Unrest In Middle East; Arab Allies Fear Ambitions

Syria, Lebanon And Egypt Apprehensive Over Abdullah's Stature

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS Arab nations, joined in a war against Israel, are casting nervous glances today at each other.

Abdullah, the warrior monarch of the state created by Britain, serenely awaits developments. The example his Arab Legion set by putting up the real fight in Palestine has infected disaffected elements in the other Arab states with a high state of restlessness.

Abdullah's Hashimite ambitions are well known. The Hashimite family rule Iraq and Trans-Jordan. The dream is of a greater Syria, and Abdullah pictures himself on the throne of such a state.

Abdullah now may be ready to take a long step toward realization of this dream. The so-called General Palestine Congress, a group of Palestine Arabs, has asked him to make himself king of the Holy Land.

Durham, N. C., Dec. 3—(AP)—J. Edward Allen, former superintendent of Warren County schools, was under the care of psychiatrists at Duke Hospital today.

On Economic Experts

Three Men Who Advise The President On Economic Condition Of Nation; Who They Are; Their Experience; Sources To Be Consulted; How They Do Their Jobs

Washington, Dec. 3—(AP)—President Truman has the word of his three economic experts that we seem to be doing a little better.

But who are the experts? How'd they get that way? And how do they know how we're doing?

These three men, with long and wide experience in economics, make up the President's council of economic advisers.

Edwin G. Nourse, 65-year old chairman of the council; Leon H. Keyserling, 40; and John D. Clark, 64.

Bernadotte Plan By-Passed In Vote

Less Emphasis On Slain Mediator's Proposals On Palestine Appears Inevitable In UN Action For Conciliation

Paris, Dec. 3—(AP)—The United Nations approved today a new American proposal for broad conciliation on Arab and Jewish boundaries in Palestine without reference to the Bernadotte plan or last year's partition.

The political committee accepted by a large majority an Amendment proposed by Dean Rusk of the United States to a British resolution. The change passed by a vote of 42 to two, with the 12 Arab and Slav Bloc states not voting.

The amendment instructs the conciliation commission to be set up under that portion of the British resolution passed yesterday to take steps to assist the Jews and Arabs to settle all outstanding problems.

Rusk pointed out today that the adverse vote yesterday was given both by delegates who objected to the Bernadotte plan and those who

Chinese Admit Reds Have Taken Suchow

Nanking, Dec. 3—(AP)—Chinese Communist capture of Suchow was confirmed today by government military sources.

They said evacuation of the big Nationalist base 211 miles northwest of Nanking was completed at noon Wednesday. The Red radio announced capture of the city at 10 p. m. local time, last night.

Three government army groups totalling 250,000 men pulled out of Suchow in an effort to relieve the trapped 12th army group to the south, in the Sushien sector.

Foreign military observers, however, estimated the effective combat strength of the Suchow garrison at 110,000 men in the 16th, second and 13th army groups. The forward elements were stalled by Red columns 25 miles south of Suchow. The 13th army group was holding rear guard positions.

Military sources reported the Communists entered Suchow only to find huge supply depots destroyed. Ammunition and gasoline dumps were blown up. Air observers said smoke pillars reached 8,000 feet above Suchow.

Those sources said the Suchow army groups would have to fight through a 30-mile belt to make contact with the troops trapped at Sushien about 60 miles to reach the sixth and eighth Nationalist army groups which have formed a defense line on the Hwai river, 100 miles northwest of Nanking.

Meanwhile, seven Red columns totalling about 100,000 men eased their assault on the Hwai river line. They were reported to have moved north (evidently to help stop the Suchow garrison) and to have left only a small holding force opposite the Twai river armies.

More Germans Executed Today

Munich, Germany, Dec. 3—(AP)—A German navy lieutenant who led the Borkum Island massacre of seven unarmed American airmen was hanged today with three other German war criminals.

The executions brought to 91 the number of men executed in groups on eight consecutive Fridays for the slaying of concentration camp inmates, captives and prisoners of war.

Plane Fired On Tuna Fishermen

San Diego, Calif., Dec. 3—(AP)—An unidentified plane early yesterday fired on three San Diego tuna clippers off the coast of Nicaragua.

Line Up Behind Inter-American Defense Treaty

Special Ceremony To Signal Start Of Pact Drafted By 19 Powers In Rio

Washington, Dec. 3—(AP)—The American republics lined up today to throw their collective power behind a pact designed to protect this hemisphere against any aggressor.

A special ceremony was arranged to signal the start of the mutual defense compact drafted last year by 19 nations at Rio De Janeiro.

Costa Rican Ambassador Mario Esquivel was ready to bring the historic agreement into full force by depositing his country's ratification with the Pan American Union.

The inter-American treaty, which is based on the United Nations charter, provides:

1. Immediate military assistance by all of the American states to any member attacked by another hemisphere nation. The foreign ministers are empowered to issue a "cease fire" order and to spell out what further help should be given the nation under attack.

2. If a member is attacked by an outside power all the treaty signatories will hold immediate consultations to decide what steps are needed to safeguard the hemisphere.

The New World nations specified that their "security zone" extends from the North to the South Pole, including the whole North American continent as far east as Greenland.

Although the war was left open for Canada to join the Rio pact, the dominion has shown no inclination to do so yet. Canada, however, figures in the Atlantic Union plans.

Six Children Die In Flaming Home

Oaksho, Wis., Dec. 3—(AP)—Six small children died in a fire which destroyed their home last night.

The fire struck the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Carpenter shortly before midnight. Police said Carpenter told them an oil heater ignited the kitchen and he was prevented by flames from reaching the bedroom where the children were sleeping.

Encouraging Support For ECTC Football Stadium

By CHESTER WALSH Ed E. Rawl, vice-president of the Carolina Sales Corporation, and chairman of the East Carolina Teachers College Stadium Fund, pledged the raising of the $25,000 Christmas, and he and his committee reported today that substantial contributions are steadily coming in.

Chairman Rawl at a recent meeting of representative business and professional men at the college, pledged the raising of the $25,000 Christmas, and he and his committee reported today that substantial contributions are steadily coming in.

President Messick has pointed out that football will do for ECTC; what it has done, and is doing, for other colleges. He is reminding that athletic-minded students would be interested in enrolling at ECTC.

Coach Johnson Tenders Resignation At College

Jim Johnson, head football coach at East Carolina Teachers College for the past three years, tendered his resignation to Dr. John D. Messick, college president. The announcement came today from Johnson himself, who said that he would leave the school at the end of the school year.

No Immediate Cabinet Changes Planned Says President Truman

Washington, Dec. 3—(AP)—President Truman is making no changes in his cabinet at this time.

That's what he said yesterday at his first White House news conference since the election. But he left the way open for some changes later by saying he reserves the right to shuffle the cabinet membership at his pleasure.

The news conference was a lively one. The President employed a fast change of pace, at times serious and sharp, but often drawing hearty laughter from the 225 newsmen—the largest crowd since his first conference as President in 1945, which 347 reporters attended.

His November 2 election triumph was a major topic. Mr. Truman said he is proud he won with neither the 47 electoral votes of New York nor the 36 which Southern Democrats gave to the States Rights party.

Mr. Truman also set at rest speculation as to whether he will confer with Madame Chiang Kai-Shek. The President said an appointment had been arranged, but he would not say when it is.

As for whether General Douglas is to China to help the beleaguered MacArthur would be sent from Japanese Nationalists, Mr. Truman had a blunt answer: No-period.

And he already had stated the administration's policy on China, he said, as he was having nothing to say on that again.

Commissioners And Cherry Talk Scott's Future Actions Believed Topic Of Session

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 3—(AP)—The State Highway Commission held an unscheduled session with Governor Cherry at the executive mansion yesterday after holding a routine public meeting.

The commissioners talked for more than an hour with the governor, and it required little guessing to conclude that Governor-elect Kerr Scott was the topic of conversation.

The Highway Commission was one of the prime Scott targets during his primary election campaign, and Scott asserted more than once that he would "top the political head off the Highway Commission."

In addition to roundly criticizing the commission, Scott stumped for a huge state program of all-weather farm roads and paved school bus routes. Members of the Highway Commission assert that this criticism is unjust, claiming that during their administration more miles of rural roads have been paved than in all the past 23 years.

Another issue was a letter which, written in November, Fayetteville's Vance Balse asking that Balse resign effective Jan. 6, the day Scott is expected to take office. Balse is appointed by the Highway Commission, and the commissioner's term of office does not expire until May 1.

More Drunkenness In 'Beerless Month'

Fayetteville, N. C., Dec. 3—(AP)—The number of arrests for drunkenness in November, Fayetteville's first beerless month in many years, soared to 169 as compared to 109 in November of 1947.

The figures were contained in the monthly report of police chief I. F. Worrell.

Berlin Reds Try Scare Campaign Against Vote

Berlin, Dec. 3—(AP)—An anti-Communist last-minute scare campaign today to try to keep Berliners from voting Sunday.

The newspapers asserted, without foundation, that the U. S. might withdraw from Berlin by Spring and that Washington might recall Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the U. S. military governor.

The Russians recognized a Communist rump government "as the only legal" regime for Berlin and pledged its support. The regime was formed this week at a Red mass meeting. The Communists, assured a trouncing in the western sector city elections Sunday, are trying to get Germans to boycott the voting.

The U. S. removed without trouble its equipment from the closed Russian office at the city hall in the Russian sector. Communist spokesmen insisted only on checking items taken away. The British had to argue four hours last night before the Communists let them move.

Russian recognition of the Communist regime they abetted surprised no one.

These steps in the Russian bid for complete control of Berlin were announced by the Soviet-sponsored Adn news agency last night.

The announcements had been expected since hand-picked delegates approved a Communist slate of city officers unanimously at a convention in the Soviet sector Tuesday and proclaimed it the successor of the legally elected (1946) city administration now seated in Soviet-blockaded western Berlin.

The campaign has been marked by fights between anti-Communists and Communist hecklers. Fifteen hecklers were tossed out of one meeting last night. An Socialist rally to be held in the British sector early tonight had explosive possibilities.

The Socialists will meet in a building only 200 yards from the broadcasting station of the Russian-controlled radio Berlin, which the Russians have maintained as an island inside British territory since the joint occupation began in 1945.

From it the Russians broadcast a stream of propaganda against the western powers and anti-Communist Germans. Russian Tommy-guns stand guard in the lobby.

Look For Means To Hike Revenue

Washington, Dec. 3—(AP)—Two railroad presidents said today that higher freight rates offer the only means for increasing rail revenues.

They said additional income from passenger business is not in sight. The two railroad chiefs—Clark Hungerford of the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company and Champion McD. Davis of the Atlantic Coast Line—testified before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Burley Average Continues Skid

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 3—(AP)—A 26 cent decline on the average price paid for burley tobacco featured sales in Kentucky yesterday.

The drop was the third this week. Prices have skidded each day since Monday's opening day average of $49.45, several opening-day mark in several years.

The State Department of Agriculture reported yesterday's average at $47.99 a hundred pounds.

Insurance Firms New Target For Proposed Curbs

Washington, Dec. 3—(AP)—Rep. Celler (D-NY) plans to "get after" insurance companies which he calls a "menace to the economy of the nation."

He told reporters today he wants the House Judiciary Committee to make a "full investigation" of insurance firms with the aim of "curbing their powers."

Celler is in line for the Judiciary Committee chairmanship when the new Congress meets in January.

He did not indicate what kind of curbs he has in mind. But he said some federal controls are needed because "insurance companies are reaching out in so many directions they are constituting an actual menace to the economy of the nation."

Celler said five of the largest insurance firms in the New York area have a yearly income of over $5,000,000 and are the biggest owners of railroad securities. He said Metropolitan, one of the firms, is the largest owner of American farm lands.

In 10 years, he said, insurance companies have increased their assets 1,000 per cent and do almost as much loan business as banks.

In this connection the Federal Reserve Board recently complained that insurance companies were bucking the administration's anti-inflation drive by selling government bonds and re-using the money in business loans.

An FRB analysis hinted that this situation might bring demands that Congress make insurance companies subject to board regulation, as lending institutions, just as banks have been for over 30 years.

The five big companies Celler mentioned in addition to Metropolitan are New York Life, New York Equitable, Mutual and Prudential, whose home offices is in Newark, N. J.

"These companies," Celler said, "have a concentration of economic power, self-perpetuation in office of their directors and officers, together with a tangled web of interlocking directorates, that enable the companies to formulate a financial policy stronger than the policy of the national government itself."

"They haven't used their funds as trustees of the people, or trustees of the stockholders, or for their policyholders, but for selfish interests."

Reach Agreement With Last Of Striking Unions

San Francisco, Dec. 3—(AP)—Agreement was reached today with the last of five striking maritime unions to end the West Coast strike.

Omar Hostins, Federal conciliator, said the CIO Radio operators and the Pacific American Shipworkers Association came to terms after an all night conference.

Earlier the other unions and employers reached agreements to end the three-month strike.

Even before the radio operators and shipworkers reached terms, the unions had agreed to a limited work schedule today, with four ships freed for work in this port so that Christmas cargo could start moving to Hawaii and the Philippines.

WATCH OUT FOR COUNTERFEIT $10 AND $20 BILLS

Warning has been issued over the eastern part of the country to be on the alert for counterfeit $10 and $20 bills. Much of this worthless money has been circulated north of here and some has been checked on at Virginia points.

Is It Worth While?

Analyst Refers To Howley's Thinking Out Loud, When He Questioned Value Of New Agreements With Russia; Only Value Appears That Of Gaining More Time

Colonel Frank Howley, commandant in the American sector of Berlin, pointed out to a press conference that for two years the Russians systematically have broken all the solemn agreements reached by the four occupation authorities, and then he propounded this one:

"Is it really worth all the effort to try to get additional agreements with them?"

The colonel didn't attempt to answer his own question specifically, and I take it he was doing a bit of thinking out loud along a line which is running through many minds right now. What good is achieved by trying to make agreements which we know the Russians will break if and when it serves their purpose? Why should we keep striving when the Bolsheviks have made it plain that they are out to communise the world and will let nothing stand in their way?

Well, we can say at once that such tactics would be love's labor lost if their sole value lay in the agreements achieved. However, it isn't the intrinsic value of the pacts for which the democracies are aiming primarily. They are playing for time. And so are the Communists.

This cold war in which we are engaged in a worthy conflict of attrition in which both sides are avoiding a hot war.

The democracies wait time for the economic recovery of western Europe so that it will be strong enough to stand up to Russia in event of a hot war.

The Muscovites, for their part, are letting time work for them as they try to extend their conquests by all strong-arm methods short of actual gun fire. They want to give their fifth-column a chance to operate in anti-Communist countries. They are anxious to get full play in the revolutions which they are fostering in China and Southeast Asia. And they are striving to rehabilitate their own war-damaged country and prepare new military equipment — including atomic bombs.

So long as the Russians and the western powers are talking they aren't shooting at each other. Thus in this same continuance of negotiations may be a good thing, even though agreements will be broken. That is, they may be a good thing so long as they aren't mistakes for assessment.

No Bolshevik agreement is worth a hill of beans, but time gained through palaver about agreements may be worth much.

40 Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR December 3, 1908

Ye good women of Greenville: Can't you open your eyes to what you might accomplish for your town through organization of a "city beautiful" or civic pride club? Let's plan for big things in the coming year.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night a donation of $50 for the year, payable quarterly, was made to the public library.

Joint Hostesses To End of Century

Mrs. E. A. Moye and Mrs. Joe Moye were joint hostesses for a luncheon meeting at the End of the Century Club on Tuesday, Nov. 30. As the members and guest, Mrs. Leon Russell, were invited in the spacious dining room and taking their places at the festive board the first greeting came from the exquisite red rose buds centering the table. The group immediately called to mind Spofford "I am the one rich thing that morn leaves for the ardent noon to win, Grasp me not, I have a thorn, But bend and take my being in."

A salad course with hot rolls and coffee was served by the hostesses followed by delicious dessert, Algonquian tarts.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Charles White. Minutes were read and committee reports heard. Several announcements were made and the meeting turned over to Mrs. Guy Smith. Mrs. Smith presented Mrs. Picken Arthur whose subject was "Outstanding Personalities in Education." Mrs. Arthur ably presented her subject and informed her hearers of famous leaders in education past and present. High tribute was paid especially to Angelo Patri whose contributions in the educational field raised the morale of hundreds of foreign born children as well as many of our own. Others coming in for their share of appreciation were Horace Mann, William James, John W. Dewey, George W. Zook, Charles Spurgeon Johnson and our own outstanding leader, Dr. Frank Porter Graham. The names of women who have stamped themselves indelibly in the minds of many are Virginia Gilder-sleeve, Mildred McAfee and Harriett Elliott.

To have made such an impression on her hearers the speaker realized that education is the leading human soul to what is best and making what is best out of them. The training which makes men happiest also makes them most serviceable to others. Books were exchanged and club adjourned to meet December 7, 1948.

Mrs. Scales Hostess To Sans Souci Club

On Tuesday, November 30, the Sans Souci Book club met with Mrs. W. M. Scales at her attractive home on West Fourth street. A touch of fall and early spring was present in the lovely arrangements of pyracantha and Narcissus.

After an interesting business session by Mrs. W. L. Wooten, president, the meeting was given to Mrs. J. H. Waldrop who gave a very enlightening talk on "Palestine, Yesterday and Today."

The club books were given to each member by Mrs. J. T. Chesham, Jr., librarian.

A delicious refreshment course was passed after which the meeting adjourned.

James T. Little. Garden Club Christmas Show The Christmas Show sponsored by the Garden Club scheduled for December 10 and 11 is gaining momentum each day.

A very enthusiastic group met Wednesday to complete plans for these festive dates. Invitations have been sent to many nearby clubs and the spirit of Christmas urged on by this group of ardent workers will soon permeate every corner of the Woman's Club making ready for the visitors and keeping Greenville in its coveted place in the east.

Aldermen Relax Anti-Noise Law

Rocky Mount, Dec. 3 —(AP)—Citizens made such a big noise against Rocky Mount's anti-noise law that the board of aldermen has had to tone it down. A new ordinance was passed last night. It's a lot milder. Its three sections prohibit:
1. The playing of radios or other sound devices so loudly that they can be heard in the streets or more than 50 feet away (church music exempted).
2. The playing of devices that cast their sound directly on the streets.
3. The playing of loudspeakers or amplifying devices on the streets for advertising purposes.

When authorities started enforcing the first ordinance of Nov. 19, fans couldn't have the public address system tell them who scored the touchdown at the ball park. And if dispatchers hadn't refused to comply with the law, passengers wouldn't have been able to tell when trains or buses arrived or pulled out. The old ordinance silenced amplifiers, public address systems, and radios that played too loud.

Nativity Play Cast Announced

The cast and the production staff of the Coventry Nativity Play, medieval church drama to be presented in five performances by the Teachers' Playhouse of East Carolina Teachers College as a prelude to the Christmas season, has been announced by Dr. Lucile H. Charles, director of the drama. Approximately 60 students are participating in the play. In addition, the Women's Chorus, directed by Dan E. Vornholt, will give a program of music as part of the production.
Dorothy Thomas, Constance, as Mary; Claude B. West, Jr., Greenville, as Joseph; and Virgil Clark, Greenville, as King Herod, will be among the principals in the cast. Others who have parts include Miles R. Buck, Syracuse, N. Y.; Issalah; John Pournaras, Ambridge, Pa.; Gabriel; Charles Connor, New Bern; Ralph H. Rives, Enfield, and Richard Whittington, Snow Hill, three kings; Curtis Phipps, Huntington, W. Va., and Milton Raynor, Dunn, prophets; and Charles Williams, Erwin, herald.
Geraldine Weather, Shelby; Susan Smith, Goldsboro, and Donald Blood, Greenville, are serving as student directors and assistants to Dr. Charles. Herbert Johnson, Holden, Mass., is technical director; Robert Chinis, Wilmington, stage manager; A. J. Abdalla, Selma, house manager; and Carl Conner, Windsor, publicity director.
The business staff is headed by Virgil Clark, Greenville, and Charles Williams, Erwin, who are being assisted by El Bloom, Greenville attorney.
The first performance of the play is scheduled for Friday afternoon, December 10. Four others, including special performances for both white and Negro school children of Greenville, will take place Friday evening, Dec. 10; Sunday, Dec. 13; Monday, Dec. 13; and Tuesday, Dec. 14.

Schools Reveal Holiday Dates

City schools will close Friday, December 17, for Christmas holidays and will re-open on January 3, school officials said this morning. Delivered Twins In Dreaded Task Covina, Calif., Dec. 3 —(AP)—Officer Orville Budd said he always feared he might have to deliver a baby or two some day while on police duty. Today that fear has left him.

While on patrol, he saw a light in his home and learned from his wife, Goldie, that the stork was approaching rapidly. He summoned an ambulance, but before it arrived, he had delivered twin girls—his own.

Strength FOR THE DAY

ON WINGS OF FAITH
When hawks or eagles are attacked by a flock of smaller birds, their usual procedure is not to fight back but to fly up to such altitudes that the smaller birds cannot follow them. Even though the eagle and hawk could handle themselves easily against lesser assailants, the fight would not be worth what it costs.
Better to ascend into the peace of ethereal heights and let the small, pestiferous variety go their way.

We readily see how this suggests for us all a course of action in daily behavior. There are little people and little things in life which constantly assail us. We can drop everything and fight them if we will. But the struggle is never really worth while. People who have the capacity to rise above such persons and situations are always the victors.

Of course the greatest height to which a man can rise is that of firm religious faith. No assailant can touch him when he ascends into such ethereal space. Neither death nor life nor things present nor things to come—none of these can overwhelm him when he has learned the secret of mounting upward on wings of faith.

Boyle's Column

By GEORGE TUCKER
(For HAL BOYLE)
New York (AP)—The toy show is lots of fun.
It fretted its sponsors and scared
the daylights out of little Santa Claus, Jr., but the kids are having a whale of a time.

The sponsors were agitated because the show wasn't ready to open on time at the New York Museum of Science and Industry the other day. When they let the bars down, only the reporters and carpenters were there.

The reporters stood around waiting for something to report while the carpenters frenziedly hammered booths together and erected tunnels for disappearing trains and other mechanical gadgets which will be amazing the youngsters all through Christmas month.

Even Santa Claus was late. His uniform got there but they forgot to send his beard. With him, too, was Santa, Jr., and before they got them toggled out and ready to appear they had to swap mustaches and send out for an extra beard.

This was Santa, Jr.'s first appearance at the toy show. Sometime ago the children of a New York institution were asked how old they thought Santa really was. "About ten," they said.

So master Arthur Levine, aged 8, was plucked from the New York foundling home and told "you're it."
Santa, Jr. was an unhappy young man in the early hours of the show.
His face lost its color. He never smiled. The sudden confusion of screaming children and exploding flashlight bulbs left him terrified. I don't blame him.

At this moment a tall, bronze figure clad in buckskin bounded upon the scene. He lifted his right arm, palm outward.
"Now," he cried, "Me Chief Flying Cloud."
"Hey, Hey," screamed the kiddies,
"Where's your gun?"
"Me good Indian."
"Makes no difference—you ought to have a gun."

Wiggling out of this situation, Chief Flying Cloud said: "Many Indians live about here. Maybe 50,000
They no have Indian names. Call selves Jones, Brown, Smith—like you."
"I said, where's your gun?" a little boy screamed. But before the Indian could think of an answer another tugged his fringed leggings and demanded, "What's your name?"
"Me Flying Cloud."

"No, no—I mean your real name
—like the Smiths and the Joneses."
"I'm glad you asked," replied Chief Flying Cloud. "I am the Rev. Dr.
Lucas a Cherokee out of Oklahoma.
I have eleven degrees from eleven universities and a four-story building in Richmond. I am also in charge of the Indian village here."

The Indian village, also was no more ready for inspection than other parts of the show. Not a tepee was strung, though just then a strong-arm gang came into set the huts and other about-ments into place.
Nevertheless there were many dazzling and wonderful toys, and the kids were transported.

The accent this year is on mechanical toys—gadgets that move.
Educators say the closer toys come to reality the better for children as they mature. The big-wheeled mon-

Well, Harry, Here's How I Do It

sters of contemporary adult life won't come as so much of a surprise.
There were deep-sea divers, so realistic they breathed under water, sending bubbles to the surface. They were a foot tall and operated in a two-foot tank of water. Their "life line" was a rubber tube. When you squeezed the tube, the diver rose to the surface. When you released it, he sank, feet first, in approved fashion.
The mechanical hobby horses that galloped at the touch of a stirrup found great favor with the youngsters. After one gallop, one little fellow couldn't rid himself of the sensation that he was still riding.
"Mama, I'm still galloping," he cried.

commissioner of the PBA, when the first World War II "tempo" was about to be erected: "Bert, build these damn things so they'll fall down themselves within five years."
After the war the PBA had hopes of soon demolishing the tempo and even announced to building owners that some rented offices would be surrendered. Then organizations which had been sent out of Washington to make room for others during the war poured back in. The armed forces' administrative set-up expanded, and various new agencies and commissions were established.
When the Economic Cooperation Administration was founded a large new office building had to be taken over. Now "recentralization" had been completed. But the national defense agencies continue to expand.
And the Census Bureau will soon need endless caverns of space for files and desks when it takes the 1950 census. President Truman asked the light Congress for a new building for Census, to be put up at Suitland Md.
near the city, but he didn't get it.
One new permanent building is now in the planning stage. It will house the General Accounting Office.
But the building won't be completed for three years. So the space problem won't be solved any time soon.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By CLARKE BEACH
(For Jane Eads)
Washington—There's no such thing as a temporary building in Washington.

Harry G. Hunter, assistant commissioner of the Public Buildings Administration (PBA), was looking really fondly at about six blocks of ugly, low, flat-topped offices along Constitution Ave.
Beyond them, sprawled out over the Mall were dozens more like them, built before the first World War.

"Got any plans to tear any of them down?" I asked.
"Hell, no!" replied the commissioner. "What we need is more of them."

Then he told me about his space problem: "We're way short, way short. And the prospects are we'll be shorter by the end of the year.
We're nearly a million feet of floor space short right now. No buildings are temporary. You can keep a frame house standing indefinitely if you keep painting and patching it."

And so President Roosevelt's dream of "tempo" which would collapse and simply have to be replaced after the war would come true in the foreseeable future. He hated the thought of setting up eyesores in the city's most beautiful parks. He especially lamented the continued existence of the blocks-long Munitions Building and old Navy Building, now both housing parts of the Navy Department. He is said to have remarked once to W. E. Reynolds,

Stores Are Ready For Christmas; Shopping Starts

By CHESTER WALSH
Greenville stores are ready for the Christmas season with attractive Yuletide display windows, an abundance of merchandise, and special arrangements to take care of the crowds as the Christmas shopping season swings into action this weekend.

Monday night, December 20, will mark the period in which the stores of Greenville Merchants Association will remain open nights until Christmas Eve. Stores here are planning to have extra clerks on duty to serve Christmas shoppers. Stocks are being arranged in a way to make shopping easy for those looking for Yuletide gifts.

The Greenville area experienced the rainiest season in November and these days of December in years but "old-timers" folks who study the weather, passed along the opinion today that it cannot rain all the time, and that the prospects for Christmas is dry weather.

Merchants of Greenville cooperated with the Merchants Association in planning for the Christmas season. After the streets were decorated with multi-colored electric lights and greenery, the stores responded in a big way with appropriate decorations in their display windows. Executive Secretary Cora S. Powell said today:

"Greenville is the shopping center of Eastern Carolina," President William H. Taft of the Merchants Association said today.

Christmas Club Depositors Get Nearly $30,000

By CHESTER WALSH
The First Federal Savings and Loan Association mailed out today 1,028 checks totaling $28,242 to those who participated in the association's Christmas Club savings fund, started last December 1. Those receiving the Christmas checks this year represent every phase of life, from the business man and woman to the child, who deposited 25 cents each week during the year. When nearly $30,000 is distributed in Greenville just before the Christmas season sets under way, there is a lot of good cheer and expressions of appreciation of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association's Christmas saving fund were heard here and there. Secretary-Treasurer A. C. Tadlock said today, "It's just like being Santa Claus, and our people in the office enjoy it."

Tadlock said the Christmas savings club was started by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association in 1937, and the deposits have increased each year in appreciation of the Christmas Club. "It's an easy way to save money," he said, and announced that the Christmas savings club for 1949 is now ready to receive deposits for next year.

A person depositing 25 cents a week for 52 weeks received just before Christmas a check for $12.50. Those depositing 50 cents a week receive $25; those saving $1 a week get checks for $50; and those depositing $2 a week get checks for $100; those putting in $3 a week receive $150, and those saving $5 a week get checks for $250.

Permanent Rank In Naval Reserves For Dr. J. C. Reynolds

Dr. John O. Reynolds, faculty member of the department of mathematics at East Carolina Teachers College, has been appointed to the permanent rank of lieutenant commander in the U.S. Naval Reserve. The appointment is a promotion for Dr. Reynolds who was separated from service as a lieutenant in the Navy.

During the last year he was engaged in the Naval Aviation Training program, in which he taught air navigation. He was stationed at the Navy Preflight School at Chapel Hill and at the Naval Air Station at Ottumwa, Iowa.

Kiwanis Officers Guests Eli Bloom At Supper Meeting

By CHESTER WALSH
Past President Eli Bloom was host at supper to the officers and directors of the Kiwanis Club last night at Respos' place, on the Bechtel highway, at their last business meeting of the year. Fellowship featured the meeting, and reviews of the good Samaritan work of the club during the year about to end, were gratifying.

President N. C. (Jefferson Standard) Brooks presided. He expressed in a fine manner his appreciation of the support given him during this year, and looked for the new president, Arthur Tripp, his best support and that of the members.

Plans were made for the Kiwanis Club's Christmas gifts and it was announced that these Yuletide gifts for institutions and individuals will be presented at the December 17 meeting. The meeting scheduled for Friday, December 24, Christmas Eve, will be held the night before, Thursday, December 23. Sandwidges and coffee will be served, instead of supper, and the money saved will be given to the Christmas Gift fund.

Dr. Melvin P. Hoot, working with J. D. Hice, chairman of the Underprivileged Child Committee, was given high praise by President Brooks and others. Tribute was paid to the retiring officers and four directors.

In addition to President Brooks officers and directors present were Eli Bloom, J. Arthur Collins, Dr. Melvin P. Hoot, Tom Wilson, Wyatt Highsmith, W. H. Woolard, Arthur Tripp, J. Bryan Brown, Tige Gardner, Hunter Keck, Milo Smith and Secretary Dave Moore, Jr., and James Ray Pittman, Judge Jimmy Roberts, Aubrey Tilley, and Chester Walsh, public relations chairman.

Oklahoma City, Dec. 3—(AP)—O. C. Shirley wanted a job, and he thought he could get one at the Police station.

He did. But it wasn't the one he applied for. He'll go to work in the station's clean-up gang for five days.

Because Jailor S. A. Phillips just happened to be present when the 38-year-old Shirley asked for work. And he remembered Shirley walked off Nov. 1 while serving out a fine for disorderly conduct. He still owed $10.

No Pushover For Pirates Saturday

Coach Porter Says His Basketballers Will Meet A Good Club in Portsmouth Quint; Bucs Ready And Eager

Coach Howard Porter, East Carolina Teachers College basketball mentor, pointed to his team's opener with the Portsmouth Grid Club cagers here Saturday night as no pushover for the local quintet.

"They will have a pretty good ball club and will give us a good game," Porter said last night as his Pirates wound up their afternoon drills.

The Portsmouth club is expected to boast the services of a number of ex-college stars who have joined the semi-pro outfit.

Over at East Carolina the Pirates were looking good and perhaps getting a little impatient for the season to get underway. They were scheduled to play the Norfolk NAS here Tuesday but a flight mix-up forced postponement of the game.

Len Bauer, one of the Bucs' standouts and usually among the starting five, may not be able to take to the floor for the opening whistle Saturday against Portsmouth. The ball-hawking Bauer is suffering from a blistered foot. Big Frank Maennle, who is looking "just as good this season as last," according to Porter, will probably start in the place of Bauer should his foot not be healed sufficiently.

Adding strength to the ECTC squad are a number of football players who have reported to Porter for cage drills since the grid season closed. Eddie Tanner and Mike Kovach are two freshman gridder who are showing up well on the hardwood.

Tanner is currently hampered by a hand injury but the lanky former Pirate end promises to play a lot of ball with the ECTC cagers. Kovach, with a little more practice, is expected to likewise be of great service to the ECTC squad. "You

Sees Early End To Two Platoons

New York, Dec. 3—(AP)—William A. Alexander, the grand old man of Southern football, says the two platoon system is on the way out because the public doesn't like it.

The athletic director of Georgia Tech helped write the rules that make the system possible.

"I can't blame a coach for using two platoons under the present rules," Alexander told the Touchdown Club of New York last night. "I think the committee made a mistake."

"The committee had one thought in mind," he declared. "That was the substitution of one player after each play without penalty. If a coach had eleven good men on the field but needed a kicker or a line backer or a place kicker, he could send him in."

"The thing has gotten out of hand. In one game this fall there were 294 substitutions. The public can't tell, the radio can't tell and the press can't tell who's in the game. There's bound to be a change."

Just what the change may be, Alexander didn't hazard a guess.

can tell that boy has played basketball somewhere," Porter says of the football star.

Jimmy Flye, who is another football player to report to Porter, earned a letter in basketball last season and is apparently already off to a good season in the gym.

Porter says a number of the players will get to see action in the Portsmouth game here Saturday night if "we can get far enough ahead or too far behind."

The locals face a tough 18-game schedule. They open their conference play against High Point there December 10.

Appalachian End Named To Little All-America List

New York, Dec. 3—(AP)—Eddie Le Baron, engineer of College of the Pacific's tricky T-manuevers and James Nelson, rugged Missouri Valley guard, are repeaters on the Associated Press annual Little All-America football team.

The honor eleven, chosen today from the hundreds of smaller college squads over the nation, includes three representatives from each of the Midwest and South, two from the East and Far West and one from the Southwest.

Le Baron, 18-year-old triple threat, is only a junior and thus has a chance to become a three-time Little All-America honoree.

He heads a backfield that consists also of Lynn Chewning, the former Navy star who now performs for Hampden-Sydney; V. T. Smith of Abilene Christian and Jack Schneider of St. Thomas in Minnesota.

Chewning, who started his college football at V.M.I. and later moved to Annapolis, led the Little Six Conference in scoring with 78 points. He was the only member of a small college eleven to make the All-Virginia team.

Smith is a fleet, powerful ball-carrier who in track sprints the 100 in 9.8. He returned a kick 71 yards for a touchdown against Arkansas and in another game returned three kickoffs for scores.

Another speed merchant is Schneider, who for three years has been honored on the Minnesota All-State team. A 185-pounder, he is exceptionally shifty and runs with great power on straightaway plays.

The Little All-America ends are John Caskey of Appalachian, a six-three Titan on defense, and Frank Lo Vuolo of St. Bonaventure a rangy pass-snagger who has played a prominent role in the Bonnies' highly successful year.

The tackle posts went to Ralph Hutchinson of Chattanooga and Jack Geary of Wesleyan, who stack up evenly in statistics. Both are 24-year-old veterans who stand six-two and weigh more than 200 pounds.

Nelson's guard mate is Robert Osgood of Central Washington College, a short chunk of man who is plenty tough. Osgood is only five-eight but weighs 190 pounds. Nelson is five-ten, weighs 180 and is all gristle.

The line is bulwarked at center by William Wehr, co-captain of the Denison team that now has gone through two seasons without a reversal.

Joe Novak New PGA President

Dunedin, Fla., Dec. 3—(AP)—The Professional Golfers Association of America has a new president in Joe Novak, but no change likely in the policies under which the PGA prospered during the seven-year regime of Ed Dudley.

Novak has been PGA secretary under Dudley for three years.

North Carolina opened its season last night with a 68 to 51 victory over Lenoir Rhyne. Coy Carson, North Carolina letterman, made more than a point a minute from his forward position. He played 25 minutes and scored 28 points.

The McCrary Eagles beat High Point College, 45-43, in Asheboro last night on Guard Hilliard Nance's basket in the final minute. Ted Moran, High Point center, was high with 18 points. High Point led 28 to 22 at the half.

Catawba salvaged a victory for a North State conference team, 73-45, over the Kannapolis YMCA. The Indians led 40-17 at halftime at Salisbury and coasted in.

Stock Car Race Slated Sunday

Wilson, Dec. 3—Rained out last week, the promoters of the modified stock car races will give it another trial this Sunday, December 5 at the Fair Grounds, Wilson, N. C. Last Sunday a record field of cars appeared ready to race. This field included Jimmie Lewellyn, Pap White, Joe Weatherly, National 100 Mile Champion and Ray Hartsuk, famous midget auto driver.

The same field will be on hand this Sunday, and with clear weather promised by the weather man, some hot competition is promised.

Time trials will start at 2 p.m. and will be followed by a program of elimination heats and climaxed by a forty lap feature event.

Sox And Indians Trade Pitchers

Chicago, Dec. 3—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox have traded Pitcher Frank Pappish to Cleveland for two Indian hurlers, Ernest Groth and Bob Kuzava.

Pappish, 32-year-old left-hander, had been regarded as a potential White Sox star for the past two seasons. However, he won only two and lost eight last season because of ailments.

Extra room—extra view—and Dynaflo too in these bountiful new 1949 Buicks

This you're going to like! For its looks—its room—the wonderful view it gives.

Above all, for the happy news that now you can have Dynaflo Drive on the Buick SUPER as well as the Buick ROADMASTER.

In each of these series you have your choice of the four models shown—models sleek and flowing from gleaming grille to faired-in taillights and contoured rear bumpers.

On all of them you have stepped-up visibility from curved windshields and more glass area—area increased by 22% in four-door Sedans.

In all you find ample room made even greater by new cradle-soft seat cushions—and access made easier by wide-swinging doors that are feather-light in action.

There is a rich new instrument panel with glare-shielded instruments. Hood latches are within the car, fabrics are fine and neatly tailored.

And under every bonnet, not only of these new SUPERS and ROADMASTERS but on two trim SPECIAL models too—lively Fireball power cradled on Hi-Poised engine mountings.

On all ROADMASTERS, with their brilliant 150-hp engines, Dynaflo Drive is standard equipment. On all SUPERS, it is yours on option at extra cost. And with Dynaflo every engine has a plus—new self-setting valve lifters which stay lastingly quiet and factory perfect.

And in all models, there is room, a view, the steadiness and heft of a truly big car—and prices that shine more brightly on every comparison.

Make those comparisons yourself. See what your dollar buys in Buick—and you'll get your order in right now!

Scores Answered Radio's Appeal For Blood Donor

Jacksonville, N. C., Dec. 3.—(P)— scores of people answered a Jacksonville radio station's broadcast appeal for blood donors when 10 children were hospitalized yesterday after their school bus overturned.
State highway patrolman A. H.
Lynch reported five children were discharged after first aid treatment.
Attendants last night said the injuries of the five still in the hospital were "painful but not critical."

The bus taking about 50 children home ran into a ditch and turned over near here.
Patients last night were Leona
Pierce, 8; J. L. Mobley, 11, James
O. Home, 10; Thurwood W. Brown, 8, and Lavens William (age unavailable).

Idaho's first official highway took three years to build and was 624 miles long.

"Lots less than in some other countries," I said, and gave him a meaningful stare.

He looked me over in frowning silence for a long moment. Somehow I kind of felt like a necktie he couldn't make up his mind on.

"But you are not too busy, perhaps?" he suddenly asked.

"That depends," I told him. Then bluntly, "Just what are you trying to say, DePoe?"

"There is a little matter, Monsieur," he said. "Perhaps only a matter of advice. It would be all right if I visited your office tomorrow morning? Mademoiselle was kind enough to give me the address."

"Ten o'clock would be all right," I said. And then for the sake of ethics, plus letting him know right where I stood, I added, "But I don't accept everything that comes my way."

"You are most fortunate," he said.
"With all your money you do not have to accept anything."

Paula had she passed on to this good-looking clerk my whole family history? I was so burned at the thought that it jolted me plenty when I suddenly realized that De-Foe was staring at me with stark murder in his eyes. Only a second later I realized that he wasn't staring at me. It was somebody behind me. I turned, but as far as I could see the object of his glittering eyes were some more of the Rankins' imported potted palms. Not a bit of human flesh was in sight. I turned around to DeFoe and got another jolt. He was walking rapidly away just the way Goldilocks had done.

Five Wounded In Gunfight On Bus

Cleveland, Tenn., Dec. 3—(AP)—Five white persons were shot in a wild gunfight between a white man and Negro on a crowded bus near here yesterday.

Bradley County Sheriff Bud Cash said he was told by the bus driver, E. E. McKennie of Cleveland, that the shooting began when the Negro sat down by the white man and refused to move to the rear of the bus.

The men who did the shooting were identified by Sheriff Cash as Jack Bennett of Calhoun, Tenn., and James A. Phillips, Negro, of Charleston, Tenn. Both were arrested and

'Turnip Expert'

Boonville, Mo., Dec. 3—(AP)—W. B. Miller today displayed proof that President Truman "knows his turnips."

Miller read about the President's remark last summer that July 23 was a good date to sow the vegetable in Missouri, or if the date falls on Sunday, the following day as it did this year. So Miller, a Democrat, planted his turnips on July 23.

Today he showed one whopper that weighed 10 pounds and measured 23 inches around. Another tilted the beam at seven pounds.

charged with assault with intent to murder. Bond for each was set at $5,000.

The two men, each about 25 years old, are being held in the Cleveland jail. Justice of the Peace W. L. Ledford said last night there was no evident tension in Cleveland about the shooting and that "everything is quiet around the jail."

Bennett suffered a flesh wound in the right shoulder. Phillips was not hit.

A nurse at the hospital said two of the other four persons shot were seriously wounded.

CHRISTMAS MAIL STARTS HERE IN BIG VOLUME

Watching the trucks going into the Post Office it appears that incoming mail, including Christmas packages, is heavier than the outgoing mail at this time. With only 18 more shopping days before Christmas, shopping for gifts and mailing of Christmas greeting cards is beginning to get into full swing.

Postmaster J. Knott Proctor urges the public to mail early, take the mail from post office boxes promptly, and when mailing numbers of cards, separate the city cards from those to go out of town.

REGISTERED NURSES ARE KIND TO THEIR PATIENTS

Richard E. Parker, lineman for the Greenville Utilities Commission, who narrowly escaped death last September 13, when he came in contact with high voltage electric wires while making repairs, paid a welcome visit to the Daily Reflector office. In the reporter's report of his first visit down town, he stated that Parker's wife accompanied him. It was Mrs. Robert O. Fleming, registered nurse, who accompanied him, Parker to the newspaper office.

POLICE CHIEF WARNS ABOUT SNEAK THIEVES IN SECTION

Police Chief Lester D. Page today warned householders and business places to be on the alert for sneak thieves who have been reported to be circulating in other Eastern Carolina towns. The chief

Big Influx Bogus Bills In New York

New York, Dec. 3—(AP)—A flood of counterfeit $10 and $20 bills has been loosed on the country, the total running into possibly "millions of dollars," according to government officials.

Secret service agents and Federal Reserve officials reported yesterday that the main dumping ground for the counterfeit money, up to the present, has been New York City.

They said the biggest influx of bogus bills in history has hit the Metropolitan area.

The bogus bills, which first aroused the suspicions of a woman clerk about a week ago, were described by bank officials as masterful imitations.

They said the woman clerk noticed that a large number of bills, marked with a "G" in one section, were coming in from New York district banks. Usually, the "G" indicates bills are issued by the Chicago Federal Reserve bank. Examination by experts showed the bills were fake.

said it is a good plan to keep the back doors hooked or locked and not tempt the wayfarers who pilage homes and business places about this time of the year.

Top-Heavy Odds For Citation On Western Debut

San Bruno, Calif., Dec. 3—(AP)—Citation, one of the world's greatest horses, makes his west coast debut today so heavily favored Tanforan track won't decide whether to limit wagering in the five-horse race until noon.

With Eddie Arcard aboard, the champion is entered with four other three-year-olds—competing for the smallest purse he has sought this year, the $5,000 challenge purse. The $3,100 net would swell his winnings for this year to $877,670, and his total take to $833,350. The world record: Stymie's $911,335, which may not stand much longer.

Citation's foes for his first western performance are bold gallant, Barsard, M'Dearry and Grandpere. M'Dearry will carry 103 pounds, the other three 109, compared with Citation's 126.

3-HOUR SELLING DAY

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 2—(AP)—Suggestion for a three-hour selling day on burley tobacco markets was made yesterday as the average price of the leaf sold in Kentucky dropped 88 cents a hundred pounds.

River Still Rising

Tar river was still rising today. The stream was at the 14-27-foot level at 8 a. m. today nearly a foot higher than yesterday, Mrs. C. E. Maiden, observer here for the U. S. Department of Commerce, reported.

Farmers and others have been warned to move livestock from river lowgrounds.

The crest of the flood was expected to reach the Greenville area this afternoon.

help them. One is an expert on prices, another on building, another on international economics, and so on.

The three-man council can draw, and does, on the vast sum of economic information gathered by the government departments, each of which is a storehouse of facts in its own field.

The council also meets four times a year with representatives of the big business, labor and farming organizations.

The Idaho territory, which covers more than 90,000 square miles, had only a few dozen white people in its population as recently as 1860.

Hog Market

Raleigh, Dec. 3—(AP)—(NCDA)—Hog prices steady. Tops of $21.50 at Kingston, Rocky Mount, Greenville, Wilson, Goldsboro, Washington, and Richmond.

Poultry and Eggs

Raleigh, Dec. 3—(AP)—(NCDA)—Fryers and broilers steady at mostly 35 with few at 36; eggs steady, A large 65.

N.Y. Cotton

New York, Dec. 3—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 5 to 25 cents a bale lower.

Noon prices were 15 to 30 cents a bale lower than the previous close. Dec. 32.22, March 32.19 and May 32.05.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, Dec. 3—(AP)—The stock market started off on a steady track today but wavered a bit in mid-session.

Changes either way were small, though, and the general undertone was steady.

Talk of a December rally continued to circulate in Wall Street and considerable demand was based on that theory. Tax selling, however, continued as a weight on prices.
