

Communist Party Leaders On Trial

Only 11 Of 12 Defendants Accused Of Working For Forcible Overthrow Of Government Are Present As Trial Opens; William Z. Foster Said Ill

New York, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Trial of 12 top Communist party leaders, accused of working for the forcible overthrow of the U. S. government, opened at 10:45 a. m. today.

Only 11 of the defendants were present. Missing was William Z. Foster, National chairman of the Communist party, whose attorneys previously had indicated he would not appear because of illness.

A large police guard stood by to preserve order as the controversial court case got under way.

More than 400 police and Federal agents have been assigned to prevent disorderly demonstrations and to handle the pickets expected to protest the trial.

Sealed medical reports on the condition of Communist National chairman William Z. Foster will decide the question of a possible delay in the trial.

The trial was postponed last November because Foster, 67, was suffering a heart ailment.

He and his eleven co-defendants are charged with conspiracy to organize a party advocating overthrow of the government by force and violence.

U. S. District Judge Harold R. Medina will open the sealed reports, filed by two doctors last Wednesday, stating whether Foster is in physical condition to stand the trial, which is expected to last at least two months.

Defense attorneys have said Foster would not be on hand today when the case is called. If the two court-appointed physicians' findings are the same as last November, U. S. Attorney John F. Y. McCoohey is expected to move for a separate trial later for Foster and for immediate start of the trial of the other eleven.

The defendants—who compose the National board of the Communist party—face a possible maximum penalty of ten years in prison and $10,000 fine if convicted. They were indicted by a Federal grand jury last July 20 during a lengthy investigation of alleged subversive activities and Communist espionage. All are free on $5,000 bail each.

A statement issued in behalf of the defendants on the eve of the trial said: "We shall prove in the court room and before public opinion that it is not the Communists who advocate force and violence, but the men of the trusts, the warmongers, the labor haters, the lynchers who preach—and practice—force and violence."

The defense will have about a dozen attorneys, and the prosecution less than half that number.

A blanket indictment accused all twelve Communists of conspiring to violate the Smith Act, a defense measure passed in 1940. In addition each was indicted individually on charges of specific violation of the act. Conviction on the individual count also could carry a maximum penalty of ten years in prison and $10,000 fine. Today's trial is only on the conspiracy charge.

Franklinton Has Damaging Blaze

Franklinton, N. C., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Fire early this morning partially destroyed the McGhee building here, one of Franklinton's oldest. First estimates of the damage ranged between $30,000 and $40,000.

The fire was discovered shortly before midnight. Henderson and Lonsburg fire departments were summoned, but Franklinton's volunteer firemen had the blaze under control before they arrived.

The Soviet Politburo

The Real Boss Of Russia; Hardly A Representative Group; Communist Party Membership In Russia; The Russian Government; No Political Opposition There

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The Politburo, you hear it mentioned often. But what is it? It's the real boss of Russia.

It's made up of Joseph Stalin and 13 other top Russian Communists. It's full name is the political bureau. War? Peace? A big veto in the United Nations? A new five-year plan for Russia? Atomic bombs? The Politburo makes the big decisions.

Yet, the Politburo is not even part of the Russian government. And only a very small percentage of the Russian people are members of the Russian Communist party. How, then, can the Politburo run the whole show?

Members of the Russian Communist party hold key jobs in the government. And the key Communists are in the Politburo. So the Politburo runs not only the government but the party itself.

In thinking of Russia, keep a couple of things separate: The party and the government; the mass of the people and the members of the Politburo.

Only about 6,000,000—of the 200,000,000 people in Russia—are members at this time to be members of the Communist party there.

The party wants only a small, handpicked membership, tightly or-

Chinese Gather In Hopeless Bid To Save Nanking

Observers Say Effort Futile In Face Of Overwhelming Red Forces

Nanking, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The Chinese government today massed about 150,000 troops on a 300-mile front in what neutral military observers described as a hopeless effort to defend Nanking.

Communist armies with a total strength of more than 300,000 troops already are poised north of the Hwai river, 105 miles to the northwest, for a descent to the Yangtze river valley.

Meanwhile, it was learned authoritatively that the Chinese navy Sunday night evacuated the government garrison from Tangku, Ocean port for the North China commercial center of Tientsin.

Tientsin, 27 miles west of Tangku, fell to the Reds Saturday.

It was learned that all available craft were mustered to transport the Tangku garrison and miscellaneous units totalling about 35,000 troops beyond Taku Bar and out of Red artillery range.

Earlier, Nationalist evacuation of Pengpu was officially announced.

The government's final abandonment of Pengpu and evacuation of towns on Pengpu's flanks have yielded to the Reds necessary river crossings. Pengpu, anchor of the Ershui Hwai river defense line, has been outflanked by the Reds for a month.

Nationalist headquarters were pulled back to Chuhstun, 30 miles northwest of Nanking, as early as Dec. 17. Troops have been following since. The movement has been marked by occasional Red raids on the 70-mile stretch of rail between Chuhstun and Pengpu.

Realization of the government's weak military position is spurring active appeals by the general public and official bodies for government action to make a peace settlement with the Communists.

(In North China, a peace delegation prepared to leave Peiping for ceasefire talks with the Reds amid indications of a climax approaching at that besieged ancient capital.

(The government's North China Commander, Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, provided the delegation with transportation and an escort to the Nationalist perimeter. Fu's own newspaper in Peiping conceded Sunday that the Reds are victorious in North China.)

Pigeon Heroes In Inaugural Set-Up

Fort Monmouth, N. J., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Kaiser, the pigeon hero of World War I, left for the President's inauguration today.

In company with two World War II pigeon heroes, GI Joe and Jungle Joe, Kaiser will be part of an Army Signal Corps inaugural exhibition in Washington.

Hundreds Are Stranded In New Western Storm

The fury of a widespread storm left hundreds of people stranded yesterday in the Rocky Mountain region and sent Southern California into its third week of freezing temperatures.

A Southern Pacific Railroad train

Pleads Guilty

New York, Jan. 17 (AP) Martin Monti, 27-year-old former air force lieutenant, pleaded guilty today to treason charges.

The Florissant, Mo., resident was indicted last Oct. 14 on charges he gave himself and his plane up to the Germans in Italy between Oct. 13, 1944 and May 8, 1945 after going AWOL in Karachi, India.

The indictment alleged Monti volunteered his services to the Germans, was released as a prisoner of war and broadcast for the Nazis from Berlin as Martin Weidmann. Subsequently, the indictment charges, Monti became an officer in the S. S. Elite guard.

After the Nazi capitulation, it was charged, Monti made his way to Italy and joined the American fifth army.

Some 150 witnesses had been called before Federal Judge Robert A. Leahy at the start of trial today. Several witnesses from Germany were present in the court to testify for the government.

Violence Spreads In South Africa

Durban Upheaval Reflected In Other Towns, Rural Areas

Durban, Union of South Africa, Jan. 17.—(AP)—South Africa's bloody racial warfare showed signs of spreading today even as government leaders set up machinery to control the wild Zulu-Indian rioting.

The air still rang with shots in Durban where police fired on native looters last night but police said later the murderous feud was under control here.

More than 100 persons were reported killed here in the street fighting that began last Thursday after a native boy was injured in a fight with an Indian peddler.

The ugly warfare has spread to other towns and rural areas, however, and 25,000 Indians have fled from their homes.

The latest flareup was reported in Johannesburg, largest city in South Africa, 310 miles northwest of Durban.

Troops and police stood by to quell any violence after a bomb was hurled from a passing car at an Indian shop. Windows were smashed, but no one was hurt.

An emergency meeting of high officials took place in Durban. It was attended by Mayor L. R. Boyd, minister of Justice C. R. Swart and minister of defense F. C. Erasmus.

Boyd assured citizens after the meeting that reinforcements of 2,000 troops would remain as long as necessary to restore order. They have been given wide powers.

Lives To Tell Of 7-Story Fall

Los Angeles, Jan. 17.—(AP)—A man who fell seven stories from a downtown hotel Saturday night is still alive today, although General Hospital attendants described his condition as critical.

He is James Andrew Morrissey, 30, of Oakland, Calif., who got up and started to walk away after landing on the wire grating covering a skylight spot the third floor of the Rosslyn Hotel. He suffered internal and spinal injuries, as well as severe bruises.

Hundreds Are Stranded In New Western Storm

By the Associated Press
The fury of a widespread storm left hundreds of people stranded yesterday in the Rocky Mountain region and sent Southern California into its third week of freezing temperatures.

A Southern Pacific Railroad train was sent out of Lonsburg, N.M., last night to rescue motorists stalled in an estimated 300 cars west of there.

The town's six hotels and eight tourist courts had become jammed and many private homes were taking in some of the 500 or 600 extra families already there.

Snowfalls ranging from 12 inches at Duncan, Ariz., to 19 inches at Morenci had closed U. S. Highway 66 and other roads farther south.

A Southern Pacific official said that the relief train had picked up 20 stranded motorists in less than three hours along a 20-mile stretch west of here.

The snowfall in the northern Rockies was light but high winds whipped the new and old snow into drifts and again blocked the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad's line between Casper, Wyo., and Chadron, Neb. More than 100 motorists were marooned at Lusk, Wyo.

The new snow measured generally less than three inches.

Today's freezing temperatures in Southern California followed a damaging gale in the area yesterday and the forecast was for cooler to night.

At Mt. Wilson near Pasadena, the gale was measured as high as 80 miles an hour while the nearby area was buffeted by a 60-mile blow. Trees were uprooted and plate glass windows smashed.

Fourth Dies Of Crash Injuries

Fort Bragg, N.C., Jan. 17.—(AP)—The Army public information office announced today the death of a fourth victim of the crash of a C-52 "Flying box car."

The official said Pfc Virgil V. Volava, 26-year-old 82nd Airborne Division paratrooper, died of his injuries at midnight Saturday in the post hospital.

Reorganization Authority Asked By Pres. Truman

Seeks Permanent Powers For Improvement Of Government Operations

Washington, Jan. 17.—(AP)—President Truman today asked Congress to give him permanent authority to reorganize the government.

In a message to the legislators he said he needs the power to shift government agencies in order to promote "efficient and economical conduct of the public's business."

The President emphasized:

1. The reorganization legislation "should be permanent rather than temporary."

2. The act should be "comprehensive in scope; no agency or function of the executive branch should be exempted from its operation."

The Hoover commission recently recommended that the President have authority to reorganize the government, subject to congressional veto, be restored. The commission, headed by former President Hoover, is studying ways to improve operations of the government.

Under the President's recommendation, reorganization plans submitted to Congress would become effective in 60 days unless rejected by both Senate and House.

Dewey's Actions Puzzle Friends

Isn't Acting Like One Retiring From Political Fields

Washington, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The strange case of Thomas E. Dewey puzzled Washington Republicans today.

These Republicans said the New York governor isn't acting at all like a man who, twice defeated for the Presidency, is getting ready to retire from the political field.

As an instance, they cited the fact that Dewey will make two Lincoln day banquet speeches. One will be in Washington February 8 and the second in New York, February 12.

Dewey's appearance here will be the top attraction in the series of banquets to be held all over the country. In a way, it will square him off once again with President Truman, star performer for the Democrats' Jefferson-Jackson day dinner here February 24.

Associates contended Dewey is not going to seek office again, but intends to retain an active interest in party affairs.

National Chairman Hugh D. Scott, Jr., is listed as one of those who is taking at face value Dewey's assertion shortly after the election that he won't try a third time for the presidential or governor's nomination.

But some Republicans here have been suggesting that the New York governor hasn't closed the door firmly against the possibility that he might seek a senate seat in 1950.

That year marks the end of the present term of Senator Robert A. Water, Democrat, whose ill health has long kept him away from Senate sessions.

Bunche Launches Peace Offensive In Middle East

Rhodes, Jan. 17.—(AP)—A United Nations spokesman says Dr. Ralph Bunche has launched a general peace offensive in the Middle East.

The spokesman for the acting UN mediator added, however, that other Arab states will not be invited to take part in talks now progressing here between Israelis and Egyptians.

Dr. Walter Eytan, head of the Israeli delegation said in an interview today that Israel wants an armistice throughout the Middle East, but does not want any other Arab states to join in the Rhodes talks.

(A reliable source in Tel Aviv said Israel, which has been discussing armistice talks with Lebanon as well as Egypt, now has begun similar talks with Trans-Jordan.)

Charlotte To Get 'Intoximeter'

Charlotte, N.C., Jan. 17.—(AP)—The Intoximeter will replace the old fashioned chalk line in Mecklenburg County police circles to determine whether a driver is "under the influence."

The "Intoximeter" determines the alcohol content in the human blood. The suspect merely blows his breath in a chemically treated tube.

Expect To Set Allen Trial Date

Warrenton, N.C., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Trial of J. Edward Allen, former Warren County school head, on charges of embezzlement is expected to be called at a session of Warren Superior Court which began today.

Solicitor Ernest R. Tyler of Roxboro said he hoped to have a time for the trial set today and that he expected it to be held this week.

GHS Delegates Play Big Role In Student Congress

Greenville high school students who attended the Appalachian district National Forensic League Student Congress in Asheville Friday and Saturday came home with many of the Congress honors, and an outstanding record of achievement.

Frederick Brooks, a Greenville high senior, was elected president of the student senate, and was awarded a cup after being voted the best speaker in the senate.

The first measure passed through either house was a bill introduced by Steve Moss of Greenville in the House of Representatives. The bill provided for scientifically developed and tested seeds free for farmers and was later defeated in the Senate.

A bill for lowering the voting age introduced by Greenville's Senator Augusta Overton, was one of two bills which passed both houses of the student congress.

Seventy-four students representing seven high schools in Tennessee, West Virginia and North Carolina were present at the congress. The Greenville representatives to the congress were accompanied by R. B. Starling of Greenville high school faculty advisor of the local chapter.

Among the Greenville high delegates were three seniors, Frederick Brooks, Steve Moss and Barbara Clement; three juniors, Ray Sears, Mitchell Saleed, and Peggy Joyce Bowen; two sophomores, Augusta Overton and Ralph Smiley.

Chas. O'H. Horne Died On Sunday

Funeral Services Scheduled To Be Held Here Tuesday

Charles O'H. Horne, 60, prominent Greenville businessman, died in Pitt General Hospital at 7:35 o'clock Sunday night after having suffered a stroke of paralysis three and a half hours earlier.

Funeral services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning and burial will be in Cherry Hill Cemetery. The Rev. Roscoe C. Hauser, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will officiate and will be assisted at the grave by the Rev. L. W. Topping, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Greenville. Members of the Greenville Rotary Club will be honorary pallbearers. Active pallbearers will be G. C. Ellis, J. Knott, J. M. Ward, Joe Moye, J. D. Hice and Durwood Tucker.

Mr. Horne, son of the late William H. and Rosamond Horne, was born, reared, and spent most of his life in Greenville. He attended the Greenville City Schools and the University of North Carolina, graduating from the School of Pharmacy. He operated a drug store in Greenville for a number of years and for the past 16 years he had operated a coal and wood business. He was also chairman of the Pitt County ABC Board. He was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and a former vestryman, and had also served as superintendent of the Sunday school. He was an active member of the Greenville Rotary Club. He was married to Rena Council of Lake Waccamaw in 1916.

Surviving are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Sidney D. Crane of Philadelphia; two sons, Charles O'H. Horne, Jr. of Greenville and William C. Horne of Philadelphia; a grandchild, Louise Council Horne; a brother, W. Hill Horne, and a sister, Mrs. J. C. Tyson, both of Greenville.

There was no indication what steps Paul intended to take but one old guard leader said the King might have dictatorship in mind. He threatened to fight any such attempt.

Lilienthal Warns U. S. Must Not Rely On Bomb

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Reliance on "the myth of the atomic bomb" will lure Americans into relaxing when "we need to be eternally vigilant," says David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

The AEC chairman declared yesterday that reliance on the bomb or "any other form of power and force" was dangerous not only to the future security of the United States, but also to the peace of the world.

Speaking at the 100th anniversary celebration of Temple B'Nai B'rith Kodesh, Lilienthal declared that some people had been "bewitched by the atomic bomb."

These people, he added, believe that the "real power of America is to be found in the possession of this incredibly powerful instrument of war."

He said that he would be perhaps "the last one" to underestimate "the destructive power of the atomic bomb, either the one that has been seen in action, or those which the commission on which I serve has developed and is in the process of developing."

He added, however, that "nothing could be more misleading" or "more dangerous to the security of our nation or the peace of the world" than the "myth" that the atomic weapon or any other form of power and force constitutes the true source of American strength.

"This myth will cause us to fall into an even deeper pit of error. We will grow forgetful of the true sources of America's strength. We will be misled into believing that America can be strong by military force alone, when in truth the foundation of our strength and amazing vitality is not in material things but rather in the spirit of this nation, in the faiths we cherish."

Judge Williams Is Holding Civil Term Court This Week

Judge Clawson L. Williams of Sanford convened a one-week civil term of Superior Court at the City Hall here today. Sixteen divorce suits were on the calendar for trial. Nearly all of them are on the grounds of two years' separation.

The Lee County jurist will preside over a one-week criminal term of Superior Court at the City Hall here today. Twenty-two cases of motorists charged with driving while drunk are on the docket for trial. The most of the cases are up on appeal from lower courts. Several are up on requests for jury trials.

'Uncle Sam'

Rocky Mount, N. C., Jan. 17.—(AP)—A. C. Davis, local post office employee who with his natural goatee and red, white and blue "Uncle Sam" uniform, is a familiar figure in parades all over this section, has been invited to participate in the inaugural parade in Washington.

Sponsored by local Jaycees, Davis will receive a noisy send-off from the local railroad station tomorrow morning.

Davis, 70 and well over six feet in height, was boomed for the Uncle Sam role when an injury prevented him from shaving for a week and he grew the white chin whiskers. He has been leading the Gallopade, Rocky Mount's spring festival, for the last 15 years.

Ultimatum Fails To Set Up New Gov't In Greece

Athens, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Greece, beset by long and costly guerrilla warfare, is without a government today despite the expiration of King Paul's ultimatum to political parties to form a new regime.

The coalition cabinet headed by Themistokles Sophoulis, a figure in Greek politics for half a century, collapsed Saturday.

The King told leaders of 10 political parties yesterday that if they failed to form a new government within 24 hours he would be "compelled to find for our people some other solution."

There was no indication what steps Paul intended to take but one old guard leader said the King might have dictatorship in mind. He threatened to fight any such attempt.

Increase Voted

Washington, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Congress today voted President Truman a raise in pay.

Only Mr. Truman's signature is necessary to boost his salary from $75,000 to $100,000 a year and raise his tax-free annual expense allowance from $40,000 to $60,000.

Capital Dresses Up For Inaugural Rites Thursday

Visitors Already Arriving In Washington; Decorations Up For Ceremony

Washington, Jan. 17.—(AP)—This 150 year old federal city just about finished dressing up today for the nation's 41st inaugural ceremony—one that may go down in history as the most festive of all.

Out of town visitors who began streaming in for an entire week of celebrating saw a mass of white enveloping the stand and seats built in front of the great-domed Capitol where Harry S. Truman and Alben W. Barkley will take the oath as President and Vice President Thursday at noon (EST).

Saw the circus seats of more somber hue stretched out along well-trodden Pennsylvania Avenue awaiting some of the 750,000 or 1,000,000 persons expected to see all or part of the formal launching of the Truman "Fair Deal."

Lamp posts clutch American flags and blue-gold presidential seals on shields of wood. Another great white pine-boarded stand has been constructed in front of the White House where the President will watch a two and a half hour parade of troops, cadets, bands and state floats in which 40,000 persons will take part.

The "Avenue of Patriots," that part of Pennsylvania Avenue passing the White House, already is flying the flags of 58 United Nations. They decorate the stands in front of the White House. Shields bearing the names of patriots from these countries already are in place.

Besides seven main events Wednesday and Thursday, Inaugural Week will feature dozens of receptions, dances and teas by societies representing most of the 48 states and by individuals high in the social and political life of the nation.

For the many state governors and their wives—and other visitors—there are on exhibit a large group of modern, non-sectarian weapons of the Washington monument grounds south of the White House. The same grounds will be the scene of a fireworks display four nights running starting Wednesday.

There will be gowns worn by First Ladies of yesterday shown in the national museum. The "Freedom Train," carrying 127 original documents famous in U. S. history, is open to the public on a sliding on lower 14th Street where the late President Roosevelt secretly embarked on many a trip during the last war.

Three of the main events will take place Wednesday night. They are the official reception for governors at the home of Joseph H. Davies, former ambassador to Moscow, given by the Inaugural Committee; a dinner at the Mayflower Hotel for Democratic and Republican members of the electoral college and state governors; and a Hollywood flavored pre-inaugural gala at the National Guard armory featuring stars of the radio, stage and screen, the armed services and national symphony orchestras, and a chorus of 185 voices.

'Something' Gone From Show Room

Monongahela, Pa., Jan. 17.—(AP)—An official of the Tube Motor Co. drove past the automobile agency's show room—and then took a second look.

Something was missing—a $3,000 1949 Lincoln Club Coupe which had been on display in the window.

Police said an investigation revealed thieves had gained entry through a side window and took $500 from a cash drawer before driving the car away.

Armistice In Kashmir

UN Gets Credit For Halting Indian Strife; Plebiscite Scheduled; Complications In The Form Of The Maharaja; His Chances To Retain Rich Position

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

We owe the United Nations a debt of gratitude for securing an armistice in the Kashmir crisis which threatened to plunge the Indian peninsula into conflict.

The warring dominions of India and Pakistan—both eager to absorb this huge, rich state—have grounded arms. There is to be a plebiscite to determine which dominion the people of Kashmir wish to join, for it is essential that they attach themselves to one or the other. The British in granting independence to the whole Indian peninsula strongly urged that the principalities affiliate with one of the dominions.

"Life" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, January 16.
Golden Text: John 6:27. "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you."
Among the citations comprising the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." (John 17:3). And from the Christian Science textbook, by Mary Baker Eddy: "This is life eternal," says Jesus, "is, shall be; and then he defines everlasting life as a present knowledge of his Father and of himself,—the knowledge of Love, Truth and Life." (Page 410).

Mrs. Spain Gives Club Program

Friday, January 14, at 3:30 p. m. the American Home Department of the Woman's Club met in the club house with the chairman, Mrs. C. E. Oakley, presiding. During the business session the club voted to give a tea dance for the seniors of the high school on Senior Day. They also voted to buy records suitable for instrumental purposes to be used in the high school. Plans were begun for a bridge tournament on the night of February 26. The general club president, Mrs. Vance Perkins, read recommendations compiled by the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs for 1949 legislation. A committee was appointed to study this and bring more specific suggestions to the next meeting for letters to be written to our representatives.

Following the business the group enjoyed a most delightful paper by Mrs. Sprull Spain on "Old Homes and Gardens of North Carolina." Among the places she described in a very picturesque way were Beverly Hall and Cupola House in Henderson, Tryon Palace and the John Wright Stanley house of New Bern, Orton house and the garden of Albion, of Wilmington, Belo house in Salem, Biltmore house of Asheville and Green River plantation.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. J. L. Evans, Mrs. Ed Ricks, Mrs. A. T. Denton, Mrs. J. W. Foley and Mrs. J. G. Reddick. Delicious tea sandwiches, cakes and nuts were enjoyed during the social hour.

A new member, Mrs. J. G. Reddick, was welcomed by the president and a special guest of Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. W. E. Marshall, was presented and invited to join the club.

Women In The Church

The Mary Reed Memorial Hospital and Clinic, at Chandag Heights high in the Himalaya Mountains of North India, is now under construction. The new institution is for the healing of victims of leprosy, and is a memorial to Miss Mary Reed, American missionary nurse, herself a victim of the disease, who was miraculously healed and gave the remainder of her long life to the care of other victims in this same area. Dr. Katherine Young, a Scottish missionary specialist in leprosy, has been in charge of the Chandag Heights work since 1943.

when Miss Reed died. The American Mission to Lepers and the Missions to Lepers (London) are providing the funds for the new institution. Much of the material must be carried by pack pony over treacherous mountain trails.

Mrs. John B. Silas, widow of the Rev. Mr. Silas who was pastor of the Osceola Indian Mission of the Methodist Church in the Saginaw Valley of Michigan until his death a month ago, has been named pastor of the Mission by Bishop Marshall Reed of Detroit. Like her late husband, who served as pastor for fourteen years, Mrs. Silas is a full-blooded Chippewa Indian. Before her marriage she was Estella Squanda, descendant of the famous Chief Squanda, one of the heroes of Parkman's "Conspiracy of Pontiac." Both her family and her husband's family were among the first members of the Indian Mission a century ago. She will be assisted in the pastorate of two churches by her two daughters and by local preachers and exhorters of the Osceola Tribe. Among the Indians, Mrs. Silas was known as "Shee-Cab-Gee-Shig," meaning "Hole-in-the-Sky" because he gave them "a glimpse of the eternal."

1343 Students Attending ECTC In Winter Term

Students attending East Carolina Teachers College for the winter quarter number 1343, according to data just released from the office of Registrar J. K. Long. Men outnumber women, as has been the case for the past several quarters at the college. The total enrollment includes 729 men and 614 women. It is estimated that approximately five out of seven of the men students are veterans.

By far the greater number of those now at the college are taking courses preparing them for teaching; 969 men and women are being trained for work as primary, grammar grade, and high school teachers. The distribution is as follows: for the primary and the grammar grades, 149 women and one man; and for high school, 387 women and 432 men. Taking work leading toward the liberal arts degree are 68 women and 234 men. Preliminary courses for medical, dental, and engineering students and for nurses and laboratory technicians have an enrollment of 59 men and 13 women.

According to classification, the students include 58 graduate students, 286 seniors, 261 juniors, 348 sophomores, 378 freshmen, and 12 special students.

College Planning Day For Awards

Plans for a student-awards day to be staged at East Carolina Teachers College in the spring are being made by the Executive Committee of Departmental Awards headed by Jesse McDaniel, senior from Kinston. The committee which is composed of both students and faculty members at the college was appointed at the beginning of the 1948-1949 term and has been at work since the start of the fall term last September.

Three types of awards will be made, McDaniel has announced, at a special assembly program to be held during the spring quarter this year. An award honoring a senior of each department of instruction in the college will be given on the basis of high scholastic standing and excellent standards of conduct and citizenship. A special award will go to the student chosen by the awards committee as the outstanding campus citizen of the school year.

Service awards will be presented to members of the legislature of the Student Government Association. These will indicate the office held by the student, the organization which he represents, and the date of his service.

Fox Chose Death To Facing Dogs

Falkland, Jan. 17.—Early Friday morning, Lewis Gaynor, K. R. Wooten and several other local fox-hunters were on the trail of a very wild fox in the vicinity of the old Carr Farm between Falkland and Old Sparta.

The hounds, owned by K. R. Wooten, jumped the fox near the Carr Farm and trailed him for about an hour, during this time the fox was almost caught in a mud pond, but he managed to get out, with the dogs in hot pursuit. Then the fox headed for the low grounds near Carr's landing on Tar river, never getting far ahead of the hounds. When he reached the river bank the pack was so close on his heels and he was so tired from the long chase that he deliberately jumped into the icy waters of the stream to avoid being taken alive. One of the hounds sailed in behind him but it was too late, the fox went down at once and came up in a few minutes about 35 feet down-stream then went down again never to rise again.

Mr. Gaynor says it was a plain case of fox suicide, and there will be no further investigation.

District Laymen Group To Hear Richmond Rector

The Rev. Churchill J. Gibson, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church in Richmond, Va., will be the main speaker at a District Laymen's meeting to be held on Wednesday night in the Parish House of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The Women's Auxiliary of the parish will serve a dinner starting at 7 p.m., and a large number of laymen from the local church and surrounding communities are expected to be on hand.

Dr. Gibson is one of the finest speakers in the church today and is widely known for his inspiring messages. It is a rare privilege to have a speaker of his calibre visit in this area.

In addition to the laymen of St. Paul's Church, men from the churches in Washington, Kinston, Farmville, New Bern, Williamston, Goldsboro, Elizabeth City, and other near-by communities are planning to attend this meeting.

Aly Khan And Rita Hayworth Announce Plans

Cannes, France, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Rita Hayworth and Aly Khan announced today that they will be married as soon as he is divorced from his present wife.

The Aly Khan received newspaper men at his Chateau near here and handed them typewritten statements from himself and Miss Hayworth. He said "I am going to marry Miss Hayworth as soon as I am free to do so."

Miss Hayworth declared she is "in full agreement" with the statement made by the son of the fabulously wealthy Aga Khan. Miss Hayworth has recovered from an attack of gripe in the seclusion of Aly's snow white villa here, his secretary, Mario Magliano, reported.

U. S. Hate Of Germany Dead, Reports Editor

Frankfurt (AP)—A German editor who toured the United States found that Americans no longer hate the Germans now that Nazism has been destroyed. "But they (the Americans) want to know whether there is still hatred against the Germans in Germany," wrote Heinrich Kiersek in the "Fuldaer Volkszeitung."

Kiersek explains the American attitude towards Germany as follows: "Taxes in America have increased immensely since the end of the war. The American taxpayer is always told by his government and by his press that a great part of these taxes is used for the reconstruction of Western Europe and Western Germany. Since the Americans practically are paying taxes for us they want to know, naturally, what is done with this money and what the effect among the Germans is."

The German editor wrote: "Many Americans we spoke to wanted to know with an almost anxious solicitude whether the U.S. Military Government in Germany does not make any psychological or political mistakes and whether the GI discipline really is so good." The Fulda editor asks himself "how much stupidity and inability was combined by German politicians to conduct two wars against America."

This thought came after he saw "everywhere in the states historical and living signs of active German work which helped America to become this rich and powerful land. Every second or third American we spoke to told us proudly that his mother or his grandfather emigrated from good old Germany," Kiersek wrote, "and leading Americans even today greatly appreciate the constructive and skillful role Germans or their descendants have played during America's political and economical development."

Ralph L. Fleming Is Elected Student Federalists' Head

Durham, N.C.—Ralph Lang Fleming Jr., Duke University junior from Greenville, was elected National Chairman of the Student Division of United World Federalists at the national convention in Minneapolis last weekend. Fleming, a local chapter past president and recently-elected North Carolina state chairman, will leave school February 1 to make his office in New York City for the duration of his one-year term.

His position as chairman will entail traveling among the 300 student chapters over the nation, Fleming said. He will also attend the world conference in Europe this fall.

Fleming was elected State Student Chairman at the state convention in Greensboro October 16. He has been an active member of the local chapter this year, having spoken to several civic groups in this area.

Neither Extreme Dries Nor Wets Are Satisfied

By LYNN NISBET
Raleigh, Jan. 17.—Such reaction as could be appraised over the weekend indicates that neither extreme dries nor extreme wets are satisfied with provisions of the liquor referendum bill offered Friday by Senator George Penny of Guilford.

The straight issue of win or lose, all or nothing, doesn't appeal to those who have in previous assemblies sought to juggle the issue so they stood a chance to win, but assumed no risk of losing. The dries don't like it because it gives an equal value to a vote in Dare County and in Clay County; they insist upon Clay having right to vote out ABC stores in Dare, but would deny Dare any voice in voting them in Clay. The wets don't like it because if the state vote goes against them they lose not only ABC stores but beer and wine in every county. Advocates of local option, whether dry or wet, dislike it because it destroys what they conceive to be the basic democratic principle of local government.

Almost unanimous opinion around the capitol square is that the bill has no chance of passage as written, although it is regarded as the most honest presentation of the issue since repeal of the prohibition amendment. There is doubt that any statewide referendum bill will be enacted at this session.

Some chance is conceded a measure that would present a three-way choice of all wet, all dry, or local option, with plurality of vote determining the issue. There seems little hope for a measure that would pit all-dry against local option, or all-wet against local option. That sort of bill is accorded even less chance than the straight-out issue embraced in the Penny proposal.

Unofficial and incomplete survey of sentiment among members discloses some support for a plan that would authorize a vote in every county on the same day, without necessity of petitions as now required, but with the county as controlling unit. In other words, any county voting for ABC stores would have them; any county voting against them could not have them, regardless of their present status. This plan, according to one member, would preserve both the idea of a statewide referendum and local control.

The Southeastern Conference 1948 season saw 71 players throw passes to 164 receivers for the 12 league teams.

The world wheat crop last year was about 4 per cent above the pre-war average.

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children and adults are victims of Pin-Worms.

Watch for the warning signs, especially the embarrassing, itching rectal itch. After centuries of Pin-Worm distress a really effective way to deal with them has been established through JAYNE'S P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed in the laboratory of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets give satisfaction or your money back. So why take chances on Pin-Worms! If you suspect this ugly infection, ask your druggist for P-W and follow the directions. It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

RELIEF AT LAST For Your COUGH

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Meanest Man

Police who had been investigating the theft last summer of a Bible and clock from Sycamore Baptist Negro Church, on Green street, near Tar River, described as "the meanest man is the person who would steal from a church."

They arrested Willie Jenkins, Negro, 264 Reade Street, yesterday and charged him with breaking, entering and larceny after recovering the stolen church property in his room. The officers said Jenkins recently completed a term on the roads.

Trade Insults On Rights Meeting

Washington, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Rep. John S. Wood (D-Ga.) and the Civil Rights congress traded insults this week-end.

Wood started the fireworks. The Georgian, who is expected to become chairman of the House Un-American activities committee, sent a letter to fellow members of congress saying delegates to a pre-inaugural "freedom crusade" by the Civil Rights congress might resort to "violence and riot."

If there are any untoward incidents, the Civil Rights group shot back, Wood will have to bear responsibility.

Len Goldsmith, national director of the Civil Rights congress, said in a letter to Wood:

"You, sir, should be an expert on violence and riot. Your native state is constantly the scene of 'violence and riot' against Negro citizens."

Goldsmith said the delegates are coming to Washington "peaceably to assemble and to petition their government for redress of their grievances. You and those you are attempting to arouse must bear responsibility if there are any incidents."

Wood said the purpose of the "freedom crusade" was to intimidate the government and congress "in efforts to curb the activities of the Communist party and to prosecute its leaders."

The Civil Rights congress replied that the purpose is to demand an end to "red herring probes and government condoned terror against racial, religious and political minorities."

Detain Car With Silver Fenders

Milan, Italy, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Finance guards on the Swiss frontier said today they were detaining an American whose automobile has fenders of solid silver.

The guard at the village of Chiavenna identified him as Ettore Armando Russo, 38, native of Philadelphia and now a resident of Munich.

They said the fenders, lightly varnished, contained 308 pounds of silver. No charges were made, but investigation of the case will take several days, police said.

New Studebaker On Display In Showroom

New 1949 Studebaker passenger car models have been put on display here by Scott Motor Sales.

A long list of improvements in the new Studebakers is highlighted by an interior luxury which in its modern touch produces an effect in keeping with the best in home decorations, according to Scott Motor Sales.

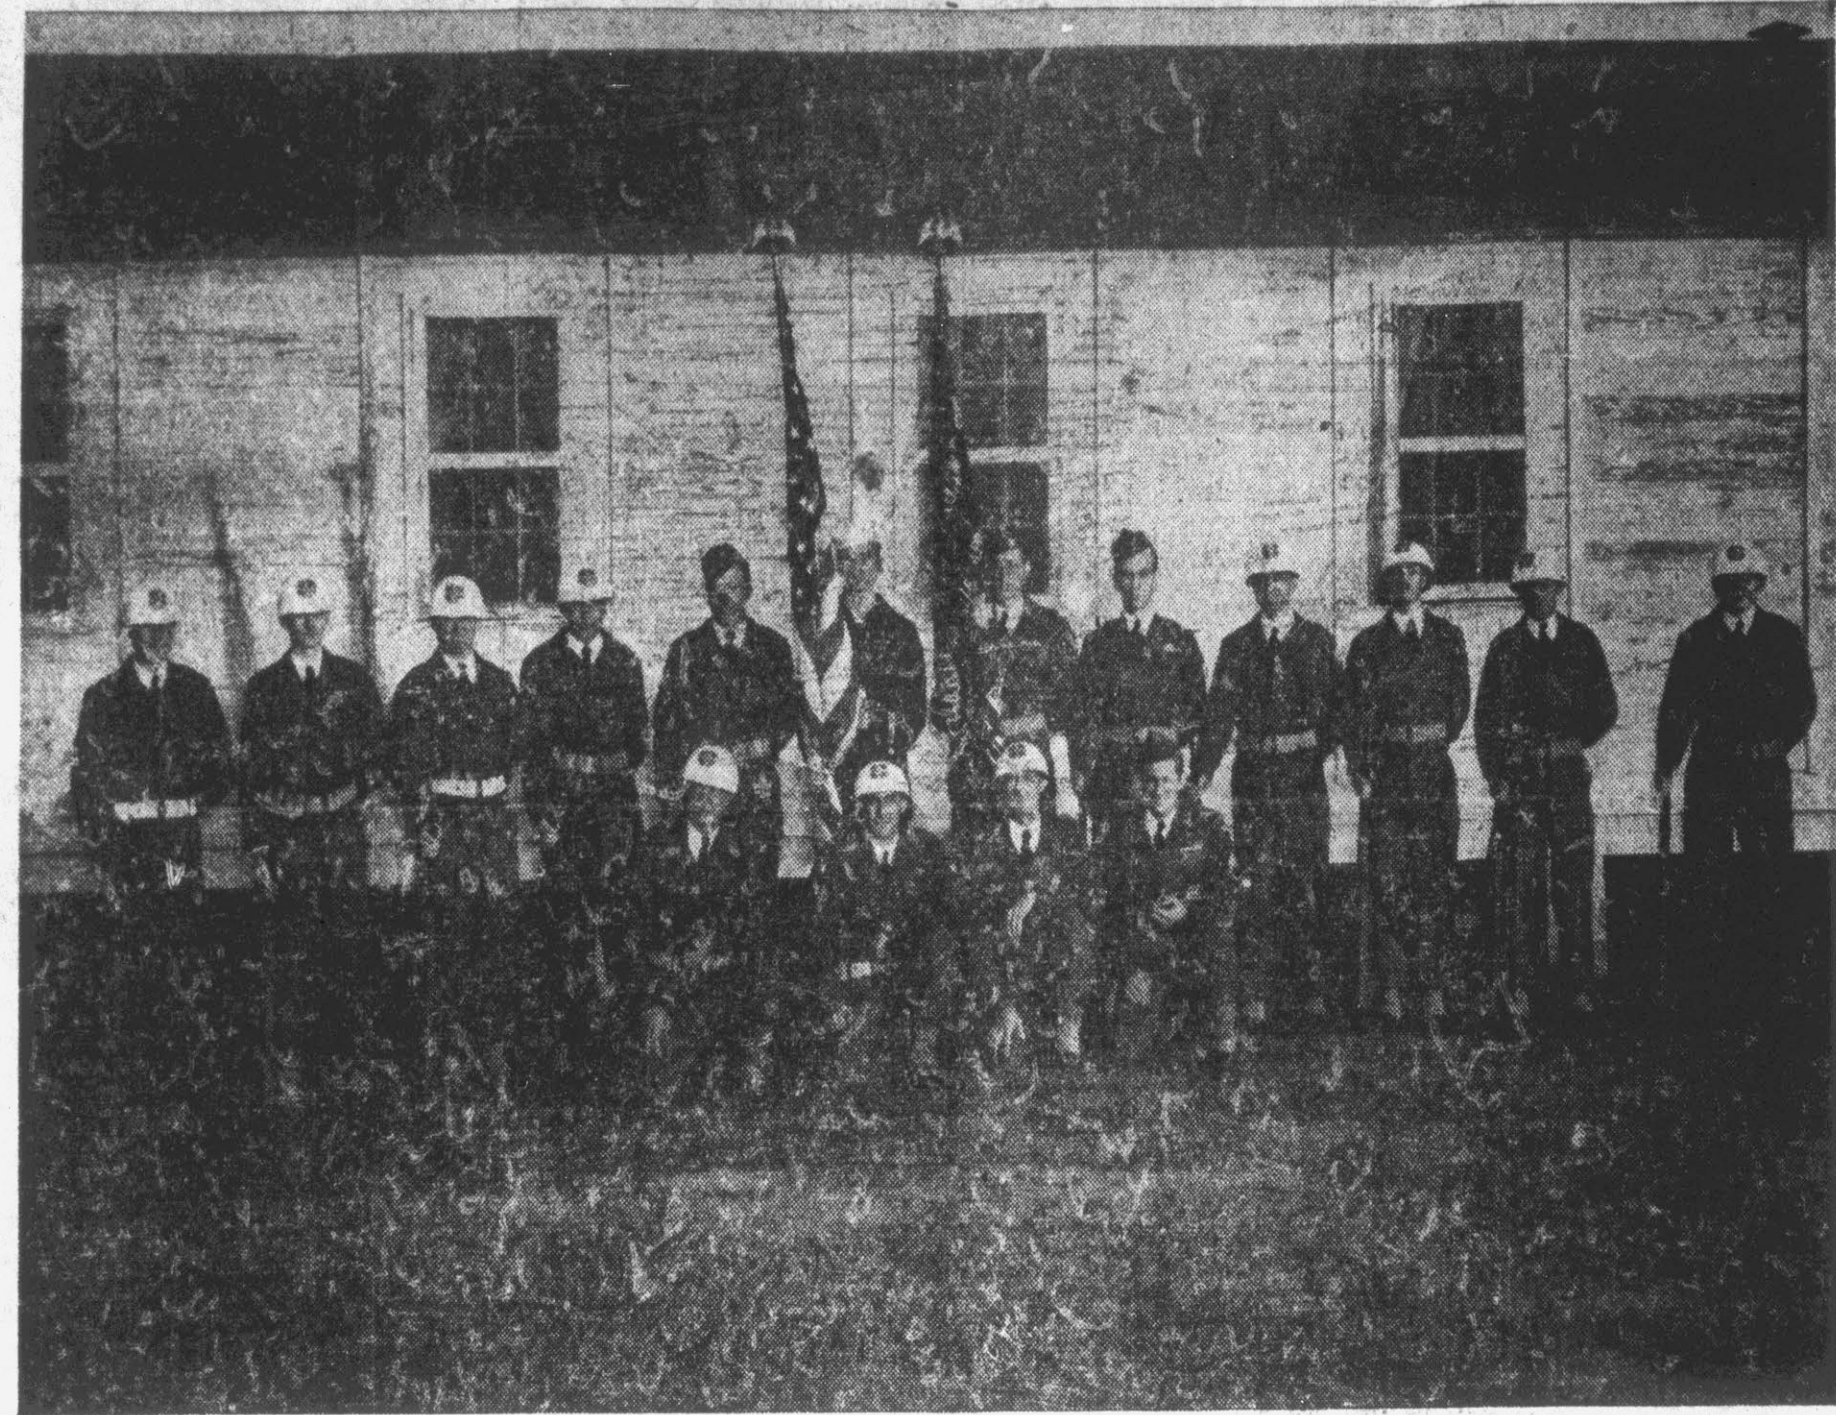

Mr. Glenn Scott pointed out that in some models the seat backs and cushions are in different and harmonizing patterns, set off by striking two-tone contrasts between upholstery and the side-walls and head-lining. In addition, he said there is a notable stepping up in the performance of both the Champion and Commander engines.

As he pointed to the features of the 1949 Studebaker models, Mr. Scott issued a general invitation to the resident of this area to visit his showroom for an inspection of the cars as well as to obtain an explanation of the latest improvements.

The unique, long-wearing, soil-resisting nylon fabric pioneered for automobile upholstery by the company in 1948 is continued in the Studebaker Land Cruiser but in a new colorful pattern. Alligator leatherette is used for trimming doors, arm rests and for upholstery pipings in Regal Deluxe models.

Among other changes, Mr. Scott pointed to increased luggage space in the trunk, massive redesigned wrap-around bumpers and a parking brake with a push-button release to guard against accidental releasing of the brake.

Refutes War Claim By Gen. Holland H. Smith

Tokyo, Jan. 17.—(AP)—"Incredible!" That's what Gen. Douglas MacArthur says about the assertion by Gen. Holland M. (Howlin' Mad) Smith that MacArthur failed to publicize the Marines' contribution to the Pacific campaign.

Smith's war memoirs, coming out today in a book, "Coral and Brass," have appeared partially before in magazine form. However, in the full text the Leatherneck general—now retired—raises new issues.

General MacArthur had quite a bit to say at his allied headquarters office in Tokyo.

"General Smith's statements that Marines were active 'in the recapture of the Philippines' and that I neglected to mention them in my communiqués seem 'incredible,'" said MacArthur in a statement to the Associated Press.

"There were no Marine ground units whatsoever engaged in the recapture of the Philippines. The only ground forces involved were the Sixth and Eighth Armies, neither of which possessed Marine units."

MacArthur went on to say that the only Marine ground unit under his command was the First Marine Division temporarily assigned to him in Australia after the Guadalcanal campaign and which he used in the New Britain operation.

"It was shortly thereafter relieved from my command over my protest," said MacArthur. "It was a magnificent unit as, indeed, were all other Marine units with which I have had professional contact, and my reports as to its conduct during its service under me were completely laudatory and fully publicized."

He added that General Smith "has been misinformed, to say the least."

There had been 15,000 marriages in the last two years. They said authorities suspected too many German girls were using marriage as a ticket to get out of Germany.

Torch-Bearer To Have A $300,000 Beauty Project

Washington, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The statue of liberty has a $300,000 beauty-parlor date with Uncle Sam in the making.

The National Park Service disclosed today that its proposed budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 assigns that sum for construction of seawalls to protect the statue and enhance its appearance.

This is the agency's next-to-the-largest project on its $3,500,000 physical-improvements program for the year. The largest is $234,000 for completion of a water pipe system for the Mesa Verde, Colo., National Park.

Chapter 8

"All right, all right, Gertrude," Her father smiled indulgently. "You don't have to get so excited about it. Nobody's stopping you. You're taking the new car. And you're going to the Congregational church to see the pretty new minister. Okay, okay. Far as I can see, one church is as good as another. As long as you go—that's the important thing. Minniebelle!"

Minniebelle's face crumpled and the tears, which she had been holding in check for some time, began to roll down her cheeks. Pressing her napkin to her face, she pushed her chair back, got up and left the room, her whole body shaking with sobs.

David stared after her in undisguised surprise. "Holy Moses, what's come over her? I've never known her to cry before. Didn't know she could cry."

"What did happen, Betty? Gertrude and her mom have a falling-out or something?"

Betty hesitated. "No—er—yes. Well, they did have a few words. But you heard Gertrude admit she was sorry. And I'm sure Aunt Minniebelle is really quite sick. She should be in bed, but she just won't give up. Her cold's been getting worse all day, and—"

"Sick?" David pushed back his plate, his face registering both apology and concern. "I didn't know Minniebelle was sick."

"I'll go upstairs," Betty said. "Maybe she'll let me do something for her—now. I've been trying all afternoon, but she wouldn't let me. She pushed back her plate and got up from the table. 'I'll get her to bed if I can; then I'll come down and clear up the dishes.'"

When Betty came downstairs half an hour later, Gertrude and David were waiting in the living room. "Everything under control?" asked David. Evidently his anxiety over his wife had been superseded by anxiety over his daughter. "Good girl, Betty. Pretty soft having a nurse in the house."

Betty tried to smile at his false gaiety. "But I'm not really a nurse," she reminded him. "I was only in training a little while. Her face sobered. 'And everything's not under control. I'm afraid Aunt Minniebelle's very sick. I don't want to scare you and Gertrude. I did everything I could to make her comfortable, but—well, her fever is a hundred and four and I—I'm scared. I'm afraid it's pneumonia.'"

Things happened fast after that. Betty had scarcely finished speaking before David was at the telephone calling Doctor Hammett. But Hammett, an elderly man, was confined to his bed with gripe and could not come. Mrs. Hammett, who answered the phone, suggested a doctor in North Carolina. Here again David met with no success. Doctor Murphy, it seemed, was out on a labor case and would not be back before morning.

"Well," said David, "I suppose there's nothing to do but call that new doctor—what's his name, Gertrude?"

"Doctor Newton," Gertrude answered promptly. "Doctor George Newton."

David, muttering something about young upstairs who wouldn't know a case of pneumonia if it ran into them and smacked them down, made the call.

"Newton will be right over," he told the girls as he came away from the telephone. "It's probably the first call he's had. And I don't mind saying I'd sooner have a veterinarian, if I knew where to get a good one."

"But what's wrong with Doctor Newton?" Betty wanted to know. "If he's not an accredited doctor, he shouldn't be practicing medicine."

"Well—David hesitated—"he's an accredited doctor all right. Don't know as I can say what's wrong with him—yet. He's a newcomer; hasn't been here long. Therefore folks aren't trusting him to the extent of putting their lives in his hands. Matter of fact, he's got to prove himself before he gets any practice around here."

Betty's first glimpse of Doctor George Newton was across Gertrude's blonde curls as the girl ran to him and, between sobs, demanded that he "do something for Mother."

Gertrude had rushed to the door and, opened it the moment she heard the car enter the driveway. Somehow his general appearance convinced Betty that Aunt Minniebelle would be in good hands. She smiled a vote of confidence in his direction, but he did not see her. He was looking through and beyond her at David Warren who stood at the foot of the stairs, waiting.

David spoke to the doctor briefly, then led the way upstairs, the very line of his back expressing disapproval.

Betty could not help wondering how Doctor Newton could manage to minister to Aunt Minniebelle—what with Gertrude's incessant "do-somethings" and Uncle Dave's disapproving eyes upon him. The young man, however, solved that problem immediately. Signalling to Betty to stay, he motioned the others to leave the room, which they did.

"I don't know that you'll be much help either," he said. "You probably wouldn't know a stethoscope from a gyroscope, but I'll be needing spoons and water and stuff. At least you don't look mad as a hornet, and you don't make a noise."

Betty had been just about to tell him of her brief hospital experience and suggest that she might be really useful. But she decided against that now. He had no right to make such an impertinent remark just because Uncle Dave and the townspeople didn't trust him. Why was he his one friend at court! At least she had tried to be

TWO NEW WAYS TO JOIN THE RANKS OF AMERICA'S YOUNG LEADERS

DIRECT COMMISSION

A commission as second lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps with a 2-year initial tour of active duty is ready for you if you meet these requirements: one year of honorable service in any of the Armed Forces between 7 December 1941 and 30 June 1947; have completed two years at an accredited college or university; U. S. citizenship; AGCT score of 110 or better; not more than 32 years old; physically fit. Once commissioned, you'll be assigned to a 2-month officers' training school, and, on successful completion, you'll be free to compete for a Regular Army Commission. Get all the facts about applying for OCS entrance at your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station for complete details at once.

OCS FOR HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

If you've graduated from high school or can pass an equivalent examination, are between 19 and 26 years old, are a U. S. citizen, and have necessary physical qualifications, apply now for enlistment for Army OCS. After your application is approved, you'll be enlisted as a Sergeant and given basic training if you have not had it already, then sent direct to Officer Candidate School, subject to quotas, of course. Upon graduation, you'll be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Reserve, and placed on two years of active duty. Top OCS graduates are commissioned in the Regular Army—all others may compete for a Regular Army Commission. Get all the facts about applying for OCS entrance at your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station without delay!

Pirates Lose Hard-Fought Tilt Against Lenoir - Rhyne

Locals Hampered By Absence Of High-Scoring Moye, Hold Own In Second Half But Unable To Cut Lead; Lost By 71-47 Score

The Lenoir Rhyne Bears, paced by ace forward Leo Kantorski, lost a furious first half scoring offensive Saturday night to bowl over the East Carolina Teachers College Pirates 71 to 47 in a North State Conference tilt played at Hickory.

Coach Howard Porter's Pirates, hampered by the loss of forward Charlie Bill Moye, could never get started until the last half of the Hickory game. They trailed 38 to 15 at intermission.

But in the second half the home court boys were traded blow for blow by the cagers from the east. Jack Everton and Eddie Tanner, ECTC forwards, began hitting the basket and the Lenoir Rhyne lead started shortening.

The first half lead piled up by the Bears, however, was too great and at the final whistle the Buccaneers were still trailing 24 points. Kantorski took high scoring laurels in the evening for Lenoir Rhyne with 23 points. Everton with 14 and Tanner with 12 paced the ECTC quint.

Kantorski completed 11 out of 13 free throws. Jack Everton was fouled 16 times during the evening.

It was the second game of the weekend for the Pirates who eked out a 46 to 48 victory over Elon at Elon Friday night. It was in the Elon game that Moye dislocated a toe after supplying the scoring spark which won the ball game.

The weekend games left ECTC tied for fourth place with Lenoir Rhyne in North State standing. High Point commands the North State lead while WCTC and Catawba are deadlocked for second place. Atlantic Christian is lodged in third place after a week of sensational upsets.

East Carolina entertains Catawba here Tuesday night in what promises to be one of the top games of the week. Undeclared on their home court, the Pirates are seeking revenge for a defeat suffered to the Catawba boys early in the season.

Buccaneer followers are of the opinion that the locals are powerful enough on their home court to overcome the 11 point margin which marked their loss to Catawba December 11. Catawba will be out to defend its second place standing.

In their final game of the week the Pirates invade the ACC court in the role of traditional rivals.

Ex-Champ Jenkins And Ike Williams To Fight Tonight

Stadium Drive Is Behind Schedule

By CHESTER WALSH
In the East Carolina Teachers College football stadium drive for $25,000 to stimulate renewed interest in a broader athletic program, only 135 business firms and professional men of the 445 originally assigned quotas on donations to the fund have contributed. Placards stating that "This firm has contributed its quota" are in 135 windows in the city.

According to Chairman Ed E. Rawl and Treasurer J. Herbert Waldrop, only $16,500 of the $25,000 needed for the gridiron lighting and the first wing of the stadium, 3,000 seats for ECTC, is now in the bank.

$8,441.50 is needed to provide the only thing ECTC has asked for in its 41 years as one of Greenville's greatest assets.

A complete survey was made of the business and professional firms and quotas for donations were assigned to a committee of 23 members and two co-workers to make contacts. Not all of the expected donors have been heard from. Those interested in the growth of the college and expansion of the athletic program may mail checks to Treasurer Waldrop at the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company.

Chairman Rawl said today that the drive will continue until the $25,000 quota is reached. "Let every effort be made this week by the committeemen to solicit the remainder of those on their lists. We are mighty proud of those 135 firms and professional men who have made this fine showing possible. The success of this drive for funds for the ECTC football stadium will show just how much the people in Greenville think of the college and show that they will not let the college down. We are mighty proud to be citizens of Greenville," Rawl added.

Baseball Center At Myrtle Beach

Myrtle Beach, S. C. Jan. 17. —(P)—This Beach resort will be flooded with baseball players come March 13.

It's then that the Boston Braves will open a permanent central spring training camp here for the nine teams in its farm system. Planned by Harry C. Jenkins, the National League Champions' director of minor league operations, the camp will house 300 players from March 13 to April 30.

Philadelphia, Jan. 17. —(AP)—The lightweight king and a man who used to lord it over that division appear on the same card tonight in Philadelphia's first major boxing show of 1949.

Rarely is there so clear-cut a study in contrasts as that presented in the Arena show tonight by Champion Ike Williams, the deadpan Negro who slugged his way to the top in a succession of knockouts, and Lew Jenkins, who streaked to the heights and then collapsed just as suddenly.

Williams, the Trenton N. J., titleholder, was voted 1948's boxer of the year after blasting out 10 successive victories last year. He'll be making his first appearance of 1949 in the 10-round non-title feature pitting him against Johnny Bratton of Chicago.

Jenkins, the onetime playboy champion from Sweetwater, Tex., will be stepping up his comeback campaign in an eight-round semi-windup against Rene Camacho of Miami, Fla.

Both Williams and Jenkins are favored.

Bratton is a tough opponent for Williams. They met once before, three years ago, when the Chicagoan was only 18. Then Williams won a split decision. Bratton has been winning regularly in the division and has shown that he is a good boxer and nimble on his feet.

Little is known about Camacho, but Jenkins who now is fighting out of Philadelphia, figures he can win about number two on the comeback trail. Last month, Lew flattened Andreas Balderas in three rounds.

Top Teams Meet In North State

By The Associated Press
Four of this week's half dozen basketball games within the North State conference involve the three top teams, so standings may be scrambled still further.

High Point leads with three victories without loss, Western Carolina Teachers and Catawba have won as many but lost once.

Bob McGinn, WCTC forward, is the leading scorer with 143 points. For the first time this season, he has supplanted Larry Graham, Catawba sophomore, who has 137. Glenn Causey, Appalachian center, is third with 115, one more than Ted Moran, High Point center led the conference last season.

Mid-week examinations shorten this week's schedule. There are nine games, six within the conference, three against outsiders.

Schedule:
Monday — Catawba at Atlantic Christian.
Tuesday — Appalachian at High Point, Catawba at ECTC.
Wednesday — No games scheduled.
Thursday — Georgia State at Appalachian.
Friday — Piedmont College at WCTC.

Saturday — ECTC at Atlantic Christian, High Point at Lenoir-Rhyne, Appalachian at Catawba, Georgia State at WCTC.

Miamian Takes Nat'l Title In Stock Car Race

Daytona Beach, Fla., Jan. 17. —(AP)—Marshall Teague turned a fast 200 to win the national championship 200-mile stock car race here yesterday.

The Miami speedster whipped around the 43-mile beach and road course 47 times at an average speed of 88.23 miles an hour.

Al (Speed) Thompson of Monroe, N.C., one of several drivers who led part of the race, finished second. Guy Waller of Atlanta was third. Bill Snowden of St. Augustine, Fla., fourth and Fonty Flock of Atlanta fifth.

Defending champion Bob (Red) Byron of Atlanta was the early leader but motor trouble put his car out in the 12th lap.

Parker Departs On Tennis Tour

Los Angeles, Jan. 17. —(P)—Frankie Parker leaves today on a flight to New York and Europe for a series of tennis tournaments. The Swedish government has invited him to play in Stockholm. Later he will compete in Copenhagen and possibly France, returning home in about three weeks.

OLYMPIC SKATERS CARNIVAL RULERS—Dick Button, Olympic and world figure skating champion, and Yvonne Sherman, member of the U. S. women's 1948 Olympic skating team, rule over Lake Placid, N. Y., Winter Carnival after coronation as King and Queen.

Saddler Scores Kayo In Panama

Panama, Jan. 17. —(P)—Sandy Saddler, priming for a February defense of his world featherweight championship, scored a fifth round knockout last night over Young Finnegan of Panama.

The lean sniper from Brooklyn, spotting his man 7 1/2 pounds, showed a keen fighting edge in snapping the schedule ten-round non-title bout in half.

He doubled Finnegan up with a left to the stomach and then smashed him into unconsciousness with a right to the head. Saddler weighed 127 1/2, Finnegan 135.

Referee Regilio Pinzon had counted three when Finnegan's handlers moved in to drag him to his corner. The time was 2:52.

Saddler will defend his title Feb. 11 in New York's Madison Square Garden against Willie Pep, from whom he won the crown late last year.

His Hole-In-One Won Tournament

Dunedin, Fla., Jan. 17. —(AP)—Marshall Crichton of Durham, N.C., knows what to do with a hole-in-one on the gold course. He uses it to win tournaments.

The veteran linksman won the Senior PGA tournament here during the week-end, carding a 73-72-145 on the par-72 PGA National Course.

Crichton's hole-in-one was on the 147-yard sixth.

The tournament was for PGA golfers above 50 years of age.

Ring Hopeful

New York, Jan. 17. —(AP)—Hein Ten Hoff, a giant German who has never lost a fight, is due in New York today to try to help unscramble the heavy weight picture.

The six-four-four, 263-pound holder of the German unlimited crown is under six months' contract with Lew Burston of the Twentieth Century Club.

"I hope to fight Joe Louis soon," Ten Hoff said before he left by plane from Frankfurt, Germany.

He won 149 amateur bouts before turning pro. In the money ranks, he has won 14 fights by knockouts, two by decision and has fought one draw.

Justice Faces Hospital Check

Durham, Jan. 17. —(AP)—Charlie Justice, North Carolina's All America football tailback, will enter Duke University Hospital early this week for a checkup.

The Asheville triple threat has been ailing since a few days before the Sugar Bowl game which North Carolina lost to Oklahoma.

A check will be made to determine if he has ulcers.

Ben Hogan Again Takes Home Cash

Pebble Beach, Calif., Jan. 17. —(AP)—Ben Hogan, the golfer they always have to bet for the big money, was back in the winner's circle again today. And with $2,500 more to show for it.

Stopped cold in his first tournament pitch of the year last week at Los Angeles, Hogan bounced back yesterday to bag the Bing Crosby Invitational with an eight under par count of 204. More than 10,000 fans saw the windup. It was the largest gallery ever here.

Playing over the three separate courses prescribed for Croomer Crosby's annual exclusive links party here, the Hogan who packs the heaviest winning punch of all reeled off sub-par rounds each day.

He rigged up a 70 for the Cypress Point course; followed with a 68 at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club layout; and backed a stiff wind to post a snappy 70 for the great Pebble Beach championship course on his final round. Par for all three is 72.

In addition to taking top money of $2,000 in the pro division of the tournament, Hogan won an extra $500 when he and his partner, Amateur John Dawson for Los Angeles, finished third in the pro-amateur here a year ago.

Monster Crosby who sponsors it, had best ball rounds of 71-69-70-68, out of the money.

Hialeah Opens Winter Season

Miami, Fla., Jan. 17. —(P)—Hialeah race course, dowager of Florida thoroughbred ovals, launches its third winter meeting today.

Thirteen handicap sprinters have been named to compete in the $10,000 inaugural handicap—first about $800,000 worth of handicaps during the 40-day meeting. A crowd of 15,000 is expected to attend the debut.

Panelli To Play In Detroit Club

Detroit, Jan. 17. —(AP)—John (Pep) Panelli of Morristown, N.J., Notre Dame fullback, has been signed to a two-year contract to play pro football with the Detroit Lions of the National Football League.

Panelli earned four football letters at Notre Dame and was named "Most Valuable" player in the Jan. 1 Shrine East-West All-Star game in San Francisco.

Boxing Buccaneers Take Clean Sweep Saturday

Denney's First-Round Knockout Highlights Saturday's Fistic Show As Collegiates Take All Five Team Matches Against Winston-Salem

Team Captain Donald Denney of the East Carolina Teachers College boxers knocked out Eddie Marcolini in 55 seconds of the first round Saturday night to highlight the ECTC-Winston-Salem YMCA boxing match held in Greenville.

It was ECTC all the way as Coach Jim Johnson's boys swept to victory in each of the five scheduled team matches.

Two ECTC boxers scored TKO's in the team match. Redwan David had Snookie Collins out on his feet in the second round when the Winston-Salem seconds tossed in the towel.

Ken Stargardt was awarded his third win of the season when he beat Fred Pettyjohn into submission in the second round.

Harvey Stull scored his first ring victory of the year by decisioning Henry Connolly in three rounds.

Stull, though his face was smeared in blood in the first round from a blow to the nose, outpointed Connolly all the way to win 85 to 81.

Cleon Smith outpointed Mickey Bishop 80 to 85 in another close lightweight scrap.

In the preliminaries Marshall "Catfish" Baines fought his way to revenge over Bruce "Boo Boo" Jones in a return match.

E. J. Hunter decisioned James Smith in a heavyweight event and Charles Edwards outpointed Henry Bruton in a welterweight bout.

Thomas Daniels was awarded a victory by TKO over Fred Soles in a middleweight preliminary fight.

It was Soles' first ring appearance after only three days of training. The experience and condition of Daniels proved too much for the game little fighter from Tabor City.

Fewer Players With Phillies

Philadelphia, Jan. 17 — (AP) — Manager Eddie Sawyer will have only 44 players on hand when the Philadelphia Phillies begin spring training at Clearwater, Fla., in March.

Sawyer, who replaced Ben Chapman in mid-season last year, said that's the way he wants it so he can spend more time with fewer players.

Last spring, when Chapman was manager, the Phillies sinvited 83 players to spring training.

In 72 Southeastern Conference football games played in 1948, a total of 2496 points were scored, an average of nearly 33 points a game.

Pro Grid Clubs Start New Peace Talk Soon

Indians' Center New Top Scorer

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS
Chet Giermak, William and Mary's junior center from Chicago today (Monday) took over the Southern Conference individual point-making scramble.

Giermak, who last week was the nation's No. 1 scorer, had a total of 84 points for five league contests. He replaced Phil McNiff, George Washington guard from Brooklyn as the leader.

McNiff fell to third with 78 points. Sandwiched between Giermak and McNiff was North Carolina's Coy Carson, a forward from Asheville, who was only a point behind the William and Mary star with 83.

Business in the Southern Conference is due for a let-down this week although several top tilts dot the program. The two conference teams which are deadlocked for the lead—North Carolina State and Furman—clash Tuesday night at Greenville State and Furman each has three wins against no losses.

William and Mary and North Carolina, tied for third, face each other Thursday night at Chapel Hill.

North Carolina State and North Carolina, a couple of old rivals, collide Saturday night at Raleigh.

The lone game on tonight's card finds William and Mary going outside of the conference to play Hampden-Sydney's once-beaten Tigers at Petersburg.

Olympic Skier Captures Crown

Fox River Grove, Ill., Jan. 17 — (AP) — The form Petter Hugstvedt of Norway displayed in winning the Olympic jumping crown a year ago yesterday brought him the championship of the Norge Ski Club's 43rd international meet.

The 27-year-old stylist compiled 212.8 points, based on form as well as distance, to edge out Art Devlin of Lake Placid, N.Y., America's No. 1 jumper, although out-leaping Hugstvedt by soaring 192 and 194 feet, was rated 220 points for second place.

Wah Wah Jones, Kentucky basketball and football ace, caught more touchdown passes during the football season than any other Southeastern Conference player.

Chicago, Jan. 17 — (AP) — Rumors of now a compromise pro football peace may be met were uncorked today as members of the All American conference board of strategy began arriving in Chicago to map future plans.

Speechmaking the group will be Jonas H. Ingram, who intends to resign as AAC commissioner, and Benjamin F. Lindheimer, owner of the Los Angeles Rams. Arthur McBride of Cleveland, Tony Marabito of San Francisco, Jim Breuil, and Dan Topping, New York, also are on the AAC's "peace board" which will convene behind closed doors in Lindheimer's loop office tomorrow.

From this session are expected to come new peace feelers to be matched with those of the 26-year-old National Football League in behind-the-scenes talks sometime during the week.

The NFL scheduled its annual routine meeting here beginning Thursday. The AAC's shift from an originally planned meeting in New York next month to Chicago at this time has been construed as making way for a second peace pipe parley. The first one, late last month in Philadelphia, ended in a stalemate.

One strong rumor has it that Lindheimer wields the AAC's biggest weapon of compromise. That would be agreement to merge his Rams with the NFL's Los Angeles Rams. If the NFL will accept the Baltimore Colts along with the Cleveland Browns and San Francisco 49ers in a prospective one-league setup.

The NFL has been interested in taking in the Browns, three-time AAC champions, and the powerful 49ers with Don Rams merger thrown in for good measure.

Baltimore's eagerness to continue has been a stumbling block.

Newhouser Signs Tiger Contract

Detroit, Jan. 15 — (AP) — With the start of spring training just six weeks away, 1949 contracts were in the mail today for 36 Detroit Tigers.

But the most notable signature already was on the dotted line.

Ral Newhouser, Detroit's left-handed pitching star and top-salaried player, signed yesterday for a "substantial raise" after an hour's conference with general manager Billy Evans.

Wilkinson Still With Oklahoma

Norman, Okla., Jan. 15 — (AP) — The folks who want Bud Wilkinson to continue as the University of Oklahoma's football coach had an added bounce in their steps today.

Because the youthful O.U. coach returned from Madison, Wis., last night and promptly announced:

1. He has not been offered the University of Wisconsin's head coaching job.

2. He is not the No. 1 candidate for the Wisconsin post as reported out of Madison.

3. He is not an applicant for the job.

But the bounce could be synthetic. Wilkinson didn't mention whether or not he would accept the Wisconsin coaching job if offered him. He just said he wasn't an applicant.

Wilkinson and Dr. George L. Cross, university president, conferred upon his return from the 24-hour trip last night. What was talked wasn't announced.

He described his Madison visit as one "to fulfill an obligation I felt I owed." Wilkinson explained that two weeks ago—in New Orleans at the Sugar Bowl game—he promised Chairman William B. Series of the Wisconsin Athletic Board he would go to Madison "to discuss the situation there."

Syndicate Buys Grid Champions

Philadelphia, Jan. 17 — (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles today belonged to a syndicate of 100 businessmen who bought the club for $250,000.

The transaction was completed late Saturday and Alexis Thompson, wealthy young New York sportsman who bought the Eagles in 1941, promptly left for New York without commenting on the sale of his National football league champions.

But the syndicate had plenty to say.

James P. Clark, Trucking Company head and president of the buying group, said that:

"Civic pride and interest in the community have been the factors chiefly motivating the purchase."

"None of the club's new officers will receive any salary. We want this great Philadelphia sports enterprise to maintain its success and acquire the character of a true city project."

NFL commissioners Bert Bell said the nine league owners have approved the transaction. Clark will represent the Eagles at the annual league meeting at Chicago Thursday.

Thompson said the team lost $52,000 in winning title in 1948.

Baseball Clinics Planned In State

Surprised

Chapel Hill, Jan. 17 — (AP) — North Carolina football coach Carl Snavely said today he was surprised at a report that he might be interested in going to Nebraska.

The Tar Heel coach said he had not discussed the matter with any Nebraska official and declined further comment.

The Omaha World-Herald reported last night that according to a man close to the athletic board had contacted Snavely and that he had indicated he might be interested in the post.

for amateur baseball coaches and managers.

The following schedule was announced yesterday by L. J. Hap Perry, executive secretary of the State High School Athletic Association:

Feb. 14 at Wilmington; 15, Kingston; 16, Durham, 17, Winston-Salem 18, Charlotte; 19 Asheville.

Verdeur Defends Swimming Title

Philadelphia, Jan. 15 — (AP) — Joe Verdeur, Olympic breaststroke champion, successfully defended his 200-yard free style senior middle Atlantic AAU swimming title last night.

Verdeur covered the distance in 2:01.1, three-tenths of a second ahead of his La Salle College teammate, Farrell Devlin of Reading, Pa.

Verdeur set a record of 1:56.5 in winning the title a year ago.

The 22-year-old Olympic star won the 100-yard breaststroke.

North Carolina And Notre Dame Schedule Games

Chapel Hill, Jan. 17 — (AP) — The North Carolina football team will play Notre Dame this fall.

The game will be in New York's Yankee Stadium on Nov. 12.

R. A. Fetzner, North Carolina's director of athletics, announced that the universities had agreed to play in 1949 and 1950. The time and place of the second game have not been determined.

Originally, North Carolina had been scheduled to meet Maryland next Nov. 12. But Jim Tatum, Maryland coach, said the game had been moved up to Dec. 3, with the place to be arranged.

It will be the first meeting of the Tar Heels and the Irish in any sport.

North Carolina will lose 18 lettersmen in 1949, but All-America Back Charlie Justice and Star End Art Weiner will be available again.

Mulloy Continues Winning Sweep

St. Petersburg, Fla., Jan. 15 — (AP) — Gardner Mulloy, the Davis cupper from Miami, keeps on with his winning ways.

On Sunday he won the Dixie Tennis Tournament at Tampa. Now he's breezing through the West Coast Tennis Tourney here.

Yesterday he downed Tony Vincent of the University of Miami, 6-2, 6-3 and took on Sidney Schwartz, University of Miami nee-ter, today in the semi-finals.

While offering a long list of improvements in the new 1949 Studebaker models, the company has continued the popular Raymond Levery design and added new interior luxury. The famed Studebaker vision is especially notable in the Commander five-passenger Starlight coupe (shown) with its panoramic windows. Topping the list of chassis changes are refinements which provide stepped-up performance in both the Commander and Champion engines.

Scott To Outline Rural Road Program In Speech

Raleigh, N.C., Jan. 17—(AP)—Governor Scott is expected to give the General Assembly his ideas on financing a rural road program in a special message tonight.

The governor's office announced he will address a joint session of the House and Senate at 9 p.m. His message will be broadcast.

Improvement of secondary roads was the major plank in Scott's campaign platform, and since his election he has never missed an opportunity to plug for it.

During sessions of the Advisory Budget Commission last fall which he sat in on as governor-elect, he indicated a goal of black-topping 12,000 miles and treating another 36,000 miles of rural roads in the next four years.

Later in speeches he said he was studying an increase in the gasoline tax, a bond issue, or a combination of the two as possible means of paying for the work.

In his inaugural address, Scott put roads at the top of a 15-point program for his administration, although he did not mention particular methods of financing.

"It may require both an increase in the gasoline tax and borrowing money for repayment over a long period," he said. "I am giving the matter of financing this road program the most serious thought and I am seeking advice on it from the most competent sources I know."

The joint session will follow separate sessions of the Senate and House starting at 8 p.m.

Municipal Band Project Backed

An enthusiastic group of band musicians attended the meeting called by the Greenville American Legion committee to determine the feasibility of organizing a municipal band in this city.

Thirty musicians attended the meeting in person or called to record their desire to participate in a community band.

A well balanced band is included in the number and variety of instruments played by the applicants said George Gardner, one of the leaders in organizing the band. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the high school band room just off Cottage Street. Musicians are requested to bring their own instruments.

Big Goal Is Set For Polio Drive

By CHESTER WALSH

Faculty members and students of East Carolina Teachers College are taking an unusually active part in the campaign to raise money for the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation campaign in Pitt County.

The fund already has benefited from events at the college. It was learned from Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, dean of the college and director of the Pitt County Polio campaign.

Dr. Jenkins announced today that Mayor Jack Boyd had agreed to donate to the polio fund all dimes taken in the parking meters one day. In addition, the mayor and city officials will donate to the polio fund all of the money taken into the parking meters on another day.

Richard Walser, professor of English at State College, Raleigh will speak at Austin auditorium at 8 o'clock on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock on "North Carolina in the Short Story." Tickets are 50 cents.

All funds derived from the lecture will be for the polio fund. This meeting is sponsored by the book clubs of the city and the Literary Department of the Woman's Club.

Wendell W. Smiley, librarian at ECTC, will be coordinator. Walser, widely known in the state and south, is a former instructor in English at the Greenville High School. He was a lieutenant-commander in the Navy during World War II and served in the Pacific Books by North Carolina authors and about North Carolina will be on exhibit.

The ECTC students are sponsoring a "polio dance" in the Wright building Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Funds derived from this dance for students will go to the polio fund.

On Thursday night, January 27 the annual "March of Dimes" dance for the infantile paralysis fund will be held. The "Colleagues," talented and accomplished college orchestra, will provide music for the dance. The public is invited.

Turnage Speaks To Allied Church League

Roy Turnage, Jr. of Ayden was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Pitt county Allied Church League which met in the Shepherd Memorial library Friday night.

Turnage, speaking on the liquor question in the United States and in North Carolina, pointed out the Department of Commerce figures "Our liquor purchases last year amounted to $9,648,000,000, or an average of $103.22 for each of the 93,000,000 persons over 21 years of age."

Speaking of the whiskey question in North Carolina, Turnage said, "I am looking forward to the next few months as momentous for the Temperance forces of North Carolina, for, outwardly, we have in Raleigh the most sympathetic governor and legislature toward our cause that we have had in years. No doubt the dry forces of our state are well represented and proved to be an effectual power in the recent elections. But do not ever think that the liquor interests of our country are going to give up such a 'plum' as North Carolina without a strong fight."

Of course the blackmailers had to be brought to trial, and the British government did its best to protect the honor of the Kashmir throne and of Prince Hari by suppressing his name. He was mysteriously labeled "Mister A" by the authorities and disclosure of his real identity was officially forbidden.

Well, conviction for blackmail was secured and the prince was relieved of further pressure from the gang. However, his succession to the throne hung in the balance for a considerable time. Finally Britain and Hari's uncle forgave him and he was taken back into their good graces.

Sir Hari succeeded his uncle in 1925. Now he faces more trouble.

The Soviet . . .

Like our own congress, which makes our laws, the USSR has a parliament, or congress, called the supreme Soviet, which makes laws for Russia.

Like our congress, with its House and Senate, the supreme Soviet has two branches: the Soviet Union of the Union and the Soviet of Nationalities.

Membership in the Soviet of the Union (like our house in congress) is based on population. And, just as in our senate every state has two representatives, membership in the Soviet of Nationalities is based on the various nationalities in the 16 republics.

In Russia every sane person over 18, with no barrier for race or color, can vote. This means everyone, not just those 6,000,000 members of the Russian Communist party.

But—in Russia there's only one party: The Communist party. So there is no real opposition to what the party wants.

Non-party people are elected to the supreme Soviet, but this can be done only with approval of the Communist party. And the party members are in the big majority of those elected to the supreme Soviet. So they run the supreme Soviet.

This supreme Soviet's term is four years. It's supposed to meet twice a year. To do its work while it's not in session, it elects a smaller body, called the presidium. Communists run this, too.

The supreme Soviet names the Attorney General and members of the supreme court. And—it appoints the council of ministers, which is like our own cabinet of department heads, but larger.

These ministers (they used to be called Commissars) head the various Russian government departments, like oil, railroads, heavy industry, foreign affairs, chemistry and so on.

But the key ministers are Communists. So they run the government—under the Politburo because—

The Politburo, with its 14 top Communists, tells the other Communists what to do and, since it's the Communists who run the government, the Politburo is supreme boss.

Continuing Search For Hit-Run Driver; Victim Recovering

Greenville police and State Highway patrolmen today were continuing their search for the hit-and-run motorist whose car collided with J. P. Freeman, 86-year-old white man of Farmville, while crossing Tar River bridge, last Friday night.

Hospital attendants today reported that Freeman, who was partly scalped and suffered a fractured skull and shoulder and other injuries, showed signs of improvement.

Police quoted F. A. McLawhorn, Route 4, Greenville, as saying that when he approached the scene of the accident, that a car ahead of him that had slowed down, sped away as he came along. He was unable to see the license number.

NAMED TO BOARD

Raleigh, N.C., Jan. 17—(AP)—Charles R. Jonas of Lincolnton has been named a member of the State Board of Law Examiners. He succeeds Rep. W. Frank Taylor of Goldsboro, resigned.
