Holy Land Fight Goes On Despite Security Council

Truce Observers Report Bombardments Continue In Face Of Cease-Fire

Paris, Oct. 20 (AP)—The United Nations said today that despite the Security Council cease fire order, hostilities continue on the Negro front of southern Palestine.

"United Nations observers reported a x x x that strong bombardment was continuing on both sides," truce observers reported to U.N. headquarters here.

"Observers at Gaza airport reported that they counted 67 bombs dropped during the night in five Jewish air raids. Negro observers also report that three Israeli convoys shelled the coast near Majdal on Oct. 19, destroying the Majdal hospital."

"The cease fire order was voted yesterday. A war of words broke out in the 58-nation Political Committee of the General Assembly here over whether the committee should take up the general Palestine issue immediately.

Russian bloc delegates suggested there was a move under way to delay the debate until after the presidential election in the United States Nov. 2.

This Soviet line was carried mainly by Julius Katz-Suchy of Poland and Dmitri Manuilsky of the Ukraine.

Acting Palestine Mediator Ralph Bunche reported to the U.N. that 473,000 Palestine Arabs, driven from their homes by the war, are in desperate straits. Charles Malik of Lebanon, president of the social committee, said he had no objection to interrupting the committee's current debate on human rights to discuss this new refugee problem. Bunche estimated 30,000,000 is needed to care for the refugees for nine months.

Talking' Stove Picks Up Short Wave Broadcast

York, Pa., Oct. 20 (AP)—Mrs. Walter Sechrist says she rarely listens to her kitchen stove today—she just listens to her stove talking.

The York housewife said yesterday that her gas range has been picking up short wave transmissions made by her next door neighbor, an amateur radio operator.

The other day, Mrs. Sechrist said, she heard her neighbor's voice coming clearly through her stove while he was carrying on a radio conversation with another radio operator in South America.

Mrs. Sechrist said an engineer told her that two unlike metals in the stove apparently pick up the radio signals while one of the range's metal panels tune in broadcasts.

Child Ran Back, Died In Flames

New York, Oct. 20 (AP)—Breaking away from rescuers, a six-year-old girl ran back into her blazing Brooklyn home and died in the flames yesterday.

Officials could not learn why the victim, Margaret Johnson, darted back into her fire-swept ground floor apartment while being led out through a hallway.

Her mother, Mrs. Rose Johnson, a widow, and three sisters were rescued by passersby.

A German's Viewpoint

'If You Give Up Berlin, You Give Up Europe,' Says Visiting German Editor; His Reasoning; Resistance In Europe To Red Aggression Hinges On U. S. Actions

By BELMAN MORIN

"If you give up Berlin, you give up Europe," the German said. "It is as simple as that."

He is a Berliner, a member of that group of newspapermen who have been in the United States studying American newspapers and their methods. Quite probably, his opinions are weighted on the side of American policy in Germany, since he lives under the protection of American arms, and practices his profession by virtue of an American license.

However, he is no yes-man. He is quietly critical of some phases of American policy, but not as it relates to Berlin.

His reasoning, I think, is worth reporting, as a counterpoint to the arguments of many Americans who believe we have blundered terribly by clinging to our perilous foothold in Berlin.

Advocates Federal Aid In Education

Dr. Frank P. Graham Addresses District NCEA Meeting; Legislative Program Discussed; Officers Elected

More than 1500 teachers from twenty-two counties of the state gathered at East Carolina Teachers College for the 26th annual convention of the Northeastern District Teachers Association of the State Education Association.

Highlights of the meeting were an address by Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the Greater University of North Carolina, and a report on the legislative program of the NCEA by A. C. Dawson, Jr. president of the association.

Dr. Graham spoke in the afternoon session of the convention and was heard by an audience which packed the Austin Auditorium to capacity. Speaking on "The Federal Principle," he pointed out that its application can mean equality of opportunity in education, freedom of the human mind, and peace in a troubled world.

"We have Federal aid for everything else under the sun," said Dr. Graham and stated that now is the time to put the federal principle into operation in education. He cited facts and figures to show that federal aid in education is a major concern of all Americans and will benefit all sections of the nation

Big UN Majority For American Atomic Plan

Vote Return Of Dispute To Big Five And Canada While Upholding Majority Report Of UN Atomic Energy Commission

Paris, Oct. 20 (AP)—A big majority of the United Nations approved today the American-sponsored long range plan for atomic control, slipping down a Soviet proposal in the process.

The 58-nation political committee voted 41 to 6 to turn the atomic energy dispute over to the big five and Canada, with instructions to try for agreement on basic principles. The big five are the United States, Russia, Britain, France and China.

There were ten abstentions in this vote, taken upon a Canadian report approving the majority report of the U. N. atomic energy commission. The commission report was based on U. S. proposals for an international control agency with teeth for enforcement.

The committee rejected a Soviet proposal to outlaw the atomic bomb and set up an atomic energy control organization simultaneously.

The defeated Soviet proposal would have directed the Security Council and the atomic energy commission to:

"Prepare a draft convention on prohibition of atomic weapons and a draft convention on the establishment of effective international control over atomic energy both the convention on prohibition of atomic energy to be signed and brought into operation simultaneously."

Rejection by the political committee was tantamount to disapproval in the general assembly, since all 58 members of the Assembly are represented in the committee. Six of the 68 members were absent when the vote on the Soviet proposal was taken by a show of hands.

The Security Council, which yesterday heard the Americans charge that Russia was tightening the Berlin blockade even as the Council took up the case, convenes again on the issue Friday.

The Americans, British and French made no secret of their hope that a resolution would come from the neutrals—Argentina, Canada, China, Syria, Colombia and Belgium.

Chicago, Oct. 20 (AP)—Temperatures started climbing to near normal levels over most of the country today after another night of cool weather.

The cool air extended from the Great Lakes to the Gulf and into the New England states. Below freezing readings were reported in the early morning hours with a low of 21 at Old Town, Maine. The mercury was near the freezing mark in some southern areas.

However, temperatures during the day were expected to return to normal over the southern states, in the Ohio valley and most of the mid-west. Cooler weather was forecast for the northeastern section of the country tonight.

Says Food Price Peak Has Passed

Chicago, Oct. 20 (AP)—A large food retailer expressed the opinion today "that food prices have passed their peak."

Franklin J. Lundberg, president of Jewel Tea Company, Chicago, operator of a chain of food stores, said at the 15th annual meeting of the National Association of Food Chains:

"There is no doubt about a downward trend in food prices. Tremendous production of the country's farms will continue to have its influence on lower prices despite higher operating costs of business. I am of the opinion that food prices have passed their peak."

ONLY FOUR CASES Raleigh, N.C., Oct. 20 (AP)—Only four cases of polio were reported to the State Board of Health today. The report covered a two-day period since the office was "closed yesterday."

Blames Landlord

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 20 (AP)—A navy veteran today blamed the death of his young son on a landlord who, he said, removed doors and windows from her apartment while he was overseas.

A civil suit by James B. Crosby, 24, asked $20,000 damages. Named as defendants were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Swindell. The suit itself Swindell now is dead.

The suit charged that Miss Crosby, a bride of four months, died of pneumonia in December, 1945, after the Swindells had caused the doors and windows from her apartment to be removed in an eviction attempt.

Crosby said he was serving aboard cruisers in the South Atlantic and the South Pacific from 1941 to 1946, save for brief shore duty in this country in 1943.

Officials Refute Wallcote Charge

Know Of No Complaints In Registering Negro Voters Here

An Associated Press report this morning quoted the Progressive party headquarters in Durham as saying that registration for the general election has been refused qualified Negro voters in Greenville who would support Presidential Candidate Wallace in the coming election. County election authorities and election officials in the city, however, denied the charges.

J. H. Harrell, chairman of the county board of elections commented, "It's news to me that any qualified Negro has been refused registration on any grounds. There have been no such reports that we know anything about, and I have had no complaints from persons who supposedly were not allowed to register."

Individual registrars for the city projects who could be contacted this morning said they have taken no such action. One said, "We let Negroes register just like everyone else, and they can vote for who they please."

Efforts were made this morning to trace the report from the Progressive Party headquarters in Durham back to Greenville, but where they got the information which was released to the Associated Press could not be ascertained.

Recommend U. S. Open Its Doors To East Europe

Washington, Oct. 20 (AP)—A recommendation that the United States admit more students and other visitors from "barricaded" eastern Europe went to Secretary of State Marshall today from a group of American educators.

The new United States advisory commission on educational exchange said this country should adopt a more liberal policy, particularly in admitting persons from Communist-run lands to attend "reputable" international conferences here.

The group said there must be "careful control" but: "For the United States to close its doors to all contacts with those nations with whose philosophy it disagrees would be to pull down an iron curtain on our side of the Atlantic."

VERY CRITICAL Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 20 (AP)—The condition of Elissa Landi, 43-year-old screen actress, was reported "very critical and growing steadily worse" today at Kingston hospital.

Troops And Police March On South Korean Rebels

Seoul, Oct. 20 (AP)—A pitched battle between loyal and insurgent Korean soldiers was expected in the extreme southern part of Korea tonight after a rebel band of soldiers killed or captured 100 policemen at two towns.

Martial law was declared in South Korea—the American zone—by Home Minister T. Y. Yoon shortly after President Syngman Rhee returned here from Japan.

The uprising began at Yosu on the south coast and spread quickly to Suchon, 12 miles away. Yoon said the rebels were led by Communist soldiers.

Police stations of both towns were burned. Loyal soldiers at Yosu were evacuated by the Korean coast guard after the uprising.

The growing insurgent force was reported marching on Kwangju, capital of South Cholla Province. Troops and Korean police were sent to meet them. Government authorities expected a battle during the night but because of the remoteness of the area reports from there were not expected until later.

Yoon said the rebel force may number 4,000 men. He said a Communist cell among 2,500 Korean soldiers based at Yosu was to blame for the uprising, which started after the arrest of the cell leader.

Hero Not Forgotten By Residents In Home Town

Bessemer, Ala., Oct. 20 (AP)—Henry E. (Red) Irwin, winner of the congressional medal of honor, thought the folks had forgotten about him.

The Bessemer youth was awarded the medal for saving the lives of 11 men aboard a B-29 during a bombing flight over Japan April 12, 1945. He was critically burned while hurrying from the ship with his bare hands a white-hot smoke bomb that had backfired.

President Prepares Final Big City Onslaught For Next Week

Washington, Oct. 20 (AP)—President Truman began collecting ammunition today for a final big city campaign onslaught.

Back home from a quick foray into Dixie territory, the President said he will stay close to the White House, transacting routine business and working on political speeches until he flies to Pittsburgh Saturday.

There he will make the first of a series of major addresses intended to woo the workers of Populist industrial centers.

George Harrison, a vice president of the American Federation of Labor and chairman of the Democratic National committee's labor division, was the first to confer with Mr. Truman on plans for the stretch drive.

Harrison met the Chief Executive last night at the Washington Airport upon Mr. Truman's return from Raleigh, N. C. There the President appealed to Southern voters to stand with the Democratic party or risk what he called a "Hoover Carr" depression at the hands of the Republicans. The President's argument delivered before a State Fair crowd was that a vote for the States Rights ticket would be "wasted."

Mr. Truman didn't mention that ticket by name. Nor did he refer to his civil rights program which led to the Dixie uprising.

His audience remained silent when he said: "Today big-money Republicanism is on the march, and to beat it we've all got to stand together. That's where we Democrats belong—together—shoulder to shoulder."

But the President drew a hand with these sentences: "Everybody—South and North—knows that there's only one choice in this campaign. Either the standard Republicans will buy the election or the Standard Democrats will win. Other parties simply don't stand a chance."

Mr. Truman will fly back to Washington Saturday night from his Pennsylvania trip, but he will be off again Sunday night by train on a swing that will keep him away from the White House until after election day.

He will speak the nights of Oct. 25 at Chicago, Oct. 26 at Cleveland, Oct. 27 at Boston, Oct. 28 at New York City, Oct. 29 at Brooklyn and Oct. 30 at St. Louis.

There will be numerous "off the cuff" talks between these major addresses. Some will be made during automobile drives in the vicinities of the big cities.

Report Russians Departing Korea

Moscow Radio Says Troops Given 'Magnificent Farewell'

London, Oct. 20 (AP)—The Moscow radio said today "Soviet troops have begun to evacuate various parts of Northern Korea and the population is giving them a magnificent farewell."

The Soviet government in a written statement to the U. S. State department Sept. 18 declared the Russians intended to get their troops out of Northern Korea by the end of this year. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov expressed hope the United States would do likewise in southern Korea.

The United States rebuffed the Soviet proposal Sept. 30 in a brief note saying "The United States government regards the question of troop withdrawal as part of the larger question of Korean unity and independence, concerning which its views will be presented at the appropriate time by the General Assembly of the United Nations."

Soviet troops have occupied northern Korea since the end of the war. Americans occupy the southern half of the country.

Today's Moscow broadcast said Korean spokesmen in farewell statements to the Russian "stressed the enormous assistance the Soviet army rendered Korea in her liberation from foreign invasion."

Today's Moscow broadcast said the Russian "stressed the enormous assistance the Soviet army rendered Korea in her liberation from foreign invasion."

Oppose Increase In Freight Rates

Washington, Oct. 20 (AP)—The Agriculture Department today joined other major shipping interests in opposing any new "emergency" increase in railroad freight rates.

The department gave its views to the Interstate Commerce Commission which is considering a petition from the railroads for a 15 per cent advance in freight charges. The railroads have asked an immediate "emergency" eight percent increase while the proposed 13 percent increase is studied.

Demands Firing Denham, Marshall

Philadelphia, Oct. 20 (AP)—Henry Wallace said today the Administrators of the Taft-Hartley act, by recent decisions, "have set the stage for an era of violence."

As he neared the end of a four week airplane trip seeking votes for President, Wallace demanded that President Truman fire these men:

- 1. Robert N. Denham, general Counsel of the National Labor Relations board.
- 2. Secretary of State Marshall.

Red Strike Wave In France Costs Nation Heavily

Coal Tieup Already Equals One Twentieth Of Marshall Plan Relief

Paris, Oct. 20 (AP)—A 24-hour strike snarled railway traffic along the Riviera today. The Communists said it was called in sympathy with the crippling French mine strike, now in its 17th day.

Anti-Communist newspapers predicted a subway strike would hit Paris Monday.

The Communist-led railway union called the Mediterranean area strike to support demands for a minimum wage of 15,000 francs ($50) a month.

The Communist assault on the European Recovery Program through the coal strike has cut France's industrial production by 20 per cent, a De Gaulleist said last night.

Gaston Palewski took a political meeting that losses from the paralyzing, Communist-led French coal strike are "equal already to one twentieth of the benefits received under the Marshall Plan."

Palewski also blamed the government, asserting "France is an ideal place for social agitation."

The coal tieup, now in its third week, has cost France more than 2,000,000 tons of fuel, some 330,000 miners say.

Soldiers and police sealed dozens of strike-bound pits yesterday in south-central France to have them from serious deterioration.

The government moved troops into the coal fields after Communist labor bosses ordered maintenance workers to leave their pits. At least four pits in the St. Etienne area in south central France are reported flooded beyond repair. Troops occupied seven mines in this area alone. Some 4,000 soldiers were reported massed in the sector.

Clashes occurred when the strikers attacked soldiers and police who sealed the mines.

Government officials at St. Etienne said the "aggressive political nature" of the strike was apparent because members of the strike committee had gone into hiding, leaving no chance for negotiation.

Prefect Pierre Berthaux said the government was battling a campaign of "sabotage."

The government frequently has said the strike was ordered by the Communists with the aim of wrecking the European Recovery Program.

Answers Charge Alabamans Can't Vote For Truman

Selma, Ala., Oct. 20 (AP)—National leaders of the Democratic party have kicked the States Rights candidates off the ballot in several states. Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi declared at a county Farm Bureau convention here yesterday.

The vice presidential aspirant on the States Rights ticket named Oklahoma, Maryland and Indiana as among the states where this has happened.

He pointed this out, he added, in answer to charges that Alabamians are being denied the right to vote for President Truman in the November election.

Denies Reported Visit To Europe

Albany, N.Y., Oct. 20 (AP)—An aide of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today termed "abner speculation" a published report that the Republican nominee would visit Europe during the interim before inauguration if he is elected president.

Ruling On Labor Law

Implications Of A Case Which Reached The Supreme Court; Two Or More Men Can't Be Fired For Telling The Boss They Don't Like The Way Business Is Run

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Oct. 20 (AP)—A couple of men, or a dozen or a hundred, can tell the boss they don't like the way he runs his business.

And he can't fire them for it.

But—it's all right only so long as two or more do that. If one man by himself tries it, the boss can fire him—bounce him on the spot. Why?

The reason was made pretty clear this week in a case that went up to the Supreme Court.

Since what happened in that case applies to most bosses and workers, this is an explanation:

Ten salesmen in the Chicago branch office of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company got sore.

The cashier was leaving, the fourth cashier in a couple of years to leave.

And the cashier was important to them, they felt, in helping with their accounts. So each time a new cashier was hired it slowed them down.

They agreed to tell the boss in a letter how they felt, with two of them writing it and all 10 signing it.

The boss found out about the upcoming letter and fired the two men who were going to write it.

Teachers Stage Dinner Meeting

The Classroom Teachers of the Northeastern District held their dinner meeting at the Woman's Club at six o'clock Tuesday evening, October 19.

Miss Elizabeth Hyman of East Carolina Teachers College, president of the organization, presided. Miss Hyman presented Mrs. Howard Mims, local president, and chairman of the Social committee, who welcomed most graciously the one hundred and fifty guests from adjoining counties and towns.

Miss Hyman next presented a few of the visitors at the speaker's table, including Dr. John Messick, president of East Carolina Teachers College; Mrs. Ethel Perkins Edwards and Dr. Amos Abrams, Raleigh, of the North Carolina Education staff, and Mrs. Phebe Emmons, district director of N. C. E. A. The newly elected president of the district classroom teachers, Miss Ella Bonner, of Washington, was next called on to introduce the speaker, Dr. C. Sylvester Green, editor of the Durham Herald.

The Durham editor, who has held many positions as a leader in educational and religious life of the state, proved himself a most interesting and impressive speaker.

Although Dr. Green, not only told a few choice jokes from a newspaper man's vast collection, but also spiced his lecture with clever witticisms. His talk, on the whole, was serious, thought provoking, and inspiring.

After his greeting to the teachers, the speaker launched into his subject, "Today's Headlines and Tomorrow's Hopes," with real zest. He said, no, he did not know who the next president would be, but he predicted the president would be elected by the non-voters. He then challenged the teachers as citizens to show more concern in their right and responsibility to vote.

Dr. Green stated that a part of his job was to supervise headlines for his newspaper. He then mentioned the "sure fire" headlines now - Russia, Palestine and politics.

In discussing briefly but penetratingly each of these subjects for today's headlines, Dr. Green spoke most feelingly on the different attitudes of Americans on these vital subjects - the pessimists, the unconcerned and the optimistic attitudes.

The speaker said anyone could start a fight; it probably would be easy to start a war, but he said it takes people with faith, with character to live in harmony with each other for good and for the right.

Dr. Green then most sincerely challenged the teachers to dedicate themselves anew to the task before them, not to close their eyes to the seriousness of the present world situation but to work with each other and with their students for a better tomorrow.

Girl Scout News

The Greenville Girl Scouts have spent many happy hours this fall camping, because Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hardee of Norfolk, Va., made Camp Hardee a reality. The camp site has been lovely in its new fall suit of vivid colors, and the weather could not have been better for troop camping.

Four different groups of Scouts with their leaders have spent four week-ends at camp. A total of 70 girls made the trips. The first two groups enjoyed swimming, boating, hiking, cookouts and games. The last two groups did not go swimming, but had a wonderful time doing all the other things that are so much fun to do on a camping trip. Each group returned to Greenville happy in the fact that they were fortunate enough to have such a wonderful place as Camp Hardee.

The Senior Girl Scouts organized Wednesday, October 6. The Girl Scouts, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Henderson, planned the activities for the coming scout year. The Girl Scouts elected their officers and they were as follows: President, Janice Ormond, secretary and treasurer, Shariene Howard.

The girls decided they would meet every other Wednesday. The meeting for this coming Wednesday will be in the form of a wicker roost. The Girl Scouts have many exciting and worthy plans for the coming year.

Hallowe'en Carnival at Winterville
There will be fun for all at Winterville high school's annual Hallowe'en carnival on Friday night, October 22. A supper will be served in the school lunchroom at 6 p. m. for the nominal price of fifty cents per plate. Patrons are urged to get tickets ahead of time from the students who will be selling them. The price of admission is the size of the shoes worn by each person attending the carnival.

Several features are slated for the evening's entertainment, a cake walk, bingo, fish pond, and many others. The highlights of the night will be a show in the auditorium, costume parade with a prize for the best costume, and the presentation of the children participating in the baby contest which the rooms are sponsoring. The following candidates are aspiring for the winning position:

British Hunting Asian War Dead

Singapore—(AP)—Corners of Southeast Asia will remain "forever England." In them memorial cemeteries are being constructed for British servicemen. Unlike the Americans, who have returned home the bodies of some 30,000 war dead since last October, the British decided to leave their dead in the areas where they fell.

Initial work is accomplished by teams who locate and identify bodies in the isolated tropical jungles of Malaya, Burma, Indochina and the East Indies. Lt. Colonel L. S. Harrop plans and coordinate efforts to locate the estimated 10,000 men still unaccounted for in Southeast Asia. Recovery of approximately 6,000 bodies to date includes Malays, Chinese and Indians who fought with British soldiers in Singapore and the Federation of Malaya.

Once bodies are gathered together in the military cemetery, Graves Registration hands over its job to "Imperial War Graves" which converts the cemetery into a permanent memorial.

Parents Appeal For Negotiation With Abductor

Baltimore, Oct. 20—(AP)—The sleepless and grief-stricken parents of Baby Jo Ann Mezzanotte early today appealed for her abductor to negotiate through their church, and asked the public for any clue, "no matter how trivial it may seem." The two-and-a-half-month-old girl was taken from her parked baby carriage in broad daylight yesterday while her 28-year-old mother, Mrs. Michael Mezzanotte, was in a drug-store.

Meanwhile police conducted a search for a woman whom passersby saw near the scene carrying a "bundle" in a pink-and-white blanket. They said that Mezzanotte, a railroad worker, was "not wealthy." The pair asked the abductor to contact St. Katherine's Church here.

Membership Drive Chairmen To Meet

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the agricultural building there will be a meeting of the community chairmen of the Farm Bureau membership drive in Pitt County.

W. A. Allen, president of the Pitt County Farm Bureau, has urged all community chairmen to be present at the meeting and bring with them a complete report of their membership drives.

To Hear Dirksen At GOP Rally

Raleigh, N.C., Oct. 20—(AP)—Rep. Everett Dirksen (R-Ill.) will be the principal speaker at a Republican rally here Friday evening.

E. A. Parker, director of the eastern Republican headquarters here, will preside, and Joel A. Johnson, Republican nominee for Congress in the Fourth District, also will speak. A part of Congressman Dirksen's address will be carried over a state-wide radio network.

Australia Halts Racket In Fares

Canberra—(AP)—The Australian Government plans a new law to halt a racket in steamer fares to Australia. Some agents have charged European migrants as much as $812 for a passage to Australia. Fares usually are under $422, and the agent pockets the difference. The new law, forecast by government officials, will compel all agents to register with the Immigration Department.

Pitt County Council Of 4-H Clubs Meet On Friday Evening

The Pitt County council of 4-H clubs will meet in Greenville Friday night at 7:30 at the County Agents' office in the Agricultural building. The council, the governing body of the 18 4-H organizations in Pitt County, is composed of the officers of each of the clubs in the county.

At the meeting the duties of the various officers will be discussed along with procedures of conducting meetings, and plans for the program of the current year.

U.S. Comic Books In China Found Popular

Shanghai—(AP)—American comic books are flooding Shanghai. Few bookstores are without them. Their popularity, with children and adults alike, have fostered the rapid growth of the sidewalk vendor. It is generally understood that the comics are paid for abroad by means that have been outlawed today but which are likely to continue because their delivery is made through the post office.

ITS 64TH SEASON

Strength FOR THE DAY

THE STARS ARE ALWAYS THERE

Trouble bears some people down and crushes them to the ground. Others are not only able to bear up under troubles, but use them as stepping stones to a higher life.

Why this difference in people? Heredity may have something to do with it. Some people are born with stronger characters than others and so are better able to handle the overwhelming problems of life. But most often, the difference between those who are crushed by life's burdens and those who are remade by them is due to the willingness of some people to be taught, and the complete unwillingness of others. If a man has a teachable heart, everything instructs him and strengthens his life, even trouble. If, on the other hand, he has an unteachable heart, he goes through life learning nothing and dies without knowing what life is all about.

It is within the power of every one of us to deepen the nature God has given us. If we are unteachable, it is largely because we have been willing five years after year with shallow and superficial ideals and have not taken the necessary pains to deepen and enrich our lives.

TIME FOR NEW INDUSTRIES

Monday night when the directors and officials of the Norfolk Southern Railway company were guests of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, the railroad president, the chairman of the board of directors and several others of the party pointed out the need of a greater diversification of industry in Greenville and the diversification of agriculture in Pitt county.

There has been great progress along these lines during the last few years in our community, through the efforts of the business and farmers' organizations, but there still is a great deal to be desired in the variety of industry in Pitt county.

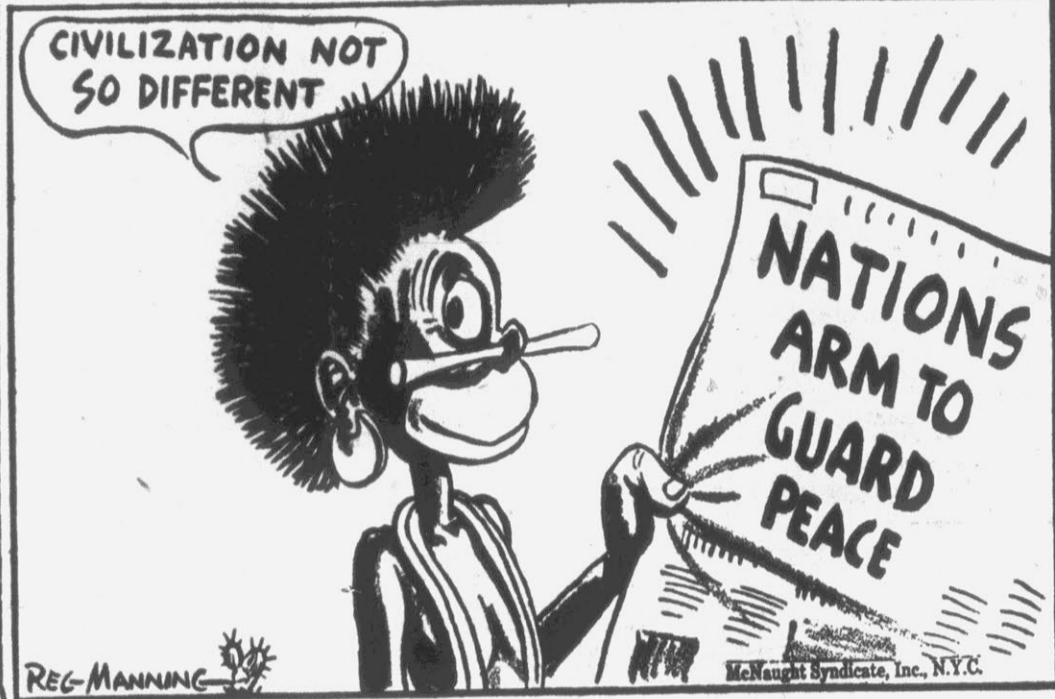

Greenville, like other towns in Eastern North Carolina, is almost entirely dependent upon the tobacco farmers and the tobacco processors for business and income. When the tobacco crop is short or the prices are low, it is felt in almost every business in the county from the smallest up to the largest.

The bringing in of new industries does not mean giving up the vast tobacco business which has grown up in Pitt county, but new industries and the raising of new money crops would supplement the present income of our people and help round out a well balanced economy for the county and for Greenville.

Now that companies are again able to expand their physical plants and have the money to go into fields in search of labor, the time is ripe for Greenville to get its share of the industries which are leaving their plants in the north and moving south.

Now that tests have shown many profitable crops besides tobacco can be grown in Pitt county, it is the time for the progressive farmers of the area to reach out and grasp these new opportunities to add substantially to their incomes.

The Greenville Chamber of Commerce and the County Farm Agent's office alone cannot bring new industry or new crops into Pitt county. It is up to every businessman and every farmer to do his part to see that Pitt county has a better balanced economy.

Around Capitol Square

WIND-UP—In every respect except general attendance the sixth district rally in the Alamance courthouse was most complete of the entire lot of twelve. Three reasons were assigned for light attendance: Last day removal of the meeting place from the Burlington city hall to the courthouse in Graham; the mammoth barbecue and rally at Kerr Scott's farm a few weeks ago, and the fact that many people who otherwise might have attended were saving up time and energy for Mr. Truman in Raleigh the following day, or the Guilford county rally Thursday.

HOME-COMING—It was really coming occasion for several of the state candidates. The sixth is the home district (and Alamance the home county) of Governor-nominee Kerr Scott. It is also the home district of Senator William B. Umstead, State Chairman Capus Wayne, State Auditor Henry Bridges, Commissioner of Labor Forrest Shuford. Other high ranking officials home for the rally included Victor Bryant, secretary of the state Democratic committee; A. H. Graham, state highway chairman; and Hughes J. Rhodes, assistant attorney general. In fact, the sixth district now outranks the first, which formerly held the honor, in state official positions, with three members on the council of state and several big appointive jobs.

COMPLETE—The roster of candidates and big shots was more complete than anywhere else. This was the first district meeting to be attended by State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson, who lost a hard fought contest for the gubernatorial nomination to Scott. Johnson was given a big hand for his presence in Scott's home county. In fact, every man who was elected to state office, except the governor, every incumbent in elective office by appointment for unexpired terms except Agriculture Commissioner Coltrane, and every candidate for election on the state Democratic ticket next month were present. All in all, it was a suitable finale for the congressional district rally itinerary. At the twelve meetings every county in the state except Macon in the twelfth was represented.

TRUMAN—"Truman Day" in Raleigh proved highly successful in every respect — including weather and crowds. The weather was perfect for mid-October, than which there can be no whither for perfection. The crowd in downtown Raleigh for the morning parade and statutory unveiling was variously estimated at from 30,000 to 75,000 people. One police officer estimated in such matters said 40,000. A football fan, using the device of mentally impinging the throngs upon a stadium, came up with estimate that the crowd would greatly overflow the Kenan stadium which can accommodate about 45,000.

MIXED—Several observers attempted to evaluate the crowd in terms of voting age, race and sex. Police officers estimated that the crowd along Fayetteville street from the auditorium, where the parade started, to the postoffice was approximately 75 per cent Negro. On upper Fayetteville street and around the capitol the Negro ratio was much less, probably resulting in an overall proportion of about one third colored. Something like two-thirds of the crowd was male, and probably more than half were of voting age.

QUIET—It was an unusually quiet crowd for such an occasion. There was relatively light applause as the president's car passed and he smiled and waved his hat, but there was no shouting or cheering. Some college boys in the capitol grounds audaciously suggested they forget to bring tomatoes with them, and another college group proudly carried a sign reading "North Carolina may be cloudy, but it ain't Dewey." On the whole the reception accorded the President was such as befitted the man and the office.

PRODUCTIVE—Consensus among state Democratic leaders interviewed during the day was the President's visit would be of tremendous help to the whole Democratic ticket in the November election. His speech at the capitol square presidential monuments was non-political, delivered in conversational manner and dealt in essentials to Joseph Daniels, Charles Keck (the sculptor), and the three presidents memorialized by the statues being unveiled.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

Washington—(AP)—Five years ago next month Hans-Norbert Finkel came to the United States as a German prisoner.

He had been captured in Tunisia with Field Marshal Rommel's Afrika korps.

Finkel, now 28, is back in America again. This time he is a guest under different circumstances. He is one of 15 German editors and publishers attending a seminar of the American Press Institute at Columbia University.

These visitors from Europe's uneasy fulchrum attended a couple of news conferences here. They were impressed by the informality and freedom with which reporters questioned government officials, and said such conferences would have been impossible in Germany under Hitler.

They also said some nice things about America. But guests usually say nice things. Since Finkel, now political editor of Dena, American-licensed German news agency, had looked at the United States from both sides of the table, I asked him what he found most disappointing in this country.

"This spirit of superficiality," he said, "and I don't mean just politically."

"Here, if you get an idea, you try to do something with it fast; you try a practical application. You say, 'let's try it.'"

"In Germany we try first to find the theory underlying the idea. The German is bound to ask, 'What lies behind it?' and this is true of all Europeans."

Finkel said he thought one sign of superficiality here was the way the average American reads his newspaper.

"There are usually four possibilities," he smiled. "The reader will look first for the comics, the baseball results, the weather forecasts or glance at the headlines. Only the fifth man will first read the news stories."

"The German has a different approach to his newspaper. He looks to it first for advice, education and information. Our papers are much more influential politically than those here. The German reader has to feel that what his paper says is right."

the U. S. First Army trying to cross the Rhine to link up with the Russian forces. It was a reunion the fighting men hoped would bring peace forever.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE KADS

Washington — The champagne and other expensive liquors flowed freely. The women wore backless and strapless gowns of fabulous fabrics, sprinkled with jewels like Christmas trees. The food was richer and more plentiful than ever. There'll be a hot time in the old town this winter, everyone agreed.

This spectacular reception at the French embassy the other night was the tip-off that the capitol's social season will be more lavishly brilliant than in many a moon.

Date books are already crammed with receptions, balls, cocktail parties, teas, dinners, debuts and other "free-loading" events, as the buffet hounds call them. High-lighting the winter, of course, will be the festivities which will complement the inaugural ceremonies in January, when top-flight gentlemen and their ladies will come to town from all over the nation.

But to get back to that peacetime reception at the French embassy. Some 300 uppercrusts of the local society gathered in the grand stone mansion at 11 p.m. after attending the Paris Opera Ballet at Constitution Hall. The ambassador and Mme. Bonnet received their guests in the green salon, which was decorated with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, masses of white flowers and fragrant lilies.

Mme. Bonnet's new French chef, Henri Duchazeau, received them in the dining salon, which was decorated with loaded buffets. M. Duchazeau did things up with a typically French flourish. It was about the first time Mme. Bonnet has gone all out on the food business. No other hostess in Washington, particularly during the war years, has been so careful in observing the food restrictions. She rarely served meat when meat was scarce. The delicacies which she served were made without using a single speck of wheat flour. She substituted all kinds of things for butter and sugar and the foodstuffs which were being sent to Europe.

County Fair Here All Next Week

Next Monday, Oct. 26, will mark the opening of the American Legion's 12th annual Pitt County Fair to be held in Greenville, to run throughout the week, closing Saturday night, Oct. 30.

A premium list, broad in scope and embracing practically all the products of Pitt County, and with premiums totaling $4,000 in prizes was distributed many weeks ago to all postal box holders in the county. The response was immediate, and entries from individual and group exhibitors to date has far exceeded those of any previous year. Entries will continue to be accepted at the fair grounds up to and including Tuesday morning, Oct. 26, insofar as space permits. Cash premiums and ribbons will be awarded to winners in the more than 100 group classifications.

Other exhibits will include horticultural products, home baked good house furnishings, poultry products, plants, flowers and fine arts. Group exhibitors to display their work will be the home demonstration clubs, 4-H clubs, vocational and agriculture groups.

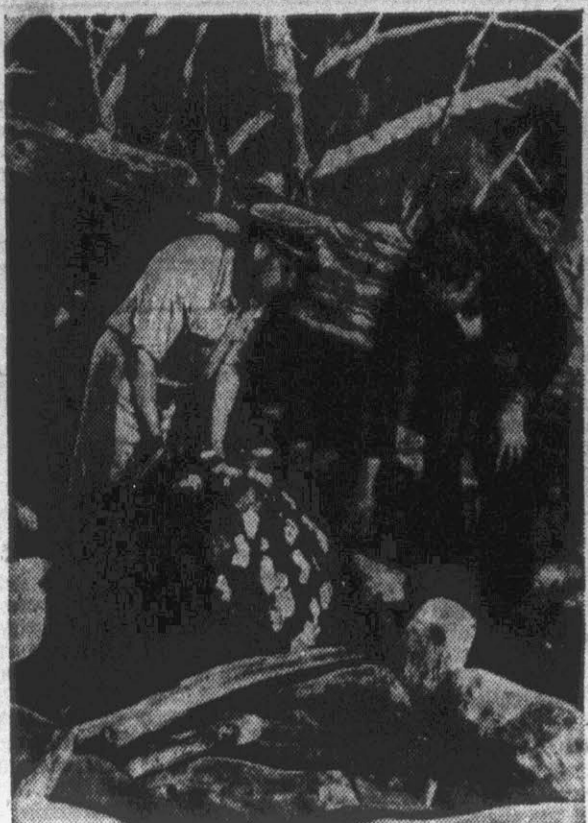

One of the features of the week will be the Wednesday Junior Purebred Swine Show in which thirty or more members of the 4-H and Farm clubs will exhibit their entries for prizes to the amount of $300. In addition to cash prizes in the many classes for hogs, Grand Champion, and Reserve Champion ribbons will be awarded.

To complete a full program for fair visitors, the largest display of fireworks ever to be seen on the county fair ground has been arranged for, and these displays will be shown every night starting Monday, the opening date. The amusement midway attractions will be furnished by the John Marks Shows and their complement of shows and riding devices will total 25 of more. Children's Day long a feature of the Fair, again this year will occupy an important place in the over all plans for the fair. Wednesday October 27 has been set aside as children's day, at which time all youngsters of school age will be admitted free to the fair grounds between the hours of noon and six p. m.

Expert Analyzes Nazi Air Errors

London—(P)—Stupidity and over-confidence probably cost Marshal Goering's Luftwaffe its chance of victory in the battle of Britain, an analyst for the magazine "Aeroplane" has concluded. German flight experience gained on France's side in the Spanish civil war led to the Luftwaffe's major error, the magazine said.

"Success of the Heinkel III and Dornier 17 in bombing operations convinced the Germans that because they were sufficiently fast to outstrip most Republican fighters, heavy armament and armor could be dispensed with, and it was this mistake perhaps more than any other that cost them the battle of Britain," it observed. "The operational personnel had become aware of this fallacy by bitter experience when attempting unescorted bombing operations, but, as happens so often, the (Luftwaffe general) staff was blissfully unaware of reality."

This attitude was reinforced in the early phases of the European war where little opposition was encountered. But when Goering began his all-out attack on Britain in the late summer of 1940, there was a different greeting awaiting his lightly equipped airforce. "The shattering fire power of eight 303 machineguns, which the Hurricane shared with the Spitfire, literally tore the unarmored bombers to shreds," the magazine said. The cumbersome bomber formations were so slow that escorting fighters found it almost impossible to maintain positions close to them, as they were ordered to do.

The word stvedore comes from the Spanish word estivador meaning packer.

The Kiwanis Club's annual "Ladies' Night" banquet will be held in the dining hall at the college Friday night at 7:30. El Bloom will be master of ceremonies and direct the program. The meeting will be held at 7:30 in order not to conflict with the students' meal time.

Greenville Firm To Install Curb And Gutters 5th Street

Mayor Jack Boyd announced today that the Clark Construction Company of Greenville was awarded the contract for installing curbing and gutters on East Fifth street to widen that thoroughfare, one of the most heavily traveled highways leading in and out of the city.

The other bidder at the special meeting of the Board of Aldermen at the City Hall this morning was J. S. Hill Construction Company of Washington.

The State Highway Department has plans for widening East Fifth street. From Lewis to Elm street the roadway will be 30 feet. From Elm street to the eastern city limits the road will be 40 feet from curb to curb, Mayor Boyd said.

Ewing To Appeal For Office Cook

Washington, Oct. 20—(AP)—The government-paid cook isn't preparing meals for Security Administrator Oscar R. Ewing any more, but Ewing hasn't given up the fight.

The FSA chief was ordered by Comptroller General Lindsay C. Warren yesterday to stop using Nease J. Kelly as a "personal cook." Kelly is employed in a government hospital.

Ewing disagreed with the "personal cook" tag, and said in a letter to Warren, "I shall propose to the next Congress that specific authority be given to continue this practice."

He said that by having their meals in his office, five and often more officials could get business done instead of traveling to the nearest restaurant, in a distant part of the city.

"The government has received far more in the time of top executives than the small cost of the cook's time," Ewing said.

A Senate appropriations subcommittee brought the whole thing up last August, when it asked Ewing about a report that he was having his meals prepared by a government employe.

ADDITIONAL HELP FOR POLICE DEPARTMENT HERE

Another improvement in facilities at the Greenville police department at the City Hall is the addition to the staff of Oscar Arnold of Fuquay Springs, as record clerk and stenographer. Arnold, who suffered an attack of infantile paralysis when quite young, was highly recommended by the N. C. State Employment Division.

Indians Await Shares In Big World Series Money

Cincinnati, Oct. 20—(AP)—The work champion Cleveland Indians awaited receipts of checks from Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler today for their record slice of the 1948 World Series money.

Each of 30 Indians will collect $8,772.97 for their series victory over the Boston Braves in six games. The losers have divided their share so that 31 players will receive $4,570.73 each.

Chandler's office said the players' money was put in the mail yesterday. It was sent in lump sums to the individual clubs for distribution to the players.

The Indians' individual shares top the previous record of $6,544.75 which the Detroit Tigers received in 1935.

Receipts for the six games of the '48 series, plus other items, totaled $1,633,083.56.

The Cleveland team, in dividing $230,250.29, gave four club members half-shares, three one-third shares and four others quarter-shares.

The Braves after voting 31 men including Jeff Heath and Jim Russell full shares of a $153,500.20 pot gave one player three-quarters of the full amount, another a half share and two others quarter shares. Three employees were given $380.90 each.

Mary Rickert, the Milwaukee outfielder who joined the Boston club at the end of the season to replace injured Heath, was given $1,523.58 through an executive order by Chandler.

John Antonelli, young pitcher who reportedly was given a $75,000 bonus to sign with the Braves, was excluded from the spoils in the voting of Braves' players, but Chandler made use of his executive power to give the youthful hurler $871.34.

Antonelli was with the Braves most of the season but pitched only three innings.

Satchel Page, Negro hurler who was bought by the Indians during the stretch drive, was one of the 30 Clevelanders receiving a full share.

Don Black Will Leave Hospital After 6 Weeks

Cleveland, Oct. 20—(AP)—With a grin that looks a lot like old times, Don Black of the Cleveland Indians says he'll be released from Charity Hospital Sunday.

And, not unexpectedly for a man who has been in bed for nearly six weeks with a brain hemorrhage suffered during a game with the St. Louis Browns, he amends:

"I sure will be glad to get out of here. I've been treated swell but I'm getting kind of tired of looking at these four walls and being all cooped up."

Whether Black will be able to slip back into uniform and pitch for the Indians still is in doubt. One physician advises him to try it, another says no.

Unbeaten Squad Tangle In East For Battle Royal

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—Army and Cornell go at each other's throats Saturday in the first of a series of football battles that may find the east without a major unbeaten and untied team. The other two all-conquering squads are Penn and Penn State.

It won't all happen this week. But give the boys time and it could happen.

The schedule this year pits Penn against all of the other three. Penn State plays only Penn. Army takes Cornell and Penn. Cornell faces Army and Penn.

In boxing they would call it top-flight matchmaking and dub the schedule marked "Tex." In college football it's different.

The schedule usually is drawn up a couple of years in advance. When the schools contract each other they don't know whether they'll draw a powerhouse or a patzy a few years hence.

It all adds up to capacity crowds this year with the possibility of a clear cut decision on who gets the Lambert Trophy, symbolic of Eastern Grid supremacy.

After the Ithaca clash of Army and Cornell, Penn State and Penn will have a go at each other in Philadelphia, Nov. 6. On Nov. 13 Army journeys to Penn's Franklin field for the annual jam-the-jerk joust.

The finale also takes place at Franklin field with Cornell visiting Penn on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 25.

Just in case the boys don't knock each other off, there's a few outside schools who would be delighted to help out.

Cornell has two other problems in Columbia and Dartmouth. Army can worry about Stanford. Penn State runs smack into a toughie this Saturday when Michigan State, nobody's pushover, invades State College.

Gridiron Gossip

The Greenville Phantoms went through a light workout yesterday afternoon. The afternoon was spent brushing up plays and blocking assignments. The Phantoms play host to the Kingston "Eagles" Friday night in Guy Smith Stadium. The Eagles are, at the time leading the North Carolina Eastern conference with four wins and no defeats.

Coach E. C. Duggins and his Mountaineers from Appalachian are still celebrating their victory over Catawba Saturday night. To hold their Social Standards they took 30 minutes of practice this afternoon for a Tea given in their honor by the Ladies Club of Boone, N. C. If the Mountaineers get by High Point this week-end (and it looks as if they will) they will have little trouble ending the season with a perfect record since they only play A. C. and ECTC in conference play.

The Washington Pam Pack from Washington, N. C. which is pushing Kingston for top honors in the North Eastern Conference will have a hard time this week-end as the Yellow Jackets from Elizabeth City travel up to try to knock them out of the unbeaten bracket. The Pam Pack record is 2 wins and no defeats.

The Pirates went through an hour scrimmage yesterday afternoon in preparation for Friday night with Norfolk at Norfolk.

Coach Jim Johnson and Jack Boone stressed ground plays and defense. Ray Autry, 185 pound tackle from Dunn, N. C. looked good on offense while Duke Cockrell 175 pound guard stole the show on defense. The Rocky Mount led for the ball several times on hands-offs for nice gains. Twice going all the way for T. D.

At this time I would like to correct a score that was given in my column Monday. I said that Norfolk beat ECTC 56 to 14. I was wrong, last year the Pirates beat the Apprentice 14 to 6.

Who is the "Connie Mack" of the gridiron? Beyond any shadow of a doubt the "Connie Mack" of the gridiron must be Amos Alonzo Stagg who has been teaching grid lore for a span of 57 years. Stagg has coached at Springfield, college of Pacific and Chicago when the Maroon was the power of the mid-way.

Two-Way Stretches

New York—(AP)—The size of a race track does not necessarily dictate the length of its home stretch. Aqueduct, which has the longest stretch in the country—1,520 feet from final turn to finish—is a one-mile oval. Atlantic City, an oval of one mile-and-an-eighth, has a stretch measuring 660 feet, while Bel Air, a 3/4 mile track has 1,037 foot home stretch, which is but 110 feet short of the stretch at Belmont Park, which is a mile-and-a-half around.

Oakland, Calif., Oct. 20—(AP)—Frederick W. Baldwin, assistant director of athletics at San Quentin, will be coaching the prison's teams a while longer.

Already serving a one to 14 year sentence for a bad check, Baldwin pleaded guilty to a similar charge and was given another 1 to 14 year sentence yesterday by Superior Judge James R. Arce.

Baldwin, 33, asked to be returned to the prison at once. He told the court his job might be in jeopardy if he were held in the county jail.

Nevada's Passer Seems Destined To Break Record

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—Nothing short of two broken arms, it appears, can prevent Nevada's Stan Heath from throwing the pigskin farther this season than it ever has been thrown before by any one player.

The Wolfpack's T-formation quarterback already has heaved the lead 1,031 yards in four games to lead the nation's passers in that department.

With five games to go, Heath needs only 427 air yards to better the 1,457-yard record set by Davey O'Brien of Texas Christian in 1938. And tried by Wilson (Bud) Schwenk of Washington (Mo.) in 1941.

Heath capped his sensational heaving last Saturday, completing 20 passes in 24 attempts for 304 yards and three touchdowns, against St. Mary's. He tossed for only three touchdowns all last year.

Heath's record breaking flinging enabled him to take over the lead in total offense. Although he has netted only six yards on five rushing efforts, he has moved the ball for a total of 1,037 yards.

If he continues at such a pace the Rocky Mountain heaver will eclipse in nine games the college total offense high of 2,187 yards, gained by Georgia's Frank Sinkwich in 11 games in 1942.

Heath has connected with 63 aerials in 106 attempts, and has pitched nine touchdowns. The record for pass attempts is 234, by O'Brien 11 years ago. Charley Conery of Mississippi last year set a mark of 133 completions. Heath has an equal chance to better both.

Dick Gilman of Kansas is tied with Heath at nine touchdowns passes apiece. The Jayhawk quarterback has collected his nine on a modest 24 completions of 60 attempts, and just 442 yards.

The most accurate passers are Southern Methodist's Gil Johnson (75.9 per cent completed), Frank Tripuka of Notre Dame (64.6 per cent) and Jimmy Southard of Georgia Tech (63.8 per cent). Southard is best at interception avoidance, having lost only one of his 58 throws.

Wildlife Club Doing Fine Work

The Pitt County Wildlife Club, at a supper meeting at Respass' place, across the river, last night, with Jesse R. Moye, the president, presiding, proved its value and influence in the game and fish conservation program. The more than half a hundred men present are sportsmen, hunters, with the spirit of fair play. Sam T. White, W. H. Woolard, Arthur Tripp, president of the Kiwanis Club, J. P. Davenport, Sr., of Pactolus, and others indicated their willing support to the wildlife conservation program.

The meeting was unanimous in a gesture of good will and appreciation of the good work done by J. O. Teel, district game and fish protector.

Warren W. Currier, formerly of State College, Pennsylvania, and now associate biologist for the North Carolina Wildlife Commission, never had a more appreciative audience than last night, when he outlined the purposes of the commission in conserving wildlife in this state.

Currier made friends and won supporters. His statement that the wildlife conservation program depends largely upon the farmers, won applause from those present. Incidentally, Currier, who works for the Wildlife Commission in 28 counties, made a good impression on sportsmen assembled last night. Currier's business address is at his home, 113 Library Street, Greenville.

Ross H. Stevens of Raleigh, executive secretary of the N.C. Wildlife Federation, talked frankly to the group of representative businessmen, farmers and others at the meeting. He explained the plans of the federation, and pleaded for cooperation among all for the conservation of wildlife in the state. He complimented Warren Currier for his helpful talk about conserving wildlife, had a nice word to say about President Jesse R. Moye, and emphasized the point that success of the federation's wild life conservation plan lies in friendly dealing with the farmers and landowners.

The more than half a hundred friends of wildlife at the meeting last night appreciated the suggestions made by Warren Currier about cooperating with farmers in planting on the edges of cultivated fields and adjoining woods of lespedeza and other grain-bearing crops to tide the quail and other birds over the tight January and February periods.

Connor Eagles, U.S. soil conservationist, made a hit with the group when he told of what is being done for wildlife in Moore County and pledged his department to cooperate with the Pitt County Wildlife Club.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Bill Drum showed a motion picture of interest to the assemblage.

Bowling Tourney Prizes Hit High

Atlantic City, N.J., Oct. 20—(AP)—An all-time high in prize money—$500,000—will be offered for the 1949 American Bowling Congress Tournament here Feb. 12.

The Congress said yesterday it will use 52 alleys in huge Convention Hall, the largest number in the history of the event.

The tournament is expected to run for 60 days and 6,864 teams can be accommodated.

Louis Definitely To Fight In June

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—Joe Louis definitely will fight next June at the Yankee Stadium against one of three opponents—Lee Savold, Ezzard Charles or Joe Baki.

The champ said so himself yesterday when he announced he was giving up his four-month "retirement." It was no coincidence that Louis made his speed after a morning conference with Mike Jacobs and Harry Markson, the new managing director of the Twentieth Century Sporting Club.

This action confirmed a statement of a month ago by Sol Strauss, then acting promoter of the Twentieth Century. Sol said Louis told him he would fight the Bakst-Charles winner if he thought the victor deserved a chance at the title.

The same "it" was contained in Louis' formal statement, the first straight-from-the-shoulder announcement that he had changed his mind.

Here's what Louis said: "I'm going to give the Bakst-Charles fight Dec. 10 (at Madison Square Garden) the once-over and if it looks good I will fight the winner. If nothing comes out of that I might take on Lee Savold who's pulling a good comeback."

Race Horses Die In Fire At Track

Chicago, Oct. 20—(AP)—At least 20 race horses were believed burned to death last night in a fire which destroyed a stable at the Hawthorne track where a meeting ended last Saturday.

Henry Johnson, a stable watchman, said the dead horses were valued at an average of $2,000 each. He said the "good" horses had been taken away at the conclusion of the race at the track Saturday.

Most of the dead animals, Johnson said, were rated as only "fair horses," and that some probably had been retired from the track, but that at least a few would have raced in the current meeting at Sportsman's Park.

The watchman said 28 horses were in the stable when the fire of undetermined origin broke out near a center stall. Many of the horses, he added, had been driven to safety but they ran back and perished in the rapidly spreading flames.

At least a few horses were known to be safe, he said, but they were roaming the countryside and a final accounting of the loss could not be made until all are rounded up.

Bicycle Racer Is A Hospital Case

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—Franco Giorgetti, veteran six-day bike racer, suffered a possible brain concussion in a spill last night at the six-day bike race at Kingsbridge armory. He was taken to St. Francis Hospital where his condition was termed serious.

Daniel Dousset and Antonio Bevilacqua were hurt in two other spills. Dousset injured his left foot and was also taken to the hospital. Bevilacqua cut his nose and chin so badly that six stitches had to be taken, although he resumed riding after half an hour.

Ambitious Scholarship Fund Program Growing

The Veterans Club of East Carolina Teachers College has just released a financial statement of a scholarship fund which is one of the programs undertaken by the organization.

With a total club receipts of $4,483.45 since its start with a fund-raising dance in July 1946, the organization has disbursed through Oct. 1, 1948 $3,354.00 in fifty-two scholarships.

One of the goals in the ambitious scholarship fund is to further athletics at East Carolina Teachers College. In conjunction with this program, the Veterans Club is planning future events to add to the already creditable progress thus far attained.

Enterprises, events and donations to the scholarship fund are included in a series of receipts listed through May 5, 1948. They are as follows: Dance by Veterans Club, July 19, '46, $442.40; football game by Greenville Jaycees, Dec. 9, '46, $418.93; balance on football game by Jaycees, Jan. 13, '47, $265.73; donations from friends of the college, Jan. 22 '47, $1,269.00; minstrel by Veterans Club, March 6, '47, $599.25.

Donations from friends of the college, Dec. 17, '47, $625.00; dance by Veterans Club and VFW, Feb. 19, '48, $301.00; minstrel by Veterans Club, April 7-8, '48, $239.78; dance by Veterans Club and VFW, May 5, '48, $331.36.

From the dance receipts of Feb. 19, '48 (above) the Veterans Club set aside a sum of $200 for the purpose of making small temporary loans to the student veterans in college. In amounts, these loans usually run around ten dollars to fifteen dollars and are made for a period of thirty days or less. After having been used for the accommodation and need of a large number of veterans, this fund was wholly intact at the conclusion of the just-passed school year. This item of $200 is included in the current balance of $1,109.45.

New Large Quota For Naval Enlistments At Greenville Office

Chief Albert, the Navy recruiter has just received orders to enlist all men that can qualify, during the months of October and November.

Navy recruiting was slowed down recently by the surge of new men into the training centers, but this condition has been changed by the transferring of these same men from the training centers into the fleet.

All Navy enlistment programs are now open. This includes the Naval Air Cadets, the regular three year enlistments, the one year enlistments for 18 year olds, and the WAVES.

There also has just been issued a quota of schools for the month of November, for High School Graduates. Applicants for schools must apply early, as the quota is promptly filled.

Greece Planning To Install New Phone System

Athens—(AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA) and the Greek government have drawn up plans to improve and modernize Greece's telecommunication system. According to an agreement signed by Prime Minister Themistocles Sophoulis and John Nuvven, Jr., ECA chief here, present telecommunication operations will be merged into a single anonymous company.

The companies affected are the internal telecommunication system, operating under the ministry of posts, telegraph and telephone and the Hellenic Telephone Company, which is already almost wholly government-owned.

Swiss Seaway In Planning Stage

The canal would permit barge traffic from Italian Adriatic ports to reach Swiss ports on Lake Maggiore without re-loading. The cost of the project is to be shared by Italy and Switzerland, but no date for construction has been set. One of the first tasks of the commission will be to determine the total cost.

Many Entries Of Purebred Swine

When the Junior Purebred Swine show opens at the Pitt County Fair next week, there will be between 25 and 30 entries by boys and girls of the 4-H and Future Farmers of America clubs of the county.

Bill Pruden, assistant county agent, said that hogs entered in the show and competing for the prize money must be in place Tuesday morning. The hogs will be housed in the old hog barns at the fairgrounds.

Judging of the entries are scheduled to begin Wednesday, and all members of the 4-H and FFA clubs of the county schools will be dismissed from school so they may attend the judging.

On Wednesday evening there will be a banquet for all boys having entries in the swine show, and their fathers at Respass barbecue place. They will be guests of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, and the ribbons and cash prizes for the winners in the swine show will be presented at the banquet.

Premium money for the show will be divided on a 3, 2 and 1 basis with first place in each division receiving $10, second place $6.67 and third place $3.33.

Belvoir High School PTA Doing Good Work This Session

By MRS. VERNON TYSON

The Belvoir High School Parent-Teacher Association, one of the most active in Pitt County, meets tonight at the school at 7:30 with an unusually entertaining program. Principal Fodde Hodges said today Miss Pattie Jenkins will have charge of the program. Children from all grades will participate. The program will include songs, musical selections, stunts and other features.

W. A. Ross, president of the Parent-Teacher Association, will be master of ceremonies.

The Belvoir High School got away to a good start this session. Attendance has been gratifying; the eleven women and two men teachers and the principal report excellent cooperation from the parents and students, and a fine community spirit prevails. W. R. Tyson is chairman of the Belvoir School Board of Trustees; Floyd Harris and J. T. Dupree are the other members. Mrs. Paul Dupree has charge of the school's cafeteria.

Unsteady Prices Prevail On Leaf Markets Tuesday

Raleigh, Oct. 20—(AP)—Unsteady prices prevailed on Old and Eastern North Carolina flue-cured tobacco markets yesterday, while the Middle Belt had steady to slightly lower quotations.

On the Old Belt changes in leaf smoking leaf and lugs were mostly $1 to $4 per hundred pounds, with gains and losses about even. Nondescript showed slight increases and cutters were firm.

Gains and losses were about equally divided on the Eastern belt. Most grades varied only $1 to $2. But low red leaf and best crude nondescript showed increases of $4 and $3.50, respectively.

On the Middle belt leaf was the major offering and showed the most marked "downward trend."

Chinese Forces Reel To New Communist Attacks

By SPENCER MOOSA

Peiping, Oct. 29—(AP)—Government forces reeled today before new blows on scattered fronts from Communist troops.

New threats to Taiyuan, capital of Shanxi Province, and Kweisui, capital of the Inner Mongolian province of Suiyuan, were made by surging Red armies.

Changchun, Manchurian capital, apparently has been lost to the government. And a National spokesman finally admitted that government forces had evacuated Chefoo, Shandong province port city.

The fate of Changchun has been uncertain for several days. The Communist radio claimed capture of the city yesterday. Pro-government dispatches in Peiping today said there was fighting in the streets of Changchun after Red forces had broken into the city. The government communications bureau here said the Changchun radio station had been silent since Tuesday.

The new threat to Kweisui found strong Red forces 10 miles from the city. The airbridge to Taiyuan was covered by Communists and without airlift supplies the Shanxi capital may not be able to hold out long.

Government officials, pro-National reports said, consisted of a strike southward from Sinitun, rail town 70 miles west of Mukden. The National objective there was Taku-shan, one the Peiping-Mukden railway 65 miles northeast of Communist held Chihnsien.

Government troops had taken Heshan, a town five miles from Taku-shan. Another National column, 15,000 men if at full strength, was said to be pushing south along the Peiping-Mukden railroad from Sinitun, 35 miles west of Mukden.

Royal Coffins In Berlin Burned

Berlin—(AP)—Berlin's ghoul has no respect for royalty. They have been plundering the graves of kaisers and princes and stealing coffin covers for firewood.

This desecration centers chiefly at the old Garrison church, near the imperial castle in the Soviet sector. The church was ruined during the war. However, in its vault are still some 200 coffins. Thieves who have broken them open apparently were searching for valuables. But the wooden covers obviously were removed for fuel.

SOARING COSTS

WAGE INCREASES

48 hours pay for 40 hours work

Penalty pay for weekends & holidays

25¢ an hour increase

Total 1½ BILLION DOLLARS

1½ Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employees.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25c an hour for every employe!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employes an annual raise which would average $1500 per employe!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1½ billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employes have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48c an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10c an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody—Not Employes Alone

The railroad industry must serve not only but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

Deadly Weapon

By Wade Miller

"I've only been here once before in my whole life," Kevin said, impressed. "What made you think of bringing me here?"

She moved her face from side to side, trying to absorb the entire scope of Sunset House at one glance—the sweeping beamed ceiling, the ornate crystal chandeliers, the scores of lampit white-clothed tables, the high-arched windows that stretched to the horizon and its half-circle sun that was set there like a ruby. She sucked in her breath ecstatically. "I guess I can't get it all in at once. What made you bring me here?"

"Something somebody said, I guess," Walter James smiled at her over a liquor glass.

They walked along the plate-glass wall to the nearest arch and stepped out into the assembling dusk. Kevin skipped over to the stone balustrade. "Sunset Cliffs," she murmured. "They've looked at sunsets so long they've turned red themselves." She looked down, fascinated by the white festoons of rain. "It's a long way down."

"Do you want to go in and have another drink?" She shook her head. "No. Let's go home and just be together. That would make me happiest."

"Do you have that feeling, too? That life's moving too fast?" "I guess that's the way I feel. I'm afraid something's going to slip away from me. Let's go home, Walter."

His hand was on her arm as they walked out to the parking lot. She started slightly at a momentary pressure and looked around. He was staring at the back of a gleaming car, just disappearing down the curving road toward Ocean Beach. "What is it, Walter?"

His eyes were gleaming oddly. "Nothing. It just seemed to me that maybe that was Dr. Boniface driving that car."

"Oh!" She peered after the car excitedly. "That's the man on the card, isn't it, Walter?"

He said softly, "Dr. Everett Boniface—Dr. Elliott Boone. It probably doesn't mean a thing." He smiled at her worried expression. "After all, redhead, he has as much right here as we have. And maybe I was wrong."

They drove from Point Loma slowly, Kevin pressing her head against his shoulder. After the car was garaged for the night, they walked and in hand up the flight of stairs to the second-floor apartment. Kevin still had one foot on the last step when his hand stopped her.

"Just a minute," he said quickly. "What's wrong?"

She hadn't seen his hand move but all of a sudden there was a gun in it. Walter James glanced around the hall.

"What's wrong, Walter?" "I didn't leave my light burning when I left." "Is there somebody in your room?" She found she was whispering. "Maybe. Or maybe I'm supposed to think there's somebody waiting for me or that I forgot to turn off the light. But that window shade at the back end of the hall has never been up that high before." His free hand moved across the switch and the hall light went off.

"What are we going to do?" "Here's my key." He pressed it into her moist palm. "When I get to the window, go to my door, lie down on the floor and unlock it. Open it wide in a hurry. Whoever's waiting down there, has probably been straining to see that square of light so long that they'll fire at anything. But for God's sake, keep down!"

"Yes, Walter." A rectangle of light leaped into the hall as the door swung open. There was a hyphenated explosion. The back window was a shower of glass on Walter James. A chip of plaster and a sifting of dust fell on Kevin's face where she lay on the hall floor.

"Walter!" she whispered. "Roll inside and switch off the light," he commanded. He joined her in the dark and shut the door behind them. She reached out for the reassuring solidity of his body but he was over by the window, looking out.

"They're gone," he said in a moment. "Show's over." The normal tones of his voice seemed to echo in the confines of the shadowy room. "Who do you think it was, Walter?"

There was a silence of consideration. "I don't know," he said finally. "Maybe Dr. Boone. Maybe a friend of his. We'll have Clapp's men check tomorrow and see who's been prowling around these apartments."

"It's getting too close," she whispered. "I'm worried." "Don't be," he said. He stroked the length of her body. "Don't think about that now."

After a soft while, she spoke. "I won't, darling. When we're like this, I can't think of anything but you." She trembled closer to him. "This—this feeling between us—it's like the ocean tonight. It beats and surges and never seems to stop, Walter, darling."

Family Troubles Aired In Judge James' Court

By CHESTER WALSH

In Pitt County Recorder's Court at the City Hall yesterday Judge Dink James tried six cases of abandonment and non-support, four cases of non-support and two cases of non-support of an illegitimate child. Similar cases continue to clutter up the court dockets and they present a confusing problem to the presiding judge and Solicitor Charles Whedbee.

Abandonment and non-support: Charlie Vines, colored, not proessed; Charley White, not guilty as to wife, case continued; Gene Westbrook, caught up with his payments; Norman G. Ghatin, eight months on the roads, sentence suspended on condition that he pay $500 before being released and then not less than $20 per week and Chafin was placed on probation and ordered by the court not to in any way contact or associate with Evelyn Hardee; Sam Williams, colored, six months on the roads, suspended on condition that he pay $12 before release and $12 a week thereafter; Fred Tucker, case continued.

Non-support: Elmo Ward, colored, case continued; Kayros Jackson, pleaded guilty; John Perkins, colored, ordered to pay $50; James T. Gay, colored, sentence of six months to be invoked unless he pays up arrears.

Non-support of illegitimate child:

on the roads. Hubert Williams, colored, was given four months on the roads, suspended on payment of $100 and costs, and his license was ordered revoked for a year.

Rosa Lee Little, colored, was given 90 days in jail for assault, suspended on payment of court costs, doctor's bill and $15 for the prosecuting witness.

Drive In Crusade For Children Is Under Its Quota

Over $1,000 has been collected for the "Crusade for Children" drive in Greenville. This is only one-third of the amount we were asked to raise. Many civic and religious organizations have contributed as well as interested individuals. Miss Margaret Purvis at the State Bank is the treasurer of the fund. Anyone wishing to contribute before Saturday at which time the check will be mailed to Mr. Arthur J. Morris, Raleigh, N. C., state treasurer of the campaign fund. The Woman's Club who sponsored the drive with other civic clubs, wishes to thank everyone who contributed. This fund was to aid the Marshall plan.

Court Exonerated Dan H. Satterfield

By CHESTER WALSH

In the report of cases tried in the recent criminal term of Superior Court here one case was inadvertently omitted.

In the cases against William Crandall Ward, white youth, who had five charges of breaking and entering and larceny against him, he pleaded guilty and was given from three to five years in State Prison by Judge Peyton McSwain.

In the charges against Dan H. Satterfield, for complicity, he pleaded nolo contendere, and asked that evidence be taken and the facts established. Judge McSwain then ordered the jury to return a verdict of not guilty as to Satterfield, because none of the testimony implicated him.

Longshoremen were originally called "along-shore-men" because they worked on the wharves of seaports where they loaded and unloaded vessels.

Woodchucks and groundhogs are the same animal. They live in burrows which they dig themselves and belong to the squirrel family.

A German's . . .

He estimated that less than one per cent of the German people, even those who live in the Russian zones, are Communists or even communistically inclined, at this point. "Statistics, of course, would show a much higher proportion. But you must remember that, for a German living in the Russian area, it is much wiser to pay lip service to the Russians and their ideas than it is to openly speak one's mind.

"There is a matter of ration-cards, living quarters and employment. It might even be the difference between life and death."

Nevertheless most of those people are, as he put it, "standing firm in the dark."

Throughout the rest of Germany, there are millions of other Germans who not only pin their hopes on the Western democracies but have put their lives on the line by taking jobs—such as his—under the Western military governments.

"It is not difficult to picture the fate of these people if all Germany comes under Russian control."

To a lesser degree, he said, the same is true of all Western Europe. Again, he argued, it includes those satellite nations that are now in Russian hands.

"Their resistance, he believes, will vary in direct ratio to the amount of resistance the United States, as a nation, presents. 'As you hold your lines, they get bolder. If you retreat, they will retreat, morally and psychologically, with you.'"

Ruling On . . .

The insurance company refused. And the NLRB went to the U. S. Circuit court of appeals to make the company obey. The Court upheld the NLRB. Then the case went to the highest and last appeal: To the U. S. Supreme court.

On Monday the Supreme court said it would not review the case, which means: the verdict of the NLRB and Circuit court stands. The men have to be rehired.

But note something. The key phrase in the law covering such a case is "concerted activities," which means action by two or more employees.

So if two or more employees complain to the boss about the overhead lights or anything else, he can't fire them.

But since one employe by himself can't take "concerted" action, if one employe makes a complaint or suggestion to the boss, the boss can fire him.

of superintendents, principals, superintendents, and higher education and twenty departmental groups held meetings. An audio-visual education program and exhibit arranged by Dr. Allan S. Hurlburt of East Carolina Teachers College and a production of "As You Like It" by the Teachers Playhouse of the college were special events of the program.

At the evening session President Dawson outlined the legislative program of the NCEA for 1948-49, and discussed its provisions, including reduction of the teacher load, a minimum salary of $2400 per year for beginning teachers with A certificates, annual increments of $100 per year for teachers, expanded health service and health education for school children, adequate enforcement of the present compulsory attendance law, and state assistance in school building programs.

New officers elected to serve for the coming year were introduced at the evening session. They are S. G. Chappell, superintendent of city schools, Wilson, president, and Mrs. Carolyn Harris, teacher in the Swan Quarter high school, secretary.

Upon recommendation of the resolutions committee of the district, members adopted resolutions that the four proposed amendments to the state constitution be studied carefully by all citizens and endorsed at the polls at the coming election; that support of federal aid without federal control for our schools be reaffirmed; and that the Governor of North Carolina authorize the printing of the entire report of the State Education Commission.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, Oct. 20—(AP)—The stock market leveled off today soon after a sharp early rise in the steel group. Interest in steels was touched off late yesterday by news of a stock dividend for Republic Steel. Ralls made a good showing but they moved at a more sedate pace.

U. S. Steel, Republic, Bethlehem and Jones and Laughlin all hit new tops for the year or longer.
