

Truman Directs Legislation For Far West 'TVA'

Department Heads Told To Draft Columbia Valley Authority Legislation

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—President Truman today directed government agencies to begin work immediately on legislation for a Columbia Valley Authority.

The White House announced that the President intends to send a special message to Congress calling for such an authority as soon as the agencies can get a draft of proposed legislation ready.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said that it may take several weeks to get the draft in shape.

The President wrote the heads of the Departments of Interior, Army, Agriculture, and Commerce, the Director of the Budget and the Chairman of the Economic Advisory Council, asking them to work on the draft.

After saying he intends to recommend to Congress the creation of a CVA, the President told the officials:

"It is most important that concrete legislative proposals for such an authority in the Columbia basin be developed on a sound basis, taking into account characteristics and needs of the region, the interests of all parts of the executive branch and the lessons of our prior experience with the kinds of operations which will be involved."

The Columbia River discharges into the Pacific and is the border line between Oregon and Washington. Its basin reaches into Montana, Idaho and Canada.

Mr. Truman has long been a backer of the general idea of developing river basins along the lines of the TVA.

Ross told reporters he does not know whether the President intends to push a similar proposal for a Missouri Valley Authority in the early future.

Senator Murray (D-Mont.) said after a recent White House visit that the President is as strong as ever for an MVA. Murray and others are now working on legislation covering the Missouri Valley.

However, some of the governors in the Missouri Valley states have indicated opposition to an MVA.

Prelate Leaves For High Honor

New York, Jan. 24 (AP)—Archbishop Athenagoras I, patriarch-elect of the Greek Orthodox Church, is enroute by plane to Istanbul, Turkey, to be enthroned Thursday as spiritual leader of 125,000,000 members of the church throughout the world.

The 63-year-old prelate, first American chosen as ecumenical patriarch, left New York International Airport yesterday on a military air transport service DC-4 which President Truman made available to him.

Research Given Priority In Military Budget; A Race For Supremacy In Guided Missiles; Prospects; Future Expenditures; Accomplishments; Current Work

By ELTON C. FAY

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—The race for supremacy in ocean-spanning rocket weapons may result by 1952 in the United States devoting 40 per cent or more of its military budget to research, much of it going to guided missile development and production.

This estimate comes from some military scientists who prefer to remain anonymous but who are in a position to know the trend of thinking in the arms research field.

Such an allocation would be a sharp increase over the present proportion of expenditures. President Truman's budget message to Congress recommended a total National defense outlay for the next fiscal year of $15,900,000,000. Of this $534,000,000 would be for military research and development of all types, presumably with guided missiles only a part of that figure.

The President ranked research among the priority items of his military budget.

Overall direction and coordination of the military research program is by the research and development board, with the three armed forces carrying on most of the actual work. The air force and the navy are allocated about 40 per cent each of the research budget funds, the army, 20

Nationalist Units Begin Big Retreat

Thousands Of Troops Start Withdrawal To South China; No Signs Of Fight From Out-numbered Army; Reds Enter Peiping

Shanghai, Jan. 24 (AP)—Large scale withdrawal of Nationalist units from the Shanghai, Nanking, and Hangchow areas was reported today. The forces were described as Chiang Kai-shek's "personal troops" entraining for South China points.

Thousands of troops, moving with full equipment, were evacuating garrison points between Shanghai and Nanking. These reports said they jammed railroads and were reportedly enroute to Chekiang province, where the Generalissimo now is in at least temporary retirement as his birthplace, Chikow.

Civilian trains packed with heavy New Year's holiday traffic have been sidetracked for long periods during the last 24 hours to permit troop rail movements.

The government's director of information, Shen Chang-Huan, said today Chiang is still president of China.

His statement was made in reply to a question by the Associated Press at a Nanking tea party for Foreign Diplomats to meet acting President Li Tsung-Jen. Shen explained that under the constitution vice President Li is acting president because Chiang is absent and unable to perform his duties.

The party was held as Communist forces reportedly arrived on the opposite banks of the Yangtze near Nanking.

There were no signs of a fight from the outmanned, retreating Nationalist forces. The government continued the southward removal of its ministries, a spokesman said, "in order to fight on, if Communist peace terms are too harsh to be acceptable."

From their conquest of Manchuria last fall, the Communists have piled victory upon victory. Now virtually all of China north of the Yangtze is under Red control.

Peiping, the last major Nationalist stronghold in North China, surrendered Saturday with face-saving gestures.

A P. correspondent Spencer Moore reported from Peiping that a Red regiment slipped quietly into the city Sunday night in "the most unobtrusive arrival of conquerors the ancient capital ever experienced."

Moore said plans were underway to extend "peace to parts of North China remaining in Nationalist hands"—meaning, Taitung, capital of Shansi province, and Kweisui, capital of Suiyuan province.

Blythe Rites To Be Conducted Tuesday

Body Of Democratic National Committee Treasurer Returned To Charlotte; Delegation Meets Train; Tribute Paid To Tar Heel

Charlotte, N.C., Jan. 24 (AP)—The body of Joe L. Blythe, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee and state senator from Mecklenburg County, was brought home from Washington today.

Blythe, 58, collapsed and died yesterday morning in his Mayflower Hotel suite in the nation's capital. Doctors said he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

"A casualty of the campaign," President Truman asserted in a message of condolence to Blythe's widow.

He had gone to Washington last Tuesday to attend the President's inaugural breakfast with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Harold Richardson, and her husband.

Blythe's body, accompanied by members of the family and friends, arrived by train at 9:30 a.m. and was taken immediately to a local funeral home. An official delegation headed by Mayor H. B. Baxter was on hand when the special car arrived. The funeral will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

It could not be learned last night whether President Truman would attend the services.

Members of the family said Senator Blythe had planned to fly to Raleigh today to be on hand for the State session which was due to resume today from Raleigh last night. Word came that both Houses of the General Assembly would adjourn Tuesday and attend the funeral in a body.

Senator Blythe, a National Democratic committee member for two years, took over the job as treasurer last June. At a luncheon last week for the party's finance committee, President Truman warmly thanked the Mecklenburg legislator for his part in the November victory.

"Thank you, Joe," the President said, "for a job well done."

Grimesland Man Is Wounded By Shotgun Blast

John Barnhill, a Negro of the Grimesland community, was wounded in the leg early last night by a shotgun blast fired by another Negro who sheriff's officers identified as James Thomas (Professor) Burnett.

Deputy Sheriffs L. E. Manning and J. E. Mills, who investigated the shooting, said Barnhill was inside his house and that Burnett came up to the steps of the front porch and shot Barnhill through a crack in the door. Barnhill was taken from his home on the Lyman Edwards farm to Grimesland where he was treated by a doctor and then released.

Investigating officers said the shooting apparently was an outgrowth of a drinking party. Officers reported that Burnett, who has not been apprehended, was last seen "making for the woods."

Attorneys Plan Plea For Crech

Raleigh, Jan. 24 (AP)—Attorneys tomorrow will plead for clemency for James R. Crech, 37, who is under sentence of death for slaying his wife.

They will appear at a hearing at 4 p.m. in the offices of the State Paroles Commission, Acting Parole Commissioner William Dunn announced.

Unless Governor Scott intervenes, Crech is slated to die in the state's gas chamber on Friday morning.

Firemen Rescued $2,200 Gold

Kansas City, Jan. 24 (AP)—Firemen carried Mrs. Breen, 65, and her wheelchair from her burning apartment yesterday.

Then they went back and rescued her girdle from a trunk at her urgent request.

She had $2,200 sewed in the girdle lining.

Congress Starts Real Work With Hearings Today

Three Weeks Of Preliminaries Are Over; Heavy Schedule Is Lined Up

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—Congress quits fiddling around and buckles down to hard work this week. After three weeks spent largely in getting organized and marking time while new members got settled, it is ready to shift the legislative machinery into high gear.

While no floor action is scheduled in either branch, Senate and House committees, now fully organized, have called meetings for today and later this week to start grinding out bills, and Congressional leaders are planning a full docket for the weeks to come.

The Senate Rules Committee called a session today to hear proposals for curbing filibusters which in the past have blocked many bills.

Also, the Senate Agriculture Committee summoned Secretary of Agriculture Brannan to a closed door session to outline the administration's farm price support and grain storage programs.

Labor committees in both Senate and House scheduled Monday meetings which may go far toward determining the course of minimum wage legislation and Taft-Hartley law changes.

The Senate group faces a controversy over whether to conduct long hearings on new labor legislation or to urge forthwith repeal of the Taft-Hartley act.

The House group hopes to approve by the end of the week a bill hiking the existing legal minimum wage in interstate industry from 40 cents to 75 cents an hour. The bill may reach the House floor this week.

President Truman's request for authority to reorganize the executive branch of government when and how he sees fit is the subject of a House expenditures committee hearing starting today. It is billed to run at least through tomorrow when former President Herbert Hoover testifies.

Driving for action in the House next week, the speaker means committee starts hearings today on extension of the reciprocal trade program. The present trade program act expires on June 30, and President Truman wants it extended without the strings attached to it by the Republican 80th Congress.

Extend Hunt For Missing Vessel

Miami, Fla., Jan. 24 (AP)—Search for the missing cabin cruiser Driftwood with five men aboard was extended to Cape Fear, North Carolina, on a chance that the 36-foot vessel might be drifting northward.

The Coast Guard sea-air rescue service, directing the search operation, said air force planes departed at 10:30 a. m. (EST) to scan the Atlantic from Jacksonville north to Cape Fear.

Seek Capital To Develop Israel

New York, Jan. 24 (AP)—Start of a nationwide drive to gather investment capital for the economic development of Israel was announced yesterday by the Palestine Economic Corporation.

The drive will be led by former Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., who has been elected chairman of the board of the corporation.

Court Upholds Conviction Of Andrew May, Garssons

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals today upheld the convictions of former Rep. Andrew J. May of Kentucky and Henry and Murray Garsson on charges of bribery and conspiracy to defraud the government during the war.

The appellate court decision was by a two to one vote. Judge E. Barrett Prettyman and Henry White Edgerton voted to uphold the District court verdict. Chief Judge Harold M. Stephens dissented.

May, chairman of the house military affairs committee in wartime, and the Garssons, operators of a $78,000,000 munitions combine, were convicted by a federal jury July 3, 1947.

Each was sentenced to serve eight months to two years. They have been free on $2,000 bonds each pending action on their appeal.

The trial jury found May guilty of taking $53,634.07 in bribes from the Garssons brothers as payment for using his congressional influence to get favors for the Garsson Shell-Making enterprises.

The Garssons were convicted of conspiring to defraud the United States of May's services through bribery.

The government contended that the Garssons set May up in the lumber business, as head of the Cumberland Lumber Company in Kentucky, using that as a "blind" to conceal bribery payments.

The jury of seven men and five women required only an hour and 50 minutes to reach its verdict after a trial which lasted 11 weeks.

Japan's Election Gives Premier Stronger Hold

Tokyo, Jan. 24 (AP)—Complete unofficial returns tonight showed the Japanese voters turned to political extremes—Right and Left—in an impatient demand for economic stability.

Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's arch Conservative Democratic Liberal party in yesterday's election gained 263 of the Diet's 466 seats, a jump of more than 100. This gave the prime minister's party a parliamentary working majority—the first since Japan's surrender.

The Communists grabbed 35 seats 31 more than they had; the Democrats 70, Social Democrats, 49,

Anti-Filibuster Campaign In Senate Building Up Steam

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—Senator Hayden (D-Ariz.) said today a majority of the Senate Rules Committee will recommend action to kill the filibuster.

Hayden is chairman of the committee. He made his statement as the group opened hearings on five resolutions which are aimed at killing the filibuster.

Hayden said that in his opinion the only real question for the committee was what kind of anti-filibuster change it should propose in the Senate rules.

The real issue, Hayden went on, "is whether a mere majority or two-thirds of the Senators voting shall be able to bring debate to a close."

A filibuster is a continuous debate to prevent the Senate from voting on legislation. Opponents of civil rights measures have used it in the past to prevent Congressional action on them.

The administration wants the filibuster limited in order to clear the way for action on President Truman's civil rights program.

Seventeen Southern Senators already have agreed they will oppose any move to limit debate on the Senate floor.

That may bring a filibuster against any proposed anti-filibuster rules change.

Senator Morse (A-Ore.) urged that the Senate trim its bawlskiered Rip Van Winkle rules by approving his plan to let a majority of Senators prevent a filibuster.

Two other ardent backers of the civil rights program Senators Humphrey (D-Minn) and Ives, R-N.Y.) meanwhile expressed doubt of any prompt action by this Congress.

Morse was on a list of witnesses at a public hearing of the Senate rules committee.

Plan Captured Heidelberg, Germany

Heidelberg, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP)—The entire Normandy invasion plan was captured by the Germans the first day of the assault, but they failed to capitalize on it, Lt. Gen. Clarence R. Huebner said today.

"Had that paper been recognized for its true value the entire outcome of the war might have been different," The Chief of the American ground forces in Europe declared.

He said the document was sent back through normal German channels and did not reach Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt until 26 days later.

By that time the allies had a foothold on the French coast and the document was virtually useless to the Germans.

The plan had been captured on the Omaha beachhead in the initial phase of the Normandy Landing.

Israel-Egyptian Parley Resumed

Rhodes, Jan. 24 (AP)—Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks in their final nervous stage were resumed today after a brief period in which it was feared the conference had been broken off in failure.

The resumption may be temporary, but the acting United Nations Mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche labored to avert a breakdown over touchy Negev boundary issues.

A spokesman said the "immediate difficulties" facing the delegations had been solved, but he gave no indication that a successful conclusion could be expected.

This statement came after Bunche went into separate huddles with the Egyptian and the Israeli delegations. Before the meetings a usually reliable source has said the conference had broken down.

It also was learned here that the Israeli government had blocked the evacuation of Egyptian troops trapped in the Faluj pocket in southern Palestine. The evacuation had been scheduled to begin today.

The source which reported the breaking off of negotiations said the Jews and Egyptians both refused to budge from their previously stated positions on boundaries to be set in the Negev desert.

The Egyptians insist the boundaries be set according to positions occupied by both sides before the successful Jewish offensives of Oct. 15 and last month.

Builder Reveals Transport Plane To Be Modified

Santa Monica, Calif., Jan. 24 (AP)—The DC-3—far more than a decade the world's most used twin-engine transport—will be modernized into the "Super DC-3."

Increased speed and passenger capacity will result from modifications planned for the some 6,000 of the aircraft now in cargo or passenger service with airlines and armed forces.

The revamped planes will cruise at 234 miles an hour instead of the present 188, and seat 28 instead of the present 21 passengers, plane maker Donald W. Douglas announced yesterday.

Changes will include higher-powered engines, square-tipped wings and enclosed landing gear and tail wheels. Also claimed are lower operating costs, improved stability, control, takeoff and climb characteristics.

Still No Trace Of Missing Man In Burned Hotel

Wilmington, N.C., Jan. 24 (AP)—The search for J. R. Mallard, 70, of Charlotte continued today, four days after the hotel where he was staying was destroyed by fire.

Fire Chief J. Ludie Croom after a weekend search of the ruins failed to disclose Mallard's body that he did not believe the elderly man died in the blaze.

The fire that broke out early Friday destroyed the hotel and six nearby stores and shops. The damage has been estimated at $1,000,000.

Croom said Mallard reportedly occupied a second-floor room of the hotel, but that firemen fighting the blaze on the floor "would certainly have seen him" if he were in his room.

New Recognition Extended Israel

Paris, Jan. 24 (AP)—The French government extended de facto recognition today to Israel.

De facto recognition means the government acknowledges the existence of Israel but does not formally recognize it. Full recognition is an exchange of fully accredited diplomatic representatives.

Dutch Announce Increased Unrest In Java District

'Mopping Up' Operations Said Progressing; Underground Fighting Grows

Batavia, Java, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Dutch today claimed progress in mopping up scattered Republican army units in Java and Sumatra. East Java still is a trouble spot, however, they said.

In their first summary of the military situation since the Jan. 5 cease-fire order, the Dutch said mopping up operations had spelled an end to the Republican force as "a centrally conducted fighting apparatus." Today's bulletin, however, told of much underground fighting, sabotage and sniping by scattered Indonesian groups.

It summarized the situation:

In East Java's mountains "unrest has increased in several districts." Republican remnants, scattered in the backwoods country, are conducting forays on road traffic and raiding estates. Units are concentrating on sabotage, laying of mines and firing on cars.

It is taking longer to restore order in East Java, because the Republicans had time to blow up bridges and other installations before the Dutch advanced into the area.

Dutch forces are "patrolling intensively" around Madien, Kediri, Blitar and Djombang. The Republicans are disorganized, with no central command.

The Dutch said they are gradually restoring order around Jogjakarta, but "small gangs are still hiding" in the hills of the former capital.

Snipers are still plaguing travelers around Sukoharjo, second ranking Republican city.

In West Java remnants are mainly indulging in sniping on road traffic and sabotage. Republican units still are roaming North Sumatra, but apparently causing little trouble.

Unconfirmed reports said guerrillas around Benkoen in South Sumatra and Madien in Central Java have so completely cut communication lines that the Dutch have had to resort to air transport to supply isolated forces.

Meanwhile, in Indonesia, political developments are in the process. The Hague, and in New Delhi, where the Asian conference has been taking place.

Minister Scared By Masked Men

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 24 (AP)—A group of masked and robed men visited the Philadelphia Baptist Church last night. The church plans to defend itself and her husband resigned as musical director and member of the board of trustees.

The Rev. Clarence Starling said the hooded men entered the church just as he started to read the announcements.

"I looked up and saw them coming down either side of the church," the minister said. "I just froze there, I was so scared."

Rules Against Railroad Merger

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 24 (AP)—Federal Judge Samuel H. Sibley today ruled against a proposed merger of the bankrupt Florida East Coast Railroad with the Atlantic Coast Line. He returned the merger plan to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

A hearing was held in Federal Court several weeks ago at which time opponents and proponents heard as to the ICC recommendation plan which in 1947 granted the ACL's request to take over FEC and run it.

Britain And Palestine

Palestine Policy Due For An Airing; Critics Charge John Bull Supporting Arabs At Israel's Expense; Not Only Bevin On The Carpet; The Shooting Incident

By DEWITT MacKENZIE

The British government's Palestine policy, which has been under heavy fire both at home and abroad is scheduled for an airing this week in a House of Commons debate which is likely to produce fireworks but may ease a difficult situation.

To put the case on a thumb-nail, the government's charge that John Bull is retaining his influence with the Arab countries at the expense of Israel.

This highly controversial issue is generally referred to as "Bevin's policy" because Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin is responsible for carrying it out. Actually, while Bevin may have originated the policy it is a collective cabinet responsibility.

Thus while the outspoken and two-fisted secretary is the individual who is to be put on the carpet, Prime Minister Atlee and his entire government will be under fire. The attack is coming not only from Conservatives under Winston Churchill's leadership, but from a considerable bloc in Bevin's own Labor (Socialist) party.

As everybody knows, Britain long ago committed herself to great responsibility to both Jews and Arabs. In dealing with this responsibility Mr. Bevin—who prides himself on handling affairs without gloves and always having his cards "face up" on the table—became involved in controversies with Jewish leaders.

You will hear Britons themselves say they feel Bevin at times has been a bull in a China shop and hasn't been considerate of Jewish, American or world opinion.

Typical of his attitude was a speech he made at the time an Anglo-American committee of inquiry recommended that 100,000 Jews be admitted to Palestine immediately. Bevin questioned the advisability of such a move, saying: "Regarding the agitation in the United States, and particularly in New York, for 100,000 Jews to be put into Palestine, I hope I will not be misunderstood in America if I say that it is with the purest of motives that I do not want too many of them in New York."

Naturally that blew the lid off. However, Bevin stood his ground, as might be expected from a rough and tumble fighter who once threw a political opponent into a river.

So the charges and counter charges have continued until the unfortunate incident of January 7

Miss Young Reviews Book Before Club

Mrs. Clara Moye Shackell was a gracious hostess to the club Book Club Tuesday afternoon, January 19, at her home on Evans street. Artistic arrangements of pink gladioli with greenery were used in the living rooms.

Mrs. Shackell, president, extended cordial greetings to Mrs. Charles Stephenson of Raleigh, Mrs. J. S. Moye, Mrs. J. J. Perkins and Miss Betty Anne Young, guests for the afternoon. The secretary read a letter from Mr. D. H. Conley, urging the club to collect and ship 100 books to the German school children. The group responded to this request and voted to bring their books and magazines to the next meeting.

Mrs. Shackell introduced Miss Betty Anne Young, who in her usual and charming manner, reviewed A. J. Cronin's novel, "Shannon's Way." This novel was a story of a doctor in his twenties, who put his keen interest in medical research ahead of everything else in life. He had to face many obstacles, for some of which he himself was to blame. Always in this novel was Jean Law, first as his student, later as his inspiration, but separated from him by a guilt related to religion. Miss Young showed extraordinary ability in reviewing this excellent story and in so doing, stirred the hearts of all of her listeners.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Helen Hayes and Miss Jane Hadley, served a delicious salad with dainty sandwiches, cakes, nuts and coffee.

Wilson of South Creek, and J. T. Wilson of Washington, N.C.

Christian Science Service
"Truth" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, January 23.

Golden Text: Psalms 86:15. "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth." Among the citations comprising the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. For the Lord is good: his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations." (Psalms 100:15). And from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Material sense does not unfold the facts of existence; but spiritual sense lifts human consciousness into eternal truth."

Polio Tag Sales Totaled $406.07

Approximately 2,150 people made contributions to help fight infantile paralysis on Polio Tag Day last Saturday, January 22. ECTC students who attend the Baptist Student Center, 404 East Eighth Street, were in charge of solicitations. About 60 of them were at work throughout the day and they collected $406.07, ranging from a gift of one cent to the largest single contribution of $10 which was received by Helen Rich. The largest amount of contributions taken in by any one student was $54.93, and Dorothy Cain was that student. The second highest amount was collected by Elizabeth Glasgow. Truman Cherry and Marie Smith received the largest number of gifts. All of the students showed a wonderful spirit and were glad to have a part in the Pitt County March of Dimes Drive. Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, dean at ECTC, chairman for Pitt County, said the amount the students collected was far in excess of that received on previous Tag days, about $200 average.

Working with Miss Gloria H. Blanton, Baptist student secretary, in planning the promotion of Tag Day were Vance Lockamy and Paye Howard, the last named president of the Baptist Student Union.

Congressman Bonner Assigned To Key Committee Of House

Washington, Jan. 24—At the request of the Speaker of the House and the Majority Leader, Congressman Herbert C. Bonner, of the First Congressional District of North Carolina, in addition to his regular committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, has been assigned to the Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments of the Government and was given a high ranking spot on the Committee. In the Senate, Senator Hoyer serves on a similar Committee. Under the reorganization bill, each member of Congress is assigned only one Committee. Such assignment as above is only permitted to the majority party.

The committee on expenditures in the Executive Departments of the House of Representatives has broad duties pertaining to the day by day operation of the Government. The duties assigned and performed by the Committee are many. It is charged by law with the study of all budget and accounting measures other than appropriations; the study of all reorganizations in the executive branch of the Government; the receiving and examining of reports of the Comptroller General of the United States and submitting such recommendations to the House of Representatives as it deems necessary in connection with these reports; the study of the operations of Government activities at all levels with a view to determining economy and efficiency; the evaluation of the effects of legislative and executive branches of the Government; and the study of intergovernmental relationships between the United States and the states and municipalities, and between the United States and international organizations of which the United States is a member. Also the Committee from time to time is authorized by the House of Representatives to make studies and reports on activities and programs of the Government in addition to those for which it is specifically responsible.

This Committee has long been one of the great Committees of Congress and is one to which the taxpayers look to insure economy and efficiency in operations of the Government. Many of the present members of the Committee have long experiences in public office and are well equipped to handle the difficult and complex problems which must be considered.

Charge Negroes With Possession "Bootleg" Booze

Pitt County ABC Officers J. M. Ward and Claude Manning, Deputy Sheriff Jasper Mills and City Detectives Corbett and Dorsey arrested two Negro men Saturday night and charged them with possession of "bootleg" whiskey.

Farker Atkinson, 34, who runs a grocery store on Roosevelt Avenue, had six pints of whiskey, Charlie Huges, 40, of Seventh Street, near Allen's alley, had six pints.

The officers said both men were arrested about a month ago on charges of possessing "bootleg" whiskey. Atkinson paid a $50 fine in Police Court. Huges asked for a jury trial.

After arrest Saturday both men provided bail and were released. They were to be tried in Police Court today.

Every second of the day and night, 7,000 persons board a street car, trolley coach or bus in the United States and Canada.

The street cars, trolley coaches and buses of America carried 35 times as many passengers last year as the nation's railroads.

The gate way to a good harvest in the fall of 1949 is to begin the crop now. The goal of every farmer in Pitt county is to have plenty of food for himself and plenty of feed for the livestock.

This means that we must broaden the farm program by raising more corn, poultry, hogs, have more cows, a year round garden, sweet potatoes, fruit and molasses.

A substantial program is being planned to grow more fruit. Personal contact and letters to 248 4-H Club boys is the method to help get the program started and to see that each boy will help to further it. Nine production meetings have been scheduled in the county as follows:
Jones School—January 21, 1 p. m.
Shiloh School—January 26, 1:30 p. m.
Moyes Chapel School—Jan. 26, 1:30 p. m.

Shivers School—Feb. 1, 1:30 p. m.
Grifton School—Feb. 2, 1:30 p. m.

Clark's Neck School, Feb. 8, 1:30 p. m.
Calico School—Feb. 8, 1:30 p. m.
Highsmith School—Feb. 11, 1:30 p. m.
The agent attended 19 4-H Club meetings, enrolled and checked 4-H projects for 1949, also gave demonstrations in laying on rafters and setting fruit trees.

The agricultural workers council held their monthly meeting Saturday, January 15, in the Agricultural building, Greenville. Goals discussed for the year were as follows:

Drainage, farm buildings, pastures, corn, tobacco diseases, swine, winter cover crops, lime, prevention of fire and mule clinics.

Atlantic Christian Wins 59-49 Victory Against Invading Bucs

Traditional Rivals Battled Neck-And-Neck All The Way; ECTC Gets Second Chance On February 19

By EUGENE PRICE

Atlantic Christian College took a firm grip on its fourth place North State Conference standing and the Bo-Hunk Bucket Saturday night as the Bulldogs turned back the Buccaneers of East Carolina Teachers College 52 to 49.

It was AC's third conference victory against two losses and leaves the Bulldogs one game behind third place West Carolina. The loss marked the fifth suffered by ECTC in conference play and leaves them in seventh place with two loop victories.

The Saturday night game was a typical ECTC-ACC clash as the traditional rivals battled neck and neck all the way in quest of the cherished Bo-Hunk trophy. AC led at halftime 28 to 25.

With ace forward Charlie Bill More benched with a foot injury and Jack Everton hampered by a sprained ankle, freshman center Fitz Fennell and sophomore guard Frank Maennle came through to not only keep underdog ECTC in the game but make the Pirates a constant threat to bring the Bo-Hunk back to Greenville.

Fennell scored high for the Buc with 14 points and Maennle tallied 10 points. Everton, despite his injury accounted for seven points.

Paul Glaser captured scoring honors of the night by tossing in 16 points for the victorious Bulldogs.

The East Carolina boys will get a second chance to win the Bo-Hunk February 19 when the Bulldogs come to ECTC.

Boxing Matches

A ten bout boxing match has been scheduled between the East Carolina Teachers College team and the Goldsboro Athletic Club.

Athletic Director Dr. N. M. Jorgensen of ECTC announced today that the two teams will meet in ECTC's Wright auditorium Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

The ECTC team which scored a clean sweep over the Winston-Salem boxers here two weeks ago is expected to be in top shape for the bout with the Goldsboro boys who last week fought in the Raleigh Golden Gloves tournament.

The complete program and further details of the Wednesday night event will be carried in tomorrow's edition of The Daily Reflector.

Cotton Contest Winner Declared

Raleigh, Jan. 24—(AP)—Walter Bender of Norfolk, Rt. 2, who had a lint yield of 1,430 pounds per acre today was declared winner of the North Carolina five-acre cotton contest for 1948.

Bender won first prize of $800 offered by the North Carolina Cottonseed Crushers Association. Half the money will go to his Negro tenant, Beecher Hawkins, who helped produce the lint yield of 7,150 pounds on five acres.

Coy Carson Tops Circuit Scorers

By the Associated Press

Thirty-four points scored in two games last week today (Monday) elevated Coy Carson, North Carolina's sharp-shooting forward, to the top spot in the Southern Conference individual scoring scramble.

Carson, a 6-foot ace from Asheville, had dropped in 51 field goals and 15 free throws for a total of 117 points in seven league contests.

A week ago, Carson trailed William and Mary's Center Chet Giermak by a point. Giermak, with 95 points, dropped to third place.

Runnerup behind Carson was Dick Sayre, Virginia Tech forward, who had 99 points.

Both Carson and Sayre will have a chance to increase their marks tonight when North Carolina and Virginia Tech battle each other at Chapel Hill. In the only other game tonight, The Citadel goes to Davidson.

North Carolina State's Wolfpack led the Southern Conference standings today with five wins and no losses. Every other team in the 16-club loop had been beaten in family feuds at least one time.

Hole-In-One For Aubrey Tilley

Greenville Golfer Aubrey Tilley yesterday afternoon accomplished what all golfers strive for but few achieve, when he shot a hole-in-one on hole number 3 at the Greenville Country Club.

Tilley, a lefthander, was playing in the company of three right-handers, Col. W. M. Brown, Col. Owen Marshburn and Coach Howard Porter. He used a number 9 iron on the 115-yard shot, and carded a 38 for the round. Club Pro Harold Thomas said today Tilley will receive several awards from golf equipment manufacturers for the feat.

Boudreau Likely Big Money Man In 1949 Baseball

Cleveland, Jan. 24—(AP)—A little check-chaat tomorrow between Manager Lou Boudreau and President Bill Veck of the Cleveland Indians probably will boost the star shortstop into the position of major league baseball's big money man of 1949.

The salary confab was to have taken place this morning, but Veck delayed it last night after weather conditions cancelled his scheduled flight here from New York.

Although the front office of the world champion Indians doesn't tell such things for publication, sports-writers generally agreed Boudreau will be given a two-year contract paying about $80,000 a season in salary and attendance bonuses.

It was estimated he earned about $50,000 plus bonuses last year under a two-year contract which had a year to go but which will be replaced by tomorrow's agreement.

Only Rapid Robert Feller, who reportedly drew $82,000 from the Tribe last season, and the late Babe Ruth, who was believed to have topped $80,000 one year, had baseball earnings comparable to what Boudreau is expected to make next season.

Feller comes here for a bargaining session in a week or so, and rumor has it he will take a cut of about $10,000.

Veck said a month ago he'd "like to make as much next year myself as Feller's cut will be."

But the Fireballer thinks his sport-shirted boss is merely exaggerating a bit on one of his favorite gags—the famous Feller salary.

Feller said in New York Saturday he expected to start with the same basic salary as last year—about $40,000—but looked for adjustments in the bonus arrangements.

Chapter 14

It was some time later before they were back in the car making their way through the makeshift driveway in the general direction of the highway beyond. The nurse, a highly competent middle-aged woman, had arrived and taken charge. Doctor Newton had given her full instructions and promised to return later that night to look in on the two patients.

When they reached the highway he did not turn in the direction of home as Betty had expected. He turned the car south, saying as he did so:

"You're still getting that trip to the beach, young lady."

"But it's night," she protested. "It must be almost nine o'clock."

"Yes, so it is," he agreed, unperturbed. "I know it doesn't make sense, but I said I'd take you to the sunbather's house, but—well, you're going. We've still got to eat. We can eat here."

"But I can't go out to dinner like this," she reasoned up and tried to smooth down her hair, retied the ribbon which had fallen over one ear. She could do nothing about the dress. "Just look at me—I look terrible!"

"You look sweet," he said unexpectedly, but he did not look at her. "If it would make you feel any better, take a look at me. However, it doesn't matter. We're going to a place they call 'Playland' where the food's good and clothes don't matter."

Soon they arrived at a long, low building whose big neon sign proclaimed it to be "Playland." The place was ablaze with lights and the sound of gay voices intermingled with the strains of popular music floated out through the open windows.

As they made their way toward the side door, Betty saw a car that looked very much like Gertrude's, but she assured herself that she was mistaken. Besides, Gertrude, with all of her teasing around, was always in before dark.

Later, when they had finished a really enjoyable dinner and George Newton was ordering dessert, Betty thought she saw Gertrude's bright blonde curls and slim figure among the dancers in an adjoining room where a five-piece orchestra was giving out with the latest boogie-woogie tune. But a second glance through the arched doorway led into the dance hall convinced her she was again mistaken.

"Would you like to dance?" George Newton's voice broke into her thoughts.

"I'd love to," she answered eagerly, pushing back her plate.

Betty was conscious only of his arms around her, his head bent down till his lips almost touched her hair—almost, but not quite. She knew she was in love with Doctor George Newton and she hated herself for it. He had done everything he could to discourage her.

It might have been why she smiled with unusual warmth at the red-headed young man who stood idly jiggling a pin-ball machine in the big informal dining room. She even went so far as to wave at him when he smiled back at her.

"That's Jack Barnes," she told her companion when they were seated. "He did me a big favor when I first came to Carolina. This is the first time I've seen him since then."

"Yes, I know young Barnes. His father owns about half of Carroll County, but the kid's not too well liked in town." As he spoke, he smiled and nodded a friendly greeting to the young man in question. Barnes replied with an equally friendly salute.

The conversation was interrupted by a waitress who came to say that Doctor Newton was wanted on the telephone.

"It's the Harpers," he told Betty as he got up from the table. "I left

SEE THE DOBBS TRUSS
BULBLESS — BELTLESS — STRAPLESS

If you suffer with Hernia (Rupture) we invite you to a FREE DEMONSTRATION fitting of the DOBBS TRUSS by a Factory Representative in our store Tuesday, Jan. 25, 1 P. M. to 6 P. M. The Dobbs Truss is different from conventional type trusses. No Belts or Straps to bind and chafe. Lightweight, sanitary, wear when bathing. Does not hinder circulation. It only presses the body in two places. If your rupture is larger this year than last it may be due to your wearing the wrong truss, perhaps, one with a knob that fits into the opening and spreads the muscles apart. The Dobbs Truss has a CONCAVE PAD that fits over the rupture like the palm of your hand and supports the muscles in a more natural position. Holds with utmost security and comfort. These trusses will be demonstrated to you without obligation and you will not be urged to buy.

Kitchen Decorating Tip

ROOM RECIPES

Does your kitchen lack something—even with new appliances and gleaming white cabinets? Decorators advise a touch of contrast. Like the deeper, richer shades of Nairn Linoleum.

For sink and counters you'll want tops of linoleum to go with the floor. It's as practical as it is good-looking—easy on dishes and glassware, too.

Be sure to see our display of the lovely new patterns. Bring your room measurements—you'll be pleasantly surprised at the economy of genuine inlaid Nairn Linoleum.

Twenty Seven Of Fall Quarter Grads Either Teaching Or Still Studying

Twenty-seven of the 37 men and women students who completed work for degrees at the end of the fall quarter at East Carolina Teachers College are now either filling teaching positions or continuing their studies by taking graduate work, according to information just released by the Office of Student Teaching and Placement at the college.

Twenty-one of the 33 students who were candidates for the B.S. or teacher-training degree are now teaching. Nineteen of these are in the public schools of various North Carolina counties, including Pitt, Wake, Northampton, Onslow, Martin, Brunswick, Pender, Forsythe, Beaufort, Robeson, Lenoir and Iredell. One is teaching in the Wilmington, N.C., College, and one in the Thomas Jefferson High School of Richmond, Va.

Four of these students are now taking graduate work. Three have returned to East Carolina and are taking courses designed to train teachers and school officials.

Of the remaining seven students eligible for the B.S. degree, three women have married, and each of the four others has entered a different type of work. One is proprietor of a florist business in Winterville; one is assistant home demonstration agent in Nash County; one is assistant dietitian in the Norfolk, Va., General Hospital; and one holds a secretarial position in Washington, D.C.

Two students who completed work for the master of arts degree at the end of the fall quarter were teachers and are now continuing their work in public schools. One is located at Grimesland and one in Greenville. Only three of the fall graduates were candidates for the liberal arts degree, and no report of their present employment is now available.

Judge Burney Is Presiding Over Superior Court

By CHESTER WALSH
Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington is presiding over a one-week criminal term of Superior Court at the City Hall. The sessions are being held at the municipal building while repairs and alterations are being made at the courthouse. The remodeled and renovated courtroom at the courthouse will be ready for occupancy about February 15.

The New Hanover County jurist is substituting for Judge Clawson L. Williams of Sanford, who is scheduled to ride the Fifth Judicial Circuit the first six months of the year.

Twenty-two cases of driving motor vehicles while drunk, nearly all of them up on appeal from lower courts, several of them on request for jury trials, are on the docket.

Solicitor W. J. (Dick) Bundy had planned to call up a dozen or more unfinished cases today to clear the docket of "hangovers."

One important case for grand jury hearing is that of Johnny Edwards, Ayden Negro logwoodsman, who is charged with fatally stabbing Levy Albritton, Ayden Negro, to death in Ayden on January 10 during an altercation about a woman. It was testified at the coroner's inquest that Albritton attacked Edwards with a bottle, and that Edwards used his knife in self-defense. Edwards is out on bond.

Judge Burney, in charging the grand jury briefly, outlined its duties and urged the members to fearlessly perform their obligations to the court.

Nine new grand jurors were appointed. They are J. R. Jackson, A. Tyson Bilbro, B. B. Sugg Jr., E. W. Hellen, J. G. Smith, Paul Crawford, R. R. Newton, Woodrow H. Dixon and R. L. Worthington. The hold-over nine grand jurors are W. H. Moore Jr., of Farmville, foreman; Robert S. Moye, Lloyd Allen, W. O. Allen, Herman Stokes, P. S. Rasmussen, E. A. Hooks, Vance T. Carey and W. P. Thigpen.

ECTC Trustees . . .

a new home for the college president in keeping with the neighborhood and other buildings on the campus. The frame dwelling now used as a president's home, it was recommended, should be converted into apartments for faculty members.

Rockets . . .

only a part of the whole research and development field. A vast amount of the work in that field is concerned with improvement of existing weapons and systems of using them, including mass-destruction weapons like the atomic bomb and bacteriological warfare.

While agreeing that for the present the weapons and tactics of world war II must be those used of war should come immediately, some of the more enthusiastic military scientists believe these planes, guns and ships will be "obsolescent if not obsolete" by 1952. Strategy then will begin to be geared to other weapons already known or still in the secret category.

Britain And . . .

when five British scouting planes were shot down by Israeli forces in the Palestine-Egyptian border area. There has been a hot dispute over whether the affair took place over Egyptian or Israeli territory.

It is this incident which is responsible for the forthcoming debate in Commons. The Conservatives and a goodly number of the Labor party itself want to know why British planes were in that area anyway. In short there is a demand for Bevin to tell Commons just what is the British policy in the Middle East.

The debate in Commons may be tempered by two other important developments which have been forecast. The United States is likely to recognize the Arab state of Trans-Jordan at the same time full American recognition is given Israel. Britain is said to be ready to recognize the Jewish state of Israel.
