Eisler Freed As Britain Refuses Heed U. S. Plea

Court Rejects American Demand That Communist Agent Be Extradited

London, May 27—(AP)—Britain refused today to send Gerhart Eisler back to the United States to serve out two prison sentences he drew during investigation of his Communist activities there.

Bow street magistrate's court rejected the American demand that Eisler be extradited. That left Eis-

Washington, May 27—(AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark said today the United States has not given up on its efforts to get Communist Gerhart Eisler back from England to serve his prison sentences.

ler—called America's No. 1 Communist agent by a Congressional committee—free to go on to the Soviet zone of Germany—permanently out of American grasp.

The squat, mild-appearing little man, about whom had whirled an international tempest, heard the judgment stolidly at first. He solemnly shook hands with the policeman who had guarded him. But when court was dismissed and he was a free man, he broke into a jubilant smile.

"I wasn't worried," he said. "I feel fine.

"I am going to Germany as quickly as possible. I am very glad the American reactionaries have been defeated and I hope they will be defeated many times more."

Eisler has been offered a professorship in the University of Leipzig, in the Soviet zone of Germany. Presumably that is where he is going.

After almost two hours of argument in Bow street court—the only British court which can deal with extradition cases—magistrate Sir Laurence Dunne rejected the American demand. He said the United States failed to prove that the fugitive Communist had been convicted of an extraditable offense.

The United States had contended that Eisler's conviction of falsification of passport information was tantamount to perjury, which is an extraditable offense in Britain. Eisler's counsel declared he was a political refugee, and not extraditable. The court held that Eisler's offense was not the same as perjury, and that he could not be extradited for the offense he had committed.

Eisler's other conviction was for "wilful and default refusal to be sworn and testify before the house un-American activities committee. U. S. Embassy Minister Julius Holmes commented.

"The court has pronounced. We are law abiding people. We will report the results to the Attorney General. It is up to the Attorney General to decide whether any other steps should be taken."

Home office sources said so far as they know British law on extradition provides for an appeal only in cases lost by the individual involved. Counsel for the U. S. Embassy made no request for a right to appeal the Bow street court's ruling.

More Churchmen Said Arrested

Seoul, May 27—(AP)—Bishop Boniface Sauer, 74, of the North Korean Wonsang diocese and numerous priests have been arrested by communist officials of the north the Catholic mission here was informed today.

Bishop Francis Hong, 46, of Pyongyang, capital of northern Korea, has disappeared, the mission was advised.

Living On A Budget

At Present Time, Congress Appears To Be Spending More Than Government Will Take In During Next Fiscal Year; Means Of Balancing Books; Peace-Meal

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 27—(AP)—You're in the soup if your income is $50 a week and you spend $55 a week to live.

If you're going to keep the sheriff away, you'll have to cut down the spending and stay within your means.

Looks like the government is in that kind of soup now.

In the fiscal year starting July 1, government expenses are expected to total $42 billion or more while its income—mostly from taxes—will run maybe $3 billion less than $42 billion.

Congress, of course, could bridge the gap between income and expenses by boosting the income (taxes).

But that's what Congress says it doesn't want to do, although President Truman still is calling for a tax raise.

Or—since Congress must vote the money that government spends, it could bridge the gap by cutting government expenses.

So far this year it hasn't taken much definite action to do that, either, although it talks a lot about the necessity of doing it.

Shanghai, 4th Largest City, Falls To Communists

This is an aerial view of Shanghai, China, fourth largest city in the world, which fell to Chinese Communist troops Wednesday. The picture was made from the Park hotel looking east down Nanking Road. With church bells pealing, the green-clad Communist soldiers came in from the southwest and marched to the center of the city without a fight. Sawyer Regards Business 'Good'

Sec. Of Commerce Says Current Situation Compares Well

Atlantic City, N. J., May 27—(AP)—Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer today stamped "good" on the current business situation.

Sawyer said "by any normal standard of historic comparison our situation is good."

In an address prepared for the 30th convention of the National Restaurant Association, he said:

"Whether we shall maintain our economy at present levels will depend as much upon psychological factors as upon material factors."

"Your opinion of what the future holds, and your personal action along with that of 140,000,000 other Americans, will have much to do with the immediate development of our economic future."

He said there has been a relaxation of inflationary pressures evident in late 1948. Businessmen

Report Drop In 'Lost' Man Days

Washington, May 27—(AP)—Working time lost because of labor disputes so far this year is less than half what it was during the same period last year.

Reporting this today, the bureau of labor statistics said the number of strikes, and workers involved, from January through April this year was about the same as the first four months of 1948.

Yet because the strikes were shorter this year, working time lost was 6,850,000 man-days during the first four months of 1949 compared with 15,800,000 man-days for the same period last year.

Fight In Shanghai Ends As Holdouts Surrender

Shanghai, May 27—(AP)—The red blanket of communism quietly enveloped all of Shanghai today.

The gunfire ceased. The last nationalist holdouts surrendered. Veteran troops peacefully carried Red rule into the northern part of the world's fourth largest city.

The communist occupation was complete three days after it began. Red political officers began taking over the government of the greatest Asian commercial center and its 6,000,000 people.

The nationalist garrison of Woonung fortress folded up. The government evacuation fleet pulled out down the Yangtze and into the East China Sea.

The ships left behind the nationalist troops who had failed to make the 10-mile northward march down the Whangpoo river escape corridor from Shanghai to Woonung.

How many only the Reds would know after they had rounded them up.

The sharp—but minor—fighting for Shanghai really was over last night. But not until today did the handful of nationalist rearguards who made the final, mad stand in the heart of the city make up their minds to quit.

For two days they had held the bridges across Soochow Creek which flows through downtown Shanghai and into the Whangpoo at the north end of the famous Bund. And they held the big modern buildings that commanded the bridge approaches.

Their orders were to hold the bridges, to protect the Shanghai garrison's withdrawal to Woonung.

To Build Soon

Raleigh, May 27—(AP)—Construction of a 400-bed hospital at Chapel Hill for the University of North Carolina Medical School probably will get underway this summer, the Budget Bureau reported today.

Plans and specifications for the huge hospital have been prepared and now are being studied by the Budget Bureau's engineering division.

Debate Ahead On Foreign Aid Bill

Senate Opponents Warn They Will Fight For Reduction

Washington, May 27—(AP)—The foreign-aid money bill, now at $5,617,470,000 is in for stormy opposition in the Senate.

Some leaders of both parties gave warning today they will try to take a substantial slice out of the bill approved yesterday by the House.

A plea from President Truman saved the measure from a considerable cut on the House side. But members of the Senate Appropriations Committee appeared to be in no mood to heed a similar appeal.

Even Senator McKellar of Tennessee, Democratic chairman of the committee, said the House should have taken a bigger cut out of the aid funds.

The $5,617,470,000 includes funds for the Economic Cooperation Administration; for Greece - Turkey aid; and for government and relief in the occupied areas of Germany, Austria and Japan.

The House lopped $704,730,000 off the amount President Truman requested. But the members offset this cut largely by making the money available for 13 and one-half months instead of the 15 months in the original plan.

Seventeen Killed In Flaming Lava

Col. Colombia, May 27—(AP)—Seventeen persons were killed by flaming lava when they tried to scale an active volcano, it was learned here today.

The group of engineering students led by a professor were on a field trip at Purace, site of the volcano about 150 miles southwest of Bogota.

Rita And Prince Are Wed Today

Rita Hayworth, American movie actress, and Prince Aly Kahn walk arm-in-arm at Cannes, France, as the time draws near for their wedding. They were married in the tiny city hall at the nearby village of Vallauris. Prince Aly is heir to the spiritual leadership of the Ismaili religious sect. In the marriage ceremony, Rita wasn't asked if she agreed to obey him. In accordance with French marriage custom, she was told flatly he's the boss. (AP Wirephoto).

Escapes Have Brief Freedom

Waynesville, N. C., May 27—(AP)—A posse using bloodhounds today ran down two convicts who yesterday escaped from a state prison camp at Hazelwood.

They were Arthur Nicholson, 25 sentenced in Forsyth county to 12 to 20 years for second degree burglary, and Clarence Jeters, 28, of Wake county, serving eight to 10 years for house-breaking and larceny and automobile theft.

Wants Congress To Extend Stay

President Hopes To See More Action On His Program

Washington, May 27—(AP)—Congress may be asked to work well into the sizzling Washington summer to put through more of President Truman's broad legislative program.

Mr. Truman said as much yesterday. He told a news conference he hopes to see a major part of his program enacted before Congress quits—and then added flatly that this doesn't mean Congress will adjourn July 31. Some members have talked about such a quitting date.

House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) commented:

"Before Congress adjourns it is going to enact a very full and constructive program. There has been no agreement among leaders of Congress and the White House for the exclusion of any legislation."

Newsman generally got the impression from Senator Lucas (D-Ill), in talking with him Tuesday that only three major measures remain on the Senate's "must" list for this session. But both Lucas who is the Democratic leader in the Senate, and the President said yesterday that was the wrong impression.

Mr. Truman told his news conference he still stands for everything in the program he presented in January. And he said some news accounts of the Lucas interview—which occurred after congressional leaders conferred at the White House—do not agree with Lucas' own version.

Lucas amplified this later. Some news accounts of what he said were complete and some were not, he said. What he had told reporters he added, was that Congress wants to adjourn July 31, but that if the work was not finished it would have to stay in session.

Overhaul Starts For State Dept.

More Efficiency And Lessened Strain On Acheson Sought

Washington, May 27—(AP)—With five new high officials, the state department today was launched on a major, top-to-bottom administrative overhaul.

The purpose: To increase efficiency and relieve an "intolerable burden" on Secretary Acheson.

President Truman's approval yesterday of sweeping changes authorized by Congress put into effect a reorganization plan along lines recommended by the Hoover commission.

The nomination of five new assistant secretaries—raised the number of assistants from six to ten. One of the new men takes the place of an assistant who resigned.

That action plus a general shake-up of duties is expected to tighten official machinery for dealing with other governments.

One stated purpose is to relax the strain on, who is now in Paris as head of the United States delegation at the big four Foreign Ministers conference.

The Hoover commission on government reorganization said three months ago that the Secretary and undersecretary James E. Webb now bear an "intolerable burden and have little time for thoughtful and considered reflection on Foreign affairs problems."

Garden Is Open; House Is Closed

Des Moines, May 27—(AP)—Bord Smith cannot go into the Smith home, but he can tend the garden.

Mrs. Phyllis Smith obtained a restraining order to keep her husband out of the house pending disposition of a petition for divorce.

Yesterday Judge Loy Ladd entered an order which allows Smith to tend the garden and get the garden tools out of the basement. The garden tending, according to the order, must be between 7 a.m. and 8 p.m.

West Will Offer Plan For Uniting Divided Germany

Blueprint To Be Placed Before Russians Soon; Still Seek Soviet Terms

Paris, May 27—(AP)—The western powers have drafted a plan to unify east and west Germany, official sources to the Big Four foreign ministers said today.

The sources said the western blueprint would be placed before the Russians "in a day or two."

It comes after the Soviet proposal to the foreign ministers' conference for an elected German control board to run the conquered country.

Today—like the past three days—Secretary of State Dean Acheson, French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin were expected to continue prodding Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei V. Vishinsky into defining his terms for German unity.

If they fail to obtain the satisfaction they seek, they are expected to spend the weekend redefining their counter offer of German unity.

So far the west has not rejected outright the Russian call for a return to four-power control and for an elected German economic and administrative council.

But they have served notice they want:

1. To turn management of political and economic affairs over to the Germans.

2. To retain supervision only of security, demilitarization, industrial production and foreign policy matters.

3. Russia to understand it cannot expect to receive any more reparations out of west German or all-German current production.

4. To see Russia loosen its grip on the economy of the eastern zone by dissolving all industrial trusts it has acquired and formed in the zone.

Freakish Weather Hits Eastern Part Of State

Dunn, May 27—(AP)—Freakish weather swept widely separated parts of North Carolina yesterday, but concentrated on the eastern portion. A tornado hit Harnett County.

A few dwellings were destroyed near Dunn, numerous farm buildings blown over, trees uprooted and power lines knocked out by the twister. No one was seriously hurt although several persons required first aid.

The tornado first hit in the Easy Street section 10 miles east of Dunn. Three homes were destroyed there. It hit next in the Reedy Brook section, two miles away.

Gray Tart and eight members of his family were eating dinner when the roof blew off.

"The wind blew in every direction," Tart said. "During the five minutes the wind lasted some members of my family were screaming and some were holding on to me."

After striking a section two miles from Newton Grove where one home was destroyed, the twister was last reported in the Jordan Chapel community in Wayne County about 10 miles from where it started.

Hail caused considerable crop damage throughout the state. At

April Decline

Raleigh, N. C. May 27—(AP)—Continued decline hit weekly earnings and employment in North Carolina factories last month.

A reduction in hours worked cut weekly earnings by 4.2 per cent in April, the state department of labor reported yesterday.

Factory employment dropped 2.2 per cent from March to April, statistician C. H. Fritchard said, to a point 10.2 per cent below the mark for April, 1948.

The average work week for all manufacturing last month was 35.1 hours, down 3.8 per cent from the March average.

Tobacco manufacturing workers were hit hardest. Their work week declined 9.3 per cent to an average of 33.3 hours. Their weekly earnings dropped 8.6 per cent to an average of $39.41.

Trains To Berlin Halted By Strike

Western Sectors Begin Dipping Into Air-lift Backlog Supplies; Allies Refuse To Intervene In Tie-Up; Impasse Appears Worse Than Blockade

Berlin, May 27—(AP)—The full impact of the Berlin rail strike, making a gigantic mess of transport, struck groggy Berliners in the bread-basket today.

Here is the situation as of now:

1. Not one railroad wheel moved from West Germany toward Berlin and the city's freight yards are a vast graveyard of stalled cars.

2. The Western sectors began to dip into their backlog of three weeks food supply maintained by the allied airlift, once again the chief source of supply for the harried city.

The airlift never stopped after the lifting of the Russian blockade. The Western Allies were waiting to see what happened, and the 8,000 tons a day coming in now showed the decision was wise.

3. Western Berlin's mayor, Ernst Reuter, called in his district sub-mayors for a special conference.

4. The Western Allies insisted that the bitter stand-off between the independent railworkers union and the Soviet-controlled management was a German matter. They refused to do anything which would look like strikebreaking.

The Russians said nothing. This was an impasse for the West which appeared worse than any the Russians may have dreamed up when they imposed the blockade last June.

The Reichsbahn—the Soviet-controlled railway management— notified the allies of the West it was sending in repair crews, implying it wanted protection for such crews.

This raised the fear of a revival of the riotous battles which raged between strikers and anti-strikebreakers early in the year, taking two lives. Strikers have not hesitated to wield clubs, hurl rocks and swing fists in the face of pistol fire from East sector German police. Now the strikers are populating areas where the tracks are ripped up, the switches are locked and the signals disconnected.

If any one, allied or German, was making a move to settle the dispute, it was not immediately apparent. The Americans stopped all Berlin-bound trains at the Soviet sector border in Helmsdorf. The Americans and British stopped all passenger runs. The 110-mile single track stretch from Helmsdorf through the Soviet occupation zone to Berlin is a solid line of stalled trains.

MaJ. Gen. George F. Hays, U. S. deputy military governor, said he would not order the strikers to unload even allied freight, because that would be the act of a "strikebreaker."

Said Ernst Scharnowski, chairman of the striking anti-Communist UGO (independent labor organization) which called the strike Saturday: "If the allies issue a directive we are certainly ready to handle allied trains and trains for West Berlin. But we cannot take the responsibility of handling cars on our own."

His words underscored how the strike has become a big factor in the cold war between Russia on the one hand, and the United States, Britain and France on the other, even while the four powers' foreign ministers are meeting in Paris in efforts to settle the German problem.

GOP Denies Any Politics Behind Atomic Inquiries

Washington, May 27—(AP)—President Truman's crack that the Atomic Energy Commission has become a "pre-election campaign" target met a Republican denial today that politics is involved in Congress' AEC inquiry.

The President said he deplored "the fact that trivial items have been blown up to the proportions that threaten the integrity of the (atomic) program."

This was an apparent reference to (1) the disappearance of an ounce of uranium—of which the AEC said all but one seventh was recovered—and (2) the revelation that at least one Communist was awarded an AEC study fellowship. In a formal statement read at yesterday's news conference, the President added:

"It is time the people stopped getting hysterical when the word atom is mentioned. The plain fact is that the atomic energy program is in good shape—and in good hands."

"I hope the commission will soon be able to get back to work and that the atomic energy program will cease to be used for pre-election campaigns."

While Mr. Truman said he has "entire confidence" in AEC Chairman David E. Lilienthal, Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) told reporters he differs on that point.

Hickenlooper, who seeks re-election to the Senate next year, said "there is no 'pre-election' in his criticism of Lilienthal—and his suggestion that the commission chairman get out because of what the Iowa senator has called "incredible mismanagement" of atomic affairs.

Chairman McMahon (D-Conn.) of the Senate House Atomic Committee which met today to map a lengthy investigation of the AEC after having heard Lilienthal defend his regime yesterday, also replied to Mr. Truman in a statement.

McMahon, also up for re-election next year, said:

"Since the President knows just how many bombs we have, it is reassuring to know that he is satisfied with the progress of the atomic energy program."

Truman Crack Draws Reply; President Defends His Faith In Lilienthal

Washington, May 27—(AP)—President Truman's crack that the Atomic Energy Commission has become a "pre-election campaign" target met a Republican denial today that politics is involved in Congress' AEC inquiry.

Lewis Disrupts Coal Pact Talks

Stages Walkout; Gives Operators A Week To Organize

Bluefield, W. Va., May 27—(AP)—Southern soft coal contract talks were at a halt today, blocked for a week by the latest defiant move of John L. Lewis.

Lewis led his United Mine Workers negotiators out of the conference here yesterday after giving the Southern Coal Producers Association until next Thursday to prove its bargaining authority.

"One week from today at 3 o'clock in this hall the representatives of the United Mine Workers will be back," Lewis roared. "The Association needs the next week to reorganize their shattered forces or permit them to fall apart more rapidly."

The breakdown of the conference in its second day put a damper on hopes that the UMW and SCPA will agree on a new contract before the present one runs out June 30.

The Southern contract party, separate from the rest of the bituminous industry, was asked this year by SCPA president Joseph E. Moody.

For the second straight day, Lewis is challenged Moody to show that the SCPA spoke for enough of its membership to write a contract under its own by-laws. Nine of the 14 Associations represented on the SCPA board of directors must approve a contract.

Lewis said two more big producers pulled out of the conference in the previous 24 hours.

Ford Peace Bid Is Turned Down

Detroit, May 27—(AP)—A company peace bid to settle the 23-day Ford strike was rejected today by the CIO-United Auto workers.

Ford's proposal covered arbitration of work standards on disputed assembly lines in two struck plants.

It was concerned only with whether work standards impair the "health or safety" of employes, in line with the Ford-UAW contract.

The union has insisted that the powers of the arbitrator be limited to whether the company has the right to work employes in excess of 100 per cent of "normal work standards."

Governor To Get New Limousine

Raleigh, N. C., May 27—(AP)—Governor Scott soon will be sporting a shiny new Cadillac.

The Governor's office announced yesterday that an order was placed May 4 for a Cadillac. It is being purchased direct from General Motors and is costing $4,435. As is the custom, the new car will be a seven passenger black limousine.

District Sales Tax

Washington, May 27—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill setting up a two per cent sales tax in the nation's capital.

The tax probably will go into effect August 10.

Vishinsky In Action

Eyes Of West On Ruthless, Fiery Soviet Foreign Minister; Maneuvering For Position; A Question Of Concessions; Observers Think Russia Wants Quiet Truce

By DeWITT MacKENZIE

Russia and the western allies continue to maneuver for position in the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Council meeting, which opened in Paris last Monday.

America, Britain and France still seek an exact interpretation of Moscow's back-flop when the discussions opened on Germany's future—a matter of paramount importance to European peace and rehabilitation. The Russian shift was disclosed by Foreign Minister Vishinsky's wholly unexpected call for a revival of the four-power allied control council to govern Germany under a central German government. Why then the sudden reversal?

Well, that's for Mr. Vishinsky to disclose in his own good time. Some observers think the change is due, in part at least, to the setback which the Communists had in the recent election in the Soviet zone of Germany.

That election was to create a "people's Congress" which was to be presented to the Foreign Ministers' Council as the basis of a government for all Germany. But one-third of the voters turned thumbs-down on the proposition, thus rejecting the Red scheme useless.

Now the Soviet calls for a return to big four council rule, a proposal which America, Britain and France promptly rejected. They say the clock can't be turned back.

So the next major move is up to Vishinsky, and pending that we must be patient. Even when it comes, we may not get the show, for the Soviet Foreign Minister is a strategist of de

Mrs. Edwards Hostess To Atheneum Club At Beach Cottage

Tuesday, May 24th was a carefree happy day for the Atheneum Book Club members. When they arose early, dispensed with the necessary family duties, and set out to Atlantic Beach to spend the day with their hostess, Mrs. Clifton Edwards, at her beach cottage.

Upon arrival Mrs. Edwards served Coca-Colas and home-made chocolate candy, after which the members dressed in beach clothes and went out on the beach—bathing, sunning, strolling, calling as the fancy struck them, realizing in about two hours that after a long winter of coats and very little sunshine how much havoc the salt air and sunshin can play on our lily white skin we rushed in and most of the group dressed again. Some played cards. Others talked and still others ventured back as far as the board walk and relaxed in the sun to take a chance on the destruction that is sometimes wrought by too much of that very good thing, the sun.

Around one-thirty our hostess served a delicious luncheon. After our trip and frolic on the beach we all made it quite plain to our hostess during luncheon how much we really appreciated her hospitality.

Again we sat around and relaxed and enjoyed our lack of responsibility and finally had a very short business meeting, at which time we decided to get our books to our librarian, Mrs. Mary Warren, by the weekend, who in turn would deliver them to the library, which is our custom at the end of each year.

The meeting was adjourned and we continued our visit until around 4:30 o'clock, when we thanked our hostesses for a delightful day and returned to our respective cars to start home again.

Mrs. Edwards had as her guest for the day Mrs. Mat Long and Miss Mattie Barnes, sister of Mrs. J. J. White, and Mrs. Kinchen Cobb.

Bethel 7th Grade Goes On Trip

On Thursday, May 19, the pupils of Bethel seventh grade set out on a trip to Raleigh. At about 8:00 Thursday morning everyone, including several "Grade Mothers" joined the happy group. Some of these mothers were Mrs. W. C. Taylor, Mrs. W. C. House, Mrs. R. L. Goodall, Mrs. Jack Pritchard and several others.

We arrived in Raleigh about 11:00 and went to the S. & W. Cafeteria, where we enjoyed a very nice lunch. After leaving the cafeteria we went to the museum where we saw many helpful and interesting things. We also got to see the Shriners parade.

After going to the museum we went to several other places, such as the House of Little Jack, the puppet Health Doll, School for the Blind, Governor's Mansion, Andrew Jackson's house and several other interesting places.

Everyone enjoyed themselves and arrived with happy thoughts in Bethel at about 9:00 that night. Sherre Latham, reporter.

Langley-McCulloch Vows Solemnized

Elizabethtown, May 23.—A wedding of simple beauty and dignity was solemnized at the Elizabethtown Presbyterian Church on Friday afternoon, May 20, when Miss Mary Elizabeth McCulloch, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McCulloch, became the bride of Ronald Bennett Langley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Langley of Greenville, N. C. The vows being spoken before the Rev. R. H. The chancel of the church was in a lovely nuptial setting of southern evergreens, and floor baskets of pastel summer flowers, interspersed with candelabra holding burning cathedral candles.

Mrs. D. M. Calhoun, organist, rendered a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony, and at the ceremony hour Miss Junette Easton of Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, sang "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg. She also sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte as a benediction.

The bride, a lovely semi-blonde, entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was attired in a pale blue traveling suit, with white accessories, and her corsage was of white sweetheart roses.

John Langley, brother of the groom, attended as best man. David McCulloch, brother of the bride, and Norman B. McCulloch, her cousin, were ushers.

Six school mates of the bride were honorary bridesmaids and were seated within the ribbons.

Mrs. Langley was graduated from the Elizabethtown high school, and attended East Carolina Teachers College and is a most attractive young woman of much personal charm.

The groom was graduated from the Greenville high school and is employed at Brody's in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McCulloch entertained at a reception following the wedding at their home here, honoring the bridal couple and out-of-town guests. Mrs. McCulloch, mother of the bride, wore Navy with red rose corsage. Mrs. Langley, mother of the groom, wore black with corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Shotwell Wins Coveted Honor In Service League

At the annual luncheon of the Service League of Greenville on Wednesday, May 25, Mrs. L. T. Shotwell was awarded the Silver Service Cup which is the outstanding honor of the League's year. This cup was given in 1948 by the outgoing president, Mrs. Lyman Ormond, and will be presented annually to the member who has shown the most interest in the year's work. The selection for the award is made by the Board of Directors and is an honor coveted by all Service League members.

In their selection the board considers not only those who have given the most hours of service but their variety of activities, their willingness to work and usefulness in the community. Mrs. Shotwell came into the League in its early days and her loyalty and enthusiasm for every phase of League work has made her a valued and beloved member. In awarding her this cup not only the board but every member of the organization feel that this is an honor justly earned by her for many years of outstanding work in every type of community service which the League sponsors.

Joint Hostesses To End of Century In Final Meeting

The Greenville Country Club proved an ideal setting for the final meeting of the End of the Century Book Club on May 24th. The hostesses, Mrs. J. T. Little and Mrs. R. M. Garrett, greeted the members and invited them into the attractive club room which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. After a pleasant social hour greatly enhanced by the many guests for the day, a delicious luncheon was served on the club porch overlooking the golf course. In this cool and peaceful retreat the president held a brief business meeting. The treasurer's report and minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Since the last meeting had been "Book Club Day," which this year was the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the End of the Century Club, all those present were lavish in their discussion and praise of that happy occasion. It was moved and seconded that the corresponding secretary write a note of thanks to Mrs. W. L. Hall, author, and Mrs. Reid Perkins, director for the honor paid the club at that time.

All books were turned in to the custodian who in keeping with the custom of many years will present them to the Sheppard Memorial Library. Mrs. Little then presented Mrs. E. E. Rawl who was director of Book Club Day. Mrs. Rawl explained the contents of a beautifully bound Scrap Book which she had kept throughout the club year of 1948-49 depicting club activities and items of interest to all club women of Greenville. She then graciously presented this Scrap Book to the End of the Century Club as a further memento of the 50th anniversary celebration. In thanking Mrs. Rawl for this handsome book the president, Mrs. Charles White, reminded the club of its responsibility in being the mother club and asked that we continue to keep this Scrap Book up to date until that time when our sister club, the "Sans Souci," should enjoy a like celebration of 50 years. She appointed Miss Mary Harding as custodian of this book and stated that it would be kept in the library for the summer along with the loving cup won by this club for the year's attendance at Book Club Day.

The golden scrolls which marked all places at the luncheon proved to be the resume of the Book Club Day program and will be prized by every member. Mrs. J. H. Thomas, program chairman, then presented the new year books handsomely bound in gold. The programs for next year were found to be most attractive and will furnish the club with a further reminder of our fifty years together. After such an enthusiastic and delightful meeting the members were slow to part, realizing that adjournment meant that the summer months must pass before we gather together again.

When you gotta stop - you wanta stop!

"It can stop on a dime," the salesman promised you, "—and leave nine cents change!"
And your Buick did—when it was new and brake linings unworn and everything factory-tight and fresh.
But brake linings wear—lights grow dim with time—tires can lose their bite and traction.
And with a whole summer's driving ahead, what better time than this to bring your Buick back to new-car peak in all those details that mean so much to safety?

Check your car --- Check accidents!
Three great service and safety organizations across the country are alerting car-owners everywhere this month on safety-checking their cars.
They list ten vital question marks for you to think about — How are your Brakes? Lights? Tires? Steering? Wheel alignment? Defective glass? Rear-view mirror? Muffler? Windshield wipers? Horn?
Be sure your family rides in safety—ask your Buick service man to look over these check-points this month—and join the great drive for driving safety!

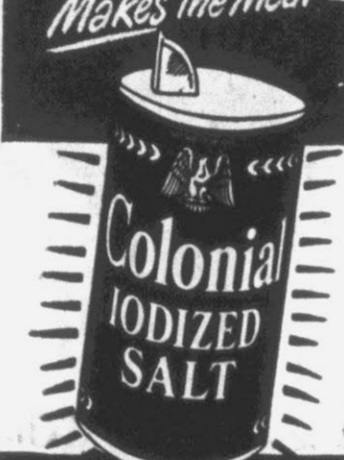

Our men, trained in Buick ways, will give you brakes that stop you as Buicks should, with new brake linings that are right in size and brake drums turned to perfect round.
They can replace sealed-beam headlights to give you new-bulb brilliance—and while they're at it, check battery, voltage, wiring and headlamp-aim to boot.
They'll check tires, switch them as needed, look into wheel alignment for easy steering.
In a word, they'll renew your Buick with the same care and interest they would lavish on their own—and do it at no greater cost than for just ordinary service.
So drop in. Get set for some summer fun that's up to lively Buick standard.

Strength FOR THE DAY THE GREAT DISCOVERY. A man who for more than thirty years was connected with the Y.M.C.A. in Cairo was telling recently about a religious breakfast club and forum which he conducted for many years for Egyptians of all faiths. In that group there happened to be two brothers, one a devout Mohammedan and the other an atheist. At almost every session of the forum these two brothers would have it out with each other much to the delight of their listeners, for both had excellent minds. At last the atheist brother was absent from the forum, and then the news got about that he had entered a tuberculosis sanatorium. The Y.M.C.A. worker made it a point to visit him regularly. Just a few days before the young fellow died, in a voice reduced by weakness to a whisper, he said to his Christian friend, "You will be interested to know that in these last days and in this place I have found God." How he found God, though what channel we do not know. But he found Him and that was all-sufficient. God indeed works in a mysterious way his wonders to perform.

PUBLIC FORUM. Discussing problems of interest to this community. In all cases names must accompany any communication. REHABILITATION REPORT OF GREENVILLE UNIT OF AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY. When you are asked to buy a poppy next Saturday on the streets of Greenville, the thought may come to your mind—where are the poppies obtained, and for what are the proceeds used? Last winter small pieces of red crepe paper and other materials were given to patients in the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville by American Legion Auxiliary Service workers. They were instructed how to form the little red flower. The making of the poppy serves a two-fold purpose: it allows the patient to make a little spending money and is a form of occupational therapy. The local unit buys the poppies from the veteran and the money derived from the sale is used for the disabled veteran or his family. A carton of cigarettes and a package of Christmas cards were sent for a Thanksgiving gift to each of the twenty-five veterans allotted to our unit. The Auxiliary's Christmas program is a new one dollar bill with a greeting card to each of our patients. At Easter pound boxes of candy were sent to our patients. One hundred and ten gifts were sent to the Gift Shop. Ten dollars a month was sent to Fayetteville Veterans Hospital for bingo prizes or parties for the veterans. One hundred and twenty dollars was sent to a Central Fund, a fund that gives each non-compensated veteran an allowance of $2.00 a month. Two hundred dollars was given to the O'Neal Foundation Fund. One hundred and six dollars was spent on family contacts. The total amount spent was $907.95. The proceeds of last year poppy sale amounted to $700.00. Be generous next Saturday when you buy a poppy and you will have the satisfaction that you are helping the veteran throughout the year. Rehabilitation Chairman, Mrs. James R. Worsley

Somebody Told Me... By I. J. (JACK) EDWARDS, JR. Several days ago Charlie Howard, Jr. returned from a business trip to Europe, where he represented the Greenville Tobacco Company. This is the second column devoted to his experiences in Germany, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Switzerland and Belgium. Charlie says there is almost no rebuilding in progress in Germany. In the middle of Rotterdam there are five miles of fields, flattened by bombs during the war and cleared off long enough ago to grow up in weeds. The ruins have become a part of European life, so they are not even noticed. Charlie says he examined them much more carefully this trip than he did when he was there with his Infantry company during the war. In the war days the ruins were just another part of the big mess. Now they add a depressing note to the hum of everyday life. Food is strictly rationed, but the allowance will provide a healthy diet for those who have enough money to pay for it. On a train Charlie met an American Merchant Mariner who had just visited his German parents. During the visit he ate three meals, all potatoes and nothing more. His father makes 200 marks, or $70, a month, and he's a trained civil engineer. A prominent German family invited Charlie in for dinner one night to treat him to what they considered the best meat they had been able to get in months. The meat was fatback! God bless America! The only countries in the world that have hard currency (spendable anywhere) are the United States, Belgium and Switzerland. Despite this fact, prices are higher in Belgium than in any other European country. Elsewhere in Europe a normal dinner costs about three dollars, but in Belgium it's five. And the five doesn't buy weinerschnitzel, which I'm sure you realize is fried steak. Charlie became acquainted with a Britisher who felt like socializing in Belgium one night, took off for a swanky nightclub, and returned several hours later $350 poorer. Now I'm not saying that the Greenville Tobacco Company is a strict organization, but Charlie's expense account in Europe included no such venture. This same Britisher had just "escaped" from Moscow when Charlie met him. The poor fellow made the mistake of going there to sell his goods. It was a rough battle with red tape to get in, and almost as hard to get out. To illustrate his love for the place, the Britisher applied for permission to leave the day he arrived, but it was three weeks before his application was approved. During the time he was there the Russians tapped his telephone and shadowed him every time he left his hotel room. And he had to pay $80 a day for three meals and a hotel room. The Russians finally let him go, but they took every piece of paper he owned with English printed on it. They even took his most valuable possession, his address book. And I thank you.

Boyle's Column By HAL BOYLE. It comes from an ancient temple, so worn by time that it is now slightly smaller than the Empire State building. The temple stands in the middle of a clearing in a mysterious jungle. The time is midnight. Great searchlights cross and re-cross the sky, and their tremendous rays rebuke the farthest stars. About the temple surges a vast crowd of 3,000,000 peasants clad in join cloths and flowering saris. Wild beasts growl and cry in the jungle. There is the whish of a sudden head and the thud of paw on flesh. "Ee-ee-oo w- Woh- w-w!" screams the victim as the tiger dashes its prey back into the jungle. The crowd is now reduced to 3,000,000—but no one leaves. All eyes watch two six-lane roads that lead to the temple entrance. The roads are covered with Persian carpets 18-inches thick. Down one road comes a procession of 999 elephants in silk trappings, on the lead elephant, which wears a 369-carat ruby driven into its forehead with a silver hammer, rides a handsome young man, clad in a cloth of purest gold. It is Prince Aly Khan, descendent of the prophet. It is his wedding day and with both hands he casts out pearls and diamonds to the multitude. Some are trampled by the elephants as they crawl out into the rug road for the gems. Ora-a-ack! There goes another bone! Down the second road comes 999 dazzling white Rolls Royces. On a raised milk-covered throne in the first car sits a beautiful damsel in a robe of Damascus. Atop her head sparkles a simple emerald, as large as a pre-war loaf of bread. It is Rita Hayworth, the bride, attended by 999 cars of borrowed peacocks and press agents. The two processions meet. A shower of white wings comes suddenly out of the darkness. It is ten thousand trained doves. With tender beaks they seize Miss Hayworth's robes. In a soft tumult of wings they wait her to Prince Aly's side on his jeweled studded throne atop the elephant. The gongs beat louder. From the temple's mouth emerges a wizened High Priest, 101 years old. Behind him trail 99 temple virgins swinging censers, from which rise the scents

Around Capitol Square. RECESSION?—Weekly earnings of North Carolina factory workers dropped 4.2 percent during April from the March level, while the average work-week decreased 3.8 hours to an average 35.1 hours, reports the labor department. Another report from the same department shows that only half as many teen age workers were certified for employment in April as last year. Contrary to usual upswing in teen age workers during the late spring, the April number was below that for March. The department refers to the "shrinking job market caused by the current economic recession." UNEMPLOYED—State Treasurer Branford Hodges reports that more than 10,000 unemployment compensation checks were cleared on Wed-

of rarest incense. The giant elephant kneels. He puts out his trunk. Gently he lifts the old Priest to his head. Sweeping his long white beard aside with a majestic air, the wrinkled Priest intones: "Doest thou, Prince Aly, take Rita to be thy wedded wife?" It is thus that this potentate-to-be and his movie queen should be married only in this manner: could they satisfy the worshipful subjects of each. But what has happened to the mysterious East and Hollywood, both hit by hard times? The scenes of these two glamor belts arranged to be married in a French city hall by a Communist mayor wearing a new blue suit. How bad can times get? There was a heartening report that would surface near the Prince's 20-room Riviera villa and a name band would crawl out and play "here comes the bride." There was also a report that 50 turtles, each carrying a lighted candle on its back, would paddle around the villa's swimming pool. Both rumors were denied. But the turtles would have been only a shabby gesture at best. There should have been at least fifty rented whales, not turtles, with men on their backs shooting up fireworks or a few atom bombs. A production is only as good as its script, and the script for this matrimonial wedding of east and west was strictly grade "B".

GI Run Over By Big Bomb Truck Without Scratch

Cherry Point, N. C., May 26—(AP)—Private Charles E. Mayle, an aviation ordnance man with Marine fighter squadron 461, was run over by an 8,000 pound bomb truck Tuesday and escaped without a scratch. Mayle was sitting on the grass in front of a bomb carrier service truck when the vehicle rolled over both his legs. He didn't hear the truck motor start, due to the roar of airplane engines all around him. He was in a quandry as to why his friends began to arise. Mayle started to do likewise, but to express it in his own words, "I just didn't make it."

Cards Can 'Go' Now; Musial And Slaughter Start Hitting

By JACK HANDB

(Associated Press Sports Writer) Watch the St. Louis Cardinals go, now that Stan Musial and Bruce Slaughter have started to hit. The Red Birds probably can't win the pennant, but they definitely don't belong down in sixth or seventh place.

When the Cards limped home from the East, Musial was slumping and Slaughter was so bad he had been benched for a few games. Home cooking and morning practice at Sportsman's Park fixed that.

In 10 games at St. Louis, Musial hit .316, batted in eight runs and smashed three homers. Slaughter did even better with a .352 average for the home stand and nine more RBIs.

Both Musial and Slaughter hit home runs last night in the Cards' 13-6 victory over Pittsburgh. It was the third straight for the rejuvenated Birds and their fourth in the last five games.

Things looked black for St. Louis in the top of the first when Pittsburgh flattened Red Munger and scored four runs. Three were driven home by Ralph Kiner's 10th homer, a blast that put him one up on Johnny Mize.

That was only the beginning. Back came the Cardinals with seven big runs in a blistering attack on Kirby Higbe and Hal Gregg.

Higbe, making his first start of the season after five so-so relief jobs, was wild and so was Gregg.

Each walked a man with the bases loaded. Marty Marion capped the rally with a two-run single.

Jim Hearn, who relieved Mungler in the first, was driven to cover in the second when the pirates rallied for two more to make it 7-6, but they were blanked the rest of the way by Ted Wilks. It was the third victory for Wilks.

Cliff Chambers matched Wilks until the sixth, when Musial hit his sixth homer. Slaughter followed with his third of the year in the seventh.

St. Louis' victory in the only National League game moved them into a fifth-place tie with the Phillies.

When rain washed out the New York Yankee-Detroit game, both the Boston Red Sox and Washington Senators gained a half-game on the leaders.

Now five back of the Yanks, the Red Sox made it six out of eight since their return to Fenway Park by dumping the St. Louis Browns, 7-5. An error by Eddie Pellagrini and a close play at second base helped them score four unearned runs in the eighth.

Mel Parnell failed to go the route for the first time in eight starts, giving way to Tex Hughson, the eventual winner, when the Browns went out front temporarily in the three-run eighth.

Ted Williams singled with the bases loaded in the eighth to drive in the winning runs off loser Ned Garver.

Cleveland closed its disastrous Eastern tour by bowing to Washington, 5-4, in a game called after the first of the eighth to permit both teams to make a train connection. The World Champs lost 7 of 9 in the east and 10 of 12 since leaving home.

Gene Bearden, world series hero in '48, failed to go the route for the fifth straight time. The left-handed knuckler was mauled for five runs in less than three innings, although Larry Doby gave him a two-run working margin with his sixth homer in the first.

Mickey Hefner, who stopped the Indians with one hit May 10, scattered seven hits for his fourth victory. He has trimmed the Tribe 17 times in 25 starts during his major league career.

Hole In One

Boley Farley scored a hole-in-one yesterday afternoon on the 115-yard number three hole at the Greenville golf and country club. He used a nine iron for the ace shot.

At the time of the ace, Farley was playing with R. E. Corbett, Jr., John Warner, I. J. Edwards and Herman Duncan.

According to Pro. Harold Thomas, it is the sixth hole-in-one made at the local club since the course was changed in 1947. For the shot, Thomas said, Farley will receive numerous prizes from sporting goods firms.

Bobby Locke In National Open

New York, May 27—(AP)—Bobby Locke, who found the doors of the P. G. A. tournament this week closed to him, faced no such obstacles in the National open golf championship.

The cold-veined shotmaker from South Africa is one of 29 entrants who jump right into the title field June 9 at the Medinah, (Ill.) country club without having to take the trouble to qualify.

Because of his habit of knocking over the nation's best pro talent, he probably will rule a co-favorite with Samuel Jackson Snead, the larruper from West Virginia whose new-found putting touch won him the masters prize earlier this year.

The U. S. Golf Association announced the entry list today and issued allotments for the various qualifying tests scheduled next Tuesday.

A total of 1,352 pros and amateurs—the fourth largest turnout in all the tournament's 49 years—are seeking a grace at the coveted title.

Locke and Snead, who were among the 20 top finishers last year when Ben Hogan won at Los Angeles, get into the field automatically. Locke finished fourth in 1948 behind Jimmy Dmaret and Jim Turnesa. Snead was fifth.

Pitcher Ralph Branca of the Brooklyn Dodgers is studying for a singing career and has made several crooning appearances in theaters and on television.

Tonight's Games

R. Rapids at GREENVILLE Tarboro at Rocky Mount New Bern at Wilson Goldsboro at Kinston

The game with Kinston which was rained out over there last night will be played as a doubleheader on Sunday, June 5th, the next scheduled meeting between the two clubs. This means that for the next three Sundays the Greenies have doubleheaders—the first one will be here this coming Sunday when they meet the New Bern Bears, then on June 5 over in Kinston, and then on June 12 the Greenies meet the Rocky Mount Leafs in a twin bill here at Guy Smith Stadium.

It's a cinch a ball club can't win all of its games. It hasn't been done as yet, and it will probably be quite a spell before that feat is accomplished. Even Wake Forest, the home of the Southern Conference baseball giants, stumbled near the end of the road and had to be content with just a brilliant record instead of an undefeated one. The same can be applied to our Greenies. They ride along, winning games for several days running, then they drop one. Right then everyone wants to know: What's wrong? Like Wednesday night. The Greenies didn't look their best in having a six run rally made against them in the eighth frame by the Eagles. But on the other hand, can you think of a club that ever looked better on Monday night when they shut out the Rocky Mount Leafs 6 to 0. All teams have their ups and downs. One question which bothers a lot of folks is this: Why is it that when a hitting slump comes along, it strikes the whole club, right on down the lineup? Maybe it has something to do with mass psychology. I don't know. It's a fact, though, that a club will usually hit as a unit, or slump as a unit.

Fans are prone to breathe down the necks of the players when efforts don't produce herculean efforts day after day. After all, there is a limit to human performance, even on the athletic field. Give the folks a sample of brilliant play and they expect it every day from then on.

If Charlie Justice doesn't make a touchdown each time he carries the ball, they say: Who said he was an All-American? Or when Ted Williams strikes out, it's: How could he possibly be a batting champ?

But it's the uncertainty of the game that makes it a game. If a player came along who got a home run every time he came to the plate, he would spoil the fun. Eventually it would get monotonous.

Our Greenies will win games. But there's other good clubs in the league who will also win games. And there's other good clubs in the league who will win some of those contests from the Greenies. That is what makes for lively competition and it's also what makes good pennant races. What if Goldsboro got 20 games out front early in the season? Interest would disappear in the league, and the play would probably become listless.

As it is, the eighth place Tarboro Athletics are only eight games behind the top club in the league. The standings may change every day as the results of just one game. Think what a frenzy these baseball towns would be in when, say on Labor Day, these eight clubs have fought right down to the wire and find themselves separated by only a half game or game from first place right down to third or fourth?

And the only way they could ever arrive at such an exciting finish to the season is by beating each other not once but many times. They you have a playoff that's equal to none. And believe me, whoever finally emerges as champ in the league, will certainly deserve the title.

Walcott Starts Training Today

Momence, Ill., May 27—(AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott was slated to arrive at his Peaceful Valley Country Club training camp today to start training for his 15-round NBA heavyweight title bout with Ezzard Charles in Chicago's Comiskey Park June 22.

Charles, whose camp is only 12 miles from Walcott's headquarters, knocked out Charles Banks, Cincinnati, O., yesterday at the Sunset Hills Club, near here. Charles also boxed two rounds with Gene Jones and one round with Floyd Gibson.

Bull Lea led the sires of money-winning thoroughbreds in 1948 with his offspring winning $1,168,230.

Eliminated

Portmarnock, Ireland, May 27—(AP)—Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, was eliminated from the British Amateur Golf championship today by Sam McCready of London, 4 and 3.

The defending champion finished the first nine two down to the former RAF pilot and was never able to recover.

A cold wind which caused many of his long drives to sail into the deep rough contributed heavily to the "Strong Boy's" downfall. He took 40 strokes—three over par—going out.

Willie Turnesa, the American amateur champion, became the only American to reach the semi-finals as he defeated Mick Power of Ireland on the 19th hole.

Dutchman's Gulch lay sprawling beneath a quarter moon that covered its squalid ugliness with a veil of silver. In the gulch itself there was silence, but within its shadows men waited with the patience of cougars beside a game trail. They were grim men, selected for their courage and honesty and dependability. They were vigilantes.

Plain theft was common; miners had been waylaid and wounded or killed in the defense of their property; their shacks had been broken into at night and they had been robbed and murdered in their bunk beds. Ben Short, a Texas gunman, was paid a good salary to maintain order. It was too great a task for one man. So the inevitable happened: the honest citizens of Dutchman's Gulch had banded themselves together under the leadership of John Tyler for the purpose of doing

Where were you?" "Ridin' around enjoyin' the moonlight," sneered Gleason.

His defiant attitude antagonized the already enraged miners. "Let's string him up and be done with it!" cried one, and his shout was taken up by the others. They surged forward and laid their hands on Gleason.

They dragged the accused man outside, his struggles to free himself only infuriating them the more. His nerve broke then. "I'll tell where I was!" he cried. "I'll tell! Gimme a chance!"

Under the yells of the miners his pleas went unheard. Only when it was all over did silence fall, and in that silence they heard the furious pound of hoofs. In a matter of seconds the horseman was among them, reining up sharply and glaring about him. He was the marshal, Ben Short, and his eyes were blazing.

"What's this you've done?"

One of them answered. "Just a little chore we've saved you, Ben. Doug Gleason stabbed Will Parks in the back and stole his gold and we just strung him up."

Ben Short's voice was hard. "You fools! Doug Gleason never killed Parks. And that gold he had didn't come from Parks. I paid it to Doug for a blooded horse he was goin' to buy me."

He wheeled his horse and rode away leaving them sober and shocked and ashamed. Not one of them spoke; each man just got on his horse and left there with hanging head. Presently only John Tyler and his son remained with the little boy who sobbed on the porch beyond them.

John turned and went to the porch. For a moment he looked down on the huddled, pathetic figure there, then he leaned over and gathered the boy up in his arms. "You're takin' him along?" said Jeff.

John Tyler's voice shook with emotion. "God help us, we've orphaned him. We'll take him along and raise him like our own. And when I'm gone, you'll look after him and see that he never wants Jeff, swear that you will." Jeff swore it.

Commander Says 'Wear A Poppy'

All members of the American Legion were called upon to wear a poppy on Poppy Day Saturday, May 28, in a special message issued today by T. K. Fountain, commander of Pitt County Post No. 39 of the Legion. Urging that veterans of both world wars set an example of reverence for our war dead by wearing the memorial flower throughout the day, Commander Fountain said: "Passage of the years has not dimmed our memory of those comrades of ours who served by our sides and who gave their lives for America. Let us, then, show that we remember them and honor their sacrifice by wearing our memorial flower, the poppy, on Poppy Day. In this observance war veterans should set the example for all citizens.

"Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, our wives, mothers, sisters and daughters will distribute the flowers on the streets on Poppy Day and receive contributions for welfare work among needy veterans and veterans' children. Knowing as we do the great and growing need for this phase of Legion and Auxiliary activity, we should be as generous as our means will permit when receiving our poppies.

"Members of the American Legion should be among the first to put on poppies on Poppy Day and should give every cooperation to the Auxiliary toward making the observance of the day a complete success."

Charge Negro Youth With Voodoo Threat

Police are holding for investigation James Middle Sheppard, Negro, on complaint of Helen Moore and her sister, colored, who live on Bonner's Lane, that he had been molesting them. Police quoted the girl as saying that Sheppard had sprinkled a blue powder on her porch several times for the purpose of "voodooing" her.

Sawyer . . .

"More cautious business buying has produced significant declines in the production of some goods," he said. "Consumer buying also has been less urgent, although the aggregate physical quantity of goods being taken by consumers was approximately as large as in the fourth quarter of 1948."

Comics Lost

Five hundred Reflector readers will miss their colored comics supplement in the Saturday edition this week.

Part of the shipment was lost in transit and the shipping firm is now making an effort to trace the package. When found, disappointed readers will have their supplement inserted at the earliest possible date.

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, May 27—(AP)—The stock market saw-sawed along in slightly lower price territory today. Losses were small—few topped a point—and a wide variety of issues either remained at Thursday's closing levels or even tacked on small gains. Small losses, however, were enough to put a good handful of stocks at the bottom prices for the year. Turnover was at the rate of around 700,000 shares for the full session.
