Mukden Taken By Communist Army

Manchuria's Greatest City Said In Control Of Reds; Chiang Kai-shek In Nanking; Recent Setbacks May Decide War's Outcome

Nanking, Oct. 30—(AP)—Communist troops fell upon Mukden, Manchuria's greatest city, and wrested it from the armies of Chiang Kai-shek today, usually reliable sources said.

Reports from the battlefield said the Reds were in complete control of the city, which is the site of China's largest arsenal.

Whereabouts of the garrison commander, Gen. Wei Li-huang, was unknown here.

His troops last were reported trying to fight their way southward from the city. Their objective was not clear in Nanking but it was believed they were trying to reach one of two evacuation ports in Manchuria—Yingkow and Hulutao, both on the Gulf of Chihli and about 100 miles south of Mukden.

Large forces on both sides have been engaged in a see-saw battle for the past 72 hours in the Mukden area. More than 400,000 men were reported committed to battle.

The National Government has been plagued with large scale defections of troops in past months. It was considered likely some of those in 12 divisions the Communists said they captured near Mukden earlier this week deserted.

Chiang Kai-shek himself flew here late in the day from his field headquarters at Peiping, where he had been directing the north operations since Oct. 15.

His arrival was considered by observers to mean drastic developments had sent him rushing back here.

Official military sources have not confirmed the fall of Mukden. Its loss, immediately upon the heels of the loss of Tsinan, Chefoo and Changchun, would hit the Chiang regime hard.

The National capital was stunned by Chiang's failure to recoup his sagging military fortunes in the north, and many high Chinese and foreign sources agreed that the Chinese civil war had been decided.

Fighting, they agreed, may continue for months. But they said, efforts to defeat the Communists on a national scale have ended—killed by the spiritless, tired Government armies which were no longer willing to resist, much less attack.

Dewey Winds Up Campaign With Address Tonight

Last Big Speech In Madison Square Garden To Stress Unity Program

New York, Oct. 30—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey winds up his second presidential campaign tonight, apparently confident he will more than double President Truman's electoral vote next Tuesday.

The Republican nominee sums up his "unity" program in a Madison Square Garden speech, to be broadcast from 9:30 to 10 p.m. (EST) over the National Broadcasting Company network.

It was in the same setting in 1944 that Dewey said an unwilling—if temporary—goodbye to his presidential hopes.

But the 15,000-mile, 170-speech trail that leads to the Garden tonight turns toward the White House next week—in the opinion of Dewey, his lieutenants and many political observers.

The New York governor will go on the air for five minutes Monday night, but only to give a heavy vote turnout.

Tonight's final bid for support is expected to produce new promises of cooperation in the field of foreign and domestic affairs with the Republican Congress he hopes will be elected.

Unless he alters pace at the last moment, the Republican nominee again will blame a "fumbling" Truman Administration for the failure to attain a lasting peace.

On the domestic front he is likely to offer broadened social security benefits, a "house cleaning" of Communist government economy, housing aid and possible changes in the Taft-Hartley Act.

Since he started active campaigning Sept. 29, Dewey has been seen by and has talked to possibly one-tenth of the 80,000,000 voters who may go to the polls next Tuesday.

His drive has been confined to 26 of the 48 states and concentrated, where possible, in areas where there are critical Senate races.

Dewey's lieutenants now contend the Republicans will hold the 51 to 45 margin they have over the Democrats in the Senate. They consider the House safe and thus say they feel sure of a Republican Congress.

Order Arabs And Israeli To Again Cease Fighting

UN Spokesmen Report Attack By Jews In Northern Part Of Holy Land

Paris, Oct. 30—(AP)—The United Nations today ordered Israeli and Arab troops to cease firing in the northern part of the Holy Land where fighting blazed yesterday.

U. N. spokesmen in Haifa reported an attack by Israeli forces in the north, preceded by aerial bombardment. The U. N. staff said Jewish planes dropped leaflets proclaiming this to be an attack "to liberate all Palestine."

Brig. Gen. William Riley, head of the U. N. truce observers, set the truce time for noon, Greenwich mean time, today, but the U. N. here said both Israelis and Arabs demanded guarantees that the other side would observe such an order before either would accept.

The order was communicated to Tel Aviv and Beirut, Lebanon. There was no immediate word here whether it had been accepted.

Dispatches from Palestine said heavy fighting continued in the area. This added a new complication to the already tangled Holy Land situation. The U. N. has made a cease fire order effective in the disputed Negev desert area of the south. The Israelis, however, have refused to give up territory they took in battling with the Egyptians and return to positions of October 14, when fighting erupted there.

U. N. observers in Palestine said the Jews attacked Lebanese forces between Tarbikha and Hulen, after aerial bombardment, at dawn yesterday. The observers said it could be assumed this attack was in retaliation against Arab forces who had taken positions east of the truce line recently. Riley lodged a protest with the Israeli government.

In his new order Riley told the Lebanese and Israelis they both must halt the fighting before any question of guarantees could be considered. He said his observers on both sides would attempt to bring local commanders together for negotiations.

Bartenders Will Be Baby-Sitters On Election Day

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 30—(AP)—About 100 Decatur union bartenders will be available for baby sitting jobs next Tuesday, Election Day.

Mothers wanting a sitter so they can go to the polls can get a bartender as baby sitter at Local 23 Bartenders, Hotel and Restaurant employes Union.

R. K. Young, union business agent, said the bartenders agreed to offer their services because they will be idle. By state law saloons are closed in Illinois during the time the polls are open on Election Day.

Failed To File

Detroit, Oct. 30—(AP)—Democrats hastened today—with the cooperation of Republicans—to see to it that President Truman's name is on Michigan's ballots Tuesday.

The Democratic party in Michigan, it developed suddenly, had failed to file its certified list of 19 presidential electors with the secretary of state's office.

Democratic leaders here said it would be attended to promptly. In the meantime Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., who is a Republican, promised to keep his office open for the formal filing.

He obliged, he said, in view of the assumption that the courts would not approve the disfranchisement of voters because of a technical oversight.

The law requires filing of the electors 25 days before election day.

Spend Far More Than Democrats

Over 15 Times As Much Spent By GOP In Congress Races

Washington, Oct. 30—(AP)—The Republican party has spent more than 15 times as much money on House and Senate campaigns as the Democratic party.

Final pre-election financial reports filed with Congress show that GOP Senate and House campaign committees spent $715,740 up to Thursday, compared with a Democratic total of $46,999.

The committees' reports did not include all money collected and spent by the candidates themselves nor money spent on congressional campaigns by other groups such as labor unions. The statements covered only what was collected and spent by the party on its House and Senate candidates.

The full campaign-spending story will not be told until the end of the year, when all political groups are required to file their annual financial statements. Candidates must file their own final reports within 30 days after next Tuesday's election.

The home-stretch figures also showed the Republican national committee ahead of its Democratic counterpart on spending.

Election Echoes Reverberate At Meeting Of UN

Long Weekend Holiday Voted As Diplomats Wait To See Outcome In U.S.

Paris, Oct. 30—(AP)—The tumult of the American election reverberated in the nearly-empty meeting halls of the United Nations today as the world body prepared for an extra-long weekend holiday.

Discussion of nearly all major issues came to a halt as the delegates, including Americans, waited to see who will be the next president of the United States and what the Security Council will have to do in the coming days.

By a fortunate circumstance the U. N. virtually was forced to call a holiday for Monday just at a time when discretion called for one Monday, All Saints Day, is a national holiday in France and the U. N. is taking the day off. The following day is Election Day in the United States.

Top-ranking American diplomats scattered for the weekend. Secretary of State Marshall went to London on what U.S. embassy spokesmen in London said was a "purely personal and private visit."

John Foster Dulles, member of the U.S. delegation and foreign affairs adviser to GOP Presidential Candidate Thomas E. Dewey went to Scandinavia. Dr. Philip Jessup, U.S. Deputy in the Security Council left on a visit to Berlin and Frankfurt.

Informed, British sources said Marshall probably would meet with Prime Minister Attlee and Foreign Secretary Bevin to discuss coordination of the British and American policies on Palestine.

Peru's President Goes Into Exile

Leader Of Successful Revolt Promises Early Election

Lima, Peru, Oct. 30—(AP)—Jose Luis Bustamante, deposed as President of Peru by the army, left for exile in Chile early today.

Former Interior Minister Gen. Manuel Odría, leader of the successful three-day revolt, promised to hold Democratic elections as soon as possible in a broadcast from Arequipa, where the uprising broke out.

Brig. Zenon Noriega, commander of the second army division, was reported holding the reins of government temporarily. Odría is expected in Lima today to appoint a Junta and start a provisional government.

Campaigns For Presidency Now Enter 'Home Stretch'

Truman Pins Hopes On Big Vote Turnout

Final Major Political Talk In St. Louis Tonight; Predicts 60 Million Voters Will Upset Gallup Poll Reports

St. Louis, Oct. 30—(AP)—President Truman pinned his hopes for another term in the White House on a heavy vote as he sped homeward today on the last lap of a long and arduous campaign trail.

He takes his case to the people of his native Missouri tonight in a final major political talk at St. Louis. Then he goes to his big, white frame home on North Delaware street in Independence to await the nation's verdict.

There will be the traditional get-out-the-vote talk from his home Monday, but tonight is the wind-up of the campaign.

The President predicted a turnout of 60,000,000 voters next Tuesday in a talk at a Democratic rally in New York City last night.

A voice in the Queens hall shouted: "And there'll be fifty million of them for Truman."

The President chuckled loudly. "Well, there are 61,000,000 people at work," he said, "when they vote, they're going to throw the Gallup polls right into the ash can."

He referred to a public opinion poll showing Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, his GOP rival, in the lead.

That was the next to the last speech of series of tours of greater New York where he flashed his smile, waved his soft grey hat at a police estimated total of 3,500,000 persons in two days of campaigning.

The last, the 287th of the campaign, was at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn. He got a roaring reception in the streets and in the packed hall.

There was heavy emphasis there on Foreign Policy and a stout defense of his maneuvers in that field. He didn't mention the abandoned plan to send Chief Justice Vinson to Moscow to see Premier Stalin. Secretary of State Marshall had talked him out of it, but he said one of his jobs was to pierce the "Iron curtain and to get the truth across to the leaders of the Soviet Union."

'Winning The Peace' Appears Big Issue As Candidates Await Hour Of Decision At Ballot Box; Monday Reserved For 'Get-Out-The-Vote' Pleas

Washington, Oct. 30—(AP)—A win-the-peace presidential campaign comes to a roaring close in the home stretches of the major candidates tonight.

The hour of decision for upwards of 50,000,000 voters comes Tuesday at the ballot box. Briefly, their choice will be the man they think can do a better job at:

- 1. Bringing stability to a world weary of three years of shaky peace.
2. Holding inflation in check at home.

The Republican nominee, 46-year-old Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, tonight closes a campaign in Madison Square Garden that has taken him into every section of the country except the South.

In his second try for the presidency he has stressed a plea for unity. He says only a change in the administration at Washington can bring about government "competence" in domestic affairs and an unwavering drive for peace in foreign relations.

President Harry T. Truman, 64-year-old Democratic candidate, goes to St. Louis in his home state of Missouri for his final major speech tonight. His campaign has embraced all regions, the South included.

Trying for his first election to the White House in his own right, Mr. Truman has confined his campaign to an almost daily attack on what he calls the "do-nothing" 50th Congress for not enacting his domestic program. He has accused Dewey of dodging the issue.

Other main presidential candidates, Henry A. Wallace, Progressive and Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, States' Rights, also have campaigned extensively. But Thurmond has limited his drive mainly to the South where he has concentrated his fire against the President's civil rights program.

Besides those tickets, five other parties have candidates for the White House. They are: Socialist, Socialist Labor, Prohibition, Christian Nationalist Crusade and Socialist Workers. Two others, Greenback and Vegetarian, named candidates, but are not on any state ballot.

The voters also will elect 33 senators and as many governors—counting a GOP senator and governor elected in Maine September 13—and 431 House members—including three Maine Republicans already chosen.

Monday has been reserved for the traditional get-out-the-vote pleas. President Truman has predicted that around 60,000,000 men and women will cast ballots. Herbert Brownell, Jr., Dewey's campaign manager, places the total at about 52,000,000.

Back-To-Work In French Coal Pits

Clashes Subsiding As 301 Police, Troops Wounded

Paris, Oct. 30—(AP)—The Interior Ministry today said 301 French police and soldiers have been wounded to date battling Communist-led strikers in the struck coal fields, where violence appeared to be subsiding.

French miners were reported returning to work in increasing numbers under police and military protection as government forces drove pickets from 20 more strike-bound pits.

The Interior Ministry report said three strikers have been killed during the disorders and "many more" demonstrators hurt.

There were no further reports of clashes when government forces went into the Communist stronghold of Bruay this morning to take over two more pits.

Some 30,000 police and soldiers are operating in less than 900 square miles of the northern fields, which supply two-thirds of the nation's coal. Strikers still occupy about 112 pits in the region.

No figures were available as to how many miners actually are back on the job, but non-Communist union leaders have ordered all their followers to return to work. The non-Communist claim 150,000 of France's 335,000 miners.

Communist union leaders gave no verbal sign of weakening as the nationwide strike went into its 26th day, but their followers no longer are resting police and troops who ousted pickets from the pits.

Younger voters are "predominantly Democratic," he added, "and this year over 5,000,000 members of young Democratic clubs in the nation are helping bring to the polls some 25,000,000 eligible voters between the ages of 21 and 40."

N. C. Democrats Ask Big Turnout

YDC Called Upon To Push Effort For Million Voters At Polls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS North Carolina Democrats, driving for a vote of 1,000,000 in Tuesday's General election, called on the young Democratic organization today to push along the turnout.

A nationwide observance of today as National Young Democratic Club day brought from Democratic State Chairman Capus Waynick a tribute to the fact that the state YDC has organized in every county in North Carolina.

"North Carolina takes special pride in this honor to the young Democratic clubs because the young Democratic movement started in this state 20 years ago," Waynick said.

He praised the work of state YDC President Clifton Blue, state campaign manager Jeff Wilson and state organizer Bedford Black.

The theme of a heavy vote was emphasized by Mayne Albright, who served as third in last spring's Democratic gubernatorial primary, in a speech at Raleigh last night.

He held a YDC rally that a "large vote will mean a Democratic victory."

Younger voters are "predominantly Democratic," he added, "and this year over 5,000,000 members of young Democratic clubs in the nation are helping bring to the polls some 25,000,000 eligible voters between the ages of 21 and 40."

In Recorder's Court in Farmville yesterday George Wesley Turner, 22, of Kingston, charged with breaking, entering and larceny at the Farmville Implement Company's plant the night of October 15, waived preliminary hearing and was ordered held without bond for Pitt County Superior Court.

William Hales, 20, of Kenly, charged with receiving stolen money from Turner, was bound over under $500 bond.

Farmville Police Chief L. T. Lucas sent the two prisoners back to Greenville yesterday for preliminary hearing in Recorder's Court next Monday on the charge of breaking, entering and larceny at the Wagner - Marshburn Motor Company's plant in Greenville on September 10.

Local authorities last night released William Earl Lewis, 41, of Kingston, who was held on suspicion of complicity. He was arrested in Wilson about a week ago.

Turner and Hales also are being held for Kenly police on suspicion of breaking, entering and larceny of about $4,000 worth of government bonds and some currency from an office in Kenly about two weeks ago.

Authorities said Turner told them that he used acetylene torches to enter safes in Greenville, Farmville and Kenly. Farmville Chief Lucas yesterday said Turner had admitted robbing safes in Elm City, Wilson, Kingston and Morehead City.

40 Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
October 30, 1908

Halloween!
The spoons will be out tonight. One more working day before election.

The Democrats are having a big day at Bethel today.

Remember the tobacco warehouses will not have sales on election day.

It is a good thing to forget politics long enough to attend church tomorrow.

A change in administration could hardly make conditions worse than they have been under the present administration.

Moye Family Holds Reunion
The Moyes held their annual family reunion on Sunday, October 17, at the old homeplace at the home of Mrs. Lester Sutton at Frog Level.

The family reunion was held by Mrs. Lester Sutton, Meekin Moye, Bill Moye, Jeff Moye, Mrs. Walter Braxton, Mrs. Eva Fleming, Joe Moye, Mrs. John Bledsoe, Ed Moye, Mrs. Allen Flake, and Mrs. Jim Flake, sons and daughters of the late Martha Ann and Joseph Moye; their respective families, relatives and close friends.

The Marks Shows and rides, with better equipment, on the Midway played to bigger crowds. The Sheriff's office checked on the Midway concessions last Monday, and with several exceptions, gave them the green light. The Sheriff and chief of police reported good order at the fair all the week. Some few drunks were ordered from the grounds or arrested, and late last night three Negroes got into an altercation in which two of them are out, but not seriously.

The wine show was a feature and the agricultural exhibits were good. Attendance has been gratifying. Harry Burke said.

Pitt County Fair Winds Up Tonight; Exhibits Were Good

By CHESTER WALSH

Today is the last day of the American Legion's Pitt County Fair. The week's exhibition closes tonight with a display of fire works.

The agricultural exhibits were excellent and farmers, farm women and boys and girls in various clubs deserve great credit for the displays. There were more industrial and commercial exhibits than in many years.

The Marks Shows and rides, with better equipment, on the Midway played to bigger crowds. The Sheriff's office checked on the Midway concessions last Monday, and with several exceptions, gave them the green light. The Sheriff and chief of police reported good order at the fair all the week. Some few drunks were ordered from the grounds or arrested, and late last night three Negroes got into an altercation in which two of them are out, but not seriously.

The wine show was a feature and the agricultural exhibits were good. Attendance has been gratifying. Harry Burke said.

Communism In . . .
Chinese is more interested in keeping out of the way than in winning it. He isn't half as concerned about saving China from communism as the Americans are.

To him the Communists are just another conqueror, and he has had conquerors coming and going for centuries without any noticeable change in his lot. He dislikes soldiers, Red or government, and has suffered at the hands of both.

So this vast, loose and indifferent nation, which in its heart dislikes foreigners much more than it dislike any special political breed of Chinese is asked to halt the spread of communism.

Some pretty good U.S. military brains have come to China and tried to bend it to a unified war effort. Most of them admitted they were slightly crazy in the process.

A very large segment of foreigners in China believe the United States can stop communism in China only with a terrific amount of direct intervention in the nation's affairs.

They say the intervention must be as much as the U.S. now is exerting in such conquered countries as Japan.

Such intervention would be hard to sell to the people of the United States, and it would be intensely unpopular with the Chinese.

Strength FOR THE DAY

WIND AND TIDE
Can you sail faster with the wind against it?
Well, that depends of course on the run of the tide. If one has the tide with him, he can sail straight into the teeth of the wind by tacking back and forth and make exhilarating progress. But if the tide is running against him, even though his sails are filled with the wind, he seems only to move at a snail's pace.

We are usually held back in the most important of all voyages by the tides which run through our lives. The tide of melancholy can make the voyage dismal, even though the sails are belled with a vigorous breeze. Resentment, self-pity, and jealousy—what tides these are, and how they hold lives back, no matter how privileged the conditions amid which they exist.

The sturdy souls are the ones who learn to sail against the wind. It can be done, but it takes skill and patience. This sails have to be set in such a way that a wind blowing straight against the boat will carry it not backwards but forwards. And a good sailor always acquaints himself with the state of the tides when he plans for a sail. He knows what the current can do to him.

So let us watch the tides and let us never forget that God in his mercy makes them run to our advantage, and we, often to our undoing.

Around Capitol Square

SHOW-DOWN—To all intents and purposes the 1948 political campaign is over. In parance of the card table, the deal has been finished, the chips have been placed. There remains only the show-down Tuesday to indicate the winner. A few big speeches still remain on the agenda, there will be some intensive efforts to get voters to the polls on election day. All such activity is designed more for comforting the saints than converting sinners. It is conceded on all sides that very few votes will be changed now.

SIZE—Size of the vote will be a determining factor. Democrats have said all along that the bigger the total vote the better their party will fare. This is true in North Carolina, and more true in the nation at large. Unusually heavy registration in some sections, principally in counties west of Raleigh, encourages hope for a big vote. The Democratic state high command has set a million votes as the goal, with no less than 600,000 straight Democratic. Some estimates are still as low as 750,000 total, with majority of the prophets holding for 900,000 or slightly under.

STAY-AWAY—Democratic leaders privately confess some worry over reports from the east that thousands of people will stay away from the polls. Lacking enthusiasm for Truman and unwilling to bolt the Democratic party residents in eastern counties where there is no local Republican opposition will figure to go fishing on Tuesday, according to reports from the field. This attitude might prove dangerous to the state ticket as well as the national, since it is conceded that western Republicans will vote full strength, and many observers have reckoned that there are more potential Republican than Democratic votes in that part of the state west of Statesville.

WOMEN—Attitude of many women voters admittedly worries the Democratic leaders. There is some evidence that a large part of the stay-away group will be women who will not under any circumstances vote for Dewey, do not want to vote for Truman, and realize a vote for Thurmond will be half wasted and half for Dewey. It is paradoxical that women have shown more enthusiasm and have actually worked harder for the straight Democratic ticket than men. Their opinion seems to be more definite; they go all the way with Dewey or they just don't go at all. Partisan activity has been particularly noted among the Young Democrat women, although their older sisters have shown more than usual interest in the campaign. The proportion of women who actively work as contrasted with the proportion who do not vote may have important influence on the election result.

SPLIT-VOTE—Many experienced observers look for a larger number of split votes than usual for offices other than president and vice president.

dent. Even the most optimistic Democrats do not expect the Truman vote to be as large as that for Scott and other state candidates. It is generally believed that most of those who vote for Thurmond and some who vote for Dewey will take the state Democratic ticket straight down the line. But there are some district and local races in which particular candidates are expected to run ahead or behind their party line-up.

COMPLICATED—If the split-ticket voting reaches proportions some fear it will seriously delay the count after the polls close Tuesday night. It doesn't take long to count a thousand straight ballots, but when the election officials have to hop-skip-and-jump up and down across the large three-party tickets for state offices, it is a time killing process. Also it generally increases chances of error in the count. For that reason the pollholders concur in appeals of party leaders to vote straight.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JEAN KADS
Washington—All the new Federal buildings to be erected in the Capital in the future will depend on mass and form for their beauty—not decoration. The 11th annual exhibition of the Association of Federal Architects, now on view in the National Museum, shows very definitely that federal architecture has gone modern.
Take for instance, the drawing of the new National Institute of Health. It shows a huge, wide structure which is to rise almost as high as the tower of the Naval Medical Center, across the road from it in nearby Bethesda, Md. Not a sign of classic Grecian influence was noted in the exhibit, which also features plans for the General Accounting Office building and a courthouse which is to rise on Construction Avenue in the near future.

First prize was awarded to the work of the Navy architects of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, under Howard Sullivan, the man who is responsible for the impressive Navy Medical Center. This exhibit was a series of studies for a 1,000-bed hospital on Guam. Another prize-winner was the exhibit of the Institute of Inter-American Affairs for a 1,000-bed hospital and medical center for Guatemala, a Roosevelt memorial almost completed.

"Comic books—movies—radio—we're doing something about them" is the warning sounded from the national headquarters here of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. The federation's youth conservation committee, to begin with, is calling a meeting in the capital for the last of the month. Invited are the heads of the Motion Pictures Association, the National Broadcasters Association and the Association of Comic Magazine Publishers. Also representatives of the Parent-Teachers Association, the American Association of University Women, church groups, youth groups and educational groups. Stella A. Scurluck, director of the youth conservation program urges member clubs to get women to decide on what their standards should be for movie, radio and comic programs.

The Civil Air Patrol, aided by the armed forces, has set up its own nation-wide "ghost network" of radio stations rescribed as being "virtually impossible for an enemy to sabotage" and which would be ready for instant use in event of war. Maj. Arthur D. Rhodes, electronics officer, National Civil Air Patrol headquarters, Bolling Field, told newsmen here that more than 900 stations now cover nearly every city, town and hamlet in the nation. In addition, there are fingers extending into Alaska and Hawaii. Also a force of 2,000 mobile stations in cars, trucks and boats, equipped with auxiliary power units, is being built up.

Lose Fight To Get On Ballot

Anniston, Ala., Oct. 29—(AP)—A last-minute effort to get pro-Truman electors written in on the general ballot in Alabama as Independent candidates apparently has failed.
A spokesman for the committee backing the plan said the move was started "without hope of victory" and merely as a protest against the absence of Truman-pledged electors on the ballot in Tuesday's election.

Marshall Meets British Leaders

London, Oct. 30—(AP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall lunched today with Prime Minister Attlee, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and U.S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas.
It was a social occasion with Douglas and Mrs. Douglas hosts and the wives of the three high officials also guests.

The Dancing Heart

BY EMILY NOBLE

Chapter 3
Mrs. Monahan had a size and immobility that was monumental, but with it, as is so often the case, went a disposition that was most generous. Sitting in her window whenever she wasn't eating or sleeping she was part of the life of the street.

She was humming a song to herself as she looked out into the street through her closed window and tried to ignore her daughter, Lottie, as much as possible. Lottie had come along and made her close the window. In fact, Lottie herself had firmly closed it and locked it so she couldn't put it up again without getting out of her chair, and that was difficult once she was established for a good sit. She never had been very fond of her daughter, Lottie. She hadn't been a baby like Joe. She had always seemed to be contemptuous of her home and family even in the crib. She had seemed destined to become just what she had become—a ladies' maid. Even marriage hadn't helped, and Terry Mahoney was dead. All that remained of him was "Tuffy," the boy who insisted on being like his father. Tuffy was playing outside now, revelling in the thin snowflakes that fell lazily in the dusk as if realizing it was too late for snow at all. Mrs. Monahan smiled and Lottie shouted in a most unladylike way. "Why don't you listen to what I'm saying, Mother?"

The fat woman turned her head reluctantly. "I've been listening to your chatter for over twenty years and you've never said anything I wanted to hear, so I don't expect miracles now."

Lottie's eyes blazed hotly. "No wonder Terence is as disobedient and impudent as he is when you talk to me that way."

"If you called him Tuffy like the rest of us he'd love you, too."

"His name is Terence as his father's was."

Last Quarter Drives Give Duke Jayvees 19-13 Victory

Duke Jayvee Standouts Last Night

Pictured above are several of this season's standouts on the Duke Junior Varsity football team which defeated E. C. T. C. 19-13 here last night. Top left is senior tailback Bob Frye from Gastonia, N. C., who handles the passing chores. Top right is stalwart guard, Ken Younger, who is also a senior and halls from Tampa, Fla. Bottom, from left to right, are Dick Harrison, blocking back from Norfolk, Va.; Hugh Stone, tackle from Raleigh, N. C.; and Carl Jones, guard also from Raleigh.

Anybody's Ball Game Up Until Final Whistle As Pirates Make Brilliant Showing Against Heavily Favored Visitors

By EUGENE PRICE
Two terrific touchdown hunts in the last quarter gave the Duke University "B" team a 19 to 13 decision last night over the Pirates of East Carolina Teachers College in a non-conference engagement which was delayed a full hour because of lighting difficulties but was well worth the wait in the opinion of most fans.

It was the most thrilling contest witnessed in Greenville's Guy Smith Stadium this season and was anybody's ball game up until the final whistle. Followers of the East Carolina Teachers squad were particularly elated over the showing made by their team in the contest. Until the last period it looked as if the Pirates of ECTC had annexed their initial win.

East Carolina scored on their third play from scrimmage on a breathing-taking lateral pass which went from Bill Darby to Frank Maennle then to Mickey Wetherington 45 yards down the field. The play caught Duke flatfooted. Wetherington was all alone in the visitors' end zone when Maennle's mighty heave reached him.

The two teams then battled to a scoreless stalemate until the half. The only other first half threat came midway the first period when Johnny Smith and Doug Bryant shared running chores in carrying down to the Duke 23 yard line. A fumbled lateral cost the Pirates 36 yards and a possible touchdown.

Early in the second half Duke's left halfback Herb Hipps returned a punt from the 50 down to the ECTC one yard line. The Pirate line, in an amazing show of determination and strength, held the heavier Duke team to no gain on three plunges through the line. But Bettis Herlong, right halfback, broke around end on the fourth down to tie the ball game.

In the same period the Pirates began a drive on their own 26 yard line and with Mike Kovach, George Woods, Johnny Smith, Bill Darby and Doug Bryant sharing the leather lugging chores rolled down to the Duke eight from where Darby hit Maennle over the goal with a touchdown pass. John Bass kicked the point and ECTC was again in the lead 13 to 6.

The longest run of the game gave Duke its second touchdown on the opening play of the final quarter. Quarterback Frye broke off tackle for 57 yards and a paydirt to make the score 13-all as Guy Smith Stadium shook with excitement.

Then came the winning touchdown for the Duke "B's." An ECTC pass was intercepted on the side line. There was considerable discussion as to whether the Duke back was inside when he caught the ball. The referee ruled it an interception to the loud protests of the ECTC fans and from the Pirate bench.

The referee's services of Co-Captain Tackle John Wyatt who received an injured shoulder in the first quarter. Dr. C. F. Irons reported last night that Wyatt sustained "a sprained shoulder."

Both squads played outstanding football. It was the first contest for Duke's Jayvees, though a number of the players have seen action with the varsity. Fans here were particularly proud of the ECTC line which put on its most dynamic exhibition of the season. It would be impossible and unjust to name the standouts. They all played highly commendable football. The backs likewise shared the brunt of the attack. The defensive play of George Woods, however, must be cited.

The ECTC band performed at halftime. Though their performance was highlighted by the playing of "April Showers" as the majorettes twirled umbrellas, their most humorous antic came when one of the trumpet players "passed out" while the group was marching. He was rushed off the field and another player, his index finger uplifted, trotted onto the field as a substitution.

Tonight's games in North State Conference:
*Appalachian E. and Henry at Bristol.
Atlantic Christian is host to Lenoir Rhyne.
*Catawba is guest of Presbyterian.
Guilford plays in High Point.
*Western Carolina plays Maryville at Cullowhee.
(*Indicates non-conference games)

Coach Ralph James of High Point said he was going to ask the school officials to have several policemen posted on the sidelines for tonight's game with Guilford. "My boys are in real good shape and we plan to give them a battle" says James. The reason for the police is that Catawba's campus was given a new coat of paint by outsiders this week. The Quakers are not sure but they think the High Point elevation has something to do with it.

Russ Wheeler, of Edenton, has a good chance to make All-State if the right people will get around to looking over the lad. In last night's game with Hertford, Wheeler passed for two touchdowns and intercepted a pass. His defensive play was outstanding.

You hardly ever see a field goal in a football game, but last night in Hertford, the fans saw two, coming in the first quarter. Elizabeth City, 18, Hertford 4.

Coach Shot Cox, of Tarboro, is wondering if his team will ever win another football game. Last night, New Bern took the Tara 26-0. Cox is quoted as saying "My boys would take the ball within the 10-yard line and then give up. I don't know what was the matter. I only wish I could have moved the goal line up, it would have been a different story."

Upset Ogre

New York, Oct. 30—(AP)—The upset ogre hums two of Dixie-land's unblemished giants — North Carolina and Georgia Tech—today on a Halloween Eve program that finds most of the other college grid monsters doing the frightening.

No 'New World' For Wonder Colt

Baltimore, Oct. 30—(AP)—"Where'll we go from here with Citation?" Calumet Farm strategists were asking themselves today, "The yearling colt was a walk alone" as the colt was acclaimed three-year-old turf champion in Pimlico Special. He had mopped up every other contender so thoroughly in winning 17 of 18 races this year that none even bothered to show up for this sporting fixture.

This concession to greatness left Calumet Farms in somewhat of a quandary about where to take Citation in quest of handicap honors in 1949. The speedy son of Bull Lea Hydroplane II has been top horse in his two years of running.

He's through for this year and now Calumet is torn between Florida and California. Owner Warren Wright once solved the problem in Armed's case by flying him to Santa Anita from Hialeah.

Maryland Whips Miami By 27-13

Miami, Fla., Oct. 30—(AP)—The University of Maryland turned on its best performance last night in the Orange Bowl and whipped the Miami Hurricanes 27-13 before 35,304 fans.

It's no secret that the Terrapins would like a bid to this year's Orange Bowl classic, and their debut under Miami stars left no doubt in the minds of anyone—particularly the Hurricanes — that they are at least entitled to serious consideration.

Tar Heel Frosh Edge Baby Deacs

Payetteville, Oct. 30—(AP)—Wake Forest's freshmen twice spotted the North Carolina Tar Heels a touchdown and got it back, but made the extra point only on the first one last night, so they lost 14-13.

The loss first in three, prevented Wake Forest from taking the Big Four Freshmen title. It was the third straight victory for North Carolina.

Auburn Loses To Vanderbilt 47-0

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 30—(AP)—Vanderbilt threw a seven touchdown barrage against a badly outclassed Auburn team here last night, and Zack Clinard's five placements gave the Commodores a 47-0 win.

Clemson Wallops Boston College

Boston, Oct. 30—(AP)—Too much Bobby Gage gave Clemson's undefeated Tigers a 26-19 football triumph over Boston College Eagles.

The needle-threading Gage passed to three touchdowns and intercepted a Boston College pass which led to another Clemson score before the B.C. Eagles took to their wings too late last night at Braves Field.

Basketball in the United States draws about 75,000,000 spectators a year; baseball, 65,000,000; football, 60,000,000 and softball, 30,000,000.

Pep Loses Title In Stunning KO Of Fourth Round

New York, Oct. 30—(AP)—Willie Pep is all washed up after losing his featherweight championship to Sandy Saddler.

That seems to be the consensus following last night's stunning knockout win for Saddler, a lean Earlem speedster, in 2:38 of the fourth round. Pep never looked the part of the fighter who had lost only once in 136 previous starts.

Slow to move and an easy target for Saddler's fast left uppercut, Willie went down and out for the first time in his illustrious career. He had been on the deck twice before he took the full count by Referee Ruby Goldstein.

Saddler, up to now a prelim fighter in the Garden but a main go boy elsewhere around the globe, was hitting faster and sharper than ever before in a local ring. All the way he carried the battle to the fading champ.

Pep had no excuse for his poor showing that disappointed so many of his home folks from Hartford, Conn., who had helped contribute to a house of 14,685, and a gross of $55,751.78.

"I have no alibis," Pep said, "I felt fine before the fight. x x x I didn't expect him to be that tough. I thought I could lick him easy."

Pep was guaranteed a return shot within four months. He says he still wants it but there were few rousing cheers around this town today at any mention of a return go.

Saddler, hitting Pep with an ease that disturbed the crowd, took charge in the first round. But Pep had an edge in the second, sticking his left jab five or six times to Saddler's head, while he clung to his taller opponent's talented left.

Saddler sent Pep to the canvas twice for nine counts in the third and with a left uppercut midway in the fourth buckled Willie's knees. Then a left hook drove Pep down and out for keeps. It was the first kayo loss in the career of Pep dating way back to 1940. Football is believed to have originated in England in the 11th Century.

Farmville Loses To Colerain By Margin Of 14-6

Colerain, Oct. 30—In the second meeting of the two teams this season, Colerain defeated Farmville 14-6, here last night. The victory avenged a 38-6 loss which Colerain sustained earlier in the season at Farmville.

Don Belch passed to Sam Fearless for the first Colerain touchdown in the second period, the play covering 40 yards. Tailback Cedric Pierce reeled off two brilliant runs in the third quarter for the second Colerain score. Pierce dashed 65 yards to the Farmville 25 and then raced into paydirt on the next play.

Frank Dupree raced 65 yards in the third period for Farmville's touchdown.

Willing To Play The Boys Again At Field Hockey

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 30—(AP)—The ladies of the New Jersey College for Women will be glad to play the gentlemen of Princeton at field hockey again anytime, says NJC Athletic Director Helen Keen—but she thinks it highly unlikely.

The visiting sons of old Nassau handed the ladies a 5-2 pasting yesterday, but things were patched up over donuts and cider after the fray.

The game had two casualties—both feminine. Jennifer Harris of Nutley, N. J., broke her glasses, and Barbara Springer of Cape May Court House, N. J., was laid out with a hockey stick across the noggin.

Washington 14, Roanoke Rapids 0.
*Elizabeth City 32, Williamston 7.

The Washington Pam Pack handed the Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jackets their third defeat in conference play as they gained a 14-0 victory last night in Roanoke Rapids. The Pam Pack scored in the first quarter, the TD being set up by a pass interception. Billy Asby made the interception on the 26 and ran to the six. On the next play Rudolph Dixon took the ball on an off-tackle play to score. Jim Stanley scored the second touchdown when he carried the ball over from the five.

In a non-conference game, the Kinston Red Devils topped Goldsboro 20-0 to remain undefeated.

Led by Leon Bray and Bobby Askew, Elizabeth City gained a 32-7 victory over Williamston in a non-conference battle. All the scoring for the Yellow Jackets was done by Bray and Askew. Williamston's lone tally came in the last quarter when Mickey Gurganus went over from the one-yard stripe. Several Elizabeth City alumni that attended ECTC were at the game.
