Bevin Asks For Delay In Debate On Middle East

Assures Commons Britain Has No Aggressive Intentions; Faces Revolt

London, Jan. 18—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin said today Britain has "no obligations or intention to engage in any offensive or aggressive action" in the middle east war over Palestine.

With this assurance, he asked the House of Commons not to press at this time for a full scale discussion of the labor government's middle east policy. He said a Palestine debate now might endanger the success of the Jewish-Egyptian peace talks on Rhodes.

Facing critics who demanded a full statement on Britain's role in the middle east situation, Bevin told the House of Commons:

"I am sure the House will agree with me that any discussion on these problems regarding Palestine and the middle East may have a disturbing effect."

Winston Churchill is expected to challenge Britain's Palestine policy. The wartime Prime Minister is reported to have given notice he will ask Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin for a statement on the Holy Land.

Bevin, facing a movement for his ouster from within his own labor party has been the butt of a rising storm of criticism because of the middle east maneuvers of his department.

He has been accused of flouting war, flouting the United Nations, endangering U. S.-British friendship, giving Russia a wedge to enter the Eastern Mediterranean and making an enemy of a potential ally in the middle east—Israel.

Several members of Parliament, including laborites, have signified their intention of asking pointed questions in Commons about the Holy Land situation.

The government is expected to consent to be forced into a general debate on its Palestine policy within the first two weeks of the session.

Clement Davies, leader of the small liberal party, also has given notice he will ask Bevin today to give assurance British forces will not be ordered to engage in military operations in the middle east.

The revolt in Bevin's own party is due to come to a head tomorrow at a meeting of labor members of Parliament.

A dozen discontented labor M.P.'s claiming the support of a group of 50 or 60, held a council of war yesterday and decided not to ask Bevin in any embarrassing questions until the party meeting.

Woman Is Killed By 'Mercy Car'

Clover, S. C., Jan. 18—(AP)—When a 15-year-old boy was shot accidentally early today, a neighbor drove to town for a physician.

Coroner M. P. Nichols said the mercy car struck and killed Mrs. Annie Chandler, 52, as she was crossing the main street here with her husband.

Nichols said no charge was placed against the driver, Raymond Cobb, 28.

Thirty Governors Plan To Attend Inauguration

Washington, Jan. 18—(AP)—Thirty governors—including Republican Earl Warren of California and States' Rights J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina—have accepted invitations to President Truman's inauguration.

While New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey defeated Republican candidate in the fall election—has said he can't make it, six other GOP governors have accepted, although some may not attend personally.

The Republican governors of Maine, New Hampshire, New Jersey and Vermont said they'll be there, the inaugural committee reported. The chief executive of Kansas (Republican) is sending his Secretary of State, Warren, who was Dewey's running mate, didn't say whether he will attend himself or send a representative.

The governors of Colorado (Democratic) and Utah (Republican) said they're not sure. The governors of Arizona (Democrat) and Washington (Republican) didn't answer.

Altogether, 10 GOP and four Democratic governors turned down the invitations. They included Rocky Mount, N. C., Jan. 18—(AP)—The vanguard of some 800 Lions and their wives expected here for the two day convention of District 31-C began arriving here this morning from all parts of eastern Carolina.

Registration for the convention got underway at 1 o'clock. Highlights of the two day affair include a dinner tonight for Joe W. Hode of Wilmington, district governor, a big parade tomorrow morning, a fashion show tomorrow afternoon and an address by Dr. Eugene S. Briggs of Enid, Okla., president of Lions International, on Wednesday night.

Relief Noted Over Scott Road Plans

Governor's One-Cent Addition To Gasoline Tax And Bond Election Viewed As More Reasonable Than Was Expected

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18—(AP)—A feeling of relief about Governor Scott's road-financing ideas was apparent today among some members of the General Assembly.

In a special message he delivered in person at a joint session last night, the Governor called for a $200,000,000 rural road-building program and urged a one-cent addition to the gasoline tax to help pay for it.

The one cent proposal was in sharp contrast to the possible boost of three to five cents which Governor Scott had mentioned previously.

North Carolina highway users now pay a gasoline tax of 7-3-4 cents per gallon, of this, 1.5 cents is a federal levy and one-fourth of a cent is a gasoline inspection fee. The balance is 6 cents, minus the cost of collection, goes into the highway fund.

The Governor asked the legislators to authorize a vote by the people in a special election "to be held as early as possible" on a $200,000,000 bond issue.

It would be used to pave 12,000 miles on rural roads and "to improve the rest of our rural roads sufficiently to make sure, by the end of the next four years, that bad road conditions cannot interrupt school bus service, nor seriously impede transportation of farm produce to market—or workers to industry," Scott asserted.

Senators Rex Gass of Forsyth and F. D. Long of Person offered comments which seemed to sum up the ideas of other legislators who did not want their names used.

Gass said the Scott program was "more reasonable," and Long called it "not as drastic," as they had expected. Several lawmakers expressed belief that the bond-election proposal would be passed.

Just before the Governor spoke, the House got a bill which, if enacted, would upset Governor Scott's calculations as to how the state would pay for his road program. The measure would increase municipalities' share of gasoline tax collections.

The additional one cent levy on gasoline, Scott said, would produce about $7,000,000 a year. This, added to what is now being paid on the highway debt, "would in large part take care of the bond issue I recommend," he declared.

The highway commission this year is spending $5,812,864 on debt service. The advisory budget commission proposed an allocation of $4,037,802 for debt service next year and $4,440,458 in 1949-51.

About $14,500,000 in all would be required to repay the $200,000,000 bond issue, Scott said, "under provisions for its full retirement in 20 years."

Debt service would present bonded debt, the Governor asserted, would "dwindle to a small amount by the time the new bond issue requirements would become large, since the bonds would be marketed gradually as the money is needed for roads.

Washington, Jan. 18—(AP)—Rep. John McSweney (D-Ohio), assigned to the "new" House Un-American Activities Committee, called today for pushing the 1948 Communist spy hunt to a "logical conclusion."

"I will cooperate with other members who feel as I do about exposing our hidden enemies," he told a reporter, "but at the same time I will not permit innocent men and women to have their names and characters besmirched by unfounded and unsupported accusations."

McSweney served in both world wars. He said he is convinced that "more serious than the armies which confront us are the enemies who work from within."

The un-American activities assignments provided the only flare-up in connection with the new Democratic committee roster submitted to the House today for routine approval. Rep. Hebert (D-La.) protested vigorously against being left off the Un-American Activities Committee, saying he was being purged for his States Rights convictions.

In assigning the 262 House Democrats to 18 regular committees, the party leadership passed out the chairmanships on the basis of seniority.

Rep. Wood (D-Ga.) will head the un-American activities group. Except for him, the Democratic holdovers on it were replaced by a solid array of lawyers: Walter of Pennsylvania, Harrison of Virginia, McSweney of Ohio and Moulder of Missouri. Wood also is a lawyer.

Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi who was Thurmond's running mate and the heads of these states: Republican—Idaho, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, New York, North Dakota, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Wisconsin. Democratic—Arkansas, Montana and Wyoming.

Cops are very direct and down to earth. They know people, and how people act and react, and they don't have any illusions except maybe about themselves.

I used to know a whole bunch of cops, for years, covering the police beat in New Orleans, and I never got over how they could work all the angles with some fancy trimmings.

Some of them were very smart, and very tough. But you'd have to know them a long time to know how really tough they were because they wore silk handkerchiefs dripping out of their breast pockets and when they were just ambulating around they looked as tender as teddy-bears.

And sometimes when they wanted something very much, like getting a guy to admit a stick-up, they put on an act, a tough-guy-soff-guy act which they used to call the old one-two.

Celebrating For Truman Family Starts Tonight

Inaugural Festivities Get Under Way; Washington Geared For Big Show

Washington, Jan. 18—(AP)—Harry Truman, a man with a pay raise and a new lease, gets out his dinner jacket today and starts celebrating.

His inauguration for a new term as president will take place at noon (EST) Thursday. This flag-decked city of nearly 1,000,000 is considerably agitated about it, with the prospect of several hundred thousand visitors adding themselves to the confusion.

Mr. Truman has just about finished revising his inaugural address. It is expected to be a foreign policy speech primarily, although it would not be surprising if he also talks about his "Fair Deal" domestic program as a foundation for foreign policy.

Yesterday Congress completed action on a bill raising the President's regular salary from $75,000 to $100,000 a year, and raising his tax-free expense allowance from $40,000 to $90,000.

Tonight Mr. Truman and his family are drawn into the storm of festivities that has begun roaring here. They will break bread with 2,250 members of the Truman-Barkley Club at a formal dinner.

That's only the beginning. Tomorrow the President appears at a Democratic party luncheon . . . then a reception given by the Governor of Missouri . . . then a dinner of the presidential electors . . . then a fantastic concert and stage show known as the "Inaugural Gala," to be held in a huge armory.

On Thursday, the big day, Mr. Truman will take the presidential oath at the Capitol for a four-year term, after having been President for 3 years, 9 months, and about 8 days. Then comes a mammoth parade up Pennsylvania Avenue to the White House with covets of warplanes shooting across the sky.

Commissioners And Mayors Plan Meeting In Courthouse

Pitt county commissioners and mayors of the incorporated towns of the county are scheduled to meet tomorrow night at 7:30 at the courthouse to discuss the dividing of the county ABC profits between the towns and the county.

The county commissioners at their last meeting decided to invite all mayors of incorporated towns in the county to a hearing on the matter of dividing the ABC profits. Letters have been sent to mayor of all the towns of the county inviting them to the meeting.

At the regular January meeting of the county commissioners, representatives of the Greenville, Farmville and Falkland municipal governments asked the commissioners that 25 per cent of the ABC profits, retroactive to July 1948, be given to the incorporated towns of the county to be divided on a per capita basis.

Scott Departs For Washington

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18—(AP)—Governor and Mrs. Scott left for Washington today to attend the inauguration of President Truman.

Also going to Washington as members of the Governor's official party were Capus Wayne, State Democratic chairman, and Mrs. Wayne; Charlie Parker, the Governor's private secretary and Mrs. Parker; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jordan of Saxapahaw, and Adj. Gen. J. Van B. Metts.

Washington, Jan. 18—(AP)—I'd like to know what cops think of the business the diplomats call foreign affairs. I mean, like dealing with Joe Stalin and Mr. Molotov.

Cops are very direct and down to earth. They know people, and how people act and react, and they don't have any illusions except maybe about themselves.

I used to know a whole bunch of cops, for years, covering the police beat in New Orleans, and I never got over how they could work all the angles with some fancy trimmings.

Some of them were very smart, and very tough. But you'd have to know them a long time to know how really tough they were because they wore silk handkerchiefs dripping out of their breast pockets and when they were just ambulating around they looked as tender as teddy-bears.

And sometimes when they wanted something very much, like getting a guy to admit a stick-up, they put on an act, a tough-guy-soff-guy act which they used to call the old one-two.

And when you look back on the way they did it, it wasn't profound. But it worked a lot of times, and the thing they wanted most was to have it work. It worked like this: Mr. Tough-Cop would take the stick-up man into a room alone and open up with "look, we got you nailed, so you start talking, and I mean right now, and I don't want any trouble and if I get any trouble you get plenty of it and I don't have any time to spend."

But something in the stick-up man would freeze and he wouldn't give, or he couldn't give, but Mr. Tough-Cop got tougher, and nothing happened. And finally Mr. Soft-Cop came in and listened to Mr. Tough-Cop and said:

"Cut it out, Joe. Take a walk. Let the guy alone, you're too tough. This guy's in a jam. He's in it up to his neck, but he's all right and you don't have to rough him around. That's all right on somebody else but you don't have to work it on him. Take a walk."

Then Mr. Soft-Cop took over, and gave the stick-up man a cigarette and said "I want to ask a few questions but let's get some coffee first. And he send for coffee."

And the stick-up man was so surprised he thought it was wonderful and before he knew it he opened up. And pretty soon Mr. Soft-Cop had all he wanted, which was just the way he and his partner had figured it out in the first place—ex-

State Bank Had Favorable Year

Stockholders Told 1948 Was Best Year In Bank's History

The State Bank and Trust of Greenville held its annual stockholders meeting this morning at the city hall with President B. E. Sugg presiding.

Reports from bank President B. E. Sugg and Cashier John Mitchell showed the bank during 1948 had the best year since it opened for business on July 26, 1931. In discussing the economic situation, President Sugg referred to the fact that adversely growing conditions had seriously reflected themselves in financial affairs during the last tobacco marketing season; but with price support assured for this year, he said, it is reasonable to expect and hope for a more favorable situation when farmers market their next crop of tobacco.

Following the remarks of President Sugg, Cashier John Mitchell went further into the bank's operations during the past year and reported earnings slightly in excess of $28.00 per share which are the highest in the bank's history. He further stated that despite the adverse conditions to which President Sugg referred, deposits of the bank on December 31 were in excess of $200,000 more than they were at the close of the previous year. In addition to the payment of four quarterly dividends of $2,000 each there was in excess of $20,000 added to the bank's undivided profits account. While no accurate forecast of this year's earnings could be made Cashier Mitchell said that he saw no reason why they should not continue at a satisfactory level.

Upon the completion of the reports of officers, the stockholders unanimously elected the old board of directors, consisting of M. K. Mount, J. Key Brown, C. W. Howard, Reynolds May, John Mitchell, Dr. K. B. Pace, B. E. Sugg, H. C. Sugg, J. B. Webb Jr. and K. R. Wooten.

Following the adjournment of the stockholders meeting the board of directors met and elected officers as follows: B. E. Sugg, president; M. K. Blount, vice-president; John Mitchell, cashier; M. L. Adams and V. M. Forrest, assistant cashiers.

Dividends paid to stockholders of the State Bank and Trust Company this year brought to a total of $108,000 the amount paid out in dividends by the bank since 1935 when the first dividends were paid.

Officials Offer Accident Theory

Tallahassee, Fla., Jan. 18—(AP)—Officials said today the puzzling pistol death of Greenville Baker, New York banking fortune heir, "doesn't look like murder."

State Attorney William D. Hopkins said "it is very possible" that the firing of the gun which took the 27-year-old sportsman's life was accidental.

He added that he and Sheriff Frank Stoutamire are not discounting a theory that it might have been suicide.

The two officers said they were not holding either the young woman who was with Baker about the time the death shot was fired or a married couple that was nearby.

They said the three persons have been asked "not to get very far away," in case they are wanted for further questioning.

Sheriff Stoutamire, who offered no theories of how Baker was shot, said he has asked the FBI to run tests on the death gun.

He also is sending to Washington parafine casts of the hands of three of Baker's companions to learn whether any of them had fired a gun recently.

A coroner's jury after hearing testimony for four hours last night returned a verdict that Baker was killed by a pistol "held by a party or parties unknown."

A 21-year-old divorced Tavern waitress who was with Baker when the jeep was wrecked could offer no explanation for the bullet wound.

Jury Selected In Trial Of Former School Official

Warenton, N. C., Jan. 18—(AP)—Selection of a jury for the trial of J. Edward Allen, former Warren county school superintendent, on charges of false pretense was completed in Warren Superior court today.

The jury, as finally constituted, contained two women and two Negroes.

Selection of the jury was slowed considerably as one after another the prospective jurors told the court they had already formed an opinion in the case.

Before the jury selection process began, Allen entered a plea of not guilty on charges of false pretense. He also is charged with embezzlement and forgery.

'Rustler' Took Cowboy Costume

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 18—(AP)—The law's a-bittin' the trail today for the rustler who took off with a cowboy suit and two shirts.

Two cowboy singers billed as "Whitely and Moran" at a local radio station reported to police the theft of a mixed-color flannel suit, a blue cowboy shirt and a wine-red shirt from their auto.

Paris, Jan. 18—(AP)—Princess Agha Khan's marriage "will break a lot of hearts," his social secretary said today.

Aly, son of wealthy Aga Khan, announced yesterday he will marry actress Rita Hayworth when he has divorced his English wife.

Delaying Tactics Hold Up Trial Of U.S. Communists

New York, Jan. 18—(AP)—The second day of the history-making trial of 12 top Communist leaders began today with overruling of new defense objections to policemen detailed around the U.S. courthouse.

One defense attorney asserted "the same state of armed usage which existed yesterday exists today."

However, Federal Judge Harold R. Medina overruled two defense motions concerning the police, commenting "what precautions are taken seems to me to be entirely proper."

A detail of 400 policemen was on hand when the trial opened yesterday to guard against possible demonstrations.

Louis F. McCabe of Philadelphia one of the defense lawyers, declared members of the jury panel were confronted by a display of "armed force" as they entered the courtroom in Lower Manhattan and thus were affected "in their minds." Judge Medina replied that "I found when I went to lunch yesterday that I was grateful that I had a little assistance to get through the crowd."

"I don't intend to fight my way through a crowd of boating and hissing individuals without proper protection."

The overruled motions called for exclusion of police from the courtroom and for an inquiry into alleged use of a courthouse room as a police headquarters.

The main question before the court was whether trial of 11 of the defendants should proceed at once in the absence of the twelfth—William Z. Foster, Communist national chairman, who is ill with a heart ailment.

That issue was left unsettled at the end of yesterday's opening session in federal court, where the defendants face charges of working for forcible overthrow of the government. Defense lawyers were turned down in a long series of delaying moves—many of which had been argued before.

U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohy moved for immediate trial of the eleven men present and asked a separate trial for the 67-year-old Foster, who was not in court.

Lawyers for the defense contended that Foster is a vital defense witness and that the others—all members of the Communist national board—should not be tried in his absence.

Sealed medical reports on Foster's condition, were filed with U.S. District Judge Harold R. Medina last week by two court-appointed physicians.

Judge Medina said nothing about the reports yesterday—perhaps because the defense's various motions and objections occupied the entire court session.

Kinston Arrests Said To Have Cleared Up Six Pitt Crimes

Kinston and Greenville police solved a series of nearly a score of robberies in Lenoir, Pitt and Onslow counties with the arrest by Kinston authorities of James (alias "Boss") Williams, 19-year-old Negro youth.

Authorities implicate "Boss" Williams and his colleagues in crime. Jasper House, 19, Jake Newsum, 20, and Raymond Marshall, 21 all Negroes, in some daring robberies.

Arrest of the quartet resulted in clearing up six robberies in Pitt county, three in Farmville, two in Winterville, and one in Greenville.

Greenville officers said they were charging Williams and his gang with breaking into the Cascade Laundry here about a month ago and removing the safe to a window to load it on a truck. When the iron safe fell from the backed-up truck through the window at the laundry and smashed a typewriter, a passing car scared away the robbers.

Greenville officers said Kinston authorities have warrants against the gang for several robberies in Lenoir county and Kinston.

Local officers said when the Sheriff of Onslow county questioned Williams in jail, concerning three robberies in the Jacksonville area, he found out that they had robbed five places there. The gang is also being charged with robberies at Walstonburg and Hookerton in Greene county.

Armistice Talks Said Scheduled

Tel Aviv, Jan. 18—(AP)—Private but official sources said today Israel and Trans-Jordan have scheduled armistice talks to start soon, perhaps on Thursdays, in the Jerusalem area.

Israel and Egypt are now talking peace at Rhodes.

Informants said military representatives of Israel and Trans-Jordan will attempt to broaden arrangements of the local Jerusalem truce. If the talks fail, it is believed that a United Nations conciliation commission which is due in Jerusalem Jan. 24 will try to mediate.

North Carolina Inaugural Float Nearly Paid For

Washington, Jan. 18—(AP)—The North Carolina float for the inaugural parade is almost paid for by John A. Lang, of Carthage, president of the North Carolina Democratic Club of Washington, said today.

"Fifty dollars more will do it and we know where that's coming from before Thursday, the day of the parade," he said.

His organization has raised about $1,500 to pay for the float—designed to illustrate a North Carolina claim of being "The Best-Balanced State."

Besides, Lang and his co-workers claim the five Carolina girls to be on the float will probably be the prettiest in the parade.

The girls are Miriam Tate Scott, of Edenton, niece of Governor Kerr Scott; Jane Blythe, of Charlotte, daughter of Democratic National Committee Treasurer Joe Blythe; Marion Frink of Southport; Alice Clark, of Belmont; and Carolyn Basom, of Yanceyville.

A huge scale on the float balances agriculture with industry. About its base are reproductions of schools, homes and businesses of North Carolina.

Governor Kerr Scott, who's scheduled to arrive today, will ride in an automobile just ahead of the float. The Tar Heels have a huge Uncle Sam replica to follow their float.

Hundreds of Tar Heels are coming for the inauguration. The North Carolinians here are setting up headquarters at a hotel near the capitol.

'Best Wishes' By Amateur Radio

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18—(AP)—Governor Scott sent greetings to President Truman on his inauguration through amateur radio channels today.

The message which was transmitted by Bill McMurray, amateur radio operator at N. C. State College, said:

"Please accept my warmest congratulations. The people of North Carolina send you best wishes for a successful and progressive administration."

From within the Communist camp comes the sound of timbers being hewn and of nails being driven.

One suspects the Reds are building a wooden horse of peace with which to trick the dumb democracies.

Approximately 300 guests were present during the afternoon to enjoy the hospitality of the Messick home.

Dr. and Mrs. Messick received in the spacious hall of their home during the afternoon and greeted guests as they arrived. Miss Rose Messick of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willetts, Jr. of Wilmington were also in the receiving line.

The house was tastefully decorated with arrangements of pink carnations and other cut flowers. Welcoming guests in the drawing rooms were Miss Annie L. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Marshall, Mrs. Travis Hooker, Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rawls, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cummings, Mrs. R. E. Willmann, Mrs. Howard Porter, Mrs. John O. Reynolds, and Mrs. H. A. Coleman.

The dining table was made attractive with a centerpiece of white carnations, ferns, and silver ribbons arranged in an epergne. Seated at the dining table to serve guests were Mrs. E. R. Browning and Mrs. Adelaide Bloxton and later in the afternoon, Mrs. Herbert Waldrop and Mrs. Ralph Garrett. In the dining room Mrs. Knott Proctor and Mrs. K. B. Pace received guests. Also assisting in entertaining there were Mrs. A. D. Frank, Mrs. Wendell W. Smiley, Mrs. Percy Scott, Mrs. Harry Snyder, Mrs. L. L. Rives, Mrs. Charles Reynolds, and Mrs. Walter Krausnick.

Funeral Services For James Wilson

James H. Wilson, 73, died at Taylor Hospital in Washington Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock after suffering a stroke three weeks ago.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 3:30 at the Pactolus Baptist Church by Rev. J. E. Hoyte, Baptist minister of Winterville. Burial was in the Wilson family cemetery at Pactolus.

Mr. Wilson was born in Pactolus community and spent all of his life there. He was a member of the Pactolus Baptist Church and a charter member of the Burial Club. He is survived by two nephews, John R. Overton of Pactolus and Ray V. Wilson of St. Augustine, Fla.; nine nieces, Mrs. John Willis, Miss Pauline Overton and Mrs. J. S. Cherry, all of Washington; Mrs. M. L. Linton, Durham; Mrs. M. K. Porter, of near Greenville; Mrs. E. J. Hudson, of Gainesville, Fla.; Mrs. H. E. Wilson, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. D. H. Herlong, of Palatka, Fla.; Mrs. C. W. Bell, of Orange, N.J.

George E. Perry In Piano Recital

George E. Perry, faculty member at East Carolina Teachers College will be presented in a piano recital by the college department of music Tuesday evening, January 25, at 8:15 o'clock in the Austin auditorium. Since joining the staff at the college last September, he has played before various civic groups in Greenville and Pitt County and has appeared on a number of programs at the college. His recital next Tuesday will be open to the public and will be a major event in a series of programs sponsored by the department of music during the school year.

Perry is a native of Reedsburg Wisconsin, and received his musical education largely in that state. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin in Madison, from which he holds the master of music degree. He has also studied at the Wisconsin School of Music and done special graduate study in piano under Mrs. Eugenia Klennberg of Reedsburg. His teaching experience includes work in the department of music at Florida State University and in the Wisconsin School of Music, where he was professor of piano, organ, and theory from 1945 until he came to Greenville last fall.

For his recital at the college next week Perry has chosen a varied selection of compositions, among which are works by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy, Gerahwin and McDowell. On the program Perry has included his own arrangement of Bach's "Air from Suite in D Major" and one of his original compositions entitled "Trio in G Minor."

Rev. Russell Speaks Before P.T.A. Group

The Training School P. T. A. met on Wednesday, January 12, at the Training school. The meeting was opened with a prayer by the president, Mrs. R. P. Rogers.

Mrs. W. S. Bost gave the devotional and read the poem "Work" by Henry Van Dyke.
Mrs. Harry Forbes introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Leon Russell, pastor of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, who gave an inspirational talk on "Religion as a Foundation for Living."

Committee reports were given and one particular report all parents are vitally interested in was given by the Training School Findings Committee, which listed 18 suggestions for improvements to our school. A motion was also made to endorse the State Findings Committee report. Every member of the Training School P. T. A. has hopes of seeing these committee improvement suggestions fully materialize for the benefit of our children and city.

A motion was made for the P.T.A. treasurer to give a check of $28 to the Recreation committee for the purchase of needed basketball goals, baseballs, and bats.
A plea was made for interested parents to help with the Girl Scout work here in Greenville. Any mother who can give some time as a Girl Scout leader, please contact Mrs. E. L. Henderson, Girl Scout headquarters, Municipal Bldg., Phone 2229.

Mrs. W. W. Smiley announced the sale of tickets to the lecture by Richard Walser on "North Carolina in Short Story." The proceeds go to the March of Dimes Foundation.

The founders day program will be given at the next P. T. A. meeting in February.

U.D.C. Pays Tribute To Mrs. Person

Mrs. J. L. Fleming was gracious hostess to the George B. Singletary Chapter UDC on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. W. Harvey presided over a short business session. Mrs. J. G. Lautes gave the treasurer's report. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. B. McK. Johnson. Mrs. T. T. Hollingsworth, historian, gave a splendid report. The new corresponding secretary is Mrs. Ed Moore. She replaces Mrs. T. A. Person. Mrs. P. E. Wells read a clipping sent in by Mrs. Frederick Jones stating how Virginia saved all historical items, even old locks and old nails.

Mr. R. C. Deal gave a very interesting and informative program on Generals Lee, Jackson and Maury. He also gave some interesting historical facts on Southern history. During the social hour delicious homemade coconut cake and coffee were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. L. Winstead.

During the meeting Mrs. Harvey read the following:

Mrs. Annie Mason Person—An Appreciation

The members of the George B. Singletary Chapter UDC take pride in expressing their appreciation for the life of one of its choicest members who has been called to be with God. Annie Mason Person received this call in December, 1948. Those who knew and loved her have comfort in the feeling that she was ready for the call.

Mrs. Person's early life gave herself to Christ. She was faithful in the work of her church until her health failed. Of pleasing and attractive manner and intellectually alert, she commanded the esteem of all with whom she came in contact and was often called upon to lead in the work of her church.

During her life she not only rang true to her Christian heritage, but she was surely a Southerner in every sense of the word. She was proud of this Southern heritage. Next to her church her love and interest was centered in the U.D.C.

The George B. Singletary Chapter will miss Annie Mason Person. We will ever remember her encouragement, her words of praise, and the interest she always had in any work connected with commending the South and its people.

In the words of Solomon "My beloved is gone down into his garden to gather lilies." The death of one of God's children here on earth is simply plucking a flower from His garden for the great bouquet in Heaven.

Red Oak News

The folks of Red Oak community are sponsoring a kitchen shower for their club kitchen at the club house next Thursday night, January 20th, at 7:30 o'clock.

They have recently purchased a gas range for their remodeled kitchen located in the log house. They are trying to get a service for one hundred in crystal, china and silver. They have selected a pattern of crystal and china at Rose's Dime Store and the Vassar pattern of Reed and Barton silver which will have to be ordered.

They have planned a good time and refreshments for all and they hope all their friends in the county and all the neighborhood folks will cooperate with them in this project. Circle No. 1 met Sunday night at the home of Mrs. John Crawford. The home, which has recently been remodeled, was very inviting to the 21 members and three guests present.

Mrs. Oia Kittrell, president, presided and Mrs. Leon Tyson acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. H. R. Allen who was unable to attend on account of illness. This was the first meeting she has missed since the circle was organized nearly two years ago.

Mrs. James Allen gave the devotional and several of the old familiar hymns were sung. Final plans for the club kitchen shower were made.

It was decided to serve a barbecue dinner at our Hookerton Union meeting which will be held at Red Oak Christian Church on Thursday, January 27th. There will be an afternoon meeting after which supper will be served to those attending. At the night's session, Dr. John Messick, president of East Carolina Teachers College, will deliver the principal address. Mr. James Ray Pittman and his quartet will render special music. All members of Red Oak are urged to be present at this Union meeting and we invite the community to join with us.

The circle voted to donate two trees off the church ground, which will be used to remodel the stage and dressing rooms in the club building. The Youthful Workers Club recently voted to spend $100 on this project. Mr. Oia Kittrell, Mr. Leon Tyson and Mr. F. L. Allen will have charge of cutting this timber and getting it to the mill.

One hundred twenty-one visits to the sick were reported by members of the circle.

Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. Clyde Newby, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. H. R. Allen, B. L. Tyson, Mrs. W. C. Jenkins, Nesa Ann Page, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Lula Vainright and many others were among the sick who were visited.

The circle voted to sell "all-occasion" cards, the money derived to be used on the building fund.

The hostess, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker, served delicious refreshments.

The meeting adjourned to meet on the third Sunday night in February with Mr. and Mrs. Oia Kittrell. By the way, circle members, have you written to your unknown friend? If not why don't you do that today? They want to hear from you.

Fidels Class to Meet

The Fidels class of Memorial Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. J. H. Letchworth, 1103 West Third street, Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. C. W. Dunn, Mrs. G. W. Jordan, Mrs. J. H. Letchworth and Mrs. Chester Walsh will be joint hostesses.

Bethel School News

Sometimes we have a queer feeling that the outside world is knocking at our door.

We have been studying certain places and coincidences happened. We were studying Alaska and then the next day two girls, Betty Andrews and Barbara Ann Whitehurst who had an aunt in Alaska, received pink, blue, green, and many other delegate shells, which they brought for us to see.

Then the next day when we were studying Kwajalein Island, Janelle Whitley appeared with a grass skirt, beads, and head dress from Kwajalein. They were so pretty that she had her picture taken in them.

This made us recall other ways in which the outside world was coming close to us.

Not so long ago William Jones went to Pittsburgh to see the Westinghouse factories in Pennsylvania and brought back examples of plastics and other products for us to see.

Just a week ago Fred Pollard went to New Orleans and brought back several pretty pictures just like those in our Geography book.

Mrs. Adams, our first grade teacher, went to Florida and brought back a display of Florida fruits for us to see. Some of us had never seen a coconut in its outer coat. We also saw a lemon larger than a grapefruit.

Another outside influence was shown when Mrs. S. J. Skelton from Georgia, visited us, and taught us lots of Georgia games.

These occurrences make us feel magic, like Alice going through the looking glass. If you want to see through four walls just visit our Bethel Seventh grade class.

Strength FOR THE DAY

THE BLESSING OF BEING OPPOSED

The English system of government differs somewhat from ours. One striking difference is that the minority party in Parliament has a leader (who today is Winston Churchill), and this man is paid a salary as leader of His Majesty's Loyal Opposition. The English believe that every party in power needs to have a well-organized opposition to criticize it and make it better.

We have an important reason for working on the infantile paralysis campaign.

At the first of the year, we had a girl to have the infantile paralysis in Bethel. We were afraid that we would have to close our school and we did not want that at all. We are fighting very hard because we want to help children get back on their feet and run and jump around.

Around Capitol Square

By LYNN NISBET
PAGEANTS—The 1949 general assembly will probably either greatly increase appropriations for underwriting historic pageants, or will discontinue the policy entirely. Precedent for state aid to such projects was set before the war when contingent appropriation was made, but not used, for the Lost Colony show on Roanoke Island.

OTHERS—Since the Lost Colony show was opened in 1937—and has continued every year except during the war—other events of great historic interest in North Carolina have been commemorated in similar fashion. There was "The Highland Call" at Fayetteville, produced only once several years ago. Last year Charlotte put on "Shout Freedom," based upon incidents surrounding the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and other events of the Revolutionary period.

CHEROKEES—Then some mountain county leaders, interested both in development of their part of the state and in history, organized a corporation similar to the Roanoke

McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N.Y.C. REC-MANNING

Island Association to present annual portrayal of historic incidents involving the Cherokee Indians and the visit of Spaniards under De Soto to that section, which occurred almost half a century before the attempted colonization at Roanoke Island. A huge outdoor amphitheatre is under construction on the Mecklenburg reservation about a mile from the village and long-range plans for continuing operation are being discussed.

PRECEDENT—It is known that bills are being prepared authorizing state aid to the Cherokee pageant, and it will be argued that this project is as worthy of consideration as the Lost Colony. Legislators from Mecklenburg and Cumberland are watching developments with keen interest and it will not be surprising if they plead precedent in support of aid to their shows.

SPONSORSHIP—So far the state has assumed semblance of sponsorship only for the Lost Colony. Each of the projects has been administered by a separate group, and until the state invested money and acquired right to name members of the Roanoke Island board, all were entirely local. The idea has been suggested that the Roanoke project should be integrated into the extension division of the university because of its educational value.

CONTROL—It is inherent in state and American tradition that control goes with money invested, and it is almost certain that if the state writes pageant finances the state will assume larger control over operations. That happened with road and schools, public health and welfare, and it is practically unavoidable in any situation involving gov-

Boyle's Column

By MAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—The biggest need of the twentieth century is a new hero.

At the end of this article I will tell you who I think it has to be—for what that is worth. Every man has to have a hero. Who's yours?
The hero is as old as history. He is as old as the childish game, "follow the leader."

Cows, buffaloes and men are alike in the herd instinct. They all have a leader. But there is a big difference in the herd instinct of cattle and men. In cattle the leader is picked solely by muscle—his prowess in personal battle.

The young brainless bull with the powerful shoulders and the sharp horns drives away the aging bull and becomes boss. And the rest of the herd docilely accept and follow the new leader. They immediately forget the old leader, who learned wisdom from a hundred storms and a hundred battles.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—He joined the navy at the age of 22 and has "seen the world." Yet 73-year-old Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy, who plans to retire as President Truman's Chief of Staff sometime in January, hopes to find time to travel.

"There will still be lots of work to do. I haven't made any plans and will not be making any until I clear up my notes and put them together as a matter of record."
Admiral Leahy indeed has been around in this world since his appointment to the Naval Academy in 1893.

ternational conferences during World War II.
"These conferences were highly unusual and most important to the peace of the world. Whatever comes from them, they were vital to the world's well-being."
Admiral Leahy said he did not believe there was ever a need for war. Could war be prevented? I asked him. He answered:
"There have been some very wonderful people in this world, including the Savior who thought war could be prevented. They have not succeeded. Therefore I would not like to say I had a brighter idea."

American farmers doubled their use of fertilizer from 1907 to 1947.

Directors Of Merchants Association Met Monday

The first regular monthly meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors of the Merchants Association was held on Monday night. Mrs. Dink James and Mrs. S. B. Underwood Jr., representing the Council of Church Women, appeared before the board with two requests:

They would like to see the stores close earlier on Christmas Eve night and help to keep Christmas more sacred. They were advised that the holidays had not been set up and assured them that their request would be given consideration and thoroughly discussed.

The other request was for the place of business to observe "World Day of Prayer," which is March 4. In order that employees and employers may attend the service from 10 to 11 a. m. They asked that stores be closed. The board went on record as asking places of business to close for these hours.

A letter from Mrs. J. Key Brown was read, expressing her appreciation for the prize awarded her for outside home decorations at Christmas and she commended the association for activity stating that it should do much to create the holiday spirit.

The Wednesday afternoon holiday was discussed and the secretary was instructed to send out cards to the membership for a vote.

Notorious Check Forger Arrested

United State Post Office inspectors at Raleigh announced today the arrest of Jacob Sackstein, 44-year-old federal parole violator, at Cleveland Ohio, on January 10, thus ending a long search by the Post Office Inspection Service for an offender who has been stealing mail and forging and cashing checks.

The Post Office inspectors at Raleigh have been on the lookout for Sackstein, as he had operated as close as Richmond, Va., using the aliases of Jack Sackstein and Jack Shaeffer. He admitted stealing from sacks and packages of mail piled around overflowing mail collection boxes in lobbies of office buildings throughout the country. When apprehended Sackstein had on his person 39 first-class letters which he had stolen.

Sackstein's operations were not confined to any small territory, but was tracked throughout the southern states, including Jacksonville, Tampa and Miami, Florida; Savannah and Atlanta, Georgia.

Defendants Fare Badly Friday In Police Court

By CHESTER WALSH
Fred Carr, colored, who lives in the southern part of the city, "got justice" from Judge J. W. H. Roberts in Police Court in a family row with his wife, last Friday, when three men who trespassed on his property about two weeks ago were convicted.

Carr testified that his wife left him; that shortly afterwards she went back with a truck and started removing furniture from his house; that he contacted police and swore out a warrant for the driver and his two helpers, and that police apprehended the trio on the truck while leaving Greenville with the furniture.

Judge Roberts gave each defendant, Ben F. Oden, Oscar Heggie and James W. Turner, colored, two of them from Washington and one from Chocowinity, 30 days, on the roads and suspended sentences on payment of $25 each. The defendants appealed.

Ernest Lee White, colored, and Bruce T. Evans, white, driving drunk, were fined $100 and costs and their driver's licenses were ordered revoked.

Assault with a deadly weapon: Otis Watson, colored, one year on the roads, suspended on payment of $250 and costs. Ernest Watson, colored, (with intent to kill), $100 fine. Reckless driving: Roy Lee Rose was not guilty; Do Cannon, $20; Charlie Moore, colored, 60 days on the roads, suspended on payment of $20.

Fred B. James paid $20 for speeding; Richard Howard, colored, also paid $20.

Harry L. Worthington, colored paid $25 fine for not having a driver's license.

Ed L. Smith was not guilty of assault.

Judge Roberts gave Willie Daniels, colored, carrying a concealed weapon, a year on the roads, sentence suspended on payment of $250.

Lorenzo Evans, colored, paid $10 fine and $15 costs for a traffic violation.

Drunk: Charley Baker, $15; Wilbur R. Jackson, 30 days in jail, suspended on payment of $15; Jack W. Crawford, (and disorderly), $15; Matthew Harrington, $15; James E. Jones, 30 days in jail, suspended on payment of $15.

Cases Tried In Police Court Monday Morning

Judge J. W. H. Roberts disposed of the following cases in Police court Monday:

Willie Jenkins, colored, breaking an entering Sycamore Hill Baptist Negro Church on Greene street, near Tar river, and larceny of a church Bible and large clock, was bound over to Superior Court.

Willie Little, colored, was fined $100 and costs and his driving license was ordered revoked, for driving drunk.

John W. Biggs and James M. Williams each paid $20 for speeding.

Assault with a deadly weapon: James E. Brockett, colored, was fined $25 and ordered by the court not to visit Paradise Cafe for a year.

Ernest Wells, colored, was not guilty of assault.

William A. Davis, colored, paid $15 for disorderly conduct.

Ralph Harris of Pactolus was found guilty of reckless driving as a result of a collision with James Ray Pittman's car at Second and Evans street Saturday night and the court gave him 60 days on the roads, sentence suspended on payment of $175 damages to Pittman, the prosecuting witness. Harris gave notice of appeal. James Ray Pittman was not guilty of reckless driving. Harris signed the warrant against him.

Claude Green, colored, was not guilty of larceny, and the prosecuting witness was taxed with court costs.

Frank W. Wood and Howard L. Frizzelle each paid $15 for being drunk.

Judge Hunt Parker Presiding Over Civil Term Court

Judge Clawson L. Williams of Sanford, who was scheduled to preside over a one-week civil term of Superior Court, made a last-minute arrangement with J. Hunt Parker of Roanoke Rapids to substitute for him in Greenville.

The Halifax county jurist arrived yesterday in time to convene court and was given a warm welcome by court officials and enforcement officers. Sixteen divorce cases were on the calendar for hearing, nearly all of them for two years' separation.

Judge Parker presided over the New Bern court last week for Judge Williams, whose health is not so good at this time. Judge Parker is riding the Fourth Judicial circuit the first six months of this year. He will ride the Fifth district circuit including Greenville, the last half of this year.

Superior Court Clerk D. T. House announced today that Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington will preside over the criminal term of court in Greenville next week. Twenty-two cases of driving drunk are on the docket for trial, nearly all of them up on appeal.

Mae West Said Much Improved

Baltimore, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Mae West is "very much improved and will probably be able to get up within a few days," Dr. W. H. Townshend Jr., her physician said today.

The veteran actress, appearing here with her show, "Diamond Lil," was stricken Saturday with what doctors termed an "acute appendix." A show spokesman said Miss West hoped to leave for New York about Thursday.

Switzerland, which covers about 16,000 square miles, contains the headwaters of four great European river systems—the Rhine, Rhone, Po and Danube.

Probe Shooting Of Newton Man

Newton, N. C., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Police today were investigating the fatal shooting of George Griggs, 26 of Newton.

Griggs, father of three children, was shot late yesterday in the machine shop of the Newton Rayon Mills. Four .32 calibre pistol bullets entered his body.

Coroner J. W. Reynolds reported that Johnny Benfield, 25, a mechanic in the mills, admitted the shooting and is being held pending a preliminary hearing.

College Making Plans For High School Day

East Carolina Teachers College will entertain seniors from public schools in the eastern section of North Carolina at a High School Day to be held April 14 on the campus. Invitations have been issued to students and faculty members of 303 high schools in 46 counties of the state.

A committee of faculty members and administrative officers of the college is now at work planning a program which will make the day a gala occasion. The academic and social values of college life will be stressed in activities arranged for high school guests.

The observance of High School day this spring will revive an annual campus event which was discontinued during the war years. In 1936 the college began setting aside each spring a day for the entertainment on the campus of high school seniors with the idea of interesting them in education beyond the eleventh and the twelfth grades. The first year approximately 1,100 guests were present from 55 schools in 22 counties. Interest grew from year to year in 1941 more than 3,200 visitors spent the day on the campus observing the work and play of college life. These represented 114 schools from 36 counties. After 1941 high school day was discontinued because of war conditions.

Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, director of the Bureau of Field Students at the college, is director of the planning committee for High School Day this year. Working with him at present on various committees are Dr. Allen S. Hurlburt, Dr. J. L. Oppelt, Dr. R. R. Willmann, Dr. N. M. Jorgensen, Paul Julian, E. C. Hollar, and Mary H. Greene of the college staff, and Floyd Collins of Cerro Gordo, senior student.

Among events already scheduled on the program are a concert by the College Band under the direction of Herbert L. Carter, a tour of the campus, a baseball game between the East Carolina Pirates and an al fresco luncheon, a tea dance, and a motion picture. Various exhibits and activities of educational value are being arranged to acquaint high school visitors with work in the departments of instruction and with the program of teacher training at the college.

Human ears can seldom hear the incessant clamor of the bat as he flits about overhead because the bat's signaling voice lies in the wave band of about 50,000 cycles or vibrations per second. Human ears can only detect sound in the band from 20 to 20,000 cycles.

Executives Club To Hear 'Dr. I. Q.'

Members of the Executives Club will have the opportunity of seeing in action the dynamic personality of Reverend James W. McClain, "Original Dr. I. Q." of radio fame, conduct one of his inimitable programs the evening of Jan. 19 at 7 o'clock in the ECTC dining hall.

Not all the public is aware that the I. Q. programs, now an institution, were founded by a personage who is now a rural clergyman. Dr. McClain, preferring to devote his life to the ministry, turned down a $100,000 annual income to pursue his religious vocation. It is known that he accepts no honorarium for himself beyond his expenses but that his fee is contributed to the fund for the building of a new church at his Texas parish.

Reverend McClain will conduct the program similar to those he performed on the national networks. Portable microphones will permit participation by club members and prizes will be donated to the winners. His questions will be on a par with those he posed on the radio hook-ups.

monoplane and Tommy Sellers' Stinson four-place station wagon, with airfield Supt. Leon Livingston piloting the air-conditioned plane, revealed to a reporter that farmers have made headway during the good weather this year.

There is more green in the fields (rye and other cover crops) than in years. There is evidence of much contour plowing of fields in the hilly places, and that's a sign of progress because it prevents soil erosion.

The more than 50 inches of rainfall here last year, about the average, has caused Tar River to remain at about the 10-foot level for some time. The average depth of the stream is about six to seven feet. Less than three-quarters of an inch of rain fell in June.

Mrs. C. E. Maiden, weather observer here for the U. S. Department of Commerce, reported today that the highest temperature here Sunday was 66 degrees, a springtime level, and that the temperature ranged in the 60s all day Sunday. The temperature this morning was 62 degrees.

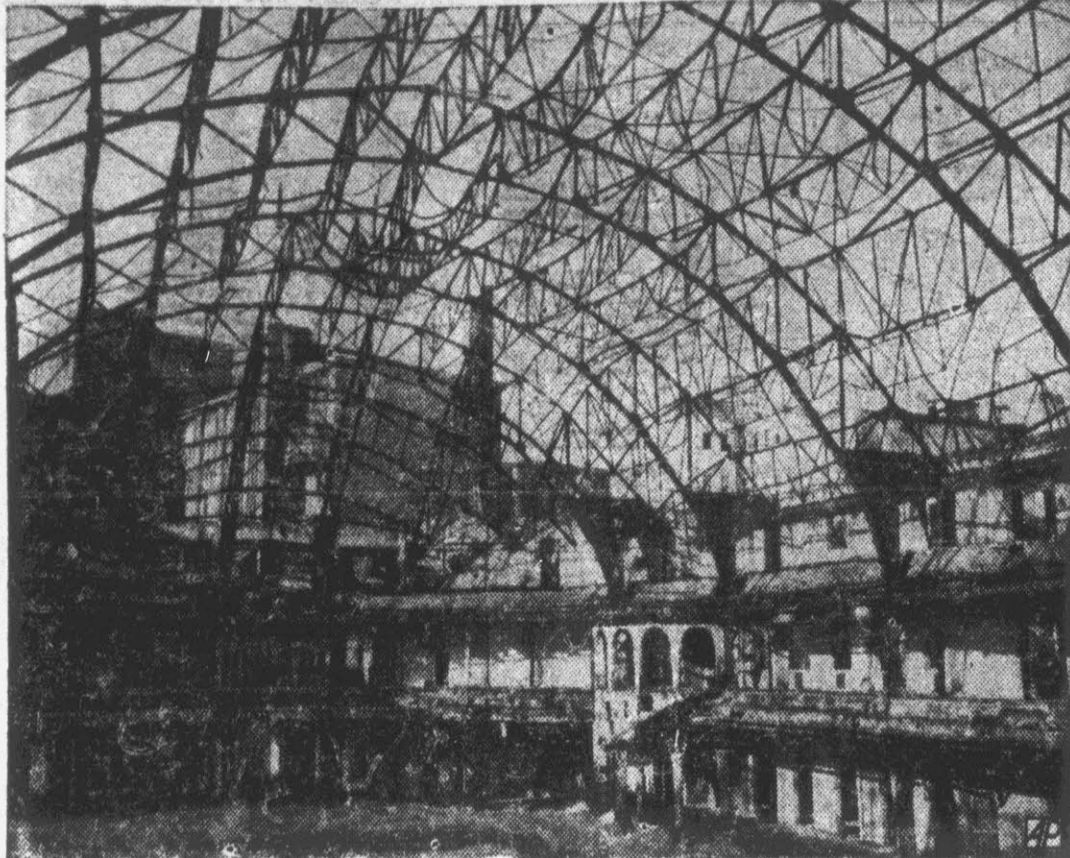

B-29 Crashes In Scotland While Flying To U.S.

Lochgallowhead, Scotland, Jan. 17—(AP)—A U. S. superfortress carrying 20 American airmen home to the states crashed in desolate Succoth Glen today, killing at least six of those aboard.

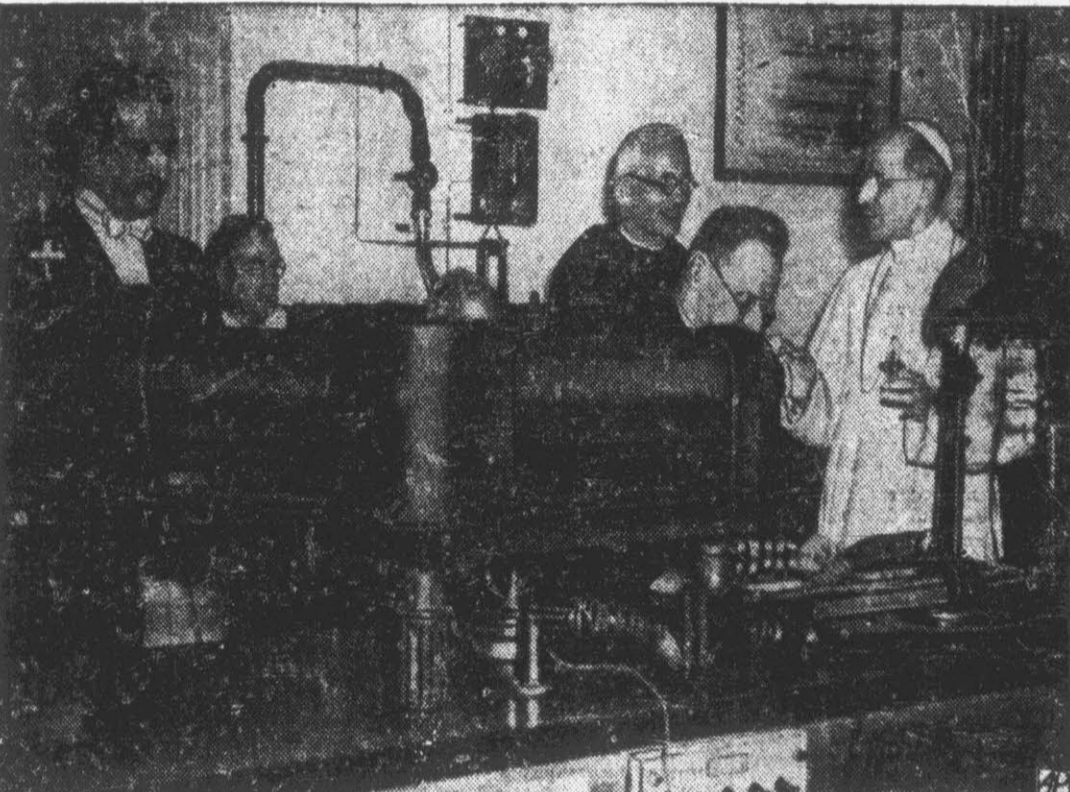

In London, U. S. third air division headquarters, which controls 90 superfortresses based in England, confirmed the identity of the crashed ship.

A spokesman said he had no detailed information on the number of casualties but said rescuers have reported finding six bodies.

Reports on the casualties conflicted. Two members of a rescue party said no survivors were found, but another said some injured were being brought down from the uninhabited hills.

Three Arrested In Safecracking

Troy, N.C., Jan. 17—(AP)—The Montgomery County sheriff today announced the arrests of three Fayetteville men in connection with a safe cracking at nearby Star. Sheriff Earl Bruton said charges of breaking, entering and larceny and receiving were filed against Paul Sadler, Wayne Hedcock and Coy Sanders.

December Prices For Leaf Higher

Raleigh, N.C., Jan. 17—(AP)—A total of 10,723,872 pounds of tobacco were sold in North Carolina during December at an average price of $45.54, the Federal-State Market News Service reported today. The sales compared with December 1947 when 40,019,008 pounds averaged $37.30.

HER SECRET STAR

By Bonnie C. Hall

Chapter 9
Summer had come to New England. It was as though some giant hand had turned the pages of a famous book, skipping several chapters. Just as David Warren had predicted, there had been no spring season. One day it was winter; the next day, miraculously, summer had come. And what a summer!

This morning, as she stood at a window in her bedroom looking out at the panorama spread before her, Betty was sure she had never seen anything quite so beautiful. It was, she decided, a technicolor picture come to life. It seemed incredible that she had ever disliked New England.

"I must have been mad," she murmured, "completely mad. It's Heaven—pure and unadulterated Heaven!"

It wasn't precisely Heaven, although the immediate surroundings were as near to perfection as Aunt Minniebelle and her City Improvement Club had been able to make them. In view of limited funds and a slight difference of opinion as to what constituted perfection.

Nor had Minniebelle's illness proven too great an obstacle. The ladies had rallied nobly to her assistance. Therefore she had been able to direct activities—first, from her sick-bed, and then from a chair placed in front of the living room window overlooking the Green.

In fact, Minniebelle sick had been able to do more than Minniebelle well. Her untimely attack of pneumonia, her Spartan courage in carrying on in the face of death itself, had spurred her cohorts on to greater efforts. The results were highly satisfactory—even to Minniebelle.

Moreover, Carrolton, unlike most of the nearby villages, did not include in summer suppersalemanship.
Except for the souvenir stores along Main Street and a few women who sold hooked rugs in the poorer section, Carrolton was not catering to a transient trade.

Tourists, Carrolton argued, would come automatically for patriotic reasons. If they wanted to buy anything, they could patronize the church rummage sales, which was only right and proper. If they mistook Mrs. Hague's old bureau for a genuine antique—well, it wasn't the Ladies' Aid's fault.

The Warren house, which Betty had come to think of as home, was one of a group of two-story white houses facing the famous "Green," where the statue of William Bradford stood guard.

Betty could see the simple stone structure which sheltered the Rock where the forefathers landed. All through the summer people would come from far and near, to stand with bared heads before this historical shrine. And to make caustic remarks about the improbability of a hundred and two Pilgrims being able to land on such a small rock.

Carrolton, she felt, had every reason to be proud of the Rock, which was part of its heritage. She was proud of it too. Although she had seen very little of the town and the surrounding countryside, she was sure she loved every inch of it. Certainly the view from her window was perfect. Even the perennials that flanked the William Bradford statue on the Green did not disturb her too much, though she did feel that Mr. Bradford looked a little silly standing knee-deep in a flower bed.

However, she could understand the reason for the flower bed, just as she had come to understand so

Pirates Play Host Tonight To Catawba In Wright Gym

Locals Look For Revenge In Pirates' Den; Moye Sidelined But Fans Look To Everton To Spark Offense

Coach Howard Porter's ECTC Buccaneer basketball team, who are yet to suffer a loss on their home court, entertain the Catawba College eagles here tonight seeking revenge for a conference defeat handed them by the Catawba quintet December 11.

It will be the third game in five days for the Bucs who defeated Eion and lost to Lenior-Rhyme in games this past weekend.

And the revenge they seek so hungrily will not come easily tonight. Charlie Bill Moye, sparkplug of the ECTC attack in recent games, will view tonight's scrap from the sidelines. The Pirate captain was benched with a dislocated toe in the Eion game after scoring 18 points to set the pace which won.

Eddie Tanner, capable freshman forward from Portsmouth, Va., who scored 12 points in the Lenior-Rhyme game, will take Moye's place in the starting ECTC lineup.

Tonight's game will be broadcast over Radio Station WGTC with Chuck Lawson as play by play commentator. Fans will also be able to see the new score board in the Wright Building Gym in operation for the first time tonight. The electric score board was given to the school by the ECTC Veterans club.

With Moye out of the lineup, ECTC fans look to towering Jack Everton, Pirate highscorer, for the offensive punch needed to outdo Catawba. They are hoping that the last quarter of the Lenior-Rhyme game marked the end of the slump Everton has been in for the past few weeks. The six foot, seven inch forward got hot in the last half of the Lenior-Rhyme tilt and scored 14 points.

Coach Porter, however, is not stocking all his hope in Everton alone. He is depending on Tanner, and another dynamic freshman, Fitts Fennell, of Wilmington, N. C., for a lot of points.

The Bucs still have big Frank Macenlle, six foot, three, who is death for any opponent on recovering the ball on rebounds. Though Macenlle and guard Len Bauer are yet to appear in the "high scoring" column, both are outstanding North State conference cagemen and an asset to any team.

Louis Collie, who came from Wilmington with Fennell, will play the role of number one reserve for Coach Porter's charges tonight. The freshman forward has shown promising abilities in action this season.

Ben Harrison, who suffered an ankle injury early in the season, will also see plenty of action in tonight's tilt. A letterman, Harrison is an excellent ball handler and sets up the post-plays used by the Pirates. The big gun of the Catawba quintet is Larry Graham, a sophomore who until this weekend commanded the lead in total points scored in the North State conference. The same Larry Graham, backed by one of the finest teams in the conference, will invade the Bucs here tonight. They are out to hold their position as second place team in the loop.

Phantoms Go To Roanoke Rapids Tomorrow Night

With their eyes on a possible Northeastern conference championship, the Greenville High School Phantoms journey to Roanoke Rapids tomorrow night in quest of their third loop victory.

The Phantoms, who hit a new peak by romping over Tarboro here Friday night by a score of 46 to 19 will be out to add the scalps of the Yellow Jackets to their belts before having to face the Kingston Red Devils in Kingston Friday night.

Coach Bo Farley's charges will run into a different kind of opposition tomorrow night than they faced at Tarboro. The Rapids boys are also strong contenders for a Northeastern conference crown.

They will boast a record equal to that of the Phantoms and hold the advantage of playing on their home court. Coach Farley announced yesterday that his powerful Jayvee squad will also make the trip. The Jayvees have scored easy victories over all Northeastern school Junior squads they have faced this season. In addition they defeated two class AA Jayvee quintets. Their only two losses were suffered to class AA school teams.

SWINDLER DIES

Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 15 (AP)—Charles Ponsi, whose financial swindles rocked Americans a generation ago, died Saturday in a hospital charity ward. His body still lay unclaimed today in a public morgue.

TOOK ALL EIGHT

Boone, Jan. 15 (AP)—Appalachian State College's wrestlers weren't even charitable last night. They swept all eight matches with Western Carolina, winning 34-0.

Sport Slants by Pap

Unlike most of the other teams, team on offense and defense. Taenzler doesn't have time for any other sport. Basketball is his dish the year around. He spends winters, springs, summers and falls messing around on the court and has become a wizard with the leather round ball. He can toss one-hand hook shots with amazing accuracy from any spot and any position. He has spent endless hours perfecting one and two-hand overhead push shots while feinting imaginary opponents out of position. As a sophomore last season, Taenzler scored 330 points and at the rate he is going this season should top that total by a substantial margin.

Florida has in Hans Taenzler a player who is very likely to gain all-conference honors no matter where the team finishes in the final standings. Taenzler is a six, five, 210-pound center who can do everything on a basketball court and do it well. He is the backbone of the Florida

VMI Names New Football Mentor

Lexington, Va., Jan. 15 (AP)—Tom Nugent, new head coach of football at Virginia Military Institute, is one of comparatively few fellows who has managed to step from the ranks of high school coaching to boss of a major college gridiron team.

The 26-year-old Nugent, for the last two seasons head coach at Hopewell, Va., high school, was named last night by the VMI Athletic Council to succeed Arthur Morton. Morton resigned Dec. 31 after two seasons here to become head coach at Mississippi State college.

VMI athletic director Frank L. Summers said Nugent was given a two-year contract and will select his assistants. He added the new mentor would come to Lexington Friday to prepare for the Keydets' annual spring training grid.

"I hope that I can justify the confidence shown by VMI officials in accepting a high school coach for the job there," Nugent said today. "Football isn't a seasonal occupation with me. It's a year-round proposition."

STATE SWIMMERS WIN

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 15 (AP)—North Carolina State's swimming team gained a clearcut decision over the University of Virginia here yesterday. State took seven firsts in nine events to win 48-27.

Patton Retires

Los Angeles, Jan. 15 (AP)—Mel Patton, the latest "world's fastest human," has hung up his spurs.

The Olympic 200-meter champion and holder of the unofficial world's record for the 100-yard dash will pass up his final year of competition at the University of Southern California because he has to support his wife and daughter. The university made the announcement yesterday.

The 150-pound, six-foot sprinter will continue his studies, however, and plans to graduate in June as a physical education major.

Mangrum Again To Meet Hogan

Long Beach, Calif., Jan. 15 (AP)—Two of the nation's top golfers, Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, and Ben Hogan, Fort Worth, Tex., tangle again this week in the first annual $10,000 Long Beach open championship.

Play gets under way Thursday at the Lakewood Golf Course. Mangrum won the Los Angeles U. S. open champion, captured the Bing Crosby Invitational tourney at Del Monte, Calif., last Sunday.

Dazzling Display By Deadeye Sho

Iowa City, Ia., Jan. 15 (AP)—Myer (Whitey) Skoog, Minnesota sharp shooting basketball star in the talk of the town today.

Everywhere you went in this hot football fanatic city, you heard the name of Skoog, the Gopher deadeye shot.

The 25-year-old sophomore was named scorer 26 points last night to head Minnesota into a 61-46 victory over Iowa, and the Big Nine leader took 31 of 38 shots in about a dazzling display as Iowa fans have seen.

Actually, Skoog's performance drew much more attention than the "reconciliation" party arranged by Iowa and Minnesota officials to counteract the ill feeling that followed the football game between the two universities last fall.

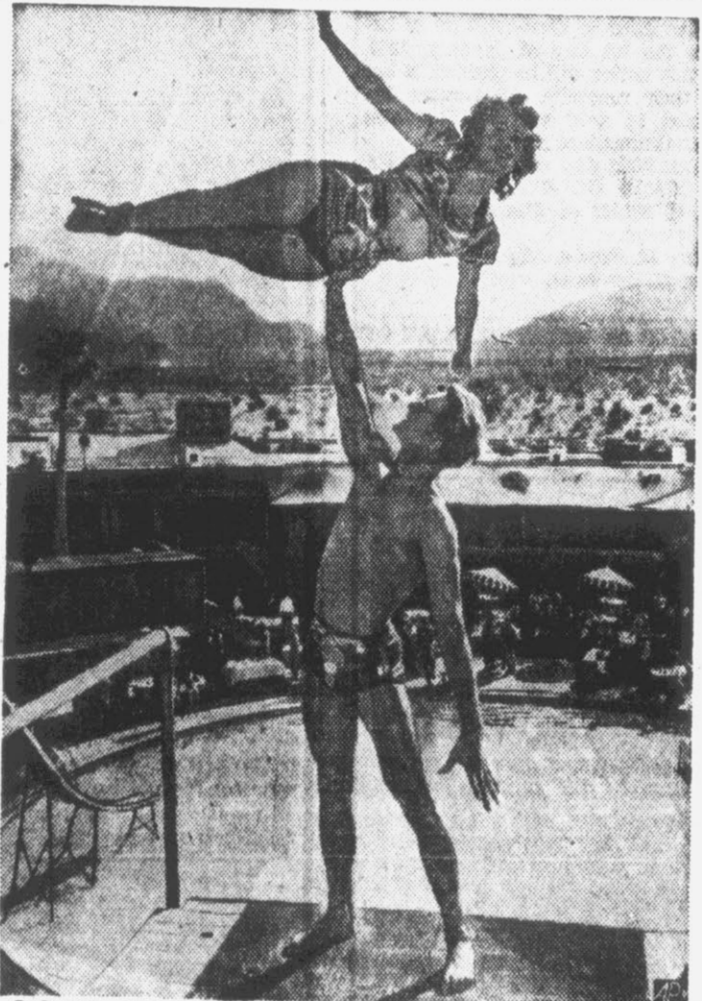

There was, of course, a little open mode booing when fouls were called, but the biggest noise came when Iowa pulled up to a 61-46 count late in the game. The Iowa fans yelled like mad during a time out (sic) the Gophers called to cool off the fans. But the payoff rally the fans had sensed, didn't come.

And Skoog, in appreciation of his performance, was given a big ovation as he left the floor with only a couple of minutes to play.

Southern Conference Leaders Spotlight Tonight's Contests

'Something Has To Give' When State And Furman Collide

By The Associated Press
TONIGHT'S NIGHT GAMES
North Carolina State at Furman. Virginia Tech at Washington and Lee.
Roanoke College at Virginia Military Institute.
Georgia at South Carolina.
Last night's Results
William and Mary 67 Hampden-Sydney 56.

Something has to give tonight (Tuesday) in the Southern conference basketball race as the league's two leaders—North Carolina and Furman—collide at Greenville, S. C.

The two teams are tied for the conference lead with three victories and no defeats. State, of course, will be favored since the Wolfpack has already beaten three of the league's best quintets, Davidson, Duke and George Washington.

Furman has conquered a weak Citadel outfit twice and a hot-and-cold Clemson five.

Virginia Tech's giant-killing Gobblers will see if they can turn in their third upset in succession tonight when they move to Lexington to face Washington and Lee's Generals.

In a pair of non-conference tilts, Georgia will be at South Carolina and Roanoke College goes to Virginia Military Institute.

William and Mary's Indians, tied with North Carolina for third place stepped out of the league last night (Monday) to best Hampden-Sydney's Tigers, 67-56, at Petersburg.

The Tigers held William and Mary's high-scoring center, Chet Ka Giermak, to 15 points. Forward Charlie Sokol of the Indians and forward Maynard Reynolds of Hampden-Sydney shared individual scoring honors with 16 points each.

All of the circuit's 16 clubs will be idle Wednesday night.

One-Time Miler Tells Of Race As Jap Prisoner

Tokyo, Jan. 18—(AP)—The story of how American track star, while badly undernourished as a prisoner of war, was forced to race a Japanese champion—and beat him—was disclosed today.

It was revealed in an affidavit from Lou Zamperini, one-time Olympic games miler from Southern California. His affidavit is in the war crimes trial record of Adm. Soemu Toyoda.

Zamperini was an air force bombardier during the war. He was captured after floating 47 days in a life raft off the Marshall Islands.

The miler testified that some time after his capture he was compelled to run the race but won despite his condition.

The former captain did not name the Japanese miler.

St. Louis Quintet Voted Top Cage Team In Nation

Dons Get Backs

Los Angeles, Jan. 18—(AP)—Half the North Carolina backfield from the Tarheels' undefeated 1948 team has been signed by the Los Angeles Dons of the All-America pro football conference.

They are Fullback Hosesa Rodgers, 26, a 188-pounder, and Wingback Bob Kennedy, 26, a 9.9-second sprinter.

Coach Jimmy Phelan said yesterday both would fit excellently in the Dons' single wing offense.

Lend-Lease For Talented Boxers

New York, Jan. 18—(AP)—Boxing's lend-lease program is in full swing with Hein Ten Hoff, the Dutch heavyweight, the latest to hit American shores.

It's all part of a two-way program, set up by Lew Burston in Europe last fall. Burston, foreign representative of the 20th Century Sporting Club, arranged to ship American talent to overseas promoters in return for use of their best prospects.

Lee Savold, the heavyweight contender who lost on a foul to Bruce Woodcock, was the first to cross the sea under the new setup. Lee is still over there, appearing in exhibitions and talking about a fight with Joe Louis he hopes to get next June.

France sent Robert Villemain, the former European welter champ, to America for a bloody losing fight with Steve Beloise, the veteran Bronx belter.

The other day it was announced that Tony Janiro of Youngstown, Ohio, and Billy Graham of New York, two ranking American fighters, would appear on the same London card Feb. 7. They will meet top-flight British opponents in a show promoted by Jack Solomons.

Red Sox Coaches Sign Contracts

Boston, Jan. 18—(AP)—Three of the men who will aid Manager Joe McCarthy in the overall strategy of the Boston Red Sox this coming season have forwarded their signed contracts to Fenway Park.

They are Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, John Schulte and Paul Scheiber. The fourth coach, also a confident of many years of McCarthy, is Earl Combs and he is expected to be back at the first base coaching lines this year.

Meat production under Federal inspection for the week ending January 1 totaled 281 million pounds.

New York, Jan. 18—(AP)—Unbeaten St. Louis University today was voted the top basketball team in the nation.

In a coast to coast poll, first in the sport ever conducted by the Associated Press, the brilliant Billikens from Missouri received 69 first place votes out of 93 ballots to lead runner-up Kentucky by a wide margin. Coach Ed Hickey's fast breaking crew has whipped 11 straight foes this season.

In addition to its first place nominations, St. Louis drew 23 second place votes and one fourth for a winning 904 points, to gain the honor of being named on all ballots. Kentucky was the only other quintet to receive recognition by all the experts, but got only 16 first place votes to finish second with 842 points. The Wildcats garnered 67 second place votes, nine thirds and one fourth. Kentucky's only loss in 12 games was to St. Louis 42-40.

Western Kentucky, one of the country's five undefeated fives placed third with 545 points. Only team to be mentioned for all 10 places, the Hilltoppers squeezed out only two firsts, but bagged 43 thirds to edge out fourth place Minnesota.

The Gophers, triumphant in all their 12 starts earned fourth place with three first place votes and 480 points.

The Oklahoma Aggies, only other team to receive first place mention landed fifth place on three firsts and 289 points.

The tabulation is based on 10 points for a first place vote, nine for second and down to one for tenth.

In all 61 teams received recognition. North Carolina State was in 29th place with 25 points. Duke got 7 points, North Carolina 5, and South Carolina 1.

High Point Gets Big Test Tonight

By The Associated Press
High Point's Panthers, current leaders in the North State Conference's basketball campaign, get a major test tonight.

The Panthers are hosts to a strong Appalachian State quintet at High Point and the result might point to the conference's championship. High Point is boasting a perfect conference record thus far, winning its only three games.

Catawba's Indians, meanwhile, are running for first position in the race. The Indians took over the second spot last night with a 61-40 triumph over Atlantic Christian and move on to Greenville to meet East Carolina Teachers tonight.

Catawba's win in the conference's only game last night came despite the continued brilliant shooting of Forward Paul Glaser of Atlantic Christian. Glaser was the night's individual star, bucketing 19 points. Catawba's sophomore forward,

Bund Leader Is Given Chance By Supreme Court

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—On grounds there had not been a fair trial, the Supreme Court today set aside a lower court judgment cancelling the American Citizenship of August Klapprott, one time president of the German-American Bund.

Justice Black wrote the majority opinion in the 5-4 decision. He was sharply critical of the handling of Klapprott's case, saying: "It is clear that for four and one-half years this petitioner was held in prison on charges that the government was unable to sustain. No other conclusion can be drawn except that this long imprisonment was wrongful."

Fellowship Topic Of Rotary Talk

By WYATT BROWN

"Before we can do anything about the world, we have got to take care of the being something," declared Dr. Cecil Jarman, pastor of the First Christian Church, Wilson, in his address on the bases underlying fellowship and friendship. He went on to say that man's problem today in the face of all his material achievements is not how to do but how to be something.

Dr. Jarman listed three main bases: interest in people, concern for people, man's answer to his biological urge. In commenting on the first he said that though men seem interested in numbers of things deep down there is that interest in others, which interest holds the world together today.

By concern for people Dr. Jarman said he meant not only common interests but deeper concern for others, as manifested by Rotarians at Christmas time in their giving to the less fortunate. Men are interested in the moral and spiritual need of others, too. In treating the third basis of fellowship Dr. Jarman pointed out several laws that operate: the interdependence of every living thing; the presence of purpose behind every living thing. Quoting Einstein Dr. Jarman concluded with "The real problem is in the heart of man."

The speaker was introduced by J. H. Rose who spoke highly of the guest speaker's work with young people. The program was under the direction of P. L. Goodson, chairman of the Fellowship Committee.

B. A. Steadman of Pinetops and James Brewer were guests of the club. Norman Winslow of Washington and William Lyons of Goldsboro were visiting Rotarians. Pitting recognition of the decease of Rotarian Charles Horne was observed by President Ernest Willard. He announced that Rotarians were to serve as honorary pall bearers for the funeral.

Waiser To Speak

Richard Waiser, noted Tar Heel author, professor of English at State College, Raleigh, and a former instructor of English at the Greenville High School, will speak at Austin auditorium at East Carolina Teachers College tonight at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "North Carolina in Short Story."

The Greenville book clubs and the Literary Department of the Woman's Club are sponsoring the meeting.

Wendell W. Smiley, college librarian, will be coordinator. Books by North Carolina authors and books about North Carolina will be on exhibit. Tickets are 50 cents. Proceeds will be turned over to the Infantile Paralysis Fund.

Most Successful Scrap Collection

Greenville's Junior Chamber of Commerce had its most successful scrap paper drive so far last Sunday, according to paper drive chairman Lester Turnage.

Turnage said approximately 30,000 pounds of scrap paper was collected in the concentrated effort by the Jaycees.

The paper collected by the Jaycees is loaded on transfer trucks and sold to the Manchester Board and Paper company of Roanoke Rapids.

"The Jaycees wish to thank everyone who participated in the scrap paper drive on Sunday," Turnage said.

Lions Club Sends Large Delegation District Meeting

Dr. E. B. Aycock, president of the Greenville Lions club, and other officers and directors at one of the other Lions are attending the midwinter district convention at Rocky Mount today and tomorrow. The highlights of the convention will be an address Wednesday night by Dr. Eugene Briggs of Enid, Okla., president of Phillips University and president of Lions International, and an elaborate parade and flower and fashion show. The parade will be held Wednesday morning. Eleven high school bands will participate. President Briggs speaks at the banquet Wednesday night.

Mrs. Crawford Of Bell Arthur Died

Mrs. Verna Tyson Crawford, 66, died at her home in Bell Arthur Monday night at 9 o'clock after being ill several months. Funeral services will be held at the home in Bell Arthur, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. L. B. Bennett, Christian minister of Macleesfield, assisted by Rev. C. J. Harris, Free Will Baptist minister of Greenville. Burial will be in the Crawford family cemetery.

Mrs. Crawford, daughter of the late Moses and Susan Frances James Tyson, was born and reared in the Red Oak community, near Greenville. She was married to the late James W. Crawford in 1900 when she went to Bell Arthur to make her home. She was a member of Bell Arthur Christian Church and the Missionary Society.

Tobacco Meeting In Ayden Wednesday; Others To Follow

The first meeting of a series to be held during this month for the purpose of studying better production methods, causes and control of tobacco plant diseases, and other factors which will enable farmers to produce better and more economical crops, will be held at the Ayden High School Thursday, January 20, at 7:30 p.m.

Assistant Pitt County Farm Agent Sam J. Weeks, tobacco specialist, will be in charge. Farmers are invited to attend the meetings. Other meetings will be held at the following places:

- Chico High School, Jan. 21 at 2:00 p.m.
- Grimesland High School, Jan. 21 at 7:30 p.m.
- Bethel High School, Jan. 24 at 2:00 p.m.
- Stokes High School, Jan. 24 at 7:30 p.m.
- Farmville High School, Jan. 25 at 2:00 p.m.
- Belvoir High School, Jan. 25 at 7:30 p.m.
- Grifton High School, Jan. 26 at 7:30 p.m.
- Winterville High School, Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m.
- Falkland School, Jan. 28 at 2:00 p.m.

The last tobacco meeting of the series will be held in the courtroom at the City Hall in Greenville Friday night, January 22, at 7:30 p.m. This meeting was scheduled to enable farmers who could not attend other meetings to attend the final meeting at a central point.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Greenville Transit Company, operator of the city passenger bus lines, will be held at Jake Hadley's office, 112 East Third street, in Proctor Hotel building, Wednesday night at 7:30.

'Wooden Horse' . . .

(Continued from page one) Czechoslovakian political leaders have arrived in the United States to form an organization to aid in the fight against Bolshevism. Among them is Arnost Heidrich, former top foreign official in free Czechoslovakia. Heidrich has reported to the Washington State Department that the Communist party now has Czechoslovakia completely within its grasp. This collapse of Czechoslovakia was achieved partly by Russian agents but also by fifth columnists boring from within the state. The Prague government thought that its democratic way of life could be made to mix with Communism and so made the fatal mistake of compromising.

There is plenty of evidence that Communism and democracy cannot be mixed. The nation which doesn't brand the Redism as subversive and eliminate it is inviting certain disaster.

Cops And . . .

So I think about the cops in New Orleans when I read about the conferences the diplomats have with Mr. Stalin and Mr. Molotov, the Russian Foreign Minister. Mr. Molotov is square-built, and he looks like a precinct captain from the back, and he has a square jaw. The stories always give the idea he's a tough man to do business with.

And just about the time the other diplomats figure he's tough and the whole thing's hopeless, in walks Mr. Stalin—kind of relaxed, friendly-like, easy-going, mild—and takes over.

And he gives what looks like an inch here, or a foot there, and the diplomats go away, figuring maybe business would be better if they could do business with Mr. Stalin all the time.

And it may be a long time afterwards that it seems Stalin didn't give anything. And maybe that's the way the old team of Stalin and Molotov figured in the first place, since they've been working together er 35 years: the old one-two, with Molotov being tough and Stalin being soft if he had to. When I see pictures of Stalin and Molotov they look like they're down to earth, and they know people, and they don't have any illusions, except maybe about themselves.

That's when I wonder what the cops think and if they think Stalin and Molotov work the old one-two on the diplomatic level—where you never say one-two but talk of repercussions which is a ten-dollar word for a couple of guys making a deal.
