Chinese Reds Take Tientsin; Enter City

Seize Burning City After Fierce Artillery Barrage That Devastated North China's Great Commercial City; Americans Safe; Big Blow To Chiang

Shanghai, Jan. 15—(AP)—The great commercial city of Tientsin, battered by Communist shells and fire in several places, fell to Chinese Reds today in what may be the crowning blow to Chiang Kai-shek.

Victorious troops of Red Gen. Lin Biao, conqueror of Manchuria, seized the burning city after a fierce artillery barrage that devastated old landmarks and many buildings.

Radio reports from the "Gateway to North China" described the city of 3,000,000 as one of death and desolation.

Many civilians were killed. Hospitals were jammed with wounded.

Robert Smyth of Berkeley, Calif., U.S. consul general, radioed that all of his staff was safe.

"So far as can be ascertained all other Americans (about 80 in number) are safe," Smyth radioed.

Down broad Victoria Road, which winds through the heart of the former British concession, the Red conquerors marched, stopping in front of the U.S. consulate to fire their rifles into the air.

Before the United States information service office in the former French concession, a few blocks away, they stopped and fired their rifles into the air again as Americans watched from the roof of the building.

Confirmation of Tientsin's fall came in messages received in Nanking, where the blow to the Nationalist cause is certain to have terrific repercussions.

Peiping, 90 miles northeast of Tientsin and headquarters of Gen. Fu Tze-shan, Nationalist North China commander, reported only that the Reds had entered Tientsin.

Victory at Tientsin frees Lin's troops for an all-out assault on the port of Tangku, 27 miles down the Hai River, and Taku, rail terminal, opposite Tangku on the river front.

Peiping may be the next big city attacked by the infuriated Reds, whose leader, Mao Tse-tung, only yesterday laid down an eight-point peace program and punctuated it with the boast that more military victories would bring Chiang's government to its knees.

The reaction of officialdom in Nanking to his eight "peace terms," according to James D. White, Asso-

Incomes And Tax Hikes

Most People Have Remained Calm On Hearing President's Tax Increase Plan Because Many Won't Be Affected; Definition Of 'Middle Income'; Income Groups

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—Most people must have been left calm when President Truman talked of raising income taxes.
That's because most people who pay personal income taxes wouldn't be touched by the kind of tax raise he mentioned.
He asked Congress this month to raise taxes on corporations and consider raising them on people in the middle and upper income groups.
And at a White House news conference Thursday he was asked what he meant when he spoke of "middle-income" people.
He said the treasury department defines the "middle" people as those starting at $5,000 and going up to $10,000 and $30,000 a year.
But how many people make $6,000 a year or more in this country? You can get different figures from different government agencies.
The Federal Reserve board seems to have the latest collection, so take a look at them.
The board's figures are for the income of "families" in 1947. And it defines a family as "all related persons living in one household."
The board's figures—for 42,000,000 families in 1947—show that only 14 per cent of them—or 5,800,000 families—had income over $6,000.

War Finally Over For These Japs

Two former machine gunners in the Japanese navy are questioned at 20th Air Force headquarters at Guam after their surrender on Iwo Jima where they had been living in caves since American forces invaded the island February 19, 1945. They slept during the day and foraged at night. They are Matsudo Linsoki, 37 (left), and Yamakage Kufuku, 24. Both were farmers before the war. (AP Wirephoto).

Clark Asks Revision U.S. Espionage Laws

Proposes Unprecedented Peacetime Power To Press Spy Charges; Suggestions Endorsed By Intelligence Experts

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—A sweeping revision of the espionage laws has been proposed by Attorney General Clark as protection against "the treacherous operations of those who would weaken our nation internally."

He asked Congress for unprecedented peacetime power to press spy charges no matter how long ago the offense occurred, and said law officers should have the legal right to tap wires for evidence in such cases.

The bill Clark sent last night to House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) and chairman McCarran (D-Nev) of the Senate judicial committee embodied the unanimous recommendations of an interdepartmental committee made up of FBI, army and navy intelligence experts.

Their submission to Congress follows an 18-month investigation by a special federal grand jury in New York City into alleged foreign spying in this country, and a lengthy and sensational inquiry into the same subject by the house-un-American Activities committee.

The New York grand jury returned no indictments for espionage, and Justice Department officials asserted that it was hampered because existing laws place a limit on the scope of the investigation.

Hope Sweden To Drop Neutrality To Acquire Arms

State Dept. Says U.S. Cannot Spare Weapons For Those Outside Alliance

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—Officials expressed hope today that a new "allies only" label on American arms will coax Sweden off the neutrality fence in the cold war against Russia.

State Department Press Officer Michael McDermott told a news conference yesterday that the United States cannot spare military equipment for nations unwilling to enter a defense alliance against Communist expansion.

Officials said that was aimed straight at Sweden, where press reports have taken the opposite tack. Sweden has suggested that her northern neighbors cold-shoulder western alliance bids and join her instead in a policy of strict neutrality.

The state department followed up McDermott's statement with an announcement that last summer Sweden received 30 P-51 fighter planes which are no longer in operating condition but which can be used to replace parts in planes the Swedes already own.

Stockholm reports said earlier this week that Sweden had urged Norway and Denmark to spurn the projected North Atlantic military alliance for an iron-clad Scandinavian military pact. In any case, Sweden indicated, she would remain aloof from the treaty being negotiated by the United States, Canada and five European nations.

But even the Scandinavian alliance plan was regarded by diplomatic authorities here as a long step in Swedish policy, which once called for strict non-alliance neutrality.

State Department officials reportedly feel that in today's divided world such a purely Scandinavian defensive arrangement would not work.

The policy of the western powers has been to block Soviet aggression by aligning friendly nations in critical areas of the world into a defensive barrier against Communism.

Toward that end, the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Canada now are putting the finishing touches on the proposed North Atlantic regional security system.

Youths Admit To Pitt Robberies

Reportedly Confess Grifted Robberies; Three Are Held

Three white youths have admitted committing two robberies in Grifton on the night of December 17, and are being held by Pitt County law enforcement officers for trial in Superior Court which convenes January 24.

The three, identified by Sheriff Ruel Tyson as Eugene McLawhorn, about 20, of the Ayden community, Windley Jones, 21, of Ayden, and Earl Jones, 18, of Ayden, were arrested Wednesday night by Sheriff Tyson, Deputy Sheriff Manning and Policeman Hamilton of the Ayden police force.

Tyson said the trio was arrested and held for questioning, and admitted robbing Tucker Brothers store and Heber Wade's filling station in Grifton. Tyson said they admitted taking about $15 from the cash register in Tucker Brothers store and a crate of soft drinks from the filling station.

Babson Discusses Fires

New York, Jan. 14—Last year U. S. property was destroyed by needless fires amounting to $700,000,000. In addition about 15,000 people lost their lives. Property can be replaced but lives cannot be.

Back Your Firemen
Considering the tremendous loss stated above, you at first think that the fire departments have been lax and inefficient. This is not so. I believe that the fire departments of our cities are the most efficient of all city departments. Just think—if it were not for your fire department your entire city would now be in ashes.

Listen To Your Fire Chief
What your city council or selectmen ask the advice of their Health or Legal Department or Building Inspector they act upon the advice. When, however, the fire chief asks for new equipment or more fire

County Virtually Assured Of New 120-Bed Hospital

Last Obstacle Overcome For Hospital

Believe 300 Dead In South African Riots

Outbreaks Ebb As Armed Forces Intervene; Nearly 400 Injured; Many Indians Flee Durban In Face Of Racial Violence

Durban, Union of South Africa, Jan. 15—(AP)—Three hundred Indians and many blacks are believed to have been killed in two days of race rioting in the Durban area. Nearly 400 have been injured.

The rioting ebbed somewhat today after the intervention of South African armed forces but sporadic outbreaks occurred in several suburbs.

Officials in Johannesburg made the new casualty estimate. They said a majority of the Indians are evacuating Durban, fleeing to surrounding villages with their few remaining possessions.

Police arranged areas of refuge where the Indians could come for protection. More than 200 police reinforcements already have arrived in Durban.

The fighting was between native blacks and Indians. One European (white) was killed and another seriously injured as a result of the two-day riot. It was the first time South African military units have been called to quell racial violence. The damage was estimated at $1,000,000.

Defense Minister F. C. Erasmus wired Durban that if the situation grew worse he would proclaim a state of emergency.

The South African air force was held in readiness to move extra police to Durban. Five radio cars and 100 policemen already have been sent from Pretoria by air.

The Indians involved, a minority group in South Africa, are immigrants and the descendants of immigrants from India.

Quiet was restored in Durban at about 3 a.m. The rioting broke out Thursday, when a young native boy was injured by an Indian market peddler. He was taken to a hospital and reports spread that he had been killed.

The incident snowballed into wholesale native attacks on the Indians. Whole families were slain in their homes.

By the time the armed forces quelled the rioting in the city, it had spread to the suburbs. Entire residential areas were put to the torch. Indian homes and stores were looted by native rioters chanting Zulu battle cries.

Jump Master Saved His Crew; Stayed For Crash
Fayetteville, Jan. 15—(AP)—A veteran paratrooper prodded 36 trainees out of a stricken "Flying Boxcar" and then rode the ship until it crashed and burned. The crew of three was killed.

Sgt. Robert Lee Hodgkiss of Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, the jump master who was unhurt, told interviewers: "I heard the jump bell and knew there was trouble because we were only halfway to the drop zone. The other guys knew it too but they were calm. "We didn't have time to final check parachute harness. I just

Marshall Leaves For Puerto Rico

General And Wife Fly To San Juan For Long Vacation

Pinehurst, N.C., Jan. 15—(AP)—Allied secretary of state, George C. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall left by plane today for a vacation in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

The General was in good spirits as he left his resort home here. He told friends that "I'm going there for a rest."

They boarded an air force Constellation plane at Pope Field, Fort Bragg. With them were Sgt. Jim George, the General's attendant, and Mrs. Marshall's Chinese maid, Anna.

Gen. Marshall is recuperating from a recent kidney operation. The Marshalls said they planned to remain in San Juan for several weeks. They will be housed at tenth naval district headquarters.

Arrangements for the "vacation trip" were made while the General was a patient in Walter Reed Hospital last December. He said today that President Truman suggested the trip.

Only last Wednesday, President Truman made a surprise flight here to visit the ailing General. The President's aides said at that time it would be the last chance the President would have to talk in person with the Secretary before the latter's resignation becomes effective.

The Communist Price

In Effect, The Chinese Reds Are Asking Unconditional Surrender By Chiang Kai-Shek And His Followers With Their Peace Terms; Will Nationalists Fight On?

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Mao Tse-tung, hard-boiled and dynamic leader of Chinese Communism, finally has announced his terms for peace with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's government.

In effect they call for unconditional surrender and for a complete remodeling of the nation.

The Chinese Stalin projects drastic reorganization for this country which houses close to a quarter of the world's population. What he envisages is one of the most violent upheavals China has known in its 3,000 years of history.

The constitution is to be rewritten in Red "Bureaucratic" capital is to be confiscated. There are to be land reforms. "Reactionaries" are to be eliminated from government and army. All "war criminals" are to be tried, and he names the Generalissimo and Madame Chiang first on the long list.

"Traitorous" treaties with imperialist nations are to be cancelled. This includes abrogation of treaties with the United States. You understand why Mao singles out America when you know that he regards the United States as his chief enemy, next to Chiang's Kuomintang Nationalists. This is because of Uncle Sam's military aid to the Nanking government. Clearly Mao speaks as a com-

Bids Offered To Trustees Approximately $9,000 Under Maximum Amount Which Could Be Spent For Six Items Under Consideration; Supporters Are Pleased

Pitt County was virtually assured of a new 120 bed hospital yesterday when it was revealed that low bids for construction and the installation of the permanently fixed equipment for the four story structure were within the $1,200,000 which is the maximum amount which could be spent for those purposes.

Acceptable low bids on the six contracts which have been offered by the hospital trustees totaled $1,191,189, approximately $9,000 under the maximum amount which could be spent for six items under consideration.

According to figures released by S. B. Underwood, Jr., attorney for the hospital board of trustees, McKoy Helgeson construction company of Greenville, South Carolina was low bidder for the general construction contract with a bid of $829,000. C. L. Russ Plumbing and Heating company of this city was low bidder on both the plumbing and heating contracts with a bid of $97,000 for the plumbing contract, and $74,834 for the heating contract. Low bidder on the air conditioning and refrigeration contract was Sneedens Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Company of Wilmington at $67,775, and Thompson Electric company of Raleigh was low bidder on the electrical contract at $65,441. The lowest acceptable bid on the elevator contract was submitted by Otis Elevator company of Greensboro at $54,339, hospital officials said.

Approximately 100 contractors, hospital trustees and interested citizens of the county and state crowded into the lecture room on the second floor of the Agricultural building to hear the bids as they were opened and recorded by the hospital trustees.

The low bids will have to be approved by the North Carolina Medical Care commission and the United States public health service before the contracts can be let, but officials said approval will be obtained so contracts may be let within 30 days. Hospital trustees and representatives of the state medical care commission estimated construction work on the hospital will begin within the next two months. George Watts Carr, architect of the hospital, estimated two years will be needed to complete the structure after construction begins.

"We are all mighty happy," said C. Stuart Carr, chairman of the hospital board of trustees, after it was certain that the low bids were within the amount appropriated for construction. Speaking to H. E. Hamilton, B. K. Jones and J. D. Joslin, representatives of the state medical care commission, Carr said: "We appreciate the interest you have taken in this thing and the fine cooperation you have given us."

The total cost of constructing and equipping the hospital will be approximately $1,400,000. Bids for other equipment will be accepted at a later date, S. B. Underwood, attorney for the hospital board of

On January 13 the P.T.A. met at the Bethel elementary school. The program was very unusual. We might call it a double-header.

Narrowly Escaped A More Serious Blaze

Fountain, Jan. 15—Adrian Gardner narrowly escaped having a serious fire on his hands recently when his hot water heater overflowed causing a blaze on the outside of the burner.

The fire alarm was turned in, but no damage was done as the blaze went out when kerosene was cut-off from the burner at an outside drum.

Incomes And . . .

But it's people with $6,000 incomes and over that Mr. Truman said Congress should consider taxing a little harder.

Babson . . .

Fire chiefs know what is best for their city and the taxpayers. Hence, all their requests for appropriations should be granted, including recommendations for salary increases, the firemen and their chief are the poorest paid of all city employees. Your fire chief is your best friend.

Suggestions To Readers The best kind of fire protection is a sprinkler system connected with the fire alarm system. Another less expensive but very efficient system, is the so-called "Vigilant Rate-of-Rise"—system, connected with the fire department. This does not extinguish the fire as do sprinklers but it automatically calls the fire department before the fire gets underway.

For most buildings, either of the above systems is perfect protection. For a tenant in a block of stores it is only partial protection. He may do all he can to protect his store; but if a restaurant is next door without protection, then the careful storekeeper is handicapped. Legislation should be enacted so when the majority of the property owners of any city block want sprinkler or automatic protection, all the property owners in this block must join. Fire Alarm Boxes The little red fire alarm box on the corner of your street is also a friend of yours. And be sure that there is a box at each corner so that whichever way you or some passer-by runs, he will quickly find a box to pull. This is especially important as so many fires start when no one is in the home, store or building and the fire chief is dependent upon a passer-by. To depend upon a telephone is dangerous. In the excitement of the telephone operator or the fire department often misunderstands the correct address. Too many street names sound alike and too many excited women telephone only: "Come quickly my house is on fire" without giving any address!

Miss Martha Lee Cowell and Mrs. Blanche Cherry were hostesses to the members of The Patient Circle of The King's Daughters and Sons of Greenville, who gathered at the home of Miss Cowell.

A memorial service in tribute to Mrs. T. A. Person, deceased member of the Patient Circle, was given by Mrs. Milton White. She depicted the sterling qualities and the Christian character of Mrs. Person and expressed sorrow in the great loss of this faithful member. A moment of silence was observed in her memory.

For the devotional Mrs. White urged that "when we take stock in 1949" that we know we have gained new courage and strength from God. She closed with a New Year's Prayer.

January 13 is Founders' Day of The King's Daughters and President Clara Moye Shaskell, in a few chosen words, reviewed the history. They adopted the motto "Lend a Hand."

Phantoms Take Sweep In Tarboro; Pirates Top Elon

Shellack Tarboro In Both Contests

Varsity Takes Second Conference Win By A Stunning 39-19 Score; Powerful Jayvees Rout Opposition 43-17

Coch John Farley's Greenville high school Phantoms took over the Tarboro basketball court lock, stock and barrel last night as the Jayvees shellacked the Tarboro junior varsity 43-17, and the local varsity routed their hosts to the tune of 39-19.

For the varsity it was a big jump back into the win column for their second conference win of the season against one loss. For the Jayvees, the most potent junior squad in the state, it was the fifth win of the season against two losses, both to class AA teams.

In the opening contest of the evening the Greenville Jayvees gave the Tarboro boys a lesson in basketball. The Jayvees came close to their 40-point mark in the first quarter and could account for only seven points in the first half, while the Phantoms racked up 22.

The second half was the same story as far as scoring was concerned. With the Greenville Jayvees continuing to exhibit their ball-handling skill and accurate shooting, the Tarboro team managed to get one field goal in the half-time score 22 to two in favor of the Phantoms.

During the second half the Tigers came back with renewed vigor and made the Phantoms point for point for the rest of the game, each team scoring 10 points in the second half. The Tarboro players overcame the deficit to tie the score at 33-33.

Coach John Farley took the evening's scoring honors for the locals with 10 points, followed by Forward Sawyer with nine points, Morse with eight, and scorer for the Tigers with four points, all made on free throws.

Two Syndicates In Market For Pro Grid Team

Philadelphia, Jan. 15—(AP)—At least two Philadelphia syndicates are bidding for the Philadelphia Eagles—also one may own the National Football League franchise before next fall.

Offers have been made by groups headed by James P. Clark, former Democratic chairman, and Arthur Rosenberg, vice president of a large grocery chain.

Both syndicates are believed to have offered at least $250,000, the minimum asking price of Owner Alexis Thompson.

Thompson said in New York he'd meet Clark in Philadelphia today, and might have an announcement after the conference. Clark and his lawyers conferred here yesterday while Thompson huddled with General Manager Charley Ewart and Coach Earle (Greasy) Nease in New York.

Robinson Defies Klan Opposition

Atlanta, Jan. 15—(AP)—Jackie Robinson, the Negro second baseman, says he will play baseball where the Brooklyn Dodgers tell him, despite Ku Klux Klan opposition.

That was his reaction last night after the Klan questioned whether he and Dodge Catcher Roy Campanella, also a Negro, could legally play against the Atlanta Crackers. The Dodgers meet the Southern Association Crackers here April 8 and 10 in exhibition games.

Cracker President Earl Mann said he expected both Robinson and Campanella to be in the line-up. Klan Dragon Samuel Green immediately came up with a challenge that Georgia's segregation law would bar the Negroes against a white team in Atlanta.

"In my opinion, it's illegal," the Grand Dragon said. "You can be your life I'll look up the segregation law and investigate thoroughly."

Gov. Herman Talmadge, a "white supremacy" crusader, said the controversy hadn't been called to his attention officially. He said it probably would be later and he would look into it then.

Robinson, in his New York sport broadcast over Station WPCB said: "This is my reaction to the statement about the Ku Klux Klan. I will play baseball where my employer, the Brooklyn Dodgers, wants to play."

Ayden And Grifton Lead Pitt Basketball Standings

The Pitt County basketball teams were nearing the half-way mark in their basketball schedules and of the seven reporting teams the Ayden boys and the Grifton girls were heading the standings.

The Ayden boys, sporting an unblemished record of 5 wins against 0 defeats, were well out ahead of their nearest reporting school, Grimesland, who has won 4 games and has lost 3. Winterville with a 500 percent mark has won 3 of their contests while dropping 3 games, and is in third position. Both Grifton and Chicod are making strong bids for positions in the upper bracket and had a 3-4 record to date.

The Grifton girls swam through 5 games successfully while dropping one and tying one. The next four teams are not far behind Grifton and could very easily take over the coveted spot within a week's time. The county is using for the first

Five Extra

New York, Jan. 15—(AP)—Two small Ohio schools—Marietta and Capital—featured play in collegiate basketball last night.

They battled through five extra periods before Marietta was adjudged the victor, 199-98, by edict of the referees, Tom Verma and Don Wair. They added by the scorebook which showed Marietta ahead, although the tally of the official scorebook had the score tied at 99-99.

The officials ruled the "crowd was out of hand" and that it was "out of question" to call the teams back from the dressing room.

Vince Foster Is Fistic Standout

New York, Jan. 15—(AP)—Vince Foster, a boyish two-fisted banger from Omaha, Neb., is the hottest thing to hit Madison Square Garden since Rocky Graziano.

Manager Jack Hurley's new welterweight puncher scored in electrifying fashion last night by knocking out tough Tony Pelonne, 146½, in established main 10 fighter, in 14 seconds of the seventh round.

It was the way Foster, 146, did the job on the clever New Yorker that caught the fancy of the crowd of 4,211 which paid $44,639. Four clean knockdowns, climaxed by the kayo jamped 25-year-old Vince as a kid with a future.

Foster probably isn't ready for sad man Ray Robinson but you could never convince him. He's a killing worker who wants only to hit. You can't ask more than that especially the way things are these days.

Beau Jack or possibly Charley is set to talk about as future.

Bucs Win 49-48 In Close Game; Moye Is Injured

East Carolina Teachers College edged Elon 49-48 last night in a North State Conference thriller which saw the lead change hands ten times and was deadlocked seven times in the first half.

Eddie Tanner tossed in the winning free throw in the last minute of the game, providing the locals with their first out-of-town win of the season and breaking a three-game jinx.

Throughout the first half the score was never more than three points apart and stood at ECTC 23, Elon 21 at halftime.

The Pirates led through the last half except at one point when the score was tied 34-34.

Charlie Moye was top scorer for the East Carolina cagers with 18 points; Maennel racked up seven and Everton and Fennell accounted for six each.

Moye suffered a foot injury late in the game and the Reflector's representative at last night's game estimated that Moye might be out of action for possibly two weeks.

Lawrence Galtier high-scored for Elon with 16 points and his teammate, Elvin Cooper, accounted for 13. The touring ECTC quint will play its second game of the weekend tonight at Lenoir-Rhyne.

Bell Arthur Tops Richland Quint With Late Rally

The Bell Arthur veterans finally ended their losing streak by coming from behind to upset Richland last night in a Tobacco Belt League game, played at the Greenville armory. They won, 44-41.

Mike Kovach pushed in a one-hander with seconds to go, and Warren made a free throw to sew the game up for the veterans.

Kovach, with 20 points, and Warren with 9 points, led the winners. Top scorer for the night was Trot, who hit the nets for 21 points for Richland.

Bell Arthur's scoring went as follows: C. Nichols, 8; Erwin, 7; Warren, 9; Kovach, 20. Richland point-makers were: Rand, 9; Trot, 21; P. Sanders, 8; Hall, 4; R. Sanders, 1.

Eight Boxing Bouts Scheduled For Matches At ECTC Tonight

Pugilist teams from Winston-Salem and East Carolina Teachers College poised today for tonight's match in the ECTC Wright auditorium.

Eight team bouts are on the evening's program, and officials at East Carolina are predicting some "very good" boxing events. Arrangements to include two high school bouts on the card were still in progress last night but no definite announcement had been made at press time today.

The East Carolina team will be out for its first win of the season after holding an elimination tournament here last Saturday. The locals lost to the Charlotte team 7½ to 1½ a month ago. But the Buccaneers boxers had only three weeks of conditioning then, and are expected to give the Winston-Salem YMCA a hard time of it here tonight.

Coach Jim Johnson has announced that the boys are in the best shape of the season for tonight's events, and declared that "we are out to win this match if we possibly can."

The first bout will feature Cleon Smith, ECTC's lightweight standout, against Winston-Salem's Henry Connelly. Boxing instructor Johnny Long announced yesterday that Smith was "looking very good for his Saturday fight."

Donald Denney, team captain at ECTC, climbs into the ring with Wade Keatch in what is expected to be one of the feature events of the night. Denney, a former Golden Gloves champion, will be seeing his first match since the Charlotte fights when he lost by a decision in a very close battle.

Paul Hansell, with one win and a loss to his credit this year, is matched with Eddie Marcolin in a welterweight event. Thomas Daniels, undefeated this season, squares away with Gray Jackson in a 150-pound bout.

Ken Stargardt, the Richmond, Va., boy who began a fistic career here this season by smashing to the lone ECTC win at Charlotte and coming out on top in the elimination tournament, will fight Snookie Collins tonight in a middleweight fight.

Bill Torrans, who has one win this season and no losses, will battle it out with Wilbourn Wootens.

In what promises to be one of the top events of the evening, ECTC's Redwan David faces Winston-Salem's Bob Wilkes in a middleweight classic. David, who began the season last week by knocking out Duke Cockrell in the second round of the elimination tournament, is rated one of the two top boxers on the ECTC team.

Tonight's fights start promptly at 8 o'clock.

Girls' Basketball Clinic Scheduled Thursday Night

A clinic on girls' basketball will be held at East Carolina Teachers College on Thursday evening, January 20, at 8:00 o'clock. High school coaches, officials, and players in the eastern section of the state are invited to attend. The program for the evening will include a discussion of rules and a demonstration of fouls and violations given by students of the college.

Even at the fancy price of $70,000 in players and cash combined, Allan Stanley shapes up as a real bargain. The rookie defenseman from Providence has steadied the Ranger defense to the point where the New Yorkers now boast the finest defensive record in the National League.

Stanley was brought up to the Rangers with the greatest fuss and fanfare ever accorded a rookie. He definitely was on the spot. And yet he showed poise and assurance on the ice that would do a seasoned veteran proud. If he was the slightest bit nervous he failed to show it. Big, blond and handsome, Stanley is 22 years old and weighs 185 pounds.

One of Stanley's greatest assets is his talent as a playmaker. Allan is a hard, accurate passer and generally winds up with an amazing number of assists for a defenseman. He can throw a mean bodycheck when the occasion demands and can be depended upon to give a little more than he takes when it comes to mixing it. He'll steal the puck like an experienced pick-pocket. Stanley was a member of the Boston Olympic club which won the Eastern Amateur League championship in 1946. Among his teammates in Boston was Pontti Lund, currently starring with the Rangers. Allan's uncle, Barney Stanley, was a coach for the Chicago Black Hawks years ago.

DIVINE PURPOSE EVERYWHERE

A college professor recently wrote an article in which he claimed that he was forced to the conclusion that, in the light of the findings of modern science, there is no God, no spiritual realities, no purpose in the universe.

We live in a confused age. Have you ever stopped to ask yourself why we are confused? We are confused because we live in a universe which is on the square, in which divine purpose is quite evidently manifested; and because we have made such a mess of things and have broken the laws both of the natural world and of revealed religion, we are in confusion.

IT'S NOT THEIR RESPONSIBILITY

We certainly hope Governor Scott is not as far wrong in most of his thinking and utterances as when he said a withholding tax for North Carolina would impose no additional burdens on employers because they are already making similar deductions for the Federal government.

In urging the withholding plan of income tax collections in the state Governor Scott said:

"I do not feel that the change to this method would impose any great additional burden upon employers, because they already have facilities to handle this in order to meet Federal requirements for various payroll deductions."

Already every business and employer is overburdened with extra bookkeeping tasks keeping up with Social Security, Unemployment Compensation, Federal withholding, Federal Excise, state sales tax and other reports to say nothing of payroll audits for insurance companies to fix premiums for the state imposed Workmen's Compensation and other various government reports and questionnaires. Governor Scott might be sincere in believing that just one more job might not be a burden but as we see it the move might be the proverbial straw that breaks the camel's back.

We sympathize with the governor in his desire to get enough revenue to carry out an ambitious program but in many instances a state withholding tax would cost businesses more in the way of extra bookkeeping and responsibilities than the actual amount of added revenue the state would receive.

It's high time both the Federal and State governments realized that there is no justice in making employers liable for the taxes of their employees and force the employers by law to become tax collectors.

We believe that businessmen throughout the state will object to the governor's suggested plan and we believe that there are enough fair-minded business men in the General Assembly to realize the injustice of placing further tax-collecting burdens on employers. Such a measure should be killed immediately should it ever reach the stage of being formally presented to the General Assembly.

HOW MANY?—Action of the state senate Monday night may determine whether Harry Truman is the thirty-second or thirty-third president of the United States. A senate resolution authorizing an official delegation from the general assembly to attend the inauguration next Thursday listed Truman as the thirty-second president. When the resolution came over to the house, Representative R. L. Harris had it amended to make Truman the thirty-third president. If the senate stands by the guns on the original resolution, the house will take the senate version and Truman will be an official North Carolina record as the thirty-second president.

the 23rd, and ever since there has been controversy about whether Cleveland's second term constituted him 24th, or if he should still be classed as the 32nd. The World Almanac designates Cleveland's second term with an asterisk and lets William McKinley as the 24th President. That listing makes Truman the 32nd.

CONTROLLING—So, action in the North Carolina legislature Monday night will be regarded as controlling on official numbering of Presidents and will take precedence over the World Almanac, any other privately published list or encyclopedia.

CEMENT—Representative E. R. Hanford of Alamance county is keenly interested in the public attention now being forced upon possibilities of manufacturing cement in North Carolina. Several months ago the department of conservation and development published a study of prospects made by the industrial engineering staff. Last week State College released a story of similar findings by the engineering department. These official studies tend to prove availability of raw materials and labor in the state for cement making.

BEHIND—Representative Hanford says they are 12 years behind. As a member of the 1937 legislature he got through the house a bill authorizing the state of North Carolina to explore possibilities and engage in manufacture of cement for use on state highways. The measure was killed in the senate. Hanford said he still has a copy of the 1937 bill, will revise it to fit present day conditions and introduce in the present assembly. He expects strong opposition by out of state cement manufacturers and perhaps by some road contractors, but believes that interest in the Scott road program and fuller public knowledge of potential savings to the state will outweigh opposition.

BACHELORS—Representative F. L. Goble of Forsyth has heard with some alarm about a proposed measure to tax bachelor members of the general assembly. He isn't a bachelor, but he's against the plan. Whether his opposition is based on desire to protect the bachelor from discriminatory taxation is doubted. There is suspicion that he wants to prevent the bachelors from seeking to monopolize the time and attention of the two lady members from Mecklenburg, Mrs. Walter Craven and Mrs. Joe Ervin, both very charming and very eligible widows. Attention to the ladies is not limited to the unmarried men folk in the house, but some of the benedicts fear that threat of an extra tax on the bachelors might result in a rash that would impede official work of a few members and interfere with their own non-official enjoyments.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—Is a housewife more sentimental than a showgirl? Is a blonde warmer than a brunette or redhead? What does a lady bear do in a bar? Yes, a real lady bear.

These pressing problems of romance and animal behavior were settled in a single action-filled afternoon on the Pseudo-Scientific front.

(Gad, and to think, when I was in college, my journalism instructor wasted time with such ethical queries as, "if you owned a small weekly newspaper and your leading advertiser got arrested for stomping a young orphan to death, would you print the story—or ask him for an ad?")

But to get back to the thermal nature of women and the barroom habits of the bears:

Six beautiful girls—a housewife, a business secretary, a college freshman, and three Broadway showgirls—were the subjects of the first test.

Harry Lang, 56-year-old salesman for the Hallmark Greeting Card Company, read each a sentimental, novelty, and humorous Valentine card.

Their reactions were recorded on a "sentimeter," which is the nickname for a continuous-balance electronic potentiometer. The machine scientifically records temperature changes of one-tenth of a degree in one-five hundredth of a second.

Well, guess what? The housewife registered "hot" on the sentimental greeting but "cold" for the novelty and humorous approaches. But that's no news. Any husband knows a wife can't see anything funny about love.

The secretary, on the other hand, registered no change at all. This may have been because she had been taught never to mix business and pleasure. Or it might be explained by the fact that Lange, after all, was to her only another bald-headed married stranger.

The reaction of the blonde showgirl to a love-dovey Valentine was only "lukewarm." The brunette, Norma Thornton, of Iowa City, Ia., registered "warm-hot." The red-haired lass, Abbe Marshall, was clocked at "semi-boiling."

But the blonde—Judy Sinclair of Philadelphia—remarked:

"If they'll just give with a fur coat instead of a Valentine, I'll burn up the darn machine."

Then Lange himself climbed on the seat. As one showgirl read him a Valentine, the other two suddenly threw their arms around him and kissed him. He zoomed the machine's pointer up to "boiling." And who would that surprise? Everybody knows about bald-headed men.

Oh, yes, the bear.

Well, on the way back to the office I saw a crowd outside a bar. I went in and there was a trained Russian bear, standing behind the bar and wearing a white apron.

The bear was Russian. She was named Laura and weighed 375 pounds. She was drinking a mug of beer from Rita Colton, a television actress. One of the regular patrons was grumbling about the whole business.

Dimes Outgrown
Raleigh, Jan. 15—(AP)—North Carolina's 1949 March of Dimes campaign was officially launched last night by Governor Scott, who urged Tar Heels to give dollars instead of dimes. Speaking over a state-wide radio network, Scott said this year's slogan is "Not Dimes in '49, But Dollars."

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—Virtue new leadership, as expressed in the youthful ranks of their parties, is being hailed by Republicans and Democrats alike as the New Year gets under way. The Democrats point to an "unprecedented" number of young senators, representatives and governors who were among the successful Democratic candidates in last November's elections.

Ralph E. Becker, chairman of the Young Republican National Federation, on the other hand, says the Young Republican movement "has definitely emerged from the Nov. 2 election as a major factor on the American political scene. Responsible leaders from all over the country, in and out of politics, have besieged national headquarters, not with requests or suggestions, but with insistent demands that youth assume a leading role in bringing the party back to victory in 1950 and 1952."

A recent issue of the "Spotlight," publication of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, points out that five of the 14 new Democratic senators are under 48 years of age; at least 48 of 101 new representatives are under 48; and nine out of 15 new governors are under 48.

"These figures effectively dispose of the ancient Republican wall that the Democratic party is growing 'old in office,' the publication continues. It adds that many of the new senators, representatives and governors are still in their thirties, while several of those elected to the House haven't yet reached 30.

The newsletter included a report on campaign activities of some 3,000 Young Democratic organizations who joined Democratic Central Committees, and women's labor, and farm groups in turning out a heavy Democratic vote on Nov. 2.

Mr. Becker says that by the close of the recent campaign the Young Republican National Federation comprised some 2,400 "active and vibrant" Young Republican Clubs which were assimilated into 47 state associations.

"In addition the powerful momentum of this movement carried through into the college and teenage fields," he says. "Over 400 college Young Republican clubs serve the nation's 2,500,000 college students."

New Young Democratic senators in the 81st Congress include Lyndon B. Johnson, 40, of Texas; Estes Kefauver, 48, of Tennessee; Hubert Humphrey, 37, of Minnesota; J. Allen Frear, Jr., 48, of Delaware; and Russell Long, 30, of Louisiana.

Among the new Democratic Congressmen under 40 are the following: Chester Chesney, 28, Illinois; James Nolan, 28, Indiana; Eugene McCarthy, 28, Minnesota; Richard Bolling, 32, Missouri; John C. Davis, 28, New York; Edward Green, 38, Ohio; Robert L. Coffey, Jr., 30, Pennsylvania; Hugo Sims, 37, and James E. Ware, 30 of South Carolina; and Lloyd M. Benson, Jr., 37, Texas.

HER SECRET STAR

By Bonnie C. Hall

Chapter 7
"Fishing?" Gertrude called. "Oh, Dad, how can you be so—so provincial?"

"You've been fishing, Father. I'm sure you went a couple of times last summer. Besides, I didn't know you cared particularly for outdoor sports."

"Never had a chance to," her father answered, without smiling. "Spent half my life right here, too, within sight of the finest fish-pond in the world. Sure, I went fishing last year. Twice. Stayed three hours one time and two hours the other. And that's partial-to-partial time too."

"Perhaps if you'd think of your family once in a while—Minniebelle, unable to resist the opening, repeated her theme song in an aggravated voice.

Betty, realizing that the conversation was getting out of hand, tried to pull it back into safer channels. The weather, she decided was a safe topic. In fact, it seemed to be the only topic open to discussion in Carrolton.

"It's funny," she said, groping for innocuous words, "how people can always find reasons outside of themselves for whatever they don't like. They go around with chips on their shoulders, blaming everybody else for everything—including the rain—just because they can't take it."

"Uncle Dave was laughing again. "Maybe you've got something there, girlie," he was saying. "So we don't live right. So the Lord sends us rain, rain, and more rain. That I'll have to tell to the fellows. Maybe it'll start a back-to-church movement. By golly, we could stand a little church-going around here. Churches are starting to die."

"David!" Minniebelle reproved him. "That's nothing to joke about. People should go to church—rain or no rain. And if members would only—"

"I'm not joking. Sure they should go to church. Didn't I just say so? Don't I go to church? Come to think of it, I haven't missed many Sundays since Gertrude here was born."

"What I was trying to say when you interrupted me," his wife went on, "was that if other members were as conscientious about paying their dues as we are, the churches wouldn't starve. We women are having a banner next week and a rummage sale the week after. That should make up at least part of the deficit, although it does mean a lot of hard work for the ladies."

"Oh, you women and your rummage sales!" David exploded.

"Minniebelle, I swear to God, if you take my old blue dungarees out and sell them, I'll never set foot inside a church again. I don't care what they look like. I aim to wear them—if I ever get to go fishing again."

The tears welled up in Minniebelle's eyes. "You don't have to shout at me," she said.

Betty, unaccustomed to the vagaries of family life, could only sit there, her face crimson with embar-ment. She was glad to see Uncle Dave show some spirit, but she wished he hadn't carried it so far. She was vastly relieved to hear her uncle say in a placating tone:

"Sorry, Minniebelle, honey. I shouldn't have run off at the mouth like that—only for Pete's sake don't sell my dungarees! Sorry, girls. Didn't mean to be so cantankerous."

He waited until everyone had nodded acknowledgment of his apology. Then, assuming that he was forgiven, he said:

"Okay. Tomorrow Sunday. What do you say we start the ball rolling—never mind the rain. What do you say we all pile in the car and surprise old Brother Miller? He's probably figuring on speaking to an empty church. Funny about rain—how it fills up the movie houses and empties all the churches."

"I am going to church tomorrow," Gertrude announced unexpectedly. "I am going every Sunday hereafter. I feel just as you do, Father. If people can go to movies and things like that in the rain, why can't they go to church too?"

"Good girl, Gertrude," her father applauded. "What do you think of that, Minniebelle?" His smile of approval included both mother and daughter.

Minniebelle sat with her mouth open, unable to utter a word, unable to believe her ears. Gertrude was not only announcing her intention of going to church every Sunday; she was censuring people who didn't!

"All the girls are going to the Congregational church tomorrow. We intend to make quite a party of it. Reverend Shaw—he's the new minister, you know—is expecting us. It's his first Sunday here; his first church too. I figured the least we could do was to give him a good crowd and a real welcome. Oh, Father, I've been standing at the telephone all morning, calling the girls and making plans. I'll just die if Mother interferes. I don't think she even cares whether I go to church or not."

"Shaw—Reverend Shaw," Gertrude's father repeated thoughtfully. "Oh, yes. He's that young shaver that popped into town a couple of days ago, looking like he was on his way to a funeral. Somebody said he was the new Congregational minister, but I didn't believe it. I couldn't see a young pup like that standing up in the pulpit and telling folks how they should live. Fiddlesticks! He's not dry behind the ears yet; can't be a day over twenty."

"Father! That's downright sacrilegious! Besides, he's twenty-five years old. He's a Harvard graduate too. And even if he is a preacher, he's positively the most intelligent man that ever came to Carrolton."

She flashed a defiant glance at her mother, as if half expecting a denial, then continued. "Eileen Raymond," she said, naming the mayor's daughter, "told me everything. He had dinner there last night. She says he's marvelous—and so handsome!"

"I don't care if it's raining cats and dogs tomorrow morning," Gertrude was saying, "I'm taking the new car. And I'm going to the Congregational church. That's definite, Father!"

Lions Clubs Of Eastern N.C. To Hold Convention

Rocky Mount, N. C., Jan. 15—Approximately 800 Lions Club members and their wives from District 21, representing 61 clubs from Raleigh to the coast are expected to gather here next Tuesday and Wednesday for their annual mid winter conference.

Highlights will be an address a Wednesday night by Dr. Eugene Briggs of Enid, Okla., president of Phillips University and president of Lions International, a giant parade and a flower and fashion show.

Officials said 77 units already had been signed for the street parade on Wednesday morning, including 18 floats from 10 eastern Carolina towns, 11 high school bands and 30 decorated automobiles.

Committee Continues Stock Solicitations

Hoover Taft, chairman of the stock solicitation drive of the Old North State Insurance company of Greenville, said today that reports for the past week show that approximately $112,405 worth of the Old North State stock has been subscribed by people in the city.

Taft said the amount of stock solicited during the past week represents the response of approximately 200 people who so far have been contacted in the stock-selling campaign.

The project of selling the necessary amount to have the insurance company licensed was undertaken by a group of Greenville businessmen. The drive for selling the company's stock will continue, Taft said, and he urged all solicitors in the drive to contact the persons on their lists as soon as possible.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

Modern versions of the Cape Cod style of house hold their popularity among both home buyers and conservative mortgage lenders. Here is a plan, "The Wandragh," by Arthur E. Allen, architect, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica 2, N. Y., that combines the traditional features of an old colonial home with the modern open plan for living and dining areas. This house, exclusive of garage, covers an area of 1-200 square feet and has a volume of 26,400 cubic feet with full basement. It has an expansion attic. Rooms are arranged efficiently around a center hall which gives direct access to any room. Seven closets in addition to basement and attic provide ample storage space. The plan lends itself to a wide selection of standard building materials for economy of construction.

Question Trio In Bogus Bills Case

Lumberton, N. C., Jan. 15—(P)—The secret service today questioned three Charlotte men in connection with $1,540 in counterfeit $10 bills found at separate points in eastern North Carolina recently.

Two of the men were arrested near here yesterday and charged with passing counterfeit currency. State Highway Patrolman David Pierce said they had $1,100 in spurious bills in their truck. He identified them as Edward Allen, a Negro, and Leo Adams, a white man, both fish peddlers. They were held in Robeson county jail.

Pierce said the bills all were numbered "G20964701B" and bore the seal of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.

At Charlotte, police chief J. H. Coleman announced the arrest of J. G. O'Quinn for investigation. Coleman said that 25 bogus $10 notes turned up in the area recently.

Nineteen counterfeit $10 bills have appeared in Columbus and Bladen counties. The president of the Waccamaw bank and Trust Company in Whiteville, Henry Wyche, examined some of them and said they were "the best I've ever seen."

Asleep At Wheel

Dan T. Singleton, white motorist, driving along Dickinson Avenue shortly after last midnight, dozed in temporary sleep while at the wheel, there was a crash and the sound of falling timber, and an electric light line pole crashed to the pavement. The front of his car was damaged. Police who investigated quoted Singleton as saying that he fell asleep and would pay for damages. No arrest was made.

Air Force Hikes Cadet Training

The U.S. Air Force will increase its aviation cadet training program from three classes to eight classes a year, beginning in April 1949, to permit more efficient use of aircraft, personnel, and instruction facilities.

While the annual enrollment will be larger than for any previous peacetime year, the size of each class will be reduced.

The next class, beginning April 4 will initiate the expanded program. It will be limited to approximately 600 cadets. Classes of similar size will follow at intervals of approximately six weeks. In the October 1948, class — the last under the March-July-October class system — 1,300 students were enrolled.

Outstanding graduates immediately receive commissions in the Regular Air Force. All other graduates have an opportunity while on active duty to qualify for one of the regular commissions offered each year by the Air Force.

(For further information concerning this program contact your local U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force Recruiting Station at 401 Evans St., Greenville, N.C.)

Phoney War Hero Lodged In Jail

Cleveland, Jan. 15—(P)—Walter C. Craine's days as a war "hero" are over and he's in county jail in default of $1,000 bail.

The 54-year-old electrician, a World War I marine private, said he bought a braided Master Sergeant's uniform with 44 medals, including the Congressional medal of honor, the nation's highest military award. He took a position of honor in the freedom train parade here last August and again at an Armistice Day marine banquet.

When the FBI brought him before U. S. Commissioner H. A. Horn yesterday, Craine admitted: "I did wrong."

Sees No Peace 'Til Withdrawal

Lake Success, Jan. 15—(AP)—An Indonesian spokesman said today there never will be real peace in the islands unless Dutch soldiers are withdrawn quickly from Indonesian republican territory.

By quickly, this spokesman said he means within a week.

Indonesian and Netherlands representatives are studying a rough plan for a settlement reported drawn up by the United States and backed by China, Norway and Egypt so far.

Another Murder Suspect Is Freed

Los Angeles, Jan. 15—(AP)—On the second anniversary of the brutal "Black Dahlia" slaying, harassed police investigators today were no closer to cracking the mystery than ever.

The latest of a long string of suspects, Jeff Conners, 40, a self-styled writer, was released last night after 24-hour questioning.

And the quest for the sadistic butcher-murderer of dark-haired Elizabeth Short—the "Black Dahlia" to her friends — turned cold again.

Conners, booked briefly on suspicion of murder after being returned from San Francisco, denied ever knowing Miss Short, whose bisected body was found in a vacant lot here just two years ago today. Detectives said they found no evidence to connect Conners with the crime, despite the statements of a bellboy, Leslie Dillon, assertedly implicating Conners.

Dillon, whose statements were given credence by Police Psychiatrist Paul De River, was himself released two days ago.

The meetings, said White, had been scheduled previously but took on an emergency air as National officials discussed the latest Red demands for what appears virtually unconditional surrender.

Unofficial Chinese reaction was that Mao's terms were "very fierce" and leave no room for bargaining.

Chang Chien-hua, Manchurian legislator who has been promoting his own peace program, said: "The Red demands are too high—just like Chiang Kai-shek's. However, long as they express interest in peace there is still hope but if they really want peace they will have to soften their demands to some extent. For instance their demands that war criminals be prosecuted are ambiguous, they could include anybody, therefore they are out of the question. This may freeze peace moves for the time being but they will continue."

time for prosecuting suspected spies.

The grand jurors did indict Alger Hiss, former state department official, on charges that he lied when he told them he never gave secret state papers to unauthorized persons in 1938.

Whittaker Chambers, an admitted former member of a Soviet espionage ring, had testified before both the grand jury and the House committee that he received important documents from Hiss for delivery to Russian agents.

The Attorney General made no specific reference to the 1948 spy hunt in his recommendations to Congress. But his proposals placed heavy emphasis on measures designed to prevent any future filching of government information.
