Rayburn Claims New Depression Can Be Averted

Lays Administration's Position On The Line In Key West Conference

Key West, Fla., Nov. 20 (AP)—President Truman let it be known today through one of his closest associates that he believes his administration can avert another depression.

Representative Sam Rayburn, speaker-to-be of the House, laid the administration position on the line here before flying back to Texas and a speaking engagement at Dallas tonight.

"If a major recession or depression should come—which I do not expect—it will not be justified by our economic situation, but will be man-made," Rayburn told a news conference after emerging from talks with the President at the temporary "White House" here.

This jibed with Mr. Truman's position in campaign talks in which he contended another depression could be avoided only by a Democratic victory because of his party's position that the GOP would look after the rich and not all classes of the economy.

Mr. Truman's vacation drew to a close today. He set out for the beach again for a swim and a sun-bath—his daily routine since his arrival two weeks ago.

He flies back to Washington tomorrow for a heavy schedule of conferences highlighted by his meeting Monday with Secretary of State Marshall and Roving ECA Ambassador Harriman. They will review the threats to peace in Europe, China and elsewhere.

Rayburn talked over the administration legislative program with the President while here. Meeting with reporters in the afternoon, one reporter said to him:

"A lot of people, including some of those in Wall Street, seem to be afraid of where President Truman, vice-President-elect Barkley and you are going to take us."

Rayburn, pausing to frame his reply came back slowly:

"There are many people in the United States who seem to enjoy being scared."

Some Important Years

How Much Do You Remember Of What Happened Between 1920 and 1940; Why Those Years Are Important; New Era; Books To Refresh Your Memory

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Let me ask you a couple of questions. Were you grown up and voting back in 1920 when Warren G. Harding was elected President? Or have you come of age since then?

Anyway, do you remember much about what happened in the important years between 1920 and 1940? Time and a million events have left a foggy jumble in the minds of a lot of people—A sense of almost lost years.

If you're one of those you could without much trouble, pull the jumbled pieces together and get a clear picture.

You could do it by reading just a few books which are suggested in this story. Before looking at them, you may ask: Why start at 1920 and stop at 1940? Because—

That was a period of getting over a war, of boom times and terrible bust, of trying to get back on our feet with the new deal, and then getting ready for another war.

The period of 1940 and 1948 was really an upside down war period. The years from 1945 to 1948 have been a steady struggle between President Truman and Congress.

Longshoremen's Strike Halts Auto Exports

A Bear Involved

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Why didn't the revenuers get their man? Well, seems there was this bear who knew bad whiskey when he tasted it...

While alcohol tax unit agents hid in waiting for the owner of a Tennessee still they had just found, the bear, "big and black," lumbered out of the forest and decided to sample the product.

He rolled it around his tongue, according to the report filed at the Internal Revenue Bureau, took another startled taste... and smashed the still to pieces.

Their evidence destroyed, the revenue men went home.

Suchow Fighting Is Not Yet Over

Nanking, Nov. 20 (AP)—Although government dispatches claim that the battle of Suchow is considered closed and a "complete victory" for Nationalist forces, it is evident that fighting is still in progress.

In fact the battle apparently is continuing on all flanks of the northern Kiangsu bastion and the decisive action may be yet to be fought.

Gen. Ho Ying-Chin, national defense minister, re-orienting to the executive yuan (legislature), said stiff fighting still is continuing in the vicinity of Nienchuang, 33 miles east of Suchow, where a major Red force recently was set back.

He said that government troops south of Suchow, on the line to Nanking, will be reinforced.

A report on the Kiangsu situation to the Nanking Evening Post said four Communist columns under the direction of Gen. Chen Yi had attacked government positions along the Paychi-Nienchuang line, where the troops under Gen. Huang Po-ta formerly were trapped in a Red pincers movement. The Nationalist air arm again was effective in upsetting the assault, the report said.

Experts Take Up Study Berlin Currency Issues

Paris, Nov. 20 (AP)—Western power specialists drafting an answer to Bramuglia's Questionnaire As Key To Ending Deadlock

Western power specialists worked today on the currency control questions which Russia says are at the root of the Berlin deadlock.

A British spokesman said technical experts of the U. S., Britain and France are in session. They are drafting answers to questions submitted by Argentine Foreign Minister Juan Bramuglia, acting as spokesman for the Security Council's six neutral nations.

Argentine sources said Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, accompanied by Soviet monetary experts, is to call on Bramuglia today.

These sources said Vishinsky presumably will supply Russia's answers to Bramuglia's questions on the Berlin currency situation.

Russia wants Soviet currency accepted in all of Berlin before the blockade is lifted. The western powers say the currency issue is a prelude to drive them from Berlin. They say they will not negotiate under the pressure of the Russian blockade.

"The answers to Bramuglia's questions are not expected to be completed before Monday."

Bramuglia said yesterday a solution to the Berlin deadlock is possible "if the search for the middle way is intensified."

In a broadcast interview he suggested that the six neutral nations of the Security Council should keep the negotiations alive so that "without harming thereby and to the interest of the parties," a way might be found to lift the blockade simultaneously with the introduction of a single Berlin currency.

Will Keep Fleet In China Waters

Tsingtao, China, Nov. 20 (AP)—The United States is keeping Task Force 38 in China waters indefinitely because of the civil war.

Raleigh, N.C., Nov. 20 (AP)—North Carolina's ABC stores sold $4,658,338.15 worth of liquor last month, or about $400,000 more than in October, 1947. The increase was due to the opening of new stores.

Asheville, which started legal sales in October, 1947, accounted for all the sales increase, with sales of $409,822.85, according to State ABC Auditor Carl West.

Plea Rejected

Paris, Nov. 20 (AP)—The United States and Britain were reported today to have turned down French pleas against rebuilding Germany's industrial power.

Observers said the 10-week-old government of Premier Henri Queuille may not survive mounting parliamentary opposition to the British-American policy which conflicts with the French people's traditional desire to keep Germany weak.

Big Turnout For Santa Parade In Spite Of Drizzle

Police Estimate Throng Largest To Ever Watch Parade In Generation

By CHESTER WALSH

Yesterday's Santa Claus parade was a grand success. It was the biggest pre-Christmas parade ever held here. Thousands braved the drizzling rain to line the sidewalks and watch the procession, with Santa Claus, in a brand new suit, perched high atop a fire truck.

The parade was delayed by the rain, but when it got under way, with three brass bands—the E.C.T.O. band, High School band and C. M. Eppes Negro High School band, all of them featuring snappily attired drum majorettes—drew prolonged applause along the way.

Police estimated the Santa Claus parade crowd to be the largest to witness a parade in a generation. Police and state highway patrolmen did a wonderful job handling traffic and the crowds. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, white and colored, made a fine showing, and the Browns and Cubs marched like soldiers. The children in the parade with pets was a feature. The saddest horses and ponies was really a horse show. The pets included everything from the book. The decorated bicycles and riders in costume was a panorama of color. The clowns from the high school helped to make the parade a success.

The Judges, J. Paul Davenport of Fochus, S. C. Ives of Bethel and Louis Lane of Ayden.

Some of the children in the parade, because of the rain, did not get to wait their ribbons. They may get them at the Merchants Association office in the City Hall. Charles R. McBrayer, parade chairman, received much praise for his good work and so did Cora S. Powell, executive secretary of the association.

American Troops In Korea Said Ready To Leave

Seoul, Nov. 20 (AP)—American troops are preparing to quit Korea, Prime Minister Lee Bum Suk declared today. He warned that would be a signal for Korean Communists of the north to launch an armed invasion of South Korea.

Maj. Gen. John B. Coulter, the American commander, declined to comment. He has said, however, that the question of withdrawal would be settled when the United Nations acts on the Korean question.

The prime minister made his statement before the national assembly of the young republic, which has been set up in the American zone of South Korea. The Communists have a rival regime in the Russian north.

The assembly then adopted, 88 to 3, a resolution "acknowledging the necessity" for U.S. troops to remain in Korea until the republic's own defenses have been completed.

New Pastor

The congregation of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church will hear their new preacher, Rev. Leon Russell, for the first time at the Sunday morning service tomorrow. His appointment to Greenville was made at the recent annual conference of the Methodists held here in Greenville a couple of weeks ago. Rev. Russell comes to Greenville after having had a very successful four-year stay at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Goldsboro. Before Goldsboro, Mr. Russell held the pastorate at Centenary Methodist Church in New Bern. The four years prior to that, he spent at Hayes Barton Methodist Church in Raleigh. He organized that church and built its first unit during his stay.

Greenville Shown 'Quality Market' In Recent Survey

Higher Standard Of Living Than Most Cities In U. S. Revealed By Index

(Special to the Reflector)

New York, Nov. 20—Greenville is shown to be a quality market, with a higher standard of living than most cities in the United States, on the basis of food consumption and other indexes. The data is contained in Sales Management's latest copyrighted survey of income and expenditures.

Food purchases in Greenville last year—in meat markets, groceries, delicatessens and the like—came to $4,130,000. This was at the rate of $285 for each man, woman and child in the city. The rest of the country, in the period, spent only $218 per capita. In the South Atlantic States, food consumption totaled $168 per capita and in North Carolina, $129.

Greenville residents, because of their better earnings, were able to spend a larger part of each dollar for food than were people in most cities. Locally, 18.2 percent of all retail expenditures were for food.

Food sales in Greenville represent an increase of 49.0 percent over the previous year. That this gain goes beyond the added expenditures caused by the rise in food prices is shown by the fact that the national increase in food sales was lower, 31.4 percent.

In the other retail categories investigated, general merchandise and drugs, Greenville is also a standout city. Purchases of general merchandise rose to $4,334,000, a gain over the $3,172,000 of 1946.

Drug store buying reached $441,000, an increase over the previous year's $370,000.

CIO To Act On Hot Union Issue

Portland, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—One of the hottest issues before the CIO explodes into the open today—the question of punishing left-wing CIO councils that refuse to follow CIO policies.

The CIO executive board meets to act in the case of the greater New York industrial union council, accused of thwarting CIO policy and aiding "enemies of labor."

Other general view is that we must seek further agreement between the parties rather than attempt at this time to draw specific boundary lines.

The United States, Jessup said, is "inclined to the view that the Conciliation Commission which Count Bernadotte recommended should undertake further effort to bring about a settlement of boundary questions."

Tower Of Flame From 'Big Inch'

Communist Setback

Defeat At Suchow Does Not Mean That Reds Will Stop Efforts To Capture Nanking; A Breathing Spell; Casualties On Both Sides; How Bolshevists Get Troops

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

The Chinese government's announcement of a sweeping victory over the Communist rebels in the crucial battle of Suchow—gateway to the capital of Nanking—has been set upon in Central China as giving hope that the terrific Red offensive has been smashed.

Certainly the report is encouraging, but we shall do well to await developments before jumping to conclusions. We must bear in mind that this great battle has been raging with unabated fury for some ten days. The time has arrived when, even under far more favorable circumstances, the attacking Chinese Communists might be expected to pause to bring up their communications and repair heavy losses in men and materiel.

Thus the halt in the attack doesn't in itself mean that the Reds are knocked out. Their assault may be resumed after a breather.

The casualties have been big on both sides. A Nanking spokesman has estimated the government losses in men at 40,000. He placed the Red casualties at 130,000, much of this great loss having been due to massed Red forces being caught by Nationalist air forces on the open plain, without cover.

American Stand Before United Nations Revealed In Urging That Desert Area Should Not Be Taken From Jews Without Their Consent; Look To Entry Into UN

Paris, Nov. 20 (AP)—The United States told the United Nations today that the Negev Desert area of southern Palestine should not be taken from Israel without full consent of the Jews.

In a long-awaited statement on Palestine, the United States also told the 58-nation political committee it looks forward to admission of Israel to the United Nations.

Dr. Philip C. Jessup, the American deputy, said the government in Washington generally is in accord with the conclusions of the associated mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, with the exception of certain principles concerning boundaries.

Bernadotte proposed that the Negev be turned over to the Arabs and that the Jews take western Galilee in exchange. The Israeli, now in control of the Negev through a successful military offensive against the Egyptians, reject this. The Negev was allotted to them under the original UN partition plan.

The Political Committee scheduled this special session on the Bernadotte plan after having intended originally to adjourn for the week-end.

The British already have asked the United Nations to seek a solution in Palestine along the lines of Bernadotte's proposal. The Jews object because loss of the Negev would reduce Israeli territory by three-fifths. The Arabs reject it because it would imply recognition of Israel as a state.

Jessup said: "The distinguished representative of the United Kingdom has presented (the British proposal) with an invitation to amendment, and we might wish to avail ourselves of this invitation at a later date."

While Jessup said the United States supported Israel's claim to boundaries outlined in the original partition plan, he added:

"If Israel desires additional, it would be necessary for Israel to offer an appropriate exchange through negotiations."

This was taken by observers as an invitation to Israel to renounce western Galilee, which its forces now hold, or to offer some part of the Negev in exchange for it.

Jessup, whose speech still was described as a "preliminary" statement, said of final Holy Land boundaries:

"Our general view is that we must seek further agreement between the parties rather than attempt at this time to draw specific boundary lines."

The United States, Jessup said, is "inclined to the view that the Conciliation Commission which Count Bernadotte recommended should undertake further effort to bring about a settlement of boundary questions."

Fairyland Girls Entertain Club

By CHESTER WALSH

Seventy-five or eighty Kiwanians at the club's supper meeting last night rejoiced in the answer to a prayer, "O time, O time, in thy flight, make me a child again, just for tonight," when ten "fairies," members of Mrs. C. D. Smith's Kindergarten Class, 705 East Fourth street, none of them over five or six years old, sang and dramatized their numbers, danced and executed difficult rhythmic numbers like professionals.

The youngsters drew more applause than any program presented this year. The little girls, all members of Mrs. Smith's Kindergarten Class, appeared to enjoy the performance as much as the spectators. They were wonderful, exceptionally well trained and unusually talented.

The Kiwanians enjoyed the show and Hunter B. Keck, one of the directors, invited Mrs. Smith to take the children back again next spring for another program.

The children were lovely in their costumes and versatile in their performances. They were Linda Hunnings, Jean Stafford, Ann Pollard, Betty Ann Carawan, Alice Mae Cannon, Kay Olesby, Florence Scott, Joanne Smith, Ruth Cotton, Clara and Barbara Allen. Mrs. Ruth Moyer Clark was accompanist.

The children, who had had less than two months' training in Mrs. Smith's Kindergarten, did an excellent job and won prolonged applause.

The special guest of the Kiwanis Club last night was Rev. Leon Russell, new pastor of Jarvis Memorial Baptist Church, succeeding Rev. Robert Bradshaw, who after five years here went to Wilson. He is a native of Olen, Tenn., and was reared at Helena, Ark. His wife was Miss Alta Stone, daughter of the late E. C. Stone of Durham. Mr. Russell was formerly pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Goldsboro.

Dr. J. K. Long of East Carolina Teachers College, Inducted into membership Dr. Elmer Lamsche, a dentist, formerly of New Bern.

A special feature of the meeting was the interesting talk about Key Club activities, by Francis Joyner, Wilson Kiwanis Key Club member. The Greenville club plans to organize a Key Club of young students here.

Dr. John D. Messtck, president of B.C.T.C. announced that a meeting will be held at the college next Monday night to ascertain the prospects of obtaining a stadium for the college and taking more interest in athletics, especially football.

President Brooks announced that the Kiwanians are planning to attend in a body religious service at Eighth Street Christian Church next Sunday at 11 a. m., when Dr. H. Glenn Hanev will preach a special sermon. It is a custom of the Kiwanis club to attend at stated times churches whose pastors are members of the club. Dr. Davis L. By CHESTER WALSH

If the Pulitzer newspaper prizes were given for church bulletins, Rev. Richard E. Hardaway's bulletin of this week for Memorial Baptist Church would win one of the awards. The bulletin is neatly printed, is nicely edited and contains a lot of interesting reading matter.

One of the items tells about Miss Gloria Blanton, in charge of the E.C.T. Student Center, 404 East Eighth Street, and sponsored by Immanuel and Memorial Baptist churches, taking five college students—boys and girls—to a Baptist Student Union Convention in Glasgow, Scotland, and having the engine of her car get out of order. The cylinder head broke while they were near Saratoga.

Miss Blanton contacted a friend in Greenville. The friend offered the religious worker the use of her car. Miss Blanton came back to Greenville. Mrs. Chester Walsh had her car serviced and ready to travel. Miss Blanton drove back to Saratoga, picked up her students and they did a lot of good at the convention.

Incidentally, Miss Blanton's personal car cost $297 to replace the engine. In appreciation of her good work the Baptists are going to help her out on the expense.

The Greenville Woman's Club celebrated National Book Week by placing in Sheppard Memorial Library an edition of Wallace Nutting's "Furniture Treasury." These books help to complete the library's collection of books on furniture and household furnishings, which will be helpful to women interested in antiques of all kinds.

Communist . . .

"The people in the Communist controlled areas are living under government control. They are simple peasant folk who want peace so that they can go about their business of farming. They would gladly support the government if they had the chance."

Dr. Peng's appraisal of the situation fits with established methods of the Bolsheviks in other theatres of Asia and Europe.

Babson . . .

from Moscow, you will agree that the long-range goals of labor and management should be as follows: (1) Continuous steady employment; (2) good working conditions; (3) full wages based upon productivity; (4) ample profits for the business to insure good wages, to attract venture capital, and thereby expand the business; and (5) freedom for any wage worker making good to become a capitalist, but with assurance that any employer who does not will drop back into the wage earning group. These goals, however, will be achieved only when labor and management understand the other's job and work together.

It is increasingly apparent that union leaders and management alike expect the other fellow to follow a course which they themselves cannot take and survive. Management says that we shall have peace when unions do not infringe upon its sacred rights. The unions say that we shall have peace when labor is not made secondary to management.

A Warning I predict that if labor and management do not do a thorough job of understanding one another during the next few years, we shall not only have a depression, but we shall have such regimentation of labor and management that there will no longer be either free unions or free enterprise.

Strength FOR THE DAY

AN ISSUE PLAINLY SEEN
John Wesley had a great mother. Susanna Wesley, whose influence upon her distinguished son was a large factor in the founding of the Methodist Church. No one ever brought up her children in the same care and attention as the Lord more seriously than did Susanna Wesley. God made her a great mother that she might be his instrument for the training of great sons. Her definition of sin gives us an insight into her spiritual nature. "Whatever weakens your reason," she said, "impairs the tenderness of your conscience, obscures your sense of God, takes away your relish for spiritual things; whatever increased the authority of your body over your mind—that is sin."
Susanna Wesley would have scoffed at the idea that she was a theologian, but in all the creeds in Christendom no better definition of sin is to be found than hers. She knew little of philosophy, but she knew much of life.

Around Capitol Square

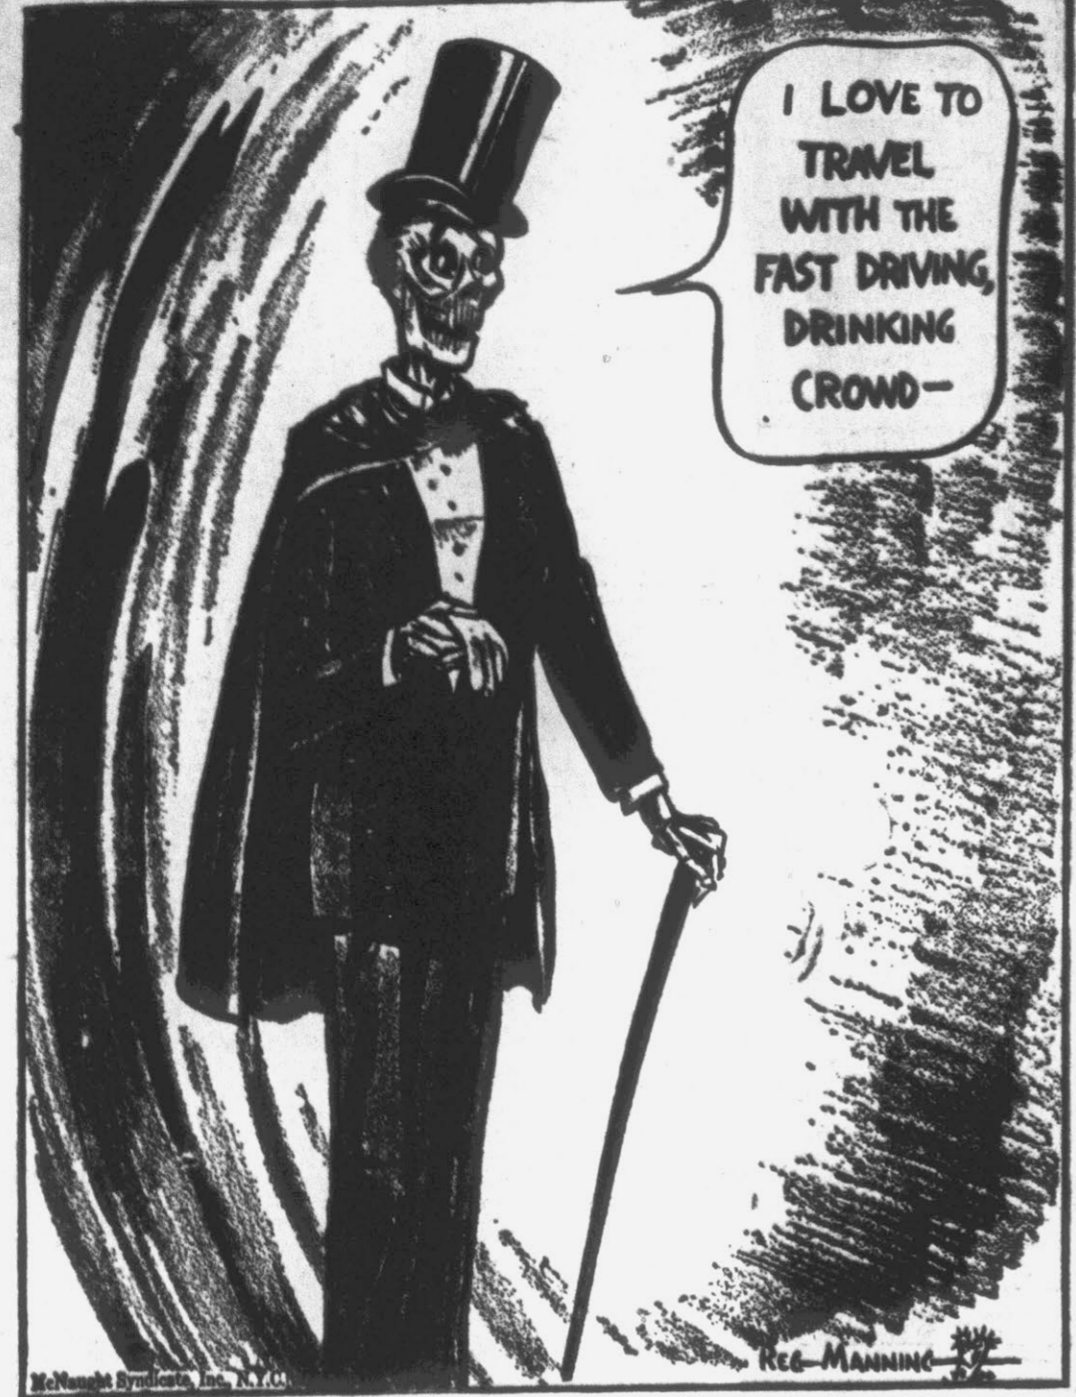

BY LYNN NISBET
SCHOOLS—Informal conversations among state superintendents held in Raleigh during the past week emphasized more than the formal program or authorized interviews that there is a lot of confusion in school administration. Superintendents are particularly concerned with the business end of the school system, although they must keep close relationship to instructional services. There was evident some lack of satisfaction with curricula, teacher rating and other phases of overall activity, but principal complaint was that division of authority and evidence of jealous rivalry at top state levels is causing a lot of waste in administration all the way down to the one-teacher school.

DIVIDED—Much of the off-record talk had to do with the developing scrap for control of the huge sums of money sought for operation of the public school system. This situation is not new, but it is obviously more serious than a quarter billion dollars of tax money is involved than it was when the total school budget, state and local, was counted in thousands instead of in hundreds of millions of dollars. Rivalry began when the first state equalization fund was set up, and a statutory appointive board empowered to administer it. Through-out the two decades of the twenties and thirties there was evidence of jealousy between the elected state superintendent and the appointed equalization board which was later the state school commission. It became acute when the state assumed full (?) responsibility for teacher salaries and other school expenses in 1933 and appropriated sixteen million dollars a year for schools. The appropriation this year is almost four times that amount, and for the next two years it is asked that the present 60-odd millions a year be almost doubled. Requested operational budget for the biennium is $221,000,000 and in addition there is asked $50,000,000 for school house building.

CONTROL—Besides these big sums, there are requests for additional health work allocations and other expanded services. Control of this vast amount of money is a prize eagerly sought. So far most of the scrapping has been under cover, but it may break out any time. There was evidence of it in the several presentations to the budget commission and in questions asked by budgeters and Governor-elect Kerr Scott. The situation has occasioned fear among some local unit school folks that energy which ought to be devoted to improvement of the public school system is being dissipated in the contest for priority in control of the money.

CONFLICT—The state constitution, which has been changed twice on this point within the past six years, sets out that the state superintendent is the administrative head of the public school system. It also says the general administration of the free public school system and the funds provided therefor shall be vested in a state board of education. The superintendent is constitutionally designated member and secretary of the board of education, but the board is required to elect a chairman and vice chairman. Statutory authority under the constitution is given the board to appoint a controller who shall have charge of fiscal affairs of the board. That direct conflict in constitution-at home in the historic yellow mansion where kings and chiefs of state usually stay as guests of the president on visits to the capital. They lived at Blair House for a spell back in the Spring of 1948, before they moved into the White House after Mr. Truman was suddenly shunted into the presidency upon the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Other than the White House, Blair House is probably the best known villa in Washington today. The government bought the property for $180,000. The government put up an estimated additional $150,000 for its fine furnishings, accumulated over a century by a family accustomed to beautiful things and with the means to buy them.

Since then King George of Greece and Peter of Yugoslavia, Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, Arabian princes, Latin American diplomats, Molotov, great world bankers and scholars, UN delegates and other notables have stayed there. The government bought Blair House because that "home atmosphere" creates good will. To complete the "home" picture the official hostess and custodian of Uncle Sam's guest house is Mrs. Virginia Geaney. She served the fabulous Blair family for 25 years. State Department officials say "she came with the house."

Blair House has been famous for more than 100 years. Francis Preston Blair bought it in 1836. Among its tenants have been George Bancroft, Secretary of the Navy John Mason, one-time minister to France; Thomas Ewing, the first Secretary of the Interior, whose son-in-law was to become the famous Civil War general William Tecumseh Sherman, and Thomas Corwin, President Fillmore's treasury secretary.

The Blair family came back to their home in the 1880s, and Montgomery Blair lived there when he was postmaster general under President Lincoln. The story goes that Robert E. Lee was offered command of the Union Army in Blair House in 1861.

The drawing rooms are rich with Aubusson carpets, crystal chandeliers, Chippendale, Adams and Queen Anne furniture. But the piano-playing president and his musical daughter, Margaret, will probably delight most of all in the Broadstreet piano that dates back to 1800.

The Trumans will feel very much

Washington — It looks like the country's "most exclusive boarding house" will be the home of America's No. 1 family this winter. With the closing down of the White House for "extensive repairs" and the renovation of the entire second floor, the Trumans are expected to move down the street a piece into Blair House.

E. S. Webb Heads Committee For Xmas Seal Sales

Mr. Ercell S. Webb, of Carolina Dairy Products, Inc., will serve as chairman of the Personal Solicitation committee of the 1949 Christmas Seal Sale which will be conducted on Nov. 22-23, it was announced by Mr. J. H. Waldrop, President of the Pitt County Tuberculosis Association. Mr. Webb and members of his committee will approach individuals and groups that may want to give larger contributions than the average Seal subscription.

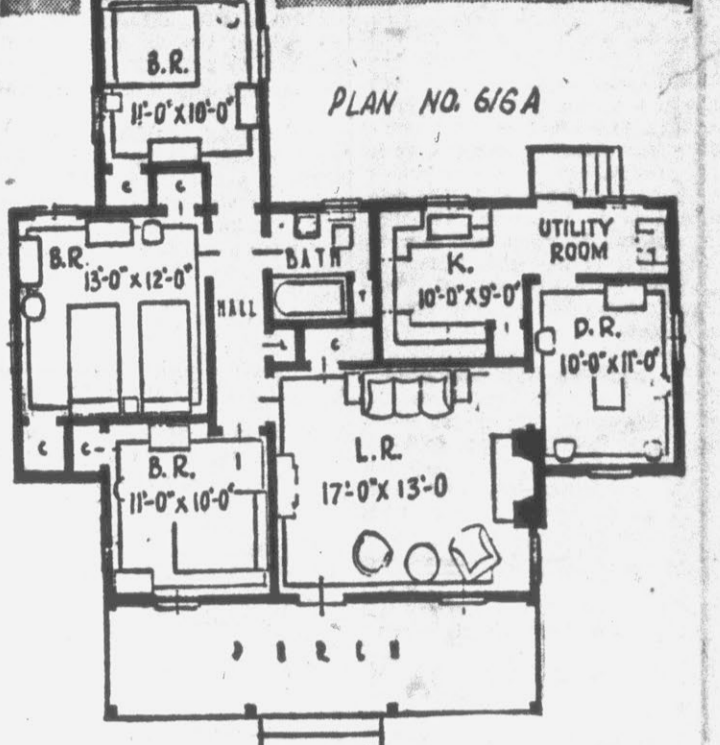

"While the Christmas Seal Sale is conducted for the most part by mail," Mr. Waldrop explained, "the generous contributions secured through personal contacts are important in helping us meet our quota. Many individuals, organizations and firms prefer to contribute the larger sums according to their means."

"A Christmas Seal bond, signed by the president of the Pitt County Tuberculosis Association, is offered each contributor of $10 or more. These bonds are issued in various denominations up to $1,000 and they testify that the purchasers, have made sound investments in the protection of their own health and that of their community."

Mr. Webb, in accepting the appointment, said that he would gladly assume the important responsibilities of the post because he wished to do all he could to assure the continuation and expansion of the tuberculosis association's projects.

Seal Sale funds are the sole support of the tuberculosis association. Its year-round activities include: Education, case-finding, rehabilitation, and research. With every increase in Seal Sale funds the program becomes broader and better.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

A modern adaptation of the southern colonial themes, this small house can be built with or without the rear bedroom wing, which can be added later. This plan 616-A, by the Small Home Plan Service, Shaw & Renneker, architects, Box 2821 Woodlawn Station, Birmingham 6, Ala., covers an area of 1,097 square feet, exclusive of porch, which adds 192 square feet.

Loaded For Birds, He Brought Down Buck

Duanesburg, N.Y., Nov. 20.—(AP) Philip Christman's gun was loaded for birds, but the hunter brought down a 170-pound buck.

Christman says the deer stood a few feet away and watched while he took the bird shot shells from his gun and replaced them with slugs.

More Danes Are Leaving Country

Copenhagen.—(AP)—More and more Danes want to leave their native country and settle down as immigrants in other continents. America is generally preferred. The Danish state runs an emigration office. Nine hundred people left Denmark in 1947; 770 went to the United States of America, the rest to British dominions. This year 1,000 Danes have emigrated 650 going to the U. S. A., 200 to Canada, 54 to Australia, 26 to New Zealand and the rest to various parts of the world. By the end of this year it is expected that more than 1,800 persons will have left Denmark for good.

The U. S. has a quota of 1,181 Danes yearly. No other country has a definite quota saying how many Danes will be allowed to settle down in their territory. Emigrating Danes are not allowed to take with them more than $50. The reason for increasing emigration from Denmark appears to be fear of a future European war and the feeling that bigger states offer better prospects.

Colored Leaders To Meet Here Sunday

A group of religious and civic leaders are calling a meeting in the interest of Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. Sunday afternoon, Nov. 21, 1948, at the colored Y.M.C.A. building on Second Street. The women will meet at 3 o'clock and the men at 4 o'clock. These groups are interested in organizing and electing permanent officers for both groups. There are several religious and civic leaders of the colored group who feel the responsibility and are anxious to have every man and woman who is interested in the welfare religiously, educationally, morally and socially to be present and help to improve the living condition of the people.

"What are we waiting for? We can only make these improvements successfully by working together for a common good of all people. Let us as peace loving citizens make a sacrifice and come out Sunday afternoon, Nov. 21, at 3 to 4 o'clock and bring a friend with you," a leader said today.

Pirates Lose To ACC By 6-0 In Sea Of Mud

Decisive Tally Came In Fourth Quarter, Climaxing 25-Yard March; Bucs' Best Offensive Showing In First Period

Atlantic Christian's Bulldogs battled their way out of the North State Conference cellar here last night by bulldozing a single touchdown over the goal in the fourth quarter to defeat the Buccaneers of East Carolina Teachers College six to nothing.

traditional rivals. The game clinching tally came on the second play of the fourth quarter when AC fullback Clyde Sullivan ploughed through the middle to score from the two yard line. The touchdown climaxed a 25 yard march set off by Pat's punt return to the ECTC 25.

East Carolina never threatened. The dynamic punting of AC's Harry Helmer repeatedly had them with their backs in the shadow of their own goal posts. Helmer twice kicked out on the six inch line and chalked up a mighty 48 yard booting average despite the muddy grid-iron.

Bill Darby, halfback, help up ECTC's end of the punting duel with an average of 40 yards. The greatest show of Buccaneer offensive power came in the opening quarter when they drove from their own 20 to the 32 of AC. A 15 yard penalty and a determined Bulldog eleven put an end to the drive there.

ECTC gained possession of the ball deep in AC territory early in the third period when End Mickey Wetherington recovered a fumbled punt, but the Pirates lost the ball on downs on the Bulldog 25 after gaining seven yards.

Johnny Smith, Ike Davis, Bill Darby and Doug Bryant bore the brunt of the ECTC ball carrying while Pat Patterson, Sullivan and Tom Callahan sparked the AC offensive.

It was impossible to distinguish who made the tackles since the mud wiped out all means of identification after the first two plays but both the ECTC and the AC forward walls played heads up ball all the way.

First downs favored Atlantic Christian nine to four but the Pirates rolled up 160 yards rushing while the winners netted 127.

The crack ECTC band, usually on hand for the Pirate games, was unable to perform due to the condition of the field. But the fans were not without music as some 15 ECTC male students paraded down the rainswept field and played imaginary instruments. They came to a halt in front of the ECTC stand and sang the National Anthem while the students stood.

Double Duty

Albany, Ore., Nov. 20—(AP)—Ever hear of a halfback who caught his own punt and ran to a touchdown? Jimmy Jenks did it for Albany High school here last night in a state quarter-final football game.

Jenks punted from his own 23-yard line, and a charging Grants Pass line blocked the ball. It bounded back into Jenks' hands. He circled the linemen and ran 78 yards to score.

It was all to no avail. Grants Pass recovered from this blow and won, 13-7.

Booth: guards—Cockrell and Ellis; center—Prominski; quarterback—Msemle; halfbacks—Darby and Wood; fullback—Smith.

Camped Out For Bowl Ticket Sale

New Orleans, La., Nov. 20—(AP)—Nearly 2,000 determined Sugar Bowl fans camped overnight in a cold, whipping breeze at Tulane Stadium to be on hand today for the first and probably the only public ticket sale.

The long, serpentine line winding down the sidewalk displayed an array of blankets, coats, playing cards, sandwiches, parkas, fleece-lined jackets and party-like morale builders. A passer-by remarked "Jees, all that for a football game—and they don't even know what teams are going to play."

And he's right. Frank Schaub, president of the sponsoring Mid-Winter Sports Association, said yesterday it is possible an announcement of teams might be made soon after the final scores are in on Nov. 27.

"There are honeys coming up on the 27th and anything can happen," he said. He indicated that he expected the announcement to be made by Dec. 1.

Promptly at 9 a.m. today, the ticket windows were to crash open. Exactly 5,978 grid fans will be able to grab 11,956 tickets for the 15th annual Sugar Bowl classic.

Graziano Back After Vanishing On Two Trips

New York, Nov. 20—(AP)—Rocky Graziano was back home today after two disappearances in two days on opposite coasts.

The former middleweight king had been in California training for a fight, Dec. 1, at Oakland with Fred Apostoll. Thursday he took a walk and didn't come back. Yesterday he turned up at his Brooklyn home. Then he disappeared again.

Irving Cohen, his manager, said he reached Rocky by phone last night. He made a date to meet him today to find out the reason for his fighter's travels. Cohen said Graziano didn't actually disappear last night, but had gone out with his family after returning home.

Shotton Aims To Train In Miami

Miami, Fla., Nov. 20—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers will be training in Miami next spring if Manager Eustace Shotton has his way.

Shotton, mid-major league veteran of professional baseball who replaced Leo Durocher as manager last fall, made a quick survey of Miami's baseball facilities and said: "If the city wants us, I don't see any reason why we won't be here next March."

He said the final decision, however, must be made by Club President Branch Rickey.

Shotton said he had looked at a number of prospective sites for the Dodger spring camp, adding: "I'm very enthusiastic about this place. It has everything our organization wants."

A principal selling point, Shotton said, was the proximity to the Vero Beach, Fla., camp operated by the Dodger farm system for all of its minor league clubs.

"Mr. Rickey and I want to keep close tabs on the youngsters in the spring and there's no trouble at all to get up to Vero from here."

It was previously announced that the Dodgers would train with their farm clubs at Vero Beach.

Cerdan Listens To Ring Offers

New York, Nov. 20—(AP)—Marcel Cerdan, the hottest drawing card in boxing outside of Joe Louis, is back in town, listening to offers.

The tipoff on the dollar value of the Frenchman with the laughing eyes is the fact that he was met at the plane by both Harry Markson of the 20th Century Sporting club and Andy Niederreiter of the rival tournament of champions.

Cerdan is under contract to defend his middleweight title for the T. of C. next June against Tony Zale, the man he knocked out at Jersey City in September. But he's not under contract for over-the-weight appearances.

"I am sure he will fight for both promoters this winter," said Sammy Richman, who will represent him on his current exhibition tour. "We are not involved in any boxing war. The Garden gave us our first chance and the T. of C. gave us a shot at the title. There is no reason we can not fight for both."

Richman didn't mention it but there is another factor. Lew Burston, Cerdan's American representative, recently became European talent scout for the 20th Century. He and Lucien Roupp, Cerdan's manager, are due within a week.

Chandler Again Looks Up Doings Of Leo Durocher

Cincinnati, Nov. 20—(AP)—Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler is casting an inquiring look again at the doings of Leo Durocher.

The Commissioner tossed Durocher out of baseball for the 1947 season because of conduct detrimental to the game and now he wants to know the circumstances surrounding the signing of Freddy Fitzsimmons as a coach for the New York Giants, now managed by Durocher.

Durocher was in trouble the first time as manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Fitzsimmons was a coach for the Boston Braves last season and the Commissioner would like to know why and how "Fitz" was signed to a Giant agreement while he still was under contract to the Braves.

Veck Gives Up Trying To Talk Deal With Mack

Philadelphia, Nov. 20—(AP)—Bill Veck, Cleveland Indians' president, was still in town today but he's given up hope of talking Connie Mack out of one of his leading pitchers.

Mack, although in the market for infield and outfield strength for his Athletics, turned down Veck yesterday when the boss man of the world champion Indians dangled the names of several promising youngsters and veterans in front of him.

"Furthermore," Connie added, "I have money to spend. If Mr. Veck wants to sell me some of his players, I'll do business with him. But not one of my pitchers is for sale or trade."
