Claim Health Plan Blocked By AMA

Committee Contends 'Monopoly' Practices Of Organized Medicine Choking Off Administration's Program; Bill Expected In Ten Days

Washington, April 15—(AP)—A committee backing President Truman's health insurance program contended today that comprehensive voluntary insurance plans are blocked by "organized medicine's monopoly controls."

The Committee on the Nation's Health, headed by Dr. Channing Frothingham, past president of the Massachusetts State Medical Society, sent a report on the subject to Mr. Truman.

Senator Murray (D-Mont.) said the Administration health plan including a compulsory insurance feature—probably will be introduced within 10 days.

The report submitted by the Frothingham group said "monopoly" practices of the American Medical Association's state and county societies "are depriving American families of better and more comprehensive medical insurance plans at reasonable costs."

The American Medical Association is an outspoken critic of compulsory health insurance, calling it socialized medicine.

The Frothingham report said "special laws instigated by medical societies" have been enacted in 22 states, "in effect preventing the establishment of voluntary health insurance plans unless they are controlled by organized medicine." It added:

"The medical societies x x x have choked the development of medical insurance offering comprehensive health service, in favor of plans offering only very limited services."

"They have restrained doctors from free experimentation in improved forms of medical service and have prevented the people from experimenting with improved methods of payment for service."

"Farsighted, fair-minded physicians ought to assist labor, business, farm, cooperative and civic organizations in removing these restrictions promptly from the American scene."

Senators opposed to President Truman's proposals already have jumped the gun on the Administration by offering legislation of their own to expand medical and hospital services.

A bill introduced yesterday by Senators Taft (R-Ohio), H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) and Donnell (R-Mo.) provides for federal expenditures of over $1,250,000,000 in the next five years to aid states in developing health programs.

A somewhat similar bill was offered last month without any estimate of the cost. Senators Hill (D-Ala.), O'Connor (D-Md.), Withers (D-Ky.), Aiken (R-Vt.) and Morse (R-Ore.) joined in sponsoring it.

Under both measures, states could use federal funds to buy membership in voluntary health and hospital insurance programs for persons who can't afford to do so themselves.

Murray said the bill offered by Taft, Donnell and Smith would lead to a "vast bureaucratic system of socialized medicine" and "directly into the Russian system of state medicine."

Thus, he turned on Taft and others the same cry of socialized medicine they have raised against the program urged by President Truman.

Morse halted the health bill introduced yesterday as evidence that efforts to "liberalize" the Republican party are "getting somewhere."

He told the Senate that if doctors want to avoid "socialized medicine," they had better cooperate with those who are trying to work out improved health services "based on the free enterprise system."

Acheson Expects Long Cold War With Russia

Washington, April 15—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson evidently expects the cold war with Russia to last a long time.

He gives the impression that the western world has taken the initiative away from Russia during the last year and a half, but that the end of the struggle is not yet in sight.

The final outcome will take the form of a victory for the western democracies provided they display "unending diligence" and "unending courage no matter how difficult conditions may be."

This estimate of the western conflict with Russia came from the American Secretary of State yesterday during a luncheon meeting of delegates to the Council of the Inter-American Defense Organization.

"We are approaching the time," he said, "when we can speak on equal terms with those who do not agree with us—not only in a spirit of friendship but with equal strength."

However, he made clear that he does not believe the newly won unity and the growing strength of the western world mean that the Russians will quickly come to terms.

"I should like to say our troubles are, in my opinion, only temporary and that they will shortly disappear," Acheson declared. "But I cannot in honesty say this."

He told the meeting that there are "two forces at work in the world," and added:

"The outcome will be decided by

Gets Freedom

Frankfurt, Germany, April 15—(AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay today freed Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo, who had been serving a five-year sentence for killing her American soldier husband.

The American military governor ordered the Malden, Mass., mother "returned to the United States by earliest possible transportation to be released."

"I do not believe Mrs. Ybarbo to be a vicious person and I am sure that the remorse of conscience will prove punishment enough in the days ahead," Gen. Clay said in a statement.

Rural Road Plan Passes In House

Raleigh, April 15—(AP)—The House grudgingly surrendered today in its struggle with the Senate over Governor Scott's rural roads program.

The lower chamber voted almost unanimously to adopt a conference report on the rural roads issue which carries out wishes of the Senate. The conference report provides that a one cent increase in the state's gasoline tax shall be contingent upon approval of a $200,000,000 rural road bond issue by the people.

The issue had wanted to carry out wishes of Governor Scott and increase the gas tax regardless of the fate of the bond issue.

Although final action on the bill will not come until Tuesday, the House vote today ended a fight over the rural roads issue that has raged for nearly three months.

Members of the House conference group frankly admitted that they did not like the provision making the gas tax increase contingent on approval of the bond issue, but they asserted the compromise was "the best we could work out."

The Senate adopted the conference report yesterday.

'Courtesy Week' Plans Completed

When Greenville observes "Courtesy Week" next week, sponsored by the Merchants' Association, to encourage a friendly spirit toward homefolks and people from other places, a $25 Government bond will be awarded to the person voted to be "Greenville's most courteous person." Prizes also will be awarded to two other persons, voted by public balloting in stores.

In planning for "Courtesy Week," the Merchants' Association intends to continue its efforts to "make Greenville the most friendly city and further develop it as the shopping center of Eastern Carolina," President Charles B. Bisette said today.

The Distributive Education Department of the Greenville High School is cooperating in the project and civic clubs of the city are lending their support, Executive Secretary Cora S. Powell stated.

Charles E. Blair, chairman of the Courtesy Week Committee, said the purpose of "Courtesy Week" is to stimulate thinking about being courteous to all—not just during the week, but throughout the year.

A feature of "Courtesy Week" in Greenville will be the showing of a motion picture, "By Jupiter," next Tuesday morning at 9 a.m. at the Pitt Theater. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

Ballots for voting for the "Most Courteous Person" are available in Greenville stores and other business places. Those voting are required to write the name of the man or woman they choose on ballots and deposit them in boxes.

"Courtesy Week" projects are being carried on in many of the principal cities of the country.

Radio broadcasts about the event will be made over WGTC on the following schedule: Mrs. J. H. Rose and her students, Monday, April 18, at 9 p.m.; June H. Rose, superintendent of city schools, Wednesday, April 20, at 6 p.m.; Merchants' Association, Charles B. Bisette, Thursday, April 21, at 8 p.m.

Vote Almost Unanimously To Accept Conference Report

'Best Wishes' By Wallace To Reds

Paris, April 15—(AP)—Henry Wallace has sent his best wishes to the "World Peace Congress" organized by French communist leaders, congress headquarters said today.

The congress quoted Wallace as saying prior commitments would prevent his attendance.

The meetings will take place from April 20 to April 25. Over 2,000 delegates from more than 50 nations are expected to attend.

Lull In Yangtze Fighting As Peace Session Opens

Nanking, April 15—(AP)—A lull fell today over the Yangtze embattled river line between the Communist north and the Nationalist south.

It could only have been ordered by the Communists. They hold nearly all the cards in China's long and costly game of civil war.

Observers took the lull as additional proof that the Nationalist delegates at Peiping's "peace" conference had made concessions.

Now they waited for news from beyond the Communist-built wall of silence as to how far these concessions go.

Pao Ching-an, government spokesman, told newsmen the formal peace talks opened in Communist Peiping Wednesday night. That was all the news he had to offer.

Observers speculated that the government delegation now would try to stall on methods of complying with Communist conditions.

They took it for granted that the government had agreed to the conditions. These call for the surrender of the government armies, trial of Nationalist leaders as "war criminals," and a complete revamping of the government to give the Communists control, among other things.

Observers saw a chance that the talks may break down, just as they did after the delegation arrived in Peiping. That breakdown provoked a Communist ultimatum to accept the terms or the consequences.

The consequences would be a crossing of the Yangtze in force. This threat still hangs over Nanking and the Nationalist delegation.

Although Communist troops are reported to have withdrawn for several miles at some points along the Yangtze's north bank, they still are in an excellent position for a swift and major drive across the river.

Will Forego Pay Hike If Possible

Cleveland, April 15—(AP)—The AFL District Carpenters Council, representing 7,400 craftsmen, agreed last night to forego 1949 wage increases if other building trade unions here will, too.

The construction industry currently is negotiating on wages with 19 unions representing about 30,000 craftsmen.

Harry Schwarzer, chairman of the tri-county council's executive committee, said the carpenters believed their action "would stimulate the construction business."

U.S. Soldiers In Jap Drug Ring

Tokyo, April 15—(AP)—Occupation authorities said today they had broken up an international narcotics ring involving U. S. soldiers.

The drugs were smuggled into Japan from China and Korea. They were supplied to American soldiers, Japanese and foreigners in the port cities of Kobe, Osaka and Yokohama, these sources reported.

Three soldiers convicted by courts-martial of using heroin have been given sentences of dishonorable discharge and imprisonment for a year, criminal investigation department sources said.

Reynaud Arrives In U.S. On Visit

New York, April 15—(AP)—Paul Reynaud, wartime premier of France, arrived by air today from Paris on his first visit since 1938.

He will address a dinner here April 27 of the International Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored his trip. A reception in his honor is planned at City Hall on Monday.

Reynaud said he believed the Atlantic pact was a measure for peace. He also said that "if the western countries are properly armed there is no doubt that would be a guarantee against attack."

Demo Senator Is Ready To Assist Cuts In Spending

Washington, April 15—(AP)—Democratic Senator George of Georgia—No. 1 tax authority in the Senate—offered today to support a drive to slash government spending. The drive has been started by two Republican senators.

George told a reporter that he agrees with Senators Wherry (R-Neb.) and Bridges (R-NH) that Congress must start using a knife on spending bills if it is to avoid a tax increase or in-the-red financing.

"The acid test will come on our appropriations for foreign spending—the B.O.A., the Atlantic pact and similar measures," said the veteran chairman of the Senate's Finance Committee.

"Nobody can expect members of Congress to cut down on our domestic programs unless we first make a reduction on foreign spending," George continued. "If we're going to pare down anywhere we must start there."

Wherry, GOP floor leader, called reported to his Capitol office last evening, to announce the Republican drive to slash both foreign and domestic spending.

First he expressed agreement with President Truman that the nation may spend more than it is taking in—if Congress continues its present spending rate without raising taxes.

Wherry said Republicans senators feel that it "looks like the spending situation is getting out of hand."

Wherry said that personally he favors a general cut of 10 to 15 per cent in the President's spending plans but he added "It would be silly" to try to slice everything that comes along.

As appropriations committees Wherry said, he and Senator Bridges, former chairman of that group will aim first at the $5,500,000,000 European recovery authorization just cleared by Congress.

If Congress is forced to vote additional taxes—as requested by Mr. Truman—"a depression and hard times" would result, Wherry said.

The Republican leader said he expects plenty of support for the economy drive "from those on the other side of the aisle," referring to Democrats.

Compromise Said Nearer On Labor Law Substitute

Washington, April 15—(AP)—Opposing sides in the war of the Taft-Hartley act were moving a little closer together today toward a possible compromise.

Two things showed the trends: 1. A Republican-Dixie group in the House shifted its tactics and produced a new Wood labor bill yesterday—a substitute for still another carrying the name of Rep. Wood (D-Ga.). It would still keep most of the Taft-Hartley law. But it contains fewer curbs on labor unions than Wood bill No. 1, which went beyond Taft-Hartley in that respect and was bitterly condemned by labor leaders.

2. Administration supporters in the House began planning a countermove to gain votes. And some of them were talking freely—though not for publication—about changing their own Truman labor bill to make it more like Taft-Hartley.

If this happens, it will probably be in the form of a few amendments to the Truman bill to be offered during the debate which is scheduled to begin April 26. The Truman bill would repeal the Taft-Hartley law and replace it with a somewhat enlarged version of the Wagner act of 1935.

No definite administration decision on these amendments has been made, but the tendency today was so marked, and in such important Democratic circles, that observers had no doubt the idea of compromise was getting the closest attention.

One influential administration leader in the House told a reporter: "I think that out of this present situation we may be able to get the best labor law the country has ever had. There seems to be a desire on both sides to get a little closer together."

Introduction of the new Wood bill was a significant step in the political jockeying for position. It is supported by a large group of Republicans and southern Democrats who want to keep most of Taft-Hartley. They are claiming victory for it.

The Wood bill retains the Taft-Hartley act's 80-day injunctions in National emergency cases, though it makes a couple of procedural changes in the emergency provision.

It makes a concession to the idea of Taft-Hartley "repeal" by saying that this law is "hereby repealed." But the rest of the bill would remain most of the Taft-Hartley language.

House On Holiday After Record Set

New York, April 15—(AP)—A final Russian charge of "hypocrisy" flung at the Western powers wound up last night the first round of the battle over the North Atlantic pact in the United Nations Assembly.

Some delegates said they hoped that finished the fight for this session of the Assembly but others expressed belief the Russians would find an excuse to attack the North Atlantic pact again. The Assembly is expected to run at least a month longer.

Warren R. Austin, United States chief delegate, told the Assembly the North Atlantic pact is not aggressive; that the United States "abhors" war and does not want war with anyone.

Austin had waited more than 24 hours through a long and weary round of speeches for a chance to answer the initial blast at the pact launched Wednesday by Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister.

Gromyko waited until Austin finished and then was recognized for a short reply to the American. He said Austin's speech concerning the defensive character of the pact was "thoroughly hypocritical and false."

Gromyko said the truth about the purposes of the pact would be found in speeches by American political leaders instead of by "pompous phrases about the struggle for peace and security."

He pointed to a recent speech by Rep. Clarence Cannon (D-Mich.) about the need for a quick attack in the event of a war with Russia, and by other such statements published in U.S. newspapers as examples of hypocrisy.

Gromyko said, finally, that the statements made by Austin and by Hector McNeill, British minister of state, in the Assembly "are nothing but empty words."

McNeill challenged Gromyko yesterday to file a complaint against the North Atlantic pact if he felt it violated the U.N. charter.

Another Slow Waltz

Washington, April 15—(AP)—Once more a government housing program begins its slow waltz in Congress. It may get through this year, in some form.

The Senate has begun debate on it and is expected to pass it next week. Then it's the turn of the House. The house has given it the icy stare in previous years.

In 1946 and again in 1948 the Senate passed a public housing bill. Both times the house failed to act. This killed it, since "both houses must approve a bill" before it can become law.

Various housing bills like the present one have been battling around in congress for years. In the past five years Congressional committees took at least 11,500 pages of testimony from people for or against it.

Before both houses of Congress get through with the present bill it may be changed from the one starting out. But the present one will be explained here briefly.

If it became law, the bill, as it stands would cost billions in government money over many years.

Chicago, April 15—(AP)—Police detained for questioning today the parents of a baby found dead of malnutrition among living conditions described by a coroner's physician as "deplorable."

Those held without charge are Martin King, 42, an unemployed roofer, and his wife, Ellen, 37. Detective Justin McCarthy was unable to question them immediately because, he said, they were in a stupor.

Dr. Harry G. Leary, a coroner's physician, said an autopsy showed "absolutely no food" in the stomach of the three-month-old girl. "There were four large warts on her body as if she had been beaten," he added.

Endurance Fliers Have Record; Continue In Air

Fullerton, Calif., April 15—(AP)—With a new world's endurance record on their log, Dick Riedel and Bill Barris droned on today toward their goal of 1,000 hours—six full weeks aloft.

They sailed past the 726-hour mark established in 1939 by Wes Carroll and Clyde Schlieper of Long Beach, Calif., and radioed to their home field here:

"We feel wonderful and the engine's purring as smoothly as it did on take-off 30 days ago."

Riedel and Barris, however, did not officially receive credit for a new record until they hit the 727-hour mark at 6:44 p.m. (PST) yesterday. Barris was at the controls of the little Aerona monoplane Sunkist Lady and swooped low across the field to salute the crowd.

"We'll see you in a couple of weeks or a month," the pilots told their wives over a loudspeaker on the field.

Barris estimated the Sunkist Lady had traveled nearly 65,000 miles since taking off from Fullerton at 11:44 a.m. last March 15.

Fertilizer Plant Strike Enters Its Third Day

United Mine Workers' strike at Blount Fertilizer plant went into its third day today as 30-odd employees remained out of the plant protesting the non-recognition of the union as bargaining agent by company officials.

Although the ranks of picketers at the plant entrance have thinned since yesterday, a spokesman for the union said none of the men who went out on strike Wednesday at 1 o'clock have returned to work.

A company spokesman said plant production has been kept near normal today by non-union workers who came into the plant yesterday to fill the jobs left by the striking union members.

Health Failing For Premier

Berlin, April 15—(AP)—Westerners speculated today that the falling health of Bulgaria's Communist Premier Georgi Dimitrov has taken a turn for the worse.

The Sofia government announced yesterday that Dimitrov had gone to the Soviet Union for medical treatment.

Western newspaper reporters admitted to Sofia last month to cover the trial of 15 Protestant pastors accused of spying learned that Dimitrov has heart trouble and tuberculosis of the skin.

We toured the governor's palace, the George Wythe house, the capitol, the archeological museum, the public Gaol and the Bruton Parish Church. Although we could not visit it, we saw the college of William and Mary.

While in Williamsburg we decided to go to Jamestown, Va. This town, the oldest permanent English settlement in America, was very interesting too.

The business sections of Williamsburg are also colonial style.

A Lenten Prayer

The Mystery of the Cross
For he is our peace . . . and brake down the middle wall of partition. Ephesians 2:14. Read John 12:28-29.

After all that has been written concerning the Cross of Christ, the agony hours of Good Friday remain a mystery commanding our silent reverence. It is the mystery of a love so all-embracing as to include the very evil that would destroy it, and by one supreme act, to redeem the world.

The Cross is the mystery which reveals all other mysteries. The veil of the Temple is rent in twain, and now we see into meanings hidden from those who know not Christ. In the Cross the universal eternal God enters into time and place to be seen and known of men. The atonement is an at-one-ment with him; and in being reconciled to God we are reconciled to each other.

How ignorantly and with what blundering do we seek after human unity while yet rejecting the gift of the fellowship offered by the Savior's suffering love! He is crucified afresh as often as we refuse to accept. He cannot be taken down from the Cross "until all men and women and children come together to take him down."

Let Us Pray: In thy dread hour, O Christ, we would be with thee. Grant us now the grace and the strength to take up thy Cross and follow thee. And may all conditions of men be drawn unto thee, and there find peace. Amen.

poison a small child's pet.

I had three cats. A yellow mother kitty and two white kittens. Someone poisoned the mother kitty and one of the kittens. The other kitten is deaf and the one that died was her ears. When we would call one would come in and the deaf one would follow. Now she is afraid to go outdoors, but stays in the house most of the time and looks for her mate.

The people who do this are usually people of no principles. They don't care if someone is unhappy, just so there are no animals around the place.

If they don't want the animals, why don't they knock them in the head so they won't have to suffer? When my kitten died it was a very horrible death. Their internal organs were eaten up by the acid and it was very painful. If anyone has anything against me, why don't they tell me about it instead of taking it out on my pet?

People who put out poison may think that dumb animals aren't included when the commandment is read but everything that is alive is included. God remembers everything. Remember that when you want to poison some child's pet dog or cat. Magnolia Duckworth

Mrs. Taylor Hostess To Round Table

The Ladies of the Round Table were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Walter Taylor at her home. The hostess greeted the arrivals in her living-room where a cheerful fire glowed and artistic arrangements of tulips, verbena, pansies, syringas, honeysuckle, amaryllis and other spring flowers decorated the mantel and tables. Chilled, spiced tomato juice was served as the group assembled. Three guests were present: Mrs. Jack Boyd Jr., Mrs. McKay Washington and Mrs. Luther H. Bowling.

After a short business session, Mrs. Wiley Brown gave a delightful talk on "Fashions." Mrs. Brown said that Paris no longer dictated the fashions of the world. Fashions have reached the highest level in the United States, due to mass production and the manufacturers' skill in selecting and changing expensive original designs to suit the needs and pocketbook of the average woman. She traced an expensive dress from an exclusive Parisian couturier's salon until it appeared, with slight changes in design and cheaper material, as a popular priced number in our department stores. Events exert great influence on fashions. Royalty and society leaders used to set the fashions, and while people of prominence still sway fashions occasionally, the mass production manufacturer is the most important influence. Fashion magazines and sections of the country also determine fashions and fabric. Los Angeles and Dallas are now considered important fashion centers, as well as New York, the clothes from the western and southern parts of the country being more casual. In men's clothes, especially, California has influenced this trend to casualness and greater comfort. Gabardine has been the most popular fabric for ten years. Kio Kanyi, a nylon seersucker, is the newest fabric. It doesn't crush and dries quickly. Mrs. E. E. Ravi gave the news. One of the most interesting items

Hopes Study Of Old Age May Provide Cure For Ailing World

Baltimore, April 15—(AP)—Getting the aches and pains out of old age may relieve the world's chronic political ills at the same time, a noted British scientist suggested today.

Anyhow, said Dr. Vladimir Korenchewsky, this business of growing old nowadays is a "disease"—not a normal physiology process. And it's largely unnecessary.

But to return to prospects for making the globe a likely place to grow old, or even up in, here's how age ties in:

"The world is generally run by older men. Because of their age they have the wisdom that comes with experience." But they also have the mental and physical weaknesses that come with age, the Oxford University scientist explained.

What to do? Get younger men to run the world? Well, they don't have greybeards, infirmities, "but at the same time they haven't got the experience that makes for wisdom."

So the eventual answer, Dr. Korenchewsky told a reporter, is to "get rid of the infirmities of old age—and have wisdom unfettered for a better world."

How to achieve this? The Russian-born gerontologist (meaning scientist studying the processes of aging) has been doing research since 1907.

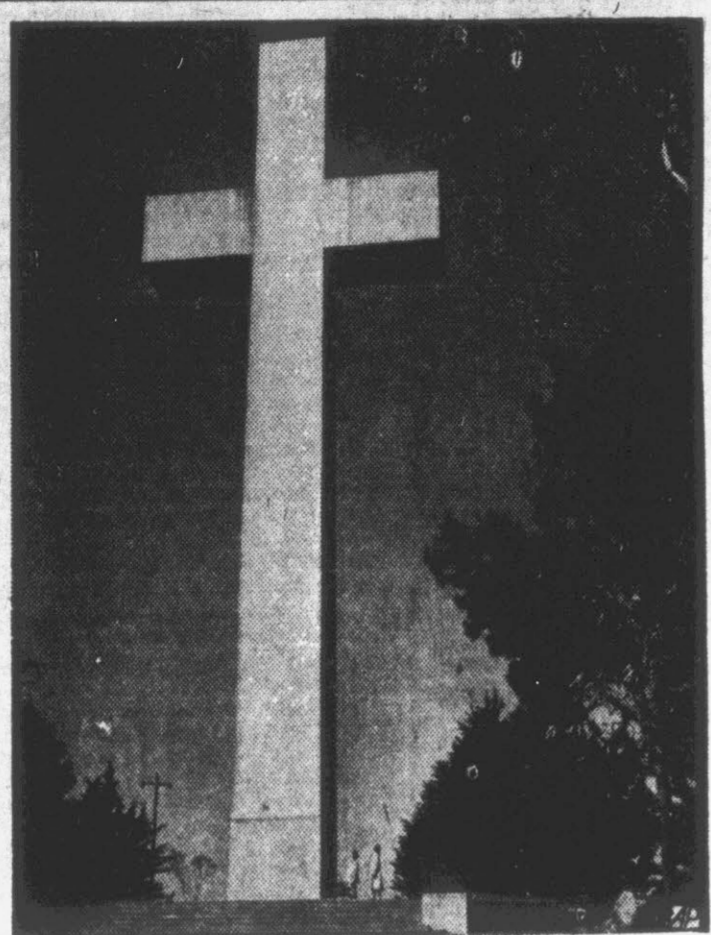

And he notes that science still doesn't know standards of normal aging and normal old age. Besides, "gerontological research can't alter in a few months, or even years, what hereditary development has fixed in a million years' with respect to man's aging."

By growing old and calling it a "disease" Dr. Korenchewsky doesn't mean the inevitable sweep of years—just the infirmities and senility they bring.

In declaring this "unnecessary," the doctor is expressing his faith in scientific conquest of even these formidable obstacles. He believes an international research foundation should tackle the job.

"Gerontological research is very expensive," he declared, "and if there is not a sufficient number of research centers in any country, the obvious exit out of this difficulty is to pool all willing and available scientific manpower into a co-operative international organization."

"That is the chief aim in the organizing activities of our British Society for Research on Aging."

Demand Release

Prague, April 15—(AP)—The United States demanded today the early release of Vlasta Vraz, American relief worker held in prison for a week by Czechoslovak police.

The U. S. embassy delivered a note to the foreign affairs ministry protesting the arrest of the Berwyn, Illinois, woman last Saturday. She was held incommunicado for three days. Then an embassy demand for an interview was granted.

Miss Vraz told a consular official that she was being detained during an investigation of "suspicion of political activity."

Near 2,000 Saw Kiwanis Minstrel

Another nearly capacity audience witnessed the second showing of the Greenville Kiwanis Club's minstrel show at the college last night and registered its approval with unstinted applause. A feature was the splendid exhibition of "old-time minstrelsy," with Eli Bloom, producer of the show, acting as interlocutor and with Tige Gardner, veteran trouper in minstrelsy, the star of the show for years, and Dr. Elmer Lansche, Dr. J. M. Barrett, Cecil Hill, Virgil Clark, Aubrey Tilley, James Ray Pittman and Ed Conway as "end men." The jokes were witty and clean and they went over big.

James Ray Pittman introduced an unexpected feature when he announced that Miss Joanne Bloom, talented singer and dancer, and now a member of John Robert Powers' models famous organization in New York, was in the audience and called her to the stage. She sang two numbers and made a hit. Miss Bloom has been regularly appearing in the Kiwanis minstrel since she was a child. She was given a warm "homecoming" reception last night.

Marie Smith Wallace's dancing girls and boys were distinct features of the Kiwanis minstrel, the proceeds of which are entirely used for good work among underprivileged children. She has a lot of Broadway and Hollywood material in the group.

Miss Ona Shindler's High School Quartet, Sam Northrop Jr., Carl Denton, Howard Proctor and Bobby Odum, was the big hit of the show. The talented youngsters are in demand for radio programs.

Buddy Murray and Lee Lang Harrel, diminutive and talented entertainers, in a singing and dancing number, were so good that they made a fine start for Hollywood.

The Kiwanis minstrel was a great success. It netted a substantial sum for the underprivileged child fund. Eli Bloom, producer of the show, and Tige Gardner, recognized those who made it a success. The Kiwanis Club, after the show, had its meeting at the Rotary building, served a buffet supper and had a short period of fellowship.

Other numbers of the minstrel were reviewed yesterday.

The Neptunes holds the world's long-distance non-refueling record of 11,000 miles, set on a flight from Australia to Ohio.

White Easter In Store For Areas

Chicago, April 15—(AP)—A snow, rain and wind storm whipped over Midwest areas today, indicating a white Easter Sunday in some cities.

There was heavy snow in a belt 50 to 100 miles wide from northern Iowa into central Wisconsin and southeastern Minnesota. Snow was reported from Iowa and northwestern Missouri to northern lower Michigan. More than seven inches of snow fell in Mason City, Ia.

There was light snow as far south as St. Louis and some was forecast for Chicago.

Winds of between 30 and 40 miles per hour swept over the storm belt and temperatures in some sections dropped below freezing. Communication lines were disrupted in some areas. Hundreds of cars were stalled on highways.

Rain fell over parts of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois as the storm moved through the southern Great Lakes region. The strong northerly winds to the west of the storm center carried cold air from central Canada southward to the northern plains and the upper Mississippi Valley.

Name-Changing Idea Is Dropped

Waynesville, April 15—(AP)—Some citizens of Maggie, a small settlement near the Great Smokies, recently felt that they should change the name of their post office.

The matter was the subject of much debate, with both sides claiming about as many supporters as the other.

One man suggested the name of the small post office be called "Jiggs."

No one liked that suggestion, and now the matter has been dropped.

Heavy Fighting Flares In Greece

Athens, Greece, April 15—(AP)—Fighting has broken out again all over Greece, the government reported today.

A communique told of widespread clashes in every part of the country. It claimed 107 Communist-led guerrillas were killed and 114 captured. It admitted government losses of 18 men slain and 56 wounded.

One of the fiercest and most savage battles of the entire civil war is reported in the Grammos region of northwestern Greece. Press reports say it is being fought at close range, with grenades and knives causing heavy casualties on both sides.

The government claims the "elimination" of the last guerrilla stronghold in the southeastern Peloponnese is in its final stage and says the remnant of a formerly strong rebel band in Thessaly has been wiped out.

The communique said bitter fighting continued in eastern Macedonia.

Out-Of-State Vets Stand To Get Bonus Simply By Asking

There are probably a number of out-of-state veterans who may receive a nice bonus check simply for the asking, according to Arthur B. Corey, County Service Officer.

At the present there are nine states and two territories that will pay bonuses to residents of North Carolina, providing the veteran was a resident of their state when he entered service. Those paying bonuses at this time are: Connecticut, Illinois, Louisiana, Iowa, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Ohio, Vermont, Washington, Alaska and Hawaii. The amounts payable to veterans range from $50.00 to $800.00.

In many of these states, the time limit for making applications is drawing near. Bonus payments have already been completed in Rhode Island and Michigan, and a number of other states will not accept applications made after June 30.

As some legislatures are even now acting on bonus bills, Mr. Corey County Service Officer, desires all veterans who were a resident of some other state when they entered the Armed Forces, to call at the Pitt County Service Office located at 200 Blount Building to determine their eligibility for a bonus.

Highest Scholastic Journalism Award Given To 'Green Lights'

Scoring 980 points out of a possible 1000, "Green Lights" bi-weekly newspaper of the Greenville High School has been awarded the rating of "Medalist" by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in the twenty-fifth annual high school newspaper criticism contest.

Through error in press and earlier announcements by the CSPA, it was previously announced that "Green Lights" had received a "First Class" rating. It was not until the staff of the GHS newspaper received the "Medalist" certificate and official scorebook that the actual rating was known. This is the first time since before the war that "Green Lights" has received this highest scholastic journalism award.

The "Medalist" rating is accorded newspapers in the "First Class" group for "outstanding qualities," and can be awarded only to the top ten per cent in the nation.

"Green Lights" is one of two North Carolina high school newspapers to receive "Medalist" in the '49 contest, conducted for high school newspapers throughout the nation.

Mrs. H. B. Utley is serving her second year as adviser of "Green Lights." Bettie Anne Young and Buel W. Tyson, Jr., are co-editors of the publication.

The GHS paper has recently received a rating of "First Class" from the Southern Interscholastic Press Association. "Lights" also hold the "All-American Honor of the National Scholastic Press and the International Honor Award of the Quill and Scroll, international society for high school journalists.

Protestant Leaders See Danger In Atlantic Pact

'STEADY PLEASE'
Gini Owen operates a wrist camera which contains six-millimeter film for 8 exposures, at the exhibition of products of western Germany in New York.

New York, April 15—(AP)—Twenty-three leading Protestants have pictured the Atlantic pact as opening a era of world-wide rearmament, spying and military influence on civilian affairs.

In a Good Friday statement, the group of ministers and theologians called for stronger support of the United Nations.

They urged also exploration of the "possibilities of negotiating peace with the Soviet."

The statement was issued yesterday by the Rev. John Howland Lathrop, of the Church of the Saviour (Unitarian), Brooklyn, and Professors Paul Scherer and W. Russell Bowie of the Union Theological Seminary, New York.

The group said: "The adoption of the Atlantic pact means continued stockpiling of atomic and biological weapons, continuation of peacetime conscription, increase in the already colossal arms budget, building a world-wide spy network, maintenance of military bases around the world, no relaxation in military influence of education, science, industry and commerce, to say nothing of the periodic waves of national hysteria without which none of these measures could be maintained."

As an alternative to the policy of continued "cold war in a divided world," the group urged the use of "resolute good-will" rather than "fear inspired by our arsenal of atomic weapons" to bring about real peace.

The signers said they feel it is time for the Christian Church to "set about creating a new spiritual climate" instead of "supinely underwriting national policy."

Second Gaffney Safecracking In Week Reported

Gaffney, S.C., April 15—(AP)—The second safe-cracking job this week was reported today in Gaffney. Twelve hundred dollars in cash was taken from the Modern Laundry early today, Police Chief William Hill said.

Hill said that the robber or robbers pried open a rear window, rolled a safe to the rear of the plant and apparently spent about two hours working on the safe before it was pried open with a pick-like instrument.

Hill said an excellent footprint was discovered in newly-poured cement at the plant which is being enlarged.

Earlier in the week a super market safe was taken away and abandoned after $1,900 in cash had been removed. Six hundred dollars in checks was left behind.

Note Plant Lice In Wide-Spread Areas Of County

Plant lice have appeared on tobacco in plant beds over a wide-spread area of Pitt County, Assistant County Agent Sam J. Weeks said today.

Weeks warned farmers that the lice which have appeared in the plant beds are the same type which caused considerable damage to mature tobacco in Pitt County last season. "If these aphids (lice) are not killed before the plants are transplanted in the field, we can expect to have a heavy infestation on growing and mature tobacco plants this season."

The plant beds should be sprayed for lice one week before transplanting the tobacco to the field. For treatment of the plant beds, the county agent's office recommended dusting with one per cent parathion just at the rate of two pounds per 100 square yards of plant bed, or betaethyl pyrophosphate spray in concentrates ranging from 10 to 40 percent.

New Treatment Of TB Reported Having Success

Chicago, April 15—(AP)—A new approach to treatment of tuberculosis was reported successful today in tests on 30 patients by two Pennsylvania doctors.

The physicians reported in a paper to the American College of Allergists that they have had "very promising" results during a seven-month period of treating the disease with neobetramine, an anti-allergy drug, and streptomycin.

The doctors are A. R. Judd and Alfred E. Henderson of the Pennsylvania State Department of Health, State Department of Health, Harrisburg, Pa. The value of streptomycin in combating the spread of the tubercle bacillus—the tuberculosis germ—has been widely recognized. The use of neobetramine, widely successful in treating hay fever, hives and other allergic diseases, is new.

Doctors Judd and Henderson said they are convinced that the primary onset of tuberculosis is an allergic reaction to tubercle bacilli which creates and maintains inflammation. This helps the bacilli to do their tissue damage.

The double-barrel drug therapy attacks the allergic phase of the disease, reducing inflammation with neobetramine, while combating the bacilli with streptomycin, they said. They reported that the combination treatment obtained better results than use of streptomycin alone.

ernmental affairs of this city. To make Greenville a better place in which to live for the sake of themselves and their children.

All members of the Household of Ruth No. 310 are expected to meet at the hall next Tuesday night, April 19. The reports from the Anniversary committee will be given. The members who do not attend the meeting need not expect to attend the anniversary in a body with the lodge.

The fifth anniversary of the Missionary Union was very largely attended last Sunday at the Mt. Calvary Free Will Baptist Church. A welcome handshake was given the representatives of St. Peter's and Sycamore Chapel Churches who enrolled. The topic, "I Am on the Lord's Side," was discussed by the vice president, Mrs. Rita Dupree, after which every member took part. The historian, Mrs. Iola Kearney, read a report of the work done since the beginning. Many left declaring it was the most enjoyable session ever held.

Mrs. A. B. Taft spent last Monday in Tarboro at the bedside of Mrs. Viola McMillan, who is very ill at this writing. She was in company with Mrs. Dora Tillet and Mrs. Barrett from Bethel. The Cantata, "Life Eternal," presented at Sycamore Hill last Sunday afternoon and night under the sponsorship of Mr. Arthur Norcutt was very largely attended. It was declared one of the best ever rendered here at this season.

The co-workers for Pitt county under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. B. Taft met Tuesday at noon at Sycamore Hill Baptist Church. The meeting was not largely attended but very inspirational. The report from churches in Pitt county were very commendable. The chairman reported that the arrangement for Woman's Day at the Union Baptist Church in Tarboro is complete for the fourth Sunday in April. Mrs. Ellen Alston, executive secretary for the Woman's state convention of Raleigh, was present and was very much pleased with the work.

There will be a meeting of all

Greenies Play Deacons Here Tomorrow

Harrison Slated To Open Against Top College Nine

Coach Lee Gooch's Wake Forest Demon Deacons will invade Guy Smith Stadium here Saturday night at 7:45 o'clock for an exhibition game with Manager Pappy Williams Greenies in what promises to be one of the most colorful exhibition games ever to be played in this section this season.

Not only will the game be of great interest in this section due to the many Wake Forest Alumni who live in Eastern North Carolina, but in addition the Deacons will bring one of the strongest college teams in the history of its institution.

Starting on the mound for the Greenies will be Bobby Harrison, rookie righthander for the Greenies, who in the game with the Smithfield Leafs on last Friday here, pitched four hitless and scoreless innings of ball. Also probably seeing action for the Greenies will be Lefty Junior Yohn and Jimmy Lewey. While on the mound for Wake Forest will be Harry Nicholas, Moe Mauer and Charlie Kinlaw or Dick Vander Clute.

The Demon Deacons up to the present time are enjoying a perfect season with eight victories in as many starts. In addition to their two wins over Lumberton of the Tobacco State League by scores of 3-0 and 12-3, and a 12-10 win over Burlington of the Class B Carolina League, they have beaten Cornel twice and Randolph Macon, Washington and Lee, and Duke.

The Greenies up to the present time have played a total of six exhibition games and have won four and lost two, having defeated ECTC 11 to 7; Smithfield of the Tobacco State League, 13-3; Kinston Eagles 10 to 3 and Dunn-Erwin of the Tobacco State League, 10-8. Their losses have been to Kinston by a 7-4 score and to New Bern 4 to 3.

The probable starting lineup for Wake Forest will be: Roch or Rogers, ss; Harris, rf; Teague, 2b; Fulbum, lf; Livick, cf; Hooks, 3b; Warren, 1b; Gatchelor, c; Nicholas, Bauer, Kinlaw or Vander Clute, pitchers. For the Greenies the probable starting lineup will be: Carter, ss; Mauney lf; Cohen, rf; Williams 1b; Gillespie, cf; Pasquale, c; Deniar 3b; Hayes, 2b; an Harrison, Yohn and Lewey, pitchers.

Bones McKinney Is Coming Home

Washington, April 15—(AP)—Bones McKinney is going home. The stringbean star of the Washington Capital professional basketball team says he is going back to his native North Carolina to serve as player-coach for a Durham semi-pro team next season.

Deac Catcher

RUSSEL BATCHELOR, C. Wake Forest

Regarded as one of the best college catchers in the South, Batchelor is included on the All-Southern Conference squad of last spring. He is one of the leading hitters on the Wake Forest team this season with an average of well over .400.

Navy Talking Up Two-Team Idea

Annapolis, Md., April 15—(AP)—Navy's football team, loser of eight games last season, apparently has so much strength this year that it might adopt enemy tactics—the two platoon system.

The middle football squad "will be deeper and stronger" next fall said Head Coach George Sauer after the Midshipmen wound up spring training yesterday with a scrimmage against Rutgers.

To back up this statement, Sauer disclosed "We're considering using the platoon system."

The two-platoon system—one runs on offense and another on defense—was popularized by Army last season. However, despite Army's power, winless Navy managed to hold the Cadets to a surprising 21-21 tie in the traditional interservice clash.

Sauer has ten lettermen back from the indomitable squad that played a schedule of "suicide Saturdays" last fall. In addition he has a host of promising graduates from the unbeaten Plebe team.

The five-week spring training already showed, Sauer said, that "we can substitute more freely." In the final workout with Rutgers, Sauer used five teams liberally sprinkled such rugged contenders as Mike Sorrentino, Bob Zastrow and Frank Hauff, star backfield performers up from the Plebe squad.

ECTC Baseballers Lose 10-4 To Elon; Win In Tennis, Golf

By EUGENE PRICE
East Carolina Teachers College defeated Elon's fighting Christians in golf and tennis here yesterday afternoon while the Pirate baseballers took a 10 to four drubbing at the hands of the Elon nine.

It was the second meeting of the teams this season. In previous games Elon scored wins in baseball and tennis, while the ECTC golfers won.

The tennis match proved to be the thriller of the day with the East Carolina Teachers College team edging out the visitors five to four, taking the final and winning set 11 to nine.

It was the first win of the year for the local tennis squad which has bowed to the University of Richmond, Michigan State, Elon and High Point.

The golf match saw the Buccaneers chalk up a 16 and one half to one and one half win. Medalist for the day was Elon's Dave Monday who came in with a 73. Seventy-two is par at the local link. Bill Stalls, East Carolina ace, was medalist for the Bucs with a 75.

The two golf teams will tangle in another match today.

The Fighting Christian baseballers chased three Buc hurlers to the showers in racking up a 10 to four victory. Elon banged out 10 hits and capitalized on four errors to take the win.

Freshman Leon Taylor scattered seven hits to record the win on the hill.

New Day Dawns For Jap Baseball

Tokyo, April 15—(AP)—You know what baseball used to be in Japan. A bow to the umpire, but never an unkind word.

Look now.

A New day has dawned. Broke sort of like thunder too over the umpires. They always considered themselves as the Emperor's agent—hence untouchable.

Came this season and the new thing called Democracy under those Americans. Gives a man a chance to sound off. The players began to sound off, even at the umpires, Tch, Tch.

Not like in Brooklyn, Maybe, but a considerable sound-off for this land of umpire-Emperor worship.

Like: What in the name of our sacred ancestors did you call Mitsi Bitsu out for when your honorable eyes saw very well he was safe by half the distance between here and Yokohama.

Palld stuff, Maybe, but it astounded the honorable umpires. They were even more astounded, however, at what happened yesterday.

The professional Hawks of Tokyo were playing the professional Giants of the same city.

The Hawks catcher, having singled, ran over the Giants second baseman. This broke up an honorable double-play. Such unruly conduct so enraged the Giants' manager that he ran out and socked the catcher.

The catcher staggered, but not from the blow. The unseemly manners of an honorable Japanese ball player were what nearly floored him.

The Hawks' left fielder quickly grasped the spirit of the new day. He rushed in and belted the Giant's manager. Then everyone joined in, and the air was thick with honorable teeth and ears.

As an old-time Japanese sports writer put it: "The officials never had to handle a situation like this before. They didn't know what to do." At last the umpires restored order and the game proceeded. The Giants won, 4 to 3, in case anyone cares.

Phantoms Lose, 8-6, To Elizabeth City Visitors

Elizabeth City High School took an eight to six Northeastern Conference baseball victory here yesterday over the Greenville High Phantoms.

The visiting team scored the win on but four hits allowed them by Greenville hurler Vainright. Six walks and a wild pitch in the first inning gave the Yellow Jackets from Elizabeth City a four-run lead at the outset.

Elizabeth City scored twice in the third and once in each of the fifth and sixth frames. Greenville's big blow came in the seventh when they shoved four runs across on two singles, a walk, an error and Joe

Feller To Hurl Eighth Opener Says Boudreau

Richmond, Va., April 15—(AP)—Bobby Feller will hurl his eighth season opener for the Cleveland Indians when the Tribe meets St. Louis in the Browns' home park Tuesday.

The shuffling fireballer got his first opening assignment in 1938. He hurled three more before the war and then, following service in the Navy, started again in 1946.

This year, however, is the first in which Feller has been available and the assignment has been in doubt. It wasn't until last night that Manager Lou Boudreau of the Indians announced that Feller definitely would be on the mound Tuesday.

Big Year Ahead For Circuit Hits

New York, April 15—(AP)—It looks like a good year for small boys who perch on rooftops around major league baseball parks. Home runs are coming in droves.

The season doesn't open until next week and the big league parks are a few sizes larger than most minor league enclosures, but take a look at what happened yesterday.

Fifteen major league teams—12 of them facing major league opposition—hit 30 home runs in exhibition games.

Four of the clubs hit three homers in a single inning. Only the Chicago Cubs failed to put the ball out of the lot at least once.

Murderers' row on the New York Giants—Sid Gordon, Johnny Mize and Bobby Thompson—blasted successive found trippers off Cleveland's Bobby Feller. The Indians retaliated with three in a row off Dave Koslo by Bob Kennedy, Jim Hegan and Early Wynn. And for good measure Koslo added one for New York and Lou Boudreau and Mickey Vernon each had one for Cleveland. All this firing took place in Hickory, N. C.

The Chicago White Sox whipped Pittsburgh, 4-3, at Memphis on the strength of home runs by Floyd Weigel and Cass Michaels. Each came with one on base.

Homers also decided the issue as Cincinnati edged the New York Yankees, 2-1; the Philadelphia Phils downed Baltimore, 6-3, and the Boston Red Sox beat the Boston Braves, 6-2.

Cincinnati's tallies came on a home run by Ray Mueller with a man on base. Johnny Lindell's circuit clout was the only Yankee counter.

NEWHOUSER NAMED
Pittsburgh, April 15—(AP)—Hal Newhouser was nominated today as the starting pitcher for the Detroit Tigers when they meet the Pittsburgh Pirates in the first of a week-end exhibition series tomorrow.

Onslow Says It's Boston Red Sox Who Will Take American League Flag
Chicago, April 15—(AP)—Manager Jack Onslow, whose Chicago White Sox resumed their city series tussle with the Chicago Cubs in Wrigley Field today, picks Boston to win the 1949 American League pennant.

"I have to pick Boston, although I'm looking for a great race at the wire between the Red Sox and Cleveland," Onslow said today in a pre-season statement. "I'll string with Boston because of improved pitching, especially if Cecil Hughson comes back as expected."

Onslow, who is 59, is making his major league managerial debut with the Sox after 35 years in baseball as a big league player, coach, and scout and minor league manager.

"New York's fate and finish depend altogether on Joe Dimaggio's ability to play a full schedule," Onslow said. "The Athletics, with all that good sound, solid pitching are going to prove more troublesome than anybody figures."

The Sox finished in last place in 1948 and Onslow was named to succeed Ted Lyons. He was manager of Memphis, which finished in second place in the Southern Association.

"As for my own ball club, I said all along we wouldn't finish in the cellar and I'm sticking to that," the New Sox boss said.

After a rest from exhibition play yesterday, the Greenies return to action tonight when they meet Manager Virgil Payne and his Smithfield Leafs over in Smithfield tonight in a return game.

Business Manager John Adams Jr. announced yesterday that James H. Tripp, rookie outfielder from Belvoir, had been released by the local club.

Everything points to a record crowd at Guy Smith Stadium Saturday night at 7:45 when the Demon Deacons of Wake Forest play Pappy Williams and his boys in an exhibition game. The Deacons are sporting an eight-game winning streak at the present time. Their game with the Roanoke Rapids Jays over in Roanoke Rapids Wednesday night had to be cancelled because of rain.

The working agreement between the Goldsboro Baseball Association and the Sumter Baseball Club has been dissolved, according to President C. Ed Worley. The move was made by mutual agreement. Sumter, it seems, has a heavy roster of class men and no rookies. Goldsboro will have to depend chiefly on rookies, stated Mr. Worley.

The working agreement between the Yankees and the Jays are expected to develop starting immediately. Gene Martin, head of the Yankee farm system, informed the Jays' manager that the clubs of the farm organization will begin trimming their rosters and thereby starting a flow of young players to clubs of lower classification. The Jays are looking for some help within the next few days.

Virginia Beach, Va., April 15—(AP)—What has happened to Bobby Locke's golf game? Bobby Locke, the transplanted South African, seemed to choke on the sandwich he was eating. Finally, he wheeled around and replied: "Nothing. Nothing has happened to Bobby Locke's golf game."

He said most of his trouble was that "the rest of the boys are just playing better. Look what that Harrison did out there yesterday—shot a seven under par 62. It hasn't ever been done before—not on this course."

"That Harrison" he referred to is 39-year-old E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the Arkansas traveler from Little Rock. Harrison's 62 yesterday set a new competitive course record for the par 69, 6,065-yard layout of the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club

Byron Nelson To Try Tour Again
New York, April 15—(AP)—Byron Nelson, the onetime kingpin of professional golf, plans to hit the tournament trail again.

He won't make the week-end, week-out grind, he disclosed here yesterday, but he's going to play in a greater number of tournaments this summer.

The Texan has been in semi-retirement, competing regularly in only the Masters at Augusta and the Texas P.G.A.

By Terry Adler

Chapter 35
Fenton clasped his hands nervously. "In view of these horrible events you're entitled to an explanation. It's true that I have a key to Professor Hubbard's office. On Thursday morning when we were informed of the death of Professor Hubbard, I obtained a key from Mr. Vall, the janitor. I had a duplicate made at a hardware store downtown and then returned Mr. Vall's key. Early this afternoon I used the key to enter the office."

There was a long pause during which Fenton kept rubbing his hands together. No one spoke. Finally Fenton went on:

"I went into Professor Hubbard's office looking for a letter of mine which has been in his possession for five years. It was a letter written by the mother of one of my students. At that time, Professor Hubbard had just accepted the chairmanship. The student was a young girl, very impressionable and very prone to hero-worship. Unfortunately, the girl developed a sort of infatuation for me."

"It was not, I realized, a very healthy mental attitude for a young girl. And yet I felt that a rebuke from me at that time would have been cruel. And so I arranged to have a talk with the mother. When I saw her I told her the best possible thing for her to do would be to move from the city and take her daughter out of this school. I told her I could arrange through some friends to find her a job in a small Midwestern college where the girl could continue her studies. Two days later she sent me a note saying arrangements had been made for them to leave the city, and since I had shown such interest and kindness would I please see to the necessary details for obtaining an honorable discharge for the girl."

"Of course, I was happy to do it. I took the note into our then new department chairman and explained the whole situation and requested a recommendation for the girl. He was most kind about it and the matter was arranged and apparently forgotten."

"A month or so later, I was invited to head the department at Western Methodist. I obtained a release from this department and went there with the good wishes of Professor Hubbard."

"A little over three years ago Professor Hubbard paid me a visit in my lab at Western Methodist. He told me he was having a difficult time staffing the department here and would I come back? I told him, my wife and family, were too well satisfied where we were to consider it."

"Professor Hubbard," he continued, "then said he felt he could probably persuade me. He handed me a photostatic copy of that note. Apparently I had left it with him, or somehow he had obtained it from my desk. At any rate, he explained to me that should I persist in refusing to return to this university, he would be forced to publish the letter."

"Then you decided to give in to this blackmail?" Raff asked.

"I told him that my colleagues were essentially fair-minded people that if he carried out his threat I had no recourse but to wait upon their judgment. Thereupon he left."

"But you did come back," Raff said.

"Yes, I came back," Fenton nodded wearily. "Two days after this visit from Professor Hubbard he called me on the telephone. He told me he had the present address of the young lady—this former student of mine. She was living in a small community in Nebraska. That she was engaged to be married that coming June and that he, Hubbard, was about to release the story to the newspapers. I had no choice. I agreed to go with her and she and I traveled over with her. Fenton stopped talking and stared off into space."

"Then this afternoon was the first time that you made an unauthorized visit to that office?"

"Yes, I couldn't get in there on Thursday because Professor Bray was in there during the day and in the evening I was giving an extension class in West Bend."

"West Bend? That's over a hundred miles from here. Pretty far to travel for one class, isn't it?"

"It meets just once a month, Dean Elliot has a class there, too, and he drives me out in his car."

"I see. Incidentally, about what time did you come back last night?"

"Dear me, I don't know exactly. It's usually about one o'clock in the morning. The class is over at ten o'clock and it's about a three-hour drive."

"The doubt which had been spreading in Raff's mind now gave way to certainty. Bray had already been dead when Fenton had come back to the city."

"Well, you've been very kind, both of you. Do you happen to know the address of Al Vall?" At the look of consternation on the faces of both Dr. and Mrs. Fenton, Raff hastened to explain. "No, he isn't a suspect. Not yet anyway. I just want to get a list of all the people in the department who have borrowed his key."

Fenton gave the address to Raff. Raff thanked him and bade them both good night. The door closed behind him as he crossed the snow-covered porch. It was opened immediately.

"Dr. Rafferty, just a minute," Fenton called to him. "I had completely forgotten something. When I was going through Dr. Hubbard's office this afternoon I came across a bulky envelope. It had your name on it. I believe it was in Professor Bray's handwriting. Perhaps it may contain something relevant to all this."

"Where? Where is it now?" Raff demanded.

"Why, I put it in the intra-mural mail," Fenton said. "You'll probably get it on Monday morning."

Christianity In Japan Long Ago

Tokyo.—(AP)—Research by Dr. Sakae Ikeda, former law professor at Kyoto University, has led him to conclude that Christianity came to Japan in 283 A. D., 1,266 years earlier than the generally accepted date.

Dr. Ikeda, as quoted by newspaper Jiji Shimpo, believes that a Persian, called Kung Yueh-wang in the Chinese language of the period, led a group of Chinese Christians to Japan. He says that the Nestorian Christian sect persisted in Japan for many generations.

The report has caused some stir in Japanese Christian circles, which credit the introduction of Christianity to St. Francis Xavier in 1549.

The preserved right arm of the Saint is due to be brought from Rome for a fourth centennial celebration starting May 29 at Magasaki and ending June 12 at Tokyo. A Japanese monument to the Saint was erected in 1925.

Fifty-five U. S. athletes will oppose a Scandinavian track and field team in a dual meet at Oslo, Norway, on July 27, 28 and 29.

Nation's Retailers Shoot For Record Easter Sales

New York, April 15—(AP)—The nation's retailers are shooting for the biggest Easter season business in their history—and they may hit it.

Final figures tabulated within the next few weeks will tell the story. They might fall a little short of their goal. Even if they do, it still will be an Easter to be remembered for heavy sales and good profits—considerably above a lot of satisfactory pre-war years.

The total of sales and profits actually is secondary right now in the minds of most retailers, especially department stores, clothing and specialty shops.

The big thing is adjustment to the new post-war buyers' market rapidly engulfing business. Can the merchant give customers quality and value they demand at prices they want to pay? The current Easter season is the primary test.

In looking for a yardstick to measure how business is going, you have to remember that last year Easter was March 28 and this year it is April 17. Comparisons between the two years are warped by the different dates. March and April must be taken together to gauge volume.

The first week in March, department store sales were eight per cent under a year ago. But the week ended March 26 was off 16 per cent compared with Easter week in 1948. The next week they snapped back to plus eight per cent. On a cumulative basis, sales in early February were slightly ahead of a year ago but dropped back steadily to a level six per cent below March 26. Then they started a slow come-back.

Latest figures compiled by Dun and Bradstreet, a statistical survey organization, gives this picture for sales during the week ended Wednesday:

In the country as a whole, sales were unchanged to four per cent ahead of a year ago. Northeast and northwest regions were ahead by one to five per cent, east and mid-west were two to six per cent ahead, south and Pacific coast were three per cent below to one per cent above, and the southwest was unchanged to four per cent ahead.

Novelist Brands Russia A 'Slave State' In Reply

Los Angeles, April 15—(AP)—Novelist Upton Sinclair brands Russia a "slave state" in denying what he calls a Soviet "propaganda" claim that he is friendly to the USSR.

His comment yesterday stemmed from a recent statement of Alexander Fadeyef, general secretary of the Union of Soviet Writers, which placed Sinclair among writers, artists, and scientists of the capitalist world "who invariably have become friends of the USSR."

Long an advocate of socialism, Sinclair said: "Either Mr. Fadeyef has not read my books or they have not been correctly translated in their Russian editions."

Sinclair said he had abandoned all hope for "any good to come from the Soviet Union following the rape of the Czechoslovakian democracy."

Eire To Become Ireland Monday

Dublin, April 15—(AP)—Eire becomes Ireland again Monday.

There will be great fireworks and celebration, but for most Irish the dream is not yet fully realized.

The independence for which the Irish fought the English for 780 years will be proclaimed in 28 counties—but the six counties of the north will remain in the United Kingdom, and bitterness over this "partition" still rankles in the Irish heart.

It was on Easter Monday 33 years ago that the Irish struck their historic blow for freedom. An heroic school teacher, Patrick Pearse, climbed atop the Dublin post office and hoisted the green, white and gold flag of Ireland.

Rebellion began. Ten days later, Pearse was dead. Most of the other original leaders of the revolt were condemned to the firing squad. Their flag lay in a pile of rubble.

But the events of that "cold Monday morning" now celebrated in song and legend, paved the way toward eventual independence.

The last tie with England was cut away in February when the dail (parliament) repealed the external relations act which gave Britain the right to approve Irish diplomats.

He was engaged in battle in France and was killed in action, November 18, 1944. He was a member of Rountree Christian Church.

Mrs. Helen Thomas' Funeral Saturday

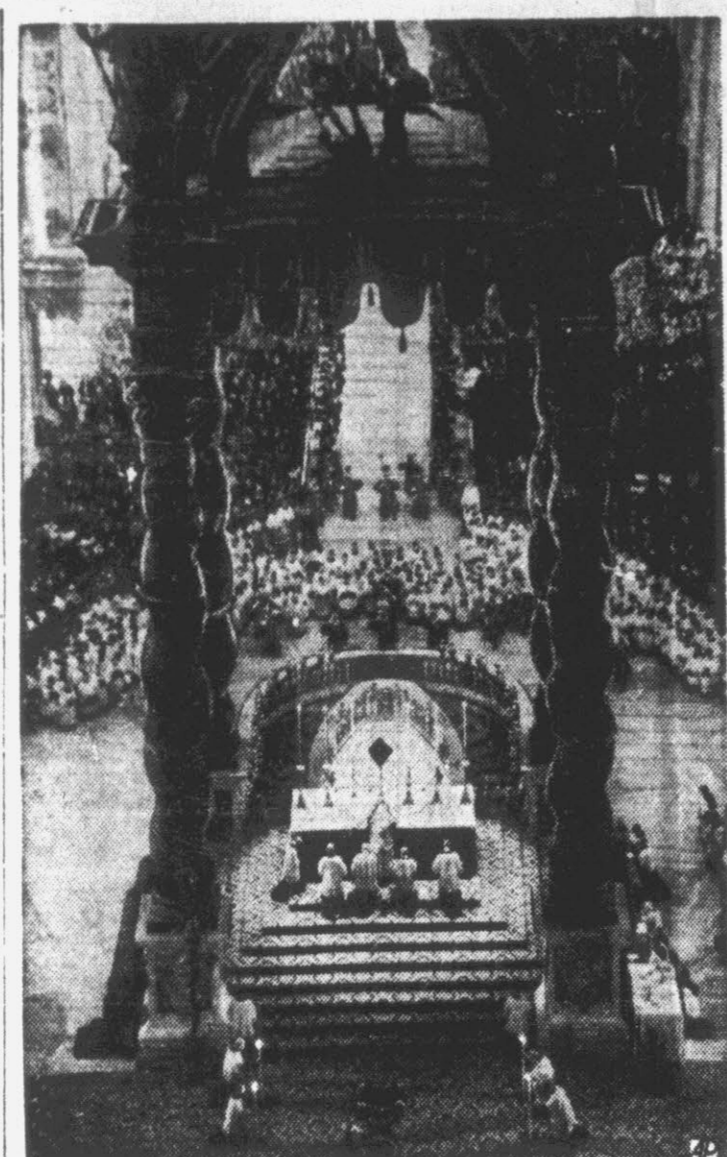

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Galloway Thomas, 62, wife of E. B. Thomas of near Grimesland, who died at her home Thursday at 8:45 a.m. after suffering a heart attack will be conducted at Immanuel Baptist Church Saturday at 3:30 p.m. by Rev. A. Hartwell Campbell of Hopewell, Va., assisted by Rev. C. G. Nickens, Methodist minister of Grimesland. Burial will be in Cherry Hill Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Board of Deacons of Immanuel Baptist Church.

In the final phase of the maneuvers comparatively large missions of bombers will take off from bases in the United States for "attacks" on big cities. The attacks will be made under various weather conditions and during both day and night. In some instances, it will be necessary for missions to fly out to sea for some distance to approach a target from a surprise angle.

Russ Ambassador Departs Tehran

Tehran, Iran, April 15—(AP)—The Soviet Ambassador to Iran, Iran Sadchikov, left Tehran for Russia today.

His departure came in a time of tension between Iran and Moscow, underscored by the recent closing by the Russians of their consulates in four Iranian cities. There are reports that all the other consuls are packed and ready to leave.

Big War Games To Test U. S. Bombers, Fighters

Washington, April 15—(AP)—A series of war games starting next month will test air force bomber and fighter fleets—and the vulnerability of vital American industry to enemy attack.

Strategists have calculated that the initial blow by an enemy would be directed at slugging into paralyzing the great war munitions cities such as Detroit, Pittsburgh, New York, Chicago, Boston and Baltimore.

The code name for the war games is "operation blackjack," taken from a card game.

Air force officials said today that details on the numbers and types of planes to be used in the test by the strategic air command and the air defense command, definite dates, etc., are still to be worked out.

If all aircraft of the two commands are used the total of bombers and fighters involved might approach 2,000. However, any one operation will use only a part of this potential total force.

Also important in the games will be the radar warning network and radar aircraft control nets from which intercepting fighter forces will be directed to defense of the target cities by the attacking bombers.

The bulletin denounced Britain's Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin as "Churchill's Trojan horse in the British Labor movement."

It continued its attack on Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia in an article calling him "the official supporter of the Atlantic pact."

Stop Trying To Outguess Beetle

Washington, April 15—(AP)—The Agriculture Department has stopped trying to out-guess the Japanese beetle on where this pest may show up next.

This year the department will not set up quarantine regulations in any area until adult beetles actually appear. Therefore, such regulations have been set up weeks in advance to cover areas where the insect was expected to appear.

Sometimes the beetle appeared and sometimes he didn't.

Jaycees Sponsor Play At College

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, at its supper meeting at the Olde Towne Inn last night, reviewed its plans for sponsoring the famous three-act comedy, "The Hasty Heart," by John Patrick, to be presented by the Teachers' Playhouse at East Carolina Teachers College, April 28 and 29.

The play, which had great success in England and New York, is a "sparkling and human story of things that happen during a war—and happen fast." Every minute of it is mirth-provoking. The audience lives the parts as portrayed by the actors and "one lone woman" in the cast.

Henry Brown, treasurer of the Junior Chamber, and general chairman of the sponsoring committee, explained that it is the purpose of the Jaycees to use their influence to stimulate a greater interest among the people of Greenville and the section in the work being done at the college by the Teachers' Playhouse, under the direction of Dr. Lucile Charles, director of speech and drama. Miss Mary Greene, director of publicity at ECTC, will provide the news stories about "The Hasty Heart" for the press and radio.

Tickets for "The Hasty Heart" are now on sale. They are $1 each, tax included, and 50 cents for faculty members and students.

The Junior Chamber will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, April 26, instead of on Thursday, the 28th, the night of the show.

Guests at last night's supper meeting were Whit Summers of Norfolk, Va., Phil Goodson, Jr., of Goodson-Flanagan Insurance Company, and "Polly" Williams of Williams Plumbing Company. President Louis W. Gaylord, Jr., presided.

Hollywood, April 15—(AP)—Actress Lila Leeds, who co-starred with Robert Mitchum in that famous marijuana melodrama, is in a hospital today suffering from shock, bruises and a broken right arm received in a collision of two expensive cars.

Weeping Statue No Longer Sheds Tears Says Girl

Syracuse, N. Y., April 15—(AP)—Shirley Anne Martin said today her broken statue of St. Ann no longer "sheds tears" when she kissed it.

The 11-year-old girl reported at 9 a.m. (EST) that no liquid substance had materialized on the painted face of the plaster replica since her appearance with the image on a television program at 7:45 p.m. yesterday.

She said that in the intervening time she had tried repeatedly, but without success, to bring to the eyes of the statue what many witnesses who had seen previous demonstrations called "tears."

Repeatedly since the girl picked up the head of the broken statue after it had been discarded April 2 she had kissed the figurine, after which, scores of witnesses said, a watery substance coursed down the cheeks.

The cartoon character Smokey Bear is shown holding a sign that reads: "If you want to improve your lot, plant trees on it... AN KEEP OUT FIRE".

Fears Erased

Just as on every day, the flag was flying this morning over the Greenville postoffice; but something was different.

The flag was upside down, a traditional signal of distress. If any help was needed, it was long delayed, for the signal remained unnoticed until noon.

When Postmaster J. Knott Proctor was telephoned and asked if there was any special significance to the sight, he said "No," and it would be corrected immediately.

It was. Within 42 seconds of the conversation a janitor appeared on the postoffice roof and began remedying the situation.

Apprehensions eased, the Reflector news staff went back to work.

Halsey, Stassen Hold Reunion

Charlotte, N. C., April 15—(AP)—Fleet Admiral William F. (Bull) Halsey, retired, and Harold E. Stassen, now president of the University of Pennsylvania, had a reunion here today.

Then they left with B. E. Gossett of Charlotte, retired cotton manufacturer, for Greenville S. C., and a banquet of the Piedmont and Northern Railroad.

Stassen, former Governor of Minnesota, was Adm. Halsey's flag officer and assistant chief-of-staff during the last war.

None Of Us Is Growing Any YOUNGER

... It's Time To Put Our Affairs In Order

Yes, none of us is growing any younger — and the older we become, the faster time seems to slip by. So fast, in fact, we hardly realize how long ago it was that we intended to do something about making arrangements for the security of our loved ones. And therein lies a great danger, possibly financial tragedy for those we may leave behind.

Naturally, no one likes to think about it or talk about it — but avoiding the subject does not avoid the toll of time, or its consequences.

Isn't this the time, right now, to look a possibility straight in the eye and do something about it? Isn't this the time to stop putting it off and to start putting your affairs in order?

If you haven't made a Will, there'll never be a better time than now to do it. If your Will is several years old, it may be urgent that you revise it at once. If you've planned to set up a trust for your family, isn't this the time to act on that intention?

Helping men and women put their affairs in order — and keeping these affairs in order after they are gone — is our business. We have many grateful customers to testify to the benefits of acting, in time.

The Guaranty Bank and Trust Company does not practice law. Your attorney should prepare your Will and advise you on all of the legal aspects of your Estate Plan.

Minimum Pay Bill Heavily Amended With Exemptions

Raleigh, N. C., April 15—(AP)—A bill to provide a 40 cents an hour minimum wage for women in industry was passed by the House late yesterday after being riddled with exemptions.

Action of the lower chamber in adopting one amendment after another brought bitter comment from Rep. Howard E. Parker of Harnett, a labor supporter.

"The only things that are not exempt from the bill are the squirrels on Capitol square," he said.

In rapid order the house adopted amendments to exempt workers in wholesale and retail stores, laundries and dry cleaning plants, and tobacco drying and stemming plants and warehouses.

The bill already exempted all businesses employing less than three workers, farm, domestic, florist and sea food workers and all workers who are covered by the federal wage and hour law.
