

Havana Swept By Hurricane; Key West Feels Wind

Several Hundred Injured; Storm Following Same Course As In September

Miami, Fla., Oct. 5 —(AP)—A small but severe hurricane that struck Havana with 132-mile-an-hour winds roared across the Florida straits today and began to sweep Key West with 75-mile gusts. Several hundred persons were reported hurt in Havana and 13 buildings flattened.

The island city reported a steadily dropping barometer as the first hurricane force winds struck. The storm's center was expected to pass close to Key West early this afternoon.

Winds were increasing all along the southern part of the peninsula. The Weather Bureau said the storm was traveling about 15 miles an hour in a northeasterly direction. It will bring hurricane winds over most of the Everglades-Lake Okechobee area southward to the coast and at least as far north as Jupiter tonight, an advisory stated.

The hurricane followed almost exactly the same course as the storm of mid-September. Hurricane warnings now extend from Jupiter southward on the east coast, and from Naples southward on the west coast.

The hurricane brought grave danger of new floods to the south Florida area. Many sections of the rich Lake Okechobee farm land are still under water which fell in mid-September.

Heavy squalls and strong winds extend outward 100 miles in the northern semicircle of the storm. Norton said Miami should begin feeling heavy winds during the afternoon.

The winds are expected to increase rapidly over the 175-mile stretch of Florida keys and extend northward as the day advances.

Heavy rains accompanied the hurricane over western Cuba. South Florida prepared to face another such storm.

Through the state from Everglades to Jensen Beach two weeks ago, leaving four dead and property estimated at $15,000,000 or more.

Brand Of Aggression

With The Pronouncement That There Is "No Blockade" Of Berlin, Vishinsky Is Trying To Prevent Consideration Of Issue In UN; Soviet Hurt By League Indictment

By DEWITT MCKENZIE

The long-suffering United Nations Security Council yesterday heard an argument in Paris to end all arguments when Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vishinsky took the floor and, with a perfectly straight face, declared that there is no Soviet blockade of Berlin.

A few members of the Council smiled at the audacity of this claim. Mr. Vishinsky has a very agile mind, as befits the noted lawyer who formerly was Soviet Public Prosecutor, but this is the first time so far as your correspondent recalls that he has ventured such an acrobatic stunt.

Parking Meter Facts

Two weeks ago the Merchants Association of Greenville petitioned the Board of Aldermen to remove all the parking meters from the city except those on Evans street between Third Street and Five Points and streets on Dickinson Avenue between Five Points and the A.C.L. Railroad.

The question will be aired Thursday night when the petition is formally presented to the Board of Aldermen. The Reflector has compiled the following facts about the meters for the information of the citizens of Greenville.

The Board of Aldermen in June of last year on the basis of one year trial after which time they would be removed without cost to the city found unsatisfactory. The trial year ended last July 31 and the Aldermen voted to retain the meters because no objection was made to the board at the time.

In accordance with this action the city of Greenville is obligated to pay the balance $13,317.32 to the parking meter company whether the meters are now retained or removed by the city. During the past summer two-hour meters were installed in the place of the one-hour meters at the request of members of the Merchants Association, but according to Mayor J. H. Boyd, no request for the meters' removal was made at that time. The two-hour meters cost the city $1,765.

The original purchase price of the meters was $23,892.50 and there are now approximately 300 meters in operation on the city streets.

During the year from August 1947 to August 1948, $20,867.40 was collected from the meters by the city. Under the purchase agreement half of this money was paid to the parking meter company and the $13,317.32 balance of the purchase price is to be paid by September 1949. After that time the entire collections from the meters will go to the city.

The city budget for the current fiscal year is set up with $20,000 estimated to come from the parking meters. "If, however, this supposed income does not materialize due to the removal of the meters, adjustments will have to be made in the budget to balance with this $20,000 reduction in income," Mayor Boyd commented.

According to city officials, money from the parking meters is used for city traffic purposes and repairs to city streets.

'Beep' Signal On Phones Allowed

Connection Of Recording Machines Authorized By Ruling

People of Greenville and surrounding areas who have telephones in their homes or offices received in their statements from the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph company today notices explaining that the authorities which regulate the telephone business have authorized connection of recording machines to telephone lines, provided the "beep signal" is used to let the person on the other end of the line know that the conversation is being recorded.

A spokesman at the local telephone office explained that a recent change in regulations by the Federal Communications Commission has made it permissible to use machines to record telephone conversations.

"The telephone company owns no recording machines and will have nothing to do with any recordings made," the official continued. "Such recordings are usually used by lawyers or other professional or business men in getting information for their files," the spokesman explained.

The new ruling provides that the "beep signal," a brief, high, almost musical note, must be sounded every 12 to 18 seconds while a recording is being made of a conversation. The "beep signal" is to notify the persons on the line that the conversation is being recorded, it was explained.

The men at the zoo had to apply artificial respiration for 15 minutes to revive him.

Big Campaigners Pause For Next Political Round

By the Associated Press

President Truman and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey let their running mates carry the campaign ball today as they prepared for the next round in the presidential contest.

Mr. Truman stuck close by the White House and added new touches to the speech-making he is scheduled to resume tomorrow with a foray extending into his Republican opponents' home state.

Dewey arranged to spend most of the day in closed-door sessions at Albany with John Foster Dulles, his foreign affairs adviser, who made a special flight from Paris to report on United Nations' deliberations of the Berlin crisis.

In advance of that huddle, the Republicans put Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, their chief foreign policy spokesman in Congress, on a nationwide broadcast last night. Vandenberg said this country's bi-partisan foreign policy leaves the voters free to switch administrations "without affecting the continuity" of that policy.

The vice presidential candidates meanwhile headed their cross-country caravans into sections trailed earlier by Mr. Truman and the New York governor.

Senator Alben W. Barkley, the Democratic nominee, planned to fly to Colorado for a speaking date at Greeley tonight. The Kentuckian toured the Iowa and Minnesota grain belt yesterday, stressing his party's agriculture record. He said the national farm income had been increased from $5,000,000,000 in 1939 to a current figure of $8,000,000,000.

Accusing the Republicans of trying to stir class division between agriculture and labor, Barkley called this "repulsive tactics."

Gov. Earl Warren, the No. 2 GOP contender, carried his "unity" campaign to Charleston, W. Va., for a major talk tonight. The Californian told a Pittsburgh rally last night this country could arm itself against inflation and threats from abroad only through "all-out production equal to our every need."

The session was arranged prior to last night's formal announcement of the appointment of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery as permanent military chairman of the Alliance's defense council.

Montgomery is expected to resign shortly as chief of the Imperial General Staff.

First Pitt Draftees Will Be Called Up November 29

The Pitt County draft board will send 20 men to Fort Bragg for pre-induction examinations on October 19, an official of the board disclosed today.

Mrs. Selma Evans, chief clerk of the local board, said the men in this first call will come from registrants born between August 31, 1922 and December 31, 1926. "No veterans no married men and no fathers will be called in this group," she continued.

Men who pass the physical will be allowed to return home and will not be inducted until November 29 when they will return to Fort Bragg.

Livestock Experts See Meat Price Reduction

Chicago, Oct. 5 —(AP)—Lower prices for meat—major item in the family food budget—are predicted by livestock experts.

Hog prices at the principal corn belt markets, on the decline all last week, broke sharply yesterday—around $1 to $2 a hundred pounds. The drop, the biggest one day break in six months at some markets, was attributed to heavy receipts.

There probably will not be an immediate showing of lower prices in the retail markets, the American Meat Institute said. It said signs of declines in some wholesale meat prices are developing "but it takes a little time for adjustment in wholesale prices to be reflected in retail levels." More meat supplies are indicated, the institute said.

Security Council Votes 9-2 To Take Up Berlin Issue

Paris, Oct. 5 —(AP)—The United Nations Security Council voted 9 to 2 today to admit the western powers case against the Soviet blockade of Berlin and Russia immediately announced she would not take part in the debate.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky demanded the floor and declared:

"The Soviet Union considers that the Security Council, by agreeing to put the Berlin question on its agenda, has violated the charter of the United Nations."

Only Russia and the Soviet Union voted against discussing the Berlin crisis. A majority of seven affirmative votes was required.

Vishinsky declared that the adoption of the agenda was a violation of the United Nations charter, specifically of article 107.

Amintur Manuisky of the Ukraine then announced that he also would refuse to participate in the debate on Berlin, "for the reasons outlined by the Soviet delegate."

Council president Juan Atilio Bramuglia of Argentina then adjourned the council at 5:30 p. m. (11:30 a. m. EST) with the announcement that there would be two meetings tomorrow.

Dr. Phillip C. Jessup of the United States announced that he would speak at the session tomorrow morning.

Vishinsky, followed by his aides and a crowd of newsmen, stalked out of the great hall of the Palais De Chaillot immediately after the adjournment.

"We shall see," he said, when asked whether he would attend tomorrow's sessions.

He gave the same answer when asked if Russia would consider herself bound by any Security Council decision on the western charges that the Soviet Union was menacing world peace with her blockade of Berlin.

The red-faced, white-haired Russian leader appeared in good spirits. He smiled and laughed as he chatted with his assistants.

Before the vote, Vishinsky pleaded with the Council to ignore the Berlin blockade, which western powers charge endangers world peace and security.

Vishinsky, a purge trial prosecutor who became Deputy Foreign Minister of Russia, contended again "there is no blockade of Berlin," although the Russians closed land access to the four-power city in June.

He argued that the Council of Foreign Ministers was created to solve German problems and that this, rather than the security council, is the correct forum for the issue.

"Gentlemen of the Security Council, you have a lot of worries before you already," he said. "It is hardly worthy of you to ignore these direct responsibilities in favor of one that does not concern you."

John L. Lewis Advises Miners Oppose Truman

Assails President As 'Unfit'; Bitterly Denounces Prosecution Of UMW In Recent Coal Strikes

Cincinnati, Oct. 5 —(AP)—John L. Lewis today assailed President Truman for prosecuting the United Mine Workers in recent coal strikes and advised the miners to "do something about it" in the Nov. 2 election.

"He is a man totally unfit for the position," Lewis said to a wildly cheering, horn-blowing opening session of the UMW convention.

"His principles are elastic. He is careless with the truth. He is a malignant, scheming sort of an individual who is dangerous not only to the United Mine Workers but dangerous to the United States of America," Lewis shouted.

The UMW leader said that Mr. Truman was "too cowardly" to put him in jail in 1936 and last spring when the President invoked injunctions to halt crippling mine strikes.

Fines totaling $2,130,000 were imposed on Lewis and the Union for contempt of court orders arising from the action.

"Men have to dig coal to pay that fine," Lewis said. "How many men are going to die to pay it? How many will break their backs to pay that fine? Harry don't care."

"It evolves on you to do something about it when you have a chance to say who shall be the next President of the United States."

Asheville, N.C., Oct. 5 —(AP)—J. Strom Thurmond, States Rights presidential candidate, predicted here last night that his campaign would "sweep the South from Maryland to Texas."

Speaking before a crowd of about 150 and a radio audience, Thurmond declared:

"We have a chance to gain more than 100 electoral votes and to cause the election to be thrown into the House of Representatives where our chances are good."

Is Stalin Still Boss?

Analyst Reviews About-Face By Soviet Government On Berlin Crisis; Solution Appeared Near, Then Russia Balked; Did Politburo Reverse Stalin's 'Yes'?

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Oct. 5 —(AP)—Did the Politburo tell Stalin to go back on his word?

That seems a fair question in view of the Russian double-talk on the Berlin crisis.

The Politburo is a committee of top Communists in Russia. It checks on every problem before the government acts. It can issue orders independently.

Now look at what happened: Early this year the United States, Britain and France began setting up a new German government in zones of Germany. The Russian zone is not included.

Such a government, sponsored by the west, would be friendly to the west and a block to Russian efforts to control all Germany.

But the west said the "Door is open" to Russia. The new government hasn't been set up yet. The western powers and the Germans in their zones are working on it.

Just keep that in mind a moment and go on to something else. Last June Russia and the three western powers started two separate money systems in Berlin. The Russians did it first.

When the others did it, Russia stopped letting them send supplies overland into Berlin for their troops and for Germans in their sectors.

Russia could do this because since Berlin is in the Russian zone, supplies for Berlin must pass through that zone.

Since June the western powers have had to send in supplies by plane.

To try to get the blockade lifted, the western governments told their Ambassadors in Moscow to see Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov. The Ambassadors had two talks with Stalin, 11 with Molotov.

Railroad Unions Win Third Round Of Pay Increases

Wage Hike Effective Oct. 16; Adds About $4.80 To Weekly Pay Checks

Chicago, Oct. 5 —(AP)—Two railroad unions, representing 175,000 workers, have settled third-round wage demands with the country's carriers—a 10 cents an hour pay increase.

The wage hike, to become effective Oct. 16, will add about $4.80 to the weekly pay check of members of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

A spokesman for the railroads estimated the new wage boost will add $65,665,000 annually to the carriers' labor costs, including payroll taxes. The workers affected include trainmen, conductors, yardmen, yardmasters, dining car employees, and 93 per cent of the country's switchmen.

Negotiations with three other operating unions and 16 non-operating brotherhoods are pending. Daniel P. Loomis, chairman of the western railroads' wage committee, said the carriers' operating costs would increase $381,775,000 a year if the 10 cent increase is granted to all rail workers. The wage hikes granted in two previous rounds were the same for all unions.

The carrier and the two operating unions reached agreement on the wage issue yesterday after two weeks of negotiations. The unions had asked a boost of 25 per cent.

The other three operating unions—locomotive engineers, switchmen, and locomotive firemen and engineers—have a membership of 275,000. The 16 non-operating brotherhoods claim about 1,000,000 workers.

The engineers and firemen have asked an increase of $1.76 a day. This sum represents the difference between the $1.24 they received in 1948 and the $3 a day they had demanded. The workers are paid varying rates.

A carrier spokesman said the weekly pay wage for the engineers is between $38.90 and $125.66; for switchmen, $74.30 to $109; conductors, from $77.40 to $117.54, and trainmen, from $71.38 to $86.50.

Good Prospects Secure Hospital

Architect To Submit Plans For Structure In A Few Weeks

(By CHESTER WALSH)

At the monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners yesterday it was stated that George Watts Carr, Durham architect, would submit plans and specifications for the new Pitt County Hospital, to be built on the More property, opposite the radio station, on the Falkland highway, within the next few weeks.

The Hospital Board of Trustees indicated to the board that federal and state funds for the 100-bed hospital will be allocated to the county about November 1. The estimated cost of the hospital is nearly $1,000,000. The federal government provides one-third of the amount, the state one-third and Pitt County one-third. A hospital bond issue for $352,000 was approved at a county election some time ago. The telephone company has been requested to move its line, which now crosses the hospital site.

The Board of Commissioners approved a project to improve the old Leggett dirt road and a road leading up to the Winterville Negro school.

The commissioners bought $12,000 worth of Stokes school bonds as an investment of surplus county funds. They canvassed the recent Fountain and Belvoir schools district elections. They approved the sale of an automobile confiscated recently with illegal liquor in it.

The American Legion was exempted from payment of schedule "B" taxes on the Pitt County Fair to be held here this month. The board appropriated $50 for the Negro farm agent to use as premium money at a cattle show to be held here shortly.

Look Into Need Of Air Service For South, West

Washington, Oct. 5 —(AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board is undertaking a broad investigation into the need and possibility of through air transport service between the south and the west, a board spokesman said today.

It has consolidated into one hearing, he said, applications of 10 air lines to start such through service and its own suggestions for an investigation into the possibility of providing this service through an interchange of equipment by lines now operating in the affected area.

No hearing date has been set. The 10 air line companies have filed applications to operate through service between the west coast and New Orleans, Miami, Shreveport, Atlanta and other southern cities.

Typhoon Strikes

Canton, China, Oct. 5 —(AP)—Press dispatches reaching here today said 800 persons were killed when a typhoon struck Leichow Peninsula and the Pakhoi, Kwangchow and Hoikow areas Sept. 27.

The reports said 600 persons perished when the typhoon sank more than 100 fishing boats near Leichow. Another 800 were killed when 70 salt laden sailing junks were destroyed near Pakhoi.

Heavy damage and casualties were inflicted by torrential rains which inundated the area around Hainan Island.

Army Checking All Reports Of 'Flying Discs'

Dayton, O., Oct. 5 —(AP)—The flying disc business shows no signs of fading out.

People still are "seeing things in the air" in all sections of the country, and whether it's a case of jitter in an atomic age or illusions of aerial "phenomena" is something Wright-Patterson Field officers would like to know.

Today, Col. C. H. Welch, Public Relations officer of the air material command, said he wanted the public to know the army is investigating such reports, regardless of the place or type of occurrence.

"That way," he said, "the public can be assured there's nothing going on we don't know about."

To Drop 'Chutes In Air Corridor

Berlin, Oct. 5 —(AP)—The Russians notified the western powers today they plan parachute practice in the air corridor used by American and British planes supplying blockaded Berlin.

The Soviet warning, posted in the four-power Berlin air safety center, said the drill was to begin today from a 2,500-foot altitude.

Molotov was balky but Stalin said "yes."

After the Moscow talks on that high level, Representatives of the four powers sat down in Berlin to work out details of the agreement.

But the Russians now not only said there could be no four-power control of Berlin money but even talked of extending their land blockade to a blockade of some of the supplies reaching Berlin by air.

Kittrell, Jr. Sharing honors with Mrs. Kittrell was Miss Jane Harrison, a bride-elect of this month. Mrs. Howard presented her honor guests with shoulder corsages of bronze feathered mums.

Beautiful arrangements of early fall flowers presented a lovely picture throughout the home where smart tables, covered with exquisite cloths and centered with Better Times roses in antique bud vases, were placed.

In the dining room was an exquisite arrangement of Better Times roses centering the luncheon table from which Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, Sr., and Mrs. R. M. Gaines served a three course luncheon. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. N. S. Beard and Mrs. Frank Sendall.

About twenty-five guests enjoyed this lovely affair.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Roger Taylor, recent bride couple, Mrs. Frank Copeland, Mrs. Carl McKinney and Mrs. Dennis Johnson held open house from 8:30 until 11:30, Saturday night, September 26th, at the home of Mrs. Copeland on the Falkland highway.

The guests on entering were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor by Mrs. Carl McKinney.

Food drinks were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

The guests were then invited into the dining room by Mrs. Copeland where a delicious buffet supper was served by the hostesses.

The table was covered with a beautiful imported Italian cut-work cloth centered with an arrangement of assorted fruits and autumn leaves. The house was beautifully decorated with fall flowers.

Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening by special musical arrangements.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Dennis Johnson.

About sixty guests called during the evening.

Strength FOR THE DAY

THIS WILL BE HAPPY
Most people are happy or unhappy depending upon how they feel.

If we allow feelings to dominate us in matters of this sort, we can be pretty sure that most of the time we shall be unhappy. For a poor night's rest, a badly digested meal, a protracted season of work which leaves the nerves frayed, will furnish the physical basis for bad mental states which range from peevishness to melancholy.

Psychologists today lay great stress on mental states in their diagnoses of the many bizarre attitudes which people frequently assume. It would probably be better if they emphasized a bit more the physiological conditions which contribute so often to dejection and a sense of despair. The body is a delicate chemical instrument, and a little mal-adjustment can interfere with its normal functioning as surely as the grounding of electric current can bring an internal combustion engine to a standstill.

If we are going to be happy, we must make the exercise of the will the chief factor in producing happiness. This is but another way of saying that we are usually about as happy as we make up our minds to be. Fatigue, indigestion, irritation, and the influence of the unconscious mind can make us unhappy if we let them, but we can overcome them with good cheer and a wholesome sense of courage if we will.

By LYNN NISBET
FARM BUREAU — The North Carolina Farm Bureau is moving into an intensive membership campaign with top goal of 90,000 members and a minimum of 75,000 to report at the national convention. Preparations are being made for a special train to the New York national convention in mid-December and not less than 500 members are expected to attend. Reservations are also being made for the special train from Goldsboro to Asheville for the state Farm Bureau convention in late January. In ten years membership in the state Farm Bureau has gone up from about 17,000 to 70,000, and it is one of the most active and vigorous occupational or professional organizations in the state.

COMPILED — One of the most valuable reference books on North Carolina produced in many years is the county by county data compiled by the staff of the advertising-news division in the department of conservation and development and edited by Director Bill Sharpe. The book presents a map of each of the 100 counties, together with descriptive and statistical data as to area, population, industry, agriculture, fiscal condition and other pertinent information. Because of the magnitude and expense this book could not be produced as a state publication for free distribution. It was processed by the Warren Publishing Company and may be had for $5.00 per copy. All the data is on file in the state advertising-news offices and is accessible to persons visiting the office for that purpose.

ERRATA — In any work of this kind some errors and omissions are bound to occur. Census figures of 1940 are used on population, and latest available statistics for other items. This means that some counties, with alert local agencies, have data as late as 1947, while others have no authoritative figures within the past five or six years. In every instance the date of information, and in most cases the source, is given to facilitate intelligent comparison.

"FREE" — This brings up the question of how "free" is literature about North Carolina. Many of the pieces produced by the various state departments for "free" distribution cost the state from two to fifty cents each, even in the multiple hundred thousand lots in which they are printed. Almost every mail brings requests to state departments from the governor's office down, from anywhere from a dozen to a hundred pieces of specified literature. The thousands of school children who invade capital square every spring ask for maps, color-picture pamphlets and other material; and after every such visit capital square is littered with this material which the children have carelessly dropped.

NEED GLASSES?

At Five Points — Greenville, N. C.

If You Want To See Something Funny— —JUST TOSS AN UNCENSORED NEWSPAPER AT ANY DICTATOR!

DISTRIBUTION — School teachers often request multiple copies of advertising material for use in geography classes, or in studies of history and economics. That raises the question of whether the bill should properly be charged to the school account or to the state advertising account. Bill Sharpe said some months ago that if he filled every in-state request for advertising material he wouldn't have any left to send out of the state, which was the main purpose for providing the material. He has adopted the policy when a teacher requests 40 copies of certain pieces of high priced literature for her class of sending one copy and asking her to pass it around.

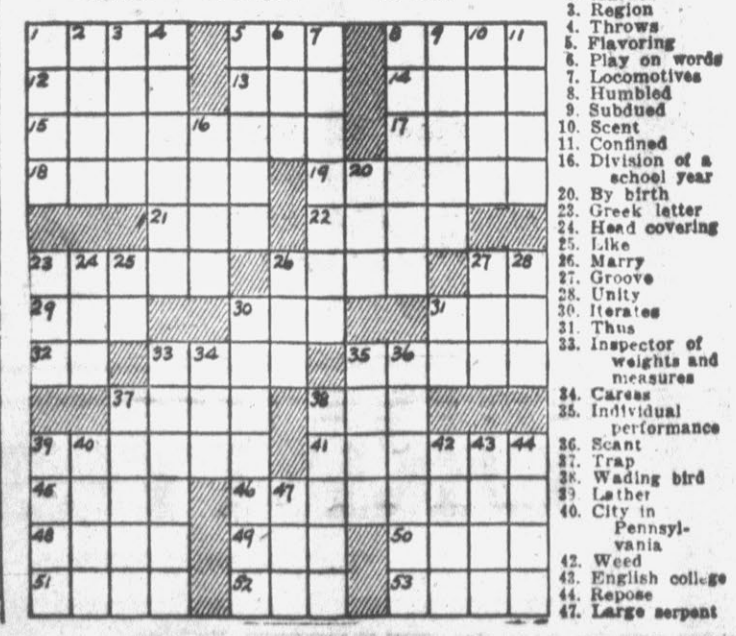

SPONGING — Price cause of headaches for publicity folks in the state departments of agriculture, conservation and highways—the three which produce more promotional literature than any other—is demand from private industry for "free" material. There is record of one airline asking for 10,000 copies of expensive state literature to help induce travelers from South America to come to the United States. That's a cute way of getting taxpayers to foot the bill for private business promotion. Point is, that while the literature prepared by state departments is "free" in the sense that no charge is made for it, it is far from free in the sense that it can be produced without cost to somebody—and that somebody is you.

Movie Shown At Rotary Meeting

By WYATT BROWN
Stress the abilities and not the disabilities of the physically handicapped was the plea of Mrs. Mary McCrary, counselor for Employment Security Commission, last night at the Rotary Club when she presented a sound movie entitled "No Help Wanted."

It was a Rotary Program in keeping with National Employment the Handicapped Week. The movie showed how by a properly worked out plan physically handicapped persons might be employed to advantage. The handicapped people are trained and capable; usually it is the hesitancy of the employer which works the greatest hardship in getting them work. It was amazing to see the way they could get around and use artificial limbs even at apparently highly skilled work involving the artificial limbs.

Prior to the program Rotary president Ernest L. Willard urged the cooperation of the Rotarians for fire prevention Week stressing the importance of never letting ones burning match go out unchaperoned. He referred to the smokers' book matches as being the hottest look in the world—in fact he assigned 80 per cent of all fires to smokers' matches.

The only visiting Rotarian last night was Ralph Hardee of the Ayden Rotary Club. Among the guests there were several Rotarians but attending as guests instead of as visiting Rotarians. The guests were: Faust Johnson of Ayden, Mr. B. D. Moore of Mount Holly, Harold Hines of Hartford, Conn., Linwood Blackman, Queens, Africa, Dr. M. P. Hoot, Dr. M. N. Posey, W. W. Howe, Charles Connors, Harold Staton, and Freeman Self of Wilson.

Service League Opens Activities

The Service League officially opened the year's activities at a meeting Monday morning at the Shepard Memorial Library with Mrs. J. T. Little, president, presiding.

The invocation was given by Mrs. E. W. Harvey, a member of the advisory council to the league, who was a special guest.

Mrs. Little had on display the silver bowl which was given by Mrs. H. L. Ormond, a former president. This bowl is to be awarded each year to the member who has done the most outstanding work in service to the community.

Mrs. J. W. Warner, finance chairman, presented plans for the year and announced that the Service League Cook Book is on sale at the hospital bed shelf at Ellington's Book Store.

Mrs. R. C. Stokes II, chairman of the Laughinghouse Hospital Bed, reported five patients had been hospitalized during the summer. She expressed thanks to friends who had contributed to this fund.

Mrs. W. L. Whedbee, Thrift Shop chairman, announced that the Thrift Shop would be open for business Tuesday Oct. 5 and would be open each week day thereafter from 10 a.m.-12 noon-2:30 p.m.-4:30 p.m. The shop is located on the third floor of the State Bank building. Here second hand clothing will be sold at a nominal cost to the needy. This office will also be headquarters for the T.B. Seal Sale this year as the league is sponsoring the sale, with Mrs. Joseph Moye as chairman.

The layette, lending chest and emergency committees had been called on during the summer and had placed two layettes, sheets, pillow cases, rubber sheets, 2 mattresses, bath robe and 3 sets of crutches. Clothes had also been given to enable a family to attend Sunday school.

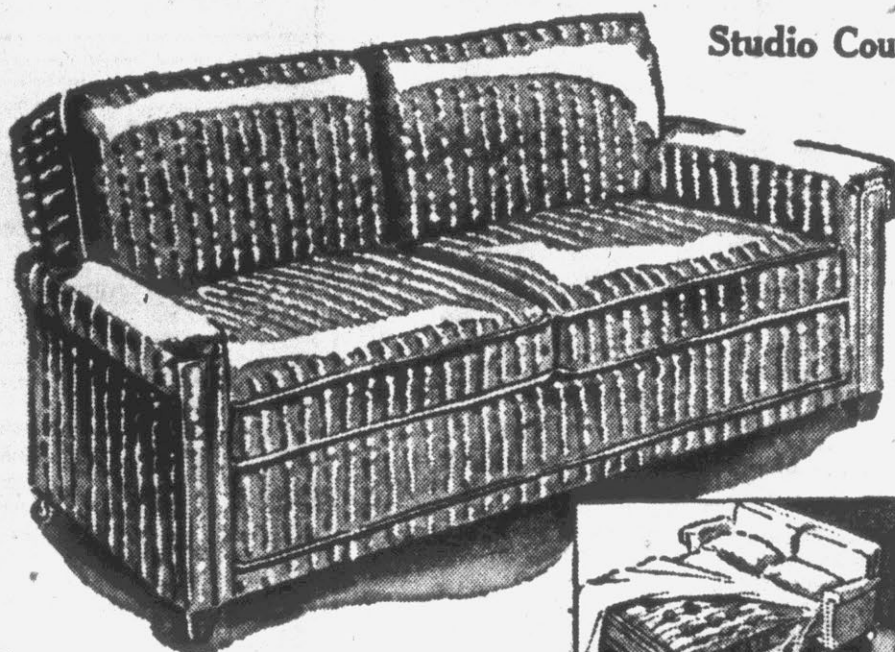

Mrs. Wyatt Brown, membership chairman, presented eight names to be voted on as new members.

Plans were presented for organizing a children's Little Theatre in the near future, funds from which would be used for supervised recreation, a much needed but neglected project in Greenville. The league was very happy to make a small contribution of $37.50 to the Battle-Kelly Clinic that has been organized for the benefit of the colored people.

Indians And Braves Settle Down To Plans For Big Meeting; New Attendance Record For Series Anticipated

Boston, Oct. 5—(AP)—Cleveland's newly-crowned American League champs, still walking on thin air after their playoff success, have named Bobby Feller to face Johnny Sain of the Boston Braves in tomorrow's World Series opener at Braves Field.

Rapid Robert will have to go hard to top the performance of young Gene Bearden in yesterday's 3-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox in an unprecedented sudden death playoff of a tie.

Today the Indians and Braves settle down to plan for a series that must come as an anti-climax to the Indians. It won't come as any anti-climax to their pocketbooks.

The big Cleveland ball park with its 35,000 capacity is certain to set a new series record.

Harris Out

New York, Oct. 5—(AP)—The job of leading the fabulous New York Yankees is open again today for the fourth time since 1946.

Stanley (Bucky) Harris, who piloted the Yanks to third place this season after losing them to the American League pennant and a World Series triumph in 1947, is out in the cold.

The move, which came as no surprise, was made yesterday after a conference among Yankees President Dan Topping, general manager George Weiss and Harris.

In a terse announcement, the Yanks said the decision not to renew Harris' contract was by "mutual agreement."

Only 40,000 bulging at the seams, a new record cut for the winning players may result. It's certain to be many thousands of dollars more than an all-Boston series would have provided.

Manager Billy Southworth of the Braves is expected to make his decision on his second base starter after a morning drill. Eddie Stanky, still slightly handicapped by the broken ankle he suffered in July, and Sibby Sisti, who filled in capably, are the candidates.

Working with only one full day of rest after shutting out Detroit Saturday, Bearden silenced the guns of the fence-denting Red Sox in their own ball yard to gain Cleveland's first American League flag since 1920.

He did it with a little of this and a little of that—but mostly his knuckle ball. He threw the dipey-doodler four out of every five pitches. The knuckler got him home. Parlayed with the raw courage that brought him back to baseball from Pacific war action with aluminum plates in his head and left knee.

"The knuckler did it," said Manager Lou Boudreau, "they just couldn't hit it. I know one of their coaches was tipping the hitters every time he threw it—which was four out of every five—and they still couldn't connect."

Gilding and soaring are the simplest types of flight.

Gridiron Gossip

By "BOO BOO" BUTLER

Herman Bryson, North State conference lad of Appalachian is sharing top scoring honors with Charles "Choo Choo" Justice of Carolina. Bryson scored two touchdowns in Saturday's victory over Elon to bring his total to 36 points.

The Pirates had a light workout yesterday because of the weather. Coach Jim Johnson and Boone ran the boys through their plays and stressed blocking assignments. They are guests at Elon this week. At this time, Elon is favored by 6 points.

Question from E. C. T. C., what happened to Herman Wedemeyer who played with St. Mary's? Ans.: A top triple-threat artist, Herman Wedemeyer was right at home when he joined his ex-college coach on the Los Angeles dons. Both the fleet Hawaiian back and Coach Jimmy Phelan joined the pro ranks off the St. Mary's college campus.

Steve Noble of E. C. T. C. thinks that you should get something if you pick all the football games wrong instead of right. Steve picked six teams Saturday and missed all six.

Team standings in the North State Conference remaining just about the same this week. Catawba, Appalachian and Lenoir-Rhyne remained unbeaten in conference play. Whereas only the Apps. have not lost any game on the schedule. Catawba has scored the most points, 76, while Lenoir-Rhyne has shown the finest defense.

Lee Spears, of Catawba, is still making a strong drive to make "all State." His offensive and defensive play against High Point Saturday was outstanding.

Bo. Farley's Green Phantoms will play host to Dunn, in a non-conference battle this week-end. Bad weather forced the Phantoms inside yesterday. But here's hope that the weather will clear up so the boys can clear up the mistakes they made in the Tarboro game. The strength of Dunn is not known at this time.

Irish Edge UNC In Football Polls

New York, Oct. 5—(AP)—Notre Dame has renewed its lease on the No. 1 spot in college football's big ten.

On top of the heap at the end of the last campaign, the Fighting Irish moved right back into their penthouse in the first Associated Press poll of the new season.

One hundred and fifty-three sports writers from throughout the country gave Frank Leahy's proteges a total of 1,200 points—enough for a squeaking edge over rampant North Carolina and surprising Northwestern.

Points are awarded on the basis of ten for a first place vote, nine for second and on down the line.

North Carolina, which has rolled over Texas and Georgia, received more first place votes than the Irish—55 to 50—but fell 10 points short in the overall balloting with 1,190.

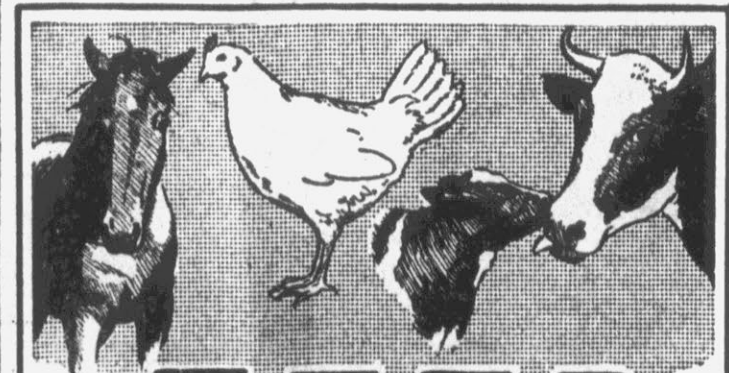

Northwestern, conqueror of U.C. L.A. and Purdue, was in third place with 1,028—the only other team to record more than a thousand.

The Irish were the more solid favorite, placing on every "Top Ten" card except one.

Southern Methodist's Southwest conference champions placed fourth in the opening poll, followed by Army, Georgia Tech, Michigan, Minnesota California and Penn State in order.

Chapter 12

The car bore them quietly out the Eleventh Avenue gorge under the Cabrillo Bridge. Behind them the plate glass of the Sky Room showed as a red rectangle high in the sky.

"Light up and tell me about your father and Shasta Lynn," prompted Walter James. "But first: are you sure?"

Kevin fumbled at the cigarettes. "Oh, I don't know! I'm not sure of anything any more. But I can't see what else it could be."

She set two cigarettes aglow and handed him one. "You see, Dad never goes out at night very much. He likes to sit by the radio all evening until he falls asleep. He's crazy about radio programs no matter what they are. He even has a radio going all day in his office, listening to the music over XECC and those announcers with the horrible voices."

Walter James looked puzzled. "That's a Mexican station down in Tijuana. And, of course, the announcers are Mexican and all have flat raspy voices."

"Does Shasta Lynn have a radio that particularly excites your father?"

"Please don't be funny," said Kevin, unhappily. "The radio has nothing to do with it. I was just trying to show you Dad doesn't lead a particularly wild life. But for the last few years he's been going out one night a week regularly—but not necessarily the same night every week. I never thought anything about it. I don't even remember whether he told me where he was going or not. I just figured it was some real estate business and didn't pay any attention. But one night about a month ago he told me he was going to a Chamber of Commerce meeting and the next day one of my professors was talking about the Chamber of Commerce and happened to mention their meetings were on an entirely different night." Her voice raced ahead as though she were anxious to get everything said. "The next week he said he was going down to the Bowling Academy. I went down town and sat in the Academy all evening. Dad never showed up."

"A man has a right to change his mind," said Walter James amibly.

"But for the last three weeks he's used the Bowling Academy excuse and he never goes there."

Walter James said carefully, "Please don't be offended by this, Kevin—but isn't it his own business?"

"Walter, I'm not trying to pry into Dad's life. We've never been awfully close. I've got too much imagination for him. But we always have been on the level with each other and—and I don't want to see him get mixed up with the wrong people. People like Shasta Lynn."

"Just how does Shasta Lynn fit into this?"

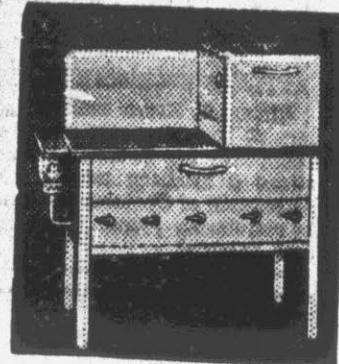

"This is where I really seem silly," she admitted. "I got some crazy idea that he was in financial trouble. I've had a semester of accounting, so I checked his books. If it had been anything involved, I wouldn't have found it. But the books are simple and they fairly shouted at me."

"What did they say?"

"Two months ago Shasta Lynn got a house in La Mesa from my father. She didn't buy it; he just gave it

Good Progress In Superior Court

By CHESTER WALSH

Judge Peyton McSwain of Shelby and Solicitor Dick Bundy made good progress in Superior Court yesterday, disposing of an unusually heavy criminal docket. The grand jury returned numerous true bills, including one charging John David Allen with murder.

The following cases were disposed of:

Adrian Olsson, driving drunk, $100 fine and costs. His driver's license was ordered revoked for a year and he was ordered not to violate a prohibition law for two years.

The case of Daniel Lee Hopkins, non-support, was continued to the next term of court.

W. C. Adams was not guilty of issuing a worthless check.

Two cases against Mary Lee Bridges, charging sale of whiskey, were consolidated. She was given six months in jail, sentence suspended on payment of $50 and costs, and she is not to violate any law for two years.

Charles Barnes, who was charged with burglary, submitted a plea of guilty to assault with a deadly weapon. He will be sentenced later.

Willie Lee Fleming was given four months on the roads for selling liquor, sentence suspended on payment of $25 and costs and he is not to violate any law for two years.

Three cases against C. A. Mc-Lamb, charging sale of liquor, were consolidated and he was fined $100 and costs, and he is not to violate any law for two years.

Rosa Fleming pleaded guilty in three cases charging sale of liquor. She was given 12 months in jail, sentence suspended on payment of $50 and costs, and she is not to violate any law for two years.

Two cases against Woodrow Had-dock, charging sale of liquor and selling beer without a license were consolidated. The court gave him 12 months on the roads, sentence suspended on payment of $75 and costs and he is not to violate any liquor law for two years.

Northrop has disclosed, however, that the opposing teams will be boys and girls.

New Attempt To Secure Bequest

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 6—(AP)—Attorney General Harry McMullan went to Washington today to make another attempt to secure a $1,400,000 request for the University of North Carolina.

The District Court of Appeals in Washington was scheduled to hear another appeal in the eight years of litigation over the will of the late William Hayes Ackland.

McMullan and members of the law firm of Gardner, Morrison and Rogers will argue that a district court order awarding the request to Rollins college should be overruled.

Ackland died in 1940, and in two wills directed that his estate should be used for the establishment of a museum of fine arts. Of two wills which were probated, one mentioned Rollins College, the University of North Carolina, and Duke University, and the second mentioned only Duke.
