Truman Expected To Drop Forrestal

Acceptance Of Long-Pending Resignation Of Defense Secretary Believed Slated Late Today; Kenneth Royall May Be Next To Go

Washington, March 3—(AP)—President Truman is expected to accept late today James V. Forrestal's long-pending resignation as Secretary of Defense and name Louis A. Johnson, West Virginia lawyer, to the post.

Forrestal, the nation's first Secretary of Defense, is the last cabinet holdover from the Roosevelt administration. He was Secretary of the Navy before he took the top defense job.

Johnson long has figured in speculation as Forrestal's successor. He is a former Assistant Secretary of War and served as chairman of the Democratic Finance Committee in the 1948 presidential campaign.

White House officials look for Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall to be next to step out of the administration, but they are not sure how soon that may be.

Secretary of the Air Force W. Stuart Symington, for whose resignation some of the Mr. Truman associates had been pressing, is now expected to stay on indefinitely.

Johnson, a Clarksburg, W.Va. resident, is World War I veteran and a former national commander of the American Legion. He served as Assistant Secretary of War in the Roosevelt regime from June 28, 1937, to July 24, 1940.

Rumors that Forrestal would be replaced date back to the 1948 presidential campaign. He kept strictly out of the campaign picture and unlikely some other cabinet top administration officials made no stumping tour for Mr. Truman. Forrestal's friends later explained that the President himself wanted the secretaries of Defense and State to stay out of politics.

However, the rumors were revived again on Nov. 3, the day after election, when Forrestal was asked to pose for a picture to depict the "starting of another four years."

"But not for me," he told newspapermen. His office later said he meant he did not intend to resign immediately but probably would not serve the full four years.

But on Jan. 11 Forrestal flatly said he expected to stay on as Secretary of Defense. Traditionally, all cabinet members offer their resignations to a newly-elected President so he can start with a new slate if he desires.

Forrestal said after a White House discussion on changes in the Security Act that he wanted to stay in his cabinet post, and that he did not expect Mr. Truman to accept the routine resignation.

President Truman two days later on Jan. 13 said there would be no changes in his cabinet in advance of his inauguration.

"How soon after Inauguration Day?" he was asked.
"You'll have to wait and see, Mr. Truman replied."

Negro Killed As Car Turns Over; Others Injured

Only three fatal accidents occurred in Pitt county last year.

Grady And Our World

How The Story Of A Trapped Cow Played Its Part In Easing Tensions Of A Cold War Among Thousands Of Americans; A Smile A Day; Too Much Brooding Bad

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

Introducing Grady-the-cow into foreign affairs:

This column the other day cited as one of the striking post-war developments the increased knowledge of world events possessed by the average citizen in the U. S. A. and other Democracies.

That is a good sign in these dangerous times, but I have a new angle to the thought. It comes from the recent strange adventure of Grady-the-cow, and might be entitled "a smile a day keeps the hot war away." Of course, I realize the old vaudeville comedian: "That don't sound like 'em' to me; it sounds like 'bull'." Still, Grady enters the scene.

Probably no recent story has attracted so much attention as that of the blue-blood Grady who lives on her master's farm in Yukon, Okla. You all know how she got herself trapped in a silo after she performed the "impossible" feat of diving head-first into it through an opening which theoretically was too small for her.

For days all America hung solicitously about that silo, trying to

School Hearing Draws Hundreds

Many Tar Heels Converge On Raleigh To Support Scott

Raleigh, N. C., March 3—(AP)—Hundreds of persons interested in greater state support of the public schools converged on Raleigh today.

The Governor, in a speech, urged the people to come and tell the legislature what they want for the schools. The joint appropriations committee is holding a public hearing on the school budget.

The meeting will be held, starting at 2:30 p. m. in Raleigh's Memorial auditorium, largest meeting place in the city.

The Governor set forth a school spending program along the lines of requests submitted this week to the joint appropriations committee.

He urged that the advisory budget commission's recommendations of an average of $33,500,000 a year for schools in the next two years be increased to some $36,000,000 a year.

He also called again on the legislature to let the people vote on a $50,000,000 bond issue for building of schools.

With better schools, Governor tied in rural road betterment, stronger local health departments, and broader welfare benefits as minimum provisions for services which the state needs.

Vote Approval To End Poll Tax

Uncover Buried German Hospital Of World War I

Arras, France, March 3—(AP)—Searchers today dug into a subterranean German army field hospital, buried since the patients and doctors were suffocated when a shell trench off their communications reached in 1918.

Skeletons of the patients were found on their cots lined up in rows along the walls. German rifles and helmets were stacked by the door.

The underground field hospital was found yesterday by a rabbit hunter who broke through the dug-out's crumbling roof. It's location was an old rock quarry that hasn't been used for more than 40 years.

U. S. Communist Group Pledges Anti-War Stand

Leaders Say Reds Will Take No Part In 'Unjust, Imperialist War'

New York, March 3—(AP)—U. S. Communist leaders pledged their party today to oppose any war provoked by "Wall Street" interests despite "the efforts of the peace forces of America and the world."

A statement issued by Communist National Chairman William Z. Foster and General Secretary Eugene Dennis declared American communists would take no part in "an unjust, aggressive and imperialist war."

On the contrary, the statement said, the communists would "cooperate with all democratic forces to defeat the predatory war aims of American imperialism and bring such a war to a speedy conclusion on the basis of a democratic peace."

The reference to democracy was in line with the usual communist policy of calling communist-led states, including Russia, "people's democracies."

The statement charged that the Marshall Plan and "the proposed Atlantic war alliance" are part of "Wall Street's scheme of world domination."

The statement followed requests to the communist leaders for comment on recent remarks by two Red leaders in Europe—Maurice Thorez of France and Palmiro Togliatti of Italy.

Togliatti said he believed the Italian people had a duty to aid the Russian army if it should pursue an "aggressor" onto Italian soil.

Thorez asked whether French communists could be expected to "behave differently" from the peoples of Poland, Romania and Yugoslavia if the French people were led into war with Russia and the Red army had to chase the enemy out of their soil.

The Foster-Dennis statement was assailed last night in Washington by several members of Congress. There was no immediate comment by the State or Justice Department.

Barbed Wire Set Up For Blockade

Frankfurt, Germany March 3—(AP)—U. S. Army engineers strung barbed wire entanglements around the blockaded Russian repatriation mission today, and set up floodlights.

The explanation was obscure. A military policeman said the new move was to prevent the possibility of food being smuggled in to the eight blockaded Russians, and to prevent them from leaving "on their own" without reporting to American authorities first.

The Americans want the Russians to leave—in fact, ordered them to go—and have offered transportation facilities to the border if the Russians leave voluntarily. But when asked for further explanation of the barbed wire and floodlights, the military policeman replied cryptically:

"There are a lot of trees on this estate and you never can tell what they might try."

The eight Russians who ignored the U. S. Army's order to leave by March 1 watched the wire stringing operations curiously from windows of the three-story building. They showed no intention of leaving, although they are cut off from water, light, gas, telephone service and food from the outside. On the chance that water might leak through to the mission by faulty closed valves, the engineers even ordered the pipes sawed in half.

Confessed 'Lonely Hearts' Killers Face Trial In N.Y.

Mineola, N.Y., March 3—(AP)—The district attorney of Nassau County said today that Raymond M. Fernandez and his 200-pound girl friend, Martha Beck, will be brought here from Michigan to face a "Lonely Hearts" murder charge.

Conviction of first degree murder in New York carries the death penalty.

District Attorney James N. Gehrig asked a bench warrant against the pair to speed their return.

Gehrig said an assistant in his office had obtained a "complete and detailed confession" from Fernandez and Mrs. Beck in the slaying of Mrs. Janet Fay, a former

Spring Parade To Have Big Balloon Characters

Peter Rabbit, in the form of a 12 foot balloon, along with three or four of his story book partners will come to Greenville next Thursday in the Spring Festival parade sponsored by the Greenville Merchants Association.

Mrs. Cora Powell, executive secretary of the organization, said today giant balloons of Humpty Dumpty, Bunny Rabbit, the Egg and perhaps others will be in the parade.

All children 12 years old or younger are invited to join the parade in costumes and compete for the prizes which will be awarded, Mrs. Powell said. Several bands and other parade trimmings are included in the plans for the event.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon and the route is planned down Dickinson Avenue to Five Points, and then down Evans street to the court house.

Association officials said the parade will touch off the official opening of displays of spring merchandise by the Greenville stores. Merchants will have on display full lines of fashions and styles which head the list in 1949 warm weather

Rocket Flies 250 Miles Into Sky

A two-stage experimental rocket rises from the proving ground at White Sands, New Mexico, on its way to a record height of 250 miles above earth. The flight was made February 24 and the Army released this picture in Washington March 1. A rebuilt German V-2 was fired with a smaller Wac Corporal rocket in its nose. At an altitude of about 20 miles, the rockets separated and the smaller one continued to the peak of the flight. (AP Wirephoto from U. S. Army).

Eleven Known To Be Dead In Fire

Muskegon, Mich., March 3—(AP)—A widowed mother, at least nine of her children and a roofer were burned to death today when a fire destroyed their flimsy frame home near here.

The flames, starting when an oil stove exploded, swept through the home of Mrs. Maude Glover at Lakewood, a little resort community 12 miles north of Muskegon.

The charred bodies of 46-year-old Mrs. Glover and nine children, ranging in age from 3 to 15 years were pulled from the ruins. A roofer, identified as August Tasky also perished.

Deputy sheriffs said in addition three more Glover children may have died.

One badly burned survivor was brought to Mercy Hospital in Muskegon.

In critical condition and almost incoherent, 17-year-old Howard Glover said the flames leaped out of the stove at about 8 a. m. (EST) when the widow and her family were preparing breakfast. Most of the children were sleeping at the time.

Within a few moments the wooden house, once used only as a summer residence, was all aflame.

Young Glover said he stumbled to a window and pulled his 21-year-old brother, Ward, out with him.

Confessed 'Lonely Hearts' Killers Face Trial In N.Y.

Albany, N.Y., woman in Valley Stream. The body was found in the cellar of a house in Queens County. She is one of three victims whom Michigan police said Fernandez and Mrs. Beck killed to further a mail-order money-making romance plot.

The Nassau prosecutor said he was "hurry" the process of extradition. He will send a representative to Albany today, he added to secure Gov. Dewey's approval of extradition of the pair.

Michigan does not have capital punishment. A life sentence is the most the pair could receive if convicted of the murder of a Bryo-Center, Mich., mother and her daughter.

Chance Played Part In Long Mission; Another Plane Had Been Chosen

Fort Worth, Tex., March 3—(AP)—The crew of "Lucky Lady II," by chance the first men to fly non-stop around the world, slept off a 24-hour quarantine today.

The fourteen men landed at Carswell Air Base yesterday, 94 hours and one minute after standby orders became operational. They had crossed seven seas and four continents, covered more than 23,000 miles, refueled in mid-air four times and circumnavigated the globe at nearly its greatest girth.

Chance placed "Lucky Lady II," its pilot, Capt. James Gallagher, and crew in history. Another plane was to have made the flight.

The B-50 bomber which started what the Air Force chose to call a "routine training mission" got as far as the Azores after taking off last Friday. The engine fire which forced this plane down sent "Lucky Lady II" aloft.

Gallagher and his history-making crew had been on stand-by orders for an emergency that might arise. Their B-50, an improved version of the B-29 super bomber, was airborne at 12:21 p. m. (EST) Saturday.

The sleek, silver plane returned to its starting point yesterday.

Lawmakers Hail Lifting Controls

Washington, March 3—(AP)—Many lawmakers today welcomed as a boon to business a government order permitting smaller monthly installments on a list of items ranging from cook stoves to automobiles.

The Federal Reserve Board's action also was warmly greeted by the automobile industry, which saw in the move a possible lift to lagging car sales.

However, Edgar Kaiser, general manager of the Kaiser-Frazer Corp., said, "It is not enough," and a similar sentiment was expressed by Rep. Patman (D-Tex.), who has been demanding an extensive easing of curbs on credit buying.

The board's order was issued last night on the heels of its report that installment credit outstanding had dropped in January for the first time in three years. The order becomes effective Monday. It affects these consumer items now under "anti-inflation" controls:

Cook stoves, dishwashers, ironers, refrigerators, washing machines, automobiles, air conditioners, radio and television sets, phonographs, sewing machines vacuum cleaners, furniture and rugs.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee, called the board's action "a clear illustration of the wise exercise of government controls" and "a step that will tend to promote the distribution of inventories."

A Lenten Prayer

"We Are Heartily Sorry"

Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Matthew 3:2. Read Mark 1:1-8.

The conscience may be ever so tortured, yet without relief. The self-willed person will defend his sins, even knowing he is in the wrong. And so God adds the gift of penitence, as Christians of all ages are taught to pray: "we are heartily sorry for these our manifold sins, in thought and word and deed, against thy holy name."

A release comes at the moment we are willing to admit error and to turn from the wrong course. Even the popular adage recognizes that an honest confession is good for the soul. It restores inner integrity and makes the person whole. It repairs relationships with others which have been broken by pride. It establishes communion with the forgiving God.

Jesus began his ministry on the occasion when people of all classes and ranks had gathered on the riverbank for a public repentance, "making open confession of their sins." This was not accidental; it could not have been otherwise. Christ appears in his fulness only to the contrite. And the Father who gave his beloved Son, gave also the contrition without which he could not have been received.

Let Us Pray: Holy, holy, holy, Lord God, Almighty, we thank thee that thou art the judge of the nations and of our lives. Bring into our hearts and into our world, we beseech thee, a new spirit of godly sorrow, and so restore the family of man to thy fellowship. Amen.

anxious ex-livers who are trying to learn to beat their feet in socially correct cadence.

It is easy to learn ballroom dancing. If you've never danced before, and feel as if you drag two left feet around, Fred Astaire recommends ballroom dancing as the key to your problem.

He suggests the Viennese waltz pattern as a starter because it teaches movement in all four directions, and this simple beginning can lead to correct dance patterns, he says.

If you don't want to be a wall-flower standing around on the edge of the dance floor, get some of your club or canteen group together and glide, kids, glide.

When the pupil has these movements mastered, turns begin. These principles are taught: Toe out (exaggerate it) stepping forward; toe in (exaggerate it) stepping back. Practice this the same way as the forward and back movements; toe out, bring up the other foot, mark time; toe in bring up the other foot; mark time.

the girl goes back on the left foot, toeing in. These movements also can be combined in an exercise to be practiced for easier movement. Try it: forward, bring up the other foot, mark time; back, bring back the other foot, mark time.

Though tap and ballet are fun for children, Mr. Astaire believes that even young children will benefit more from ballroom dancing. It will help them to overcome self-consciousness, teach them balance, coordination, rhythm and poise.

The fact that the head must be lifted, the shoulders straightened, the diaphragm raised and flattened to assume a correct dancing position will help achieve better posture. It is particularly good relaxation for teen-agers who get in the habit of slouching from studying in slumped positions.

O'Neal Foundation Fund Reported Above $3,000

Funds for the O'Neal Foundation, now total $3,146. Treasurer Joseph S. Moye reported this morning. Mayor J. H. Boyd, chairman of the foundation, said today that plans have been completed for the building of the house for the O'Neal family by the foundation, and that work on the house will be begun as soon as the foundation's charter is completed.

Boyd said five Greenville plumbing establishments have offered to do all the plumbing work on the house at no cost to the foundation and that the Standard Supply company and the Eastern Carolina Supply company have offered to furnish the plumbing materials to the foundation at cost. Plumbing companies offering to do the work are Williams Plumbing company, Pollard Brothers, Sanitary Plumbing and Heating, J. D. Aman, and City Plumbing company. Other offers for the project, Boyd said, have been made by the Greenville Concrete Products company which has offered to furnish the cement blocks for the septic tank; the Home Building Supply company which will furnish the cement for the septic tank, and Edwards Hardware company which has offered to furnish the drainage tile. Boyd said donations from various parts of the state are still being received by the foundation.

Sees Big Role In Public Education

The Pitt County Unit of the N.C.E.A. met in Austin auditorium East Carolina Teachers College on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Evelyn Bullock of the Belvoir School gave an inspiring devotional on "Stewardship." Dr. Carl Adams of the East Carolina Teachers College faculty introduced the speaker for the evening Mr. S. G. Chappell, superintendent of the Wilson Public Schools. Mr. Chappell emphasized the vital role played by public education in the United States today. He said that teaching is the most notable and highest calling a person can do. Mr. Chappell also pointed out the important work done by the state and national educational organizations in behalf of public education. "The needs of education should be brought before the public," said Mr. Chappell. "There are thousands of people who think public education is of no importance unless they have a child in school," continued the speaker. In conclusion Mr. Chappell said "The citizens of the United States should dedicate themselves to understanding the educational needs of the children, and see that they get them." Mrs. Beecher Flanagan, president of the group, presided over the business session which followed Mr. Chappell's talk. Mr. D. H. Conley, superintendent of the Pitt County Schools, made several important announcements at this time. Mr. Conley also cited some of the bills concerning education that have been introduced to the state legislature.

Extra Performance Of 'Peter Pan' Will Be Staged Thursday

In order that all Pitt County school children who wish to see Barrie's "Peter Pan" in a production by the Teachers Playhouse of East Carolina Teachers College may have an opportunity to do so, the college players will give an additional performance next Thursday afternoon, March 16. Announcement of the extra presentation of the children's drama was made this morning by Dr. Lucile H. Charles, director of the play, and Mrs. Charles W. Reynolds of the Greenville Chapter of the American Association of University Women, sponsoring organization. All tickets for the special matinee for children had been reserved by Tuesday of this week. Since a number of schools in the county were still requesting tickets for their pupils, arrangements were completed this morning for the Thursday performance. The play will open tomorrow afternoon with a matinee for pupils in the Greenville city school. Five performances of the play are now scheduled for this week and next week.

Smudge Pot As Lamp Caused Fire At School Last Night

A fire alarm last night about 6:30 called the department to C. M. Ffpps Negro High School when a double outdoor toilet was destroyed by fire. Everything burned but a smudge pot, a fireman said. Evidence was that somebody had picked up a smudge pot from West Fifth Street, where the highway is to be widened, carried it to the toilet to use for illumination. The wooden structure became ignited and burned down. Police are investigating the incident. The smudge pot was burning when firemen arrived.

Strength FOR THE DAY

SPORTSMANSHIP SOMETIMES A FETISH

Great emphasis is laid today on good sportsmanship. But there is also a lot of nonsense which struts through the world and calls itself good sportsmanship.

In the battle of Pontenoy in 1745, Lord Charles Hay, an English commander who had brought his troops out to assault the French, rode into the open place between the two lines and, waving his hat in a sweeping salute to the enemy, shouted: "Gentlemen of the French Guard, fire first!" The French reply rang gaily across the carnage of that stricken field. "Sir, we never fire first. Please to fire yourselves!" The English fired, and fifty French officers and 780 men of the French line were killed.

Good sportsmanship? Nothing of the sort—sheer nonsense, foolhardiness, murder of one's own countrymen. A gallant wave of the hat, a gesture, and over 800 lives were snuffed out.

When confronted with a situation, the question we ought to ask ourselves is, "What is the wise and unselfish thing to do? When we think of what constitutes good sportsmanship, we often think of ourselves and what people will say about us. Good sportsmanship is all right in its place, but so is common sense. And sometimes a situation demands that we put out of our minds the desire to be called a good sport and think only of how we can be helpful, no matter what people call us.

Around Capitol Square

By LYNN NISBET

FIGHTER—Admitting that the general assembly has backed him into a corner by failure to act on his "Go Forward" program, Governor Scott made it clear Wednesday he will fight for the entire program with everything he has. He completely refuted rumors that he would sacrifice other phases for the rural road bond bill, when he said he is equally determined to do something tangible for public schools, reorganize the utilities commission and expand health and welfare services.

Boyle's Column

By GEORGE TUCKER

New York—Once upon a time there was a greedy little man who wanted the whole world for himself. He was a sickly little man, with tiny hands and feet, and a head too large for his body. His feet were always cold. He would lie in hot water for hours, claiming the cold was locked in his bones.

Not for one moment did he consider himself effeminate, though he had wide hips and narrow shoulders, like a woman, and a complexion as fair as a girl's.

In fact, women adored him. A look from him and they were at his feet. He had seven mistresses.

"I love nobody," he declared. "Friendship is only a word."

Yet he was a monster of jealousy. One day he left town on a short business trip, and next day he wrote his wife, "I want you on my heart. Quickly, fly, fly."

She was slow in joining him and he cried, "have you a lover? Have you taken up with a stripling of nineteen?"

"What a queer fellow," she laughed.

lawyers had a lot of business to channel through the governor's office. They might need him later, but he needs them now. He knows he has a lot of sincere support in the general assembly, but lobbyists are blocking his efforts. What he needs is somebody to carry the ball. Representatives of industry have not helped him, he said, and should be reminded they might need to call on him later.

UNUSUAL—Lack of legislative leadership by his program was emphasized by unusualness of the occasion Wednesday. Only two members of the general assembly were present, and more than half the others were state officials or employees. The audience proved too great temptation to some of those present to expound their own views, which resulted in the hour and a half conference producing little tangible good.

SPECIFIC—When one after another of the conferees arose to say they were backing the governor's program 100% he fired back the direct question, "What are you going to do about it?" Most of them didn't know, although they are willing to do anything they can.

"I no longer love you," he cried. "I hate you. You are hateful, stupid, inept."

He had a mania for being on the winning side. He could not bear to lose, even at games. When his friends played chess with him, they tried hard to lose. They even sent out for players who were less skilled than he. When they could not find them, it was necessary to lose the game foolishly, rather than defeat him.

One day a preacher's son tried to kill him. The plot miscarried, and the boy was dragged into his presence. They searched him and found a knife and the portrait of a pretty girl. The portrait fascinated him. "You wanted to kill me?" "Yes, I intended to kill you." "Whose portrait is this?" "The girl I love."

"If I let you go . . . I suppose it would gladden the heart of this girl."

"Then I shall be able to kill you after all."

He looked at the young man sadly. The face in the portrait could have won so easily, with a little help. He nodded to his henchmen, and left the room.

His whole life was a preposterous tragedy. He had wanted to be a great man. But he couldn't tell the truth. His friends were so partisan and his enemies so prejudiced that nothing they said could be believed either.

The church excommunicated him. His tantrums were so great that he summoned people to the bath room, where he was bathing, and splashed them with hot water.

Every word I have said about this extraordinary little man is preserved in his letters and papers, and can be read by anybody.

So unusual a man deserved an unusual name. It would have been an irony for him to be called Smith, or Jones.

But he was spared that commonplace. His name was very unusual. It was Napoleon Bonaparte.

Yellowstone National Park is the oldest and largest national park in the United States, two and one-half times as large as Rhode Island.

The slow-growing yew tree is found so often in England because it was once the prized wood used in making bows.

Coyotes usually hunt in large packs.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

Washington—A youngster in Dayton, Ohio, is suffering from something that resembles poison oak.

Doctors aren't sure what kind of poisoning it is, but it has been traced to a Japanese rifle the boy was handling—a war trophy brought home from World War II by a relative.

A GI bought a small cottage down south. His wife prepared to do her first week's washing in an old fashioned iron boiling pot in the yard. She propped it up with three Civil War cannon balls she found on the property and lit the fire. An explosion killed her.

Remember Russ Colombo, the popular orchestra leader, killed 12 years ago when a pistol he had on his desk out in Hollywood exploded? Someone dropped cigarette ashes on it. It was a Revolutionary war trophy.

Time does not lessen the danger from explosive war trophies. Imagine what could happen 100 years from now if that German luger, the "empty" shell you use as an andiron, the "butterfly mine" on your mantel, the things you brought home—in many times greater number—from your war unexpectedly go off.

Small shells—tracers or incendiaries—with the passage of time may still fulfill their destiny. With a fall or knock they will go off unassisted. Bandoliers of shells for aircraft machine guns often have occasional sulphurous tracer shells that may go off in an X number of years depending on temperature or humidity.

Henry Schneider, formerly with the Alcoholic Tax Unit, now with the Internal Revenue Bureau, told me that explosive war trophies are causing 6,000 deaths a year. About 80 per cent of those fatally injured are children.

The Treasury Dept. interested in the War Trophy Safety Committee, the army and air force, linked with the National Rifle Association, in establishing a set-up of 20,000 volunteers throughout the country to advise trophy owners of the hazards involved in the gadgets they bring home.

Members of the committee urge trophy owners to have their trophies examined by army, navy or air force ordnance experts, have them deactivated if necessary (without cost).

"To date about three-quarter million pieces of explosives—shells, guns, rifles, bombs, grenades, etc.—have been examined and found dangerous and have been deactivated," Mr. Schneider told me.

"Inspection, deactivation and education are necessary to make sure of the safety of your trophy," warns the War Trophy Safety Committee, adding: "Valiantly won—rightfully possessed—proudly displayed—BUT—is it a trophy or a DEATH TRAP?"

Debate On Auto Inspection Continues In The Legislature

By GIL BILLINGS
Raleigh, March 3—Pulse of the invalid vehicle inspection law flut-tered weakly Wednesday. It lapsed into its coma before noon while doc-tors called in more experts for con-sultation.

The new Fountain amendment re-ceiving inspections impresses a ma-jority of the senate roads commit-tee. It is definitely an arbitration between recognized inspection needs and public sentiment. Em-phasis is on relief of inspection in-conveniences.

Modifications of 1947 laws are also directed towards unneeded in-spection of many accessories. While it has been left to the discretion of highway officials—who checked ev-erything even vaguely referred to in the law—the amendment would "spell out" requirements.

The Penny bill to provide annual inspections by authorized mechan-ics is undoubtedly dead. Objections are based on belief that the state is unable to define competent mech-anics. Rackets are also feared.

An amendment will be introduced Friday morning which would allocate inspections to state-authorized gar-ages. Many committee members shook their heads when they heard of it and an unfavorable report is almost inevitable.

Hopes for reactivation of inspec-tions lie with the Fountain amend-ment, or some modification of it. Many senators admit that the origi-nal bill will never get through the House. Need for further study has sent all bills to sub-committee. Re-sulting legislation will probably be shaped from the Fountain amend-ments.

The public will probably be most in accord with a bill calling for an-nual inspections with lanes in every county. Attempting to ease incon-veniences, such a bill will probably stipulate that lanes shall be open from eight until six, and until nine at night once a week, during all week days.

Equipment requiring inspection would be two headlights, one tall light and one stop light. Steering assembly and alignment checks would be needed. Horn, rear view mirror and one windshield wiper would also be examined.

While safety needs would require unobstructed windshield and rear window glass, there is some doubt that tires or mufflers could be called defective. Incorrect registration certificates also would not constitute a defect, although registration cards and licenses would be needed to ob-tain a sticker.

Ultimate action on inspections can hardly be predicted at the moment. Opposition to any inspection at all is well organized in both houses. Reports of sub-committees, and eventual drafting of inspection reg-ulations, will influence many votes which are now undecided.

Find Agreement On Constitution

Frankfurt, Germany March 2—(AP)—The three Western military governors reached "complete agree-ment" today on their attitude to-ward a German drafted constitution for the projected West German state.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor, made this an-nouncement following a conference with Gen. Pierre Koenig and Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, the French and British military governors.

"We have reached complete agree-ment on what we will advise the representatives of the parliamentary council," he said. Six leaders of the German parliamentary council were summoned to meet with the military governors today. They will be told how the draft of the constitution should be changed to conform with the London agreement.

The six-power London agreement of last spring authorized the West Germans to draft a constitution for a federal republic to embrace the American, British and French oc-cupation zones.

"There are not many changes to be recommended," Gen. Clay said.

Forbidden Teach Atheism To Kids

Chicago, March 2—(P)—By court order, Duane Free, 36-year-old prin-ter, is enjoined from teaching Ath-eism to his daughter and step-daughter.

The injunction was issued by Su-perior Judge Rudolph Desort yester-day after Mrs. Esther Free, 34, filed a suit for divorce against her es-tranged husband. She charged crul-ty.

Mrs. Free said that during a recent visit to the children Free told them "the story of Christ is a myth," and that "there is no God."

General Wayne won his nickname of "Mad Anthony" by his inspired night attack on the British at Stony Point, the strongest enemy post.

Pork Should Be Well Done, but Cooked Slowly

Is there a man who's never said, "I'd rather have Roast Pork instead?" We doubt it, for roast pork ranks high as the popular dish of the male species. That's why our stellar attraction today is... loin of pork... the choicest of all pork cuts. Tops in good eating and rich in nutritive values. You'll be assured of top quality if you specify Wilson's Certified Fresh Pork.

Roast Pork should always be well done, but cooked slowly. This brings out its best flavor. The finished roast should be thoroughly cooked to the very center and well browned on the outside, but not dried out.

If you have a meat thermometer, cooking the roast to the internal temperature of 185° F., will insure the same perfection every time. If you haven't a thermometer, time the roasting period by the table herein.

Exactly How to Prepare Roast Pork

Wipe the meat clean with a damp cloth. If you have a meat thermometer, insert it to the very center of the roast. Its registering bulb should be in a lean meat area not touching bone or fat. Sprinkle the meat with salt and pepper and place in a preheated oven (350° F., for fresh pork) and roast according to Time Table.

Time Table for Roasting Wilson's Certified Roast Pork

Cut Used	Roasted at	Minutes per Pound	Meat Thermometer
Loin	Center	35° F.	35 to 40	185° F.
	Whole	35° F.	15 to 20	185° F.
	Ends	35° F.	45 to 50	185° F.

Romania Strips Big Landowners

Bucharest, Romania March 2—(AP)—Romania today stripped former big landowners of the last remnants of their acreage.

A decree of the Supreme Presidium of the Romanian government, effective at once, expropriated all remaining land of the former landed gentry without payment. The de-creed was broadcast by the Bucharest radio.

About 315,000 acres were taken over by the government, it was estimated.

The decree said the reasons for the step were the landowners' non-compliance with government regu-lations and sabotage of machinery. Punishment for not complying with the new decree was set at three to 15 years imprisonment.

The new decree expropriates all farms, regardless of size, and all model farms belonging to the former big landowners. It does not affect holding of small peasant landowners.

The State Farm Administration presumably will run the farms taken over under the decree this season.

The least, or "mouse" weasel of Canada and Alaska is one of the smallest carnivorous animals in the world.

Ford Company Asks Contract Discussions With Auto Union

Detroit, March 3—(P)—The Ford Motor Co., commenting on economic conditions, asked the CIO United Auto Workers today for early informal contract talks.

Ford, in a letter to the Union, indicated it questioned the advisability of the UAW's proposal for $100 monthly pensions for 106,000 Ford workers.

Pensions, Ford said, either must be paid for through a wage reduction or higher car prices.

Ford said the nation was now "well into" an economic period "unlike any we have experienced since the war" and added:

"Most of the post-war consumer demand for things in short supply has been mopped up. Most American producers are no longer in a seller's market."

"Today's 'primary problem,' Ford said, is 'one of sales and steady jobs.'"

Pensions are the No. 1 goal of the auto workers union in 1949 although a pay increase also will be sought.

Ford raised a question whether its workers would be willing to take a wage cut in order to finance pensions and said there was "only one other way"—higher car prices to customers.

"But we are convinced that too many of them would not stand for this," the company said.

The letter to the Union was signed by John S. Bugas, Ford vice president in charge of industrial relations, and copies were sent to all employees represented by the UAW.

A union reply was not immediately available.

Assembly Behind Schedule; Long Session Likely

By GIL BILLINGS
Raleigh, March 3—Thursday marks the fiftieth legislative day for the 1949 General Assembly. The erroneous belief that the legislature should adjourn on the sixtieth day would leave only two calendar days. Experienced insiders predict thirty.

Reviewing Senate and House Journals for the last 25 years, records show that the average General Assembly has remained in session until the seventy-fourth day.

Although none of the assemblies have conformed to the average this would set the adjournment date for the current session on Thursday, March 31. This week is being watched as the probable suspension hour.

During the last 25 years the House of Representatives has introduced an average of 1366 bills. The Senate has considered 837.

Current figures show that both houses began their fiftieth legislative day with 794 bills ratified, in committee or on the calendar. The General Assembly then has accomplished 28% of its anticipated legislation.

Overall average of bills introduced since the 1927 session show House members proposing 19 bills a day and senators 11. Up to the fiftieth day the current session has introduced an average of 12 in the House and 5 in the Senate.

Largest number of bills introduced during a session was in 1925 when the House considered 1905. House bill 1805, introduced by Representative Julia K. Alexander of Mecklenburg, provided for the state capitol to be moved to Charlotte.

The General Assembly of 1943 considered the smallest number of bills, 1223, while the assembly of 1925 introduced the most—3372. The House of 1929 introduced exactly 1000, while the Houses of 1929 and 1931 both introduced exactly 1697.

Longest session was in 1931. The "long parliament" adjourned May 27 on the 120th legislative day. Shortest was in 1923 when the session adjourned March 6 on the fifty-third day.

At the speed with which the current assembly has been moving an average-length session should yield 1184 bills. This is an unfair prediction, however, since acceleration has always been in geometric proportion.

No Baths

Dusseldorf, Germany, March 3—(P)—Village elder of Dassel have rejected a proposal for a public bathhouse in the village.

The rejection came after a debate in which it was pointed out one resident reached the age of 89 without taking a bath and suffered no ill effects.

Steps Aside For School Meeting

Raleigh, March 3—(AP)—Band leader Spike Jones stepped aside today for North Carolina school forces.

Jones, who will present his "Music Depreciation Revue" in Memorial Auditorium tonight, had planned to use the auditorium this afternoon for rehearsal.

But, he was told, members of the Legislature needed the building for a hearing on school matters. They figured there wasn't another hall in town big enough to hold the expected crowd.

Spike agreed to wait until 5:30 to do his rehearsal.

Play Important Roles In 'Peter Pan' Production

Among the 60 or more students at East Carolina Teachers College who are participating in the Teachers Playhouse production of Sir James M. Barrie's "Peter Pan" are the three pictured above. Joyce Corbett, graduate student from Greenville, will have the leading role of Peter Pan, the delightful little fellow who dreads to grow up and so ran away and lived with the fairies. Elmer E. Williams, Jr., of Washington, will be Captain Hook, leader of a band of pirates. Assisting Dr. Lullie H. Charles of the faculty in directing the play is Donald Blood of Greenville. The first of four performances of the children's drama will take place on Friday afternoon, March 4, at 3:30 o'clock in Austin auditorium, and will be a special matinee for school children of the city.

Team Up To Ask For Rent Power

Washington, March 3—(AP)—A States' Rights Democrat and a New England Republican teamed up today in demanding more say-so about rent controls for the states and local communities.

Senator Maybank (D-SC) took the stand that President Truman's request for stronger rent controls for two years "involves too much federal power."

"As one who has always believed in states' rights, I believe they should have more authority in this field," he added.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt) in a separate interview said Congress should be thinking "about washing its hands of the whole matter of rent controls."

"After all, the level of rents is a local problem that will best be left for the states," Flanders said.

Maybank is chairman of the Senate Banking Committee. It must pass upon the administration request for extended federal authority.

A banking subgroup under Senator Sparkman (D-Ala) called public hearings today on rent control bills. Present extension of this wartime control expires at the end of this month.

Both Maybank and Flanders said that there must be some extension of federal control because some state legislatures are unable to deal with the subject without advance notice.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. "Tonight" Tony brought his own all-time record to 1870 points last night by scoring 32 points as his Ivy League leaders defeated the University of Connecticut at Storrs 71-55. That gave him a tie for fifth place on the all-time scoring list with big George Mikan, the former DePaul University star who is now leading the Basketball Association of America Scorers.

Sunnylane Kennels' Champion Collie Is Probable Best In Two Carolinas

"Champion Emerald's Golden Showman," blue-blooded Scotch collie, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carroll at Sunnylane Kennels, near Greenville, has won recognition in many parts of the United States and has sired some of the finest collies in the country today." Bill Carroll, who gave a Scotch collie puppy to Mr. Jonathan Daniels of the News and Observer last year for a little girl in Raleigh who was selling hound puppies in a city park to raise money to buy a collie, told a Reflector reporter today.

Showman, whose call name is "Happy," is reputed to be the only collie champion in the Carolinas. He was one of the youngest puppies to win his championship, finishing at Syracuse, N.Y., when he was 10 months old. When the illustrious Showman was less than nine months old he won points at Chicago and Philadelphia and other prominent dog shows in the world. Bill Carroll's Showman's picture has graced the cover pages of many leading dog magazines in this country. The dog's success as a sire has been outstanding. Female collies have been shipped to the Carroll's kennels here from nearly every state east of the Mississippi and from Canada. At three years of age, Champion Emerald's Golden Showman had been the sire of more than 700 sons and daughters and numerous grandsons and granddaughters. Dog lovers in 33 states own Champion's offspring. One of his puppies will be shipped to Hawaii in March for breeding purposes.

Last May, at the Morris and Essex Dog Show, Madison, N.J., Showman was the sire of the winning collie puppy. Many of the best collies in the world were competing there, Carroll said. M. D. Drucker, collie authority, who writes the "Leaside" stories for the movies, said that Bill Carroll's Champion Emerald's Golden Showman was considered on the west coast to be one of the finest collies in America.

Showman is renowned not just because he is a great showman and sire, but because of his happy disposition. The Carrolls, whose Sunnylane Collie Kennels are on the New Bern Highway, near Greenville say they have never seen a dog that so completely lives up to his call name, "Happy." He manifests so much love and devotion and appears to get a thrill out of the joy of living, his owners said, "and our only regret is that some time Champion will grow old and pass on to that land where all dogs go." Many of Champion's sons and daughters in all parts of the eastern United States inherited their sire's sunny disposition and other good qualities and will carry on the fine breed from generation to generation. The magnificent collie has been popular as a sire and his fame continues. The Carroll's Emerald's Golden Champion collie is really a champion in all that the word implies. Their Sunnylane Collie Kennels is one of the popular places in Eastern Carolina. Dog experts have told the Carrolls that "Showman is one of those rare individuals, tops in disposition, rich in expression, excellent in technical perfection and able to pass these traits on to his pups."

Timber wolves usually hunt in pairs or in family groups.

Oust Rector For Son's Activities

New York, March 3 —(AP)— A Protestant Episcopal rector has been ousted from his pulpit by his bishop because he refused to curb the "outside activities" of his son, the assistant rector, who heads an allegedly subversive group.

The Rev. John Howard Melish, D.D., rector of Holy Trinity Church in Brooklyn for 45 years, was removed yesterday by the Rt. Rev. James P. De Wolfe, bishop of Long Island.

The main complaint against the son, the Rev. William Howard Melish, was "his chairmanship of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, listed by Attorney General Tom C. Clark as subversive. The elder Melish will be given a double pension—the sum not announced—after he steps out April 4. Parishioners of the Brooklyn church have been split for months—some demanding that the rector remove his son, and others backing both clergymen.

The bishop said he ordered the rector's removal upon the "unanimous advice and consent" of a diocesan committee which conducted a hearing after a majority vote of the Holy Trinity vestry asked the elder Melish's ouster. The bishop's ouster of Dr. Melish automatically relieved the younger Melish of his position as assistant rector.

Retirement Ends Before Started

Los Angeles, March 3 —(AP)— Sprint Champion Mel Patton's retirement ended before it got started. Pell-Mel, holder of the world record for the 100 yard dash, national collegiate 100 and 200-meter champion and 20-meter king in the 1948 Olympic games, will be back on the cinderpath this spring as co-captain for the University of Southern California.

Last Jan. 17 Patton announced he was hanging up his spiked shoes. Kentucky's basketball team averaged more than 62 points a game during the 1947-48 season while opponents got only 39 per game.

Tournament Fever Grows In Duke's Indoor Stadium

Durham, March 3—(AP)—Tournament fever, that annual March madness, breaks out today at Duke's indoor stadium.

The 28th annual Southern Conference cage classic, a three-day basket barrage, opened with this four-game slate:

2:15—South Carolina vs. George Washington

4—Maryland vs. North Carolina

7:30—N.C. State vs. Wake Forest

9—Davidson vs. William and Mary

Semi-finals tomorrow night match the State-Forest winner with the Maryland-North Carolina victor at 7:30, the other survivors following at 9. The championship game will be held Saturday night.

State, as top seeded entry, will be shooting for its third straight tournament crown and a possible bid to a major post-season national tournament. It all depends on how the Wolfpack fares in its own backyard though.

The rest of the field is conceding nothing to Everett Case's crew this year. State wound up the year with a 14-1 conference mark and an overall 22-38 figure. But within the conference the Pack had a couple of close calls. There was a one-point win over George Washington and another with Duke which wasn't good enough on the record to qualify the first time that has ever happened to the Blue Devils.

DiMaggio And His Heel Said Okay

New York, March 3—(AP)—Joe DiMaggio and his aching heel headed back to the New York Yankees' training camp today after a quick visit to his Baltimore doctor.

The verdict: He's Okay. No medical attention required.

The right heel, from which a bone spur was removed last fall, flared up after the Yankee clipper's first workout Tuesday. Taking no chances with their star, the Yankees sent him winging back to Dr. George Bennett.

After an inspection, the doctor said: "There was nothing to do about Joe's heel at this time. I believe he and the Yankee officials became unduly alarmed over the reaction to the first workout."

The star outfielder reported that the heel pained most of the time and "really hurt when I run." Dr. Bennett advised special care but said he was optimistic about Joe's chances of being in good shape in time to open the season.

Loads Of Goals

Providence—(AP)—Harvey Fraser, center of the Providence Reds of the American Hockey League, recently scored eight points in a game—three goals and five assists—to tie the league total for a single contest. Bob Gracie and Bobby Walton both tallied eight points in the same game, on Feb. 24, 1945, while playing for Pittsburgh.

Sport Slants

Bob Carlisle, captain of the University of Pennsylvania basketball team, played on the 1945-46 Quaker quintet which won the Ivy League championship and was sparked by Howie Dallmar, current coach of the Red and Blue.

17-year-old freshmen, including Carlisle, Dallmar worked so hard and well that he was elected captain, an unprecedented honor.

When the war ended, Dallmar joined the Philadelphia Warriors of the Basketball Association of America and helped them take the first B. A. A. championship. Last year, when Don Kellest found that he would be unable to continue coaching because of pressure of business, he recommended Dallmar for the post. In addition to his basketball chores, Dallmar will coach the baseball team. Few recall that Howie was an outstanding baseball player at Stanford and turned down four major league offers to play that game.

Bob Hope's Secret Weapon On Race Track Is Tiny Albino Mule, 'Bing'

Hollywood, March 3—(AP)—Bing Crosby had his fling with the bang-tails and now comes Bob Hope with what he calls a secret weapon for the race tracks.

It's a miniature albino mule—one of only two in the United States. And Bob has affectionately named it "Bing" in honor of his comic-routine pal.

The tiny white mule stands little more than three feet high and weighs less than 90 pounds. It was sent to the comedian by Gene Harris, Chicago night club operator and noted breeder of Shetland ponies.

Hope was on hand to greet "Bing" when the animal arrived last night aboard a Santa Fe express train. Hope says he already has had a long talk with "Bing" about how to put one foot in front of another on a racetrack.

Dolphins Defend Swimming Title

Chapel Hill, March 3—(AP)—The annual Southern Conference swimming championships got under way in Bowman Gray Memorial Pool here tonight.

The University of North Carolina's host Blue Dolphins will be defending the title they won last year with a record 101 points in a field expected to include more than 100 swimmers.

North Carolina is favored again but it hasn't the team depth it had in recent seasons.

Only one event—the 1,500-meter free style—was scheduled for tonight. Seven finals events are slated tomorrow night and seven more Saturday night.

Four freshman events, along with international high diving, will be non-scoring.

North Carolina State, headed by Bill Kelly, figures to make the strongest challenge against Capt. Dick Twining's Dolphins. Both clubs are undefeated in conference dual competition this season.

Kentucky Quint Fame Bolstered

New York, March 3—(AP)—Kentucky's claim to fame in the basketball world was further bolstered today. The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau released statistics showing the Wildcats to be 25 1/2 points better than the average of 26 opponents this season.

Second in the business of running up a big point spread over its opponents is Tulane, another Southern Conference school. The Greenies have averaged 17.8 points per game better than their opposition.

Giants Dig Into Spring Training With Zing, Zest

Phoenix, Ariz., March 3—(AP)—In quite a few years of observing, this agent has never seen a ball club pitch into spring training with quite the zing and zest that the New York Giants have exhibited the past two days.

They're going to be one of the best conditioned outfits that ever hit opening day, barring the unforeseen. The weather is great and Leo Durocher is driving the club like a wild man.

"In all my baseball career—even when I had that young bunch at Brooklyn—I've never run into a spirit quite like this," Durocher declared after the second day's session had run to more than three hours.

No one can say yet how well Walker Cooper's game knee is going to come back, but otherwise the Giant regulars appear to have shaken the aches and ills which plagued them last year. They all think they're going to have a big year, and if it should turn out that way they could be rough.

Willard Marshall, who had a poor year, has taken off some weight and looks ready to go. Jimmy Mize is lighter than he was at any time last season. Durocher says. Second baseman Bill Rigney is throwing well again, and Johnny Kerr, who held out last spring and never got going, is hustling at short.

Frankie Frisch is back as a coach after two years of radio work and is happy as a kid with red-top boots. He and Durocher, between them are out to instill a spirit of fight and hustle, and it is not beyond the realm of possibility they will succeed.

Middlecoff And Mangrum Grab Golf Spotlight

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 3—(AP)—Lloyd Mangrum and Cary Middlecoff are in the spotlight as the winter golf tour began play in the $10,000 St. Petersburg Open today.

Mangrum, dapper Chicago veteran, stands second to Jimmy Demaret in money winning to date this year.

Middlecoff, young Memphis dentist, won the Rio Grande Valley last week and stands fourth in the list behind Ben Hogan.

The field of 162 includes plenty of other stars with good chances to grab the top $2,000. They include Sam Snead, two times winner here; Lawson Little, defending champ; Chick Lambert; Fred Haas; Lew Worsham; Johnny Palmer and at least two dozen other pros.

By BERT MOYE

Four more teams qualified for semifinals berths in the Pitt County basketball tournament being held at the Wright gymnasium at ETC, as the third round of play ended last night. Both the boys' and girls' teams of Belvoir lost out last night, with the boys losing to Bethel, 50 to 15, and the girls' team losing to Farmville, 19 to 16. In the other two contests played Grifton girls defeated the Winterville girls, 21 to 14, and Ayden boys defeated the Grifton quint, 38 to 31.

There are no games scheduled for tonight's play in the tournament but play will be resumed on Friday night at 6:00 o'clock when the semifinals will be run off.

Grifton 21 Winterville 14

The top-seeded Grifton girls' team defeated the Winterville sextette, 21 to 14, in the first game of the third round last night. The game was a hard fight for the favored Grifton lassies and they were able to pull away for a safe margin of victory in the fourth quarter.

Grifton led through the first quarter, 6 to 4, and as the half ended were leading by the slim margin of 11 to 10. In the third quarter the Winterville girls knotted the count at 11-all, but free throws made good by McLawhorn and Phillips for the Grifton team put them out in front for the rest of the way. At the end of the third period the Grifton team was out front 15 to 12.

Nell Mumford led the winners with a total of 10 points, while Peggy Langston with six points led the losers.

Bethel 50 Belvoir 15 (Boys)

Coach Walter Latham's top-seeded Bethel quint and winner of last year's annual county tournament, had little difficulty with the Belvoir boys as they trounced them to the tune of 50 to 15.

The Belvoir boys were held to one lone field goal in the first quarter of play and at this phase of the game were trailing 13 to 2. During the second quarter the Bethel lads piled up 11 more points while holding the Belvoir boys to four points and as the half ended were leading 24 to 6. The Belvoir boys managed to hit the basket quite frequently in the third period as they registered nine points, while holding Bethel to 5, but were still behind at this time 29 to 15. The Bethel lads got mad in the fourth quarter and piled up 21 points while holding the Belvoir boys scoreless during this final period.

Fred Whitehurst with 16 points and Worsley with 10 points led the winners' attack. Leggett accounted for 7 of Belvoir's points and Spain was second high with 6 points.

Farmville 19 Belvoir 16 (Girls)

The Farmville sextette, winner of the girls' division in Pitt County tournament last year, advanced to the semifinals by edging the Belvoir girls, 19 to 16, in the third game of the evening.

Belvoir took the lead in the first period, 7 to 2, as they held the favored sextette to one lone field goal. However, the Farmville lassies began to find the basket in the second quarter and came from behind to knot the count at 8-all. The score was also knotted at 10-all but a free throw made good by Joyce Morgan gave the Farmville girls a 11 to 10 advantage at the half-way mark. In the third quarter R. Hathaway added a free throw and Joyce Morgan added a field goal while the Belvoir sextette were held to one lone point, and the Farmville girls led at the end of the third period 14 to 11, and were never headed during the final quarter.

D. Hathaway and R. Hathaway each got seven points to lead the Farmville attack and Claudia Polard got nine points to lead the losers.

Aydén 38 Grifton 31 (Boys)

The second-seeded Ayden team eliminated the Grifton boys in the final game last night with a 38 to 31 victory. After the score had been tied at 6-all in the first quarter, field goals by Jim McCormick and Teddy Bullock put the Ayden boys out front after which they were never headed. The Ayden boys led at the end of the first quarter 14 to 8, and at the half were out front 28 to 15. As the third period ended Ayden was leading 32 to 21.

Teddy Bullock and Billy Jenkins scored eight points each to lead the winners. Ewell was best for Grifton as he accounted for a total of 13 points.

Louis Gives Mike Jacobs Big Dose Of Own Medicine With Contracts

Miami, Fla., March 3—(AP)—Joe Louis plans to give Mike Jacobs a dose of his own medicine by using the exclusive contract treatment to tie up the heavyweight title for his International Boxing Club.

When Louis wrested the crown from Jimmy Braddock in 1937, he agreed to fight only for Jacobs' 20th Century Sporting Club for the next 10 years. Apparently the Brown Bomber learned a lesson in shrewd promotion tactics.

A most important, but generally overlooked, factor in the signing of Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott to fight for the championship with National Boxing Association approval was the exclusive contract clause.

Charles and Walcott agree, if victorious, to fight only for Louis and his two partners, Arthur M. Wirth and James D. Norris, for the next two years.

Felix Bocchicchio, Walcott's business representative, confirmed this exclusive clause yesterday at his Miami Beach hotel.

One of our neighbor farmers usually puts about 150 pound of Chilean Soda on his oats for top-dressing. Last spring he hauled it to the field in a wagon. Wherever he stop to fill the distributor, some of the Soda spilled on the ground.

"All season long those spots where the wagon done stood look greener and grewed thicker than the rest of the field. The farmer figured that every place he stop must'a got about 300 pound of Soda an acre and made twice as much oats. He told me, I should'a parked that wagon all over the field!"

Will Represent Greenville At Utilities Bill Hearing

The city of Greenville will be represented in Raleigh tomorrow when the General Assembly opens hearings of the House bill reported by Rep. Hart of Western Union, introduced by Rep. Hart of Western Union last week, which would place rural power lines of municipal electric companies under supervision of the State Utilities Commission.

Alderman W. Z. Morton and Utilities Superintendent Martin Swartz will represent Greenville at the hearing, Mayor J. H. Boyd said today.

"We are definitely opposed to the State Utilities Commission taking over our rural lines," Mayor Boyd stated, "for this fact. The contention of those sponsoring the bill is not true. Rural subscribers to the Greenville Utilities lines get the same rate as the city subscribers do. The element of profit that enters into the contentions of those sponsoring the bill is false, because the tax payers of the city have put much more into the city utilities than they get from them." Boyd said the Greenville Utilities at present have some 650 miles of lines outside the city limits, and that there is a backlog of over 600 applications for service in the rural areas.

Rebutting the contention that rivalry between the municipal utilities has resulted in discrepancies and unfair competition among the cities, Boyd said "We do not think there is rivalry between the towns of Eastern North Carolina. Sending city power lines into the rural areas is being done as a public service by the cities."

To Resume Trial Of 14 Accused

Budapest, Hungary, March 3—(AP)—Trial of 14 persons charged with aiding Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in alleged black market money dealings will resume Saturday after a two-day recess.

House-To-House Sales Checked

Greenville police today are investigating reported misrepresentation of the American Lady Corset Company by women making house-to-house sales of women's garments in the city.

"They absolutely are not selling our products," said Charles R. Poole, vice president of the American Lady Corset Company and manager of the Greenville plant, "because we do not sell house-to-house. We do not even make the type product they were reported to be selling."

An official of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce said today that a local housewife said she was called on by a sales lady who said she represented the American Lady Corset Company, and that the sales lady even tried to take measurements for a garment.

The house-to-house sellers were reported to be taking $1 payments on garments and offering C.O.D. shipments, but just what company they actually represent has not been learned, Chamber of Commerce officials said.

Poole said American Lady products are sold only through the company's own agencies, and all the company selling is done to leading department stores and ladies' specialty stores.

Negro Boy Scout Leaders Hold Conference Here

About 40 Negro Boy Scout executives and leaders attended an area meeting representing a dozen counties at C. M. Eppes Negro High School last night. Freeman E. Self of Wilson, executive of the East Carolina District, Boy Scouts of America, presided. G. T. Young and W. S. Hart of Wilson, Negro field executives, participated on the program. Boy Scout executives of Greenville also attended the meeting.

The speakers reviewed the work among Negro Boy Scouts in Eastern Carolina, outlined the needs for improving the service, and announced future plans.

Prof. W. H. Davenport, principal of Greenville Negro schools, spoke and welcomed the visitors. There now are two Negro Boy Scout troops in Greenville, and registrations were made last night for another troop, it was announced.

Daniel Richardson Died Fayetteville

Mr. Daniel White Richardson, 71, died at the home of his grandson, Dan Thomson, in Fayetteville Wednesday at 11 a.m. after suffering a heart attack. Funeral services will be held at First Presbyterian Church in Greenville Friday at 2 p.m. by the pastor, Rev. Leonard W. Topping, assisted by Rev. Mr. Witherspoon of Wilmington. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be R. M. Garrett, Sam Haskins, Billy Barnhill, Will Mayo, Royce Hunsucker and Dink James.

Mr. Richardson, son of the late George and Fanny Armstrong Richardson, was born in Washington, N.C. He operated a lumber company for about 30 years at Dover. He came to Greenville in 1937, but had been living with his daughter, Mrs. Bonner T. Thomason in Wilmington, since the death of his wife in 1944. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Wilmington.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Bonner T. Thomason of Wilmington; a brother, W. Wiley Richardson of Goldsboro; two sisters, Mrs. B. E. Smith of Kinston and Miss Jessie Richardson of Robersonville; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren and a nephew, D. A. Johnston of Greenville.

Overdue Plane Is Found Wrecked

Del Rio, Tex., March 3—(AP)—Sheriff A. E. Steinmetz said today that a missing C-47 crashed in the Colorado mountains south of here in Mexico and that all aboard were killed.

The plane had been overdue for several days on a flight from Hamilton Field, Calif., to Kelly Field in San Antonio, Tex.

Above-Freezing Weather Ahead

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS
The mercury probably will drop to freezing tonight in the Carolinas mountains.

But the rest of both states could expect above-freezing temperatures for the first time this week.

There were frost deposits this morning, generally wherever the temperature was freezing or below.

The Hassayampa River, located near Wickenburg, Ariz., is famous for its legendary lore. It is said "if you drink the waters, facing downstream, you'll never tell the truth again."

Grady On Sick List

Yukon, Oklahoma, March 3—(AP)—And now back to the bedside of Grady the cow.

You'll want to know how she's doing after getting out of that silo where she trapped herself on Washington's birthday.

Frankly, Grady isn't feeling so well.

She's bedded down in Bill Mach's best stall, tenderly wrapped in two warm horse blankets. It's still chilly in Oklahoma.

Although the public swarms to see her, Grady isn't able to do much receiving.

She's on a special diet—ground corn and oats, alfalfa hay and cottonseed cake in cubes. It's just the food for an invalid cow on the road to convalescence—but she's only picking at it.

For Grady has not been well.

"We didn't think so at the time," said Rancher Mach, "but in coming out of the tiny silo door she must have got hurt a bit."

The injuries didn't show up at first. They were to those little splints where you get the milk. They are very tender, and they were roughly bruised when the $1,000 purebred Hereford was smeared with axle grease and push-pulled through the 17 by 25 1/2 inch steel door.

"But she was feeling better this morning, and we're not really worried about her any more. We think she's going to pull through all right," said Mach, who has been tending her with Dr. L. J. Crump, the Yukon vet.

doesn't have to itemize anything unless his deductions exceed 10 per cent. Example:

Adams' income was $5,500. He takes, without itemizing, a standard 10 per cent deduction, or $550. Jones' income was $10,000. He takes the limit 10 per cent deduction allowed or $1,000. Smith's income was over $10,000—say $10,500 or $30,000—but he can claim without itemizing only $1,000.

It's different with a married couple whose income is $5,000 or more.

If they file a joint return, even though the wife had no income, they get a standard deduction—just like the unmarried man—of 10 per cent up to a limit of $1,000, without itemizing.

But—if one of them files separately, or both file separately, there's a flat limit of only $500 in deductions on the return filed. Example:

Jones had $8,000 income, his wife had none. They file jointly. They get a standard 10 per cent deduction of $800, without itemizing.

But take the same Jones, with the same $8,000, and the same wife who had no income. He alone files a return. His wife falls to file jointly with him.

Then his standard deduction is only $500. The couple has lost money. If deductions were actually more than $500, he'd have to itemize them all to prove them.

This may seem unfair to married couples, giving single people a break over them. Congress did it that way to even things up a bit.

Under the new law married couples, filing jointly, get a break unmarried taxpayers don't get. For, by filing jointly, married couples can "split" their income to get a lower tax, as if each were claiming half the total income.

That's not to say we should discard all our fears, for these are harsh times and we certainly must take thought for the future.

However, the thesis of the inevitability of disaster isn't warranted, as things look from here.

In this connection I was much interested in an impression gained during an audience with Pope Pius

Liquor Tax For Alcoholics Care

Raleigh, March 3—(AP)—Alcoholic beverages would be taxed to care for alcoholics under a bill introduced in the house today.

Reps. Frank M. Kilpatrick of Pitt. C. Wayland Sprull of Bertie and others offered the measure which would place an additional tax of one-half of one per cent on retail sales of all alcoholic beverages—wine, beer and liquor.

DIED IN WILSON

Miss Hattie Carr of Farmville died at noon today at Carolina General Hospital in Wilson. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Sir Hubert Wilkins, Arctic explorer, took the first pictures of actual fighting ever shown in motion picture theaters—during the pre-World War I Balkan wars.

The quarantine was part of the "training mission." The fourteen men were weary-eyed when they dropped out of escape hatches and bomb bay doors, although beaming and in good physical condition. But medical officers wanted to check the effects of a non-stop flight and to give the men a chance to sleep—on beds with springs and sheets instead of GI blankets, thin cot mattresses and a bomber floor.

XII by Associated Press correspondents Charles H. Gupitt and John P. McKnight on the tenth anniversary of the Pontiff's death.

The Pope gave the impression that he in no way despaired because the "Peace with justice" to which he dedicated his pontificate has not yet dawned.

We are going to have peace one of these days—no doubt of that. The consensus of close observers is that another world war isn't inevitable by any means. It could come—but fate hasn't decreed it as unavoidable. Constructive and hopeful thinking will bridge a lot of chasms.

Thanks a lot, Grady.
