Balkans Boiling With Rumors Of Anti-Tito Moves

Cominform War On Yugoslav Leader Pushed; Armed Forces Said On Border

Rome, March 17—(AP)—The Balkans boiled with new rumors today of impending action by the Cominform nations against Marshal Tito's Yugoslavia. One report quoted a Moscow broadcaster as saying "the war against Tito's clique has begun in the villages and cities and will not end until complete elimination of the traitors."

This report was carried by Astra, the Italian news agency, which reported last night that Soviet and anti-Tito Yugoslav forces were drawn up on the borders. The Bulgarian government has denied that any forces were gathering on Bulgarian borders.

Astra said the Moscow broadcaster, speaking on a Serb-Croatian transmission, had this to say: "We are not fighting against the Yugoslav people. We wish, in fact, to help them liberate themselves from a tyranny that is bringing their country to ruin."

The Cominform—the Communist International Information Bureau—has blasted Premier Tito of Yugoslavia for nationalist practices which deviated from the line laid down by Moscow. Yesterday in London Ales Bobler, Yugoslav deputy foreign minister, said he expected some new pressure soon from the Cominform against the rule of Tito.

Astra also reported from Trieste that according to the Italian Committee of National Liberation the Yugoslav vice premier and interior minister, Alexander Rankovic, met Western representatives Jan. 25 at Brioni, just off the tip of the Istrian peninsula, which under the peace settlement was transferred from Italy to Yugoslavia. The agency quoted the Italian committee as saying this meeting served as a cover for a meeting of Tito himself with British and Americans on an island off Split.

The report adds confusion to the multiplicity of rumors in Eastern Europe about Tito. In Istanbul this week a diplomatic source speculated that Rankovic might be the man to unseat Tito in a coup d'etat. Rankovic, as interior minister, controls police forces and the Army. However, Rankovic has been the target of bitter Cominform attacks.

Hospital Work Slated To Start Here On Monday

Officials of the McCoy-Helgeson construction company have notified C. Stuart Carr, chairman of the Pitt county hospital board of trustees, that equipment to begin work on the $1,400,000 structure will move to the hospital site by the end of this week. Carr said construction company officials said plans are to cut a road from the Greenville-Palkind highway to the hospital site and to begin excavating for the basement of the building Monday.

Surpass Goal

Chapel Hill, March 17—(AP)—Tar Feels has donated a total of $1,139,112.43 to the March of Dimes. Mrs. Phillips Russell, state director, reported yesterday the annual drive had gone well over the goal of $1,000,000. "Because of the hard work and splendid cooperation of all the volunteer workers in the campaign this year, we have been extremely successful," she said.

Israel's Big Future

Why This Foreign Analyst Believes We Are Witnessing Beginning Of Important World Power In Little Israel; Factors Involved; Geographic Importance

By DeWITT MacKEE ZIE

After the signing of the armistice between warring Egypt and Israel in February 24, this column remarked of the new Jewish state that we likely were witnessing the beginning of another important power. What is the basis for such an idea? Well, in the first place the Jewish race is endowed with an extraordinary amount of determination. That determination is directed towards a spiritual goal: the creation—or better, the re-creation—of the home-land for which the Jewish people have yearned these 2,000 years.

I've been watching this crusade at close range ever since the Balfour declaration of 1917, projecting a Jewish national home in Palestine. The amount of energy, self-sacrifice and never-say-die resolution displayed has been amazing. So in the first place we have the unquenchable determination essential to the building of a new nation. However, there exists not only this spiritual urge but the willingness to implement it with sacrifice and labor, and if necessary, with life itself, as the recent warfare has shown.

Congressional Leaders Concede Truman Program Faces Trouble

Washington, March 17—(AP)—Congressional leaders today conceded privately that the Truman program for the 81st Congress is in deep trouble.

It is clearly apparent, they told newsmen, that from now on a coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats will call the turn on legislation despite the fact that Democrats have nominal control in both the senate and the house.

The coalition rolled in high gear this week when (1) the house ridged the President's rent control bill with amendments, (2) the administration took a beating in the senate on its filibuster fight and (3) a senate committee shelved the President's nomination of Mon Weigman to head the National Security Resources board.

House Republican leader Martin of Massachusetts predicted that other major proposals of the President would fare just as badly. "If they wait for Truman's program to be enacted, we'll be here when the snow flies in December, 1950," Martin told reporters.

The 81st Congress expires then and a new one will replace it in January, 1951.

Martin would not admit that there is such a thing as formal coalition in the house, but one of his lieutenants summed up the situation this way: "It just happens that many of the Democrats in Congress see things eye to eye with the Republicans. This is particularly true of southern Democrats, who owe no allegiance to President Truman anyhow."

This party spokesman predicted that the house would not sharply modify the Taft-Hartley labor law, would not boost the minimum wage in industry to 75 cents, would not vote for federal aid to education, would not approve the President's pre-paid medical-health insurance plan, and would not enact a civil rights program.

There may, he said, be a boost to 65 cents in the minimum wage, some "moderate revisions" of the Taft-Hartley act, a broadening of the social security program and "possibly" an anti-poll tax or an anti-lynching bill.

But there will be no anti-segregation legislation, he said. The kicking around Mr. Truman's program is getting may tighter. He said Feb. 24 in a speech attacking "Special interest" that "I may even get on the train again and make another tour around the country to tell the people how their government is getting on."

Administration officials are now working on details of such a bill. The amount has not been determined but it is expected to be from $150,000,000 to $300,000,000.

In summarizing operations thus far, the President said $280,492,835 has been allocated for spending in Greece. The total for Turkey is $66,670,761.

He said the recent Senate filibuster was brought about by administration leaders as "a deceitful effort to find a good excuse not to keep their promises of a program of civil rights."

If Senate leaders had wanted to break a Southern talkathon, Scott said, they could have broached their controversial rules change earlier in the session, when the Senate met two or three days a week for an hour or two at a time and then adjourned or recessed.

"Instead, he said, "they waited until other legislation, such as the extension of rent controls which must be done before the end of this month, had piled up and then they brought in their proposal to change the rules."

"Now they are screaming because there is a filibuster—the same filibuster they asked for by the course of action which can be charitably described as stupid."

Scott described the President's program as a group of "proposed experiments in creeping socialism."

Asheville, N.C., March 17—(AP)—Gambling trials under way here today had produced testimony that a city jailer received checks from a firm headed by Vaughn Cannon, accused "king bee" of the gambling racket in Asheville.

President May Strike At Revolting Congress

Key West, Fla., March 17—(AP)—President Truman indicated willingness today to strike back at a revolting Congress. This was the interpretation some of his associates placed on his announcement that he will hold a news conference tomorrow morning at his winter White House on this naval submarine base.

The President called the conference late yesterday upon his return from a two-hour fishing trip in which he caught a 16-pound barracuda and a grouper of equal weight. That topped the performance of his entire official party.

The President made it clear after it was all over that he doesn't care much about fishing. "It's customary," he explained, "and the gang wanted to go."

Photographers snapped pictures at will from another boat as the President trolled away in the Atlantic about 10 miles from here.

Mr. Truman had nothing to say about administration rebuffs in Congress when he returned from his fishing. "There has been much speculation wind up passing different bills, there will be no new law until both agree on a single bill. They're expected to. That means house and senate members will have to meet, compromise on their two bills, iron out differences, and finally agree. That's why it is too soon to say exactly what the new law will be.

The house bill—the big point is called the "Home Rule" feature. If it becomes law, it would mean this: Any state, city or county could throw off all federal controls any time it wished even though that state, city or county had no rent control of its own. In short, it could and rent control for itself.

The bill which the senate is preparing is different. It wouldn't permit dropping of all controls. The senate bill . . . All federal controls would end in any state whose governor merely announced his state had "adequate" controls of its own.

Here are a few high spots in the bill passed by the house, and the different kind of bill being readied in the senate. But remember: If both houses

President Says Tide Turning In Greek Civil War

Washington, March 17—(AP)—President Truman told Congress today there are signs the tide of battle in Greece is turning against the communist guerrillas.

The President struck the note in presenting his sixth quarterly report on the American military aid program to Greece and Turkey.

"Since the beginning of 1949," he said, "there are signs that the balance is shifting against the guerrillas."

Mr. Truman spoke of "growing discouragement and disension" among the communist military leaders and added: "The guerrilla movement is approaching bankruptcy in the eyes of the Greek people."

The military outlook in Greece is more promising than it has been for some time, the President said. But he cautioned against expecting decisive victory by the American-supported Greek army too soon.

"Unfortunately, experience must warn us that this does not necessarily preface a quick and easy victory," he said.

"The guerrilla leaders are ruthless in their methods and are willing to ruin Greece in order to dominate her. Much has been accomplished in training and equipping the Greek armed forces; however, much remains to be done."

Mr. Truman made no mention of the administration plan to ask Congress soon for additional money to carry the American military aid program for Greece and Turkey through June 30, 1950.

Administration officials are now working on details of such a bill. The amount has not been determined but it is expected to be from $150,000,000 to $300,000,000.

In summarizing operations thus far, the President said $280,492,835 has been allocated for spending in Greece. The total for Turkey is $66,670,761.

Make Rent Cuts To Keep In Line With Market

Louisville, Ky., March 17—(AP)—Tenants of 54 apartments here have received letters from their landlord announcing a rent cut of $5 a month.

The apartments, five-room and basement units, have been renting for $90 to $95 a month. The property is owned by corporations headed by J. Leroy Highbaugh, Sr. and Associates.

"Nobody suggested we cut rents, we did it on our own," Highbaugh said. "We thought we ought to cut them down to keep them occupied and to keep the rents in line with what the same kind of apartments are bringing elsewhere in the city."

There are three vacancies at the apartments now and four tenants have notified the owners they don't intend to renew leases which expire soon.

Gorilla Scorns Jungle Movies

Chicago, March 17—(AP)—Bushman, giant 20-year old gorilla at the Lincoln Park zoo, isn't much of a movie fan. Even jungle films apparently bore the world's largest captive gorilla.

Bushman stamped around his cage, yawned and appeared unmoved as a jungle movie was shown yesterday.

Split Jerusalem In Two Sectors

Rhode, March 17—(AP)—Israel and Trans-Jordan agreed last night on armistice lines dividing the Holy City of Jerusalem between them.

They left the issues of mutual use of roads and accessibility to Holy places for future settlement. Jerusalem is sacred to Christians, Moslems and Jews.

The agreement, based on their Nov. 29 truce lines, covers the entire Jerusalem sector.

Meanwhile Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations mediator, announced that U. N. observers have found no basis for Trans-Jordan complaints that Israel and Arab forces clashed recently in the Aqaba area.

Neither, he said, was there confirmation of complaints that a small Jewish force crossed into Egypt on the way to Umm Rash, but the report is being checked further.

Although agreement on the Jerusalem sector lines marks definite progress, the road to peace in the Holy land still is strewn with many obstacles.

Reports from Tel Aviv said Israel is angling to take over the western edge of the Arab-held Jenin-Tulkarem-Nablus triangle in North-central Palestine. This section was awarded to the Arabs by the United Nations Palestine partition plan.

Advisory Group Urges Interior Dept. Changes

Washington, March 17—(AP)—A sharply-divided Hoover commission today urged major changes in the Interior Department to tighten efficiency and eliminate "disastrously wasteful conflict."

In a report to Congress studded with "dissents," "abstentions," and "further views" by individual members, the 12-man commission proposed a vast expansion of the department to include all "major public works" projects.

If a similar proposal offered in 1924 had been followed then, the government reorganization group declared, "hundreds of millions of dollars would have been saved to the public over these years." Now, it added, "it is a complete necessity."

Three commissioners, headed by Secretary of State Acheson, the bipartisan group's vice chairman, suggested replacing the Interior Department with a "Department of Natural Resources."

But the majority turned that down and recommended instead including in the present department these functions:

- 1. Flood control and rivers and harbors improvement, now under the army corps of engineers.
2. Public building construction and community services, now major functions of the federal works agency.
3. Hospital construction, including the $1,000,000,000 veterans administration program and the hospital-building activities of the army and navy, but not the grants-in-aid program now under public health service.
4. Civilian airport construction on behalf of the proposed bureau of civil aviation of the commerce department—again excepting grants-in-aid programs.

Under the plan, Interior would

Schools Victory

Raleigh, N.C., March 17—(AP)—After suffering a crushing defeat in the Senate yesterday, legislative school forces rallied to score a resounding victory before the joint appropriations committee.

The defeat came when the Senate killed the "minimum foundation" plan of joint state-sonnity support for the schools, and the victory came when the appropriations group voted to add $28,000,000 to school appropriations for the next biennium.

The additional funds, approved by a vote of 42 to 27, would provide a salary range of $2,200-$3,100 a year for 'A' certificate teachers, as recommended by Governor Scott, and permit a teaching load of 36 pupils.

The extra appropriation would be $12,650,750 for 1949-50 and $15,317,916 for 1950-51.

The appropriations committee vote followed action of the Senate earlier in the day in voting to kill the minimum foundation program.

Points Out GOP Campaign Issues

Hugh Scott Says 81st Congress Done Little Under Truman

Boston, March 17—(AP)—The Republican national chairman said today GOP candidates may base their 1950 campaign on the issue of an "incompetent president" who can get nothing from a congress controlled by his own party.

Commenting that the 81st Congress has been in session for two and a half months, Rep. Hugh Scott, Jr., said that—aside from extending some Republican-passed law—it had done little but raise President Truman's pay and give "federal bureaucrats" a four-day holiday for his inauguration.

"One must admit that in the matter of improving Mr. Truman's personal privileges and tax exemptions the present Congress has worked with him as he promised," Scott said.

He said the recent Senate filibuster was brought about by administration leaders as "a deceitful effort to find a good excuse not to keep their promises of a program of civil rights."

The officers destroyed six 50-gallon barrel fermenters containing 300 gallons of sugar and cornmeal mash. The still was not in operation, but appeared to have been operated as late as last Sunday. The officers destroyed the still with dynamite. The suspected operators are not apprehended.

Invite Portugal, Denmark Iceland And Italy In Pact

Washington, March 17—(AP)—Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal were invited today to join the United States and seven other nations in a North Atlantic security pact.

It is expected all four will join and sign the treaty, details of which are to be made public tomorrow.

Representatives of the four already have been in contact with American and other Atlantic power officials to discuss the alliance, designed to curb aggression.

Inclusion of Italy was a triumph for France and the United States. Britain, the Low Countries and Canada opposed. The British objected that Italy's entry might extend the alliance too far southward and expose the members to unnecessary risk.

The American and French governments argued that a Western outlook and its strategic position in the Mediterranean made it necessary to include her.

In Rome, Communist members of the Chamber of Deputies protested joining an alliance and sought to delay a vote by a form of filibuster.

There are 100 Communist members among the approximately 500 deputies, and when Premier Alcide De Gasperi outlined the plan to an appropriate session today and launched a vote, each Communist took his full legally-allowed five minutes to oppose the treaty when his name was called.

Seven nations originally formed the nucleus of the proposed pact: Belgium, Canada, France, Luxembourg, Netherlands, the United Kingdom and the United States. Norway joined recently. If Denmark, Iceland, Italy and Portugal join as expected, the alliance will boast 13 nations.

The United States also has a somewhat similar treaty with Latin American nations to protect the New World from aggression.

The State Department, announcing the new invitations today, said signing of the treaty would take place in April.

It also said full publicity would be given details of the pact, officially a secret to date but unofficially known in most of its major points.

Colder Weather Cuts Coal Stock

Pittsburgh, March 17—(AP)—Wintery blasts in many areas of the country today built up a potential threat to coal users in the mine shutdown.

The four day old combined memorial and protest work stoppage of about 455,000 hard and soft coal miners started with a huge 70,000,000 ton above-ground supply. But extended cold weather whittles it down fast.

Lucas Promises Vote Today On Coalition Gag Rule; Taft Says Features Of Civil Rights Proposals Can Still Be Approved

Washington, March 17—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today he thinks "important features" of civil rights legislation can be put through the senate under the GOP-Dixie "compromise" on a debate-curbing rule.

They can be passed, Taft said in a statement, "if the majority (Democratic) leader presses" for consideration of them.

Taft came out with his pronouncement while the senate continued debate preliminary to the already-assured adoption of the compromise—a proposal to let a two-thirds vote of the senate membership (64 when there is a full membership of 86) shut off a filibuster. The rule would not apply on any future proposal to change the rules.

A confident alliance of 22 Republicans and 30 Democrats—more than enough to decide the issue—asked only one question: "When do we quit talkin' and start votin'?"

Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois—who owns the title of major—said today he would support the Republican-southern Democratic version of how to gag debate.

Lucas freely and sadly admits he has lost the Truman fight. That campaign was to tighten up present debate limitation rules in an effort to later push through the Truman program for civil rights legislation.

But half a dozen senators—who did not join the Dixie-GOP combine to settle the filibuster issue—wanted a chance to explain why and take a few verbal pot shots at the winners.

GOP policy chairman Taft (Ohio) also had his name on the speech list. But Republican floor leader Wherry (Neb.) and Senator Billal (D-Ga.) strategy chief of the southerners, said the compromise plan is certain of victory when the show-down arrives.

Under it 64 Senators—or two thirds of the membership if all 96 places are filled—can vote to limit debate at any time on everything except one matter. That is any future move to change the senate's rules.

Russell said southerners accepted this compromise because it preserves the filibuster weapon against any future moves to let a bare majority of 49—or even as few as 25 Senators if only a bare majority is present—to gag the senate.

A Lenten Prayer

The Great Teacher
He went round about the villages, teaching. Mark 6:6. Read Matthew 5:1-12.

In the collection of the Master's sayings called the Sermon on the Mount we find the most amazing spiritual and ethical teachings of all times. They are pitched upon a plane of such absolute perfection that even men of faith have been disturbed by them, and theologians have questioned whether they are intended for this world.

Some have claimed that these pure demands are meant only for the kingdom of heaven, and that so long as we are in this world we must confess our failure to live up to them.

This is the very genius of Jesus' teaching: that the whole focus of his interest is upon the will of God and not upon the abilities of men. These teachings are indeed for a kingdom not yet come, yet they bear upon every detail of practical life. We know they are intended for us, here and now, simply because they will not let us rest in mediocrity, but urge us onward beyond our own best endeavors to follow the will of the Perfect One.

Jesus' refusal to compromise the heavenly truth is what causes him to speak as one having authority, and leads him to say, "Truly, thou art a teacher sent from God."

Let Us Pray: Give us, O Lord, the minds of little children that we may come unto the Great Teacher and learn in his name. Amen.

Mrs. Spilman Hostess To End of Century

Mrs. J. B. Spilman was a most charming hostess to the End of the Century Club at her attractive home on East Fifth Street.

Gorgeous Rembrandt jougles, narcissi, crabapple blossoms and other spring flowers were used in unique and interesting arrangements throughout the house.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Key Brown, Mrs. John Messick and Mrs. Fred Langford, served a most delicious luncheon. Table decorations, garnishes and favors artistically carried out the St. Patrick Day motif.

Following this beautiful and sumptuous luncheon, the hostess presented Mrs. J. H. Rose. She reviewed "The Big Fisherman" in such a manner that each listener felt that she had been most interestingly entertained and at the same time had observed Lent by becoming better acquainted with Jesus and His associates in the week leading up to His crucifixion and resurrection.

Guests for the afternoon added much to the outstanding club meeting. They were Mrs. J. H. Rose, Mrs. J. Key Brown, Mrs. John Messick, Mrs. Fred Langford, Mrs. E. D. Whitley, Mrs. J. K. Long, Mrs. Tom Wilson and Mrs. W. N. Sprull. Mrs. Charles White presided over a short business meeting. Books were exchanged and the club adjourned.

Mrs. Vincent Hostess To Round Table

Mrs. W. C. Vincent was hostess to the Round Table at the home of Mrs. R. R. Taylor Tuesday afternoon this week. Mrs. E. E. Rawl gave the program on the subject "America's National Parks."

Instead of the usual conventional approach to her subject Mrs. Rawl achieved a fresh approach by imagining flights of fancy taking her to three places: the river Thames at London, Bedloe's Island in New York Harbor, and the International Peace Garden, on the Canadian border in the state of North Dakota.

The second stop was Bedloe's Island where is found the Statue of Liberty. She told about its being a monument to international friendship the idea for which was originated by Edouard Laboulaye, a French historian whose subject was the United States Civil War. Frederick Auguste Bartholdi did the sculpturing.

The third trip was to the International Peace Garden, which she described as being "North America's living lesson of goodwill." She said the final objective of the Garden is to symbolize the brotherhood of man in the world of tomorrow. The proponent of the Garden, Henry J. Moore of Islington, Ontario, she related, was a lover of nature and his communion with nature no doubt influenced and brought into being the lovely ideal of a Garden of Peace resting on the border between our nation and Canada.

The site of the Garden comprises a total area of about 2,200 acres, 888 of which are in the United States situated on the longest unfortified international boundary line in the world. It is forty miles north of the exact geographical center of North America at Rugby, North Dakota.

Following the program Mrs. D. H. Conley gave very interesting news items. Mrs. Milton White, pronouncing referee, called attention to and correctly pronounced some words that are usually mispronounced. The pronouncing show was lightened by Mrs. White's interposing bits of humor. Mrs. J. A. Karamak was a guest. Mrs. Vincent, assisted by Mrs. R. R. Taylor, served a delicious ice course.

Pilot Training Can Be Resumed In Cadet Studies

Former members of the Air Force whose training as pilots was cut short at the end of the war now have an opportunity to complete their education as Aviation Cadets. Captain Ralph W. Ferrese announced today.

Because of their experience, he said, these former servicemen will be exempt from the Aviation Cadet qualifying examination and the personal interview. The eligibility requirements are the same as for other applicants.

They must be between the ages of 20 and 36½, have two years of college education or the ability to pass an equivalent examination, and have high moral, personal and physical qualifications. Both married and single men now are eligible.

"Thousands of young men were appointed Aviation Cadets and were in various stages of flight training when the wartime program was terminated," Capt. Ferrese declared.

"If any of these men now are living here and are interested in winning their pilot's wings and a commission in the Air Force, they should write directly to Headquarters, U.S. Air Force, Washington, D.C. (Attention: Aviation Cadet Branch) for information about reinstatement as Cadets."

Mrs. Charles Howard, Jr., received the high score prize. The second high went to Mrs. Ed Rawl, Jr.

Miss Foley was presented a corsage and a silver bowl by the hostesses. Miss Faye Duvall, bride-elect of the spring, was remembered with a gift of crystal.

One of the nicest treats that we've had this year was presented to us when Mrs. Franklin introduced our West Greenville Safety Patrol. We are very proud of the work these boys and girls are doing in order to make our school a safer one. Each child was introduced and each gave a report of their work on the patrol.

Mrs. James Little was one of the guests for this meeting and she invited all who possibly could to attend the Marionette show to be presented at the college the 4th and 5th of April. During a short business session several reports were made. Miss Jane Hadley's second grade won the attendance prize.

Mrs. Amos Evans then led the group with a catchy tune which climaxed one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year.—Reported.

Many High Schools To Join In Music Festival

Twenty-one high schools in the northeastern counties of North Carolina will send representatives to the Greenville district meeting of the State High School Music Contest-Festival Association to be held at East Carolina Teachers College Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19.

Five other similar meetings have been scheduled for North Carolina high schools during March in preparation for the 1949 state Contest-Festival in Greensboro, April 19-22. Dr. Rudolph R. Willmann, chairman of the department of music at East Carolina, is director of the Greenville district and has arranged the program for the two-day session on the college campus.

Six bands, eight senior mixed choruses, two boys' glee clubs, seven girls' glee clubs, junior high vocal groups and ensembles, and a number of quartets, trios, and vocal and instrumental soloists from the high schools represented will engage in the contests and present programs at the meeting here. Twenty-three high school directors and teachers of music will be present for the event.

Two public performances have been scheduled. A concert by choruses, glee clubs ensembles, and soloists will be given in the Austin auditorium at East Carolina Teachers College at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening. Bands participating in the Contest-Festival will parade at noon on Saturday from the campus to the Pitt County Court House in the center of Greenville and will stage a performance of massed band marches.

Friday's program will be devoted to vocal performances by pupils in the high schools represented. On Saturday bands, solo performers on the piano and band instruments, and baton twirlers from several bands will participate in the program. Events of each day will begin at 9:00 in the morning.

World Friendship Fund" which was created in memory of the founder of Girl Scouting in this country. Mrs. Low felt that the surest way to international friendship and peace was through the youth of all lands.

The Juliette Low chairman, Mrs. S. M. Crisp, arranged all the details of the party. The Girl Scout colors of green and yellow were effectively used in the table decorations. At either end of the long table were two beautifully decorated birthday cakes with yellow candles and a bowl of jonquils forming the centerpiece.

The troops were responsible for the program which provided a variety of interesting and amusing things. The pennies were collected and then the cakes were cut and served with cream to all the Scouts. All the Scouts were invited to go to Blount-Harvey's after the party to get a souvenir that had been provided by the company. They were little green plastic coin purses that delighted every Scout and Brownie.

The Scout truck went to Fleming Street school and got 27 little Brownies from Negro Troop 16 and took them to Blount-Harvey's to get their souvenirs. They and their leaders went back to the school building to have their party later. They, too, had a lovely decorated cake with cream for refreshments. Troop 16 is the only Negro troop that has met all the requirements of national headquarters in regard to getting in registrations on time.

Americans Fret Over Lack of Civic Interest
Berlin—(AP)—Trying to get the Germans to police their own government is one of the hardest jobs attempted by U. S. military government.

If an American doesn't like the way his congressman or alderman treats him, he raises a loud public beef. But not a German. Decades of autocratic rule have taught him either to be afraid or resigned.

Even now, when he elects his own officials, he takes abuses of power in silence—or at most he grumbles in private.

Military government is trying to teach the Germans to "assert their rights." Murray D. Van Wagoner, military governor of Bavaria, recently gave the Germans a lecture on the subject.

Admit Failure In Berlin Squabble

Lake Success, March 17—(AP)—The president of the Security Council formally acknowledged today that U.N. efforts to settle the Berlin currency dispute have failed completely.

The council president, Alberto Inocente Alvarez of Cuba, indicated he and other so-called "neutral" members of the council have no plan to re-open Berlin blockade debates unless one of the big powers asks them to.

He said, however, the issue remains on the council's agenda and that the members not directly involved in the blockade still are ready to render any assistance which would be helpful.

The Soviet Union has contended that introduction of Western currency into Berlin was a factor in the blockade. The city now has two currencies, the West-sponsored Deutschmark and the Russian-backed East mark. The Western Allies contend the Russian blockade of the city was not primarily because of the currency question but an attempt to drive them out of the city.

Indian Railway Crowding Rapped
New Delhi—(AP)—Overcrowding in the lowest class carriages in Indian railways is one of the main causes, an expert said K. Santanam, minister of state for railways, in the House of State Assembly. He gave these figures to explain the cause of overcrowding:

Passenger traffic had increased from 32 millions a month in 1939 to about 88 millions a month in 1948. The number of carriages, however, had decreased from 11,640 in 1939 to 10,630 in 1948.

Housewives Granted Time Off For Work
Hamburg, Germany—(AP)—Hamburg housewives who also go out to work are to have a day off a month to do their housework.

The city council unanimously voted a bill giving them one full day off a month with pay if they worked at jobs 48 hours a week.

India To Erect Penicillin And Sulfa Factory
New Delhi—(AP)—The Government of India has decided to establish a factory in Bombay for the manufacture of penicillin, sulpha and anti-malarial drugs.

An agreement has been signed with a Swedish firm for technical advice for the design and construction of the factory.

The factory is estimated to cost $5,000,000. It will start work in three years.

Its annual productive capacity will be: 1,200 billion units of penicillin, 100,000 lbs. of anti-malarial drug, 60,000 lbs. of sulphamerazine, 20,000 lbs. of sulphathiazole and 20,000 lbs. of sulphamillamide.

Durham Student Nurse Captures Annual Contest
Raleigh, March 17—(AP)—Julia Lee of Durham is "Miss North Carolina Student Nurse of 1949."

Representing the Watts Hospital School of Nursing, she was selected over eight other district winners last night in state finals of a contest sponsored by the Good Health Association and the State Nurses' Association.

The winner received her crown from Governor Scott.

Prizes for the winner include an expense-paid trip to Bermuda, a beach wardrobe donated by Raleigh merchants, and a $150 scholarship for post-graduate nursing study given by the North Carolina League of Nurse Education.

Strength FOR THE DAY

THE WHITE WHALE
Herman Melville, who wrote Moby Dick, the story of the white whale, is at last coming into his own. His spirit was broken by the cool reception which his writings at first received. His death was almost unnoticed. Now, literary critics are beginning to say that he was one of the great prose writers of all time.

Most youngsters read Moby Dick and like it because it is a bang-up good adventure story. But Moby Dick is a great disquisition on the nature of evil. It abounds in symbolism. The white whale is the evil which afflicts human life, and Captain Ahab is the courageous but blasphemous man who attempts by his own efforts to destroy this evil. In the end it destroys him.

At the beginning of Moby Dick, there is a powerful sermon by Father Mapple, in the Whaleman's Chapel, at New Bedford. The preacher reveals the secret which Ahab did not learn. We have to put life with its evil as well as its good into the hands of God. "I leave eternity to Thee," cries Father Mapple, "for what is man that he should live out the lifetime of his God?"

Have your children read Moby Dick and exit in its adventure? Then read it yourself and ponder its overwhelming spiritual message.

Around Capitol Square

By LYNN NISBET
GOVERNOR—The unanticipated duty devolving upon the chief executive to fill the vacancy in the United States senate created by the sudden death of Senator J. M. Broughton has brought home to many people conspicuous of the fact that Kerr Scott is governor of North Carolina. Of course, every newspaper reader has known that Kerr Scott was inaugurated as governor on January 6. Several thousand Tar Heels, including full membership of the general assembly, witnessed that ceremony. For some of them, up until last week, it was a case of "having eyes and seeing not, having ears and hearing not." Now they have seen and heard enough to know. There is no further doubt. EFFECT—It is this intangible factor more than any specific trading or exercise of official cooperation that has brought about fuller cooperation on the part of the legislature with the governor. By the same token, imposition of this unexpected duty upon the chief executive has had mellowing influence upon Governor Scott. Close observers agree that, without entirely discounting the idea that the governor is using the situation as a lever to gain support for his forward program, both he and the legislature are taking his position more seriously than they seemed to do during the early part of the legislative session.

INDEX—Judge Henry L. Stevens, currently presiding over Wake county superior court for trial of criminal cases, says he can tell by looking over the criminal dockets in the several counties what the economic situation in that area is. In times of ascending prosperity homicides and crimes of personal violence predominate. In hard times the dockets have more cases involving larceny and robbery. He has noted lately a trend toward the stealing crimes. This to him indicates that the highly prosperous era is at least on its way out. And from all over the state come reports of increasing number of sex crimes.

NEW WORD—Rep. John Matheson of Iredell gave the house a new word Tuesday night. Arguing for passage of the bill increasing membership on the state banking commission, the Iredell member cited among other assets for the measure that it had the "Gofor seal of approval." That was a new way of saying that it was an item in the Scott Go Forward program. The bill passed all right.

PYRAMIDING—The spiraling upward demand for larger appropriations for all state departments and agencies has been many times noted. Some weeks ago Dr. Clyde Erwin, state superintendent of public instruction, appeared before the joint committee one day and asked for more money for teacher training colleges in order to supply the demand for good teachers. Another time he appeared and argued for higher teacher pay, since the training colleges were doing such a good job that other states were gobbling up the graduates and if North Carolina didn't meet competition we would be in position of paying for teacher training to benefit other states. This week Senators Julian Altschuler and William Marshall argued for higher pay for county welfare workers on the ground that better salaries for school teachers would drain-off the welfare staffs unless they were raised.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—Mrs. Hattie Caraway former U. S. Senator from Arkansas is holding down an important government job these days, as quietly and unobtrusively as she served her 18 years in Capitol Hill. She is a member of the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, a job to which she was appointed by President Roosevelt in early 1935. She was 70 years old February 1.

I ran into her at a tea, daintily attired as usual, but her smile was just as ready, just as friendly as always. Her face lit up with the humorous twinkle in her eyes.

Did she miss being in politics? I asked. "Not a bit. I'm happy and I have no desire whatever to re-enter politics."

After women's suffrage came in 1920, Mrs. Caraway "just added voting to cooking and sewing and other household duties." In 1912 Mr. Caraway was elected to the House of Representatives. In 1920 to the Senate. The Caraways' sons were appointed to West Point. When her husband died in 1931 Mrs. Caraway was appointed to fill out his unexpired term. Newsmen remember her first official remark on entering the Senate. It was: "The windows need washing."

Clerk Displays Ancient Abacus; Works Faster

Sydney, Australia (AP)—By using an abacus a Sydney clerk can answer in less than 20 seconds a question like what is 13 1/2 percent of $262.46.

An abacus is a counting frame with colored beads strung on wires. It was used by the Babylonians, Egyptians, Greeks and Romans and still is used in China. The Sydney clerk, Mr. C. T. Browne, uses the abacus at his job and claims it reduces his work considerably.

Police Could Be Bandits Rules English Justice

Maldstone, England—(AP)—Plainclothesmen just had to investigate when they spotted a young farmer parked with his girl in an unlit car.

didn't know they were police. I thought they were bandits." Good enough, said the court. Charged with assaulting and injuring the detective, he was acquitted.

Representatives From Fifteen Eastern Towns At Beta Meet

Representatives from 15 Eastern Carolina towns attended the 1949 Northeastern District Beta Convention at the Winterville High School yesterday. Rev. E. G. Cole of Winterville opened the morning session with prayer. Thomas Castelloe of Winterville, retiring president, presided and welcomed the guests. Reports of Beta clubs in the district indicated good progress and outstanding achievements during the year.

This foursome gathered for an informal discussion before going into the afternoon business session of the Beta club convention yesterday. Left to right are Thomas Castelloe of Winterville, president of the Northeastern district of Beta clubs, Joyce Whitehurst of Ayden, Janice Turnage of Ayden, secretary of the district, and Bill Smith of Bethel.

Delegates at the convention were from Ayden, Belmont-Parkland, Colerain, Jamesville, Pantego, Plymouth, Roper, Winterville, Murfreesboro, Robertsonville, Williamson, Washington, Windsor, Bethel, and the Farm Life School of Williamson.

President Castelloe was master of ceremonies at the luncheon in the Winterville High School cafeteria. Rev. E. G. Cole said the invocation. Peggy Langston gave a toast to Betas and Janice Turnage responded. Evelyn Hodges gave a toast to sponsors and Evelyn Glenn responded. Barbara Worthington gave a toast to special guests. County Supt. of Schools D. H. Conley responded. Paul J. Clark, principal of the Winterville High School, introduced the speaker.

Dr. Leo S. Jenkins, academic dean of East Carolina Teachers College, the principal speaker at the luncheon session, paid tribute to the nearly 200 high school boys and girls when he said "You people in this room are the cream of high school students." He enumerated six considerations for planning for a good and useful life. First, he said, one must believe in God, live a religious life and be governed by definite rules of character. Second, the educator advised the students to release their own lives and not be too easily influenced by what others want them to do. Third, he advised the young people to carefully and prayerfully select their mates and pointed out that there must be mutual interests in matrimony. Fourth, Dr. Jenkins reminded of the importance of a person's companions and associates, and said that a person is judged largely by the company he or she keeps. Fifth, the speaker said everyone should have a hobby and that there must be times for work and times for play, and sixth, he suggested choice of high types of amusement.

"The Beta Club as An Organization of Leadership, Service and Achievement," was the subject of a forum conducted by Barbara Jean Phelps, Lois Perry and Dorothy Ferbee of Windsor at the morning session. Candidates for officers for the coming year were nominated. The luncheon at noon was an elaborate affair and the program was inspiring. The candidates for officers conducted a spirited campaign at the afternoon session.

New officers are Betty Jean Jackson of Plymouth, president; Lily Bett Muse of Williamson, vice-president, and Elizabeth Brewster of Jamesville, secretary.

Miss Helen Clark of Greenville is adviser to the Winterville Beta Club.

Club.
The National Beta Club is a non-secret, service-leadership organization for high school students. Membership is limited to those students who are of outstanding merit, and who shall have been selected and nominated by the administrative head of a high school. Any state accredited high school is eligible for a chapter. This organization is committed to the encouraging and rewarding of achievement and leadership wherever they may be found—regardless of circumstances or environment.

It is the desire and purpose of the central organization of the Beta club to reach and assist high school students of all localities. No student may become a member of a chapter of the Beta club—either as a charter member or otherwise—without the recommendation of the high school administration.

Violin Secrets Believed Known

Some — (P) — A 35-year-old ex-soldier who started making violins as a pastime while he was a prisoner of war in Africa thinks he may have rediscovered some of the lost secrets of Italy's great craftsmen of the past.

At any rate, the instruments that France Ponzio has been turning out in his tiny shop on Rome's Avenue Hill are increasingly in demand among professional musicians.

With age, the knowing say, they may even compare favorably with the violins the Amati, Stravari and Guarani put together centuries ago.

Ponzio—short, stocky, swarthy, mustached and modest—himself makes no such claims, merely expressing belief that his experiments with new formulas for varnish have developed something better than modern Italian violin-makers are using.

Although he has unfilled orders, Ponzio expects to sail soon for Buenos Aires. An application he made long ago to emigrate to Argentina, where he has relatives, has just been approved. He expects to continue his trade in his new homeland.

Players from the Philadelphia Eagles led the National Football League in running, passing and kicking during the 1948 season.

Red Oak News

Friends of little Shirley Langley, who still remains at Duke Hospital in a critical condition, will be sorry to learn that her condition is no better. She has lost her sight and is very sick indeed. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to her parents, Mr. Oia Kittrell and Mr. Langley went to see her last Sunday.

About twelve people met together last Sunday afternoon and made plans for an Easter Sunrise Service to be held at Red Oak on the 17th of April. Special music, a pageant "The Way of the Cross," pantomimes and readings will make this a most inspiring service and we hope our friends will make their plans now to attend.

Mesdames Lillian Jenkins, Almata Page, Inez Haddock and Odell Evans are making their plans now for the best Vacation Bible School ever held at Red Oak. They hope to have every child in the community enrolled and already they have ordered their literature and other help for this school. Mrs. James Allen will be the director and Mrs. Clarissa Edwards May will have charge of the music. The ladies of the church will be responsible for refreshments which will be served each day. We are looking forward to this Vacation Bible School and we wish to commend these fine young leaders in our church for starting early so as to make this project a great success

All members of Circle No. 1 are urged to be present at our March meeting which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fenner Allen Sunday evening at 7:30. Four members from Circle No. 2 have been invited to attend this meeting. We are looking forward to a very profitable and pleasant time.

Circle No. 2 will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crawford next Monday, March 21st, at 7:30 p.m. All members are urged to be present.

Next Sunday afternoon, March 20, at 3 o'clock there will be a meeting of all members of the church board of Red Oak Church. Please reserve this date and be present. Rev. Harold Tyre, our minister, will meet with us.

Invitations will be mailed to about 80 men of the community in a few days to be guests at a supper which the ladies of the two circles will prepare and serve on Friday night, March 25. The purpose of this meeting will be to organize the men of the church and community into a working organization which will have as their aim the betterment of the whole community. Rev. Thad Cox of Farmville, Rev. Harold Tyre of Bath and Mr. Guy Elliot of Kingston will also be extended invitations to be present.

The following people have been asked to work together as a kind of steering committee to keep all organizations of the church working and thinking along the same lines and to keep each one informed as to what is expected of them. Mrs. Thurman Page, Mrs. B. L. Tyson and Mrs. Oia Kittrell from Circle No. 1, Mrs. Travis Crawford, Mrs. George Haddock and Mrs. Amos Evans from Circle No. 2, and Messrs. Leroy James, Fenner Allen and Joe Joyner from the church board will serve on this committee for the time being.

Its Only Master is the Person at Its Wheel!

From the standpoint of agility, smoothness and quickness of acceleration—the 1949 Cadillac is a never-ending challenge to the imagination. Yet, in the hands of the person at its wheel, it is as docile as a kitten! Never before has a car so dynamic been under such certain and easy control. The big, powerful hydraulic brakes are completely dominant—yet they are as soft to the pedal as sponge rubber. A touch from the daintiest foot—and the car settles down to a quick and easy stop. A touch on the accelerator, and it moves quickly into any position its driver wishes to occupy. The big, slender steering wheel is feather light in the hand—and quick and positive in its action. Yes, the driver is boss in a Cadillac!

It's a great thrill to take command of such a car—as hundreds are learning every day. Why not come in and see for yourself? Regardless of the price class from which you expect your next car to come, you ought to be familiar with Cadillac.

Claims 16,500 Refugees Can Be Brought To U.S.

Book Hill Falls, Pa., March 17—(AP)—There are jobs and housing assurances available in the United States for 16,500 displaced persons of the Lutheran faith, a church leader said.

Dr. Clarence E. Krumbholz, New York, told the presidents of the United Lutheran Church's 32 Synods last night at their bi-annual meeting that only 401 Lutherans so far have arrived under the displaced persons act.

Slow process is due to difficulties of government and inter-government red tape in Europe, said Dr. Krumbholz, who is responsible for displaced persons resettlement efforts of the eight major Lutheran organizations in this country.

This slow processing "Naturally affects the resettlement program since employers and home owners frequently can't leave positions and housing vacant that long," he added.

He pointed out it takes as long as six months for a person to arrive here after an assurance is received.

Jobless Count

Washington, March 17—(AP)—The government's figure of 3,222,000 unemployed was challenged today by the CIO-United Electrical Workers. The union said the U.S. now has at least 5,000,000 persons idle.

At a news conference, the U.E.'s Washington representative Russ A. Nixon, criticized what he called a government tendency to "pooh pooh" the extent of present unemployment.

The U.E. said its studies showed more than 5,000,000 were idle today — instead of the 3,222,000 which the Census Bureau counted in its last cross section check for early February.

Jobless Claims Surpassing 1948

Raleigh, March 17—(AP)—Claims for unemployment compensation are about twice what they were a year ago in North Carolina.

The State Employment Security Commission reported yesterday that in February estimated 40,761 workers in fields covered by unemployment compensation were looking for jobs.

New claims for the month rose to 24,346, or 90.5 above the 12,779 filed in February of last year. Continued claims were 130,909, or 17.7 percent above the 55,067 of February, 1948. (Continued claims represent the total of all claims filed during a month.) The weekly average of continued claims for February was 30,223.

About 1,000,000 North Carolinians are covered by unemployment compensation.

Veterans' claims for benefits under the servicemen's readjustment allowance program averaged 10,523 in February, about the same as in February of 1948.

Guests Routed By Hotel Blaze At Minneapolis

Minneapolis, March 17—(AP)—Forty guests were routed as fire early today swept the Majestic Hotel building, burning out five business firms and the hostelry with loss estimated at $500,000.

Flames spread rapidly through the three-story structure and within one hour were shooting high into the air through the roof in the view of thousands of spectators.

All Minneapolis fire apparatus was turned out on a general alarm as flying embers threatened other loop structures. Four companies were summoned from St. Paul as standbys.

Gunmen Murder American Woman In Seoul, Korea

Seoul, March 17—(AP)—Two bold gunmen today killed Mrs. Horace H. Underwood, wife of the former adviser to the American occupation military government and former president of Chosen Christian College at her home.

No immediate motive for the slaying was found by police who were aided by American Army units in investigating the shooting.

Mrs. Underwood, the mother of five children, was shot once in the side. She died en route to a hospital from her residence on the outskirts of Seoul.

Dr. Underwood was not at home at the time. He was teaching a class at the university, where he is now on the faculty. Faculty wives were gathered at the Underwood home when the tragedy occurred.

Police said the assassins approached the house from different directions. One went to the back door and threatened the cook with a gun. The other came to the front door, menaced a small houseboy with a pistol and entered.

Mrs. Underwood, police said, grappled with the first man in the kitchen. She turned to the front when she heard the man there and the intruder in the kitchen fired three shots from what appeared to be a sawed off American carbine. One struck her in the side.

Accounts of the guests and servants varied. Some said both men wore hoods. Some of the Korean women guests said the gunmen told them to lie quietly on the floor while they departed.

Siam Kills Off Dogs Which Wander Area

Bangkok—(AP)—In past years all a sick dog here could do was wander hopelessly, waiting to get killed by an automobile driver. Now Bangkok has added three more dog poisoners to its squad of six. The nine-man "humane squad" starts each day with sacks of chopped meat mixed with strychnine tablets and feed the emaciated and wretchedly ill canines.

American Whiskey--1484

Tokyo—(AP)—Japanese bootleggers are enterprising fellows, but they either don't know much about history or don't think their customers do.

U. S. Army criminal investigation agents report finding a bottle of alleged bourbon whiskey in a Tokyo nightclub with this label: "Kingslayer special blended whisky. Manufactured in Philadelphia. Famous since 1484."

Another bootlegger, an economy type, cut liquor advertisements from an old American magazine and pasted them on his bottles as labels. Still others do a fair job of counterfeiting labels but spoil the effect by using them indiscriminately on any sort of bottle, regardless of shape or size.

In all cases, it doesn't matter too much, as the bottles contain practically any liquid except whisky.

Joint Recital Is Planned Mar. 21 By Two Artists

Dorothe Powers, violinist, and Jean Casadesus, pianist, two young artists rapidly winning a high place in the esteem of American concert audiences, will play in a joint recital at East Carolina Teachers College Monday evening, March 21 at 8:00 o'clock in the Wright auditorium. The program will be sponsored by the college Entertainment Committee and will be the first of two attractions offered during the spring quarter by the college. The North Carolina Symphony will appear at East Carolina later in the spring.

Both of the young artists come from distinguished musical families. Miss Powers, Michigan-born American girl, is the daughter of Prof. J. H. Powers, head of the music department at Central Michigan College, who inaugurated the first American high school music festival and contest at the close of World War I. Her mother, brothers and sisters are all musicians. Jean Casadesus carries on a great musical tradition. He is the son of the noted pianist Robert Casadesus and of Gaby L'Hote Casadesus, pianist and famous teacher of music. Four of his great uncles rank Grovo's Musical Dictionary, and in Europe the family name means music.

Night Prowler Is Again Sighted

Southport, March 17—(AP)—Southport's night prowler was abroad again last night.

Chief of Police Otto Hickman said the man was sighted standing upon a saw-horse, peering into a window of a dwelling. Justice of the Peace A. W. Smith and Mrs. Walburg Moore, wife of a former sheriff of police, both reported seeing the man, who fled. Bloodstains obtained from Shallotte followed a trail a short distance but lost it.

It was the first report of the prowler in a fortnight.

U.S. Pacific Fleet Reductions Follow 'Europe First' Strategy

Tokyo, March 17—(AP)—Sudden war in the western Pacific would find Russia with a larger fleet than the United States.

The Soviet far eastern fleet—increased since the end of the war—now includes six cruisers, a number of destroyers and between 72 and 100 submarines of all types. Construction or the assembly of new craft is continuing at Vladivostok.

This is far smaller than the mammoth fleet assembled by Japan before the Pacific war. American naval officers also are inclined to agree with Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall's recent opinion that the Soviet fleet is far behind the times.

Nevertheless, there is a feeling in naval circles that the vast job of keeping the sea lanes open from Hawaii to beyond the Indian Ocean is being done on a shoestring.

The strongest American force in this area is the western Pacific fleet under vice Adm. Oscar Badger now in China waters. Its future disposition depends on events.

A small force of destroyers and minesweepers operates from Japan as part of the far east commander under vice Adm. Russell S. Berkey. His command includes the Pacific Islands stretching from here to the Philippines.

Even with this small force, U. S. navy strength out here is being reduced—partly in line with the "Europe first" strategy. Key officers say they have lost the services of a cruiser and failed in an effort to obtain another destroyer division. This results from a recent Washington order cutting the Pacific fleet cruiser strength by 80 per cent and destroyers by 25 per cent. The skeleton bases in the Philippines and Okinawa will be reduced further for reasons of economy. Pearl Harbor in Hawaii remains the key of Pacific naval strategy—linked by comparative mobility to Asiatic outposts. The reduced Pacific fleet is based in Hawaii. Part of the cruisers and destroyers detached from it will be assigned to the Atlantic fleet and the remainder will be deactivated. ## Blue Nile Dam Is Diplomatic Issue

Addis Ababa—(AP)—If at long last a dam is built across the headwaters of the Blue Nile at Lake Tsana in Ethiopia, as has been reported recently, an old and complex diplomatic question will have been settled in this part of Africa.

The Blue Nile dam problem has long occupied a prominent and permanent place in Anglo-Egyptian relations, and sometimes in Anglo-Italian relations. Ever since the turn of the present century England's diplomatic activity in this particular part of Africa has been postulated on a Lake Tsana dam concession, or at least a guarantee that no other interest should be permitted to tamper with the Lake Tsana water supply.

Between World War I and World War II, Italian influence was strong in these parts. At the present time, with England no longer responsible for Egyptian affairs, Egypt has replaced Italy and is now directly and independently involved.

England and Egypt have long desired to dam the headwaters of the Blue Nile in order to regulate and insure water for the great Gezira irrigation project and the entire Nile water system.

Alert Officers In Hit-And-Run

Shelby, N.C., March 16—(AP)—Carolina's officers were alerted today to watch for a car with broken grillwork which last night killed an eight-year-old boy.

Jerry McSwain was struck down as he walked toward his home with a bag of groceries. It was shortly after dark. A neighbor found him in the street. Beside the body was a section of grillwork. Police said it was from a 1941 Ford.

Philippines will be reduced further. The naval air station at Sangley point in Manila Bay virtually will be abandoned.

Another air installation will be abandoned on Okinawa to be replaced by an ordinance depot maintained by a small force. Naval bases on Guam and Saipan will continue as supply—but not strategic centers.

One result of these developments will be to increase the importance of Yokosuka naval base, about 40 miles southwest of Tokyo, as the major far eastern repair base for navy craft. Japanese workmen under American supervision now are capable of major overhaul jobs on any naval vessel in this area.

For the navy Japan has another advantage. It controls a part-time Dardanelles of the sea.

During at least half of the year when northern waters are frozen, the best outlet for the Soviet fleet is through the narrow Strait of Tsushima separating Japan and Korea. Some Russian ships might be able to slip out through the Northern sea of Okhotsk and through the Russian controlled Kuriles.

Five Titleholders To Play In Augusta Golf Matches

Augusta, Ga., March 17—(AP)—Five of the top favorites of women's golfers are favorites to divide titleholder spoils between them in the 10th annual tournament which begins today over the Augusta country club course.

Three-Way Tie In Seminole Match

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 17—(AP)—The Seminole Club's rich 36-hole pro amateur golf tournament ended in a three way tie for first place yesterday.

Henry Ransom, veteran professional of St. Andrews, Ill. won the individual medal play tournament—played simultaneously with the pro-amateur contest—for the second consecutive year.

Two late entries built the field to 30, one of the largest titleholders since the tournament was inaugurated. Barbara Kirkland of Long Island, N. Y., and Ruth Woodward of Pinehurst, N. C., were the last to register.

Only 28, however, may go off the first tee. Mary Lena Paul of Thomassville, Ga., and Jane Thomas Salisbury, N. C. had not signed in late yesterday.

Every former winner of a titleholder is in the tournament—Miss Berg, winner in 1937, 1938, 1939 and 1948; Helen Hicks, winner in 1940 and back in competitive golf for the first time since that triumph; Babe Zaharias, 1947 champion; Miss Kirby the '41 and 1942 champion and besides Patty the only multiple-winner; and Louise Suggs, the 1946 victor.

No tournaments were held during three war years.

The New York A. C. is contributing $2,000 each year to the U. S. Olympic Fund from the proceeds of its annual indoor track meet.

Question Mark

Sarasota, Fla., March 17—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox third pitching "Questionmark," Dave (Boo) Ferris, will start today against the visiting Philadelphia Phillies.

Manager Joe McCarthy is hoping for a good performance from Ferris to match those of the other two Sox hurlers, Micky Harris and Tex Hughson.

The whole team is enthusiastic over Hughson's work against the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday. He hasn't been of much use to the club due to arm ailments since the Boston pennant winning team of 1946. Against the Cards, he pitched three scoreless innings and bore down when necessary.

Ferris, after a 25-6 pitching record in 1946, lost his effectiveness and has been hit freely in the last two seasons.

No 'Kiner Shift' By Opposition

San Bernardino, Calif., March 17—(AP)—In the five exhibition games the Pittsburgh Pirates have played this year, none of the opposing teams have used the Kiner shift.

This is a play in which three infielders shift left of second base and wait where Ralph "Big Boy" Kiner frequently hits 'em. Maybe there's a reason Kiner has been a fizzle all but so far this year except for one game against the Chicago Cubs, when he got three for four.

Rigney Recovers

Phoenix, Ariz., March 17—(AP)—Billy Rigney, New York Giant infielder who collapsed during a game Sunday, was expected back in uniform today. Rigney was treated at a Phoenix hospital for a heart condition. Johnny Mize, who has been nursing a bruised knee, also figures to be ready for action within a day or so.

ICE BOX SAVED

Dryhead, Mont.—(AP)—Only one major household item was saved when the Claude St. John family home burned here with the temperature standing at 32 below. It was the ice box.

Mother of Boy, 14, Locked In 10 Years

Chapel Hill, March 17—Joe Verdeur of LaSalle, Olympic champion, already has predicted that he will break the world breaststroke record when he swims here next week in the NCAA championships.

A defenseman has never won the Lady Byng trophy, awarded to the National Hockey League player who combines "gentlemanly conduct" with ability.

Mrs. Anne F. Sullivan (above) is the mother of 14-year-old Gerald Sullivan who escaped Monday from the darkened room in which she had kept him locked for 10 years at home in Boston, Mass. She pleaded guilty to the charge of neglect and was held under $2,000 bond pending trial. Police said Mrs. Sullivan told them Gerald was an illegitimate child and she locked him up to hide her "secret sin." (AP Wire-photo).

OVER AT SIX FEET SIX—Richard F. Lyster, of Temple University, clears the high jump bar at 6 feet, 6 inches to take second place in the Knights of Columbus meet, New York.

CROCHETS IN BED—David Jones, 29, of Pittsburgh, Pa., paralyzed, crochets seven hours daily for spending money.

Wackiest Golf Tourney Plans Ready For Action

Washington, March 17—(AP)—Plans were completed today for the world's wackiest golf tournament—the only golf tournament in which nobody asks the question: do you know how to play golf?

The Washington Post's third annual National Celebrities Golf Tournament will be played June 4-5.

And at the top of the list will not be the pros you keep reading about all the time.

In the center ring will be such performers as Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Arthur Godfrey.

And in the side rings will be Gen. Omar Bradley, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Admiral Chester Nimitz.

Also among the expected performers: cabinet members, Representatives, Senators and probably a Supreme Court justice or two.

Strangely, some of the better known personalities are also good golfers (if you're not too critical). Crosby, for example, shoots a pretty steady stick. So do Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Lucas (D-Ill.).

Pepperdine College took up football in 1946, and Gaer helped set up the grid program. His teams in the last three years have won 22 games and lost only six. The first Pepperdine team beat Nebraska Wesleyan in the Will Rogers Bowl at Oklahoma City.

But the question asked of participants isn't, are you a good shot? It's, are you a big shot?

The point of all this? To raise money for the Post's program of keeping youngsters out of mischief by keeping them playing games.

Pepperdine Grid Coach Returns To Alma Mater

Des Moines, March 17—(AP)—Warren Gaer, the first football coach at Pepperdine college in Los Angeles, is returning to his Alma Mater, Drake University, as head grid coach.

Gaer yesterday signed a one-year contract at an undisclosed salary, to coach Drake. He is to take over the job on April 1, replacing Al Kawai who this week was named coach at Temple University in Philadelphia.

Pepperdine College took up football in 1946, and Gaer helped set up the grid program. His teams in the last three years have won 22 games and lost only six. The first Pepperdine team beat Nebraska Wesleyan in the Will Rogers Bowl at Oklahoma City.

Player Gives Self 'One More Year' To Make Good

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 17—(AP)—Six months away from a med school degree, Bobby Brown, 300 hitting Yankees infielder, gives himself one more year to win a regular big league job.

"After three years a fellow should know if he is going to make it," said Brown, "I want to play ball... I'd rather play than eat, but my time is valuable to me. If I can progress in baseball, I'll stick to it."

"If I can't, I'll concentrate all my time on my medical studies. The fellows in my class at med school at Tulane are now finishing their internship. They'll be ready for private practice in July."

Brown, with a "golden boy" handle hung around his neck, has a sizeable bank account to ease the doubt's time work. Larry MacPhail, the president of the New York Yankees, paid him a bonus, variously estimated between $35,000 and $50,000 for signing in 1946.

There is no doubt about Bobby's hitting. He broke in with Newark in '46 and batted .341. Up with the Yanks in 1947 he hit an even .300 in 69 games. Then in the World Series against Brooklyn he compiled the amazing pinch hit average of 1.000.

Last year in 113 games at second, shortstop and third base, Bobby batted .300 right on the nose.

You might think there was no doubt that a young fellow with a .302 lifetime major league average had made the grade. He has as a hitter but not as a fielder.

Debate Closing Historic Pimlico

Annapolis, Md., March 17—(AP)—Will closing old Pimlico help jack up Maryland racing?

Brushing aside sentiment and other discussions, that seemed today to be the question to be answered before abandoning the 79-year-old track at Baltimore is approved.

The Maryland Jockey Club's proposal to operate at Laurel beginning next year got its first going-over yesterday before the State Senate Finance Committee.

And the club's arguments boiled down to a claim it must modernize or "high type of racing" will suffer and revenues continue to go down.

Club spokesmen said there's no room for expanding antiquated Pimlico, it wouldn't be worth it to build a new track and so moving to Laurel is "inevitable."

Stuart S. Janney, Jr., chairman of the Racing Commission, said his body approved the change for the same reasons — to continue high class racing and maintain the state's revenue.

James J. Lindsay of the Jockey Club put the case this way:

"For many years, up to 10 years ago, Maryland was the premier racing state, next to Kentucky. Since then the competition has become more and more keen, especially from Delaware and New Jersey."

But Bowie, located in Southern Maryland along with Laurel, is agreed. Its spokesmen argued that 75 days of racing—50 at Laurel and 25 at Bowie—would be too much racing in one area.

AAU Tourney Is Down To Eight

Oklahoma City, March 17—(AP)—The National A.A.U. Basketball Tournament, which started four days ago with an unwieldy field of 44 teams, was down to eight clubs today with all but one of its seeded entries still around.

Those eight all go into action tonight to decide Friday's semifinals.

Heath Joins Team

Bradenton, Fla., March 17—(AP)—Outfielder Jeff Heath, last Boston Braves holdout, is due in camp today. He agreed to terms by telephone from his Bow, Wash. home yesterday and said he'd take the first available plane. As usual, terms were not disclosed, but it is reported Heath received around $20,000 last season.

Four 'Cinderella Teams' In Semifinals Of Cage Meet

New York, March 17—(AP)—Four Cinderella teams battle tonight in the semifinals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

Loyola of Chicago, conqueror of mighty Kentucky, meets Bradley, upset winner over Western Kentucky, at 8 o'clock (EST) in Madison Square Garden. San Francisco, which nipped third-seeded Utah in the final seconds, engages Bowling Green, surprise victor over St. Louis, at 9:45.

These four teams—of the 12 that started the tournament—weren't even supposed to still be in town. The script called for them to bow out gracefully during Monday's games. Instead, they tossed the script out the window in the greatest series of upsets in basketball history.

Ever since Monday night the guys who like to wager a dollar or two on the college boys have been scurrying around trying to find "the line." This morning Bowling Green was favored by five points and Loyola by three.

None of the four teams has ever won the invitation. Loyola reached the finals in 1939, the only other time it was entered. Bowling Green has tried four times previously, getting as far as the finals in 1945. Bradley has been in it three times, but never past the semifinal round. San Francisco is trying its luck for the first time.

The original seedings, which were wiped away Monday, listed Bradley fifth, followed in order by San Fran-disco, Bowling Green and Loyola. Bowling Green, which owns the poorest season's record of the bunch, is riding the crest of a 15-game winning streak that dates back to Jan. 11 when it lost to Kentucky by two points. Altogether the Falcons have won 23 and lost six, including their two tournament victories. Bradley has the best mark—27 and six. Loyola won 24 while losing five and San Francisco won 23 and lost five.

The finals will be played Saturday night with tonight's losers meeting in a third-place game.

Gonzales Starts Bid For Triple Tennis Crown

New York, Mar. 17—(AP)—Richard (Pancho) Gonzales begins his quest for an unprecedented triple crown today in the opening session of the National Indoor tennis championships.

The 20-year-old Mexican-American youth from Los Angeles will try to add the indoor title to the National outdoor and national clay court championships he already holds.

No player ever has won all three crowns simultaneously. Several have held the turf and clay titles at the same time but only four—Jack Kramer, Rene Lacoste, Bill Tilden and Bobby Riggs—have captured the indoor championship while reigning as outdoor king.

Erect Bleachers For Swim Meet

Chapel Hill, N. C., 17—Bowman Gray Memorial pool here, home of North Carolina's perennial Southern Conference champion Blue Dolphins this week is undergoing a face lifting as preparations are being pushed for the NCAA swimming championships March 24-26.

Bleachers are being installed on both sides and at one end of the pool in order to provide as much seating space as possible for spectators viewing the legions of the world's finest swimmers who will compete here.

Nearly 1,000 seats will be available in the compact little building and season tickets are now on sale. They are priced at $4 each for the complete show—finals events each of the three nights, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with preliminaries mornings and afternoons.

Meanwhile Coach Ralph Casey has his Dolphins drilling for the competition which will attract 35 or more teams from all parts of the country. He is hopeful that some of his aces, such as Capt. Dick Twining, Floyd Drew, Norman Sper will be favored in every event.

Michigan is the defending champion and is loaded with top talent although several of the defending individual champions are from other institutions.

Mel Ott led the National League four times in home runs.

Wily Wilcat

The first official act of Adolph Rupp, Kentucky's famous court coach, upon being named coach of the East All-Star basketball team was to select four of his own boys for the squad which meets the West in Madison Square Garden. Rupp named Ralph Beard, Alex Groza, Wallace (Wah Wah) Jones and Cliff Barker, all of whom played with the National Collegiate championship team of 1948 and with the American Olympic team which won the title at London. This quartet is the mainstay of the current Kentucky squad which is ranked No. 1 in the nation.

"They are all graduating," says Rupp. "They're all great players."

They have been with me four years and they will make fine players for the East squad. I want them all. This is the first time in the history of the East-West series that as many as four players from one team appear on an All-Star squad. As a matter of fact, only once before were there as many as two men from one school. That was in the inaugural of the classic in 1946 when Sid Tanenbaum and Frank Mangiapane, of New York University, helped the East beat the West. With Beard, Groza, Jones and Barker on hand to give Coach Rupp a ready-made unit of his own pattern, the East will likely be favored to outscore the West All-Stars.

Boxing Coach Is Confident GHS Will Win Share

Greenville High School may have a winner in each weight group of the Pitt County Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament which gets underway here next Thursday and lasts through Saturday night.

Paul Hansell, ETC student from Thomasville who has been coaching the Greenville boys for the past two and one half weeks, said yesterday that he believed his boys could hold their own against any novice competition in the county.

"We expect to run into some pretty rugged competition from some of the farm boys from out in the county but I believe we'll be in as good shape as any team entered," Hansell, who himself won four matches with the East Carolina boxing team this season, said yesterday.

Among the most outstanding boys who are candidates for the Greenville team are Billy Tighman, a 138 pounder; Bobby Odum, who weighs 118; Billy Nobles, 115; Dave Thompson, 133; and Wallace Conway, 168. Members of the East Carolina boxing team are serving as coaches for the county teams. The tournament is being sponsored by the athletic department of the college under the direction of Coach Jim Johnson.

Phillies Uncover Cleanup Batter

Clearwater, Fla., March 17—(AP)—If shortstop Granville Hamner continues to pound the ball in his present fashion, the Philadelphia Phillies may have a new cleanup batter.

In 25 trips to the plate in training camp games this year, Granny has 10 hits to his credit, two of them made yesterday as the Phils defeated Cincinnati 2-1.

Hitting Harder Without Glasses

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 17—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics have every reason to believe Sam Chapman's spectacles are gone for good.

Last season, centerfielder Chapman donned glasses in an effort to improve his hitting. This year, he's cast them aside in hope that his eyes have overcome a temporary weakness.

In yesterday's 4-3 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers, Sam came through with the payoff triple in the 11th inning.

Connie Mack, Irish and Optimistic At 86, Still Talks 'One More Flag'

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 17—(AP)—At the age of 86 when most men are wheel chair cases, Connie Mack sits in the Philadelphia Athletics dugout and talks about one more pennant.

If an Irishman can't be optimistic on St. Patrick's Day then life isn't worth living, Mr. Mack is both Irish and optimistic starting his 49th season as manager of the A's.

"At first I thought Cleveland had it clinched but I changed my mind," said Mack in his annual second guess. "I think we have a chance along with New York and Boston. Cleveland has to win again to prove that it's a good team."

"Our club is about the same. Good defense but we don't hit. Our pitching is fine. I never saw an infield that could throw as good as ours. The A's were generally overlooked last spring. Many experts' faces were red when they climbed into the American League race and remained there until late August. On paper they didn't rate but they were there all the way until Joost was injured. They finished fourth."

Hamburg To Cut Window Lighting

Hamburg, Germany—(AP)—Because of the criticism of the British community here, German shopkeepers have been ordered to cut down their window lighting and neon signs.

Britons pointed to the difference between auster Britain, where electricity is severely rationed, and Hamburg where shop window lights were left on all night for display and the whole city had come out in a rash of neon signs.

A British official statement said the shops and signs used only one-half of one per cent of the total Hamburg load. The city was already exporting one-third of its electricity production and planning to export more, the statement added.

Corned Beef Hash Croquettes

Blend together in a mixing bowl:

- 1 can Wilson's Certified Corned Beef Hash
- 1 teaspoon Wilson's B-V

Mix well, then shape into croquettes, making five or six from the mixture. Chill about 10 minutes in freezer tray of refrigerator until firm enough to handle easily. Roll in a mixture of:

- 1/4 cup fine dry breadcrumbs and
- 2 tablespoons melted Wilson's Clearbrook Butter or Certified Margarine

Then dip in beaten Clearbrook egg and roll in crumbs again to coat well. Either bake in a hot oven (375° F.) about 20 minutes, without turning, or brown more quickly under broiler heat turning over when browned on top. Serve on a hot platter with or without sauce made by merely heating undiluted condensed tomato soup.

*For a variation in flavor, add 1/4 teaspoon prepared mustard with the B-V.

Bavarian Linen Maker Salvaging U.S. Scrap Steel

Pueblo, Colo.—(AP)—Eugene Untermyer has made a lone and successful jump from making fine linen in Bavaria to salvaging iron at Pueblo's steel mills.

The 63 year old man fled Germany with his family in 1940. He left behind one of Bavaria's largest linen plants which he'd owned for 40 years.

He tried selling books in New York City to maintain his wife and two children. But at the suggestion of a friend he trekked westward to Colorado. The son was with U.S. ski troops in training at Camp Hale near Leadville.

Untermyer took a job at Pueblo with a New York metal salvage company. It was trying to recover metal from the slag dumps of the Minnequa steel mills of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Corp. The New York firm abandoned the work because it couldn't make a profit.

Untermyer decided to tackle the job himself. He obtained a contract from the C&I and took up where other firms had failed. He is directing a big operation now in the recovery of the metal. The project involves the eventual working over of about six miles of dumps which are mountains of blast furnace slag.

Powder charges blast loose the material and four bulldozers push it aside in swaths while workmen pick over the dislodged scrap. Most of the recovered metal is in small pieces but some recoveries weigh a half-ton. Trucks haul the accumulations to the steel mills where they are used with other scrap in the open hearth furnaces in making steel.

Untermyer speaks five languages and is an etymologist—an expert in the derivation of words. He is also a metallurgist.

America is the land of opportunity, he says. "Any man can learn to do anything."

Poles To Build Dock For Soviet

Odynia, Poland—(AP)—Polish shipyards, hard at work building new vessels for Poland's mercantile fleet, have just received their biggest order—from Soviet Russia.

The Soviet ministry of foreign trade asked the Poles to rebuild two sections of a "great floating dock." Parts of the dock already have been delivered to Gdynia.

Nick Etten's league-leading total of 22 home runs in 1944 is the lowest winning mark in the American League since 1919.

Marionettes Here April 4-5

The Greenville Service League is sponsoring the appearance here of Suzari's Marionettes in "Pinocchio," a puppet show, at Austin auditorium at the college for the benefit of the children's recreational fund. The Suzari Marionettes provide entertainment and educational value. They will present a fresh and lively version of the old-time children's favorite.

Suzari's audiences do more than witness a performance of a show.

By means of participation and sympathy which the wooden actors move, children really become a part of the story itself. The rewards of good deeds on the part of the puppets are enjoyed by the audience, too, during the triumphant ending of scenes, which send the children away at last, smiling and happy.

Tickets to the "Pinocchio" puppet shows, April 4 and 5, are on sale at Ellington Book Store.

and windows."

Flown here under auspices of the International Refugee Organization, the homeless children arrived yesterday at New York International Airport.

Two curly-haired youngsters hugged each other, and tears streamed down their cheeks.

Few of them spoke much English. They gathered in a little group, and 10-year-old Alexander Kleins led them in singing a haunting Latvian folk song, "Sauli Tešej Tešedama."

At the center of the U.S. Committee for the Care of European Children, where they will await assignment to foster homes through religious agencies, the children were given lunches and oranges.

They stared at the fruit, not knowing how to eat it. Attendants showed them how.

Then they were given new pajamas, and went to sleep, with the small blue boxes beside their beds.

Ty Cobb won the American League batting championship 12 out of 13 seasons between 1907 and 1919.

Baltimore with 43, New York with 37, and Chicago with 28 completed the 1948 All America Conference season without missing a point after touchdown attempts.

New York, March 17—(AP)—They trooped down the steps from the plane, a little hesitantly, carrying small blue boxes.

Everything they owned was in those boxes.

There were 66 of them, war-orphaned children brought here from Germany to enter foster homes.

An attendant offered 6-year-old Erna Kulmanis a plate of pot roast.

She started to cry. She didn't know what it was. They wore odd caps and knitted hats of khaki wool. Their clothes were neat, but mostly out-sized and hand-me-downs.

A Memo from General Dwight D. Eisenhower

President of Columbia University

Organizations and institutions—educational, social, humanitarian—supported financially by voluntary individual contributions are characteristic of our way of life. Evidence of our people's readiness to help each other. In their forefront is the American Red Cross.

Once a year the Red Cross calls upon us all to help carry on its work.

Each of us has his own personal reasons for answering this call. These are mine:

To men in the Armed Forces, the Red Cross is a prompt, efficient friend in personal emergencies.

To war Veterans—particularly those confined to beds and wheelchairs in Veterans' Hospitals—the Red Cross remains a constant friend and counselor.

And to all of us, the Red Cross is the recognized civilian disaster relief agency. It has the know-how to meet human needs growing out of a large-scale national emergency.

For all these deeds and for the other services it performs, the Red Cross deserves our continuing support.

it go?"

"Not as you expected, Don Fernando." Don Fernando spun about, eyes bulging. It was Rivers who stood there, impossible as that could be. Here was disaster. For a moment, wild and unreasoning terror laid hold upon Gonzales.

His hand went to his sword, whipping it loose, and he lunged murderously. A stroke which might have succeeded in its sheer suddenness, save for one thing. And now it was as though the dark gods whom he had flouted laughed in turn.

Don Fernando slipped on the blood of the slave he had killed a few minutes ago. The next instant Don Fernando was sprawling on his back, the sword knocked from his hand.

More unnerved than before, Don Fernando scrambled to his feet, backing away from the grimly smiling face which was so like his own. He backed against the rail, which caught him behind the knee. Then he too was going down to the unfriendly waters.

Rivers saw him come to the surface, swimming strongly, heading for the shore, desperation driving him. Someone on deck exclaimed, pointing.

It looked like a swirl in the water, an ugly smut. Back from it, a pair of knots protruded above the surface. A giant 'gator'!

Rivers saw, and his glance fastened on something else—a musket, placed against a pile of rope by Don Fernando against possible need. He snatched it up, leveled and fired.

For an instant, nothing seemed to happen. Then the alligator now only a length behind, went into wild convulsions. The water crimsoned about it, and Don Fernando retraced the shore. Beside Rivers, de Villiurac spoke.

"That I would almost class as poor shooting, Señor—to miss the man and hit the 'gator'!"

Rivers looked at him, and seeing the underlying grin, smiled in turn. He paused to watch Don Fernando, who, having reached the shore, did not pause. There on shore was a pirouette. Whose property it might be, Don Fernando did not stop to inquire. He showed it out, leaped in, strip of water toward the open river beyond, as the sun went down and the dark rolled across the bayous.

"For my part, I am more than satisfied, the way it has worked out." Dikton stood, Irene beside him, looking down at the river as the ships nosed out to it. "No one is cheated. And you, Jean Rivers, seem to have inherited two stout ships—and more."

He moved away, Irene beside him, and Rivers, strangely hesitant now, crossed to where Donna Dolores stood.

"If you would still be willing to marry—when we get to New Orleans," Rivers suggested. "Though I—I'm not the man I was supposed to be."

"But you are more than the man you were supposed to be," Donna Dolores retorted. "Do you not think that I have known that for a long time?"

'End Of The World' Rumor Frightens Rural Germans

Frankfurt, Germany, March 17 (AP)—A minor panic gripped backward rural areas of western Germany today over rumors of the "end of the world."

The rumors that today was to be the last day for mankind had been growing throughout Germany for several weeks. They were based upon a publicized prediction of an astrologer whom nobody can identify.

Most city dwellers went gaily about the work but reports from Bavaria said superstitious country folk were flocking to churches and making their wills.

In the Bayrische Wald (Bavarian woodland), a furious blizzard last night cut electric power cables and caused considerable excitement, reports from Passau said.

The reports said altars were put up in homes and churches were jammed with people who prayed for hours and refused to be calmed by priests.

The official weather station at Ries near Passau said it had received many calls from frightened folk asking the exact hour of the expected catastrophe.

Frankfurt weather station said it also had received dozens of calls, mostly from farmers.

The geophysical institute of Frankfurt University said it had been called by persons asking if an earthquake was expected.

In Nuernberg a rumor circulated that today would bring the outbreak of a new world war but not the end of the world.

Church leaders and scientists labelled all the excitement as "nonsense."

And in a Frankfurt cafe, a portly German bartender commented: "The beer is flowing like usual and is okay as the beer flows, the world is long."

Syracuse University's basketball team of 1926-28 won 19 out of 20 contests.

Solons Critical Of Admitting Red Delegates

Washington, March 17 (AP)—Critical lawmakers said today that if Soviet delegates are to be admitted to this country for a "world peace conference," Americans should get equal treatment from Russia.

Several times in the past, Moscow has refused to let in congressional committees or individual lawmakers.

But the State Department said yesterday that 22 delegates from Russia and other communist dominated nations will be allowed to attend a peace conference called by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

Chairman Wood (D-Ga.) of the House Un-American Activities Committee said his group may look into the matter. Senators Mundt (R-SD) and Ferguson (R-Mich) were critical of the State Department's action.

KEYS STOLEN FROM CAR PARKED NEAR GROCERY

Police said today that James Sutton, 1301 Forbes street, reported to them that while his automobile was parked near the Grand Avenue Grocery store late yesterday somebody stole the car keys. Police are investigating.

FIRE IN CLOTHES CLOSET

The fire department was called to Bonner's Lane and Pamlico Avenue about 11 a.m. today when some clothing caught fire in a closet at the home of Charles Waters, colored. The blaze was extinguished when firemen arrived. Damage was nominal. The alarm box 74.

Great Britain has only one acre of cropland per person.

Woman's Club In National Contest

The Greenville Woman's Club has entered the "Build a Better Community Contest," sponsored on a nation-wide scale by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. J. Vance Perkins announced today.

A contest to build better communities throughout the United States has been launched by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. "The purpose of the contest," said Mrs. L. Blair Buck, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, "is to encourage community leaders to develop community improvement programs."

The project was announced by Mrs. Buck at a recent luncheon in Washington at which Vice-President Barkley was the speaker.

Clubs entering the contest will be judged on the basis of their project's value to the community, on thoroughness of organization, effort expended, results obtained, and the quality of the clubs' report on their community service activities.

Although the contest will run from January 15, 1949, to January 15, 1950, women's clubs have until April 1, 1949, to enter. The clubs will be divided into three classes on the basis of size, so that large clubs will not have an advantage over small clubs. There will be prizes of $5,000, $3,000 and $2,000 for the three national winners in each classification. There will also be an added $5,000 prize for the club whose project is judged best in the entire country.

The General Federation listed eight classifications in which a majority of the projects will probably fall. They include health, youth, education and culture, fine arts, conservation and beautification, safety, housing and government.

Closed Shop Act

Raleigh, March 17 (AP)—Ignoring a plea by Governor Scott, a House committee voted today to amend North Carolina's stringent anti-closed shop act.

The Committee on Manufacturing and Labor voted 18 to 14 to report unfavorably a measure which would permit voluntary union shop agreements between employers and labor unions.

A fight on the House floor on the closed shop issue loomed as Rep. Howard E. Parker of Harnett gave notice he would seek to a minority report on the bill.

Rep. Clyde A. Shreve of Guilford, who introduced the bill, read to the committee a letter from Governor Scott urging that it be passed.

Former Convict Held In Slaying High Point Man

High Point, N. C. March 17 (AP)—A former Indiana convict today was held by High Point police as they sought clues in the kidnap-slaying of Carl H. Davis, 28.

Davis' bullet pierced body was found last night face down in a shallow stream under a low bridge near the High Point College campus.

Davis had been widely sought since he disappeared Monday night. A short time after his disappearance, his father, McKinley Davis, received a note demanding $5,000 for his safe return.

Police Chief C. C. Stoker said Charles Steeton, 49-year-old short order cook of nearby Jamestown, had told officers where they could find the body of the young man.

ATTENDS MEETING

Reynolds, professor of mathematics at East Carolina Teachers College, is attending the annual Southeastern sectional meeting of the Mathematics Association of America in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, this week end. James S. Butler of Goldsboro, Zolmay Bradley of Rocky Mount and Elva Martin of Roanoke Rapids led the discussion of various phases of association activities.

After the luncheon session John Swain of Raleigh conducted a discussion of "Credit Reporting." Wesley Williams of Raleigh discussed "Public Relations." Allen A. Chappell of Wilson led the discussion of "Office Management." An open forum, including general discussion, featured the closing hour of the meeting.

PLAN NCEA MEET

Asheville, N.C., March 17 (AP)—More than 3,000 teachers and school administrators are expected to gather here April 7-9 for the 65th annual convention of the North Carolina Education Association.

Organize Singing Convention; First Meet In Farmville

The Pitt County Singing Convention, organized recently to encourage community singing and the development of vocal talent, will hold its first meeting at the Farmville High School in Farmville next Sunday, March 20, at 2 p.m. The King's Crossroads Choir is sponsoring the project. The programs will be broadcast over WGTO each Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

The singing convention is non-denominational and membership is open to all Pitt county singers and groups of singers. Singers, individuals or groups, planning to participate in the "songfest" are requested to be present and register at 2 p.m. with Miss Gene Dilda, secretary of King's Crossroads Choir.

Six Pitt County choirs have enrolled. They are Caldale Baptist Choir and the Holiness Choir of Rocky Mount, Scranton Male Quartet, Tyson Male Quartet and the Paragon Male Quartet. Several other groups will participate. A loud speaker will be installed for an overflow crowd.

Puppet Show To Be Shown Pupils

Gay McLawhorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis T. McLawhorn of Winterville, participated in the student chorus of "Lovetime," annual comedy presented by the Hoop N' Horn Club of Duke University March 17 and 18.

"Lovetime," eighth all-student presentation by the group, told the story of two script writers who visualized each scene in their proposed play as they wrote it.

Reports Theft Of Diamond Necklace

A police report today states that Violet Jordan reported to them the theft of a diamond-studded necklace in the shape of a cross, with a platinum chain, valued at $150, from her room at 202 Library street. Police are investigating.

ABC On Rent . . .

(At present only five states—Connecticut, Illinois, New York, Maryland and Virginia—have rent control laws of their own to take the place of a federal law after March 31.

But the Maryland law ends June 1 and the Illinois and New York laws end June 30.)

This dropping of federal rent controls—although under different circumstances—is the high point in both House and senate bills.

But both bills would allow rent increases, although in different ways. Senate—Let landlords raise rents 5 per cent on Oct. 31, 1949, and another 5 per cent on March 31, 1950 provided that—

The total increase the landlord got did not exceed 15 per cent above what he got for his place on June 30, 1947.

So a landlord who already had raised rents 15 per cent since June 30, 1947, under the senate bill couldn't get another increase.

House—Wipe out that part of the present law which lets landlords, through agreements with tenants, raise rents 15 per cent, although such agreements already in effect wouldn't be disturbed.

But—the house bill would let the government's rent boss, the housing expediter, allow a landlord to raise rents, where practicable, so they'd get a "reasonable return" on their property.

Senators thought that part of the house bill wouldn't work. They don't want it in their bill.

Advisory Group . . .

(Continued on page twelve) lose only the bureau of Indian affairs, the bureau of land management (except minerals), and commercial fisheries. The commerce department would get commercial fisheries, Indian affairs would come under a new department for social security, education and Indian affairs, and land management would go to the agriculture department.

One member of the commission, retiring secretary of defense Forrester, because of his cabinet position, abstained from recommendations relating to the army engineers.

The task force found expensive conflict between the corps of engineers, the bureau of reclamation and the federal power commission. The Hoover group cited as an example duplicate sets of plans prepared for a project at Hell's Canyon, Idaho.

It said each set of plans cost about $250,000, and noted that there was a difference of $75,000,000 in the costs established by the two blueprints.

Israel's Big . . .

The answer is that Palestine occupies a key position in the big middle east zone which forms a land bridge uniting three continents—Europe, Asia and Africa. The middle east is of tremendous strategic importance militarily, and it contains vast wealth in the form of petroleum. It is vital to control of the Eastern Mediterranean and the Suez Canal.

Israel has every right to believe that with her equipment and determination she can become the most influential nation on this huge land bridge which is made up of Arab nations. Thus while in herself she couldn't claim the status of a "great power, on the strength of her own

N.Y. Cotton

New York, March 17 (AP)—Cotton futures opened 10 to 45 cents a bale lower.

Noon prices were 20 to 6 cents a bale lower than the previous close. March 22.25, May 32.00 and July 30.95.

Hog Market

Raleigh, Mar. 17 (AP)—(NCDA)—Hog prices irregular. Tops of $18.75 at Kinston, Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Greenville, Wilson Goldsboro and Washington.

Poultry and Eggs

Raleigh, Mar. 17 (AP)—(NCDA)—Fryers and broilers, steady at 28 for weights up to 3 1-4 pounds, demand slow for heavier weights; eggs steady, A large 43.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, March 17 (AP)—Rising tendencies replaced early indecision in the stock market today. While the forward movement was not a sweeping affair, the majority of issues scored gains of fractions to more than a point. A handful of small losses, notably in the rails and steels, also were posted.
