Israeli Ask UN Probe Report Of Troop Movement

Charge British Now In Trans-Jordan, Arming Arabs; Flat Denial Issued

Tel Aviv, Israel, Nov. 8—(AP)—Israel formally asked the United Nations truce headquarters today to investigate reports that "not inconsiderable numbers of British troops have entered Trans-Jordan and that some of them have entered Palestine."

(The British War Office in London issued a denial, saying "we have no troops in Trans-Jordan and there is no question of any British troops going back into Palestine since the evacuation.")

The government also charged the British with wholesale arming of both Iraq and Trans-Jordan, Arab foes of Israel. It wrote the headquarters of the mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, that large shipments of arms and military equipment for Iraq, including tanks of all classes, have arrived at the port of Beersheva in a British ship.

A letter from Dr. Walter Bytan of the Israeli Foreign Office declared that if the report of British troop movements proved true "they would be flagrant violations."

The Arab Legion of Trans-Jordan is British trained and subsidized. It bore the brunt of the summer fighting in the Jerusalem area.

Unofficial reports persisted here today that the Egyptians are evacuating Gaza, a southern Palestine port which partition gave to the Arabs.

Private Jewish sources declared British troops were moving into sections of eastern Palestine held by the Arab Legion. These informants said the British came from troop bases at Matraf and Aqaba, Trans-Jordan.

The text of Israel's letter to Dr. Paul Monh, personal representative of the action mediator.

"Reports have reached my government in recent days concerning the arrival in Trans-Jordan of not inconsiderable numbers of British troops. It is learned further that some of these troops have now reached Palestine. x x x "I am accordingly directed to request you to have this matter investigated without delay by the United Nations military observers serving with the Arab Legion and let me know the results of your inquiry."

Astronomers See Big New Comet

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 8—(AP)—The new comet rushing through the sky was reported today "brighter than Venus."

And it was leading astronomers here on a merry chase, they were having a hard time charting its path.

Until they determine the direction it's moving, they can't tell where and where to look for it.

First sighted at a South Africa observatory, the comet was later spotted by watchers in Argentina, Mexico and Australia.

This was disclosed yesterday in a new court-approved accounting. The will left most of the estate to Los Angeles County and to the state for public parks.

Hart's son, William, Jr., is contesting the will.

Yes, We Want Peace

Molotov Right In Saying Majority Of Americans Against Policy Of Aggression, Wrong In His Conclusions; Communists Won't Let Us Have Peace; Pious Words

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

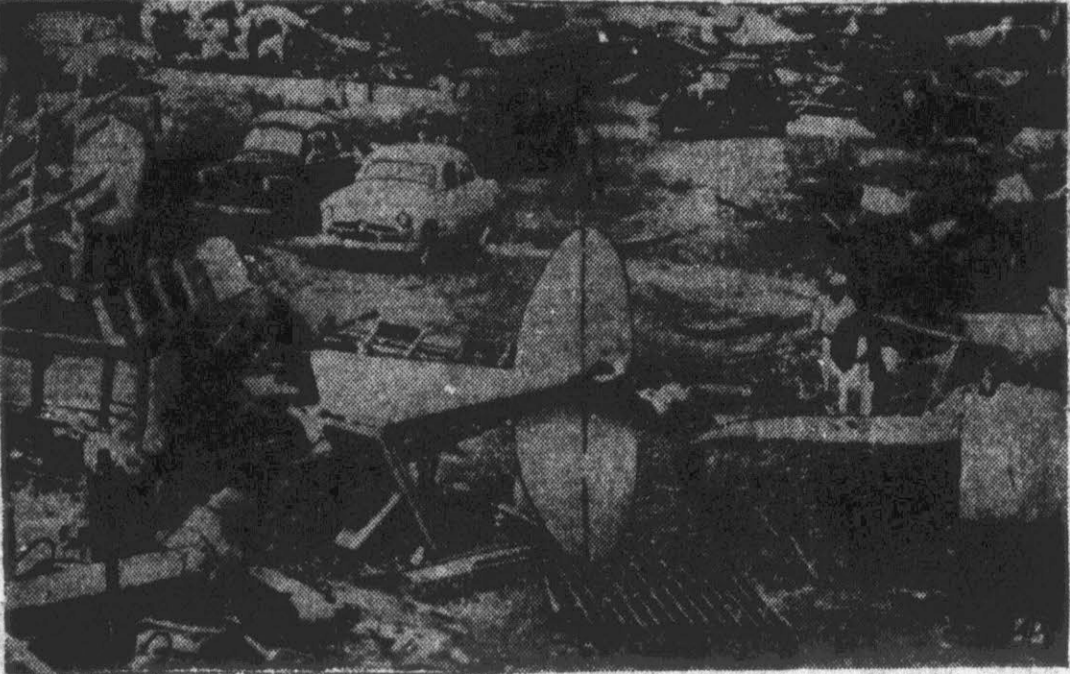

Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov, in opening the Moscow ceremonies marking the 31st anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution, declared the defeat of Thomas E. Dewey in the presidential election "shows that the great majority of Americans are against a policy of aggression."

Well, Molotov is dead right in thinking the great majority of Americans don't want war. They certainly do not! But he is wrong in drawing this conclusion from Gov. Dewey's defeat, since the latter, persistently campaigned for peace.

Americans want peace, and the thing that grips us most is that the Communists won't let us have it. Sure, we are arming; we are bolstering our fighting forces; we are helping non-Communist Europe get in its feet economically and militarily, and we are considering a military alliance with Canada and countries of Western Europe.

But all this is in the interest of defense. Were the Russians so naive as to think we would sit twiddling our thumbs and let the Red steamroller run over us? I'm sure they have given us credit for more sense, but our defensive activities naturally provide them material for propaganda such as both Marshal Timoshenko and Marshal Bulganin, minister of armed forces, emphasized in their speeches in connection with the Red anniversary.

Truman Silent Amid Whispers Of Administration Shake-Up

Key West, Fla., Nov. 8—(AP)—Everybody speculated today on what may happen in top-ranking officials of the Truman administration.

But President Truman said nothing. He just relaxed and enjoyed himself in this vacation spot.

There was heavy guessing on cabinet changes. The man who will make them just changed from red to blue swimming trunks for another sunbath, another swim at the unlisted men's beach at this naval submarine base where he is making another visit to recuperate from 31,800 miles of campaigning.

Why he needs the rest is a mystery to most newspapermen who covered his campaign and found him bubbling over with vitality every morning when they dragged themselves around to the rear platform of his special car for another speech at the approach of dawn.

He popped in unannounced at press headquarters in the bachelor officers quarters yesterday, a grin on his face a mile wide when he found three photographers engaged in a game of pool and a lone newspaperman at a typewriter.

The others were out at play. One reporter explained that the newsmen weren't around because he wasn't "making news."

"Well," said the President, "we're all supposed to be on a vacation."

And, adjusting his fisherman's cap and swinging an American Legion cane, he strolled out of the place, a bouncing figure in pink slacks and an open-necked sports shirt. This is Mr. Truman's fifth visit to Key West.

Rumors are flying, but mostly out of Washington. Newspapermen here seem content to write about the scenery for a couple of days to rest up from the campaign. Some want time to get over their campaign predictions which Mr. Truman upset so rudely by his stunning victory.

The President is known to be looking around for a successor to Robert A. Lovett, under secretary of state, who is expected to leave that post shortly.

There will be discussions of other cabinet and top administrators when Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic National chairman, gets in later this week. Senator Aiken W. Barkley, vice-president elect, and Leslie L. Biffle, soon to be secretary of the Senate again, are due in today or tomorrow.

Small State Colleges Offer Biennium Budget Request

Raleigh, N. C.—(AP)—Five state-operated colleges today asked the state practically to double their appropriations for operating expenses during the next biennium.

The five schools asked the advisory budget commission for operating appropriations totaling $4,367,293 during the 1949-51 biennium. The same schools are operating this biennium on appropriations totaling $2,179,280.

The budget commission is conducting hearings on requests from state departments and institutions in preparation to drawing up its recommendations to the 1949 General Assembly.

The five schools also asked appropriations for permanent improvements totaling $15,171,494. A and T College at Greensboro requested $602,760 for operating expenses the first year of the biennium and $302,860 the second compared with approximately this biennium of $218,126 and $245,373.

East Carolina Teachers College at Greenville put in a request for $577,556 the first year and $623,831 the second. Its appropriations this biennium are $322,268 and $326,789.

Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee requested $53,832 to operate the first year of the biennium and $346,064 the second year compared to its appropriations this biennium of $168,686 and $192,013.

Pembroke college for Indians sought $93,145 to operate the first year of the biennium and $97,145 the second compared with $70,842 and $74,299 this biennium.

Appalachian State Teachers College asked operating appropriations of $390,000 each year of the new biennium. Its appropriation last year was $269,932 and this year is $291,950.

Un-American Activities Committee Work Fades

Washington, Nov. 8—(AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee seems likely to be in eclipse for the rest of this year.

With Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) under indictment and two other Republican members in "Lame Duck" company, a committee official said today he sees little activity ahead until the committee is reorganized under Democratic control January 3.

This means that resumption of the Red-in-Hollywood investigation and the atomic spy hunt—both tentatively set for this month and next—will be delayed.

So will the committee's long-promised public hearing in the Dr. Edward U. Condon case.

Other projected inquiries expected to be junked for the present include those dealing with reports of Communist infiltration into Negro groups and illegal crossings of the Canadian border.

Thomas, reelected to his seventh term in last week's election, branded as "poppycock" reports that he planned to resign from Congress. But committee attaches said they look for Thomas to call no further committee sessions while his trial is pending.

U.S. District Attorney George Morris Fay said the trial, under normal procedure, will not begin before January.

Whatever the outcome, the Republican membership of the committee will undergo changes in January. Besides Thomas, only Rep. Richard M. Nixon (Calif) was reelected to the House.

War Jitters Hit Peiping; Many In City Are Leaving

No Strong Red Forces Within 200 Miles, But Evacuation Talk Is Loud

Peiping, Nov. 8—(AP)—This fabled, spiritual capital of China already is beginning to wear the garments of doom, although there are no powerful red forces within 200 miles.

The greatest flurry has been caused by the order of retired U. S. Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault to close the Peiping office of his Chinese Air Transport Corp. The air line for more than a year had been the most tangible symbol here of the Nationalist resistance north of the Yellow River.

Withdrawal of CAT personnel began Monday and all day the company's offices were besieged by jittery Chinese seeking passage.

Now panic is on.

The principal topic of conversation—'are you going or staying?'

Most foreigners are shipping their belongings out. Chinese in the black market—which flourishes in transportation as elsewhere—are offering from 3,000 gold yuan up for passage to Shanghai. Individuals and groups and chartering planes in their efforts to get away.

Of approximately 500 Americans here, between 120 and 150 already have indicated their intention to get out as quickly as possible. Forty seven of the approximately 200 Britons have followed suit.

Meanwhile, the Communists continued to chip off the strategic points flanking Suowah, last gateway to the capital of Nanking.

Hanchuan, Tangshan and Tanchen which are 20, 30 and 50 miles north west and east of Suowah respectively, were reported to have fallen to Reds under Gen. Chen Yi. There was no official confirmation.

Other Red forces were reported drawing nearer to Fengpo, 120 miles north of Nanking and threatening seriously the Nanking-Suowah corridor. Traffic between Suowah and Fengpo has been suspended because of all wrecking by the Communists. The Nanking-Fengpo section offers no regular service.

Congress May Be Asked Approve Doctors' Draft

Boston, Nov. 8—(AP)—Congress may be asked to approve the drafting of army doctors if voluntary enlistment do not provide sufficient medical personnel.

A spokesman for the army's surgeon general said yesterday that Maj. Gen. Raymond W. Bliss had authorized this statement: "If medical personnel sufficient to care properly for the health of the expanded army does not come voluntarily, there will be no other recourse but to submit a bill to Congress to draft the necessary personnel."

The spokesman, who could not be quoted personally, made the statement in an interview at an American public health association meeting.

Reveals Menace Of Snorkel Subs

Boston, Nov. 8—(AP)—Extensive navy maneuvers in the North Atlantic have convinced Rear Admiral James Fife that 200 breathing submarines could sink the United States merchant fleet.

The commander of the submarine fleet said that eight submarines of that type—known as snorkels or Guppies—delayed the approach of an "invading" group moving toward a landing at Argentina, N.F.

"Two hundred Guppies could sweep the United States merchant marine from the seas," Fife said.

Party Purge Proposal Has No Place In Demo Program

Ask Cooperation From Greek Border Nations

Yugoslavia Continues Defy Work Toward Settling Balkan Crisis; Soviet Bloc To Continue Boycott Of Balkan Study

Paris, Nov. 8—(AP)—The United Nations political committee asked Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania today to cooperate with Greece in settling the Balkan crisis stemming from the Greek civil war. Yugoslavia served notice of defiance, saying she would continue to boycott the U. N. commission on the Balkans (unscob).

The Security Council had the Palestine issue before it, and the hope of turning the present truce into an Armistice. The projected Armistice would provide for reduced armies, wide demilitarized zones and separation of Jews and Arabs.

The council decided to end its Paris meetings no later than Dec. 16. Council delegates said. Secretary General Trygve Lie has his main legal expert, A. H. Feller, studying the Berlin currency issue. The Russians blockaded Berlin partly because the western allies would not allow the Soviet mark to be the sole currency.

Yugoslavia served notice immediately she would not cooperate with the U. N.'s special committee on the Balkans. Yugoslav delegate Ales Bebler told the committee his country would maintain its boycott of UNSCOB.

Forty-three of the political committee's 58 member nations backed the move for cooperation. The situation Soviet bloc again refused to vote.

The committee resumed this morning its voting on individual paragraphs of a resolution proposed by the United States, Britain, France and China.

McGrath Says It's Up To House And Senate To Decide On Chairmanships; Hints Reprisals Against Dixiecrats Would Spoil Efforts At Solidarity

Washington, Nov. 8—(AP)—Democratic leaders turned a cold shoulder today on the proposal by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt that States Rights supporters be purged from the party.

National Chairman J. Howard McGrath told a reporter it will be up to the Democratic members of the House and Senate to decide who gets the prized chairmanships in the new Congress.

He indicated the national committee doesn't want to mix in any such possible fight. McGrath is a senator from Rhode Island.

He hinted further—but didn't say so flatly—that any reprisal program such as Mrs. Roosevelt suggested would fit in with current efforts to solidify Democrats behind the legislative proposals President Truman will send to Congress in January.

In a radio broadcast from Paris yesterday, Mrs. Roosevelt said she would like to see "the permanent ousting of the Southern Dixiecrats from the Democratic party."

The widow of the late President suggested that some Southerners who opposed Mr. Truman's civil rights program would be denied congressional chairmanships if they aren't recognized as Democrats.

She named specifically Rep. John Rankin (Miss.), dubbing him "one of the worst reactionaries," and Senator Oldmixon (S.C.).

She said Johnston "snubbed President Truman, campaigned against him and then was one of the first on the train at Washington to congratulate the victorious President after his election."

Johnston refused to attend the Jackson Day dinner here last winter because of his opposition to the President's civil rights proposals but later announced he was voting for Truman. He declined comment.

But Democratic committee officials said Mrs. Roosevelt was off base on Johnston's campaign record. William J. Primm, assistant to McGrath, said: "Senator Johnston was very helpful throughout the campaign. He has worked with the committee in every way we asked."

Johnston can get a coveted Senate committee chairmanship only if Senator Chaver (D-NM), who outranks him in service, decides not to become head of the postoffice and civil service group.

Chaves also is senior Democrat on the public works committee and might elect to take that chairmanship.

Rankin, however, is top Democrat on the House Veterans Committee and is in line to head it.

He said at his home in Tupelo, Miss.: "The less the American people here from Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, the better off the country will be."

Of 15 Senate committees, only four chairmanships will be filled by Southerners if the congressional seniority rule stands.

They include Senators Connally (Tex.), in line to become chairman of foreign relations; McKellar (Tenn.), appropriations; George (Ga.), finance, and McClellan (Ark.), executive expenditures.

McKellar and Connally openly supported Mr. Truman's bid for reelection. George took no active part in the campaign. McClellan predicted several months ago that Mr. Truman couldn't be elected.

Eight Southerners are in line for House committee chairmanships, but except for Rankin few if any openly opposed Mr. Truman after he won the Democratic nomination.

Colorful Parade Here On Nov. 11

Distinguished Guests To Speak From Courthouse Steps

A colorful parade will precede the American Legion's Armistice Day exercises here Thursday when retired Marine General Hal Turnage of Farmville and First-District Congressman Herbert C. State And Federal Funds Amounting To $877,000 Allotted To Pitt For Construction Of 120-Bed Hospital

State and Federal government funds amounting to $877,000 have been allocated to Pitt County for the construction of a 120-bed $1,440,000 community hospital. It was announced today by G. Stuart Carr, chairman of the board of trustees of the new hospital proposed for the county.

In a letter from Dr. John A. Farrell, executive secretary of the North Carolina Medical Care Commission, Carr was notified that the plans for the new hospital for Pitt county have been approved, and the money from the state and federal aid programs has been allotted to the county. Pitt county has agreed to pay $553,000 or 32.1 per cent of the total cost of the hospital.

The Pitt county project is the largest yet to be considered by the North Carolina Medical Care Commission under the provisions of the Hill-Burton act which was passed by the 80th Congress.

Carr said bids for the construction of the hospital will be advertised for next week, and that construction is expected to begin early in the year, provided bids for the work do not exceed the $1,440,000 which has been raised for the hospital.

Legal Holiday

Next Thursday—Armistice Day—is a legal holiday. The county and city offices, post office, banks and federal offices will be closed.

The board of directors of the Merchants Association has recommended that stores and other business places remain closed during the parade and memorial exercises at the court house Armistice Day.

Police Chief Lester Page announced that the parking meters will not be in operation Armistice Day.

Truman Promises Better Program, Covering More People And Giving Higher Benefits; Retired Workers And Their Dependents; How It Works; Form Doubtful

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 8—(AP)—President Truman has promised a better Social Security program, covering more people and giving higher benefits.

It now covers about 30,000,000 workers. He wants it widened to take in over 20,000,000 more.

It's a big program. You'll have to wait to see whether Congress puts it through.

There's room here—with a little background—to go into only those parts which affect retired workers and their dependents.

Congress passed the Social Security act in 1935 for this purpose: To give workers some protection—in the form of insurance—when they become too old to work, and insurance for their dependents when they die.

This was not charity. Workers and their employes had to pay equally for this insurance through a Social Security tax.

Although the act was passed in 1935 workers and employes did not have to start paying the tax until 1937. They've been paying it ever since in this way:

The employe pays a yearly tax of one per cent on his wages or salary but only up to the first $3,000 he makes a year.

And the employer pays a tax of one per cent on the wages or salaries his employe make but only up to the first $3,000 for each of them.

This tax goes into a fund called the Social Security, old age and survivors insurance fund. There is now about $9,500,000,000 in the fund. Payments from it are running about $460,000,000 a year.

About 2,655,000 men, women and children are receiving benefits now under the program.

To let the fund get built up no one was allowed to start collecting insurance from it until 1940.

Not every worker is covered. When a worker isn't covered by the law, neither he nor his employe has to pay a tax. But that worker can't get any old age insurance.

But who are those 20,000,000 unprotected people whom President Truman wants brought under the act?

They include farmers, farm workers, self-employed people, domestic servants and people working for non-profit organizations like the Red Cross.

Who gets the insurance among the 20,000,000 workers who are covered? Retired workers, men and women, who have reached 65; an additional monthly benefit to a retired worker's wife if she is 65; and

Third St. School News

Third Grade We will get our new arithmetic books soon. Dallas Eason brought all kinds of leaves today. We are saving Top Flight paper hands to get a clock. The third grade made $26.28 at the Halloween party. Alice Butler is sick today. We have 23 girls and 18 boys.

Science We have learned about different trees and different things about trees. Broad leaved trees like the maple, elm, cherry and apples drop their leaves in the fall. In the winter the trees rest. Leaves drop because they are cut off by little cells which grow so as to separate the stem from the twig. Some leaves change color because the green material disappears when the tree begins to rest. Then the other colors might show. Some trees, like the pine, hemlock, spruce and fir, don't lose their leaves or needles at the same time, and so they look green throughout the year. Evergreen seeds are found in the cones. Each seed has a wing that makes it float along with the wind. Cones need winter ready or more to grow. We have enjoyed studying trees.—Ronita Respass, Grade 5.

Our Social Studies We are studying about the United States. We have three people working on each state. Our first reports will be on the 13 original colonies. We are writing to the Chamber of Commerce in each state capital to get information about each state. When we get the information we make a report on the state. I have South Carolina. There are two other girls on it with me, Betty Sue Staton and Well Brown Lee. We have had two reports on Virginia and the other on Massachusetts. We reported on these states first because the first English colony was in Virginia and the second in Massachusetts. After each report we write the most important things in our notebook. Later on we plan to make a book on our forty-eight states.—Helen Ruth Forbes, Grade 5.

Our Greek Flower We have a Greek flower in our room. The petals are pictures. One is a horse that the Greeks carried into Troy with Greek soldiers inside of it. Another is the Marathon runner. One shows some Greek soldiers worshipping Poseidon and asking him to help them win the battle of Salamis. Another is the Greeks shaking olives down. One is a man teaching. In the middle of the flower is a map of ancient Greece.—Edgar Moore, 6th Grade.

Election Day at School At Third Street School the sixth grade had an election. We did it for fun. We voted to see which candidate would win. Truman won with 24 votes. Dewey had eight votes. Thurmond had one vote. Wallace didn't have any. We had a very good time voting. We wondered if the real election would come out like this.—Barbara Martin and Sue Stocks, sixth grade.

The Glee Club The Glee Club is made up of children from the fifth, sixth and seventh grades. We have music every Thursday morning. Our teacher is Miss Hooks. Monday night we are planning to have a program at the high school. We are now learning a two part song called, "Slumber." We are learning other songs to sing such as "The Old North State."—Bobby Starkey, 6th Grade.

Mexico The seventh grade has been studying Mexico. We made booklets with many colorful covers. We learned many things about the Mexicans.

Christian Science Service "Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, November 7. Golden Text: Genesis 1:27. "There went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." Among the citations comprising the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible: "And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good." (Gen. 1:31). And from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is generally conceded that God is Father, eternal, self-created, infinite... The great I AM made 'all that was made.'" Hence man and the spiritual universe consist with God" (Page 267). The first voting machine was used in Rochester, N.Y. in 1892.

Miss Wyns Lorraine Boyd, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Hardee Boyd of Greenville, N. C., and Mr. Floyd W. Boyd of Chocowinity, became the bride of Mr. Connie Bryant Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hines of Winterville in a candlelight ceremony Friday night, October 22, at eight o'clock in the Free Will Baptist Church of Greenville. Rev. Walter B. Nobles, grandfather of the groom, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Ruth Clark, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music. The traditional wedding marches were used. Miss Gladys Hines, sister of the groom, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "I Love You Truly," as the benediction, "The Wedding Prayer," was sung.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Jamie Wilson of Ayden, wore a wedding gown of bridal satin and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was made of satin and lace, buttoned down the center back and at the wrist with miniature satin-covered buttons. Lace ruffles, edged with satin, outlined the yoke and neckline. The long sleeves ended in points over the hands, and the full skirt extended into a court train. Her tulle veil of bridal illusion edged with chantilly lace fell from a crown of seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid and showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Louise White of Greenville was maid-of-honor. She wore a dress of pink taffeta, styled with off-the-shoulder neckline, finished with a ruffle, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her mitts and headpiece were of matching taffeta. She carried a heart of rainbow net with a bouquet of rainbow chrysanthemums attached to a handle and tied with rainbow satin ribbon and streamers.

The bridesmaids were Misses Katie Lou Vincent and Barbara Clement of Greenville. They wore dresses of ice blue taffeta styled identical to that of the maid-of-honor. They carried maline covered hearts identical to that of the maid-of-honor.

Pittman Hines, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and usher and were Herman Nobles, uncle of the groom, of Greenville. Lindy and Lloyd Wilson, cousins of the bride, and Guy Corbett, all of Ayden.

The bride's mother wore a dress of gray crepe with black accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of black crepe with black accessories. Mrs. Sophia Hardee, great-aunt of the bride, wore a dress of purple crepe with black accessories. They all wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for parts unknown. For traveling, the bride chose a brown suit and gray coat with brown accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Hines is still attending Greenville High School. Mr. Hines is a graduate of Winterville High School. Mrs. Sophia Hardee honored the prospective bride couple at a cake cutting following rehearsal Thursday night at her home.

The couple are now making their home at 1107 Forbes Street, Greenville.

Strength FOR THE DAY

WHAT THE CHANGE MEANS A DIFFERENCE!

Do people find happiness when they divorce and remarry? Sometimes. When marriages are contracted between people utterly unlike in temperament and ideals, when one member of the union violates all the laws of decency and restraint, then it sometimes happens that such people in their next venture find the peace and happiness denied them in the first.

But we are generous in our estimate of the situation if we say that this happens frequently. It does happen, but it does not happen frequently. Most people who have not found happiness in their first marriage do not find it in their second or third. And the reason is quite easy to understand. Their marriage probably failed not because of circumstances but because one or perhaps both of the contracting parties had character weaknesses which would have caused them to bog down in almost any situation. These character weaknesses were not necessarily flagrant sins. People usually fail in marriage because they are selfish, because they have never grown up, because they are stubborn and lacking in a willingness to give and take. Unless their characters change, they find themselves as unhappy in the second marriage as they were in the first.

The great rush to the divorce court represents a desire to change a situation and reflects the hope that by so doing happiness will ensue.

Around Capitol Square

ALERT—While most of the big time politicians and politicians are trying to alibi out of the mess the election put them in, at least two Raleigh business men are meeting the issue squarely. J. Elmer Thomas hands those who come into his floral shop a printed statement addressed to the press, radio and his friends, and saying: "I made one helluva miscalculation." Jim Wells, a real estate man, carries around a typewritten card and before his friends can start kidding him he shows it. The card reads: "You are looking at a damn fool." Both men say this procedure doesn't make any sense, but it does make eating possible. They are having a good time.

COUNSEL—Rumors current for several weeks that Governor Kerr Scott would name J. Elmer Long as his legislative counsel have been confirmed. The 60-year-old Durham attorney is no stranger around legislative halls. He served in the house of representatives in 1911 and 1912, and was lieutenant governor with McLean from 1925 to 1929. Between times he had functioned as private secretary to the late Congressman Stedman of the fifth district. Although his official connection with the general assembly ended when he stepped down as president of the senate in 1929, he has appeared before legislative committees in practically every session since in behalf of clients, and is credited with "knowing his way around." As matter of fact, Long is already doing preliminary work on the Scott legislative program as it will be presented in his inaugural address and his first message to the general assembly. The big job of the legislative counsel is to get support of the executive program as the session moves along. The post was held by H. P. Taylor in 1945 and by Brandon P. Hodges in 1947. Taylor was elected lieutenant governor and Hodges was elected state treasurer last week.

ACCREDITATION—One of the reasons offered in support of requests for tremendously increased appropriations for state educational institutions is desire for accreditation by the proper authorities. It is perhaps possible for a good student to learn as much in a non-accredited institution, but the diploma doesn't rate as high. Standards set by college associations and by professions require minimum laboratory, library and faculty rating for accreditation. In many cases the North Carolina schools fall below these minimum requirements, and in others they are barely met.

SHORT—Two instances serve to illustrate the point for all. The school of journalism at Chapel Hill led the school of design (architecture and landscaping) at State College in seeking accreditation. To gain such recognition, they must have more money for equipment, working space, libraries and fund-

JOURNALISM—The American Council on Education for Journalism inaugurated an accreditation program just a few years ago. A total of thirty-five schools have met minimum standards, nine of these are in the south—but the University of North Carolina is not on the list. There are two recognized schools in Georgia, Emory and the state university; two in Texas, the state university and the state college for women; one in Virginia, Washington and Lee; one in Oklahoma, state A and M; and the state universities in Kentucky and Louisiana.

BEHIND—Newspaper folks do not like for North Carolina to be so far behind in support of its school of journalism. This state has been cited as having more newspaper per population than any other in the nation. That claim might not stand up, but in daily newspapers alone there is one for each 90,000 people and with addition of semi-weeklies, weeklies and monthlies there is one publication for every ten thousand or less population.

It consists of literally thousands of papers left at his death in 1798 by James Boswell, whose monumental study of Johnson is the best known biography in all literature. They were lost for more than a century in the rubbish of castles in Ireland and England.

Scholars expect them to give a complete new picture of the golden age of England, over whose literary life Johnson ruled with an iron tongue.

Johnson is only a dimly-remembered figure to most schoolboys. But to those who have taken the trouble to wade through Boswell's massive biography he is one of the most interesting men who ever lived.

He was a kind of Noah Webster, Dorothy Parker, Alexander Woollcott and H. L. Mencken rolled into one. And something more, too. But except for Boswell, who trotted at his heels for 21 years noting down everything he said, Johnson would be known today only as a minor poet, dictionary maker and literary historian.

For few people now bother to read what Johnson himself wrote. They read what Boswell says he said. Such as:

"Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel."
 "Hell is paved with good intentions."
 "A man of genius has been seldom ruined except by himself."
 "The noblest prospect which a Scotchman ever sees, is the high-road that leads him to England."
 "No man but a blockhead ever writes except for money."
 But the tart-tongued Doctor's charm was purely conversational. Here is how he looked to Boswell at their first meeting.

"Mr. Johnson is a man of a most dreadful appearance. He is a very big man, is troubled with sore eyes, the palsy and the King's evil (scrofula)."
 "He is very slovenly in his dress and speaks with a most uncouth voice."
 But homely or not, Dr. Johnson who came to London with nothing in his pockets but five cents and an unpublished tragedy, became the titan of his time—the "age of reason."
 The furor over the discovery of his own papers and those of Lincoln would tickle the old Lion. But this homely man of letters would be the first to hand the laurels to Lincoln. The homely man of deeds. Long ago he wrote:

"Words are men's daughters, but God's sons are things."

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—At a unique orientation school here, students from 38 counties last year learned to speak English and got their first hearings upon their arrival in the United States. They came from Afghanistan, China, Siam, Iran, Korea, Turkey, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, France and Poland as well as from each of the other American republics.

Professional people from Latin America predominated in number, Colombia leading with 37 trainees, Venezuela second with 30. The school was started here in 1942, when the Interdepartmental Committee on

New York, Nov. 9—(AP)—If you were born poor and homely, take heart man.

A hundred years from now the scholars may be turning handspins over you.

At least the most exciting literary re-discoveries of recent years have dealt with two men of genius who were regarded by their contemporaries as uncouth in appearance or downright ugly.

One was Abraham Lincoln. The opening of his long-dead papers in 1947 still has historians astray. They expect them to throw new light on the civil war era.

A single letter by the gangling, awkward Lincoln, who learned to read and write by flashlight and rose from the log cabin to the White House, sold at auction here last April for $5800.

Equally as dramatic as the opening of the Lincoln papers was the assembling of a lost treasure trove of literary material surrounding Dr. Samuel Johnson. It is the outstanding literary event of 1948.

The collection climaxes a 22-year search by Col. Ralph H. Isham, son of a New Jersey railroad financier, who drained his own personal fortune to buy it.

Scientific and Cultural cooperation was getting into full swing. Washington suddenly found itself host to growing numbers of professional people and students from other countries.

The Orientation Center for Foreign Students and Trainees is conducted at the Wilson Teachers College with the cooperation of the State Department, the U. S. Office of Education, the National Education Association and the Board of Education of the District of Columbia. A qualified applicant of any country in the world may come to the center to study, provided his admission is requested by a U. S. government agency, by the Institute of International Education or by his own Embassy. Since the center opened six years ago it has received 1,479 students and trainees.

"The staff members have tried to be not only their teachers but their friends," says Mrs. Margaret L. Emmons, director of the center. A course in government, taught in rudimentary English, coincides with visits to the Capitol and the Supreme Court. The history course is highlighted by trips to Mount Vernon, historic museums and the Archives building. Picnics and dances, concerts and receptions are part of the program as well.

From the moment the student enters the center he begins learning English and about American life. Mrs. Emmons says. If he wants help in getting a place to live he is taught English in the process. The sick student is taken to the doctor and is taught the necessary vocabulary to explain his symptoms. One of the teachers gave her students who had bought new automobiles instruction on Washington traffic regulations. During the past year 16 U. S. government agencies, 17 foreign embassies and the Institute of International Education have used the center.

Rotarians Hear Washingtonian

By WYATT BROWN

Happiness cannot be bought, inherited or handed to one, counseled Rotarian John Bragaw, of Washington, a business man and writer, in an address to the Greenville Rotary club last night at their weekly meeting at their club building. He said that older persons have found that it comes from within, growing out of the spirit and the soul.

Prior to the address President of the club Ernest L. Willard, advised the Rotarians that Rotarian Bob Bradshaw was being sent elsewhere next year by his Bishop. In commenting about the loss of Bob, President Willard said the Rotary club was losing one of its most valued members to Wilson where he has been assigned.

"We are certainly going to miss him. He endeared himself to us from the start. Wilson will have a big gain when he goes there. He served the club as president last year making a valuable contribution to the club in that office and in his committee assignments before that and since.

"He has been an inspiration to us. We will continue to remember him throughout the years. We can be happy in the thought that our loss is Wilson's gain," he commented further about Bob's leaving.

Reverend Bradshaw was granted the floor for a statement. He said that one of his choice memories would be the fellowship he enjoyed as a member of the club. To have been president of the club had been an honor to him.

Eppes High School Youth Makes Good; Is Army Lieutenant

By CHESTER WALSH

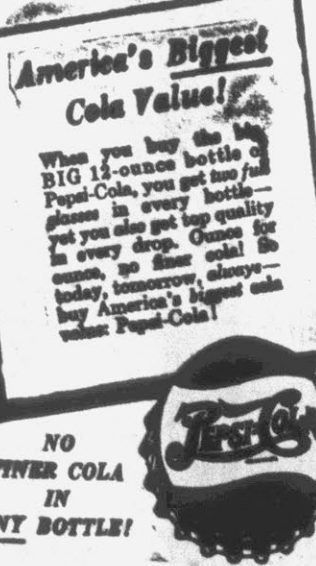

George L. Jenkins, Jr. was an enterprising carrier boy for the Daily Reflector when he graduated with honors from C. M. Eppes Negro High School here in 1943. He came back to Greenville the other day as a second lieutenant in the Army after graduating from the Officer Candidate School at Fort Riley, Kans., on October 27.

Lieut. Jenkins is now stationed at Camp Lee, Va., and is assigned to the quartermaster's department. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Jenkins, 514 Tyson Street, Greenville.

After graduating here, Jenkins volunteered in the Army in 1943 and was sent to Howard University, Washington, D.C., and to Pennsylvania State College. After that he was sent to Japan, where he remained two years, serving as chief clerk in the Army Quartermaster Department and as editor of an Army newspaper. He will return to Camp Lee November 19.

Tar Heels Ranked Sixth In National Football Ratings

Michigan, Notre Dame And Army Hold Top Three Places In Week's Poll; Penn State Shows Startling Advance

New York, Nov. 8.—(AP)—The Michigan Wolverines topped the nation's football teams in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers today, regaining first place from Notre Dame by a slim margin.

Although the Irish outscored Michigan, 30-7, in first place votes, the point total gave Michigan the No. 1 spot by a margin of 1,836 to 1,776—just the opposite of last week.

Army surged into third place with 14 first place ballots and 1,563 points. California moved up a peg to fourth, with 11 of the 205 voters ranking them the best in the country and a total of 1,244 points.

Penn State showed the most startling advance, jumping from 14th to fifth on its fine 13-0 victory over previously unbeaten Pennsylvania. The Nittany Lions drew only one first place pick but had 840 points.

Despite North Carolina's unexpected 7-7 tie with William and Mary, the Tar Heels pulled seven firsts and sixth with 787 points. They dropped only three pegs on the tie.

Michigan's 25-0 romp over Navy was approximately the same as Notre Dame's 41-7 score over the same team a week before. The experts will be able to get a better line after this Saturday's game between the Irish and Northwestern, beaten earlier in the season by Michigan 20-0.

- This Notre Dame-Northwestern game, pitting No. 2 against No. 8, is the best paring on the week's program. Other involving teams in the first 30 are Army (No. 3) vs Pennsylvania (No. 17) and Clemson (No. 10) vs Wake Forest (No. 19).
- The point standings on a 10-0-0-7-6-4-3-2-1 basis (first place votes in parentheses)
- Michigan (77) 1,836
 - Notre Dame (80) 1,775
 - Army (14) 1,563
 - California (11) 1,244
 - Penn State (1) 840
 - North Carolina (7) 787
 - Southern Methodist 625
 - Northwestern 675
 - Oklahoma (5) 74
 - Clemson (3) 264
 - Georgia Tech 205; 12. Michigan State (1) 158; 13. Georgia (1) 152
 - Minnesota 126; 15. Oregon 126;

Sparkling Show By Heavyweight

Boston, Nov. 8.—(AP)—A comparatively handful of Boston boxing fans—5,815 to be exact—today were going on the fact that Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis gave them more action for a $2.75 top than he often has done for $50.

The 34-year-old Brown Bomber, now barnstorming himself in condition to again defend his title against "the most logical opponent available if the public wants me to," put on a sparkling four-round no-decision exhibition bout against towering Johnny Shkor of Baltimore, last night at the Arena.

Louis, who has given five other such performances elsewhere recently, thrilled the spectators with a vicious demonstration of his old-time slambang two-fisted punching. The champion and Shkor swung

Saturday's results in the North State Conference:

Appalachian 47, ECTC 0
 Lenoir-Rhyne 14, Guilford 6
 *WCTC 12, Newberry 7
 *Louisville 33, Catawba 21
 * Non-conference games

In a non-conference game played at Cullowhee, Western Carolina ended up on the top end of a 12 to 7 score against Newberry. Ovie Heener, WC wingback, scored in the second quarter, which put the "Cats" out front at half-time 6 to 0. The play was good for 39 yards. In the fourth quarter Dewey Whitaker on a reverse ran sixty-two yards for WC. Second tally, Newberry's score came in the closing minutes of the game.

The Lenoir-Rhyne's Bears spotted Guilford six points and then came back to win a thrilling 14 to 6 homecoming victory. The Bears' running attack was sparked by Halfback John Charles. He averaged 7 yards a try for the 16 times he carried the ball. He set up the first score on a 30-yard run and scored the second TD himself.

Here's something—The entire third period of the Lenoir-Rhyne-Guilford game was played between the 25 and 50 yard line of Guilford, believe it or not. Reports show that the only time the ball went beyond the 50 was on a kick. But a clipping penalty moved it to the 49-yard line of Guilford.

Cox "Shot" Cox of Tarboro High School said that he was planning on winning one game this year, if his club had to play the men's ward at the hospital. Cox's eleven hasn't won a game in their last twelve starts.

The Pirates staged only a light workout yesterday afternoon but Coach Johnson gave the order of heavy equipment this afternoon. A scrimmage is planned between the whites and blues. The whites won last week's session in a defensive battle 12 to 0. The scrimmage is Calumet Farms' Armed, making a comeback attempt at Hialeah this winter, will be racing his seventh straight season at the Florida track.

In two games against the Washington Redskins in 1940, the Philadelphia Eagles could gain only 34 yards by rushing the ball, but they gained 554 yards in the air.

The 'Big One'

College Park, Md., Nov. 8.—(AP)—With its "big" one of the year coming up Saturday in Washington against North Carolina, the University of Maryland football squad is in for plenty of work for the next three days.

Cox Jim Tatum is the authority for that statement. He passed the word around yesterday and then sent the squad through a long, hard practice session featuring passing.

Maryland completed but one pass in 12 attempts as the old liners defeated South Carolina Saturday, 19-7.

They kept their razzle-dazzle tricks under cover, however, and showed North Carolina scouts "old stuff," and power plays.

scheduled to start around 3:30.

With football season coming to a close in a couple of weeks for the Pirates, the students begin to look towards the gym, and wonder what kind of basketball team Coach Howard Porter will turn out this year. Will they win the conference? They might! Coach Porter has some good material this year, and the addition of plays to his offensive plays will help a lot. With standouts such as Charlie Bill Moye, Bob Shufford, Frank Maennie, Ben Harrison, Jack Everitt, and Lynn Barrier, the Pirates are going to be hard to get along with on any court. Look for these boys to have a very successful year.

Do you know—Although the Michigan teams of 1901-02, '03, '04, '05 had the reputation of being "point a minute" teams they never actually achieved this perfection? Since 1914, however, five teams have actually scored one or more points for each minute played during the season. These teams were Phillips '22; Missouri Miner, '14; Georgia Tech, '18; and Henry Kendall, both in '19 and '20.

The Greenville Phantoms, who have had open dates for the last two weeks, went through a light scrimmage yesterday in preparation for Friday's tilt with Roanoke Rapids. A heavier scrimmage is scheduled for this afternoon.

Young Men Hope To Be 'Drafted'

Cincinnati, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Some 8,000 or more young men hope with all their might that they are drafted tomorrow.

Into major league baseball, that is, and not some branch of the armed services.

Representatives of the 16 clubs in the American and National leagues will begin their bidding for minor league talent at 11 a. m. in the office of Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

Of the thousands of eligible players, however, only a handful will be drafted, if the men who write the checks are as wary as they have been in the past.

There were only 29 men drafted last year, at an outlay of $272,500 according to records in the commis-

Midgets Edge Out 6-0 Victory Over New Bern

Greenville's Mighty Mites edged out the New Bern Midgets 6-0 at Guy Smith Stadium Saturday night in a rough and tumble contest.

The only score in the game came in the third quarter after Lee Folger blocked a New Bern punt on their 20 and Guy Smith carried to the six on two running plays and then skirted around end for the score.

Coach Bill Kittrell said he was well pleased with the showing of his team against the New Bern squad which defeated Greenville 19-6 earlier in the season. Defensively, the Greens were stronger than at any time in the season so far. Only once were the New Bern backs able to carry as far as the Greenville 20, and then lose the ball on downs when the line held.

Line play both offensively and defensively was better than usual, with Cheatham and Hudson playing good games at the ends. Both Greenville guards, Whitakers and Folger, broke through the New Bern line to block one punt each.

The Greenville Mites used a new double wing offensive formation which Coach Kittrell employed to take advantage of Guy Smith's speed and shifty running. Pat Sawyer from his fullback position did a good job of line plunging.

soner's office.

The fall-end clubs of the 1948 season will get first chance at the crop, under the rules. The world champion Cleveland Indians will be last to get a crack at the new talent, with Boston, pennant winner in the National circuit, 15th in line.

Gellar-dweller Chicago Cubs of the National loop, will get first chance at the field, with the Chicago White Sox, last pace finisher in the American League, following. From then on, the other teams, from bottom end up, will alternate in bidding for new material.

Triple-Threat Ignores Injuries

New York, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Glenn Dobbs, Jr., the triple-threat of the Los Angeles football team, is not one to let a little thing like a set of damaged ribs and a wrenched back hold him down.

Despite these calamities, the former Tulsa star piled up 230 yards running and passing against the New York Yankees last Sunday in an All-America conference game.

New York won the tilt, 38-6, but Dobbs' one man job of yard-covering gained him the role of the league's No. 1 offensive performer.

Now you understand—or your mother will if you don't. "I thought our new life was to begin together—when we got married."

"Do you think for one minute that I would marry you—now?" He hung his head and moved a restless foot. "That's all I live for, Rosalie. I know you're mad at me, but—"

"Just one minute, Joe," she cut in sharply. "I have no time to waste in explanations or recriminations, but you might as well get the nonsense out of your head. Even if I cared for you, which I most certainly don't, I wouldn't be fool enough to think twice about you after I have found out what you are really like."

"You love me and—"

With her free hand she slapped him sharply across the mouth. "That's what I feel about you now and always."

He fell back blinking at her, his eyes frightened, pitiful. For one swift second she felt like taking his head in her arms. But only for one second. The next she turned on her heel and walked swiftly away. She was trembling but triumphant. For one instant she had sunk to his level, but only for long enough to make him understand the only way he could understand.

She was calmer in the next block as she turned into a small French restaurant which she had made up her mind to try sometime, though she was sure it was very expensive. A genial Frenchman greeted her smilingly and started to escort her to a table. But a man at a table they passed caught her hand and jumped up.

"Just the girl I wanted to talk to. Why haven't you been in to see me, honey?"

Voters Deny Legislators Pay Raise A Second Time

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 9.—(AP)—North Carolina voters apparently have denied their legislators a pay raise, for the second time in two years. With returns from last week's election reported by all but 12 counties, there was a margin of 15,117 votes against a proposed constitutional amendment to boost legislative salaries. The count was 211,716 against, 196,599 for.

There's only a very slight chance that the vote from the 12 unreported counties would change that indicated outcome, according to Secretary Raymond Maxwell of the State Board of Elections.

There also were strong leads for opponents of two other proposed amendments—to remove the debt limitation and to increase maximum property levies from 15 to 25 cents.

Only winner was a proposed amendment to have special elections decided by a majority of those voting, instead of those registered. With 12 counties out, the vote stood For, 239,204; Against, 122,651.

Voters two years ago rejected by 867 a proposal to give legislators more pay.

Important Cases In Police Court Monday Morning

By CHESTER WALSH
In Police Court yesterday, Judge J. W. H. Roberts fined Adolph Lee, 19-year-old colored youth, $25 for reckless driving and speeding and $25 and costs for driving without an operator's license. Testimony was given last Friday, crossed to the left side of the street, scraped the curb, then the truck jumped the curb, struck steps on a dwelling, and turned over on its side 90 feet beyond the steps and broke off a telephone pole.

Lee received bruises on his face and left shoulder. Garris Ward, 17, colored, a passenger in the truck received internal injuries. Both men were taken to Pitt General Hospital. The damaged truck was taken to the NYA Center.

Capt. Clarence West, colored army officer from Fort Bragg, charged with driving while drunk Saturday night, was called and failed to answer. The court ordered his $200 cash bond forfeited and a capias was issued for him. West is from Texas.

Allen Streeter, colored, was found guilty of assaulting his wife with a deadly weapon (a knife). The court gave him six months on the roads suspended on condition that he pay $20, costs deducted, and be placed on probation for five years. The judge ordered that Streeter serve 30 days imposed on him in a previous case.

Driving drunk: J. C. Pitt and William A. Simpson, both colored, transferred to Superior Court; Johnnie Whitchard, colored, $100 and costs and his driver's license was ordered revoked for a year.

Assault: Jack Moore, colored, two cases, $15 on each charge; Nina Belle Williams, $15.

Assault with a deadly weapon: Walter L. Willis, 12 months on the roads, suspended on payment of $20, costs deducted and he was placed on probation for four years.

Reckless driving: Leonard G. Perkins and Zeb C. Cummings were not guilty; J. D. Stocks paid $15.

Gerard J. Bachand and Thomas W. Swoop each paid $20, costs deducted, for speeding; Milton Ray Garris paid $20, costs deducted.

Ralph C. Evans paid $5 on costs for not stopping at a "stop" sign.

Drunk: William Smith, colored, 30 days or $25, costs deducted; Grover C. Smith, colored, $15; Julius King, colored, $15; Morgan W. Waters, $15; Samuel Thompson, colored, $20; William H. Tyson, colored, $15; Wilbert L. King, colored, 30 days or $15; Leo E. Stocks, (and assault), $15; J. M. Forbes, $15.

Unusual Weather

Summertime temperatures have prevailed here the past several days. Today at noon heavy clouds overcast the sky threatening rain and wind, although the flag at the postoffice was hugging the staff.

Mrs. C. E. Maiden, observer here for the U. S. Department of Commerce Weather Bureau, reported today that the temperature here during Sunday night was 45 degrees. Seventy was the highest Monday. The mercury hovered around 50 last night. At 8 a. m. today it was 60, and at noon 76 degrees.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The stock market spun on its heels under a heavy attack of selling today. Prices dropped 1 to around 4 points. At its greatest intensity pressure was enough to put the ticker tape 3 minutes behind actual transactions on the floor of the exchange.

Brokers reported that offerings of stock came from both big investors and small. The pessimism created by last week's election results, they said, seems still to dominate stockholder psychology.

Favorable business news, of which there was plenty, was practically ignored.

Truman's Election Speeds Capt. Jones On Road Recovery

Capt. Lester Jones, commander of Troop A, State Highway Patrol northeastern district, who underwent a serious operation several weeks ago at Veteran's hospital, Mount Aito, Washington, D. C., continues to improve. A member of Capt. Jones' family, who was visiting him the other day said that when he heard the radio report that Gov. Tom Dewey had conceded the election of Harry S. Truman as President of the United States he started improving more rapidly right away.

Sgt. S. G. Lewis of Rocky Mount, another veteran of the state Highway Patrol, is substituting for Capt. Jones here until he returns.

If the covered worker, under or over 65, dies, monthly benefits go to his widow, if she is over 65; his widow of any age if she has dependent children under 18; unmarried children under 18; his parents if they were chiefly dependent on him and if he left no widow or children.

What's the most insurance a 65-year-old worker can get if he retires right now?
The maximum for him would be $44.50 a month and then only if he has been paying his tax into the fund since 1937 and if his salary since 1937 has averaged at least $250 a month (3,000 a year).

And the most his wife can get if she reaches 65 now, is half of the sum a retired husband gets—or $22.40.

But—although the maximum pay to a retired worker now is $44.80 a month, the average is only $25, the minimum is $10.

Some gears used in industry are as large as 30 feet in diameter and four feet wide.

Appeal Withdrawn, Collins Case Settled

On motion of Judge Albion Dunn, in Superior Court here last week, Judge J. Paul Frizzelle of Snow Hill ordered and decreed that Mrs. Annie S. Collins, plaintiff in the action against J. A. Collins and R. L. Collins, administrators of the estate of J. H. Collins, deceased for $6,900, recover the amount, with interest from the defendants. It was announced that the appeal to Supreme Court had been withdrawn and that the parties had reached a satisfactory agreement.

Mrs. Collins sued to recover $6,900 for her services to J. H. Collins during a period of ill health and illness before he died about a year ago.
