators Wade Barber of Pittsboro and Joe L. Byrnes of Charlotte. Representatives Kerr Grainger Ramsey of Salisbury and W. Frank Taylor of Goldsboro; Leroy Martin of Raleigh and Clarence Stone of Stoneville. Your reporter, who accompanied the group through the east and expects to stay

The virtue of patience is going to be firmly impressed in those who can learn; and those whose lives have been sheltered are going to rub elbows with all the types of men that go into making a world. How they emerge from the experience will be in itself a testimonial to their parental upbringing.
It's going to be a great and wonderful experience for a great many young men who still doubt they're going to like it. The ones who are deferred are not necessarily 'the lucky ones' by a long shot.

A and T—This is the technical and trade school established by the state more than fifty years ago for higher education of Negroes. Like all other state institutions it has had unanticipated growth and like most of the rest of the schools is literally "too big for its britches." The unit is carried on budget books at a valuation of $1,042,288, but due to enhanced values of land and equipment is worth much more. Some idea of current value may be had from the fact the last general assembly allotted $1,948,845 for permanent improvements, and college folks said it would take another seven millions to really bring the college to where it can reasonably meet demands upon it. Operation and maintenance appropriation for this biennium is $465,296.
HOUSING—Housing is the desperate need everywhere, but the situation here is more acute. President F. D. Bluford said only two dormitories have been built in 40 years. During that same period enrollment has gone up from 200 to more than 3,000—and only 600 can be cared for on the campus or in college-provided quarters other than temporary left-over army barracks which presently house about 1300. The remaining 1200 students have to find living quarters elsewhere, often at exorbitant rates and in unsatisfactory surroundings. Since Greensboro has no Negro hotel accommodations for visiting dignitaries, need for an adequate home for the president is acute—not only for his personal living but for entertainment of visiting speakers and artists.
FARMING—Next most pressing need is for farm buildings, especially a poultry plant. The college now has no facilities for teaching poultry and dairy facilities are inadequate. Also greatly needed is provision for instruction in operation and maintenance of farm machinery. Henry Scott, successful Alamance county farmer and member of the board of trustees, observed that his county had provided at each of three high schools better facilities for teaching farmers than the State of North Carolina provides at A. and T. (In addition to Scott three other trustees greeted the budgeters—Charles

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—What do government employees in the nation's capital do in their spare time?
Well, Beauford Hammond, graying slightly-bent cabinet maker, who just reached his 66th birthday, makes violins, mandolins, banjos, ukuleles. Ruth C. Hammer, a shy, brown eyed clerk, collects spoons and Chinese carvings. Grace Stanton Lester has a miniature dog collection, and Mrs. Virginia Woodin collects dolls—lots of them. Other government workers, lucky enough to have gardens, raise such things as petunias, flowering shrub, herbs, vegetables and fruits. Some go in for leather work, weaving, ceramics, pottery, rugmaking and wood-carving. Others raise pigeons, goats, chinchillas, rabbits and chickens. Still others collect stamps, coins, matchboxes, rocks, shells.
The scope of their talents and hobbies are colorfully evident when some 150 employees of the Public Building Administration (PBA) had an exhibit in the Department of Interior Auditorium. The show was the first of its kind to be held by the PBA recreation council headed by Ferdinand Kaufholz, which sponsors all kinds of activities in an effort to keep PBA's 12,000 or more employees happy.
Mr. Hammond came to Washington about 15 years ago from Mount Jackson, Va. He has been making violins for 15 years but can't play one. Though he says that once he played a banjo. He got interested in making the instruments while watching a fellow-worker whip one up for his son in an old organ store in Hagerstown, Md. While he does all of the intricate carving and molding and even decorates the instruments with ivory and mother-of-pearl inlay, he says he has professional musical instrument makers put in the keys, tail pieces and fingerboards. He says he has made 10 violins, 10 guitars, nine banjos, four mandolins, six ukuleles. Some of these he has sold for $75 each.
Miss Hammond's spoons include pieces from Japan, Korea and China, where she had them made to order, as chopsticks are used there almost entirely. Now she has spoons from the Philippines, Burma, India, Egypt, Turkey, Greece, France, Germany and England. She has a salt spoon made from the tusk of a water buffalo in Java and an "Apostle spoon" (St. Matthew)—her most prized possession—made in Germany about 1750.
Mrs. Lester's miniature dog collection began with a metal paper weight received in 1926. It has grown to 200 pieces, gathered from all parts of the world. The largest is metal and tops eight inches. The smallest is molded glass. Others are made of plastics, crockery, rubber, china, blown glass, fur, raffia, seashells, acorns, teakwood, marble and rock salt. Mrs. Woodin's collection of dolls is by far the most impressive, from point of size at least. She has more than 1,800 dolls, collected over more than a dozen years. For several years she has sought a building suitable to house them, but without success.

Tragic Life Of Stage Star Ends

Los Angeles, Aug. 26—(AP)—Death has taken the van, faded Helen Lee Worthing, who in the golden twenties was a bright star with the Ziegfeld Follies and acclaimed by Mary Pickford as one of America's most beautiful girls. She was found dead in bed last night of natural causes. She was living in the three-room home of Jerry Oro, 39-year-old Filipino, who said he had been her friend for 10 years. She was 27.

The former Louisville, Ky., girl had gone from the Broadway stage to the movies when she married Dr. Eugene Nelo, Los Angeles Negro physician, in Tijuana, Mex., in 1924. Seven years later they were divorced. After that she was arrested many times on liquor and narcotics charges. In her tiny room were yellowed clippings depicting the rise, and quick fall, of the madcap dancer. On the living room wall was a large silver framed portrait of her taken more than two decades ago which reflected the beauty that made her the subject of many a toast. It is estimated that there are 50,000 distributors of fluid milk in the United States and 40,000 plants processing milk, butter, cheese, ice cream, and other dairy products. The practice of having the horse of a deceased military officer led in the funeral procession is a survival of the ancient custom of sacrificing a horse at the burial of a warrior.

FDR's Grandson Is Polio Victim

Los Angeles, Aug. 26—(AP)—The late President Roosevelt's grandson, Curtis (Buzzy) Boettiger, is in a hospital suffering from poliomyelitis. The 14-year-old son of Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall Boettiger by her first husband, Curtis Dall, was stricken last night and taken to the County Hospital's communicable disease ward in West Hollywood. The lad's physician said his condition is "not serious but definitely a mild case of polio."

Select Jury For Estate Hearing

By CHESTER WALSH
 Selection of a jury in Superior court to hear the action of Mrs. Annie S. Collins vs. J. A. Collins and E. L. Collins, administrators of the estate of J. H. Collins of the Ayden section for $6,900, started Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 was completed at 11 a.m. Wednesday, after the panel of jurors had been exhausted and a special panel had to be called. Judge J. Paul Prizelle of Snow Hill is presiding.

An interesting feature of the case is that after the suit was instituted the defendants submitted a motion before Superior Court Clerk D. T. House which provided for making J. E. Collins, husband of Mrs. Annie S. Collins, a party plaintiff in the case.

After the jury had been impaneled this morning there was testimony that one of the jurors had expressed himself as willing to sit there until the seat of his pants wore out before he would go against one of the parties to the suit. Judge Prizelle disqualified him. It was singularly interesting that counsel for the plaintiffs and defendants agreed to select another juror. Otherwise the court would have found it necessary to order a mistrial and start all over again. The case is being heard now with a 13th juror.

Attorneys began reading their pleadings to the jury shortly after 11 o'clock Wednesday. Upon completion of this, J. E. Collins was the first witness called to the stand.

The record shows that J. H. Collins lived at the home of J. E. Collins and wife in Greenville from December, 1943, until he died over a year ago; that he was a semi-invalid and that Mrs. Collins cared for him during that time, and that she had later instituted a suit against the administrators for $6,900 as additional compensation for her services.

It appeared today that the case will be vigorously contested. Judge Albion Dunn is counsel for Mrs. Collins, J. Henry Harrell for J. E. Collins, J. B. James and Judge Dink James are counsel for J. A. and R. L. Collins, the administrators.

Court observers today predicted the case will not be completed this week.

That Rat!

Tokyo, Aug. 26—(AP)—Utsukichi Hashimoto, 22, was in jail on a burglary charge when he heard his home had been robbed of 12,000 yen and a quantity of rice.

"Only dirty rat who would do such a thing is my friend Kikuchi," Hashimoto muttered to police.

They arrested Kikuchi who confessed to the burglary.

French Assembly Postpones Local Council Voting

Paris, Aug. 26—(AP)—The National assembly postponed today local French council elections scheduled for October. The action was considered a tactical setback for Gen. Charles De Gaulle's rally of the French people (RPF).

RPF leaders had hoped to precipitate a National election by winning sweeping victories in the October balloting to choose Departmental General Councils.

The Assembly, however, quashed this hope by voting 208 to 166 to delay the elections indefinitely pending a reorganization of the departmental system. A government spokesman promised the reorganization would be accomplished in time for elections in May.

Beer-Wine Vote For 13 Counties

Charlotte, Aug. 26—(AP)—Elections in 13 counties on the question of continuing legal sale of beer and wine are scheduled to be held during the next few days.

Barring last-minute delays, there will be referendums Saturday in Alexander, Avery, Madison, Columbus, Duplin, Gaston, Hoke, Montgomery and Macon counties. Three other counties are scheduled to vote next Tuesday. They are Cumberland, Cherokee and McDowell. Northampton County has an election scheduled for next Wednesday.

Hearing on an injunction attempt to block the Cumberland election is due to be completed tomorrow.

The elections will be the last this year on the beer-wine issue. A law of the 1947 Legislature permitting local option votes on the question forbids their being held within 60 days of another election.

Beer and wine elections in five other counties had been planned, but they were postponed for various reasons. These counties are Rutherford, Brunswick, Randolph, Polk and Lincoln.

So far five counties have voted under the 1947 law, and all five—Bladen, Robeson, Person, Graham and Swain—have gone dry.

Berlin Just Like Beaten Tokyo Says AP Newsman

Editor's note: The following dispatch, a look at the postwar scene in Berlin by a man just arrived, was written by Associated Press correspondent Richard K. O'Malley, who compares the war-battered German capital with Tokyo, which he says shortly after Japan's surrender.

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY

Berlin, Aug. 26—(AP)—The pattern of military defense has a deadly monotony the world over! Berlin, 1948, could well be Tokyo, 1945.

For here as in Tokyo, rising from the terrific jolt of war and stunning defeat is a slow and painful progress.

A simple walk through the streets is a journey through a graveyard of battle, just as it was in Tokyo. At night the moon shines dully through skeletons of once-great buildings which housed the Nazi regime.

Where the swift black Mercedes sedans of the Nazi party chiefs once rolled before cheering throngs, weary Berliners now pedal bicycles or drag tiny woodcarts. Everywhere war still taps the passerby on the shoulder.

The harsh lines of defeat are clearly etched on the faces of the people. Everywhere they carry the mysterious small bundles which seem to be the badge of a defeated people.

In Japan they usually contained a battered can filled with rice or seaweed. Sometimes they held a ragged shirt or a pair of shoes.

In Germany they are most likely to hold a precious pair of patched pants, a hunk of dark bread or a down-at-the-heel extra pair of shoes.

To both the German and the Japanese, however, they represent ownership. And with possession a man is a man again.

The same formless old women who combed the fields for edible weeds along the road to Tokyo's Atsugi airfield can be found in Berlin's suburb grubbing painfully in the shrubbery. The same old men haul their little woodcarts with a handful of fuel to store against the winter.

They don't look up as cars pass. That, too, is a mark of the defeat. The beaten are not curious, they have had the big answer.

The big, and practically only, topic of conversation in Berlin right now is the Soviet blockade of the city. Just mention the word "blockade" to a German and then sit back and soak up fact, fancy, information and theory.

Try to turn on a light late at night. It doesn't work. "It's the blockade," says the German housekeeper.

Three little German boys playing ball. An American transport plane drones overhead. They stop the game. "More food," they cry.

An older man says: "I hear the Russians are giving big butter and cheese rations in their sector of Berlin."

"Propaganda," says a former Luftwaffe man. "How do you know a thing like that? Have you been there?"

The older man grins. "I won't go there, don't fear."

VETERAN PILOT DIES

Miami, Fla., Aug. 26—(AP)—Capt. William A. Winston, 52, veteran Pan American Airways pilot who once taught flying to Charles A. Lindbergh, died here yesterday. He was born in Wendell, N. C.

The word mob is derived from the Latin mobile vulgus meaning excited crowd.

Irregular Prices Mark Sales On Tobacco Belts

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 26—(AP)—Irregularity in prices marked sales yesterday on tobacco markets in the Border and Eastern North Carolina belts.

Federal and state reports showed prices weakening for most medium and lower quality grades on the Border Belt, while better qualities held fairly firm.

Declines ranged from $1 to $5, although most were restricted from $1 to $3. Tuesday's average hit a seasonal low point. The reports showed 9,104,432 pounds marketed for an average of $50.44.

Losses predominated the sales on the Eastern Belt where Tuesday's sales of 4,300,064 pounds averaged $48.75. Lower grades of lugs and primings showed changes ranging up to $3. Better grades held their own or varied only $1.

Jersey cows were imported from the island of Jersey into the United States in 1815.

Record Reserve

Washington, Aug. 26—(AP)—For the first time in its peacetime history the Navy has more than 1,000,000 reservists signed up.

With a 1949 goal of 1,175,000, the Navy announced today its last official count showed 1,003,453, almost one-third of them officers.

Only members of the organized reserve who enrolled before June 24 are eligible for draft exemption. Most of the Navy's million-odd are enrolled in the volunteer reserve which does not hold weekly drills and is not exempt from compulsory military service.

One 'Tokyo Rose' Is Under Arrest

Tokyo, Aug. 26—(AP)—Mrs. Iva Dako Toguri D'Aquino, accused of being one of six dulcet voiced Japanese radio disk jockeys known to American service men in the Pacific as Tokyo Rose, was arrested today.

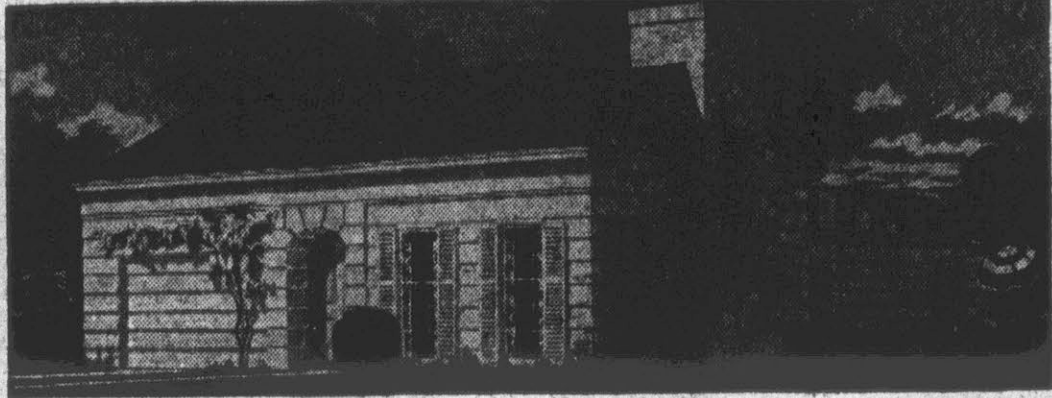

The specific charge against the American born Japanese wife of a Portuguese was treasonable activities during World War II. She will be tried in San Francisco after she lands there about Sept. 28 from the U.S. Army transport General H. Frank Hodges.

During the war, six English speaking Japanese women regaled American service men from Alaska to Australia and from Hawaii to Kluang with a spy radio program of records plus propaganda and sometimes sexy patter. The nickname Tokyo Rose was applied to all six.

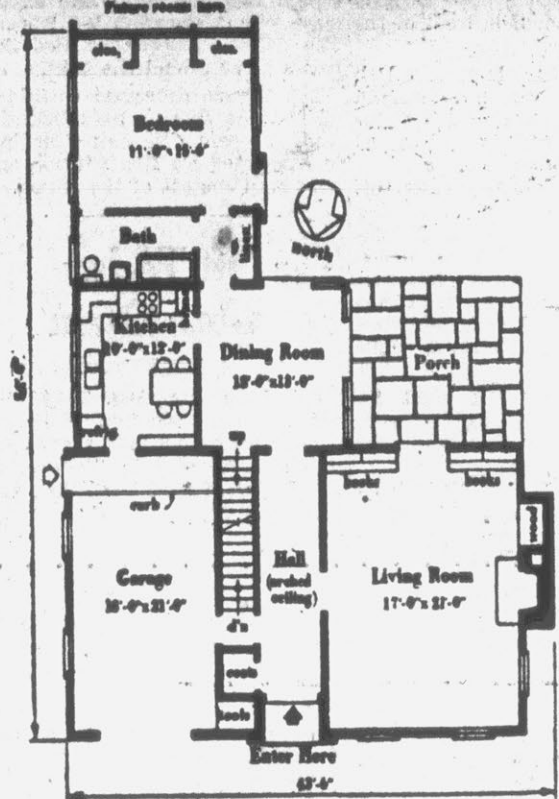

The program was popular with GI's for its inaccuracies in detailing military operations, its good selection of records and the sexy remarks. It first became popular during the Guadalcanal and Aleutian campaigns.

One of the highlights of the program was a campaign to persuade GI's not to take A-tarbine in the jungles. Tokyo Rose told them in a confidential tone that the anti-malaria drug would make them sterile. Service doctors found a lot of men believing her, too.

The 32-year-old Los Angeles born Japanese woman was arrested on orders from U.S. Attorney General Tom Clark.

Little Classic

Here is a little house with a classic, unhurried spirit — a house for those who mind their manners and sometimes like a touch of formality. The house, as featured in the September issue of Good Housekeeping magazine, is bright, original, and very elegant. It lends itself readily to additional rooms.

The frog breathes by swallowing air, because he has no ribs and therefore cannot breathe by expanding and contracting the chest.

12 pigs each, or a total of 108 pigs in four and a half years.

It is estimated that for every American 241 pounds of paper products are consumed each year.

Spiders are not insects—they belong to the class arachnids, which also includes scorpions, mites and ticks.

The average salinity of Great Salt Lake, Utah, is almost six times greater than that of the ocean.

Red Oak News

Mesdames Pereane, Kid and Leon Tyson, Mrs. Hubert Crawford and Mrs. Jarvis Tripp entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the Red Oak club center last Tuesday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. William Tripp who were recently married.

The club house was beautifully decorated with ivy, streamers of white ribbons, white flowers and white candles. The long bride's table was covered with a white cloth and a lovely arrangement of white flowers, flanked by tall burning tapers was used as a centerpiece. White candles, placed in the windows and other places in the big reception room cast a soft glow.

Mrs. B. L. Tyson played several piano selections and she, assisted by Mrs. Elvy Forrest, Mrs. Hubert Crawford, Mrs. James Allen and Mrs. L. W. Edwards led the guests in community singing, rounds, stunts, etc.

Mrs. L. W. Edwards and Mr. Hubert Crawford led the grand march and about fifteen couples did the Virginia Reel.

Lime punch, party sandwiches, decorated cakes, salted nuts and mints in the color scheme of white and green were served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp received many beautiful gifts of china, crystal and silver in their chosen patterns.

The Red Oak Home Demonstration club entertained their husbands and children and a few invited guests at a wicker roast last Friday night on the picnic grounds at Red Oak.

Mesdames Hooks, Bright and Hodges had everything ready, even to the best fire you ever saw, when the guests arrived. Everybody enjoyed the wicker and also the toasted marshmallows.

Accordion music, singing of some old love songs, the dying embers of the fire and the cool night air made this a most pleasant occasion.

Due to the polio epidemic the hymn festival which was scheduled to be held next Sunday at the Stokes school has been postponed until the fifth Sunday in October.

Plans are being made for the best homecoming day ever held at Red Oak. Our church is completed and in just a few days we will have our grounds in good shape. Our revival will commence on the third Sunday night in September. The Reverend Thad Cox of Farmville will be the speaker at these meetings. Make your plans now to attend.

Special notice to Red Oak members:

Farmer Makes More Money Raising Hogs

College Station, Raleigh, Aug. 26—“I'd rather have one good brood sow than four acres of tobacco,” says C. H. Holland of Kenansville, Duplin county farmer who has sold $1,800 worth of finished pigs from two sows in the past 12 months.

According to L. F. Weeks, county agent for the State College Extension Service, Holland grows his own hog feed except for a small amount of protein supplement. He says that the labor requirement for growing this feed and feeding it to the hogs is distributed evenly throughout the year instead of being concentrated in one short period as in the case of tobacco or other crops.

On the Holland farm year-round grazing is produced not only for hogs but also for work stock, poultry, and cattle.

Holland's choice Hampshire sow has produced nine litters averaging bers: You are urged to be present at Sunday school next Sunday morning as final plans for home-coming day will be made. Several committees will be named and they will be expected to be there, find out what they are supposed to do and then do the job well. Be present at 10 o'clock and everybody come. Let's get out of the summer slump!

A "Serve Yourself" Supper

For a little variety in your meals these hot nights, try a "serve yourself" supper. It's less work for you; more fun for the family. They'll enjoy helping themselves, then eating a leisurely meal in some cool, breezy nook. Spotlight a tray of assorted cold cuts (pictured below) and the menu is well on its way to success.

Tasty Cold Cuts

To the Rescue

It's cold cuts to the rescue these torrid summer days. Add a bowl of cold potato salad, made extra tasty and more delicious with hard-cooked Clear Brook Eggs, corn on the cob for a hot note, radishes and onions, a tray of assorted breads, and your favorite iced beverage for a really cool delight. For an easy dessert, fresh pears or plums. You'll be happy to know that cold cuts are equal nutritionally to other meats. They contain the same high quality proteins and B vitamins that make all meat so important in our daily diets.

Man-sized Sandwich

Order plenty of cold cuts. It's much better to have more meat than you need than to run short for there's no leftover problem with cold cuts. They're always popular for between meal sandwiches like this man-sized combination: Soften braunschweiger to spreading consistency by mixing with Wilson's Mayonnaise, add chopped sweet pickle, and spread. Top with sliced tomatoes, lettuce, more bread. It's packed full of good nutrition—protein, minerals, vitamins.

Just for Nibbling

When you're serving tall, tinkling glasses of iced tea or lemonade these warm afternoons and evenings, add a tray of snacks just for nibbling. Certified Deviled Ham spread on crisp potato chips will be popular with your guests; equally so, Certified Ham Salad spread on crackers or bite-sized pieces of Melba toast.

Greenies Divide Twin Bill In Goldsboro; 1-0, 6-11 Scores

Kovalchick Registers His Third Shutout In Opening Game; Nessing's Homer Put Bugs Ahead For Keeps In Second Contest

By BERT MOYE

Manager Kelly Kee and his Greenville Greenies split their twin bill over in Goldsboro last night with the Greenies taking the seven-inning opener, 1-0, and then dropping the nightcap 11-6.

First Game
Johnny Kovalchick registered his third shutout of the season in the Greenies last night as he held the Goldsboro Goldbugs to four scattered hits to whitewash the Bugs, 1-0. The Greenies won the game with a tally in the first frame. Bill Wood singled into rightfield and moved on to second as Clyde Whitener booted the single. After Carter and Mauney had been retired, Bob Cohen lugged a single into left field for the games only tally.

Manager Bill Herring was on the mound for the Bugs and suffered his second loss to the Greenies this season. He has defeated the Greenies three times this season. Billy Wood, Bob Cohen and Wiley Nash with two singles each led the eight hit attack of Herring, who struck out one man and walked one.

Merle Blackwell collected two singles out of the four to lead the attack for the Bugs against Kovalchick, who walked four men and failed to strike out a man. This was Kovalchick's 11th win of the season as against seven defeats and his second win over the Bugs. He has suffered one defeat at the hands of the Bugs.

Second Game
In the second game the Goldbugs broke loose with 13 hits, five of which were for extra bases, to romp over the Greenies 11-6, to gain an even break in the twin bill.

The Greenies went ahead in the first frame by scoring two runs on singles by Mauney, Cohen and Nash aided by an error and then scored a singleton in the third when Wood walked, Moe Carter doubled, and Mauney hit a fly to deep leftfield to bring Wood home from third.

The Bugs held the Greenies scoreless for the next five frames, but the Greenies rallied for three runs in the ninth frame on a walk and singles by Williams, Wood, Cohen and Nash.

Joe Nessing's inside-the-park homer in the second frame, with two on, sent the Bugs ahead for keeps. But the Bugs came back to strengthen their lead in the fourth frame by scoring four runs on four hits and one error, a sacrifice and a walk.

The continued to pile up the lead by scoring two runs in the fifth on a single, triple and fly to deep centerfield; scored one in the sixth on a double, stolen base and fly to deep right field; and scored their final run in the eighth on a triple and a single.

Joe Nessing with a homer, triple and a single and Clyde Whitener with a double and two singles led the 13-hit attack off Wally Williams, who went the route for the Greenies.

Bob Cohen with three singles in five trips to the plate led the 13-hit attack off the two Bug's hurlers.

Raise Pitching ... 4, Pap
In the twenty years which have elapsed since Satchel Paige first broke in with the famous Black Barons, the towering right-hander has contributed some amazing pitching feats. He once fanned 18 batters in a game and as recently as 1946 with the Kansas City Monarchs, he allowed only two runs in 93 innings and ran his string of scoreless frames to 61. In the beginning Paige got by with his blazing speed which stemmed from a wind-mill windup that was fantastic. As the years rolled on Satchel acquired curves and cunning. How much stuff he still has left remains to be seen.

It was on the recommendation of Bobby Feller that Owner Bill Veck signed Paige for relief chores for the pennant-minded Indians. Rapid Robert pitched against Paige on the barnstorming circuit last fall and reported that Old Satchel still was very fast.

It is a pity that Paige did not have an opportunity to show his wares in the major leagues while he was in his prime. The closest he came to that was on the occasions when he faced big league sluggers in exhibition contests. In those games, Paige did better than hold his own. There was a time when Paige indicated that he wanted no part of big league baseball, preferring to pick up his $30,000 or $40,000 via the Negro leagues and the exhibition circuits.

Coach For Rams Pre-Race Saliva Demands Loss Of Test In Question Lt. Glenn Davis

Baltimore, Aug. 26 —(AP)—The Maryland Racing Commission plans public hearings in the near future on the question of scrapping pre-race saliva tests now required at all free state tracks.

These tests, along with mandatory receiving bars, were instituted by George P. Mahoney, former chairman of the racing commission, in his campaign against horse dopings. Present chairman Stuart S. Janney, who succeeded Mahoney last year, explained the pre-race biological tests, also known as "mice tests" after the laboratory animals used, have developed weaknesses.

He said there had been instances recently where horse dopings came to light after a race and which had not been disclosed by the earlier checks.

Under Maryland court decisions, the pre-race tests coupled with the receiving barn system relieve trainers of responsibility.

Said Janney: "If x x these tests, which relieve the trainer of responsibility aren't showing up stimulants then we'll have to devise a system that puts the responsibility back where it belongs."

Abandonment of the pre-race tests, Janney said, may increase the responsibility of trainers and owners.

GILMER UPHELD

Philadelphia, Aug. 26 —(AP)—Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League today upheld the right of Harry Gilmer to refuse to play in the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., All-Star football game.

"That," sighed Mr. Snyder, "kills me."

Humps on camels are composed chiefly of fat.

Extra-Long Golf Clubs Tested By Aging Champion

Chicago, Aug. 26 —(AP)— Two-time champion Charles (Chick) Evans, Jr., who hasn't missed playing in the National Amateur Golf meet since 1907, will be swinging extra-long clubs in "a stubborn experiment" at the 1945 amateur at Memphis next week.

The 58-year-old Evans left on his "sentimental journey" to Memphis today with a bagful of 4-foot woods and irons—five inches longer than average—and smilingly conceded he would be "a surprise or an awful flop" in his 35th tourney appearance.

The only reason this isn't the 41st straight year genial Chick, 1916 and 1920 winner has played in the Blue-Ribbon Amateur event is that two world wars knocked out six tournaments. Chick's crowning golf feat happened 32 years ago, when he swept the U. S. Open and U. S. Amateur in 1916.

Evans admitted that his experiment this year with extra-long sticks—"everybody is laughing at it"—is a concession to old age.

"Everybody over 50 ought to play with longer clubs," said Evans, "since I started with them this April I haven't even had a twinge of my old back trouble."

Evans, playing in five competitive events this year, has been shooting between 72 and 76.

He didn't cause any of the favorites to lose sleep in the North-South, U. S. Open, Western Open, Tam O'Shanter All-American or the Chicago Amateur, but Chick says that's because he was polishing up with his lanky sticks.

The long club idea isn't new. Joe Kirkwood, Henry Cotton, and Bill Fownes, 1910 U. S. amateur champion, among others, gave 50-inch clubs a try at one time or another without too much success.

"Old stubborn me, though," chuckled Evans, "I'll give 'em a whirl like nobody else."

Braves Owe Position To Road Wins, And Spahn

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

The comeback of Warren Spahn and the ability to win on the road have been primarily responsible for keeping the Boston Braves on top in the five-team National League pennant race.

No more striking example of this was given than last night when Spahn hurled the Braves to a 2-0 shutout triumph over the Cardinals in a night game in St. Louis. The victory put the Braves four games ahead of the second place Dodgers and four and a half in front of the Redbirds.

Although it was only Spahn's 11th success of the season, it marked the fourth straight time the clever southpaw has turned in a gilt-edged pitching job. Counted upon as a sure-fire 20-game winner early this spring, Spahn got off to a poor start, but has been pitching brilliantly during the past two weeks. He has won three of his last four starts. His only losing effort was against the Dodgers in Boston when he left for a pinch hitter while trailing 2-1.

He was touched last night for seven hits, fanned three and gave up two walks. He was superb in the pinches.

The victory was Boston's 36th on the road compared to only 21 losses.

That's a .632 percentage. At home, the Braves barely top .544 with 32 victories and 28 defeats.

The Braves pushed over both their runs in the fifth. Clint Conaster opened with a double and scored when Phil Masi's grounder took a bad hop over Marty Marion's head for a hit. Singles by Tommy Holmes and Al Dark accounted for the other run.

Cleveland's rebounding Indians regained first place in the torrid American League race, pushing the Boston Red Sox down into second place with a thorough 9-0 lancing. The defeat dropped the Red Sox half a game behind the tribe.

Bob Lemon, converted outfielder, pitched the Indians back into the lead. He permitted only four hits in registering his 17th triumph and his eighth shutout of the season.

Dodgers Involved In Court Action

Pittsburgh, Aug. 26 —(AP)—Suits in trespass were filed last night against the Brooklyn Dodgers and infielder Tom Brown by Associated Press photographer Danny Jacino who said he was pummeled during a game between the Dodgers and the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday.

The suits were filed before Allegheny County Prothonotary David B. Roberts. One named Brown and the other the Brooklyn Dodgers professional baseball club and the Ebbetts-McKeever Corp.

The papers were served on Brooklyn coach Clyde Sukeforth before the Dodgers' train left last night for Cincinnati. Brown was not served before his departure with the team, according to Deputy Sheriff E. F. Boyle.

The incident came after Umpire Billy Stewart had ordered Jacino away from his post behind third base because the photographer had two cameras.

Jacino said as he neared the Brooklyn dugout a player called him a name and that someone hit him. As he tried to defend himself, Jacino said, he was pulled into the dugout and pummeled.

The game was held up for five minutes before police restored order.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW!

High Pockets

Chapter 5

It was nearly sundown when Phil came trudging up the path of the cottage. Nettie heard his heavy step, but her thoughts appeared to be elsewhere at the moment. He opened the door, poked his head in... Nettie was setting the table.

"Hi," he said.

Nettie looked up.

"Oh!" she answered. "Hello."

She noted in that quick upward glance that he was drawn and tired, noticed too that he seemed unusually tired.

"Gosh," he said. "I'm plumb worn out."

There was no response from Nettie.

"Been ridin' the fences all day," he continued. "That's the dog-gonest job. Gotta talk to George 'bout them fences. Oughta have one fellow to do nothing but take care of 'em S-ay, he's still around ain't he?"

"Perhaps he's found something to keep him here."

"Huh? What d'you mean?"

"We'll, every time I saw him, that Hollis woman was with him."

"O-h, you mean Cathy's sister?"

"Of course."

"Aw, that don't mean 'nuthin'. Less I got him figured out all wrog, George don't go fr' women."

Nettie looked at him 'over her shoulder. "I've yet to meet the man who doesn't," she said coldly. "Especially where women like that Hollis woman are concerned."

"Heck," he said and laughed. "Doggoned good thing you didn't see what happened this morning. You'd be gettin' ideas about me, too."

"I did see it," she said quietly.

"You did?"

He eyed her oddly for a moment.

"Oh," he said. "So that's what's bittin' you."

There was little conversation at supper and even less while Nettie cleared away the table and washed the dishes. Phil was tired. He swung his chair away from the table and stretched his long legs. He sighed, closed his eyes. Minutes later he was asleep. It was nine o'clock when Nettie bent over him, shook him gently.

"Phil."

There was no response, and she shook him again.

"Phil."

He stirred, raised his head, slowly opened his eyes.

"Huh? S'matter?"

"The bed's open. Why don't you go upstairs and turn in?"

He yawned, covered his gaping mouth with big hand, stretched himself.

"Yeah, maybe I oughta. I'm so doggoned tired, I could sleep fr' a week," he said. He scratched his head, rubbed his nose. He climbed to his feet yawned again. "How 'bout you? Ain't you gonna turn in too?"

"Not just yet. I've got some darning to do, then I'll be up."

"Not like last night, y'hear?"

It was after ten when Nettie went upstairs for the night. As she turned into the landing she heard Phil's heavy breathing. Rays of yellow lamp light streamed into the passageway from the open bedroom door. She peered into the room... Phil lay on his side, his back to the door. She tiptoed around the bed, stopped for a moment to lower the wick in the lamp that stood on the bureau against the far wall. Noiselessly she opened the closet door... her night clothes hung on the first hook. She lifted them off, slipped them over her arm, returned her steps, stopping again when she reached the bureau to turn out the light. She undressed in the darkness, made her way to the bed and got in. The sheets were cold and she huddled beneath the blankets. Phil stirred... suddenly he rolled over. His left arm, weightily as an oak when he was asleep, came around her, imprisoning her. She lay very still, almost at the very edge of the bed, breathing with an effort, and tempted to push his arm away.

But he was warm, and presently the warmth of his body reached her and she was more comfortable. She closed her eyes. Instantly her mind was filled with disturbing faces and scenes. In all of them Gay Hollis' face appeared. He was eager, dancing eyes seemed to be seeking someone... her warm, tempting lips parted for a moment, puckered and swept downward, swerving past Nettie to reach Phil's. Nettie tried to drive the vision out of her thoughts. She was jealous and she was angry, first with Phil for despite the fact that he had been an innocent party to the kissing, his participation in it brought him within the grasp of Nettie's anger. She was angry with

Luxury Railroad Program Is Goal

Philadelphia, Aug. 26 — (AP)—Luxury liner-trains for tomorrow is the aim of the biggest building program in the 102-year history of the Pennsylvania Railroad, President Martin W. Clement said today.

The program, a continuation of the company's post war improvement-plans, now totals $216,700,366, Clement announced.

With a part of this outlay the company will provide every PRR through passenger train with supervised children's playrooms, movies, refreshment lounges, temperature controls and other conveniences.

Some of the improvements described by Clement in the PRR's plan to turn trains of the future into luxury liners are:

Doors that open at a touch through use of compressed air.

Fluorescent lighting throughout to eliminate shadows and glare.

More leg room in passenger coaches with fewer seats.

No more open-section berths through sleepers with all-room cars.

Widespread use of private rooms.

for daytime travel on short trips. Clement said all deliveries are expected by spring.

Retaliation . . .

(Continued from Page One) sion of the negotiations among the Big Four looking to a solution of the German issue. In fact an informed diplomatic source in London says Stalin has proposed a Berlin conference of Big Four financial experts to work out an agreement for control of the German capital's currency—a red-hot issue.

True, authoritative allied sources in Berlin see little hope of success for such a currency conference, unless there is a prior agreement in principle by the governments of the Big Four. Still, any conference which keeps the peace ball rolling is all to the good.

Democrats . . .

(Continued from Page One) it will be made up of as many international presidents of AFL unions as want to join. He said that probably all but one or two will come in.

O'Mahoney said this means that the Democrats will have strong, active labor support in the campaign that may well result in victory for Mr. Truman.

Commission Asks Plane Service For Greenville

By CHESTER WALSH
The Pitt-Greenville Airport Commission, in session here yesterday, passed a resolution authorizing the chairman and executive secretary-treasurer to file with the Civil Aeronautics Administration an application for a certificate of public necessity and convenience for a franchise plane service for the Pitt-Greenville Airport.

There is popular demand here for passenger, mail and express air service and enough business is available here to justify special or regular schedules, Secretary Kyzer said.

Members of the Airport Commission are L. M. Buchanan of Greenville, chairman; G. H. Pittman of Falkland, vice-chairman; Willard T. Kyzer, executive secretary-treasurer; W. Jasper Smith of Bethel and W. Z. Morton of Greenville.

Wings, Inc. lessees and operators of the airfield, services all types of planes, sells gas and oil, and operates a flight school for commercial and civilian pilots. Charles F. Steinmeyer is the manager.

The airfield has three 5,000-foot paved runways, a standard type night beacon and lights for the runways.

Careless Motorists Delay Inspection Of Vehicles Here

By CHESTER WALSH
The state motor vehicle inspection lane, near the curb market, is having lots of troubles and delays due to carelessness of motorists who go there for inspection without enough gasoline in the tanks to get away, and the vehicles have to be towed out of the line, Walter A. Dale, the supervisor, said today. He advises motorists to approach the lane with ample gas in the tanks and water in the radiator. A steaming engine is not likely to pass inspection.

Those going up for inspection should have their blue registration cards and $1 ready for the inspector. Motorists who do not meet these requirements hold up the line, delay the work and cause inconvenience to others, Dale said. He also urged motorists to comply with the rules and save time for himself, the others in line and the inspectors.

Prowling Packs Of Dogs Are Nuisance

By CHESTER WALSH
Residents of several neighborhoods reported to police during the past few days that packs of dogs, roaming the streets at all hours of the night and early morning, are a nuisance.

Residents of eastern Eighth and Ninth streets complained to police yesterday that dogs prowling in alleys in that neighborhood were disturbing sleep and that the canines turned over garbage cans, spilling the contents over the ground to draw flies and rats and make it difficult for the street department workers to collect the garbage.

A pack of prowling dogs, "gambling unlike lambs, early in the morning, in pre-autumn festivities," destroyed a row of gladioli recently in a yard in College View. Incidentally, a city ordinance makes it unlawful for dogs to run at large, the law book shows.

Not On Stores

Restrictions on children under 16 years of age attending public assemblies, where large numbers of persons are present, do not apply to stores or other business places, Dr. J. M. Barrett, acting county health officer said. The temporary police ruling concerns public places where many people congregate.

The Merchants Association pointed out today that there are no restrictions on children under 16 appearing in stores or other business places to make purchases.

Will Give Police Alleged Notes By Mrs. Kasenkina

Washington, Aug. 26 — (AP)—The State department said today it is turning over to New York police two letters which Moscow says were written by Mrs. Oksana S. Kasenkina, refugee Russian school teacher.

She is reported to have written two letters before leaving from the Soviet consulate in New York two weeks ago. The State department asked the Soviet embassy for copies.

The embassy delivered purported photographic copies Tuesday night along with Russia's blistering note announcing that Soviet consulates in New York and San Francisco were being shut down.

Michael J. McDermott, state department press officer, told reporters their authenticity has not been confirmed. Presumably, New York police will ask Mrs. Kasenkina, now a hospital patient, whether she actually wrote them, but McDermott declined to say so.

When he reported to police that his car was missing he was informed that they had had the vehicle towed off the street and that it was at the Flanagan Buggy Company's plant. There is a nominal fee for towing cars off the streets, police said.
