

Connally Expects Committee Okay For Foreign Aid

Doubts Even "Token" Cut For Program In Sight; Praises Work Of ECA

Washington, Feb. 12 (AP)—Chairman Connally (D-Tex) predicted today that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will approve the new $5,580,000,000 European recovery program without even a "token" cut.

Connally said he believed the Economic Cooperation Administration has done a good job in the first year of recovery operations.

Senator George (D-Ga) has suggested the possibility of a 5-per cent reduction—along with a like cut in other government spending.

"A small cut like five percent would just be irritating without accomplishing any real purpose," Connally said.

ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman said yesterday the Marshall Plan has stopped communism cold in western Europe.

Before ECA, he told the wives of legislators, members of the Congressional Club, the communists "had every reason for optimism in Europe."

Today western Europe, bolstered by the Marshall Plan, stands as the "one great failure of the Kremlin in its drive for world domination he said.

Connally, speaking to reporters described ECA's first-year task as "plowing new ground."

"There should be a tapering off," he said. "Next year we can review the program and see whether a real cut can be made."

The committee will pass on an authorization which will go to the Senate for approval. ECA will submit its budget to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees later.

Connally said he expects to close the ECA hearings next week.

Churchill Plans Private Visit To U.S. Cities

London, Feb. 12 (AP)—Winston Churchill announced today he will sail on the Queen Elizabeth March 13 for a visit to the United States.

He will address a meeting at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology March 31 on "the twentieth century, its promise and realization."

He also plans to visit Washington, said the announcement. "I issued through the conservative party, but 'Mr. Churchill's visit is otherwise of a private character and he is not making other formal engagements."

Churchill's host during his stay in America will be Bernard M. Baruch.

Unveil Lincoln Statue In Dixie

Harragate, Tenn., Feb. 12 (AP)—The first statue of Abraham Lincoln to be erected on the soil of a former Confederate state was unveiled here yesterday, almost 84 years after the end of the Civil war.

The statue, Lincoln the Lawyer, in bronze was given by sculptor C. S. Paolo to the Lincoln Memorial University. It was unveiled by Miss Margaret Patterson of Greenville, Tenn. great granddaughter of President Andrew Johnson who succeeded Lincoln upon his assassination.

Hungary Is Condemned

Britain And U. S. Join In Denouncing Concerted Assault On Churches; Reasons For Red Actions; Part Of Long-Range Plan; A Dangerous Aspect Of Attack

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

The British Foreign office yesterday charged that the Communist governments of Eastern Europe have launched a concerted assault on churches in order to wipe out ideological opposition.

This sweeping assertion was made in connection with the indictment of 15 leaders of the United Evangelical church in Bulgaria on charges of spying. Simultaneously U. S. Secretary of State Acheson also denounced the action by the Communist Bulgarian gov. as both American and British today condemned the Hungarian government's trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty on charges of treason. Secretary Acheson linked this trial with the earlier Hungarian "persecution" of Lutheran Bishop Lajos Ordass and declared:

"The Soviet-controlled Hungarian authorities seek to discredit and coerce religious leadership in Hungary in order to remove this source of moral resistance to Communism."

Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury and primate of the church of England, commenting on the cases of Cardinal Mindszenty and

Omit Labor Bill's Injunction Clause

Two Republican Senators Preparing New Labor Bill; Delete Controversial Portion Of Taft-Hartley Act

Washington, Feb. 12 (AP)—Two Republican Senators said today they probably will offer a new labor bill with no provision for injunctions against "National emergency" strikes.

Senators Morse (R-Ore) and Ives (R-NY) said they are hopeful that Senator Taft (R-Ohio) will go along with them on the measure.

While the bill Morse and Ives are working on would junk the Taft-Hartley law section which lets the government get 80-day injunctions to halt critical strikes, it would preserve several other provisions.

Morse is a member of the Senate Labor committee which is studying the Administration's labor bill. Ives a former member, is generally regarded as a labor relations expert.

The Administration bill would repeal the Taft-Hartley law and restore the old Wagner act with some changes. Like the measure Morse and Ives are drafting it does not provide for court orders to stop strikes which endanger national health or safety.

But the similarity ends there mainly because the Morse-Ives document contains some of the ideas that went into the Taft-Hartley law.

The new bill is based chiefly on one which the Senate Labor Committee approved 11 to 2 in 1947. Additional restrictions on unions later were written into that measure over the opposition of Morse and Ives, and in some cases Taft eventually became the Taft-Hartley law.

However, the 80-day injunction provision was in the 1947 committee bill and all three senators voted for it in committee.

Morse says it was a compromise on his part which he now regrets. Ives says he is willing to abandon the injunction because (1) "it hasn't solved the problem," and (2) it has "caused all kinds of trouble as a result of the automatic and bitter opposition of labor."

The Morse-Ives alternative for handling national emergency cases is being patterned after the railway labor act. In that respect it is similar to the administration bill which provides for a 30-day cooling off period while a President-appointed emergency board investigates and tries to settle disputes.

The Taft-Hartley law also provides for such boards, but they are not permitted to make settlement recommendations. Under both the Morse-Ives plan and the administration bill, the boards could make recommendations.

Korean Dynamite Plot Uncovered

Site Of Welcome For UN Commission Was Red Target

Seoul, Feb. 12 (AP)—A plot to dynamite Seoul Stadium was discovered by Korean police today shortly before the United Nations commission on Korea appeared there at a welcoming rally.

Police Chief Kim Tai said it suspects were arrested. He said they confessed it was a plot by the communist South Korea Labor party to blow up the grandstand.

The stadium was searched, but no explosives found. The commission appeared at the stadium later without untoward incident.

The commission announced its intention of "establishing active contact" with communist-controlled North Korea.

The commission's expression of hopes to unify this divided nation came at its first public meeting at Duk Goo Palace. Later the representatives of six nations went to the stadium where Prime Minister Lee Bum Suk read President Syngman Rhee's welcoming address.

The 74-year-old president was unable to attend because of ill health. However, his secretary said Rhee's condition was not regarded as serious.

More than 40,000 Koreans turned out for the welcome.

Valentine Mail Will Cost More

Charlotte, N.C., Feb. 12 (AP)—It will cost at least two cents this year to express your undying love through the mails.

Charlotte Postmaster George Wilson reminded the romantic today that Valentine's Day cards can be sent under nothing less than a two-cent stamp. That's a boost of half a cent over last year.

SCHOOL GYM BURNS

Tabor City, N. C., Feb. 12 (AP)—Tabor City high school's gymnasium was destroyed by fire early today. Defective wiring was blamed by the city fire department.

"There is no settlement in sight," said Michael Quill, international president of the CIO-Transport Workers Union. He hinted that the tie-up might be long—a month, maybe.

Local Union President Andrew J. Kaelin was a bit more optimistic. "We hope the new mediation will help us end the strike quickly," Kaelin said.

William J. MacReynolds, vice president of the Philadelphia Transport Company, said the federal mediator "merely explored" the situation. He reported both sides stood pat — at last night's conference — there was no discussion of terms.

The dispute is over wages and working conditions. The union demands a fourth round wage boost of 20 cents an hour. The PTC offered three cents. Workers' pay ranges from $1.09 to $1.63 an hour.

Meantime, thousands of men and women in the nation's third largest city are discovering how to walk—long and far.

Automobiles and trucks, bumper to bumper, clog Philadelphia's icy streets during rush peaks to and from work. Suburban railway trains are jammed. Many persons hitchhike.

PTC normally transports 3,200,000 passengers daily over its 1,500 miles of subway, bus and street car lines.

John Murray of the U.S. Conciliation Services stepped in as mediator last night.

Pope Denounces Red 'Conspiracy' Against Religion

Vatican Announces Excommunications With Sharp Warning As To Future

Vatican City, Feb. 12 (AP)—Pope Pius XII declared today that an evil "conspiracy has been formed against the Lord" in certain countries.

The Vatican swiftly followed the apostolic exhortation, which called for special Masses on April 3, with announcement of major excommunication against "all those who dared raise their hands against the person of (Josef) Cardinal Mindszenty" of Hungary, brought him to trial or participated in his "infamous sentence."

Cardinal Mindszenty was sentenced to life imprisonment by a people's court in Communist-governed Hungary Tuesday on charges of treason, espionage and black market dealings in dollars.

A sharp warning to Hungary and other Communist states threatened excommunication against "all those who in the future should become involved in the same crimes."

Excommunications "latee sentence," or wide sentence, were pronounced against all persons involved in any way in the arrest, on Dec. 26, and threatened against those involved in the trial.

The Pope's historic exhortation called for special Masses throughout the world on Passion Sunday, April 3, "to expiate the crime of the enemies of God."

The Pontiff did not name "those countries where a conspiracy has been formed against the Lord and against his Christ" but left no doubt he referred to Russia and her Communist allies.

Yugoslavia Left 'Out In The Cold'

London, Feb. 12 (AP)—Russia told Yugoslavia today she is out in the cold in the Communist-model Marshall Plan until she changes her hostile attitude.

The Soviet position was stated in a note broadcast by the official news agency Tass in reply to a Yugoslav protest at being left out of the Economic Council of Mutual Aid (ECMA).

This latest rebuff to Marshall Tito was broadcast as two other developments were reported which might concern Yugoslavia.

A Warsaw dispatch said the Cominform (Communist Information Bureau) was believed to be meeting in Czechoslovakia.

A Yugoslav move before the Big Four deputy foreign ministers here was believed to indicate she was getting ready to seek a compromise on a settlement of her claims against Austria.

Russia and Yugoslavia have been at odds since last June when Marshal Tito's Communist party was thrown out of the nine-nation Cominform on the grounds that he was too nationalistic and not a true Marxist.

The feud was intensified when Russia, and some of her East European satellites, orally cut down on Yugoslav trade.

Chiang's Friend Is Found Dead

Canton, China, Feb. 12 (AP)—T'ai Chun-Hsien, a political intimate of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and veteran Kuomintang party leader, was found dead in bed today.

The official Chinese Central news agent said Tai died of an overdose of sleeping tablets. The agency said he "was dependent over political developments in China."

He was on the Chinese Communist list of "war criminals."

Babson Discusses Television

Babson Park, Fla., Feb. 11. It is estimated that some 850,000 television sets were sold during 1948 and that double this number will be sold during 1949.

Considering the fact that 15,150,000 other radio sets were sold in 1948, this does not seem a serious matter. However, the radio sets sold in 1948 are considerably less than those sold in previous years.

Radio manufacturers are much disturbed as to the outlook for 1949, believing that 2,000,000 television sets will come on the market this year.

What About Television Stocks? Are they a good investment at this time? They may be, I do not know. Remember, however, that most of the stable television manufacturers are also radio manufacturers.

Therefore, although this growth of television may seem spectacular, yet it may only succeed in taking up the slack which these companies have lost from radio sales. In view, therefore, of the large profits which some holders of these stocks must have, it may be wise to sell half of them.

Television may break up Hollywood's monopoly of the amusement industry. Highly paid stars will not be necessary for television exhibits. Hence, the income from the business will be spread over a much larger number of people. Most radio programs will need very little rehearsing and no expensive scenery.

How Will TV Affect Movies? Television will not put movies out of business. Here is my reason: For many years I have been very much interested in public forums; that is, groups that meet in cities Sunday nights with one or more speakers who discuss public problems. I once feared that when people could sit at home and hear even more important speakers discuss these same problems by radio, they would not come to our forum meetings today in greater numbers than ever.

People like an excuse to get out, away from home and a change of scenery. Movie theaters are cool in summer, warm in winter, and have comfortable seats. We instinctively like to be with groups of people. Movie receipts may fall off, yet I doubt if the industry will be seriously handicapped.

Books And Magazines From the first I forecasted that radio would not interfere with the U.S. To Rely On Cold Facts To Bring Norway Into Group

Washington, Feb. 12 (AP)—The United States placed its trust today in "cold facts" to coax Norway into formal partnership in the cold war against Russia.

Officials said Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange got plenty of information during the five days he spent here seeking replies to his questions about the North Atlantic Defense Alliance being negotiated by the western powers.

Late yesterday Lange started home to report to an anxiously waiting government in Oslo after receiving from Secretary of State Acheson the official American view on the best way to defend Scandinavia from possible attack.

The Norwegian official was scheduled to leave New York via Scandinavian Airlines this morning for London, where he plans additional talks with British Foreign Minister Bevin on northern Europe's defense prospects.

Once Lange returns, Norway must draft a note to Russia in answer to Moscow's unexpected bid for a non-aggression treaty.

The big question for Norway is whether the guarantees of American help are strong enough to risk antagonizing the Soviet government by joining with the western alliance.

Russia, which has a common border with Norway, has bitterly denounced the Atlantic pact as an "aggressive" move not in keeping with the United Nations. That has been taken as a clear warning to Norway not to link up with the western powers.

But officials here indicated confidence that the information Lange is relaying will be enough to convince Norwegian authorities to take this chance.

United Nations keep world peace. Trygve Lie cautioned yesterday against building up regional alliances as a substitute for the worldwide collective security offered by the U.N., but officials here said—as they have before—that the Atlantic treaty has no such aim.

They recalled that Acheson has stressed repeatedly that the purpose of the alliance is to help the United Nations keep world peace.

As he left Washington, Lange made it perfectly clear that the State Department had not tried to influence his government's decision during his stay. He denied reports to the contrary, saying "There is no linking of truth" in them.

Merchants Told Of New 'Racket'

Greenville merchants this morning were warned from Wilson to be on the lookout for a merchandise exchange "flimflammer" who had worked the Wilson stores this morning and received a large amount of money in refunds for merchandise he had never purchased.

A check locally revealed that at least one Greenville store was the victim of the same racket yesterday by a man bearing the same description. The report from Wilson was to the effect that after playing his "skin game" on the merchants today he quickly left for parts unknown.

The man sought was described as being a little over five feet tall, having a black mustache and a northern accent. He was wearing a light tan overcoat.

According to reports from Wilson and locally, the man would enter the store already carrying a shopping bag. He was a good talker and after engaging in conversation with the clerk would ask for some article that would necessitate the clerk going to some other part of the store. He would then pick up some nearby valuable article and conceal it among his other packages.

The clerk returned with the requested article he had decided that after all it was not what he wanted. Then he would produce the article of merchandise just stolen from the merchant and state that his wife had recently purchased it from this store but found she did not need it and he would like a refund. In most cases the refund was gladly given and he would depart for another store to work the same racket.

Other local merchants who are in the habit of making refunds without too much investigation may find by checking with their clerks that they too have been the victim of this racket.

Soviet Blockade Halts Red Cross Food To Berlin

Berlin, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Russians tightened their blockade today to stop the Swedish Red Cross from supplying food for western Berlin's children.

This was disclosed by Western Allied Military commandants, who announced they were providing airlift space to fly in 22 tons of Swedish soups and cereals.

The Swedes have been conducting a program of supplemental feeding here which gave all German children throughout the city between the ages of three and six years one extra meal per day. The Russians let the shipments come through from the west by rail and truck.

Over 4,000 Persons In Snow Areas 'Marooned'

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS More than 4,000 persons were marooned by heavy snows in California and Idaho today. In other parts of the storm-stricken West strong northerly winds and colder weather dealt further damaging blows.

A mass of cold Canadian air pushed southward over the northwestern part of the country and moved into northeastern Colorado Wyoming, Nebraska and the Dakotas. It headed southward and east and was expected to spread over Kansas, Minnesota and parts of Iowa and Illinois.

Temperatures dropped while winds up to 40 miles an hour and gusts of 70 mph reblocked miles of the newly snow-cleared highway and rail lines. Some snow fell in the new cold belt.

Four thousand dam workers living in trailer homes in the Feather River Canyon near Quincy, Calif., were cut off by heavy snow. They feared their homes would be washed away if warmer weather set in or rains flood the river. A snowslide halted Western Pacific rail travel between Quincy and Oroville.

The food shortage became more critical for the 500 persons in Stibnitz, Ida., a mining community which has been snowbound for more than a week.

Kept Promise

New York, Feb. 12 (AP)—Lillian Wolfe, manager and co-owner of a Brooklyn tavern, joined in a discussion of crime yesterday with two men customer. Said she: "If the place were held up, I'd hand over every cent."

Thereupon, one of the men produced a gun and demanded a cash. Miss Wolfe handed over a box containing $800, police said. The two men escaped.

Eisenhower Called Back Into Temporary Service

Geneva, Switzerland, Feb. 12 (AP)—Methodist Bishop Paul N. Garber said today the arrest of 15 Protestant clergymen in Bulgaria on treason and espionage charges was a deliberate violation of religious freedom guaranteed by the Bulgarian constitution.

In addition to the 15 who were arrested, Communist-governed Bulgaria also listed 12 American and British clergymen, educators and officials who, it said acted as "contacts" in the spying activities.

Dr. Garber, former dean of the Duke University divinity school and the resident bishop of his church for central and southern Europe, and two prominent workers in the World Council of Churches were included in the list of alleged "contacts."

The World Council issued a formal statement last night denying that its officers had engaged in spying activities in Bulgaria. The statement said council representatives had visited that country with "no other motivation than Christian love."

Today Dr. Garber said he visited Bulgaria last, in November, 1947, when he attended the annual Methodist conference in Sofia. He added: "My visit was connected entirely with religious affairs pertaining to the Methodist Church. No action on my part can be construed as relating in any way to the political situation now existing in Bulgaria."

"My visit was not made in secret, for while in Sofia upon their invitation I had conferences with the then minister of foreign affairs, Kiron Georgiev, and the minister of cults, Dimitar Iliev. Both of them assured me there would be religious freedom for all group in Bulgaria."

Athens, Greece, Feb. 12 (AP)—Nicolas Kapitsoglou, special correspondent for the newspaper Vradyni, reported today that the mutilated body of a man tentatively identified as Lt. Col. Selden R. Edner of San Jose, Calif., had been found at Karpenissi with a tight noose around his neck.

Edner, U.S. Air Force officer, has been missing since Jan. 21. He was an unarmed passenger on a Greek air force plane which made a forced landing near Karpenissi when communist guerrillas were in possession of the town.

London, Feb. 12 (AP)—Housewife Mrs. F. M. Chandler booked a telephone call to Prime Minister Stalin today, but Stalin wasn't talking.

Follows The Pattern

Only Surprise In Communist Attacks On Religion Is That It Didn't Come Sooner; The Marxist Line; Lenin's Viewpoint; They Can't Win This One

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Feb. 12 (AP)—The only surprising thing about the cracking down on religion in the Communist-run countries of Eastern Europe is that it didn't come sooner.

It follows the pattern set 32 years ago by the Russian Communists when, after their 1917 revolution, they smashed the Greek Orthodox church which was the big church in Russia then.

The reason is clear enough: the Communists want absolute power and they'll wipe out or try to subdue any organization they think may stand between them and the minds of the people.

Both Karl Marx and his most successful disciple—Lenin, who led the Russian revolution—called religion the "opiate of the people." Neither man believed in God.

Their thinking—and the thinking of the other Communists today in Russia and Eastern Europe, all following the Marx line, more or less—can be summed up this way: 1. Marxism is materialistic, not spiritual or mystical like a religious belief. Marxism is scientific. Religion is superstition. Religion is a

Royall Confident President Plans No Backing Down

Honolulu, Feb. 12 (AP)—Army Secretary Kenneth Royall said last night he was confident "our President has no intention of backing down to anybody in any way."

In an address before the reserve officers association of Hawaii the cabinet member declared that United States armed services have been rebuilt to such strength that "we now are able to stand up for American rights and to defend American principles and territory."

His speech, commemorating National security week, expanded a news conference statement made earlier regarding U. S. military strength. Royall told the officers' association:

"Wherever we are, in Japan or in any position which we hold—in the East or west—we think we are capable of taking on all comers at any time."

He said that in rebuilding military strength "we started something behind the eight ball" because of the quick demobilization following Japan's surrender.

"That hysteria for getting the boys home was in part responsible for some of our international problems since the war," Royall added.

He said the army now could report with a statistical fact its recovery from the demobilization. For the last three months, he added, an average of 18,000 men have re-enlisted in the army. He described this as the largest number of peacetime voluntary enlistments in the army of any nation.

Earlier, at a news conference, Royall said the army had decided to reduce its Hawaii garrison from 40,000 to 7,000 men in two years because "there have been more stresses in some parts of the world than in others."

This fitted in with the Tokyo accounts of growing differences between MacArthur and Washington they don't agree, it was said, on just how much attention the United States should give the western Pacific and the Orient.

However, the military officials in Washington say there is no basic conflict between MacArthur and strategic planners in the Pentagon.

Plan O'Neal Foundation For Benefit Of Family

By CHESTER WALSH

The people of Greenville are active in behalf of Mrs. William Benjamin O'Neal, whose husband, a taxi cab driver, was robbed and murdered last Saturday night between here and Greensland.

Mrs. O'Neal was set in motion to establish an organization to be known as "The O'Neal Foundation" to provide a home and present needs for the expectant mother and her mother, who lives with her.

At a meeting at the City Hall of representatives of the American Legion and other organizations yesterday, Mayor Jack Boyd was elected chairman of the following committee: Mrs. H. R. Rogers, Harry Brown, Arthur B. Corey, Larry Averette and Louis W. Gaylor Jr. Joe S. Moye, banker, was named treasurer. Chester Walsh, newspaperman, publicity chairman.

Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis, civic clubs; Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce, American Legion Auxiliary, Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club, King's Daughters, White Shrine and others were represented.

Plans now are to set up a trust for the benefit of the family. Attorneys are working out this.

Mayor Boyd announced that all donations for the benefit of the O'Neals should be made payable to Joe S. Moye, treasurer, at the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company.

He said the Junior Woman's Club was making arrangements for Mrs. O'Neal's prenatal medical care and her hospitalization and medical fees when the baby is born.

The Pitt County Post of the American Legion, with Paul A. Scott and Godfrey Oakley taking a leading part, arranged to pay the debts of the O'Neal family and they provided funds for their temporary subsistence.

O'Neal was a veteran of World War II. He was wounded in Germany, was a prisoner of war there 15 months, and carried a piece of shrapnel in his hip to his grave.

Announcement was made that some of the Negro churches of Greenville are raising funds for the destitute widow and that W. H. Davenport, principal of Eppes Negro High School, is chairman.

The purpose of the O'Neal Foundation is to provide a home for the family of the slain husband, to handle all funds donated for the benefit of the family, and to set up a trust to safeguard the home for the expectant baby until he or she reaches maturity. O'Neal and his wife were paying on a lot when he was killed. The American Legion paid the balance due on it. The American Legion Auxiliary donated $200 to the fund. The Elks Lodge donated $50, and J. T. Jarman and Rufus Kinlaw of Rocky Mount donated $10. Legion Service Officer Arthur B. Corey is trying to obtain a veterans' pension for the widow and child.

The Clark Construction Company offered to lay the foundation for the house free. The Hub Electric Company agreed to provide electric installations. C. B. West Jr. offered to draw the plans for the house. W. G. (Blue) Dunn offered to supervise construction of the house without charge.

The Junior Woman's Club announced that it was making arrangements for prenatal care of Mrs. O'Neal and her hospital and medical expenses when her baby is born under the Watson Memorial Fund.

Mayor Boyd said there will not be a campaign for funds. All donations are expected to be voluntary.

Legionnaires Paul A. Scott and Godfrey Oakley who visited Mrs. O'Neal and her mother after her husband's death, paid her and her late husband and his mother a fine compliment for their upstanding character and integrity.

Mayor Jack Boyd reported today that about 20 white and Negro taxi drivers had contributed to the O'Neal fund.

Seek Tightening Of Divided China

Nanking, Feb. 11.—(AP)—A move toward strengthening the loose ties between the Nanking and Canton sections of the National government was announced today by a cabinet official.

Nee Chün-Cheng, Deputy secretary General of the executive Yuan (cabinet) said a vice minister from each ministry and a vice chairman of each National commission will arrive shortly in Nanking.

Acting President Li Tsung-Jen is striving with little visible success for peace with the Communists and has said he will remain in Nanking.

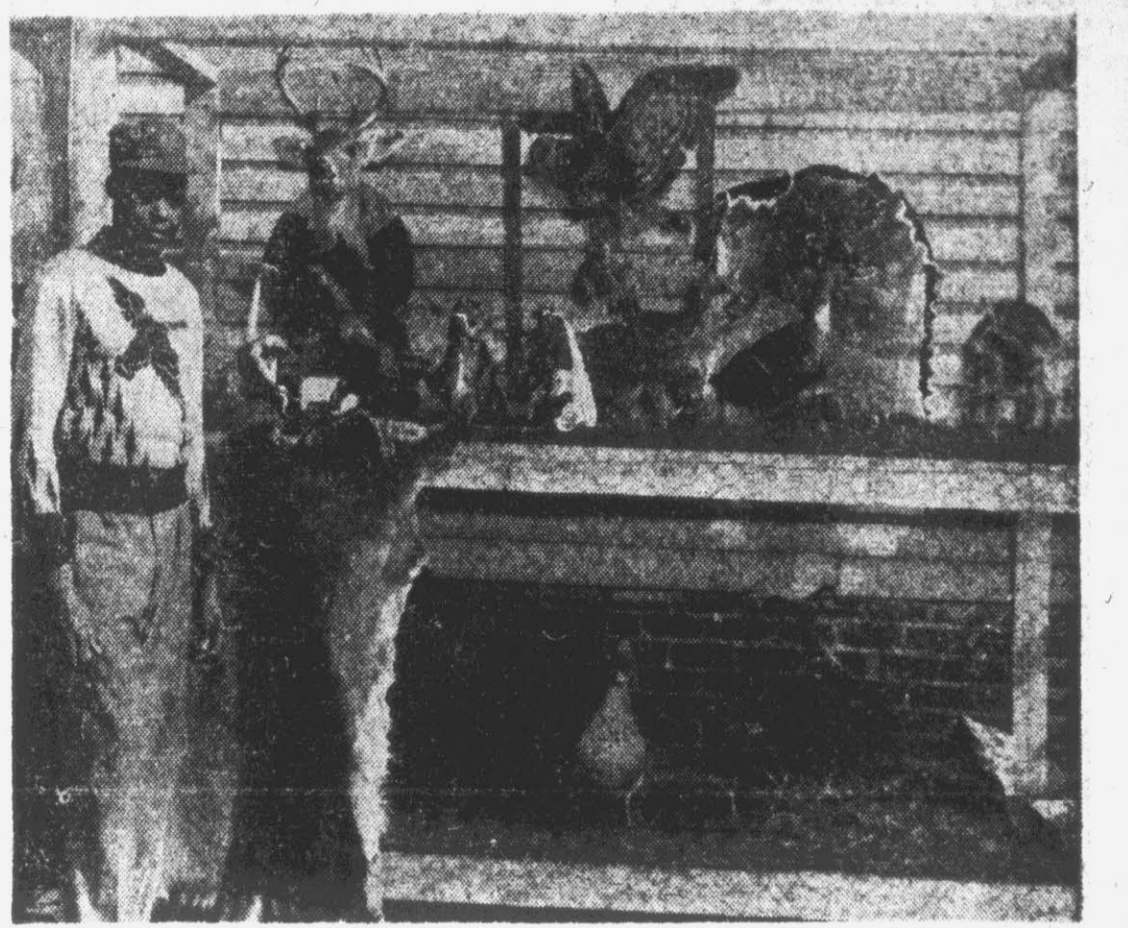

Nee said that while the executive Yuan's joint offer will function as liaison with the acting president "all important decisions will be made by the executive Yuan in Canton."

Canton government leaders have expected unwillingness to make peace on the Red terms. Li has said the Communist terms would be accepted as a basis for negotiations.

Meanwhile, the Reds are tightening control of foreign activities in their war-worn areas. In some cases these restrictions are as severe as those imposed by Soviet Russia.

Early reports from foreigners in Red territory north of the Yangtze of official behavior "more than correct" have been followed swiftly by evidence of new restrictions.

Interest In Taxidermy Has Grown Into Real Hobby For This Greenville Youth

Curfield Peterson and some of his prized work in taxidermy are shown above. Peterson's hobby, started by a correspondence course, has paid off in both providing a pleasant past time and part-time employment. His collection, already imposing, has been acquired in less than a year when he first took an interest in the work.

Curfield Peterson, 24 year old Greenville Negro, has found that mounting sportsmen's trophies from bull frogs to deer heads, is not only a pleasing pastime, but brings in welcomed cash some weeks when the cash register in his grocery store does not ring as much as he would like.

In a large wire cage beside the Curfield Peterson grocery store on West Fourteenth street, there appeared on sunny days a large and varied assortment of mounted trophies, from the reclining frog which apparently is enjoying some evening reading to the squirrel wedding with bride, groom, and preacher properly attired for the occasion. All the animals are from the collection Peterson has acquired in the nine months he has been dabbling in the art of taxidermy.

"It all started last May when I wrote for one of those correspondence courses in taxidermy," Peterson commented with a grin. "I think I've passed enough tests to graduate, but I never have sent in for my diploma."

Since last May Peterson has become one of the few skilled taxidermists in Pitt county, and already has mounted between 40 and 50 pieces. "I think this big deer skin rug is about the best job I've done so far," he said as he pointed to the hide of a large buck which would do justice to any hunter's den. "Herbert Mills of Greenville rode three killed the deer and I mounted the hide and made a rug out of the hide. A head mounted right will stay like it is for 15 or 20 years, and some of the schools; and reports from Czechoslovakia say a new campaign is shaping up there against Catholic churches."

If all this is followed by a fiercer and more complete crackdown on religion in those countries, will it mean the Communists are trying to wipe out religion entirely there?

"They'd like to. But they are not likely to succeed. If Russia is an example for many people now living there have been raised in religion, and if they can't go to church or send their children to religious schools, they'll give them religious beliefs in the secrecy of their homes."

Helen's Home Dem. Club met at the home of Mrs. Lucy Strong. The meeting was called to order by the president. Opening song was "Onward Christian Soldiers," led by Mrs. Maggie Strong, after which the Collect of Club Women of America was read in concert. At this time the secretary wasn't present, so we decided to collect dues next—totaling 65c. Then came the report of different project leaders; several dresses had been remodeled, some had made skirts, dresser spreads and aprons, bed clothing and others had put in zippers and was commended very highly by our home agent.

The secretary arrived, the president called for the minutes of the last meeting. The minutes were read and approved with the necessary correction. Next order of business was the election of officers. We elected for president Mrs. Martha Ormond, vice president Mrs. Nettie Tyson, secretary Mrs. Studie M. White, and assistant secretary Mrs. Ida Ellis. We decided to get out the different project leaders at the next meeting. Mrs. Caphart gave a lesson on "Organization" showing and explaining just how the club work of Pitt County has grown and has branched out into bigger and better organizations. She also stated that there will be a special meeting for those who are interested in making slip covers and gave us bulletins on the "Questions Children Ask" and left us some very interesting books to read.

Each of us decided what month we would like the meeting at our house. In February we are to meet at the home of Mrs. Lula Daniels on Friday the 18th, March 18th at the home of Mrs. Ida Ellis, April 15, Mrs. Nettie Tyson, May 20th Mrs. Maggie Strong, June 17th, Mrs. Martha Ormond, Sept. 16th, Mrs. Studie M. White, Oct. 21st, Mrs. Willie A. Brown, and December 16th, Mrs. Helen Corey.

After that we were served with cake and jello garnished with dried apples and topped with whipped cream. We were dismissed by reading the club prayer in our club book.

Law Officers Praised At Meeting Of Association

Law enforcement officers from throughout Pitt County together with highway patrolmen, last night held themselves praised as guarantors of the peace and heroes willing to risk their lives in the front line of the defense of the safety and welfare of the people of the county.

The also heard Representative S. O. Worthington express deep appreciation to the wisdom of plugging the state into an additional $250,000,000 into the state treasury in the face of an unending deficit. They also heard an appeal from Mayor J. H. Boyd to the Pitt County legislators for a law that would require all magistrate courts in the county to place $100 additional costs on all convicted defendants to be turned over to the official protective association. The resolution of the talks was a special meeting of the Pitt County Protective Association in the preparation of a petition to the legislative department. The meeting was presided over by Sheriff R. A. Tyson, president of the association.

Commissioner Lester Jones of the State Highway Patrol secretary of the association gave a financial report and explained that the association had paid up to $200 a year for the expenses of its members and a death benefit of $750.00. He stated that recently the income of the association from the courts had decreased with the result that benefits must be lowered unless there is an increase in income. Following his report Mayor Boyd pointed out that in addition to membership in the association, the courts of the county should be required to contribute to the Peace Courts fund and the extra dollar in costs be turned over to the association. He then made his plea to the legislators to see that a law is enacted placing the Justice of the Peace courts on the same basis of other courts of the county with regard to contributions to the officers fund.

Representative Worthington and Senator M. Kilpatrick and Senator Paul E. Jones, each promised their support to such a legislative measure. Each of the legislators paid high tribute to the services being rendered by the community by the officers. District Solicitor W. M. Jones, J. W. Roberts and County Solicitor Charles Whedbee also gave wholehearted approval of the enactment of such legislation.

Other speakers who praised the efficient and cooperative work of the officers and urged support of greater benefit funds included: Chief L. T. Lucas of Farmville; E. Z. B. Cox, Farmville; Curran W. Faragan, representing Mayor J. W. Joyner of Farmville; Mayor J. W. Rook, Bethel; Mayor J. L. Beck, Fountain; C. V. Cannon, boss of Ayden Recorders Court; Frank M. Wooten, solicitor of the Ayden court; Mayor Burney Tucker of Winterville; Coroner Griffin Ross and D. J. Whitchard.

Emphasizing that Greenville is pioneering at all times to procure the highest type men for its law enforcement department, Mayor Boyd introduced William Byrd, former resident of Michigan and graduate of Michigan State University. Police Chief Lester Page said he hoped the day was not far distant when there would be schools for the training of municipal law enforcement officers the same as is now conducted for highway patrolmen. He stated that new men recruited with and under direction of seasoned officers but he stated that such a process of training is being started at the Greenville Police department are in reality headquarters for law enforcement officers throughout the county and he invited all such officers to use his rooms as their own when they have occasion to visit Greenville.

Wheeler show that during the year 176 arrests were made. A breakdown of the report reveals that ten were for participating in affairs; seven larceny cases; fifty-nine cases of public drunkenness; ten cases of disorderly conduct; ten cases of drinking in public; driving while drunk, eleven cases, driving a car in careless and reckless manner, six cases; driving without brakes, 10 cases; assault with deadly weapon, eleven cases; using indecent language on the streets, eight cases; speeding and running through red lights, fourteen cases; traffic violations, seven cases.

The police report also indicated that fourteen doors of business places were found unlocked by patrolmen, and that fifteen requests for investigation were received and acted upon.

Speech Contest Enters Second Day Of Judging

Greenville High School's speech tournament featured three rounds of speaking and three debates last night; the speaking was from 7:00 o'clock to 8:30 and the debating from 8:30 to 9:30. Thirty-six students participated representing Princeton, W. Va., Asheville, Ayden, Kingston and Greenville. The largest out-of-town delegation was the group of nine students who represent the Asheville NFL chapter.

Twelve speakers received a straight "A" rating for the three rounds of speech competition. Asheville, Richard Hanner, James Greene, Tom Sanders, Mary Banks, Timmons, and Andrew Harper, Ayden, Jo Anne Badley, Princeton, John McLaugherty; Greenville, Augusta Overton, Peggy Joyce Barrow, Mitchell Saeed, Bettie Anne Young and Frederick Brooks.

Princeton, W. Va., won two debates and Asheville won the third debate. The debate query used is the same one that will be used by the North Carolina High School Debate Union for the state triangular debates. "Resolved that the United Nations be revised now into a world federal government."

The Lions-sponsored elimination contest started this morning (Saturday) at 10 o'clock in the Greenville High School classroom, with contestants from twelve schools speaking in nine rooms. There are three divisions in the speech tournament with $1,000 in prizes being awarded by the Greenville Lions in each division.

First place winners in former contests include: Lois Anne Kilpatrick of Ayden, Betty Mobley of Greenville, Margaret Manning of Bethel, Wiley Mitchell and Douglas Wynne of Yontville.

Scott Willing To Talk Liquor Vote

Charlotte, Feb. 12.—(AP)—The North Carolina General Assembly can have a special message from the governor on the liquor referendum for the asking.

Governor W. Kerr Scott said here yesterday he wasn't relaxing his stand in favor of the referendum one bit. And, he added in an interview here, he will deliver a special message to the General Assembly if "I am invited."

He repeated, with emphasis, "If I am invited."

The Governor termed erroneous any interpretation of his Thursday message to the legislature as implying that he is cooling off on the referendum proposal, which he urged in both his campaign and inaugural address.

Some members of the legislature were reported to have gathered the idea that the Governor's Thursday message—in which he raised the possibility of increased liquor taxes—killed the referendum proposal.

Scott said he merely cited increased liquor taxes among the research department's suggested sources of additional revenue.

Pactolus Ruritan Meeting On Monday Will Be Important

The Pactolus Ruritan Club has invited members of the Pitt County Board of Commissioners, members of the Washington and Greenville fire departments and a Ruritan representative from the Chocomaity community to attend its supper meeting at the Pactolus Community building Monday night at 7 o'clock. Sherwood Brockwell of Raleigh, state fire marshal, has been invited to attend.

Ruritan from the Alliance club of Pamlico county and the Stoke club are expected to attend.

Kiwanis Club's Supper Meeting Well Attended

By CHESTER WALSH

The Greenville Kiwanis Club had the best attendance of the year at its supper meeting last night. Reynolds May of Garris-Evans Lumber Company, had charge of the program, and showed a motion picture in colors, entitled "White Magic." It told the story of mining gypsum, one of the most valuable rocks in the world; showed the methods of refining and processing, emphasized its value as a fire resistant material and its effectiveness in insulating buildings. The program chairman had as guests of the club Bill Anderson of Wilson and Marion Dickey of Charleston, S.C., manufacturers' representatives. President Arthur Tripp presided.

Col. Owen Marshburn reported on the activity of the "O'Neal Foundation," an organization set up by various agencies here for the relief of Mrs. William Benjamin O'Neal, whose husband, a taxi driver, was murdered near here last Saturday night.

Col. William D. Brown, formerly of Spartanburg, S.C., and now head of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit at ETCO, was inducted into membership and welcomed. Little at the college is professor of military science. There are 75 members of the local unit.

The meeting was one of the best of the year. Attention was called to the "Veterans' Pollies," produced by Kiwanian Ed Bloom and Marie Smith Wallace, to be shown at the college next Wednesday and Thursday nights. Carl Turner, Jr., Junior Kiwanian for the month, was a special guest.

Apprentice jockey sensation Clarence Brown rode more than 250 winners in his first year on the tracks.

Racing Plane Is Spare Time Job For Builder

Lock Haven, Pa.—A sleek all-metal racing monoplane, so tiny that you can taxi it between parking meters along the average city street, or store it in the family garage, is the brainchild of David A. Long, 34-year-old chief designer at the Piper-Stinson Aircraft factory here.

The plane, which cost $1000 in parts money in Long's pocket at the All-American air races in Miami, was built by Long and a group of Williamsport technical school students working at nights in their spare time.

Powered with a 90-horsepower engine, the sleek "Midget Mustang," as Long calls the plane, can cruise at 170 miles an hour and can top 200 miles an hour when the throttle is pushed against the forewall.

Long, a veteran of the army transport command, squeezed his lanky frame into the tiny cockpit when he and the students gave the four cylinder, in-line engine its last test. He pushed ahead the throttle and took off, so confident that the drawings were O. K. that he passed up the usual ground tests. Long flew the ship to Miami, covered the plane money, then returned home by train. An admiring pilot had bought the plane out from under him.

The plane, with its v-type landing gear, manually-operated flaps and low landing speed now will be built commercially for sportsmen pilots and businessmen who want a fast, single-place plane for business and pleasure. It will sell in the less-than $5,000 class.

Big School Bond Issue Is Sought

Charlotte, N. C., Feb. 12.—(AP)—A $5,000,000 bond issue will be sought to finance school construction in Mecklenburg county.

City and county school commissioners last night agreed to ask for the additional bonds, of which 4,000,000 worth would be used for new school construction and additions to existing structures. The rest of the money would be used for rural school improvements.

Strength FOR THE DAY

FACTORS IN LINCOLN'S LIFE
Three factors stood out in Abraham Lincoln's life and contributed to his greatness.

The first was his moral character. Lincoln believed that he lived in a universe controlled by moral law. To him it was stupid and hideous that men should attempt to break that moral law. He recognized that he, the nation of which he was a part and all the individuals in the world were under the control of moral forces which they could defy only at their peril.

The second factor in his make-up was his sound common sense. Lincoln acted as if he believed that the principles and policies which worked in the management of a grocery store at New Salem, the Post Office over which he had presided and the little farm his father owned, could be made to work in a nation in the handling of a nation.

The third outstanding factor of his life was his unusual spiritual insight. He could see straight into the hearts of men. He had a childlike dependence upon God. Every situation, no matter how secular it might appear, was to him a spiritual situation.

A PROJECT AND THE PROGRAM

The Greenville business district is liberally dotted with "good signs" which The Reflector cannot help but believe portends progress for the community. These "good signs" are no mere superstitious omens, but real as life, as they read—"This firm has donated its assigned quota to the ECTC Stadium fund."

While the goal for this project is nearly achieved, the current campaign should not be considered an end in itself, of the program now under way in cooperating with and encouraging the growth of the institution.

East Carolina Teachers College is of inestimable value to the City of Greenville as well as to the county and state. But it is our own community which reaps the richest reward of its presence in Greenville; and for that reason we are deeply concerned with the progress and future of the college.

Every businessman likes to invest in a "sure thing," and the extent of the returns which the development of ECTC is certain to make, hinges on the extent of our "investment."

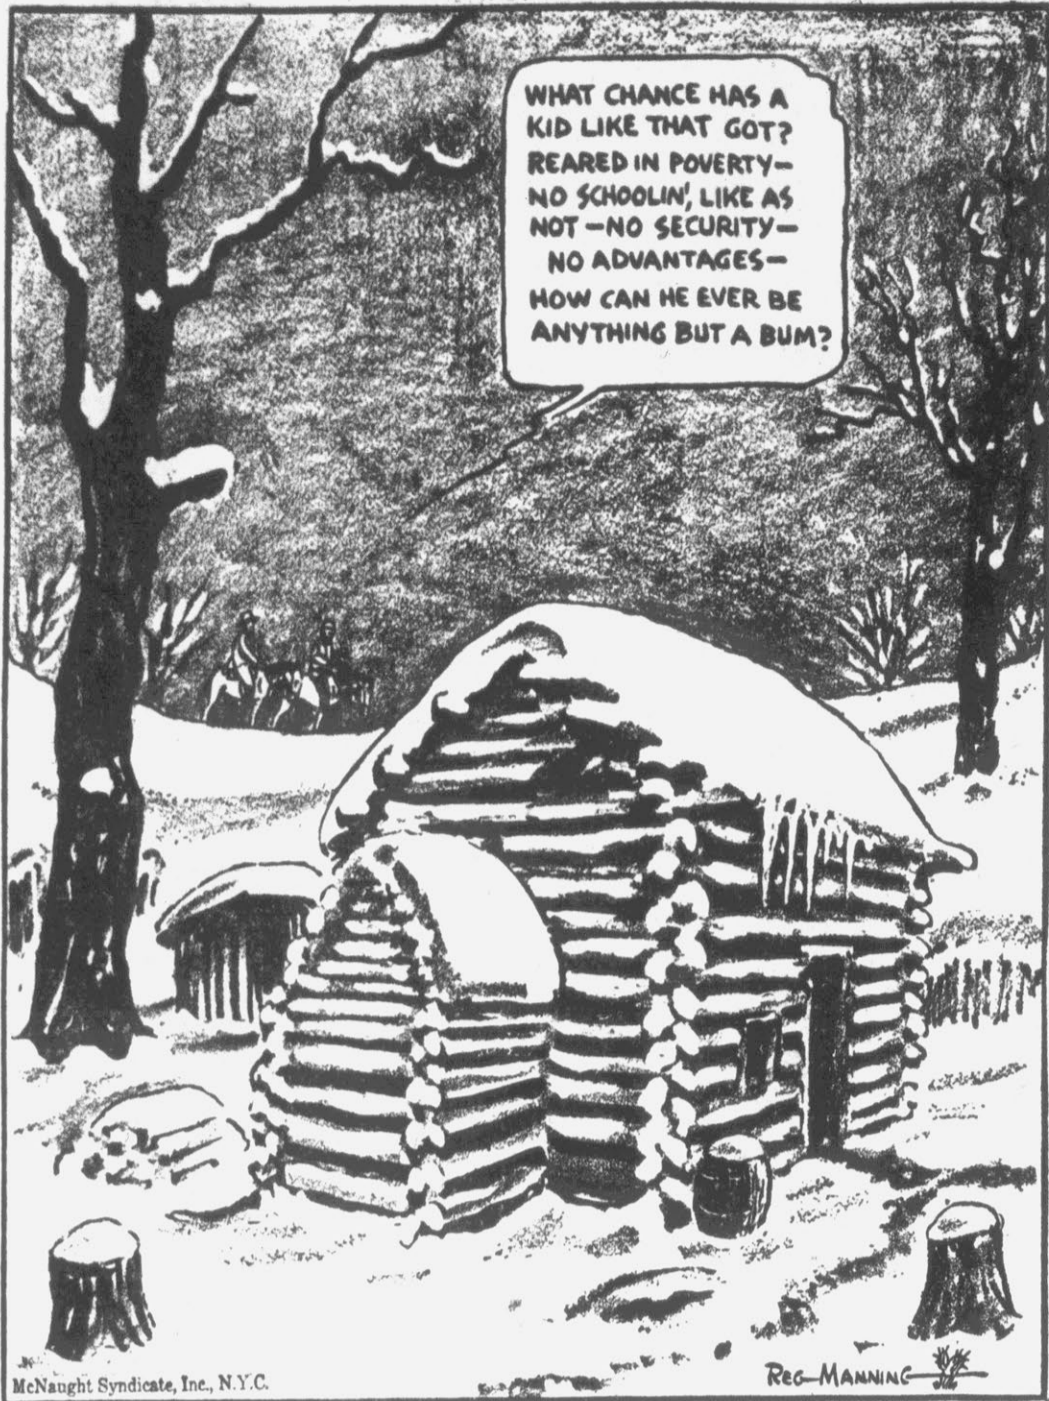

The stadium project was a big undertaking and has met with good cooperation. Still, it must be emphasized that as a project it should be regarded as only one phase of continued and constant support for our principal cultural center.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—Nobody loves a fat man, but America's number one "pitch lady"—Kate Smith—is still proving a plump girl can get along in the world without counting her calories.

For 18 years come next May 1st—her fortieth birthday—the moon has been coming over the mountain for big-hearted Katie.

It has been a full, round, golden moon—both for Katie and the radio. In her 18 years at the top she is estimated to have grossed $15,000,000—a mark equalled by few entertainers.

She and her longtime partner-manager, Ted Collins, the well-known philanthropist of professional football, are reported to share $10,000 to $12,000 a week even now. But a big income alone doesn't explain a big girl like Kate. She's grown with the times.

Eighteen years ago she was merely a fresh new mellow contralto voice over the air waves. Today she is also a fairly straight contralto opinion.

For Katie doesn't just pitch tunes anymore. She now pitches homespun philosophy. She pitches for causes, too—the Red Cross, the Army nursing corps, better treatment of veterans. She also pitches against things—like the 20 percent luxury tax on baby powder, heart disease and racial intolerance.

Kate likes her role as a kind of poor woman's Dorothy Thompson. She enjoys her talking program as much as she does singing. It excites her.

"I consider my work fun," she said, thumping the desk of her manager with a vigorous fist. "I love it. There's something new about it every day. If I had nothing but idle time on my hands I'd be a miserable woman."

There is little likelihood of her ever being idle. She writes two magazine columns on cooking and makes an average of 60 phonograph records a year.

She lives in a two-terrace apartment on lower Park avenue with her elderly Cocker Spaniel, Freckles. She has a maid and a cook, but—"I can cook circles around her," said Kate. "I love it."

Being a diplomat, however, she doesn't take over in the kitchen except on Sundays—the cook's day off.

Kate differs from her fellow entertainers in that she doesn't associate much with members of her own profession. "Some call me high hat for that," she said frankly. "But I found long ago, when I first got started, that some were trying to use me as a pimp. So I decided it was wiser to pick my friends outside my own field."

Like any fat girl who was kidded in her youth for being over-weight, Kate is still sensitive. But today she realizes fully that her stoutness is a capital asset. And the hurt helped her portray her life's role—the congenial warm-hearted, big sister of everybody in distress. She likes the role and lives it.

"I enjoy going to hospitals and talking to the patients," she said. Charities stand in line to get her to make radio appeal for funds, because her listeners respond with checks by the thousands.

Most people, successful or unsuccessful, are afraid of something. Kate feels she honestly isn't. "I'm not the kind of person who can go through life worrings," she laughed. "I just can't worry about myself."

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—While the Democrats have taken over Congress, a Republican regime will prevail for members' wives this year in their own ballroom—the Congressional Women's Club.

Founded in 1908 by wives of members of the 60th Congress, the Club alternates each year in selecting its president. Thus, when Mrs. Clifford Davis, wife of the Democratic Congressman from Tennessee steps down from office later this month, a Republican will be named.

Last year when Republicans took the Capitol, Mrs. Davis boasted that she and President Truman were two Democrats, at least, who had passed keys to important strongholds—the Congressional Club and the White House. Rated second only to the White House in social and cultural Washington, the club has a membership of more than 400 wives of current and past members of Congress. Invitations are now to the new members' wives.

The club's activities begin this year with a reception for the 106 new members of Congress and their wives members of the Supreme Court, and the Cabinet. The Club's 435 members and their husbands will do the honors. This year it will be the new members who will stand in line, wearing red carnations in their buttonholes, and wait for the older members of Congress to come up and say "howdy." In the old days it used to be the other way around.

Mrs. Davis says new Congressmen's wives are going to find the going a lot simpler than in the old days. When a new member of Congress came to Washington, then, his wife had to call on everybody. First, the White House, then the wives of Supreme Court Justices, Cabinet wives, the wives of members of her husband's own Congressional Committee and his state delegation. In addition she had to call on wives of every other member of Congress.

"It used to be nothing for a wife to make 50 and 60 calls in an afternoon," Mrs. Davis explained. "Now that nonsense has gone by the board. A wife can get by just calling on the White House, Supreme Court and Cabinet wives, wives of her husband's committee and delegation."

President and Mrs. Taft attended the club's housewarming at its original K street headquarters. President and Mrs. Wilson were on hand when the present clubhouse was opened on 16th street and New Hampshire Ave., in 1914. Every year since a reception has been held for the President of the United States. One will be given for President and Mrs. Truman Feb. 9. Mrs. Truman was a former active member.

money. Both President Truman and Governor Scott have proposed sources for increased revenue, but neither Congress nor the North Carolina General Assembly have gone overboard in rallying to the standards of higher taxation and more bond issues.

There are a number of economic observers who are convinced that more taxation will kill "the goose that lays the golden egg," particularly in view of the currently cloudy future of the American economy. Much of the fear of inflation is fading; people don't have as much spending money as they did a year ago. Business trends point toward a possible recession of one degree or another, and the exchanges and stock markets have been displaying marked unsteadiness.

And while the "experts" are urging against installment buying on the home-front, at the same time ambitious government figures are calling for bond issues to raise needed money... in effect, putting state and national governments on an installment-buying basis.

So far as North Carolina's education needs are concerned, there is evidence in every town, city and county that more money is needed to raise the standards to a better level. There is no argument about that. But what will be debated, both in the assembly halls and over the supper tables in Tar Heel homes, is whether we should jump feet first into some very deep waters.

Progress is needed, but there are limits to the extent of economic safety in taxation and the mortgaging of our future with bond issues which we do not know we can afford.

Under the circumstances, which is preferable? To spend within our known abilities; or to gamble that the economic tides will continue to run in a favorable direction.

To the Editor:
Many people who go to Greenville to shop will agree with your recent editorial about parking meters. Many of us farm people who come into town to shop find the meters an inconvenience rather than a help. If we have a great many things to attend to, it keeps us busy having to keep an eye on our car to keep a ticket from landing on the windshield.

Whoever sold the meters was evidently a good salesman or else he never would have sold them for the entire business section. As a result, many people who are going to Greenville are going to other places to shop. This is also true for many of us who used to go to the moving picture show on Sunday. For a number of years we could ride over with our family and see a picture. After the show hours were changed by your city officials we had to be greatly inconvenienced in trying to get there at the hour they set for the show to be opened or else not go at all.

Lately, however, we have found it more convenient a few miles farther to Goldsboro, or some other town to see a movie. No doubt, other people are doing the same thing.

Yours truly,

CONTRAST—The 1949 general assembly comes to the end of its fifth week with not much of importance accomplished, and with no clearly defined factional lines or manifestations of leadership. At this time, which normally would be marked about the halfway point, there is little evidence of progress beyond the stage of the second week. The mass meeting incident to the committee hearing on the road bond issue and Governor Scott's special message on schools contributed a lot toward consolidation of sentiment, but it would still be untrue to say that sentiment has crystallized in any particular direction. Up to now sponsorship of ideas has been contrasting rather than conflicting.

LEADERSHIP—No real leadership has developed, either from downstairs (the governor's office) or from upstairs (in the assembly halls). There is admitted capacity for leadership on both levels. It may exert itself any time. Up to now real leadership has been conspicuous by its absence.

REASONS—There may be several reasons for this leadershipless status. Most obvious is inherent in politics. Majority of the legislators who have had experience records and therefore might be regarded as logical candidates for government. They show no disposition to fight or block his program but unless invited to take the lead they have been hesitant to do so. And they have not been invited. Some of the new members who doubtless have capacity for leadership have not had opportunity to develop it and have been reluctant to take what might be regarded as smart aleck attitude over front. That brings up the kindred question as to whether or not this general assembly has any "program." It does.

PROGRAM—Governor Scott in his inaugural address, which followed closely lines laid down in his primary and general election campaigns, presented as clear-cut program as was ever given to a general assembly. There is not unanimous endorsement of this program in its entirety; neither has there been any manifestation of direct opposition to its basic principles. There has been and still is lack of coordination and leadership in presenting the program in specific form to the assembly. There has been very little consultation among representatives of the executive and the legislative branches before bills were introduced. There have been open expressions of doubt as to whether certain bills were supported by the administration or not.

COLLATERAL—There are those who think this is the way things have been handled in the past. Right or wrong, it is different. Being different and without recent precedent, more time is required to get things going.

MONEY—Another contributing factor to present confusion is money. For the first time in ten years the problem is too little money instead of too much. There are a few members of the current assembly who served during the desperate days of the depression era. Big majority of the present membership has had no experience with finding money to meet immediate needs. They have been accustomed to seeking investment for money left over after admitted needs were met. The present situation has them baffled. Another way to state it is that existing needs in previous years were not adequately admitted and the accumulation of demand has now cut-down the accumulation of unused dollars—and at a time when revenue seems to be on decline concurrently with increasing demand for expanded state services. On this point the governor's recommendations in his special school message may have considerable bearing. For the first,

Porter's Pirates Turn In Big Upset Over High Point

Phantoms Stage Late Rally To Defeat Edenton 32-28

Greenville High school came from behind in the third period last night to defeat the Edenton Aces 32 to 28 in a Northeastern Conference game played in Edenton.

Edenton, in a surprising show of strength, jumped to an early lead and was out in front 16 to 13 at halftime as Chohan fans began a chant for an upset.

But Coach Bo Farley's Phantoms racked up 13 points in the third period and held to the Aces to five points to break into a 26 to 21 lead.

The Aces came back hard in the final period but Greenville throttled down the pace of the game to put it on ice with a 32 to 28 count.

John Farley led the Greenville scoring with nine points and Jimmy Cox followed with seven.

Joe Wheeler scored 10 for the losing Aces.

Rivals To Meet

By EDGAR BARNHILL

Bethel, Feb. 12.—What is expected to be one of the best high school basketball games in Eastern North Carolina will be reeled off here Tuesday night when Bethel tangles with the strong Jamesville quint.

The Indians will be attempting to win their fourth game in two years from the visitors, having won by 37-24, 33-32 scores in the '37-'38 campaign and followed up by taking a 41-40 decision during the current season.

The Red and Blue colors of Bethel have flown victoriously through some thirty games this season while dropping by the wayside only three times. The Indians have defeated 10 out of 12 Class A opponents, losing only to the Pam Pack of Washington and Kinston's Red Devils both of whom Bethel had beaten earlier.

The locals' other defeat came at the hands of the undefeated Needham Broughton quint from Raleigh.

Meanwhile the Jamesville team also has rung up an impressive record, having dropped only two contests, one to the same Needham Broughton team and the other the close decision to Bethel.

Coach Walter Latham's brilliant squad is led by three dead-eyed forwards, Bill Smith, W. Z. Worsley, and Frank Hemingway, who have proven their ability to hit their shots from all over the court.

Whitehurst holds down the center slot while a pair of cagey ballhandlers, Earl Keel and William House, will be the Bethel guards.

The rivalry has been steadily mounting with each game between the two quints and Tuesday night's battle should prove to be one of the best of the series. A girl's game between the two schools will precede the main attraction.

Matty Bell Gets Long Term Job

Dallas, Tex., Feb. 12.—(AP)—Matty Bell will sit in the saddle as head football coach at Southern Methodist University for at least seven more years.

The Dallas News said this morning that Bell's contract had been extended five years. His present contract had two years to run. He is athletic director as well as head football coach.

Tight Race Continues For County Basketball Teams

With only a few games left on schedule before the annual Pitt County basketball tournament, Bethel and Ayden are leading the boys teams down the home stretch having eleven straight victories chalked up in county play. These two teams begin a two out of three game series tonight in the ECTC gym to determine line which team represents the county in the state class B basketball run-off. Monday and Thursday nights of next week are the other nights for the series. Following these two top teams is the Winterville boys who has garnered seven wins against four defeats.

The Ayden and Arthur girls are still leading the loop, both teams having had nine victories against two defeats. Each of these teams were defeated one game by the Grimesland lassies. Ayden also bowled to the Arthur team and the Arthur team was defeated by the Grifton girls. Farmville held on to third spot with a 6-2 record for the season.

Grifton Divides Pair In Bethel

In a conference game, played in Bethel gymnasium, Grifton and Bethel exchanged basketball victories. The Grifton girls fell from a 13 point lead at the half for a one point victory.

Mumford led the Grifton girls as high scorer with 16 points, followed by Braxton with 12 points and Phillips with 4 points. Moore led the losers with 9 points. The final score was 31 to 32.

Junior Quintet Sweeps To 45-7 Win Over Rivals

The Greenville High School Junior Varsity swept to a 45 to seven victory last night over the Edenton Juniors in a preliminary game on the losers' home court. And Jayvee teams all over the conference were ready to throw in the towel to the rapidly becoming famous boys from Pitt County.

Last night's win gave the local Juniors an even dozen. They have lost but two games this season, both by close scores to Jayvee teams of class AA schools.

The Edenton team was held to one point in the entire first half. They could not keep the Bo Farley-coached boys from scoring and when they did get the ball themselves the Greenville Juniors would take it away from them.

Working with a smoothness which would make many varsity teams hide their faces, the locals racked up 20 points in the first half and 25 more in the second.

Sandy Saddler, the spindle-legged Harlem slasher who dethroned Willie the Pep on a fourth round knockout, Oct. 29, yielded to the ex-champ in a savage 15-round brawl last night at Madison Square Garden.

No man in modern day fight history ever recaptured the undisputed 126-pound crown after he lost it, before Pep did the trick.

The stage is set for a rematch, a third chapter of this duel between Pep and the only man who ever knocked him out. Pep, at least, will

West Carolina Drops Tennessee Quint By 61-59

By the Associated Press

Western Carolina Teachers battled nip and tuck with the Maryville, Tenn., Teachers quint last night but at the final gun it was 61-59 in favor of the Tennesseans.

Both clubs started fast, with the lead changing hands nine times in the first 15 minutes. The WCTC Catamounts finched the first half with a 35-27 margin but after eight minutes of the second frame the Maryville squad went ahead to stay.

The non-loop battle topped the Friday night North State card, which saw two conference games reeled off. Appalachian defeated Elon, 66 to 41, and East Carolina Teachers turned back High Point 50 to 48.

Locals Fight To 50-48 Triumph Against Visitors

By EUGENE PRICE

Coach Howard Porter's East Carolina College Pirates turned in a stunning 50 to 48 North State conference victory here last night over the second place High Point Panthers.

The battling Buccaneers led all the way and not until the last two minutes of play was their lead threatened. It was the third defeat of the year for highly touted High Point which is second only to Catawba in North State standing. For the Bucs it was win number five against seven losses. It was the second win in three games this week.

East Carolina jumped into the lead at the opening whistle and had racked up a 26 to 17 advantage by halftime. Hitting on 47 percent of their field goals in the second half the Bucs maintained a 10 point lead until the closing minutes of the game when, with Charlie Bill Moyer, Fitz Fennell and Len Baer out of the game on fouls the visitors made a late bid for victory.

But with Jack Everton and Frank Maennie ruling the back boards the Panthers could not close the gap between the scores. In the last minute of play the Pirates froze the ball to wrap up the victory 50 to 48.

Moyer, Fennell and Everton shared top scoring honors for the locals with 12, 11, and 10 points in the order.

Don Embler, with five field goals passed the Panthers.

In a preliminary game the Buccaneer Jayvees annexed their fourth straight win by trouncing the Vanceboro Independents 49 to 18. Phil Brown with 20, Bill Davis with 11 and Jim Blake with eight scored high for the winners. Whitford scored five for the losers.

Boxing Buccaneers Again Trim Goldsboro Athletic Club Team

The East Carolina Teachers College boxing team scored its fourth victory of the season last night by defeating the Goldsboro Athletic Club boxers seven and one half to one and one half in a nine bout match in the losers' arena.

Two knockouts and two TKOs highlighted the meet with Bill Goldsboro's lone win came with Bill Cole's decision over East Carolina's Charlie Edwards.

Cole, who decided Harvey Stull here two weeks ago, showed even more class last night as he outpointed Edwards. But the ECTC boys were in the fight all the way, throwing punches until the final whistle.

Redwan David made short work of Goldsboro's Golden Gloves champion Ron Clark by scoring a first round knockout. Clark was out on the ropes after one minute and fifty-five seconds. David dislocated the boy here in the first match of the two teams.

B. J. Hunter, tall, soft-spoken heavyweight, knocked out Goldsboro's B. O. Riggs in the second round. Riggs, a brawny, tattooed slugger, was floored for the count early in the round. He tried twice to regain his feet but both times fell back.

The Old Dominion dynamo, Ken Stargardt, floored Earl Sasser in the second round to mark up his sixth ring victory against no defeats in his first season of boxing.

Paul Hansell, cagy East Carolina southpaw, decided Lafayette Davis after outpointing the Goldsboro welterweight in all three rounds.

Marshall Baines, in his first out-of-town appearance with ECTC team, scored a second round TKO over Bill Wooten. A fighter from the old school who usually relies on sheer power rather than scientific boxing, Baines employed both methods last night as he put Wooten out on his feet in the second round.

Bill Torrans decided Joe Lane in a middleweight event. Lane, who repeatedly rushed the ECTC boy could not cope with the flicking left jab and back out of range.

In a hard fought middleweight event, ECTC's Bruce Jones decided Jack Casey. It was Jones' first out-of-town bout with the local team though he has twice fought in inter-squad matches here.

The lone draw of the evening was between Henry Bruton and Bill Summerlin.

Last night's match was the final meet for the local boxers before travelling to American University in Washington, D. C. Coaches Jim Johnson and Johnny Long will run their leather slingers through final workouts for the Washington match this coming week. They face the American University team next Saturday.
