N. C. Democratic
Chairman Urges
Big Vote Nov. 2Waynick Cites Danger
Of Indifference;
GOP Intensifies Final Drive

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS

The state chairman of the North Carolina Democratic Party declared last night that "more ballots may mean fewer bullets."

Capus Waynick, sounding the state Democratic slogan of "Vote a Million" in a radio address, urged Democrats to vote heavy Tuesday.

"Is the citizen who is too indifferent to vote," asked Waynick, "much less dangerous to our government and to world peace than the Communist whom he denounces?"

Meanwhile, Eastern North Carolina Republican headquarters announced a further intensification of the GOP's drive in the closing days before the voters go to the polls.

A headquarters spokesman said "the voter has only to turn on his radio to hear Republican speakers discuss the issues of this campaign."

He then released a partial schedule of radio addresses to be delivered between now and election:

John A. Wilkinson, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, over an eastern North Carolina network next Monday, Nov. 1, from 8 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. P.M. That same evening Wilkinson will speak at a Republican rally in Washington, N. C.

Also on Nov. 1, Sim A. DeLoach, Republican state chairman, will speak over stations throughout the state for a 15-minute period beginning at 6:30 p.m.

In his talk last night, Waynick said there are two compelling reasons why the straight Democratic tickets should be supported. He listed them as:

1. Should President be elected, North Carolina's favored position in national affairs would be continued.
2. Should Truman be elected, defeated, but North Carolina stands firm in its historic political allegiance to the Democratic party, the state would be in an advantageous position to help direct reorganization of the party for a return to power.

Believes French
Tie-Up Is Last
Big Red Effort

Washington, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Cooperation Administration, said today the French coal strike is Moscow-directed and may be the Communists' "last determined effort" to block European recovery.

Just back from Europe, Hoffman explained to a news conference that he did not mean the Communists would make no tampering efforts after the strike. But he said he thought the ability of Communists to interfere with recovery would wane.

He said: "The trend is against them—it has reversed."

French Police Jail 700;
Plan Expel Foreigners

Paris, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Police said today they have jailed 700 Frenchmen and foreigners in an attempt to end the 25-day-old coal strike.

The Interior Ministry announced today that police and army occupation of the big northern coal fields were moving 12 to 24 hours ahead of schedule.

"There was no noticeable resistance and no incidents," the communiqué said.

The pro-Communist newspaper Ce Soir said strikers were counter-attacking at the Bonnel mine, one of the 12 occupied today.

The ministry estimated there had been 626 arrests up to Wednesday night, including 180 North Africans and 85 other foreigners.

Another 52 foreigners already have been thrown out of the country in fulfillment of Interior Minister Jules Moch's threat to expel any foreigner found taking part in demonstrations. French mines employ many Poles and other eastern Europeans.

An estimated 30 to 50 strikers were jailed yesterday.

Most of those arrested were charged either with assault or with violating non-strikers' "freedom to work."

While the coal stoppage seemed ebbing, Communists pushed a dockers' strike to keep out coal imports.

Troops at two French ports, La Rochelle and La Pallice, were unloading American coal shipments.

Wilkinson Lists $10,000 Expense

Washington, Oct. 29.—(AP)—John A. Wilkinson, Republican candidate for Senator from North Carolina, has spent $10,073.87 on his campaign compared to $305 in expenditures reported by his Democratic opponent, J. Melville Broughton.

Progressive candidate William Brown, of Maxton, has reported no expenditures.

Truman Holds Aloft Banner Of
New Deal In Big City Campaign

New York, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The cheers of this nation's greatest city stirred Harry S. Truman to exclamations of triumph today in the "zero hour" of his battle to stay in the White House.

He wrapped the mantle of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt around his shoulders and held aloft the banner of the "New Deal" in the home state of the man who gave it birth.

And he girded himself to ride forth a second day to champion it among the millions whose votes could decide his political fate.

"I'm proud to be an exponent of the New Deal," he told a demonstration throng at a CIO dinner held last night in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel to honor Senator Robert F. Wagner (D-NY) who sponsored much of the New Deal's legislation. Then, to nearly 20,000 applauding spectators at a liberal party rally in Madison Square Garden, Mr. Truman declared:

"I am happy to say to you tonight that the spirit of liberalism is going to triumph at the polls on November second, just as sure as you're sitting in this hall."

Appealing for New York City's large Jewish vote, Mr. Truman restated his stand for "a strong, prosperous, free and independent Israel."

To said the people of Israel already have demonstrated "that Israel deserves to take its place in the family of nations."

"That is our objective, and we shall work toward it in a sound way, not in a partisan political way," he declared. "I am confident that that objective will be reached."

In the Roosevelt tradition, Mr. Truman closed his New York campaign with a major speech at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn at 9:30 p. m. (EST) tonight.

But before that he will tour and talk in Yonkers, the Bronx and Harlem, and join a Democratic rally in the Lost Battalion Hall in Queens.

The Madison Square Garden rally produced Mr. Truman's 261st speech of a day-and-night stumping tour which started in Michigan on Labor Day. It has carried him into every section of the country and to scores of "whistle stops."

The receptions everywhere else were overshadowed by the size of the turnout that only New York can provide for Presidential candidates.

Chief Police Inspector Martin J. Brown estimated as 2,100,000 the crowds through which the one-time Missouri farmboy paraded or before whom he spoke.

Republicans Add Claim
Of Controlled CongressDewey Adds Prediction
That Next Congress
Will Give 'Enthusiastic Support'
To His Campaign Program

Enroute with Dewey to New York City, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Republicans contended today they not only will win the presidency in next Tuesday's voting but are certain to have a GOP controlled Congress.

And Gov. Thomas E. Dewey added the prediction that such a Congress would give "enthusiastic support" to expanding social security, raising the minimum wage level and protecting veterans' rights and benefits.

The Republican presidential nominee displayed his confidence in the outcome of hotly-fought Senate races in Boston last night.

Sketching in a social welfare program, he declared:

"And all this I can tell you, will have the enthusiastic support of the next Republican Congress."

Former Senator John Townsend of Delaware, who heads the Republican senatorial campaign committee, backed up the candidate's prediction.

Traveling with Dewey on a six stop tour of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, Townsend told a newsman reports now indicate the Republicans will hold the 51 to 49 margin in the Senate.

Even the Democrats concede privately they have little chance to gain control of the House. But they have been driving hard to upset the GOP in the Senate.

Townsend, who earlier might have been willing to settle for a bare 49 to 47 Senate margin, said a swing is on "which may give us an additional seat or two over the 51 we now have."

In close contests, he said he counts as "safe" Republican Senators Bill of Minnesota, Cooper of Kentucky, Robertson of Wyoming and Rever-

Agitators Incite
Stuttgart RiotMP's Say Squads Of Youths Engineered
5-Hour Affray

Stuttgart, Germany, Oct. 29.—(AP)—U. S. Military Police officials said today agitators engineered a five hour riot here yesterday in which five Americans and at least 12 Germans were hurt. Thousands of persons took part in the disorders.

Capt. Charles G. Ives, Provost Marshal for Stuttgart, said squads of 'teen-age youths' whipped the crowd into a fury at the end of a mass demonstration against the high cost of living.

"I don't know whether they were Communist or left-over from the Nazi regime," Ives told reporters.

"But most people attending the demonstration were good humored at first. Then, at the end of the demonstration, these agitators started whipping them up. You could really see hate in their eyes. Their true feelings for Americans came out."

About 30,000 persons congregated at Koenigsstrasse, one of the City's principal streets, for a demonstration called by Trade Unions against high prices.

After the speeches, military police officials said, the crowd began to break up.

But youths apparently planted strategically throughout the crowd began urging attacks on stores and on the German police, these officials said.

Elsewhere through the eastern soft coal fields, there have been these political action developments:

Officials of UMW District 4 in the Uniontown, Pa., area said miners there would be asked to follow the recommendations of Lewis.

Frank Hughes, president of District 3 in Greensburg, Pa., said he would not attempt to tell his miners how to vote next Tuesday.

UMW members in West Virginia have been asked by their leaders to support Gov. Thomas E. Dewey as "the lesser of two evils."

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Former Rep. Zebulon Weaver, 76, whose record in Congress spanned 28 years, died this morning in a hospital after a long period of declining health.

Death came to the veteran Congressman at 8 a. m. suffering with heart and kidney ailments. He was admitted to the hospital Wednesday.

Mr. Weaver represented Western North Carolina in Washington over a period covering two world wars and for years was a ranking member of the powerful Judiciary committee of the House of Representatives.

He was considered one of the ablest lawyers in the House, an accomplishment which held him in good stead during his long fight for the creation of Great Smoky Mountains National Park and Blue Ridge Parkway and in the firm stand in 1944 against proposed restrictions on Tennessee Valley Authority.

Nanking Awaits
Fate Of ArmiesReds Report Destruction
As Apprehension Mounts

Nanking, Oct. 29.—(AP)—China's restless and apprehensive capital today awaited official word on the fate of government armies in Manchuria.

Communists said they have destroyed five armies in a two-day battle.

Government sources were silent on the Red report but other sources indicated it was at least partly true.

Against this darkening background, angry legislators demanded relief from the worsening economic crisis. They threatened to displace Premier Wang Wen-Hao if he could not give them a workable plan in seven days.

Other legislators hinted a new government might be formed to replace that of President Chiang Kai-Shek, who has ruled China since the days of Sun Yat-sen.

The Communists said disaster befell national troops around Tushan, 65 miles below Mukden.

Such a victory would give the Communists vast stores of ammunition and other supplies for their march southward. It would endanger all of the government's thinly spread forces in North China.

Military observers declined to believe such losses occurred in two days, especially to crack divisions from Burma. They said, however, that defections such as have been increasing common among government troops in various sectors probably contributed to the success of the Communist attack.

Community Chest
$10,500

Chicago, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The nation clung to only a small cut in traffic deaths from last year as it began the last and most dangerous quarter of 1948 in terms of driving hazards.

This was reported today by the National Safety Council which found September's death toll up four per cent for the month. It was only the second month this year to show an increase.

The September, 1948, toll was 3,040 or 120 greater than that of Sept. 1947. This brought the nine-month total to 322,430, only three per cent fewer deaths than the 23,010 in the same 1947 period.

The special gifts committee headed by Louis Gaylord reported over $4,300 has been collected by the committee. Approximately 50 people are taking part in the house to house canvass of the city which will end tomorrow morning.

Mrs. James T. Little, chairman of the canvass group said the group leaders will report their receipts tomorrow.

"The Community Chest workers have made a fine showing so far," Chairman T. Wagner said this morning, and I hope that by tomorrow night when the drive closes we have well over our quota."

Wagner pointed out the worthy organizations which are dependant on the Community Chest for funds to carry out their programs, and urged all people who have not contributed to the fund to do so tomorrow.

Cities

By CHESTER WALSH

In Wesley's Court in Farmville today, Wesley George Turner, 20, of Kingston, charged with robbing the Allen Implement Company's safe in Farmville the night of October 15, waived hearing and was bound over to grand jury hearing in Superior Court in Greenville.

William Earl Lewis, 41, of Kingston, and William Hales, 20, of Kenley, are charged with complicity.

Greenville police have the men in jail here for a preliminary hearing in Police Court next Monday in connection with the safe-cracking job at the Wagner-Marshburn Motor Company's plant September 10.

Farmville Police Chief L. T. Lucas and Greenville Detective M. E. Corbett arrested Turner and Hales in Charlotte Tuesday. Lewis was arrested earlier in Wilson.

Pitt County Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson, Wilson Detective Claude Pugh and the FBI and other assistants of Chief Lucas in apprehending the men, Chief Lester D. Page said.

Chief Lucas quoted Turner as confessing to the Greenville, Farmville and Enfield safe robberies, and today said the young Kingstonian had admitted robberies at the Ford Motor Company's plant in Elm City and places in Wilson, Kingston and Morehead City.

Of Injunctions
And Fines

Pittsburgh, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The 35,000 soft coal miners in the United Mine Workers District 5 were told by District President John P. Busarello last night they must "stand together and show our disapproval by voting against Harry S. Truman."

Busarello did not mention the names of any of the other presidential candidates.

"Times have changed," he said. "You know recent history—the injunctions, the spears, the heavy fines against President John L. Lewis and our union. No comment necessary. We have to strengthen the hand of our good friend, President John L. for the future."

Israel SanctionsPresident Said To Have Cabled Marshall
To Drop Support
Of Plan

Paris, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council threw to a subcommittee today the hot issue of sanctions in Palestine, amid unconfirmed reports that President Truman had withdrawn American support for economic pressure to stop the Holy Land war.

Authoritative sources here said the President told Secretary of State Marshall the United States would not support a British-Chinese resolution calling on the Holy Land combatants to withdraw to positions held before the last rupture of the U.N. truce.

A U.S. press spokesman said he knew nothing of this report.

In Washington, the U. S. State Department would not comment. Similarly, aides of the President, in New York, on his campaign tour, declined to comment.

The authoritative sources, who could not be quoted by name, said the President first heard of the U.S. support for the sanctions proposal while he was in New York on his campaign trip. There he spoke on the Palestine issue, declaring that Israel must be large enough to make her people self-sufficient.

President Truman said in Washington Sunday he stood behind provisions in the Democratic platform covering Israel. The platform approved Israel's claims to boundaries set forth in the partition plan of the U.N. Nov. 29, which allotted the Negev desert to the Jews.

In his last report to the Security Council, Count Folke Bernadotte, the U.N. mediator, recommended that the Negev be given to the Arabs and that the Jews get Western Galilee instead. Later Secretary of State Marshall announced support of the Bernadotte recommendations.

The sources here said President Truman heard about the sanctions support by the Americans outside of State Department channels and immediately cabled Secretary of State Marshall.

They said he told Marshall the United States could not support the British-Chinese resolution, and that word of this message was sent by Marshall to Austin while the latter was presiding over the council.

Thus, even with the final week's expenses yet to be listed, some of the reports already exceed the limit, since the exclusions are not always noted.

Federal law limits House candidates to $5,000 per election, Senate candidates to $25,000 (because Senate terms are for six years). But there is no limit on certain expenses, such as bills for travel, meals, stationery, printing of circulars and letters, mailing, telegraph and telephone.

FLIES TO LONDON

Paris, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall left by plane for London today. The purpose of his trip was not announced.

The State Department made this clear in a statement declaring that such talks are held by MacArthur in his capacity as a top United States officer and "are purely routine matters of sole concern to this government."

At the same time, the department denied that the former Japanese navy yard at Yokosuka is being converted into a modern naval base for American forces in the far East.

Washington, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Tomorrow 813 displaced persons are due to arrive in this country by ship from Europe.

They are the first of 206,000 DP's who, Congress said last summer, can come here by mid-1950.

Even if all 205,000 manage to get in, they're still less than one-third of the 750,000 DP's in Europe now. Since you'll be reading about DP's for quite a while, this will bring you up to date on the problem. Start from the beginning.

World War II displaced—that is, drove out of their homes—about 8,000,000 persons in Europe. With the help of the allied armies and other agencies all but 1,000,000 soon got home.

Those 7,000,000 who got home were mostly from Western Europe: from France, Holland and Belgium.

The remaining 1,000,000 were mostly people from Eastern Europe, among them many Jews.

They had no homes to return to or they refused to go home because of their fear of religious or political persecution.

But of that 1,000,000, about 250,000 were settled somewhere, between 1945 and the summer of 1948: in England, France, Belgium, Norway, Australia, Latin America, or the

Challenges Poll

New York, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath—claiming that actually "the advantage is with Truman and not Dewey"—has urged Dr. George Gallup to "properly adjust" his election polls "so that the voters may know the truth."

Senator McGrath told Gallup in a telegram last night that "your polls this year do not tell a complete story nor give an accurate interpretation of your own findings."

McGrath said an advantage for President Truman instead of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey would be shown if the Gallup poll results were adjusted in line with percentage errors in the two previous presidential campaigns.

The Democratic chairman claimed Gallup missed by an average of 2.4 per cent in 1946 and 2.8 per cent in 1948—each time to the advantage of the Republicans.

Washington, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The law lets Senate candidates spend five times as much as those running for the House.

And with control of the Senate hanging in the balance of next Tuesday's election, the nationwide ratio is running just about that.

Preliminary campaign reports filed with Congress show the Republican and Democratic senatorial candidates laid out a total of $215,419 through last week. That figures out roughly to just under $3,600 each for the 60 candidates for the 36 seats being filled this year.

But just as the ding-dong Senate fight actually revolves around only 11 crucial contests, the actual spending by the various candidates has varied widely. Some, without opposition, reported no campaign costs at all.

Federal law limits House candidates to $5,000 per election, Senate candidates to $25,000 (because Senate terms are for six years). But there is no limit on certain expenses, such as bills for travel, meals, stationery, printing of circulars and letters, mailing, telegraph and telephone.

At the close of the ceremonial Mrs. Jessie Biggs gave the history of the White Shrine. She stated in her talk that "we have two objectives, one spiritual the other material. Our material objective is the care and help of the blind." This proved to be the best ceremonial the Shrine has put on since it was instituted in August 1942. The meeting was well attended.

Girl Loses Life When Bus Stops

By CHESTER WALSH
Mary Ella Wainwright, 15, of Ormondville township, Greene county, died at a Kinston hospital Wednesday night of injuries received Wednesday afternoon in a freak bus accident.

The girl was thrown against the iron guard rail behind the bus driver's seat when the bus stopped suddenly at a bad place on a dirt road.

Greene County Sheriff Kirby Cobb said.

Other children, also thrown forward when the bus halted to avoid a washout, pressed against the victim, whose stomach was forced against the rail, the sheriff said.

The girl, however, returned to her seat, apparently none the worse for her experience, and the bus took her home.

When she arrived home, the sheriff said, the girl went into her father's cotton field to pick cotton. While working, she collapsed and her father carried her to a doctor in Ayden. The physician said she was suffering internal injuries and bleeding.

Taken to the Kinston Memorial General Hospital, the girl died at 10:30 p.m.

Sheriff Cobb said the victim was a student at Maury High School, in Greene County.

State Highway Patrolman John W. Evans of Snow Hill investigated the accident. He could not be contacted last night for information as to the identity of the bus driver, or whether charges will be filed in the accident.

Surviving are her father, Jim Wainwright, and her step-mother Mrs. Ruth Wainwright, and seven half-sisters.

Funeral services were conducted from the home today at 3 p.m. by

Berkeley, Calif., Oct. 28—(AP)

—Unrequited love for a coed heiress had James Knowlton Gallagher in the dumps today.

Claire Dean Fulger, 17-year-old University of California student and member of the Folger coffee family, told Municipal Judge Oliver Youngs, "James wanted us to be engaged and I didn't."

She said Gallagher blackened an eye of Paul B. Andrew, 19, a student who was walking with her to history class, and slapped her.

Judge Youngs said, "A gentleman does not strike a lady," and ordered Gallagher, a student and son of a wealthy Salinas, Calif., lettuce packer, to work in the city garbage dumps for 10 days.

Grange Favors Continued Leaf Price Supports

Wilson, N.C., Oct. 28—(AP)—The North Carolina State Grange wants federal price support of tobacco to keep right on.

This sentiment was contained in one of more than 90 resolutions the Grange passed during a three-day convention which ended last night.

Among other things, the Grange asked for: establishment of a state veterinary school; broadening of North Carolina State College's agriculture work in the state; a $2,400 annual minimum for teachers holding a Class A certificate; legislative appropriations to construct and equip schools in all counties, and improvement of secondary roads.

'Dead-End' And Producer Booked In Narcotic Case

Hollywood, Oct. 28—(AP)—Actor Henry Hunt Hall, 36, onetime "Dead End Kid," and Ben Malzer, 34, who identified himself as a producer, were doing a little nocturnal digging in Hall's backyard, officers said.

Detectives M. C. Jacobsen and Ben Arredondo said Hall came up with four tobacco cans and they popped out from behind a tree.

The officers reported the cans contained marijuana which they valued at about $200.

Hall and Malzer were booked today on suspicion of violating the state narcotics act. Malzer was released on a writ of habeas corpus.

Births In State Still Lead Death In Spite Of Drop

Raleigh, Oct. 28—(AP)—A slight increase in deaths and a drop in births in North Carolina this year as compared with last year was reported by the State Board of Health today.

The births, however, were still more than treble the number of deaths, the report showed.

During the first eight months of the year births totaled 14,008 and deaths 20,679 as compared with 75,143 births and 20,078 deaths in the same period last year.

Heart disease was blamed for 5,579 deaths this year compared with 4,945 in the period last year, and cancer caused 1,913 deaths compared with 1,750 last year.

Apologetic Over New Lock Fixed To Front Door

Casey, Ill., Oct. 28—(AP)—The Banner-Times, Casey's weekly newspaper, has a new lock (not look) for its front door—the first in more than 20 years.

The front door lock to the newspaper office was broken in 1926. The editor didn't get a new lock and the door was left unlocked, night and day. The only things ever missed from the office in the years since were a newspaper masthead and a few postal cards.

Now the Banner-Times has new walnut doors and a new lock was installed. The Banner-Times was somewhat apologetic about the new lock. In a story this week, it said: "It isn't that we don't trust you. But we probably will use the lock now that he have it."

Strength FOR THE DAY

TAKING CARE OF THE CHIPS

"Be well disposed toward your fellow men while you have a chance to be counseled a radio commentator recently. "Brush the chips off your shoulder before somebody knocks them off." This reminds me of the words of Jesus: "Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him..." Most bickering and quarrelling can be averted if we will have it so. We get chips knocked off our shoulders because we carry chips on our shoulders — sometimes on both shoulders.

Whether children still put chips on their shoulders and dare others to knock them off is something the present writer would not know. But all of us who are middle-aged or beyond remember the variety of pugnacious lad who used to put a chip on his shoulder and dare anyone to knock it off.

He has grown up today to be the husband who is hard to get along with, or the chap in the office who keeps everyone in a dither, or the bossing man who always has a feud with his buddy who operates an adjacent machine. Women are offenders in this line as often as men. In fact the woman with a chip on her shoulder often bears out the contention that the female of the species is more deadly than the male.

Brush off the chips before you get them knocked off. This is good advice for individuals, organizations, and nations.

AT LEAST THEY HAVE STANDARDS

It has been a long time since a Republican candidate has received from Southern editors the support Dewey is enjoying in the current campaign.

Three North Carolina newspapers, the Charlotte News, the Charlotte Observer and the High Point Enterprise have joined many other Southern papers in out and out endorsements of the Republican national ticket.

Even though this has caused a great headache to the Democratic party leaders in the South and is not advocated by the newspapers which are sticking by the party, it is gratifying at least to those who admire and respect the freedom and spirit of the press to see that these papers which have withdrawn their support from President Truman have not once given his civil rights stand as the principal reason for such action.

The papers without exception have based their decisions and stands on the much broader issues which concern the country's domestic and foreign policies, rather than attempting to lead the people of their communities along the pathways dimly lit by sectional biases and racial prejudice.

Carolina democracy, nobody knows. It was significant that at the Kingston affair recognition was taken of the inseparable relationship of politics, business and the every day normal pursuits of the people. The occasion provided proof that while the political situation has been paramount this year, railroads and farms and factories will continue to do their job regardless of outcome of the election.

EMBLEM—Speaking of the number of pigs which have died to provide the barbecue for hungry politicians, recalls the remark of L. Y. (Stag) Ballentine. As lieutenant governor and candidate for commissioner of agriculture, Ballentine has attended as many barbecue meetings as any man in the state this year. He suggests that the emblem of the Democratic party might well be changed, certainly so far as North Carolina is concerned, from the jackass to the pig. He thinks the pig has contributed more to party welfare than all the jackasses and mules in the state.

APPRECIATION—Governor Cherry paid a surprise visit to the highway commission during its monthly meeting this week to express in person his sincere appreciation of the job the commission has done during the past three years. The governor was liberal in commendation, and insisted that he meant it to apply to every person in highway department employment from the assembled commissioners down to the lowliest laborer on the roads. When Chairman Sandy Graham escorted the governor into the room, some of the commissioners showed concern. They recalled that on other occasions his excellency had appeared and almost read the riot act to them about necessity for more attention to secondary and country roads. They were all the more pleased when he handed out such high praise for achievement.

REVIEW—The governor briefly reviewed experiences of the present commission, organized in May of 1945, with war time shortages plus unusually bad weather. He said that within the past two and a half years more miles of road have been improved, more money has been spent on bridges and more bridges built, than in any comparable period in state history. He said he was surprised himself to find how much had been done, and also to learn that, when contracts already had been completed, there will not be a mile of road in the state which carries as many as 200 cars a day that will not be surfaced.

PLEASURE—These top level fellows apparently all had a good time, but enjoyed the affair no more than the thousand or so just run of mine folks who came to mix with the crowd and eat the free barbecue.

SIGNIFICANT—From the time the primary campaign opened early last spring until now there has hardly been a day when a political barbecue feed was not going on somewhere in the state. How many there have been, how many folks have attended, and how many pigs have given their lives for North

New York—(AP)—Mad trappers, treacherous Indians and claim-jumping gold prospectors aren't causing the royal Canadian mounted police much trouble these days.

But scientists are. "They go into the wilds to study the caribou or the habits of the natives," said Inspector William Dick. "Often they don't have the proper gear, and when they get lost we have to go and get them out."

Inspector Dick is here with 32 of his mounties to put on a riding demonstration at the National horse show in Madison Square Garden, Nov. 2 to 9.

The Canadian Mountie of fact today leads a busier but less romantic life than the Mountie of fiction.

There are only 3,500. And they have to enforce Dominion law over a tremendous area of 3,462,102 square miles with a population of more than 12,600,000.

It isn't easy to be a Mountie. "Of the last 6,000 applicants only 357 were accepted," said Inspector Dick, a rugged veteran of 40 who spent six years with the Canadian army overseas.

"We get them from all walks of life, but some of our best Mounties have been farm boys. They seem to know how to take care of themselves better."

Every Mountie still has to learn to ride a horse and shoot a gun, but he also has to study some 65 technical subjects during his eight to nine-month training course. He starts his career at $3.50 a day plus food, clothing and quarters. There is an extra allowance for married men, and they get a pension after 25 years.

Most Mounties now travel by patrol car. If they need a horse in the field they rent it—from a farmer or a riding academy.

"We have 183 horses, but they are used only for training purposes," smiled the Inspector.

"We still place much importance on equestrianism. A man finds his own level on a horse. If he's timid the horse will show it up. And riding helps build a man's self-confidence."

Only volunteers are accepted for the arduous two-year tour of duty on far northern patrol. A Mountie gets fifty cents a day extra on such a job and may travel 2,000 miles a year by foot, canoe and dog sled.

"His chief duties are to collect fur taxes, enforce game laws, look after the welfare of the natives and supervise the $5 a month payment every child in Canada gets until he is 16," said the Inspector. "There isn't much crime up there."

The R. C. M. P. also has six airplanes and 82 vessels for customs patrol work and rescues at sea. There are a number of Mounties stationed abroad to screen prospective immigrants.

"The biggest problem along the International border? Cigarettes smuggled from the United States. 'Cigarettes sold for 35 cents a pack in Canada,' Dick said. "Mounties also do highway patrol work—but they don't set traps for speeders."

"That would be unpopular," the Inspector grinned.

One sign that Canada has tamed down—just like the American wild west.

"We haven't had a mad trapper since 1931," said Inspector Dick, "but in that time three babies have been born in the back seat of my car as the mothers were being taken to a hospital."

And he brought 'em all in alive, too. The Mounties get their man.

Washington—Socialites must be about ready for a bit of "shut-eye."

Most of the town's top-drawer citizens have taken in every one of a series of splashy "opening nights," each on the heels of the other.

First there was the opening concert of the National Symphony Orchestra, attended by an audience which only the national capital can offer. Top-ranking officials and diplomats, members of Congress and scores of prominent citizens of the town heard the brilliant program conducted by Dr. Hans Kindler, with solos by Fritz Kreisler. Almost everyone of importance in the Capital who was in town was on hand in full regalia. Many attended solo dinner parties before, and there were good after-symphony shindigs later.

Next most impressive function was the opening of the National Theater as a movie house. The lights were even brighter than they were in other years when the old playhouse was holding forth as the capital's sole haven for legitimate drama. As the big-wigs drove up in their limousines they were caught in the blinding glare of Klieg lights. The marquee was flanked by movie stars, and movie newsreels and television pickups from the front of the theater. This opening was sponsored by the Women's Advertising Club of Washington as a benefit for its various welfare projects.

The National abandoned its stage show policy with the end of last season because of an impasse between the management and Actor's Equity Association over the theater's ruling to bar Negroes.

As if all this weren't enough for one evening, the theater-goers later tracked over to the Mayflower Hotel, which was throwing its annual "Champagne and Orchids" opening of its cocktail lounge. Noted in the throng at the Mayflower were the Chief of Staff and Mrs. Omar Bradley and the Secretary of the Army and Mrs. Kenneth Royall who were guests of Princess Halim of Egypt. The Princess is staying in Washington while her children are attending school in this country.

She wore black velvet for the occasion, with superb diamonds. In addition to all these gongs-on there were numerous fancy receptions, dinners and cocktail parties at the various embassies around town. This all within a week—and the season's only starting!

Since 1930, regular grade gasoline has increased from 60 to 76 octane number.

Girl Scout Week To Begin Sunday

Sunday, Oct. 31 will mark opening of Girl Scout Week, when the Girl Scouts of Greenville will join a million and a half members of their organization throughout the nation to honor the memory of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Gordon Low. Sunday is designated as "Go-to-Church Day" for all Scouts. Since the number of girls in Scouting in Greenville will tax the seating capacity of any one of the local churches in addition to the regular Sunday congregation, the troops will worship in the churches of their leaders respectively.

Juliette Gordon Low was born in Savannah, Ga., on October 31, 1860. She spent the early years of her life in the "tense atmosphere of that war-torn southern city during the Civil War."

Mrs. Low lived a romantic and adventurous life. She loved activity and had an immense capacity for living. She traveled extensively and made friends wherever she went. After her marriage in 1886 to William Low, the son of a wealthy Englishman, she made many trips back to her native country, always arriving and leaving in a flurry of excitement which seemed to be a natural part of her being. Her keen intellect, genuine interest in people, and charming personality won for her the distinction of being one of the most gracious hostesses in London society.

After her husband's death she lost interest in social affairs and directed all her efforts to promoting Girl Scouting. In the meantime she had returned to her native state to make her home and passed away in Savannah, Ga., in January, 1927.

Grange Members Take Up World Tobacco Outlook

Wilson, N.C., Oct. 28—(AP)—Members of the North Carolina Grange today turned their attention to the world's tobacco situation.

Present to give the latest developments on export plans for the leaf were two tobacco specialists, J. B. Hutson and J. B. Thigpen.

Both Hutson, president of Tobacco Associates, Inc., and Thigpen, the U.S. Agriculture Department's tobacco chief, spoke on the outlook for the big North Carolina crop.

The national master of the farm organization, holding its annual convention here, last night urged international planning of crops so that the world might be fed adequately.

Albert S. Goss, who represents the Grange on the public advisory board for the Marshall Plan, said in effect that America's farm program must be designed to promote the growth of crops which will increase commerce between the world's nations.

Pirates Poised For Single Wing Aerial Plays Tonight

Coaches Have Been Smoothing Out Attack For Possible Use Against Strong Duke Jayvees Here Tonight

The Pirates of East Carolina Teachers college poised today to meet tonight's invasion by the Jayvees of Duke University.

Yesterday the Buccaneers closed out their practice session with light drills, emphasizing being placed on pass defense and kicking.

With a record of five straight losses the Pirates are looking toward their second home appearance as possibly the game which will see them break into the win column.

Coaches here will know however that the Duke coaches have an unlimited supply of material and could send a team stronger than anything the locals have faced all season.

The local squad is expecting a team which the Duke coaches feel will be "just a little bit better" than the Pirates. A good ball game is thus anticipated.

Coach Jim Johnson, in prepping his boys for tonight's tilt, this week scrimmaged with his boys to show them clearly the mistakes they have made in previous games. He reports that the squad is "looking much better on blocking now" and hopes the Pirates will be able to make up for in determination what they lack in material when they play the Duke "B" team.

Local fans will probably get to see the Pirates try some passes from the single wing tonight. This week the coaches have been smoothing over some single wing aerial plays and Johnson said they may use some tonight.

Wake Forest, Oct. 28 — Halfback Bill Greaves has the best individual ball carrying average on the Wake Forest eleven which plays host to N.C. State here Saturday at 2:30 o'clock in Groves Stadium. Greaves has gained 394 yards in 65 carries for an average gain of six yards.

When football first appeared in England in the 11th Century, there were as many as 100 players on a side.

FRANKIE ALBERT HAS TOSSED TOUCHDOWN PASSES IN 14 CONSECUTIVE GAMES

The San Francisco 49ers have in Frankie Albert just about the best T formation quarterback in football and the former Stanford ace is having the best season of his career in the play-for-pay circles.

There are nearly a dozen pro football records within Albert's reach this season and it is quite likely that the juggernaut which Coach Buck Shaw has assembled will see to it that Frankie clears the slate.

While the 49ers were handing the Yankees a second beating this season Albert pitched a scoring pass to Johnny Strykowski to keep alive his personal scoring record of having tossed at least one touchdown in 14 straight games.

The 49ers shape up as the team to beat in the All-American Conference. It is the aim of Owner Tony Maribito to build the most powerful football machine in the pro game. The team was coming along last fall but Coach Shaw was not satisfied to sit back and be satisfied with normal improvement. The club grabbed off several promising coast newcomers and those freshmen have been paying off handsomely. The success of the rookies has served to arouse some of the established veterans who, after they got over the shock the youngsters steal their thunder, pitched in with new enthusiasm. The 49ers not only shape up as a standard team this year but solid building assures a bright future for the club.

Stagg Is 86, But Football Magic Still Runs Strong

Sellingsgrove, Pa., Oct. 29 — (AP) — A white-haired man of 86, whose life revolves around an inflated pig-skin is working football magic at Susquehanna University.

The magician is Amos Alonzo Stagg, Sr., the grand old man of the gridiron.

In spite of the fact that the Crusaders have won only a single game so far this year, Stagg is the campus idol.

And one enthusiastic fan sums it up this way: "The boys look so doggone good while they're losing, it's almost as much fun as seeing them win."

The remedy is a tribute to the wizardry of the Stagg family board of strategy. The board includes Stagg, his son, Amos Alonzo, Jr., co-coach at Susquehanna, and Mrs. Stagg, Sr., who is chief critic.

After winning his first game this year, Susquehanna has since dropped the last three in a row. But Stagg, Sr., is not even mildly perturbed.

We have a good fighting bunch of boys," he declared, adding that "our team is very light and we have been riddled by injuries."

Although now is his 59th year of active coaching, Stagg still finds it easy to get excited about new plays dreamed up in his spare time.

Stagg and his son have been developing a new offensive system the past two years which had made a tremendous hit with Susquehanna fans.

Stagg described it as a practical "T," but you'd have to see it in action to fully appreciate its complexity. It is based on a bewildering razzle-dazzle of backfield Leger-dan. Passing is accented with a tackle often pulled out of the line to act as receiver. The fans love it.

Charles Ewart, general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League, was a special agent for the FBI during the war.

Gene Bearden Is American League Rookie Of Year

New York, Oct. 29 — (AP) — Gene Bearden, the stylish southpaw pitcher of the Cleveland Indians, joined Shortstop Al Dark of the Boston Braves as the major leagues' No. 1 rookies of 1948.

Bearden yesterday was given the American League distinction in a nationwide poll conducted by the Associated Press.

The 29-year-old native of Leila, Ark., who now makes his home in Los Angeles, had much stiffer competition than Dark, who was named on 180 of the 220 ballots. The knuckleball artist received 90 votes to nose out Billy Goodman, Boston Red Sox first baseman, by two votes.

Nine other players received support. Lou Brissie, southpaw pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, ranked third with 15 votes. Satchel Paige, Cleveland's legendary Negro pitcher, was fourth with 12.

No other player received more than four votes. Bob Porterfield, New York Yankees' pitcher, got four; Mel Parnell, Red Sox left-hander, three; George Vico, Detroit first baseman; Larry Doby, Cleveland outfielder, and Johnny Ligon, Tiger shortstop, two each; and First Baseman Hank Artt and Pitcher Ned Garver, both of the St. Louis Browns, one.

Doby was not listed among the eligible for rookie honors since he played in a sufficient number of games to qualify in 1947. That, undoubtedly, was the reason for his low total. All ballots were in at least a week before the end of the regular campaign, so the World Series could have had no influence on Bearden's vote.

The handsome, curly-haired ex-sailor gained the award because of his consistently fine pitching all season. He finished with a record of 20 victories and only seven defeats.

The Duke Junior Varsity composed of freshmen arrived this afternoon to battle the ECTO Pirates tonight in a non-conference tilt. Both teams will be seeking their first win.

Shot Cox and his Tarboro eleven will be seeking their first win Friday night in New Bern. Tarboro will still be seeking. New Bern over Tarboro by 3 touchdowns.

The Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jackets play host to the Washington Pam Pack at Roanoke Rapids. The Pam Pack who suffered their first defeat last week to Elizabeth City will be out to win by a score. But according to Danny Cagel, Coach at Roanoke Rapids, the Yellow Jackets will upset the Pam Pack. J'll string along with the Pam Pack. Washington over Roanoke Rapids by 6 points.

Led by Leonard Bullock, Ayden went through Warsaw to the tune of 56 to 6. Bullock had a hand in all eight touchdowns that Ayden scored. Coach Jim Johnson of East Carolina College says, "Bullock handles the ball from the quarterback post better than any high school ball player that I have ever seen." "His passing ability was superbly demonstrated as he passed to ends Bob Holland and Billy Jenkins."

In last night's game Ayden's first eleven suffered a severe blow as Jimmy McCormick received a broken arm. McCormick occupied half-back on the first string. He will be out the rest of the season.

MacDonald Hardee, third string half back, displayed his ability by running the ball 10 yards in seven attempts. On Ayden's sixth touchdown, the shifty little half-back shook off several men and dashed 34 yards for a TD.

Coach Jim Mallory of Elon again sent his Christians through rough work yesterday afternoon in a drive to be ready for the game with Newport News Navy Apprentice tomorrow.

N. C. Railroads May Hike Rates

Raleigh, Oct. 29—(AP)—Railroads serving North Carolina may increase their intrastate freight rates the equivalent of another five percent, according to an application approved yesterday by the State Utilities Commission.

However, the carriers appeal for similar increases for pulpwood and road aggregates—sand, gravel, and stone—were turned down.

Officially, the new increase was granted as an amendment to a previous interim increase of 20 percent. It was a "general increase x x x of approximately 25 percent" replacing the "interim increase of 20 percent." This gave the railroads an increase of five percent.

The commission said pulpwood was exempted from the order because rates on "that commodity are still the subject of investigation."

As for road aggregates, the commission said they were exempted because "increase as proposed might become unreasonable in relation to the extremely low value, low susceptibility to loss and damage x x x of those commodities."

The commission said it approved the higher rates so that the freight haulers would keep financially sound. The application for the increases was filed last April 27. The new rates may be made effective, the commission said, by filing and posting revised tariffs within the next five days.

Willie Pep Strong Favorite Tonight

New York, Oct. 29—(AP)—Sandy Saddler's two-year chase of Willie Pep ends tonight when he meets the featherweight champ for the title at Madison Square Garden. The books will give you 3 to 1 that Sandy will be sorry.

Willie, a strong favorite, has been chased by masters down through the years. In 138 fights only one has caught up with him. That was the old expert of the hit, and clutch—Sammy Angott—away back in 1943. An obscure gent, Jimmy McAllister, got away with a draw in his back yard at Baltimore in 1945.

The years may have slowed down Willie, now 26, but there is no proof. So far this year he has 18 for 18 and is still adding on a winning streak that numbers 44 since the McAllister draw.

Up around Pep's home in Hartford, Conn., they tell you that the 22-year-old Saddler will be the toughest opponent the champ ever faced. That remains to be seen.

Saddler's record, although impressive, does not compare with Pep's. Sandy has knocked out 63 of 93 foes but he's lost six times. One loss was to Chico Rosa on a disputed split decision at Honolulu last June 30. Another was to Humberto Sierra, a Cuban who was starched by Pep at Miami last February.

Munger Declares 'Goliath' Shakey

Philadelphia, Oct. 29—(AP)—Goliath is quaking in his boots says Penn Coach George Munger in discussing Saturday's game between his power packed squad and little Washington and Lee.

But if there was any quaking on the Penn practice field it was a quaking of the earth as Co-Captain Chuck Bednarik led his teammates through a workout.

Penn practiced knocking down and intercepting passes in anticipation of Washington and Lee's aerial attack. The Penn linemen also worked on a specialty—blocking kicks.

Scribes' Dream

Emporia, Kas.—(AP)—Football is noted for jaw-breaking names, but College of Emporia offers a change this year. On the Fighting Presby squad are Don Ek fullback from Dwight, Kas., and George Ke and end from Honolulu, Hawaii.

In two National Football League games against the Washington Redskins in 1937, the Philadelphia Eagles could make only four first downs.

Keeping Rain Out Courthouse Is No Secret

By CHESTER WALSH

The superintendent of construction for the V. P. Loftis Company, Charlotte contractors, making the alterations, repairs and improvements on the courthouse, answered a question today that is asked by many passersby going to and from the postoffice. Many wanted to know how the rain could be kept out while the tile roofing is being removed from the building. Incidentally, each piece of tile on the courthouse weighs six and one-half pounds and, altogether, there was 72 tons of tile on the roof and it was disintegrating and crumbling with age. Workmen on the project are attaching heavy weatherproof tarp paper on the roof as they remove the tile, and the top of the building will be rain-proof.

Incidentally, the improvements being made on the interior of the building will result in much convenience for the occupants. The plans for the improvement job include providing rest rooms upstairs for women jurors; making of the extensive space in the basement habitable for office workers; lowering of the courtroom ceiling to improve acoustics and a general painting on the inside and outside of the building. Connection by stairs of the court clerk's and the register of deeds' offices with the basement, where some offices will be set up, will provide additional conveniences and facilitate transaction of business.

The contract for improvements at the courthouse is about $85,000. This included replacing of the rusted out galvanized iron cornices on the top of the building with copper. The roofing job was contracted for after the original contract was awarded. This will be extra. The old tile on top of the building will be replaced by copper sheathing.

PONTIAC

Even Better than it Looks!

When we tell you that a Pontiac is even better than it looks, we know we are making a strong statement about Pontiac quality. But here is an automobile so thoroughly good that there is no practical limit to its usefulness, if it is given the proper kind of routine care.

Here is a car so good that even its second and third owners pay it compliments. Here is a car so good that its dependability lasts on and on while the speedometer registers almost unbelievable mileage.

Here is a car so good that owners say they prefer its performance to that of any car they have ever driven, regardless of cost. And here is a car so good that its price on a used car lot is often more than the price of cars which cost far more when new.

In short, here is a car so good that it would make you very happy—on every count! Please remember this when you order your next car—and order a Pontiac... the car that is always good, and is always getting better and better.

Mischief Side-Tracked By Halloween Youngsters

Mentor, O., Oct. 22—(AP)—Mischief steps aside for mercy this year as Mentor youngsters celebrate Halloween.

Costumed children punch door-bells on trick-or-treat tours of this village of 1,800 in traditional Halloween style. But loot sacks they carry are stuffed with things for a needy Finnish community instead of the customary candy, nuts and other goodies.

The kids themselves thought up the idea of collecting spoils, thread, needles, buttons and other small useful articles as they make their rounds. They wanted to help in Mentor's campaign to aid the 3,600 people—many of them displaced persons—in Suolahti, a town in central Finland.

Under the leadership of the Mentor Civic Club, this Lake County town "adopted" Suolahti several weeks ago, and now the whole community has rallied behind the idea. The object is not simply relief, but to establish friendly relations with the Finnish community.

The children's Halloween parade here Saturday night will open a month of planned activities to help Suolahti, including a concert, a benefit football game and a Suolahti Thanksgiving dance with Finnish groups from Airport, dressed in costumes of their native land, performing in folk dances.

Nash Estate Is Over $43 Million

Los Angeles, Oct. 22—(AP)—The estate of Charles W. Nash, pioneer automobile builder, is appraised at $43,183,624, making it one of the largest ever probated here. The official appraisal was filed yesterday.

Nash was 84 when he died last June 6. Most of the estate was left in trust for the benefit of his daughters, Mrs. Ruth N. Bliss, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., and Mrs. Mae N. Brenton, Beverly Hills, Calif.

For growth, plants need carbon, oxygen, hydrogen, calcium, iron, magnesium, nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, and sulfur, and sometimes traces of other elements.

Curved Windshield in '49 Nash

The new 1949 Nash "Airdyne" cars feature a one-piece curved safety glass windshield, "Airdyne" and designed to minimize glare. Elimination of the conventional divided windshield greatly increases visibility. The front grille, a massive racing-type air scoop, conforms to the new broad low hood.

Mr. Boris Karloff as Brink and David Anderson as Pud, portray leading roles in ON BORROWED TIME, to be presented on the Episcopal Church's radio program GREAT SCENES FROM GREAT PLAYS, Friday, October 29 at 8 P.M., EST. From this beautiful play, the Church draws a message of importance to every hearer, especially to hearers who do not belong to any Christian Church. Heard on all Mutual Broadcasting System stations.

This is the fifth broadcast in the series sponsored by the Episcopal families of St. Paul's Church, Greenville, which will be heard over station WOTC tonight.

Army Carries On With Executions

Munich, Germany, Oct. 22—(AP)—Nine more Germans convicted of war atrocities were hanged today as the U.S. Army went ahead with the executions of Nazis despite church protests.

Today's executions brought to 29 the number of Germans sent to the gallows at Landsberg Prison since Oct. 15. They have been hanged in groups of nine or 10 on three successive Fridays. A 10th man scheduled to die today won a last-minute stay of execution.

Four of those hanged today shot unarmed American fliers who had bailed out of damaged planes. The other five had tortured concentration camp inmates to death.

Church leaders have criticized U.S. war crimes trial methods and have asked a halt in the executions pending re-examination of every case awaiting execution.

A new protest was registered last night by Dr. Theophil Wurm, Evangelical Church bishop, who told a Stuttgart news conference an appeals court should be set up for

Two 'Errors'

Port Arthur, Ont., Oct. 22—(AP) Paul Martin, 23, was sentenced to two years in prison yesterday on a charge of stealing $1,105 from a bank.

Testimony showed that the $1,105 credited to Martin's bank account through a teller's error. Within 20 days, and before the error was discovered, Martin had withdrawn all but $3.11.

war crimes cases.

Originally 139 convicted war criminals were slated for execution here. The names of 45 have been removed from the list temporarily pending a review of their cases by Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

Red Oak News

The Hymn Festival, sponsored by the Piney Grove, Mt. Pleasant, Bell Arthur, Sweet Gum Grove, Reedy Branch, King's Cross Roads and Red Oak churches, will be held in the Stokes High School auditorium Sunday afternoon, October 31 at 3 o'clock with Sweet Gum Grove Church as host. Special numbers will be rendered by the choirs of the churches mentioned and community singing by the audience will be enjoyed. If you want to enjoy a feast of good music, come and be our guest.

Soviets Salvage Hitler's Steel

Berlin—(AP)—The Russians, who have already removed the marble from Hitler's ruined Reich Chancellery, are now taking its steel ceiling struts.

The pink marble from chancellery walls and granite from its foundations went into construction of huge Red Army war memorials. The steel is to be used in construction of a theater at Karlshorst, headquarters of the Soviet military administration.

Don't Let Poor Appetite Starve And Weaken You

Step Up Your Appetite and Build Up Your Strength By Taking Retonga.

Poor appetite starves your muscles and nerves and saps your strength. You soon feel so miserably weak, fagged-out, and fretful, that you can hardly drag yourself through the day.

Take Retonga and see how fast your appetite perks up and how you again enjoy every mouthful of delicious food. See how you gain strength, energy, and stamina; how much stronger you feel and look.

Retonga's special formula of herbs, roots, and barks, combined with Vitamin B-1, steps up the flow of vital stomach juices which increase appetite and improve digestion. This famous gastric tonic also promptly relieves that weakened, worn down feeling, nagging muscular aches, sluggish bowels, sleepless nights, and nerve-wrecking fretfulness and irritability.

Don't go on starving yourself and feeling miserably weakened without organic reason. Take Retonga with this iron-clad guarantee: If the first bottle fails to help you eat, sleep, feel and look better, its small price will be gladly refunded. Don't wait! You can get Retonga at Bissette's Drug Store. (Adv.)

Jaycees Sponsor Broadway Play Here December 6

By CHESTER WALSH

The Greenville Junior Chamber of Commerce, at its bi-monthly supper meeting at the Olde Towne Inn last night, used the program period for discussion of plans for future community achievements; heard a report from Howard Hodges, chairman of the sponsoring committee for the recent football game between East Carolina Teachers College and Western Carolina Teachers College at Guy Smith Stadium, stating that the gridiron contest netted a substantial profit for the college athletic fund; heard numerous suggestions from members about present and future activities; enjoyed a period of fellowship during mealtime; inducted three new members; manifested a spirit of loyal support of the Community Chest Drive, which ends Saturday, and then the meeting moved into dramatics. President B. S. Sugg, Jr., presided.

The Junior Chamber is sponsoring the presentation of "The Glass Menagerie," by Tennessee Williams a delightful play that had a two-year run in New York City. The play will be presented by the Original New York cast at East Carolina Teachers College on Monday December 6.

The three new members inducted were George Shoe, building con-

Labor Unrest in Italy Continues

Rome, Oct. 29—(AP)—Two general strikes began in Italian provinces today, but one of them was called off within a few hours.

The strike in Florence province ended when agreement was reached between union representatives and management of a manufacturing firm.

The Communist - led Florence Chamber of Labor had called the general walkout to protest the lay-off of 200 workers in the plant two weeks ago. Labor leaders said management has agreed to take the workers back.

The other strike at Reggio Emilia province was scheduled to run from noon to midnight.

McGrath also recognized recently elected leaders and the executive committee of the group as the "regular Democratic committee in the State of South Carolina."

First DP's . . .

Why only those 40,000 in three years if now this country will admit 205,000 in the two years between July 1, 1948 and June 30, 1950?

Those 40,000 immigrants came in under the U.S. quota system, which has been in effect since long before the war, and still is in effect.

The quota system means: only a certain number of immigrants can come here in any one year from any one country.

The quota from Western European countries is far higher than that from Eastern Europe.

So only those 40,000 could qualify under the quotas. But continuing to let in only that small number would not solve the DP problem.

After last June, when Congress decided to let in 205,000 within two years, the regular immigration of DP's under the quota system stopped. No DP's have arrived since then. The $13 coming tomorrow are the first under the new DP law.

To get in here, each DP must be checked: He must have a guarantee of a home and job when he gets here; and he must be able to comply with the regular immigration laws, meaning he must be healthy, able to read and so on.

cated they are satisfied to remain as independent dominions. India's loss would be the biggest blow. Her wealth of natural resources, strategic position and 250,000,000 people make her potentially the most important member of the world-wide association. South Africa has its own problem. Feeling between settlers of British stock and descendants of Dutch colonizers has long been divided over Commonwealth membership. Last spring a nationalist government led by Afrikaners who talked about parting from Britain came to power with a narrow majority.

But Premier D. F. Malan has shown little inclination to agitate for withdrawal from the Commonwealth. Fear that communist influence might cause unrest among South Africa's overwhelming native population has lined up the Malan government solidly with Britain in opposing communism.

comb of West Virginia.

He looks for gains, he said, in the election of Republicans Patrick J. Hurley in New Mexico and Tom Davis in Montana.

While Townsend didn't say so, it was evident Dewey's lieutenants think the GOP will lose a seat in Oklahoma. Neither do they expect to upset Democratic Senators Edwin C. Johnson in Colorado nor Theodore F. Green in Rhode Island.

Raleigh, Oct. 29—(AP)—(NCDA)—Fryers and broilers steady to slightly stronger at 33-34; eggs steady, A large 64.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, Oct. 29—(AP)—Demand for stocks perked up in the market after a slow downward drift in early dealings. Buying enthusiasm was nothing to get excited about but it was enough to cancel many morning losses and drive a good handful of issues into the plus column.

Trading was strictly professional. Caution was dictated, according to one interpretation of the market, by a desire to await outcome of the presidential elections. Other quarters claimed the market was taking a rest after a long rise.
