Awards of $100 each will be given to the boy and girl who present the best stories or messages that emphasize fire tragedies, safety "fire-rules," wisdom of fire prevention, or dangers of carelessness.

Mr. Stirling launched his first contest in 1945, when Frances Tucker was the winner. The following year Louise Bizzell copied the prize, with Bobby Bradshaw winning in 1947. As there are separate boy and girl teams for the first time tonight, there will be two winners for 1948.

On the girls' team will be Janet Waters, Betty Sue Harris, Dot Whiteley, Teresa Saleed, Peggy Forrest, and Louise Baisan. Competing on the male team will be Carl Worsley, John Humber, Ray Sears, Mitchell Saleed, and Zack Taft.

The World Around Us Subject Programs

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Wiley Brown entertained the Ladies of the Round Table for the first full meeting of the club year. Mrs. E. R. Browning, president, called the meeting to order and after the reading of the collect the roll was called and eighteen members responded. We were delighted to have Mrs. A. W. Baker, Mrs. C. W. Hearn and Miss Eunice McGhee as special guests for the afternoon. Their presence added much to the meeting. After a short business session Mrs. J. E. Winslow, chairman of the library committee, announced the titles of our new club books and they were started on a regular circulation plan by which each member will be able to read them all. The meeting was then turned over to the program committee. Mrs. D. E. Spain, Jr., chairman, announced the study topic for the year, "The World Around Us," a miscellaneous program and presented Mrs. C. T. Munford, who gave a most interesting and humorous paper on "Superstitions." Before she finished her paper she proved to each one of us that we are more or less superstitious. We always look forward to hearing Mrs. Munford, she is so full of wit and humor that she puts us in a jolly mood. Our news for this meeting was summer reminiscences and it was most interesting to learn how each member had spent the summer. Mrs. Milton White, our pronunciation referee, told us of four words in which Americans use the broad A and the English flat A. They were "mall," "Polack," "Albany" and "Raleigh." Then she gave to us the "spice" which always causes much fun and laughter. During the social hour the hostess, assisted by her granddaughter, Mrs. Joe Brown, Mrs. C. T. Munford and Mrs. Milton White, served a sweet course.—Reported.

Miss Mary Wells Bunting Weds Thomas Rushman Andrews

Bethel. — On October 2 at six o'clock in the Bethel Methodist Church, the marriage of Miss Mary Wells Bunting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton Bunting of Bethel and Thomas Rushman Andrews, Junior, son of Mrs. Thomas Rushman Andrews, Senior, and the late Mr. Andrews of Bethel, was solemnized in a formal candlelight ceremony marked by beauty and simplicity. The Reverend W. M. Howard, Jr., pastor of the church, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

A program of impressive wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Robert Harold Staton of Bethel, organist, Mr. Ed Stallings of Wilson, violinist, and Miss Peggy Sue Taylor, soloist, of New York City and Newton, North Carolina.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Staton and Mr. Stallings presented the following selections: "Evening Star," by Wagner; "Romance," by Rubinstein; "Poem," by Fredia; and "An Old Refrain," by Frey. "Oh Perfect Love" by Barnby, was played during the ceremony, and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" was sung as the benediction.

As vocal selections Miss Taylor rendered "If God Left Only You," by Densmore; "If I Could Tell You," Firestone; "Through the Years," by Youman; and "I Love Thee," by Grieg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of ivory satin, fashioned with a sheer, off shoulder yoke embroidered in sequins and seed pearls, long fitted sleeves, basque bodice, and a full skirt forming a wide, circular train. Her full length veil of imported illusion fell from a matching pearl tiara. White orchids cascaded with lilies of the valley and fleur deamour topped the prayer book which she carried. Her only ornament, a diamond and pearl lavalier, the gift of the groom, was a family heirloom.

The matrons of honor, Mrs. J.-Van Taylor, Junior, of Bethel and Mrs. Robert B. Lindsay of Chapel Hill, and the maid of honor, Miss Fay Morgan Chambers of Marion, wore dresses of beauty satin, made with an off shoulder effect formed by berthes, fitted bodices and full skirts caught up in front over ruffled petticoats. Small matching plumes were worn in their hair. They carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and andiantum fern tied with American Beauty satin ribbon. The bridesmaids, Misses Peggy Gray of Robersonville and Winston-Salem, Helen Sprull of Lexington, Anne Southern of Winston-Salem, Betty Ann Evans of Enfield, Anne Mills of Morehead City and Mrs. Fred Hill of Chapel Hill wore dresses identical to those of the honor attendants and they also carried arm bouquets of white chrysanthemums and andiantum fern tied with American Beauty satin ribbon.

Judy Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Randolph of Enfield was flower girl. Her dress was of white marquisette and was fashioned on lines similar to those of the other attendants. Her bouquet was made of red roses and tied with red ribbon.

Leighton Blount, Junior, of Bethel attended the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were John Halset, Charlotte; Howard Gray, Winston-Salem; Knott Proctor, Jr., Greenville and Chapel Hill; George Bullock, Bethel and Lillington; Claude Strickland, Winston-Salem; Jack Carson, Bethel and Chapel Hill; W. B. Soyars, Richmond, Va.; J. Van Taylor, Jr., Bethel; and Wells Grasham, Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Bunting, mother of the bride, wore an aqua silk crepe dress embroidered with sequins and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Andrews, mother of the groom, wore a crepe dress of peacock blue and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Bethel Rotary House honoring the bridal party and out of town guests. The reception room was decorated throughout with early fall flowers. The bridal table was covered with an imported cloth and centered with an arrangement of white bridal flowers. Silver candelabra held white tapers.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Garrenton received the guests on the porch; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bunting greeted the guests at the door while Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Blount introduced them to the receiving line. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Howard, Jr. directed the guests to the beautifully appointed table, where Mrs. J. A. Staton and Mrs. D. C. Carson, Sr. served bridal cakes and ices. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bunting, assisted by Misses Janice Roberson and Toddy Smith, poured punch. Mr. and Mrs. L. N. James presided over the register, and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McWhorter. Others who assisted in serving and receiving were: Mrs. G. N. Noble, Miss Elmer Ward Staton, Miss Camille Staton, Mrs. J. I. Taylor, Mrs. Jim Whichard, Mrs. F. F. Pollard, Mrs. W. J. Mayo, Miss Sally Jo Gurganus, Mrs. D. C. Carson, Jr., and Mrs. W. R. Hardison, Jr.

Later in the evening, the couple left for a wedding trip through the New England States. For travel, the bride wore a costume suit of brown wool crepe, a hat of winter white, mink fur, and white orchids. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will make their home in Bethel where Mr. Andrews operates the Andrews Hardware Store.

The bride is a graduate of Bethel High School and was graduated from Salem College in June at which time she received her B. S. degree in music.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Bethel High School. He spent two and one-fourth years in armed service during which time he was commissioned as Ensign in the United States Navy at Northwestern University. He was graduated from the University of North Carolina with a B. S. Degree in commerce in June, 1948. While attending the University, Mr. Andrews became a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity and the Order of the Grail.

Mrs. Thomas Rushman Andrews, Junior

Following the announcement of her engagement, Miss Bunting has been extended many social courtesies:

Boy Bicyclist Has Narrow Escape On Falkland Highway

A State Highway patrolman said today that William W. Little, 10-year-old son of W. J. Little of Falkland, had a narrow escape from death yesterday morning about 8 o'clock, when the bicycle he was riding near Falkland swerved into the path of a car driven by O. D. Sauls, 1204 Sauls street, Wilson. The injured lad was taken to Pitt General hospital for treatment of minor injuries.

HOME BEAUTIFICATION MONTHLY HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB—KNOW YOUR SHRUBBERY

Twenty-one Home Demonstration Clubs with an attendance of 224 were delighted with the club program for September on "Know Your Shrubbery". Home Demonstration Club members were told by the Home Agents that the five reasons why people use plants are as follows: to furnish shade; to screen off attractive views; to decorate the house and other buildings; to furnish a background; and to trans and emphasize views. Branches of the many common plants and trees that will grow best in Pitt county were shown to members at the meeting by the following Home Beautification Leaders: Chocod, Mrs. J. J. Carroll; Ballards, Mrs. L. M. Turnage; Belvoir, Mrs. J. T. Dupree, Bethel, Mrs. H. L. Rives; Cannons, Mrs. Louise Stokes; Falkland, Mrs. Henry Pittman; Littlefield, Mrs. J. H. Patrick; Pactionius, Miss Sidney Davenport; Pierce, Mrs. J. C. Whitehurst; Red Banks, Mrs. James L. W. Cherry and Earl Hardee; Red Oak, Mrs. E. A. Hooks; Renston-Nobles, Mrs. Charlie Davenport; Stokes, Mrs. J. B. Congleton; St. John, Mrs. Alton Chapman; Sweet Gum Grove, Mrs. C. H. Briley; Simpson, Miss Lena Barron; Fountain, Mrs. Cary Gaynor, Bell Arthur, Mrs. J. W. Wilkerson. The Agent and leader concluded the demonstration with a discussion of the methods of preparation.

Two clubs were fortunate in having a guest speaker to give their program on "Know Your Shrubbery". Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, past president of the Farmville Garden Club, was a most interesting speaker on the subject at the Farmville Club. She displayed several pieces of native shrubs in her lecture. Her talk was enjoyed immensely by the 18 women present.

Mrs. L. E. Turnage, Home Beautification leader of the Ballards Home Demonstration Club whose hobby is rooting shrubbery and growing shrubbery, kept the Seven Pines club members spell bound as she showed them branches of the many shrubs that she has growing in her yard. From the 25 shrubs discussed by Mrs. Turnage all were shrubs that she had rooted except two. In conclusion Mrs. Turnage extended an invitation to the club to visit her yard at one of their regular spring meetings.

All Home Demonstration clubs were opened with the song for the club month, "The Star Spangled Banner" and the Club Collect repeated by the members.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the September club meetings as follows:

Bell Arthur, President, Mrs. Heber Strickland, Vice-President, Mrs. J. E. Wilkerson, Sec. Mrs. W. L. White, Treas. Mrs. Paul Rasberry. Belvoir: Pres. Mrs. R. P. Clarke, V-Pres. Mrs. J. T. Dupree, Sec. and Treas. Mrs. J. C. Parker, Reporter

ABC Officers Raid Two Stills

By CHESTER WALSH
Pitt County ABC Officers J. M. Ward and Claude Manning, working in cooperation with Beaufort County ABC Officers Clyde Stubbs and Francis Eddings and Alcoholic Tax Unit Officers E. A. Bennett and Ed Cox of New Bern, after an all-night vigil Tuesday in woods, made a surprise raid on two stills in the Pine-town section of Beaufort County.

They arrested two men, Joe Mobley and Robert Peel, while operating a distillery. Another whiskey still was found nearby. One of them was a 400-gallon submarine type, the other a 200-gallon submarine type. The officers destroyed 1,100 gallons of sugar and cornmeal mash and confiscated Joe Mobley's automobile, they said.

Mobley, who was carrying a .32 caliber revolver, had to be disarmed during the raid when he attempted to draw his gun. The officers quoted him as saying that he had heard that there were bears in the woods.

Mobley and Peel were given a preliminary hearing before the United States Commissioner in Washington yesterday and bound over to the April term of Federal Court.

FLOOR FINISH DEMONSTRATION GIVEN
A demonstration on Refinishing Floors was given in the Home Agents' office on Thursday, Sept. 2.

During the morning session Mr. Richard Dunlap, representative of the Clarke Sanding Machine Company, Charlotte, demonstrated the proper use of the sanding equipment. All persons had an opportunity to handle this equipment and to help sand the floor in the Home Agents' Office.

The afternoon session was spent in applying three coats of a penetrating floor finish and waxing the floor. Approximately 70 men and women attended this demonstration.

CHICOD TOWNSHIP HAS NEW CLUBS
The Chicod Home Demonstration club includes women from four large communities. Since this was the case the members discussed at their September meeting the possibility of organizing clubs in the Hollywood, Black Jack communities and a club to include the women at Gardner's Crossroad, Clayroot and Stokestown.

On September 10 the Black Jack members met in the Free Will Baptist church in Black Jack to organize a Home Demonstration Club in their community. Mrs. Fred Langford, Home Agent, presided. Officers elected were Mrs. Glenn Gaskins, President, Mrs. Heber Dixon, Vice President, Mrs. Lester Dixon, Secretary.

On September 17, 26 enthusiastic women met at the home of Miss Annie Carroll and the Hollywood Club was organized by Verna Belle Lowery, Assistant Home Agent.

With these new clubs organized it made it necessary to divide the original Chicod roll. On September 24th the Chicod Club was reorganized by Mrs. Langford.

At each organization meeting the Agent present discussed the Program of Work, the duties of the officers, the duties of the members and the requirements in order to receive certificates, perfect attendance gavel and pins.

By having these new clubs in the Chicod township Home Demonstration Club work will reach about 100 club women, whereas, it was the only reaching 26 women.

Seed And Fertilizer For Pitt Farm Pastures Purchased By Government

The United States government through the Pitt County Agricultural Conservation Association has bought for farmers of Pitt County this fall $53,000 worth of seed and fertilizer for the cultivation of pasture land.

2,333 pounds of Ladino clover and 7,323 hundred weight of fertilizer to be used on farms in the county.

"We have used all our allotted funds for 1948," Highsmith said, "but we can begin the 1949 program on everything except winter cover crops."

"Pitt County farmers stand to earn $115,000 of government conservation funds under the allotments for the 1949 program," Highsmith continued. This amount is $60,000 more than was allotted to Pitt County under the 1948 program.

Under the program of the Department of Agriculture, the government is buying conservation, Highsmith explained. If farmers follow the program outlined by the department the government pays over half the cost of seeds of orchard grass, fescue and Ladino clover. Farmers have to have the approval of the local agency before they can carry out a project and receive government benefits, Highsmith pointed out.

Members of the county agents office estimated that more pasture land is being planted in Pitt county this year than has been planted in the county at any one time in the last five or perhaps 10 years.

Backache, Leg Pains May Be Danger Sign Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of getting excess acids and poisonous wastes out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous wastes matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging headaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous wastes from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Farm Fire Toll 3500 Lives And $100,000,000

Farm families are urged to exercise greater caution during the Fall months to reduce steadily-mounting farm fires which take 3500 lives annually, according to a statement released by the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

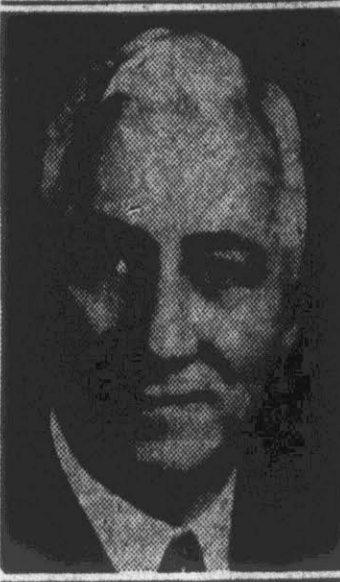

As the nation prepared to observe Fire Prevention Week October 3 to 9, the National Board called for organization of more

Kiwanis Speaker

CLAUDE B. HELLMANN

The Kiwanis Club of Greenville will be represented at the 1948 convention of the Carolinas Kiwanis District to be held October 10 to 12 at Asheville, next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

More than 90 clubs in the district, which embraces a membership of 7000 business and professional leaders are expected to send delegates to the three-day meeting.

The speaking program will feature the appearance of Claude B. Hellmann prominent Baltimore, Md., public utilities executive and trustee of Kiwanis International, and Dr. Charles W. Armstrong of Salisbury, N. C., health officer and immediate past president of the community service organization.

Eugene J. Coltrane, president of Brevard College, governor of the Carolinas Kiwanis District, will preside at the convention, which will highlight committee conferences, a discussion of plans for the coming year, and election of officers.

farm fire-fighting units and greater attention to periodical drills by existing units during the Fall and Winter months, when most farm fires occur.

Nearly one-third of the fires which ate up $100,000,000 worth of farm property during 1947 could have been prevented by installation of lightning rods of the proper type on every farm building.

Ninety percent of the fires involving gasoline are caused by simple carelessness in handling the dangerous fuel. Special care was suggested in filling gasoline-burning machinery to avoid spilling the fuel or allowing it to drip over a hot muffler or a heated engine.

Gasoline should be stored in underground tanks equipped with standard pumps. Smaller supplies of gasoline may be kept in safety cans or metal drums in a well-ventilated shed at least 40 feet away from all buildings. "Bottled gas," that is, liquefied petroleum gas tanks, also should always be stored outside of homes or barns, and installed according to National Board of Fire Underwriters standards.

Chimneys and flues rank second only to lightning in the number of fires caused and the yearly cleaning and repair of both is essential.

The increasing use of electrical equipment on farms has also introduced new hazards, the National Board stated. Farmers are cautioned to have any extension in wiring checked by the local inspection authority, and to clean and all electrical equipment regularly to prevent overheating. All electric lights and wiring should be placed out of the reach of animals, and should be equipped with metal guards.

Many grain-field fires can be prevented by the use of an approved safety muffler. Individual fire extinguishers attached to tractors, threshers, and other machinery are helpful in fighting fires in the field. Farmers were also warned not to throw away burning cigarettes or matches, one of the major fire causes in both rural and urban areas.

The old rule against burning over land on a windy day should be rigidly observed, and when land is burned fire authorities and forest rangers should be notified in advance.

ALDERMEN MEET TONIGHT
The Board of Aldermen will meet in regular monthly session at the City Hall tonight at 7:30. Mayor Jack Boyd will preside. Two important matters to come up for consideration are hearing of the report of a survey of sanitary conditions made by J. Carroll Waldrop and hearing of the Merchants' Association's petition to do away with parking meters except on Evans Street and Dickinson Avenue.

Chapter 14
The wall directory of the Moulton Building showed BONIFACE, EVERETT, M.D., 413.
The receptionist gave him a professional smile that didn't extend to her pale blue eyes. "Yes?"
"Walter James," he murmured. "Do you have an appointment?"
"No—but tell Dr. Boniface that it's important."
The girl looked doubtful. "I'll tell him, Mr. James." She went into the next room in a rustle of starched whites. Walter James lit a cigarette and stared at his manicured nails. The receptionist reappeared.
"Will you have a seat in the waiting room, Mr. James? Dr. Boniface will see you in a moment."
The deserted waiting room hush was that of a church. The light on the low center table caught his eye. The combination of mirrors that made up the lamp's framework condensed rather than diffused the light, intensifying the beam. No matter how he turned his head the light seemed to be pointing at his eyes.
Walter James was still staring at the light when a soft voice said in back of him. "Good afternoon, Mr. James."
"Dr. Boniface?" He felt relaxed, drowsy. It was an effort to think. "Come into my office, won't you?"
"New just lean back and relax," the soft voice said, soothingly. Walter James felt himself sinking deeper into the soft chair. He felt like sleeping. His eyes, drawn uncontrollably to Boniface's slender hands, caught sight of a rectangle of white tucked in a corner of the desk blotter.
Walter James shook his head. A business card! His mind began to elay its way back onto the light.
"You ought to be on the stage," Walter James said hoarsely.
Boniface didn't smile.
"Indeed?" he said. "What is the nature of your problem, Mr. James?"
"I keep dreaming of dead Filipinos, ones with knives in them."
Boniface turned slowly in his swivel chair, but kept his eyes on Walter James' face. His hands were out of sight in his lap.
"That's an unusual fixation. However, possibly we can trace it to its source. Have you any explanation to offer?"
"For the dream—or for the dead Filipino?"
"I'm interested in anything you want to tell me."
Walter James smiled, showing only the tips of his teeth. "Now isn't that peculiar, Doctor? I was just going to say the same thing to you."
There was a moment of silence. Boniface frowned. "Perhaps I'm a trifle confused, Mr. James. I understood that you had some important reason for seeing me."
"I did. But where you jumped the tracks was thinking it was important to me. It's not. It's important to you."
The big man's fleshy face split into a half smile. "Of course, Mr. James. Won't you tell me all about it."
"I don't have to tell you about it. You know all about it. Fernando Soles was killed last night."
Boniface's poker face was perfect. "Yes?"
"The police will eventually get to you. They're slower than I am as a rule. Talk now and to me and I'll guarantee you'll have less trouble in the long run."
"What interest could the police possibly take in me, Mr. James?" Boniface asked him blandly.
The slender detective pulled the torn business card from his pocket and slid it across the polished desk. Boniface studied it politely, then handed it back to Walter James. "It's apparently half of one of my business cards."
"The other half was found in Fernando Soles' coat pocket." Boniface ran his tongue over his teeth thoughtfully. "I found this half wedged in the seat where he was killed."
Boniface said. "Mr. James, any professional man's cards circulate to some extent. I have no idea how this—ah, Fernando Soles obtained my card."
Walter James turned the card over. "And I'll bet you never saw the writing on the back, either." Boniface inclined his head gravely. "It says, when you put the halves together: I need another ounce immediately regular place. Another ounce of what, Doctor?"
"I'm afraid that there is nothing I can do to help you. The delusion that you're suffering under is rather uncommon and beyond my efforts to alleviate."
"See you in jail, Doctor," Walter James said.
The receptionist was just replacing the telephone into its cradle when Walter James stopped in front of her desk.

"Excuse me," he said. "Doctor Boniface wants you to run next door to Doctor Carlyle's office and borrow his book on erotic psychophenomena by Blake."
The door had scarcely closed behind her white-stockinged legs before Walter James was behind the desk. He lifted the phone.
Boniface's voice said, "...like it. How did he know so much?"
Another crisp voice snapped at him. "Well, why call me? What am I supposed to do about it?"
"I wanted to warn you."
"I've told you before not to call me here."
"What are we going to do?"
"We're going to sit tight and do nothing. You're getting excited and that's just what Walter James wants you to do. Nobody has any proof and they won't get it unless you get rattled."
"You're right, Major," Boniface said heavily. "You're right."

"I'll see you at the regular time. Good-by."
When the receptionist came back she said indignantly, "Doctor Carlyle didn't have the book—he'd never even heard of it."
"Doctor Boniface was afraid it was out of print," Walter James said glibly. "Never mind. It was for me. I'll look in the bookstores." He started out the door. "Oh, by the way, there was a phone call for the Doctor, but I didn't know how to switch it over to him."
The girl acquired a worried frown. "Did it sound important?"
"I don't know. It was a Major Somebody—I can't quite remember the name."

"Oh," she said and the frown vanished. "That was Major Rockwell. He and the Doctor play golf together. He'll call again."
"Yes," said Walter James. "He probably will." He opened the door. "And thanks for everything."

Registration will begin at 10:15. District III is composed of the following Presbyterian Churches: Antioch, Goldsboro, Boyd Memorial, Chicod, Greenville, Holywood, Joson, LaGrange, Meadowbrook, New Bern First, West New Bern, Neuse Forest, Kingston, Snow Hill, Washington, Wayside and Rivermont. Phantoms Rounding Into Shape For Dunn Game Here On Friday

The G. H. S. Phantoms were rounding into shape this afternoon for their encounter with the Dunn high school football team tomorrow night in Guy Smith Stadium. Barring a change in plans due to weather conditions, the kick-off will be at 8 o'clock.

Inclement weather kept the Phantoms indoors Monday, and because of the soggy field Coach Farley had to be satisfied with a light workout Tuesday and yesterday. Blocking was the thing worked on most by the linemen in yesterday's practice while the ends and backfield men tried to iron out the kinks in the Greene attack.

"It seems that the backs have trouble passing the ball in the right place," Farley commented, "but when they connect nobody seems to be able to hold the ball. If we keep working on it, maybe we'll find the right combination."

Coach Farley is taking no chances on being handicapped by injuries before Friday, and is keeping to fundamentals this week rather than allowing his charges to go through heavy scrimmage sessions.

The Phantom players will take the field in the usual line-up Friday provided guard Ben Roberson is able to play. If Roberson is out, Vainright probably will get the nod for a starting guard post.

The Dunn squad topped the Greenvilles by one touchdown last year 6-0 and have practically the same starting team again this year. One relief to the Greene line as well as the coaches is that the star back of Dunn's 47 team is not playing this season.

Gridiron Gossip

By "BOO BOO" BUTLER

Don Page of the High Point Panthers will be out of action for a couple of weeks because of an injury received in the Catawba contest. Page is a stand-in at the tackle slot, right or left, said that he hoped his chipped elbow will be o.k. in about 10 days.

Coach James ran the Panthers through a heavy scrimmage yesterday in preparation for their Saturday's tilt with A. C. James was asked what he thought his chances were against A. C. "We have a lot of injuries and most of my boys are young. We didn't look so bad today. I was pleased in the running of Jack Klein and Bill Loyd. Joe Harrel, Green, and Bob Morris looked good on defense. Bruce Bally will start in Page's place at tackle. As far as chances, we are never licked until the ball game is over."

With the attitude from Mr. James, I pick High Point over A. C. by 6 points.

Lon Saviri, of Elon, has been switched from an end post to the fullback slot by Coach Jim Mallory. Mallory said that he had to strengthen his offensive power in preparation for the encounter with the ECTC Pirates Friday night at Elon. The Pirates can look for line plunges because Saviri is noted for his ability to drive. I may be wrong, but I'll have to string along with the experts. Elon over ECTC by a close score.

Catawba added more strength to their eleven with Bobby Gore, regular fullback, reporting back for duty. Gore is expected to see action in Saturday's contest with Wofford. The Indians have enough strength to give one of the Big Four a good game. Catawba over Wofford by 2 touchdowns or more.

Coach Johnson and Coach Boone sent their Pirates through an hour's scrimmage yesterday in preparation for the battle with Elon Friday night. The coaches had the third string running through some of Elon's players, while the first and second teams were trying to stop them. The third string did so well with Elon players that Coach Boone remarked, "Maybe we should use their players instead of ours." Among several standouts was Jim Mickells, third string end from Portsmouth, Va. He was pulling down passes left and right which were being thrown by Fred Soles, freshman

Former Elon Football Star Out To Stop Alma Mater

Little-All-American Jack Boone, who for two seasons led the Elon college Fighting Christians to the North State conference championship will go back to Burlington, N. C. and his alma mater Friday night. And for the first time in his life, Boone hopes the Fighting Christians of Elon go down in defeat.

Because when Boone, whose exploits in the Elon backfield won him All-North State conference, All-State, and finally Little-All-American halfback honors, returns to Burlington Friday night he will not be wearing the colors of the Fighting Christians. The former halfback here will be flying the purple and gold of East Carolina Teachers college where he this year assumed the duties of backfield coach.

Boone played for Elon from 1933 to '41. For three years he was all conference and was selected All-American State and Little-All-American in 1941 when he captained the team which copped the North State conference crown.

If Boone harbors any sentiment for the Fighting Christians it has not been evidenced at ECTC where he and Head Coach Jim Johnson have for two weeks been drilling the Purple Pirates in preparation for the Friday night encounter. The Pirates of ECTC, fighting to break into the win column, will be a two touchdown under dog to Elon. The favored Christians topped Atlantic Christian College but fell to mighty Appalachian last week.

Connie Mack 'Fooled By Sain'

Boston, Oct. 7—(AP)—Connie Mack, 85-year-old manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, today said he has changed his mind about the Boston Braves.

"I was fooled by Johnny Sain," said Mack as he prepared to take in today's second game between the Cleveland Indians and Braves. "I always thought Sain was just a pitcher. He was great yesterday and now I've got to change my mind about the Braves. I thought Cleveland would take them easy."

quarterback from Tabor City, N. C. The top game in the Northeastern Conference this week will be Friday night when the Yellow Jackets of Elizabeth City invade the Yellow Jackets of Roanoke Rapids. Roanoke Rapids was silent last week while Elizabeth City was dropping a game to Kinston, the league leaders. Game time is eight o'clock at Simmons Park in Roanoke Rapids.

Sunny Skies

Boston, Oct. 7—(AP)—The second game of the World Series between the Boston Braves and Cleveland Indians will be played under sunny skies and reasonably comfortable temperatures, the Boston Weather Bureau said today.

"Now that the threat of rain has passed," the forecaster said, "we can look forward to pleasant weather that will last long enough for the second game to be played under comfortable conditions."

Moderate northeast winds and a temperature of 60 will prevail at game time.

Juvenile Expert Says It's Boston

New York, Oct. 7—(AP)—The Boston Braves in four straight—that's the way 7-year-old Charlie Hackinson sees it.

And Master Charles should know. The boy wonder, sports expert on radio station WOR's "Juvenile Jury" program, on Tuesday "saw" yesterday's World Series opener just as it happened. He not only picked the starting pitchers but named the winning team and hit the bull's eye with the prediction that the score would be 1-0.

The Braves, according to Charlie, will win the second game 5-3; the third, 6-2, and the fourth and last, 4-1.

Gloom Descends On Satch Paige; Wants To Pitch

Boston, Oct. 7—(AP)—Satchell Paige is a mournful man. He looks mournful even when he's happy, and now he has reason to be said. He wants to pitch in the World Series.

"My life ambition," he says, his lower lip hanging out. "Mister Veeck says it his ambition see me out there on the mound."

But Paige, the ancient, slender Negro who won six sensational victories for the Cleveland Indians in midsummer, appears to have faded now.

At any event, when Manager Lou Boudreau was asked if Paige would start a series game, his curt reply was: "We started with Feller. Today comes Lemon, and after that Bearden. I haven't decided on my fourth starting pitcher yet."

Coach Beattie Feathers of North Carolina State had 15 years of actual playing experience on high school, college or pro football squads.

Baseball World Debates Disputed Play In Series

Boston, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The Boston Braves go after their second straight World Series victory today with Lefty Warren Spahn opposing Cleveland's Bob Lemon while the baseball world still debates the disputed play that led to win No. 1.

Arguments sprouted up all over town last night after publication of Associated Press pictures of the vital play of the opener—an attempt by Bobby Feller to pick Finch Runner Phil Masi off second base in the eighth inning of a 0-0 game. Eventually Masi came home on Tommy Holmes' single with the run that gave the Braves a 1-0 triumph.

Many neutral observers insisted the pictures showed that Manager Lou Boudreau of the Indians had tagged Masi a foot off the bag. Others were unconvinced.

Feller and Boudreau have been working the same play all season. They probably have nipped at least 10 runners off base enroute to Cleveland's first pennant since 1920. This time Umpire Bill Stewart of the National League ruled they didn't get their man.

Of course there will be no official protest by anybody connected with the Cleveland club. It's purely a matter of the judgment of an umpire whose word is final in baseball.

"Interesting" was the comment of President Bill Veck of the Tribe after seeing the photo. Hank Greenberg, a part-owner, said the pictures would start a lot of controversy. All agreed it was just one of those things that nothing could be done about.

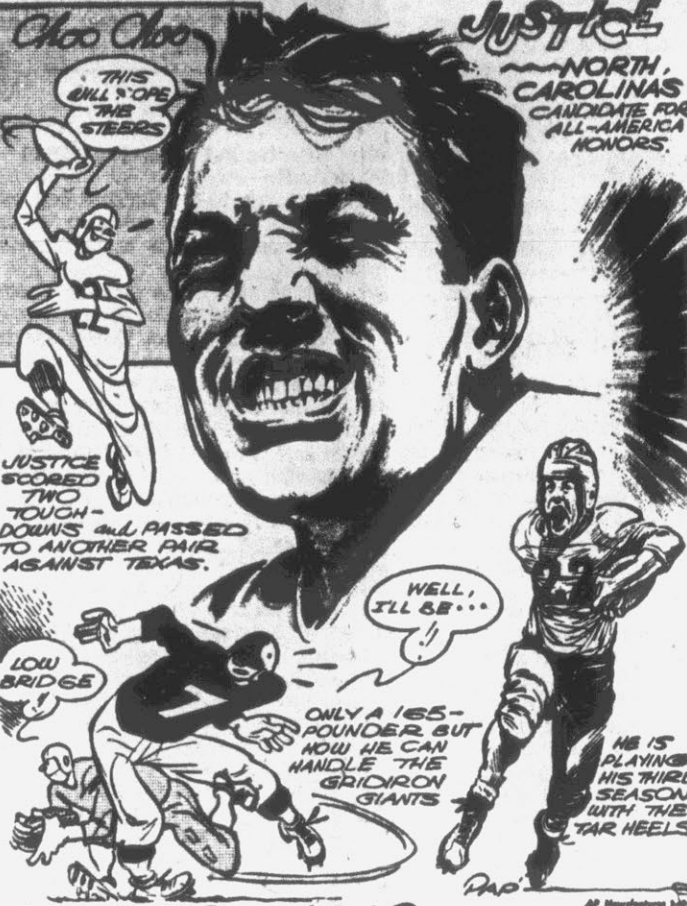

Masi had just entered the scoreless ball game as a runner for Bill Salkeld who had worked Feller for a walk to open the last of the eighth. Mike McCormick did the expected by bunting Masi to second with a sacrifice.

With first base open, Boudreau decided to intentionally pass Eddie Stanky, still handicapped by the ankle he broke in July. Some of the grandstand managers second guessed Lou on that. But he was passing a .315 hitter to set up a possible double play with the pitcher coming up next. Sibby Sisti was sent in by Manager Billy Southworth to run for the still limping Stanky.

Sain filled out. Then they tried the Boudreau feint and quick Feller twist, trying to catch Masi napping. Some think they succeeded. Others agree with Stewart.

Tommy Holmes, a lefthanded batter sliced an outside fast ball past third base to left field, scoring Masi.

Tar Heel Threat... by Pap

The Tar Heels of North Carolina staked out a solid claim for sectional football honors when they soundly trounced the highly-touted Texas Longhorns, 34-7. Last fall, Texas defeated the Tar Heels 34-0, and it was obvious that Coach Carl Snavely was concentrating on redeeming that humiliating beating this year. He did.

The big gun of the Tar Heels triumph was Charley (Choo Choo) Justice, the dynamic little tailback who scored a pair of touchdowns and passed to two more. The opening salvo of scoring indicates that Justice is making a determined bid for all-American honors this fall. There is no questioning the fact that Coach Snavely has built his team around Justice this fall just as he has in the past.

As a freshman in 1946, and fresh from his rugged experience with the Bainbridge Station football team, Justice led the Southern Conference scoring with a total of 72 points. Last year he was less spectacular but his coaches agreed that he played a better all-around game than the season before. An excellent kicker in his passing as the 1947 season wore on and this year shows even greater improvement in tossing forwards. He also is high spirited and a great team man.

Basketball Practice Opens For East Carolina Players

By EUGENE PRICE

Coach Howard Porter, East Carolina Teachers College basketball mentor, is looking over some 25 or 30 cage candidates this week as practice for the 1948-49 season gets underway in the Wright building gymnasium on the ECTC campus.

As the first week of practice rolled into the homestretch little could be determined as far as the Pirate quintet's prospects for the season. A number of the most promising candidates are playing football and will not be in cage togs until late November.

Coach Porter, whose team wound up in third place in North State competition last season, is looking for the return of five of last year's varsity. Among the lettermen will be big Jack Everton, six foot, four inch forward. Everton has been showing up well in practice this week, according to Porter.

Deacons Hope To Stop Justice

Richmond, Va., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Stop Charlie (Choo-Choo) Justice. Wake Forest's Deacons figured today if they could find a way to stop the Choo-Choo they might for the second straight week play the role of giant killers and beat North Carolina's vaunted Tar Heels Saturday afternoon.

Coach D. C. (Peahead) Walker sent his Deacons through long, strenuous workouts yesterday and today on defenses designed to stop Justice, who has scored five times in the two games the Tar Heels have played.

Back in heavy equipment for the Deacons were two players injured in last week's victory over William and Mary. Quarterback Tom Pitzer and Tackle Tom Palmer. Two others, Wingback Harry Dowds and Guard Ray Cicis, worked lightly.

When is a Stew Not a Stew???

When it is a pot pie! We purified and glorified this handsome stew by making it into pot pies because it is so very, very good; so colorful and flavorful! Served plain it is a dish of merit that is hard to beat. But someday the very savorness of it will make you want to go farther and add pastry toppers made with Wilson's Laurel Lard.

Top CRUST Never Gravy Soaked

Baking ice crusts on top of casserole lids (individual or family-size) gives a shapely pot pie topper that cannot possibly be gravy soaked. When crusts come hot from the oven, it is but a step from kitchen to assembled dining room version of pot pies that are certainly fit for royalty. Fill the central hole with parsley and, if you like, a stuffed olive, too, for extra color. The family is sure to be pleased with this high-hat stew. Umammm, it's good!

Stew deluxe with mighty good flavor and gourmet look!

Robinson Signs To Meet Belloise

New York, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The tournament of champions today had welterweight champion Ray Robinson's signature on a contract to fight middleweight Steve Belloise. And they had pictures and witnesses to prove it too.

Sugar Ray signed the document last night at the Harlem Offices of "Ray Robinson Enterprises" in the presence of Manager George Gainsford, officials of the I. of C. newspapermen and photographers.

The articles call for the writer boss to receive a guarantee of $20,000 or the privilege of taking 35 per cent of the gate, and the same cut of radio, television and movie money, if any. The bout will be a ten rounder at the Jersey City, N. J. Armory, Dec. 2.

Belloise is to receive a $20,000 guarantee too, or the privilege of 27 1-2 per cent of the receipts.

Fighting at nearby White Plains last night, Belloise could gain no better than a draw with Randy Brown, an unknown from Mount Vernon, N. Y.

The reason for all the signing hubbalooboo was the almost simultaneous announcement Tuesday by the 20th Century Sporting club and the T. of C. that each had corralled Robinson for a fight with Belloise.

Hugh Casey Will Join Pittsburgh

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Hugh Casey, veteran relief pitcher formerly with the Brooklyn Dodgers, has agreed to terms to play for the Pittsburgh Pirates next season, the Florida Times-Union said today.

Roy Hamey, general manager of the Pirates, made the offer, the Times-Union said it learned from friends of the big hurler.

Casey was given his unconditional release by Brooklyn shortly before the close of the 1948 season.

Pocketbook Gag Cost Negro $787

By CHESTER WALSH
Negro filmflammers are making their annual pilgrimage through the tobacco market cities and the records show that their victims are usually people of their own race. They use the pocketbook game for their bait.

One farmer, was fleeced out of $787 in Tarboro yesterday. Sherrod described the fleecers as a Negro woman about 40, five-feet-three, weighing about 160 pounds, of light ginger complexion, with many gold teeth, and wearing a black top coat. The filmflammers' victim described the man as about 35, ginger complexion, about five-foot-nine, weighing about 150 pounds, wearing a leather coat and driving an old Plymouth black car. Tarboro police said they had reports of similar pocketbook operations in Dunn recently. A pound of honey represents the life work of 1,000 bees.

Dr. I. G. Greer Speaks Against Sale Of Liquor

At a county-wide meeting held in Austin auditorium on Tuesday night Dr. I. G. Greer, noted Baptist churchman of Chapel Hill, propounded the question "Why should Christians be opposed to the sale of alcoholic beverages?" In his discussion he pointed out that all Christians, regardless of denomination, accept the Bible as their proper rule of conduct. Since this is true and the Bible always associates adultery, theft, and lying with drunkenness, it is no more right to cast a vote to legalize alcoholic beverages than to vote for any of these other vices. "I have a sure solution to the financial problems of the boys in Washington," said Dr. Greer. "Legalize lying and tax everyone in proportion to their lies." (It seems that people are going to lie anyway. We just as well get some revenue out of it.) The suffering entailed upon wives, children, and husbands too, as a result of liquor was graphically illustrated by a number of instances known by the speaker. At the close of the address Rev. R. M. Haus, director of Education of the Allied Church League, pointed out some facts in connection with the work of the league in North Carolina. The meeting voted almost unanimously to organize a unit in Pitt County. The following officers were elected: president, Roy Turnage Jr., Ayden; vice-president, Rev. John B. Parker, Bethel; secretary, Rev. Edward G. Cole, Winterville; treasurer, D. N. Nobles, Stokes; to complete the board, Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, Greenville; Rev. Leonard W. Topping, Greenville; and Rev. D. W. Alexander, Bethel. This board will appoint the personnel of the Executive Committee from the count-at-large.

A Two-Front . . .

The Communists along the front which the Reds now occupy through central Europe. Britain's master phrase-maker, Winston Churchill pointed the matter up when he remarked: "The frontier of Asia (Russia) is upon the Elbe." That's where the crucial front is today—on Germany's Elbe river. Asia also is vital, as this column has pointed out many times—so vital that in the long run it may be the Armageddon where the democracies will make their big stand. China may indeed be the decisive zone. But not the vast Asiatic area can be defended adequately right now. As for Nationalist China, the House subcommittee recommends that she get both greater financial aid and outright military assistance, mainly rifles and other simple equipment. That proposal still has to be dealt with.

blackade. When the talk is finished and voting time on that question comes, Russia can kill it all by voting "no". But what of the general assembly of the U. N.? The 58 members of U. N. all take part in the assembly. And there each has one vote. No one has a veto. If the Security Council's vote is blocked by Russia, can't the assembly act? No. Unlike the Security Council, it can't order anything done. It can only recommend.

Florida Plagued By Flood Water

Miami, Fla., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Flood waters left by Tuesday's hurricane plagued sections of South Florida today and army engineers reported a 1,000-foot break in a new dike west of Fort Lauderdale.

National guardsmen, called out at the request of Broward county sheriff Walter B. Clark, patrolled South Pompano where a tornado demolished 25 homes and injured seven persons.

Guardsmen also watched the dike around plantation homes near Fort Lauderdale after authorities heard rumors of threats to "blow up" the levee to drain water off nearby farmlands.

Meanwhile, the hurricane which left 11 dead, 300 injured and crop damage estimated at $6,000,000 in Cuba before drenching the Florida "Gold Coast," moved northeastward in open sea.

It was west southwest of Bermuda early today, moving forward about 20 miles per hour with hurricane force winds covering an area 70 miles in diameter.
