Hyderabad Yields To Indian Forces

Ruler Of State Orders Cease Fire And Accepts Resignation Of His Government; Invaders Reported Already Within Capital

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS
New Delhi, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The Hyderabad government radio broadcast today that the princely state has yielded in its 100-hour war with the dominion of India.

The Moslem Nizam, ruler of the state, ordered a cease fire effective at 5 p.m. (8:30 a.m. EST) and accepted the resignation of his government. He informed India he will form a new government tomorrow.

Mir Lalk Ali, the Nizam's premier, announced this in the Hyderabad broadcast. The broadcast was in the Urdu language and in English. It was picked up by the Indian government radio at Nagpur. The government awaited a full text before reaching a decision, a spokesman said.

Unofficial reports reaching here from Poona, Madras and Nagpur said Indian troops already had marched into Hyderabad City, the capital, and Secunderabad, a military command center six miles north of the capital, without opposition. Official confirmation was awaited here at general headquarters.

India declared at the outset she was marching into Hyderabad to put down a state of anarchy.

The Indian commander, Lt. Gen. Maharajah Sri Rajendranath, three hours before the Hyderabad announcement, had broadcast a demand to the Hyderabad commander to "lay down your arms, since resistance is futile."

The Hyderabad broadcast was in the form of an announcement to the 1,000,000 people of the state, four out of five of them Hindus. India has demanded that the Moslem Nizam turn his state over to the dominion.

The entire cabinet resigned, the premier announced, and the resignations were accepted by the Nizam. The broadcast said the governor general of India, Chakravarti Rajagopalachari, was informed of this, and his decision was being awaited in Hyderabad City.

A message captioned indicated the Nizam's decision was considered a full surrender.

India's war has been in progress only a little more than four days. Indian troops were bearing down on Bidar, stronghold of the Moslem volunteers, the Razakars, who offered the main resistance to the dominion's drive. Other columns were pressing forward from all directions toward Hyderabad City and nearby Secunderabad.

Will Invalidate Hitchcock Rites

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The marriage yesterday of Francis Hitchcock will be invalidated by the Greek Orthodox Church, Rev. Anastasius Bandy of the Ecclesiastical District of Jacksonville predicted today.

Father Bandy said the marriage is not valid in the church because neither Hitchcock nor his bride is a member of the Greek Orthodox Church.

Jap Flood Toll Unknown As Rivers Burst Dikes

Tokyo, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Between 800 and 2,000 Japanese were killed, injured or missing in flooded Ichinoseki City 60 miles north of Sendai, Japanese and occupation authorities said today.

A Kyodo news agency report from a technician in Iwate prefecture placed the number of dead at 2,000. Allied headquarters, however, said reports from Army units at Sendai listed 800 dead or missing.

Kyodo said two feet of rain deluged the city in a typhoon last night. Some 500 homes in Ichinoseki were washed away and 1,600 were flooded, the news agency reported. The swollen Iwai River burst through its dikes near Ichinoseki and poured through the city of 35,000 population.

Reports were that the rain in the Northern Honshu city had stopped but that some fires had broken out later.

News reports added at least eight more dead and 24 missing in the 10 prefectures struck by the moderate typhoon. Tokyo officials said five were dead or missing here and more than 4,000 homes were flooded.

Population Of State's Prisons Slowly Growing

Raleigh, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The state's prison population, which reached a low of about 5,500 at the end of the year, is steadily increasing, Prison Inspector Kyle Matthews reported today.

Matthews said the prison population now stands at 7,503—an increase of approximately 2,300 since the end of the year.

Of the total, 2,463 are in honor grade, 4,177 are in A grade, 116 in B and 446 in C grade. All prisoners are placed in a grade upon their entry to prison.

Marshall Turns To Asiatic Front In Fighting Reds

Will Meet With Dutch Minister As U. S. Plans Enter Far East Cold War

Washington, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Secretary Marshall today listed a conference with the Netherlands Foreign Minister, who came here to seek support against the spread of Soviet Communism in strategic Southeast Asia.

The meeting between the Secretary of State and Dirk Udo Stikker was announced by the State Department. Even before hearing Stikker's formal proposals, the United States pressed a sharp propaganda counter-attack against the Communist "drive for power" among colonial peoples in the far east.

It took the form of broadcasts to Southeast Asia by the voice of America and of distribution to U. S. Diplomats in that area, of the government's statement last night that Communists are using the ambitions of the Asiatic peoples for national independence as a cover under which they seek power.

In that statement, the State Department said Moscow's crackdown on Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia through the Cominform demonstrated international Communism's "ruthless interference" in the internal affairs of a sovereign nation. Officials here said one of Communism's greatest appeals to the colonial people of Southeast Asia lay in its insistence on their rights to national independence.

Evidence that Communist leaders would betray that independence, once attained, was regarded as a powerful argument against Communism and was promptly put to use for that purpose.

Bevin told Parliament Wednesday that Communists are following a plan aimed at seizing Southeast Asia—a vast and rich storehouse of rubber, tin, oil and other strategic materials.

Declaring Britain's intention of fighting Communism at every turn, Bevin termed the orient conflict "part and parcel of the class between the two philosophies which will keep on breaking out everywhere it can."

Netherlands foreign office said Stikker came to Washington to discuss "the general political situation and the development of Communism in the Far East." The Dutch diplomat told reporters on arrival last night he hoped "America would take a stand" against spread of Communism in the Orient "just as they are at present in Berlin."

Police Hunting Dog Poisoners

Durham, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Eight dogs have died of poisoning here this week and police today were looking for someone who put poison in hamburgers.

Several balls of ground meat with poison were discovered yesterday in a school yard near where three dogs were found dead.

Background To Crisis

The Following Is The Third Of Four Articles On Anniversary Of Appeasement As Witnessed By Writer; Hitler Encouraged; His Demands; Fate Took A Hand

By DEWITT MCKENZIE

It was a queer twist of fate which kept Dictator Hitler from making war on Czechoslovakia in the autumn of '38, and at the same time provided him with the ammunition to launch World War II a few months later.

Again I am indebted to Mr. Erich Kordt, who then was chief of the German Foreign Office Secretariat, for the astonishing background of that crisis.

Hitler had been greatly encouraged by his success at the Godesberg conference in bulldozing British Prime Minister Chamberlain into agreeing to demands for the Reich's annexation of Czechoslovakia's German-inhabited Sudetenland. The fuhrer became still more delirious for a "little war" with his small neighbor to enhance his prestige.

At this critical moment Dr. Kordt and many others, including high German army officers, were aiming at the overthrow of the Nazi regime. They knew Germany wasn't ready for major war and felt sure Hitler would back down if Britain and France chucked appeasement out the window. Kordt so advised British officials and begged for firm-

Allies Intensify Blockade Lines Of Eastern Zone

Tighten Counter-Blockade Of Soviet Sector; Border Leaks Are Plugged

Berlin, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The western allies tightened their counter-blockade of the Russian zone today to shut off the last flow of goods from western Germany to the east.

Patrols were increased at crossing points along the length of Berlin's frontier with the Soviet zone to halt any east-bound freight on the highways.

Meanwhile, German Communist leaders assailed the planners of a western German government today as Soviet jets prowled Berlin's sector borders. Several vehicles made quick sallies into American territory.

Leaders of Germany's Communist-controlled Socialist Unity party (SD) loosed a blast at western Germany's constitutional convention at Bonn and branded it a plan to disrupt Germany.

The allied counter-blockade was imposed late in June as reprisal for the Russians' sealing the roads to Berlin. It stopped rail and highway freight movement to the Soviet zone from western Germany, cutting off vital Ruhr and steel supplies to the Russians.

Since then, however, Germans on both sides of the international borders have developed leaks and restored varying amounts of local trade. Frequently, subterfuge and trickery have been employed to get cargoes past border controls.

The western counter-blockade has pinched sharply the economy of the Soviet zone.

To keep the embargo lid on tightly as long as the Russians maintain their Berlin blockade, the western powers are plugging border leaks.

At Helmstedt, major control point between the British and Soviet zones district, police were increased by 100, and police at the highway points were boosted from eight to 24.

The amplified guard forces have been given strict orders to stop any shipments of goods eastward.

British transport authorities said similar measures were taken throughout Bizonia.

Commute Life Sentence Given To Nazi Widow

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 17.—(AP)—U. S. officials disclosed today the life sentence of Ilse Koch, widow of the former commandant of Buchenwald concentration camp, has been commuted to four years. They said the evidence against her did not support all the charges.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American commander in Germany, commuted the sentence of the 42-year-old woman, accused of having made lamp shades from the tattooed skins of camp inmates, the officials said.

Clay said in Berlin reduction of her sentence was recommended to him by viewing officers on the grounds that "it had never been proved Frau Koch selected prisoners for execution or had in her possession articles made of human skin."

Louis To Fight

New York, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Joe Louis announced today he will defend his world heavyweight championship for the twentieth century Sporting Club at Yankee Stadium next June against the winner of the Joe Baksi-Ezzard Charles 15-round bout scheduled for Madison Square Garden Nov. 12.

"If Baksi and Charles put up a good fight and the winner comes through good, I'll fight him," the champion elaborated.

One New Death To Epidemic Toll

Raleigh, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—One new death and 11 new cases were added to the state's polio toll today.

The new death, the State Board of Health said, was reported by Martin County and brought the epidemic death total to 110. The number of cases for the year mounted to 2,070.

Inquest Into Death Of Negro In Ayden

Pitt County Coroner Griffin H. Rouse will hold an inquest into the death of Bob Moore, 21-year-old Negro of Ayden, at the City Hall in Ayden next Monday night.

John D. Allen, negro, is in jail, held without bail pending the inquest. According to authorities, Moore and Allen had a row about a woman, Edna Grace Wilson, in Ayden last Monday night.

Officers quoted Moore as threatening Allen and telling him to wait until "I come back." He returned to the scene of the argument, with a hip pocket bulging like a pistol, but it was a piece of wood, and resumed the argument. Allen is alleged to have shot him. Moore died Wednesday night at Pitt General hospital.

Premier Wins

Paris, Sept. 17.—(AP)—French Premier Henri Queuille won a major test today on his "save the franc" plan.

The National Assembly Finance Committee approved its stiff new taxes 22 to 12. Only the Communists voted against the bill.

The National Assembly itself will begin debate tomorrow on the plan, which is aimed at raising 30,000,000,000 francs ($200,000,000) in new revenue.

About 90 per cent of 35,000 workers at the Renault automobile factory returned to their jobs after a two-day strike.

In the metal industries, where 300,000 to 400,000 workers staged a demonstration yesterday, shops were in operation again today.

However, dock workers in Brest and Sete, near Marseille, quit work last night and today.

Kissed Decks Of Rescuing Vessel

Forty Survivors And Dog Saved By Coast Guard Ship

New York, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Saved from a crippled schooner in the hurricane-swept North Atlantic, Portuguese sailors threw themselves prone and kissed the deck of the famed Coast Guard rescue cutter Bibb.

The Bibb—which accomplished one of two dramatic ship rescues yesterday in which 79 men in all were saved—radioed early today the details of how she picked up 40 men from the Portuguese fishing schooner Gaspar.

Capt. Donald G. Jacobs, skipper of the Bibb, radioed his rescue log to Coast Guard area headquarters here today, and ended it this way:

"After the tenseness of the night-long, high-speed run, the calm of the 40 survivors of the Gaspar seemed almost anti-climatic because of the smoothness of the operation."

"That it was something altogether different in aspect to the survivors, however, was apparent from the actions of several of them who, upon reaching the safety of the Bibb, flung themselves down and fervently kissed the deck."

"The master of the Gaspar appears weary and disheveled. The others, after warm food and drink, are sprawled out sleeping the sleep of the utterly weary—too tired even at the moment to mourn the loss of a shipmate."

"Yes—as usual—a dog was among those rescued."

Yesterday's two rescues were effected within a few hours.

Safecrackers In Daring Robbery Across River

Robbers broke into Clark's place, across the river last night, used a hammer and punch to break the combination on the safe and secured about $175 in currency. Police have no clue.

Chief Lester D. Page said the robbers broke a glass in a window in the rear of the building, unclipped the window, then kicked out a panel on a door to gain entrance to the office.

A similar robbery was committed by safecrackers recently at the Wagner-Marshburn Motor Company's place on Dickinson avenue. They used the company's acetylene torch to open the safe and secured several hundred dollars.

Hunt Owner Of Gun-Toting Dog

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The owner of a pistol-toting dog was sought today by police.

Alfred Le Tournelle, a fireman, turned up a 45-caliber revolver yesterday with a .45 calibre army weapon which he said he had taken from a dog.

He reported the animal was carrying the revolver in a small bag between its teeth.

One New Death To Epidemic Toll

Raleigh, N.C., Sept. 17.—(AP)—One new death and 11 new cases were added to the state's polio toll today.

The new death, the State Board of Health said, was reported by Martin County and brought the epidemic death total to 110. The number of cases for the year mounted to 2,070.

Watched Robber Make His Escape

Baltimore, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Mrs. Rita N. Frank, 24, ran screaming up the street yesterday, holding to the coat of a burglar who had looted her house of $12.

By the time police came on the scene, the robber had broken away and escaped. They asked passers-by why they had not come to Mrs. Frank's assistance.

"We thought it was just a husband-wife spat," they said.

National Unity Is Stressed By GOP Candidate

Warren Blueprints Election Campaign Geared To Preservation Of Unity

En Route with Warren to Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The blueprint for an election campaign geared to the "essential" preservation of national unity in a world "best by fear" was laid before Republican voters today by Governor Earl Warren, GOP vice presidential candidate.

It was the highlight of a campaign opening speech at Salt Lake City last night before a Republican audience comfortably filling the auditorium of South High School.

Warren gave his audience little of old-fashioned campaign oratory to cheer about.

For the most part, it was a grave presentation of American political tradition and its potential in current world affairs.

He said the "main question" of 1948 was whether the Democratic administration was "displaying the unity, the competence and the leadership to warrant extending its tenure to 80 years."

Speaking over a National radio hookup, the nominee set the tone of his projected coast-to-coast tour with the politically unorthodox admission that "good Americans are to be found in both parties."

No party, Warren declared gravely, "has a patent on progress, a copyright on governmental principles, or a proprietary interest in the advances made in former days."

Under the traditional American two-party system, he said, America has achieved vigor and national unity.

Both must be maintained, he declared, in a time when "there is apprehension in every American home."

The preservation of the two-party system depends today upon political campaign free "from the prejudice of party, class or race," and uniting rather than dividing the American people, he told his listeners.

At this time, Warren said, totalitarianism is "still on the march under the trade name of 'cold war,'" and the American people "are living in a precarious world."

"The eyes of the world are upon us," he said.

Plan Questioning Russian Teacher

Mrs. Kasenkina To Testify Before House Probe Body

Washington, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The House un-American Activities committee said today Mrs. Oksana Stepanyan Kasenkina will be questioned at a public hearing in New York next Wednesday.

Mrs. Kasenkina is the former Russian school teacher who jumped from a window to escape from the Soviet Consulate in New York last month. Her testimony is wanted in connection with the committee's investigation of Soviet espionage in this country.

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) said a subcommittee would question Mrs. Kasenkina at Roosevelt hospital where she is recovering from injuries suffered in her leap. Members of the subcommittee have not yet been named.

Thomas said doctors will permit three newspapermen to attend the hearing.

"She has some material we believe will be of interest to the committee in the espionage investigation," Thomas said.

Mrs. Kasenkina was questioned by Chief committee investigator Robert E. Stripling shortly after her leap from the Consulate created an international incident.

As a result, Jacob Lomakin, the Soviet consul in New York, was recalled by the Russian government at request of the state department.

President Truman subsequently revoked Lomakin's papers, under which he was permitted to serve as consul in this country.

Railroad Wage Talks Fall Down

Chicago, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Wage and hour negotiations between the nation's railroads and 1,000,000 non-operating workers collapsed today.

Negotiations with representatives of five operating unions of 300,000 workers are continuing, a carrier spokesman said.

The non-operating workers are clerks, telegraphers, yardmen, boilermakers, machinists and others not actually employed in the operations or switching of trains.

UN Mediator Killed By Four Assassins

Count Folke Bernadotte And Observer Shot To Death, Presumably By Members Of Jewish Extremist Organization

Washington, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The American consul at Jerusalem reported today that Count Folke Bernadotte was ambushed and shot to death by four men, two of which proceeded to count's car.

"Colonel Frank Begley, U.N. security officer, grappled with one and was slightly wounded in face. Second reached to count's car and assassinated (the) two men at point blank range with gun. Jeep succeeded in escaping."

Count Lived For Peaceful World

Bernadotte's Life Devoted To Making Peace, Goodwill

By The Associated Press
Count Folke Bernadotte worked at making peace just as hard as other men worked at making war. He was a leader in the International Red Cross and the United Nations' official intermediary for peace in Palestine, where he forcefully invoked two tenuous truces.

Bernadotte acted as a go-between in Heinrich Himmler's surrender negotiations for Germany in the closing weeks of World War II.

Russians frequently criticized his actions as mediator for Palestine. The count was a nephew of King Gustav of Sweden. He spent all his adult years as one of the most genuine men of good will Europe has produced. Associates often said the key to his character was his "compassion."

He was profoundly religious, but also gay and charming in manner. As a Sweden Red Cross official he played a most active role in three wartime prisoner of war exchanges with Germany. He made many hazardous trips into Germany, some during the heaviest bombings of Berlin.

He was responsible for many more lives during Sweden's mobilization when war threatened. He headed the Swedish equipment of the U. S. O. He also was active in Boy Scout work, training them as aircraft spotters and medical assistants.

He was head of the Swedish Y. M. C. A.

In private life, he was interested in publishing. He was chairman of the board of directors of Det Besta, the Swedish edition of Reader's Digest.

Bernadotte was far more human than men of royal blood are supposed to be. Tall and lean, like most members of the Swedish royal family, he dressed with sober elegance.

Impeccably outfitted, he frequently was seen riding his bicycle to work in Stockholm. Swedish friends said he just didn't care for luxuries like limousines and chauffeurs.

He was head of the Swedish Y. M. C. A.

British Home Defenses Strengthened In Crisis

London, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Britain took steps today to strengthen her home defenses in the grave international crisis.

The cabinet already has announced that demobilization of the armed forces has been slowed, recruiting stepped up and that war weapons are being improved.

A call went out for 10,000 men aged 20 to 50 to serve as special constables in London. They will be trained in first aid and civil defense work as well as regular police duties. Maj. V. B. Rogers, commander of the London constabulary, said "never was the need more grim."

The gravity of the international situation in general, and of the German in particular, was reflected in a suddenly summoned meeting of top British cabinet officers and defense chiefs with Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

State Help For Vets

Every State Gives War Veterans Some Help Besides Benefits They Receive From Federal Government; An Outline Of What Is Being Done; Variety Of Benefits

By VERN HAUGLAND

Washington, Sept. 17.—(AP) Every state gives its war veterans some help besides the benefits they get from the Federal Government.

A Veterans Administration survey discloses that:

All of the states provide for guardianship of veterans who are mentally unable to care for themselves, and all have central agencies to plan, administer and coordinate veterans programs.

All except Louisiana and New Mexico protect the veteran from loss of unemployment compensation benefits during the period he spent in armed forces.

All except Colorado and West Virginia cancel for veterans the payments ordinarily required for certain job licenses, and in some cases exempt veterans' property from taxation.

Thirty-two states let a minor veteran or his minor spouse sign contracts for insured or guaranteed ment House as they passed through Katamon, a Jewish-held area. Jeep suddenly appeared, blocking route, containing four men, two of which proceeded to count's car.

"Colonel Frank Begley, U.N. security officer, grappled with one and was slightly wounded in face. Second reached to count's car and assassinated (the) two men at point blank range with gun. Jeep succeeded in escaping."

Week Of Missions At Memorial Baptist Church Sept. 20-24

A week of missions will be held at Memorial Baptist Church, Monday through Friday, September 20-24, with services each night at 7:30 o'clock. An outstanding speaker, representing one of the Baptist missions boards, State, Home, or Foreign, will bring an inspirational message each night on the mission work of Southern Baptists.

The program is as follows: Monday night, Dr. F. P. Lide, missionary, Shanghai, China; Tuesday night, Dr. H. H. McMillan, Soochow, China; Wednesday night, Rev. E. Lowell Spivey, field secretary, Baptist State Mission Board; Thursday night, Rev. Stanley Smith, missionary to the Seminole Indians of Florida; and Friday night, Dr. R. K. Redwine, director, Seaside Baptist Assembly. Also on Friday night Dr. Robert Lee Humber will speak on world conditions.

The week of missions is being sponsored by the Roanoke Baptist Association, and pastors of churches participating will lead the devotional each night, with special music being rendered by the choirs of the participating churches. Churches in this associational group are: Memorial, Greenville; Immanuel, Greenville; Pactolus, Stokes, Farmville; Winter, Ayden, Pinetown, Washington, Chocowinity, Riverview, Aurora, and South Creek.

The people of Greenville of all denominations are invited to attend these services, much of which will be of general interest.

Very important business is to be discussed Sunday morning at the Sunday school hour. Every member is urged to be present.

Mrs. Roger Taylor

Taylor-Singletary

Miss Elizabeth Singletary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ella Singletary of Elizabethtown and Roger Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lawrence Taylor of Greenville were united in marriage on Saturday evening, September 4th, at eight o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents.

The double ring vows were spoken to the Reverend O. L. Hardwick, pastor of the bride.

Wedding music was rendered by Dr. Channing Glenn, pianist, Miss Anne Victoria McDaniel, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The Bridal Chorus from the Opera "Lohengrin" and the Wedding March from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" were used as the processional and recessional.

Curtis Singletary, brother of the bride, acted as usher. Simon Moy Jr., was best man.

The vows were spoken before an arch of southern amilax banked with pines. Cathedral candles burned in seven branched candelabras interspersed between floor standards of large white gladioli and fern.

The bridal couple entered the living room together. The bride wore an original design, electric blue crepe dress with black accessories. Her corsage was a pink orchid with tube roses.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Singletary, wore a navy blue crepe dress with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bridegroom, wore a royal blue crepe dress with matching hat and a corsage of pink roses.

After the wedding, Miss Sarah Maud Pittman invited the guests into the dining room where a color scheme of green and white prevailed. The table covered with a white linen cloth, imported from Ireland, was lovely with a centerpiece of white asters and pom-poms, arranged in a silver bowl flanked by silver candelabra with burning tapers.

The bride and groom cut the first slice from a beautiful three tiered cake which was topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Cake was served by Mrs. Wilford

King, sister of the bride, and lime punch, candied lime, minis and salted nuts were served by Miss Evelyn Hammond, Miss Frances Smith and Mrs. W. R. McKellar, Jr.

Immediately after the informal reception, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home, 300 East Eighth street, Greenville, North Carolina.

Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of Elizabethtown High School and East Carolina Teachers College and for several years has taught in the public schools of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor was graduated from Greenville High School and Oak Ridge Military Institute and later completed a business course at Smithfield-Massey Business College of Richmond, Virginia. He served overseas with the Army Air Corps for four years and is at present associated with the Coca Cola Bottling Company of Greenville.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Henry Lawrence Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Griffith, Jr., Miss Rita Carolyn Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Fleming Johnson, Mr. Simon Moye, Jr., of Greenville, Miss Evelyn Hammond of Rowland, Miss Sarah Maud Pittman of Fairmont, Mr. Olin Dukes of Lumberton and Mr. G. C. Singletary of Norfolk, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Kittrell Honored Open House

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rawl, Jr. held open house, Wednesday evening at Julie Jo, suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. White, on the Falkland highway. The occasion was to honor Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, Jr., whose marriage took place in July.

The ping pong table on the porch was covered with a long red and white checkered cloth and centered with an "old oaken bucket," from which punch was served.

A wooden bowl of fall fruits and light candles were used on the coffee table in the dining room. With the punch and coffee, delightful accompaniments were served.

Mrs. Maddy To Speak Before Woman's Club

The Greenville Woman's Club will have a luncheon meeting next Friday, September 24, at 1 o'clock as their first meeting of the year with Mrs. Vance Perkins, president of the club, presiding. Mrs. Gordon Maddy, state chairman of International Relations of Achesie, N. C., will speak on a subject of vital importance to every member.

Mrs. Maddy is a very attractive person and a very interesting speaker. She has been very active in church and club work in the state.

Mrs. George Renfro, chairman of International Relations, is in charge of the program with the following hostesses. Mrs. J. R. Carrington, chairman, Mrs. Guy Forrest, Mrs. Richard Hardaway, Mrs. R. L. Humber, Mrs. Howard Mims, Miss Eunice McGee, Mrs. Erwin Bowles, Mrs. L. A. Stroud, Mrs. Robert Van Iders, Mrs. K. L. Whitely, Mrs. H. H. Settle, Mrs. K. R. Rowe, Mrs. L. L. Reeves, Mrs. J. H. Randolph, Mrs. J. L. Evans, Mrs. F. J. Delmer and Miss Lena Ellis.

Members of the Executive Board will contact each member of the club for reservations at the luncheon.

Any member failing to be contacted call Mrs. Vance Perkins 3236 or 3115.

Coca-Cola Hour Honors Miss Austin

Mrs. Roy Batchelor and Mrs. Larry James entertained at a coffee hour on Saturday morning at 11:30 at the home of Mrs. James, honoring Miss Mary Elizabeth Austin, bride elect of October.

Beautiful arrangements of fall flowers decorated the home. The table in the dining room, from which delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses and Mrs. Edward Austin, mother of the honored guest, held an attractive centerpiece, depicting a bridal scene.

Miss Austin, Miss Jane Harrison, bride-elect, and Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, Jr., a bride of the summer, were each presented a corsage.

About 20 guests called during the hour.

Birth Announcement

Capt. and Mrs. Edward W. Helwig, of Fort Bragg, N. C., announce the birth of a son, Edward William, Jr., on September 15, in Fort Bragg government hospital.

Mrs. Helwig is the former Miss Rosamond Van Dyke of Greenville.

Christian Church Announcements

The Woman's Council of the Christian Church will meet on Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. W. L. Allen, east Fifth street, and the following women will serve as assisting hostesses: Mrs. D. H. Conley, Mrs. Nelson Bowden, and Mrs. J. J. Stauffer. This first meeting of the Council in the new year and all women are urged to be present to get a picture of the total year's work.

The Christian Youth Fellowship group will meet at the church on Sunday evening at 6:30 and the young people 12 years of age or older are invited to come and participate in program and fellowship.

At the morning service at 11 o'clock a special welcome will be extended the students of the college and the response will be made by Miss Ellen Clark, president of the Christian Student Association. At this service the pastor announces to speak on the subject, "Who Are the Wise?" and a large volunteer choir under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Carter will sing "O Savior Sweet" by Bach, James Ray Pitt-

Twelve-Year-Old Bride Is Looking To Happy Future

Ironton, Ala., Sept. 17—(AP)—Twelve-year-old Katherine Elizabeth Love, a bride of four days, was looking forward today to setting up housekeeping in her own home.

She and Jay Love, 17, stock handler for a packing company in near-by Birmingham, eloped over the weekend and were married in Columbus, Miss.

"We are very happy," Katherine told reporters. "We hope we will be allowed to remain that way and show that we can make a go of it."

The young bride, who looks several years older than her 12 years, said they are planning to rent a small house. They are now living with Joe's parents near Ironton.

Her father, R. E. Smith of Birmingham, said he was undecided as yet what he will do about the marriage.

The couple said they met through a mutual friend May 26 and "it was love at first sight for both of us." Katherine said they had talked of eloping several times but "got cold feet." This time, she left for grade school as usual but met Joe at a bus station instead.

Open Bids Sept. 23 On Construction At E.C.T.C.

Bids on construction work for two new buildings at East Carolina Teachers College will be opened on September 23, according to an announcement by Dr. John D. Messick, college president. A new dormitory for men students and a new dormitory for teachers to be erected on the college campus will be, according to present plans, the first of several new buildings to be added to the facilities of the college.

In a talk at a faculty assembly Thursday morning in the Wright auditorium, Dr. Messick also announced that plans for a new gymnasium, an additional wing to the Training School on the campus, and a kindergarten building are now being prepared by architects. Eric Flanagan of Henderson is working on plans for the gymnasium and A. J. Maxwell of Goldsboro, on those for the Training School, the additions to which will include an auditorium and a cafeteria.

Other improvements which it is hoped will be made at the college within the coming year, Dr. Messick said on Thursday, include the grading and seeding of the athletic field on the East Campus and the construction of several thousand seats to accommodate spectators at athletic contests.

The United States uses about 80 per cent of the world's production of 35 million pounds of vegetable waxes.

Proclamation

WHEREAS this City has an unusual reservoir of skills and strength in this in those of our fellow citizens who by reason of physical handicaps are denied opportunities for employment, and

WHEREAS the people of Greenville are profoundly conscious of the limitless debt they owe to their fellow citizens who count the costs of wars in terms of physical handicaps; and

WHEREAS each year the toll of industrial and other accidents increases the number of handicapped persons seeking work, and

WHEREAS thousands of handicapped workers have demonstrated that physical handicaps are no insurmountable bar to efficient and productive labor, and

WHEREAS this State needs the full measure of faith and participation in our democratic life which can only come in full measure to the handicapped when they become self-supporting and independent citizens, and

WHEREAS the employers of Greenville have a unique opportunity to assist in this National effort to rehabilitate otherwise qualified but physically handicapped workers by employing their services; and

WHEREAS Congress, by a joint resolution approved August 11, 1946 (59 Stat. 530) has designated the first week in October of each year as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, during which appropriate ceremonies are to be held throughout the Nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J. H. Boyd Mayor of the City of Greenville, do hereby call upon the people of this city to observe the week of October 3-9, 1948, as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. I also call upon the heads of other agencies within the City and other public officials, as well as leaders of industry, labor, and civic groups to make every effort to enlist public support for a sustained program aimed at the employment and full use of the capacities of all physically handicapped workers in this City.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Greenville to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Greenville this sixteenth day of September in the year of our Lord Nineteen hundred and forty-eight.

J. H. BOYD, Jr.
Mayor.

September County Council Meets
The Pitt County Council of the Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs met in the auditorium of the Agriculture Building on Tuesday, September 14, at 2:30 p.m. The president, Mrs. D. N. Nobles, Jr. of the Sweet Gum Grove Club, presided. The meeting was opened by the group singing "Hall, Club Women, Crowned Thru Service," after which they repeated the Club Collect. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Forty-five club members answered the roll call from 17 clubs.

Plans were made for the Annual Achievement Day which is scheduled for November 5th. The morning program will be held in the Memorial Baptist Church in Greenville. Mrs. Richa Oud of Holland will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Langford announced that there would be a Floor Finishing Demonstration in the Home Agents' Office on Thursday morning, September 23. The demonstration will begin at 10:00 o'clock. All club women that are interested in learning the refinishing floors are invited.

Officers for 1949 were named: president, Mrs. Robert B. Starling, Red Banks Club; vice-president, Mrs. Obed Castelloe, Renston-Nobles Club; secretary, Mrs. Alton Chapman, St. John Club; treasurer, Mrs. James Allen, Red Oak Club; directors, Mesdames S. D. Tucker, Jr. Simpson Club and Clarence Barnhill, Belvoir Club. The meeting adjourned by the members singing "Bless Be the Tie That Binds."

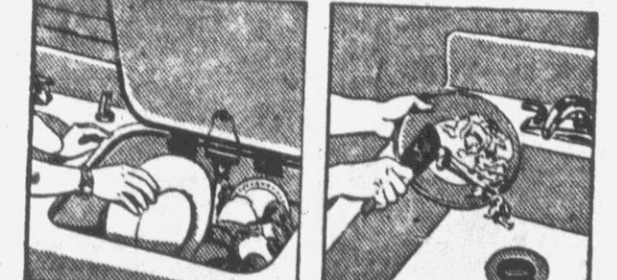

Pactolus Reports The September Club Meeting

The Pactolus Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday afternoon, September 7th, at the home of Mrs. H. C. Simmons with Mrs. Ernest Carson as co-hostess. The meeting was called to order at 2:30 p.m. by the president, Mrs. C. J. Satterthwaite. There were 14 members present. The "Niceties of Everyday Living" report was given by Mrs. J. B. Barnhill which was "Little Courtesies to Remember At Home, the Theatre, and Public Places." Mrs. James A. Chauncey gave a brief report on the styles for fall. Mrs. J. Paul Davenport gave a book review on "Pilgrims End."

The following officers were elected for the 1949 club year which begins November 1st: president, Mrs. James A. Chauncey; vice-president, Mrs. H. C. Simmons; secretary, Mrs. A. B. Ward, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. R. P. Woolard. At the October meeting there will be an exchange of shrubs. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Langford, home agent, who with the assistance of Miss Sidney Davenport, gave a very important and interesting demonstration on "Know Your Shrubbery."

Bride And Groom Day, Sept. 19, At Ayden Church

Sunday, September 19, will be known as Bride and Groom Day at the Ayden Christian Church. All couples married by the pastor, W. H. Brunson, during his ministry of 26 years with the church will be special guests of the church that day. Mr. Brunson came to Ayden 26 years ago last April from an 11-year ministry in Charleston, S.C.

He has been interested in the religious, social, and civic life of the city. He was a charter member of the Rotary Club of Ayden, and has been an honorary member for the past several years.

Under his leadership the church has gone forward. An educational plant has been erected. Steam heat put in, and the church completely redecorated.

There Is No Substitute FOR EXPERIENCE

From your own work in taking care of your holdings, you know what an essential part your own experience plays. You hardly would think of leaving the important decisions to others less competent than yourself, would you?

The executor of your Will should be experienced and qualified in the matter of Estate Management. A friend or relative might be sincere and well-intentioned, yet lack the qualifications so important in protecting the welfare of the estate.

If your Will is to do everything you expect of it, you should arrange for an experienced executor who is entirely familiar with all the details so important in the management and settlement of an estate.

A Corporate Executor, such as the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, has a continuous existence. It is always in a position to safeguard and protect the interests of your Estate. It is experienced and qualified.

The Guaranty Bank and Trust Company is authorized under the laws of North Carolina to act as executor and trustee. However, it does not practice law. Your attorney should prepare your Will, and he should also advise you on all legal aspects of your Estate Plan.

Big Political Guns Aimed At North Carolina Voters

By LYNN NISBET
Raleigh, Sept. 17—North Carolina's status as a doubtful or "border" state politically is recognized by the high command in both major political parties.

Tentative plans call for appearances in the state during the fall campaign of President Harry Truman and Vice-presidential candidate Alben Barkley for the Democrats; Presidential and Vice-presidential candidates Thomas E. Dewey and Earl Warren for the Republicans.

Progressive Candidate Henry Wallace has already toured the state, to accompaniment of eggs and tomatoes at several points, and Dixiecrat Candidate Strom Thurmond spoke at a Cherryville meeting.

At time this is written the whole schedule is somewhat tentative. It seems fairly certain that Senator Barkley will speak in the state on the night of September 27, very probably at Asheville. At a late hour Wednesday efforts were being made to iron out conflicting assignments for the Asheville auditorium.

Time and place of the Truman appearance was less definite. It is known that Democratic party leaders would like to spot him at some central and easily accessible point.

Similar situation prevails with respect to speaking dates of Dewey and Warren. Republican leaders feel sure that Governor Warren will visit the state, less sure about Governor Dewey. Eastern Carolina Republicans are hopeful that at least one of their top candidates will come to Raleigh, although they admit heavy pressure to have the appearances schedule for a piedmont city—probably Charlotte.

Leaders in both Democratic and Republican parties have their fingers crossed with respect to these tentative appearances of top flight candidates. There is no fear of repetition of the egg-tomato episodes incident to the Wallace visitation, but there is recognition of vulnerability of both Truman and Dewey, although strangely enough there seems to be practically unanimous approval of both Senator Barkley and Governor Warren.

It is not unusual for pre-convention candidates for the Republican nomination for president to visit North Carolina. Last spring Dewey, Taft and Stassen all three toured the state. It has been a long time since Republicans thought it worth while to send either or both of their top candidates into the state to solicit votes in the November election.

For that matter, Democrats have more or less by-passed this state in the general election search for popular votes.

The fact that a most certainly vice-presidential nominee of both major parties will come to North Carolina, and the presidential candidates are giving serious thought to personal appeals here, would seem to put this state definitely in the "border" category with respect to the 1948 election.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 17—(AP)—Dave Clark of Charlotte, a co-chairman of the States' Rights Democratic party in North Carolina, resigned yesterday as treasurer of the party.

Clark's resignation was accepted by the party's leaders, who met here informally to name a steering committee to meet in Greensboro Sept. 21.

Replacing Clark as treasurer is Frank Clark of Fayetteville. The two are not related.

In addition to discussing general issues, the gathering also decided to open headquarters in Raleigh within the next week.

Philip S. Finn, Jr., of Hendersonville, the State chairman, presided over the conference. He termed the meeting yesterday a "planning conference." Plans were laid for an "aggressive campaign" in behalf of the Thurmond-Wright ticket in the November election.

Will Dedicate Student Center Next Sunday

By CHESTER WALSH
The Baptist Student Center for East Carolina Teachers College students, 404 East Eighth Street, near the campus, will be dedicated next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The North Carolina State Baptist Convention bought the property. The Baptist churches of Greenville—Immanuel Baptist Church and Memorial Baptist Church—are sponsoring the college student and recreational and entertainment project.

Dr. John D. Messick, president of East Carolina Teachers College, and others approve the student center. This is the second piece of property the Baptist State Convention has bought for student centers. The other is at Greensboro. Much of the credit goes to Rev. Richard E. Hardaway and Rev. J. H. Nielson, respectively, pastors of Memorial Baptist Church and Immanuel Baptist churches.

The program is as follows: Rev. James W. Ray and Miss Blanton will preside. Rev. Clyde E. Baucom, president of the General Board of the N.C. Baptist State Convention, will make the formal presentation. Following this, Miss Blanton, in charge of the student center, will describe the home's facilities and explain its purposes.

Dr. John D. Messick, president of the college, will accept the project as a part of the accessory contributions to the student life.

After the dedication exercises, Miss Blanton will have "open house" for the entertainment of guests. Miss Julia Bray, social vice-president of the center, will be in charge.

Miss Blanton said that she wanted to emphasize that the fact that the Baptist Student Center on Eighth Street, "is not a substitute for any phase of church work," and she pointed out that "this activity is an 'arm' of the Greenville Baptist churches. The spirit of the Baptist student center is, Miss Blanton added, to encourage attendance at Sunday schools, young people's meetings and worship services at local churches. Bible study will be one of the features of the meetings of ECTC students at the center.

this time should have a determination made as to grade and staple. This should be checked against the Commodity Credit Corporation loan rate for that particular grade and staple. In most instances the Commodity Credit Corporation, or CCC, loan on cotton is more than the market on cotton. Therefore, producers should place their cotton in loan rather than sell it if the loan is greater than the present market value.

Bonded warehouses equipped to store cotton for loan and to assist in executing the note are located at Bethel, Bethel Manufacturing Company; Farmville, Farmville Bonded Warehouse; and Washington, N. Tarboro To Meet Kinston In Finals

'Most Valuable'

Tarboro, September 17 — Bill See, rookie right-hand pitcher for the Tarboro Tars, was last night awarded the Coastal Plain League's "Most Valuable Player" trophy for 1943, an annual presentation of the Coastal Plain League Sports Writers Association.

The award was made by Ray Goodman, president of the Coastal Plain League, during the course of a play-off game between the Tars and the Rocky Mount Leafs. He was presented by Bob Weirich, of Tarboro, president of the Sports Writers Association. Fourteen writers and sports broadcasters participated in the poll. A first place vote in the poll was good for nine points, second place eight points, etc.

In winning the award See polled a total of 67 points, including four first place votes. During the course of the regular season See won 26 games and lost six for the pennant-winning Tars. Jack Huser, Goldsboro first baseman and the league's batting champion, was second in the poll with 57 points. Tarboro's Ralph Caldwell placed third with 53 points.

Pennant-Winning Tars Whitewash Rocky Mount 5-0 To Enter Coastal Plain Playoff Finals

Tonight's Game (Final Playoffs)
Tarboro at Kinston

By BERT MOYE

Manager Bill Hamons and his pennant-winning Tarboro Tars advanced to the finals of the Coastal Plain League playoffs as they whitewashed the Rocky Mount Leafs, 5 to 0, over in Tarboro last night.

The Tars featured a four-run rally in the first frame to put them in a commanding lead. Ken Andrews was hit by pitcher Bob Jones, Jim Townes hit to Webb at shortstop who threw to McJunkin at second to catch Andrews but McJunkin dropped the ball and both runners were safe. Jake Daniel was walked to load the bases and then Ray Komaneky tripled into deep center-field cleared the bases. Then Ralph Caldwell singled to bring in Komaneky.

The scoring ended in the second frame when the Tars put across their final tally. Bob Staphenhorst reached first on Webb's error. Townes singled, Daniel walked loading the bases and Komaneky hit to deep centerfield with Staphenhorst scoring on the out.

Bob Staphenhorst, pitching his first win in the series, blanked the Leafs on six hits, with Pappy Williams getting two singles to lead the losers' attack.

Bob Jones started on the mound for the Leafs but after pitching to four men in which all men scored, he was replaced by Harry Helmer who pitched one and one-third frames when he was sent to the showers following an argument with Umpire Bourgeois on a ball called by the ump. Jack Finch pitched the remainder of the game. Ralph Caldwell with a double and two singles led the eight-hit attack off the three Leaf hurlers.

The opening game of the final series with the Kinston Eagles originally was scheduled to be played in Tarboro tonight, but a conflict with a high school football game made it necessary to play in Kinston, officials of the Tarboro club stated last night. Saturday night's game will be played in Tarboro.

Yanks, Packers Open Season In Boston Tonight

Boston, Sept. 17—(AP)—Football for keeps arrives in Boston tonight when the Green Bay Packers and Boston Yanks open the National Football League season at Fenway Park.

The Packers, strengthened by several newcomers and winners of pre-season exhibitions over Pittsburgh's Steelers, New York's Giants and the Washington Redskins, are favored over the Yanks who struggled to third place in the eastern division last season.

The Yanks, too, are strengthened by addition of several of last year's better college stars. Only one recent college star, End Jim Treece of Oklahoma, has been able to make the starting Boston lineup, however.

HARRY DOWDA
Wake Forest Right Half

Harry Dowda, halfback and Ed Bradley, end, are two of the leading receivers in the strong passing attack of the Wake Forest eleven which will unveil its new T formation against George Washington at Wake Forest Saturday afternoon.

Dowda was the No. 2 ranking receiver last season and caught 15 passes for a total of 180 yards. One of these was a touchdown in the

Weakened Phantoms And Edenton Clash

Starting Line-Up Riddled With Injuries As Farley's Squad Goes To Edenton For First Conference Game

An injury riddled starting lineup will take the field tonight for the Greenville High Phantoms when they engage Edenton's high school footballers in the first conference tilt of the season at Edenton.

Last year the Greenville team was downed by the Aces 7-6 in a tough battle, and in spite of injuries the Phantoms will be plugging tonight to even the score.

Injuries and charley horses have plagued Coach Bo Farley's team since the opening game Monday night, and from all indications the Phantoms tonight will take the field without the services of valuable players Guard Bobby Fleming, Tailback Jimmy Cox, Fullback Little Bland, and End Sam Northrop.

All of the mentioned players have had no contact work this week and for the most part have practiced only in light equipment. Coach Farley commented, "One or two of the boys may see a little action, but it's doubtful."

Emphasis in the Phantom practices has been placed on the aerial attack which Monday night netted only one completed pass out of seven attempts.

Coach Farley has been well pleased with the performance of Wingback Walter Goo since Monday's game. "Goo is the fastest man on the squad, and is potentially one of the best backs Greenville High has had in several years," Farley said.

Edenton's aggregation will be sparked by navy veteran tailback Russell Wheeler who tips the scales at a neat 170 pounds. Wheeler, reportedly an excellent runner as well as a good passer, was named an All-Conference back last season. He heads the list of 12 lettermen who returned to the Aces' squad from last year.

With Fleming out of the guard slot, Big Bob Smith, 185 pound guard, may break into the Greenville lineup for the first time. He is the largest man on the Phantom squad. Smith will share the guard duties with Julian Vainwright and Ben Robertson.

Farley listed Raby Edwards and Walter Perry as probable starters at ends. Mack Crawford and Raleigh Lee at tackles and Paul Conway at center.

With two regular backs on the injured list chances are that Joe Alligood will get the starting nod for the tailback slot and Speedy Siders will operate from the fullback position. Jack Morgan will handle his regular wingback duties as will John Farley who calls the Phantom plays from the blocking-back spot.

Before the war, about 30 million pounds of walnuts were shipped annually from North China.

Braves And Bucs In Crucial Series

Boston, Sept. 17—(AP)—A Boston sweep of two games from the Pittsburgh Pirates, in a series which begins today, would make it extremely difficult for any National League rival to overtake the Braves who are eager for the first pennant in 34 years.

With that incentive, "Mr. Right," of the right and left hand pitching combination of Johnny Sain and Lefty Warren Spahn, will toss his artful pitches at the pressing Pirates. And it will be "Mr. Left" tomorrow.

The pair have won six of the last eight games the Braves have played. Sain will be seeking his 21st victory of the season today.

Lefty Vic Lombardi is expected to pitch for the blustering Buccaners who have amazed everyone by themselves and their clever man-handling by hacking their way into second place four and a half games behind the Braves.

Should the Braves and the Pirates split these two, the Braves would have to win seven of their remaining 13 games to be reasonably certain of hauling the pennant to the top of the pole.

The Pirates would have to win 13 of their 16 remaining contests to tie the Tribe. The Brooklyn Dodgers are a half game farther out than the Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals are a half game in back of the Dodgers.

Pirates Get Big Send-Off On Eve Of Opening Contest

Rally And Parade Staged As Squad Prepares To Meet Cherry Point Marines In Rocky Mount Tonight

By EUGENE PRICE
Some 500 cheering college students sent the East Carolina Teachers College Pirates football team off in high spirits here last night on the eve of the squad's season opening clash with the Cherry Point Marines at Rocky Mount tonight at 8 o'clock.

The 60-piece ECTC band, under direction of Herbert L. Carter and flanked by hundreds of cheering students, paraded down the business section of Greenville during the celebration. The ECTC student body as well as a number of townspeople, gathered in front of the Pitt county Courthouse where they were in college yells by ECTC cheerleaders. Previously, a rally was held at the Wright Building on the college campus.

The entire Pirate football team was carried through the heart of town in a huge truck. At the campus rally, team Co-Captain John Wyatt, 200 pound tackle from Portsmouth, Va., told those gathered that "if the boys show the same kind of hustle and get the same sort of backing seen so far, we're going to beat the ears off somebody. His remarks were met with a tremendous ovation.

Coach Jim Johnson said earlier that he expected his team to come out on top though it will be just by a few points and "may take some breaks."

The probable starting lineup for the Pirates, as released by Coach Johnson and backfield coach Jack Boone last night, will feature two freshmen ball players. Michael Kovoch, Mercury footed halfback from Terry Town, N. Y., and Guard Duke Cockrell will be the newcomers to the field for the starting whistle tonight. Cockrell will do the kicking if the ECTC team kicks off.

The other starting positions will probably be filled by Worthington and Peele at ends, Wyatt and Kilpatrick at tackles, Cockrell and Lewin at guards, and Wilson at center. In the backfield will be Holscher at quarter, Williams and Kovoch at halves, and Smith at full back.

Coach Johnson said there would probably be some slight changes should the ECTC squad kick off instead of receive. The coaches expect to give every man on the squad a taste of college varsity football before the game is over tonight.

Outsider Is New 'Giant Killer'

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 17—(AP)—Herbie Flam, a 19-year-old collegian from Beverly Hills, Calif., has established himself as the giant-killer of the National Tennis championships.

Ranked no better than 30th among the nation's amateurs and unseeded here, the former junior champion was firmly entrenched in the semi-finals today with only three other Americans still in the running for the men's singles title.

Connie Mack Is Honored Guest

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 17—(AP)—Connie Mack, president of the Philadelphia Athletics, was honored tonight in an exhibition ball game between the Athletics and a team of All-Stars from the Illinois Amateur Baseball Association.

The Athletics won 19 to 3. The grand old man of baseball received several gifts, including a life membership in the Old Timers Baseball Association presented by Edward J. Barrett, secretary of state.

No Running Play In Entire Game

Fayetteville, Sept. 17—(AP)—Fayetteville High School either passed or punted on every play from scrimmage here last night to defeat Siler City 35 to 0.

Coach Bill Dole's 1947 state champions did not attempt a running play during the whole game, throwing 24 passes and completing nine for a total of 290 yards gained.

C. O. McMullen 170 pound veteran from Elizabeth City did not draw a starting position on the Pirate eleven, but is expected to play a lot of defense ball tonight at Rocky Mount.

C. O. McMULLEN

His possible McMullen will get the nod from Johnson of they should start to kick off.

O-O-O

Congratulations to Michael Kovoch and Duke Cockrell, freshmen from Terrytown, New York, and Rocky Mount, N. C., respectively for drawing a starting position on the Pirate lineup. Behind them one hundred per cent will be: John Wyatt and Keith Kilpatrick as tackles; at the other guard post with Cockrell will be Mack Lewis; at the pivot spot will be Buck Wilson; ends will be Stanley Peele and Mickey Worthington; in the backfield Coach Boone will start Franz Holscher as quarter back and assisting Kovoch at half-back will be Abb Williams. Fullback will be Johnny Smith.

O-O-O

In tonight's games in the North-western conference this column is picking Washington over Tarboro; the Pam pack are packing too much strength for the Tars. Kinston over Edenton over Greenville due to age and experience which the Edenton high pack. New Bern is idle tonight and Elizabeth City plays a non-conference tilt with Virginia. Cherry Point is picked to beat East Carolina Teachers College in a non-conference game tonight in Rocky Mount. The Marines timing and coordination is just too much for the Pirates with only one week and a half practice.

O-O-O

Bouquets to the student body of East Carolina for the fine school spirit displayed last night at the Pep rally. Good work-keep it up! J. H. Rose, Supt. of City schools in Greenville says that this is the first time that this much school spirit has been shown in the history of the college, and credits to Mr. Herbert L. Carter for the fine manner in which the band performed last night.

O-O-O

Jack Hedgepeth who is active in East Carolina Teachers College Athletics states, "the spirit of our '48 team excels anything I've seen here in three years. A complete turnout over previous years. The parties responsible deserve unlimited praise from those who desire to see our athletic program move ahead. I won't venture in... son's record will be; but, win, lose or draw, we're on our way to a most successful year."

Deacons New 'T' Faces Test In Curtain-Raiser

Richmond, Va., Sept. 17—(AP)—A faster and much lighter Wake Forest football team whisks the covers off its brand-new T-formation attack tack tomorrow against George Washington University in the 1948 Southern Conference curtain-raiser.

The Deacons and Colonials, slated to square off at 3 p.m. in Wake Forest's Groves Stadium, will get the jump by a few hours on two other conference events — Davidson and the University of Richmond — who play non-circuit foes tomorrow night.

Davidson is at home to little Elton College and Richmond plays host to Randolph-Macon. The Wildcats and the Spiders are lopsided favorites.

The principal attraction, of course, will be the Wake Forest-George Washington clash, a battle which counts in the circuit standings. The Deacons' flashy new "T" will be pitted against the Colonials' deceptive single wing formation.

Up front, Wake Forest and G.W. will be minus a lot of the beef which made last year's forward walls hard to punch through but a bit slow about. The massive Deacons, who averaged 230 pounds from end to end in 1947, average only 205 pounds per man this fall. George Washington's line average has dipped from 207 pounds to 194.

The Deacons' flashy new "T" counter by four touchdowns but the Colonials, who came back strong toward the close of their disastrous 1947 campaign, are counting on turning the tables this time out. They have a trio of high-grade tailbacks in Joe Duell, John Shul-lenger, and Dick Koester, all of whom can pass with the best, and are considerably deeper in reserve strength than last fall's shallow outfit.

Don Black Said Much Improved

Cleveland, Sept. 17 — (AP) — Pitcher Don Black was reported "much better" today at St. Vincent Charity Hospital where he is being treated for a brain hemorrhage suffered Monday afternoon in the Cleveland-St. Louis baseball game.

"There is no evidence of paralysis and no likelihood of it," Dr. Spencer Braden, his attending specialist said, adding:

"Don is conscious practically all the time and his general condition is much improved."

Chapter 24
"Gay," he heard Cathy say. "I came here to ask you something and I won't go 'till you tell me what I want to know."
"O-h, Cathy, for heaven's sake," Gay replied. "I've had a long day and now I'm terribly tired."
"Don't you think I'm tired, too?" Cathy countered. "I want to know where you got the five thousand dollars you offered first to lend George and later deposited to his credit in the bank."
"O-h, that?" Gay asked with a drawn-out yawn. "You heard me tell the Sheriff, didn't you?"
"But you didn't get it from Dave," Corbin heard Cathy say.
"I didn't mean that Dave actually gave it to me," Gay said quickly. "What I meant was that that was money I got for selling the ranch after Dave died. Now do you understand?"
"I don't know yet. Who'd you sell the ranch to?"
"I'm afraid I've forgotten," Gay said. "I'll probably remember it the minute you've gone. But his name isn't important now, is it?"
"How much did you get for the ranch?" Cathy asked, disregarding her sister's question.
"Oh, sixty-five hundred dollars, I think it was."
"Who sold the ranch for you, Gay? The bank?" Cathy asked.
"Of course," Gay said. "I wouldn't have known what to do by myself."
"The bank people gave you a copy of the bill of sale, didn't they?"
"They gave me something."
"That's more like it. By the way, where do you keep it, that something the bank gave you?"
"O-h, it's somewhere around."
"Probably in your trunk."
"Yes, that's where it is."
"Would you mind getting it out, please?" Cathy asked. "Or better still, since you're so tired, if you'll give me the key, I'll get it."
"Now that I think of it," Gay said hastily, "it isn't in the trunk. I wonder where it was that I saw it last? I'll have to think about it, Cathy. But it'll come to me, never fear."
There seemed to be some sort of movement within the room when Cathy spoke again Corbin decided that she had moved.
"Gay," she said with finality, "I think this has gone far enough. Everything you've told me is a lie, and you know it. What's more, the Sheriff knows it, too. He sent his deputy, that red-headed McCabe man, down to Shannon, and he knows all there is to know." Corbin pressed his ear closer to the keyhole.
"Gay," he heard Cathy say, "this is serious. Actually it's a matter of life and death. Can you understand that? George has been arrested for the murder of John Snediker and the killing is that five thousand dollars. I know he didn't kill that man. But that isn't enough. If we could prove that the money was yours, or that you got it from some one else, someone other than George, then the Sheriff wouldn't be able to hold George for a minute."
"Cathy, please..."
"Gay, this may mean George's life, do you hear? You'd better tell me, do you hear?"
A sob broke from Gay.
"Did you get that money from George?" Cathy screamed.
"I won't tell you!" Gay cried.
"All right, Gay," he heard Cathy say heavily. "I know how you got that money. You murdered Snediker. You're the one who'll hang. Think of it, Gay... your pretty white neck in that coarse rope noose, your hands tied behind you. The rope will tighten and you'll scream. It'll be awful, awful!"
"No!" Gay sobbed hysterically. "No! I won't hang, I tell you... I won't! I didn't kill Snediker! It was Phil, Phil Martin who did it. I know because he told me he did it." "Then how did you get Snediker's money?" Cathy hurled at her relentlessly. "How did you get it?"

CONCRETE

You don't have to worry about the safety of a properly designed, reinforced concrete building. It resists damage from fires, tornades, and even earthquakes.
And no wonder! Walls, frame and floors are constructed as an integral unit of concrete and embedded steel bars. Such a structure has the strength, rigidity and toughness to withstand the forces that might spell disaster for less sturdy construction. It is the safe, economical way to build.

Fire Damages 2 Plants In Bethel

Fire of unknown origin in a cotton gin at the Bethel Manufacturing Company's plant in Bethel shortly after noon yesterday destroyed the gin and a dry kiln containing a quantity of lumber. Company officials said the loss would be about $50,000.

The blaze spread quickly and firemen had little chance to stop it.
The Bethel fire department under Chief James W. Minton and fire fighting apparatus from Roberson-ville and Tarboro kept the fire under control and saved adjoining buildings.

Jasper Smith of Bethel, chairman of the Pitt County Board of County Commissioners, and James S. Pick-len of Greenville own the plant.

Air Force R.O.T.C. Unit Begins Work With Eighty Taking Course

The Air Force R.O.T.C. unit activated on the campus at East Carolina Teachers College this fall for the first time has begun work for the 1943-1944 term with a staff of three officers and three enlisted men and an enrollment of 80 students. Lt. Col. William D. Brown of the Army Air Force is commanding officer of the detachment.

Both basic and advanced courses are being offered, and instruction has begun. In the advanced course thirty-five students selected from veterans with twelve or more months of active service are taking the basic course, which includes men who have had no previous military experience or have had less than twelve months active service.

Lt. Col. Brown has been stationed for the past two years at the University of Alabama, where he was connected with R.O.T.C. work. He is from Spartanburg, S.C., and is a graduate of Clemson College. Major Lemax L. May of Winfield, Alabama, plans and training officer and instructor of the advanced course, Senior R.O.T.C., also comes to Greenville from the University of Alabama, of which he is a graduate and where during the past year he was an instructor in the R.O.T.C. unit. He has a master's degree from Columbia University and has done advanced graduate work there.

Captain James D. McDill of Columbia, S.C., is adjutant and instructor of the basic course, Senior R.O.T.C. Before coming to Greenville, he was with the Air Transport Command at Fairfield, California. He is a graduate of Erskine College, Due West, S.C.

M-Sgt. John H. Hanner of Stillwater, Oklahoma, comes to Greenville from the Orlando, Florida, Air Force Base. He is sergeant-major and assistant instructor in the R.O.T.C. program here. M-Sgt. Bruce G. Baxter of Merced, California, as-

Death From Sky

Eglin Field, Fla., Sept. 17—(AP)—Four Army infantrymen died early today of injuries received when a stick of live bombs fell from a B-29 during maneuvers here yesterday.

Twenty-nine others were injured, three critically. Eglin Field officers, in announcing the accident, said the casualties were a white captain and 22 Negro enlisted men.

Names of the dead were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

It was not immediately determined how many of the 500-pound missiles fell and exploded, but it was believed that several sticks had dropped.

Pilot Prevents Fire To Spread

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 17—(AP)—National Airlines reported today that the alertness of Captain B. Nalok prevented the spread of a forest fire yesterday near the south shore of Phelps Lake while flying from Norfolk to Wilmington, N.C. He flashed word of the fire to the Norfolk dispatcher who notified the North Carolina Forestry Service.

The Forestry Service reported that the fire, which had not been spotted previously, had been brought under control.

Thirty U.S. states prohibit marriage between white and Negro persons.

J. E. Miller Dies In Hospital Early Today

J. Ernest Miller, 58, died in Pitt General Hospital at 5:45 o'clock Friday morning after having been ill for the past two months. A brief Wilkerson and Sons Funeral Home at 9 o'clock Sunday morning by the Rev. R. W. Bradshaw, pastor of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church. Funeral services will be held in Albemarle, N. C., at the home of a brother-in-law, Elbert Whitley, 245 North Fourth street, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, Albemarle.

The Rev. Ernest L. Misenheimer, Lutheran minister of Albemarle, a nephew of Mr. Miller, and the Rev. G. H. Rhodes, Lutheran minister of Albemarle, will officiate.

Mr. Miller, son of the late Ira B. and Ida Fisher Miller, was born in Rowan County and moved to Albemarle at an early age with his family. He attended school in Albemarle and Catawba College, Mt. Pleasant Military Institute, and Newberry College. He served in the United States Army as a lieutenant during World War I and returned to Albemarle where he was connected with the Miller Lumber Company with his father. He had been living in Greenville since 1938 and was associated with the Greenville Floral Company and Nursery.

He was a member of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church and the Pitt County Post of the American Legion.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ida Whitley of Albemarle to whom he was married August 8, 1921; a son, Dr. Ira Ben Miller of the U. S. Navy Hospital, Philadelphia; and three sisters, Mrs. L. S. Spence of Melbourne, Fla., Mrs. Ray Hendley of Ansonville, and Mrs. W. H. Tyler of Goldston.

Insurance Exchange In Regular Meeting

At a meeting of the Pitt County Insurance Exchange last night, Thomas Webb made an interesting talk in which he described farm liability insurance. He advocated this type of coverage for the benefit of farmers against hazards.

Bancroft Mosely was elected president, S. E. Nelson vice-president, and J. S. Willard, secretary and treasurer.

Cooler Weather

The highest temperature recorded at the Weather Bureau here this week was last Monday, when the mercury stood at 88 degrees. The highest recorded here during the summer was 101 degrees in June.

The temperature here Wednesday and Thursday nights was 55 degrees. The mercury stood at 55 yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and this morning it was 67 degrees. Mrs. C. E. Maiden, observer here for the U.S. Department of Commerce, reported.

State Help

Dakota, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia and Wyoming.)

These 28 states provide veterans with "domestic" care—such as food and shelter in a state veterans home.

California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

In thirty-three states the state or county will pay for the burial of needy veterans and, in some instances, of their dependents.

(The states in which this is not done are Alaska, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia.)

These 18 states give veterans homestead privileges or preference in the sale of state or county lands.

Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Nevada, North Dakota, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia.)

At the time the summary was prepared, nine states were providing veterans with a bonus—cash payments based upon length and place of service—and eight others had similar legislation pending.

The bonus states: Connecticut, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island and Vermont.

Those with bonus legislation pending: Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Minnesota, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

Daniels To Join In Truman Swing

Washington, Sept. 17—(AP)—Jonathan Daniels, executive editor of the Raleigh, N. C., News and Observer, is accompanying President Truman on his western campaign swing as a special, non-salaried secretary.

This was learned today as the President prepared to leave for a stumping tour which will carry him to the west coast and back.

Daniels is familiar with White House press and political relations. He served for a while as press secretary in the early days of the Truman administration and has frequently been called on for advice in various capacities.

It is understood that Daniels will assist the President on speeches and in a political advisory capacity. He will be an employee of the White House rather than the Democratic National committee.

Daniels also was an administrative assistant and later press secretary in the last few months of the Roosevelt Administration.

He is expected to serve in an advisory capacity to Mr. Truman for the duration of the campaign. But he is assuming the title of special secretary perhaps only for this trip.

Background

In realization that they might be an omen of war, the populace didn't want war. Hitler watched this for a few moments and then retired, remarking to followers:

"The people are not yet with me in this project."

That was where fate temporarily threw the switch against Hitler. The next morning he suddenly was warned the allies for a conference at Munich. The Germans who were planning revolt had set that very day for a rising, but the dictator's "condemnation" move spiked their guns. They had to postpone their project.

Well, Munich is history which needs little repeating here, though it has striking memories for those of us who were observers on the ground. Hitler continued his brazen front, while Chamberlain and his supporters failed to throw an allied net over the mad-dog. The fuhrer got the Sudetenland for delivery on the date demanded—October 1.

Then he and Chamberlain signed an agreement declaring "the desires of our two peoples never to go to war with one another again."

The prime minister returned home personally triumphant in the conviction that his appeasement policy was justified and that he was holding a powerful trump card against his critics. He didn't realize that, as Dr. Kordt told me:

"Hitler's success in getting all his demands so boosted his stock that the plot to overthrow him was abandoned altogether. The leaders realized that they couldn't get either the army or the public to follow them."

The fuhrer was treading on the clouds.

CHILDREN'S CRUSADE DRIVE WILL END SEPTEMBER 30TH
The Crusade for Children drive in North Carolina, sponsored by the Woman's Clubs of the state, will end September 30. Many clubs and individuals have contributed to the fund. Those who wish to contribute are requested to do so before the 30th. Miss Margaret Purvis, at the State Bank and Trust Company, is treasurer. Contributions so far in Pitt County total $992.35. The Farmville drive netted about $700 and has been completed.

CUT POWER LINES
Lancaster, S. C., Sept. 17—(AP)—Duke Power Company officials here said today they had been unable to identify an airplane which cut their two 68,000-volt circuits and "went right on."

In cold blooded reptiles and vertebrates arterial and venous blood mix.

Hog Market

Raleigh, Sept. 17—(AP)—(NCDA)—Hog prices steady to slightly stronger. Top of $28.75 at Rocky Mount and Tarboro; $28 at Wilson; $28.25 at Kinston, Greenville, Smithfield, Mt. Olive, Dunn, Goldsboro, Washington, Fayetteville and Clinton.

Poultry and Eggs

Raleigh, Sept. 17—(AP)—(NCDA)—Fryers and broilers steady at 34; eggs stronger, a large 60.

Grain Market

Chicago, Sept. 17—(AP)—A fairly brisk trade developed in wheat with prices advancing on the board of trade today. Large purchases of the cash grain by the government and reports that eastern chain bakers were inquiring for flour supported the upturn.

Wheat closed 1 to 1 1/2 higher. September $2.25 1/2, corn was 1 to 2 cents higher, September $1.68 1/2, oats were 3/4 lower to 1 1/2 higher, September 72 1/2 rye was 2 1/2 higher, December $1.60 1/2, and soybeans were 1/4-1/2 lower, November $2.44.

N.Y. Cotton

New York, Sept. 17—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 15 to 40 cents a bale higher.

Noon prices were 5 to 45 cents a bale lower than the previous close. Oct. 31.51, Dec. 31.04 and March 30.80.

Futures improved in late dealings on more aggressive trade buying and short covering. Prices responded easily, with hedge offerings light.

Futures closed 50 cents a bale lower to 35 cents higher than the previous close.

GOOD FURNITURE IS FOR BUILDING DREAMS

Furniture can be just something to sit on, a convenience for eating, or a place to sleep. But good furniture is a lot more. It's nice to live with, to build dreams on. Yes, and it can and should do a great deal towards making dreams come true.

FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE

That's how long you'll enjoy your old Colony Bedroom furniture . . . for the rest of your life. You never "trade in" your old Colony pieces. You treasure them . . . find them taking on a new beauty and charm as the years go by. The twin beds shown above clearly exemplify the Colonial influence with their carefully shaped "Arrowhead" footboards, heavy solid wood posts and smooth ball turnings on top.
