Bramuglia Says Soviet Response Is Hopeful Sign

Answers To Currency Questionnaire 'Satisfactory'; West Works On Replies

Paris, Nov. 22—(AP)—Juan A. Bramuglia of Argentina said today the Russian answer to his Berlin currency questionnaire "appears to be satisfactory."

The November president of the United Nations Security Council said, however, a comparison of the Russian reply with the answers from the United States, Britain and France, expected to be delivered to him today, is necessary to decide if a basis of agreement on the Berlin crisis can be reached.

Bramuglia said he had scheduled a meeting of the six "neutral" members of the Security Council to begin as soon as the western replies are received. If the six neutrals decide they can work out a new plan to end the Berlin dispute, it is likely the full council will be convened by the end of this month to consider their plan formally.

The six nations who will meet are Argentina, Belgium, China, Colombia and Syria.

Western power fiscal experts from Washington, London and Berlin held a week-long meeting writing coordinated answers.

Dr. Herbert V. Ewart of Australia, president of the general assembly, said yesterday there are reasonable prospects for a Berlin settlement within the next three weeks.

Gloomy predictions came from Berlin where the opinions of most top western allied officials are contrary to Ewart's hopeful attitude.

These western officials in Berlin say U. N. attempts to find a Berlin compromise appear doomed to failure in view of Soviet actions in the German capital. The officials believe these actions would nullify the effect of any currency reform formula before it is even discussed.

Russia has successfully obscured the real issues in the Berlin blockade by much double talk on currency, these officials feel. They said the Soviet blockade was imposed for two reasons: to drive the western powers from Berlin and to force abandonment of western plans to form a west German state.

Former 'Spy' To Accept Summons

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 22—(AP)—A self-admitted former Russian spy returns today to a Catholic retreat in the New York City area after urging a lecture audience in her girlhood home city to "be patient" with her former associates in the Communist party.

Miss Elizabeth I. Bentley, whose appearance here yesterday was her first in public since her conversion to Catholicism earlier this month, also told reporters she would accept a summons in a $100,000 slander suits brought by William W. Remington, former Commerce Department official.

Majority Favor Tokyo Verdicts

Tokyo, Nov. 22—(AP)—Only two representatives of the 11-nation forming the far eastern commission dissented today to the Tokyo war trials verdicts. The other nine said the verdicts satisfied them.

B. N. Chakravarty of India and Baron E. J. Leve Van Aduard of the Netherlands supported the dissenting opening of the judges on the international tribunal from their countries.

Big Attendance At 4-H Program

Awards Made To Winners In 26 Contests, Projects

Over 200 Pitt County boys and girls and their parents attended the annual 4-H achievement day program at the armory in Greenville Friday night.

Awards were made to the winners in the 26 contests and projects carried out in the county 4-H program during the year, and the Sweet Gum Grove club received the county 4-H gavel for having 100 per cent attendance at the program and also the award for the largest percentage of the year's record books turned in.

Hazel Garris of the Farmville senior club was presented awards for the county championship in leadership, better methods electric and the dairy food demonstration projects, a $100 scholarship to the college of her choice for the district championship in the better methods electric project and a certificate and gold watch for winning the state championship in the dairy foods demonstration project. Miss Garris will attend the National 4-H Club congress which convenes in Chicago next week.

Curtis Lee of the Paction senior club received the award for the county tobacco championship, and was also the state winner in the project. He averaged 2,356 pounds of tobacco per acre and averaged $53 per hundred for his sales.

Kenneth Randolph of the Belvoir senior club received awards for the county meat animal project and the county leadership award for boys.

Edgar Latham of the Grimesland senior club was the winner of the county better methods electric and the field crop projects.

Winners of the county projects are as follows:

Better Methods Electric Project: Edgar H. Latham, Grimesland Junior Club.

Dairy Production: Herbert Smith, Paction Senior Club; Franklin Porter, Grimesland Junior Club.

Corn: Mack Harris, Falkland Club.

Tobacco: Curtis Lee, Paction Senior Club.

Baby Beel: Milton Spain, Belvoir Senior Club.

Brood Sow: Charles Joyner, Fountain Club.

Pig: Teddy Allen, Farmville Club.

Peanut: Dalton Rollins, Sweet Gum Grove Club.

Sweet Potato: James Langley, Falkland Club.

Garden: Jarvis Josh Mills.

Verdict Upheld

Washington, Nov. 22—(AP)—The Federal Court of Appeals today affirmed the perjury conviction of Harold Christoffel, one-time Milwaukee labor leader.

The former president of Local 248, UAW-CIO, at the Allis-Chalmers plant, was convicted here in federal district court last March of falsely telling the House Labor Committee he never had been a Communist.

Christoffel was sentenced to a two to six year federal prison term by District Judge Edward M. Curran who then released him on $5,000 bail pending appeal.

Clears Path For Old North State

Attorney General's Opinion Permits Firm To Proceed

In an opinion to the Commissioner of Insurance last week, North Carolina Attorney General Harry McCullum permitted the Old North State Insurance company to continue soliciting stock for the company under its existing charter.

Robert Van Iderstine, company president, said today the next steps in the company's plans have been approved by William Hodges, commissioner of insurance, and that plans are being laid to proceed with the solicitations of stock. The board of directors of the Old North State Insurance company will meet tomorrow night.

When stock solicitations did not reach the $600,000 needed to license the company for operation by November 15, the company had to wait for the attorney general's opinion which would either permit the company to continue soliciting stock under its old charter, or require a new charter to be obtained.

Israeli Complain Egypt Attacking In Negev Desert

Tel Aviv, Israel, Nov. 22—(AP)—Israeli officials told United Nations truce supervisors Sunday that Egyptians had attacked the Jews in the Negev desert for three days.

"The defense army of Israel takes an extremely serious view of these actions," the Israelis told Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, chief of the U. N. team.

Previous reports in Tel Aviv have said the Egyptians were just about expelled from Southern Palestine except in the Gaza coastal area. Israel informed the U. N. in Paris last week had withdrawn from the Negev all troops not there before Oct. 14.

Leaf Warehouse Damaged In Fire

Fuquay-Varina, Nov. 22—(AP)—Damage estimated at about $115,000 resulted when fire destroyed the New Deal warehouse No. 1 here today. Fire trucks from Raleigh, Angler and Apex were summoned to assist the local fire department before the blaze was brought under control about 10 a. m.

King Roberts, owner of the building, said there was about $10,000 worth of leaf tobacco and about $15,000 in scrap wood on the floor of the warehouse when it went up in flames.

Leaf Warehouse Damaged In Fire

Rutherfordton, Nov. 22—(AP)—A farm woman stood by helplessly listening to the screams of her twin boys as they died in a blazing barn yesterday.

Mrs. Emer Bolling went looking for her 3 1/2-year-old children, Rudy and Jerry, after they left the house. She saw the barn in flames, then, and heard the screams.

Mr. and Mrs. Bollings, who have three other boys, will take the ashes of their twins to Norton, Va., where they once lived.

Hints 'Break' In Shipping Tie-Up

Possibility Seen With Injection Of New Welfare Plan

New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—The possibility of a "major break" in the 13-day-old East coast waterfront tieup was reported today by a source close to employer and union groups.

The source, who asked that he not be identified, made his statement shortly before a bargaining committee of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association met with federal negotiators.

He added that the "major break" was the possibility that the union committee would agree to take a new employer offer—apparently a welfare plan—the rank-and-file membership for ratification or rejection. Details of the welfare plan have not been disclosed.

It was reliably reported earlier in Washington that the welfare plan would be in addition to an employer offer of an increase of 10 cents an hour in the basic pay rate of $1.75 an hour. This increase offer was rejected by 65,000 members of the IILA before the strike.

Joseph P. Ryan, president of the IILA, told newsmen before today's session that there had been "no developments since Saturday night."

Pitt To Get Large Share Of Beer - Wine Refund

By LYNN NISBET

Raleigh, Nov. 22—More than 400 checks aggregating nearly three million dollars went out from the state department of revenue during the past week to counties and municipalities. The amount represented the local government's share in the tax on beer and fortified wines collected by the state for the period between October 1, 1947, and September 30, 1948.

Pitt County will receive $34,191.72; Ayden, $1,658.65; Bethel, $1,173.56; Farmville, $2,623.54; Fountain, $425.23; Greenville, $11,157.97; Grifton, $401.45; Grimesland, $356.55; Winterville, $746.57; Falkland, $185.51.

Total collections amounted to over six million dollars. Under a 1947 law half of the total is turned back to counties and municipalities which license beer and wine dealers. The local government's part for the year was $2,979,116.76 after deducting amounts retained

Christmas Seal Sale Is Opened In County Today

The 1948 Christmas Seal Sale opens officially today, November 22 in Pitt County, with the delivery of Seals in the morning mail to county residents. Pitt county's Seal Sale is held in conjunction with the nationwide appeal for funds to support a battle against tuberculosis waged throughout the country by the 3,000 associations affiliated with the National Tuberculosis Association.

The annual Seal Sale, which will continue until Christmas, represents the only appeal during the year for funds to carry on the year-round tuberculosis control work of the Pitt County Tuberculosis Association.

"The nationwide fight against tuberculosis today is just as important as it was in 1907, the year of the first Seal Sale in the United States," Mr. Waldrop said. "Although tuberculosis has dropped from first to seventh place as the cause of death in America since 1907, the disease still kills nearly 50,000 Americans annually. While no one is safe from

Suchow Again Is Said Menaced By Communist Army

East Flank Of City Is Threatened; Gov't Failed Follow Up Advantage

Nanking, Nov. 22—(AP)—Independent military dispatches today indicated Communists are threatening the east flank of Suchow.

Pro-government reports, however, insisted National troops still held the initiative in the resurgence of fighting mostly centered around Nienchiung, 30 miles east of Suchow.

Government armored cars, reports said, spearheaded National forces in a battle in the outskirts of Nienchiung. Many Reds were reported killed.

Chinese military observers said today that apparently government forces did not follow up an advantage gained last week when air raids forced the Red forces to hunt cover.

South of Suchow fighting was reported centered around Suhsien, midway between Pengpu and Suchow. Government troops reportedly had cleared the area. Suchow, 180 miles northwest of Nanking guards the approach to the national capital.

Northward in Peiping, Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, Nationalist commander, declared martial law in the five provinces he commands. Parades and other demonstrations were banned. Light fighting between Red and government troops took place outside of Peiping.

A band of some 200 Communists raided a government passenger train bound from Kalgan to Peiping on Saturday. Five passengers were killed by the wildly firing Reds who detonated a mine under the train.

A government force arrived on the scene and killed 60 of the attacking Reds before they withdrew after robbing the passengers and taking hostages. Some 100 passengers were reported captured but a few were released later.

From Shanghai the transport Butner sailed with 123 Americans plus 39 Navy dependents. The ship will pick up 40 more Americans at Tientsin.

There was no definite word that a big new battle for Suchow was underway already.

Singer's Plane Is Long Overdue

Hayward, Wis., Nov. 22—(AP)—A single-engine monoplane with Singer Bobby Breen as a passenger disappeared on a 300-mile flight across Wisconsin yesterday bringing fears the ship may have crashed in an isolated forest area.

Ernie Roth, Canton, O., advance agent for the former Child Motion Picture star, said Breen and his pilot, Kenneth Thompson of Waukesha, Wis., were long overdue on a flight from Waukesha to Hayward.

Roth said he feared "something must have happened."

Marshall Returns For Conferences

President Greet Secretary Of State And Wife In Pelting Rain; China War To Present Most Urgent Problem

Washington, Nov. 22—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall arrived today from Paris for a foreign policy review with President Truman. Mr. Truman greeted him at the airport.

Marshall arrived at 10:10 a.m. (EST) after a trip which started at Paris at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Paris time.

The Secretary stepped from the plane, The Sacred Cow, into a drizzling rain.

The formal conferences between the President and Secretary of State were set to begin at 12:30 p.m.

Before talking with Marshall, Mr. Truman had conferences scheduled with Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, Secretary of Defense Forrestal, and W. Averell Harriman, roving ambassador for the European Cooperation Administration.

When Marshall stepped from his plane, reporters besieged him with questions.

In comment on the United Nations meeting at Paris, Marshall told them, "I think a great deal of understanding has resulted from what has already happened."

Asked whether he was going back to the UN meeting, he said that he did not know.

President Truman sent forward one of his associates with an umbrella to escort Marshall to the airport building shed. The President himself then walked out in the pelting rain to greet first Mrs. Marshall, then the general.

He said to each one in turn, "It's sure good to see you."

The trip home is Marshall's first since October 9. State Department officials said it is uncertain whether he will go back to Paris since the United Nations assembly has only a short time longer to run.

Diplomatic authorities agreed that China presents Mr. Truman and Marshall with their most urgent—and in some ways most difficult—problem.

There was no assurance that they would try to reach any sort of final conclusions in their first round of talks, but speculation persisted that some kind of statement might be forthcoming.

Before Mr. Truman is a request from Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek for the United States, in effect, to take over the running of Chiang's war against the Communists through American military advisers in China as well as greatly increase this country's material help to the Chinese armies.

Madam Chiang-Kai-shek Appeals To U.S. For Help

San Francisco, Nov. 22—(AP)—Madame Chiang Kai-shek has asked the United States for immediate aid in China's critical civil war.

Her appeal was made in Nanking yesterday and was broadcast by the American Broadcasting Company in a hookup with the Chinese capital.

Said the wife of China's president: "I only ask this—to tell you that any further aid must be immediate and definite.

"If Communism prevails in China, you, my friends, will ultimately also be suffering.

"For with China's strategic position, resources and manpower in Communist hands, you yourself will be greatly weakened.

"If China falls, all of Asia goes. And certainly Asia's importance to world peace is not one whit less than that of Europe.

Militant Policy Backed By AFL

Union Delegates Adopt Declaration Aimed At USSR

Cincinnati, Nov. 22—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor today adopted a militant policy declaration calling for a military alliance against Soviet Russia and breaking off of trade relations with the U.S.S.R. until the Berlin blockade is ended.

The 650 delegates accepted the recommendations of the AFL Committee on International Labor Relations. The approval was routine as the delegates hastened to adjourn the 67th annual convention by midnight. Originally, it had been expected to run through most of this week.

The committee's report covered 18 points.

"Totalitarian Russia's aggressive intent presents a grave challenge, not only to America, but a dire threat to the entire free world," the committee said. "Today, it is only America's flaming devotion to democracy and our mighty industrial potential that stand in the way of the Communist colossus from the east overrunning Western Europe."

The proposals that this country enter into a military alliance with friendly nations and cease trade relations with Russia were two points in a 10-point program which the committee asked delegates to approve. The military alliance point also urged the United States defenses be placed "in complete readiness and invincibility."

Another point asked the AFL to reject "all maneuvers to undermine the authority of the United Nations and the solidarity of democratic nations through private arrangements between the U.S. and Russia, special confabs between chiefs of state or missions to Moscow."

Teamsters Stage New York Strike

New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—Some 3,500 AFL teamsters struck today, crippling movement of freight from the New York Central and Pennsylvania railroad yards.

The Pennsylvania immediately imposed an embargo on New York-bound freight of less than railroad lots.

The walkout, directed against 350 trucking companies here, also snarled or cut off other delivery channels which distribute general merchandise and some foods to the city's retail outlets.

Tobacco Marts Reach New Lows

Raleigh, Nov. 22—(AP)—New season lows were reached last week in some markets operating on the three tobacco belts in North Carolina.

Declines on the Old Belt ranged from 50 cents to $4 from prices the week before last. Sales amounted to 11,643,983 pounds for an average of $40.83.

The Middle Belt sold 4,989,440 pounds for $41.16. This was $2.34 under the week before. On the eastern North Carolina belt an average of $39.85 was set on 2,305,160 pounds.

Confirm Move By Soviet Marshal

Berlin, Nov. 22—(AP)—American intelligence sources today confirmed a German press report that Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, chief of the Soviet western armies, had established headquarters in the Russian zone of Germany.

The report in the anti-Communist newspaper "Montag's Echo" said the headquarters was at Puerstenberg. The paper claimed he had moved his main seat to the small Mecklenburg town from Interburg in East Prussia.

Might Postpone Filibuster Curb For Compromise

Senate Democrats Seek Civil Rights Compromise With Dixie Colleagues

Washington, Nov. 22—(AP)—Senate Democratic leaders may postpone any effort to block future filibusters while they seek a compromise with Dixie opponents of civil rights measures.

Reporting this, a Democratic official said one plan under discussion is to have a committee study the whole question of revising Senate rules.

As the code now stands, a score of Southerners can prevent the Senate from acting on any civil rights measure by talking indefinitely against a motion to take up such a bill.

The Cloture—closing of debate—rule applies only when a bill actually is before the Senate. It doesn't work against a motion.

For that reason, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) told reporters that, for practical purposes, "The existing Cloture rule isn't worth anything."

He noted too that opponents can filibuster any motion to change the rule, as Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) already has. He predicted Southern members will do Vandenberg's bidding to favor a rule change to make Cloture—which requires approval of two-thirds of those voting apply at anytime.

An administration Democrat, who didn't want to be named publicly, agreed with Vandenberg's analysis of the ineffectiveness of the present Cloture rule.

Because of this situation, the Democrat said it may be necessary for the party leadership to compromise with the Southerners if it is to make any headway with President Truman's proposals for laws banning job discrimination, punishing lynching, abolishing state poll taxes and curbing race segregation.

Some Southerners have indicated they might be willing to accept modified versions of anti-poll tax and anti-lynching bills. They have drawn the line, however, at accepting anti-job discrimination and anti-segregation measures.

As an anti-filibuster from Vandenberg proposed that the Senate change its rules to permit 80 per cent of its members to force a vote any time on national emergency measures.

This wouldn't affect the civil rights controversy, because at least 20 Senators, more than 20 per cent of its members, always oppose such proposals.

Opposition To Reds 'Smashed'

Washington, Nov. 22—(AP)—The United States charged today that Bulgaria's Communist government has smashed its last parliamentary opposition with a series of "Iron Curtain" trials.

Nine persons were given sentences ranging up to life terms in trials held November 8-15. Included were a group of independent Societies deputies led by Koeta Luchev.

Resigns As Head Civilian Defense

Washington, Nov. 22—(AP)—The White House announced today that Russell Hopley is resigning as director of Civilian Defense Planning.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said Hopley would be replaced by Aubrey Mellinger of Chicago. Mellinger is chairman of the Chicago Civilian Defense Commission and formerly president of the Chicago area of the Bell Telephone Co.

Last Ties To Be Cut

Bill Now Before Parliament Of Eire Would Sever Last Links With British Commonwealth; Bitterness They Feel For England; Gains Involved; Possible Losses

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

The bill now before the Parliament of Eire, to sever the last remaining tie between that country and the British Commonwealth, will cause no surprise to those who know the depth of the bitterness which the southern Irish feel for England.

That is strong language. But if you had been a witness of the "bloody Easter week rebellion" of 1916—as I was—and had seen other phases of the strife in that tumultuous period—as I did—then you would understand. The spirit of independence flames fiercely in Eire, and the memories of her citizens are long.

I ran into a striking illustration of this the last time I was in Dublin. I was out to take pictures of some of the old buildings of the capital, and wanted to include the House of Parliament. That was difficult because a huge statue of old Queen Victoria stood right in front of the structure and all but cut off the front view. I had finally taken a couple of pictures when a uniformed officer came up and said: "We can't have a picture of the Parliament building taken with the queen in front of it."

"Well," I remarked, as I took another look at the famous queen who had been dead half a century, "I knew the feeling here against England was bitter, but I didn't suppose it was this bad."

The officer ducked his head, by way of humorous acknowledgment that my comment had registered, but he carried away the film which I had handed him. Of course, within a few minutes a government official telephoned me at my hotel and apologized profusely for the incident. My film was returned. But the feeling which caused the incident remained unchanged.

The only tie remaining between England and Eire is an act which allows the British King to accredit Eire's representatives in foreign countries and to sign international agreements. That isn't much of an even that, if passed by Parliament. The gain will be absolute sovereignty without any semblance of attachment to the British crown. And if there is any loss involved, Eire will be glad to take it. The prospects are that there may be some.

For example, the citizens of Eire who are in England have the rights of British citizens, and the same is true in all the British dominions. Presumably the people of Eire will be deprived of this right. Further,

Mrs. Weller Gives Instructive Talks

The school of Christmas Decoration on Friday sponsored by the Garden Club gave the home makers and flower lovers of Greenville a real treat.

Mrs. J. Kay Brown and Mrs. J. E. R. Moore, chairman, opened the meeting. Mrs. M. E. Blount was presented by Mrs. Moore. After welcoming the group Mrs. Blount introduced the lecturer for the school sessions, Mrs. J. L. Weller of Norfolk, Virginia.

Mrs. Weller, well known authority on decorative ideas, gave two outstanding lectures on holiday decorations.

The afternoon lecture was on "Making of Wreaths, Garlands, Sprays and Swags."

Mrs. Weller demonstrated her ability in decorative skill by instructing her hearers how to make effective the lecture for the school sessions.

The evening lecture centered on the home. For this, Mrs. Weller featured four mantels and four table centers using simplicity as the keynote. One mantel with Madonna and the Manger using Cedar Deodars was most admired, another blue and silver stressing the use of silver birds found ready questioners and enthusiastic ahi!

A very striking feature was the Candle Christmas tree using angels and white flowers. The artistic lines and placing of the candles rendered this outstanding.

The younger group was particularly pleased over the center using traditional red and green with modern Santa Claus and his plane. The use of white Lemox birds with mistletoe and the Madonna holding Poinsettias seemed to be the attractive spot for much of the school line.

Greenville feels indebted to the members of the Garden Club and to the untiring efforts of the committee responsible for this beneficial attraction.

Mt. Pleasant News

"It's always fair weather when good sports get together." In spite of the inclement weather the sun was shining in the hearts of Mount Pleasant Christian Church members and friends at the harvest sale which was held Friday night, November 19, in the community building.

Mrs. G. E. Spahn, chairman of the Finance committee, had charge of the sale. The proceeds will be used to good advantage towards the remodeling of the church.

An attractive array of home-grown produce, chickens, eggs, sweet potatoes, jelly, preserves, pickles and other items too numerous to mention were displayed. There were, also, delicious cakes, candies, mince meat, sandwiches and drinks on hand. Two pretty sprays completed the picture.

And—You've heard of the goose that laid the golden egg? Well, in this case, it was the turkey, donated by Mrs. Andrew Ross, which laid several golden eggs. Every time he gobbled, "Look! Look! What I did, the bird went up. Imagine a turkey worth over one hundred bucks!

Mr. Sam Fleming called the items, asked for bids and did he get results! Thank you, Mr. Fleming, for a job well done.

Mr. Harvey Tripp had to have able assistance to get all of his produce in his car. He was truly one of the good sports and to him we say, "Thank you!"

To all of the other sports, Jim Evers, Bunk Roberts, Media Tuel, Heber Whickard, Harvey Briley, Rufus Dudley, Robert Coggins, Mr. Buck and members of Mount Pleasant Church and friends we are indeed grateful for your generous support.

All of our friends must see Mount Pleasant Church which is readily assuming the "new look" and is almost complete in its renovation. It began with one room. Today, this room is twice feet longer, four Sunday school rooms have been annexed, there are new stained glass windows, a choir loft with lovely blue velvet curtains and a baptistry. But for the generosity of friends in Greenville and surrounding community this could not have been accomplished. To all who helped, we say, "May your efforts be rewarded" and in the immortal words of Tiny Tim, "God bless you everyone."

Dr. Karl V. Gilbert Speaks In Goldsboro

Dr. Karl V. Gilbert of the department of music at East Carolina Teachers College was principal speaker this week at a meeting of the Association for Childhood Education in Goldsboro. He discussed with members of the Goldsboro branch of the organization the topic of music for children in the elementary schools. In his talk Dr. Gilbert developed the idea that through music better human relationships for young children can be established.

Fall Quarter At College To End On November 24

The fall quarter at East Carolina Teachers College will end Wednesday, November 24, and Thanksgiving holidays will begin at noon. Final examinations will begin Monday of this week. Student dormitories and the college cafeterias will close for the holidays, and approximately 1400 students will spend the time from Wednesday through Sunday off the campus. The winter quarter will begin Monday, November 29.

East Carolina began the fall quarter early this year on September 1 in order to enable student teachers to be present for the opening of the public schools. For the first time in many years the winter quarter will therefore be well under way before the Christmas holidays begin December 18.

Elks Return From State Convention

J. Alvin Bunting, exalted ruler of the Greenville Elks Lodge, and Herman L. Norris and "Scrap" Proctor returned at the weekend from Winston-Salem, where they attended as delegates the convention of the State Elks Association. Prominent speakers at the convention, held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel, included Secretary of State Thad Eure and David Sholtz, former governor of Florida. Twenty-eight lodges were represented at the meeting. The next convention will be held in Greensboro next summer.

In the healthy human, red blood cells live, on the average, for about 120 days before being replaced by new ones.

Women In The Church

By MARY FOWLER
"Church members cannot avoid secularists into faith nor shame them into belief, nor argue them into a sense of spiritual belief," said Mrs. Mildred McAfee Horton, president of Wesleyan College, recently. "All they can do is to demonstrate the power of the presence of God in their own lives."
"We live in a world in which multitudes of people regard the gospel neither as good news nor bad news" says Professor Georgia Harkness of Garrett Biblical Institute. "To them it is no news. They do not reject it. They merely ignore it."
Two hundred educators, ministers, social workers and counselors will meet in Cincinnati, Ohio, on November 29 and 30, to consider what can be done to guard family life in the United States, and how the integrity of the home may be maintained in a day of rising divorce rate and increasing juvenile delinquency. The Conference will deal with counselling before marriage, counselling in family relationships, parent education, the relation of the family to community life, Christian citizenship in the home, and family worship. Dr. L. Foster Wood, chairman of the Inter Council Committee on Family Life will chair the meeting and there will be speakers of national importance. The Inter-Council committee is sponsored by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, the International Council of Religious Education and the United Council of Church Women.
Dr. Antonie Nopitsch, one of the leading Lutheran church women of Germany and director of Mutterdienst, a service agency for mothers in Germany, is now visiting churches in the United States as the guest of the National Lutheran Council and of the United Council of Church Women. Dr. Nopitsch is chairman of the Lutheran women's now in Bevarie, a member of the Council of Church Work for the American Zone editor of a monthly periodical of help to mothers, and also has responsibility for editing and publishing a wide range of Christian literature in Germany. During the war she published more than three million copies of devotional booklets.

High School Class Party
The sophomore class of Pactolus High school had its monthly meeting Wednesday night, November 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Grey, of Pactolus.
The host and hostesses were Cecil Corbit, Betty Lou Tyndall and Mary Francis Davis.
We played some enjoyable games, which were new to all of us. We were served delicious refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches, cookies and coca colas.
The party was enjoyed by everyone.

What To Do For A Cold

At the first sign of a cold, you should obey three simple rules:
1. Keep warm and get as much rest as possible.
2. Drink lots of water and fruit juices.
3. Take a CALOTAB.
Calotabs are a thorough dependable laxative, intestinal antiseptic and diuretic. They clean out your entire intestinal tract and flush your kidneys thereby ridding your system of poisonous toxins. They help nature throw off a cold.
Remember! At the first sign of a bad cold — REST — LIQUIDS — CALOTABS. It's so simple. Follow label directions.

Pitt Girl Delegate To National 4-H Meeting

Miss Hazel Garris above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Garris of Farmville will be one of two delegates from Pitt representing North Carolina at the National 4-H Congress in Chicago next week. This is the first time in 10 years that Pitt County has had delegates to the national 4-H congress.

Miss Garris became eligible as one of North Carolina's representatives to the congress by winning the state championship in the individual dairy foods demonstration contest.

Long a leader in 4-H work in Pitt county, she has completed 28 home projects during her five years of club membership including food preparation, food preservation, health improvement, frozen foods, gardening, poultry, better methods electric, room improvement, clothing and dairy foods. She is vice president of the Farmville senior club and vice president of the Pitt County council of 4-H clubs.

Miss Garris has given her staid winning demonstration, "Drink Your Way to Health," 13 times during the past three years to a total audience of over 700 people.

The five organizations which are co-sponsors for Miss Garris as a delegate to the National congress and have assumed full responsibility for all her expenses are the Farmville Chamber of Commerce, Pitt County Farm Bureau, Farmville Rotary club, Farmville 4-H club and the Lang's 4-H club.

Mrs. Clara Smith Died Hospital Today

Mrs. Clara Smith, 38, wife of Raymond Smith, died at Pitt General Hospital at 9:30 o'clock this morning following several months' illness.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home near Cox's Mill, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Walter B. Nobles, Free Will Baptist minister of Winterville. Burial will be in the Henry Jordan Williams cemetery nearby.

Mrs. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Vesta Stocks of near Ayden and the late Lewis Stocks, was born, reared and spent all her life in Pitt county. She was a member of Macedonia Methodist Church.

Surviving are her husband; two daughters, Mrs. William Bright of near Ayden, and Miss Doris Louise Smith of the home; two sons, Roy Earl and Billy Francis Smith, both of the home; her mother; five sisters, Mrs. Floyd McLawhorn of near Ayden, Mrs. J. C. Cox of near Washington, Mrs. Arthur Smith of near Beargrass, Mrs. Lonnie McGowan of near Grifton, and Mrs. Snoda Smith of near Winterville; and two brothers, Zeno Stocks of near Ayden, and Lewis Stocks of Grimesland.

Dr. Ira M. Hardy Commits Suicide

Kinston, Nov. 22.—Dr. Ira M. Hardy, 74, dean of Kinston physicians, founder of the Caswell Training School, and former legislator, ended his life with a pistol at his home, 311 West Lenor Avenue, yesterday afternoon about 4:30. He had been in ill health two years. No inquest will be held, Lenor County Coroner Raymond Jarman said.

HEADACHE
Capudine contains 4 specially selected ingredients that work together to give quick relief from headache and neuralgia. Follow directions on label.

CAPUDINE

Warning! If you value your hair, stop trying to free yourself from scalp film, dandruff and scalp itch with methods that cleanse only the surface of the hair and scalp.

Here is something you should know if you are suffering from excessive oily or dry dandruff or scalp itch: Merely removing excessive oil or surface dandruff by shampooing alone or dousing the head with ordinary preparations does not correct the real cause of the trouble. Surface cleansers can no more help Nature restore normal functions of the glands or hair follicles than toothache drops can correct infected teeth.

"Plugged" Follicles Retard Hair Growth

It is impossible to prevent your hair and scalp from being exposed to dust, grime, soot, oil and perspiration. These accumulations often plug up the hair follicles. By their irritating effect, these follicle "plugs" cause visible dandruff, itching, and frequently inflammation, minor infection and abnormal hair loss.

If these conditions are not remedied, the existing hair may become brittle, the falling of hair become rapid. Ultimately, permanent thinning of the hair and areas of baldness may result.

KORVO, a scientific germicidal preparation, penetrates into the hair follicles and dissolves scalp film. It lends assistance to the oil glands, dilates the capillaries that furnish added nourishment to the hair cells and helps promote hair growth. The natural result is to bring life and lustre back to the hair and increase its vitality and resistance.

Until Now KORVO Was Available Only on Prescription

KORVO is the result of years of clinical research by one of America's noted dermatologists. For 10 years this wonder-working preparation has been used by this skin specialist to correct most stubborn cases. Clinical records on file prove that sufferers of scalp itch and excessive dandruff obtained miraculous relief.

KORVO eliminated excessive dandruff in as little as 5 days, gave instant relief to those suffering from itchy scalp. Now, for the first time, KORVO treatment is available for home use at only a few cents per treatment. Korvo is not a hair restorative.

No Longer Necessary to Pay High Fees to Get These Results If You Use KORVO As Directed

- KORVO clears up severe cases of dandruff in as little as five days.
- KORVO gives instant, continued relief from itching—regardless of its degree (when used as directed).
- KORVO helps prevent conditions that frequently lead to thinning of hair and to baldness when due to excess dandruff.
- KORVO keeps hair and scalp clean, free from itching, and excessive dandruff infection.
- KORVO stimulates hair growth. Allows nourishment to reach hair cells.
- KORVO stimulates the scalp and hair.
- KORVO eliminates visible dandruff—oily and dry types.

KORVO may be freely and safely used by adults and children. Will not affect permanents or change permanently colored or bleached hair. Does not contain grease or oil.

Strength FOR THE DAY
NOT THE BOMB BUT THE MOOD
The first representative assembly held in America was called to order in Jamestown, Virginia, on July 30, 1619.

While Sir George Yardley, the Governor, being set down in his accustomed place in the quiet, those of the counsel of state state next to him on both hands; but forasmuch as men's affairs do little prosper where God's service is neglected, all the Burgesses took their places in the quiet till a prayer was said by Mr. Bucke, the minister, that it would please God to guide and sanctify all our proceedings to his own glory and the good of this plantation.

This has been due to recognition that physical health and mental health are directly related. TRAINING—High spot of the day was the address by Dr. George Preston, commissioner of mental hygiene for the state of Maryland. He said we spent the first half of the past century developing asylums for permanent care of insane; the last fifty years converting them into hospitals, and suggested the next step is to make them training schools for practitioners in mental health work.

loses ran to less than three percent of those suffered by the Germans in Crete. But the decision to send them—it will be long remembered by the distinguished warrior-educator who now has pitched his tent among the classrooms on Morningside Heights.

Plan For Furthering Work Of ECTC's Vocal Clinic

Plans were made at a vocal clinic held at East Carolina Teachers College Saturday to schedule a similar meeting of music directors and students of high schools in eastern North Carolina in February and possibly a third later in the year. The scheduling of a song festival at the college in the spring was discussed, but no final decision was reached at the meeting.

The clinic was the first of the kind to be held at the college. Teachers and directors who attended expressed a desire to repeat the clinic several times each year in the future in the interest of better public school music in this section, to continue practice on the program rehearsed today and to bring a larger number of high school students and music directors to the college for the sessions.

Under the direction of Professor Paul Young, choral director and voice teacher at the University of North Carolina, approximately 75 students from eleven schools in this section spent Saturday morning and afternoon on the campus practicing a program of songs and receiving instruction in tone production and choral ensemble work. Nineteen teachers and directors of music present for the clinic had an opportunity at a luncheon meeting to discuss some of their problems together and with Professor Young. Dan E. Vornholt of the East Carolina faculty was chairman of the clinic.

Attending the clinic were representatives from schools at Greenville, New Bern, Rocky Mount, Elm City, Pantego, Farmville, Edenton, Ayden, Winterville, Belhaven, and Grimesland.

Demonstrations of the work of singing groups at East Carolina were given by the Women's Chorus, directed by Vornholt, and the College Choir of mixed voices, directed by Dr. Karl V. Gilbert. Four sessions at which high school students sang under Professor Young's direction occupied the larger part of the morning and the afternoon programs.

Irate Nevada U. Threatens Suit

Reno, Nev., Nov. 22—(AP)—Brandegee University of Nevada has a group of legal talent ready today to defend its football record.

The lawyers are awaiting an answer to their letter demanding retraction of charges in the New York publication, "Sports Week," that the Nevada grid team lost two weeks ago to Santa Clara "for the specific benefit of Nevada gamblers."

If "Sports Week" doesn't take back what it said, the University counsel declared, a suit for libel will be filed. A combination of attorneys including U. S. Senator Pat McCarran, former senator and once Governor E. P. Carville and former Governor Morley Griswold, all of Nevada, is expected to be called upon for any legal action.

Nevada went into the Nov. 7 game at Sacramento, Calif., as heavy favorite but lost to Santa Clara 14-0.

The University in a letter from its counsel, William K. Woodburn, demanded publication "in full" by "Sports Week" of a general denial that the Wolfpack threw the game.

Nevada, with a perfect record except for the Santa Clara defeat, ends its season Thanksgiving Day against Wichita at Wichita, Kans.

Members Of Greenville High Grid Squad

Rose Bowl And Cotton Bowl Pick Jan. 1 Teams Today

New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—Two of the faneled bowls—Rose and Cotton—choose their Jan. 1 lineup today, but fans must wait another week to learn the rival attractions in Dixie's Sugar and Orange fixtures.

Northwestern needs only the Big Nine's formal tap to start making plans for the Pasadena junket.

The Pacific Coast Conference, meanwhile, is polling members on whether California or Oregon shall furnish the Wildcats' opposition in the Rose pageant.

An announcement from both ends has been promised today.

Northwestern qualified for the assignment by lashing Illinois, Saturday, 20-7, and finishing second in the conference to Michigan, which is ineligible to do a repeat job at Pasadena.

The West Coast decision is tougher. California and Oregon closed in a tie for the conference championship, and the Webfoots with seven against no defeats in the league. But Oregon lost to Michigan outside while California went all the way without a blemish.

In the event of a tie in the Pacific Coast vote, the nod goes to

Persecution By NBA Is Charged

Los Angeles, Nov. 22—(AP)—Fight Manager Tommy Farmer today accused the National Boxing Association of "persecuting" his world bantamweight champion, Manuel Ortiz.

Considerably wrought up, the ex-Boston Irishman, his chaw of tobacco working vigorously in his left cheek, charged that NBA boss Abe Greene was trying to "intimidate" his fighter by threatening to declare the bantam crown vacant unless Ortiz defends it soon.

"Greene is trying to be a czar of boxing, but at the same time he lets the New York Boxing Commission dominate his actions," Farmer said.

"Joe Louis says he isn't going to defend his heavyweight title until next June. Why don't Greene declare that title vacant?"

Ortiz, he went on, has defended his crown 18 times since he won it from Lou Salica in 1942. "He's boxed in Mexico, Manila, Hawaii and California, for the title, but I guess Greene is sore because I won't let Manuel defend it in New York."

And contrary to belief by many in the boxing game out here, Farmer insisted Manuel can and will make the 118-pound weight and defend the title within the next few months.

Ortiz, 33 Centro, Calif., Mexican, now 32 years old, weighed 140 when he got out of the Army in 1945. Since then he has made 118 pounds eight times, Farmer declared.

Thanksgiving To Close Grid Play

By the Associated Press

North State Conference football teams will wrap up the 1948 season with three big Thanksgiving battles Thursday.

Appalachian's Mountaineers, winners of the conference crown, will carry North State hopes with them to Johnson City, Tenn., where they meet West Chester in the Burley Bowl.

Two other games will match conference rivals, Catawba against Lehigh at Salisbury and Elon against Guilford at Greensboro.

The loop's two high scoring acts, Lee Spears of Catawba and Herman Bryson of Appalachian, will have chances to run their season's totals to still further heights. Spears, with 104 points, leads the smaller Southern college scorers. Bryson only trails him by two points.

Four conference teams closed their season last week. High Point tied Elon, 12-12, in its final game and Atlantic Christian edged East Carolina Teachers, 6-0, in the last appearances for those two teams. Western Carolina Teachers dropped a 14-13 decision to Carson-Newman.

Newly Organized Orchestra Will Meet Monday

The East Carolina Orchestra, organized last week at East Carolina Teachers College under the direction of Dr. Rudolph R. Willmann, director of the college department of music, will hold its first regular rehearsal Monday evening, November 22, at 7:00 o'clock in the Wright building. At that time work on music for future programs will begin.

Twenty-one musicians from the college, Greenville, and Ayden reported for the organizational meeting last Monday. Since that time inquiries and applications for membership have been received from Greenville, Roanoke Rapids, and several other nearby towns. Dr. Willmann reports a growing interest in the project and has announced that membership is still open to performers, especially to those who play instruments of the string and woodwind sections of the orchestra.

Tickets On Sale For Broadway Show

Tickets for "The Glass Menagerie," Tennessee Williams' famous comedy-drama that had a successful two-year run on Broadway in New York and which will be presented at Austin auditorium at the college Monday night, December 6, at 8:15, are on sale at the Globe Hardware Company's store, Fifth and Washington streets. All seats are reserved.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the show. The original Broadway cast will appear in the show in Greenville.

Cabera de Vaca and his men walked from the Atlantic to the Pacific

Top Scorer

New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—Ted Brown, a shifty halfback from Sul Ross (Texas) State College, broke away for six touchdowns Saturday to grab the national football scoring leadership with 144 points.

Playing in 10 games Brown has scored 34 touchdowns. He usually gets one 30 or 50-yard scoring sprint per game. Sul Ross ended its regular season unbeaten.

Heading Toward Pro Grid Record

Philadelphia, Nov. 22—(AP)—Steve Van Buren—appropriately nicknamed the Louisiana Locomotive—steamed toward a professional football ground gaining record today.

And, said Steve, "I think I have a chance if I can keep my head. I almost lost it yesterday."

That was when the Washington Redskins were giving Steve the works as Van Buren led his Philadelphia Eagles to a 43-31 National Football League victory.

A half dozen "skins piled on Steve every time he carried the ball. They hit him with everything they had—but that wasn't enough. The one-man force foiled Washington's defenses for 171 yards.

Earle J. (Greasy) Neale, the general "grin" coach, who breaks into a broad grin at the mere mention of Van Buren's name, wasn't kidding. "Steve is the greatest running back I ever saw," said Neale, who used to coach college teams at Yale and West Virginia.

What about Red Grange, Mr. Neale?

"He couldn't touch Steve."

Jim Thorpe?

"He had a lot of drive, but he was fatter than Steve. We shipped men out of his way. Steve throws all 220 pounds right at the men who try to tackle him and he runs right over them. He runs harder than Thorpe."

Hialeah To Get Calumet Horses

Miami, Fla., Nov. 22—(AP)—Another shipment of Calumet Farm's horses is expected at Hialeah Park today.

The shipment will include Armed, handicap champion of 1947 and horse of the year that season, who will go into training for a return to racing.

Another in the shipment is Re-armed, full brother of the great gelding. The shipment is coming from Owner Warren Wright's farm near Lexington, Ky.

Gulf Honors Local Station Operators

Awards in recognition of 10 or more years of association with the Gulf Oil Corporation were presented to five independent service station operators of the Greenville area at a meeting at the Olde Towne Inn on November 18th.

Awards were presented by J. J. Bowden, manager of the company's Goldsboro sales district. They consist of a plaque bearing the operator's name and a message of appreciation from the company.

Of dealers in this area, receiving awards, four have been associated with the company for 10 to 15 years and one from 16 to 20 years. Mr. W. L. Allen, Greenville distributor of Gulf products, has been associated with the company for over 22 years.

Addressing the meeting, attended by approximately 20 local dealers, Mr. Bowden commented that the service station operator had taken his place alongside the other prominent local merchants in importance to the community.

"Gulf's action in honoring the pioneers in this great business is intended as a further step toward gaining public recognition for the role of the serviceman in our community today," he said.

All-East Elevens Selected By AP

New York, Nov. 22—(AP)—Penn State and Army, the East's two most robust football powers, each grabbed a pair of positions today on the All-East elevens selected by the Associated Press after consultations with coaches, scouts and other grid experts.

The Gadsden, unbeaten and with only off-beaten Navy ahead, placed Jim Henry at one guard berth and Bobby Jack Stuart at one of the halfback positions.

Bowl-hungry Penn State, a team that trampled mighty Penn even more decisively than did Army placed Sam Trumbore at one end and sent along Joseph Deasonovitch to play alongside of Henry at guard.

Of the eleven positions on the

WHAT IS AN EXTENSION TELEPHONE

An extension telephone is an extra telephone most attached to your present line. It can be in your home or place of business. Since the best instruments are again available we are happy to announce that EXTENSION TELEPHONE SERVICE IS AVAILABLE AGAIN.

Main telephone service however is still on the "to-get" list because production of the central equipment and lead covered cable needed to our present facilities, is slow and delivery date certain. We shall continue however to install telephones where we have the necessary outside lines and central office equipment.

The Dancing Heart

BY EMILY NOBLE

Chapter 22
As she thought things over she realized that everything Rex said was indeed common sense. They were a partnership and so far he had certainly paid out more than he took in. Her apartment was very comfortable and she had everything she needed. She had more clothes than she had ever dreamed of possessing. She was glad Father Touhey had come and had so easily understood she was not living in sin. She didn't care what anyone else in the old neighborhood thought. She went back there to church again, but only because it was Father Touhey's church. She knew Joe was always there in a corner watching her, but he never came up and spoke. No one did. She arrived in a taxi with Roy and left with him. If anyone thought Roy was her sin she didn't care. She was helping him. Father Touhey was helping him. No one else mattered.

And she did enjoy the trip to Maine. It was like joining a holiday group, and she had never been in the country before for more than a one-day outing. It was a grand, happy two weeks. There were long walks and picnics and boating trips. She had been a little afraid of being considered a rank outsider and being cold-shouldered, but instead everyone was most kind. She laughed and enjoyed herself, realizing that she had been very lonely of late. No one pried into her business, and since everyone had great ambitions each talked of his own and also was willing to listen to anyone else. Her dancing was applauded by the company as well as the audience. She was a summer stock company success and reviewers said nice things about her.

Rex wrote her to stay on after her engagement was over, as she was seemingly benefiting so much and in the city the late August heat was at its worst. He hoped to have grand news for her on her return, and while he didn't say just what that was, he did say he wanted her to look her glowing best for a screen test. The thought seemed to lift her up so she fairly floated over the ground as she walked. Hollywood, that was to be her real new life. All this was just preparation for it. Walking in the woods, she found a moss-covered clearing between the trees and danced there. No one saw her. Several squirrels peered out curiously at the Irish dancer in the Maine woods, and she kissed her hands to them, at which they scampered away. She threw back her head, laughing exultantly as her feet flew. She sang as loudly as she could, knowing no one would hear her even as no one could see her. She was alone, triumphant, glowingly happy. She was going to have everything her heart could desire just as Rex said. She was through with poverty and slums and drunkenness and—all the past. She was riding the crest of the wave and it was carrying her to the golden sands of California.

Breathless finally, she flung herself at full length on the mossy ground. She felt she could fly. Or else lie there forever drinking in the rich pine-scented air. She flung her wild laughter up toward the towering tree tops high above her. It was all glorious. Even her hard dancing lessons were glorious now.

She understood at last. She would never complain of them again. She would never complain of anything. She was too deeply stirred to lie long on the mossy ground. She had to keep moving. Once out on the road again she danced alone. A car came along with several young actors in it and picked up her. She jumped in, laughing at their queries as to where she had been.

"I've been dancing in the woods. I've never been so happy in all my life. I was going to dance all the way back to the hotel."

"All alone?" queried one mockingly.

"Of course. Who wants company when happy?"

A girl laughed. "It's the company that makes me happy."

"You have no ambition," cried the man. "Rosalie is only waiting for a message to dash to Hollywood."

Rosalie chuckled. "Don't worry. I'll get it soon. I'm sure of it."

The girl set up. "Oh, I forgot. There is a telegram for you at the desk."

"Hurray! Hurray!" the others shouted.

Rosalie stopped laughing and drew a deep breath. "It—it may be something else."

"No. It couldn't be. You must buy champagne for everyone."

She agreed, but the wild, gay mood was lost. They drove quickly because now everyone wanted to know what was in the telegram. The others stood expectantly about as she fumbled with it. It fell to the floor and was picked up for her before she finally got it open. She read its brief message slowly twice; then the yellow paper slipped from her fingers again.

"What is it, Rosalie? You must tell us!"

"You can read it." Her voice sounded faint even to herself.

The girl snatched it up and it was devoured. It said, "Mom very sick. Wants you. Please come." It was signed Joe. The girl tossed it to the others and caught Rosalie's arm.

"Too bad. It's come next time. Who's Joe?"

"I know!" cried another. "It's Smoky Joe. He rescued you, didn't he? And his mother is that fat woman who taught you to dance. It must be a stroke, or heart. You'll have to go, Rosalie. You'll have to fly."

Rosalie nodded limply. "Yes. I'll have to fly."

Pure-Bred Swine Sale Is Success

The pure-bred hog sale, held at the Greenville Livestock Auction last Friday was an outstanding success. Buyers were there from five North Carolina counties and one from Dayton, Iowa.

The sale was sponsored by the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, North Carolina Swine Breeders' Association, North Carolina Extension Service and the Pitt county farm agents. C. D. Owens, auction manager, directed the sale. About 250 persons attended the sale.

Hogs sold averaged $72.15 per head. The lowest animal sold, a three-month-old gilt pig, brought $27.50.

The top hog, consigned by Moye's Duroc Farm, was bought by Snodie Wilson of Winterville for $180. The second top hog, consigned by the same farm, was bought by L. M. Holbert of Dayton, Iowa for $135.

Buyers included farmers from Pitt, Beaufort, Martin, Wilson, Wayne and Chowan counties and one from Iowa.

Consigners of Pitt County were: Moye's Duroc Farm, Farmville; Walter W. Stocks, Ayden; B. B. Drum, Greenville; J. H. Boyd, Jr., Greenville; Henry T. Smith, Fountain; C. H. Carraway, Farmville; M. T. Barnhill, Stokes; Roy Bowling, Farmville, and J. Brooks Tucker, Grimesland, and Jack Bailey of Bailey, and Walter Kirby of Kenly.

Walter Worley Died At Vanceboro Home

Walter Worley, 54, died suddenly at his home near Vanceboro at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning after suffering a heart attack.

Graveside services were conducted in the Worley family cemetery near Kinston this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. W. B. Crowder, Methodist minister of Vanceboro.

Mr. Worley was born at Pink Hill and spent most of his early life near Kinston. In 1917 he was married to Cammie Mae Waters. He went to New Bern in 1932 and since then had lived in the New Bern, Newport and Vanceboro communities. He was a farmer.

Surviving are his wife; five sons, Herman Worley of New Bern, and Clem, Elliot, Johnny and Glenn Worley, all of the home; four daughters, Mrs. Ben Painter of Cherry Point, and Misses Nettie Ruth, Sallie and Kathleen Worley, all of the home, and two grandchildren.

(Continued from page one) mates. China—475,000,000; India—322,000,000; Korea—27,200,000; Indo-China—27,030,000; Burma—17,000,000; Netherlands East Indies—72,000,000; Siam—7,676,000.

That's a total of 947,906,000 people in Asia. If the Chinese Communists take over the 475,000,000 Chinese, the pressure on the other countries of Asia would be terrific.

What of Japan, with 80,171,000 people, and Australia, with 7,581,000? We'd pretty surely try to hold our grip on Japan but if the rest of Asia in time went Communist then—

Japan would be an island off the continent. Could it survive without steady help and pressure from us, if the rest of the continent refused to deal with Japan unless it went Communist, too?

Australia, part of the British Empire and far down in the Pacific from Asia, would probably not be affected for a long time to come. This is a gloomy picture here. It simply points out what the future may hold. There do not seem to be any bright spots in it.

It shows what a job we have on our hands in trying to stave off Communism in the long pull ahead.

Teen-Age Dance Will Be Held Wednesday Night At Center

A special dance for teen-age and young people of Greenville will be held at the Greenville community center, the mess hall at the old NYA center, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

The dance will be free to all young people and will be chaperoned by members of the Junior Woman's Club.

The community center has been remodeled, painted and furnished for the use of the Teen Age Club and the city recreation commission. Dances are planned for alternate Friday nights for the teen agers and the young people of Greenville.

General Thaw In Area Of Blizzard

Chicago, Nov. 22—(AP)—Another general thaw was expected to help again today in removal of the deep snow drifts piled on the great plains by last week's storm in which eight persons died.

While crews still worked at the task of clearing some highways in the area, the temperature climbed yesterday to slightly above freezing and was expected to go a little higher today.

The coldest spots on today's weather map were in the north central states where Sioux Falls, S.D., reported a low of six degrees above zero and Sioux City, Ia., 11 above. Temperatures elsewhere over the nation were about normal.

Light snow flurries ranging from a trace to .01 of an inch were reported over the entire southeastern section of the nation, except Florida, Meridian, Miss., had more than an inch of moisture.
