American Legion Annual Meet Is Opened In Miami

President And Other Prominent Figures On Program; Crowd Packs City

Miami, Fla., Oct. 18—(AP)—President Truman spoke in Miami today for the opening of the 30th annual national American Legion convention.

Mr. Truman addressed the convention at 2 p.m. (EST), two hours after National Commander James F. O'Neil called the convention to order. He was the first President to address the Legion since 1933.

Republican Vice Presidential Candidate Earl Warren, governor of California, is due tomorrow and will address the convention Wednesday. Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and a Republican spokesman, also arrives tomorrow and Legion officials said he probably would be a speaker.

Navy Secretary John L. Sullivan arrived yesterday and will make a major address late today. Other cabinet members also are on the program.

While the four-day convention did not open until today, Legionnaires and their families have been pouring into the city for more than a week. They came in 36 special trains, two steamships, scores of planes and thousands of automobiles.

The crowd packed Miami and spilled over into other communities in the Greater Miami area. Legionnaires thronged downtown streets, staging harmless pranks, snarling traffic and creating confusion in general.

The Forty and Eight Society, fun-making body of the Legion, opened its parallel convention at Miami Beach with a gigantic parade last night.

Meanwhile, six candidates to succeed O'Neil as national commander opened political headquarters and began mustering their strength for Thursday's election.

Perry Brown of Beaumont, Tex., has been prominently mentioned as next commander but a coalition of four other candidates was working to elect Ben Hilliard of Denver, James Green of Omaha, Robert Cole, Jr., of Greenville, S.C., George Craig of Brazil, Ind., is the sixth candidate.

Even before the convention officially opened, Legionnaires wondered where they would meet next year.

"We have no place to go in 1949 or 1950," Convention Commission Chairman Vincent Carroll told the executive com.

Truman Denounces Talk That U.S. Is Following Road To War

Miami, Fla., Oct. 18—(AP)—President Truman said today he considered sending Chief Justice Vinson to Moscow to ask Premier Stalin to help dispel "the poisonous atmosphere of distrust" surrounding negotiations between "the western powers and the Soviet Union."

The President, in a speech prepared for the annual American Legion convention, described as "a wicked falsehood" what he called "loose and irresponsible talk to the effect that the United States is deliberately following a course that leads to war."

"So long as I am President of the United States, there will be no chip on the shoulders of America," Mr. Truman declared.

He flew here from Washington in an avowed "non-political" role, and in his address described himself as "a delegate from Missouri, comrade-in-arms, and commander-in-chief of our armed forces."

Mr. Truman previously had said he called off the proposed Vinson mission after talking with Secretary of State Marshall. He explained Marshall thought single-handed action by the U. S. might cause misunderstanding at the United Nations assembly meeting in Paris.

Reference to the discarded plan in his speech to the Legion, Mr. Truman said:

"In recently considering the sending of a special emissary to Moscow, my purpose was to ask Premier Stalin's cooperation in dispelling the present poisonous atmosphere of distrust which now surrounds the negotiations between the western powers and the Soviet Union. My emissary was to convey the seriousness and sincerity of the people of the United States in their desire for peace."

Dixiecrats Split On Party Policy

Five In 'High Command' Dissent With State Chairman

By The Associated Press

Another clash among the high command has rocked the State Rights Democratic party in North Carolina. Five members of the party's campaign committee, claiming a majority of the group, yesterday announced they will stand by a previous decision to back all Democratic candidates by President Truman.

They issued a statement in answer to Phillip S. Finn, Jr., state chairman of the party, who had announced that State Righters were withdrawing support from "regular Democratic candidates for state and Congressional offices."

The States Rights Democratic committee who answered Finn's statement were John W. Hinesdale of Raleigh, chairman of the campaign committee; Wiley G. Barnes of Raleigh, Edwin H. Malone of Lenoir, David Clark of Charlotte and Franklin S. Clark of Fayetteville, committee members; Franklin Clark is the party treasurer.

It was the second time in several weeks that David Clark has answered a statement from Finn. Previously Clark had taken issue with Finn for criticizing officials of the State's Democratic administration for what Finn termed attempts to delay the new party's fight to get on the ballot in North Carolina.

Finn had announced at Hendersonville last Friday that the decision to withdraw support from Democratic candidates in the state was taken because of the "failure of the candidates to support publicly the platform and principles of the states rights party."

Leave Tomorrow

Asks Stockpiling For Vital Items

Tomorrow morning 20 Pitt County men will leave for Fort Bragg for pre-induction examinations under the new draft law. This is the first group to be called up from the county since the registration in September.

County draft officials have estimated that the county will receive at least one call per month for men.

Asks Stockpiling For Vital Items

Potential Cabinet Member Urges Storage Wheat, Cotton

Washington, Oct. 18—(AP)—Government stockpiling of huge stores of wheat and cotton "against the event of war or other emergency" was proposed today by Chairman Hope (R-Kas) of the House Agriculture Committee.

Hope also suggested a large increase in the nation's livestock herds, and some stockpiling of corn.

The Kansas, who may become Secretary of Agriculture if Gov. Thomas E. Dewey is elected President next month, told reporters the new Congress should consider such mobilization of food and fiber as a preparedness measure.

"With the world situation as it is now," Hope said, "we should stockpile cotton and wheat and probably some corn. We should do this just like we are now stockpiling scarce metals, against the event of war or other emergency."

The stockpiled food and fiber should be taken care of, he said, "by the government, and turned over to some board where it would have no effect on farm prices."

On this score, Hope said he looks for a continuation of farm prosperity for at least eight or 10 years, with a high level of food and fiber consumption in the cities.

Asserts Soviet Plan Backfired

Dulles Says Morale Is Low In East Germany; Austria Gaining

Paris, Oct. 18—(AP)—John Foster Dulles said today Russia's bid to shift the western powers out of Berlin by invoking "starvation, disease and fear" had backfired.

The Republican party's adviser on Foreign Affairs told a news conference he was impressed by the high level of morale in west Berlin and west Germany resulting from the western powers determination to remain in Berlin.

A new low in the morale of the people of Soviet Germany is shown by intelligence reports reaching U. S. authorities, he said.

Dulles made a three-day visit to Vienna, Berlin and Frankfurt. He said Austria showed an impressive economic recovery and a solid political situation.

Austria's only fear, he added, is that there might be a violent Communist push.

There is "no tangible evidence to support that fear," he said.

Pitched Battle Flares Briefly At Oil Refinery

Commandos Raid Guerrilla Peaks

Richmond, Calif., Oct. 18—(AP)—A pitched battle flared briefly at the Standard Oil refinery today. Strikers supported by a crowd of longshoremen, clashed with men entering the plant.

Police broke up the fight after the two sides had pelted each other with rocks, bricks and other missiles for five minutes.

CIO longshoremen, arriving in nine chartered buses joined the striking CIO oil workers outside the company gates.

Stones were thrown at the first carload of workers entering the plant.

About 200 men inside the plant advanced on the gate and returned the barrage of rocks.

Some of the men inside used garbage can tops as shields.

Athens, Oct. 18—(AP)—Newly-trained Greek Commandos went into action for the first time last night, capturing two mountains in Communist Leader Markos Vafiadis' "Free Greece."

The Commandos wrested control of Mount Vitsi and Mount Mankovits from the guerrillas. Both mountains are more than one mile high. Possession of the Vitsi summit gave the Greek army the dominating height of the whole Vitsi triangle. The mountain is 11 miles northeast of Kastoria.

Delayed Report 9 Polio Deaths

Survey Shows Hospital Facilities Top Average

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 18—Delayed reports of nine deaths from Infantile Paralysis were received by the State Board of Health today bringing the death toll for the year to 133.

Three of the deaths occurred during August and six during September.

New York, Oct. 18—Although a survey of the nation's hospitals shows that population has been increasing more rapidly than have hospital facilities to take care of the growth, Greenville continues to keep itself ahead of most cities in its ability to care for its sick. The data is contained in the annual survey by the American Medical Association.

Greenville, it is shown, has a hospital bed for every 201 people in the city, whereas in the rest of the country there is available only one bed per 268 persons. The figures are for registered general hospitals, which account for nearly 93 per cent of all admissions. Federal institutions are not included.

In the past year, Pitt General Hospital, with 63 beds, admitted 2,915 patients and had an average daily registration of 40 patients.

The AMA survey shows the trend throughout the country is toward increased use of hospital facilities. Notwithstanding an appreciable drop in total capacity, admissions went up. During the past year one patient was registered in a hospital every 11.4 days, which is 1.5 days less than the previous year.

Prepare To Ship Wrights' Plane

Commandos Raid Guerrilla Peaks

London, Oct. 18—(AP)—The Wright Brothers' biplane "Kittyhawk" first power-driven airplane to accomplish flight, came down from the ceiling of Kensington Science Museum today for dismantling and shipment to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington.

The "Kittyhawk" has been on display here since 1928 when it was lent by the late Orville Wright for an initial period of five years.

Berlin Airlift Plane In Crash; Crewmen Killed

Frankfurt, Germany, Oct. 18—(AP)—A C-54 Berlin Airlift plane crashed today near Frankfurt, killing its three American crewmen.

The four-engine plane was on its way back from Berlin, assigned to reload food and coal for the blockade former German capital. Wreckage was strewn for hundreds of yards when the craft crashed and exploded at Neu-Isenburg.

This brought to 13 the number of Americans who have died ferrying food and supplies to Berlin over the Soviet land blockade.

Officers at the busy Rhine-main airport had no immediate explanation for the crash. The plane had not reported any trouble to the control tower.

DAR BOARD ON TOUR

Washington, Oct. 18—(AP)—The Daughters of the American Revolution board of management leaves here Thursday to tour mountain schools in six Southern states that the DAR supports.

Israel Now A Reality

New State A "Going Concern" And Jewish People Will Maintain It At Any Cost; Task Of UN Revolves On Acceptance Of This Determination; South Palestine

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

The Palestine problem presents many grave difficulties but there is one well defined point from which the United Nations can start to figure.

The new state of Israel is what Dr. Ralph Bunche, interim Palestine mediator, aptly describes as a "vibrant reality." It is "a going concern," and you can bet your last dollar that the Jewish people will maintain it at all hazards.

Dr. Bunche has reported to the U.N. in Paris that Israel can't be destroyed "by any means other than force of sufficient strength to completely crush the Jews in Palestine." The Jews are determined fighters who have shown themselves able to cope with any Arab armies (also excellent and brave soldiers) likely to be sent against them. The only other source of strength would be the United Nations, and the peace organization isn't going to destroy anybody. Its business isn't to destroy but to preserve.

This doesn't mean that the Israeli government isn't prepared to negotiate over the final boundaries. As a matter of fact Israel is anxious to acquire the Negev area originally awarded it by the U.N.

Skipper Missing As Collier Sinks In Heavy Seas

Rockland, Me., Oct. 18—(AP)—The skipper of a leaking barge was reported missing today after he presumably went down with his collier when it foundered at the entrance to Penobscot Bay last night.

The missing captain of the collier Thompsonville was identified by an owner's representative in Baltimore, Md., as C. V. Jacobs of Norfolk, Va.

Two other men, Roosevelt Willets, Winnabow, N.C., and Raymond Golden of Chicago, were rescued from "very rough" seas by the Coast Guard.

Jacobs, standing with them at the wave-swept rail, didn't jump, Coast Guardsmen said. He last was seen standing "up to his neck in water."

Senator Suffers Amnesia Attack

New York, Oct. 18—(AP)—Sen. Robert F. Wagner (D-NY) suffered an attack of temporary amnesia during the weekend, when he disappeared from his son's Long Island estate, says his physician.

Dr. William C. Carhart examined the ailing 71-year-old senator shortly after he was found early yesterday at a Manhattan restaurant, one of his favorite eating places.

Wagner had been the object of a widespread police search for nearly 12 hours after he wandered away from the home of Robert F. Wagner, Jr., at Islip, N.Y., about 3 p.m. Saturday.

Enforcement Of Wage-Hour Law Ruling Begins

Raleigh, N.C., Oct. 18—(AP)—The State Department of Labor today began enforcement of new federal wage-hour law interpretations on certain premium payments.

Labor Commissioner Forrest H. Shuford said the rules apply to pay for work on Saturdays, Sundays, holidays and night shifts. Setting of the enforcement date resulted, he said, from a U.S. Supreme Court decision of last week against rehearing the so-called "longshoremen's back wage cases."

He urged North Carolina employers to consult with the Labor Department to determine if the rules apply to their businesses.

Steel Output In Occupied Zones Reaches Record

Berlin, Oct. 18—(AP)—Steel production in the British and American occupied zones of Germany jumped to a new postwar record of 872,000 metric tons during September.

The new high was disclosed by the American military government today in its semi-monthly report on occupation affairs. The total represents a gain of 62,000 tons, or 12 per cent, over the previous high in August and an increase of more than 50 per cent since currency reform in the Bizone in June.

Steel production in the Ruhr now is running a full six months ahead of the schedule established last spring.

On the food front, officials of the Bizone acknowledged difficulty in meeting the September meat ration with low deliveries of livestock.

Mayor Is Attending Municipal Meeting

Durham, Oct. 18—(AP)—Two religious cultists from Virginia today pleaded guilty to violating a city ordinance against handling snakes in public. Paul Lee Dotson and Oscar Fulton, both of St. Charles, were fined $50 and costs each in police court.

They were among "faith holders" from five states who ended a three-day meeting in Zion Tabernacle here yesterday.

Dewey Winds Up Long Campaign Tour; Confident

But Followers Express New Fear GOP May Lose Control Of The Senate

Enroute With Dewey to Albany, Oct. 18—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey winds up his second campaign tour today with followers expressing new fear Republicans may lose control of the Senate.

Traveling across Canada early in the day, the Republican Presidential nominee was heading for his home base at Albany. He had train speeches scheduled at Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Schenectady.

Crossing into Ontario Province, from Detroit involved use of the shortest rail route from Owosso, Mich.—where the nominee was the guest of a rousing homecoming Saturday night—To the western New York area.

The New York Governor was represented as so confident of his election Nov. 2 that his campaign was entering a deliberate slow-down phase. He speaks in New York City Wednesday night at the Herald-Tribune forum and Thursday night at a memorial dinner for Al Smith. Otherwise he has no firm speaking dates for this week—the next to the last available for traveling campaigning.

But if the Dewey camp counted its champion as safely "in," it was another story in its analysis of the critical races involving control of the Senate.

The figuring was that ding-dong battles in eight states—Colorado, Kentucky, Minnesota, Montana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Wyoming and West Virginia—will determine whether the GOP holds or boosts its present 51 to 45 margin in the Senate, yields ground or loses control.

Two weeks before the election, the best calculations of the Dewey strategists indicate they stand to lose at least three seats—in Oklahoma, West Virginia and Minnesota—unless there is a change in sentiment.

If they held their own elsewhere, any such results would produce a 48 to 48 tie in the Senate, but the Republicans would retain control if the Dewey-Warren ticket wins because the vice president could break the tie on the issue of organizing the Senate.

This would leave Republicans as chairman on all of the important committees, but it would mean that they probably would have to enlist Democratic votes to put over controversial legislation.

On the other side of the picture, the Dewey strategists think they have some chance of winning the Democratic seat being vacated in New Mexico by Senator Carl Hatch. They have hopes of defeating Senator James Murray, Montana Democrat, but they fear the defeat of Senator Edward V. Robertson in Wyoming.

Ask Big Five Get Atomic Deal

Jews And Egyptians Clash; Whether New Violence Is Truce Violation Or Resumption Of War Not Yet Determined

Paris, Oct. 18—(AP)—The United States demanded today that the United Nations turn the declassified atomic energy problem over to the five great powers and Canada for direct negotiations.

Chief U.S. Delegate Warren R. Austin told the 58-nation Political Committee the United Nations could go no further in its efforts to control the atom until the Soviet Union agreed to "participate in the world community on a cooperative basis."

The Berlin dispute comes up tomorrow in the Security Council. A new compromise plan which would take the issue out of the U.N. is reported under consideration by the six neutrals of the council.

Austin, commenting on a report drawn up by an atomic energy subcommittee, declared:

"Communist states desire to live in a secret world of their own behind which, for all we know, they may arm and prepare their people for war. We do not desire to live in such a world."

"That is the impasse in which the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission finds itself. This is an impasse which can not be overcome by the Atomic Energy Commission."

Austin said the problem must be turned over to the United States, Russia, Britain, France, China and Canada for negotiations.

"It is because we so earnestly seek agreement, because we still hope for ultimate agreement, however dim the present prospects, that we strongly urge this course," Austin said.

Austin said Russia's new proposal would entail a five-month investigation of the slaying, the government yesterday named three others charged with complicity in the murder. Two of them are under arrest.

One of the persons under arrest was quoted as believing the murder was planned by the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) to discredit the Greek government abroad.

The government said the actual shooting of Polk was done by Adam Mousmouides, member of the central committee of the Greek Communist party. He was alleged to have shot the correspondent in the back of the head as Polk lay blindfolded and trussed in a boat in Salonika last May 8.

The other three charged with complicity in the murder were Evangelos Vasvanas, still at large; Gregory Staktopoulos, Communist newspaperman, and his mother, Anna, both under arrest for the past two months.

All four face charges of conspiracy to murder Polk. Mousmouides and Vasvanas also were charged with illegal possession of firearms and carrying arms, punishable by death under present Greek military law.

Mr. Truman, fifth President to visit Raleigh while in office, will arrive tonight for two speeches tomorrow.

The President, Mrs. Truman and their daughter Margaret, along with the President's official party, are expected to arrive at the Raleigh-Durham airport about 6 p.m. from Miami, Fla.

The Truman party will go by motorcade to the Hotel Sir Walter for the night.

The Truman party is scheduled to arrive in Raleigh at 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday. He will speak from a platform in front of the Educational Exhibit Hall.

Greece Declares Murder Is Solved

Communists Charged With Slaying American Last May

Salonika, Greece, Oct. 18—(AP)—The Greek government says a top Communist killed George Polk, correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting system, last May.

Topping off a five-month investigation of the slaying, the government yesterday named three others charged with complicity in the murder. Two of them are under arrest.

One of the persons under arrest was quoted as believing the murder was planned by the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) to discredit the Greek government abroad.

The government said the actual shooting of Polk was done by Adam Mousmouides, member of the central committee of the Greek Communist party. He was alleged to have shot the correspondent in the back of the head as Polk lay blindfolded and trussed in a boat in Salonika last May 8.

All four face charges of conspiracy to murder Polk. Mousmouides and Vasvanas also were charged with illegal possession of firearms and carrying arms, punishable by death under present Greek military law.

Emergency Board For Rail Dispute

Unions Taking Strike Vote, But Action May Delay Walkout

Washington, Oct. 18—(AP)—President Truman today created an emergency board to investigate the dispute between the nation's railroads and 16 non-operating railroad unions.

The unions are now taking a strike vote, and creation of the board is intended to head off possibility of a walkout. Under the Railroad Labor Act, a work stoppage is forbidden while the emergency board is studying the dispute.

Mr. Truman's executive order said a strike would "threaten substantial interruption to interstate commerce" and "deprive the country of essential transportation service."

The board is given 30 days to make its findings, and neither strike nor lock-out can be ordered within 60 days after the board's recommendations reach the White House.

About 1,000,000 workers are involved. The so-called "non-operating" workers are those not actually engaged in running trains. They include switchmen, yardmen, maintenance workers, telegraphers, and numerous other crafts.

Mr. Truman did not name the members of the board. A White House spokesman said they will be announced shortly.

Directs Police Protect Miners In French Strike

Nurses In Meet At Wilmington

Paris, Oct. 18—(AP)—Interior Minister Jules Moch ordered police today to protect miners trying to save the struck coal pits from damage by seepage of water and gas.

Communists leading the strike of 335,000 miners had ordered maintenance workers to stay away from the pits 24 hours because police appeared at one mine.

The strike, now in its third week, has caused a setback to French and European recovery efforts. Already 2,000 tons of coal have been lost.

"No French citizens, no French miner, would have pardoned the government if it let the mines be flooded," Moch said.

Tomorrow was expected to be fair and not so cool over the west portion in the afternoon.

Televising Congress

Some Day Congress Will Have To Decide Whether Their Work Will Be Watched By Television; Why Radio Broadcasts Discouraged; Effects Of Such A Program

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Oct. 18—(AP)—Should Congress at work be shown on television?

Some of these days, Congress will have to say yes or no.

When that time comes, there'll probably be intense public pressure for a "yes" answer.

Congress doesn't have to think much about it now because:

1. A countrywide network still is at least a couple of years away.

2. At this time, only about 600,000 television receiving sets are in American homes.

Time will take care of that. But right now Congress can argue there's not enough demand for a television view of Congress.

Congress has always refused to let its doings on the House and Senate floors—the debates—be broadcast over the radio.

Why? It's easy to think of reasons.

With no radio around, a congressman can jump up, say whatever pops into his mind and still feel pretty relaxed.

The only ones who hear him are the other congressmen, many of whom do the same thing, and a handful of people in the galleries.

It wouldn't be like that with a radio microphone staring him in the face.

Then he'd have to keep a tighter rein on himself and his tongue, knowing millions of people were judging him.

And an error of fact or a mistake in grammar? Millions of listeners would spot it.

Such mistakes now can be corrected by the congressman himself, or the official stenographer, before it gets in print in the Congressional Record.

But since Congress has refused to let its doings go out over the radio, why should it ever change its mind about television?

For one thing, television does a double job:

It not only carries what is said but shows who's saying it, and how. Television in time will be a vital part of American living. For example:

Schools from coast to coast in time probably will be equipped with sets as an aid to education.

At best, a lesson in government must seem dusty dry and far away to a schoolboy in Kansas City, or Denver, or Boston, or New Orleans.

But he could understand it—and

State Regent Launches Fall Program D.A.R.

Miss Gertrude Carraway, of New Bern, State Regent of the D.A.R., was honor guest and speaker at the initial fall meeting of the Major Benjamin May Chapter, held Saturday with Mrs. S. T. White, of Greenville, as the gracious hostess.

The State Regent launched the fall and winter study of "The D.A.R., Its Past, Present and Future," with an address that was comprehensive and timely. With the simple statement that "women can satisfy their every ambition and yearning for service to home, country and the world, in the multiple and varied fields of the D.A.R.," Miss Carraway proved this fact by outlining the objectives and accomplishments of the respective committees of the National Society, including:

Americanism; Approved Schools; American Music; American Indians; Children A.R., conservation (of resources and humanity); Flag; Good Citizenship Pilgrimage; Magazine; Manual for Citizenship; Museum; Student Loan; Ellis Island; Girl Home Makers; Jr. American Citizens; Motion Picture; National Defense; Radio; U.S. Savings Bonds; Building Promotion.

The State Regent referred to the present as "a crucial period in the history of the world" and pointed out the opportunities afforded women in the active program of the D.A.R. to render a real service in worldwide reconstruction efforts and to help bring about a lasting security and peace.

In closing, the speaker used the initials of the Society as an acrostic—Daughters of the Past; America of the Future and Relatives of the Present to emphasize the points of restoration, preservation of the ideals of democracy and the bond of love of home and country that binds its members into a sisterhood dedicated to serving humanity.

The State Regent was presented by Mrs. G. Alex Rouse of the program committee, of which Mrs. Herbert E. Hart is chairman, and Mrs. Rouse also outlined the proposed study for the year, which was accepted by the local chapter.

Bringing the program to a delightful close were vocal selections by Mrs. Herbert Waldrop with Mrs. G.B.W. Hadley as accompanist.

The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. E. B. Beasley, of Fountain, who read a selection from the book of Esther and took as her theme Mordecai's query directed to the end in obtaining a decree from her husband, the king, to put the Jews to death, "and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" Mrs. Beasley applied this to the present opportunities afforded women for service to the nation and she challenged her hearers to exhibit a like courage and willingness to be used.

Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, 1st Vice Regent, presided over the business session and extended a cordial welcome to Mrs. Knot Proctor and Mrs. Earl Forbes, of Greenville, as new members. The application for membership of Mrs. Herbert Holden, of Snow Hill, received a favorable vote.

Echoes of the Eighth District meeting, held the day before in Hookerton, were brought by Miss Tabitha DeVisconti and Mrs. Preston Murphrey. These included the acceptance by the District of the local chapter's invitation for the next annual meeting to be held here and announcement of the new district leaders elected at that time: Mrs. Ellen Lewis Carroll, Director; Mrs. Henrietta M. Williamson, Vice Director; Miss Tabitha DeVisconti, Sec.-Treas. Miss DeVisconti also brought the matter of the new building to be added to Constitution Hall in Washington (D.A.R. home) at a cost of $900,000 and of North Carolina's effort to raise $1,000 for the renovation and changing of the North Carolina room, which will be made into the Registrar-General's office in the new building, and as a special courtesy to the State Regent. The chapter voted to give the minimum of $50 per member at least. Mrs. M. V. Jones reported the financial condition of the chapter. Mrs. J. O. Pollard paid a moving tribute to the late A. G. Monk, Sr., benefactor of the Major May chapter, and told of the Monk scholarship to be placed at Crossnore by

Strength FOR THE DAY

ARE YOU PROUD OF YOUR FAITH?

It is hard for the world to understand the vigor and strength which religion puts into people's souls. The devout are often quietly laughed at as queer, naive people who, being impeded in some way in one struggle of life, have turned to the unseen for the consolation they are unable to secure by their own efforts.

There may be some seemingly religious people of this variety but certainly this is not typical of the multitude of men and women who have simple, childlike trust in God and who guide their lives by the teachings of the Bible as the mariner guides his ship by the stars. Genuinely religious people are almost without exception people of outstanding perception and force of character. Even those who do not share the faith of such individuals and who disagree with their ideals, nevertheless entertain for them a very deep and wholesome respect.

The truly religious have something which even the most worldly and dissolute envy. Said Horace Bushnell, the great theologian and preacher of several generations ago: "I have never known a case of deep habitual piety, when the friendship of God has through a long course of years been the outstanding element of life, where the person did not come to be regarded as a remarkable person."

A sense of God's guidance imparts to any life an air of sublimity and quiet power.

HEAVY-WEIGHTS—The fourth district Democratic rally, eleventh in the series for the fall campaign, maintained precedents set by the others. Attendance was better than oldtimers recall for similar meetings in previous years, the Wake county court house being comfortably filled with some 400 people, including about 100 state delegates. The Raleigh meeting also ran true to season tradition in that it offered something different. More big shots or heavy weights in state officialdom showed up.

GOVERNORS—There were at least four governors on hand—past present and future. Former Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus and J. M. Broughton, incumbent Governor Gregg Cherry and Governor-nominate Kerr Scott were recognized, as were three lieutenant governors—W. F. Horton, who left with Governor Hoy, L. Y. "Stag" Ballentine, incumbent, and H. P. (Pat) Taylor, nominee for the post. How many future governors were in the audience is anybody's guess, but at least a dozen prospective candidates were noted.

SWITCH—The program followed at the other ten district meetings was switched around a bit, due to several causes. Because Senator-nominate Broughton and Chairman Capus Waynick had appointments for the night in the far western part of the state, they had to leave early. So Broughton was put first on the program to give the address of welcome and make such other comment as he desired, and later Senator William B. Umstead, a former state chairman, was called to preside when Waynick had to leave.

SPEECHES—Both Broughton and Umstead commented on the fact that this was a good way to get rid of two big speeches. The device did not serve, however, to shorten the program, despite the further fact that Governor-nominate Scott declined to speak saying the meeting had already lasted too long. Many distinguished people had to be recognized and Congressman Harold Cooley had a long speech so the two hour limit for such meetings was reached before the new governor had a chance.

COMMENTATION—Governor Cherry found opportunity in his short talk to pay tribute to the fidelity and earnestness of the state employees. Chairman Waynick and Mrs. D. A. McCormick, vice chairman, both commented upon the large percentage of women in the audience. After the courthous meeting Mrs. McCormick got the women together at a tea and continued discussion of how they can best serve the interests of the party.

WALLACE—Henry Wallace or any of his Progressive party adherents who might have strayed into the Wake county court house would have been pleased by the proceedings. He got more attention from Congressman Cooley than he had received at all the previous district rallies combined. Nothing complimentary was said about the man or his party, and maybe he wouldn't have liked that; but he was recognized as a threat to genuine Democratic government—and any recognition seems to be appreciated by the Wallace-Progressives.

San Francisco, Oct. 16 (AP)—Consider Willie Bowen, sentenced to jail here in the theft and pawned for $5 of a violin he later learned was the $10,000 Stradivarius of Sigmund Beels, former concertmaster of the London Symphony.

"Could I have one last request, your honor?" he asked Judge Hustace Gullinan. "I'd sure like to hear Mr. Beels play on that fine violin."

Beels obliged with a concert from the witness stand. The loudest applause came from Willie, as he was led to jail.

TAFT—Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, who was a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination and missed it, took time out between two major North Carolina speeches to answer questions of Raleigh newspapermen Friday afternoon. Senator Taft, like Senator Umstead in this state, shot for a high mark but when he missed it has lent all he has to carry the election for his successful convention opponent and is making speeches all over the country in behalf of the election of Governor Dewey as president.

He spoke at Chapel Hill Friday afternoon and at Wilson Friday night, sandwiching the press conference at eastern North Carolina Republican headquarters here during the late afternoon. Senator Taft said he would answer questions asked, and he did. But it was evident that some Tar Heel Republicans present for the conference were disappointed at lack of purely partisan ammunition involved in the questions and answers.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

New York (AP)—David Ffolkes is spending his life creating something for people to look at and promptly forget.

And he's happy when they do just that. Ffolkes is a 36-year-old Englishman who has become one of Broadway's leading scenic and costume designers.

His type of work is highly important to the success of a stage play. But like most technical skills it is unappreciated by the average theater-goer. The man who buys the ticket doesn't ordinarily wonder who designed the stage sets or the clothing worn by the actors. He takes them for granted.

"And that's the way it should be," said Ffolkes. "When the curtain goes up, the audience should be conscious of the locale, but their attention should then immediately be caught up in the action of the play."

"Good scenic and costume design is only a means to an end—not the end itself. It's bad design if the audience is conscious of the setting for even one entire scene."

Ffolkes has specialized in British period design, particularly Shakespearean settings, and has won four top awards. His costumes for "Brigadoon" and Shaw's "man and Superman" twice won him Donaldson awards—Theaterdom's equivalent of the film world's "oscar."

He recently did the scenery, costume and lighting for "Where's Charley," starring Ray Bolger. Stage costuming has its special problems.

"Everybody has a different shape—an imperfect shape," said Ffolkes. "They all have to be disguised so that on the stage they have a perfect figure for their particular role."

"The most important thing about women's clothing is that it should build up to the face—that is what you want to keep the audience interest fixed on. The face shows the emotions."

He has found men actors more difficult to costume than women.

"They are more fussy," he smiled. "But the bigger the star, the easier he is to dress. If they do object too much—well, they are quickly put in their place."

A stage designer makes his drawings to 1-2 inch scale. The actual execution of the setting is done by stage carpenters and scene painters.

"You have to be an artist, an architect—and a diplomat," Ffolkes said. "But the hardest thing about the business is to get your first job."

Scene designing must go fairly well. Ffolkes likes horses and wants to own his own stable some day.

During the war he served as a British artilleryman and was taken prisoner in the fall of Singapore. He was among 60,000 captive allied troops sent to Siam to build the infamous jungle "railway of death" that cost 20,000 lives. His own weight fell from 154 to 90 pounds—he's over six feet tall—during this period.

The only artistic souvenir Ffolkes retained from his enforced adventure was the memory of a Siamese Temple motif. He recently turned it into a wall paper design and sold it.

Ffolkes is currently interested in American period history, and particularly would like to do the settings for a play based in the old South.

"I should like to die in Charleston," he said.

But this design he is in no hurry to finish.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—A part of the Capital's swankiest new dining spot has gone to the dogs—literally. Canine cafe society now may together to make bow-wow in the "Puppy Parlor" of the Colony Restaurant which opened its doors a few months back Handsome Mrs. Lawrence Wood "Chip" Robert, Jr., who some years ago started local society by giving a party for her horse, already has reserved a dog "house" for her very snooty oyster-white poodle "Coco." The poodle's name has been painted over the door, and woe to the pampered pets of the Mrs. Smiths and Jones who may try to crash. The Robert's young daughter, Birney, has also reserved a house for her black cocker.

Mr. Paul, popular matric d'hotel around town for many years, who is now with the Colony, has another of the red-roofed, flower-decorated little stalls, bearing the name "Cindy" over the door, that's for rent. "I hope someone doesn't come in with a St. Bernard," he told me. "That would mean trouble, sure enough."

The "Puppy Parlor" has been set up near the cocktail lounge, which is just in the process of being decorated—burgundy walls, burgundy leather furnishings, pin-point-lighted ceiling. Mr. Paul says the Colony has just taken on Peter Hartes, an ex-GI "especially imported here from the Bronx," who is an experienced dog man. "He's a little fellow," says Mr. Paul, "but he knows dogs almost better than people. He'll see to it they don't bite each other or get to yapping and interfere with the conversation of the humans."

Mr. Paul has concocted a special "puppy platter" for his canine guests. It consists of boiled rice mixed up with a prepared dog food. This dish costs about 25 cents. No cocktails are served the dogs.

Mr. Paul, whose father was a captain in the Italian navy, came to this country from Genoa, Italy, in 1897. He lived in New York a few years and came to Washington for a three-day visit back in 1908. "I didn't like Washington when I first got here. I looked for a big railroad station like you see in Europe—there was only a platform, at Sixth and the Avenue," he told me.

"I told the conductor I wanted to go to the capital of the United States. He pointed to my right. 'That's the capital,' he said. I liked the capitol so much I decided to stay. Been here ever since." Mr. Paul has worked at the Willard, the old Shoreham and the Mayflower hotels. He was at the last place for about 14 years, he says, and knows every important personage in Washington and scores of those who only visit here.

'Right At Home' With Kiwanis Or Exchange Club

Salt Lake City, Oct. 16 (AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark stopped here briefly yesterday en route to Denver for a speaking engagement.

He accepted an invitation to attend the luncheon meeting of the Salt Lake City Exchange Club. Asked to speak he started out: "I'm always at home among Kiwanians."

His neighbor nudged him, whispering it was an Exchange Club, not a Kiwanis Club, gathering.

"In that case," Clark went on, "I'm even more at home. I was president of the Dallas Exchange Club in 1938."

Winter Preview Reaches South

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Deep South shivered today with its first preview of winter weather.

A huge mass of cold air, overlapping into this country from Canada, was responsible. Freezing and sub-freezing temperatures were reported in Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee—the lowest temperatures of the season.

Light scattered snow flurries were reported in the mountains along the western fringe of Virginia, and windy chilling rains dampened a narrow belt extending from Georgia northward along the eastern seaboard.

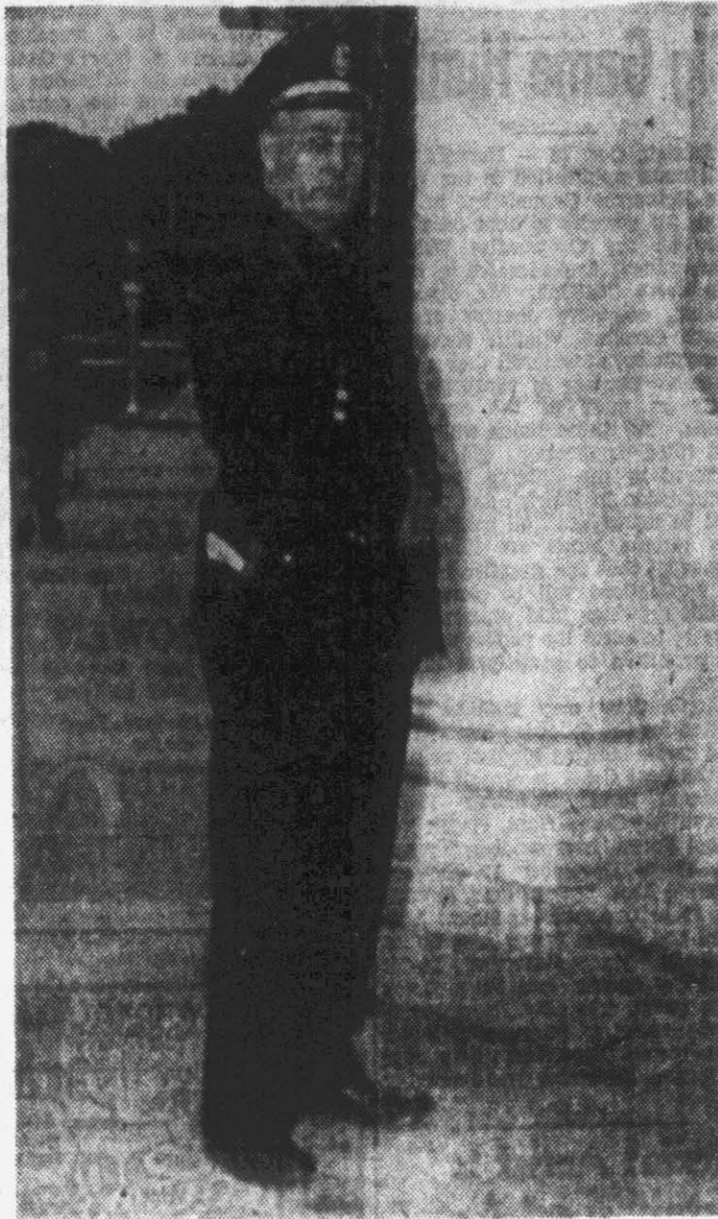

The South wasn't alone with its burden in inclement and unseasonable weather. The weatherman noted that the mercury dipped to 15 degrees in Wisconsin, the lowest reading in the nation, and that temperatures in many sections east of the Rockies were from 15 to 18 degrees below normal. This sub-normal pattern held even along the Gulf coastal states from Alabama to Texas.

Kangaroo's young are smaller in proportion to them than the young of any other animal; a 150 pound female gray kangaroo produces young about one inch long.

Resignations Expected In State Officialdom

By LYNN NISBET
Raleigh, Oct. 18.—Ertel Carlyle of Lumberton, Democratic nominee and certain to be elected to Congress from the Seventh District, is expected to resign as solicitor of the ninth solicitorial district immediately after the election. He will spend November and December resting and getting affairs arranged for reporting to Congress in January.

Governor Cherry will appoint a solicitor to fill the unexpired term which has until January, 1951, to run. Several lawyers in the district, which includes Bladen, Cumberland, Hoke and Robeson counties, are interested in the post.

Other resignations among state officials are expected before or very soon after beginning of the new state administration. It has been widely rumored that the highway and public works will resign en bloc, probably well before December 31.

Capital square will not be surprised if several high ranking appointive officials also resign around the first of the year. Some of them are known to understand they will not be re-appointed, and although present commissions extend over into the summer, they may desire to quit earlier. Two reasons are behind the decision for early resignation: First, some have other positions or connections to which they want to report as near January 1 as possible; and, secondly, there is professed desire to give the new governor a free hand from the start in selecting his permanent appointees.

Governor Kerr Scott delights in doing the unexpected and unorthodox, but few observers anticipate continuance in appointive positions of most incumbents. On the other hand, few changes are likely to occur on the second and lower levels, where experience in handling details is of great value.

Famed Composer Suffers Relapse

Vienna, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Franz Lehár's doctor said last night the Austrian composer had suffered a relapse and is in serious condition. He said the 79-year-old composer of "The Merry Widow" had taken no food since Saturday.

Lehar has been suffering from a heart ailment complicated by a stomach ulcer.

Nine Injured As Bus Is Wrecked

Asheville, N.C., Oct. 18.—(AP)—A Charlotte to Memphis bus plunged over a 10-foot embankment near here last night, injuring nine passengers.

The bus left the road during a heavy downpour of rain, investigating officers said. None of those injured was hurt seriously.

THERE IS NO MAGIC FORMULA

There is nothing mysterious about the treatment of disease. It is a sound practical procedure. The physician deliberates each individual case, prescribes the remedy indicated. Despite the wild propaganda of the patent medicine vendors, there is no magic formula. In many instances indiscriminate self-medication results in serious harm. Even a minor illness should not be neglected. When you feel "out of sorts" consult a competent physician. Receive the benefits of his years of study. Be sure that he is a licensed M.D. Then bring his prescriptions to us to be filled. If yours is an illness that yields to treatment, prompt recovery will be your reward.

WHAT IS AN EXTENSION TELEPHONE?

An extension telephone is an extra telephone instrument attached to your present line. It can be placed in your home or place of business. Since the telephone instruments are again available we are happy to announce that EXTENSION TELEPHONE SERVICE IS AVAILABLE AGAIN.

Main telephone service however is still on the "hard-to-get" list because production of the central office equipment and lead covered cable needed to extend our present facilities, is slow and delivery dates uncertain. We shall continue however to install main telephones where we have the necessary outside facilities and central office equipment.

In 1941-42, was appointed a patrolman in the Army Air Force military police department at Norfolk, Va. In January, 1943, and remained on duty there until September, 1945, and attained the rank of second lieutenant. After receiving an honorable discharge Whitehurst went to work for the Pitt County ABC Board and worked with the Ayden police department and was appointed chief the first of this month. Other members of the Ayden police force are J. M. Sine and J. J. McCoy.

Chief Whitehurst had an exceptionally good record with the Army Air Force Military Police at Norfolk. Letters from Maj. Charles W. Gamble, Air Corps commander, and Capt. William B. Miller, Air Corps chief of personnel and bases services division, stated that Whitehurst was always reliable and above the average in the discharge of his duties and various responsibilities and that he was given periodic promotions based on his efficiency.

Art Teacher Has Raised Interest In Her Pupils

Miss Grace Earl, new city school art teacher, with her nonchalant air and musical voice, has already unconsciously stimulated interest in artistic creation among school children.

Recognizing the need for an art course in the city schools, Superintendent Junius H. Rose engaged Miss Earl to teach in Greenville through the recommendation of a former pupil of hers, who is now in the art department at ECTC.

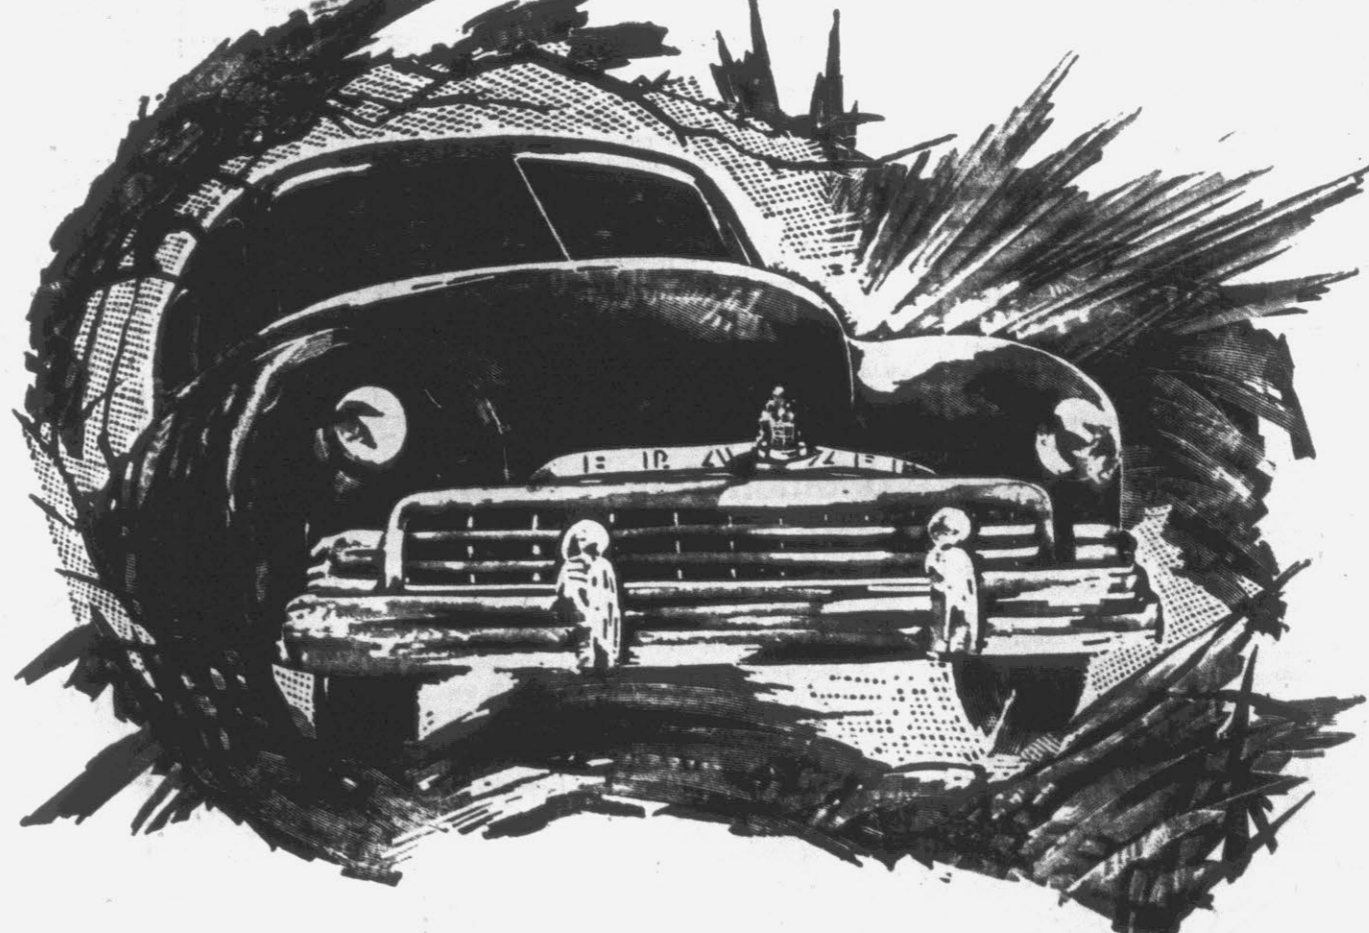

Miss Earl is a graduate of the Art Institute in Chicago, taught in Hawaii. Her broad teaching experience has included instructing public school children in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Oyster Bay, N.Y., and Bonne Terre, Missouri. During the last year Miss Earl lent a cosmopolitan touch to her experience by teaching design at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu. Her last position before coming to Greenville, however, was in the Katherine Lords School of Art, in Evanston, Illinois, during the summer months.

Although Miss Earl conducts forty art classes in Greenville city schools, she will give three afternoons — Monday, Wednesday and Friday — from 1:30 to 3:30 to the GHS class. She stated succinctly of the high school class, "I will teach drawing, painting, designing and clay modeling."

Even though Miss Earl has exhibited a businesslike interest toward all the phases of art, she also takes a genuine interest in the individual. She expressed her belief that the most important problems of the high school student were emotional and that teachers who could be counted on as friends, also, could be of invaluable aid in their solution.

Gregus On Choo-Choo's Heels In Scoring Derby

Hogan Again

Glendale, Calif., Oct. 18—(AP)—Golf's professional nomads scattered to the four winds today, the tournament campaigns virtually over, and once again the winner of the last one was Ben Hogan.

Hogan won the inaugural $15,000 Glendale Open yesterday with a 13-under par score of 275 for the 72 holes of play at the Oakland Country Club. Bantam Ben erased Lloyd Mangrum's victory hopes in yesterday's final round with a 64-eight holes under par for the course and breaking the competitive record of 65 hung up previously in the tournament by Skip Alexander of Lexington, N.C.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 18—(AP)—Wake Forest's Bill Gregus threatened today to turn the Southern Conference point-making derby into a mad scramble.

Gregus, 185-pound sophomore halfback from Toledo, Ohio, had made 30 points—only six less than the current leader, Charlie (Choo-Choo) Justice, North Carolina's candidate for all-America halfback.

Also moving into the scoring limelight was last year's runnerup, Jack Cloud, brushing William and Mary fullback. Cloud's points totaled 24. Justice was held scoreless for the first time this season Saturday as the Tar Heels defeated North Carolina State, 14-0. Gregus tallied twice in Wake Forest's 41-15 decision over Duquesne. Cloud pushed over two touchdowns as William and Mary routed Virginia Tech, 30-0.

In other games, Virginia Military beat the University of Richmond, 9-0; Virginia romped over Washington and Lee, 41-6; Duke squeezed by Maryland, 15-12; Davidson spanked the Citadel, 14-6; Furman tied Wolf as tripped George Washington, 12-0.

Notre Dame And Michigan Return To Leading Roles

New York, Oct. 18—(AP)—Michigan and Notre Dame, sailing along on the longest winning streaks in college football, were back in their familiar roles today as the leading candidates for national honors.

The list of unbeaten, untied teams numbers 11, still an imposing array, but the schedules seem to favor these two mighties from the Midlands who finished last season 1-2 in the Associated Press poll.

The East, cradle of the sport it can no longer dominate, has four of the unblemished representatives in Army, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Penn State, but they scuffle among themselves in a round-robin that is likely to leave all of them scarred.

In better shape are the other unbeaten—Georgia Tech, North Carolina and Clemson from the heart of Dixie, and California and Nevada from the Far West.

The three southern teams fortunately don't run into each other and wind up their schedules against sectional foes. California plays a strict Pacific coast card the rest of the way; Nevada, the little team that leads the nation in offense, doesn't meet opposition of the size to warrant much national consideration.

Sport Slants by Pap

Columbia's Gem... Pap

The unsung hero of Columbia's sparkling backfield is Bill Olson, a baby-faced youngster who loves to knock down opposing football players. Bill is starting his fourth season in the Lion backfield and for the most part his chores consist of blocking, either for his teammates or blocking the way to opposing players bent on going in the direction of Columbia's goal line. However, Heals was on the receiving end of 11 forward passes last fall for a gain of 156 yards, a mark that put him in third place behind Bill Swiacki and Bruce Gehrke, the ends.

Olsen isn't big as football players go. He's a solid 180-pounder, five, eleven. But he's fast and aggressive, and he loves to play football. The way he piles into opposing players on offense and defense would indicate that making him carry the ball might only cramp his style. Despite his lack of bulk, Bill shapes up as a good bet for the pro football ranks, if he is so inclined.

At Garden City, N.Y. High School, Bill was a high-scoring fullback but he insists that he's having more fun in his humble chores at Columbia than he had scoring touchdowns as a schoolboy. A brilliant student, he aims to become an electrical engineer. While he is working on his master's degree, he may be tempted into playing a bit of pro football.

Can Still Enter Big Game Hunts

Raleigh, Oct. 18—Hunters may still make application to the Wildlife Resources Commission in Raleigh for permits to hunt bear and deer on the Cooperative Wildlife Management Areas located in western North Carolina. Mr. Clyde P. Patton, executive director of the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission, announced that a considerable number of vacancies still exist on most of the organized hunts. For those hunts which are not filled, applications will still be received by the Wildlife Resources Commission in Raleigh and permits will be issued until all positions on the various hunts are filled. In the event that the specified number of applications will be closed and public drawings held whenever necessary to select the parties who will be permitted to participate in the hunts.

Applications may still be submitted for the following hunts: Bow and arrow hunting for bear or deer in the Bent Creek section of Pisgah National Forest, November 15-17; Pisgah Big Game Hunt, Pisgah National Forest, bear or deer, November 15 to December 4; Sherwood Wildlife Area, bear or deer, November 22 to December 4; Mount Mitchell and Daniel Boone Area hunts, bear or deer, November 22-24; Standing Indian and Fires Creek Area hunts, deer only, November 18 to December 4; Sherwood Wildlife Management Area, bears only, dogs permitted, November 1 to December 24.

Amazing Stan Heath, the lad with the slingshot arm, established himself as one of the nation's finest passers in leading the undefeated Nevada Wolfpack to a smashing 48-20 victory over St. Mary's Gaels.

The score was no indication of the one-sidedness of the contest, in which a crowd of 27,314 amazed spectators yesterday watched the 190-pound Heath perform these feats:

Complete 20 of the 24 passes he threw.

Thrown three of the passes for touchdowns.

Gain a total of 310 yards on his passes.

A kangaroo without a tail, which acts as a balancing pole, overcomes easily and turns somersaults.

Catawba Ousted As Appalachian New Loop Leader

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Things were different in North State Conference football camps today.

For the first fall in eight years the Catawba Indians were minus the scalp of a conference opponent outside their tepee at Salisbury.

The Indians themselves have been scalped this time. Hitting the trail against Appalachian's Mountaineers at Winston-Salem Saturday night, the Tribe found the going too rough and the Mountaineers left for Boone with a 20-13 victory tucked away.

The win put the Mountaineers into the loop's leadership with a record of four triumphs and one tie.

Leading Football Scorer In Nation

New York, Oct. 18—(AP)—Dan Towler, who totes the football for little Washington and Jefferson College of Washington, Pa., is the nation's leading college scorer.

Towler in three games has contributed 11 touchdowns and eight points—after for a total of 74 points. That easily outstrips the top point-makers in the established conferences.

Tulane Regarded 'Bowl' Prospect

New Orleans, Oct. 18—(AP)—Tulane's green wave, surging strongly again after a wartime ebb, has high hopes of its first bowl invitation in nine years.

Lightly regarded at start of the campaign, the wave now has a good chance of finishing a reasonably difficult schedule with nothing worse on its record than a 13-7 loss to mighty Georgia Tech.

Such a showing would almost certainly entitle Tulane to a New Year's Day appearance in one of the three bowls sanctioned by the Southeastern Conference—Sugar, Orange and Cotton.

The wave has washed over Alabama, South Carolina and Mississippi. It has yet to roll against Auburn, Mississippi State, Virginia Military, Baylor, Cincinnati and Louisiana State.

At this point Tulane must rate as favorite over any of those remaining opponents—especially since the tougher assignments are all preceded by comparative breathers.

Not since the unbeaten 1939 powerhouse went to the Sugar Bowl has a Tulane club come close to a post-season bid. During the war the wave subsided into a crowd of ready, willing and futile teen-agers, who absorbed some merciless beatings.

All over town they are talking about how good the ECTC band was Friday night in their halftime ceremonies. One city official remarked, "It's the best band they have ever had and Director Herbert Carter deserves a lot of credit. And you can't look over that high school band; they may be small but they make a lot of noise and the noise makes sense."

The Pirates came out of the game Friday with no serious injuries. Buck Wilson who did not see action Friday night will probably be out of action the rest of the year.

Orchids to the cheer leaders and all others who made the campus very colorful for homecoming.

What is the record of the University of N.C. and State games? Ans.: Carolina has won 28, lost 5, tied 6. The Tar Heels have scored 671 points to N.C. State 183. This includes Saturday's game which Carolina won 14 to 0.

Deadly Weapon

Chapter 23

Somebody knocked at the door. Walter James, cradled in a big chair, watched the smoke cork-screw up from his cigarette. He was wearing a deep blue dressing gown over patterned pajamas. The ash stand by the chair was a stew of soft ashes and ground-up butts.

The knock sounded again. He glanced at the electric clock on the desk. Nine. Nine o'clock the morning after. Nine o'clock, Wednesday, the twenty-seventh of September. He punched out the cigarette and walked wearily to the door.

A boy was standing outside, about to knock again. He had thin hawkish features and big eyes; he couldn't have been much over twenty. Walter James looked at him blankly for a moment before he recognized Bob Newcomb.

He said frostily, "What do you want?"

Newcomb's big eyes were surprised and caught by the ragged stitched wounds on the smaller man's head. He blinked and remembered. "I've come for Laura."

Walter James looked him up and down. "What makes you think she would be here?" The boy stepped into the apartment. "I didn't invite you in. I asked what makes you think she would be here?"

The boy glanced around wildly. Walter James noticed his eyes were tired—more tired than his own felt. "I know she's here!" he blurted. "Laura didn't come home last night. You brought her here last night and kept her here!"

The slender man's eyes didn't feel worn any longer. They were alive and filled with blue ice. "You'd better go, sonny. Take your dirty adolescent mind back to school and peddle your paper."

"I'm not going unless I take Laura with me." His voice bounced around, uncontrolled. He was wearing a sport coat and a sport shirt; open-necked, it revealed every gulp and made his smooth throat childish. "Laura's my girl. You had no right to bring her here. What have you done with her?"

Walter James said between his teeth, "Get out!"

The boy's voice fell into half-pleading. "Mr. James, Laura's my girl. She's a nice girl. I don't know what you told her, but you had no right to take advantage of her."

"Advantage!" Walter James laughed without mirth. "Is that what you learned in school? Don't you know any better words? I suppose you think I slept with her last night!"

The boy clenched his fists, his face burning. "You can't talk about Laura like that!"

The detective laughed scornfully. "Beat it, sonny. Go read a dictionary."

came running forward to throw herself into his arms and hold him tight. "Oh, Walter, Walter, of course not! Nothing could spoil you for me."

Walter James sat down, sagging into the chair. The girl slipped onto his lap, seeped her warmth against him. She put her lips close to the scars above his ear.

"I was afraid you'd feel differently," she whispered. "Bob has nothing to do with us. There's just the two of us. We can't be touched by other people unless we want to be."

He put his arms around her youthfulness. "I don't deserve you, red-head. But I'm going to try to keep you just the same."

"You deserve so much more than just me," she said softly. "But please be satisfied with me because that's all I want."

Charge Man With Illegal Possession

Pitt County ABC officers J. M. Ward and Claude Manning and Sheriff's deputies Loyd Manning and J. L. Mills arrested Lonnie Baker, white, on the Washington highway Saturday afternoon and charged him with possession of more than one gallon of ABC whiskey for the purpose of sale.

The officers recognized Baker for his appearance in County Court Tuesday morning and released him.

Israeli Announce New Commander Directing Fight

Tel Aviv, Israel, Oct. 16—(AP)—Israel has thrown a top commander into the battle for control of the Negev, where last reports indicated heavy casualties on both sides as Jews and Egyptians struggled fiercely.

Military censorship blacked out several key details of the fighting, even barring use of the Israeli commander's name and an order of the day to his troops throwing light on the scope and aims of the attack. The fighting was reported centered around Gaza, main Egyptian military base in Palestine and capital of the newly proclaimed Arab government of the Holy Land.

The Israeli command said it had penetrated Egyptian troop bases but would not reveal their exact location. The Egyptians were reported by the Jews to be retaliating with artillery fire directed at Jewish settlements northeast of Gaza.

That road crosses the Egyptian supply and reinforcement route to Beerseba, Hebron and the southern arc of the Jerusalem front. If the Jews won full control they would cut the Egyptian supply and reinforcement route for much of southern Palestine.

An indication of at least partial Israeli success at that objective was receipt at U.N. headquarters in Haifa of an Egyptian complaint that the Jews had occupied positions east of Faluja, blocking the highway approach from Gaza through Hebron to Jerusalem. Faluja is a communications center 23 miles northeast of Gaza.

An Israeli army communique announced the capture of an Egyptian strongpoint after an aerial assault and bitter hand-to-hand fighting. Naming the exact location was not permitted. The Israelis claimed heavy casualties inflicted on the Egyptians.

Stray Howitzer

Stratford, Pa., Oct. 15—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Reilly returned home from the movies to be told by their baby sitter, "There's a cannon in the back yard."

Reilly took a look and, sure enough, there was a cannon in the back yard of his suburban main line home.

The weapon turned out to be a 165 MM Howitzer owned by the Valley Forge military academy. Officials of the academy said the Howitzer apparently broke loose from a truck on convoy several days ago and rolled into the Reilly yard.

Special Session On Palestine Slated Tuesday

Paris, Oct. 15—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council has been called to meet in special session tomorrow to discuss the new flareup of fighting in Palestine.

Warren R. Austin, U.S. delegate and October president of the council, ordered the session after conferring twice with Dr. Ralph Bunche, the interim Palestine mediator. Bunche said earlier he would ask for such a meeting if Israel refused to accept a three-day cease fire order in the southern desert, where Israeli and Egyptian troops are fighting.

Bunche said he still is trying to get an agreement for a three-day truce.

Three Zones In Economic Merger

Berlin, Oct. 15—(AP)—An almost complete economic merger of the three Western zones of Germany was announced today.

An agreement fusing the foreign trade of the French zone with that of the already merged British and American zones was signed by the three Western allied military governors.

This united the economies of all zones except the Russian zone of Germany, save for a few activities which will be regulated by consultation among the British, French and Americans.

Barkley Moves Into Tennessee

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 15—(AP)—Undaunted by the cool reception registered on his first visit to the south, Senator Alben W. Barkley headed for Tennessee today with a plea for unity in the Democratic party.

The Democratic vice-presidential nominee scheduled speeches at noon in Chattanooga and tonight in Nashville. He told newsmen he would urge Southerners disgruntled over the party's civil rights program to stand by the party and support President Truman for reelection.

Wildlife Club Will Meet Tuesday Night

The Pitt County Wildlife Club will hold an important meeting at Respers' place, across the river, tomorrow night, Tuesday, at 7 o'clock. President Jesse R. Moye will preside.

Warren Currier of State College, Penn., biologist for the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission, will speak on a subject very interesting to hunters and sportsmen.

All sportsmen and hunters are invited to attend the meeting. Supper will be "dutch treat."

RESULTS DISPUTED

Paris, Oct. 15—(AP)—Candidates running under the rightist banner of Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the Communists of the extreme left trailed in voting for the electoral college, but the De Gaulleists claimed far more strength than the figures showed.

Israel . . .

their rights must be safeguarded. And along with this division of land between the two peoples the U.N. must provide guarantees for the maintenance of peace.

One of the most interesting—and difficult—of the problems is that relating to the disposal of the Negev. "Negev" means "the South" and it comprises the southern portion of Palestine, much of which is dry and sandy. I have been there and must say it struck me as being an inhospitable zone. However, appearances sometimes are deceptive for the Negev is not without its virtue.

This area has an estimated population of 60,000 to 80,000, most of whom are Arab Nomads. However, there are a few towns and some agriculture is carried on by means of irrigation. Sheep and goats also are raised. The Jewish agency has maintained agricultural experimental stations in the Negev, and there are hopes of developing the farming. It also has been demonstrated that potash can be taken from the Dead Sea. And it is said that there is petroleum beneath those hot sands.

These things explain why the Jews want to try their luck in the Negev and are asking that the U.N. assembly's original award be made good.

Televising . . .

realize how government affected him and his family—if he could sit in a classroom a thousand miles from Washington and watch Congress at work.

And what could equal television in making all Americans conscious of the workings of their government, if they could see it simply by looking at a screen on their television sets in their homes?

Of course, the manners of some congressmen would have to change if their every move was being flashed on television.

No more sitting around, dozing, while other men shout around them. No more reading newspapers, ignoring the debates.

And—probably a lot more congressmen would show up on the floor of House and Senate to take part in what was happening, if only to let the people back home see they were there.

If the people back home could see and hear their congressmen at work in Washington, they'd be better able, too, to make up their minds about voting the next time.

Who'd pay for televised showings of Congress? Maybe the government, or maybe the networks would put on the shows without cost.

Plans for funeral services are incomplete.

New York, Oct. 15—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 15 cents a bale higher to 5 cents lower.

Noon prices were 75 cents to $1.15 a bale, higher than the previous close. Dec. 31.40, March 31.18 and May 30.91.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, Oct. 15—(AP)—Steels led a rally in the stock market today that pulled the list generally higher. Gains were in fractions to more than a point among the leaders. Stocks on the minus side of the line held their losses to a point or less.
