Truman Draws A Line At Berlin

Warns Russia "We Shall Not Retreat"; Thousands Of Bostonians Hear Denouncement Of Communism And Pledge That Airlift Will Continue

With Truman En Route to New York, Oct. 28—(AP)—President Truman stormed New England again today en route to a crucial campaign talk in New York with a warning to Russia "we shall not retreat" from Berlin.

Thousands of Bostonians, crammed into Mechanics Hall last night, cheered lustily as he declared a hatred for Communism and "the godless creed it teaches," and served this notice that the "airlift" will be maintained.

"In Germany, we have taken the frank and firm position that Communism must not spread its tentacles into the Western zones."

"We shall not retreat from that position."

"We shall feed Berlin, and the people of Germany will be given their chance to work out a decent life under a democratic government."

He moves into New York City at 3:45 p.m. (EST) for a fighting, no-holds-barred, two-day talk to be highlighted by a major address in Madison Square Garden at 10:30 o'clock (EST).

Enroute to the big city of the Empire State and its coveted 47 electoral votes, the President stumped by automobile and train in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

Talking to the roaring audience in Boston, center of Irish-Catholic voting strength, the Chief Executive promised a "never surrender" fight against Communism.

He paraded from the south station to the Hotel Statler before cheering throngs. Police Superintendent Edward W. Fallon estimated at 20,000.

A short while later he visited Roman Catholic Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, of Boston.

Then, in packed Mechanics Hall, the President said he is carrying on the fight of the late Al Smith, 1928 Democratic standard bearer, against what Mr. Truman termed a "Republican appeal to the passions of prejudice and intolerance."

Fighting back at "some Republicans" who have "been trying to make you believe that your government is endangered by Communist infiltration," the President said bluntly:

"That is a malicious lie."

The truth of the matter, he said, is that "the Communists are doing all they can to defeat me and help my Republican opponent."

He said the Republicans say they stand for unity.

"In the old days," Mr. Truman asserted, "Al Smith would have said, 'that's baloney.' Today, the Happy Warrior would say, 'that's a lot of booby.'"

"And if that rhymes with anything, it is not my fault."

Double Rate Of Evacuating Kids

Berlin, Oct. 28—(AP)—German welfare authorities announced arrangements have been completed for nearly doubling the rate for evacuating children from blockaded western Berlin.

The evacuation is voluntary and designed to spare the children the hardships of a blockade winter in the fuel-short western sectors. They are being flown by British aircraft to western Germany.

Smaller Powers In United Nations Are Keeping Negotiations And The Organization Going; Some Examples Of Their Work; Influence Shown; Major Effort

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

Paris — The little fellows in the United Nations are talking back to the big powers and slowly, but surely, they are getting results.

They succeeded in keeping alive negotiations for atomic energy control. They are scrapping now to keep talks going on control of conventional armaments.

The little nations refused to accept a western power demand that they slap Russia for the Berlin blockade. Instead they came up with a plan which blamed no one and urged the big four council of foreign ministers itself to settle the Berlin crisis.

Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet deputy foreign minister, killed the "neutral" plan with Russia's 28th veto in the Security Council late Monday, but a spokesman for the little fellows said they would keep trying for some formula to bring the big powers together.

Delegates of the small and medium countries in the United Nations know they inevitably would be drawn into any war which might result from the big power squabbles.

They also know that the big powers need their support for any successful war. Knowing these things, they are treading cautiously appealing for moderation and nego-

Trio Held For Hearing In Farmville Today After Prolonged Hunt

By CHESTER WALSH

Three safe robberies, one at the Wagner-Marshburn Motor Company, here, another at the Allen Implement Company's plant in Farmville and one at Enfield, in which "torch-burning" safe-crackers secured some currency and more than $4,000 worth of government bonds, were cleared up with the arrest in Charlotte Tuesday of Wesley George Turner, 30-year-old Kinston youth by Farmville Police Chief L. T. Lucas and Greenville Police Detective M. E. Corbett.

The officers also arrested William Earl Lewis, 41, of Kinston. Previously they had arrested William Hales, 30-year-old Kinston youth, in Wilson for complicity in the safe-cracking jobs. The trio was scheduled for a preliminary hearing in Farmville today. Turner and Lewis were in the Farmville jail; Hales was in the Greenville jail. Wilson Detective Claude Fulghum and the FBI assisted in the apprehension of the three men.

Officers quoted Turner as admitting that he and his crew used an acetylene torch to burn open the safe at the Wagner-Marshburn Motor Company in Greenville; that he used a similar method of opening the Allen Implement Company's safe in Farmville and at an office in Enfield.

Farmville Police Chief Lucas was given credit for finding the clue which led to the arrest of the three men. Pitt County Sheriff Tyson and Greenville Police Chief Lewis D. Page said it was a "clever piece of sleuthing, authorities who followed the case said."

After the preliminary hearing in Farmville today, Turner and Lewis will be committed to the Greenville jail to await grand jury action at the next criminal term of Superior Court.

Sherlock Holmes' spirit was with the officers working on the safe-robbings cases. The story will read like fiction. It will appear in the Daily Reflector tomorrow.

Convict Eight German Generals Of War Crimes

Nuernberg, Germany, Oct. 28—(AP)—An American court today convicted eight German Generals of war crimes. An Admiral was acquitted.

The judgments completed the cases of 13 high German military commanders, with 11 convictions and two acquittals.

The three-man tribunal yesterday found all 13 defendants innocent of plotting to start world war two, ruling they did not rate high enough to make policy.

It then proceeded to pass judgment on charges of crimes by the 13 against prisoners of war and civilians.

Acquitted today was Admiral Otto Schiewinkel, 60, commander of the North Sea fleet. Yesterday the court acquitted Field Marshal Hugo Sperle, 62, commander of the Air fleet which blitzed London in 1940.

There was no comment from union or company spokesmen.

The ban, imposed by the AFL American Federation of Musicians, has been in effect since Dec. 31 when the old contract between the companies and the union expired.

In Coma For 156 Days, Girl Dies

Southport, N.C., Oct. 28—(AP)—A Fayetteville waitress died last Sunday at her mother's home near Supply after lying unconscious 156 days. She had contracted pneumonia last week.

Mrs. Vickie Louise Kilby Thiem, 19, who was injured in an automobile wreck near Fayetteville last May 21, was buried Monday at Silent Grove Baptist Church following a funeral service conducted by the Rev. H. M. Baker, Southport Baptist clergyman.

Draft Rejection Continues High

Winston-Salem, N.C., Oct. 28—(AP)—The Forsyth County draft board said today that 31 out of the 34 Forsyth men examined for the initial selective service call were rejected for service.

The men were given physical and mental tests at the High Point main army recruiting station on Friday Oct. 15, and the results of the tests were received here today.

The rejections were expected to continue high as older men, many of whom previously have been rejected, are sent to the station.

Forrestal May Ask More Power For 'Unification'

Washington, Oct. 28—(AP)—Secretary of Defense Forrestal may suggest that Congress give his office firmer control over the three armed services in the unified but sometimes quarrelsome military establishment.

This possibility stood out today in the light of two public statements by members of Forrestal's official family—Secretary of the Army Royal and Army Chief of Staff Omar Bradley. Both expressed their views in Navy Day speeches.

Royal said at Baltimore "we have found out where unification is not working" and where changes are needed. Then he asserted:

"There is need of unequivocal and authoritative direction and command at the top, and this must be given by statute."

Bradley was more blunt. He said at Des Moines last night:

"If the armed services are to retain the trust and confidence of the American people then they must put an end to their dog-eat-dog contests for a part of the taxpayers' dollar."

"The United States cannot stake its national defense requirements on a popularity contest where glitter, glamor and shrewd public appeal become more important than military judgment. You cannot risk your security to a bout for public favor and congressional indulgence."

While Bradley did not single out any individual services, the arguments over missions and sharing in material have been going on since early World War II days, chiefly between the Navy and Air Force. The Army has maintained a neutral, often a peace-making role.

There was no immediate formal comment from Forrestal's office on the Royal or Bradley expressions.

Palestine Peace

Proposal By Britain And China Gets Early Support In Security Council

Paris, Oct. 28—(AP)—Britain and China proposed today that the United Nations use economic sanctions to force peace in Palestine.

France, Belgium and Canada announced support and a reliable source said the United States also would vote for the resolution. Russia and the Soviet Ukraine did not make known their positions.

The debate will be resumed tomorrow in the Security Council. Russia asked for a two-day postponement, but Warren Austin, the American council president, ruled at adjournment today there would be no delay. The council meets again tomorrow.

Israel has rejected orders of the UN mediator of Palestine, Ralph Bunche, that her troops withdraw from positions won in the Negev Desert in a week of battle with Egypt. Egypt's complaint that Israel is violating the UN cease fire order brought up the issue.

Str Alexander Cadogan of Britain offered the council a draft resolution calling for a special committee to "examine urgently" the action the council might take under article 41, chapter seven, of the UN charter. That article reads:

"The Security Council may decide what measures not involving the use of armed force are to be employed to give effect to its decisions and it may call upon the members of the United Nations to apply such measures. These may include complete or partial interruption of economic relations and of rail, sea, air, postal, telegraphic, radio, and other means of communications, and the severance of diplomatic relations."

Dr. T. F. Tsiang of China declared stronger measures were needed to enforce the truce in the turbulent Palestine situation.

The council called today's session to hear Egyptian charges that Israel is violating the UN cease fire order on the Negev front in southern Palestine.

Vishinsky Hits Investigation Of Greek Civil War

Paris, Oct. 28—(AP)—Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky said today the United Nations investigation of Greece's civil war produced "a pile of garbage."

Vishinsky, in an attack on the UN Special Commission on the Balkans (UNSCOB), rejected a resolution supported by the other four big powers to continue its work for another year. He addressed the 58-nation Political Committee.

Earlier, Col. Alexander Sheppard, a former UNRRA official in Greece, said the conflict in the Balkans could be settled on the basis of a five-point program which would bar from Greece missions such as those now maintained by Britain and the United States. He said Markos Vassilakis, the Communist leader of the Greek rebels, told him he would negotiate for peace on such a basis.

Recorders And Petrillo Agree

New York, Oct. 28—(AP)—The New York Times said today that record manufacturers have reached agreement with James C. Petrillo's musicians union on major terms of a contract for lifting the music recording ban.

There was no comment from union or company spokesmen.

The ban, imposed by the AFL American Federation of Musicians, has been in effect since Dec. 31 when the old contract between the companies and the union expired.

Leaders Of UN Urging Dewey To Tell Position

Paris, Oct. 28—(AP)—High authorities here are urging Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to announce quickly, if he is elected president, his stand on the policies of the bipartisan U.S. delegation to the United Nations assembly.

Dewey has consistently maintained the Republican party is supporting the bi-partisan foreign policy of the United States.

But numerous leaders from countries around the world say they want him to put down in black and white just where he stands.

Without such a statement, some delegates say, the assembly might just as well adjourn until the United Nations can find out which way the U.S. is going.

John Foster Dulles, who may become secretary of state if Dewey wins, refuses to commit himself when asked what Dewey's position will be.

Persons close to moves within the U.S. delegation say Dulles is equally non-committal there.

One high source said the move to get a definite statement from Dewey in the event he is elected has been underway for several days.

This source said there is some concern among the delegates about the influence that isolationists in the Republican party might have on Dewey. Dewey himself struck at isolationism again in a speech at Cleveland, O., last night.

The source, who would not permit his name to be used, said many delegates feel Dewey would back present policies generally but they were worried about some Republicans who would come to power with Dewey.

Man, 108, On His Fifth Honeymoon

Valdosta, Ga., Oct. 28—(AP)—Negro preacher who said he was 108 years old honeymooned today with his fifth bride, a 67-year-old widow.

The Rev. R. J. Green, cane in hand, and Rosa Lee Minus were married here yesterday. They came to Valdosta from their home in Ocala, Fla., to avoid the waiting period required by Florida law.

The groom, who said he was born in slavery in 1840, pronounced a firm "I do" at the ceremony performed by ordinary (Judge) T. N. Holcombe.

$10,500

Official of the Greenville Community Chest drive estimated this morning that approximately 4,000 or 40 per cent of the campaign goal has been raised in the local drive.

A report from the special gifts committee showed that $3,000 has been turned in with about one-third of the special gifts team still not reported. Louis Gaylord, Jr., chairman of the committee urged all members to make their reports as soon as possible.

City Government Is Big Business

Survey Shows Record Income And Spending Last Year

Washington, Oct. 28—(AP)—City governments took in and spent more money last year than ever before, the Census Bureau reported today.

In 1947, the bureau said, the 397 cities in this country with 25,000 or more population:

(1) Collected $3,300,000,000 in revenue.

(2) Spent $2,516,568,000 on current operations and.

(3) Laid out $312,888,000 on capital improvements such as streets, sewerage systems, etc.

More than half the revenue came from property taxes, which raised $1,861,900,000. That was six per cent more than in 1946, the bureau's report said.

Yields from other city taxes rose far more sharply, however. For instance, collections from various sales and gross receipts taxes brought in $355,190,000, an increase of 80 per cent over 1946.

Rising public welfare costs helped lift current operation expenditures of city governments by 17 per cent.

Pledges Stronger Bonds With Non-Communist China In Cleveland Talk

En route with Dewey to Boston, Oct. 28—(AP)—Speedy action to block the advantage of communism in Asia was pledged today by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Barnstorming his way across Massachusetts toward Boston, the GOP nominee left behind in Cleveland last night a promise that if he is elected this country will strengthen its bonds with non-Communist China.

He also got assurance in Cleveland of support from Alvanley Johnson, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Dewey speaks in the Boston area tonight on an unannounced subject. His talk will be broadcast (CBS) from 9 to 9:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Dewey's plug for quick aid to China was in line with the known feeling by some of his top advisers that the Soviets are being permitted—almost by default—to make great gains in Asia while the world's attention is centered on the Berlin blockade.

These advisers give some credence to the theory that it is a part of a Russian stall in Berlin to keep the world's eyes off Asia.

Dewey put some of this thought into words when he told an audience estimated at 13,000 persons which gave him an ovation in the Cleveland auditorium last night:

"It is very late and all China is in grave peril. We will renew and strengthen our ancient ties of friendship with this great war time ally."

The New York governor accused the Truman administration of being "fumbling and weak" in its handling of world problems. He said it had made "tragic concessions" in many parts of the world.

"By consent of our government," he declared, "the Soviet has reached far out into the Pacific in the Kurile Islands near our own Aleutians."

"In a little more than three years the Soviet has extended its sway nearly half way around the world and now rules more than 500,000,000 human beings."

Slamming at Mr. Truman's conduct of foreign affairs, Dewey said—"without naming his opponent:—

"We shall not achieve peace by conducting these desperately important matters on a happy-thought basis or by jovially remarking that we like good old Joe."

Texas Lawmaker Dies In Capital

Washington, Oct. 28—(AP)—Rep. Milton H. West of Texas died today. He was 60 years old.

West had served in the House since April, 1933. A Democrat, he succeeded John Nance Garner when the latter became vice president.

The congressman had been suffering from several months from lymphoma, a disease of the lymph glands. He was a member of the Ways and Means Committee.

ECA To Ask Added Foreign Aid Money

Expect To Ask Congress For Another Billion Dollars To Carry Marshall Plan Through June; Fast Drain On Funds

Washington, Oct. 28—(AP)—Foreign Aid Officials said today they expect to ask Congress for an extra $1,200,000,000 to carry the Marshall plan through April, May and June of next year.

The $5,055,000,000 appropriation for European recovery will have been exhausted by the end of March—12 months after the program's start—a spokesman for the Economic Cooperation administration reported privately.

Congress voted the recovery money for 15 months, or until the end of the Federal fiscal year next June 30, but gave President Truman the power to let ECA use it up in 12 months if necessary.

At ECA it was said the President's formal approval of the 12-month schedule may be asked within the next two weeks.

As early as last August, Mr. Truman said a supplemental appropriation of $1,500,000,000 might be needed for the last three months of the program's first phase.

The ECA spokesman said the new estimate of $1,200,000,000 is as close as the need can be gauged at this minute.

In any event, the prospect of further Foreign Aid outlays has focused new attention on the attitude of Congress toward next year's Marshall plan appropriation. ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman has said that, because of Europe's marked progress thus far, less money may be needed in the second year of what has been projected as a four-year undertaking.

A private weekly report for businessmen, the Marshall plan letter, reported today that 94 per cent of the Senators and Representatives who answered a news letter poll have adopted a "favorable" position toward the Marshall plan in the election campaign. Replies were reported from 33 states.

Sixty-one per cent said they think next year's regular appropriation should be $4,000,000,000 or more, the news letter said. If these eleven per cent answered "whatever needed," 15 per cent said $6,000,000,000, eleven per cent $5,000,000,000 and 24 per cent $4,000,000,000.

Family Delight: Riceland Rice, Tuna, Cheese, Tomatoes!

Riceland "Flemish" Rice Makes Good Main Dish

Of all the 200 different, delicious ways you can serve Riceland Rice, here's one of the leading family-favorite combinations. Riceland Flemish Rice is an extra-nourishing main dish with a perfect blend of taste delights. Quick, easy to fix. Easy on your budget, too! Serve Riceland Flemish Rice often. Your family will love it!

Riceland Flemish Rice

3 cups uncooked Riceland Rice
1 6½-ounce can tuna fish
2 tablespoons chopped onion
3 cups seasoned cheese sauce
2 or 3 fresh tomatoes

To cook Riceland Rice: Put 2 cups of Riceland Rice, 2 teaspoons of salt and 4 cups of cold water in a large saucepan and cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more, during which time the water will be absorbed, making the rice deliciously tender. Remove the lid, permit the rice to steam dry to the desired consistency and the grains will be separate and fluffy. Never stir rice. Lift rice gently with a fork when testing its consistency. Always use Riceland Rice for best results.

To Make Cheese Sauce:

6 tablespoons butter or margarine
6 tablespoons flour
8 cups milk
1 cup grated or chopped cheese
1 teaspoon salt
Cayenne pepper

Melt butter or margarine in top of double boiler. Blend in flour. Add milk gradually and cook over boiling water. Stir constantly until sauce thickens. Take from fire and add cheese and seasonings. Stir until cheese has melted.

To Assemble: Place a layer of ½ of the cooked Riceland Rice in a two-quart casserole. Add ½ of the flaked tuna fish and sprinkle with 1 tablespoon chopped onion. Pour over this ½ of the cheese sauce. Repeat these three layers. Add final layer of Riceland Rice and top with cheese sauce.

Cut tomatoes into thick slices and indent them into the top Riceland Rice layer. Brush with melted margarine or butter and season with salt and pepper.

Bake in a 350-degree oven for 20 minutes or until the tomatoes have cooked and the whole dish is bubbly hot.

Will serve as a main dish for 4 or 5 people.

(Variation: Use canned or boiled fresh shrimp instead of tuna fish.)

Riceland Rice Is Easy To Cook! Tender! Fluffy!

To get the best results with this recipe and all rice recipes, be sure to use Riceland Rice. It's the world's most delicious rice—grown in the heart of the quality rice belt of America. Only the choice, perfect-cooking rice grains are packed in Riceland packages.

This quality rice is quick and easy to cook. Riceland Rice cooks deliciously tender with white, fluffy, individual grains. Most grocers now feature this better-cooking, wonderfully delicious, packaged rice—and at economical prices, too! Riceland Rice costs only one-cent a serving.

Falkland PTA Holds October Meeting

The Falkland P. T. A. held its October meeting in the school auditorium with Mrs. Everett Cobb presiding in the absence of Mrs. Lane. The meeting was opened with the singing of "America the Beautiful." A splendid devotional "The Highway of Life," was given by Mrs. C. A. Lawrence followed by prayer. Mrs. Marguerite Moya Wilson sang a solo. The new teachers were introduced—Mr. Whitford, the principal, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Elks, the second and third grade teachers.

Mrs. David Morrill was made program chairman to succeed Mrs. T. K. Fountain.

A motion was made by Mr. Whitford to buy a flag pole and was carried. Mrs. Willard Wooten made a motion that we give to the room this year winning P. T. A. attendance the most times a winter roast and it was carried.

A membership committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Bert Little, Mrs. Howard Harris, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Willard Wooten, Mrs. Frank Peaden and Mrs. Everett Cobb. After the meeting refreshments were served at the lunch room. The evening was closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by everyone.

Dr. Haar Speaks To Registered Nurses

The Greenville Registered Nurses club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, October 26 at 8 p. m. at the lovely new home of Mrs. Charles Flye.

Mrs. M. E. Corbette, president, called the meeting to order and presented our guest speaker Dr. F. B. Haar. Dr. Haar gave a most interesting and informative paper on "Polio." After this splendid paper a short business meeting was held at which time Mrs. Royce Jones brought us the highlights of the state nurses meeting she attended in Wilmington, N. C.

Mrs. W. D. Berg, Mrs. Grace Taylor and Mrs. E. D. Griffith were welcomed as new members. Following the business meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.—Reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Roebuck Hold Family Reunion

On Sunday, October 24, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Roebuck of Stokes were at home to Mrs. Roebuck's brothers and sisters and their families for the first reunion in over two years. Those present were: Mrs. Katherine W. Harrison of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. White, Mr. John White, Miss Virginia White and Miss Helen K. Harrison of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Will White, Mr. Charles S. White and Miss Dorothy White of Scotland Neck, and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dolan and Mr. John Dudley Dolan of Arlington, Va. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Roebuck and son, Billy, and Mrs. G. H. Roebuck, Jr., and son George III. Mr. and Mrs. Dolan and son visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Roebuck until Tuesday, October 26, when they returned to Arlington.

Joint Hostesses Honor Bride-Elect

Mrs. T. R. Rouse and Mrs. Lloyd Whichard of Grimesland entertained at bridge in the home of the former on Saturday evening complimenting Miss Helen Fay Porter, bride-elect of November. The living room and the dining room were thrown on suite with six tables of bridge in progression. The home was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and a color scheme of yellow, green and white. First and second high score prizes were awarded Mrs. W. F. Galloway and Miss Jennie Outlaw respectively and the low score went to Mrs. Della Mae Galloway. At the conclusion of the play, bridal cakes and molded ices were served. The hostesses presented the honoree with crystal and silver in her chosen pattern.

Ups And Downs On Tobacco Mart

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Prices had their ups and downs on the tobacco market yesterday. Old belt sales reflected an unsteady to slightly lower trend with red smoking leaf pacing the losers. Changes were mostly $1 to $3 per hundred pounds but a few grades skidded from $4 to $6.

Most leaf and nondescript grades were up $1 to $4 on the Eastern North Carolina belt, but smoking leaf and lugs were lower.

Prohibition In Gaston County

Gastonia, N. C., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Gaston County was back under prohibition today.

The last legal sales of beer and wine, were completed at 11:30 o'clock last night. The county voted in a referendum Aug. 28 to outlaw the sale of beer and wine, but dealers were given a 60-day grace period to dispose of stocks.

FROM THE Rector Kitchens

Fun with Food for Halloween

Halloween pranks and problems are looming in every home. Here's a party the youngsters can throw for themselves.

For the price of a few cold cuts, ever-popular winners plus a beverage you can practically insure your neighborhood against Halloween mischief. Our pictured tray also makes a good Open House tray for the Trick or Treat Kiddies, or a rumper-room gala gathering at any season.

Our plump Mother Cat is made of Wilson's Minced Ham (bladder stuffed style). She "swishes" her frankfurter tail anxiously as she stands guarding her cold-cut kitten. A cheese pumpkin Jack O'Lantern of Wilson's Certified Cheese adorns the mountain-like pile of "weenies." All lie on a white cardboard, large tray or even the drip tray from the kitchen stove ready for good Halloween fun and hearty appetites.

Halloween Party Tray

For the Halloween hill use a pile of:
2 lbs. (more or less according to the crowd to be fed) of Wilson's Certified Frankfurters
For the pumpkin Jack O'Lantern, use a paring knife on a thick slice of Wilson's Certified American Cheese
Next from right to left is our Cold Cut Mother Cat whose body is:
10 slices Wilson's (bladder stuffed) Minced Ham with head of:
10 slices Wilson's Cooked Salsami

To get the effect of feline ears insert two cone-shaped pointed ears cut like a piece of pie from a cold cut circle. Be sure to insert the ears near the bottom slice, also the cheese circle for fashioning the face. This keeps the effect of a Halloween cat until the very last serving—the hostess' piece. The eyes and nose are cut with cutters or paring knife through the whole pile of cold cuts stacked evenly together. Gloves make the expressive eyes and colored food picks the whiskers. If you'd like a wagging sort of tail on your Halloween cat, try a "weenie" with a slight curl to it—Have Fun!

The kitten is made like the Mother cat but to make the difference in size we used:
8 slices Wilson's Certified Bologna
8 slices Wilson's Soft Summer Sausage or Braunschweiler
1 slice Wilson's American Cheese to show through as a face
The Moon of course, is made from a thick slice of Wilson's Certified American Cheese

Do you like our Halloween Party Fun with Cold Cuts? Your guests will too!

Sincerely yours,
THE RECTOR KITCHENS

P.S. Certainly throw in a few real colorful Autumn leaves for atmosphere.

Strength FOR THE DAY

BLAMING IT ON OTHERS
"Yes," said the frank adolescent, "if you do your work all right you think the school's swell, but if you don't do your work you think the teacher is rotten."

Adolescents and adults, we are all the same; if things do not go right, we want to blame the painful results on other people. When the youngsters do not get their work, they tend to blame their teachers. We adults blame our bosses or the members of our family or our friends. We declare that some people are lucky and some just plain unlucky, and what can a guy do when he happens to be in the latter class?

When Aaron, during the absence of his brother Moses, allowed the Israelites to make a golden calf for purposes of worship and helped them do so, he vigorously disclaimed all responsibility. All I did, he protested, was to cast a little gold into the furnace and there came forth this calf. Not a word said about the graving tool or the mold. Poor Aaron was being unjustly accused.

We all stand in Aaron's shoes some time. From the cradle to the grave, we can find somebody to blame for our failures. And we usually do.

IT'S YOUR DUTY TO VOTE

Next Tuesday the people of the United States go to the polls to exercise their most treasured democratic function of deciding what persons and what party shall lead the nation during the next four years.

Voting in the general election is not only the privilege of every qualified American voter, but it is the duty and obligation of every voter to assume partial responsibility for the nation's administration, voting for the candidates which he thinks will best lead the United States during these trying times.

During the last decade, millions of men, women and children in all parts of the world have given up their lives to preserve the right of personal participation in the governments of the democracies of the world. At the same time millions of persons in the United States have neglected their privilege and moral obligation of voting.

No matter for what party or for what candidates a person intends to vote, every voter should make a sincere effort to get to the polls Tuesday and take part in the governing of the United States.

The only way to insure that these United States will remain the world's greatest democracy is for every person to conscientiously assume his responsibility of helping select the best possible men to lead the nation in high political offices.

Around Capitol Square

NUMBERS—Did you know that the great State of North Carolina has been for a quarter century engaged in a sort of sublimated numbers racket? And did you know that the numbers racket, bane of every city police force, is mixed up with very sedately high-brow social protocol? Whether you did or didn't know about it, it's a fact. And it started in 1923 or 1924 when the late Will Everett, then secretary of state, originated the idea of assigning special low digit automobile

The Little Savage

McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N.Y.C.

REG-MANNING

ble license plates to preferred list of state officials. At that time the secretary of state had charge of automobile licenses. Just why the original allocation of this function went to the secretary of state nobody knows. It started that way before there was a highway commission, or a revenue department, or a motor vehicles department.

PROTOCOL—Will Everett was a real democrat (spell it with either a big "D" or a little "d" and the description still fits). He was bothered a lot by people who insisted upon special numbers for their auto license plates, and because of his genuine democracy and also to save himself some headaches, he doled out the system of allocating No. 1 to the governor and made up a list of something like a hundred names (it's now 250) of preferential numbers for state officials, members of congress, etcetera. The lieutenant governor got No. 2, speaker of the house No. 3. Next in order came the council of state, the supreme court, and—

OUTMODED—State government has expanded a lot since the middle twenties, and the old system has been outmoded. There's more than even chance that some changes will be made in numerical allocation of license tags within the next year or two. Up to now the matter has been left with the issuing agency—secretary of state, revenue department and currently the department of motor vehicles. But the business has gotten so jumbled up that now none except the first five or six numbers have any significance. The legislature may be asked to do something about it.

HUMAN—Will Everett 25 years ago didn't anticipate such governmental growth, and maybe he didn't properly take into account human nature. Some folks who got low numbers by reason of official position did not want to give them up when political fortune left them outside the official family. A few officials declined to use the low and easily identifiable numerals and there was the problem of somebody not entitled to them seeking these low numeral plates. One such instance was settled during the regime of Governor Clyde Hoey when he said that "in a democracy there are exceptions to all rules."

JUMBLED—Point is that after a quarter century there is a lot of jumbled errors in the protocol rating of low license plates number. Elective council of state members have higher numerals, and therefore less honored, than some temporary appointive officials. Congressional members have higher numerals than some temporary appointive officials.

gressional, court and other groups have widely divergent automobile identification numbers. The situation is almost as perplexing as it was when Will Everett attempted to straighten it out 25 years ago. There is growing sentiment for doing away entirely with the preferential list, or renumbering it so it will mean something more than state participation in a number racket.

HEADACHES—Abolition would not dispense the motor vehicle department folks. They have a flock of headaches every year due to requests for special numbers. Dozens of letters have to be written explaining why the busy clerks cannot take time to dig through nearly a million license plates in thirty or more offices to pick out the same number that Joe Doakes had last year. If everybody except the governor and a few other top-flight officials who operate state-owned cars could be handled in "first-come-first-served" fashion it would facilitate work of distributing license plates during the rush period.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—Ho, Ho, Ho, Ho, Boo, Hoo, Hoo, Hoo! Ha, Ha, Ha, Ha!

I know I'm mixed up, boys, but I don't know whether to laugh or cry.

I've just finished reading Homer Croft's "What Grandpa Laughed At." It's an excavation job by the author of "West of the Water Tower" into the popular jokes that America chuckled at in the 25 years before the first world war.

And the chief conclusion is you may be able to keep a good man down—but you can't kill a joke, good or bad. The only difference is that it took grandfathers more words to tell the same gag than it does his grandson.

Want to know what made the gay nineties so gay? Well, hold on to your sides, this one'll stay you: "Why do married men live longer than single ones?"

"They don't. It only seems longer."

That seem familiar? Well, it was printed back in 1891—and before that Walter Raleigh probably told it to Queen Elizabeth.

Let's skip to the merry year of 1893, when the nation whooped and hollered about the one concerning the deaf old lady who lived near the Brooklyn navy yard.

It seems that on Washington's birthday they fired a 21-gun salute, and the old lady said:

"Come in."

All right, let's go on to 1896. That's the year a country lady approached a hotel desk and said timidly:

"Can you give me a room and bath?"

"No, Ma'm," said the clerk. "I can give you a room, but you will have to take your own bath."

This joke may lack humor today. But a think it is historically interesting because it shows there was a time when a hotel clerk would give you anything.

Remember 1898? There was a small war that year. But that year somebody also defined a monologue as a conversation between a husband and wife. The Spanish-American war is pretty well forgotten; but that wisecrack is still as clear as your radio.

Ever hear a night club comedian wowie about the man who marries a tattooed lady because he "figured to look at pictures? George Ade made it up way back in 1899.

It was in 1902, when steak rose to 24 cents a pound, that the fellow went into a restaurant, ordered extract of beef and got—milk.

But it wasn't until 1905 that father had lunch with Rabbi Levi and asked playfully:

"When are you going to have some ham?"

And the Rabbi answered:

"At your wedding, father."

That same year, 'twas, when a man, sneaking softly into his bedroom after a night out, heard his wife whisper:

"It that you, Henry?"

"It'd better be," said Henry.

Poor Henry. He's been giving that reply for 43 years.

Of the six jokes listed by Croft as most enduringly popular the most familiar concerns the drunk who came to a tree encircled by iron bars. After teetering around the iron fence for hours, the drunk finally put his head through the bars and said plaintively:

"Won't somebody please help me? I'm trapped and can't get out."

Ha, Ha, Ha, well, that reminds me of a good one myself. It seems a man met his friend, and said, "who was that lady I seen you with last, Knight?"

And Knight came back like a flash:

"You weren't the last one to see me."

I think that's the way the story goes. An Englishman told it to me. He said he didn't remember it very well.

Storm Dwarfed Pacific Typhoon

Boston, Oct. 28.—(AP)—An officer of a small landing craft that rode out a fierce three-day Atlantic storm reported today that typhoons he had experienced were "mere breezes" compared to it.

The crippled 158-foot LCI-1093 docked at Philadelphia yesterday. The vessel was caught in 60-foot waves and 110-mile winds off Cape Hatteras last Friday while enroute to Ithome base here from a training cruise to Cuba.

Fifty nine Massachusetts naval reservists aboard the craft were brought here by train and plane last night.

"I rode out two typhoons in the Pacific, but I never saw anything like this," said Lt. William F. Hester of Clinton, the ship's communications officer and veteran of World War II destroyer duty. "In comparison, these typhoons were mere breezes."

Alan E. Maxfield, 18, of Boston who manned radar equipment until the sea "shook it apart," said "the officers and God" saved the ship.

He wouldn't mind going to sea again with the same officers, he added.

East Carolina's Newsmen Meet In Raleigh Friday

Raleigh, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Members of the East Carolina Press Association will meet here tomorrow for a discussion of current newspaper problems.

The semi-annual meeting will continue through Saturday morning when a panel discussion will be held. James Street, Chapel Hill novelist, will be the main speaker at a dinner meeting Friday night. He will discuss soil-building practices and organic farming as carried out on his farm in Chatham County.

The continuing study committee of the Associated Press for North Carolina will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock for a report on a recent survey of news coverage in the state and a discussion of the report.

'Yaffle' Baffles

London, Oct. 28.—(P)—It's infuriating, really!

A woodpecker has pecked so many holes in Mrs. D. M. Gay's house that it begins to look like a sieve.

And when she shoos him off, she says, the bird just flies to a tree and gives her the bird. Sort of a jeering laugh.

The culprit is a woodpecker type known as the Yaffle because it sounds like that—like a Guffaw.

Mrs. Gay showed the press a frame house pockmarked with patched-up holes, some of them six inches wide.

"It starts with two sharp raps about 7 a. m. daily, and then follows a rattle that reverberates through the house like a machine gun," she said.

"When I scare it away, it laughs at me from a neighboring tree like the bird in the song ('Woodpeckers' serenade'). I am not amused."

Mrs. Gay wanted to have the blasted thing shot dead, but even then the woodpecker had the last laugh. In her section of Essex, the British home office said, a Yaffle can't legally be killed.

So the Yaffle keeps drilling, and Yaffing.

FBI Clears Up Bank Shortage With An Arrest

New York, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The FBI says it has cleared up a mystery of a $50,000 shortage in accounts of the Bank of Virginia, Norfolk, Va., by the arrest of a bank official here.

The man, identified as Clarence Markland, Jr., 25, manager of the bank's sales finance department, was arrested last night in a New York hotel.

Special Agent Edward Scheidt said Markland admitted taking the money from the bank by creating fictitious advance to Norfolk automobile dealers and then issuing cashier's checks on the bank.

Markland was quoted as saying he and his wife had come to New York City to celebrate their first wedding anniversary. He had $4,000 with him, but said he had spent the rest of the money gambling, Scheidt said.

Tomorrow's Garden

By The Greenville Garden Club

Autumn in all its beauty is with us now and as we revel in all the pageantry of her colors we must also remember that autumn is the time for much work to be done in the garden. In this column, you have already been urged to have your beds and borders prepared for planting. They should be thoroughly prepared and well enriched for plants and bulbs are happiest in a loose soil where their roots can develop and expand without any great resistance.

In every garden, large or small, there are just the right spots for the lovely shades and brilliant colors of bulbs, perennials and shrubs and these have a marked preference for early planting, so let's get busy.

Bulbs fit the smallest as well as the largest gardens and they give us a range of colors that rival the rainbow. Winding borders of tulips and narcissi swaying in the breeze fit perfectly into any landscape picture, so let's fill our borders with tulips, narcissi some of the new as well as the old; Oriental poppies in all their gorgeous colors; Dutch Iris in quantities they are inexpensive but most colorful; Thrift Alyssum, Sweet William, Doronicum, Foxglove, Columbine, Arabis, Pyrethrum, Bleeding Hearts, Candytuft and others. All of these are easily grown and planted with a background of evergreens and early blooming shrubs the Azaleas, Camellias, Spirea, Hawthorne and Crabapple they will sing songs of springtime for you.

Don't forget these little harbingers of spring—the crocus, scilla, snowdrops and hyacinths; get them planted ere the ground freezes.

Finish your borders with pansies, violas, phlox, English daisies, Forget-me-nots, primroses, pinks and others of your choice.

There are many hardy annuals that will survive our winters, germinate early and grow into strong plants. Try a few this fall, namely

NEGROES TO MARCH ON RALEIGH!

Mr. Truman Has Sown The Wind We May Reap The Whirlwind!

Monday morning's News & Observer carried a notice, coming from Kelly Alexander, President North Carolina Branch of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which read in part as follows:

"THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE WILL MARCH ON RALEIGH, WHEN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETS IN JANUARY, AND WILL ASK THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR A STATE FEPC, FOR THE ABOLITION OF DISCRIMINATORY LAWS AND FOR THE IMMEDIATE RECOGNITION OF NEGROES IN THE POLICY MAKING BODIES OF THE STATE."

The adoption of the FEPC and the indiscriminate intermingling of the races by the abolition of "discriminatory laws" will wreck our civilization, produce strife and turmoil and ruin the kindly relations now existing between the races in North Carolina.

Show your DISAPPROVAL AND OBHORRENCE OF SUCH A PROCEDURE and by YOUR VOTE give notice to our Legislature to reject these suicidal measures. Preserve the benevolent relations that now exist between the white and colored races. THE SOUTHERN WHITE PEOPLE HAVE ALWAYS BEEN THE COLORED MAN'S BEST FRIEND.

Show Your Colors and Preserve Our Civilization as Handed Down to Us by Our Fathers by Voting For J. Strom Thurmond for President And Fielding L. Wright For Vice-President, Nominees of States' Rights Democrats. Vote the Straight Democratic Ticket for Congressional, State and County Officers.

'Richest Girl' Sheds Her Second Husband At Reno

Reno, Nev., Oct. 28—(AP)—Doris Duke, heiress to a tobacco fortune which has made her one of the world's wealthiest women, got a quick divorce yesterday from her second husband, Porfirio Rubirosa, Dominican Republic diplomat.

District Judge William McKnight gave her the decree on grounds of extreme mental cruelty, shortly after the filing of the suit.

The 35-year-old Miss Duke, who won restoration of her maiden name, returned here October 24, it was disclosed. She has maintained a home here since she became a resident in 1944 to divorce her first husband, James H. R. Cromwell, who she married in 1935.

She and Rubirosa, 40, were married at Paris September 1, 1947. No property rights were involved in the action.

"Little things kept building up and it was just one of those things that didn't work," she told interviewers at her home after the hearing. She and Rubirosa, she added, are still "quite friendly."

Asked whether she would marry again in view of the failure of her two marriages, she answered: "I hope I do not have another failure."

"That is an unfair question and an unfair answer," interjected a guest of Miss Duke's who refused to identify himself and who directed the interview.

Heiress to the James B. Duke fortune, Miss Duke inherited a trust fund valued at more than $30,000,000 at her father's death, as well as a trusteeship of the Duke endowment, established as a gift of $40,000,000.

Church Women Observe World Community Day

The Greenville Council of Church Women will observe World Community Day on Friday, Nov. 5, in the Christian Church at 10 a.m.

Rev. Henry G. Ruark, pastor of the University Methodist Church in Chapel Hill, will address the women in "Peace Is My Responsibility." Mr. Ruark is vice chairman of the Conference World Peace Commission and in 1947 was state chairman of the clothing drive for overseas relief. For years he has been a leader in the cause of peace. The Church Women of Greenville are most fortunate to have the opportunity of hearing him on this occasion.

At this time the women will bring their signed commitment cards and also "Pack a Towel for Teen-agers in Displaced Persons in Asia." These will be dedicated and will later be mailed to Church World Service Center for distribution abroad.

The offering will be used for medical supplies and peace education.

Penny Brokers

Shanghai, Oct. 28—(AP)—A new one cent copper coin was issued Monday, but quickly disappeared.

Penny brokers, known locally as "yellow oxen," bought up the first two days' output and sold it to copper dealers at a 200 percent profit. The Central Bank of China stopped issuing the coins, effective yesterday.

Insurrection By Peruvian Troops

Lima, Peru, Oct. 28—(AP)—The government rushed loyal troops to its defense today after an army garrison revolted at Arequipa, Peru's second major rebellion within 25 days.

President Jose Luis Bustamante Rivero's government announced late last night that Brig. Manuel Odría, commander of the Arequipa garrison and a former minister of government (interior) and troops under his command had launched an insurrection.

A communique, which gave no details of the progress of the revolt, said the government was taking "necessary measures to subdue the subversive movement."

The government said troops at Lima, the capital, and other garrisons in the North and South had remained loyal. Arequipa is in Southern Peru, about 135 miles from the Bolivian border. The President broadcast a message to the nation denouncing the Arequipa revolt as the work of a small group of "ambitious and resentful" men.

Would Discipline Straying Demos

Providence, R. I., Oct. 28—(AP)—Sen. J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, says he will ask for disciplinary action against national committee members who have "deserted" President Truman.

McGrath said last night he will make his recommendation to the national committee when it meets after the election.

"It will be my duty to report to the national committee the failure of certain members to support the party nominee," he said. "I shall recommend that those who have deserted the party not be recognized as members of the committee."

He made the statement when asked to comment on the reorganization of the South Carolina Democratic State Committee by Truman presidential elector candidate.

Prominent Heart Surgeon Dies In Charleston, S.C.

Charleston, S.C., Oct. 28—(AP)—Dr. Horace G. Smithy, 35, who performed the first successful heart valve operation in medical history and gave hope to rheumatic fever victims, died today.

Smith, himself a rheumatic fever victim in his youth, devised a new operating technique and a special cutting instrument to remove scar tissue on heart valves caused by the fever.

His pioneer operation was performed successfully here last Jan. 30 on Betty Lee Woolridge, 21, of Canton, O.

Since then he operated successfully on eight other rheumatic fever heart victims.

BLACK!

STOMACH AILMENTS, WEAK KIDNEYS, RHEUMATIC PAINS, ARTHRITIS, NEURITIS and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids, Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Energy, Poor Appetite, Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

Drugless Health! REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feed and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO alcohol, NO preservatives, NO oil, NO harmful drugs, NO dope—is NOT habit forming. Contains ONLY Nature's minerals, the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments—highly recommended by the medical profession.

FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hippocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from nutritional anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Amazing Results MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind is sluggish, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain and suffering of these ill. People, on the advice of their doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Wonder Minerals YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wonderful springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thonon in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank his waters and bathed to be forever young. GEO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best.

"We have sold Geo-Mineral for the last six months and it has been one of the best selling drug items we have ever handled"—say Porter Bros., pharmacists of Concord, N. C. "Users report amazing results in many instances, and we personally believe Geo-Mineral is a good medicine for purposes as indicated, and recommend it to sufferers who have tried other medicines with little if any results. They may discover that Geo-Mineral is what they have probably been needing and looking for—we unhesitatingly recommend it."

springs. Watch your elimination from your body a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

100% Guaranteed! WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be the remedy you need!

TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better. GEO-MINERAL: 1 bottle $1.10, 6 for $5.00

Pirates Wind Up Preparations For Duke Jayvee Game Friday

Great Marksmen At Nat'l Shoot

Quantico, Va., Oct. 26—(AP)—Such characters as Annie Oakley and Kit Carson were pretty good shots all right.

But there's a feeling here that if they could have shown up for the national rifle and pistol championships, which ended yesterday they would have finished among the also-rans.

For they would have had terrific competition from such people as Harry Reeves, 38-year-old Detroit policeman who took the pistol championship in a breeze. His score: 2,511 out of a possible 2,700.

In second place was last year's champion, Sgt. Heulet Benner of Fort Knox, Ky., who had 2,500. Lt. Col. Walter Walsh of Arlington, Va., with 2,574, was third.

And, in rifle shooting, they would have had to beat Arthur Cook, 20-year-old University of Maryland junior, who looks more like a Boy Scout (which he recently was) than a grizzled rifleman.

Although Cook is only 5 feet 6 and weighs but 120, he knows all the tricks on how to handle a rifle. His score: 3,150 out of a possible 3,200.

He defeated G. Wayne Moore, Washington, Pa., champion the past two years. Moore was right behind with 3,147. In third place was Robert Perkins, Fresno, Calif., with 3,145.

Many Never Suspect Cause Of Backaches

When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, it is common to get backaches, rheumatism, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or steady urination with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully for millions for over 60 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

No Contenders

Baltimore, Oct. 28—(AP)—Since Citation can't find any takers for tomorrow's Pimlico special, there's talk going around that the Maryland Jockey Club might not even bother to card it among the regular eight races.

The Jockey Club wasn't saying much about the race which is supposed to start its 13-day autumn meeting off with a bang.

Except it admitted ruefully that no one has shown up to run against the Calumet Farm champ.

Vote Alvin Dark Rookie Of Year

New York, Oct. 28—(AP)—Alvin Dark, brilliant young shortstop of the Boston Braves, was voted today the National League rookie of the year.

It was a virtual landslide for the 25-year-old native of Lake Charles, La. In a nation-wide poll conducted by the Associated Press, Dark romped in as the No. 1 freshman of 1948 with 169 out of a possible 220 votes.

Only four other players received consideration from the baseball experts. Richie Ashburn, flashy Philadelphia outfielder, was a poor second with 57 votes. Pitcher Robin Roberts and flycatcher Johnny Blatnik, teammates of Ashburn, each got one vote as did outfielder Hank Sauer of the Cincinnati Reds.

Dark gained the distinction by his fine batting, his skill in the field, his speed and his colorful all-around play. In 1937 games, the former all-around athlete at Louisiana State University batted .322 to finish third among the regulars.

The 5-11, 185-pound youngster, in his first full season in professional baseball, batted .303 for the Milwaukee Brewers, led the circuit in doubles and total base hits, and was hailed as the top A.A. rookie.

Umpires are paid $2,500 each for officiating in a World Series.

Non-Conference Encounter At Guy Smith Stadium; Hard Game Expected But Pirates In High Spirits Over Second Home Game

ECTC's Purple Pirates will wind up their preparations for the Friday night home tilt with the Duke Jayvees this afternoon when they run through pass defenses and attempt to iron the kinks out of their single wing passing attack.

The Pirates, who have taken five defeats in as many engagements, are reported by Coach Jim Johnson to be in high spirits on the eve of their non-conference Guy Smith Stadium encounter. It will be the second home appearance of the Buccaneers this season.

A first year guard who "really wants to play football" will be awarded one of the starting posts in Friday night's game. Coach Johnson announced yesterday that Leon Ellis would start at guard along with Duke Cockrell.

It was still not definite last night whether or not Doug Bryant, among the Pirates' most outstanding backs, would be able to play Friday. Backfield Coach Jack Boone reported that Bryant's shoulder would be X-rayed and if no bones are broken the fullback may be taped up and permitted to see limited action in the contest.

The ECTC squad views the coming tilt as a tough one. They are well aware that the Duke squad can send just as strong a team as the coaches feel it will take to win. "They won't be sending a team down here to take a licking," Johnson said yesterday but expressed his team's hopes of coming out on the big end of the stick.

No information has been received here from Duke as to the squad's record so far this season. The game has received considerable publicity through the Duke Chronicle and a number of Duke students and Jayvee football followers are expected to be on hand for the contest.

The probable starting lineup for the Pirates will feature: Smith at fullback, Darby and Wood at halfback, Holscher or Maennle at quarterback, Polillo or Proinski at center, Ellis and Cockrell at guards, Wyatt and Kilpatrick at tackles and Worthington and Peel at ends.

Fear Letdown By Undefeated Penn

Philadelphia, Oct. 28—(AP)—University of Pennsylvania coaches fear a let down by their undefeated squad against outmanned and outclassed Washington and Lee Saturday at Franklin Field.

Coach George Munger sent his team through a long scrimmage but noted he had trouble keeping their attention on assignments. "The boys apparently are thinking ahead to the Nov. 6 meeting with undefeated but once-tied Penn State.

Pap's On Guard

In explaining the use of offensive and defensive football teams at West Point this fall, Coach Earl Blak points out that it really amounts to a two platoon system minus one player. The "minus one" is Joe Henry, rugged guard who remains on the gridiron while the offensive and defensive lineups trot on and off the field. Henry has averaged better than 50 minutes per game.

Practically unknown at the start of spring practice a year ago, Henry caught the attention of Blak and his staff by his alert, steady play combined with a rough, tough style that marked him as a great prospect. Coming up directly from the J. V. team, Henry was nominated with Rogers has led Carolina to five straight victories without a defeat. He is called Mr. Outside and Rogers is called Mr. Inside.

Gridiron Gossip

By "BOO BOO" BUTLER

The Pirates went through a light scrimmage yesterday in preparation for Friday night's tilt with the Duke "B" squad. Several pass plays were chained around and Coach Johnson thinks the changes will help the squad on its offense. Frank Maennle, regular quarterback who sometimes drops back in the fullback slot is known as "Rogers" Jr. He even runs like Rogers and above all he even fumbles like Rogers. If there was any way to glue the ball to the hands (as well as a couple more backs for ECTC) He would be hard to beat. Forrest Porter who broke through the offense to try to stop Maennle says "It's a train, it's a bomb, it's only Maennle." It's not definite, but Leon Ellis will probably get a nod at the guard slot on the opening kick-off Friday night.

The Greenville Phantoms, who have an open date this week end have been taking it pretty easy. I know Coach Parley is glad to see an opening. It will give his injured players more time to get in top shape.

Amos Sexton who assists Bo Farley on line coach for the Greenville High School has accepted a job at Kingston. He will teach and probably assist coach Mock with the Athletics. Congratulations Amos, we all wish you the best of luck.

One of the games scheduled in the North Eastern Conference this week is the annual battle between Roanoke Rapids and Washington at Roanoke Rapids. The R. R. Yellow Jackets went through the New Bern Bears last week 28 to 7. While the Pam Pack was dropping their first defeat to Elizabeth City. Washington who was to knock Kingston out of the undefeated bracket will go into the game 12 points favorite. But, anything can happen. Coach Danny Gage says "The team is in the best spirit that they have been in yet. I'm sure we will give them a good ball game."

The only other conference game is Tarboro and New Bern. Coach Cox will still be looking for a victory. Speaking of looking for a victory, a letter came from Tarboro stating that they were not the only team that hadn't won a game. Say kid, you wouldn't be referring to ECTC would you.

With chances of retaining the North State conference crown sinking from view, the Catawba College Indians focused all their attention yesterday on "getting No. 84." In other words score in their 84th consecutive game.

He's well on his way. Yes it looks as if there is nothing to stop "Choo Choo" Justice from making All-American. "Choo Choo" who along with Rogers has led Carolina to five straight victories without a defeat. He is called Mr. Outside and Rogers is called Mr. Inside.

Nevada Duo Threatening Conerly-To-Poole Record

New York, Oct. 28—(AP)—A new college football battery is threatening to erase the all-time sky-writing records set last year by Mississippi's Charlie Conerly and Barney Poole.

The present duo belongs to unbeaten, untied Nevada. The pitcher is Stan Heath, the nation's top passer and overall yard-gainer. The catcher is his end, Scott Beasley.

Latest figures compiled by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau show that Beasley has caught 23 passes in five games for a total of 294 yards.

This, the bureau says, makes the sure-fingered Nevada the No. 1 pass receiver in the nation.

Beasley replaced John O'Quinn of Wake Forest for the fifth change in that particular specialty in as many weeks. O'Quinn now has 20 successful catches for 254 yards to shade Tennessee's Ed Powell, who was the pace setter a couple of weeks ago.

Beasley's whip-armed partner, Heath, has 85 pass completions out of 138 attempts for a total gain of 1,318 yards.

With the season little more than half gone, the Nevadans have a chance to match the remarkable feats which Conerly and Poole fashioned down in the cotton country a year ago.

Conerly set an all-time college high with 133 pass completions out of 233 tries. Poole snagged 52 of these for 513 yards and eight touchdowns.

The United States Hockey League is playing its fourth season this campaign.

Talk Of Football Comeback In New York University

New York, Oct. 28—(AP)—There's talk around New York University that the Violets may be plotting a football comeback.

Such speculation was given momentum yesterday with the appointment of John E. (Bing) Miller, a former NYU tackle, as graduate manager of Athletics.

Miller's appointment was announced by Prof. John F. Sullivan, the new chairman of the University board of Athletic control.

There was no confirmation from official quarters that NYU planned a new emphasis on football but the activity in the front office has created some buzzing.

NYU, with a 28-man squad under

Coach Hook Mylin, has won only one of four starts this year. The Violets have dropped into the small-time class after once being a power under such coaches as Chick Meenan and Dr. Mal Stevens.

ECTC Starting Quint 'Red Hot' In Workouts

Basketball Coach Howard Porter of East Carolina Teachers College looked with a furrowed brow yesterday at his Pirate cagers in action. He was trying to decide whether his "starting five" were just red hot or whether his second team was having a defensive off-day.

The "starters" with Charlie Bill Moyer, Jack-Everton, Bob Shufford, Ben Harrison and Bauer, was hitting the basket from all angles.

"They were looking mighty good," Porter commented, but he could not decide whether they were really good or whether the reserves were just not as good as usual. "Those boys scored so many points they were passing the ball around to each other as if they were tired of making points," Porter said.

The second game has not been definitely scheduled but Porter says he expects it to come on or around November 23. Those players who are now engaged in football activities would probably not see basketball service in the opening game since the football season does not close until November 20.

Rube Walberg of the Philadelphia Athletics was Babe Ruth's leading "cousin" during his major league career—Ruth hit 17 home runs off him.

Detroit Stripped Of Ten Players

Detroit, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers were back in baseball's "doghouse" today, stripped of 10 minor league players in a ruling by Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler.

Chandler's order parallels the late Kennesaw M. Landis' sweeping 1940 decision which freed 91 players—including four major leaguers—owned by Detroit.

The Chandler ultimatum, however, cuts no major leaguers free nor does it assess any fine against the parent Detroit club.

But the issue is much the same. The Tigers are charged with "covering up" the movement of players in their minor league system by making invalid oral agreements governing disposal of certain men signed to contracts with farm clubs in 1946 and 1947.

Specifically, Chandler's decree makes the 10 players free agents and punishes Detroit for the manner in which the players were handled—contrary to baseball law and procedure.

Chandler's decision affects nobody now with Detroit, but takes away from the Tigers a pitching prospect, Ossie Kolwe, who would have gone to Detroit's Lakeland, Fla. training camp next spring. Kolwe, who played with Durham, N. C., in 1948, was assigned to the Detroit club at the end of the season.

BOWLING GIRL—Audrey Erickson of Valley Stream, N. Y., sends the ball down the alley while competing in the Cover Girls League in Long Island. Audrey averages 160.

Johnny Neun Is With Yankees In Role Of 'Scout'

New York, Oct. 27.—(AP)—Johnny Neun, former major league player and manager, is back with the New York Yankees organization in the role of a scout.

Neun, who started at first base for the Detroit Tigers, and later managed the Cincinnati Reds, as well as several minor league clubs in the Yankee chain, was signed yesterday to do some "personalized scouting" within the major leagues. He formerly served with the Yankees from 1932 through 1946.

Neun was a Yankee coach in 1944 and 1945 and 1946. He replaced Bill Dickey as Yankee manager in the final month of the '46 season, then took over the Cincinnati reins in '47. He was released as Reds' pilot last August.

Pari-Mutuel Pay Teller Arrested

New York, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A pari-mutuel pay teller at the Jamaica race track was held today on a grand larceny charge after he allegedly bet a total of $5,250 of mutual funds—and lost.

Police said John Morrison, 54, of Brooklyn, told them he used mutual funds to place bets up to $1,000 on each of the eight races at the track yesterday, but that none of his horses won.

"I've never bet more than two or five dollars in my life," he was quoted as saying, "but today I felt lucky."

Kramer Moved 'Peak To Peak'

New York, Oct. 28.—(AP)—From the top of amateur tennis ranks to No. 1 among the professionals in one year is the achievement of Los Angeles' Jack Kramer.

Young Kramer, winner of the Wimbledon and National Amateur Championships in 1947, is placed first in United States pro rankings, announced today.

Two veterans who have had a corner on the top pro spot for years—Bobby Riggs of Chicago and Don Budge of Los Angeles—were placed second and third, respectively.

$65,000 Gate In Garden Expected

New York, Oct. 28.—(AP)—A gate of $65,000 is seen for Willie Pep's featherweight title defense against Sandy Saddler tomorrow night in Madison Square Garden.

The Hartford, Conn., world champion is a 5-12 favorite over the New York challenger.

Both fighters completed training yesterday. Willie reported he was under 126 pounds. Saddler, from his camp in Summit, N. J., said he was down to 127. So there will be no weight problems.

Saddler has 63 knockouts in ninety odd professional starts.

Justice, Rogers Top All-American Line-Up In South

Richmond, Va., Oct. 28.—(AP)—The mid-season inventory of football players being boosted for All-American honors today listed no less than seven Southern Conference aces.

The University of North Carolina's Tar Heels, undefeated and untied, monopolized the list with four of their stars.

Here is the Southern Conference All-American check list at present—Charlie (Choo-Choo) Justice, North Carolina halfback.

Rosea Rogers, North Carolina fullback.

Art Weiner, North Carolina end.

Len Szafaryn, North Carolina tackle.

Jack Cloud, William and Mary fullback.

Bobby Gage, Clemson halfback.

Fred Folger, Jr., Duke halfback.

Justice, 167-pounder from Asheville, N.C., so far has been all that his nickname implies. With the Choo-Choo at the Tar Heel throttle, North Carolina has engineered five successive 1948 victories over tough opponents—Texas, Georgia, Wake Forest, North Carolina State and Louisiana State.

Justice and Rogers, Carolina's "Mr. Outside" and "Mr. Inside," have seen to it personally that the team coached by crafty Carl Snavely has remained on the football victory track.

Look at the record of these two backfield aces—(figures represent all games played to date).

Justice—tugged the leather 71 times, gained 341 net yards, for an average of 4.8 yards per carry. Completed 34 of 65 passes for 516 yards, five of them touchdown passes. Caught one pass for 13 yards. Punted 28 times for 1,203 yards, an average of 42.9. Scored seven touchdowns for a total of 42 points, tops in the conference.

Rogers—carried the ball 86 times for 317 net yards for an average of 3.7 yards. Completed six of 13 passes for 122 yards, one a touchdown pass. Scored three touchdowns for 18 points.

Heading South

Miami.—(AP)—Two of racing's most famous names—King Ranch and George D. Widener—have requested stalls for their racers this winter at Hialeah. Trainer Max Hirsch's King Ranch list is headed by a pair of stakes-winning three-year-olds, the colt Better Self and filly Scattered.

Chevrolet... Leader in Value

Your choice for QUALITY on all these counts

...at prices that are lower than those of any other car in its field!

Your No. 1 Choice for RIDING SMOOTHNESS	Your No. 1 Choice for PERFORMANCE with ECONOMY	Your No. 1 Choice for ALL-ROUND SAFETY	Your No. 1 Choice for TASTEFUL BEAUTY
--	---	---	--

There's a very good reason why people agree that Chevrolet gives a much smoother, steadier, safer ride than other cars in its field. That reason is that Chevrolet alone has the original Unitized Knee-Action Ride, backed by more than 14 years' experience in building Knee-Action units. This feature is found elsewhere only in higher-priced cars.

You will enjoy much finer performance with economy in Chevrolet. Its world's champion Valve-in-Head Thrift-Master engine holds all records for miles served, owners satisfied, and years tested and proved. And Valve-in-Head engine-design, like so many other Big-Car quality features, is an advantage that is found only in Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

You and your family will ride in safety, thanks to extra-strong Fisher Unitized Body-Construction—safety plate glass in windshield and windows—the unmatched road-steadiness of the Unitized Knee-Action Ride—and the greater stopping-power of Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes—fourfold safety-protection exclusive to Chevrolet and more expensive cars!

You know—and your friends know—that the emblem, Body by Fisher, is the hallmark of bodies that are better by far. Chevrolet's Bodies by Fisher reveal this finer quality inside and out—in every detail—including the hardware, the upholstery and all appointments. Naturally, these finer bodies are exclusive to Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

Greenville Training School Student Flies To Alaska To Join His Father

By CHESTER WALSH
An airplane flight northwest across the continent to Alaska would thrill any 16-year-old boy who had not done much long-distance traveling, but it provided a plenty for Robert W. Mobley, son of U. S. Army Engineer John Elbert Mobley, who is stationed at Anchorage, his grandmother, Mrs. Reuben R. Mobley, 313 East 13th street, Greenville, told a Daily Reflector reporter today.

Young Mobley, fifth grade student at the Greenville Training school, left here for the Raleigh-Durham airport last Sunday afternoon. He boarded an Eastern Airlines plane for Washington, D. C., where he transferred to a United Lines plane westward bound. He changed to another United Airlines plane at Chicago bound for Seattle, Wash., where his father met him and father and son continued the flight to Anchorage, Alaska, where they arrived Tuesday afternoon.

John Elbert Mobley, the boy's father, has been in government service for 18 years. He graduated from the Greenville High School in 1926 and Massie's Business College, Richmond, Va., in 1927. Mobley then was employed by the Army Engineer's Department and has been in that branch for 18 years, occupying four years, when he was in wartime service, a part of which was spent at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, on atomic bomb research work. He was on duty at Manila, in the Philippines, on an engineering project until last March, when he was transferred to Alaska. His wife accompanied him there.

Mobley is a son of Mrs. Reuben Mobley of Greenville. He has three other children—Miss Nancy M. Mobley of Orlando, Fla.; Miss Patricia Mobley, Washington, D. C.; and Miss Betty Mobley, who lives here with her grandmother.

Million Dollars In Children's Aid

Helsinki—(AP)—The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) plans to spend more than $1,000,000 in Finland before July 1, 1949.

The chief of the UNICEF European committee, Alfred E. Davidson, announced that the organization will provide all Finnish school children with supplementary food such as dehydrated milk, lard and canned meat. The money will also be used to fight tuberculosis among Finnish children.

Peru's estimated 482,258 square miles of territory lie wholly within the tropics.

Agree To Review Of Reparations

Washington, Oct. 27—(P)—The United States, Britain and France agreed today to a full review of the reparations contributions of German industrial plants.

A joint statement made public by the State Department made plain, however, that Britain and France had turned down the U. S. request for a temporary halt in plant dismantling pending the review.

Panhandlers Reflect Period Of Inflation

Chicago—(P)—Inflation has raised the bubble head in the panhandling business. A middle-aged, neat, dignified fellow working the loop now asks the folks for the loan of a dollar so he can eat.

Chapter 1
It was certainly a shabby street. Joe Monahan thought for the thousandth time as he turned into it, but it was home to him, every last bit of it. Every dog, cat, and child knew him and called him Curly. He had been Curly in school and he was still Curly now that he was also "Smoky Joe."

He waved to an old man sitting on the steps across the street; then he leaped out to catch a high fly that came soaring toward him like a bird. He caught it neatly and flung the ball home. His cap fell off and two kids scrambled to retrieve it for him.

"Come on play with us, Curly. We'll let you be up."

He grinned at them and pretended to land a couple straight to the button.

"Can't play. Must go home or I'll get licked for bein' late again."

The kids laughed and a couple of grown-ups on steps joined in. Everyone knew and liked his mother as well as him. Everyone for blocks around knew Florrie Monahan, who was so mountainously fat that she scarcely moved out of a chair all day. Her weight crippled her body but had not her mind or spirit. She had scarcely been off her own street in years, but her laughter was "heard round the world," as Rosalie McEgan had said.

Joe felt like dancing along the street to show the world how happy he was. He was off tonight and going to take Rosalie to a swell show, something with a lot of dancing in it.

In his excitement he actually bumped into Father Toughy, who pretended to hold him up.

The priest's smile was worth going miles for. "I knew you'd be in a hurry to get home today, Joe. Isn't it wonderful news? But the best is none too good for her and I always said so."

Joe grinned. "I haven't heard anything."

"I used to think God might let me make her your wife. I would have liked that. But—"

The blue eyes clouded. "Rosalie," he cut in. "What's the matter? What's happened? Is—is her mother gone?"

"I see you don't know. Perhaps it were best that I should be the one to tell you. Your mother is giving a party for Rosalie tonight."

Joe laughed boyishly. "Ma can't do that. Not tonight. I'm taking her to see a show. I got the tickets. And when you think what an angel she's been with her sick mother—"

I told you that was why I couldn't ask her to marry me until—until—"

His voice trailed off. The priest patted his arm again. "I understand, my son. I'm sure God understands. For Rosalie's mother's death can only come as a blessed release when God chooses to take her. She has been taken to the hospital now at her own request. It is better that"

NOTICE OF RENTAL OF REAL PROPERTY
Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me as guardian of Penile White, I will offer for rent for the year 1949, at public outcry and to the highest bidder, at the Courthouse door in the City of Greenville, at 12:00 o'clock on Saturday, November 20, 1948 the following farm lands:

Being that certain piece or parcel of land in Greenville Township just south of the Farmville-Greenville Highway and adjoining the lands of Alvin Bunting, Heber Allen and others, and known as the Penile White farm, containing approximately 27 acres of cleared land, tobacco allotment on this farm in 1948 was 5.8 acres.

The terms of rental shall be cash. This the 27th day of October, 1948. BEN TRIPP, Guardian for Penile White.

"Steady, Joe. People are looking at you."

"I don't care, Father."

"You do care, my son. She has told me she loves this Wayne Kahler. You and she have grown up together, and that is a different love. You would not be the one to stand in her way if her happiness lies out there."

Joe drew a long, deep breath. "I understand, Father."

He blinked back the tears that blinded him. The sunset light was in his eyes. A dark, pretty girl came out and blocked his way gayly.

"Did you hear the news, Curly? Ain't it swell?"

He managed a smile. "Father Toughy just told me."

She caught his arm. "Smoke gets in your eyes, eh, Joe? Want a cigarette?"

He pushed her playfully and they went on together. He didn't miss an audible comment from a window above them. "Well, things bein' as it seems they are now, that bold Bella Durfee is wastin' no time at all in puttin' a tag on him to show she gets second choice."

Bella smiled cooly. "I'm the one who told Rosalie she's a fool if she didn't grab at a chance like this. He sent tickets, money, and such a letter. I suppose you know all about the flaming love letters she's been getting all along ever since he got back home."

"Of course." He avoided those searching dark eyes. "Do you think Rosalie would have any secrets from me! We—we are pals."

"And what about me?"

Her lips lifted toward his provocatively. He hesitated, then kissed her warmly, letting himself go as he had never dared to with Bella before. He wanted the whole street to see.

NOT 1 BUT 10

YES, 10 REASONS TO SEE YOUR ESSO DEALER NOW FOR THOROUGH WINTER PROTECTION

Ten different lubricants — each one made for some specific part of your car — each one expertly applied according to a lubrication guide for your car... that is the kind of specialized winter lubrication service you get at your Esso Dealer's.

Here's 10-way winter protection for that important car investment of yours. Make that date today with your Esso Dealer for a complete Fall service job, oil change and check-up.

1 ESSO MOTOR OIL — flows easily at low temperatures — for easy starting and quick protection of moving parts... retains "body" at high engine temperatures — for efficient lubrication and low oil consumption.

2 ESSO 10 COMPOUND — Multi-purpose gear lubricant for transmissions, steering gears, and rear axles. Quick drying at low temperature for easy gear shifting. Long-lasting protection at high temperatures and high speeds.

3 ESSO CHASSIS GREASE — Long-lasting protection under all driving conditions. Water resistant, penetrates thoroughly. Protects bearings against dirt and moisture.

4 ESSO BEARING GREASE — Newly developed wheel bearing lubricant for all types of cars and trucks; provides reliable lubrication in both cold and hot weather.

5 ESSO SPRING LUBRICANTS — Esso Spring Grease and Esso Penetrating Oil are each designed for specific spring application — provide long-lasting operation.

6 ESSO WATER PUMP GREASE — Highly resistant to water and leakage. Withstands high engine water temperatures.

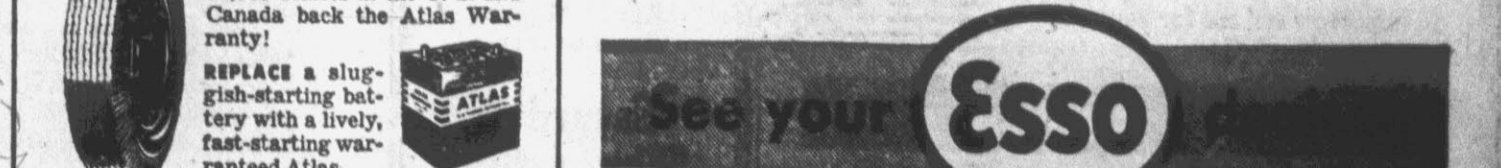

7 ESSO HAND OIL — Rapidly penetrates and lubricates close-fitting parts such as starters, generators, and distributors. Helps prevent damaging rust.

8 ESSO CUP GREASE — A stable, water-resistant grease for special application where heavier grease is required.

9 ATLAS RUBBER — Helps prolong life of rubber parts and fittings. Will not injure natural or synthetic rubber, metals, or car finish.

10 ATLAS DOOR LUBE — Stainless, weather-proof lubricant for car door fittings and hood latches. Helps stop squeaks.

PLEASE DRIVE CAREFULLY...The Life You Save May Be Your Own!

Next Tuesday Is Election Day

By CHESTER WALSH

Next Tuesday is Election Day, when the people of the United States may go to the polls and cast their ballots as to whom they want in the president's office, the United States Senate and the House. It is the day when any qualified citizen is privileged, if he or she is properly registered, may vote for a candidate for governor of North Carolina, a United States senator and Congressmen, and for state officers.

The polls will open on Election Day at 6:30 a. m. and close at 6:30 p. m.

All persons whose names are on the registration books may vote. Those whose names are not there should find no fault with the election officials if they had failed to do their duty and register at the prescribed time. "If your name is not on the books, you cannot vote," J. Henry Harrell, chairman of the Pitt County Board of elections, said today.

The chairman reminded that any qualified voter who expects to be away election day may apply in advance to him for an absentee ballot. Harrell also said that any person physically unable to go to the polls to vote may apply to him in advance for a ballot, which must be certified by a notary public, and that that ballot may be turned in in a sealed envelope.

The Daily Reflector, in keeping with its custom of more than half a century will announce the results of the election on a bulletin board and with a public address system from its office, election night.

Night Time Vandals Rob Flower Garden

Not incidentally, but coincidentally, yesterday there was a person peddling in a small way flowering plants here and there in the western part of Greenville, and at the same time Mrs. W. Reid Perkins, ardent lover of flowers, 400 Summit Street, was lamenting the theft of two of her well grown rose-colored azalea bushes.

Some prowling nocturnal vandal, evidently a grown person, she said, had gone into her front yard, and with bare hands uprooted the two azalea plants and made away with them. Neighbors who sympathized with her in the loss expressed the opinion that the flower thief knew something about flowers, because he passed up white azalea plants to get those with the rose-colored hue.

Scrap Paper Drive

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will collect scrap paper from homes in the city on Sunday afternoon, November 7, starting at 2 o'clock. The Jaycees request that householders place paper in bundles out front to facilitate collection by the truck and that magazine paper be placed in separate bundles. The Junior Chamber uses the money derived from scrap paper drives to worthy causes, Lester Turnage, chairman of the committee said.

JAYCEES MEET TONIGHT
The Junior Chamber of Commerce will have its supper meeting at the Olde Towne Inn tonight at 6:30. President B. B. Sugg Jr. will preside.

EKLS LODGE MEETS TONIGHT
Greenville Lodge No. 1845, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. Exalted Ruler J. Alvin Bunting will preside. A free motion picture will be shown.

TEMPERANCE MESSAGES FOR HIGH SCHOOL ASSEMBLY
Rev. Leonard W. Topping, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker at assembly at the Greenville High School Friday morning at 8:50. Speakers are sponsored by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, under direction of Mrs. Helene Higgs Kirkpatrick. Other speakers to appear on the program at future dates will be Rev. J. A. Nelson, pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, and Dr. John D. Messick, president of East Carolina Teachers College. A special motion picture will be shown on November 19.

But the big armed force and the help for Europe have been made necessary (1) because of fear of war with Russia and (2) to help Europe recover so Communism can't take over.

So long as Russia keeps the world jittery, piling crisis upon crisis, the big armed force will be necessary. So will help for Europe.

Yet, how long can we keep on pouring out billions for the armed forces and aid for Europe without a bust?

What's the way out of this endless circle? How can the country get back to normal as long as Communism remains a danger?

No one has come up with the answer yet.

the interests of the parties concerned and insures the possibility of further cooperation.

(The agreement of Aug. 30 provided that the four military Governments in Germany should settle the final details. Their negotiations broke down, however, when Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky injected a demand that Russia be given control over the airlift by which the western powers are supplying western Berlin over the blockade. The western powers then took the issue to the Security Council, charging the blockade is a threat to peace.)

Energy Commission to take up negotiations where it dropped them last spring and keep working.

Russia voted against the final resolution in the political committee because it approved the majority report. It is evident that Russians want the talks in the Atomic Commission to continue.

Everyone here makes long speeches against war. The little fellows in private conversations complain that the big five have quarreled so much that they are hurting the UN and disturbing the peace.

They say fervently that they are tired of year after year of big power politics and discord. That was the motivating power behind Mexico's resolution which sailed unanimously through the political committee last week.

Mexico called attention to the disagreement and urged the five great powers to take every step to compose their differences. For a rare moment, the five great powers agreed that was a good thing.

Then they went back at it again. At this moment no one can say how far the Mexican resolution will go toward achieving agreement.

But at least the little fellows have made a start—and they say they will not back down in their efforts to stop the bickering.

over 1946.
Welfare costs, up 32 per cent from the previous year, reached a total of $270,801,000, highest in five years. Operation costs for "every other municipal function" were above 1946. The $312,888,000 outlay for capital improvements in 1947 was nearly double 1946 and more than three times the annual wartime rate when conditions caused drastic curtailment.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, Oct. 28—(AP)—The stock market turned on its heel after an early try at higher prices today. Morning gains were wiped out in many cases or changed into small losses.

The setback coincided with Premier Joseph Stalin's declaration that the western powers are supporting a policy which can lead to the "unleashing of a new war."
